SHOCKING EXPOSÉ OF COMMUNIST TEXTBOOK ON PSYCHO-POLITICAL WARFARE --- EVIDENCE OF ITS USE IN SCHOOLS ACROSS OUR NATION DISGUISED AS "PSYCHOLOGY!"

EDITORIAL NOTE

From May 2, 1936, to October 10, 1939, I was a dues-paying member of the Communist Party, operating under my own name Kenneth Goff, and also the alias John Keats. In 1939, I voluntarily appeared before the Un-American Activities Committee in Washington, D. C., which was chairmaned at that time by Martin Dies, and my testimony can be found in Volume 9 of that year's Congressional Report.

During the period that I was a member of the Communist Party, I attended their school which was located at 113 E. Wells St., Milwaukee, Wisconsin, and operated under the name Eugene Debs Labor School. Here we were trained in all phases of warfare, both psychological and physical, for the destruction of the Capitalistic society and Christian civilization. In one portion of our studies we went thoroughly into the matter of psychopolitics. This was the art of capturing the minds of a nation through brainwashing and fake mental health—the subjecting of whole nations of people to the rule of the Kremlin by the capturing of their minds. We were taught that the degradation of the populace is less inhuman than their destruction by bombs, for to an animal who lives only once any life is sweeter than death. The end of a war is the control of a conquered people. If a people can be conquered in the absence of war the end of the war will have been achieved without the destructions of war.

During the past few years I have noted with horror the increase of psychopolitical warfare upon the American public. First in the brainwashing of our boys in Korea, and then in the well-financed drive of mental health propaganda by left-wing pressure groups, wherein many of our states have passed Bills which can well be used by the enemies of America to subject to torture and imprisonment those who preach the gospel of our Lord and Saviour Jesus Christ, and who oppose the menace of Communism. A clear example of this can be seen in the Lucille Miller case. In this warfare the Communists have definitely stated: "You must recruit every agency of the nation marked for slaughter into a foaming hatred of religious healing."

Another example of the warfare that is being waged can be seen in the attempt to establish a mental Siberia in Alaska, which was called for in the Alaskan Mental Health Bill. A careful study of this Bill will make you see at once that the land set aside under the allotment could not be for that small territory, and the Bill within itself establishes such authority that it could be turned into a prison camp under the guise of mental health for everyone who raises their voice against Communism and the hidden government operating in our nation.

This book was used in underground schools, and contains the address of Beria to the American students in the Lenin University prior to 1936. The text in the book in general is from the Communist Manual of Instructions of Psychopolitical Warfare, and was used in America for the training of Communist cadre. The only revision in this book is the summary, which was added by the Communists after the atomic bomb came into being. In its contents you can see the diabolical plot of the enemies of Christ and America, as they seek to conquer our nation by subjecting the minds of our people to their will by various sinister means.

This manual of the Communist Party should be in the hands of every loyal American, that they may be alerted to the fact that it is not always by armies and guns that a nation is conquered.

AN ADDRESS BY BERIA

American students at the Lenin University, I welcome your attendance at these classes on Psychopolitics.

Psychopolitics is an important if less known division of Geo-politics. It is less known because it must necessarily deal with highly educated personnel, the very top strata of "mental healing."

By psychopolitics our chief goals are effectively carried forward. To produce a maximum of chaos in the culture of the enemy is our first most important step. Our fruits are grown in chaos, distrust, economic depression and scientific turmoil. At least a weary populace can seek peace only in our offered Communist State, at last only Communism can resolve the problems of the masses.

A psychopolitician must work hard to produce the maximum chaos in the fields of "mental healing." He must recruit and use all the agencies and facilities of "mental healing." He must labor to increase the personnel and facilities of "mental healing" until at last the entire field of mental science is entirely dominated by Communist principles and desires.

To achieve these goals the psychopolitician must crush every "home-grown" variety of mental healing in America. Actual teachings of James, Eddy and Pentecostal Bible faith healers amongst your misguided people must be swept aside. They must be discredited, defamed, arrested, stamped upon even by their own government until there is no credit in them and only Communist-oriented "healing" remains. You must work until every teacher of psychology unknowingly or knowingly teaches only Communist doctrine under the guise of "psychology." You must labor until every doctor and psychiatrist is either a psycho-politician or an unwitting assistant to our aims.

You must labor until we have dominion over the minds and bodies of every important person in your nation. You must achieve such disrepute for the state of insanity and such authority over its pronouncement that not one statesman so labeled could again be given credence by his people. You must work until suicide arising from mental imbalance is common and calls forth no general investigation or remark.

With the institutions for the insane you have in your country prisons which can hold a million persons and can hold them without civil rights or any hope of freedom. And upon these people can be practiced shock and surgery so that never again will they draw a sane breath. You must make these treatments common and accepted. And you must sweep aside any treatment or any group of persons seeking to treat by effective means.

You must dominate as respected men the fields of psychiatry and psychology. You must dominate the hospitals and universities. You must carry forward the myth that only a European doctor is competent in the field of insanity and thus excuse amongst you the high incidence of foreign birth and training. If and when we seize Vienna you shall have then a common ground of meeting and can come and take your instructions as worshippers of Freud along with other psychiatrists.

Psychopolitics is a solemn charge. With it you can erase our enemies as insects. You can cripple the efficiency of leaders by striking insanity into their families through the use of drugs. You can wipe them away with testimony as to their insanity. By our technologies you can even bring about insanity itself when they seem too resistive.

You can change their loyalties by psychopolitics. Given a short time with a psychopolitician you can alter forever the loyalty of a soldier in our hands or a statesman or a leader in his own country, or you can destroy his mind.

However you labor under certain dangers. It may happen that remedies for our "treatments" may be discovered. It may occur that a public hue and cry may arise against "mental healing." It may thus occur that all mental healing might be placed in the hands of ministers and be taken out of the hands of our psychologists and psychiatrists. But the Capitalistic thirst for control, Capitalistic inhumanity and a general public terror of insanity can be brought to guard against these things. But should they occur, should independent researchers actually discover means to undo psychopolitical procedures, you must not rest, you must not eat or sleep, you must not stint one tiniest bit of available money to campaign against it, discredit it, strike it down and render it void. For by an effective means all our actions and researches could be undone.

In a Capitalistic state you are aided on all sides by the corruption of the philosophy of man and the times. You will discover that everything will aid you in your campaign to seize, control and use all "mental healing" to spread our doctrine and rid us of our enemies within their own borders.

Use the courts, use the judges, use the Constitution of the country, use its medical societies and its laws to further our ends. Do not stint in your labor in this direction. And when you have succeeded you will discover that you can now effect your own legislation at will and you can, by careful organization of healing societies, by constant campaign about the terrors of society, by pretense as to your effectiveness make your Capitalist himself, by his own appropriations, finance a large portion of the quiet Communist conquest of the nation.

By psychopolitics create chaos. Leave a nation leaderless. Kill our enemies. And bring to Earth, through Communism, the greatest peace Man has ever known.

Thank you.

CHAPTER I

THE HISTORY AND DEFINITION OF PSYCHOPOLITICS

Although punishment for its own sake may not be entirely without recompense, it is, nevertheless, true that the end and goal of all punishment is the indoctrination of the person being punished with an idea, whether that idea be one of restraint or obedience.

In that any ruler has, from time beyond memory, needed the obedience of his subjects in order to accomplish his ends, he has thus resorted to punishment. This is true of every tribe and state in the history of Man. Today, Russian culture has evolved more certain and definite methods of aligning and securing the loyalties of persons and populiaces, and of enforcing obedience upon them. This modern outgrowth of old practice is called Psychopolitics.

The stupidity and narrowness of nations not blessed with Russian reasoning has caused them to rely upon practices which are, today, too ancient and out-moded for the rapid and heroic pace of our time. And in view of the tremendous advance of Russian Culture in the field of mental technologies, begun with the glorious work of Pavlov and carried forward so ably by later Russians, it would be strange that an art and science would not evolve totally devoted to the aligning of loyalties and extracting the obedience of individuals and multitudes.

Thus we see that psychopolitical procedures are a natural outgrowth of practices as old as Man, practices which are current in every group of men throughout the world. Thus, in psychopolitical procedures there is no ethical problem, since it is obvious and evident that Man is always coerced against his will to the greater good of the State, whether by economic gains or indoctrination into the wishes and desires of the State.

Basically, Man is an animal. He is an animal which has been given a civilized veneer. Man is a collective animal, grouped together for his own protection before the threat of the environment. Those who so group and control him must then have in their possession specialized techniques to direct the vagaries and energies of the animal Man toward greater efficiency in the accomplishment of the goals of the State.

Psychopolitics, in one form or another, have long been used in Russia, but the subject is all but unknown outside the borders of our nation, save only where we have carefully transplanted our information and where it is used for the greater good of the nation.

The definition of Psychopolitics follows.

Psychopolitics is the art and science of asserting and maintaining dominion over the thoughts and loyalties of individuals, officers, bureaus, and masses, and the effecting of the conquest of enemy nations through "mental healing."

The subject of Psychopolitics breaks down into several categories, each a natural and logical proceeding from the last. Its first subject is the constitution and anatomy of Man, himself, as a political organism. The next is an examination of Man as an economic organism, as this might be controlled by his desires. The next is classification of State goals for the individual and masses. The next is an examination of loyalties. The next is the general subject of obedience. The next is the anatomy of the stimulus-response mechanisms of Man. The next is the subjects of shock and endurance. The next is categories of experience. The next is the catalyzing and aligning of experience. The next is the use of drugs. The next is the use of implantation. The next is the general application of Psychopolitics within Russia. The next is the organization and use of counter-Psychopolitics. The next is the use of Psychopolitics in the conquest of foreign nations. The next is psychopolitical organizations outside Russia, their composition and activity. The next is the creation of slave philosophy in an hostile nation. The next is countering anti-psychopolitical activities abroad, and the final one, the destiny of psychopolitical rule in a scientific age. To this might be added many subcategories, such as the nullification of modern weapons by psychopolitical activity.

The strength and power of Psychopolitics cannot be overestimated, particularly when used in a nation decayed by pseudo-intellectualism, where exploitation of the masses combines readily with psychopolitical actions, and particularly where the greed of Capitalistic or Monarchical regimes has already brought about an overwhelming incidence of neurosis which can be employed as the groundwork for psychopolitical action and a psychopolitical corps.

It is part of your mission, student, to prevent psychopolitical activity to the detriment of the Russian State, just as it is your mission to carry forward in our nation and outside it, if you are so assigned, the missions and goals of Psychopolitics. No agent of Russia could be even remotely effective without a thorough grounding in Psychopolitics, and so you carry forward with you a Russian trust to use well what you are learning here.

PUBLISHER'S NOTE:

ALL UNDERSCORING of various passages has been added to emphasize the fact that certain of the practices taught in this authentic Communist textbook are already being used; or are being urged by various "pressure groups" attempting to influence our legislative bodies in our cities, states, and in our Nation's capitol.

The information contained in this book should be in the hands of every American citizen. We urge you, The Reader, to do your part in giving this book wide circulation.

CHAPTER II

THE CONSTITUTION OF MAN AS A POLITICAL ORGANISM

Man is already a colonial aggregation of cells, and to consider him an individual would be an error. Colonies of cells have gathered together as one organ or another of the body, and then these organs have, themselves, gathered together to form the whole. Thus we see that man, himself, is already a political organism, even if we do not consider a mass of men.

Sickness could be considered to be a disloyalty to the remaining organisms on the part of one organism. This disloyalty, becoming apparent, brings about a revolt of some part of the anatomy against the remaining whole, and thus we have, in effect, an internal revolution. The heart, becoming disaffected, falls away from close membership and service to the remainder of the organism, and we discover the entire body in all of its activities is disrupted because of the revolutionary activity of the heart. The heart is in revolt because it cannot or will not co-operate with the remainder of the body. If we permit the heart thus to revolt, the kidneys, taking the example of the heart, may in their turn rebel and cease to work for the good of the organism. This rebellion, multiplying to other organs and the glandular system, brings about the death of the "individual." We can see with ease that the revolt is death, that the revolt of any part of the organism results in death. Thus we see that there can be no compromise with rebellion.

Like the "individual" man, the State is a collection of aggregations. The political entities within the State must, all of them, co-operate for the greater good of the State lest the State itself fall asunder and die, for with the disaffection of any single distrust we discover an example set for other districts, and we discover, at length, the entire State falling. This is the danger of revolution.

Look at Earth. We see here one entire organism. The organism of Earth is an individual organism. Earth has as its organs the various races and nations of men. Where one of these is permitted to remain disaffected, Earth itself is threatened with death. The threatened rebellion of one country, no matter how small, against the total organism of Earth, would find Earth sick, and the cultural state of man to suffer in consequence. Thus, the putrescent illness of Capitalist States, spreading their pus and bacteria into the healthy countries of the world would not do otherwise than bring about the death of Earth, unless these ill organisms are brought into loyalty and obedience and made to function for the greater good of the world-wide State.

The constitution of Man is so composed that the individual cannot function efficiently without the alignment of each and every part and organ of his anatomy. As the average individual is incapable, in an unformed and uncultured state, as witness the barbarians of the jungle, so must he be trained into a co-ordination of his organic functions by exercise, education, and work toward specific goals. We particularly and specifically note that the individual must be directed from without to accomplish his exercise, education, and work. He must be made to realize this, for only then can he be made to function efficiently in the role assigned to him.

The tenets of rugged individualism, personal determinism, self-will, imagination, and personal creativeness are alike in the masses antipathetic to the good of the Greater State. These willful and unaligned forces are no more than illnesses which will bring about disaffection, disunity, and at length the collapse of the group to which the individual is attached.

The constitution of Man lends itself easily and thoroughly to certain and positive regulation from without of all of its functions, including those of thinkingness, obedience, and loyalty, and these things must be controlled if a greater State is to ensue.

While it may seem desirable to the surgeon to amputate one or another limb or organ in order to save the remainder, it must be pointed out that this expediency is not entirely possible of accomplishment where one considers entire nations. A body deprived of organs can be observed to be lessened in its effectiveness. The world deprived of the workers now enslaved by the insane and nonsensical idiocies of the Capitalists and Monarchs of Earth, would, if removed, create a certain disability in the world-wide State. Just as we see the victor forced to rehabilitate the population of a conquered country at the end of a war, thus any effort to depopulate a disaffected portion of the world might have some consequence. However, let us consider the inroad of virus and bacteria hostile to the organism, and we see that unless we can conquer the germ, the organ or organism which it is attacking will, itself, suffer.

In any State we have certain individuals who operate in the role of the virus and germ, and these, attacking the population or any group within the population, produce, by their self-willed greed, a sickness in the organ, which then generally spreads to the whole.

The constitution of Man as an individual body, or the constitution of a State or a portion of the State as a political organism are analogous. It is the mission of Psychopolitics first to align the obedience and goals of the group, and then maintain their alignment by the eradication of the effectiveness of the persons and personalities which might swerve the group toward disaffection. In our own nation, where things are better managed and where reason reigns above all else, it is not difficult to eradicate the self-willed bacteria which might attack one of our political entities. But in the field of conquest, in nations less enlightened, where the Russian State does not yet have power, it is not as feasible to remove the entire self-willed individual. Psychopolitics makes it possible to remove that part of his personality which, in itself, is making havoc with the person's own constitution as well as the group with which the person is connected.

If the animal man were permitted to continue undisturbed by counter-revolutionary propaganda, if he were left to work under the well-planned management of the State, we would discover little sickness amongst Man, and we would discover no sickness in the State. But where the individual is troubled by conflicting propaganda, where he is made the effect of revolutionary activities, where he is permitted to think thoughts critical of the State itself, where he is permitted to question of those in whose natural charge he falls, we would discover his constitution to suffer. We would discover, from this disaffection, the additional disaffection of his heart and of other portions of his anatomy. So certain is this principle that when one finds a sick individual, could one search deeply enough, he would discover a mis-aligned loyalty and an interrupted obedience to that person's group unit.

There are those who foolishly have embarked upon some spiritual Alice-in-Wonderland voyage into what they call the "subconscious" or the "unconscious" mind, and who, under the guise of "psychotherapy" would seek to make well the disaffection of body organs, but it is to be noted that their results are singularly lacking in success. There is no strength in such an approach. When hypnotism was first invented in Russia it was observed that all that was necessary was to command the unresisting individual to be well in order, many times, to accomplish that fact. The limitation of hypnotism was that many subjects were not susceptible to its uses, and thus hypnotism has had to be improved upon in order to increase the suggestibility of individuals who would not otherwise be reached. Thus, any nation has had the experience of growing well again, as a whole organism, when placing sufficient force in play against a disaffected group. Just as in hypnotism any organ can be commanded into greater loyalty and obedience, so can any political group be commanded into greater loyalty and obedience should sufficient force be employed. However, force often brings about destruction and it is occasionally not feasible to use broad mass force to accomplish the ends in view. Thus, it is necessary to align the individual against his desire not to conform.

Just as it is a recognized truth that Man must conform to his environment, so it is a recognized truth, and will become more so as the years proceed, that even the body of Man can be commanded into health.

The constitution of Man renders itself peculiarly adapted to re-alignment of loyalties. Where these loyalties are indigestible to the constitution of the individual itself, such as loyalties to the 'petit bourgeoisie,' the Capitalist, to anti-Russian ideas, we find the individual body peculiarly susceptible to sickness, and thus we can clearly understand the epidemics, illnesses, mass-neuroses, tumults and confusions of the United States and other capitalist countries. Here we find the worker improperly and incorrectly loyal, and thus we find the worker ill. To save him and establish him correctly and properly upon his goal toward a greater State, it is an overpowering necessity to make it possible for him to grant his loyalties in a correct direction. In that his loyalties are swerved and his obedience cravenly demanded by persons antipathetic to his general good, and in that these persons are few, even in a Capitalist nation, the goal and direction of Psychopolitics is clearly understood. To benefit the worker in such a plight, it is necessary to eradicate, by general propaganda, by other means, and by his own co-operation, and self-willedness of perverted leaders. It is necessary, as well, to indoctrinate the educated strata into the tenets and principles of co-operation with the environment, and thus to insure to the worker less-warped leadership, less-craven doctrine, and more co-operation with the ideas and ideals of the Communist State.

The technologies of Psychopolitics are directed to this end.

CHAPTER III

MAN AS AN ECONOMIC ORGANISM

Man is subject to certain desires and needs which are as natural to his beingness as they are to that of any other animal. Man, however, has the peculiarity of exaggerating some of these beyond the bounds of reason. This is obvious through the growth of leisure classes, pseudo-intellectual groups, the 'petit bourgeoisie,' Capitalism, and other ills.

It has been said, with truth, that one tenth of a man's life concerned with politics and nine-tenths with economics. Without food, the individual dies. Without clothing, he freezes. Without houses and weapons, he is prey to the starving wolves. The acquisition of sufficient items to answer these necessities of food, clothing, and shelter, in reason, is the natural right of a member of an enlightened State. An excess of such items brings about unrest and disquiet. The presence of luxury items and materials, and the artificial creation and whetting of appetites, as in Capitalist advertising, are certain to accentuate the less-desirable characteristics of Man.

The individual is an economic organism, in that he requires a certain amount of food, a certain amount of water, and must hold within himself a certain amount of heat in order to live. When he has more food than he can eat, more clothing than he needs to protect him, he then enters upon a certain idleness which dulls his wits and awareness, and makes him prey to difficulties which, in a less toxic state, he would have foreseen and avoided. Thus, we have a glut being a menace to the individual.

It is no less different in a group. Where the group acquires too much, its awareness of its own fellows and of the environment is accordingly reduced, and the effectiveness the group in general is lost.

The maintaining of a balance between gluttony and need is the province of Economics proper, and is the fit subject and concern of the Communist State.

Desire and want are a state of mind. Individuals can be educated into desiring and wanting more than they can ever possibly obtain, and such individuals are unhappy. Most of the self-willed characteristics of the Capitalists come entirely from greed. He exploits the worker far beyond any necessity on his own part, as a Capitalist, to need.

In a nation where economic balances are not controlled, the appetite of the individual is unduly whetted by enchanting and fanciful persuasions to desire, and a type of insanity ensues, where each individual is persuaded to possess more than he can use, and to possess it even at the expense of his fellows.

There is, in economic balances, the other side. Too great and too long privation can bring about unhealthy desires, which, in themselves, accumulate if left action, more than the individual can use. Poverty, itself, as carefully cultivated in Capitalist States, can bring about an imbalance of acquisition. Just as a vacuum will pull into it masses, in a country where enforced privation upon the masses is permitted, and where desire is artificially whetted, need turns to greed, and one easily discovers in such states exploitation of the many for the benefit of the few.

If one, by the technologies of Psychopolitics, were to dull this excessive greed in the few who possess it, the worker would be freed to seek a more natural balance.

Here we have two extremes. Either one of them are an insanity. If we wish to create an insanity we need only glut or deprive an individual at long length beyond the ability to withstand and we have a mental imbalance. A simple example of this is the alternation of too low with too high pressures in a chamber, an excellent psychopolitical procedure. The rapidly varied pressure brings about a chaos wherein the individual will cannot act and where other wills then, perforce, assume control.

Essentially, in an entire country, one must remove the greedy by whatever means and must then create and continue a semi-privation in the masses in order to command and utterly control the nation.

A continuous hope for prosperity must be indoctrinated in to the masses with many dreams and visions of glut of commodity and this hope must be counter-played against the actuality of privation and the continuous threat of loss of all economic factors in case of disloyalty to the State in order to suppress the individual wills of the masses.

In a nation under conquest such as America, our slow and stealthy approach need take advantage only of the cycles of booms and depressions inherent in Capitalistic nations in order to assert of more and more strong control over individual wills. A boom is as advantageous as a depression for our ends for during prosperity our propaganda lines must only continue to point up the wealth the period is delivering to the selected few to divorce their control of the state. During a depression one must only point out that it ensued as a result of the avarice of a few and the general political incompetence of the national leaders.

The handling of economic propaganda is not properly the sphere of psychopolitics but the psychopolitician must understand economic measures and Communist goals connected with them.

The masses must at last come to believe that only excessive taxation of the rich can relieve them of the "burdensome leisure class" and can thus be brought to accept such a thing as income tax, a Marxist principle smoothly slid into Capitalistic framework in 1909 in the United States. This even though the basic law of the United States forbade it and even though Communism at that time had been active only a few years in America. Such success as the Income Tax law, had it been followed thoroughly could have brought the United States and not Russia into the world scene as the first Communist nation. But the virility and good sense of the Russian peoples won. It may not be that the United States will become entirely Communist until past the middle of the century but when it does it will be because of our superior understanding of economics and of psychopolitics.

The Communist agent skilled in economics has as his task the suborning of tax agencies and their personnel to create the maximum disturbance and chaos and the passing of laws adapted to our purposes and to him we must leave this task. The psychopolitical operator plays a distinctly different role in this drama.

The rich, the skilled in finance, the well informed in government are particular and individual targets for the psychopolitician. His is the role of taking off the board those individuals who would halt or corrupt Communist economic programs. Thus every rich man, every statesman, every person well informed and capable in government must have brought to his side as a trusted confidant a psychopolitical operator.

The families of these persons are often deranged from idleness and glut and this fact must be played upon, even created. The normal health and wildness of a rich man's son must be twisted and perverted and explained into neurosis and then, assisted by a timely administration of drugs or violence, turned into criminality or insanity. This brings at once some one in "mental healing" into confidential contact with the family and from this point on the very most must then be made of that contact.

Communism could best succeed if at the side of every rich or influential man there could be placed a psychopolitical operator, an undoubted authority in the field of "mental healing" who could then by his advice or through the medium of a wife or daughter by his guided opinions direct the optimum policy to embroil or upset the economic policies of the country and, when the time comes to do away forever with the rich or influential man, to administer the proper drug or treatment to bring about his complete demise in an institution as a patient or dead as a suicide.

Planted beside a country's powerful persons the psychopolitical operator can also guide other policies to the betterment of our battle.

The Capitalist does not know the definition of war. He thinks of war as attack with force performed by soldiers and machines. He does not know that a more effective if somewhat longer war can be fought with bread or, in our case, with drugs and the wisdom of our art. The Capitalist has never won a war in truth. The psychopolitician is having little trouble winning this one.

CHAPTER IV

STATE GOALS FOR THE INDIVIDUAL AND MASSES

Just as we would discover an individual to be ill, whose organs, each one, had a different goal from the rest, so we discover the individuals and the State to be ill where goals are not rigorously codified and enforced.

There are those who, in less enlightened times, gave Man to believe that goals should be personally sought and held, and that, indeed, Man's entire impulse toward higher things stemmed from Freedom. We must remember that the same peoples who embraced this philosophy also continued in Man the myth of spiritual existence.

All goals proceed from duress. Life is a continuous escape. Without force and threat there can be no striving. Without pain there can be no desire to escape from pain. Without the threat of punishment there can be no gain. Without duress and command there can be no alignment of bodily functions. Without rigorous and forthright control, there can be no accomplished goals for the State.

Goals of the State should be formulated by the State for the obedience and concurrence of the individuals within that State. A State without goals so formulated is a sick State. A State without the power and forthright wish to enforce its goals is a sick State.

When an order is issued by the Communist State, and is not obeyed, a sickness will be discovered to ensue. Where obedience fails, the masses suffer.

State goals depend upon loyalty and obedience for their accomplishment. When one discovers a State goal to be interpreted, one discovers inevitably that there has been an interposition of self-willedness, of greed, of idleness, or of rugged individualism and self-centered initiative. The interruption of a State goal will be discovered as having been interrupted by a person whose disloyalty and disobedience is the direct result of his own mis-alignment with life.

It is not always necessary to remove the individual. It is possible to remove his self-willed tendencies to the improvement of the goals and gains of the whole. The technologies of Psychopolitics are graduated upon the scale which starts somewhat above the removal of the individual himself, upward toward the removal only of those tendencies which bring about his lack of co-operation.

It is not enough for the State to have goals. These goals, once put forward, depend for their completion upon the loyalty and obedience of the workers. These, engaged for the most part, in hard labors, have little time for idle speculation, which is good. But, above them, unfortunately, there must be foremen of one or another position, any one of whom might have sufficient idleness and lack of physical occupation to cause some disaffectioning independency in his conduct and behaviour.

Psychopolitics remedies this tendency toward disaffection when it exceeds the common persuasions of the immediate superiors of the person in question.

CHAPTER V

AN EXAMINATION OF LOYALTIES

If loyalty is so important in the economic and social structure, it is necessary to examine it further as itself.

In the field of Psychopolitics, loyalty means simply 'alignment.' It means, more fully, alignment with the goals of the Communist State. Disloyalty means entirely mis-alignment, and more broadly, mis-alignment with the goals of the Communist State.

When we consider that the goals of the Communist State are to the best possible benefit of the masses, we can see that disloyalty, as a term, can embrace Democratic alignment. Loyalty to persons not communistically indoctrinated would be quite plainly a mis-alignment.

The cure of disloyalty is entirely contained in the principles of alignment. All that it is necessary to do, where disloyalty is encountered, is to align the purposes of the individual toward the goals of Communism, and it will be discovered that a great many circumstances hitherto distasteful in his existence will cease to exist.

A heart, or a kidney in rebellion against the remainder of the organism is being disloyal to the remainder of the organism. To cure that heart or kidney it is actually only necessary to bring its activities into alignment with the remainder of the body.

The technologies of Psychopolitics adequately demonstrate the workability of this. Mild shock of the electric variety can, and does, produce the re-cooperation of a rebellious body organ. It is the shock and punishment of surgery which, in the main, accomplishes the re-alignment of a disaffected portion of the body, rather than the surgery itself. It is the bombardment of X-Rays, rather than the therapeutic value of X-Rays which causes some disaffected organ to once again turn its attention to the support of the general organism.

While it is not borne out that electric shock has any therapeutic value, so far as making the individual more sane, it is adequately brought out that its punishment value will create in the patient a greater co-operative attitude.

Brain surgery has no statistical data to recommend it beyond its removal of the individual personality from amongst the paths of organs which were not permitted to co-operate. These two Russian developments have never pretended to alter the state of sanity. They are only effective and workable in introducing an adequate punishment mechanism to the personality to make it cease and desist from its courses and egotistical direction of the anatomy itself. It is the violence of the electric shock and the surgery which is useful in subduing the recalcitrant personality, which is all that stands in the road of the masses or the State. It is occasionally to be discovered that the removal of the preventing personality by shock and surgery then permits the regrowth and re-establishment of organs which have been rebelled against by that personality. In that a well-regulated state is composed of organisms, not personalities, the use of electric shock and brain surgery in Psychopolitics is clearly demonstrated.

The changing of loyalty consists, in its primary step, of the eradication of existing loyalties. This can be done in one of two ways. First, by demonstrating that previously existing loyalties have brought about perilous physical circumstances, such as imprisonment, lack of recognition, duress, or privation, and second, by eradicating the personality itself.

The first is accomplished by a steady and continuous indoctrination of the individual in the belief that his previous loyalties have been granted to an unworthy source. One of the primary instances in this is creating circumstances which apparently derive from the target of his loyalties, so as to rebuff the individual. As part of this there is the creation of a state of mind in the individual, by actually placing him under duress, and then furnishing him with false evidence to demonstrate that the target of his previous loyalties is, itself, the course of the duress. Another portion of this same method consists of defaming or degrading the individual whose loyalties are to be changed to the target of his loyalties, i.e., superiors or government, to such a degree that this target, at length, actually does hold the individual in disrepute, and so does rebuff him and serve to convince him that his loyalties have been misplaced. These are the milder methods, but have proven extremely effective. The greatest drawback in their practice is that they require time and concentration, the manufacture of false evidence, and a psychopolitical operator's time.

In moments of expediency, of which there are many, the personality itself can be rearranged by shock, surgery, duress, privation, and in particular, that best of psychopolitical techniques, implantation, with the technologies of neo-hypnotism. Such duress must have in its first part a defamation of the loyalties, and in its second, the implantation of new loyalties. A good and experienced psychopolitical operator, working under the most favorable circumstances, can, by the use of psychopolitical technologies, alter the loyalties of an individual so deftly that his own companions will not suspect that they have changed. This, however, requires considerably more finesse than is usually necessary to the situation. Mass neo-hypnotism can accomplish more or less the same results when guided by an experienced psychopolitical operator. An end goal in such a procedure would be the alteration of the loyalties of an entire nation in a short period of time by mass neo-hypnotism, a thing which has been effectively accomplished among the less-useful states of Russia.

It is adequately demonstrated that loyalty is entirely lacking in that mythical commodity known as 'spiritual quality.' Loyalty is entirely a thing of dependence, economic or mental, and can be changed by the crudest implementations. Observation of workers in their factories or fields demonstrates that they easily grant loyalty to a foreman or a woman, and then as easily abandon it and substitute another individual, revulsing, at the same time, toward the person to whom loyalty was primarily granted. The queasy insecurity of the masses in Capitalistic nations finds this more common than in an enlightened State such as Russia. In Capitalistic states, dependencies are so craven, wants and privations are so exaggerated, that loyalty is entirely without ethical foundation and exists only in the realm of dependency, duress, or demand.

It is fortunate that Communism so truly approaches an ideal state of mind, for this brings a certain easiness into any changing of loyalties, since all other philosophies extant and practiced on Earth today are degraded and debased, compared to Communism. It is then with a certain security that a psychopolitical operator functions, for he knows that he can change the loyalty of an individual to a more ideal level by reason alone, and only expediency makes it necessary to employ the various shifts of psychopolitical technology. Any man who cannot be persuaded into Communist rationale is, of course, to be regarded as somewhat less than sane, and it is, therefore completely justified to use the techniques of insanity upon the non-Communist.

In order to change loyalty it is necessary to establish first the existing loyalties of the individual. The task is made very simple in view of the fact that Capitalistic and Fascistic nations have no great security in the loyalty of their subjects. And it may be found that the loyalties of the subjects, as we call any person against whom psychopolitical technology is to be exerted, are already too faint to require eradication. It is generally only necessary to persuade with the rationale and overwhelming reasonability of Communism to have the person grant his loyalty to the Russian State. However, regulated only by the importance of the subject, no great amount of time should be expended upon the individual, but emotional duress, or electric shock, or brain surgery should be resorted to, should Communist propaganda persuasion fail. In a case of a very important person, it may be necessary to utilize the more delicate technologies of Psychopolitics so as to place the person himself, and his associates, in ignorance of the operation. In this case a simple implantation is used, with a maximum duress and command value. Only the most skilled psychopolitical operator should be employed on such a project, as in this case of the very important person, for a bungling might disclose the tampering with his mental processes. It is much more highly recommended, if there is any doubt whatever about the success of an operation against an important person, to select out as a psychopolitical target persons in his vicinity in whom he is emotionally involved. His wife or children normally furnish the best targets, and these can be operated against without restraint. In securing the loyalty of a very important person one must place at his side a constant pleader who enters a sexual or familial chord into the situation on the side of Communism. It may not be necessary to make a Communist out of the wife, or the children, or one of the children, but it might prove efficacious to do so. In most instances, however, this is not possible. By the use of various drugs, it is, in this modern age, and well within the realm of psychopolitical reality, entirely too easy to bring about a state of severe neurosis or insanity in the wife or children, and thus pass them, with full consent of the important person, and the government in which he exists, or the bureau in which he is operating, into the hands of a psychopolitical operator, who then in his own laboratory, without restraint or fear of investigation or censor, can, with electric shock, surgery, sexual attack, drugs, or other useful means, degrade or entirely alter the personality of a family member, and create in that person a psychopolitical slave subject who, then, on command or signal, will perform outrageous actions, thus discrediting the important person, or will demand, on a more delicate level, that certain measures be taken by the important person, which measures are, of course, dictated by the psychopolitical operator.

Usually when the party has no real interest in the activities or decisions of the important person, but merely wishes to remove him from effective action, the attention of the psychopolitical operator need not be so intense, and the person need only be passed into the hands of some unwitting mental practitioner, who taught as he is by psychopolitical operators, will bring about sufficient embarrassment.

When the loyalty of an individual cannot be swerved, and where the opinion, weight, or effectiveness of the individual stands firmly in the road of Communist goals, it is usually best to occasion a mild neurosis in the person by any available means, and then, having carefully given him a history of mental imbalance, to see to it that he disposes of himself by suicide, or by bringing about his demise in such a way as to resemble suicide. Psychopolitical operators have handled such situations skillfully tens of thousands of times within and without Russia.

It is a firm principle of Psychopolitics that the person to be destroyed must be involved at first or second hand in the stigma of insanity, and must have been placed in contact with psychopolitical operators or persons trained by them, with a maximum amount of tumult and publicity. The stigma of insanity is properly placed at the door of such persons' reputations and is held there firmly by bringing about irrational acts, either on his own part or in his vicinity. Such an activity can be classified as a partial destruction of alignment, and if this destruction is carried forward to its furthest extent the mis-alignment on the subject of all loyalties can be considered to be complete, and alignment on new loyalties can be embarked upon safely. By bringing about insanity or suicide on the part of the wife of an important political personage, a sufficient mis-alignment has been instigated to change his attitude. And this, carried forward firmly, or assisted by psychopolitical implantation can begin the rebuilding of his loyalties, but now slanted in a more proper and fitting direction.

Another reason for the alignment of psychopolitical activities with the mis-alignment of insanity is that insanity, itself, is a despised and disgraced state, and anything connected with it is lightly viewed. Thus, a psychopolitical operator, working in the vicinity of an insane person, can refute and disprove any accusations made against him by demonstrating that the family itself is tainted with mental imbalance. This is surprisingly effective in Capitalistic countries where insanity is so thoroughly feared that no one would dream of investigating any circumstances in its vicinity. Psychopolitical propaganda works constantly and must work constantly to increase and build up this aura of mystery surrounding insanity, and must emphasize the horribleness and hopelessness of insanity in order to excuse non-therapeutic actions taken against the insane. Particularly in Capitalistic countries, an insane person has no rights under law. No person who is insane may hold property. No person who is insane may testify. Thus, we have an excellent road along which we can travel toward our certain goal and destiny.

Entirely by bringing about public conviction that the sanity of a person is in question, it is possible to discount and eradicate all of the goals and activities of that person. By demonstrating the insanity of a group, or even a government, it is possible, then, to cause its people to disavow it. By magnifying the general human reaction to insanity, through keeping the subject of insanity, itself, forever before the public eye, and then, by utilizing this reaction by causing a revulsion on the part of a populace against its leader or leaders, it is possible to stop any government or movement.

It is important to know that the entire subject of loyalty is thus as easily handled as it is. One of the first and foremost missions of the psychopolitician is to make an attack upon Communism and insanity synonymous. It should become the definition of insanity, of the paranoid variety, that "A paranoid believes he is being attacked by Communists." Thus, at once the support of the individual so attacking Communism will fall away and wither.

Instead of executing national leaders, suicide for them should be arranged under circumstances which question their demise. In this way we can select out all opposition to the Communist extension into the social orders of the world, and render populaces who would oppose us leaderless, and bring about a state of chaos or mis-alignment into which we can thrust, with great simplicity, the clear and forceful doctrines of Communism.

The cleverness of our attack in this field of Psychopolitics is adequate to avoid the understanding of the layman and the usual stupid official, and by operating entirely under the banner of authority, with the oft-repeated statement that the principles of psychotherapy are too devious for common understanding, an entire revolution can be effected without the suspicion of a populace until it is an accomplished fact.

As insanity is the maximum mis-alignment, it can be grasped to be the maximum weapon in severance of loyalties to leaders and old social orders. Thus, it is of the utmost importance that psychopolitical operatives infiltrate the healing arts of a nation marked for conquest, and bring from that quarter continuous pressure against the population and the government until at last the conquest is affected. This is the subject and goal of Psychopolitics, itself.

In rearranging loyalties we must have a command of their values. In the animal the first loyalty is to himself. This is destroyed by demonstrating errors to him, showing him that he does not remember, cannot act or does not trust himself. The second loyalty is to his family unit, his parents and brothers and sisters. This is destroyed by making a family unit economically non-dependent, by lessening the value of marriage, by making an easiness of divorce and by raising the children wherever possible by the State. The next loyalty is to his friends and local environment. This is destroyed by lowering his trust and bringing about reportings upon him allegedly by his fellows or the town or village authorities. The next is to the State and this, for the purposes of Communism, is the only loyalty which should exist once the state is founded as a Communist State. To destroy loyalty to the State all manner of forbiddings for youth must be put into effect so as to disenfranchise them as members of the Capitalist state and, by promises of a better lot under Communism, to gain their loyalty to a Communist movement.

Denying a Capitalist country easy access to courts, bringing about and supporting propaganda to destroy the home, creating and continuous juvenile delinquency, forcing upon the state all manner of practices to divorce the child from it will in the end create the chaos necessary to Communism.

Under the saccharine guise of assistance to them, rigorous child labor laws are the best means to deny the child any right in the society. By refusing to let him earn, by forcing him into unwanted dependence upon a grudging parent, by making certain in other channels that the parent is never in other than economic stress, the child can be driven in his teens into revolt. Delinquency will ensue.

By making readily available drugs of various kinds, by giving the teen-ager alcohol, by praising his wildness, by stimulating him with sex literature and advertising to him or her practices as taught at the Sexpol, the psychopolitical operator can create the necessary attitude of chaos, idleness and worthlessness into which can then be cast the solution which will give the teen-ager complete freedom everywhere —Communism.

Should it be possible to continue conscription beyond any reasonable time by promoting unpopular wars and other means the draft can always stand as a further barrier to the progress of youth in life, destroying any immediate hope to participate in his nation's civil life.

By these means the patriotism of youth for their Capitalistic flag can be dulled to a point where they are no longer dangerous as soldiers. While this might require many decades to effect, Capitalism's short term view will never envision the lengths across which we can plan.

If we could effectively kill the national pride and patriotism of just one generation we will have won that country. Therefore there must be continual propaganda abroad to undermine the loyalty of the citizens in general and the teen ager in particular.

The role of the psychopolitical operator in this is very strong. He can, from his position as an authority on the mind, advise all manner of destructive measures. He can teach the lack of control of this child at home. He can instruct, in an optimum situation, the entire nation in how to handle children—and instruct them so that the children, given no control, given no real home, can run wildly about with no responsibility for their nation or themselves.

The mis-alignment of the loyalty of youth to a Capitalistic nation sets the proper stage for a realignment of their loyalties with Communism. Creating a greed for drugs, sexual misbehavior and uncontrolled freedom and presenting this to them as a benefit of Communism will with ease bring about our alignment.

In the case of strong leaders amongst youthful groups, a psychopolitical operator can work in many ways to use or discard that leadership. If it is to be used, the character of the girl or boy must be altered carefully into criminal channels and a control by blackmail or other means must be maintained. But where the leadership is not susceptible, where it resists all persuasions and might become dangerous to our Cause, no pains must be spared to direct the attention of the authorities to that person and to harrass him in one way or another until he can come into the hands of juvenile authorities. When this has been effected it can be hoped that a psychopolitical operator, by reason of child advisor status, can, in the security of the jail and cloaked by processes of law, destroy the sanity of that person. Particularly brilliant scholars, athletes and youth group leaders must be handled in either one of these two ways.

In the matter of guiding the activities of juvenile courts, the psychopolitical operator entertains here one of his easier tasks. A Capitalistic nation is so filled with injustice in general that a little more passes without comment. In juvenile courts there are always persons with strange appetites whether these be judges or police men or women. If such do not exist they can be created. By making available to them young girls or boys in the "security" of the jail or the detention home and by appearing with flash cameras or witnesses one becomes equipt with a whip adequate to direct all the future decisions of that person when these are needed.

The handling of youth cases by courts should be led further and further away from law and further and further into "mental problems" until the entire nation thinks of "mental problems" instead of criminals. This places vacancies everywhere in the courts, in the offices of district attorneys, on police staffs which could then be filled with psychopolitical operators and these become then the judges of the land by their influence and into their hands comes the total control of the criminal, without whose help a revolution cannot ever be accomplished.

By stressing this authority over the problems of youth and adults in courts one day the demand for psychopolitical operators could become such that even the armed services will use "authorities on the mind" to work their various justices and when this occurs the armed forces of the nation then enter into our hands as solidly as if we commanded them ourselves. With the slight bonus of having thus a skilled interrogator near every technician or handler of secret war apparatus, the country, in event of revolution, as did Germany in 1918 and 1919 will find itself immobilized by its own Army and Navy fully and entirely in Communist hands.

Thus the subject of loyalties and their re-alignment is in fact the subject of non-armed conquest of an enemy.

CHAPTER VI

THE GENERAL SUBJECT OF OBEDIENCE

Obedience is the result of force.

Everywhere we look in the history of Earth we discover that obedience to new rulers has come about entirely through the demonstration on the part of those rulers of greater force than was to be discovered in the old ruler. A population overriden, conquered by war, is obedient to its conqueror. It is obedient to its conqueror because its conqueror has exhibited more force.

Concurrent with force is brutality, for there are human considerations involved which also represent force. The most barbaric, unrestrained, brutal use of force, if carried far enough, invokes obedience. Savage force, sufficiently long displayed toward any individual, will bring about his concurrence with any principle or order.

Force is the antithesis of humanizing actions. It is so synonymous in the human mind with savageness, lawlessness, brutality, and barbarism, that it is only necessary to display an inhuman attitude toward people, to be granted by those people the possession of force.

Any organization which has the spirit and courage to display inhumanity, savageness, brutality, and an uncompromising lack of humanity, will be obeyed. Such a use of force is, itself, the essential ingredient of greatness. We have to hand no less an example than our great Communist Leaders, who, in moments of duress and trial, when faced by Czarist rule, continued over the heads of an enslaved populace, yet displayed sufficient courage never to stay their hands in the execution of the conversion of the Russian State to Communist rule.

If you would have obedience you must have no compromise with humanity. If you would have obedience you must make it clearly understood that you have no mercy. Man is an animal. He understands, in the final analysis, only those things which a brute understands.

As an example of this, we find an individual refusing to obey and being struck. His refusal to obey is now less vociferous. He is struck again, and his resistance is lessened once more. He is hammered and pounded again and again, until, at length, his only thought is direct and implicit obedience to that person from whom the force has emanated. This is a proven principle. It is proven because it is the main principle Man, the animal, has used since his earliest beginnings. It is the only principle which has been effective, the only principle which has brought about a wide and continued belief. For it is to our benefit that an individual who is struck again, and again, and again from a certain source, will, at length, hypnotically believe anything he is told by the source of the blows.

The stupidity of Western civilizations is best demonstrated by the fact that they believe hypnotism is a thing of the mind, of attention, and a desire for unconsciousness. This is not true. Only when a person has been beaten, punished, and mercilessly hammered, can hypnotism upon him be guaranteed in its effectiveness. It is stated by Western authorities on hypnosis that only some twenty percent of the people are susceptible to hypnotism. This statement is very untrue. Given enough punishment, all of the people in any time and place are susceptible to hypnotism. In other words, by adding force, hypnotism is made uniformly effective. Where unconsciousness could not be induced by simple concentration upon the hypnotist, unconsciousness can be induced by drugs, by blows, by electric shock, and by other means. And where unconsciousness cannot be induced so as to make an implantation or an hypnotic command effective, it is only necessary to amputate the functioning portions of the animal man's brain to render him null and void and no longer a menace. Thus, we find that hypnotism is entirely effective.

The mechanisms of hypnotism demonstrate clearly that people can be made to believe in certain conditions, and even in their environment or in politics, by the administration of force. Thus, it is necessary for a psychopolitician to be an expert in the administration of forces. Thus, he can bring about implicit obedience, not only on the part of individual members of the populace, but on the entire populace itself and its government. He need only take unto himself a sufficiently savage role, a sufficiently uncompromising inhuman attitude, and he will be obeyed and believed.

The subject of hypnotism is a subject of belief. What can people be made to believe? They can be made to believe anything which is administered to them with sufficient brutality and force. The obedience of a populace is as good as they will believe.

Despicable religions, such as Christianity, knew this. They knew that if enough faith could be brought into being a populace could be enslaved by the Christian mockeries of humanity and mercy, and thus could be disarmed. But one need not count upon this act of faith to bring about a broad belief. One must only exhibit enough force, enough inhumanity, enough brutality and savageness to create implicit belief and therefore and thereby implicit obedience. As Communism is a matter of belief, its study is a study of force.

The earliest Russian psychiatrists, pioneering this science of psychiatry, understood thoroughly that hypnosis is induced by acute fear. They discovered it could also be induced by shock of an emotional nature, and also by extreme privation, as well as by blows and drugs.

In order to induce a high state of hypnogogy in an individual, a group, or a population, an element of terror must always be present on the part of those who would govern. The psychiatrist is aptly suited to this role, for his brutalities are committed in the name of science and are inexplicably complex, and entirely out of view of the human understanding. A sufficient popular terror of the psychiatrist will, in itself, bring about insanity on the part of many individuals. A psychopolitical operative, then, can, entirely cloaked with authority, commence and continue a campaign of propaganda, describing various "treatments" which are administered to the insane. A psychopolitical operative should at all times insist that these treatments are therapeutic and necessary. He can, in all of his literature and his books, list large numbers of pretended cures by these means. But these "cures" need not actually produce any recovery from a state of disturbance. As long as the psychopolitical operative or his dupes are the only authorities as to the difference between sanity and insanity, their word as to the therapeutic value of such treatment will be the final word. No layman would dare adventure to place judgment upon the state of sanity of an individual whom the psychiatrist has already declared insane. The individual, himself, is unable to complain, and his family, as will be covered later, is already discredited by the occurrence of insanity in their midst. There must be no other adjudicators of insanity, otherwise it could be disclosed that the brutalities practiced in the name of treatment are not therapeutic.

A psychopolitical operative has no interest in "therapeutic means" or "cures." The greater number of insane in the country where he is operating, the larger number of the populace will come under his view, and the greater will become his facilities. Because the problem is apparently mounting into uncontrollable heights, he can more and more operate in an atmosphere of emergency, which again excuses his use of such treatments as electric shock, the pre-frontal lobotomy, trans-orbital leucotomy, and other operations long-since practiced in Russia on political prisoners.

It is to the interest of the psychopolitical operative that the possibility of curing the insane be outlawed and ruled out at all times. For the sake of obedience on the part of the population and their general reaction, a level of brutality must, at all costs, be maintained. Only in this way can the absolute judgment of the psychopolitical operative as to the sanity or insanity of public figures be maintained in complete belief. Using sufficient brutality upon their patients, the public at large will come to believe utterly anything they say about their patients. Furthermore, and much more important, the field of the mind must be sufficiently dominated by the psychopolitical operative, so that wherever tenets of the mind are taught they will be hypnotically believed. The psychopolitical operative, having under his control all psychology classes in an area, can thus bring about a complete reformation of the future leaders of a country in their educational processes, and so prepare them for Communism.

To be obeyed, one must be believed. If one is sufficiently believed, one will unquestioningly be obeyed.

When he is fortunate enough to obtain into his hands anyone near to a political or important figure, this factor of obedience becomes very important. A certain amount of fear or terror must be engendered in the person under treatment so that this person will then take immediate orders, completely and unquestioningly, from the psychopolitical operative, and so be able to influence the actions of that person who is to be reached.

Bringing about this state of mind on the part of a populace and its leaders—that a psychopolitical operative must, at all times, be believed—could eventually be attended by very good fortune. It is not too much to hope that psychopolitical operatives would then, in a country such as the United States, become the most intimate advisors to political figures, even to the point of advising the entirety of a political party as to its actions in an election.

The long view is the important view. Belief is engendered by a certain amount of fear and terror from an authoritative level, and this will be followed by obedience.

The general propaganda which would best serve Psychopolitics would be a continual insistence that certain authoritative levels of healing, deemed this or that the correct treatment of insanity. These treatments must always include a certain amount of brutality. Propaganda should continue and stress the rising incidence of insanity in a country. The entire field of human behaviour, for the benefit of the country, can, at length, be broadened into abnormal behaviour. Thus, anyone indulging in any eccentricity, particularly the eccentricity of combatting psychopolitics, could be silenced by the authoritative opinion on the part of a psychopolitical operative that he was acting in an abnormal fashion. This, with some good fortune, could bring the person into the hands of the psychopolitical operative so as to forever more disable him, or to swerve his loyalties by pain-drug hypnotism.

On the subject of obedience itself, the most optimum obedience is unthinking obedience. The command given must be obeyed without any rationalizing on the part of the subject. The command must, therefore, be implanted below the thinking processes of the subject to be influenced, and must react upon him in such a way as to bring no mental alertness on his part.

It is in the interest of Psychopolitics that a population be told that an hypnotized person will not do anything against his actual will, will not commit immoral acts, and will not act so as to endanger himself. While this may be true of light, parlour hypnotism, it certainly is not true of commands implanted with the use of electric shock, drugs, or heavy punishment. It is counted upon completely that this will be discredited to the general public by psychopolitical operatives, for if it were to be generally known that individuals would obey commands harmful to themselves, and would commit immoral acts while under the influence of deep hypnotic commands, the actions of many people, working unknowingly in favor of Communism, would be too-well understood. People acting under deep hypnotic commands should be acting apparently of their own volition and out of their own convictions.

The entire subject of psychopolitical hypnosis, Psychopolitics in general, depends for its defense upon continuous protest from authoritative sources that such things are not possible. And, should anyone unmask a psychopolitical operative, he should at once declare the whole thing a physical impossibility, and use his authoritative position to discount any accusation. Should any writings of Psychopolitics come to view, it is only necessary to brand them a hoax and laugh them out of countenance. Thus, psychopolitical activities are easy to defend.

When psychopolitical activities have reached a certain peak, from there on it is almost impossible to undo them, for the population is already under the duress of obedience to the psychopolitical operatives and their dupes. The ingredient of obedience is important, for the complete belief in the psychopolitical operative renders his statement cancelling any challenge about psychopolitical operations irrefutable. The optimum circumstances would be to occupy every position which would be consulted by officials on any question or suspicion arising on the subject of Psychopolitics. Thus, a psychiatric advisor should be placed near to hand in every government operation. As all suspicions would then be referred to him, no action would ever be taken, and the goal of Communism could be realized in that nation.

Psychopolitics depends, from the viewpoint of the layman, upon its fantastic aspects. These are its best defense, but above all these defenses is implicit obedience on the part of officials and the general public, because of the character of the psychopolitical operative in the field of healing.

CHAPTER VII

ANATOMY OF STIMULUS-RESPONSE MECHANISMS OF MAN

Man is a stimulus-response animal. His entire reasoning capabilities, even his ethics and morals, depend upon stimulus-response machinery. This has long been demonstrated by such Russians as Pavlov, and the principles have long been used in handling the recalcitrant, in training children, and in bringing about a state of optimum behaviour on the part of a population.

Having no independent will of his own, Man is easily handled by stimulus-response mechanisms. It is only necessary to install a stimulus into the mental anatomy of Man to have that stimulus reactivate and respond any time an exterior command source calls it into being.

The mechanisms of stimulus-response are easily understood. The body takes pictures of every action in the environment around an individual. When the environment includes brutality, terror, shock, and other such activities, the mental image picture gained contains in itself all the ingredients of the environment. If the individual, himself, was injured during that moment, the injury, itself, will remanifest when called upon to respond by an exterior command source.

As an example of this, if an individual is beaten, and is told during the entirety of the beating that he must obey certain officials, he will, in the future, feel the beginnings of the pain the moment he begins to disobey. The installed pain, itself, reacts as a policeman, for the experience of the individual demonstrates to him that he cannot combat, and will receive pain from, certain officials.

The mind can become very complex in its stimulus responses. As easily demonstrated in hypnotism, an entire chain of commands, having to do with a great many complex actions, can be beaten, shocked, or terrorized into a mind, and will there lie dormant until called into view by some similarity in the circumstances of the environment to the incident of punishment.

The stimulus we call the "incident of punishment" where the response mechanism need only contain some small part of the stimulus to call into view the mental image picture, and cause it to exert against the body, the pain sequence. So long as the individual obeys the picture, or follows the commands of the stimulus implantation he is free from pain.

The behaviour of children is regulated in this fashion in every civilized country. The father, finding himself unable to bring about immediate obedience and training on the part of his child, resorts to physical violence, and after administering punishment of a physical nature to the child on several occasions, is gratified to experience complete obedience on the part of the child each time the father speaks. In that parents are wont to be lenient with their children, they seldom administer sufficient punishment to bring about entirely optimum obedience. The ability of the organism to withstand punishment is very great. Complete and implicit response can be gained only by stimuli sufficiently brutal to actually injure the organism. The Kossack method of breaking wild horses is a useful example. The horse will not restrain itself or take any of its rider's commands. The rider, wishing to break it, mounts, and takes a flask of strong Vodka, and smashes it between the horse's ears. The horse, struck to its knees, its eyes filled with alcohol, mistaking the dampness for blood, instantly and thereafter gives its attention to the rider and never needs further breaking. Difficulty in breaking horses is only occasioned when light punishments are administered. There is some mawkish sentimentality about "breaking the spirit," but what is desired here is an obedient horse, and sufficient brutality brings about an obedient horse.

The stimulus-response mechanisms of the body are such that the pain and the command subdivide so as to counter each other. The mental image picture of the punishment will not become effective upon the individual unless the command content is disobeyed. It is pointed out in many early Russian writings that this is a survival mechanism. It has already been well and thoroughly used in the survival of Communism.

It is only necessary to deliver into the organism a sufficient stimulus to gain an adequate response.

So long as the organism obeys the stimulus whenever it is restimulated in the future, it does not suffer from the pain of the stimulus. But should it disobey the command content of the stimulus, the stimulus reacts to punish the individual. Thus, we have an optimum circumstance, and one of the basic principles of Psychopolitics. A sufficiently installed stimulus will thereafter remain as a police mechanism within the individual to cause him to follow the commands and directions given to him. Should he fail to follow these commands and directions, the stimulus mechanism will go into action. As the commands are there with the moment of duress, the commands themselves need never be repeated, and if the individual were to depart thousands of miles away from the psychopolitical operative, he will still obey the psychopolitical operative, or, himself, become extremely ill and in agony. These principles, built from the earliest days of Pavlov, by constant and continuous Russian development, have, at last, become of enormous use to us in our conquest. For less modern and well-informed countries of Earth, lacking this mechanism, failing to understand it, and coaxed into somnolence by our own psychopolitical operatives, who discount and disclaim it, cannot avoid succumbing to it.

The body is less able to resist a stimulus if it has insufficient food and is weary. Therefore, it is necessary to administer all such stimuli to individuals when their ability to resist has been reduced by privation and exhaustion. Refusal to let them sleep over many days, denying them adequate food, then brings about an optimum state for the receipt of a stimulus. If the person is then given an electrical shock, and is told while the shock is in action that he must obey and do certain things, he has no choice but to do them, or to re-experience, because of his mental image picture of it, the electric shock. This highly scientific and intensely workable mechanism cannot be over-estimated in the practice of psychopolitics.

Drugging the individual produces an artificial exhaustion, and if he is drugged, or shocked and beaten, and given a string of commands, his loyalties, themselves, can be definitely rearranged. This is P.D.H., or Pain-Drug Hypnosis.

The psychopolitical operative in training should be thoroughly studied in the subject of hypnotism and post-hypnotic suggestion. He should pay particular attention to the "forgetter mechanism" aspect of hypnotism, which is to say, implantation in the unconscious mind. He should note particularly that a person given a command in an hypnotic state, and then told when still in that condition to forget it, will execute it on a stimulus-response signal in the environment after he has "awakened" from his hypnotic trance.

Having mastered these details fully, he should, by practicing upon criminals and prisoners, or inmates available to him, produce the hypnotic trance by durgs, and drive home post-hypnotic suggestions by pain administered to the drugged person. He should then study the reactions of the person when "awakened," and should give him the stimulus-response signal which would throw into action the commands given while in a drugged state of duress. By much practice he can then learn the threshold dosages of various drugs, and the amount of duress in terms of electric shock or additional drug shock necessary to produce the optimum obedience to the commands. He should also satisfy himself that there is no possible method known to Man—there must be no possible method known to Man—of bringing the patient into awareness of what has happened to him, keeping him in a state of obedience and response while ignorant of its cause.

Using criminals and prisoners, the psychopolitical operative in training should then experiment with duress in the absence of privation, administering electric shocks, beatings, and terror-inducing tactics, accompanied by the same mechanisms as those employed in hypnotism, and watch the conduct of the person when no longer under duress.

The operative in training should carefully remark those who show a tendency to protest, so that he may recognize possible recovery of memory of the commands implanted. Purely for his own education, he should then satisfy himself as to the efficacy of brain surgery in disabling the non-responsive prisoner.

The boldness of the psychopolitical operative can be increased markedly by permitting persons who have been given pain-drug hypnosis and who have demonstrated symptoms of rebelling or recalling into the society to observe how the label of "insanity" discredits and discounts the statements of the person.

Exercises in bringing about insanity seizures at will, simply by demonstrating a signal to persons upon whom pain-drug hypnosis has been used, and exercises in making the seizures come about through talking to certain persons in certain places and times should also be used.

Brain surgery, as developed in Russia, should also be practiced by the psychopolitical operative in training, to give him full confidence in 1) the crudeness with which it can be done, 2) the certainty of erasure of the stimulus-response mechanism itself, 3) the production of imbecility, idiocy, and dis-cordination on the part of the patient, and 4) the small amount of comment which casualties in brain surgery occasion.

Exercises in sexual attack on patients should be practiced by the psychopolitical operative to demonstrate the inability of the patient under pain-drug hypnosis to recall the attack, while indoctrinating a lust for further sexual activity on the part of the patient. Sex, in all animals, is a powerful motivator, and is no less so in the animal Man, and the occasioning of sexual liaison between females of a target family and indicated males, under the control of the psychopolitical operative, must be demonstrated to be possible with complete security for the psychopolitical operative, thus giving into his hands an excellent weapon for the breaking down of familial relations and consequent public disgraces for the psychopolitical target.

Just as a dog can be trained, so can a man be trained. Just as a horse can be trained, so can a man be trained. Sexual lust, masochism, and any other desirable perversion can be induced by pain-drug hypnosis and the benefit of Psychopolitics.

The changes of loyalties, allegiances, and sources of command can be occasioned easily by psychopolitical technologies, and these should be practiced and understood by the psychopolitical operative before he begins to tamper with psychopolitical targets of magnitude.

The actual simplicity of the subject of pain-drug hypnosis, the use of electric shock, drugs, insanity-producing injections, and other materials, should be masked entirely by technical nomenclature, the protest of benefit to the patient, by an authoritarian pose and position, and by carefully cultivating governmental positions in the country to be conquered.

Although the psychopolitical operative working in universities where he can direct the curricula of psychology classes is often tempted to teach some of the principles of Psychopolitics to the susceptible students in the psychology classes, he must be thoroughly enjoined to limit his information in psychology classes to the transmittal of the tenets of Communism under the guise of psychology, and must limit his activities in bringing about a state of mind on the part of the students where they will accept Communist tenets as those of their own action and as modern scientific principles. The psychological operative must not, at any time, educate students fully in stimulus-response mechanisms, and must not impart to them, save those who will become his fellow-workers, the exact principles of Psychopolitics. It is not necessary to do so, and it is dangerous.

CHAPTER VIII

DEGRADATION, SHOCK AND ENDURANCE

Degradation and conquest are companions.

In order to be conquered, a nation must be degraded, either by acts of war, by being overrun, by being forced into humiliating treaties of peace, or by the treatment of her populace under the armies of the conqueror. However, degradation can be accomplished much more insidiously and much more effectively by consistent and continual defamation.

Defamation is the best and foremost weapon of Psychopolitics on the broad field. Continual and constant degradation of national leaders, national institutions, national practices, and national heroes must be systematically carried out, but this is the chief function of Communist Party Members, in general, not the psychopolitician.

The realm of defamation and degradation, of the psychopolitician, is Man himself. By attacking the character and morals of Man himself, and by bringing about, through contamination of youth, a general degraded feeling, command of the populace is facilitated to a very marked degree.

There is a curve of degradation which leads downward to a point where the endurance of an individual is almost at end, and any sudden action toward him will place him in a state of shock. Similarly, a soldier held prisoner can be abused, denied, defamed, and degraded until the slightest motion on the part of his captors will cause him to flinch. Similarly, the slightest word on the part of his captors will cause him to obey, or vary his loyalties and beliefs. Given sufficient degradation, a prisoner can be caused to murder his fellow countrymen in the same stockade. Experiments on German prisoners have lately demonstrated that only after seventy days of filthy food, little sleep, and nearly untenable quarters, that the least motion toward the prisoner would bring about a state of shock beyond his endurance threshold, and would cause him to hypnotically receive anything said to him. Thus, it is possible, in an entire stockade of prisoners, to the number of thousands, to bring about a state of complete servile obedience, and without the labor of personally addressing each one, to pervert their loyalties and implant in them adequate commands to insure their future conduct, even when released to their own people.

By lowering the endurance of a person, a group, or a nation, and by constant degradation and defamation, it is possible to induce, thus, a state of shock which will receive adequately any command given.

The first thing to be degraded in any nation is the state of Man, himself. Nations which have high ethical tone are difficult to conquer. Their loyalties are hard to shake, their allegiance to their leaders is fanatical, and what they usually call their spiritual integrity cannot be violated by duress. It is not efficient to attack a nation in such a frame of mind. It is the basic purpose of Psychopolitics to reduce that state of mind to a point where it can be ordered and enslaved. Thus, the first target is Man, himself. He must be degraded from a spiritual being to an animalistic reaction pattern. He must think of himself as an animal, capable only of animalistic reactions. He must no longer think of himself, or of his fellows, as capable of "spiritual endurance," or nobility.

The best approach toward degradation in its first stages is the propaganda of "scientific approach" to Man. Man must be consistently demonstrated to be a mechanism without individuality, and it must be educated into a populace under attack that Man's individualistic reactions are the product of mental derangement. The populace must be brought into the belief that every individual within it who rebels in any way, shape, or form against efforts and activities to enslave the whole, must be considered to be a deranged person whose eccentricities are neurotic or insane, and who must have at once the treatment of a psychopolitician.

An optimum condition in such a program of degradation would address itself to the military forces of the nation, and bring them rapidly away from any other belief than that the disobedient one must be subjected to "mental treatment." An enslavement of a population can fail only if these rebellious individuals are left to exert their individual influences upon their fellow citizens, sparking them into rebellion, calling into account their nobilities and freedoms. Unless these restless individuals are stamped out and given into the hands of psychopolitical operatives early in the conquest, there will be nothing but trouble as the conquest continues.

The officials of the government, students, readers, partakers of entertainment, must all be indoctrinated, by whatever means, into the complete belief that the restless, the ambitions, the natural leaders, are suffering from environmental maladjustments, which can only be healed by recourse to psychopolitical operatives in the guise of mental healers.

By thus degrading the general belief in the status of Man it is relatively simple, with co-operation from the economic salients being driven into the country, to drive citizens apart, one from another, to bring about a question of the wisdom of their own government, and to cause them to actively beg for enslavement.

The educational programs of Psychopolitics must, at every hand, seek out the levels of youth who will become the leaders in the country's future, and educate them into the belief of the animalistic nature of Man. This must be made fashionable. They must be taught to frown upon ideas, upon individual endeavor. They must be taught, above all things, that the salvation of Man is to be found only by his adjusting thoroughly to this environment.

This educational program in the field of Psychopolitics can best be followed by bringing about a compulsory training in some subject such as psychology or other mental practice, and ascertaining that each broad program of psychopolitical training be supervised by a psychiatrist who is a trained psychopolitical operative.

As it seems in foreign nations that the church is the most ennobling influence, each and every branch and activity of each and every church, must, one way or another, be discredited. Religion must become unfashionable by demonstrating broadly, through psychopolitical indoctrination, that the soul is non-existent, and that Man is an animal. The lying mechanisms of Christianity lead men to foolishly brave deeds. By teaching them that there is a life hereafter, the liability of courageous acts, while living, is thus lessened. The liability of any act must be markedly increased if a populace is to be obedient. Thus, there must be no standing belief in the church, and the power of the church must be denied at every hand.

The psychopolitical operative, in his program of degradation, should at all times bring into question any family which is deeply religious, and, should any neurosis or insanity be occasioned in that family, to blame and hold responsible their religious connections for the neurotic or psychotic condition. Religion must be made synonymous with neurosis and psychosis. People who are deeply religious would be less and less held responsible for their own sanity, and should more and more be relegated to the ministrations of psychopolitical operatives.

By perverting the institutions of a nation and bringing about a general degradation, by interfering with the economics of a nation to the degree that privation and depression come about, only minor shocks will be necessary to produce, on the populace as a whole, an obedient reaction or an hysteria. Thus, the mere threat of war, the mere threat of aviation bombings, could cause the population to sue instantly for peace. It is a long and arduous road for the psychopolitical operative to achieve this state of mind on the part of a whole nation, but no more than twenty or thirty years should be necessary in the entire program. Having to hand, as we do, weapons with which to accomplish the goal.

CHAPTER IX

THE ORGANIZATION OF MENTAL HEALTH CAMPAIGNS

Psychopolitical operatives should at all times be alert to the opportunity to organize "for the betterment of the community" mental health clubs or groups. By thus inviting the co-operation of the population as a whole in mental health programs, the terrors of mental aberration can be disseminated throughout the populace. Furthermore, each one of these mental health groups, properly guided, can bring, at last, legislative pressure against the government to secure adequately the position of the psychopolitical operative, and to obtain for him government grants and facilities, thus bringing a government to finance its own downfall.

Mental health organizations must carefully delete from their ranks anyone actually proficient in the handling or treatment of mental health. Thus must be excluded priests, ministers, actually trained psychoanalysts, good hypnotists, or trained Dianeticists. These, with some cognizance on the subject of mental aberration and its treatment, and with some experience in observing the mentally deranged, if allowed frequency within institutions, and if permitted to receive literature, would, sooner or later, become suspicious of the activities engaged upon by the psychopolitical operative. These must be defamed and excluded as "untrained," "unskillful," "quacks," or "perpetrators of hoaxes."

No mental health movement with actual goals of mental therapy should be continued in existence in any nation. For instance, the use of Chinese acupuncture in the treatment of mental and physical derangement must, in China, be stamped out and discredited thoroughly, as it has some efficacy, and, more importantly, its practitioners understand, through long conversation with it, many of the principles of actual mental health and aberration.

In the field of mental health, the psychopolitician must occupy, and continue to occupy, through various arguments, the authoritative position on the subject. There is always the danger that problems of mental health may be resolved by some individual or group, which might then derange the program of the psychopolitical operative in his mental health clubs.

City officials, socialites, and other unknowing individuals, on the subject of mental health, should be invited to full co-operation in the activity of mental health groups. But the entirety of this activity should be to finance better facilities for the psychopolitical practitioner. To these groups it must be continually stressed that the entire subject of mental illness is so complex that none of them, certainly, could understand any part of it. Thus, the club should be kept on a social and financial level.

Where groups interested in the health of the community have already been formed, they should be infiltrated and taken over, and if this is not possible, they should be discredited and debarred, and the officialdom of the area should be invited to stamp them out as dangerous.

When an hostile group dedicated to mental health is discovered, the psychopolitician should have recourse to the mechanisms of peyote, mescaline, and later drugs which cause temporary insanity. He should send persons, preferably those well under his control, into the mental health group, whether Christian Science or Dianetics or faith preachers to demonstrate their abilities upon this new person. These, in demonstrating their abilities, will usually act with enthusiasm. Midway in the course of their treatment, a quiet injection of peyote, mescaline, or other drug, or an electric shock, will produce the symptoms of insanity in the patient which has been sent to the target group. The patient thus demonstrating momentary insanity should immediately be reported to the police and taken away to some area of incarceration managed by psychopolitical operatives, and so placed out of sight. Officialdom will thus come into a belief that this group drives individuals insane by their practices, and the practices of the group will then be despised and prohibited by law.

The values of a widespread mental health organization are manifest when one realizes that any government can be forced to provide facilities for psychopolitical operatives in the form of psychiatric wards in all hospitals, in national institutions totally in the hands of psychopolitical operatives, and in the establishment of clinics where youth can be contacted and arranged more seemingly to the purposes of Psychopolitics.

Such groups form a political force, which can then legalize any law or authority desired for the psychopolitical operative.

The securing of authority over such mental health organizations is done mainly by appeal to education. A psychopolitical operative should make sure that those psychiatrists he controls, those psychologists whom he has under his orders, have been trained for an excessively long period of time. The longer the training period which can be required, the safer the psychopolitical program, since no new group of practitioners can arise to disclose and dismay psychopolitical programs. Furthermore, the groups themselves cannot hope to obtain any full knowledge of the subject, not having behind them many, many years of intensive training.

Vienna has been carefully maintained as the home of Psychopolitics, since it was the home of Psychoanalysis. Although our activities have long since dispersed any of the gains made by Freudian groups, and have taken over these groups, the proximity of Vienna to Russia, where Psychopolitics is operating abroad, and the necessity "for further study" by psychopolitical operatives in the birthplace of Psychoanalysis, makes periodic contacts with headquarters possible. Thus, the word "psychoanalysis" must be stressed at all times, and must be pretended to be a thorough part of the psychiatrist's training.

Psychoanalysis has the very valuable possession of a vocabulary, and a workability which is sufficiently poor to avoid recovery of psychopolitical implantations. It can be made fashionable throughout mental health organizations, and by learning its patter, and by believing they see some of its phenomena, the members of mental health groups can believe themselves conversant with mental health. Because its stress is sex, it is, itself, an adequate defamation of character, and serves the purposes of degradation well. Thus, in organizing mental health groups, the literature furnished such groups should be psychoanalytical in nature.

If a group of persons interested in suppressing juvenile delinquency, in caring for the insane, and the promotion of psychopolitical operatives and their actions can be formed in every major city of a country under conquest, the success of a psychopolitical program is assured, since these groups seem to represent a large segment of the population. By releasing continued propaganda on the subject of dope addiction, homosexuality, and depraved conduct on the part of the young, even the judges of a country can become suborned into reacting violently against the youth of the country, thus mis-aligning and aligning the support of youth.

The communication lines of psychopolitics, if such mental health organizations can be well established, can thus run from its most prominent citizens to its government. It is not too much to hope that the influence of such groups could bring about a psychiatric ward in every hospital in the land, and psychiatrists in every company and regiment of the nation's army, and whole government institutes manned entirely by psychopolitical operatives, into which ailing government officials could be placed, to the advantage of the psychopolitician.

If a psychiatric ward could be established in every hospital in every city in a nation, it is certain that, at one time or another, every prominent citizen of that nation could come under the ministrations of psychopolitical operatives or their dupes.

The validation of psychiatric position in the armed forces and security-minded institutions of the nation under conquest could bring about a flow and fund of information unlike any other program which could be conceived. If every pilot who flies a new plane could come under the questioning of a psychopolitical operative, if the compiler of every plan of military action could thus come under the review of psychopolitical operatives, the simplicity with which information can be extracted by the use of certain drugs, without the after-knowledge of the soldier, would entirely cripple any overt action toward Communism. If the nation could be educated into turning over to psychopolitical operatives every recalcitrant or rebellious soldier, it would lose its best fighters. Thus, the advantage of mental health organizations can be seen, for these, by exerting an apparent public pressure against the government, can achieve these ends and goals.

The financing of a psychopolitical operation is difficult unless it is done by the citizens and government. Although vast sums of money can be obtained from private patients, and from relatives who wish persons put away, it is, nevertheless, difficult to obtain millions, unless the government itself is co-operating. The co-operation of the government to obtain these vast sums of money is best obtained by the organization of mental health groups composed of leading citizens, and who bring their lobbying abilities to bear against the nation's government. Thus can be financed many programs, which might otherwise have to be laid aside by the psychopolitician.

The psychopolitical operative should bend consistent and continual effort toward forming and continuing in action innumerable mental health groups.

The psychopolitical operative should also spare no expense in smashing out of existence, by whatever means, any actual healing group, such as that of acupuncture, in China; such as Christian Science, Dianetics and faith healing, in the United States; such as Catholicism in Italy and Spain; and the practical psychological groups of England.

CONDUCT UNDER FIRE

The psychopolitician may well find himself under attack as an individual or a member of a group. He may be attacked as a Communist, through some leak in the organization, he may be attacked for malpractice. He may be attacked by the families of people whom he has injured. In all cases his conduct of the situation should be calm and aloof. He should have behind him the authority of many years of training, and he should have participated fully in the building of defenses in the field of insanity which give him the only statement as to the conditions of the mind.

If he has not done his work well, hostile feeling groups may expose an individual psychopolitician. These may call into question the efficacy of psychiatric treatment such as shock, drugs, and brain surgery. Therefore, the psychopolitical operative must have to hand innumerable documents which assert enormously encouraging figures on the subject of recovery by reason of shock, brain surgery, drugs, and general treatment. Not one of these cases cited need be real, but they should be documented and printed in such a fashion as to form excellent court evidence.

When his allegiance is attacked, the psychopolitical operative should explain his connection with Vienna on the grounds that Vienna is the place of study for all important matters of the mind.

More importantly, he should rule into scorn, by reason of his authority, the sanity of the person attacking him, and if the psychopolitical archives of the country are adequate many defamatory data can be unearthed and presented as a rebuttal.

Should anyone attempt to expose psychotherapy as a psychopolitical activity, the best defense is calling into question the sanity of the attacker. The next best defense is authority. The next best defense is a validation of psychiatric practices in terms of long and impressive figures. The next best defense is the actual removal of the attacker by giving him, or them, treatment sufficient to bring about a period of insanity for the duration of the trial. This, more than anything else, would discredit them, but it is dangerous to practice this, in the extreme.

Psychopolitics should avoid murder and violence, unless it is done in the safety of the institution, on persons who have been proven to be insane. Where institution deaths appear to be unnecessary, or to rise in "unreasonable number," political capital might be made of this by city officials or legislature. If the psychopolitical operative has, himself, or if his group has done a thorough job, defamatory data concerning the person, or connections, of the would-be attacker should be on file, should be documented, and should be used in such a way as to discourage the inquiry.

After a period of indoctrination, a country will expect insanity to be met by psychopolitical violence. Psychopolitical activities should become the only recognized treatment for insanity. Indeed, this can be extended to such a length that it could be made illegal for electric shock and brain surgery to be omitted in the treatment of a patient.

In order to defend psychopolitical activities, a great complexity should be made of psychiatric, psychoanalytical, and psychological technology. Any hearing should be burdened by terminology too difficult to be transcribed easily. A great deal should be made out of such terms as schizophrenia, paranoia, and other relatively undefinable states.

Psychopolitical tests need not necessarily be in agreement, one to another, where they are available to the public. Various types of insanity should be characterized by difficult terms. The actual state should be made obscure, but by this verbiage it can be built into the court or investigating mind that a scientific approach exists and that it is too complex for him to understand. It is not to be imagined that a judge or a committee of investigation should inquire too deeply into the subject of insanity, since they, themselves, part of the indoctrinated masses, are already intimidated if the psychopolitical activity has caused itself to be well-documented in terms of horror in magazines.

In case of a hearing or trial, the terribleness of insanity itself, its threat to the society, should be exaggerated until the court or committee believes that the psychopolitical operative is vitally necessary in his post and should not be harrassed for the activities of persons who are irrational.

An immediate attack upon the sanity of the attacker before any possible hearing can take place is the very best defense. It should become well-known that "only the insane attack psychiatrists." The by-word should be built into the society that paranoia is a condition "in which the individual believes he is being attacked by Communists." It will be found that this defense is effective.

Part of the effective defenses should include the entire lack in the society of any real psychotherapy. This must be systematically stamped out, since a real psychotherapy might possibly uncover the results of psychopolitical activities.

Jurisprudence, in a Capitalistic nation, is of such clumsiness that cases are invariably tried in their newspapers. We have handled these things much better in Russia, and have uniformly brought people to trial with full confessions already arrived at (being implanted) before the trial took place.

Should any whisper, or pamphlet, against psychopolitical activities be published, it should be laughed into scorn, branded an immediate hoax, and its perpetrator or publisher should be, at the first opportunity, branded as insane, and by the use of drugs the insanity should be confirmed.

CHAPTER XI

THE USE OF PSYCHOPOLITICS IN SPREADING COMMUNISM

Reactionary nations are of such a composition that they attack a word without understanding of it. As the conquest of a nation by Communism depends upon imbuing its population with communistic tenets, it is not necessary that the term "Communism" be applied at first to the educative measures employed.

As an example, in the United States we have been able to alter the works of William James, and others, into a more acceptable pattern, and to place the tenets of Karl Marx, Pavlov, Lamarck, and the data of Dialectic Materialism into the textbooks of psychology, to such a degree that anyone thoroughly studying psychology becomes at once a candidate to accept the reasonableness of Communism.

As every chair of psychology in the United States is occupied by persons in our connection, or who can be influenced by persons in our connection, the consistent employment of such texts is guaranteed. They are given the authoritative ring, and they are carefully taught.

Constant pressure in the legislatures of the United States can bring about legislation to the effect that every student attending a high school or university must have classes in psychology.

Educating broadly the educated strata of the populace into the tenets of Communism is thus rendered relatively easy, and when the choice is given them whether to continue in a Capitalistic or a Communistic condition, they will see, suddenly, in Communism, much more reasonability than in Capitalism, which will now be of our own definition.

CHAPTER XII

VIOLENT REMEDIES

As populaces, in general, understand that a violence is necessary in the handling of the insane, violent remedies seem to be reasonable. Starting from a relatively low level of violence, such as strait-jackets and other restraints, it is relatively easy to encroach upon the public diffidence for violence by adding more and more cruelty into the treatment of the insane.

By increasing the brutality of "treatment," the public expectance of such treatment will be assisted, and the protest of the individual to whom the treatment is given is impossible, since immediately after the treatment he is incapable. The family of the individual under treatment is suspect for having had in its midst, already, an insane person. The family's protest should be discredited.

The more violent the treatment, the more command value the psychopolitical operative will accumulate. Brain operations should become standard and commonplace. While the figures of actual deaths should be repressed wherever possible, nevertheless, it is of no great concern to the psychopolitical operative that many deaths do occur.

Gradually, the public should be educated into electric shock, first by believing that it is very therapeutic, then by believing that it is quieting, then by being informed that electric shock usually injures the spine and teeth, and finally, that it very often kills or at least breaks the spine and removes, violently, the teeth of the patient. It is very doubtful if anyone from the lay levels of the public could tolerate the observation of a single electric shock treatment. Certainly they could not tolerate witnessing a prefrontal lobotomy or trans-orbital leucotomy. However, they should be brought up to a level where this is possible, where it is the expected treatment, and where the details, of the treatment itself can be made known, thus to the increase of psychopolitical prestige.

The more violent the treatment, the more hopeless insanity will seem to be.

The society should be worked up to the level where every recalcitrant young man can be brought into court and assigned to a psychopolitical operative, be given electric shocks, and reduced into unimaginative docility for the remainder of his days.

By continuous and increasing advertising of the violence of treatment, the public will at last come to tolerate the creation of zombie conditions to such a degree that they will probably employ zombies, if given to them. Thus a large strata of the society, particularly that which was rebellious, can be reduced to the service of the psychopolitician.

By various means, a public must be convinced, at least, that insanity can only be met by shock, torture, deprivation, defamation, discreditation, violence, maiming, death, punishment in all its forms. The society, at the same time, must be educated into the belief of increasing insanity within its ranks. This creates an emergency, and places the psychopolitician in a saviour role, and places him, at length, in charge of the society.

CHAPTER XIII

THE RECRUITING OF PSYCHOPOLITICAL DUPES

The psychopolitical dupe is a well-trained individual who serves in complete obedience the psychopolitical operative.

In that nearly all persons in training are expected to undergo a certain amount of treatment in any field of the mind, it is not too difficult to persuade persons in the field of mental healing to subject themselves to mild or minor drugs or shock. If this can be done, a psychological dupe on the basis of pain-drug hypnosis can immediately result.

Recruitment into the ranks of "mental healing" can best be done by carefully bringing to it only those healing students who are, to some slight degree, already depraved, or who have been "treated" by psychopolitical operatives.

Recruitment is effected by making the field of mental healing very attractive, financially, and sexually.

The amount of promiscuity which can be induced in mental patients can work definitely to the advantage of the psychopolitical recruiting agent. The dupe can thus be induced into many lurid sexual contacts, and these, properly witnessed, can thereafter be used as blackmail material to assist any failure of pain-drug hypnosis in causing him to execute orders.

The promise of unlimited sexual opportunities, the promise of complete dominion over the bodies and minds of helpless patients, the promise of complete lawlessness without detection, can thus attract to "mental healing" many desirable recruits who will willingly fall in line with psychopolitical activities.

In that the psychopolitician has under his control the insane of the nation, most of them have criminal tendencies, and as he can, as his movement goes forward, recruit for his ranks the criminals themselves, he has unlimited numbers of human beings to employ on whatever project he may see fit. In that the insane will execute destructive projects without question, if given the proper amount of punishment and implantation, the degradation of the country's youth, the defamation of its leaders, the suborning of its courts becomes childishly easy.

The psychopolitician has the advantage of naming as a delusory symptom any attempt on the part of a patient to expose commands.

The psychopolitician should carefully adhere to institutions and should eschew private practice whenever possible, since this gives him the greatest number of human beings to control to the use of Communism. When he does act in private practice, it should be only in contact with the families of the wealthy and the officials of the country.

CHAPTER XIV

THE SMASHING OF RELIGIOUS GROUPS

You must know that until recent times the complete subject of mental derangement, whether so light as simple worry or so heavy as insanity, was the sphere of activity of the church and only the church.

Traditionally in civilized nations and barbaric ones the priesthood alone had in complete charge the mental condition of the citizen. As a matter of great concern to the psychopolitician this tendency still exists in every public in the Western World and scientific inroads into this sphere has occurred only in official and never in public quarters.

The magnificent tool welded for us by Wundt would be as nothing if it were not for official insistence in civilized countries that "scientific practices" be applied to the problem of the mind. Without this official insistence or even if it relapsed for a moment, the masses would grasp stupidity for the priest, the minister, the clergy when mental condition came in question. Today in Europe and America "scientific practices" in the field of the mind would not last moments if not enforced entirely by officialdom.

It must be carefully hidden that the incidence of insanity has increased only since these "scientific practices" were applied. Great remarks must be made of "the pace of modern living" and other myths as the cause of the increased neurosis in the world. It is nothing to us what causes it if anything does. It is everything to us that no evidence of any kind shall be tolerated afoot to permit the public tendency toward the church its way. If given their heads, if left to themselves to decide, independent of officialdom, where they would place their deranged loved ones the public would choose religious sanitariums and would avoid as if plagued places where "scientific practices" prevail.

Given any slightest encouragement, public support would swing on an instant all mental healing into the hands of the churches. And there are Churches waiting to receive it, clever churches. That terrible monster the Roman Catholic Church still dominates mental healing heavily throughout the Christian world and their well schooled priests are always at work to turn the public their way. Among Fundamentalist and Pentecostal groups healing campaigns are conducted, which, because of their results, win many to the cult of Christianity. In the field of pure healing the Church of Christ Science of Boston, Massachusetts excells in commanding the public favor and operates many sanitariums. All these must be swept aside. They must be ridiculed and defamed and every cure they advertise must be asserted as a hoax. A full fifth of a psychopolitician's time should be devoted to smashing these threats. Just as in Russia we had to destroy, after many, many years of the most arduous work, the Church, so we must destroy all faiths in nations marked for conquest.

Insanity must be made to hound the footsteps of every priest and practitioner. His best results must be turned to jibbering insanities no matter what means we have to use.

You need not care what effect you have upon the public. The effect you care about is the one upon officials. You must recruit every agency of the nation marked for slaughter into a foaming hatred of religious healing. You must suborn district attorneys and judges into an intense belief as fervent as an ancient faith in God that Christian Science or any other religious practice which might devote itself to mental healing is vicious, bad, insanity-causing, publicly hated and intolerable.

You must suborn and recruit any medical healing organization into collusion in this campaign. You must appeal to their avarice and even their humanity to invite their cooperation in smashing all religious healing and thus, to our end, care of the insane. You must see that such societies have only qualified Communist indoctrinees as their advisors in this matter. For you can use such societies. They are stupid and stampede easily. Their cloak and degrees can be used quite well to mask any operation we care to have masked. We must make them partners in our endeavor so that they will never be able to crawl from beneath our thumb and discredit us.

We have battled in America since the century's turn to bring to nothing any and all Christian influences and we are succeeding. While we today seem to be kind to the Christian remember we have yet to influence the "Christian world" to our ends. When that is done we shall have an end of them everywhere. You may see them here in Russia as trained apes. They do not know their tether is long only until the apes in other lands have become unwary.

You must work until "religion" is synonymous with "insanity." You must work until the officials of city, county and state governments will not think twice before they pounce upon religious groups as public enemies.

Remember, all lands are governed by the few and only pretend to consult with the many. It is no different in America. The petty official, the maker of laws alike can be made to believe the worst. It is not necessary to convince the masses. It is only necessary to work incessantly upon the official, using personal defamations, wild lies, false evidences and constant propaganda to make him fight for you against the church or against any practitioner.

Like the official the bona-fide medical healer also believes the worst if it can be shown to him as dangerous competition. And like the Christian, should he seek to take from us any right we have gained, we shall finish him as well.

We must be like the vine upon the tree. We use the tree to climb and then, strangling it, grow into power on the nourishment of its flesh.

We must strike from our path any opposition. We must use for our tools and authority that comes to hand. And then at last, the decades sped, we can dispense with all authority save our own and triumph in the greater glory of the Party.

CHAPTER XV

PROPOSALS WHICH MUST BE AVOIDED

There are certain damaging movements which could interrupt a psychopolitical conquest. These, coming from some quarters of the country, might gain headway and should be spotted before they do, and stamped out.

Proposals may be made by large and powerful groups in the country to return the insane to the care of those who have handled mental healing for tribes and populaces for centuries—the priest. Any movement to place clergymen in charge of institutions should be fought on the grounds of incompetence and the insanity brought about by religion. The most destructive thing which could happen to a psychopolitical program would be the investment of the ministry with the care of the nation's insane.

If mental hospitals operated by religious groups are in existence, they must be discredited and closed, no matter what the cost, for it might occur that the actual figures of recovery in such institutions would become known, and that the lack of recovery in general institutions might be compared to them, and this might lead to a movement to place the clergy in charge of the insane. Every argument must be advanced early, to overcome any possibility of this ever occurring.

A country's law must carefully be made to avoid any rights of person to the insane. Any suggested laws or Constitutional Amendments which make the harming of the insane unlawful, should be fought to the extreme, on the grounds that only violent measures can succeed. If the law were to protect the insane, as it normally does not, the entire psychopolitical program would very possibly collapse.

Any movement to increase or place under surveillance the orders required to hospitalize the mentally ill should be discouraged. This should be left entirely in the hands of persons well under the control of psychopolitical operatives. It should be done with minimum formality, and no recovery of the insane from an institution should be possible by any process of law. Thus, any movement to add to the legal steps of the processes of commitment and release should be discouraged on the grounds of emergency. To obviate this, the best action is to place a psychiatric and detention ward for the mentally ill in every hospital in a land.

Any writings of a psychopolitical nature, accidentally disclosing themselves, should be prevented. All actual literature on the subject of insanity and its treatment should be suppressed, first by actual security, and second by complex verbiage which renders it incomprehensible. The actual figures of recovery or death should never be announced in any papers. Any investigation attempting to discover whether or not psychiatry or psychology has ever cured anyone should immediately be discouraged and laughed to scorn, and should mobilize at that point all psychopolitical operatives. At first, it should be ignored, but if this is not possible, the entire weight of all psychopoliticians in the nation should be pressed into service. Any tactic possible should be employed to prevent this from occurring. To rebut it, technical appearing papers should exist as to the tremendous number of cures effected by psychiatry and psychology, and whenever possible, percentages of cures, no matter how fictitious, should be worked into legislative papers, thus forming a background of "evidence" which would immediately rebut any effort to actually discover anyone who had ever been helped by psychiatry or psychology.

If the Communistic connections of an psychopolitician should become disclosed, it should be attributed to his own carelessness, and he should, himself, be immediately branded as eccentric within his own profession.

Authors of literature which seek to demonstrate the picture of a society under complete mental control and duress should be helped toward infamy or suicide to discredit their works.

Any legislation liberalizing any healing practice should be immediately fought and defeated. All healing practices should gravitate entirely to authoritative levels, and no other opinions should be admitted, as these might lead to exposure.

Movements to improve youth should be invaded and corrupted, as this might interrupt campaigns to produce in youth delinquency, addiction, drunkenness, and sexual promiscuity.

Communist workers in the field of newspapers and radio should be protected wherever possible by striking out of action, through Psychopolitics, any persons consistently attacking them. These, in their turn, should be persuaded to give every possible publicity to the benefits of psychopolitical activities under the heading of "science."

No healing group devoted to the mind must be allowed to exist within the borders of Russia or its satellites. Only well-vouched-for psychopolitical operatives can be continued in their practice, and this only for the benefit of the government or against enemy prisoners.

Any effort to exclude psychiatrists or psychologists from the armed services must be fought.

Any inquest into the "suicide" or sudden mental derangement of any political leader in a nation must be conducted only by psychopolitical operatives or their dupes, whether Psychopolitics is responsible or not.

Death and violence against persons attacking Communism in a nation should be eschewed as forbidden. Violent activity against such persons might bring about their martyrdom. Defamation, and the accusation of insanity, alone should be employed, and they should be brought at last under the ministrations of psychopolitical operatives, such as psychiatrists and controlled psychologists.

CHAPTER XVI

IN SUMMARY

In this time of unlimited weapons, and in national antagonisms where atomic war with Capitalistic powers is possible, Psychopolitics must act efficiently as never before.

Any and all programs of Psychopolitics must be increased to aid and abet the activities of other Communist agents throughout the nation in question.

The failure of Psychopolitics might well bring about the atomic bombing of the Motherland.

If Psychopolitics succeeds in its mission throughout the Capitalistic nations of the world, there will never be an atomic war, for Russia will have subjugated all of her enemies.

Communism has already spread across one-sixth of the inhabited world. Marxist Doctrines have already penetrated the remainder. An extension of the Communist social order is everywhere victorious. The spread of Communism has never been by force of battle, but by conquest of the mind. In Psychopolitics we have refined this conquest to its last degree.

The psychopolitical operative must succeed, for his success means a world of Peace. His failure might well mean the destruction of the civilized portions of Earth by atomic power in the hands of Capitalistic madmen.

The end thoroughly justifies the means. The degradation of populaces is less inhuman than their destruction by atomic fission, for to an animal who lives only once, any life is sweeter than death.

The end of war is the control of a conquered people. If a people can be conquered in the absence of war, the end of war will have been achieved without the destruction of war. A worthy goal.

The psychopolitician has his reward in the nearly unlimited control of populaces, in the uninhibited exercise of passion, and the glory of Communist conquest over the stupidity of the enemies of the People.

of Sir William Wiseman of the British Secret Service stationed in this country. In spite of the fact that it has so often been discredited, it is a fact that all it contains has been proven from other sources. In this report was the statement, "we will use the movement of the Earl of Dysart, the British Israel World Federation movement." The status is much the same as that of the Protocols, so vigorously denied, but if you will refer to the Jewish Year Book, page 179, 1920-1921, you will find the reference to the Protocols. There is no denial of the Protocols or their authenticity but there is the statement 'that the translator omitted a paragraph in which England is accused of being the accomplice of the Jews in this conspiracy.'

It was in 1935 that the Earl of Strafford, Thomas Wentworth, addressed an 'Admonition to King George V, in which he told the King to stop playing with this Communist movement, that it was Satanic, against the realm. He referred to the British Israel World Federation movement of 6 Buckingham Gate, London. You can call the British Library of Information if you wish to satisfy yourself that such a movement exists. You will find the name of Sir William Wiseman listed as one of the supporters on the back cover of the National Message.

In this country the movement, now known as the Anglo-Saxon Federation of America, was located in the Fox Building, Detroit and the organ now called 'Destiny' was then called the 'Messenger of the Covenant.'

The Anglo-Saxon Federation of America was established at the time the Dearborn Independent was being published. William J. Cameron, Henry Ford's man Friday was the editor of the paper. The protocols had been brought to this country from England, they were taken to Mr. Cameron. Two or more people have claimed the honor of taking them to Mr. Ford or Mr. Cameron, one, Haviland Lund, who had spent several years in England. Mrs. Lund had taken the 'missing Tea Pot Dome leases' to President Harding from Secretary Fall's office where she was employed. Marcia, well known in Washington circles as the advisor to many in the field of predictions, accompanied her. The story was related to me when Mrs. Lund and I paid her a call. Those most interested in Tea Pot Dome did not want Mrs. Lund called to testify so she was sent to England. It was on her return that she brought the protocols and told me that she had taken them to Mr. Cameron.

After these protocols were published Lt. Col. W. G. Mac Kendrick, of the Commonwealth Publishing Company, Toronto, Canada, with a convert Merton H. Smith went to Detroit, called on Mr. Cameron, told him he was making a mistake in publishing the Protocols and sold him the idea of British Israel World Federation.

Mr. Cameron was British born (Canada) he had lived in this country for over forty years and had voted all that time without being a citizen. It was only when he wished to leave the country and get a passport to return that he was made a citizen in three days by Judge Moinet (federal). See New York American, September 12, 1935. See also New Money Pamphlet.

Through Mr. Cameron, Henry Ford was interested and became a liberal supporter financially of this propaganda. So great was Mr. Ford's interest that if you wished to reach him on a public question, as happened with one of my friends, you were told that if you did not know or did not go along with British Israel you would not succeed in that which you sought.

London: In written answer, to question in House of Commons put by Lieutenant-Colonel Malone, as to whether his attention had been called to anonymous booklet entitled "The Jewish Peril" recently issued, Mr. Shortt, Home Secretary, states: "I understand that the booklet is an English translation of a book published in Russian in 1905 by Serge Nilus. This book went through three or four editions. I am not aware that the pamphlet is a mutilation of the book, nor do I know the object of Serge Nilus in publishing this work. I fear the law confers no powers upon me to procure the suppression of the publication."—31. London: In House of Commons, Under-Secretary of State for Foreign Affairs, replying to question of Arthur Hayday, states that the Government has no confirmation of report that on November 16, in town of Keckskemet, Hungary, Lieutenant Hejjas, then town commandant, ordered one hundred and twenty Jewish citizens of the town out of their beds at midnight, and under pretext that they were to be taken to work, drove them into Irgovanyi existence the public is generally totally ignorant, but whose importance is sometimes very real. They all work more or less in the same general direction and their main points have been thus summarized in a book called the Nameless Order as corresponding to the six points of the kabbalistic star :

1. Religious. -- By philosophy or mysticism or empiric science to undermine and discredit all Christian creed.
2. Ethical. -- To corrupt morality of northern races with oriental codes -- weaken marriage bonds -- destroy family life; abolish inheritance, even heritable names.
3. Aesthetic. -- Cult of the ugly and aberrant in art, literature, music and drama -- modernism -- crude orientalism -- degeneracy.
4. Sociological. -- Abolition of aristocracy -- creation of plutocracy, money standard -- by vulgar display, extravagance, corruption, to create revolt in proletarian minds, hence class-war.
5. Industrial and financial. -- Having destroyed ideals of craftsmanship and pride in handicraft, set up golden serpent of profit. Standardisation of cheap and soddy -- centralization -- cartel and trust leading to abolition of private ownership and to state monopoly.
6. Political. -- To kill patriotism and pride of race ; in name of progress and evolution set up internationalism as ideal of human brotherhood. Thus undermine national unity, weaken all governments and so prepare way for their super-government which shall rule the world.

PROTOCOLS

of the Learned Elders of ZION

Translated from the Russian of NILUS

By

VICTOR E. MARSDEN

Late Russian Correspondent of "THE MORNING POST"

Professor Nilus was a priest in the Orthodox Church in Russia. He published the first Russian language edition in 1905. In his introduction he says that a manuscript had been handed to him about four years before by a friend, who vouched that it was a true translation of an original document stolen by a woman from one of the most influential and highly initiated leaders of Freemasonry, at the end of a meeting of the initiated in France, "that nest of Jewish-masonic conspiracy." Nilus adds that the Protocols are not exactly minutes of meetings, but a report, with a part apparently missing, made by some powerful person.

Nilus admits the impossibility of producing written or oral proof of the authenticity of this document and says that we must be satisfied with the circumstantial evidence which abounds.

In January, 1917, Nilus had prepared a second edition but before it could be put on the market the revolution of March 1917 had taken place and Kerenski ordered the whole edition to be destroyed. Later Nilus was arrested by the Bolshevik Cheka, imprisoned and tortured. He was exiled and died in Vladimir on 13th January, 1929.

VICTOR E. MARSDEN

The translator of the famous Protocols was himself a victim of the Revolution in Russia. He had lived there for many years and was married to a Russian lady. As Russian correspondent to the "Morning Post," his fearless description of the events in 1917 incurred the anger of the Soviet. He was arrested and thrown into the Peter-Paul Prison. When he was finally allowed to return to England after two years, his health had been seriously affected. One of his first tasks as soon as he was able was this translation of the Protocols, which necessitated many hours' work at the British Museum. He later became the "Morning Post" special correspondent in the suite of H.R.H. the Prince of Wales on his Empire tour.

But within a few days of his return from the tour, he died after a brief illness.

PREFACE

Victor E. MARSDEN

The author of this translation of the famous PROTOCOLS was himself a victim of the Revolution. He had lived for many years in Russia and was married to a Russian lady. Among his other activities in Russia he had been for a number of years Russian Correspondent of the Morning Post, a position which he occupied when the Revolution broke out, and his vivid descriptions of events in Russia will still be in the recollection of many of the readers of that journal. Naturally he was singled out for the anger of the Soviet. On the day that Captain Cromie was murdered by Jews Victor Marsden was arrested and thrown into the Peter-Paul Prison, expecting every day to have his name called out for execution. This, however, he escaped, and eventually he was allowed to return to England very much of a wreck in bodily health. However, he recovered under treatment and the devoted care of his wife and friends. One of the first things he undertook as soon as he was able was this translation of the Protocols. Mr. Marsden was eminently well qualified for the work. His intimate acquaintance with Russia, Russian life and the Russian language on the one hand, and his mastery of a terse literary English style on the other, placed him in a position of advantage which few others could claim. The consequence is that we have in his version an eminently readable work, and though the subject-matter is somewhat formless, Mr. Marsden's literary touch reveals the thread running through the twenty-four Protocols. The Summary placed at the head of each is Mr. Marsden's own, and will be found very useful in acquiring a comprehensive view of its scope.

It may be said with truth that this work was carried out at the cost of Mr. Marsden's own life's blood. He told the writer of this Preface that he could not stand more than an hour at a time of his work on it in the British Museum, as the diabolical spirit of the matter which he was obliged to turn into English made him positively ill.

Mr. Marsden's connection with the Morning Post was not severed by his return to England, and he was well enough to accept the post of special correspondent of that journal in the suite of H.R.H. The Prince of Wales on his Empire tour. From this he returned with the Prince, apparently in much better health, but within a few days of his landing he was taken suddenly ill, and died after a very brief illness.

May this work be his crowning monument! In it he has performed an immense service to the English-speaking world, and there can be little doubt that it will take its place in the first rank of the English versions of "THE PROTOCOLS of the Meetings of the LEARNED ELDERS OF ZION."

Of the Protocols themselves little need be said in the way of introduction. The book in which they are embodied was published by Sergyei Nilus in Russia in 1905. A copy of this is in the British Museum bearing the date of its reception August 10, 1906. All copies that were known to exist in Russia were destroyed in the Kerensky regime, and under his successors the possession of a copy by anyone in Sovietland was crime sufficient to ensure the owner's being shot on sight. The fact is in itself sufficient proof of the genuineness of the Protocols. The Jewish journals, of course, say that they are a forgery, leaving it to be understood that Professor Nilus, who embodied them in a work of his own, had concocted them for his own purposes.

Mr. Henry Ford, in an interview published in the New York World, February 17, 1921, put the case for Nilus tersely and convincingly thus:

The only statement I care to make about the PROTOCOLS is that they fit in with what is going on. They are sixteen years old, and they have fitted the world situation up to this time. THEY FIT IT NOW.

Indeed they do!

The word "Protocol" signifies a precis gummed on to the front of a document, a draft of a document, minutes of proceedings. In this instance "Protocol" means "minutes of the proceedings" of the Meetings of the Learned Elders of Zion. These Protocols give the substance of addresses delivered to the innermost circle of the Rulers of Zion. They reveal the concerted plan of action of the Jewish Nation developed through the ages and edited by the Elders themselves up to date. Parts and summaries of the plan have been published from time to time during the centuries as the secrets of the Elders have leaked out. The claim of the Jews that the Protocols are forgeries is in itself an admission of their genuineness, for they never attempt to answer the facts corresponding to the threats which the Protocols contain, and, indeed, the correspondence between prophecy and fulfilment is too glaring to be set aside or obscured. This the Jews well know and therefore evade.

The presumption is strong that the Protocols were issued, or reissued at the First Zionist Congress held at Basle in 1897 under the presidency of the Father of Modern Zionism, the late Theodore Herzl.

There has been recently published a volume of Herzl's "Diaries," a translation of some passages of which appeared in the Jewish Chronicle of July 14, 1922. Herzl gives an account of his first visit to England in 1895, and his conversation with Colonel Goldsmid, a Jew brought up as a Christian, an Officer in the English Army, and at heart a Jew Nationalist all the time. Goldsmid suggested to Herzl that the best way of expropriating the English Aristocracy and so destroying their power to protect the people of England against Jew domination, was to put excessive taxes on the land. Herzl thought this an excellent idea, and it is now to be found definitely embodied in Protocol VI!

The above extract from Herzl's Diary is an extremely significant bit of evidence bearing on the existence of the Jew World Plot and authenticity of the Protocols, but any reader of intelligence will be able from his own knowledge of recent history and from his own experience to confirm the genuineness of every line of them, and it is in the light of this living comment that all readers are invited to study Mr. Marsden's translation of this terribly inhuman document.

And here is another very significant circumstance. The present successor of Herzl as leader of the Zionist movement, Dr. Weizmann, quoted one of these sayings at the send-off banquet given to Chief Rabbi Hertz on October 6, 1920. The Chief Rabbi was on the point of leaving for his Empire tour—a sort of Jewish answer to the Empire tour of H.R.H. the Prince of Wales. And this is the "saying" of the Sages which Dr. Weizmann quoted: "A beneficent protection which God has instituted in the life of the Jew is that He has dispersed him all over the world." (Jewish Guardian, Oct. 8, 1920.)

Now compare this with the last clause but one of Protocol XI,
"God has granted to us, His Chosen People, the gift of dispersion, and from this, which appears to all eyes to be our weakness, has come forth all our strength, which has now brought us to the threshold of sovereignty over all the world."

The remarkable correspondence between these passages proves several things. It proves that the Learned Elders exist. It proves that Dr. Weizmann knows all about them. It proves that the desire for a "National Home" in Palestine is only camouflage and an infinitesimal part of the Jew's real object. It proves that the Jews of the world have no intention of settling in Palestine or any separate country, and that their annual prayer that they may all meet "Next Year in Jerusalem" is merely a piece of their characteristic make-believe. It also demonstrates that the Jews are now a world menace, and that the Aryan races will have to domicile them permanently out of Europe.

WHO ARE THE ELDERS?

This is a secret which has not been revealed. They are the Hidden Hand. They are not the "Board of Deputies" (the Jewish Parliament in England) or the "Universal Israelite Alliance" which sit in Paris. But the late Walter Rathenau of the Allgemeiner Elektricitaets Gesellschaft has thrown a little light on the subject and doubtless he was in possession of their names, being, in all likelihood, one of the chief leaders himself. Writing in the Wiener Freie Presse, December 24, 1912, he said:

Three hundred men, each of whom knows all the others, govern the fate of the European continent, and they elect their successors from their entourage.

A Fifteenth Century "Protocol"

The principles and morality of these latter-day Protocols are as old as the tribe. Here is one from the Fifteenth Century which Jews can hardly pronounce a forgery, seeing that it is taken from a Rothschild journal.

The Revue des etudes Juives, financed by James de Rothschild, published in 1889 two documents which showed how true the Protocols are in saying that the Learned Elders of Zion have been carrying on their plan for centuries. On January 13, 1489, Chemor, Jewish Rabbi of Arles in Provence, wrote to the Grand Sanhedrim, which had its seat in Constantinople, for advice, as the people of Arles were threatening the synagogues. What should the Jews do? This was the reply:

"Dear beloved brethren in Moses, we have received your letter in which you tell us of the anxieties and misfortunes which you are enduring. We are pierced by as great pain to hear it as yourselves.

"The advice of the Grand Satraps and Rabbis is the following:

"1. As for what you say that the King of France obliges you to become Christians: do it, since you cannot do otherwise, but let the law of Moses be kept in your hearts.

"2. As for what you say about the command to despoil you of your goods" [the law was that on becoming converted Jews gave up their possessions]; "make your sons merchants, that little by little they may despoil the Christians of theirs.

"3. As for what you say about their making attempts on your lives: make your sons doctors and apothecaries, that they may take away Christians' lives.

"4. As for what you say of their destroying your synagogues: make your sons canons and clerics in order that they may destroy their churches.

"5. As for the many other vexations you complain of: arrange that your sons become advocates and lawyers, and see that they always mix themselves up with the affairs of State, in order that by putting Christians under your yoke you may dominate the world and be avenged on them.

"6. Do not swerve from this order that we give you, because you will find by experience that, humiliated as you are, you will reach the actuality of power.

"Signed V.S.S.V.F.F., Prince of the Jews, 21st Caslue (November), 1489."

In the year 1844, on the eve of the Jewish Revolution of 1848, Benjamin Disraeli, whose real name was Israel, and who was a "damped," or baptised Jew, published his novel, Coningsby, in which occurs this ominous passage:

"The world is governed by very different personages from what is imagined by those who are not behind the scenes."

And he went on to show that these personages were all Jews.

Now that Providence has brought to the light of day these secret Protocols all men may clearly see the hidden personages specified by Disraeli at work "behind the scenes" of all the Governments. This revelation entails on all white peoples the grave responsibility of examining and revising au fond their attitude towards the Race and Nation which boasts of its survival over all Empires.

NOTES

I.—"AGENTUR" AND "THE POLITICAL."

There are two words in this translation which are unusual, the word "Agentur" and "political" used as a substantive. Agentur appears to be a word adopted from the original and it means the whole body of agents and agencies made use of by the Elders, whether members of the tribe or their Gentile tools.

By "the Political" Mr. Marsden means, not exactly the "body politic" but the entire machinery of politics.

II.—THE SYMBOLIC SNAKE OF JUDAISM

Protocol III opens with a reference to the Symbolic Snake of Judaism. In his Epilogue to the 1905 Edition of the Protocols Nilus gives the following interesting account of this symbol:

According to the records of secret Jewish Zionism, Solomon and other Jewish learned men already, in 929 B.C., thought out a scheme in theory for a peaceful conquest of the whole universe by Zion.

As history developed, this scheme was worked out in detail and completed by men who were subsequently initiated in this question. These learned men decided by peaceful means to conquer the world for Zion with the slyness of the Symbolic Snake, whose head was to represent those who have been initiated into the plans of the Jewish administration, and the body of the Snake to represent the Jewish people—the administration was always kept secret, even from the Jewish nation itself. As this Snake penetrated into the hearts of the nations which it encountered it undermined and devoured all the non-Jewish power of these States. It is foretold that the Snake has still to finish its work, strictly adhering to the designed plan, until the course which it has to run is closed by the return of its head to Zion and until, by this means, the Snake has completed its round of Europe and has encircled it—and until, by dint of enchain-ing Europe, it has encompassed the whole world. This it is to accomplish by using every endeavor to subdue the other countries by an economic conquest.

The return of the head of the Snake to Zion can only be accomplished after the power of all the Sovereigns of Europe has been laid low, that is to say, when by means of economic crises and wholesale destruction effected everywhere, there shall have been brought about a spiritual demoralization and a moral corruption, chiefly with the assistance of Jewish women masquerading as French, Italians etc. These are the surest spreaders of licentiousness into the lives of the leading men at the heads of nations.

A map of the course of the Symbolic Snake is shown as follows: its first stage in Europe was in 429 B.C. in Greece, where, about the time of Pericles, the Snake first started eating into the power of that country. The second stage was in Rome in the time of Augustus, about 69 B.C. The third in Madrid in the time of Charles V. in A.D. 1552. The fourth in Paris about 1790, in the time of Louis XVI. The fifth in London from 1814 onwards (after the downfall of Napoleon). The sixth in Berlin in 1871 after the Franco-Prussian war. The seventh in St. Petersburg, over which is drawn the head of the Snake under the date of 1881.

All these states which the Snake traversed have had the foundations of their constitutions shaken, Germany, with its apparent power, forming no exception to the rule. In economic conditions England and Germany are spared, but only till the conquest of Russia is accomplished by the Snake, on which at present [i.e., 1905] all its efforts are concentrated. The further course of the Snake is not shown on this map, but arrows indicate its next movement towards Moscow, Kieff, and Odessa.

It is now well known to us to what extent the latter cities form the centers of the militant Jewish race. Constantinople is shown as the last stage of the Snake's course before it reaches Jerusalem. (This map was drawn years before the occurrence of the "Young Turk"—i.e., Jewish—Revolution in Turkey.)

III.—The term "Goyim," meaning Gentiles or non-Jews, is used throughout the Protocols and is retained by Mr. Marsden.

OF THE MEETINGS OF THE LEARNED ELDERS OF ZION

Right lies in Might. Freedom—an idea only. Liberalism. Gold. Faith. Self-Government. Despotism of Capital. The Internal Foe. The Mob. Anarchy. Politics versus Morals. The Right of the Strong. The Invincibility of Jew-Masonic authority. End justifies Means. The Mob a Blind Man. Political A.B.C. Party Discord. Most satisfactory form of rule—Despotism. Alcohol. Classicism. Corruption. Principles and rules of the Jew-Masonic Government. Terror. "Liberty, Equality, Fraternity." Principle of Dynastic Rule. Annihilation of the privileges of the Goy-Aristocracy (i.e., non-Jew). The New Aristocracy. The Psychological Calculation. Abstractness of "Liberty." Power of Removal of Representatives of the People.

. . . Putting aside fine phrases we shall speak of the significance of each thought: by comparisons and deductions we shall throw light upon surrounding facts.

What I am about to set forth, then, is our system from the two points of view, that of ourselves and that of the goyim, i.e., non-Jews).

It must be noted that men with bad instincts are more in number than the good, and therefore the best results in governing them are attained by violence and terrorization, and not by academic discussions. Every man aims at power, everyone would like to become a dictator if only he could, and rare indeed are the men who would not be willing to sacrifice the welfare of all for the sake of securing their own welfare.

What has restrained the beasts of prey who are called men? What has served for their guidance hitherto?

In the beginnings of the structure of society they were subjected to brutal and blind force; afterwards—to Law, which is the same force, only disguised. I draw the conclusion that by the law of nature right lies in force.

Political freedom is an idea but not a fact. This idea one must know how to apply whenever it appears necessary with this bait of an idea to attract the masses of the people to one's party for the purpose of crushing another who is in authority. This task is rendered easier if the opponent has himself been infected with the idea of freedom, so-called liberalism, and, for the sake of an idea, is willing to yield some of his power. It is precisely here that the triumph of our theory appears; the slackened reins of government are immediately, by the law of life, caught up and gathered together by a new hand, because the blind might of the nation cannot for one single day exist without guidance, and the new authority merely fits into the place of the old already weakened by liberalism.

In our day the power which has replaced that of the rulers who were liberal is the power of Gold. Time was when Faith ruled. The idea of freedom is impossible of realization because no one knows how to use it with moderation. It is enough to hand over a people to self-government for a certain length of time for that people to be turned into a disorganized mob. From that moment on we get internecine strife which soon develops into battles between classes, in the midst of which States burn down and their importance is reduced to that of a heap of ashes.

Whether a State exhausts itself in its own convulsions, whether its internal discord brings it under the power of external foes—in any case it can be accounted irretrievably lost; it is in our power. The despotism of Capital, which is entirely in our hands, reaches out to it a straw that the State, willy-nilly, must take hold of: if not—it goes to the bottom.

Should anyone of a liberal mind say that such reflections as the above are immoral I would put the following questions: If every State has two foes and if in regard to the external foe it is allowed and not considered immoral to use every manner and art of conflict, as for example to keep the enemy in ignorance of plans of attack and defence, to attack him by night, or in superior numbers, then in what way can the same means in regard to a worse foe, the destroyer of the structure of society and the commonweal be called immoral and not permissible?

Is it possible for any sound logical mind to hope with any success to guide crowds by the aid of reasonable counsels and arguments, when any objection or contradiction, senseless though it may be, can be made and when such objection may find more favor with the people, whose powers of reasoning are superficial? Men in masses and the men of the masses, being guided solely by petty passions, paltry beliefs, customs, traditions and sentimental theorism, fall a prey to party dissension, which hinders any kind of agreement even on the basis of a perfectly reasonable argument. Every resolution of a crowd depends upon a chance or packed majority, which, in its ignorance of political secrets, puts forth some ridiculous resolution that lays in the administration a seed of anarchy.

The political has nothing in common with the moral. The ruler who is governed by the moral is not a skilled politician, and is therefore unstable on his throne. He who wishes to rule must have recourse both to cunning and to make believe. Great national qualities, like frankness and honesty, are vices in politics, for they bring down rulers from their thrones more effectively and more certainly than the most powerful enemy. Such qualities must be the attributes of the kingdoms of the goyim, but we must in no wise be guided by them.

Our right lies in force. The word "right" is an abstract thought and proved by nothing. The word means no more than: Give me what I want in order that thereby I may have a proof that I am stronger than you.

"Where does right begin? Where does it end?

In any State in which there is a bad organization of authority, an impersonality of laws and of the rulers who have lost their personality amid the flood of rights ever multiplying out of liberalism, I find a new right—to attack by the right of the strong, and to scatter to the winds all existing forces of order and regulation, to reconstruct all institutions and to become the sovereign lord of those who have left to us the rights of their power by laying them down voluntarily in their liberalism.

Our power in the present tottering condition of all forms of power will be more invincible than any other, because it will remain invisible until the moment when it has gained such strength that no cunning can any longer undermine it.

Out of the temporary evil we are now compelled to commit will emerge the good of an unshakable rule, which will restore the regular course of the machinery of the national life, brought to nought by liberalism. The result justifies the means. Let us, however, in our plans, direct our attention not so much to what is good and moral as to what is necessary and useful.

Before us is a plan in which is laid down strategically the line from which we cannot deviate without running the risk of seeing the labour of many centuries brought to naught.

In order to elaborate satisfactory forms of action it is necessary to have regard to the rascality, the slackness, the instability of the mob, its lack of capacity to understand and respect the conditions of its own life, or its own welfare. It must be understood that the might of a mob is blind, senseless and unreasoning force, ever at the mercy of a suggestion from any side. The blind cannot lead the blind without bringing them into the abyss; consequently, members of the mob, upstarts from the people even though they should be as a genius for wisdom, yet having no understanding of the political, cannot come forward as leaders of the mob without bringing the whole nation to ruin.

Only one trained from childhood for independent rule can have understanding of the words that can be made up of the political alphabet.

A people left to itself, i.e., to upstarts from its midst, brings itself to ruin by party dissensions excited by the pursuit of power and honors and the disorders arising therefrom. Is it possible for the masses of the people calmly and without petty jealousies to form judgments, to deal with the affairs of the country, which cannot be mixed up with personal interests? Can they defend themselves from an external foe? It is unthinkable, for a plan broken up into as many parts as there are heads in the mob, loses all homogeneity, and thereby becomes unintelligible and impossible of execution.

It is only with a despotic ruler that plans can be elaborated extensively and clearly in such a way as to distribute the whole properly among the several parts of the machinery of the State; from this the conclusion is inevitable that a satisfactory form of government for any country is one that concentrates in the hands of one responsible person. Without an absolute despotism there can be no existence for civilization which is carried on not by the masses but by their guide, whosoever that person may be. The mob is a savage and displays its savagery at every opportunity. The moment the mob seizes freedom in its hands it quickly turns to anarchy, which in itself is the highest degree of savagery.

Behold the alcoholized animals, bemused with drink, the right to an immoderate use of which comes along with freedom. It is not for us and ours to walk that road. The peoples of the goyim are bemused with alcoholic liquors; their youth has grown stupid on classicism and from early immorality, into which it has been inducted by our special agents—by tutors, lackeys, governesses in the houses of the wealthy, by clerks and others, by our women in the places of dissipation frequented by the goyim. In the number of these last I count also the so-called "society ladies" voluntary followers of the others in corruption and luxury.

Our countersign is—Force and Make-believe. Only force conquers in political affairs, especially if it be concealed in the talents essential to statesmen. Violence must be the principle, and cunning the make-believe the rule for governments which do not want to lay down their crowns at the feet of agents of some new power. This evil is the one and only means to attain the end, the good. Therefore we must not stop at bribery, deceit and treachery when they should serve towards the attainment of our end. In politics one must know how to seize the property of others without hesitation if by it we secure submission and sovereignty.

Our State, marching along the path of peaceful conquest, has the right to replace the horrors of war by less noticeable and more satisfactory sentences of death, necessary to maintain the terror which tends to produce blind submission. Just but merciless severity is the greatest factor of strength in the State; not only for the sake of gain but also in the name of duty, for the sake of victory, we must keep to the programme of violence and make-believe. The doctrine of squaring accounts is precisely as strong as the means of which it makes use. Therefore it is not so much by the means themselves as by the doctrine of severity that we shall triumph and bring all governments into subjection to our super-government. It is enough for them to know that we are merciless for all disobedience to cease.

Far back in ancient times we were the first to cry among the masses of the people the words "Liberty, Equality, Fraternity," words many times repeated since those days by stupid poll-parrots who from all sides round flew down upon these baits and with them carried away the well-being of the world, true freedom of the individual, formerly so well guarded against the pressure of the mob. The would-be wise men of the goyim, the intellectuals, could not make anything out of the uttered words in their abstractness; did not note the contradiction of their meaning and inter-relation; did not see that in nature there is no equality, cannot be freedom; that Nature herself has established inequality of minds, of characters, and capacities, just as immutably as she has established subordination to her laws; never stopped to think that the mob is a blind thing, that upstarts elected from among it to bear rule are, in regard to the political, the same blind men as the mob itself, that the adept, though he be a fool, can yet rule, whereas the non-adapt, even if he were a genius, understands nothing in the political—to all these things the goyim paid no regard; yet all the time it was based upon these things that dynastic rule rested; the father passed on to the son a knowledge of the course of political affairs in such wise that none should know it but members of the dynasty and none could betray it to the governed. As time went on the meaning of the dynastic transference of the true position of affairs in the political was lost, and this aided the success of our cause.

In all corners of the earth the words "Liberty, Equality, Fraternity" brought to our ranks, thanks to our blind agents, whole legions who bore our banners with enthusiasm. And all the time these words were canker-worms at work boring into the well-being of the goyim, putting an end everywhere to peace, quiet, solidarity and destroying all the foundations of the goya States. As you will see later, this helped us to our triumph; it gave us the possibility, among other things, of getting into our hands the master card—the destruction of the privileges, or in other words of the very existence of the aristocracy of the goyim, that class which was the only defence peoples and countries had against us. On the ruins of the natural and genealogical aristocracy of the goyim we have set up the aristocracy of our educated class headed by the aristocracy of money. The qualifications for this aristocracy we have established in wealth, which is dependent upon us, and in knowledge, for which our learned elders provide the motive force.

Our triumph has been rendered easier by the fact that in our relations with the men whom we wanted, we have always worked upon the most sensitive chords of the human mind, upon the cash account, upon the cupidity, upon the insatiability for material needs of man; and each one of these human weaknesses, taken alone, is sufficient to paralyze initiative, for it hands over the will of men to the disposition of him who has bought their activities.

The abstraction of freedom has enabled us to persuade the mob in all countries that their government is nothing but the steward of the people who are the owners of the country, and that the steward may be replaced like a worn-out glove.

It is this possibility of replacing the representatives of the people which has placed them at our disposal, and, as it were, given us the power of appointment.

Protocol No. 2

Economic Wars—the foundation of the Jewish predominance.

Figure-head government and "secret advisers." Successes of destructive doctrines. Adaptability in politics. Part played by the Press. Cost of gold and value of Jewish sacrifice.

It is indispensable for our purpose that wars, so far as possible, should not result in territorial gains; war will thus be brought on to the economic ground, where the nations will not fail to perceive in the assistance we give the strength of our predominance, and this state of things will put both sides at the mercy of our international agentur; which possesses millions of eyes ever on the watch and unhampered by any limitations whatsoever. Our international rights will then wipe out national rights, in the proper sense of right, and will rule the nations precisely as the civil law of States rules the relations of their subjects among themselves.

The administrators, whom we shall choose from among the public, with strict regard to their capacities for servile obedience, will not be persons trained in the arts of government, and will therefore easily become pawns in our game in the hands of men of learning and genius, who will be their advisers, specialists bred and reared from early childhood to rule the affairs of the whole world. As is well known to you, these specialists of ours have been drawing, to fit them for rule, the information they need from our political plans, from the lessons of history, from observations made of the events of every moment as it passes. The goyim are not guided by practical use of unprejudiced historical observation, but by theoretical routine without any critical regard for consequent results. We need not, therefore, take any account of them—let them amuse themselves until the hour strikes, or live on hopes of new forms of enterprising pastime, or on the memories of all they have enjoyed. For them, let that play the principal part which we have persuaded them to accept as the dictates of science (theory). It is with this object in view that we are constantly, by means of our press, arousing a blind confidence in these theories. The intellectuals of the goyim will puff themselves up with their knowledge and without any logical verification of them will put into effect all the information available from science, which our agentur specialists have cunningly pieced together for the purpose of educating their minds in the direction we want.

Do not suppose for a moment that these statements are empty words: think carefully of the successes we arranged for Darwinism, Marxism, Nietzsche-ism. To us Jews, at any rate, it should be plain to see what a disintegrating importance these directives have had upon the minds of the goyim.

It is indispensable for us to take account of the thoughts, characters, tendencies of the nations in order to avoid making slips in the political and in the direction of administrative affairs. The triumph of our system, of which the component parts of the machinery may be variously disposed according to the temperament of the peoples met on our way, will fail of success if the practical application of it be not based upon a summing up of the lessons of the past in the light of the present.

In the hands of the States of today there is a great force that creates the movement of thought in the people, and that is the Press. The part played by the Press is to keep pointing out requirements supposed to be indispensable, to give voice to the complaints of the people, to express and to create discontent. It is in the Press that the triumph of freedom of speech finds its incarnation. But the goyim States have not known how to make use of this force; and it has fallen into our hands. Through the Press we have gained the power to influence while remaining ourselves in the shade; thanks to the Press we have got the gold in our hands, notwithstanding that we have had to gather it out of oceans of blood and tears. But it has paid us, though we have sacrificed many of our people. Each victim on our side is worth in the sight of God a thousand goyim.

The Symbolic Snake and its significance. The instability of the constitutional scales. Terror in the palaces. Power and ambition. Parliaments "talkeries," pamphlets. Abuse of power. Economic slavery. "People's Rights." Monopolist system and the aristocracy. The Army of Mason-Jewry. Decrescence of the Goyim. Hunger and rights of capital. The mob and the coronation of "The Sovereign Lord of all the World." The fundamental precept in the programme of the future Masonic national schools. The secret of the science of the structure of society. Universal economic crisis. Security of "ours" (i.e., our people, Jews). The despotism of Masonry—the kingdom of reason. Loss of the guide. Masonry and the great French Revolution. The King-Despot of the blood of Zion. Causes of the invincibility of Masonry. Part played by secret Masonic agents. Freedom.

Today I may tell you that our goal is now only a few steps off. There remains a small space to cross and the whole long path we have trodden is ready now to close its cycle of the Symbolic Snake, by which we symbolize our people. When this ring closes, all the States of Europe will be locked in its coil as in a powerful vise.

The constitution scales of these days will shortly break down, for we have established them with a certain lack of accurate balance in order that they may oscillate incessantly until they wear through the pivot on which they turn. The goyim are under the impression that they have welded them sufficiently strong and they have all along kept on expecting that the scales would come into equilibrium. But the pivots—the kings on their thrones—are hemmed in by their representatives, who play the fool, distraught with their own uncontrolled and irresponsible power. This power they owe to the terror which has been breathed into the palaces. As they have no means of getting at their people, into their very midst, the kings on their thrones are no longer able to come to terms with them and so strengthen themselves against seekers after power. We have made a gulf between the far-seeing Sovereign Power and the blind force of the people so that both have lost all meaning, for like the blind man and his stick, both are powerless apart.

In order to incite seekers after power to a misuse of power we have set all forces in opposition one to another, breaking up their liberal tendencies towards independence. To this end we have stirred up every form of enterprise, we have armed all parties, we have set up authority as a target for every ambition. Of States we have made gladiatorial arenas where a host of confused issues contend. . . . A little more, and disorders and bankruptcy will be universal. . . .

Babblers inexhaustible have turned into oratorical contests the sittings of Parliament and Administrative Boards. Bold journalists and unscrupulous pamphleteers daily fall upon executive officials. Abuses of power will put the final touch in preparing all institutions for their overthrow and everything will fly skyward under the blows of the maddened mob.

All people are chained down to heavy toil by poverty more firmly than ever they were chained by slavery and serfdom, from these, one way and another, they might free themselves, these could be settled with, but from want they will never get away. We have included in the constitution such rights as to the masses appear fictitious and not actual rights. All these so-called "People's Rights" can exist only in idea, an idea which can never be realized in practical life. What is it to the proletariat labourer, bowed double over his heavy toil, crushed by his lot in life, if talkers get the right to babble, if journalists get the right to scribble any nonsense side by side with good stuff, once the proletariat has no other profit out of the constitution save only those pitiful crumbs which we fling them from our table in return for their voting in favour of what we dictate, in favour of the men we place in power, the servants of our agentur. . . . Republican rights for a poor man are no more than a bitter piece of irony, for the necessity he is under of toiling almost all day gives him no present use of them, but on the other hand robs him of all guarantee of regular and certain earnings by making him dependent on strikes by his comrades or lockouts by his masters.

The people under our guidance have annihilated the aristocracy, who were their one and only defence and foster-mother for the sake of their own advantage which is inseparably bound up with the well-being of the people. Nowadays, with the destruction of the aristocracy, the people have fallen into the grips of merciless money-grinding scoundrels who have laid a pitiless and cruel yoke upon the necks of the workers.

We appear on the scene as alleged saviours of the worker from this oppression when we propose to him to enter the ranks of our fighting forces—Socialists, Anarchists, Communists—to whom we always give support in accordance with an alleged brotherly rule (of the solidarity of all humanity) of our social masonry. The aristocracy, which enjoyed by law the labour of the workers, was interested in seeing that the workers were well fed, healthy and strong. We are interested in just the opposite—in the diminution, the killing out of the GOYIM. Our power is in the chronic shortness of food and physical weakness of the worker because by all that this implies he is made the slave of our will, and he will not find in his own authorities either strength or energy to set against our will. Hunger creates the right of capital to rule the worker more surely than it was given to the aristocracy by the legal authority of kings.

By want and the envy and hatred which it engenders we shall move the mobs and with their hands we shall wipe out all those who hinder us on our way.

When the hour strikes for our Sovereign Lord of all the World to be crowned it is these same hands which will sweep away everything that might be a hindrance thereto.

The goyim have lost the habit of thinking unless prompted by the suggestions of our specialists. Therefore they do not see the urgent necessity of what we, when our kingdom comes, shall adopt at once, namely this, that it is essential to teach in national schools one simple, true piece of knowledge, the basis of all knowledge—the knowledge of the structure of human life, of social existence, which requires division of labour, and, consequently, the division of men into classes and conditions. It is essential for all to know that owing to difference in the objects of human activity there cannot be any equality, that he who by any act of his compromises a whole class cannot be equally responsible before the law with him who affects no one but only his own honor. The true knowledge of the structure of society, into the secrets of which we do not admit the goyim, would demonstrate to all men that the positions and work must be kept within a certain circle, that they may not become a source of human suffering, arising from an education which does not correspond with the work which individuals are called upon to do. After a thorough study of this knowledge the peoples will voluntarily submit to authority and accept such position as is appointed them in the State. In the present state of knowledge and the direction we have given to its development the people, blindly believing things in print—cherishes—thanks to promptings intended to mislead and to its own ignorance—a blind hatred towards all conditions which it considers above itself, for it has no understanding of the meaning of class and condition.

This hatred will be still further magnified by the effects of an economic crisis, which will stop dealings on the exchanges and bring industry to a standstill. We shall create by all the secret subterranean methods open to us and with the aid of gold, which is all in our hands, a universal economic crisis whereby we shall throw upon the streets whole mobs of workers simultaneously in all the countries of Europe. These mobs will rush delightedly to shed the blood of those whom, in the simplicity of their ignorance, they have envied from their cradles, and whose property they will then be able to loot.

"Ours" they will not touch, because the moment of attack will be known to us and we shall take measures to protect our own.

We have demonstrated that progress will bring all the goyim to the sovereignty of reason. Our despotism will be precisely that; for it will know how by wise severities to pacificate all unrest, to cauterize liberalism out of all institutions.

When the populace has seen that all sorts of concessions and indulgences are yielded it in the name of freedom it has imagined itself to be sovereign lord and has stormed its way to power, but, naturally, like every other blind man it has come upon a host of stumbling blocks, it has rushed to find a guide, it has never had the sense to return to the former state and it has laid down its plenipotentiary powers at our feet. Remember the French Revolution, to which it was we who gave the name of "Great": the secrets of its preparations are well known to us for it was wholly the work of our hands.

Ever since that time we have been leading the peoples from one disenchantment to another, so that in the end they should turn also from us in favour of that King-Despot of the blood of Zion, whom we are preparing for the world.

At the present day we are, as an international force, invincible, because if attacked by some we are supported by other States. It is the bottomless rascality of the goyim peoples, who crawl on their bellies to force, but are merciless towards weakness, unsparing to faults and indulgent to crimes, unwilling to bear the contradictions of a free social system but patient unto martyrdom under the violence of a bold despotism—it is those qualities which are aiding us to independence. From the premier-dictators of the present day the goyim peoples suffer patiently and bear such abuses as for the least of them they would have beheaded twenty kings.

What is the explanation of this phenomenon, this curious inconsequence of the masses of the peoples in their attitude towards what would appear to be events of the same order?

It is explained by the fact that these dictators whisper to the peoples through their agents that through these abuses they are inflicting injury on the States with the highest purpose—to secure the welfare of the peoples, the international brotherhood of them all, their solidarity and equality of rights. Naturally they do not tell the peoples that this unification must be accomplished only under our sovereign rule.

And thus the people condemn the upright and acquit the guilty, persuaded ever more and more that it can do whatsoever it wishes. Thanks to this state of things the people are destroying every kind of stability and creating disorders at every step.

The word "freedom" brings out the communities of men to fight against every kind of force, against every kind of authority, even against God and the laws of nature. For this reason we, when we come into our kingdom, shall have to erase this word from the lexicon of life as implying a principle of brute force which turns mobs into bloodthirsty beasts.

These beasts, it is true, fall asleep again every time when they have drunk their fill of blood, and at such times can easily be riveted into their chains. But if they be not given blood they will not sleep and continue to struggle.

Stages of a Republic. Gentile Masonry. Freedom and Faith. International Industrial Competition. Role of Speculation. Cult of Gold.

Every republic passes through several stages. The first of these is comprised in the early days of mad raging by the blind mob, tossed hither and thither, right and left; the second is demagogery, from which is born anarchy, and that leads inevitably to despotism—not any longer legal and overt, and therefore responsible despotism, but to unseen and secretly hidden, yet nevertheless sensibly felt despotism in the hands of some secret organization or other, whose acts are the more unscrupulous inasmuch as it works behind a screen, behind the backs of all sorts of agents, the changing of whom not only does not injuriously affect but actually aids the secret force by saving it, thanks to continual changes, from the necessity of expending its resources on the rewarding of long services.

Who and what is in a position to overthrow an invisible force? And this is precisely what our force is. Gentile masonry, blindly serves as a screen for us and our objects, but the plan of action of our force, even its very abiding-place, remains for the whole people an unknown mystery.

But even freedom might be harmless and have its place in the State economy without injury to the well-being of the peoples if it rested upon the foundation of faith in God, upon the brotherhood of humanity, unconnected with the conception of equality, which is negatived by the very laws of creation, for they have established subordination. With such a faith as this a people might be governed by a wardship of parishes, and would walk contentedly and humbly under the guiding hand of its spiritual pastor submitting to the dispositions of God upon earth. This is the reason why it is indispensable for us to undermine all faith, to tear out of the minds of the GOYIM the very principle of Godhead, and the spirit, and to put in its place arithmetical calculations and material needs.

In order to give the goyim no time to think and take note, their minds must be diverted towards industry and trade. Thus, all the nations will be swallowed up in the pursuit of gain and in the race for it will not take note of their common foe. But again, in order that freedom may once for all disintegrate and ruin the communities of the goyim, we must put industry on a speculative basis: the result of this will be that what is withdrawn from the land by industry will slip through the hands and pass into speculation, that is, to our classes.

The intensified struggle for superiority and shocks delivered to economic life will create, nay, have already created, disenchanted, cold and heartless communities. Such communities will foster a strong aversion towards the higher political and towards religion. Their only guide is gain, that is Gold, which they will erect into a veritable cult, for the sake of those material delights which it can give. Then will the hour strike when, not for the sake of attaining the good, not even to win wealth, but solely out of hatred towards the privileged, the lower classes of the goyim will follow our lead against our rivals for power, the intellectuals of the goyim.

Creation of an intensified centralization of government.
Methods of seizing power by masonry. Causes of the impossibility of agreement between States. The state of "predestination" of the Jews. Gold—the engine of the machinery of States. Significance of criticism. "Show" institutions. Weariness from word-spinning. How to take a grip of public opinion. Significance of personal initiative. The Super-Government.

What form of administrative rule can be given to communities in which corruption has penetrated everywhere, communities where riches are attained only by the clever surprise tactics of semi-swindling tricks; where looseness reigns; where morality is maintained by penal measures and harsh laws but not by voluntarily accepted principles; where the feelings towards faith and country are obliterated by cosmopolitan convictions? What form of rule is to be given to these communities if not that despotism which I shall describe to you later? We shall create an intensified centralization of government in order to grip in our hands all the forces of the community. We shall regulate mechanically all the actions of the political life of our subjects by new laws. These laws will withdraw one by one all the indulgences and liberties which have been permitted by the goyim, and our kingdom will be distinguished by a despotism of such magnificent proportions as to be at any moment and in every place in a position to wipe out any goyim who oppose us by deed or word.

We shall be told that such a despotism as I speak of is not consistent with the progress of these days, but I will prove to you that it is.

In the times when the peoples looked upon kings on their thrones as on a pure manifestation of the will of God, they submitted without a murmur to the despotic power of kings; but from the day when we insinuated into their minds the conception of their own rights they began to regard the occupants of thrones as mere ordinary mortals. The holy unction of the Lord's Anointed has fallen from the heads of kings in the eye of the people, and when we also robbed them of their faith in God the might of power was flung upon the streets into the place of public proprietorship and was seized by us.

Moreover, the art of directing masses and individuals by means of cleverly manipulated theory and verbiage, by regulations of life in common and all sorts of other quirks, in all which the goyim understand nothing, belongs likewise to the specialists of our administrative brain. Rared on analysis, observation, on delicacies of fine calculation, in this species of skill we have no rivals, any more than we have either in the drawing up of plans of political actions and solidarity. In this respect the Jesuits alone might have compared with us, but we have contrived to discredit them in the eyes of the unthinking mob as an overt organization, while we ourselves all the while have kept our secret organization in the shade. However, it is probably all the same to the world who is its sovereign lord, whether the head of Catholicism or our despot of the blood of Zion! But to us, the Chosen People, it is very far from being a matter of indifference.

For a time perhaps we might be successfully dealt with by a coalition of the GOYIM of all the world: but from this danger we are secured by the discord existing among them whose roots are so deeply seated that they can never now be plucked up. We have set one against another the personal and national reckonings of the goyim, religious and race hatreds, which we have fostered into a huge growth in the course of the past twenty centuries. This is the reason why there is not one State which would anywhere receive support if it were to raise its arm, for every one of them must bear in mind that any agreement against us would be unprofitable to itself. We are too strong—there is no evading our power. The nations can not come to even an inconsiderable private agreement without our secretly having a hand in it.

Per Me reges regnant. "It is through me that Kings reign." And it was said by the prophets that we were chosen by God Himself to rule over the whole earth. God has endowed us with genius that we may be equal to our task. Were genius in the opposite camp it would still struggle against us, but even so a newcomer is no match for the old-established settler; the struggle would be merciless between us, such a fight as the world has never yet seen. Aye, and the genius on their side would have arrived too late. All the wheels of the machinery of all States go by the force of the engine, which is in our hands, and that engine of the machinery of States is—Gold. The science of political economy invented by our learned elders has for long past been giving royal prestige to capital.

Capital, if it is to cooperate untrammelled, must be free to establish a monopoly of industry and trade; this is already being put in execution by an unseen hand in all quarters of the world. This freedom will give political force to those engaged in industry, and that will help to oppress the people. Nowadays it is more important to disarm the peoples than to lead them into war; more important to use for our advantage the passions which have burst into flames than to quench their fire; more important to catch up and interpret the ideas of others to suit ourselves than to eradicate them. The principal object of our directorate consists in this: to debilitate the public mind by criticism; to lead it away from serious reflections calculated to arouse resistance; to distract the forces of the mind towards a sham fight of empty eloquence.

In all ages the peoples of the world, equally with individuals, have accepted words for deeds, for they are content with a show and rarely pause to note, in the public arena, whether promises are followed by performance. Therefore we shall establish show institutions which will give eloquent proof of their benefit to progress.

We shall assume to ourselves the liberal physiognomy of all parties, of all directions, and we shall give that physiognomy a voice in orators who will speak so much that they will exhaust the patience of their hearers and produce an abhorrence of oratory.

In order to put public opinion into our hands we must bring it into a state of bewilderment by giving expression from all sides to so many contradictory opinions and for such length of time as will suffice to make the GOYIM lose their heads in the labyrinth and come to see that the best thing is to have no opinion of any kind in matters political, which it is not given to the public to understand, because they are understood only by him who guides the public. This is the first secret.

The second secret requisite for the success of our government is comprised in the following: To multiply to such an extent national failings, habits, passions, conditions of civil life, that it will be impossible for anyone to know where he is in the resulting chaos, so that the people in consequence will fail to understand one another. This measure will also serve us in another way, namely, to sow discord in all parties, to dislocate all collective forces which are still unwilling to submit to us, and to discourage any kind of personal initiative which might in any degree hinder our affair. There is nothing more dangerous than personal initiative; if it has genius behind it, such initiative can do more than can be done by millions of people among whom we have sown discord. We must so direct the education of the goyim communities that whenever they come upon a matter requiring initiative they may drop their hands in despairing impotence. The strain which results from freedom of action saps the forces when it meets with the freedom of another. From this collision arise grave moral shocks, disenchantments, failures. By all these means we shall so wear down the GOYIM that they will be compelled to offer us international power of a nature that by its position will enable us without any violence gradually to absorb all the State forces of the world and to form a Super-Government. In place of the rulers of today we shall set up a bogey which will be called the Super-Government Administration. Its hands will reach out in all directions like nippers and its organization will be of such colossal dimensions that it cannot fail to subdue all the nations of the world.

Monopolies; upon them depend the fortunes of the goyim.
Taking of the land out of the hands of the aristocracy.
Trade, Industry and Speculation. Luxury. Rise of wages and increase of price in the articles of primary necessity.
Anarchism and drunkenness. Secret meaning of the propaganda of economic theories.

We shall soon begin to establish huge monopolies, reservoirs of colossal riches, upon which even large fortunes of the goyim will depend to such an extent that they will go to the bottom together with the credit of the States on the day after the political smash . . .

You gentlemen here present who are economists, just strike an estimate of the significance of this combination! . . .

In every possible way we must develop the significance of our Super-Government by representing it as the Protector and Benefactor of all those who voluntarily submit to us.

The aristocracy of the goyim as a political force is dead—we need not take it into account; but as landed proprietors they can still be harmful to us from the fact that they are self-sufficing in the resources upon which they live. It is essential therefore for us at whatever cost to deprive them of their land. This object will be best attained by increasing the burdens upon landed property—in loading lands with debts. These measures will check land-holding and keep it in a state of humble and unconditional submission.

The aristocrats of the goyim, being hereditarily incapable of contenting themselves with little, will rapidly burn up and fizzle out.

At the same time we must intensively patronize trade and Industry, but, first and foremost, speculation, the part played by which is to provide a counterpoise to industry: the absence of speculative industry will multiply capital in private hands and will serve to restore agriculture by freeing the land from indebtedness to the land banks. What we want is that industry should drain off from the land both labour and capital and by means of speculation transfer into our hands all the money of the world, and thereby throw all the goyim into the ranks of the proletariat. Then the goyim will bow down before us, if for no other reason but to get the right to exist.

To complete the ruin of the industry of the goyim we shall bring to the assistance of speculation the luxury which we have developed among the goyim, that greedy demand for luxury which is swallowing up everything. We shall raise the rate of wages which, however, will not bring any advantage to the workers, for, at the same time, we shall produce a rise in prices of the first necessities of life, alleging that it arises from the decline of agriculture and cattle-breeding: we shall further undermine artfully and deeply sources of production, by accustoming the workers to anarchy and to drunkenness, and side by side therewith taking all measure to extirpate from the face of the earth all the educated forces of the GOYIM.

In order that the true meaning of things may not strike the GOYIM before the proper time we shall mask it under an alleged ardent desire to serve the working classes and the great principles of political economy about which our economic theories are carrying on an energetic propaganda.

Object of the intensification of armaments. Ferments, discords and hostility all over the world. Checking the opposition of the goyim by wars and by a universal war. Secrecy means success in the political. The Press and public opinion. The guns of America, China and Japan.

The intensification of armaments, the increase of police forces— are all essential for the completion of the aforementioned plans. What we have to get at is that there should be in all the States of the world, besides ourselves, only the masses of the proletariat, a few millionaires devoted to our interests, police and soldiers.

Throughout all Europe, and by means of relations with Europe, in other continents also, we must create ferments, discords and hostility. Therein we gain a double advantage. In the first place we keep in check all countries, for they well know that we have the power whenever we like to create disorders or to restore order. All these countries are accustomed to see in us an indispensable force of coercion. In the second place, by our intrigues we shall tangle up all the threads which we have stretched into the cabinets of all States by means of the political, by economic treaties, or loan obligations. In order to succeed in this we must use great cunning and penetration during negotiations and agreements, but, as regards what is called the "official language," we shall keep to the opposite tactics and assume the mask of honesty and compliancy. In this way the peoples and governments of the goyim, whom we have taught to look only at the outside whatever we present to their notice, will still continue to accept us as the benefactors and saviours of the human race.

We must be in a position to respond to every act of opposition by war with the neighbours of that country which dares to oppose us; but if these neighbours should also venture to stand collectively together against us, then we must offer resistance by a universal war.

The principal factor of success in the political is the secrecy of its undertakings; the word should not agree with the deeds of the diplomat.

We must compel the governments of the goyim to take action in the direction favoured by our widely-conceived plan, already approaching the desired consummation, by what we shall represent as public opinion, secretly prompted by us through the means of that so-called "Great Power"—the Press, which, with a few exceptions that may be disregarded, is already entirely in our hands.

In a word, to sum up our system of keeping the governments of the goyim in Europe in check, we shall show our strength to one of them by terrorist attempts and to all, if we allow the possibility of a general rising against us, we shall respond with the guns of America or China or Japan.

Ambiguous employment of juridical rights. Assistants of the Masonic directorate. Special schools and super-educational training. Economists and millionaires. To whom to entrust responsible posts in the government.

We must arm ourselves with all the weapons which our opponents might employ against us. We must search out in the very finest shades of expression and the knotty points of the lexicon of law justification for those cases where we shall have to pronounce judgments that might appear abnormally audacious and unjust, for it is important that these resolutions should be set forth in expressions that shall seem to be the most exalted moral principles cast into legal form. Our directorate must surround itself with all these forces of civilization among which it will have to work. It will surround itself with publicists, practical jurists, administrators, diplomats and, finally, with persons prepared by a special super-educational training in our special schools. These persons will have cognizance of all the secrets of the social structure, they will know all the languages that can be made up by political alphabets and words; they will be made acquainted with the whole underside of human nature, with all its sensitive chords on which they will have to play. These chords are the cast of mind of the goyim, their tendencies, shortcomings, vices and qualities, the particularities of classes and conditions. Needless to say that the talented assistants of authority, of whom I speak, will be taken not from among the goyim, who are accustomed to perform their administrative work without giving themselves the trouble to think what its aim is, and never consider what it is needed for. The administrators of the goyim sign papers without reading them, and they serve either for mercenary reasons or from ambition.

We shall surround our government with a whole world of economists. That is the reason why economic sciences form the principal subject of the teaching given to the Jews. Around us again will be a whole constellation of bankers, industrialists, capitalists and—the main thing—millionaires, because in substance everything will be settled by the question of figures.

For a time, until there will no longer be any risk in entrusting responsible posts in our States to our brother-Jews, we shall put them in the hands of persons whose past and reputation are such that between them and the people lies an abyss, persons who, in case of disobedience to our instructions, must face criminal charges or disappear—this in order to make them defend our interests to their last gasp.

Application of masonic principles in the matter of re-educating the peoples. Masonic watchword. Meaning of Anti-Semitism. Dictatorship of masonry. Terror. Who are the servants of masonry. Meaning of the "clear-sighted" and the "blind" forces of the goyim States. Communion between authority and mob. License of liberalism. Seizure of education and training. False theories. Interpretation of laws. The "undergrounds" (metropolitains).

In applying our principles let attention be paid to the character of the people in whose country you live and act; a general, identical application of them, until such time as the people shall have been re-educated to our pattern, cannot have success. But by approaching their application cautiously you will see that not a decade will pass before the most stubborn character will change and we shall add a new people to the ranks of those already subdued by us.

The words of the liberal, which are in effect the words of our masonic watchword, namely, "Liberty, Equality, Fraternity," will, when we come into our kingdom, be changed by us into words no longer of a watchword, but only an expression of idealism, namely, into: "The right of liberty, the duty of equality, the ideal of brotherhood." That is how we shall put it—and so we shall catch the bull by the horns. . . . De facto we have already wiped out every kind of rule except our own, although de jure there still remain a good many of them. Nowadays, if any States raise a protest against us it is only pro forma at our discretion and by our direction, for their anti-Semitism is indispensable to us for the management of our lesser brethren. I will not enter into further explanations, for this matter has formed the subject of repeated discussions amongst us.

For us there are no checks to limit the range of our activity. Our Super-Government subsists in extra-legal conditions which are described in the accepted terminology by the energetic and forcible word—Dictatorship. I am in a position to tell you with a clear conscience that at the proper time we, the lawgivers, shall execute judgment and sentence, we shall slay and we shall spare, we, as head of all our troops, are mounted on the steed of the leader. We rule by force of will, because in our hands are the fragments of a once powerful party, now vanquished by us. And the weapons in our hands are limitless ambitions, burning greediness, merciless vengeance, hatreds and malice.

It is from us that the all-engulfing terror proceeds. We have in our service persons of all opinions, of all doctrines, restorating monarchists, demagogues, socialists, communists, and Utopian dreamers of every kind. We have harnessed them all to the task: each one of them on his own account is boring away at the last remnants of authority, is striving to overthrow all established form of order. By these acts all States are in torture; they exhort to tranquility, are ready to sacrifice everything for peace: but we will not give them peace until they openly acknowledge our international Super-Government, and with submissiveness.

The people have raised a howl about the necessity of settling the question of Socialism by way of an international agreement. Division into fractional parties has given them into our hands, for, in order to carry on a contested struggle, one must have money, and the money is all in our hands.

We might have reason to apprehend a union between the "clear sighted" force of the goy kings on their thrones and the "blind" force of the goy mobs, but we have taken all the needful measures against any such possibility; between the one and the other force we have erected a bulwark in the shape of a mutual terror between them. In this way the blind force of the people remains our support and we, and we only, shall provide them with a leader and, of course direct them along the road that leads to our goal.

In order that the hand of the blind mob may not free itself from our guiding hand, we must every now and then enter into close communion with it, if not actually in person, at any rate through some of the most trusty of our brethren. When we are acknowledged as the only authority we shall discuss with the people personally on the market places, and we shall instruct them on questions of the political in such wise as may turn them in the direction that suits us.

Who is going to verify what is taught in the village schools? But what an envoy of the government or a king on his throne himself may say cannot but become immediately known to the whole State, for it will be spread abroad by the voice of the people.

In order not to annihilate the institutions of the goyim before it is time we have touched them with craft and delicacy, and have taken hold of the ends of the springs which move their mechanism. These springs lay in a strict but just sense of order; we have replaced them by the chaotic license of liberalism. We have got our hands into the administration of the law, into the conduct of elections, into the press, into liberty of the person, but principally into education and training as being the corner-stones of a free existence.

We have fooled, bemused and corrupted the youth of the goyim by rearing them in principles and theories which are known to us to be false although it is by us that they have been inculcated.

Above the existing laws without substantially altering them, and by merely twisting them into contradictions of interpretations, we have erected something grandiose in the way of results. These results found expression first in the fact that the interpretations masked the laws: afterwards they entirely hid them from the eyes of the governments owing to the impossibility of making anything out of the tangled web of legislation.

This is the origin of the theory of course of arbitration.

You may say that the goyim will rise upon us, arms in hand, if they guess what is going on before the time comes; but in the West we have against this a manoeuvre of such appalling terror that the very stoutest hearts quail—the undergrounds, metropolitains, those subterranean corridors which, before the time comes, will be driven under all the capitals and from whence those capitals will be blown into the air with all their organizations and archives.

Protocol No. 10

The outside appearances in the political. The "genius" of rascality. What is promised by a Masonic coup d'etat? Universal suffrage. Self-importance. Leaders of Masonry. The genius who is guide of Masonry. Institutions and their functions. The poison of liberalism. Constitution—a school of party discords. Era of republics. Presidents—the puppets of Masonry. Responsibility of Presidents. "Panama." Part played by chamber of deputies and president. Masonry—the legislative force. New republican constitution. Transition to masonic "despotism." Moment for the proclamation of "The Lord of all the World." Inoculation of diseases and other wiles of Masonry.

Today I begin with a repetition of what I said before, and I beg you to bear in mind that governments and peoples are content in the political with outside appearances. And how, indeed, are the goyim to perceive the underlying meaning of things when their representatives give the best of their energies to enjoying themselves? For our policy it is of the greatest importance to take cognizance of this detail; it will be of assistance to us when we come to consider the division of authority, freedom of speech, of the press, of religion (faith), of the law of association, of equality before the law, of the Inviolability of property, of the dwelling, of taxation (the idea of concealed taxes), of the reflex force of the laws. All these questions are such as ought not to be touched upon directly and openly before the people. In cases where it is indispensable to touch upon them they must not be categorically named, it must merely be declared without detailed exposition that the principles of contemporary law are acknowledged by us. The reason of keeping silence in this respect is that by not naming a principle we leave ourselves freedom of action, to drop this or that out of it without attracting notice; if they were all categorically named they would all appear to have been already given.

The mob cherishes a special affection and respect for the geniuses of political power and accepts all their deeds of violence with the admiring response: "rascally, well, yes, it is rascally, but it's clever! . . . a trick, if you like, but how craftily played, how magnificently done, what impudent audacity!" . . .

We count upon attracting all nations to the task of erecting the new fundamental structure, the project for which has been drawn up by us. This is why, before everything, it is indispensable for us to arm ourselves and to store up in ourselves that absolutely reckless audacity and irresistible might of the spirit which in the person of our active workers will break down all hindrances on our way.

When we have accomplished our coup d'etat we shall say then to the various peoples: "Everything has gone terribly badly, all have been worn out with sufferings. We are destroying the causes of your torment—nationalities, frontiers, differences of coinages. You are at liberty, of course, to pronounce sentence upon us, but can it possibly be a just one if it is confirmed by you before you make any trial of what we are offering you." . . . Then will the mob exalt us and bear us up in their hands in a unanimous triumph of hopes and expectations. Voting, which we have made the instrument which will set us on the throne of the world by teaching even the very smallest units of members of the human race to vote by means of meetings and agreements by groups, will then have served its purposes and will play its part then for the last time by a unanimity of desire to make close acquaintance with us before condemning us.

To secure this we must have everybody vote without distinction of classes and qualifications, in order to establish an absolute majority, which cannot be got from the educated propertied classes. In this way, by inculcating in all a sense of self-importance, we shall destroy among the goyim the importance of the family and its educational value and remove the possibility of individual minds splitting off, for the mob, handled by us, will not let them come to the front nor even give them a hearing; it is accustomed to listen to us only who pay it for obedience and attention. In this way we shall create a blind, mighty force which will never be in a position to move in any direction without the guidance of our agents set at its head by us as leaders of the mob. The people will submit to this regime because it will know that upon these leaders will depend its earnings, gratifications and the receipt of all kinds of benefits.

A scheme of government should come ready made from one brain, because it will never be clinched firmly if it is allowed to be split into fractional parts in the minds of many. It is allowable, therefore, for us to have cognizance of the scheme of action but not to discuss it lest we disturb its artfulness; the inter-dependence of its component parts, the practical force of the secret meaning of each clause. To discuss and make alterations in a labor of this kind by means of numerous votings is to impress upon it the stamp of all ratiocinations and misunderstandings which have failed to penetrate the depth and nexus of its plottings. We want our schemes to be forcible and suitably concocted. Therefore, WE OUGHT NOT TO FLING THE WORK OF GENIUS OF OUR GUIDE to the fangs of the mob or even of a select company.

These schemes will not turn existing institutions upside down just yet. They will only affect changes in their economy and consequently in the whole combined movement of their progress, which will thus be directed along the paths laid down in our schemes.

Under various names there exists in all countries approximately one and the same thing. Representation, Ministry, Senate, State Council, Legislative and Executive Corps. I need not explain to you the mechanism of the relation of these institutions to one another, because you are aware of all that; only take note of the fact that each of the above-named institutions corresponds to some important function of the State, and I would beg you to remark that the word "important" I apply not to the institution but to the function, consequently it is not the institutions which are important but their functions. These institutions have divided up among themselves all the functions of government—administrative, legislative, executive, wherefore they have come to operate as do the organs in the human body. If we injure one part in the machinery of State, the State falls sick, like a human body, and . . . will die.

When we introduced into the State organism the poison of Liberalism its whole political complexion underwent a change. States have been seized with a mortal illness—blood-poisoning. All that remains is to await the end of their death agony.

Liberalism produced Constitutional States, which took the place of what was the only safeguard of the goyim, namely, Despotism; and a constitution, as you well know, is nothing else but a school of discords, misunderstandings, quarrels, disagreements, fruitless party agitations, party whims—in a word, a school of everything that serves to destroy the personality of State activity. The tribune of the "talkeries" has, no less effectively than the Press, condemned the rulers to inactivity and impotence, and thereby rendered them useless and superfluous, for which reason indeed they have been in many countries deposed. Then it was that the era of republics became possible of realization; and then it was that we replaced the ruler by a caricature of a government—by a president, taken from the mob, from the midst of our puppet creatures, our slaves. This was the foundation of the mine which we have laid under the goy peoples, I should rather say, under the goy peoples.

In the near future we shall establish the responsibility of presidents.

By that time we shall be in a position to disregard forms in carrying through matters for which our impersonal puppet will be responsible. What do we care if the ranks of those striving for power should be thinned, if there should arise a deadlock from the impossibility of finding presidents, a deadlock which will finally disorganize the country? . . .

In order that our scheme may produce this result we shall arrange elections in favor of such presidents as have in their past some dark, undiscovered stain, some "Panama" or other—then they will be trustworthy agents for the accomplishment of our plans out of fear of revelations and from the natural desire of everyone who has attained power, namely, the retention of the privileges, advantages and honor connected with the office of president. The chamber of deputies will provide cover for, will protect, will elect presidents, but we shall take from it the right to propose new, or make changes in existing laws, for this right will be given by us to the responsible president, a puppet in our hands. Naturally, the authority of the president will then become a target for every possible form of attack, but we shall provide him with a means of self-defense in the right of an appeal to the people, for the decision of the people over the heads of their representatives, that is to say, an appeal to that same blind slave of ours—the majority of the mob. Independently of this we shall invest the president with the right of declaring a state of war. We shall justify this last right on the ground that the president as chief of the whole army of the country must have it at his disposal, in case of need for the defense of the new republican constitution, the right to defend which will belong to him as the responsible representative of this constitution.

It is easy to understand that in these conditions the key of the shrine will lie in our hands, and no one outside ourselves will any longer direct the force of legislation.

Besides this we shall, with the introduction of the new republican constitution, take from the Chamber the right of interpellation on government measures, on the pretext of preserving political secrecy, and, further, we shall by the new constitution reduce the number of representatives to a minimum, thereby proportionately reducing political passions and the passion for politics. If, however, they should, which is hardly to be expected, burst into flame, even in this minimum, we shall nullify them by a stirring appeal and a reference to the majority of the whole people. . . . Upon the president will depend the appointment of presidents and vice-presidents of the Chamber and the Senate. Instead of constant sessions of Parliaments we shall reduce their sittings to a few months. Moreover, the president as chief of the executive power, will have the right to summon and dissolve Parliament, and, in the latter case, to prolong the time for the appointment of a new parliamentary assembly. But in order that the consequences of all these acts which in substance are illegal, should not, prematurely for our plans, fall upon the responsibility established by us of the president, we shall instigate ministers and other officials of the higher administration about the president to evade his dispositions by taking measures of their own, for doing which they will be made the scapegoats in his place. . . . This part we especially recommend to be given to be played by the Senate, the Council of State, or the Council of Ministers, but not to an individual official.

The president will, at our discretion, interpret the sense of such of the existing laws as admit of various interpretations; he will further annul them when we indicate to him the necessity to do so; besides this, he will have the right to propose temporary laws, and even new departures in the government constitutional working, the pretext both for the one and the other being the requirements for the supreme welfare of the State.

By such measures we shall obtain the power of destroying little by little, step by step, all that at the outset when we enter on our rights, we are compelled to introduce into the constitutions of States to prepare for the transition to an imperceptible abolition of every kind of constitution, and then the time is come to turn every form of government into our despotism.

The recognition of our despot may also come before the destruction of the constitution; the moment for this recognition will come when the people, utterly wearied by the irregularities and incompetence—a matter which we shall arrange for—of their rulers, will clamor: "Away with them and give us one king over all the earth who will unite us and annihilate the causes of discords—frontiers, nationalities, religions, State debts—who will give us peace and quiet, which we cannot find under our rulers and representatives."

But you yourselves perfectly well know that to produce the possibility of the expression of such wishes by all the nations it is indispensable to trouble in all countries the people's relations with their governments so as to utterly exhaust humanity with dissension, hatred, struggle, envy and even by the use of torture, by starvation, BY THE INOCULATION OF DISEASES, by want, so that the GOYIM see no other issue than to take refuge in our complete sovereignty in money and in all else.

But if we give the nations of the world a breathing space the moment we long for is hardly likely ever to arrive.

Programme of the new constitution. Certain details of the proposed revolution. The goyim—a pack of sheep. Secret masonry and its "show" lodges.

The State Council has been, as it were, the emphatic expression of the authority of the ruler: it will be, as the "show" part of the Legislative Corps, what may be called the editorial committee of the laws and decrees of the ruler.

This, then, is the programme of the new constitution. We shall make Law, Right and Justice (1) in the guise of proposals to the Legislative Corps, (2) by decrees of the president under the guise of general regulations, of orders of the Senate and of resolutions of the State Council in the guise of ministerial orders, (3) and in case a suitable occasion should arise—in the form of a revolution in the State.

Having established approximately the modus agendi we will occupy ourselves with details of those combinations by which we have still to complete the revolution in the course of the machinery of State in the direction already indicated. By these combinations I mean the freedom of the Press, the right of association, freedom of conscience, the voting principle, and many another that must disappear forever from the memory of man, or undergo a radical alteration the day after the promulgation of the new constitution. It is only at that moment that we shall be able at once to announce all our orders, for, afterwards, every noticeable alteration will be dangerous, for the following reasons: if this alteration be brought in with harsh severity and in a sense of severity and limitations, it may lead to a feeling of despair caused by fear of new alterations in the same direction; if, on the other hand, it be brought in in a sense of further indulgences it will be said that we have recognized our own wrongdoing and this will destroy the prestige of the infallibility of our authority, or else it will be said that we have become alarmed and are compelled to show a yielding disposition, for which we shall get no thanks because it will be supposed to be compulsory.

Both the one and the other are injurious to the prestige of the new constitution. What we want is that from the first moment of its promulgation, while the peoples of the world are still stunned by the accomplished fact of the revolution, still in a condition of terror and uncertainty, they should recognize once for all that we are so strong, so inexpugnable, so superabundantly filled with power, that in no case shall we take any account of them, and so far from paying any attention to their opinions or wishes, we are ready and able to crush with irresistible power all expression or manifestation thereof at every moment and in every place, that we have seized at once everything we wanted and shall in no case divide our power with them. . . . Then in fear and trembling they will close their eyes to everything, and be content to await what will be the end of it all.

The goyim are a flock of sheep, and we are their wolves. And you know what happens when the wolves get hold of the flock? . . .

There is another reason also why they will close their eyes: for we shall keep promising them to give back all the liberties we have taken away as soon as we have quelled the enemies of peace and tamed all parties. . . .

It is not worth while to say anything about how long a time they will be kept waiting for this return of their liberties. . . .

For what purpose then have we invented this whole policy and insinuated it into the minds of the goys without giving them any chance to examine its underlying meaning? For what, indeed, if not in order to obtain in a roundabout way what is for our scattered tribe unattainable by the direct road? It is this which has served as the basis for our organization of SECRET MASONRY WHICH IS NOT KNOWN TO, AND AIMS WHICH ARE NOT EVEN SO MUCH AS SUSPECTED BY, THESE GOY CATTLE, ATTRACTED BY US INTO THE "SHOW" ARMY OF MASONIC LODGES IN ORDER TO THROW DUST IN THE EYES OF THEIR FELLOWS.

God has granted to us, His Chosen People, the gift of the dispersion, and in this which appears in all eyes to be our weakness, has come forth all our strength, which has now brought us to the threshold of sovereignty over all the world.

There now remains not much more for us to build up upon the foundation we have laid.

Protocol No. 12

Masonic interpretation of the word "freedom." Future of the press in the masonic kingdom. Control of the press. Correspondence agencies. What is progress as understood by masonry? More about the press. Masonic solidarity in the press of today. The arousing of "public" demands in the provinces. Infallibility of the new regime.

The word "freedom," which can be interpreted in various ways, is defined by us as follows:

Freedom is the right to do that which the law allows. This interpretation of the word will at the proper time be of service to us, because all freedom will thus be in our hands, since the laws will abolish or create only that which is desirable for us according to the aforesaid programme.

We shall deal with the press in the following way: What is the part played by the press today? It serves to excite and inflame those passions which are needed for our purpose or else it serves selfish ends of parties. It is often vapid, unjust, mendacious, and the majority of the public have not the slightest idea what ends the press really serves. We shall saddle and bridle it with a tight curb: we shall do the same also with all productions of the printing press, for where would be the sense of getting rid of the attacks of the press if we remain targets for pamphlets and books? The prod-use of publicity, which nowadays is a source of heavy expense owing to the necessity of censoring it, will be turned by us into a very lucrative source of income to our State: we shall lay on it a special stamp tax and require deposits of caution-money before permitting the establishment of any organ of the press or of printing office; these will then have to guarantee our government against any kind of attack on the part of the press. For any attempt to attack us, if such still be possible, we shall inflict fines without mercy. Such measures as stamp tax, deposit of caution-money and fines secured by these deposits, will bring in a huge income to the government. It is true that party organs might not spare money for the sake of publicity, but these we shall shut up at the second attack upon us. No one shall with impunity lay a finger on the aureole of our government infallibility. The pretext for stopping any publication will be the alleged plea that it is agitating the public mind without occasion or Justification. I beg you to note that among those making attacks upon us will also be organs established by us, but they will attack exclusively points that we have pre-determined to alter.

Not a single announcement will reach the public without our control. Even now this is already being attained by us inasmuch as all news items are received by a few agencies, in whose offices they are focused from all parts of the world. These agencies will then be already entirely ours and will give publicity only to what we dictate to them.

If already now we have contrived to possess ourselves of the minds of the goy communities to such an extent that they all come near looking upon the events of the world through the coloured glasses of those spectacles we are setting astride their noses: if already now there is not a single State where there exist for us any barriers to admittance into what goy stupidity calls State secrets: what will our position be then, when we shall be acknowledged supreme lords of the world in the person of our king of all the world. . . .

Let us turn again to the future of the printing press. Every one desirous of being a publisher, librarian, or printer, will be obliged to provide himself with the diploma instituted therefor, which, in case of any fault, will be immediately impounded. With such measures the instrument of thought will become an educative means in the hands of our government, which will no longer allow the mass of the nation to be led astray in by-ways and fantasies about the blessings of progress. Is there any one of us who does not know that these phantom blessings are the direct roads to foolish imaginings which give birth to anarchical relations of men among themselves and towards authority, because progress, or rather the idea of progress, has introduced the conception of every kind of emancipation, but has failed to establish its limits. . . . All the so-called liberals are anarchists, if not in fact, at any rate in thought. Every one of them is hunting after phantoms of freedom, and falling exclusively into license, that is, into the anarchy of protest for the sake of protest . . .

We turn to the periodical press. We shall impose on it, as on all printed matter, stamp taxes per sheet and deposits of caution-money, and books of less than 30 sheets will pay double. We shall reckon them as pamphlets in order, on the one hand, to reduce the number of magazines, which are the worst form of printed poison, and, on the other, in order that this measure may force writers into such lengthy productions that they will be little read, especially as they will be costly. At the same time what we shall publish ourselves to influence mental development in the direction laid down for our profit will be cheap and will be read voraciously. The tax will bring vapid literary ambitions within bounds and the liability to penalties will make literary men dependent upon us. And if there should be any found who are desirous of writing against us, they will not find any person eager to print their productions. Before accepting any production for publication in print the publisher or printer will have to apply to the authorities for permission to do so. Thus we shall know beforehand of all tricks preparing against us and shall nullify them by getting ahead with explanations on the subject treated of.

Literature and journalism are two of the most important educational forces, and therefore our government will become proprietor of the majority of the journals. This will neutralize the injurious influence of the privately-owned press and will put us in possession of a tremendous influence upon the public mind. . . . If we give permits for ten journals, we shall ourselves found thirty, and so on in the same proportion. This, however, must in nowise be suspected by the public. For which reason all journals published by us will be of the most opposite, in appearance, tendencies and opinions, thereby creating confidence in us and bringing over to us our quite unsuspecting opponents, who will thus fall into our trap and be rendered harmless.

In the front rank will stand organs of an official character. They will always stand guard over our interests, and therefore their influence will be comparatively insignificant.

In the second rank will be the semi-official organs, whose part it will be to attract the tepid and indifferent.

In the third rank we shall set up our own, to all appearances, opposition, which, in at least one of its organs, will present what looks like the very antipodes to us. Our real opponents at heart will accept this simulated opposition as their own and will show us their cards.

All our newspapers will be of all possible complexions—aristocratic, republican, revolutionary, even anarchical—for so long, of course, as the constitution exists. . . . Like the Indian idol Vishnu they will have a hundred hands, and every one of them will have a finger on any one of the public opinions as required. When a pulse quickens these hands will lead opinion in the direction of our aims for an excited patient loses all power of Judgment and easily yields to suggestion. Those fools who will think they are repeating the opinion of a newspaper of their own camp will be repeating our opinion or any opinion that seems desirable for us. In the vain belief that they are following the organ of their party they will in fact follow the flag which we hang out for them.

In order to direct our newspaper militia in this sense we must take especial and minute care in organizing this material. Under the title of central department of the press we shall institute literary gatherings at which our agents will without attracting attention issue the orders and watchwords of the day. By discussing and controverting, but always superficially, without touching the essence of the matter, our organs will carry on a sham fight fusillade with the official newspapers solely for the purpose of giving occasion for us to express ourselves more fully than could well be done from the outset in official announcements, whenever, of course, that is to our advantage.

These attacks upon us will also serve another purpose, namely, that our subjects will be convinced of the existence of full freedom of speech and so give our agents an occasion to affirm that all organs which oppose us are empty babblers, since they are incapable of finding any substantial objections to our orders.

Methods of organization like these, imperceptible to the public eye but absolutely sure, are the best calculated to succeed in bringing the attention and the confidence of the public to the side of our government. Thanks to such methods we shall be in a position as from time to time may be required, to excite or to tranquillize the public mind on political questions, to persuade or to confuse, printing now truth, now lies, facts or their contradictions, according as they may be well or ill received, always very cautiously feeling our ground before stepping upon it. . . . We shall have a sure triumph over our opponents since they will not have at their disposition organs of the press in which they can give full and final expression to their views, owing to the aforesaid methods of dealing with the press. We shall not even need to refute them except very superficially.

Trial shots like these, fired by us in the third rank of our press, in case of need, will be energetically refuted by us in our semi-official organs.

Even nowadays, already, to take only the French press, there" are forms which reveal masonic solidarity in acting on the watchword: all organs of the press are bound together by professional secrecy; like the augurs of old, not one of their numbers will give away the secret of his sources of information unless it be resolved to make announcement of them. Not one Journalist will venture to betray this secret, for not one of them is ever admitted to practice literature unless his whole past has some disgraceful sore or other. . . . These sores would be immediately revealed. So long as they remain the secret of a few the prestige of the journalist attracts the majority of the country—the mob follow after him with enthusiasm.

Our calculations are especially extended to the provinces. It is indispensable for us to inflame there those hopes and impulses with which we could at any moment fall upon the capital, and we shall represent to the capitals that these expressions are the independent hopes and impulses of the provinces. Naturally, the source of them will be always one and the same—ours. What we need is that, until such time as we are in the plenitude of power, the capitals should find themselves stifled by the provincial opinion of the nation, i.e., of a majority arranged by our agentur. What we need is that at the psychological moment the capitals should not be in a position to discuss an accomplished fact for the simple reason, if for no other, that it has been accepted by the public opinion of a majority in the provinces.

When we are in the period of the new regime transitional to that of our assumption of full sovereignty we must not admit any revelations by the press of any form of public dishonesty; it is necessary that the new regime should be thought to have so perfectly contented everybody that even criminality has disappeared. . . . Cases of the manifestation of criminality should remain known only to their victims and to chance witnesses—no more.

The need for daily bread. Questions of the Political. Questions of industry. Amusements. People's Palaces. "Truth is One." The great problems.

The need for daily bread forces the goyim to keep silence and be our humble servants. Agents taken on to our press from among the goyim will at our orders discuss anything which it is inconvenient for us to issue directly in official documents, and we meanwhile quietly amid the din of the discussion so raised, shall simply take and carry through such measures as we wish and then offer them to the public as an accomplished fact. No one will dare to demand the abrogation of a matter once settled, all the more so as it will be represented as an improvement. . . . And immediately the press will distract the current of thought towards new questions (have we not trained people always to be seeking something new?). Into the discussion of these new questions will throw themselves those of the brainless dispensers of fortunes who are not able even now to understand that they have not the remotest conception about the matters which they undertake to discuss. Questions of the political are unattainable for any save those who have guided it already for many ages, the creators.

From all this you will see that in securing the opinion of the mob we are only facilitating the working of our machinery, and you may remark that it is not for actions but for words issued by us on this or that question that we seem to seek approval. We are constantly making public declaration that we are guided in all our undertakings by the hope, joined to the conviction, that we are serving the common weal.

In order to distract people who may be too troublesome from discussions of questions of the political we are now putting forward what we allege to be new questions of the political, namely questions of industry. In this sphere let them discuss themselves silly! The masses are agreed to remain inactive, to take a rest from what they suppose to be political activity (which we trained them to in order to use them as a means of combating the goy governments) only on condition of being found new employments, in which we are prescribing them something that looks like the same political object. In order that the masses themselves may not guess what they are about we further distract them with amusements, games, pastimes passions people's palaces. . . . Soon we shall begin through the press to propose competitions in art, in sport of all kinds: these interests will finally distract their minds from questions in which we should find ourselves compelled to oppose them. Growing more and more disaccustomed to reflect and form any opinions of their own, people will begin to talk in the same tone as we, because we alone shall be offering them new directions for thought . . . of course through such persons as will not be suspected of solidarity with us.

The part played by the liberals, Utopian dreamers, will be finally played out when our government is acknowledged. Till such time they will continue to do us good service. Therefore we shall continue to direct their minds to all sorts of vain conceptions of fantastic theories, new and apparently progressive: for have we not with complete success turned the brainless heads of the goyim with progress till there is not among the goyim one mind able to perceive that under this word lies a departure from truth in all cases where it is not a question of material inventions, for truth is one, and in it there is no place for progress. Progress, like a fallacious idea, serves to obscure truth so that none may know it except us, the Chosen of God, its guardians.

When we come into our kingdom our orators will expound great problems which have turned humanity upside down in order to bring it at the end under our beneficent rule.

Who will ever suspect then that ALL THESE PEOPLES WERE STAGE-MANAGED BY US ACCORDING TO A POLITICAL PLAN WHICH NO ONE HAS SO MUCH AS GUESSED AT IN THE COURSE OF MANY CENTURIES? . . .

Protocol No. 14

The religion of the future. Future conditions of serfdom. Inaccessibility of knowledge regarding the religion of the future. Pornography and the printed matter of the future.

When we come into our kingdom it will be undesirable for us that there should exist any other religion than ours of the One God with whom our destiny is bound up by our position as the Chosen People and through whom our same destiny is united with the destinies of the world. We must therefore sweep away all other forms of belief. If this gives birth to the atheists whom we see today, it will not, being a transitional stage, interfere with our views, but will serve as a warning for those generations which will hearken to our preaching of the religion of Moses, that, by its stable and thoroughly elaborated system has brought all the peoples of the world into subjection to us. Therein we shall emphasize its mystical right, on which, as we shall say, all its educative power is based. . . . Then at every possible opportunity we shall publish articles in which we shall make comparisons between our beneficent rule and those of past ages. The blessings of tranquility, though it be a tranquility forcibly brought about by centuries of agitation, will throw into higher relief the benefits to which we shall point. The errors of the goyim governments will be depicted by us in the most vivid hues. We shall implant such an abhorrence of them that the peoples will prefer tranquility in a state of serfdom to those rights of vaunted freedom which have tortured humanity and exhausted the very sources of human existence, sources which have been exploited by a mob of rascally adventurers who know not what they do. . . . Useless changes of forms of government to which we instigated the GOYIM when we were undermining their state structures, will have so wearied the peoples by that time that they will prefer to suffer anything under us rather than run the risk of enduring again all the agitations and miseries they have gone through.

At the same time we shall not omit to emphasize the historical mistakes of the goy governments which have tormented humanity for so many centuries by their lack of understanding of everything that constitutes the true good of humanity in their chase after fantastic schemes of social blessings, and have never noticed that these schemes kept on producing a worse and never a better state of the universal relations which are the basis of human life. . . .

The whole force of our principles and methods will lie in the fact that we shall present them and expound them as a splendid contrast to the dead and decomposed old order of things in social life.

Our philosophers will discuss all the shortcomings of the various beliefs of the goyim, BUT NO ONE WILL EVER BRING UNDER DISCUSSION OUR FAITH FROM ITS TRUE POINT OF VIEW SINCE THIS WILL BE FULLY LEARNED BY NONE SAVE OURS, WHO WILL NEVER DARE TO BETRAY ITS SECRETS.

In countries known as progressive and enlightened we have created a senseless, filthy, abominable literature. For some time after our entrance to power we shall continue to encourage its existence in order to provide a telling relief by contrast to the speeches, party programme, which will be distributed from exalted quarters of ours. . . . Our wise men, trained to become leaders of the goyim, will compose speeches, projects, memoirs, articles, which will be used by us to influence the minds of the goyim, directing them towards such understanding and forms of knowledge as have been determined by us.

Protocol No. 15

One-day coup d'etat (revolution) over all the world. Executions. Future lot of goyim-masons. Mysticism of authority. Multiplication of masonic lodges. Central governing board of masonic elders. The "Azev-tactics." Masonry as leader and guide of all secret societies. Significance of public applause. Collectivism. Victims. Executions of masons. Fall of the prestige of laws and authority. Our position as the Chosen People. Brevity and clarity of the laws of the kingdom of the future. Obedience to orders. Measures against abuse of authority. Severity of penalties. Age-limit for judges. Liberalism of judges and authorities. The money of all the world. Absolutism of masonry. Right of appeal. Patriarchal "outside appearance" of the power of the future "ruler." Apotheosis of the ruler. The right of the strong as the one and only right. The King of Israel. Patriarch of all the world.

When we at last definitely come into our kingdom by the aid of coups d'etat prepared everywhere for one and the same day, after the worthlessness of all existing forms of government has been definitely acknowledged (and not a little time will pass before that comes about, perhaps even a whole century), we shall make it our task to see that against us such things as plots shall no longer exist. With this purpose we shall slay without mercy all who take arms (in hand) to oppose our coming into our kingdom. Every kind of new institution of anything like a secret society will also be punished with death; those of them which are now in existence, are known to us, serve us and have served us, we shall disband and send into exile to continents far removed from Europe. In this way we shall proceed with those GOY masons who know too much; such of these as we may for some reason spare will be kept in constant fear of exile. We shall promulgate a law making all former members of secret societies liable to exile from Europe as the centre of our rule.

Resolutions of our government will be final, without appeal.

In the goy societies, in which we have planted and deeply rooted discord and protestantism, the only possible way of restoring order is to employ merciless measures that prove the direct force of authority: no regard must be paid to the victims who fall, they suffer for the well-being of the future. The attainment of that well-being, even at the expense of sacrifices, is the duty of any kind of government that acknowledges as justification for its existence not only its privileges but its obligations. The principal guarantee of stability of rule is to confirm the aureole of power, and this aureole is attained only by such a majestic inflexibility of might as shall carry on its face the emblems of inviolability from mystical causes —from the choice of God. Such was, until recent times, the Russian autocracy, the one and only serious foe we had in the world, without counting the Papacy. Bear in mind the example when Italy, drenched with blood, never touched a hair of the head of Sulla who had poured forth that blood: Sulla enjoyed an apotheosis for his might in the eyes of the people, though they had been torn in pieces by him, but his intrepid return to Italy ringed him round with inviolability. The people do not lay a finger on him who hypnotizes them by his daring and strength of mind.

Meantime, however, until we come into our kingdom, we shall act in the contrary way: we shall create and multiply free masonic lodges in all the countries of the world, absorb into them all who may become or who are prominent in public activity, for in these lodges we shall find our principal intelligence office and means of influence. All these lodges we shall bring under one central administration, known to us alone and to all others absolutely unknown, which will be composed of our learned elders. The lodges will have their representatives who will serve to screen the above-mentioned administration of masonry and from whom will issue the watch-word and programme. In these lodges we shall tie together the knot which binds together all revolutionary and liberal elements. Their composition will be made up of all strata of society. The most secret political plots will be known to us and will fall under our guiding hands on the very day of their conception. Among the members of these lodges will be almost all the agents of international and national police since their service is for us irreplaceable in the respect that the police is in a position not only to use its own particular measures with the insubordinate, but also to screen our activities and provide pretexts for discontents, et cetera.

The class of people who most willingly enter into secret societies are those who live by their wits, careerists, and in general people, mostly light-minded, with whom we shall have no difficulty in dealing and in using to wind up the mechanism of the machine devised by us. If this world grows agitated the meaning of that will be that we have had to stir up in order to break up its too great solidarity. But if there should arise in its midst a plot, then at the head of that plot will be no other than one of our most trusted servants. It is natural that we and no other should lead masonic activities, for we know whither we are leading, we know the final goal of every form of activity whereas the goyim have knowledge of nothing, not even of the immediate effect of action; they put before themselves, usually, the momentary reckoning of the satisfaction of their self-opinion in the accomplishment of their thought without even remarking that the very conception never belonged to their initiative but to our instigation of their thought. . .

The goyim enter the lodges out of curiosity or in the hope by their means to get a nibble at the public pie, and some of them in order to obtain a hearing before the public for their impracticable and groundless fantasies: they thirst for the emotion of success and applause, of which we are remarkably generous. And the reason why we give them this success is to make use of the high conceit of themselves to which it gives birth, for that insensibly disposes them to assimilate our suggestions without being on their guard against them in the fullness of their confidence that it is their own infallibility which is giving utterance to their own thoughts and that it is impossible for them to borrow those of others. . . . You cannot imagine to what extent the wisest of the goyim can be brought to a state of unconscious naivete in the presence of this condition of high conceit of themselves, and at the same time how easy it is to take the heart out of them by the slightest ill-success, though it be nothing more than the stoppage of the applause they had, and to reduce them to a slavish submission for the sake of winning a renewal of success. . . . By so much as ours disregard success if only they can carry through their plans, by so much the GOYIM are willing to sacrifice any plans only to have success. This psychology of theirs materially facilitates for us the task of setting them in the required direction. These tigers in appearance have the souls of sheep and the wind blows freely through their heads. We have set them on the hobby-horse of an idea about the absorption of individuality by the symbolic unit of collectivism. . . . They have never yet and they never will have the sense to reflect that this hobby-horse is a manifest violation of the most important laws of nature, which has established from the very creation of the world one unit unlike another and precisely for the purpose of instituting individuality. . . .

If we have been able to bring them to such a pitch of stupid blindness is it not a proof, and an amazingly clear proof, of the degree to which the mind of the goyim is undeveloped in comparison with our mind? This it is, mainly, which guarantees our success.

And how far-seeing were our learned elders in ancient times when they said that to attain a serious end it behoves not to stop at any means or to count the victims sacrificed for the sake of that end. . . . We have not counted the victims of the seed of the goy cattle, though we have sacrificed many of our own, but for that we have now already given them such a position on the earth as they could not even have dreamed of. The comparatively small numbers of the victims from the number of ours have preserved our nationality from destruction.

Death is the inevitable end for all. It is better to bring that end nearer to those who hinder our affairs than to ourselves, to the founders of this affair. We execute masons in such wise that none save the brotherhood can ever have a suspicion of it, not even the victims themselves of our death sentence, they all die when required as if from a normal kind of illness. . . . Knowing this, even the brotherhood in its turn dare not protest. By such methods we have plucked out of the midst of masonry the very root of protest against our disposition. While preaching liberalism to the goyim we at the same time keep our own people and our agents in a state of unquestioning submission.

Under our influence the execution of the laws of the goyim has been reduced to a minimum. The prestige of the law has been exploded by the liberal interpretations introduced into this sphere. In the most important and fundamental affairs and questions judges decide as we dictate to them, see matters in the light wherewith we enfold them for the administration of the goyim, of course, through persons who are our tools though we do not appear to have anything in common with them—by newspaper opinion or by other means. . . . Even senators and the higher administration accept our counsels. The purely brute mind of the goyim is incapable of use for analysis and observation, and still more for the foreseeing whither a certain manner of setting a question may tend.

In this difference in capacity for thought between the goyim and ourselves may be clearly discerned the seal of our position on the Chosen People and of our higher quality of humanness, in contradistinction to the brute mind of the goyim. Their eyes are open, but see nothing before them and do not invent (unless, perhaps, material things). From this it is plain that nature herself has destined us to guide and rule the world.

When comes the time of our overt rule, the time to manifest its blessings, we shall remake all legislatures, all our laws will be brief, plain, stable, without any kind of interpretations, so that anyone will be in a position to know them perfectly. The main feature which will run right through them is submission to orders, and this principle will be carried to a grandiose height. Every abuse will then disappear in consequence of the responsibility of all down to the lowest unit before the higher authority of the representative of power. Abuses of power subordinate to this last instance will be so mercilessly punished that none will be found anxious to try experiments with their own powers. We shall follow up jealously every action of the administration on which depends the smooth running of the machinery of the State, for slackness in this produces slackness everywhere; not a single case of illegality or abuse of power will be left without exemplary punishment.

Concealment of guilt, connivance between those in the service of the administration—all this kind of evil will disappear after the very first examples of severe punishment. The aureole of our power demands suitable, that is, cruel, punishments for the slightest infringement, for the sake of gain, of its supreme prestige. The sufferer, though his punishment may exceed his fault, will count as a soldier falling on the administrative field of battle in the interest of authority, principle and law, which do not permit that any of those who hold the reins of the public coach should turn aside from the public highway to their own private paths. For example: our judges will know that whenever they feel disposed to plume themselves on foolish clemency they are violating the law of justice which is instituted for the exemplary edification of men by penalties for lapses and not for display of the spiritual qualities of the judge.

. . . Such qualities it is proper to show in private life, but not in a public square which is the educational basis of human life.

Our legal staff will serve not beyond the age of 55, firstly because old men more obstinately hold to prejudiced opinions, and are less capable of submitting to new directions, and secondly because this will give us the possibility by this measure of securing elasticity in the changing of staff, which will thus the more easily bend under our pressure: he who wishes to keep his place will have to give blind obedience to deserve it. In general, our judges will be elected by us only from among those who thoroughly understand that the part they have to play is to punish and apply laws and not to dream about the manifestations of liberalism at the expense of the educational scheme of the State, as the goyim in these days imagine it to be. . . . This method of shuffling the staff will serve also to explode any collective solidarity of those in the same service and will bind all to the interests of the government upon which their fate will depend. The young generation of judges will be trained in certain views regarding the inadmissibility of any abuses that might disturb the established order of our subjects among themselves.

In these days the judges of the goyim create indulgences to every kind of crimes, not having a just understanding of their office, because the rulers of the present age in appointing judges to office take no care to inculcate in them a sense of duty and consciousness of the matter which is demanded of them. As a brute beast lets out its young in search of prey, so do the goyim give their subjects places of profit without thinking to make clear to them for what purpose such place was created. This is the reason why their governments are being ruined by their own forces through the acts of their own administration.

Let us borrow from the example of the results of these actions yet another lesson for our government.

We shall root out liberalism from all the important strategic posts of our government on which depends the training of subordinates for our State structure. Such posts will fall exclusively to those who have been trained by us for administrative rule. To the possible objection that the retirement of old servants will cost the Treasury heavily, I reply, firstly, they will be provided with some private service in place of what they lose, and, secondly, I have to remark that all the money in the world will be concentrated in our hands, consequently it is not our government that has to fear expense.

Our absolutism will in all things be logically consecutive and therefore in each one of its decrees our supreme will will be respected and unquestionably fulfilled: it will ignore all murmurs, all discontents of every kind and will destroy to the root every kind of manifestation of them in act by punishment of an exemplary character.

We shall abolish the right of cassation, which will be transferred exclusively to our disposal—to the cognizance of him who rules, for we must not allow the conception among the people of a thought that there could be such a thing as a decision that is not right of judges set up by us. If, however, anything like this should occur, we shall ourselves cassate the decision, but inflict therewith such exemplary punishment on the judge for lack of understanding of his duty and the purposes of his appointment as will prevent a repetition of such cases. . . . I repeat that it must be borne in mind that we shall know every step of our administration which only needs to be closely watched for the people to be content with us, for it has the right to demand from a good government a good official.

Our government will have the appearance of a patriarchal paternal guardianship on the part of our ruler. Our own nation and our subjects will discern in his person a father caring for their every need, their every act, their every inter-relation as subjects one with another, as well as their relations to the ruler. They will then be so thoroughly imbued with the thought that it is impossible for them to dispense with this wardship and guidance, if they wish to live in peace and quiet, that they will acknowledge the autocracy of our ruler with a devotion bordering on APOTHEOSIS, especially when they are convinced that those whom we set up do not put their own in place of his authority, but only blindly execute his dictates. They will be rejoiced that we have regulated everything in their lives as is done by wise parents who desire to train their children in the cause of duty and submission. For the peoples of the world in regard to the secrets of our polity are ever through the ages only children under age, precisely as are also their governments.

As you see, I found our despotism on right and duty; the right to compel the execution of duty is the direct obligation of a government which is a father for its subjects. It has the right of the strong that it may use it for the benefit of directing humanity towards that order which is defined by nature, namely, submission. Everything in the world is in a state of submission, if not to man, then to circumstances or its own inner character, in all cases, to what is stronger. And so shall we be this something stronger for the sake of good.

We are obliged without hesitation to sacrifice individuals, who commit a breach of established order, for in the exemplary punishment of evil lies a great educational problem.

When the King of Israel sets upon his sacred head the crown offered him by Europe he will become patriarch of the world. The indispensable victims offered by him in consequence of their suitability will never reach the number of victims offered in the course of centuries by the mania of magnificence, the emulation between the goy governments.

Our King will be in constant communion with the peoples, making to them from the tribune speeches which fame will in that same hour distribute over all the world

Emasculation of the universities. Substitute for classicism. Training and calling. Advertisement of the authority of "the ruler" in the schools. Abolition of freedom of instruction. New Theories. Independence of thought. Teaching by object lessons.

In order to effect the destruction of all collective forces except ours we shall emasculate the first stage of collectivism—the universities, by re-educating them in a new direction. Their officials and professors will be prepared for their business by detailed secret programmes of action from which they will not with immunity diverge, not by one iota. They will be appointed with especial precaution, and will be so placed as to be wholly dependent upon the Government.

We shall exclude from the course of instruction State Law as also all that concerns the political question. These subjects will be taught to a few dozens of persons chosen for their pre-eminent capacities from among the number of the initiated. The universities must no longer send out from their halls milksops concocting plans for a constitution, like a comedy or a tragedy, busying themselves with questions of policy in which even their own fathers never had any power of thought.

The ill-guided acquaintances of a large number of persons with questions of polity creates Utopian dreamers and bad subjects, as you can see for yourselves from the example of the universal education in this direction of the goyim. We must introduce into their education all those principles which have so brilliantly broken up their order. But when we are in power we shall remove every kind of disturbing subject from the course of education and shall make out of the youth obedient children of authority, loving him who rules as the support and hope of peace and quiet.

Classicism, as also any form of study of ancient history, in which there are more bad than good examples, we shall replace with the study of the programme of the future. We shall erase from the memory of men all facts of previous centuries which are undesirable to us, and leave only those which depict all the errors of the government of the goyim. The study of practical life, of the obligations of order, of the relations of people one to another, of avoiding bad and selfish examples, which spread the infection of evil, and similar questions of an educative nature, will stand in the forefront of the teaching programme, which will be drawn up on a separate plan for each calling or state of life, in no wise generalizing the teaching. This treatment of the question has special importance.

Each state of life must be trained within strict limits corresponding to its destination and work in life. The occasional genius has always managed and always will manage to slip through into other states of life, but it is the most perfect folly for the sake of this rare occasional genius to let through into ranks foreign to them the un-talented who thus rob of their places those who belong to those ranks by birth or employment. You know yourselves in what all this has ended for the goyim who allowed this crying absurdity.

In order that he who rules may be seated firmly in the hearts and minds of his subjects it is necessary for the time of his activity to instruct the whole nation in the schools and on the market places about his meaning and his acts and all his beneficent initiatives.

We shall abolish every kind of freedom of instruction. Learners of all ages will have the right to assemble together with their parents in the educational establishments as it were in a club; during these assemblies, on holidays, teachers will read what will pass as free lectures on questions of human relations, of the laws of examples, of the limitations which are born of unconscious relations, and, finally, of the philosophy of new theories not yet declared to the world. These theories will be raised by us to the stage of a dogma of faith as a transitional stage towards our faith. On the completion of this exposition of our programme of action in the present and the future I will read you the principles of these theories.

In a word, knowing by the experience of many centuries that people live and are guided by ideas, that these ideas are imbibed by people only by the aid of education provided with equal success for all ages of growth, but of course by varying methods, we shall swallow up and confiscate to our own use the last scintilla of independence of thought, which we have for long past been directing towards subjects and ideas useful for us. The system of bridling thought is already at work in the so-called system of teaching by object lessons, the purpose of which is to turn the goyim into un-thinking submissive brutes waiting for things to be presented before their eyes in order to form an idea of them. . . . In France, one of our best agents, Bourgeois, has already made public a new programme of teaching by object lessons.

Advocacy. Influence of the priesthood of the goyim. Freedom of conscience. Papal Court. King of the Jews as Patriarch-Pope. How to fight the existing Church. Function of contemporary press. Organization of police. Volunteer police. Espionage on the pattern of the kabal espionage. Abuses of authority.

The practice of advocacy produces men cold, cruel, persistent, unprincipled, who in all cases take up an impersonal, purely legal standpoint. They have the inveterate habit to refer everything to its value for the defence and not to the public welfare of its results.

They do not usually decline to undertake any defence whatever, they strive for an acquittal at all costs, cavilling over every petty crux of jurisprudence and thereby they demoralize Justice. For this reason we shall set this profession into narrow frames which will keep it inside this sphere of executive public service. Advocates, equally with judges, will be deprived of the right of communication with litigants; they will receive business only from the court and will study it by notes of report and documents, defending their clients after they have been interrogated in court on facts that have appeared. They will receive an honorarium without regard to the quality of the defence. This will render them mere reporters on law-business in the interests of justice and as counterpoise to the proctor who will be the reporter in the interests of prosecution; this will shorten business before the courts. In this way will be established a practice of honest unprejudiced defence conducted not from personal interest but by conviction. This will also, by the way, remove the present practice of corrupt bargain between advocates to agree only to let that side win which pays most....

We have long past taken care to discredit the priesthood of the goyim, and thereby to ruin their mission on earth, which in these days might still be a great hindrance to us. Day by day its influence on the peoples of the world is falling lower. Freedom of conscience has been declared everywhere, so that now only years divide us from the moment of the complete wrecking of that Christian religion: as to other religions we shall have still less difficulty in dealing with them, but it would be premature to speak of this now. We shall set clericalism and clericals into such narrow frames as to make their influence move in retrogressive proportion to its former progress.

When the time comes finally to destroy the papal court the finger of an invisible hand will point the nations towards this court. When, however, the nations fling themselves upon it, we shall come forward in the guise of its defenders as if to save excessive bloodshed. By this diversion we shall penetrate to its very bowels and be sure we shall never come out again until we have gnawed through the entire strength of this place.

The King of the Jews will be the real Pope of the Universe, the patriarch of an international Church.

But, in the meantime, while we are re-educating youth in new traditional religions and afterwards in ours, we shall not overtly lay a finger on existing churches, but we shall fight against them by criticism calculated to produce schism. . . .

In general, then, our contemporary press will continue to convict State affairs, religions, incapacities of the goyim, always using the most unprincipled expressions in order by every means to lower their prestige in the manner which can only be practiced by the genius of our gifted tribe. . . .

Our kingdom will be an apologia of the divinity Vishnu, in whom is found its personification—in our hundred hands will be, one in each, the springs of the machinery of social life. We shall see everything without the aid of official police which, in that scope of its rights which we elaborated for the use of the goyim, hinders governments from seeing. In our programme one-third of our subjects will keep the rest under observation from a sense of duty, on the principle of volunteer service to the State. It will then be no disgrace to be a spy and informer, but a merit: unfounded denunciations, however, will be cruelly punished that there may be no development of abuses of this right.

Our agents will be taken from the higher as well as the lower ranks of society, from among the administrative class who spend their time in amusements, editors, printers and publishers, booksellers, clerks, and salesmen, workmen, coachmen, lackeys, etcetera. This body, having no rights and not being empowered to take any action on their own account, and consequently a police without any power, will only witness and report: verification of their reports and arrests will depend upon a responsible group of controllers of police affairs, while the actual act of arrest will be performed by the gendarmerie and the municipal police. Any person not denouncing anything seen or heard concerning questions of polity will also be charged with and made responsible for concealment, if it be proved that he is guilty of this crime.

Just as nowadays our brethren are obliged at their own risk to denounce to the kabal apostates of their own family or members who have been noticed doing anything in opposition to the kabal, so in our kingdom over all the world it will be obligatory for all our subjects to observe the duty of service to the State in this direction.

Such an organization will extirpate abuses of authority, of force, of bribery, everything in fact which we by our counsels, by our theories of the superhuman rights of man, have introduced into the customs of the goyim. . . . But how else were we to procure that increase of causes predisposing to disorders in the midst of their administration? . . . Among the number of those methods one of the most important is—agents for the restoration of order so placed as to have the opportunity in their disintegrating activity of developing and displaying their evil inclinations—obstinate self-conceit, irresponsible exercise of authority, and, first and foremost, venality.

Measures of secret defense. Observation of conspiracies from the inside. Overt secret defense—the ruin of authority. Secret defense of the King of the Jews. Mystical prestige of authority. Arrest on the first suspicion.

When it becomes necessary for us to strengthen the strict measures of secret defence (the most fatal poison for the prestige of authority) we shall arrange a simulation of disorders or some manifestation of discontents finding expression through the cooperation of good speakers. Round these speakers will assemble all who are sympathetic to his utterances. This will give us the pretext for domiciliary perquisitions and surveillance on the part of our servants from among the number of the goyim police. . . .

As the majority of conspirators act out of love for the game, for the sake of talking, so, until they commit some overt act we shall not lay a finger on them but only introduce into their midst observation elements. It must be remembered that the prestige of authority is lessened if it frequently discovers conspiracies against itself: this implies a presumption of consciousness of weakness, or, what is still worse, of injustice. You are aware that we have broken the prestige of the goy kings by frequent attempts upon their lives through our agents, blind sheep of our flock, who are easily moved by a few liberal phrases to crimes provided only they be painted in political colours. We have compelled the rulers to acknowledge their weakness in advertising overt measures of secret defence and thereby we shall bring the promise of authority to destruction.

Our ruler will be secretly protected only by the most insignificant guard, because we shall not admit so much as a thought that there could exist against him any sedition with which he is not strong enough to contend and is compelled to hide from it.

If we should admit this thought, as the goyim have done and are doing, we should ipso facto be signing a death sentence, if not for our ruler, at any rate for his dynasty, at no distant date.

According to strictly enforced outward appearances our ruler will employ his power only for the advantage of the nation and in no wise for his own or dynastic profits. Therefore, with the observance of this decorum, his authority will be respected and guarded by the subjects themselves, it will receive an apotheosis in the admission that with it is bound up the well-being of every citizen of the State, for upon it will depend all order in the common life of the pack. . . .

Overt defence of the kind argues weakness in the organization of his strength.

Our ruler will always among the people be surrounded by a mob of apparently curious men and women, who will occupy the front ranks about him, to all appearance by chance, and will restrain the ranks of the rest out of respect as it will appear for good order. This will sow an example of restraint also in others. If a petitioner appears among the people trying to hand a petition and forcing his way through the ranks, the first ranks must receive the petition and before the eyes of the petitioner pass it to the ruler, so that all may know that what is handed in reaches its destination, that, consequently there exists a control of the ruler himself. The aureole of power requires for its existence that the people may be able to say: "If the king knew of this," or: "the king will hear of it."

With the establishment of official secret defence the mystical prestige of authority disappears given a certain audacity, and everyone counts himself master of it, the sedition-monger is conscious of his strength, and when occasion serves watches for the moment to make an attempt upon authority. . . . For the goyim we have been preaching something else, but by that very fact we are enabled to see what measures of overt defence have brought them to. . . .

Criminals with us will be arrested at the first more or less well-grounded suspicion; it cannot be allowed that out of fear of a possible mistake an opportunity should be given of escape to persons suspected of a political lapse or crime, for in these matters we shall be literally merciless. If it is still possible, by stretching a point, to admit a reconsideration of the motive causes in simple crimes, there is no possibility of excuse for persons occupying themselves with questions in which nobody except the government can understand anything. . . . And it is not all governments that understand true policy.

The right of presenting petitions and projects. Sedition. Indictment of political crimes. Advertising of political crimes.

If we do not permit any independent dabbling in the political we shall on the other hand encourage every kind of report or petition with proposals for the government to examine into all kinds of projects for the amelioration of the condition of the people; this will reveal to us the defects or else the fantasies of our subjects, to which we shall respond either by accomplishing them or by a wise rebutment to prove the short-sightedness of one who judges wrongly.

Sedition-mongering is nothing more than the yapping of a lap-dog at an elephant. For a government well organized, not from the police but from the public point of view, the lap-dog yaps at the elephant in entire unconsciousness of its strength and importance. It needs no more than to take a good example to show the relative importance of both and the lap-dogs will cease to yap and will wag their tails the moment they set eyes on an elephant.

In order to destroy the prestige of heroism for political crime we shall send it for trial in the category of thieving, murder, and every kind of abominable and filthy crime. Public opinion will then confuse in its conception this category of crime with the disgrace attaching to every other and will brand it with the same contempt.

We have done our best, and I hope we have succeeded, to obtain that the goyim should not arrive at this means of contending with sedition. It was for this reason that through the Press and in speeches, indirectly—in cleverly compiled schoolbooks on history, we have advertised the martyrdom alleged to have been accepted by sedition-mongers for the idea of the commonweal. This advertisement has increased the contingent of liberals and has brought thousands of goyim into the ranks of our livestock cattle.

FINANCIAL PROGRAMME. Progressive tax. Stamp progressive taxation. Exchequer, interest-bearing papers and stagnation of currency. Method of accounting. Abolition of ceremonial displays. Stagnation of capital. Currency issue. Gold standard. Standard of cost of working man power. Budget. State loans. One per cent. interest series. Industrial shares. Rulers of the goyim: courtiers and favoritism, masonic agents.

Today we shall touch upon the financial programme, which I put off to the end of my report as being the most difficult, the crowning and the decisive point of our plans. Before entering upon it I will remind you that I have already spoken before by way of a hint when I said that the sum total of our actions is settled by the question of figures.

When we come into our kingdom our autocratic government will avoid, from a principle of self-preservation, sensibly burdening the masses of the people with taxes, remembering that it plays the part of father and protector. But as State organization costs dear it is necessary nevertheless to obtain the funds required for it. It will, therefore, elaborate with particular precaution the question of equilibrium in this matter.

Our rule, in which the king will enjoy the legal fiction that everything in his State belongs to him (which may easily be translated into fact), will be enabled to resort to the lawful confiscation of all sums of every kind for the regulation of their circulation in the State. From this follows that taxation will best be covered by a progressive tax on property. In this manner the dues will be paid without straitening or ruining anybody in the form of a percentage of the amount of property. The rich must be aware that it is their duty to place a part of their superfluities at the disposal of the State since the State guarantees them security of possession of the rest of their property and the right of honest gains, I say honest, for the control over property will do away with robbery on a legal basis.

This social reform must come from above, for the time is ripe for it—it is indispensable as a pledge of peace.

The tax upon the poor man is a seed of revolution and works to the detriment of the State which in hunting after the trifling is missing the big. Quite apart from this, a tax on capitalists diminishes the growth of wealth in private hands in which we have in these days concentrated it as a counterpoise to the government strength of the goyim—their State finances.

A tax increasing in a percentage ratio to capital will give a much larger revenue than the present individual or property tax, which is useful to us now for the sole reason that it excites trouble and discontent among the goyim.

The force upon which our king will rest consists in the equilibrium and the guarantee of peace, for the sake of which things it is indispensable that the capitalists should yield up a portion of their incomes for the sake of the secure working of the machinery of the State. State needs must be paid by those who will not feel the burden and have enough to take from.

Such a measure will destroy the hatred of the poor man for the rich, in whom he will see a necessary financial support for the State, will see in him the organizer of peace and well-being since he will see that it is the rich man who is paying the necessary means to attain these things.

In order that payers of the educated classes should not too much distress themselves over the new payments they will have full accounts given them of the destination of those payments, with the exception of such sums as will be appropriated for the needs of the throne and the administrative institutions.

He who reigns will not have any properties of his own once all in the State represents his patrimony, or else the one would be in contradiction to the other; the fact of holding private means would destroy the right of property in the common possessions of all.

Relatives of him who reigns, his heirs excepted, who will be maintained by the resources of the State, must enter the ranks of servants of the State or must work to obtain the right to property; the privilege of royal blood must not serve for the spoiling of the treasury.

Purchase, receipt of money or inheritance will be subject to the payment of a stamp progressive tax. Any transfer of property, whether money or other, without evidence of payment of this tax, which will be strictly registered by names, will render the former holder liable to pay interest on the tax from the moment of transfer of these sums up to the discovery of his evasion of declaration of the transfer. Transfer documents must be presented weekly at the local treasury office with notifications of the name, surname and permanent place of residence of the former and the new holder of the property. This transfer with register of names must begin from a definite sum which exceeds the ordinary expenses of buying and selling of necessities, and these will be subject to payment only by a stamp impost of a definite percentage of the unit.

Just strike an estimate of how many times such taxes as these will cover the revenue of the goyim States.

The State exchequer will have to maintain a definite complement of reserve sums, and all that is collected above that complement must be returned into circulation. On these sums will be organized public works. The initiative in works of this kind, proceeding from State sources, will bind the working class firmly to the interests of the State and to those who reign. From these same sums also a part will be set aside as rewards of inventiveness and productiveness.

On no account should so much as a single unit above the definite and freely estimated sums be retained in the State treasuries, for money exists to be circulated and any kind of stagnation of money acts ruinously on the running of the state machinery, for which it is the lubricant; a stagnation of the lubricant may stop the regular working of the mechanism.

The substitution of interest-bearing paper for a part of the token of exchange has produced exactly this stagnation. The consequences of this circumstance are already sufficiently noticeable.

A court of account will also be instituted by us, and in it the ruler will find at any moment a full accounting for State income and expenditure, with the exception of the current monthly account, not yet made up, and that of the preceding month, which will not yet have been delivered.

The one and only person who will have no interest in robbing the State is its owner, the ruler. This is why the personal control will remove the possibility of leakages of extravagances.

The representative function of the ruler at receptions for the sake of etiquette, which absorbs so much invaluable time, will be abolished in order that the ruler may have time for control and consideration. His power will not then be split up into fractional parts among time-serving favourites who surround the throne for its pomp and splendour, and are interested only in their own and not in the common interests of the State.

Economic crises have been produced by us for the goyim by no other means than the withdrawal of money from circulation. Huge capitals have stagnated, withdrawing money from States, which were constantly obliged to apply to those same stagnant capitals for loans. These loans burdened the finances of the State with the payment of interest and made them the bond slaves of these capitals. . . . The concentration of industry in the hands of capitalists out of the hands of small masters has drained away all the juices of the peoples and with them also of the States. . . .

The present issue of money in general does not correspond with the requirements per head, and cannot therefore satisfy all the needs of the workers. The issue of money ought to correspond with the growth of population and thereby children also must absolutely be reckoned as consumers of currency from the day of their birth. The revision of issue is a material question for the whole world.

You are aware that the gold standard has been the ruin of the States which adopted it, for it has not been able to satisfy the demands for money, the more so that we have removed gold from circulation as far as possible.

With us the standard that must be introduced is the cost of working-man power, whether it be reckoned in paper or in wood. We shall make the issue of money in accordance with the normal requirements of each subject, adding to the quantity with every birth and subtracting with every death.

The accounts will be managed by each department (the French administrative division), each circle.

In order that there may be no delays in the paying out of money for State needs the sums and terms of such payments will be fixed by decree of the ruler; this will do away with the protection by a ministry of one institution to the detriment of others.

The budgets of income and expenditure will be carried out side by side that they may not be obscured by distance one to another.

The reforms projected by us in the financial institutions and principles of the goyim will be clothed by us in such forms as will alarm nobody. We shall point out the necessity of reforms in consequence of the disorderly darkness into which the goyim by their irregularities have plunged the finances. The first irregularity, as we shall point out, consists in their beginning with drawing up a single budget which year after year grows owing to the following cause: this budget is dragged out to half the year, then they demand a budget to put things right, and this they expend in three months, after which they ask for a supplementary budget, and all this ends with a liquidation budget. But, as the budget of the following year is drawn up in accordance with the sum of the total addition, the annual departure from the normal reaches as much as 50 per cent. in a year, add so the annual budget is trebled in ten years. Thanks to such methods, allowed by the carelessness of the goy States; their treasuries are empty. The period of loans supervenes, and that has swallowed up remainders and brought all the goy States to bankruptcy.

You understand perfectly that economic arrangements of this kind, which have been suggested to the goyim by us, cannot be carried on by us.

Every kind of loan proves infirmity in the State and a want of understanding of the rights of the State. Loans hang like a sword of Damocles over the heads of rulers, who, instead of taking from their subjects by a temporary tax, come begging with outstretched palm of our bankers. Foreign loans are leeches which there is no possibility of removing from the body of the State until they fall off of themselves or the State flings them off. But the goy States do not tear them off; they go on in persisting in putting more on to themselves so that they must inevitably perish, drained by voluntary blood-letting.

What also indeed is, in substance, a loan, especially a foreign loan? A loan is—an issue of government bills of exchange containing a percentage obligation commensurate to the sum of the loan capital. If the loan bears a charge of 5 per cent., then in twenty years the State vainly pays away in interest a sum equal to the loan borrowed, in forty years it is paying a double sum, in sixty—treble, and all the while the debt remains an unpaid debt.

From this calculation it is obvious that with any form of taxation per head the State is baling out the last coppers of the poor taxpayers in order to settle accounts with wealthy foreigners, from whom it has borrowed money instead of collecting these coppers for its own needs without the additional interest.

So long as loans were internal the goyim only shuffled their money from the pockets of the poor to those of the rich, but when we bought up the necessary person in order to transfer loans into the external sphere all the wealth of States flowed into our cash-boxes and all the goyim began to pay us the tribute of subjects.

If the superficiality of goy kings on their thrones in regard to State affairs and the venality of ministers or the want of understanding of financial matters on the part of other ruling persons have made their countries debtors to our treasuries to amounts quite impossible to pay, it has not been accomplished without on our part heavy expenditure of trouble and money.

Stagnation of money will not be allowed by us and therefore there will be no State-interest bearing paper, except a one-per-cent. series, so that there will be no payment of interest to leeches that suck all the strength out of the State. The right to issue interest-bearing paper will be given exclusively to industrial companies who will find no difficulty in paying interest out of profits, whereas the State does not make interest on borrowed money like these companies, for the State borrows to spend and not to use in operations.

Industrial papers will be bought also by the government which from being as now a payer of tribute by loan operations will be transformed into a lender of money at a profit. This measure will stop the stagnation of money, parasitic profits and idleness, all of which were useful for us among the goyim so long as they were independent but are not desirable under our rule.

How clear is the undeveloped power of thought of the purely brute brains of the goyim, as expressed in the fact that they have been borrowing from us with payment of interest without ever thinking that all the same these very moneys, plus an addition for payment of interest, must be got by them from their own State pockets in order to settle up with us. What could have been simpler than to take the money they wanted from their own people?

But it is a proof of the genius of our chosen mind that we have contrived to present the matter of loans to them in such a light that they have even seen in them an advantage for themselves.

Our accounts, which we shall present when the time comes, in the light of centuries of experience gained by experiments made by us on the goy States, will be distinguished by clearness and definiteness and will show at a glance to all men the advantage of our innovations. They will put an end to those abuses to which we owe our mastery over the goyim, but which cannot be allowed in our kingdom.

We shall so hedge about our system of accounting that neither the ruler nor the most insignificant public servant will be in a position to divert even the smallest sum from its destination without detection or to direct it in another direction except that which will be once fixed in a definite plan of action.

And without a definite plan it is impossible to rule. Marching along an undetermined road and with undetermined resources brings to ruin by the way heroes and demi-gods.

The goy rulers, whom we once upon a time advised should be distracted from State occupations by representatives' receptions, ob-servances of etiquette, entertainments, were only screens for our rule. The accounts of favourite courtiers who replaced them in the sphere of affairs were drawn up for them by our agents, and every time gave satisfaction to short-sighted minds by promises that in the future economies and improvements were foreseen. . . . Economies from what? From new taxes?—were questions that might have been but were not asked by those who read our accounts and projects. . . .

You know to what they have been brought by this carelessness, to what a pitch of financial disorder they have arrived, notwithstanding the astonishing industry of their peoples. . . .

Protocol No. 21

Internal loans. Debit and taxes. Conversions. Bankruptcy. Savings banks and rents. Abolition of money markets. Regulation of industrial values.

To what I reported to you at the last meeting I shall now add a detailed explanation of internal loans. Of foreign loans I shall say nothing more, because they have fed us with the national moneys of the goyim, but for our State there will be no foreigners, that is, nothing external.

We have taken advantage of the venality of administrators and the slackness of rulers to get our moneys twice, thrice and more times over, by lending to the goy governments, moneys which were not at all needed by the States. Could anyone do the like in regard to us? . . . Therefore I shall only deal with the details of internal loans.

States announce that such a loan is to be concluded and open subscriptions for their own bills of exchange, that is, for their interest-bearing paper. That they may be within the reach of all, the price is determined at from a hundred to a thousand; and a discount is made for the earliest subscribers. Next day by artificial means the price of them goes up, the alleged reason being that everyone is rushing to buy them. In a few days the treasury safes are as they say overflowing and there's more money than they can do with (why then take it?). The subscription, it is alleged, covers many times over the issue total of the loan; in this lies the whole stage effect—look you, they say, what confidence is shown in the government's bills of exchange.

But when the comedy is played out there emerges the fact that a debit, and an exceedingly burdensome debit, has been created. For the payment of interest it becomes necessary to have recourse to new loans which do not swallow up but only add to the capital debt. And when this credit is exhausted it becomes necessary by new taxes to cover, not the loan, but only the interest on it. These taxes are a debit employed to cover a debit.

Later comes the time for conversions, but they diminish the payment of interest without covering the debt, and besides they cannot be made without the consent of the lenders; on announcing a conversion a proposal is made to return the money to those who are not willing to convert their paper. If everybody expressed his unwillingness and demanded his money back, the government would be hooked on their own flies and would be found insolvent and unable to pay the proposed sums. By good luck the subjects of the goy governments, knowing nothing about financial affairs, have always preferred losses on exchange and diminution of interest to the risk of new investments of their moneys, and have thereby many a time enabled these governments to throw off their shoulders a debit of several millions.

Nowadays, with external loans, these tricks cannot be played by the goyim for they know that we shall demand all our moneys back.

In this way an acknowledged bankruptcy will best prove to the various countries the absence of any means between the interests of the peoples and of those who rule them.

I beg you to concentrate your particular attention upon this point and upon the following: nowadays all internal loans are consolidated by so-called flying loans, that is, such as have terms of payment more or less near. These debts consist of moneys paid into the savings banks and reserve funds. If left for long at the disposition of a government these funds evaporate in the payment of interest on foreign loans, and are replaced by the deposit of equivalent amount of rentes.

And these last it is which patch up all the leaks in the State treasuries of the goyim.

When we ascend the throne of the world all these financial and similar shifts, as being not in accord with our interests, will be swept away so as not to leave a trace, as also will be destroyed all money markets, since we shall not allow the prestige of our power to be shaken by fluctuations of prices set upon our values, which we shall announce by law at the price which represents their full worth without any possibility of lowering or raising. (Raising gives the pretext for lowering, which indeed was where we made a beginning in relation to the values of the goyim.)

We shall replace the money markets by grandiose government credit institutions, the object of which will be to fix the price of industrial values in accordance with government views. These institutions will be in a position to fling upon the market five hundred millions of industrial paper in one day, or to buy up for the same amount. In this way all industrial undertakings will come into dependence upon us. You may imagine for yourselves what immense power we shall thereby secure for ourselves. . . .

The secret of what is coming. The evil of many centuries as the foundation of future well-being. The aureole of power and its mystical worship.

In all that has so far been reported by me to you, I have endeavoured to depict with care the secret of what is coming, of what is past, and of what is going on now, rushing into the flood of the great events coming already in the near future, the secret of our relations to the goyim and of financial operations. On this subject there remains still a little for me to add.

In our hands is the greatest power of our day—gold, in two days we can procure from our storehouses any quantity we may please.

Surely there is no need to seek further proof that our rule is pre-destined by God? Surely we shall not fail with such wealth to prove that all that evil which for so many centuries we have had to commit has served at the end of ends the cause of true well-being—the bringing of everything into order? Though it be even by the exercise of some violence, yet all the same it will be established. We shall contrive to prove that we are benefactors who have restored to the rent and mangled earth the true good and also freedom of the person, and therewith we shall enable it to be enjoyed in peace and quiet, with proper dignity of relations, on the condition, of course, of strict observance of the laws established by us. We shall make plain therewith that freedom does not consist in dissipation and in the right of unbridled license any more than the dignity and force of a man do not consist in the right of everyone to promulgate destructive principles in the nature of freedom of conscience, equality and the like; that freedom of the person in no wise consists in the right to agitate oneself and others by abominable speeches before disorderly mobs, and that true freedom consists in the inviolability of the person who honourably and strictly observes all the laws of life in common, that human dignity is wrapped up in consciousness of the rights and also of the absence of rights of each, and not wholly and solely in fantastic imaginings about the subject of one's ego.

Our authority will be glorious because it will be all-powerful, will rule and guide, and not muddle along after leaders and orators shrieking themselves hoarse with senseless words which they call great principles and which are nothing else, to speak honestly, but Utopian. . . . Our authority will be the crown of order, and in that is included the whole happiness of man. The aureole of this authority will inspire a mystical bowing of the knee before it and a reverent fear before it of all the peoples. True force makes no terms with any right, not even with that of God: none dare come near to it so as to take so much as a span from it away.

Protocol No. 23

Reduction of the manufacture of articles of luxury. Small master production. Unemployment. Prohibition of drunkenness. Killing out of the old society and its resurrection in a new form. The chosen one of God.

That the peoples may become accustomed to obedience it is necessary to inculcate lessons of humility and therefore to reduce the production of articles of luxury. By this we shall improve morals which have been debased by emulation in the sphere of luxury. We shall re-establish small master production which will mean laying a mine under the private capital of manufacturers. This is indispensable also for the reason that manufacturers on the grand scale often move, though not always consciously, the thoughts of the masses in directions against the government. A people of small masters knows nothing of unemployment and this binds him closely with existing order, and consequently with the firmness of authority. Unemployment is a most perilous thing for a government. For us its part will have been played out the moment authority is transferred into our hands. Drunkenness also will be prohibited by law and punishable as a crime against the humanness of man who is turned into a brute under the influence of alcohol.

Subjects, I repeat once more, give blind obedience only to the strong hand which is absolutely independent of them, for in it they feel the sword of defence and support against social scourges . . . What do they want with an angelic spirit in a king? What they have to see in him is the personification of force and power.

The supreme lord who will replace all now existing rulers, dragging on their existence among societies demoralized by us, societies that have denied even the authority of God, from whose midst breaks out on all sides the fire of anarchy, must first of all proceed to quench this all-devouring flame. Therefore he will be obliged to kill off those existing societies, though he should drench them with his own blood, that he may resurrect them again in the form of regularly organized troops fighting consciously with every kind of infection that may cover the body of the State with sores.

This Chosen One of God is chosen from above to demolish the senseless forces moved by instinct and not reason, by brutishness and not humanness. These forces now triumph in manifestations of robbery and every kind of violence under the mask of principles of freedom and rights. They have overthrown all forms of social order to erect on the ruins the throne of the King of the Jews; but their part will be played out the moment he enters into his kingdom. Then it will be necessary to sweep them away from his path, on which must be left no knot, no splinter.

Then will it be possible for us to say to the peoples of the world: "Give thanks to God and bow the knee before him who bears on his front the seal of the predestination of man, to which God himself has led his starthat none other but Him might free us from all the before mentioned forces and evils."

Protocol No. 24

Confirming the roots of King David (?). Training of the King. Setting aside of direct heirs. The king and three of his sponsors. The king is fate. Irreproachability of exterior morality of the King of the Jews.

I pass now to the method of confirming the dynastic roots of King David to the last strata of the earth.

This confirmation will first and foremost be included in that in which to this day has rested the force of conservatism by our learned elders of the conduct of all the affairs of the world, in the directing of the education of thought of all humanity.

Certain members of the seed of David will prepare the kings and their heirs, selecting not by right of heritage but by eminent capacities, inducting them into the most secret mysteries of the political, into schemes of government, but providing always that none may come to knowledge of the secrets. The object of this mode of action is that all may know that government cannot be entrusted to those who have not been inducted into the secret places of its art. . . .

To these persons only will be taught the practical application of the aforesigned plans by comparison of the experiences of many centuries, all the observations on the politico-economic moves and social sciences—in a word, all the spirit of laws which have been unshakably established by nature herself for the regulation of the relations of humanity.

Direct heirs will often be set aside from ascending the throne if in their time of training they exhibit frivolity, softness and other qualities that are the ruin of authority, which render them incapable of governing and in themselves dangerous for kingly office.

Only those who are unconditionally capable for firm, even if it be to cruelty, direct rule will receive the reins of rule from our learned elders.

In case of falling sick with weakness of will or other form of incapacity, kings must by law hand over the reins of rule to new and capable hands. . . .

The king's plans of action for the current moment, and all the more so for the future, will be unknown, even to those who are called his closest counsellors.

Only the king and the three who stood sponsor for him will know what is coming.

In the person of the king who with unbending will is master of himself and of humanity all will discern as it were fate with its mysterious ways. None will know what the king wishes to attain by his dispositions, and therefore none will dare to stand across an unknown path.

It is understood that the brain reservoir of the king must correspond in capacity to the plan of government it has to contain. It is for this reason that he will ascend the throne not otherwise than after examination of his mind by the aforesaid learned elders.

That the people may know and love their king it is indispensable for him to converse in the market-places with his people. This ensures the necessary clinching of the two forces which are now divided one from another by us by the terror.

This terror was indispensable for us till the time comes for both these forces separately to fall under our influence.

The King of the Jews must not be at the mercy of his passions, and especially of sensuality: on no side of his character must he give brute instincts power over his mind. Sensuality worse than all else disorganizes the capacities of the mind and clearness of views, distracting the thoughts to the worst and most brutal side of human activity.

The prop of humanity in the person of the supreme lord of all the world of the holy seed of David must sacrifice to his people all personal inclinations.

Our supreme lord must be of an exemplary irreproachability.

Lord Sydenham on the "Protocols"

[The following letter appeared in the Spectator of August 27, 1921, and the late Lord Sydenham kindly consented to its reproduction.]

SIR—When the Protocols first appeared in English it was pointed out that they embodied a forgery perpetrated by the Tsar's police with the idea of promoting pogroms. It now appears that they are adapted from a "pamphlet of 1865 attacking the Second Empire." This is most interesting, but it explains nothing. As you point out, Mrs. Webster had shown the Protocols to be full of plagiarisms which she effectively explained by the use of parallel columns, and before her most able book appeared Mr. Lucien Wolfe had traced other similarities. As the Protocols were obviously a compilation this was to be expected, and further resemblances may be discovered. The importance of the most sinister compilation that has ever appeared resides in the subject matter. The Protocols explain in almost laborious detail the objects of Bolshevism and the methods of carrying it into effect. Those methods were in operation in 1901, when Nilus said that he received the documents, but Bolshevism was then Marxian Communism, and the time had not come for applying it by military force. Nothing that was written in 1865 can have any bearing upon the deadly accuracy of the forecasts in the Protocols, most of which have since been fulfilled to the letter. Moreover the principles they enunciate correspond closely with the recorded statements of Jewish authorities. If you will read the American edition, with its valuable annexes, you will understand this and the confirmatory quotations there given can be multiplied. Even the "Jewish world despotism," which you described as "a piece of malignant lunacy," is not obscurely hinted at. Take this one quotation from the Jewish State, by Theodore Herzl: "When we sink we become a revolutionary proletariat, the subordinate officers of the revolutionary party; when we rise, there rises also our terrible power of the purse." Compare this ominous statement with those of the Protocols, of which it is plainly an echo.

I note with thankfulness that you say that the discovery of the French pamphlet "does not clear up the whole mystery." Indeed it does not, and if you will carefully read Mr. Ford's amazing disclosures you will wish for more light. The main point is, of course, the source from which Nilus obtained the Protocols. The Russians who knew Nilus and his writings cannot all have been exterminated by the Bolsheviks. His book, in which the Protocols only form one chapter, has not been translated; though it would give some idea of the man. He was, I have been told by a Russian lady, absolutely incapable either of writing any portion of the Protocols or of being a party to a fraud.

What is the most striking characteristic of the Protocols? The answer is knowledge of a rare kind, embracing the widest field. The solution of the "mystery," if it is one, is to be found by ascertaining where this uncanny knowledge, on which prophecies now literally fulfilled are based, can be shown to reside.—I am, Sir, &c.,

SYDENHAM.

ADDENDUM STARTLING NEW DOCUMENTS

The manifesto of Adolphe Cremieux, addressed to the Nation of Jewry on the occasion of the founding of the Universal Israelite Alliance. This has been pronounced a forgery, and something much less committal—especially written for Gentile consumption—has been produced as the "real" thing. The unfortunate part of the business is that the "forgery" corresponds infinitely more closely with the facts of history than that which is claimed to be genuine! It proclaims three incontrovertible truths: (1) that the Jewish Nation is the enemy of all nations; (2) that Jews claim that they are a people "Chosen" to dominate the whole earth, and take possession of all the riches of all peoples; (3) that the power of all nations is already in their hands, and that Jews think they are on the eve of their complete conquest of the rest of the human race. The date of this Protocol, No. 2 of our series, is 1860.

We take this Protocol from the Morning Post of September 6th, 1920:

"A correspondent writing in reference to the hidden perils draws attention to a Manifesto issued in 1860 to the 'Jews of the Universe,' by Adolphe Cremieux, the founder of the Alliance Israelite Universelle, and the well-known member of the Provisional Government of 1871. Adolphe Cremieux, while Grand Master of the French Masonic Lodges, offered 1,000,000 francs for the head of William I of Germany. On his tomb he requested the following sole inscription to be inscribed:

"Here lies Adolphe Cremieux, the founder of the Alliance Israelite Universelle."

THE MANIFESTO

Emblem: On top—the tablets of Moses, a little lower—two extended hands clasping each other, and as basis of the whole—the globe of the earth.

Motto: "All Jews for one, and one for all."

The union which we desire to found will not be a French, English, Irish, or German union, but a Jewish one, a Universal one.

Other peoples and races are divided into nationalities; we alone have not co-citizens, but exclusively co-religionaries.

A Jew will under no circumstances become the friend of a Christian or a Moslem before the moment arrives when the light of the Jewish Faith, the only religion of reason, will shine all over the world.

Scattered amongst other nations, who from time immemorial were hostile to our rights and interests, we desire primarily to be and to remain immutably Jews.

Our nationality is the religion of our fathers, and we recognize no other nationality.

We are living in foreign lands, and cannot trouble about the mutable ambitions of countries entirely alien to us, while our own moral and material problems are endangered.

The Jewish teaching must cover the whole earth. Israelites! No matter where fate should lead—though scattered all over the earth, you must always consider yourselves members of a Chosen Race.

If you realize that the Faith of your forefathers is your only patriotism—

—if you recognize that, notwithstanding the nationalities you have embraced, you always remain and everywhere form one and only nation—

—if you believe that Jewry only is the one and only religious and political truth—

—if you are convinced of this, you, Israelites of the Universe—

—then come and give ear to our appeal and prove to us your consent!

Our cause is great and holy, and its success is guaranteed. Catholicism, our immemorial enemy, is lying in the dust, mortally wounded in the head.

The net which Israel is throwing over the globe of the earth is widening and spreading daily, and the momentous prophecies of our holy books are at last to be realized.

The time is near when Jerusalem will become the house of prayer for all nations and peoples, and the banner of Jewish mono-deity will be unfurled and hoisted on the most distant shores.

Let us avail ourselves of all circumstances.

Our might is immense—learn to adopt this might for our cause. What have you to be afraid of?

The day is not distant when all the riches and treasures of the earth will become the property of the Children of Israel."

More than sixty years have elapsed since this Protocol was written, and the riches of the earth are now almost entirely in the possession or under the control of the Children of Israel. The Torah, said the Jew poet, Heine, is the Jews' "portable Fatherland." Cre-mieux says practically the same thing—"the faith of our fathers is your only patriotism." The Jew regards all non-Jews as foreigners, and he is an alien everywhere.

FUNERAL ORATION THE FATAL DISCOURSE OF RABBI REICHORN

Appended to the prophecies of this Protocol we have put a few of the events which have happened in fulfillment. It will be seen that there is a close correspondence between this Protocol, the Cre-mieux Manifesto, and the epistle emanating from the "Prince of the Jews" in 1489 A. D., and published in a Rothschild magazine. It is probable that when the latter was published it was not imagined that any Gentile would ever think of connecting it with other documents emanating from Jewry, or with modern happenings.

[In its issue of 21 October, 1920 (No. 195) La Vieille France published an extremely important Russian document in which the following passage occurs:

"There is a striking analogy between the Protocols of the Elders of Zion and the discourse of the Rabbi Reichorn, pronounced in Prague in 1869 over the tomb of the Grand Rabbi Simeon-ben-Ihuda, and published by Readcliffe, who paid with his life for the divulgence; Sonol, who had taken Readcliffe to hear Reichhorn, was killed in a duel some time afterwards. The general ideas formulated by the Rabbi are found fully developed in the Protocols."

In its issue of 10 March, 1921 (No. 214) La Vieille France gives the version of this funeral oration which was published in La Russie

Juive. It is perfectly clear that the funeral oration and the Protocols of the Elders of Zion come from one and the same mint. Both are prophetic; and the power which made the prophecies has been able to bring about their fulfillment. This oration is so important that we append to it an account of the fulfillment of each of the sections. There can no longer be any doubt as to whose is the power which is disturbing the world, creating World Unrest, and at the same time reaping all the profits. Jewry is enslaving all Christian peoples of the earth. There IS a Jew World Plot and it now stands finally and completely unmasked.]

1. Every hundred years, We, the Sages of Israel, have been accustomed to meet in Sanhedrin in order to examine our progress towards the domination of the world which Jehovah has promised us, and our conquests over the enemy—Christianity.

2. This year, united over the tomb of our reverend Simeon-ben-Ihuda, we can state with pride that the past century has brought us very near to our goal, and that this goal will be very soon attained.

3. GOLD always has been and always will be the irresistible power. Handled by expert hands it will always be the most useful lever for those who possess it, and the object of envy for those who do not. With gold we can buy the most rebellious consciences, can fix the rate of all values, the current price of all products, can subsidise all State loans, and thereafter hold the states at our mercy.

4. Already the principal banks, the exchanges of the entire world, the credits of all the governments, are in our hands.

5. The other great power is THE PRESS. By repeating without cessation certain ideas, the Press succeeds in the end in having them accepted as actualities. The Theatre renders us analogous services. Everywhere the Press and the Theatre obey our orders.

6. By the ceaseless praise of DEMOCRATIC RULE we shall divide the Christians into political parties, we shall destroy the unity of their nations, we shall sow discord everywhere. Reduced to impotence, they will bow before the LAW OF OUR BANK, always united, and always devoted to our Cause.

7. We shall force the Christians into wars by exploiting their pride and their stupidity. They will massacre each other, and clear the ground for us to put our own people into.

8. The possession of the land has always brought influence and power. In the name of social Justice and Equality we shall parcel out the great estates; we shall give the fragments to the peasants who covet them with all their powers, and who will soon be in debt to us by the expense of cultivating them. Our capital will make us their masters. We in our turn shall become the great proprietors, and the possession of the land will assure the power to us.

9. Let us try to replace the circulation of gold with paper money; our chests will absorb the gold, and we shall regulate the value of the paper which will make us masters of all the positions.

10. We count among us plenty of orators capable of feigning enthusiasm and of persuading mobs. We shall spread them among the people to announce changes which should secure the happiness of the human race. By gold and by flattery we shall gain the proletariat which will charge itself with annihilating Christian capitalism. We shall promise workmen salaries of which they have never dared to dream, but we shall also raise the price of necessities so that our profits will be greater still.

11. In this manner we shall prepare Revolutions which the Christians will make themselves and of which we shall reap the fruit.

12. By our mockeries and our attacks upon them we shall make their priests ridiculous then odious, and their religion as ridiculous and as odious as their clergy. Then we shall be masters of their souls. For our pious attachment to our own religion, to our own worship, will prove the superiority of our religion and the superiority of our souls.

13. We have already established our own men in all important positions. We must endeavor to provide the Goyim with lawyers and doctors; the lawyers are au courant with all interests; doctors once in the house, become confessors and directors of consciences.

14. But above all let us monopolize Education. By this means we spread ideas that are useful to us, and shape the children's brains as suits us.

15. If one of our people should unhappily fall into the hands of justice amongst the Christians, we must rush to help him; find as many witnesses as he needs to save him from his judges, until we become judges ourselves.

16. The monarchs of the Christian world, swollen with ambition and vanity, surround themselves with luxury and with numerous armies. We shall furnish them with all the money their folly demands, and so shall keep them in leash.

17. Let us take care not to hinder the marriage of our men with Christian girls, for through them we shall get our foot into the most closely locked circles. If our daughters marry Goyim they will be no less useful, for the children of a Jewish mother are ours. Let us foster the idea of free love, that we may destroy among Christian women attachment to the principles and practices of their religion.

18. For ages past the sons of Israel, despised and persecuted have been working to open up a path to power. They are hitting the mark. They control the economic life of the accursed Christians; their influence preponderates over politics and over manners.

19. At the wished for hour, fixed in advance, we shall let loose the Revolution, which by ruining all classes of Christianity will definitely enslave the Christians to Us. Thus will be accomplished the promise of God made to His People.

THE FULFILLMENT OF THE PROPHECIES (1923)

[The "God" who promised to give "all the kingdoms of the world and the glory of them" to his worshippers we know. He is the God of Judas, of Herod and of Cain. Let us now see how he has carried out his promise. Paragraph by paragraph we will take the items. Let our readers compare them by their numbers.]

1. Within the half century which has elapsed since this prophetic oration was made, Judaism has taken giant strides in its conquests over its age-long "Enemy"—Christianity. Purse, Press, Politics—these are the engines by means of which the Elders of Zion have made their conquest.

2. Four of the Christian Empires—Russia, Austria, Germany and France—have already succumbed to the Jew power. Only the British Empire is left, and all its most precious institutions are already under Jew control, which is working ceaselessly for its final betrayal.

3. The GOLD of the Nations is the real LORD OF ISRAEL. The Gold mart of England is closed on the Jews' "Holy days!" Said the Evening Standard, October 12, 1921—"Gold was unregistered today owing to the Jewish religious observance." In the Jews' expert hands gold has bought Parliament, Premiers, Parties, Politics, Principles and Consciences, as the doings of the Parliament which was once England's reveal. Jews have flooded all nations with paper money, retaining the gold themselves. They control all the exchanges of the world and fix or unfix the rates of exchange as suits their interests. Jews have raised prices pari passu with wages and so have kept up Industrial Unrest, which is one of their chief assets.

4. As for the principal Banks and Exchanges, the names of Rothschild, Gwinner, Bleichroder, Schroeder, Schuster, Goldschmidt, Goschen, Speyer, Schiff, Loeb, Kahn, Kuhn, Cassel, Samuel, Warburg, Guggenheim, sufficiently attest the Overlordship of Jewry in Lucre's Empire.

5. But without control of the World's Press, the power of Gold could not be maintained. The PRESS of one country would not be sufficient. Hence the necessity of securing control of all lines of communication, press agencies, Wolff Bureaux, Reuter's, Agence Havas, Marconi's, advertisement agencies as well as the actual ownership of papers, such as exists throughout the world today. In our own country there is not a single daily morning paper, except the Morning Post, which has any freedom from Jew control. The theatres and cinemas are equally tied, and the British Public are treated to Jew propaganda plays like the "Little Brother," "Welcome Stranger," "The Wandering Jew," and Mr. Levy's lavatory-and-bed-chamber plays in his Grand Guignol. "Everywhere the Press and the Theatre are under our orders." And the Jews are so well placed in regard to cinemas that they boast that they can censor their own films! (Jewish Guardian.)

6. "Liberalism" is one of the chief instruments of the Jewish power. Through preaching this doctrine, and getting into the machinery of Liberal parties Jews have exploited for their own ends the generous instincts of all the peoples who have received them into their communities. Jews have preached "democracy," and through getting their dupes to believe in it, have succeeded in riveting on their necks the chain of Shylocracy, the rule of the Crowned Usurer. Shylock-Rothschild, who was admitted to England's parliament by "Liberal" statesmen, now rules the world. Jew Banks appear to be many, but in reality they are ONLY ONE. Reduced to impotence the Nations bow before the Law—not of Moses even, but—of the Jew's Bank—"always united and always devoted to our (Jewish) cause."

7. Thanks to the terrible power of this BANK, Jews have forced Christians into wars without number, culminating in the Great War. Wars have this especial value for Jews that Christians massacre each other and make more room for the Chosen People. Moreover, as Werner Sombart truly says, "Wars are the Jews' Harvests." The JEWS' BANK grows fat on the wars of Christians. Nearly one hundred millions of Christians have been swept off the face of the globe already by the War, which the Jews planned, and which is not yet by any means over in spite of official "Peace" celebrations, and the Lords of Gold are stronger than ever.

8. By Jew-made laws the ancient proprietors of England are being rapidly deprived of their estates, and farmers and labourers are at the same time becoming more and more completely enslaved under Shylock's power.

9. Jews have the gold and we have paper money. Jews give the paper the "value" which suits their interests. So that a good harvest may mean ruin to a farmer just as readily as a bad one through Jew manipulation of prices and exchanges. At the present day, for purposes of selling, a litter of pedigree puppies will fetch as much as a good-sized stack of hay, although the hay will feed just as many horses as it did when hay was five times its present price.

10. Oratory is another great asset of the Gold-Power of Jewry. Shinwells in Scotland, Monds in Wales, De Valeras in Ireland, Isaacs and Samuels in England and India with their Gentile Front megaphones like Lloyd George, Asquith, Churchill, McKenna, MacDonald, Henderson, Lansbury, Tom Mann, Watson, etc., are all serving the Jews' ends. By gold and false promises they turn the proletariat against Christian capitalists—who are often not capitalists at all but actual producers—and divert their attentions from the real Shylocks who are the actual villains of the piece. By raising the workman's wages to an impossible level they destroy trade, and by raising the prices of food they produce at once Unemployment and Starvation which make the enslaving power of Shylock and his tribe greater than ever.

11. Thus come REVOLUTIONS in which Christians do all the fighting and of which Jews reap all the profits. Russia is completely destroyed by the Jews. Revolution has broken out in the Empire of Britain. Ireland is almost a Republic, in fact, if not in name, and the Jews are prospering amazingly. Our so-called "British" Cabinet is in point of fact a Bolshevik Cabinet in preliminary stage.

12. Thanks to Jew educationalists in the Press and on the platform, the Churches are suffering from creeping paralysis. The Jews are preaching atheism to Christians, that Judaism may remain alone in the field. Mond with his English Review was doing the educational work of his tribe in polluting the minds of English readers.

13. The power of Jewry has put its own sons or its own Gentile agents in all positions of strategic importance. We have seen the Lloyd George-Sassoon combination presiding over the empire; Isaacs, Samuel, Meyer over India; Samuel over Palestine; Mond over the health of the Kingdom; to name only a few samples in this country, and in other countries it is even worse; whilst the League of Nations—as the Jews themselves boast—is essentially a Jewish concern.

14. As for the monopoly of education, the names of Magnuses, Gollanczes, Waldsteins, Lees, Lowes, Hartogs, Monds, etc., etc., show how rotten with Judaism are the educational establishments of this country. The Professorial Chairs of Germany and France are almost all filled with Jews.

15. Jews are so fond of "Law" that they are rapidly monopolizing it. This helps them in many ways. How Jews defeat justice is shown by the Dreyfus case, and by the case of the Jews who murdered Pere Thomas, the Roman Catholic Priest of Damascus, and his servant. The murder was a ritual murder, but thanks to the efforts of the Jewish nation, headed by Adolphe Cremieux of France and Moses Montefiore of England the murderers, although tried and convicted on the clearest evidence, escaped the penalty.

18. The crowned monarchs of the world are led by the Jews, as the German Emperor was by Walther Rathenau before and during the war. Jews lend monarchs money in order that they may work with it their own destruction. Jews can manipulate republics more easily than they can monarchies and that is one reason why they foster revolutions.

17. The intermarriage of wealthy sons and daughters of Jews into aristocratic families has polluted almost all the once noble houses of the Christian world. Not to mention Jew "Peers," there are the examples of Lord Rosebery and the Rothschilds, and numbers of Jew duchesses. Lord Crewe is married to the daughter of a Rothschild, and Lord Derby married his daughter to Lord Dalmeny, a Rothschild's son; Lord Sheffield married his daughter to the Jew Edwin Samuel alias Montagu. Lord Curzon of Kedleston is son-in-law of a Jew.

18. After "Society," Commerce. "Lyons" control the catering trade of the metropolis; Samuel controls petrol; Mond controls nickel and chemicals; Salmon and Gluckstein and their co-tribesmen control tobacco, etc., etc. And so the "accursed Christians" tamely submit to the yoke of Israel.

19. The British Empire, so far as concerns its own coin (which the Jews control) is bankrupt. But its real wealth is greater than ever—its spirit, its courage, its ancient literature before Jewry touched it with polluting fingers, its enterprise, its deep down desire to fulfill its mission in the world—this is England's real wealth, and this wealth Jewry hopes to annihilate by means of Revolution and by planting England's crown family on Shylock's head.

England's hour has not struck yet. May the sleeping giant awake in time to burst the paper bonds which England's indolence and England's generosity have combined to suffer Shylock to wind round England's limbs!

A Russian newspaper, Prizyy, of 5th February, 1920, published in Berlin, contained an interesting document in Hebrew, dated December, 1919, which was found in the pocket of the dead Jew Zunder, the Bolshevik Commander of the 11th Sharp-shooter Battalion, throwing light on the secret organizations of Jewry in Russia.

This Protocol has, like the first, never been called in question by the Nation of Jewry. It reveals identically the same plans and purposes of the Jews for World domination and revenge which pervade them all. This one especially gloats over the Jew conquest and enslavement of Russia.

In extenso it ran as follows:

SECRET—To the representatives of all the branches of the Israelite International League.

Sons of Israel! The hour of our ultimate victory is near. We stand on the threshold to the command of the world. That which we could only dream of before us is about to be realized. Only quite recently feeble and powerless, we can now, thanks to the world's catastrophe, raise our heads with pride.

We must, however, be careful. It can surely be prophesied that, after we have marched over ruined and broken altars and thrones, we shall advance further on the same indicated path.

The authority of the, to us, alien religions and doctrines of faith we have through very successful propaganda, subjected to a merciless criticism and mockery. We have brought the culture, civilization, traditions and thrones of the Christian nations to stagger. We have done everything to bring the Russian people under the yoke of the Jewish power, and ultimately compelled them to fall on their knees before us.

We have nearly completed all this but we must all the same be very cautious, because the oppressed Russia is our arch-enemy. The victory over Russia, gained through our intellectual superiority, may in future, in a new generation, turn against us.

Russia is conquered and brought to the ground. Russia is in the agony of death under our heel, but do not forget—not even for a moment—that we must be careful! The holy care for our safety does not allow us to show either pity or mercy. At last we have been allowed to behold the bitter need of the Russian people, and to see it in tears! By taking from them their property, their gold, we have reduced this people to helpless slaves.

Be cautious and silent! We ought to have no mercy for our enemy. We must make an end of the best and leading elements of the Russian people, so that the vanquished Russia may not find any leader! Thereby every possibility will vanish for them to resist our power. We must excite hatred and disputes between workers and peasants. War and class-struggle will destroy all treasures and culture created by the Christian people. But be cautious, Sons of Israel! Our victory is near, because our political and economic power and influence upon the masses are in rapid progress. We buy up Government loans and gold, and thereby we have controlling power over the world's exchanges. The power is in our hands, but be careful—place no faith in traitorous shady powers!

Bronstein [Trotsky], Apfelbaum [Zinovieff], Rosenfeld [Kamaneff], Steinberg—all of them are like unto thousands of other true sons of Israel. Our power in Russia is unlimited. In the towns, the Commissariats and Commissions of Food, House Commissions, etc., are dominated by our people. But do not let victory intoxicate you. Be careful, cautious, because no one except yourselves will protect us!

Remember we cannot rely on the Red Army, which one day may turn its warfare on ourselves.

Sons of Israel! The hour for our long-cherished victory over Russia is near; close up solid your ranks! Make known our people's national policy! Fight for eternal ideals! Keep holy the old laws, which history has bequeathed to us! May our intellect, our genius, protect and lead us!

Signed, The Central Committee of the Petersburg Branch of the Israelite International League.

It will be noted that the above was found in Hebrew, as the original of the Protocols of the Elders of Zion and all the secret documents of the Jews are. There are plenty of manifestoes in Christian languages that are intended for the Goyim to read. Of these we need take no account. "Israelite International League" can be none other than l'Alliance Israelite Universelle, founded by Cremieux and headed by Rothschild.

All the Protocols tell the same tale of malice, revenge, cupidity and murderous hate against Christians and Christianity. Judaism is Satanism; and no amount of ritual and Kabalistic camouflage can hide this fact.

THE Protocols of the Learned Elders of Zion has become a best seller among political books published in this century.

Having been translated into every language since it was first brought to light in 1919 and having reached over a million sales in the English editions alone, this remarkable set of documents is in greater demand than ever today.

The years have shown that every great world event has followed the course laid down by the secret authors of this book. Wars, slumps, revolutions, the rise in the cost of living and chronic unrest are all foretold as leading to the ultimate goal of World Conquest through the "back-door" means of first establishing World Government "by consent".

The thoughtful reader must reject the view, once held by some people, that the Protocols originated as an imaginative work of miraculous accuracy. The only rational view seems to be that the Protocols must be taken on their face value as a detailed plan of action, aiming at nothing other than the goal they themselves set forth. This goal is the World State which the nations are being urged by their leaders to accept as "the only alternative to annihilation". That is the choice which our politicians are offering us today.

The eighty-first impression of the Marsden translation was presented under the new title World Conquest through World Government because the publishers believed that the ultimate conquest foretold in this terrible plan is nearing its final stages.

FAMOUS VIEWS ON THE PROTOCOLS

UNCANNY NOTE OF PROPHECY

"Whence comes this uncanny note of prophecy, prophecy in part fulfilled, in parts far gone in the way of fulfilment? Have we been struggling these tragic years to . . . extirpate the secret organization of German world dominion only to find beneath it, another, more dangerous because more secret? Have we . . . escaped a Pax Germanica only to fall into a Pax Judaeica?"

—The Times, London, May 8th, 1920.

ARE THEY A FORGERY?

"A document forged to defame a people."

—The American Hebrew.

"A clumsy forgery."

—Lucien Wolf in The Spectator, London, June 12th, 1920.

"Upon that much-vexed subject the authenticity of . . . The Protocols of Zion we shall not enter, except to say that if the document is a forgery, as alleged, then it is one of the most remarkable in the history of literature."

—The Spectator, London, October 16th, 1920

"Those who feel libelled by the Protocols have the most obvious remedy in the world; all they have to do is to rise and denounce the policy of them, instead of denying the authorship. . . . But when you come to read them, how can any reasonable man deny the truth of what is contained in them?"

—Norman Jaques, M.P., in Canadian House of Commons, July 9th, 1943.

"On the one hand, the authenticity of this document cannot be proved; on the other hand, the efforts made by some writers, principally Jewish, to show it to be a forgery do not carry conviction to many serious minds."

—The Rev. Denis Fahey, C.S.Sp., B.A., D.D., 1939

TOO TERRIBLY REAL FOR FICTION

"Whosoever was the mind that conceived them possessed a knowledge of human nature, of history, and of statecraft which is dazzling in its brilliant completeness, and terrible in the objects to which it turns its powers. It is too terribly real for fiction, too well sustained for speculation, too deep in its knowledge of the secret springs of life for forgery."

—The Dearborn Independent, July 10th, 1920.

CONFIRMATION FROM A JEW

"The United Nations is Zionism. It is the super government mentioned many times in the Protocols of the Learned Elders of Zion, promulgated between 1897 and 1905."

—Henry Klein, New York Jewish Lawyer, in Zionism Rules the World, 1948.

THEY FIT IT NOW

"The only statement I care to make about the Protocols is that they fit in with what is going on. They are sixteen years old and they have fitted the world situation up to this time. They fit it now."

—Henry Ford in the New York World, February 17th, 1921.

"In the desires of a terrible and formidable sect, you have only reached the first stages of the plans it has formed for that general Revolution which is to overthrow all thrones, all altars, annihilate all property, efface all law, and end by dissolving all society".

The Abbe Barruel (1797) writing on the Anti-Christian Conspiracy.

"Unless Bolshevism is nipped in the bud immediately it is bound to spread in one form or another all over Europe and the whole world, as it is organised and worked by Jews who have no nationality and whose object is to destroy for their own ends the existing order of things."

British Government White Paper, Russia No. I (1919).

"There is now definite evidence that Bolshevism is an international movement controlled by Jews; communications are passing between the leaders in America, France, Russia and England, with a view to concerted action."

Directorate of Intelligence, Home Office, Scotland Yard, London, in a Monthly Report to Foreign Embassies, 16th July, 1919.

"This movement among the Jews is not new. From the days of Spartacus-Weishaupt to those of Karl Marx, and down to Trotsky (Russia), Bela Kun (Hungary), Rosa Luxembourg (Germany), and Emma Goldman (United States), this world-wide conspiracy for the overthrow of civilisation and for the reconstitution of society on the basis of arrested development, of envious malevolence, and impossible equality, has been steadily growing."

Winston Churchill in Illustrated Sunday Herald, February 8th, 1920.

PUBLISHER'S NOTE TO THE 84TH EDITION

In 1961, the British Broadcasting Corporation devoted an entire peak listening hour to the subject of the Protocols of the Learned Elders of Zion. This created an enormous new interest in these controversial documents and we presented a large new edition both in cloth and paperback to meet the demand from all parts of the world. Following the broadcast, the well-known writer, A. K. Chesterton published an article in Candour entitled The Learned Elders and the B.B.C. which was the subject of a long letter from Christopher Sykes, the author of the broadcast script. As both the broadcast itself and Mr. Sykes' letter contained some important inaccuracies, we later published Mr. Chesterton's article together with Mr. Sykes' letter and comments thereon, in the form of a booklet. (Still in print 1/3d each.)

Possibly as a result of this new interest in the subject, in 1967, the Jewish scholar, Professor N. Cohn, wrote a comprehensive study of The Protocols entitled: Warrant for Genocide; "The Myth of the Jewish World Conspiracy and the Protocols of the Elders of Zion", published by Eyre & Spottiswoode Ltd. (who originally published The Protocols in 1920 and thereafter sold the plates to us).

Professor Cohn's study claims that the myth of a Jewish world conspiracy forms a highly important, though largely unrecognised, aspect of the modern world. One does not have to agree with the author's conclusions to admit that this is an erudite and scholarly work from which even people with the most intractable Jewish conspiracy complex will have something to learn.

THE PROTOCOLS*

In addition to Professor N. Cohn's latest work, Warrant for Genocide, the following is a short list of some of the more famous attempts at refutation. All, unfortunately are now out of print but may be stocked in the larger Central Libraries or in the British Museum.

INTRODUCTION

The Protocols of the Learned Elders of Zion may be briefly described as a blueprint for the domination of the world by a secret brotherhood. Whatever may be the truth about their authorship—and, as will be shown, this has been the subject of bitter dispute—there can be no doubt that the world society to which they look forward is nothing more or less than a world police state.

The book in which the Protocols were first embodied was published by Professor Sergyei A. Nilus in Russia in 1905, a copy being received in the British Museum on August 10th, 1906. Professor Nilus's concern was to expose what he believed to be a ruthless, cold-blooded conspiracy for the destruction of Christian civilisation. Earlier, in August and September, 1903, the Russian newspaper Snamia had published the Protocols, and they are also believed to have been published in the winter of 1902/1903 in the newspaper Moskowskija Wiedomosti. They remained unknown outside Russia, however, until after the Bolshevik Revolution, when Russian emigrants brought Nilus's book to North America and Germany.

The similarity between what was forecast in the Protocols and the fate which had befallen Russia under the Bolsheviks was so marked that, after these long years of neglect, they rapidly became one of the most famous (or notorious) documents in the world.

In Bolshevik Russia, the penalty for their mere possession was death. It remains so to this day, both in the Soviet Union and in the Satellite countries. Outside the Iron Curtain, in South Africa possession of the Protocols is also forbidden by law, although the penalty is less drastic.

As a result of their rapidly growing fame, numerous attempts were made to discredit the Protocols as a forgery. But it was not until 1933 that the Jews resorted to legal action. On 26th June, 1933, the Federation of Jewish Communities of Switzerland and the Berne Jewish Community brought an action against five members of the Swiss National Front, seeking a judgment that the Protocols were a forgery and a prohibition of their publication. The procedure of the Court was astounding, the provisions of the Swiss Civil Code being deliberately set aside. Sixteen witnesses called by the plaintiffs were heard, but only one of the forty witnesses called by the defendants was allowed a hearing. The judge allowed the plaintiffs to appoint two private stenographers to keep the register of proceedings during the hearing of their witnesses, instead of entrusting the task to a Court official.

In view of these and similar irregularities, it was not surprising that, after the case had lasted just on two years, the Court pronounced the Protocols to be a forgery and demoralising literature. The decision was given on 14th May, 1935, but it was announced in the Jewish Press before it was delivered by the Court!

On 1st November, 1937, the Swiss Court of Criminal Appeal quashed this judgment in its entirety. Jewish propagandists, however, still declare that the Protocols have been "proved" to be a forgery.

It was natural that the Jews should try to discredit the Protocols, for their growing fame was focussing more public attention on other revealing utterances.

In Disraeli's The Life of Lord George Bentinck, written in 1852, there occurs this quotation:—

"The influence of the Jews may be traced in the last outbreak of the destructive principle in Europe. An insurrection takes place against tradition and aristocracy, against religion and property. Destruction of the Semitic principle, extirpation of the Jewish religion, whether in the Mosaic or the Christian form, the natural equality of men and the abrogation of property are proclaimed by the Secret Societies which form Provisional Governments and men of Jewish Race are found at the head of every one of them. The people of God co-operate with atheists; the most skilful accumulators of property ally themselves with Communists; the peculiar and chosen Race touch the hand of all the scum and low castes of Europe; and all this because they wish to destroy that ungrateful Christendom which owes to them even its name, and whose tyranny they can no longer endure."

Max Nordau, a Jew, speaking at the Zionist Congress at Basle in August 1903, made this astonishing "prophesy":—

"Let me tell you the following words as if I were showing you the rungs of a ladder leading upward and upward: Herzl, the Zionist Congress, the English Uganda proposition, the future world war, the peace conference, where with the help of England a free and Jewish Palestine will be created."

Walter Rathenau, the Jewish banker behind the Kaiser, writing in the German Weiner Frei Presse, December 24th 1912, said:—

"Three hundred men, each of whom knows all the others, govern the fate of the European continent, and they elect their successors from their entourage."

Confirmation of Rathenau's statement came twenty years later in 1931 when Jean Izoulet, a prominent member of the Jewish Alliance Israélite Universelle, wrote in his Paris la Capitale des Religions:—

"The meaning of the history of the last century is that today 300 Jewish financiers, all Masters of Lodges, rule the world."

The London Jewish Chronicle, on April 4th, 1919, declared:—

"There is much in the fact of Bolshevism itself, in the fact that so many Jews are Bolsheviks, in the fact that the ideals of Bolshevism at many points are consonant with the finest ideals of Judaism."

and on March 15th, 1923, the Jewish World asserted:—

"Fundamentally Judaism is Anti-Christian."

These and many similar assertions from Jewish sources were damaging enough from the Jewish point of view. Taken in conjunction with the Protocols, with which more and more people were becoming familiar, they were damning.

The attitude of many people whose concern over the growing attack on Christian civilisation was rapidly increasing was summed up by the late Henry Ford senior, the founder of the world-famous motor manufacturing company. In an interview published in the New York World on February 17th, 1921, Mr. Ford declared:

"The only statement I care to make about the Protocols is that they fit in with what is going on. They are sixteen years old, and have fitted the world situation up to this time. THEY FIT IT NOW."

Those who, like Henry Ford, could see that "they fit it now" only sixteen years after Nilus's first publication of the Protocols, naturally tended to concentrate their attention on the relatively recent phenomenon of Bolshevism. Few of them then understood the equally dangerous, if more insidious, danger of internationalism.

Now, however, more than half a century after Nilus's publication of the Protocols, the reality of that danger must be crystal clear to anybody who views the world situation objectively.

The Protocols are full of references to a "super-Government". Protocol VI, for example, states:—

"In every possible way we must develop the significance of our super-Government by representing it as the Protector and Benefactor of all those who voluntarily submit to us."

That is exactly the way in which the United Nations organisation, set up at the end of the second World War, is represented to those who voluntarily submit to it.

It is exactly the way the various United Nations special agencies—U.N.E.S.C.O. (U.N. Educational, Scientific and Cultural Organisation); I.L.O. (International Labour Organisation); W.H.O. (World Health Organisation); F.A.O. (Food and Agriculture Organisation); Commission on Human Rights; Genocide Convention, etc.—are represented.

For some years there has been in existence an international organisation calling itself the World Association of Parliamentarians for World Government, which pursues the same objective as that of another long-established international organisation, Federal Union. This body does not disguise the fact that the United Nations, by means of a few relatively minor changes in its Charter, could be transformed virtually overnight into a World Government.

There has long been agitation for the creation of a World Police Force. This would enable the United Nations super-Government to function as the master of an all-powerful World Police State, and the closing years of the 1950's have seen the agitators for a World Police Force come close to achieving their objective. The U.N. Emergency Force, established after the Suez crisis of 1956, has been openly regarded as a "pilot scheme".

Should the few changes in the Charter necessary to transform the U.N. into a super-Government be made, it will have in the special agencies ready made Ministries of Education (or Propaganda), Labour, Health, Food and Agriculture, "Justice" etc.

Can it be an accident that these things are so accurately fore-shadowed in the Protocols?

The full-scale World super-Government is not the only, nor perhaps the most immediate, danger. It is obvious to everyone that the nations of the East are being herded into subjection under the dominance of the Soviet Union. But what of the nations of the West? Are they really the "free nations" which they are popularly supposed to be?

Far from it! They are being herded into the same sort of pen as are the nations of the East under Communism—and often on the pretext that this is the only way in which they can save themselves from Communism. Late in 1957, the process had gone far enough to be given an official name. That name was the "policy of inter-dependence".

The nations of the West are being brought under international control at political, military and economic levels. They are rapidly in process of becoming controlled also on the social level. All alike are being told that their only hope lies in the surrender of national sovereignty.

National Parliaments must give way to such bodies as the Council of Europe or the Atlantic Council. National Forces must be submerged in such bodies as the North Atlantic Treaty Organisation (N.A.T.O.), the Baghdad Pact or the South-East Asia Treaty Organisation (S.E.A.T.O.), so that no nation has control over its own means of defence. National economies must be submerged in such bodies as the Organisation for European Economic Co-operation (O.E.E.C.), the European Payments Union (E.P.U.) or the World Bank, so that no nation may control its own economic destiny.

Even on the social level, individual national distinctions must disappear. For example, under the "Common Market" Treaty which unites six European nations on the economic plane, provision is made for the "equalisation of social policies". And strenuous efforts have been made to herd other European nations, Great Britain among them, into this same pen in the associated European Free Trade Area.

In 1934, when the leader of the British Labour Party (Mr. Clement Attlee) told the party's annual conference:—

"We are deliberately putting loyalty to a world order above loyalty to our own country", he was widely execrated.

Twenty-three years of propaganda, however, leave their mark, and when, in 1957, a Conservative Prime Minister of Britain told the British people that they must surrender some of their national sovereignty to an unknown international cabal, scarcely a voice was raised in protest. At the close of 1957 there was an official declaration of the British Government's support for the plan which was foreshadowed in the Protocols over sixty years ago. The Earl of Gosford, Joint Parliamentary Under-Secretary of State for Foreign Affairs, said in the House of Lords on 7th November, 1957:—

"Her Majesty's Government are fully in agreement with World Government. We agree that this must be the goal, and that every step that is humanly possible must be taken to reach that goal."

All over the world, "federation", "integration", "regionalisation" and "inter-dependence" are the order of the day. All this is foreshadowed in the Protocols, published more than half-a-century ago by Sergyei Nilus, which, we are told, are a forgery.

Can all this be coincidence? Could any forger be so prescient?

Or are the Protocols what Nilus and many others believed them to be—the blueprint of a conspiracy to destroy Christian civilisation and place the whole world under the domination of a small, select cabal?

A type-written copy of the Protocols on rice paper circulated in Siberia. It was taken from the 4th edition (1917) of Nilus. There are a number of interesting notes by an unknown editor. Taken to America from Vladivostok in August 1919.

CONCLUDING PASSAGE FROM THE EPILOGUE OF NILUS

According to the testament Of Montefiore, Zion is not sparing, either of money or of any other means, to achieve its ends. In our day, all the governments of the entire world are consciously or unconsciously submissive to the commands of this great Supergovernment of Zion, because all the bonds and securities are in its hands; for all countries are indebted to the Jews for sums which they will never be able to pay. All affairs—industry, commerce, and diplomacy—are in the hands of Zion. It is by means of its capital loans that it has enslaved all nations. By keeping education on purely materialistic lines, the Jews have loaded the Gentiles with heavy chains with which they have harnessed them to their " Supergovernment ".

The end of national liberty is near, therefore personal freedom is approaching its close; for true liberty cannot exist where Zion uses the lever of its gold to rule the masses and dominate the most respectable and enlightened class of society.

" He that hath ears to hear, let him hear ".

It is nearly four years since the Protocols of the Elders of Zion came into my possession. Only God knows what efforts

I have made to bring them to general notice—in vain—and even to warn those in power, by disclosing the causes of the storm about to break on apathetic Russia who seems, in her misfortune, to have lost all notion of what is going on around her.

And it is only now when I fear it may be too late, that I have succeeded in publishing my work, hoping to put on their guard those who still have ears to hear and eyes to see.

One can no longer doubt it, the triumphant reign of the King of Israel rises over our degenerate world as that of Satan, with his power and his terrors; the King born of the blood of Zion—the Antichrist—is about to mount the throne of universal empire.

Events are precipitated in the world at a terrifying speed: quarrels, wars, rumours, famines, epidemics, earthquakes—everything which even yesterday was impossible, today is an accomplished fact. One would think that the days pass so rapidly to advance the cause of the chosen people. Space does not allow us to enter into the details of world history with regard to the disclosed "mysteries of iniquity," to prove from history the influence which the "Wise Men of Zion" have exercised through universal misfortunes, by foretelling the certain and already near future of humanity, or by raising the curtain for the last act of the world's tragedy.

Only the light of Christ and of his Holy Church Universal can fathom the abyss of Satan and disclose the extent of its wickedness.

I feel in my heart that the hour has already struck when there should urgently be convoked an Eighth Oecumenical Council which would unite the pastors and representatives of all Christendom. Secular quarrels and schisms would all be forgotten in the imminent need of preparing against the coming of the Anti-christ.¹

1. This forecast of Sergius Nilus is all the more remarkable, when one considers that it appeared in the Epilogue to his edition of the Protocols of 1905.

FOREWORD

"John Doe," as I will call him in this book for reasons that will be made clear, is a professor at a large university in the Middle West. His field is one of the social sciences, but I will not identify him beyond this. He telephoned me one evening last winter, quite unexpectedly; we had not been in touch for several years. He was in New York for a few days, he said, and there was something important he wanted to discuss with me. He wouldn't say what it was. We met for lunch the next day at a midtown restaurant.

He was obviously disturbed. He made small talk for half an hour, which was quite out of character, and I didn't press him. Then, apropos of nothing, he mentioned a dispute between a writer and a prominent political family that had been in the headlines. What, he wanted to know, were my views on "freedom of information"? How would I qualify them? And so on. My answers were not memorable, but they seemed to satisfy him. Then, quite abruptly, he began to tell me the following story:

Early in August of 1963, he said, he found a message on his desk that a "Mrs. Potts" had called him from Washington. When he returned the call, a MAN answered immediately, and told Doe, among other things, that he had been selected to serve on a commission "of the highest importance." Its objective was to determine, accurately and realistically, the nature of the problems that would confront the United States if and when a condition of "permanent peace" should arrive, and to draft a program for dealing with this contingency. The man described the unique procedures that were to govern the commission's work and that were expected to extend its scope far beyond that of any previous examination of these problems.

Considering that the caller did not precisely identify either himself or his agency, his persuasiveness must have been a truly remarkable order. Doe entertained no serious doubts of the bona fides of the project, however, chiefly because of his previous experience with the excessive secrecy that often surrounds quasi-governmental activities. In addition, the man at the other end of the line demonstrated an impressively complete and surprisingly detailed knowledge of Doe's work and personal life. He also mentioned the names of others who were to serve with the group; most of them were known to Doe by reputation. Doe agreed to take the assignment --- he felt he had no real choice in the matter --- and to appear the second Saturday following at Iron Mountain, New York. An airline ticket arrived in his mail the next morning.

The cloak-and-dagger tone of this convocation was further enhanced by the meeting place itself. Iron Mountain, located near the town of Hudson, is like something out of Ian Fleming or E. Phillips Oppenheim. It is an underground nuclear hideout for hundreds of large American corporations. Most of them use it as an emergency storage vault for important documents. But a number of them maintain substitute corporate headquarters as well, where essential personnel could presumably survive and continue to work after an attack. This latter group includes such firms as Standard Oil of New Jersey, Manufacturers Hanover Trust, and Shell.

I will leave most of the story of the operations of the Special Study Group, as the commission was formally called, for Doe to tell in his own words ("Background Information"). At this point it is necessary to say only that it met and worked regularly for over two and a half years, after which it produced a Report. It was this document, and what to do about it, that Doe wanted to talk to me about.

The Report, he said, had been suppressed --- both by the Special Study Group itself and by the government INTERAGENCY committee to which it had been submitted. After months of agonizing, Doe had decided that he would no longer be party to keeping it secret. What he wanted from me was advice and assistance in having it published. He gave me his copy to read, with the express understanding that if for any reason I were unwilling to become involved, I would say nothing about it to anyone else.

I read the Report that same night. I will pass over my own reactions to it, except to say that the unwillingness of Doe's associates to publicize their findings became readily understandable. What had happened was that they had been so tenacious in their determination to deal comprehensively with the many problems of transition to peace that the original questions asked of them were never quite answered. Instead, this is what they concluded:

Lasting peace, while no theoretically impossible, is probably unattainable; even if it could be achieved it would almost certainly not be in the best interests of a stable society to achieve it.

That is the gist of what they say. Behind their qualified academic language runs this general argument: War fills certain functions essential to the stability of our society; until other ways of filling them are developed, the war system must be maintained -- and improved in effectiveness.

It is not surprising that the Group, in its Letter of Transmittal, did not choose to justify its work to "the lay reader, unexposed to the exigencies of higher political or military responsibility." Its Report was addressed, deliberately, to unnamed government administrators of high rank; it assumed - considerable political sophistication from this select audience. To the general reader, therefore, the substance of the document may be even more unsettling than its conclusions. He may not be prepared for some of its assumptions -- for instance, that most medical advances are viewed more as problems than as progress; or that poverty is necessary and desirable, public postures by politicians to the contrary notwithstanding; or that standing armies are, among other things social-welfare institutions in exactly the same sense as are old-people's homes and mental hospitals. It may strike him as odd to find the probably explanation of "flying saucer" incidents disposed of en passant in less than a sentence. He may be less surprised to find that the space program and the "controversial antimissile missile and fallout shelter programs are understood to have the spending of vast sums of money, not the advancement of science or national defense, as their principal goals, and to learn that "military" draft policies are only remotely concerned with defense.

He may be offended to find the organized repression of minority groups, and even the reestablishment of slavery, seriously (and on the whole favorably discussed as possible aspects of a world at peace. He is not likely to take kindly to the notion of the deliberate intensification of air and water pollution (as part of a program leading to peace), even when the reason for considering it is made clear. That a world without war will have to turn sooner rather than later to universal test-tube procreation will be less disturbing, if no more appealing. But few readers will not be taken aback, at least, by a few lines in the Report's conclusions, repeated in its formal recommendations, that suggest that the long-range planning--and "budgeting" -- of the "optimum" number of lives to be destroyed annually in overt warfare is high on the Group's list of priorities for government action.

I cite these few examples primarily to warn the general reader what he can expect. The statesmen and strategists for whose eyes the Report was intended obviously need no such protective admonition.

This book, of course, is evidence of my response to Doe's request. After carefully considering the problems that might confront the publisher of the Report, we took it to The Dial Press. There, its significance was immediately recognized, and, more important, we were given firm assurances that no outside pressures of any sort would be permitted to interfere with its publication.

It should be made clear that Doe does not disagree with the substance of the Report, which represents as genuine consensus in all important respects. He constituted a minority of one -- but only on the issue of disclosing it to the general public. A look at how the Group dealt with this question will be illuminating

The debate took place at the Group's last full meeting before the Report was written, late in March, 1966, and again at Iron Mountain. Two facts must be kept in mind, by way of background. The first is that the Special Study Group had never been explicitly charged with or sworn to secrecy, either when it was convened or at any time thereafter. The second is that the Group had nevertheless operated as if it had been. This was assumed from the circumstances of its inception and from the tone of its instructions. (The Group's acknowledgment of help from "the many persons....who contributed so greatly to our work" is somewhat equivocal; these persons were not told the nature of the project for which their special resources of information were solicited.)

Those who argued the case for keeping the Report secret were admittedly motivated by fear of the explosive political effects that could be expected from publicity. For evidence, they pointed to the suppression of the far less controversial report of then-Senator Hubert Humphrey's subcommittee on disarmament in 1962. (Subcommittee members had reportedly feared that it might be used by Communist propagandists, as Senator Stuart Symington put it, to "back up the Marxian theory that was production was the reason for the success of capitalism.") Similar political precautions had been taken with the better-known Gaither Report in 1957, and even with the so-called Moynihan Report in 1965.

Furthermore, they insisted, a distinction must be made between serious studies, which are normally classified unless and until policy makers decide to release them, and conventional "showcase" projects, organized to demonstrate a political leadership's concerns about an issue and to deflect the energy of those pressing for action on it. (The example used, because some of the Group had participated in it, was a "White House Conference" on intended cooperation, disarmament, etc., which had been staged late in 1965 to offset complaints about escalation of Vietnam War.)

Doe acknowledges this distinction, as well as the strong possibility of public misunderstanding. But he feels that if the sponsoring agency had wanted to mandate secrecy it could have done so at the outset. It could also have assigned the project to one of the government's established "think tanks," which normally work on a classified basis. He scoffed at fear of public reaction, which could have no lasting effect on long-range measures that might be taken to implement the Group's proposals, and derided the Group's abdication of responsibility for its opinions and conclusions. So far as he was concerned, there was such a thing as a public right to know what was being done on its behalf; the burden of proof was on those who would abridge it.

If my account seems to give Doe the better of the argument, despite his failure to convince his colleagues, so be it. My participation in this book testifies that I am not neutral. In my opinion, the decision of the Special Study Group to censor its own findings was not merely timid but presumptuous. But the refusal, as of this writing, of the agencies for which the Report was prepared to release it themselves raises broader questions of public policy. Such questions center on the continuing use of self-serve definitions of "security" to avoid possible political embarrassment. It is ironic how often this practice backfires.

I should state, for the record, that I do not share the attitudes toward war and peace, life and death, and survival of the species manifested in the Report. Few readers will. In human terms, it is an outrageous document. But it does represent a serious and challenging effort to define an enormous problem. And it explains, or certainly appears to explain, aspects of American policy otherwise incomprehensible by the ordinary standards of common sense. What we may think of these explanations is something else, but it seems to me that we are entitled to know not only what they are but whose they are.

By "whose" I don't mean merely the names of the authors of the Report. Much more important, we have a right to know to what extent their assumptions of social necessity are shared by the decision-makers in our government. Which do they accept and which do they reject? However disturbing the answers, only full and frank discussion offers any conceivable hope of solving the problems raised by the Special Study Group in their Report from Iron Mountain.

BACKGROUND INFORMATION

[The following account of the workings of the Special Study Group is taken verbatim from a series of tape recorded interviews I had with "John Doe." The transcript has been edited to minimize the intrusion of my questions and comments, as well as for length, and the sequence has been revised in the interest of continuity. L.C.L.]

HOW WAS THE GROUP FORMED?

...The general idea for it, for this kind of study dates back at least to 1961. It started with some of the new people who came in with the Kennedy administration, mostly, I think, with McNamara, Bundy, and Rusk. They were impatient about many things....One of them was that no really serious work had been done about planning for peace---a long-range peace, that is, with long-range planning.

Everything that had been written on the subject [before 1961] was superficial. There was insufficient appreciation of the scope of the problem. The main reason for this, of course, was that the idea of a real peace in the world, general disarmament and so on, was looked on as utopian. Or even crack-pot. This is still true, and it's easy enough to understand when you look at what's going on in the world today....It was reflected in the studies that had been made up to that time. They were not realistic...

The idea of the Special Study, the exact form it would take, was worked out early in '63...The settlement of the Cuban missile affair had something to do with it, but what helped most to get it moving were the big changes in military spending that were being planned.....Plants being closed, relocations, and so forth. Most of it wasn't made public until much later....

[I understand] it took a long time to select the people for the Group. The calls didn't go out until the summer.....

WHO MADE THE SELECTION?

That's something I can't tell you. I wasn't involved with the preliminary planning. The first I knew of it was when I was called myself. But three of the people had been in on it, and what the rest of us know we learned from them, about what went on earlier. I do know that it started very informally. I don't know what particular government agency approved the project.

WOULD YOU CARE TO MAKE A GUESS?

All right---I think it was an ad hoc committee, at the cabinet level, or near it. It had to be. I suppose they gave the organizational job--making arrangements, paying the bills, and so on---to somebody from the State or Defense of the National Security Council. Only one of us was in touch with Washington, and I wasn't the one. But I can tell you that very, very few people knew about us....For instance, there was the Ackley Committee. It was set up after we were. If you read their report---the same old tune---economic reconversion, turning sword plants into plowshare factories...I think you'll wonder if even the President knew about our Group. The Ackley Committee certainly didn't.

IS THAT POSSIBLE, REALLY? I MEAN THAT NOT EVEN THE PRESIDENT KNEW OF YOUR COMMISSION?

Well, I don't think there's anything odd about the government attacking a problem at two different levels. Or even about two or three [government] agencies working at cross-purposes. It happens all the time. Perhaps the President did know. And I don't mean to denigrate the Ackley Committee, but it was exactly that narrowness of approach that we were supposed to get away from.....

You have to remember -- you've read the Report---that what they wanted from us was a different kind of thinking. It was a matter of approach. Herman Kahn calls it "Byzantine"--no agonizing over cultural and religious values. No moral posturing. It's the kind of thinking that Rand and the Hudson Institute and I.D.A. (Institute for Defense Analysis.) brought into war planning...What they asked up to do, and I think we did it, was to give the same kind of treatment to the hypothetical nuclear war...We may have gone further than they expected, but once you establish your premises and your logic you can't turn back....

Kahn's books, for example, are misunderstood, at least by laymen. They shock people. But you see, what's important about them is not his conclusions, or his opinions. It's the method. He has done more than anyone else I can think of to get the general public accustomed to the style of modern military thinking.....Today it's possible for a columnist to write about "counterforce strategy" and "minimum deterrence" and "credible first strike capability" without having to explain every other word. He can write about war and strategy without getting bogged down in questions or morality.....

The other big difference about our work is breadth. The Report speaks for itself. I can't say that we took every relevant aspect of life and society into account, but I don't think we missed anything essential....

WHY WAS THE PROJECT GIVEN TO AN OUTSIDE COMMISSION?
WHY COULDN'T IT HAVE BEEN HANDLED BY AN APPROPRIATE GOVERNMENT AGENCY?

I think that's obvious, or should be. The kind of thinking wanted from our Group just isn't to be had in a formal government operation. Too many constraints. Too many inhibitions. This isn't a new problem. Why else would outfits like Rand and Hudson stay in business? Any assignment that's at all sophisticated is almost always given to an outside group. This is true even in the State Department, in the "gray" operations, those that are supposed to be unofficial, but are really as official as can be. Also with the C.I.A....

For our study, even the private research centers were too institutional... A lot of thought went into making sure that our thinking would be unrestricted. All kinds of little things. The way we were called into the Group, the places we met, all kinds of subtle devices to remind us. For instance, even our name, the Special Study Group. You know government names. Wouldn't you think we'd have been called "Operation Olive Branch," or "Project Pacifica," or something like that? Nothing like that for us---too allusive, too suggestive. And no minutes of our meetings---too inhibiting.... About who might be reading them. Of course, we took notes for our own use. And among ourselves, we usually called ourselves "The Iron Mountain Boys," or "Our Thing," or whatever came to mind.....

WHAT CAN YOU TELL ME ABOUT THE MEMBERS OF THE GROUP?

I'll have to stick to generalities....There were fifteen of us. The important thing was that we represented a very wide range of disciplines. And not all academic. People from the natural sciences, the social sciences, even the humanities. We had a lawyer and a businessman. Also, a professional war planner. Also, you should know that everyone in the Group had done work of distinction in at least two different fields. The interdisciplinary element was built in.....

It's true that there were no women in the Group, but I don't think that was significant.....We were all American citizens, of course. And all, I can say, in very good health, at least when we began.... You see, the first order of business, at the first meeting, was the reading of dossiers. They were very detailed, and not just professional, but also personal. They included medical histories. I remember one very curious thing, for whatever it's worth. Most of us, and that includes me, had a record of abnormally high uric acid concentrations in the blood..... None of us had ever had this experience, of a public inspection of credentials, or medical reports. It was very disturbing...

But it was deliberate. The reason for it was to emphasize that we were supposed to make ALL our own decisions on procedure, without outside rules. This included judging each other's qualifications and making allowances for possible bias. I don't think it affected our work directly, but it made the point it was supposed to make..... That we should ignore absolutely nothing that might conceivably affect our objectivity.

[At this point I persuaded Doe that a brief occupational description of the individual members of the Group would serve a useful purpose for readers of the Report. The list which follows was worked out on paper. (It might be more accurate to say it was negotiated)/. The problem was to give as much relevant information as possible without violating Doe's commitment to protect his colleagues' anonymity. It turned out to be very difficult, especially in the cases of those members who are very well known. For this reason, secondary areas of achievement or reputations are usually not shown.

The simple alphabetical "names" were assigned by Doe for convenient reference; they bear no intended relation to actual names. "Able" was the Group's Washington contact. It was he who brought and read the dossiers, and who most often acted as chairman. He, "Baker," and "Cox" were the three who had been involved in the preliminary planning. There is no other significance to the order of listing.

"Arthur Able" is an historian and political theorist, who has served in government.

"Bernard Baker: is a professor of international law and a consultant on government operations.

"Charles Cox" is an economist, social critic, and biographer.

"John Doe."

"Edward Ellis" is a sociologist often involved in public affairs.

"Frank Fox" is a cultural anthropologist.

"George Green" is a psychologist, educator, and developer of personnel testing systems.

"Harold Hill" is a psychiatrist, who has conducted extensive studies of the relationship between individual and group behavior.

"John Jones" is a scholar and literary critic.

"Martin Miller" is a physical chemist, whose work has received inter-national recognition at the highest level.

"Paul Peters" is a biochemist, who has made important discoveries bearing on reproductive processes.

"Richard Roe" is a mathematician affiliated with an independent West Coast research institution.

"Samuel Smith" is an astronomer, physicist, and communications theorist.

"Thomas Taylor" is a systems analyst and war planner, who has written extensively on war, peace, and international relations.

"William White" is an industrialist, who has undertaken many special government assignments.]

HOW DID THE GROUP OPERATE? I MEAN, WHERE AND WHEN DID YOU MEET, AND SO FORTH?

We met on the average of once a month. Usually it was on weekends, and usually for two days. We had a few longer sessions, and one that lasted only four hours. We met all over the country, always at a different place, except for the first and last times, which were at Iron Mountain. It was like a traveling seminar....Sometimes at hotels, sometimes at universities. Twice we met at summer camps, and once at a private estate, in Virginia. We used a business place in Pittsburgh, and another in Poughkeepsie, [New York]....We never met in Washington, or on government property anywhere....Able would announce the times and places two meetings ahead. They were never changed.....

We didn't divide into subcommittees, or anything else that formal. But we all took individual assignments between meetings. A lot of it involved getting information from other people.... Among the fifteen of us, I don't think there was anybody in the academic or professional world we couldn't call on if we wanted to, and we took advantage of it..... We were paid a very modest per diem. All of it was called "expenses" on the vouchers. We were told not to report it on our tax returns.... The checks were drawn on a special account of Able's at a New York bank. He signed them....I don't know what the study cost. So far as our time and travel were concerned, it couldn't have come to more than the low six-figure range. But the big item must have been computer time, and I have no idea how high this ran.....

YOU SAY THAT YOU DON'T THINK YOUR WORK WAS AFFECTED BY PROFESSIONAL BIAS. WHAT ABOUT POLITICAL AND PHILOSOPHICAL BIAS? IS IT POSSIBLE TO DEAL WITH QUESTIONS OF WAR AND PEACE WITHOUT REFLECTING PERSONAL VALUES?

Yes, it is. I can understand your skepticism. But if you had been at any of our meetings you'd have had a very hard time figuring out who were the liberals and who were the conservatives, or who were hawks and who were doves. There IS such a thing as objectivity, and I think we had it... I don't say no one had any emotional reaction to what we were doing. We all did, to some extent. As a matter of fact, two members had heart attacks after we were finished, and I'll be the first to admit it probably wasn't a coincidence.

YOU SAID YOU MADE UP YOUR OWN GROUND RULES. WHAT WERE THESE GROUND RULES?

The most important were informality and unanimity . By informality I mean that our discussions were open-ended. We went as far afield as any one of us thought we had to. For instance, we spent a lot of time on the relationship between military recruitment policies and industrial employment. Before we were finished with it, we'd gone through the history of western penal codes and any number of comparative psychiatric studies [of draftees and volunteers]. We looked over the organization of the Inca empire. We determined the effects of automation on underdeveloped societies....It was all relevant....

By unanimity, I don't mean that we kept taking votes, like a jury. I mean that we stayed with every issue until we had what the Quakers call a "sense of the meeting." It was time-consuming. But in the long run it saved time. Eventually we all got on the same wavelength, so to speak.....

Of course we had differences, and big ones, especially in the beginning... For instance, in Section I you might think we were merely clarifying our instructions. Not so; it took a long time before we all agreed to a strict interpretation.... Roe and Taylor deserve most of the credit for this... There are many things in the Report that look obvious now, but didn't seem so obvious then. For instance, on the relationship of war to social systems. The original premise was conventional, from Clausewitz. That war was an "instrument" of broader political values. Able was the only one who challenged this, at first. Fox called his position "perverse." Yet it was Fox who furnished most of the data that led us all to agree with Able eventually. I mention this because I think it's a good example of the way we worked. A triumph of method over cliché..... I certainly don't intend to go into details about who took what side about what, and when. But I will say, to give credit where due, that only Roe, Able, Hill and Taylor were able to see, at the beginning, where our method was taking us.

BUT YOU ALWAYS REACHED AGREEMENT, EVENTUALLY?

Yes. It's a unanimous report... I don't mean that our sessions were always harmonious. Some of them were rough. The last six months there was a lot of quibbling about small points... We'd been under pressure for a long time, we'd been working together too long. It was natural.....that we got on each other's nerves. For a while Able and Taylor weren't speaking to each other. Miller threatened to quit. But this all passed. There were no important differences...

HOW WAS THE REPORT ACTUALLY WRITTEN? WHO DID THE WRITING?

We all had a hand in the first draft. Jones and Able put it together, and then mailed it around for review before working out a final version... The only problems were the form it should take and whom we were writing it for. And, of course, the question of disclosure.... [Doe's comments on this point are summarized in the introduction.]

YOU MENTIONED A "PEACE GAMES" MANUAL. WHAT ARE PEACE GAMES?

I wanted to say something about that. The Report barely mentions it. "Peace games" is a method we developed during the course of the study. It's a forecasting technique, an information system. I'm very excited about it. Even if nothing is done about our recommendations--which is conceivable--this is something that can't be ignored. It will revolutionize the study of social problems. It's a by-product of the study. We needed a fast, dependable procedure to approximate the effects of disparate social phenomena on other social phenomena. We got it. It's in a primitive phase, but it works.

HOW ARE PEACE GAMES PLAYED? ARE THEY LIKE RAND'S WAR GAMES?

You don't "play" peace games, like chess or Monopoly, any more than you play war games with toy soldiers. You use computers. It's a programming system. A computer "language," like Fortran, or Algol, or Jovial.... Its advantage is its superior capacity to interrelate data with no apparent common points of reference.... A simple analogy is likely to be misleading. But I can give you some examples. For instance, supposing I asked you to figure out what effect a moon landing by U.S. astronauts would have on an election in, say, Sweden. Or what effect a change in the draft law--a specific change--would have on the value of real estate in downtown Manhattan? Or a certain change in college entrance requirements in the United States on the British shipping industry?

You would probably say, first, that there would be no effect to speak of, and second, that there would be no way of telling. But you'd be wrong on both counts. In each case there would be an effect, and the peace games method could tell you what it would be, quantitatively. I didn't take these examples out of the air. We used them in working out the method....Essentially, it's an elaborate high-speed trial-and-error system for determining working algorithms. Like most sophisticated types of computer problem-solving...

A lot of the "games" of this kind you read about are just glorified and conversational exercises. They really are games, and nothing more. I just saw one reported in the Canadian Computer Society Bulletin, called a "Vietnam Peace Game." They use simulation techniques, but the programming hypotheses are speculative....

The idea of a problem-solving system like this is not original with us. ARPA (the Advanced Research Projects Agency, of the Department of Defense DoD.) has been working on something like it. So has General Electric, in California. There are others..... We were successful not because we know more than they do about programming, which we don't, but because we leaned how to formulate the problems accurately. It goes back to the old saw. You can always find the answer if you know the right question.....

SUPPOSING YOU HADN'T DEVELOPED THIS METHOD. WOULD YOU HAVE COME TO THE SAME CONCLUSIONS IN THE REPORT?

Certainly. But it would have taken many times longer. But please don't misunderstand my enthusiasm [about the peace games method]. With all due respect to the effects of computer technology on modern thinking, basic judgments must still be made by human beings. The peace games technique isn't responsible for our Report. We are.

STATEMENT BY "JOHN DOE"

Contrary to the decision of the Special Study Group, of which I was a member, I have arranged for the general release of our Report. I am grateful to Mr. Leonard C. Lewin for his invaluable assistance in making this possible, and to The Dial Press for accepting the challenge of publication. Responsibility for taking this step, however, is mine and mine alone.

I am well aware that my action may be taken as a breach of faith by some of my former colleagues. But in my view my responsibility to the society for which I am a part supersedes any self-assumed obligation on the part of fifteen individual men. Since our Report can be considered on its merits, it is not necessary for me to disclose their identity to accomplish my purpose. Yet I gladly abandon my own anonymity if it were possible to do so without at the same time comprising theirs, to defend our work publicly if and when they release me from this personal bond.

But this is secondary. What is needed now, and needed badly, is widespread public discussion and debate about the elements of war and the problems of peace. I hope that publication of this Report will serve to initiate it.

THE REPORT OF THE SPECIAL STUDY GROUP

LETTER OF TRANSMITTAL

To the convener of this Group:

Attached is the Report of the Special Study Group established by you in August, 1963, 1) to consider the problems involved in the contingency of a transition to a general condition of peace, and 2) to recommend procedures for dealing with this contingency. For the convenience of nontechnical readers we have elected to submit our statistical supporting data, totaling 604 exhibits, separately, as well as a preliminary manual of the "peace games" method devised during the course of our study.

We have completed our assignment to the best of our ability, subject to the limitations of time and resources available to us. Our conclusions of fact and our recommendations are unanimous; those of use who differ in certain secondary respects from the findings set forth herein do not consider these differences sufficient to warrant the filing of a minority report. It is our earnest hope that the fruits of our deliberations will be of value to our government in its efforts to provide leadership to the nation in solving the complex and far-reaching problems we have examined, and that our recommendations for subsequent Presidential action in this area will be adopted.

Because of the unusual circumstances surrounding the establishment of this Group, and in view of the nature of its findings, we do not recommend that this Report be released for publication. It is our affirmative judgment that such action would not be in the public interest. The uncertain advantages of public discussion of our conclusions and recommendations are, in our opinion, greatly outweighed by the clear and predictable danger of a crisis in public confidence which untimely publication of this Report might be expected to provoke. The likelihood that a lay reader, unexposed to the exigencies of higher political or military responsibility, will misconstrue the purpose of this project, and the intent of its participants, seems obvious. We urge that circulation of this Report be closely restricted to those whose responsibilities require that they be apprised of its contents.

We deeply regret that the necessity of anonymity, a prerequisite to our Group's unhindered pursuit of its objectives, precludes proper acknowledgment of our gratitude to the many persons in and out of government who contributed so greatly to our work.

INTRODUCTION

The Report which follows summarizes the results of a two-and-a-half-year study of the broad problems to be anticipated in the event of general transformation of American society to a condition lacking its most critical current characteristics: its capability and readiness to make war when doing so is judged necessary or desirable by its political leadership.

Our work has been predicated on the belief that some kind of general peace may soon be negotiable. The de facto admission of Communist China into the United Nations now appears to be only a few years away at most. It has become increasingly manifest that conflicts of American national interest with those of China and the Soviet Union are susceptible of political solution, despite the superficial contraindications of the current Vietnam war, of the threats of an attack on China, and of the necessarily hostile tenor of day-to-day foreign policy statements. It is also obvious that differences involving other nations can be readily resolved by the three great powers whenever they arrive at a stable peace among themselves. It is not necessary, for the purposes of our study, to assume that a general detente of this sort will come about---and we make no such argument--but only that it may.

It is surely no exaggeration to say that a condition of general world peace would lead to changes in the social structures of the nations of the world of unparalleled and revolutionary magnitude. The economic impact of general disarmament, to name only the most obvious consequence of peace, would revise the production and distribution patterns of the globe to a degree that would make changes of the past fifty years seem insignificant. Political, sociological, cultural, and ecological changes would be equally far-reaching. What has motivated our study of these contingencies has been the growing sense of thoughtful men in and out of government that the world is totally unprepared to meet the demands of such a situation.

We had originally planned, when our study was initiated, to address ourselves to these two broad questions and their components: What can be expected if peace comes? What should we be prepared to do about it? But as our investigation proceeded, it became apparent that certain other questions had to be faced. What, for instance, are the real functions of war in modern societies, beyond the ostensible ones of defending and advancing the "national interests" of nations? In the absence of war, what other institutions exist or might be devised to fulfill these functions? Granting that a "peaceful" settlement of disputes is within the range of current international relationships, is the abolition of war, in the broad sense, really possible? If so, is it necessarily desirable, in terms of social stability? If not, what can be done to improve the operation of our social system in respect to its war-readiness?

The word peace, as we have used it in the following pages, describes a permanent, or quasi-permanent, condition entirely free from the national exercise, or contemplation, of any form of the organized social violence, or threat of violence, generally known as war. It implies total and general disarmament. It is not used to describe the more familiar condition of "cold war," "armed peace," or other mere respite, long or short, from armed conflict. Nor is it used simply as a synonym for the political settlement of international differences. The magnitude of modern means of mass destruction and the speed of modern communications require the unqualified working definition given above; only a generation ago such an absolute description would have seemed utopian rather than pragmatic. Today, any modification of this definition would render it almost worthless for our purpose. By the same standard, we have used the work war to apply interchangeably to conventional ("hot") war, to the general condition of war preparation or war readiness, and to the general "war system." The sense intended is made clear in context.

The first section of our Report deals with its scope and with the assumptions on which our study was based. The second considers the effects of disarmament on the economy, the subject of most peace research to date. The third takes up so-called "disarmament scenarios" which have been proposed. The fourth, fifth, and sixth examine the nonmilitary functions of war and the problems they raise for a viable transition to peace; here will be found some indications of the true dimensions of the problem, not previously coordinated in any other study. In the seventh section we summarize our findings, and in the eighth we set forth our recommendations for what we believe to be a practical and necessary course of action.

SECTION 1 - SCOPE OF THE STUDY

When The Special Study Group was established in August, 1963, its members were instructed to govern their deliberations in accordance with three principal criteria. Briefly stated, they were these: 1) military-style objectivity; 2) avoidance of preconceived value assumptions; 3) inclusion of all relevant areas of theory and data.

These guideposts are by no means as obvious as they may appear at first glance, and we believe it necessary to indicate clearly how they were to inform our work. For they express succinctly the limitations of previous "peace studies," and imply the nature of both government and unofficial dissatisfaction with these earlier efforts. It is not our intention here to minimize the significance of the work of our predecessors, or to belittle the quality of their contributions. What we have tried to do, and believe we have done, is extend their scope. We hope that our conclusions may serve in turn as a starting point for still broader and more detailed examinations of every aspect of the problems of transition to peace and of the questions which must be answered before such a transition can be allowed to get under way.

It is a truism that objectivity is more often an intention expressed than an attitude achieved, but the intention---conscious, unambiguous, and constantly self-critical -- is a precondition to its achievement. We believe it no accident that we were charged to use a "military contingency" model for our study, and we owe a considerable debt to the civilian war planning agencies for their pioneering work in the objective examination of the contingencies of nuclear war. There is no such precedent in the peace studies. Much of the usefulness of even the most elaborate and carefully reasoned programs for economic conversion to peace, for example, has been vitiated by a wishful eagerness to demonstrate that peace is not only possible, but even cheap or easy. One official report is replete with references to the critical role of "dynamic optimism" on economic developments, and goes on to submit, as evidence, that it "would be hard to imagine that the American people would not respond very positively to an agreed and safeguarded program to substitute an international rule of law and order," etc. Another line of argument frequently taken is that disarmament would entail comparatively little disruption of the economy, since it need only be partial; we will deal with this approach later. Yet genuine objectivity in war studies is often criticized as inhuman. As Herman Kahn, the writer on strategic studies best known to the general public, put it: "Critics frequently object to the icy rationality of the Hudson Institute, the Rand Corporation, and other such organizations. I'm always tempted to ask in reply, 'Would you prefer a warm, human error? Do you feel better with a nice emotional mistake?'" And, as Secretary of Defense Robert S. McNamara has pointed out, in reference to facing up to the possibility of nuclear war, "Some people are afraid even to look over the edge. But in a thermonuclear war we cannot afford any political acrophobia." Surely it would be self-evident that this applies equally to the opposite prospect, but so far no one has taken more than a timid glance over the brink of peace.

An intention to avoid preconceived value judgments is if anything even more productive of self-delusion. We claim no immunity, as individuals, from this type of bias, but we have made a continuously self-conscious effort to deal with the problems of peace without, for example, considering that a condition of peace is per se "good" or "bad." This has not been easy, but it has been obligatory; to our knowledge, it has not been done before. Previous studies have taken the desirability of peace, the importance of human life, the superiority of democratic institutions, the greatest "good" for the greatest number, the "dignity" of the individual, the desirability of maximum health and longevity, and other such wishful premises as axiomatic values necessary for the justification of a study of peace issues. We have not found them so. We have attempted to apply the standards of physical science to our thinking, the principal characteristic of which is not quantification, as is popularly believed, but that, in Whitehead's words, "...it ignores all judgments of value; for instance, all aesthetic and moral judgments." Yet it is obvious that any serious investigation of a problem, however "pure," must be informed by some normative standard. In this case it has been simply the survival of human society in general, of American society in particular, and, as a corollary to survival, the stability of this society.

It is interesting, we believe, to note that the most dispassionate planners of nuclear strategy also recognize that the stability of society is the one bedrock value that cannot be avoided. Secretary McNamara has defended the need for American nuclear superiority on the grounds that it "makes possible a strategy designed to preserve the fabric of our societies if war should occur." A former member of the Department of State policy planning staff goes further. "A more precise word for peace, in terms of the practical world, is stability. ... Today the great nuclear panoplies are essential elements in such stability as exists. Our present purpose must be to continue the process of learning how to live with them." We, of course, do not equate stability with peace, but we accept it as the one common assumed objective of both peace and war.

The third criterion-breadth-has taken us still farther afield from peace studies made to date. It is obvious to any layman that the economic patterns of a warless world will be drastically different from those we live with today, and it is equally obvious that the political relationships of nations will not be those we have learned to take for granted, sometimes described as a global version of the adversary system of our common law. But the social implications of peace extend far beyond its putative effects on national economics and international relations. As we shall show, the relevance of peace and war to the internal political organization of societies, to the sociological relationships of their members, to psychological motivations, to ecological processes, and to cultural values is equally profound. More important, it is equally critical in assaying the consequences of a transition to peace, and in determining the feasibility of any transition at all.

It is not surprising that these less obvious factors have been generally ignored in peace research. They have not lent themselves to systematic analysis. They have been difficult, perhaps impossible, to measure with any degree of assurance that estimates of their effects could be depended on. They are "intangibles," but only in the sense that abstract concepts in mathematics are intangible compared to those which can be quantified. Economic factors, on the other hand, can be measured, at least superficially; and international relationships can be verbalized, like law, into logical sequences.

We do not claim that we have discovered an infallible way of measuring these other factors, or of assigning them precise weights in the equation of transition. But we believe we have taken their relative importance into account to this extent: we have removed them from the category of the "intangible," hence scientifically suspect and therefore somehow of secondary importance, and brought them out into the realm of the objective. The result, we believe, provides a context of realism for the discussion of the issues relating to the possible transition to peace which up to now has been missing.

This is not to say that we presume to have found the answers we were seeking. But we believe that our emphasis on breadth of scope has made it at least possible to begin to understand the questions.

SECTION 2 - DISARMAMENT AND THE ECONOMY

In this section we shall briefly examine some of the common features of the studies that have been published dealing with one or another aspect of the expected impact of disarmament on the American economy. Whether disarmament is considered as a by-product of peace or as its precondition, its effect on the national economy will in either case be the most immediately felt of its consequences. The quasi-mensurable quality of economic manifestations has given rise to more detailed speculation in this area than in any other.

General agreement prevails in respect to the more important economic problems that general disarmament would raise. A short survey of these problems, rather than a detailed critique of their comparative significance, is sufficient for our purposes in this Report.

The first factor is that of size. The "world war industry," as one writer has aptly called it, accounts for approximately a tenth of the output of the world's total economy. Although this figure is subject to fluctuation, the causes of which are themselves subject to regional variation, it tends to hold fairly steady. The United States, as the world's richest nation, not only accounts for the largest single share of this expense, currently upward of $60 billion a year, but also "...has devoted a higher proportion [emphasis added] of its gross national product to its military establishment than any other major free world nation. This was true even before our increased expenditures in Southeast Asia." Plans for economic conversion that minimize the economic magnitude of the problem do so only by rationalizing, however persuasively, the maintenance of a substantial residual military budget under some euphemized classification.

Conversion of military expenditures to other purposes entails a number of difficulties. The most serious stems from the degree of rigid specialization that characterizes modern war production, best exemplified in nuclear and missile technology. This constituted no fundamental problem after World War II, nor did the question of free-market consumer demand for "conventional" items of consumption--those goods and services consumers had already been conditioned to require. Today's situation is qualitatively different in both respects.

This inflexibility is geographical and occupational, as well as industrial, a fact which has led most analysts of the economic impact of disarmament to focus their attention on phased plans for the relocation of war industry personnel and capital installations as much as on proposals for developing new patterns of consumption. One serious flaw common to such plans is the kind called in the natural sciences the "macroscopic error." An implicit presumption is made that a total national plan for conversion differs from a community program to cope with the shutting down of a "defense facility" only in degree. We find no reason to believe that this is the case, nor that a general enlargement of such local programs, however well thought out in terms of housing, occupational retraining, and the like, can be applied on a national scale. A national economy can absorb almost any number of subsidiary reorganizations within its total limits, providing there is no basic change in its own structure. General disarmament, which would require such basic changes, lends itself to no valid smaller-scale analogy.

Even more questionable are the models proposed for the retaining labor for nonarmaments occupations. Putting aside for the moment the unsolved questions dealing with the nature of new distribution patterns---retraining for what?-- the increasingly specialized job skills associated with war industry production are further depreciated by the accelerating inroads of the industrial techniques loosely described as "automation." It is not too much to say that general disarmament would require the scrapping of a critical proportion of the most highly developed occupational specialties in the economy. The political difficulties inherent in such an "adjustment" would make the outcries resulting from the closing of a few obsolete military and naval installations in 1964 sound like a whisper.

In general, discussions of the problem of conversion have been characterized by an unwillingness to recognize its special quality. This is best exemplified by the 1965 report of the Ackley Committee. One critic has tellingly pointed out that it blindly assumes that "...nothing in the arms economy--neither its size, nor its geographical concentration, nor its highly specialized nature, nor the peculiarities of its market, nor the special nature of much of its labor force---endows it with any uniqueness when the necessary time of adjustment comes."

Let us assume, however, despite the lack of evidence that a viable program for conversion can be developed in the framework of the existing economy, that the problems noted above can be solved. What proposals have been offered for utilizing the productive capabilities that disarmament would presumably release?

The most common held theory is simply that general economic reinvestment would absorb the greater part of these capabilities. Even though it is now largely taken for granted (and even by today's equivalent of traditional laissez-faire economists) that unprecedented government assistance (and concomitant government control) will be needed to solve the "structural" problems of transition, a general attitude of confidence prevails that new consumption patterns will take up the slack. What is less clear is the nature of these patterns.

One school of economists has it that these patterns will develop on their own. It envisages the equivalent of the arms budget being returned, under careful control, to the consumer, in the form of tax cuts. Another, recognizing the undeniable need for increased "consumption" in what is generally considered the public sector of the economy, stresses vastly increased government spending in such areas of national concern as health, education, mass transportation, low-cost housing, water supply, control of the physical environment, and, stated generally, "poverty."

The mechanisms proposed for controlling the transition to an arms-free economy are also traditional--changes in both sides of the federal budget, manipulation of interest rates, etc. We acknowledge the undeniable value of fiscal tools in a normal cyclical economy, where they provide leverage to accelerate or brake an existing trend. Their more committed proponents, however, tend to lose sight of the fact that there is a limit to the power of these devices to influence fundamental economic forces. They can provide new incentives in the economy, but they cannot in themselves transform the production of a billion dollars' worth of missiles a year to the equivalent in food, clothing, prefabricated houses, or television sets. At bottom, they reflect the economy; they do not motivate it.

More sophisticated, and less sanguine, analysts contemplate the diversion of the arms budget to a non-military system equally remote from the market economy. What the "pyramid-builders" frequently suggest is the expansion of space-research programs to the dollar level of current expenditures. This approach has the superficial merit of reducing the size of the problem of transferability of resources, but introduces other difficulties, which we will take up in section 6.

Without singling out any one of the several major studies of the expected impact of disarmament on the economy for special criticism, we can summarize our objections to them in general terms as follows:

No proposed program for economic conversion to disarmament sufficiently takes into account the unique magnitude of the required adjustments it would entail.

Proposals to transform arms production into a beneficent scheme of public works are more the products of wishful thinking than of realistic understanding of the limits of our existing economic system.

Fiscal and monetary measures are inadequate as controls for the process of transition to an arms-free economy.

Insufficient attention has been paid to the political acceptability of the objectives of the proposed conversion models, as well as of the political means to be employed in effectuating a transition.

No serious consideration has been given, in any proposed conversion plan, to the fundamental nonmilitary function of war and armaments in modern society, nor has any explicit attempt been made to devise a viable substitute for it. This criticism will be developed in sections 5 and 6.

SECTION 3 - DISARMAMENT SCENARIOS

SCENARIOS, as they have come to be called, are hypothetical constructions of future events. Inevitably, they are composed of varying proportions of established fact, reasonable inference, and more or less inspired guesswork. Those which have been suggested as model procedures for effectuating international arms control and eventual disarmament are necessarily imaginative, although closely reasoned; in this respect they resemble the "war games" analyses of the Rand Corporation, with which they share a common conceptual origin.

All such scenarios that have been seriously put forth imply a dependence on bilateral or multilateral agreement between the great powers. In general, they call for a progressive phasing out of gross armaments, military forces, weapons, and weapons technology, coordinated with elaborate matching procedures of verification, inspection, and machinery for the settlement of international disputes. It should be noted that even proponents of unilateral disarmament qualify their proposals with an implied requirement of reciprocity, very much in the manner of a scenario of graduated response in nuclear war. The advantage of unilateral initiative lies in its political value as an expression of good faith, as well as in its diplomatic function as a catalyst for formal disarmament negotiations.

The READ model for disarmament (developed by the Research Program on Economic Adjustments to Disarmament) is typical of these scenarios. It is a twelve-year program, divided into three-year stages. Each stage includes a separate phase of: reduction of armed forces; cutbacks of weapons production, inventories, and foreign military bases; development of international inspection procedures and control conventions; and the building up of a sovereign international disarmament organization. It anticipates a net matching decline in U.S. defense expenditures of only somewhat more than half the 1965 level, but a necessary redeployment of some five-sixths of the defense-dependent labor force.

The economic implications assigned by their authors to various disarmament scenarios diverge widely. The more conservative models, like that cited above, emphasize economic as well as military prudence in postulating elaborate fail-safe disarmament agencies, which themselves require expenditures substantially substituting for those of the displaced war industries. Such programs stress the advantages of the smaller economic adjustment entailed. Others emphasize, on the contrary, the magnitude (and the opposite advantages) of the savings to be achieved from disarmament. One widely read analysis estimates the annual cost of the inspection function of general disarmament throughout the world as only between two and three percent of current military expenditures. Both types of plan tend to deal with the anticipated problem of economic reinvestment only in the aggregate. We have seen no proposed disarmament sequence that correlates the phasing out of specific kinds of military spending with specific new forms of substitute spending.

Without examining disarmament scenarios in greater detail, we may characterize them with these general comments:

Given genuine agreement of intent among the great powers, the scheduling of arms control and elimination presents no inherently insurmountable procedural problems. Any of several proposed sequences might serve as the basis for multilateral agreement or for the first step in unilateral arms reduction.

No major power can proceed with such a program, however, until it has developed an economic conversion plan fully integrated with each phase of disarmament. No such plan has yet been developed in the United States.

Furthermore, disarmament scenarios, like proposals for economic conversion, make no allowance for the non-military functions of war in modern societies, and offer no surrogate for these necessary functions. One partial exception is a proposal for the "unarmed forces of the United States," which we will consider in section 6.

SECTION 4 - WAR AND PEACE AS SOCIAL SYSTEMS

We have dealt only sketchily with proposed disarmament scenarios and economic analyses, but the reason for our seemingly casual dismissal of so much serious and sophisticated work lies in no disrespect for its competence. It is rather a question of relevance. To put it plainly, all these programs, however detailed and well developed, are abstractions. The most carefully reasoned disarmament sequence inevitably reads more like the rules of a game or a classroom exercise in logic than like a prognosis of real events in the real world. This is as true of today's complex proposals as it was of the Abbé de St. Pierre's "Plan for Perpetual Peace in Europe" 250 years ago.

Some essential element has clearly been lacking in all these schemes. One of our first tasks was to try to bring this missing quality into definable focus, and we believe we have succeeded in doing so. We find that at the heart of every peace study we have examined--from the modest technological proposal (e.g., to convert a poison gas plant to the production of "socially useful" equivalents) to the most elaborate scenario for universal peace in out time--lies one common fundamental misconception. It is the source of the miasma of unreality surrounding such plans. It is the incorrect assumption that war, as an institution, is subordinate to the social systems it is believed to serve.

This misconception, although profound and far-reaching, is entirely comprehensible. Few social clichés are so unquestioningly accepted as the notion that war is an extension of diplomacy (or of politics, or of the pursuit of economic objectives). If this were true, it would be wholly appropriate for economists and political theorists to look on the problems of transition to peace as essentially mechanical or procedural---as indeed they do, treating them as logistic corollaries of the settlement of national conflicts of interest. If this were true, there would be no real substance to the difficulties of transition. For it is evident that even in today's world there exist no conceivable conflict of interest, real or imaginary, between nations or between social forces within nations, that cannot be resolved without recourse to war--if such resolution were assigned a priority of social value. And if this were true, the economic analyses and disarmament proposals we have referred to, plausible and well conceived as they may be, would not inspire, as they do, an inescapable sense of indirection.

The point is that the cliché is not true, and the problems of transition are indeed substantive rather than merely procedural. Although war is "used" as an instrument of national and social policy, the fact that a society is organized for any degree of readiness for war supersedes its political and economic structure. War itself is the basic social system, within which other secondary modes of social organization conflict or conspire. It is the system which has governed most human societies of record, as it is today.

Once this is correctly understood, the true magnitude of the problems entailed in a transition to peace---itself a social system, but without precedent except in a few simple preindustrial societies---becomes apparent. At the same time, some of the puzzling superficial contradictions of modern societies can then be readily rationalized. The "unnecessary" size and power of the world war industry; the preeminence of the military establishment in every society, whether open or concealed; the exemption of military or paramilitary institutions from the accepted social and legal standards of behavior required elsewhere in the society; the successful operation of the armed forces and the armaments producers entirely outside the framework of each nation's economic ground rules: these and other ambiguities closely associated with the relationship of war to society are easily clarified, once the priority of war-making potential as the principal structuring force in society is accepted. Economic systems, political philosophies, and corpora jures serve and extend the war system, not vice versa.

It must be emphasized that the precedence of a society's war-making potential over its other characteristics is not the result of the "threat" presumed to exist at any one time from other societies. This is the reverse of the basic situation; "threats" against the "national interest" are usually created or accelerated to meet the changing needs of the war system. Only in comparatively recent times has it been considered politically expedient to euphemize war budgets as "defense" requirements. The necessity for governments to distinguish between "aggression" (bad) and "defense" (good) has been a by-product of rising literacy and rapid communication. The distinction is tactical only, a concession to the growing inadequacy of ancient war-organizing political rationales.

Wars are not "caused" by international conflicts of interest. Proper logical sequence would make it more often accurate to say that war-making societies require---and thus bring about---such conflicts. The capacity of a nation to make war expresses the greatest social power it can exercise; war-making, active or contemplated, is a matter of life and death on the greatest scale subject to social control. It should therefore hardly be surprising that the military institutions in each society claim its highest priorities.

We find further that most of the confusion surrounding the myth that war-making is a tool of state policy stems from a general misapprehension of the functions of war. In general, these are conceived as: to defend a nation from military attack by another, or to deter such an attack; to defend or advance a "national interest"--economic, political, ideological; to maintain or increase a nation's military power for its own sake. These are the visible, or ostensible, functions of war. If there were no others, the importance of the war establishment in each society might in fact decline to the subordinate level it is believed to occupy. And the elimination of war would indeed be the procedural matter that the disarmament scenarios suggest.

But there are other, broader, more profoundly felt functions of war in modern societies. It is these invisible, or implied, functions that maintain war-readiness as the dominant force in our societies. And it is the unwillingness or inability of the writers of disarmament scenarios and reconversion plans to take them into account that has so reduced the usefulness of their work, and that has made it seem unrelated to the world we know.

SECTION 5 - THE FUNCTIONS OF WAR

As we have indicated, the preeminence of the concept of war as the principal organizing force in most societies has been insufficiently appreciated. This is also true of its extensive effects throughout the many nonmilitary activities of society. These effects are less apparent in complex industrial societies like our own than in primitive cultures, the activities of which can be more easily and fully comprehended.

We propose in this section to examine these nonmilitary, implied, and usually invisible functions of war, to the extent that they bear on the problems of transition to peace for our society. The military, or ostensible, function of the war system requires no elaboration; it serves simply to defend or advance the "national interest" by means of organized violence. It is often necessary for a national military establishment to create a need for its unique powers--to maintain the franchise, so to speak. And a healthy military apparatus requires "exercise," by whatever rationale seems expedient, to prevent its atrophy.

The nonmilitary functions of the war system are more basic. They exist not merely to justify themselves but to serve broader social purposes. If and when war is eliminated, the military functions it has served will end with it. But its nonmilitary functions will not. It is essential, therefore, that we understand their significance before we can reasonably expect to evaluate whatever institutions may be proposed to replace them.

ECONOMIC

The production of weapons of mass destruction has always been associated with economic "waste." The term is pejorative, since it implies a failure of function. But no human activity can properly be considered wasteful if it achieves its contextual objective. The phrase "wasteful but necessary," applied not only to war expenditures but to most of the "unproductive" commercial activities of our society, is a contradiction in terms. "...The attacks that have since the time of Samuel's criticism of King Saul been leveled against military expenditures as waste may well have concealed or misunderstood the point that some kinds of waste may have a larger social utility."

In the case of military "waste," there is indeed a larger social utility. It derives from the fact that the "wastefulness" of war production is exercised entirely outside the framework of the economy of supply and demand. As such, it provides the only critically large segment of the total economy that is subject to complete and arbitrary central control. If modern industrial societies can be defined as those which have developed the capacity to produce more than is required for their economic survival (regardless of the equities of distribution of goods within them), military spending can be said to furnish the only balance wheel with sufficient inertia to stabilize the advance of their economies. The fact that war is "wasteful" is what enables it to serve this function. And the faster the economy advances, the heavier this balance wheel must be.

This function is often viewed, oversimply, as a device for the control of surpluses. One writer on the subject puts it this way: "Why is war so wonderful? Because it creates artificial demand...the only kind of artificial demand, moreover, that does not raise any political issues: war, and only war, solves the problem of inventory." The reference here is to shooting war, but it applies equally to the general war economy as well. "It is generally agreed," concludes, more cautiously, the report of a panel set up by the U.S. Arms Control and Disarmament Agency, "that the greatly expanded public sector since World War II, resulting from heavy defense expenditures, has provided additional protection against depressions, since this sector is not responsive to contraction in the private sector and has provided a sort of buffer or balance wheel in the economy."

The principal economic function of war, in our view, is that it provides just such a flywheel. It is not to be confused in function with the various forms of fiscal control, none of which directly engages vast numbers of control, none of which directly engages vast numbers of men and units of production. It is not to be confused with massive government expenditures in social welfare programs; once initiated, such programs normally become integral parts of the general economy and are no longer subject to arbitrary control.

But even in the context of the general civilian economy war cannot be considered wholly "wasteful." Without a long-established war economy, and without its frequent eruption into large-scale shooting war, most of the major industrial advances known to history, beginning with the development of iron, could never have taken place. Weapons technology structures the economy. According to the writer cited above, "Nothing is more ironic or revealing about our society than the fact that hugely destructive war is a very progressive force in it. ... War production is progressive because it is production that would not otherwise have taken place. (It is not so widely appreciated, for example, that the civilian standard of living rose during World War II.)" This is not "ironic or revealing," but essentially a simple statement of fact.

It should also be noted that the war production has a dependably stimulating effect outside itself. Far from constituting a "wasteful" drain on the economy, war spending, considered pragmatically, has been a consistently positive factor in the rise of gross national product and of individual productivity. A former Secretary of the Army has carefully phrased it for public consumption thus: "If there is, as I suspect there is, a direct relation between the stimulus of large defense spending and a substantially increased rate of growth of gross national product, it quite simply follows that defense spending per se might be countenanced on economic grounds alone [emphasis added] as a stimulator of the national metabolism." Actually, the fundamental nonmilitary utility of war in the economy is far more widely acknowledged than the scarcity of such affirmations as that quoted above would suggest.

But negatively phrased public recognitions of the importance of war to the general economy abound. The most familiar example is the effect of "peace threats" on the stock market, e.g., "Wall Street was shaken yesterday by news of an apparent peace feeler from North Vietnam, but swiftly recovered its composure after about an hour of sometimes indiscriminate selling." Savings banks solicit deposits with similar cautionary slogans, e.g., "If peace breaks out, will you be ready for it?" A more subtle case in point was the recent refusal of the Department of Defense to permit the West German government to substitute nonmilitary goods for unwanted armaments in its purchase commitments from the United States; the decisive consideration was that the German purchases should not affect the general (nonmilitary) economy. Other incidental examples are to be found in the pressures brought to bear on the Department when it announces plans to close down an obsolete facility (as a "wasteful" form of "waste"). and in the usual coordination of stepped-up military activities (as in Vietnam in 1965) with dangerously rising unemployment rates.

Although we do not imply that a substitute for war in the economy cannot be devised, no combination of techniques for controlling employment, production, and consumption has yet been tested that can remotely compare to it in effectiveness. It is, and has been, the essential economic stabilizer of modern societies.

POLITICAL

The political functions of war have been up to now even more critical to social stability. It is not surprising, nevertheless, that discussions of economic conversion for peace tend to fall silent on the matter of political implementation, and that disarmament scenarios, often sophisticated in their weighing of international political factors, tend to disregard the political functions of the war system within individual societies.

These functions are essentially organizational. First of all, the existence of a society as a political "nation" requires as part of its definition an attitude of relationship toward other "nations." This is what we usually call a foreign policy. But a nation's foreign policy can have no substance if it lacks the means of enforcing its attitude toward other nations. It can do this in a credible manner only if it implies the threat of maximum political organization for this purpose-- which is to say that it is organized to some degree for war. War, then, as we have defined it to include all national activities that recognize the possibility of armed conflict, is itself the defining element of any nation's existence vis-a-vis any other nation. Since it is historically axiomatic that the existence of any form of weaponry insures its use, we have used the word "peace" as virtually synonymous with disarmament. By the same token, "war" is virtually synonymous with nationhood. The elimination of war implies the inevitable elimination of national sovereignty and the traditional nation-state.

The war system not only has been essential to the existence of nations as independent political entities, but has been equally indispensable to their stable internal political structure. Without it, no government has ever been able to obtain acquiescence in its "legitimacy," or right to rule its society. The possibility of war provides the sense of external necessity without which no government can long remain in power. The historical record reveals one instance after another where the failure of a regime to maintain the credibility of a war threat led to its dissolution, by the forces of private interest, or reactions to social injustice, or of other disintegrative elements. The organization of a society for the possibility of war is its principal political stabilizer. It is ironic that this primary function of war has been generally recognized by historians only where it has been expressly acknowledged--in the pirate societies of the great conquerors.

The basic authority of a modern state over its people resides in its war powers. (There is, in fact, good reason to believe that codified law had its origins in the rules of conduct established by military victors for dealing with the defeated enemy, which were later adapted to apply to all subject populations.) On a day-to-day basis, it is represented by the institution of police, armed organizations charged expressly with dealing with "internal enemies" in a military manner. Like the conventional "external" military, the police are also substantially exempt from many civilian legal restraints on their social behavior. In some countries, the artificial distinction between police and other military forces does not exist. On the long-term basis, a government's emergency war powers -- inherent in the structure of even the most libertarian of nations -- define the most significant aspect of the relation between state and citizen.

In advanced modern democratic societies, the war system has provided political leaders with another political-economic function of increasing importance: it has served as the last great safeguard against the elimination of necessary social classes. As economic productivity increases to a level further and further above that of minimum subsistence, it becomes more and more difficult for a society to maintain distribution patterns insuring the existence of "hewers of wood and drawers of water". The further progress of automation can be expected to differentiate still more sharply between "superior" workers and what Ricardo called "menials," while simultaneously aggravating the problem of maintaining an unskilled labor supply.

The arbitrary nature of war expenditures and of other military activities make them ideally suited to control these essential class relationships. Obviously, if the war system were to be discarded, new political machinery would be needed at once to serve this vital subfunction. Until it is developed, the continuance of the war system must be assured, if for no other reason, among others, than to preserve whatever quality and degree of poverty a society requires as an incentive, as well as to maintain the stability of its internal organization of power.

SOCIOLOGICAL

Under this heading, we will examine a nexus of functions served by the war system that affect human behavior in society. In general, they are broader in application and less susceptible to direct observation than the economic and political factors previously considered.

The most obvious of these functions is the time-honored use of military institutions to provide antisocial elements with an acceptable role in the social structure. The disintegrative, unstable social movements loosely described as "fascist" have traditionally taken root in societies that have lacked adequate military or paramilitary outlets to meet the needs of these elements. This function has been critical in periods of rapid change. The danger signals are easy to recognize, even though the stigmata bear different names at different times. The current euphemistic clichés--"juvenile delinquency" and "alienation" -- have had their counterparts in every age. In earlier days these conditions were dealt with directly by the military without the complications of due process, usually through press gangs or outright enslavement. But it is not hard to visualize, for example, the degree of social disruption that might have taken place in the United States during the last two decades if the problem of the socially disaffected of the post-World War II period had been foreseen and effectively met. The younger, and more dangerous, of these hostile social groupings have been kept under control by the Selective Service System.

This system and its analogues elsewhere furnish remarkably clear examples of disguised military utility. Informed persons in this country have never accepted the official rationale for a peacetime draft--military necessity, preparedness, etc. --as worthy of serious consideration. But what has gained credence among thoughtful men is the rarely voiced, less easily refuted, proposition that the institution of military service has a "patriotic" priority in our society that must be maintained for its own sake. Ironically, the simplistic official justification for selective service comes closer to the mark, once the non-military functions of military institutions are understood. As a control device over the hostile, nihilistic, and potentially unsettling elements of a society in transition, the draft can again be defended, and quite convincingly, as a "military" necessity.

Nor can it be considered a coincidence that overt military activity, and thus the level of draft calls, tend to follow the major fluctuations in the unemployment rate in the lower age groups. This rate, in turn, is a timetested herald of social discontent. It must be noted also that the armed forces in every civilization have provided the principal state-supported haven for what we now call the "unemployable." The typical European standing army (of fifty years ago) consisted of "...troops unfit for employment in commerce, industry, or agriculture, led by officers unfit to practice any legitimate profession or to conduct a business enterprise." This is still largely true, if less apparent. In a sense, this function of the military as the custodian of the economically or culturally deprived was the forerunner of most contemporary civilian social-welfare programs, from the W.P.A. to various forms of "socialized" medicine and social security. It is interesting that liberal sociologists currently proposing to use the Selective Service System as a medium of cultural upgrading of the poor consider this a novel application of military practice.

Although it cannot be said absolutely that such critical measures of social control as the draft require a military rationale, no modern society has yet been willing to risk experimentation with any other kind. Even during such periods of comparatively simple social crisis as the so-called Great Depression of the 1930s, it was deemed prudent by the government to invest minor make-work projects, like the "Civilian" Conservation Corps, with a military character, and to place the more ambitious National Recovery Administration under the direction of a professional army officer at its inception. Today, at least one small Northern European country, plagued with uncontrollable unrest among its "alienated youth," is considering the expansion of its armed forces, despite the problem of making credible the expansion of a non-existent external threat.

Sporadic efforts have been made to promote general recognition of broad national values free of military connotation, but they have been ineffective. For example, to enlist public support of even such modest programs of social adjustment as "fighting inflation" or "maintaining physical fitness" it has been necessary for the government to utilize a patriotic (i.e. military) incentive. It sells "defense" bonds and it equates health with military preparedness. This is not surprising; since the concept of "nationhood" implies readiness for war, a "national" program must do likewise.

In general, the war system provides the basic motivation for primary social organization. In so doing, it reflects on the societal level the incentives of individual human behavior. The most important of these, for social purposes, is the individual psychological rationale for allegiance to a society and its values. Allegiance requires a cause; a cause requires an enemy. This much is obvious; the critical point is that the enemy that defines the cause must seem genuinely formidable. Roughly speaking, the presumed power of the "enemy" sufficient to warrant an individual sense of allegiance to a society must be proportionate to the size and complexity of the society. Today, of course, that power must be one of unprecedented magnitude and frightfulness.

It follows, from the patterns of human behavior, that the credibility of a social "enemy" demands similarly a readiness of response in proportion to its menace. In a broad social context, "an eye for an eye" still characterizes the only acceptable attitude toward a presumed threat of aggression, despite contrary religious and moral precepts governing personal conduct. The remoteness of personal decision from social consequence in a modern society makes it easy for its members to maintain this attitude without being aware of it. A recent example is the war in Vietnam; a less recent one was the bombing of Hiroshima and Nagasaki. In each case, the extent and gratuitousness of the slaughter were abstracted into political formulae by most Americans, once the proposition that the victims were "enemies" was established. The war system makes such an abstracted response possible in nonmilitary contexts as well. A conventional example of this mechanism is the inability of most people to connect, let us say, the starvation of millions in India with their own past conscious political decision-making. Yet the sequential logic linking a decision to restrict grain production in America with an eventual famine in Asia is obvious, unambiguous, and unconcealed.

What gives the war system its preeminent role in social organization, as elsewhere, is its unmatched authority over life and death. It must be emphasized again that the war system is not a mere social extension of the presumed need for individual human violence, but itself in turn serves to rationalize most nonmilitary killing. It also provides the precedent for the collective willingness of members of a society to pay a blood price for institutions far less central to social organization than war. To take a handy example..."rather than accept speed limits of twenty miles an hour we prefer to let automobiles kill forty thousand people a year." A Rand analyst puts it in more general terms and less rhetorically: "I am sure that there is, in effect, a desirable level of automobile accidents---desirable, that is, from a broad point of view; in the sense that it is a necessary concomitant of things of greater value to society." The point may seem too obvious for iteration, but it is essential to an understanding of the important motivational function of war as a model for collective sacrifice.

A brief look at some defunct premodern societies is instructive. One of the most noteworthy features common to the larger, more complex, and more successful of ancient civilizations was their widespread use of the blood sacrifice. If one were to limit consideration to those cultures whose regional hegemony was so complete that the prospect of "war" had become virtually inconceivable ---as was the case with several of the great pre-Columbian societies of the Western Hemisphere---it would be found that some form of ritual killing occupied a position of paramount social importance in each. Invariably, the ritual was invested with mythic or religious significance; as will all religious and totemic practice, however, the ritual masked a broader and more important social function.

In these societies, the blood sacrifice served the purpose of maintaining a vestigial "earnest" of the society's capability and willingness to make war-- i.e., kill and be killed---in the event that some mystical--i.e., unforeseen --circumstance were to give rise to the possibility. That the "earnest" was not an adequate substitute for genuine military organization when the unthinkable enemy, such as the Spanish conquistadores, actually appeared on the scene in no way negates the function of the ritual. It was primarily, if not exclusively, a symbolic reminder that war had once been the central organizing force of the society, and that this condition might recur.

It does not follow that a transition to total peace in modern societies would require the use of this model, even in less "barbaric" guise. But the historical analogy serves as a reminder that a viable substitute for war as a social system cannot be a mere symbolic charade. It must involve risk of real personal destruction, and on a scale consistent with the size and complexity of modern social systems. Credibility is the key. Whether the substitute is ritual in nature or functionally substantive, unless it provides a believable life- and-death threat it will not serve the socially organizing function of war.

The existence of an accepted external menace, then, is essential to social cohesiveness as well as to the acceptance of political authority. The menace must be believable, it must be of a magnitude consistent with the complexity of the society threatened, and it must appear, at least, to affect the entire society.

ECOLOGICAL

Men, like all other animals, is subject to the continuing process of adapting to the limitations of his environment. But the principal mechanism he has utilized for this purpose is unique among living creatures. To forestall the inevitable historical cycles of inadequate food supply, post-Neolithic man destroys surplus members of his own species by organized warfare.

Ethologists have often observed that the organized slaughter of members of their own species is virtually unknown among other animals. Man's special propensity to kill his own kind (shared to a limited degree with rats) may be attributed to his inability to adapt anachronistic patterns of survival (like primitive hunting) to his development of "civilizations" in which these patterns cannot be effectively sublimated. It may be attributed to other causes that have been suggested, such as a maladapted "territorial instinct," etc. Nevertheless, it exists and its social expression in war constitutes a biological control of his relationship to his natural environment that is peculiar to man alone.

War has served to help assure the survival of the human species. But as an evolutionary device to improve it, war is almost unbelievably inefficient. With few exceptions, the selective processes of other living creatures promote both specific survival and genetic improvement. When a conventionally adaptive animal faces one of its periodic crises of insufficiency, it is the "inferior" members of the species that normally disappear. An animal's social response to such a crisis may take the form of a mass migration, during which the weak fall by the wayside. Or it may follow the dramatic and more efficient pattern of lemming societies, in which the weaker members voluntarily disperse, leaving available food supplies for the stronger. In either case, the strong survive and the weak fall. In human societies, those who fight and die in wars for survival are in general its biologically stronger members. This is natural selection in reverse.

The regressive genetic effort of war has been often noted and equally often deplored, even when it confuses biological and cultural factors. The disproportionate loss of the biologically stronger remains inherent in traditional warfare. It serves to underscore the fact that survival of the species, rather than its improvement, is the fundamental purpose of natural selection, if it can be said to have a purpose, just as it is the basic premise of this study.

But as the polemologist Gaston Bouthoul has pointed out, other institutions that were developed to serve this ecological function have proved even less satisfactory. (They include such established forms as these: infanticide, practiced chiefly in ancient and primitive societies; sexual mutilation; monasticism; forced emigration; extensive capital punishment, as in old China and eighteenth-century England; and other similar, usually localized, practices.)

Man's ability to increase his productivity of the essentials of physical life suggests that the need for protection against cyclical famine may be nearly obsolete. It has thus tended to reduce the apparent importance of the basic ecological function of war, which is generally disregarded by peace theorists. Two aspects of its remain especially relevant, however. The first is obvious: current rates of population growth, compounded by environmental threat to chemical and other contaminants, may well bring about a new crisis of insufficiency. If so, it is likely to be one of unprecedented global magnitude, not merely regional or temporary. Conventional methods of warfare would almost surely prove inadequate, in this event, to reduce the consuming population to a level consistent with survival of the species.

The second relevant factor is the efficiency of modern methods of mass destruction. Even if their use is not required to meet a world population crisis, they offer, perhaps paradoxically, the first opportunity in the history of man to halt the regressive genetic effects of natural selection by war. Nuclear weapons are indiscriminate. Their application would bring to an end the disproportionate destruction of the physically stronger members of the species (the "warriors") in periods of war. Whether this prospect of genetic gain would offset the unfavorable mutations anticipated from postnuclear radioactivity we have not yet determined. What gives the question a bearing on our study is the possibility that the determination may yet have to be made.

Another secondary ecological trend bearing on projected population growth is the regressive effect of certain medical advances. Pestilence, for example, is no longer an important factor in population control. The problem of increased life expectancy has been aggravated. These advances also pose a potentially more sinister problem, in that undesirable genetic traits that were formerly self-liquidating are now medically maintained. Many diseases that were once fatal at preprocreational ages are now cured; the effect of this development is to perpetuate undesirable susceptibilities and mutations. It seems clear that a new quasi-eugenic function of war is now in process of formation that will have to be taken into account in any transition plan. For the time being, the Department of Defense appears to have recognized such factors, as has been demonstrated by the planning under way by the Rand Corporation to cope with the breakdown in the ecological balance anticipated after a thermonuclear war. The Department has also begun to stockpile birds, for example, against the expected proliferation of radiation-resistant insects, etc.

CULTURAL AND SCIENTIFIC

The declared order of values in modern societies gives a high place to the so-called "creative" activities, and an even higher one to those associated with the advance of scientific knowledge. Widely held social values can be translated into political equivalents, which in turn may bear on the nature of a transition to peace. The attitudes of those who hold these values must be taken into account in the planning of the transition. The dependence, therefore, of cultural and scientific achievement on the war system would be an important consideration in a transition plan even if such achievement had no inherently necessary social function.

Of all the countless dichotomies invented by scholars to account for the major differences in art styles and cycles, only one has been consistently unambiguous in its application to a variety of forms and cultures. However it may be verbalized, the basic distinction is this: Is the work war-oriented or is it not? Among primitive peoples, the war dance is the most important art form. Elsewhere, literature, music, painting, sculpture, and architecture that has won lasting acceptance has invariably dealt with a theme of war, expressly or implicitly, and has expressed the centricity of war to society. The war in question may be national conflict, as in Shakespeare plays, Beethoven's music, or Goya's paintings, or it may be reflected in the form of religious, social, or moral struggle, as in the work of Dante, Rembrandt, and Bach. Art that cannot be classified as war-oriented is usually described as "sterile," "decadent," and so on. Application of the "war standard" to works of art may often leave room for debate in individual cases, but there is no question of its role as the fundamental determinant of cultural values. Aesthetic and moral standards have a common anthropological origin, in the exaltation of bravery, the willingness to kill and risk death in tribal warfare.

It is also instructive to note that the character of a society's culture has borne a close relationship to its war-making potential, in the context of its times. It is no accident that the current "cultural explosion" in the United States is taking place during an era marked by an unusually rapid advance in weaponry. This relationship is more generally recognized than the literature on the subject would suggest. For example, many artists and writers are now beginning to express concern over the limited creative options they envisage in the warless world they think, or hope, may be soon upon us. They are currently preparing for this possibility by unprecedented experimentation with meaningless forms; their interest in recent years has been increasingly engaged by the abstract pattern, the gratuitous emotion, the random happening, and the unrelated sequence.

The relationship of war to scientific research and discovery is more explicit. War is the principal motivational force for the development of science at every level, from the abstractly conceptual to the narrowly technological. Modern society places a high value on "pure" science, but it is historically inescapable that all the significant discoveries that have been made about the natural world have been inspired by the real or imaginary military necessities of their epochs. The consequences of the discoveries have indeed gone far afield, but war has always provided the basic incentive.

Beginning with the development of iron and steel, and proceeding through the discoveries of the laws of motion and thermodynamics to the age of the atomic particle, the synthetic polymer, and the space capsule, no important scientific advance has not been at least indirectly initiated by an implicit requirement of weaponry. More prosaic examples include the transistor radio (an outgrowth of military communications requirements), the assembly line (from Civil War firearms needs), the steel-frame building (from the steel battleship), the canal lock, and so on. A typical adaptation can be seen in a device as modest as the common lawnmower; it developed from the revolving scythe devised by Leonardo da Vinci to precede a horse-powered vehicle into enemy ranks.

The most direct relationship can be found in medical technology. For example, a giant "walking machine," and amplifier of body motions invented for military use in difficult terrain, is now making it possible for many previously confined to wheelchairs to walk. The Vietnam war alone has led to spectacular improvements in amputation procedures, blood-handling techniques, and surgical logistics. It has stimulated new large-scale research on malaria and other typical parasite diseases; it is hard to estimate how long this would otherwise have been delayed, despite its enormous nonmilitary importance to nearly half the world's population.

OTHER

We have elected to omit from our discussion of the nonmilitary functions of war those we do not consider critical to a transition program. This is not to say they are unimportant, however, but only that they appear to present no special problems for the organization of a peace-oriented social system. They include the following:

War as a general social release. This is a psychosocial function, serving the same purpose for a society as do the holiday, the celebration, and the orgy for the individual---the release and redistribution of undifferentiated tensions. War provides for the periodic necessary readjustment of standards of social behavior (the "moral climate") and for the dissipation of general boredom, one of the most consistently undervalued and unrecognized of social phenomena.

War as a generational stabilizer. This psychological function, served by other behavior patterns in other animals, enables the physically deteriorating older generation to maintain its control of the younger, destroying it if necessary.

War as an ideological clarifier. The dualism that characterized the traditional dialectic of all branches of philosophy and of stable political relationships stems from war as the prototype of conflict. Except for secondary considerations, there cannot be, to put it as simply as possible, more than two sides to a question because there cannot be more than two sides to a war.

War as the basis for the international understanding. Before the development of modern communications, the strategic requirements of war provided the only substantial incentive for the enrichment of one national culture with the achievements of another. Although this is still the case in many international relationships, the function is obsolescent.

We have also forgone extended characterization of those functions we assume to be widely and explicitly recognized. An obvious example is the role of war as controller of the quality and degree of unemployment. This is more than an economic and political subfunction; its sociological, cultural, and ecological aspects are also important, although often teleonomic. But none affect the general problem of substitution. The same is true of certain other functions; those we have included are sufficient to define the scope of the problem.

SECTION 6 - SUBSTITUTES FOR THE FUNCTIONS OF WAR

By now it should be clear that the most detailed and comprehensive master plan for a transition to world peace will remain academic if it fails to deal forthrightly with the problem of the critical nonmilitary functions of war. The social needs they serve are essential; if the war system no longer exists to meet them, substitute institutions will have to be established for the purpose. These surrogates must be "realistic," which is to say of a scope and nature that can be conceived and implemented in the context of present-day social capabilities. This is not the truism it may appear to be; the requirements of radical social change often reveal the distinction between a most conservative projection and a wildly utopian scheme to be fine indeed.

In this section we will consider some possible substitutes for these functions. Only in rare instances have they been put forth for the purposes which concern us here, but we see no reason to limit ourselves to proposals that address themselves explicitly to the problem as we have outlined it. We will disregard the ostensible, or military, functions of war; it is a premise of this study that the transition to peace implies absolutely that they will no longer exist in any relevant sense. We will also disregard the noncritical functions exemplified at the end of the preceding section.

ECONOMIC

Economic surrogates for war must meet two principal criteria. They must be "wasteful," in the common sense of the word, and they must operate outside the normal supply-demand system. A corollary that should be obvious is that the magnitude of the waste must be sufficient to meet the needs of a particular society. An economy as advanced and complex as our own requires the planned average annual destruction of not less than 10 percent of gross national product if it is effectively to fulfill its stabilizing function. When the mass of a balance wheel is inadequate to the power it is intended to control, its effect can be self-defeating, as with a runaway locomotive. The analogy, though crude, is especially apt for the American economy, as our record of cyclical depressions shows. All have taken place during periods of grossly inadequate military spending.

Those few economic conversion programs which by implication acknowledge the nonmilitary economic function of war (at least to some extent) tend to assume that so-called social-welfare expenditures will fill the vacuum created by the disappearance of military spending. When one considers the backlog of un-finished business---proposed but still unexecuted---in this field, the assumption seems plausible. Let us examine briefly the following list, which is more or less typical of general social welfare programs.

HEALTH. Drastic expansion of medical research, education, and training facilities; hospital and clinic construction; the general objective of complete government-guaranteed health care for all, at a level consistent with current developments in medical technology.

EDUCATION. The equivalent of the foregoing in teacher training; schools and libraries; the drastic upgrading of standards, with the general objective of making available for all an attainable educational goal equivalent to what is now considered a professional degree.

HOUSING. Clean, comfortable, safe, and spacious living space for all, at the level now enjoyed by about 15 percent of the population in this country (less in most others).

TRANSPORTATION. The establishment of a system of mass public transportation making it possible for all to travel to and from areas of work and recreation quickly, comfortably, and conveniently, and to travel privately for pleasure rather than necessity.

PHYSICAL ENVIRONMENT. The development and protection of water supplies, forests, parks, and other natural resources; the elimination of chemical and bacterial contaminants from air, water, and soil.

POVERTY. The genuine elimination of poverty, defined by a standard consistent with current economic productivity, by means of a guaranteed annual income or whatever system of distribution will best assure its achievement.

This is only a sampler of the more obvious domestic social welfare items, and we have listed it in a deliberately broad, perhaps extravagant, manner. In the past, such a vague and ambitious-sounding "program" would have been dismissed out of hand, without serious consideration; it would clearly have been, prima facie, far too costly, quite apart from its political implications. Our objective to it, on the other hand, could hardly be more contradictory. As an economic substitute for war, it is inadequate because it would be far too cheap.

If this seems paradoxical, it must be remembered that up to now all proposed social-welfare expenditures have had to be measured within the war economy, not as a replacement for it. The old slogan about a battleship or an ICBM costing as much as x hospitals or y schools or z homes takes on a very different meaning if there are to be more battleships or ICBM's.

Since the list is general, we have elected to forestall the tangential controversy that surrounds arbitrary cost projections by offering no individual cost estimates. But the maximum program that could be physically effected along the lines indicated could approach the established level of military spending only for a limited time--in our opinion, subject to a detailed cost-and-feasibility analysis, less than ten years. In this short period, at this rate, the major goals of the program would have been achieved. Its capital-investment phase would have been completed, and it would have established a permanent comparatively modest level of annual operating cost--within the framework of the general economy.

Here is the basic weakness of the social-welfare surrogate. On the short-term basis, a maximum program of this sort could replace a normal military spending program, provided it was designed, like the military model, to be subject to arbitrary control. Public housing starts, for example, or the development of modern medical centers might be accelerated or halted from time to time, as the requirements of a stable economy might dictate. But on the long-term basis, social-welfare spending, no matter how often redefined, would necessarily become an integral, accepted part of the economy, of no more value as a stabilizer than the automobile industry or old age and survivors' insurance. Apart from whatever merit social-welfare programs are deemed to have for their own sake, their function as a substitute for war in the economy would thus be self-liquidating. They might serve, however, as expedients pending the development of more durable substitute measures.

Another economic surrogate that has been proposed is a series of giant "space research" programs. These have already demonstrated their utility in more modest scale within the military economy. What has been implied, although not yet expressly put forth, is the development of a long-range sequence of space-research projects with largely unattainable goals. This kind of program offers several advantages lacking in the social welfare model. First, it is unlikely to phase itself out, regardless of the predictable "surprises" science has in store for us: the universe is too big. In the event some individual project unexpectedly succeeds there would be no dearth of substitute problems. For example, if colonization of the moon proceeds on schedule, it could then become "necessary" to establish a beachhead on Mars or Jupiter, and so on. Second, it need be no more dependent on the general supply-demand economy than its military prototype. Third, it lends itself extraordinarily well to arbitrary control.

Space research can be viewed as the nearest modern equivalent yet devised to the pyramid-building, and similar ritualistic enterprises, of ancient societies. It is true that the scientific value of the space program, even of what has already been accomplished, is substantial on its own terms. But current programs are absurdly obviously disproportionate, in the relationship of the knowledge sought to the expenditures committed. All but a small fraction of the space budget, measured by the standards of comparable scientific objectives, must be charged de facto to the military economy. Future space research, projected as a war surrogate, would further research, projected as a war surrogate, would further reduce the "scientific" rationale of its budget to a minuscule percentage indeed. As a purely economic substitute for war, therefore, extension of the space program warrants serious consideration.

In Section 3 we pointed out that certain disarmament models, which we called conservative, postulated extremely expensive and elaborate inspection systems. Would it be possible to extend and institutionalize such systems to the point where they might serve as economic surrogates for war spending? The organization of failsafe inspection machinery could well be ritualized in a manner similar to that of established military processes. "Inspection teams" might be very like weapons. Inflating the inspection budget to military scale presents no difficulty. The appeal of this kind of scheme lies in the comparative ease of transition between two parallel systems.

The "elaborate inspection" surrogate is fundamentally fallacious, however. Although it might be economically useful, as well as politically necessary, during the disarmament transition, it would fail as a substitute for the economic function of war for one simple reason. Peace-keeping inspection is part of a war system, not of a peace system. It implies the possibility of weapons maintenance or manufacture, which could not exist in a world at peace as here defined. Massive inspection also implies sanctions, and thus war-readiness.

The same fallacy is more obvious in plans to create a patently useless "defense conversion" apparatus. The long-discredited proposal to build "total" civil defense facilities is one example; another is the plan to establish a giant antimissile missile complex (Nike-X, et al.). These programs, of course, are economic rather than strategic. Nevertheless, they are not substitutes for military spending but merely different forms of it.

A more sophisticated variant is the proposal to establish the "Unarmed Forces" of the United States. This would conveniently maintain the entire institutional military structure, redirecting it essentially toward social-welfare activities on a global scale. It would be, in effect, a giant military Peace Corps. There is nothing inherently unworkable about this plan, and using the existing military system to effectuate its own demise is both ingenious and convenient. But even on a greatly magnified world basis, social-welfare expenditures must sooner or later reenter the atmosphere of the normal economy. The practical transitional virtues of such a scheme would thus be eventually negated by its inadequacy as a permanent economic stabilizer.

POLITICAL

The war system makes the stable government of societies possible. It does this essentially by providing an external necessity for a society to accept political rule. In so doing, it establishes the basis for nationhood and the authority of government to control its constituents. What other institution or combination of programs might serve these functions in its place?

We have already pointed out that the end of the war means the end of national sovereignty, and thus the end of nationhood as we know it today. But this does not necessarily mean the end of nations in the administrative sense, and internal political power will remain essential to a stable society. The emerging "nations" of the peace epoch must continue to draw political authority from some source.

A number of proposals have been made governing the relations between nations after total disarmament; all are basically juridical in nature. They contemplate institutions more or less like a World Court, or a United Nations, but vested with real authority. They may or may not serve their ostensible post-military purpose of settling international disputes, but we need not discuss that here. None would offer effective external pressure on a peace-world nation to organize itself politically.

It might be argued that a well-armed international police force, operating under the authority of such a supranational "court," could well serve the function of external enemy. This, however, would constitute a military operation, like the inspection schemes mentioned, and, like them, would be inconsistent with the premise of an end to the war system. It is possible that a variant of the "Unarmed Forces" idea might be developed in such a way that its "constructive" (i.e., social welfare) activities could be combined with an economic "threat" of sufficient size and credibility to warrant political organization. Would this kind of threat also be contradictory to our basic premise?--that is, would it be inevitably military? Not necessarily, in our view, but we are skeptical of its capacity to evoke credibility. Also, the obvious destabilizing effect of any global social welfare surrogate on politically necessary class relationships would create an entirely new set of transition problems at least equal in magnitude.

Credibility, in fact, lies at the heart of the problem of developing a political substitute for war. This is where the space-race proposals, in many ways so well suited as economic substitutes for war, fall short. The most ambitious and unrealistic space project cannot of itself generate a believable external menace. It has been hotly argued that such a menace would offer the "last, best hope of peace," etc., by uniting mankind against the danger of destruction by "creatures" from other planets or from outer space. Experiments have been proposed to test the credibility of an out-of-our-world invasion threat; it is possible that a few of the more difficult-to-explain "flying saucer" incidents of recent years were in fact early experiments of this kind. If so, they could hardly have been judged encouraging. We anticipate no difficulties in making a "need" for a giant super space program credible for economic purposes, even were there not ample precedent; extending it, for political purposes, to include features unfortunately associated with science fiction would obviously be a more dubious undertaking.

Nevertheless, an effective political substitute for war would require "alternate enemies," some of which might seem equally farfetched in the context of the current war system. It may be, for instance, that gross pollution of the environment can eventually replace the possibility of mass destruction by nuclear weapons as the principal apparent threat to the survival of the species. Poisoning of the air, and of the principal sources of food and water supply, is already well advanced, and at first glance would seem promising in this respect; it constitutes a threat that can be dealt with only through social organization and political power. But from present indications it will be a generation to a generation and a half before environmental pollution, however severe, will be sufficiently menacing, on a global scale, to offer a possible basis for a solution.

It is true that the rate of pollution could be increased selectively for this purpose; in fact, the mere modifying of existing programs for the deterrence of pollution could speed up the process enough to make the threat credible much sooner. But the pollution problem has been so widely publicized in recent years that it seems highly improbable that a program of deliberate environmental poisoning could be implemented in a politically acceptable manner.

However unlikely some of the possible alternate enemies we have mentioned may seem, we must emphasize that one must be found, of credible quality and magnitude, if a transition to peace is ever to come about without social disintegration. It is more probably, in our judgement, that such a threat will have to be invented, rather than developed from unknown conditions. For this reason, we believe further speculation about its putative nature ill-advised in this context. Since there is considerable doubt, in our minds, that any viable political surrogate can be devised, we are reluctant to compromise, by premature discussion, any possible option that may eventually lie open to our government.

SOCIOLOGICAL

Of the many functions of war we have found convenient to group together in this classification, two are critical. In a world of peace, the continuing stability of society will require: 1) an effective substitute for military institutions that can neutralize destabilizing social elements and 2) a credible motivational surrogate for war that can insure social cohesiveness. The first is an essential element of social control; the second is the basic mechanism for adapting individual human drives to the needs of society.

Most proposals that address themselves, explicitly or otherwise, to the postwar problem of controlling the socially alienated turn to some variant of the Peace Corps or the so-called Job Corps for a solution. The socially disaffected, the economically unprepared, the psychologically unconformable, the hard-core "delinquents," the incorrigible "subversives," and the rest of the unemployable are seen as somehow transformed by the disciplines of a service modeled on military precedent into more or less dedicated social service workers. This presumption also informs the otherwise hardheaded ratiocination of the "Unarmed Forces" plan.

The problem has been addressed, in the language of popular sociology, by Secretary McNamara. "Even in our abundant societies, we have reason enough to worry over the tensions that coil and tighten among underprivileged young people, and finally flail out in delinquency and crime. What are we to expect.. where mounting frustrations are likely to fester into eruptions of violence and extremism?" In a seemingly unrelated passage, he continues: "It seems to me that we could move toward remedying that inequity [of the Selective Service System] by asking every young person in the United States to give two years of service to his country--whether in one of the military services, in the Peace Corps, or in some other volunteer developmental w? Am at home or abroad. We could encourage other countries to do the same." Here, as elsewhere throughout this significant speech, Mr. McNamara has focused, indirectly but unmistakably, on one of the key issues bearing on a possible transition to peace, and has later indicated, also indirectly, a rough approach to its resolution, again phrased in the language of the current war system.

It seems clear that Mr. McNamara and other proponents of the peace-corps surrogate for this function lean heavily on the success of the paramilitary Depression programs mentioned in the last section. We find the precedent wholly inadequate in degree. Neither the lack of relevant precedent, however, nor the dubious social welfare sentimentality characterizing this approach warrant its rejection without careful study. It may be viable --- provided, first, that the military origin of the Corps format be effectively rendered out of its operational activity, and second, that the transition from paramilitary activities to "developmental w? A" can be effected without regard to the attitudes of the Corps personnel or to the "value" of the work it is expected to perform.

Another possible surrogate for the control of potential enemies of society is the reintroduction, in some form consistent with modern technology and political processes, of slavery. Up to now, this has been suggested only in fiction, notably in the works of Wells, Huxley, Orwell, and others engaged in the imaginative anticipation of the sociology of the future. But the fantasies projected in Brave New World and 1984 have seemed less and less implausible over the years since their publication. The traditional association of slavery with ancient preindustrial cultures should not blind us to its adaptability to advanced forms of social organization, nor should its equally traditional incompatibility with Western moral and economic values. It is entirely possible that the development of a sophisticated form of slavery may be an absolute prerequisite for social control in a world at peace. As a practical matter, conversion of the code of military discipline to a euphemized form of enslavement would entail surprisingly little revision; the logical first step would be the adoption of some form of "universal" military service.

When it comes to postulating a credible substitute for war capable of directing human behavior patterns in behalf of social organization, few options suggest themselves. Like its political function, the motivational function of war requires the existence of a genuinely menacing social enemy. The principal difference is that for purposes of motivating basic allegiance, as distinct from accepting political authority, the "alternate enemy" must imply a more immediate, tangible, and directly felt threat of destruction. It must justify the need for taking and paying a "blood price" in wide areas of human concern.

In this respect, the possible enemies noted earlier would be insufficient. One exception might be the environmental-pollution model, if the danger to society it posed was genuinely imminent. The fictive models would have to carry the weight of extraordinary conviction, underscored with a not inconsiderable actual sacrifice of life; the construction of an up-to-date mythological or religious structure for this purpose would present difficulties in our era, but must certainly be considered.

Games theorists have suggested, in other contexts, the development of "blood games" for the effective control of individual aggressive impulses. It is an ironic commentary on the current state of war and peace studies that it was left not to scientists but to the makers of a commercial film to develop a model for this notion, on the implausible level of popular melodrama, as a ritualized manhunt. More realistically, such a ritual might be socialized, in the manner of the Spanish Inquisition and the less formal witch trials of other periods, for purposes of "social purification," "state security," or other rationale both acceptable and credible to postwar societies. The feasibility of such an updated version of still another ancient institution, though doubtful, is considerably less fanciful than the wishful notion of many peace planners that a lasting condition of peace can be brought about without the most painstaking examination of every possible surrogate for the essential functions of war. What is involved here, in a sense, is the quest for William James' "moral equivalent of war."

It is also possible that the two functions considered under this heading may be jointly served, in the sense of establishing the antisocial, for whom a control institution is needed, as the "alternate enemy" needed to hold society together. The relentless and irreversible advance of unemployability at all levels of society, and the similar extension of generalized alienation from accepted values may make some such program necessary even as an adjunct to the war system. As before, we will not speculate on the specific forms this kind of program might take, except to note that there is again ample precedent, in the treatment meted out to disfavored, allegedly menacing, ethnic groups in certain societies during certain historical periods.

Considering the shortcomings of war as a mechanism of selective population control, it might appear that devising substitutes for this function should be comparatively simple. Schematically this is so, but the problem of timing the transition to a new ecological balancing device makes the feasibility of substitution less certain.

It must be remembered that the limitation of war in this function is entirely eugenic. War has not been genetically progressive. But as a system of gross population control to preserve the species it cannot fairly be faulted. And, as has been pointed out, the nature of war is itself in transition. Current trends in warfare--the increased strategic bombing of civilians and the greater military importance now attached to the destruction of sources of supply (as opposed to purely "military" bases and personnel)---strongly suggest that a truly qualitative improvement is in the making. Assuming the war system is to continue, it is more than probable that the regressively selective quality of war will have been reversed, as its victims become more genetically representative of their societies.

There is no question but that a universal requirement that procreation be limited to the products of artificial insemination would provide a fully adequate substitute control for population levels. Such a reproductive system would, of course, have the added advantage of being susceptible of direct eugenic management. Its predictable further development---conception and embryonic growth taking place wholly under laboratory conditions---would extend these controls to their logical conclusion. The ecological function of war under these circumstances would not only be superseded but surpassed in effectiveness.

The indicated intermediate step--total control of conception with a variant of the ubiquitous "pill," via water supplies or certain essential foodstuffs, offset by a controlled "antidote"---is already under development. There would appear to be no foreseeable need to revert to any of the outmoded practices referred to in the previous section (infanticide, etc.) as there might have been if the possibility of transition to peace had arisen two generations ago.

The real question here, therefore, does not concern the viability of this war substitute, but the political problems involved in bringing it about. It cannot be established while the war system is still in effect. The reason for this is simple: excess population is war material. As long as any society must contemplate even a remote possibility of war, it must maintain a maximum supportable population, even when so doing critically aggravates an economic liability. This is paradoxical, in view of war's role in reducing excess population, but it is readily understood. War controls the general population level, but the ecological interest of any single society lies in maintaining its hegemony vis-a-vis other societies. The obvious analogy can be seen in any free-enterprise economy. Practices damaging to the society as a whole--both competitive and monopolistic--are abetted by the conflicting economic motives of individual capital interests. The obvious precedent can be found in the seemingly irrational political difficulties which have blocked universal adoption of simple birth-control methods. Nations desperately in need of increasing unfavorable production-consumption ratios are nevertheless unwilling to gamble their possible military requirements of twenty years hence for this purpose. Unilateral population control, as practiced in ancient Japan and in other isolated societies, is out of the question in today's world.

Since the eugenic solution cannot be achieved until the transition to the peace system takes place, why not wait? One must qualify the inclination to agree. As we noted earlier, a real possibility of an unprecedented global crisis of insufficiency exists today, which the war system may not be able to forestall. If this should come to pass before an agreed-upon transition to peace were completed, the result might be irrevocably disastrous. There is clearly no solution to this dilemma; it is a risk which must be taken. But it tends to support the view that if a decision is made to eliminate the war system, it were better done sooner than later.

CULTURAL AND SCIENTIFIC

Strictly speaking, the function of war as the determinant of cultural values and as the prime mover of scientific progress may not be critical in a world without war. Our criterion for the basic nonmilitary functions of war has been: Are they necessary to the survival and stability of society? The absolute need for substitute cultural value-determinants and for the continued advance of scientific knowledge is not established. We believe it important, however, in behalf of those for whom these functions hold subjective significance, that it be known what they can reasonably expect in culture and science after a transition to peace.

So far as the creative arts are concerned, there is no reason to believe they would disappear, but only that they would change in character and relative social importance. The elimination of war would in due course deprive them of their principal conative force, but it would necessarily take some time for the transition, and perhaps for a generation thereafter, themes of sociomoral conflict inspired by the war system would be increasingly transferred to the idiom of purely personal sensibility. At the same time, a new aesthetic would have to develop. Whatever its name, form, or rationale, its function would be to express, in language appropriate to the new period, the once discredited philosophy that art exists for its own sake. This aesthetic would reject unequivocally the classic requirement of paramilitary conflict as the substantive content of great art. The eventual effect of the peace-world philosophy of art would be democratizing in the extreme, in the sense that a generally acknowledged subjectivity of artistic standards would equalize their new, content-free "values."

What may be expected to happen is that art would be reassigned the role it once played in a few primitive peace-oriented social systems. This was the function of pure decoration, entertainment, or play, entirely free of the burden of expressing the sociomoral values and conflicts of a war-oriented society. It is interesting that the groundwork for such a value-free aesthetic is already being laid today, in growing experimentation in art without content, perhaps in anticipation of a world without conflict. A cult has developed around a new kind of cultural determinism, which proposes that the technological form of a cultural expression determines its values rather than does its ostensibly meaningful content. Its clear implication is that there is no "good" or "bad" art, only that which is appropriate to its (technological) times and that which is not. Its cultural effect has been to promote circumstantial constructions and unplanned expressions; it denies to art the relevance of sequential logic. Its significance in this context is that it provides a working model of one kind of value-free culture we might reasonably anticipate in a world at peace.

So far as science is concerned, it might appear at first glance that a giant space-research program, the most promising among the proposed economic surrogates for war, might also serve as the basic stimulator of scientific research. The lack of fundamental organized social conflict inherent in space work, however, would rule it out as an adequate motivational substitute for war when applied to "pure" science. But it could no doubt sustain the broad range of technological activity that a space budget of military dimensions would require. A similarly scaled social-welfare program could provide a comparable impetus to low-keyed technological advances, especially in medicine, rationalized construction methods, educational psychology, etc. The eugenic substitute for the ecological function of war would also require continuing research in certain areas of the life sciences.

Apart from these partial substitutes for war, it must be kept in mind that the momentum given to scientific progress by the great wars of the past century, and even more by the anticipation of World War III, is intellectually and materially enormous. It is our finding that if the war system were to end tomorrow this momentum is so great that the pursuit of scientific knowledge could reasonably be expected to go forward without noticeable diminution for perhaps two decades. It would then continue, at a progressively decreasing tempo, for at least another two decades before the "bank account" of today's unresolved problems would become exhausted. By the standards of the questions we have learned to ask today, there would no longer be anything worth knowing still unknown; we cannot conceive, by definition, of the scientific questions to ask once those we can now comprehend are answered.

This leads unavoidably to another matter: the intrinsic value of the unlimited search for knowledge. We of course offer no independent value judgments here, but it is germane to point out that a substantial minority of scientific opinion feels that search to be circumscribed in any case. This opinion is itself a factor in considering the need for a substitute for the scientific function of war. For the record, we must also take note of the precedent that during long periods of human history, often covering thousands of years, in which no intrinsic social value was assigned to scientific progress, stable societies did survive and flourish. Although this could not have been possible in the modern industrial world, we cannot be certain it may not again be true in a future world at peace.

SECTION 7 - SUMMARY AND CONCLUSIONS

THE NATURE OF WAR

War is not, as is widely assumed, primarily an instrument of policy utilized by nations to extend or defend their expressed political values or their economic interests. On the contrary, it is itself the principal basis of organization on which all modern societies are constructed. The common proximate cause of war is the apparent interference of one nation with the aspirations of another. But at the root of all ostensible differences of national interest lie the dynamic requirements of the war system itself for periodic armed conflict. Readiness for war characterizes contemporary social systems more broadly than their economic and political structures, which it subsumes.

Economic analyses of the anticipated problems of transition to peace have not recognized the broad preeminence of war in the definition of social systems. The same is true, with rare and only partial exceptions, of model disarmament "scenarios." For this reason, the value of this previous work is limited to the mechanical aspects of transition. Certain features of these models may perhaps be applicable to a real situation of conversion to peace; this till depend on their compatibility with a substantive, rather than a procedural, peace plan. Such a plan can be developed only from the premise of full understanding of the nature of the war system it proposes to abolish, which in turn presupposes detailed comprehension of the functions the war system performs for society. It will require the construction of a detailed and feasible system of substitutes for those functions that are necessary to the stability and survival of human societies.

THE FUNCTIONS OF WAR

The visible, military function of war requires no elucidation; it is not only obvious but also irrelevant to a transition to the condition of peace, in which it will by definition be superfluous. It is also subsidiary in social significance to the implied, nonmilitary functions of war; those critical to transition can be summarized in five principal groupings.

ECONOMIC. War has provided both ancient and modern societies with a dependable system for stabilizing and controlling national economies. No alternate method of control has yet been tested in a complex modern economy that has shown itself remotely comparable in scope or effectiveness.

POLITICAL. The permanent possibility of war is the foundation for stable government; it supplies the basis for general acceptance of political authority. It has enabled societies to maintain necessary class distinctions, and it has ensured the subordination of the citizen to the state, by virtue of the residual war powers inherent in the concept of nationhood. No modern political ruling group has successfully controlled its constituency after failing to sustain the continuing credibility of an external threat of war.

SOCIOLOGICAL. War, through the medium of military institutions, has uniquely served societies, throughout the course of known history, as an indispensable controller of dangerous social dissidence and destructive antisocial tendencies. As the most formidable of threats to life itself, and as the only one susceptible to mitigation by social organization alone, it has played another equally fundamental role: the war system has provided the machinery through which the motivational forces governing human behavior have been translated into binding social allegiance. It has thus ensured the degree of social cohesion necessary to the viability of nations. No other institution, or groups of institutions, in modern societies, has successfully served these functions.

ECOLOGICAL. War has been the principal evolutionary device for maintaining a satisfactory ecological balance between gross human population and supplies available for its survival. It is unique to the human species.

CULTURAL AND SCIENTIFIC. War-orientation has determined the basic standards of value in the creative arts, and has provided the fundamental motivational source of scientific and technological progress. The concepts that the arts express values independent of their own forms and that the successful pursuit of knowledge has intrinsic social value have long been accepted in modern societies; the development of the arts and sciences during this period has been corollary to the parallel development of weaponry.

SUBSTITUTES FOR THE FUNCTIONS OF WAR: CRITERIA

The foregoing functions of war are essential to the survival of the social systems we know today. With two possible exceptions they are also essential to any kind of stable social organization that might survive in a warless world. Discussion of the ways and means of transition to such a world are meaningless unless a) substitute institutions can be devised to fill these functions, or b) it can reasonably be hypothesized that the loss or partial loss of any one function need not destroy the viability of future societies.

Such substitute institutions and hypotheses must meet varying criteria. In general, they must be technically feasible, politically acceptable, and potentially credible to the members of the societies that adopt them. Specifically, they must be characterized as follows:

ECONOMIC. An acceptable economic surrogate for the war system will require the expenditure of resources for completely nonproductive purposes at a level comparable to that of the military expenditures otherwise demanded by the size and complexity of each society. Such a substitute system of apparent "waste" must be of a nature that will permit it to remain independent of the normal supply-demand economy; it must be subject to arbitrary political control.

POLITICAL. A viable political substitute for war must posit a generalized external menace to each society of a nature and degree sufficient to require the organization and acceptance of political authority.

SOCIOLOGICAL. First, in the permanent absence of war, new institutions must be developed that will effectively control the socially destructive segments of societies. Second, for purposes of adapting the physical and psychological dynamics of human behavior to the needs of social organization, a credible substitute for war must generate an omnipresent and readily understood fear of personal destruction. This fear must be of a nature and degree sufficient to ensure adherence to societal values to the full extent that they are acknowledged to transcend the value of individual human life.

ECOLOGICAL. A substitute for war in its function as the uniquely human system of population control must ensure the survival, if not necessarily the improvement, of the species, in terms of its relations to environmental supply.

CULTURAL AND SCIENTIFIC. A surrogate for the function of war as the determinant of cultural values must establish a basis of sociomoral conflict of equally compelling force and scope. A substitute motivational basis for the quest for scientific knowledge must be similarly informed by a comparable sense of internal necessity.

SUBSTITUTES FOR THE FUNCTIONS OF WAR: MODELS

The following substitute institutions, among others, have been proposed for consideration as replacements for the nonmilitary functions of war. That they may not have been originally set forth for that purpose does not preclude or invalidate their possible application here.

ECONOMIC. a) A comprehensive social-welfare program, directed toward maximum improvement of general conditions of human life. b) A giant open-end space research program, aimed at unreachable targets. c) A permanent, ritualized, ultra-elaborate disarmament inspection system, and variants of such a system.

POLITICAL a) An omnipresent, virtually omnipotent international police force. b) An established and recognized extraterrestrial menace. c) Massive global environmental pollution. d) Fictitious alternate enemies.

SOCIOLOGICAL: CONTROL FUNCTION. a) Programs generally derived from the Peace Corps model. b) A modern, sophisticated form of slavery.

MOTIVATIONAL FUNCTION. a) Intensified environmental pollution. b) New religions or other mythologies. c) Socially oriented blood games. d) Combination forms.

ECOLOGICAL. A comprehensive program of applied eugenics.

CULTURAL. No replacement institution offered. SCIENTIFIC. The secondary requirements of the space research, social welfare, and / or eugenics programs.

SUBSTITUTES FOR THE FUNCTIONS OF WAR: EVALUATION

The models listed above reflect only the beginning of the quest for substitute institutions for the functions of war, rather than a recapitulation of alternatives. It would be both premature and inappropriate, therefore, to offer final judgments on their applicability to a transition to peace and after. Furthermore, since the necessary but complex project of correlating the compatibility of proposed surrogates for different functions could be treated only in exemplary fashion at this time, we have elected to withhold such hypothetical correlations as were tested as statistically inadequate.

Nevertheless, some tentative and cursory comments on these proposed functional "solutions" will indicate the scope of the difficulties involved in this area of peace planning.

ECONOMIC. The social-welfare model cannot be expected to remain outside the normal economy after the conclusion of its predominantly capital-investment phase; its value in this function can therefore be only temporary.

The space-research substitute appears to meet both major criteria, and should be examined in greater detail, especially in respect to its probable effects on other war functions. "Elaborate inspection" schemes, although superficially attractive, are inconsistent with the basic premise of a transition to peace. The "unarmed forces" variant, logically similar, is subject to the same functional criticism as the general social-welfare model.

POLITICAL. Like the inspection-scheme surrogates, proposals for plenipotentiary international police are inherently incompatible with the ending of the war system. The "unarmed forces" variant, amended to include unlimited powers of economic sanction, might conceivably be expanded to constitute a credible external menace. Development of an acceptable threat from "outer space," presumably in conjunction with a space-research surrogate for economic control, appears unpromising in terms of credibility. The environmental-pollution model does not seem sufficiently responsive to immediate social control, except through arbitrary acceleration of current pollution trends; this in turn raises questions of political acceptability. New, less regressive, approaches to the creation of fictitious global "enemies" invite further investigation.

SOCIOLOGICAL: CONTROL FUNCTION. Although the various substitutes proposed for this function that are modeled roughly on the Peace Corps appear grossly inadequate in potential scope, they should not be ruled out without further study. Slavery, in a technologically modern and conceptually euphemized form, may prove a more efficient and flexible institution in this area. MOTIVATIONAL FUNCTION. Although none of the proposed substitutes for war as the guarantor of social allegiance can be dismissed out of hand, each presents serious and special difficulties. Intensified environmental threats may raise ecological dangers; mythmaking dissociated from war may no longer be politically feasible; purposeful blood games and rituals can far more readily be devised than implemented. An institution combining this function with the preceding one, based on, but not necessarily imitative of, the precedent of organized ethnic repression, warrants careful consideration.

ECOLOGICAL. The only apparent problem in the application of an adequate eugenic substitute for war is that of timing; it cannot be effectuated until the transition to peace has been completed, which involved a serious temporary risk of ecological failure.

CULTURAL. No plausible substitute for this function of war has yet been proposed. It may be, however, that a basic cultural value-determinant is not necessary to the survival of a stable society. SCIENTIFIC. The same might be said for the function of war as the prime mover of the search for knowledge.

However, adoption of either a giant space-research program, a comprehensive social-welfare program, or a master program of eugenic control would provide motivation for limited technologies.

GENERAL CONCLUSIONS

It is apparent, from the foregoing, that no program or combination of programs yet proposed for a transition to peace has remotely approached meeting the comprehensive functional requirements of a world without war. Although one projected system for filling the economic function of war seems promising, similar optimism cannot be expressed in the equally essential political and sociological areas. The other major nonmilitary functions of war---ecological, cultural, scientific---raise very different problems, but it is least possible that detailed programming of substitutes in these areas is not prerequisite to transition. More important, it is not enough to develop adequate but separate surrogates for the major war functions; they must be fully compatible and in no degree self-canceling.

Until such a unified program is developed, at least hypothetically, it is impossible for this or any other group to furnish meaningful answers to the questions originally presented to us. When asked how best to prepare for the advent of peace, we must first reply, as strongly as we can, that the war system cannot responsibly be allowed to disappear until 1) we know exactly what it is we plan to put in its place, and 2) we are certain, beyond reasonable doubt, that these substitute institutions will serve their purposes in terms of the survival and stability of society. It will then be time enough to develop methods for effectuating the transition; procedural programming must follow, not precede, substantive solutions.

Such solutions, if indeed they exist, will not be arrived at without a revolutionary revision of the modes of thought heretofore considered appropriate to peace research. That we have examined the fundamental questions involved from a dispassionate, value-free point of view should not imply that we do not appreciate the intellectual and emotional difficulties that must be overcome on all decision-making levels before these questions are generally acknowledged by others for what they are. They reflect, on an intellectual level, traditional emotional resistance to new (more lethal and thus more "shocking") forms of weaponry. The understated comment of then-Senator Hubert Humphrey on the publication of ON THERMONUCLEAR WAR is still very much to the point: "New Thoughts, particularly those which appear to contradict current assumptions, are always painful for the mind to contemplate."

Nor, simple because we have not discussed them, do we minimize the massive reconciliation of conflicting interests with domestic as well as international agreement on proceeding toward genuine peace presupposes. This factor was excluded from the purview of our assignment, but we would be remiss if we failed to take it into account. Although no insuperable obstacle lies in the path of reaching such general agreements, formidable short-term private-group and general-class interest in maintaining the war system is well established and widely recognized. The resistance to peace stemming from such interest is only tangential, in the long run, to the basic functions of war, but it will not be easily overcome, in this country or elsewhere. Some observers, in fact, believe that it cannot be overcome at all in our time, that the price of peace is, simply, too high. This bears on our overall conclusions to the extent that timing in the transference to substitute institutions may often be the critical factor in their political feasibility.

It is uncertain, at this time, whether peace will ever be possible. It is far more questionable, by the objective standard of continued social survival rather than that of emotional pacifism, that it would be desirable even if it were demonstrably attainable. The war system, for all its subjective repugnance to important sections of "public opinion" has demonstrated its effectiveness since the beginning of recorded history; it has provided the basis for the development of many impressively durable civilizations, including that which is dominant today. It has consistently provided unambiguous social priorities. It is, on the whole, a known quantity. A viable system of peace, assuming that the great and complex questions of substitute institutions raised in this Report are both soluble and solved, would still constitute a venture into the unknown, with the inevitable risks attendant on the unforeseen, however small and however well hedged.

Government decision-makers tend to choose peace over war whenever a real option exists, because it usually appears to be the "safer" choice. Under most immediate circumstances they are likely to be right. But in terms of long-range social stability, the opposite is true. At our present state of knowledge and reasonable inference, it is the war system that must be identified with stability, the peace system that must be identified with social speculation, however justifiable the speculation may appear, in terms of subjective moral or emotional values. A nuclear physicist once remarked, in respect to a possible disarmament agreement: "If we could change the world into a world in which no weapons could be made, that would be stabilizing. But agreements we can expect with the Soviets would be destabilizing." The qualification and the bias are equally irrelevant; any condition of genuine total peace, however achieved, would be destabilizing until proved otherwise.

If it were necessary at this moment to opt irrevocably for the retention or for the dissolution of the war system, common prudence would dictate the former course. But it is not yet necessary, late as the hour appears. And more factors must eventually enter the war-peace equation than even the most determined search for alternative institutions for the functions of war can be expected to reveal. One group of such factors has been given only passing mention in this Report; it centers around the possible obsolescence of the war system itself. We have noted, for instance, the limitations of the war system in filling its ecological function and the declining importance of this aspect of war. It by no means stretches the imagination to visualize comparable developments which may compromise the efficacy of war as, for example, an economic controller or as an organizer of social allegiance. This kind of possibility, however remote, serves as a reminder that all calculations of contingency not only involve the weighing of one group of risks against another, but require a respectful allowance for error on both sides of the scale.

More expedient reason for pursuing the investigation of alternate ways and means to serve the current functions of war is narrowly political. It is possible that one or more major sovereign nations may arrive, through ambiguous leadership, at a position in which a ruling administrative class may lose control of basic public opinion or of its ability to rationalize a desired war. It is not hard to imagine, in such circumstances, a situation in which such governments may feel forced to initiate serious full-scale disarmament proceedings (perhaps provoked by "accidental" nuclear explosions), and that such negotiations may lead to the actual disestablishment of military institutions. As our Report has made clear, this could be catastrophic. It seems evident that, in the event an important part of the world is suddenly plunged without sufficient warning into an inadvertent peace, even partial and inadequate preparation for the possibility may be better than none. The difference could even be critical. The models considered in the preceding chapter, both those that seem promising and those that do not, have one positive feature in common--an inherent flexibility of phasing. And despite our strictures against knowingly proceeding into peace-transition procedures without thorough substantive preparation, our government must nevertheless be ready to move in this direction with whatever limited resources of planning are on hand at the time--if circumstances so require>. An arbitrary all-or-nothing approach is no more realistic in the development of contingency peace programming than it is anywhere else.

But the principal cause for concern over the continuing effectiveness of the war system, and the more important reason for hedging with peace planning, lies in the backwardness of current war-system programming. Its controls have not kept pace with the technological advances it has made possible. Despite its unarguable success to date, even in this era of unprecedented potential in mass destruction, it continues to operate largely on a laissez-faire basis. To the best of our knowledge, no serious quantified studies have even been conducted to determine, for example:

---optimum levels of armament production, for purposes of economic control, at any given relationship between civilian production and consumption patterns;

---correlation factors between draft recruitment policies and measurable social dissidence;

---minimum levels of population destruction necessary to maintain war-threat credibility under varying political conditions;

---optimum cyclical frequency of "shooting" wars under varying circumstances of historical relationship.

These and other war-function factors are fully susceptible to analysis by today's computer-based systems, but they have not been so treated; modern analytical techniques have up to now been relegated to such aspects of the ostensible functions of war as procurement, personnel deployment, weapons analysis, and the like. We do not disparage these types of application, but only deplore their lack of utilization to greater capacity in attacking problems of broader scope. Our concern for efficiency in this context is not aesthetic, economic, or humanistic. It stems from the axiom that no system can long survive at either input or output levels that consistently or substantially deviate from an optimum range. As their data grow increasingly sophisticated, the war system and its functions are increasingly endangered by such deviations.

Our final conclusion, therefore, is that it will be necessary for our government to plan in depth for two general contingencies. The first, and lesser, is the possibility of a viable general peace; the second is the successful continuation of the war system. In our view, careful preparation for the possibility of peace should be extended, not because we take the position that the end of war would necessarily be desirable, if it is in fact possible, but because it may be thrust upon us in some form whether we are ready for it or not. Planning for rationalizing and quantifying the war system, on the other hand, to ensure the effectiveness of its major stabilizing functions, is not only more promising in respect to anticipated results, but is essential; we can no longer take for granted that it will continue to serve our purposes well merely because it always has. The objective of government policy in regard to war and peace, in this period of uncertainty, must be to preserve maximum options. The recommendations which follow are directed to this end.

RECOMMENDATIONS

We propose the establishment, under executive order of the President, of a permanent WAR/PEACE Research Agency, empowered and mandated to execute the programs described in (2) and (3) below. This agency (a) will be provided with nonaccountable funds sufficient to implement its responsibilities and decisions at its own discretion, and (b) will have authority to preempt and utilize, without restriction, any and all facilities of the executive branch of the government in pursuit of its objectives. It will be organized along the lines of the National Security Council, except that none of its governing, executive, or operating personnel will hold other public office or governmental responsibility. Its directorate will be drawn from the broadest practicable spectrum of scientific disciplines, humanistic studies, applied creative arts, operating technologies, and otherwise unclassified professional occupations. It will be responsible solely to the President, or to other officers of government temporarily deputized by him. Its operations will be governed entirely by its own rules of procedure. Its authority will expressly include the unlimited right to withhold information on its activities and its decisions, from anyone except the President, whenever it deems such secrecy to be in the public interest.

The first of the War/Peace Research Agency's two principal responsibilities will be to determine all that can be known, including what can reasonably be inferred in terms of relevant statistical probabilities, that may bear on an eventual transition to a general condition of peace. The findings in this Report may be considered to constitute the beginning of this study and to indicate its orientation; detailed records of the investigations and findings of the Special Study Group on which this Report is based, will be furnished the agency, along with whatever clarifying data the agency deems necessary. This aspect of the agency's work will hereinafter be referred to as "Peace Research."

The Agency's Peace Research activities will necessarily include, but not be limited to, the following:

- (a) The creative development of possible substitute institutions for the principal nonmilitary functions of war.
- (b) The careful matching of such institutions against the criteria summarized in this Report, as refined, revised, and extended by the agency.

- (c) The testing and evaluation of substitute institutions, for acceptability, feasibility, and credibility, against hypothecated transitional and postwar conditions; the testing and evaluation of the effects of the anticipated atrophy of certain unsubstantiated functions.
- (d) The development and testing of the corelativity of multiple substitute institutions, with the eventual objective of establishing a comprehensive program of compatible war substitutes suitable for a planned transition to peace, if and when this is found to be possible and subsequently judged desirable by appropriate political authorities.
- (e) The preparation of a wide-ranging schedule of partial, uncorrelated, crash programs of adjustment suitable for reducing the dangers of unplanned transition to peace effected by force majeure.

Peace Research methods will include but not be limited to, the following:

- (a) The comprehensive interdisciplinary application of historical, scientific, technological, and cultural data.
- (b) The full utilization of modern methods of mathematical modeling, analogical analysis, and other, more sophisticated, quantitative techniques in process of development that are compatible with computer programming.
- (c) The heuristic "peace games" procedures developed during the course of its assignment by the Special Study Group, and further extensions of this basic approach to the testing of institutional functions.

The WAR/PEACE Research Agency's other principal responsibility will be "War Research." Its fundamental objective will be to ensure the continuing viability of the war system to fulfill its essential nonmilitary functions for as long as the war system is judged necessary to or desirable for the survival of society. To achieve this end, the War Research groups within the agency will engage in the following activities:

- (a) Quantification of existing application of the non-military functions of war. Specific determinations will include, but not be limited to:

the gross amount and the net proportion of nonproductive military expenditures since World War II assignable to the need for war as an economic stabilizer;

the amount and proportion of military expenditures and destruction of life, property, and natural resources during this period assignable to the need for war as an instrument for political control;

similar figures, to the extent that they can be separately arrived at, assignable to the need for war to maintain social cohesiveness;

levels of recruitment and expenditures on the draft and other forms of personnel deployment attributable to the need for military institutions to control social disaffection;

the statistical relationship of war casualties to world food supplies;

the correlation of military actions and expenditures with cultural activities and scientific advances (including necessarily the development of measurable standards in these areas).

(b) Establishment of a priori modern criteria for the execution of the non-military functions of war. These will include, but not be limited to:

calculation of minimum and optimum ranges of military expenditure required, under varying hypothetical conditions, to fulfill these several functions, separately and collectively; determination of minimum and optimum levels of destruction of LIFE, PROPERTY, and NATURAL RESOURCES prerequisite to the credibility of external threat essential to the political and motivational functions; development of a negotiable formula governing the relationship between military recruitment and training policies and the exigencies of social control.

(c) Reconciliation of these criteria with prevailing economic, political, sociological, and ecological limitations. The ultimate object of this phase of War Research is to rationalize the heretofore informal operations of the war system. It should provide practical working procedures through which responsible governmental authority may resolve the following war-function problems, among others, under any given circumstances:

how to determine the optimum quantity, nature, and timing of military expenditures to ensure a desired degree of economic control;

how to organize the recruitment, deployment, and ostensible use of military personnel to ensure a desired degree of acceptance of authorized social values;

how to compute on a short-term basis, the nature and extent of the LOSS OF LIFE and other resources which SHOULD BE SUFFERED and/or INFILCTED DURING any single outbreak of hostilities to achieve a desired degree of internal political authority and social allegiance;

how to project, over extended periods, the nature and quality of overt warfare which must be planned and budgeted to achieve a desired degree of contextual stability for the same purpose; factors to be determined must include frequency of occurrence, length of phase, INTENSITY OF PHYSICAL DESTRUCTION, extensiveness of geographical involvement, and OPTIMUM MEAN LOSS OF LIFE;

how to extrapolate accurately from the foregoing, for ecological purposes, the continuing effect of the war system, over such extended cycles, on population pressures, and to adjust the planning of casualty rates accordingly.

War Research procedures will necessarily include, but not be limited to, the following:

- (a) The collation of economic, military, and other relevant date into uniform terms, permitting the reversible translation of heretofore discrete categories of information.
- (b) The development and application of appropriate forms of cost-effectiveness analysis suitable for adapting such new constructs to computer terminology, programming, and projection.
- (c) Extension of the "war games" methods of systems testing to apply, as a quasi-adversary proceeding, to the nonmilitary functions of war.

Since Both Programs of the WAR/PEACE RESEARCH Agency will share the same purpose---to maintain governmental freedom of choice in respect to war and peace until the direction of social survival is no longer in doubt -- it is of the essence of this proposal that the agency be constituted without limitation of time. Its examination of existing and proposed institutions will be self-liquidating when its own function shall have been superseded by the historical developments it will have, at least in part, initiated.

The useful concept of "polemology," for the study of war as an independent discipline, is his, as is the notion of "demographic relaxation," the sudden temporary decline in the rate of population increase after major wars.

16. This seemingly premature statement is supported by one of our own test studies. But it hypothesizes both the stabilizing of world population growth and the institution of fully adequate environmental controls. Under these two conditions, the probability of the permanent elimination of involuntary global famine is 68 percent by 1976 and 95 percent by 1981.

12. Expressed in the writings of H. Marshall McLuhan, in Understanding Media: The Extensions of Man (New York: McGraw-Hill, 1964) and elsewhere.
13. This rather optimistic estimate was derived by plotting a three-dimensional distribution of three arbitrarily defined variables; the macro-structural, relating to the extension of knowledge beyond the capacity of conscious experience; the organic, dealing with the manifestations of terrestrial life as inherently comprehensible; and the infra-particular, covering the subconceptual requirements of natural phenomena. Values were assigned to the known and unknown in each parameter, tested against data from earlier chronologies, and modified heuristically until predictable correlations reached a useful level of accuracy. "Two decades" means, in this case, 20.6 years, with a standard deviation of only 1.8 years. (An incidental finding, not pursued to the same degree of accuracy, suggests a greatly accelerated resolution of issues in the biological sciences after 1972.)

1. Since they represent an examination of too small a percentage of the eventual options, in terms of "multiple mating," the subsystem we developed for this application. But an example will indicate how one of the most frequently recurring correlation problems--chronological phasing--was brought to light in this way. One of the first combinations tested showed remarkably high coefficients of compatibility, on a post hoc static basis, but no variations of timing, using a thirty-year transition module, permitted even marginal synchronization. The combination was thus disqualified. This would not rule out the possible adequacy of combinations using modifications of the same factors, however, since minor variations in a proposed final condition may have disproportionate effects on phasing.

2. Edward Teller, quoted in War/Peace Report (December 1964).
3. E.g., the highly publicized "Delphi Technique" and other, more sophisticated procedures. A new system, especially suitable for institutional analysis, was developed during the course of this study in order to hypothecate measurable "peace games"; a manual of this system is being prepared and will be submitted for general distribution among appropriate agencies. For older, but still useful, techniques, see Norman C. Dalkey's Games and Simulations (Santa Monica, Calif.:Rand, 1964).

1. A primer-level example of the obvious and long overdue need for such translation is furnished by Kahn (in Thinking About the Unthinkable,p.102). Under the heading "Some Awkward Choices" he compares four hypothetical policies: a certain loss of $3,000; a .1 chance of loss of $300,000; a.01 chance of loss of $30,000,000; and a .001 chance of loss of $3,000,000,000. A government decision-maker would "very likely" choose in that order. But what if "lives are at stake rather than dollars?" Kahn suggests that the order of choice would be reversed, although current experience does not support this opinion. Rational war research can and must make it possible to express, without ambiguity, lives in terms of dollars and vice versa; the choices need not be, and cannot be, "awkward."
2. Again, an overdue extension of an obvious application of techniques up to now limited such circumscribed purposes as improving kill-ammunition ratios determining local choice between precision and saturation bombing, and other minor tactical, and occasionally strategic, ends. The slowness of Rand, I.D.A., and other responsible analytic organizations to extend cost-effectiveness and related concepts beyond early-phase applications has already been widely remarked on and criticized elsewhere.

3. The inclusion of institutional factors in war-game techniques has been given some rudimentary consideration in the Hudson Institute's Study for Hypothetical Narratives for Use in Command and Control Systems Planning (by William Pfaff and Edmund Stillman; Final report published in 1963). But here, as with other war and peace studies to date, what has blocked the logical extension of new analytic techniques has been a general failure to understand and properly evaluate the non-military functions of war.

The Jewish world conspiracy

The lawsuit over the authenticity of the Protocols of the Elders of Zion, which took place in Berne during the years 1934 and 1935, gave to Jewish and pro-Jewish publicists alike, the much wished-for opportunity to blazon forth into the world that in Berne, a judge after objective consideration, had pronounced judgement to the effect that the Protocols were a forgery.

It is in this sense that the Jew Alexander Stein writes in his work "Adolf Hitler, Schüler der Weisen von Zion" (Adolf Hitler, a Pupil of the Elders of Zion), Graphia Verlag, Carlsbad, 1936, and the Jew Ivan Heilblut in "Die öffentlichen Verleumder, die Protokolle der Weisen von Zion und ihre Verwendung in der heutigen Politik" (The Public Slanderers. The Protocols of the Elders of Zion and their Use in Present-Day Politics), Europa Verlag, Zürich, 1937; similarly Irene Harland, the pro-Jewish propagandist, in her book "Sein Kampf, Antwort an Hitler" (His Struggle, a Reply to Hitler), Vienna, 1936, and the Freemason Count R. N. Coudenhove-Kalergi – married to a Jewess – in "Judenhaß von heute (Jew Hate in the Present Day), Pan-Europa Verlag, Vienna-Zürich, 1935.

All the above, with apparent intent, pass over the fact that already in 1935, a short time after the proceedings in Berne, a book appeared from the pen of Dr. Stephan Vász, entitled "Das Berner Fehlurteil über die Protokolle der Weisen von Zion" (The Faulty Judgement in the Berne Protocols Case), Publishers the U. Bodung-Verlag, Erfurt, in which, from the documents submitted to the court, and the minutes of the proceedings, the author furnishes exhaustive proof of the fact that what took place in Berne was a mockery of justice.

Moreover when Jewry, with incredible frivolity, initiated the proceedings, and led them to an apparent victory, they do not seem to have reckoned with the possibility that this very lawsuit, and the far reaching research which it was to initiate, would bring to light material of so valuable a nature, that from then on, it would hardly be possible for any thinking person to maintain that the Protocols were a forgery.

In the present pamphlet, a certain familiarity with the Protocols is assumed.

1. How the Protocols came into existence.

The Protocols of the Elders of Zion form the text of a lecture under 24 headings, dealing with the political, economic and financial programme of Judaeo-Masonry for the establishment of Jewish world domination.

The authorship, time and place of the lecture, as well as the actual date at which it was written down, it has not up till now been possible to ascertain.

In the matter of the authorship, the American writer F. Fry, following upon investigations carried out in Russia by Henry Ford, states that the Protocols are the work of the Jewish writer and leader Achad Haam (Ascher Ginsberg), and that they originated in Odessa. Certain circumstances go to show that the Protocols – perhaps following upon the lines of a concept by Achad Haam – formed the subject of a lecture in French Masonic Lodges. The bases for this supposition are the following, namely: that Freemason policy follows the lines of the Protocols, and that S. A. Nilus tells us that the copy which came into his hands in 1901 bore the following inscription: "Signed by the Representatives of Zion of the 33rd Degree."

The story generally put about by Jewry, that in the case of the Protocols, we have to do with a pamphlet drawn up by the Russian Police, and more particularly by Councillor P. J. Ratschowsky, the purpose of which was to calumniate Jewry, is one which simply will not hold water; the so-called evidence brought forward in support of this story, being wholly without foundation of any kind.

Equally untenable is the theory emanating from anti-Jewish quarters, that the Protocols owe their origin to the Zionist Congress in Basel in 1897. There are however some grounds for the supposition that the text which had already been drawn up between the years 1890 and 1895, formed the subject of a debate at a meeting of brethren of the Bnai-Brith Order in Basel in 1897.

Proved beyond all doubt however is the fact that the first person to possess a copy of the document in French, was the late Russian Major and Court Marshal Alexei Nikolajewitsch Suchotin of Tschern, in the Government of Tula. S. A. Nilus in his book "The Great within the Small" confirms this fact. It is further confirmed by S. S. Nilus, son of the above, in a written declaration dated 1936, to the effect that he personally was present when Suchotin handed the document to his father.

I was successful in finding out a further relation of Suchotin's in the person of Madame Antonia Porphyrewna Manjkowsky, née Suchotin, widow of the Russian Admiral of that name, and resident at the moment in Jugoslavia. This lady gave me on the 13th of December 1936, a written declaration to the effect that in her youth, she on many occasions visited the Suchotins on their estate. On the occasion of one of her visits about the year 1895, she was witness of how a transcript was made of a copy of the Protocols by Suchotin's sister Mademoiselle Vera Suchotin and his niece Mademoiselle Olga Wischniewetsky, later Madame Lotin.

Vera Suchotin being long since deceased, Madame Manjkowsky advised me to visit Madame Lotin who was still living in Paris. Much to my disappointment, I found that in consequence of the death of her husband Madame Lotin had become completely insane, and was now living in an asylum near Paris, and no longer capable of being interviewed.

Having regard to the date in question, the declaration of Madame Manjkowsky assumes particular importance, for the reason that in her books "Waters Flowing Eastward", p. 89, and "Le Juif Notre Maltre", p. 95, Mrs. L. Fry publishes a letter written to her on the 17th of April 1927 by Philipp Petrowitsch Stepanoff (deceased 1932) late Procurator of the Holy Synod in Moscow, in which Stepanoff states that already, in 1895 he had received a transcript of the Protocols from Major Suchotin, and adds that he received it through the intermediary of a lady in Paris.

Who this lady was, it has not been possible up till now to ascertain. S. A. Nilus also writes in his book that Suchotin, on handing the document to him in 1901, mentioned her name to him, but that he had forgotten it. In this connection Nilus's son informed me that his father had only mentioned the matter because Suchotin had made him promise to keep the lady's name a secret as long as she lived. From all this it becomes clear that a transcript of the Protocols was in existence in Russia in the year 1895 already, that is to say two years before the first Congress in Basel.

According to data furnished by Nilus's son, the first publication of the Protocols took place in the Winter of 1902/1903 in the "Moskowskija Wiedomosti". I have unfortunately not up till now succeeded in obtaining a copy of this paper. As against this, it is a matter beyond all doubt that the Protocols were published in the "Snamja", the Paper formerly edited by Kruschewian, in the numbers appearing between the 28th of August and the 7th of September 1903. It was first in the year 1905, that Sergej Alexandrowitsch Nilus included the text of the Protocols in his book on Antichrist entitled "Welikoje w Malom i Antichrist kak bliskaja polititscheskaja wosmoschnost" (The Great within the Small, and the Antichrist as a Political Possibility in the Near Future). This was in the second edition of his book, of which the first edition which appeared in 1901 did not contain a copy of the Protocols. The third edition appeared in 1911, and the fourth in 1917, under the altered title "Blis jest pri dwerech" (He is at the Doors!).

In the year 1906, the Russian author George Butmi published the Protocols in his book "Oblitschiteljenja rjetschi, wragi roda tschelowjetscheskago" (Speeches which reveal the Truth, the Enemies of Mankind), the fourth edition of which appeared in 1907.

In the rest of Europe the Protocols remained completely unknown. It was first after the World War that Russian emigrants brought Nilus's book to North America and to Germany. It was thus that a copy came into the hands of the President of the "Verband gegen die Überhebung des Judentums" in Berlin, Müller von Hausen, who had it translated in the year 1919, and published under his pseudonym Gottfried zur Beek, under the title "The Secrets of the Learned Elders of Zion".

A second edition was published by Theodor Fritsch with the incorrect title of "The Zionist Protocols". A seventeenth edition of this brochure appeared in 1936 in the Hammer-Verlag, Leipzig, this time with the correct title "The Protocols of Zion".

2. The first Jewish attempts at defence.

In the year 1921, Jewry took up the defence against the Protocols. In rapid succession the three following articles appeared.

On the 25th of February 1921, the "American Hebrew" published an interview given by the Russian Princess Catherine Radziwill to the Jewish reporter Isaac Landmann.

On the 12th and 13th of May 1921, the French Count Armand du Chayla published an article in two parts in the Russian paper "Poslednije Nowosti" ("Dernières Nouvelles") in Paris.

The third article was from the pen of the English journalist Philip Graves, and appeared in three parts in the London "Times" on the 16th, 17th and 18th of August 1921.

Princess Radziwill declared that the Protocols were first drawn up after the Russo-Japanese war and the first Russian Revolution in 1905 by the Russian State Councillor Peter Ivanowitsch Ratschkowsky, Chief of the Russian Secret Police in Paris, and by his agent Matthew Goliowinsky. During her stay in Paris at the time, the last named had shown her the manuscript which he had just composed, and which had moreover a large blue inkstain on the front page. It had been planned in Russian Conservative circles to incite the Czar Nicholas II against the Jews by means of this publication.

Comte du Chayla wrote that he visited Nilus in Russia in the year 1909. The latter had shown him the manuscript with the blue inkstain, and had told him that he had received it from his life-long friend Madame Natalia Afanassicwna K. (du Chayla afterwards stated that her name was Komarowsky) who had in turn received it from Ratschkowsky in Paris.

Philip Graves wrote that the Protocols had been composed with the aid of the "Dialogue aux Enfers entre Machiavel et Montesquieu", a book written by the French advocate Maurice Joly, the first edition of which appeared in Brussels in 1864, and the second in 1868.

The only thing that is true about these reports, with which I will deal later on, is the statement that the author of the Protocols made extensive use of Joly's book, in that he copied whole sentences, and even whole paragraphs from it. He committed an open plagiarism on Joly. This fact however cannot be taken as furnishing the least proof that the Protocols are an anti-Semitic forgery; for it is not a question of whether the text of the Protocols came into being partly through the misuse of the text of another book, but solely of whether the Protocols contain the programme of Jewish world domination, and were written by a Jew for the Jewish people. The fact that externally a plagiarism is to hand, is no proof that the contents are a forgery. The question of forgery would first arise when it could be proved that the Protocols had actually been composed by an Anti-Semite for the purpose of slandering Jewry.

Jewry even made the attempt to bring proof of this, in that they caused Princess Radziwill to announce that Golowinsky had composed the document under the guidance of Ratschkowsky. The attempt to prove this however, as I will afterwards show, was a complete failure.

3. The Proceedings in Berne.

When, in spite of the above, the Protocols made their way round the world, and made their appearance in practically every country, and in a variety of languages, Jewry finally decided to obtain a judicial finding upon the subject.

On the 26th of June 1933, "The Federation of Jewish Communities of Switzerland" and the "The Berne Jewish Community" brought an action in the courts with a view to obtaining a judgement to the effect that the brochure by Theodor Fritsch, "Die Zionistischen Protokolle" was literary trash, and further with a view to obtaining an order prohibiting its publication. As a matter of form the action was brought against five members of the "National Front", and of the "Heimatwehr", and among them, as principal defendant, Sylvio Schenell, who had distributed the brochure at a party meeting. As expert to the Jewish plaintiffs the judge appointed Dr. A. Baumgarten, Professor of Criminal Law at the University of Basel, and as Expert to the defendants the Director of the World Service at Erfurt, Lieut. Colonel U. Fleischhauer. As presiding expert he appointed the Pro-Jewish Swiss author C. A. Loosli.

At the end of October 1934, the 16 witnesses called by the Jewish plaintiffs were heard, and on the 14th of May 1935 judgement was entered to the effect that the Protocols were a forgery and demoralising literature. No other decision was possible, because on the one hand the Marxist judge accepted the falsehoods of the Princess Radziwill and of the Comte du Chayla as correct, and consequently was bound to accept the expertises of Baumgarten and Loosli, which were founded upon these falsehoods; and on the other hand because he refused to listen to the objections raised by the expert Fleischhauer against these falsehoods. Quite apart from this, the judge went so far in his preconceived opinion that the Protocols were a forgery, and in his lack of objectivity under undisguised pressure from Jewry, that he did not even stop at deliberately setting aside the conditions laid down in the Swiss Civil Code for the carrying out of legal proceedings. Thus he only allowed the witnesses brought by the Jewish plaintiffs to be heard, whereas of the 40 witnesses brought by the defendants, not a single one was allowed a hearing. The proceedings were accordingly carried on solely upon the testimony of the Jewish plaintiffs. And further, although Swiss law demands that in the case of every lawsuit, shorthand minutes of the proceedings be taken by an official of the court, the judge did not adhere to this condition, but permitted the Jewish plaintiffs to appoint two private stenographers to keep the register of the official proceedings during the hearing of their own witnesses. As therefore no legal record of the proceedings was kept, it follows that the whole procedure, and the verdict itself are both null and void.

In other ways also bias may be said to have celebrated triumphs. Thus the expert Fleischhauer was hindered by a variety of expedients from making use of his legal right to examine the documents of the other side; and whereas the two Swiss experts were allowed a good eight months for the preparation of their expertises, the judge demanded that Fleischhauer should prepare his expertise within six weeks. It was only after a protest, that he agreed to extend this period by the insufficient term of one month.

In consequence of all this, the principal defendant Silvio Schnell lodged an appeal through his counsel Hans Ruef.

After a lapse of two and a half years, the case was reopened in the Court of Criminal Appeal in Berne on October 27th 1937.

Messrs Ursprung and Ruef, counsel for the defendants, demanded that the verdict given in the court of first instance be quashed, and their clients acquitted. Mr. Ruef submitted that the evidence taken down during the original proceedings had not been submitted to the witnesses for signature, and argued that little credibility could in any event be attached to their statements. He pointed out moreover that all the Russian documents which had been submitted to the court by M. Loosli were uncertified copies of the originals, and that a number of mistakes had been discovered in the different translations.

Mr. Ruef finally declared that it was not possible to apply the Bernese law to the incriminated document, because its contents were of a political, and not of a moral nature.

The Assistant Public Prosecutor Loder recognised that the manner in which the official record of the proceedings had been kept in the court of first instance had not been correct, and he further recognised that a whole series of errors in the sense of the Penal Code had been committed.

On the 1st November 1937 the Appeal Court pronounced judgement in the following terms:

"The accused Sylvio Schnell is acquitted without indemnity, all elements which might constitute a basis for the charge being absent."

In summing up the President declared that any expertise on the authenticity or non-authenticity of the Protocols was superfluous. The Protocols of the Elders of Zion being a political pamphlet of a polemical order, the Bernese law did not apply. For this reason a complete acquittal had been pronounced. The President declared with emphasis that the judge in the court of first instance had no right to set on foot enquiries as to the authenticity or the non-authenticity of the Protocols for the reason that the matter was irrelevant to the consideration of whether an immoral publication was to hand.

In this important lawsuit therefore Jewry have not attained their object.

When in spite of this the Jewish press announce that all that was decided by the Court of Appeal was that the Protocols are not demoralising literature, and that the declaration of the judge in the court of first instance that they are a forgery retains its validity, this amounts to no more than a gross misleading of public opinion.

In the Court of Appeal the judgement of the first court was quashed in its entirety, and the considerations upon which the first judge based his faulty judgement, and more especially his assumption that a forgery was to hand, were deprived of all weight.

4. The supposed proofs of forgery.

Of the evidence brought by Jewry against the authenticity of the Protocols already in 1921, and in Berne in 1934/1935, the following may be said to be the substance.

The assumption made by Princess Radziwill that the Protocols were drawn up in the year 1906 after the Russo-Japanese War and the first Russian Revolution may be said to be false if only on the following grounds namely, that the text of the Protocols can be proved to have been in the hands of Stepanoff already in 1895, that in 1901 it was in the hands of Nilus, and that in the year 1903, it was published in the "Snamja". It can further be proved that in 1905, and some years previously, both Ratschkowsky and Golowinsky were no longer in Paris. Thus does the whole catena of lies contrived by Princess Radziwill fall to the ground. This woman moreover falsely gave herself out as a princess in her interview with the Press in 1921, whereas already in 1914, after her divorce from Prince William Radziwill, she married an engineer called Karl Emil Kolb, from whom she was again shortly afterwards divorced, and in 1921 following upon of a new marriage became Mrs. Danvin. It was in vain for the expert Fleischhauer to point out to the court during the proceedings that the evidence of this woman could not be taken seriously, if only for the reason that she was a proven forger and crook. The court refused to make any investigation of her previous career. It might therefore be fitting at this point to mention some of her shady actions in the past. About the year 1900 she attached herself to the diamond mine owner Cecil Rhodes, at the time he was going to South Africa. On the grounds of pure vanity apparently she published in a paper called "Greater Britain", which she edited there, what purported to be an interview with the late Marquess of Salisbury on the political situation in South Africa. In this interview Lord Salisbury is supposed to have expressed the view that Rhodes should be advanced to the position of Premier of Cape Colony. To put the matter beyond all doubt, the Princess showed Rhodes' private secretary the text of statement purporting to be signed by Lord Salisbury, and a telegram which she stated she had received from him inviting her to an interview. It came out afterwards that the telegram was not genuine, as it was not Lord Salisbury, but the Princess who had sent it to herself, that the interview had never taken place, and that moreover Lord Salisbury's signature had been forged.

During the year 1901, she passed cheques to the aggregate amount of £ 29,000, signing them with the name of Cecil Rhodes. Following upon this she was arrested and sentenced to eighteen months hard labour. A full account of this affair, and of other exploits of this forgeress and adventuress may be found in the memoirs of two of Cecil Rhodes' private secretaries entitled "Cecil Rhodes, his private life by his private secretary Philip Jourdan" London, 1910 and "Cecil Rhodes, the man and his work by one of his private and confidential secretaries, Gordon le Sueur". London 1913. Both books may be seen at the library of the University in Göttingen.

After leaving South Africa this woman did not alter her way of life. In 1921, she was arrested at the instance of two hotels in New York for having piled up bills for meals, and then disappeared without paying them.

A suitable witness indeed to prove that the Protocols are a forgery!

The patently false statement that the Protocols were first drawn up after the Russo-Japanese war in 1905 was very awkward to the Chief Expert Loosli, so he in his turn proceeded to falsify the evidence and with the object of adding verisimilitude to the statement made by Radziwill, he in his expertise unobtrusively altered the year 1905 to 1895. He was compelled by Fleischhauer seven months later to own up to this before the court. Even this incident produced no effect upon the biased judge. There are moreover definite grounds for the supposition that Landman laid before the Princess what was definitely a text, the main contents of which had been prepared beforehand, and which was afterwards ornamented by a few personal comments of her own. It is also stated that she was paid the unusually high sum of 500 Dollars for the interview by Lewis Marshall, the B'nai Brith Mason and leader of American Jewry. This of course was no honorarium, but hush-money.

The second in the this unholy alliance was Comte du Chayla, who was shameless enough to insist before the court upon the correctness of his article (previously referred to).

It was only after the lawsuit was over, that I succeeded in discovering the whereabouts of Sergej Sergejewitsch Nilus, the son of the late S. A. Nilus, deceased in 1930, and the first publisher of the Protocols. In a detailed statement dated March 24th 1936, Nilus junior states that Comte du Chayla published his report in "Dernières Nouvelles" being fully aware that it was untrue, and thus he is a perfidious liar and slanderer. Nilus junior declared moreover that he himself was the legitimised son of S. A. Nilus, and of the latter's lifelong friend. This lady however was not Madame Natalia Afanassiewna, nor as stated by du Chayla, a Madame Komarowsky, but Natalia Afanassiewna Woldomirrow. She had never at any time been in touch with Ratschkowsky. She had moreover never had anything to do with the Protocols. Nilus junior declared himself prepared to state upon oath that he was himself present when in the year 1901, Major Suchotin, also a friend of his father's, had handed the manuscript over to him. He cannot remember having seen at the time the ominous inkstain upon the front page.

Further enquiries revealed the fact that Comte du Chayla in the year 1921, was Chief of Propaganda on the Staff of the Don Cossack Corps of General Wrangel's Army. During his employment in this capacity, he was discovered to be acting as a Bolshevik agent, and as such was arrested and condemned to death for high treason. General Wrangel however, acting under pressure from the French Ambassador quashed the sentence, and had to content himself with expelling the treasonable officer from the army.

Upon this matter and upon the previous career of the Count, State Councillor Gregor Petrowitsch Girtschitsch, formerly in the Judge Advocate General's Department of Wrangel's army and at present living in Tunis, has furnished exhaustive information in a report dated the 30th April 1936, such information having added importance in view of the fact that Girtschiisch himself conducted the case against du Chayla.

Already at the beginning of June 1936, Dr. Boris Liffschitz, a Russian Jew practising at the bar in Switzerland, and acting as counsel to du Chayla, was informed of the existence of these declarations, both of which were handed to the court. Du Chayla however omitted to bring any action for libel against S. S. Nilus. He apparently considered discretion to be the better part of valour, and that it was preferable in this instance to take the insult that he was a perfidious liar and slanderer sitting down, rather than take the risk of bringing an action against S. S. Nilus which would expose him to the danger of Nilus proving his contention true.

Yet a third witness has recently come forward in the person of Andrej Petrowitsch Ratschkowsky in Paris. He is the son of State Councillor Ratschkowsky, whom incidentally, Du Chayla falsely described as a general, a rank which he never held. In a written statement dated 13th July 1936, he states that he has searched through all the archives of his late father, which are in his possession, that is to say not only through his private correspondence, but also through all drafts of reports sent to the authorities in St. Petersburg, and that nowhere has he been able to detect the smallest trace of his father ever having had anything to do with the Protocols. He had moreover never had so much as a hint from his father that the Protocols were known to him. His father had never been an Anti-Semite, he had had Jews as friends and collaborators, and more particularly at the time of the publication of the Protocols, his Secretary was the Jew M. Golschmann. Finally his father was never acquainted with the fabulous Madame Komarowsky, who was supposed to have handed the document over to him.

Through the reports of those who might be described as the most telling witnesses in the case namely Nilus junior, Girtschitsch and Ratschkowsky junior, light has finally been brought to bear upon the forger's den. The statements of the crook and ex-Princess Radziwill, now Mrs. K. Danvin, and of the Bolshevik Agent and traitor Comte du Chayla are in all essential points untrue. State Councillor Ratschkowsky had never on any occasion anything to do with the Protocols. Nilus's lifelong friend who according to du Chayla was the go-between who handed him the Protocols, was not called Komarowsky, but Wolodimerow, and was never in contact of any kind with Ratschkowsky.

Apart from this question, the research into the origins of the Protocols must be carried out to its very last detail. It would be particularly important to find out from whom Major Suchotin received the Protocols in 1895, or at an earlier date. Here we find ourselves at a dead end, which is all the more difficult to overcome, as the supposedly non-Jewish Soviet State puts difficulties in the way of all enquiries which are likely to prove disadvantageous to the Jews. Moreover the former Member of the Duma, Colonel Baron B. Engelhardt, in a communication from Riga, dated the 2nd April 1935, states that in the Spring of 1917, immediately after the formation of the Provisional Government by the Freemason Prince Lwow, it became the principal care of that government to remove from the Ministry of Home Affairs and from the Police Department all confidential documents having relation either to Jewry or to the Protocols.

All files and documents of a nature disagreeable to Jewry were collected, and under orders from Prince Lwow handed over against written receipt to the Jewish Politician Winawer, a member of the Masonically influenced Miljukow party. From this time onwards the material in question completely disappeared.

The expert Loosli did it is true, succeed through the intermediary of the Jewish solicitor Tagger in Moscow in borrowing from the Soviet government documents for the composition of his expertise. These however, in spite of desperate efforts on the part of Loosli to nail down Ratschkowsky as the forger of the Protocols, do not afford the smallest ground for this assumption. Moreover apart from this, these documents of which Loosli was as proud as he was of the forgeries of Radziwill and of du Chayla, contain nothing whatever relating to the authorship of the Protocols.

The fact that the authorship and the time of the composition of this document still remain a mystery, does not justify the assumption that the Protocols are an Anti-Semitic forgery; and even less, when the fact is taken into account that their contents are in complete and accurate accord with other Jewish writings, as also with the political occurrences of our time. This document has been in existence for many decades, and its validity has never yet been legally disproved. As long however as a forgery has not been proved, this document may be looked upon as genuine. For it is the inauthenticity of a document which must be proved by those who would attack it, and not its authenticity by those who would defend it. The Berne lawsuit has not cleared up the situation in any way; for of all the theses which have been brought to prove forgery, there is not one that will hold water. One and all rest upon a gross perversion of the facts. Only the guilty, and those who are afraid of the truth, make use of such methods as were used in Berne.

5. Three orthodox Jews stand for the Authenticity of the Protocols.

If up till now I have been principally concerned in the refutation of the assertions made by the opposing side, and have been able to show that Jewry have not been in the position to bring any valid evidence in support of forgery, I will now discuss a few important cases which go to show the authenticity of the Protocols. In this connection, I will quote the declarations of three orthodox Jews.

About the year 1901, in the small Polish city of Schocken, now called Skoki, there lived one Rudolf Fleischmann, an assistant Rabbi, and slaughterer by trade. With this person the local Public Prosecutor, M. Noskowicz, entered into friendly relations. Fleischmann, whose honour had suffered serious injury at the hands of the Chief Rabbi Dr. Veilchenfeld, in that the latter had assaulted his fiancée, complained bitterly to his Christian friend, and related to him much in regard to the anti-Christian writings of the Jews. In this fashion they came to speak about the Protocols of the Elders of Zion, which at the time were already known in Russia. As Noskowicz has asserted in writing, Fleischmann assured him that the Protocols really did exist, and that they were no forgery. Moreover that they were positively of Jewish origin. He further laid it on him as a duty, to warn his Christian co-religionists and co-citizens of the Jewish danger.

Noskowicz relates a second instance also. In the year 1906, he put the question direct to the well known Rabbi Grünfeld of Swarzedz in Poland, as to whether the Protocols were genuine or not. Thereupon Grünfeld gave him the following characteristically Jewish answer: "My dear Herr Noskowicz, you are too curious, and want to know too much. We are not permitted to talk about these things. I am not allowed to say anything, and you are not supposed to know anything. For God's sake be careful, or you will be putting your life in danger."

We are in possession of a further statement from the Russian Captain George (Our readers will understand that we cannot give his real name, as we otherwise might endanger the lives of his relatives in Soviet Russia.) In February 1924, in Jugo-Slavia, he visited the Jew Saweij Konstantinowitsch Ephron, who was a refugee from Soviet Russia. Ephron in his early days had been a Rabbi in Vilna. He went over however to the Greek Orthodox Church, and became a mining engineer in St. Petersburg. He was moreover an author, and wrote under the nom de plume of "Litwin". He was the Editor of the Monarchist paper "The Light", and was a contributor to "The Messenger". He was also the author of the drama going under the name of "The Smugglers", which contains much severe criticism of Jewry. In consequence of this, he was brutally assaulted by some Jews, and his life being threatened when the Bolshevik revolution broke out he had to fly from his country, arriving finally in Serbia, where he found asylum in a cloister in the neighborhood of Petkowitz in the district of Schabatz. It was there that he died in the year 1926.

When on a certain occasion Captain George questioned him on the subject of the genuineness of the Protocols, Ephron declared with emphasis that he had for long been well acquainted with their contents, indeed for many years before they were ever published in the Christian press. Ephron's words were written down by Captain George who made sure of the matter by obtaining a sworn statement regarding his bona fides from the Arch-Priest of the Russian Church in Paris in the month of October 1928.

Both written declarations namely that of Public Prosecutor Noskowicz, and that of Captain George were included by Lieut. Colonel Fleischhauer in the expert report which he rendered to the Court in Berne. Like all other evidence offered by Fleischhauer however, these witnesses were completely disregarded by the Marxist Judge.

The case of Ephron interested me quite exceptionally, and I therefore got into touch with different colonies of Russian emigrés with a view to finding people who had been acquainted with him. The results were altogether beyond my expectations. I discovered a Russian who had formerly fought in Wrangel's Army, Wassilijs S. (His real name is also concealed) who had made friends with Ephron at Petkowitz and who actually handed me a short treatise upon the Protocols in the Russian language written by Ephron himself. It is actually the concept of a letter addressed by Ephron in the year 1921, to the Russian Emigrant paper, edited by Burtzew in Paris, "Obschtscheje djelo" (La Cause Commune). Ephron had at about this time read an article in this paper, in which a writer by name of A. J. Kuprin, questioned the genuineness of the Protocols, and pretended to show that they were a forgery on the assumption that the Jews were incapable of producing an anti-Christian work of this description. The indignant Ephron thereupon wrote the following letter to the Editor:

"In my quiet cloister (I am living in a Serbian monastery.) it is seldom that I see a newspaper. The other day however a copy of the "Obschtscheje djelo" came into my hand, and in it I read a feuilleton by A. J. Kuprin entitled "Guslitzkaja Fabrika". In this feuilleton Monsieur Kuprin discusses the Zionist Protocols of Nilus, and describes for the benefit of the reader the impressions which he gets from the perusal of this book. Whatever conclusion he comes to in this instance in regard to the genuineness of the Protocols, is a matter of little or no interest to me, for in the matter under consideration, Monsieur Kuprin cannot be considered an authority in any sense of the word. In spite of the above however, my attention was drawn to certain statements in this feuilleton. Monsieur Kuprin writes: "What surprises one in the Protocols is this downright, blind, stupid, one might say uniform hate against Christianity, which only an unimaginative and commonplace Jew-baiter, writing in accordance with his feelings against the Jews, could ascribe to the Elders of Zion. Every word of these Protocols breathes blood, revenge, slavery, destruction and ruin. One does not only feel the deadly and poisonous power of the word, but also the paralysing commonplace. When the diplomats of two different countries set out to ravish a portion of a third, or when two financiers set about plucking some trustful pigeons, they do not usually call things by their proper names, but are wont to conceal the hard reality with kindly words and tasteful forms. These 70 Elders, the highest authority of an intelligent people, and no doubt themselves also highly cultivated persons, would it is clear be ashamed of such a primitive and pogrom-like brutality as is attributed to them in the Protocols."

"The above quotation from the article of this well meaning author breathes passionate resentment against the Protocols, and the Christian conscience of the writer cannot reconcile itself to the wickedness and the hate against Christianity with which the Protocols are permeated. He is unable therefore to acknowledge that they are genuine, and out of goodness of heart he cannot recognize them. Thus must it be. It is difficult to come to terms with life when such wickedness and such hattfare found to exist. To an author brought up and educated in Christian ethics, they may seem impossible and an absurdity. But nevertheless ... This wickedness and this hatred of Christianity among the chosen people have both existed in the past, and exist up to the present day."

"I propose to the well meaning author that he communicate with Monsieur Pasmanik, and ask him to be kind enough to translate the following words taken from the prayer which every Jew is bound to repeat thrice daily. (I take it that Monsieur Pasmanik is cognisant of ancient Hebrew, and is also familiar with the prayers.)

"SCHAKETZ TISCHAKZENU', SAWE TISSAWENU, KI CHEREM, "HU"..."

"These words, I repeat it, and I hope that Monsieur Pasmanik will confirm what I say, are repeated three times a day by every Jew in his prayers. Now if Monsieur Pasmanik will accurately translate the words of the Hebrew prayer, and Monsieur Kuprin comes to hear of their meaning, he will surely understand that as a Christian, and as a man of honour, he is bound publicly to withdraw what he has said in the above quoted statement, a statement clearly dictated by goodness of heart, and from feelings of Christian charity, and in no way attributable to any knowledge of Judaism, or of Jewish ethics."

P. S. If in the course of the next fifteen days Monsieur Pasmanik does not communicate the meaning of the Hebrew prayer to A. J. Kuprin, I will print a translation in the Nowoje Wremja, as much for his own edification, as for the edification of other writers similarly placed, who have erred in all good faith."

Upon Ephron's Russian concept the following further notes are to be found, and also a translation of the Hebrew text:

"Up to the sixties of the previous century these words were printed in the Hebrew prayer books; at the beginning of the sixties however, they were forbidden by the Russian censorship, which naturally did not prevent the Jews then, as it does not prevent them now, from repeating them three times a day.

"Schaketz tischakzenu", thou shall utterly detest it, (the Cross of Christ),

"Save tissawenu", thou shalt utterly abhor it,

"Ki cherem", for it is a cursed thing.

"Hu", fye!" *)

Burtzew never published this letter. He also suppressed it in his evidence before the Court in Berne. Whether Ephron also sent it to the Nowoje Wremja as he intended, is not known.

It is altogether characteristic of Ephron's attitude to the Protocols, that it was just an article which pretended to prove them a forgery which he took as an occasion for repudiating any such theory. He does not express any direct opinion as to their authenticity, but it is sufficient that he denies to Kuprin the right to express any opinion upon the matter, upon the grounds that he does not understand the subject, and that he energetically repudiates the letter's attempt to establish a forgery. His attitude comes even more clearly to light in the following report compiled by Wassilij Smirinow in the presence of two witnesses on the 15th of December 1936, viz:

*) For this curse the Jews make use of Deuteronomy VII, 26.

"After my arrival in Jugo-Slavia in the year 1921, in my capacity of an officer in General Wrangel's army, I came across a group of Russian emigrants in the village of Petkowitz, in the district of Schabatz, where it had been suggested that I should live.

"In the vicinity of this village, the Serbian monastery of St. Pelko is to be found. As I heard shortly afterwards, in this monastery lived Sawelij Konstantinowitsch Ephron, who had found a home there, as age and infirmity (he was at the time 72) prevented him from doing any active work. Ephron had come there on the recommendation of Bishop Michael of Schabatz, in whose diocese this cloister was situated. Bishop Michael had in former times been the head of a Serbian religious house in Moscow.

"It was at this time that I first began to receive the "Obschtscheje djelo", three copies of which were forwarded to me from Paris with a view to its distribution among the Russian emigrants. Ephron came to hear that I was receiving the "Obschtscheje djelo", and sent me a message through one of the Russians asking me to visit him, and saying that he would much like to see the paper in question. I visited him in the course of the next few days, and began also to send him the paper. Thus it was that my acquaintance with Ephron began.

"Later, in No. 440 of the above periodical, a feuilleton written by Kuprin appeared under the title of "Guslitzkaja Fabrika", in which he attacked the author of the Protocols for the blind and bloodthirsty hate against Christianity exhibited in them. Kuprin further expressed doubts regarding the capability of the Jews to express such sentiments. What he meant was that only the most ordinary type of Jew-baiter could ascribe such sentiments to them.

"This attitude of Kuprin to the Protocols disturbed Ephron very much, and on the occasion of my next visit, he started to relate to me the opinion which he had formed of the feuilleton in question. He had a reply to Kuprin already written, and addressed to the Editor of "Obschtscheje djelo", which he asked me to despatch. In the course of a further conversation regarding this feuilleton, he became very indignant about Kuprins' ignorance of the theme he had handled. He held him to be completely incompetent to express any opinion on the nature of the case.

"On the occasion of this conversation, Ephron handed me the concept of the letter he had written to Kuprin with the words: "Take it, my dear friend, it may perhaps be of use to you some day."

"In connection with this feuilleton of Kuprin's, there began between us the most open hearted conversations in the course of which he told me what he knew regarding the Zionist Protocols. In view of the fact that it is such a long time ago, I cannot now remember everything that he said, but one or two leading points which have graven themselves on my memory I will now quote in inverted commas, making use to the best of my recollection of Ephron's own words. He asked me once whether I had read the Protocols through, and on my replying in the affirmative, he began to say that the Protocols of the Elders of Zion were in point of fact not the original Protocols at all, but a compressed extract of the same. Then he said to me that he was very much troubled in his conscience as to whether he should reveal the secret of their origin or not, for he did not know whether in so doing he would be doing more harm than good.

"I cannot here remember the exact course of our conversation, but as far as I know I had put to him a question regarding the origin and the existence of the original Protocols. In answer, he excitedly caught hold of me by the lapel of my coat, and said literally:

"My dear friend, in the matter of the origin, and of the existence of the original Protocols, there are only ten men in the entire world who know, and one of them is your servant." In saying these words he touched his breast with his forefinger and added: "My dear friend (this was his favourite mode of address where I was concerned), if you come to me often enough, it is just possible that I may bring myself to reveal this secret to you."

"It was a short time after this that a position was offered me in Belgrade, and to my great regret I was compelled to part with him for good. It was in this fashion that he took the secret of the Protocols with him into the grave. He died 2 to 3 years after my departure, as I afterwards heard."

"From what he told me, I learnt that he was a Jew, and that he went over to the Orthodox Church in Russia. After his conversion, he was a missionary in Central Asia, and was also a correspondent of the Academy of Science. He was moreover Editor of the paper "Istorritcheskij Wjestnik". He had a son, who had been an officer in the Russian Army.

"I have attached the aforementioned concept of Ephron's letter to Kuprin hereto.

"The above statements I am at all times ready to confirm on oath."

As a result of further investigation, I was fortunate enough to find yet another Russian, who over a period of years had been personally acquainted with Ephron. This was Wassilij Michailowitsch Choroschun who lived at Petkowitz in Jugoslavia, and who at the time of Ephron's residence there, was the business administrator of the monastery in the town.

Choroschun has given the following written declaration:

"During the period between June 1924 and November 1929, I was resident at the Cloister of St Paraskewa (Petka), in the Province of Schabatz in Jugoslavia. To the different duties which the Prior of this religious house, the monk Aristarch, laid upon me belonged that of conducting the business affairs of the cloister. I consequently became familiar with the archives of the cloister, and with all matters pertaining to the persons it contained."

"As regards Sawelij Konstantinowitsch Ephron, I associated with him from the moment of his arrival in the monastery, up to the time of his decease. According to the letter of recommendation from Bishop Michael of Schabatz, which was entered in our files under the number 191, Ephron arrived at the cloister on June the 7th 1921. His decease took place on the night of the 23rd of June 1925. He died alone and without witnesses. All his personal belongings, his notes, and his books were sent by General Tolstow, who was also resident in the cloister, to the office of the Agent for Russian Refugees in Belgrade at that time one Paleolog. I often had talks with Ephron. He used to tell me about his past, and used to communicate to me his thoughts upon different matters, and among them upon the Jewish question. I remember that he told me that he completed his rabbinical training at Vilna, and that afterwards he became a rabbi. He said that after he came to know of a certain secret law among the Jews (he did not say which) in which the hatred of humanity which it propounds had impressed him most, he decided to break with Jewry. After he had broken with Jewry, he entered the School of Mines in St Petersburg, and qualified there. Afterwards he took to a literary career. He became a collaborator on the "Nowoje Wremja", editor of Komarow's newspaper "Swet", and of the "Istoritscheskij Wjestnik", and Secretary of the Slavonic Committee.

It was during the time that he was with on this Committee, that he became acquainted with the Prior of the Serbian Monastery in Moscow, the Archimandrite Michael, who afterwards when Bishop of Schabatz, arranged for his reception into the Cloister of Saint Paraskewa. Ephron told me that he had two sons who had remained in Soviet Russia, and who occasionally sent him money. I remember that on the day of his death 50 Dollars arrived from one of his sons. On one occasion Ephron made me a present of Nilus's book on the Zionist Protocols. I remember that on this occasion he said to me: "They (the Protocols) are an actual fact, and every word of them is true." In his conversations on the subject of Jewry, he asserted with all emphasis, that the Jews have secret books which they show to nobody but to the initiated.

Three or four months before his death, the author Rodionoff wrote to him from Mostar urging him to reveal the secrets of Jewry. S. K. Ephron did not however wish to do this, as he was awaiting the visit of the Metropolitan Antonius, to whom he wished to reveal everything concerning the Jews. In his letters to Ephron, the Metropolitan Antonius promised him that he would visit the cloister in company with General Netschwołodow, who was coming from Paris for the purpose. In the last few days, as he felt death approaching, Ephron often gave expression for his distress at the Metropolitan not having arrived. He was apparently possessed with a great longing to reveal to him the secret of Jewry which was tormenting him. Unfortunately the Metropolitan never came, and thus did it come about that the secret was entrusted by Ephron to no-one.

Testified by the undersigned

Wassilij Michailowitsch Choroschun, Petkowitz, District of Schabatz, Jugoslavia.

February 3rd, 1937.

The declarations of the Assistant Rabbi Fleischmann, of Rabbi Grünfeld and of the former Rabbi Ephron taken together, give incontrovertible proof of the correctness of the assumption that the Protocols are a genuine Jewish document. Of a particularly convincing order is the information supplied by Ephron to the three Russian witnesses Captain George, Major Smirnow and the Administrator Choroschun. From his testimony the following fact also becomes clear namely that the Protocols were drawn up before the Zionist Congress in Basel in 1897, and were already known to the initiated in Jewry; and moreover that the text which we possess through the intermediary of Nilus is a compressed extract only of an as yet undiscovered, and far more extensive secret document. It is therefore of particular importance to note that in this respect, Nilus makes practically the same assumption on page 54 of the third edition of his book, namely that the manuscript which had come into his hands was evidently "a fragment only of some very much more important manuscript, of which the beginning, and many details have either been lost, or may never even have been found."

6. The Contents confirm the Authenticity.

To prove the authenticity of the Protocols from their contents, would be beyond the scope of this treatise. There exists upon this subject a literature so extensive, and more particularly in the Expertise drawn up by Colonel Fleischhauer for the lawsuit in Berne, a mass of evidence so overwhelming, that I will confine myself to the following remarks only.

It is not by any means first in the Protocols, but already in the books of the Jewish prophets that the political objectives of the Jewish people are laid down. Isaiah in particular, in chapters XL to LX promises quite undisguisedly world-domination to the chosen people. The same thing exactly is the aim of the Protocols, which may be said to differ only in the sense that they are a modern strategic plan, drawn up in a manner more suited to present-day conditions.

Countless statements from Rabbinical sources, and by Jewish politicians, documentarily attested, agree in astonishing fashion with the general lines of the Protocols.

The following fact moreover cannot be refuted namely, that the political occurrences of the present day, taking place as they do under the influence of Jewish Freemasonry, are developing in exact accordance with the lines laid down in the Protocols, and that more particularly in Soviet Russia, under "the leadership of Jewry, the Protocols have already become an accomplished fact. It is only necessary to think of the destruction of the Christian religion as ordered in the Protocols, of the destruction of all estates, of the moral poisoning of youth, and of the undermining of the family, of the enslavement of the working people, and of the famines created in a fashion so conscienceless, of the way in which Moscow organises agitation and incitement of the masses in all countries, more especially in the case of Spain, of the continuous strikes and economic crises in France, and of the subsidised and controlled revolutionary movements in Mexico and in China, to come to the only possible conclusion namely, that Jewry with the help of Bolshevism, Marxism and Freemasonry, is undeviatingly carrying out what is prescribed in the Protocols, in order to obtain for the Jewish people that world-domination which is promised to them by their God Jehovah.

This fight for world-domination has been in full swing ever since Italian Fascism put an end to the destructive activities of Freemasonry, that most dangerous of all Jewish secret societies, and since Germany has declared openly that it is the Jew, and the Jew alone who is the driving force behind the destruction of political order among the different peoples. In complete accordance with the sense of Protocol 7, the dogs of war are to be let loose against those states who desire to free themselves from the Jewish reign of terror, such states as Germany, Italy, Spain, Portugal and Poland.

On the above subject the following forms an interesting extract from the "Revue internationale des sociétés secrètes, No 7 of the 1st of April 1937:

"A new war in defence of democracy and of alleged law is being prepared in all haste. An alliance of all the Jewish groups is already complete; it bears the official title of the alliance of the three great democracies, the English, the American, and the French. . . Israel requires a new world war, and soon! . . . Israel is positively of the opinion that time is getting short. To them their world war is a necessity in order that, in the name of indivisible peace, all that portion of mankind who wish to cast off the Jewish yoke, may be laid low."

It is just the three countries above mentioned who to-day are completely under Jewish-Masonic control. Practically every member of their respective governments is a Freemason. In their case also in all key positions, men of Jewish origin are to be found, or persons who either as a result of marriage, or of financial obligation, are open to Jewish influence. I will in general refrain from mentioning names. I should like however to point to one man only, in regard to whom Jewry are always proclaiming that he is not a Jew namely, Stalin. But Stalin in point of fact is married to a Jewess, and his all powerful Secretary of State is his brother-in-law Kaganowitsch. Only statesmen completely blind fail to recognise that the fate of the peoples entrusted to their charge no longer depends upon themselves, and that they will most certainly bring their peoples under the Jewish Bolshevik yoke if they do not first of all unite to fight the Jewish world danger. It is neither from Germany, Italy, nor Japan that danger threatens, but solely and only from the direction of Jewry, who in every country play a pretendedly patriotic role, but at the same time, by means of their international press, incite one country against the other, in complete accordance with the directions of Protocol 7:

"Throughout all Europe, and by means of relations with Europe, in other continents also, we must create ferments, discords and hostility. ... We must compel the governments of the Goyim to take action in the direction favoured by our widely-conceived plan, already approaching the desired consummation, by what we shall represent as public opinion, secretly prompted by us through the means of that so-called "Great Power" – the Press, which with few exceptions that may be disregarded, is already entirely in our hands."

The plan of Jewry as developed in the Protocols, becomes from year to year more clear and more terrible. Whoever still persists in refusing to recognise it, is either seriously incapable, or else guilty of a crime against his own people.

And once again I will take as my authority a Jew, who unconditionally stands for the authenticity of the Protocols, and who asserts that Jewish mentality alone could draw up a programme like that of the Protocols, so that if only on these grounds, it is not possible to doubt the authenticity of the document. The authority referred to is the late Arthur Trebitsch, author of "Deutscher Geist oder Judentum", published 1921, on page 74 of which we find the following:

"Anybody who like the author, has long since realised, seen, and heard with ominous dread, all the thoughts, aims and intentions derived from the entirety of our economic, political and intellectual life, and expressed in those secret documents, can with absolute confidence assert that they present the most genuine and unalloyed expression of that versatile spirit which is striving towards world-domination; and that an Aryan mind, however far it might have been driven along the road of forgery and calumny by Anti-Semitic rancour, could never, under any circumstances have devised these methods of action, these underhand expedients and these swindles as a whole."

A Conference of the World Service, the international organisation for defence against Jewish aggression in all countries, took place in Erfurt from the 2nd to the 5th of September of this year. Distinguished experts, authors and political leaders, more especially from the following countries, took part: Belgium, Denmark, Germany, Great-Britain, Finland, Greece, Holland, Italy, Jugoslavia, Canada, Lettland, the U.S.A., Norway, Austria, Poland, Russia (Emigration), Sweden, Switzerland, Spain, South Africa, Czechoslovakia and Hungary.

After the commission appointed to enquire into the authenticity of the Protocols had rendered a report of its two years of activity, the Congress unanimously adopted the following.

Resolution.

"That the present Conference of the World Service taking place at Erfurt from the 2nd to the 5th of September 1937, in which many experts, authors and political leaders from more than 20 different countries are taking part, passes the following resolution relative to the authenticity of "The Protocols of the Learned Elders of Zion":

That the verdict given in Berne on the 14th of May 1935 to the effect that the Protocols are a forgery, is a faulty verdict. That it only became possible in consequence of the Judge having erroneously based his judgement upon the expertises of the two Swiss experts recommended by the Jewish side C. A. Loo s l i and Professor A. Baum g a r t e n , after he had heard the 16 witnesses for the Jewish side, and after having refused to hear any single one of the 40 witnesses brought by the Aryan side.

The verdict in Berne has not shaken the authenticity of the Protocols. For their authenticity the following irrefutable fact, among many others, bears witness namely, that Jewry in the social, political, and religious sphere, persistently model all their actions along the lines laid down in the Protocols.

"The Protocols of the Elders of Zion" are accordingly the authentic programme of Jewish world politics."

INTRODUCTORY STATEMENT

THE world is in the midst of a crisis not less serious than that of the great war. While it was inevitable that the period following the war should be fraught with grave problems for civilization, these problems have been made much more difficult by the presence of a new danger, namely, the destructive force of Bolshevism. Russia was the first victim of what proves to be a movement of an international character, Russia being used as the base of operations. While powerful Bolshevik armies are overrunning Asia and menacing the European countries to the West, an equally dangerous force of Red propagandists, directed from Moscow, is operating on several continents, spreading its social poison throughout the world and threatening the destruction of the social and industrial morale of civilized nations.

With the triumph of the Bolshevik revolution in Russia, a group of internationalists, most of whom were members of the Jewish race, seized the machinery of government and have held it ever since.

The complete destruction of Russian civilization, which for centuries had been essentially a Christian civilization, and the reduction of the great majority of the Russian people to a state of abject misery and ruin, are accomplished facts. The Bolshevik leaders, however, not content with this destruction and the establishment of a cruel despotism in Russia, are making every effort to extend their revolution and their control to other countries.

The Communist revolution in Hungary, under Bela Cohen (alias Kuhn), a confessed ally and agent of Trotzky, was not terminated until it had wrought great havoc in that country. The same is true of the Spartacan revolt in Germany, where recently the struggle broke out anew and assumed the character of a formidable civil war. Holland and Italy are to-day seriously threatened with uprisings inspired by the Bolsheviks, while in France the government has been compelled to expel the Bolshevik agents in large numbers. In the United States revolutionary agitation directly guided and fomented by agents of Lenin and Trotzky and subsidized with ample funds, recently reached such proportions that the Federal Government was forced to take strong measures, including hundreds of arrests and deportations. The enemy is in our midst. In this country, as elsewhere, alien agitators who are either Bolsheviks themselves or emissaries of the Bolsheviks have wormed their way into some of the loyal labor organizations or put themselves at the head of the Socialist or other radical political parties artificially stimulating social unrest and seeking to turn industrial strikes into political upheavals, leading to revolution and anarchy.

Shall America be as slow to realize the real danger of international Bolshevism as she was to recognize the menace of German imperialism? Shall America again be unprepared?

We must be ready to meet the danger at our doors and, if necessary, to suppress it in our midst with physical force, just as was necessary in the struggle with Prussian militarism. It has been said, however, and perhaps truly, that Bolshevism cannot be met by force alone. Certainly to meet it effectively its nature must be understood. To this end it is necessary to analyze the movement carefully and to discover its underlying causes — if possible the predominating cause.

From the very beginning there was an element of mystery in the Bolshevik revolution in Russia. Was it, essentially, an attempt to put into effect the principles of international socialism as promulgated by Karl Marx? Was it a disguised form of proletarian imperialism? Did it aim at the complete destruction of Christian civilization? Or, finally, was it a long planned, gigantic revolt of the Jewish race against Christendom and its institutions?

From the very start there was a terrible method in the madness of Trotzky and those in league with him. Many of their moves which at the time seemed inexplicable afterwards appeared logical enough when their objects became apparent.

The world was puzzled by Trotzky's famous remark at Brest-Litovsk, "No peace, no war." Later, however, the real meaning became known: "No war on Germany, no peace for Russia or the rest of the world."

That the Bolshevik revolution was from the beginning almost entirely led and controlled by Jews is a fact which has gradually thrust itself upon the attention of the world. The Jews in many instances have admitted the dominating rôle which members of their race have played in international Bolshevism and have sought to defend it. Some of their recognized leaders have proclaimed their pride in Trotzky.

The fact that the Jewish race has taken such an active part in the Russian Bolshevik movement, with its international ramifications, has been attributed in some quarters to the motive of revenge on the part of the Jews for what they regard as a long era of persecution. If this be so, is it impossible that Jews in various parts of the world imagine that now is their chance not only for revenge but for world domination?

The air of confidence with which Trotzky and other Jewish leaders are proceeding with their drastic program in Russia is significant. Significant, also, is the enthusiastic support which is being given to the Soviet rule by various Jewish elements and groups outside of Russia. Whether this correlated movement of the Jews in support of Bolshevism is not being carried out on some concerted plan is a question of importance which warrants careful study and investigation. No facts which can possibly throw light upon this question should be disregarded. For this reason it is timely to consider the contents and origin of a document of extraordinary interest which, though made public in Russia some fifteen years ago, is generally unknown elsewhere.

The document referred to is entitled, "Protocols of the Meetings of the Zionist Men of Wisdom," and was published for the first time in 1905 at Tsarskoje Selo in a Russian book entitled "The Great in the Little," written by Serge Nilus, a well-known Russian author. The Protocols set forth a comprehensive program for the substantial destruction of all Christian states, and propose certain practical methods for achieving world domination by the Jewish nation. So far as is known, the Protocols have never been repudiated publicly by recognized Jewish authorities. Quite recently the well-known firm of Eyre & Spottiswoode, Ltd., printers for the British Government, published a pamphlet under the title,

THE PROTOCOLS

"The Jewish Peril, Protocols of the Learned Elders of Zion." In the preface of this pamphlet it is explained that the Protocols referred to were translated from the Russian into English from Serge Nilus's book which appeared in Russia in 1905. While the editors do not give the title of Nilus's book, they say:

"A copy of the original may be seen at the British Museum Library, under No. 3926-d-17, stamped British Museum, 10th August, 1906."

They state also that the publication of the English pamphlet at present is justified by the growing menace of Bolshevism throughout the world. The pamphlet concludes with the warning:

"GENTILES, BEWARE!"

It seems obvious that the publishers, Eyre & Spottiswoode, Ltd., have used Nilus's book "The Great in the Little," published in Russia in 1905.

A specific reference to the Protocols is to be found also in the French weekly magazine La Vieille-France, No. 160, published in February, 1920. In the editorial article entitled "The Jews Have Created Bolshevism" (pages 10-13) the following extract from the Zionist Protocols, as published by Nilus, is given in French:

"A nous, son Peuple d'élection, Dieu a donné le pouvoir d'expansion, et ce qui semble être notre faiblesse a été notre force. Nous sommes au seuil de la domination universelle. Il reste peu à construire sur ces bases," etc. etc.

The article asserts that Bolshevism is nothing but a phase of Judaism, and also states that the Jewish Bolshevik leaders in Russia were subsidized by Jewish banking houses in the United States and Germany.

In January, 1917, Mr. Nilus published another book under the title "It is Near, At the Door," and in this book the Protocols were again published in full. A reproduction of the title page of this book is inserted at the beginning of this volume.

While the Protocols are generally unknown here, it is worthy of note that on October 27-28, 1919, the Philadelphia Public Ledger printed long excerpts from them in an article calling the attention of the American people to the document and to the terrible program which it presents. The article in the Ledger was somewhat misleading, however, since it was published under the captions "Red Bible" and "Bolshevist Propaganda." All words in the text itself indicating that the Protocols were of Jewish origin were omitted. The Hebrew word "Goy," signifying "Gentiles," used in the Protocols, nowhere appears in the Ledger article. Furthermore, wherever in the Protocols the expressions "our people" or "we" — meaning the "Jewish people" or the "Jews" — are used, the author of the article makes it appear that the people thus referred to are the "Bolsheviks," and speaks of the Protocols as a "Russian document," which clearly it is not. Mr. Nilus shows that the Protocols came into his hands in 1901. In 1901 the Bolshevik Party did not exist, for it was founded only in 1903 and was not really organized for work until several years later. Nowhere in the Protocols does the word "Bolshevist" appear, while the word "Jews" is used many times, although the writer more frequently uses the word "we" when speaking of the Jews. There is only one hypothesis upon which the Protocols could possibly be considered "Bolshevist," namely, that the Bolshevik movement was of Jewish origin, in which case the plan outlined in the Protocols might have become "Bolshevist" by adoption.

The very fact that a document purporting to be written by a Jew for Jews could be so easily described as "Bolshevist Propaganda" is of interest.

Now, for the first time, the document entitled by Mr. Nilus "Protocols of the Meetings of the Zionist Men of Wisdom" is published in full in the United States, correctly translated from the Russian. For this purpose we have used the Russian text as it appears in Mr. Nilus's book, "It is Near, At the Door," 1917, published in the printing office of the Sviato-Troitzky Monastery.

Before proceeding to examine the contents of the Protocols, let us briefly give Mr. Nilus's account of the way in which they came into his possession and of his views in regard to their origin.

Mr. Nilus, at pages 86 to 92 of his book, "It is Near, At the Door," states that he received the manuscript containing the Protocols of the Meetings of the Zionist Men of Wisdom in 1901 from Mr. Alexis Nikolajevich Souchotin, at one time Marshal of Nobility in the District of Chern, Central Russia, and later Vice Governor of the Government of Stavropol, South Russia, and that when giving the manuscript to Mr. Nilus, Mr. Souchotin said:

"Take it into your full possession. Read it. Become inspired and make out of it something useful to the Christian soul. Otherwise it might remain with me unused. From a political standpoint it is useless, for it is too late to act on it. From a spiritual standpoint, however, it might be otherwise. In your hands, with God's help, it will bear fruit."

Mr. Nilus states that Mr. Souchotin told him that the manuscript was originally obtained by a lady whose name is not given and who, he said, obtained it in a mysterious way. Mr. Nilus showed it to several Russians of high standing, one of whom said:

"Slavdom has not yet spoken its last word and, therefore, no matter how cunning and strong the Zionist Men of Wisdom may be, their efforts are doomed to failure, and for this reason there is no need to despair."

Mr. Nilus states that prior to 1905 he submitted the Protocols to Grand Duke Serge Alexandrovitch, who, having examined them, sent him a message of two words only: "Too late."

Subsequently, Mr. Nilus made several attempts to call the attention of the proper officials to the contents of this document but without result. In 1905 he published the second edition of his book, "The Great in the Little." In this edition the Protocols were for the first time incorporated.

In his last book Mr. Nilus writes:

"These Protocols produced a scarcely noticeable impression upon the world outside of the Christian church. The periodical press, which in the main is in Jewish hands, or under the guidance and influence of the Jews, sought to conceal their publication, scarcely mentioning them or referring to them as a fallacious invention or a fairy tale. Among loyal Christians, however, the Protocols bore fruit and created a success for my book far greater than could have been anticipated, for they spread the knowledge of the hidden mysteries of our time in a wide circle of those belonging to the Christian family. Since then my book, with all the Protocols, has appeared in its fourth edition; but only now I learn authoritatively from Jewish sources that these Protocols are nothing else than a strategic plan for the conquest of the world, putting it under the yoke of Israel, the struggler-against-God, a plan worked out by the leaders of the Jewish people during the many centuries of their dispersion, and finally presented to the Council of Elders by "The Prince of Exile," Theodor Hertzl, at the time of the first Zionist Congress, summoned by him at Basle in August, 1897."

Again he writes:

"In what way these documents, constituting the Holy of Holies of the hopes of Israel, the century-old mystery of its leaders, reached the general mass of the uninitiated has not been ascertained. As already mentioned, they were given to me in 1901. In that year, in circular No. 18, as well as in others dispatched to the Zionists on behalf of the Zionist 'Actions Committee,' Theodor Hertzl stated that certain confidential information, notwithstanding the admonition, has not been kept secret, and has been given undesirable publicity."

Finally Mr. Nilus declares:

"The Protocols are signed by the Zionist Representatives of the 33rd (highest) Degree of Initiation. These Protocols were secretly removed from the complete file of Protocols which, as we now know, pertained to the first Zionist Congress, held in Basle in August, 1897. All this was taken from the secret vaults at the main Zionist office which, at present, is located in French territory."

In 1918 the "Protocols" were again published in Russian by a book publishing firm, "The Sentinel" at Novocherkassk, South Russia. The pamphlet referred to bears the title "Zionist Protocols. The plans for the Conquest of the Universe by the Judo-Masons." In the introduction to the pamphlet it is stated: "The 'Protocols' are a program carefully worked out in all its details for the conquest of the universe by the Jews. The greater part of this program has already been realized, and if we will not come back to our senses, we are inevitably doomed." In the concluding part of this introduction the publishers state as follows: "The 'Protocols,' indeed, are not only the key to our first unsuccessful revolution, but they are also the key to the second, in which Jewry played such a sinister rôle for Russia. . . . For us, who are witnesses of the self-destruction of Russia, for us who hope for her regeneration, this document is all the more significant as it discloses the means of the enemies of Christendom for our enslavement. Only after having obtained the knowledge of the means it may become possible to successfully combat the enemies of Christ and of Christian culture."

There is not, and in the nature of the case there hardly can be, any direct evidence as to the authenticity of the Protocols. There is, however, a considerable body of facts having a bearing upon this question which the publishers of this book put before the reader, leaving him to draw his own conclusions.

The facts to which we refer may be roughly grouped under three heads:

(a) There is a remarkable similarity between the policies of destruction outlined in the Protocols and the actual measures of destruction put into effect by the Bolshevik régime in Russia, and there is evidence that this régime is under the control of Jewish leaders.

(b) There is also a striking parallelism between certain passages in the Protocols and the statements of recognized Jewish leaders, both religious and political, appearing in their published writings and speeches.

(c) Finally, certain Jewish activities outside of Russia coincide in a remarkable degree with certain parts of the Protocols.

In Part Two of this volume evidence under these various heads is set forth. This evidence, however, can be intelligently considered only after a careful study of the Protocols themselves, a translation of which appears in the following pages, preceded by a short summary prepared for the convenience of the reader.

SUMMARY OF THE PROTOCOLS

The title under which the Protocols are presented in Mr. Nilus's text, according to the literal translation from the Russian, is:

"PROTOCOLS OF THE MEETINGS OF THE ZIONIST MEN OF WISDOM"

The word "Protocols" can be used in several senses, but in the present case the context would indicate that the word means simply the written minutes of certain meetings — i.e. meetings of the Zionist Men of Wisdom. The arrangement is in twenty-four separate Protocols, each Protocol apparently recording the contents of an address to the meeting by one of its members. The context would also indicate that all the addresses were delivered by the same person, and it should also be noted that each Protocol deals with a more or less distinct part of one complete subject, like the chapter of a book.

THE PROTOCOLS

In the first Protocol it is stated that the speaker undertakes to formulate "our system both from our point of view and from that of the Goys." The word "Goys" or "Goyims" is an old Hebrew word signifying Gentiles, or persons who are not Jews. All of the following Protocols, whether they are the utterances of the same person who speaks in the first Protocol or not, are a continuation of the same general subject.

Taking the set of documents as a whole, they clearly purport to formulate a strategic plan for united action of the Jews as a nation, or a people, to obtain certain ends. These ends are nothing less than complete political and religious domination of the world. The means by which this universal domination is to be achieved are set forth with great clearness and considerable elaboration.

The document as a whole is of the most extraordinary character, and while to some readers it may seem fanatical or visionary, others will be more impressed with its profound cleverness, with the cold logic of the reasoning, and with the general orderliness of statement and argument, indicating that the work, whatever the underlying motive may be, is the result of careful thought and mature deliberation.

The strategic plan of action is Machiavellian and ruthless in the extreme, and is expressly founded on the propositions that "might is right" and that "politics have nothing in common with morals." It is also explicitly stated that the end in view is to "subjugate all government to our super-government," and the Jewish super-government is to be an autocracy with a Jewish Sovereign at its head.

Briefly summarized, the means by which this world domination is to be achieved are as follows:

1. The national power of non-Jewish states is to be broken down by the fomenting of internal revolutions through appeals to class hatred, and by pretended efforts to obtain greater freedom and privileges for certain classes of the people, using the words "liberty, equality, and fraternity" merely as catchwords to gain recruits for the Jewish cause. Autocratic governments, which alone are strong, must be weakened in the first instance by the introduction of liberalism, which will pave the way to anarchy.

2. All wars must be "shifted to an economic basis," allowing no territorial advantages to result from war, and thus tending to make the Jewish control of wealth the determining factor in war.

3. The Jewish international rights are to be strengthened at the expense of the national rights of the several Gentile nations.

4. The non-Jewish states are to be further weakened by promoting false and conflicting political policies; by obtaining secret control over the actions of public officials; by manipulation of the press, and by the gradual elimination of free speech.

5. The authority of governments where liberalism prevails is to be weakened by the destruction of religion (other than the Jewish religion), since it is the conservative and moral force which makes liberal governments possible.

6. In order to overcome the resistance of those states which are unwilling to make submission to the new Jewish power, there must be no hesitation in resorting to violence, cunning, hypocrisy, bribery, fraud, and treason, or to the seizure of the property of others.

7. The destruction of the social and economic structure of Christian states will also be brought about by the destruction of industrial prosperity, through speculation and constant strikes, "throwing masses of workmen out of employment," artificially raising wages, thus increasing the cost of the necessities of life, and finally by bringing about a general economic crisis and the disorganization of financial systems. The financial strength of the various non-Jewish states will also be undermined by causing them to overburden themselves with foreign and national loans on an ever increasing scale, which will ultimately lead to bankruptcy.

8. Upon the social and political chaos created by these various means a Jewish dictatorship is to be gradually built up, principally through the "terrible" Jewish power of the purse and through the other great Jewish powers of control over the press and over the revolutionary labor movement.

9. During the period of transition from Gentile to Jewish political control in every state there will be a secret government by the Jews, brought about through the manipulation of the press, misleading public opinion, mass terror, weakening the initiative of the Gentiles, misdirecting their education, and sowing discord among them.

Protocols of the Meetings of the Zionist Men of Wisdom

PROTOCOL NO. I

LET us put aside phraseology and discuss the inner meaning of every thought; by comparisons and deductions let us illuminate the situation. In this way I will describe our system, both from our own point of view and from that of the GOYS.

It must be remembered that people with base instincts are more numerous than those with noble ones; therefore, the best results in governing are achieved through violence and intimidation and not through academic discussion. Every man seeks power; every one would like to become a dictator if he possibly could; and rare indeed are those who would not sacrifice the common good in order to attain personal advantage.

What has restrained the wild beasts we call men?

What has influenced them heretofore?

In the early stages of social life they submitted to brute and blind force; afterwards — to the Law, which is the same force but disguised. I deduce from this that according to the laws of nature, right lies in might.

Political freedom is not a fact but an idea. One must know how to employ this idea when it becomes necessary to attract popular forces to one's party by mental allurement if it plans to crush the party in power. The task is made easier if the opponent himself has contradicted the idea of freedom, the so-called liberalism, and for the sake of the idea yields his power. It is precisely here that the triumph of our theory becomes apparent: the relinquished reins of power are, according to the laws of nature, immediately seized by a new hand because the blind force of the people cannot remain without a leader even for one day, and the new power merely replaces the old, weakened by liberalism.

The GOYS — the Gentiles.

In our day the power of gold has replaced liberal rulers. There was a time when faith ruled. The idea of freedom cannot be realized because no one knows how to make reasonable use of it. Give the people self-government for a short time and it will become corrupted. From that very moment strife begins and soon develops into social struggles, as a result of which states are set aflame and their authority is reduced to ashes.

Whether the state is exhausted by internal convulsions, or whether civil wars deliver it into the hands of external enemies, in either case it can be regarded as hopelessly lost: it is in our power. The despotism of capital, which is entirely in our hands, holds out to it a straw which the state must grasp, although against its will, or otherwise fall into the abyss.

To him who, because of his liberal inclinations, would contend that arguments of this kind are immoral, I would propound the question: If a state has two enemies, and if against the external enemy it is permitted and it is not considered immoral to use all methods of warfare, and as a protective measure not to acquaint the enemy with the plans of attack, such as night attacks or attacks with superior forces, then why should the same methods be regarded as immoral when applied to a worse foe, a transgressor against social order and prosperity?

How can a sound and logical mind hope successfully to guide the masses by means of reasonable persuasion or by arguments if there is a possibility of contradiction, even though unreasonable, but which may appear more attractive to the superficially thinking masses? Guided entirely by shallow passions, superstitions, customs, traditions, and sentimental theories, the people in and of the mob become embroiled in party dissensions which prevent all possibility of an agreement, even though it be on a basis of perfectly sound reasoning. Every decision of the mob depends upon the accidental or prearranged majority, which, owing to its ignorance of political secrets, pronounces absurd decisions, thus introducing the seeds of anarchy into the government.

Politics have nothing in common with morals. The ruler guided by morality is not a skilled politician, and consequently he is not firm on his throne. He who desires to rule must resort to cunning and hypocrisy. The great popular qualities — honesty and frankness — become vices in politics, as they dethrone more surely and more certainly than the most powerful enemy. These qualities must be the attributes of GOY countries; but we by no means should be guided by them.

Our right lies in might. The word "right" is an abstract idea, unsusceptible of proof. This word means nothing more than: Give me what I desire so that I may have evidence that I am stronger than you.

Where does right begin? Where does it end?

In a state with a poorly organized government and where the laws are insignificant, and the ruler has lost his dignity as the result of the accumulation of liberal rights, I find a new right, namely, the right of might to destroy all existing order and institutions, to lay hands on the law, to alter all institutions, and to become the ruler of those who have voluntarily, liberally renounced for our benefit the rights to their own power.

With the present instability of all authority our power will be more unassailable than any other, because it will be invisible until it is so well rooted that no cunning can undermine it.

From temporary evil to which we are now obliged to have recourse will emerge the good of an unshakable government, which will reinstate the orderly functioning of the mechanism of popular existence now interrupted by liberalism. The end justifies the means. In laying our plans we must turn our attention not so much to the good and moral as to the necessary and useful. Before us lies a plan in which a strategic line is shown, from which we must not deviate on pain of risking the collapse of many centuries of work.

In working out an expedient plan of action it is necessary to take into consideration the meanness, vacillation, changeability of the mob, its inability to appreciate and respect the conditions of its own existence and of its own well-being. It is necessary to realize that the power of the masses is blind, unreasoning, and void of discrimination, prone to listen to right and left. The blind man cannot guide the blind without bringing them to the abyss; consequently, members of the crowd, upstarts from the people, even were they men of genius but incompetent in politics, cannot step forward as leaders of the mob without ruining the entire nation.

Only the person prepared from childhood to autocracy can understand the words which are formed by political letters.

The people left to themselves, that is to upstarts from among them, are ruined by party dissensions created by greed for power and honors, and by the disorders resulting therefrom. Is it possible for the masses of the people to direct the affairs of the state without rivalry, and without interjecting personal interests? Are they capable of protecting themselves against external enemies? — This is impossible, since a plan divided into as many parts as there are minds in a mob loses its unity, and consequently, becomes incomprehensible and unworkable.

Only an autocrat can outline great and clear plans which allocate in an orderly manner all the parts of the mechanism of the government machinery. From this it is concluded that the government which is the most efficient for the benefit of a country must be concentrated in the hands of one responsible person. Civilization cannot exist without absolute despotism, for government is carried on not by the masses, but by their leader, whoever he may be. A barbarous crowd shows its barbarism on every occasion. The moment the mob grasps liberty in its hands it is speedily changed to anarchy, which is in itself the height of barbarism.

Look at those beasts, steeped in alcohol, stupefied by wine, the unlimited use of which is granted by liberty.

Surely you cannot allow our own people to come to this. The people of the GOYS are stupefied by spirituous liquors; their youth is driven insane through excessive study of the classics, and vice to which they have been instigated by our agents — tutors, valets, governesses — in rich houses, by clerks, and so forth, and by our women in the pleasure places of the Goys. Among the latter I include the so-called "society women," their volunteer followers in vice and luxury.

Our motto is Power and Hypocrisy. Only power can conquer in politics, especially if it is concealed in talents which are necessary to statesmen. Violence must be the principle; hypocrisy and cunning the rule of those governments which do not wish to lay down their crowns at the feet of the agents of some new power. This evil is the sole means of attaining the goal of good. For this reason we must not hesitate at bribery, fraud, and treason when these can help us to reach our end. In politics it is necessary to seize the property of others without hesitation if in so doing we attain submission and power.

Our government, following the line of peaceful conquest, has the right to substitute for the horrors of war less noticeable and more efficient executions, these being necessary to keep up terror, which induces blind submission. A just but inexorable strictness is the greatest factor of governmental power. We must follow a program of violence and hypocrisy, not only for the sake of profit, but also as a duty and for the sake of victory.

A doctrine based on calculation is as potent as the means employed by it. That is why not only by these very means, but by the severity of our doctrines, we shall triumph and shall enslave all governments under our super-government.

Even in olden times we shouted among the people the words "Liberty, Equality, and Fraternity." These words have been repeated so many times since by unconscious parrots, which, flocking from all sides to the bait, have ruined the prosperity of the world and true individual freedom, formerly so well protected from the pressure of the mob. The would-be clever and intelligent Goys did not discern the symbolism of the uttered words; did not notice the contradiction in the meaning and the connection between them; did not notice that there is no equality in nature; that there can be no liberty, since nature herself has established inequality of mind, character, and ability, as well as subjection to her laws. They did not reason that the power of the mob is blind; that the upstarts selected for government are just as blind in politics as is the mob itself, whereas the initiated man, even though a fool, is capable of ruling, while the uninitiated, although a genius, will understand nothing of politics. All this has been overlooked by the GOYS.

Meanwhile dynastic government has been based upon this, that the father passed to his son the knowledge of the course of political evolution, so that nobody except the members of the dynasty could possess this knowledge, and no one could disclose the secrets to the governed people. In the course of time the meaning of the dynastic transmission of the true understanding of politics has been lost, thus contributing to the success of our cause.

In all parts of the world the words "Liberty, Equality, and Fraternity" have brought whole legions into our ranks through our blind agents, carrying our banners with delight. Meanwhile these words were worms which ruined the prosperity of the GOYS, everywhere destroying peace, quiet, and solidarity, undermining all the foundations of their states. You will see subsequently that this aided our triumph, for it also gave us, among other things, the opportunity to grasp the trump card, the abolition of privileges; in other words, the very essence of the aristocracy of the GOYS, which was the only protection of peoples and countries against us.

On the ruins of natural and hereditary aristocracy we built an aristocracy of our intellectual class—the money aristocracy. We have established this new aristocracy on the qualification of wealth, which is dependent upon us, and also upon science, which is promoted by our wise men.

Our triumph was also made easier because, through our connections with people who were indispensable to us, we always played upon the most sensitive chords of the human mind, namely, greed, and the insatiable selfish desires of man. Each of these human weaknesses taken separately is capable of killing initiative and of placing the will of the people at the disposal of the buyer of their activities.

Abstract liberty offered the opportunity for convincing the masses that government is nothing but the manager representing the owner of the country, namely, the people, and that this manager can be discarded like a pair of worn-out gloves.

The fact that the representatives of the nation can be deposed, delivers them into our power and practically places their appointment in our hands.

PROTOCOL NO. II

IT is necessary for us that wars, whenever possible, should bring no territorial advantages; this will shift war to an economic basis and force nations to realize the strength of our predominance; such a situation will put both sides at the mercy of our million-eyed international agency, which will be unhampered by any frontiers. Then our international rights will do away with national rights, in a limited sense, and will rule the peoples in the same way as the civil power of each state regulates the relation of its subjects among themselves.

The administrators chosen by us from among the people in accordance with their capacity for servility will not be experienced in the art of government, and consequently they will easily become pawns in our game, in the hands of our scientists and wise counselors, specialists trained from early childhood for governing the world. As you are aware, these specialists have obtained the knowledge necessary for government from our political plans, from the study of history, and from the observation of every passing event. The GOYS are not guided by the practice of impartial historical observation, but by theoretical routine without any critical regard for its results. Therefore, we need give them no consideration. Until the time comes let them amuse themselves, or live in the hope of new amusements or in the memories of those past. Let that play the most important part for them which we have induced them to regard as the laws of science (theory). For this purpose, by means of our press, we increase their blind faith in these laws. Intelligent GOYS will boast of their knowledge, and verifying it logically they will put into practice all scientific information compiled by our agents for the purpose of educating their minds in the direction which we require.

Do not think that our assertions are without foundation: note the successes of Darwinism, Marxism, and Nietzscheism, engineered by us. The demoralizing effects of these doctrines upon the minds of the GOYS should be already obvious to us.

It is essential that we take into consideration the modern ideas, temperaments, and tendencies of peoples in order that no mistakes in politics and in guiding administrative affairs may be made. The triumph of our system, parts of whose mechanism must be adapted in accordance with the temperament of the peoples with whom we come in contact, cannot be realized unless its practical application is based upon a resume of the past as related to the present.

There is one great force in the hands of modern states which arouses thought movements among the people. That is the press. The rôle of the press is to indicate necessary demands, to register complaints of the people, and to express and foment dissatisfaction. The triumph of free babbling is incarnated in the press; but governments were unable to profit by this power and it has fallen into our hands. Through it we have attained influence, while remaining in the background. Thanks to the press, we have gathered gold in our hands, although we had to take it from rivers of blood and tears.

But it cost us the sacrifice of many of our own people. Every sacrifice on our part is worth a thousand Goys before God.

PROTOCOL NO. III

TO-DAY I can tell you that our goal is close at hand. Only a small distance remains, and the cycle of the Symbolic Serpent – the symbol of our people – will be complete. When this circle is completed, then all the European states will be enclosed in it as in strong claws.

The modern constitutional scales will soon tip over, for we have set them inaccurately, thus insuring an unsteady balance for the purpose of wearing out their holder. The Goys thought it had been sufficiently strongly made and hoped that the scales would regain their equilibrium, but the holder – the ruler – is screened from the people by his representatives, who fritter away their time, carried away by their uncontrolled and irresponsible authority. Their power, moreover, has been built up on terrorism spread through the palaces. Unable to reach the hearts of their people, the rulers cannot unite with them to gain strength against the usurpers of power. The visible power of royalty and the blind power of the masses, separated by us, have both lost significance, for separated, they are as helpless as the blind man without a stick.

To induce the lovers of authority to abuse their power, we have placed all the forces in opposition to each other, having developed their liberal tendencies towards independence. We have excited different forms of initiative in that direction; we have armed all the parties; we have made authority the target of all ambitions. We have opened the arenas in different states, where revolts are now occurring, and disorders and bankruptcy will shortly appear everywhere.

Unrestrained babblers have converted parliamentary sessions and administrative meetings into oratorical contests. Daring journalists, impudent pamphleteers, make daily attacks on the administrative personnel. The abuse of power is definitely preparing the downfall of all institutions and everything will be overturned by the blows of the infuriated mobs.

The people are shackled by poverty to heavy labor more surely than they were by slavery and serfdom. They could liberate themselves from those in one way or another, whereas they cannot free themselves from misery. We have included in constitutions rights which for the people are fictitious and are not actual rights. All the so-called "rights of the people" can exist only in the abstract and can never be realized in practice. What difference does it make to the toiling proletarian, bent double by heavy toil, oppressed by his fate, that the babblers receive the right to talk, journalists the right to mix nonsense with reason in their writings, if the proletariat has no other gain from the constitution than the miserable crumbs which we throw from our table in return for his vote to elect our agents. Republican rights are bitter irony to the poor man, for the necessity of almost daily labor prevents him from using them, and at the same time deprives him of his guarantee of a permanent and certain livelihood by making him dependent upon strikes, organized either by his masters or by his comrades.

Under our guidance the people have exterminated aristocracy, which was their natural protector and guardian, for its own interests are inseparably connected with the well-being of the people. Now, however, with the destruction of this aristocracy the masses have fallen under the power of the profiteers and cunning upstarts, who have settled on the workers as a merciless burden.

We will present ourselves in the guise of saviors of the workers from this oppression when we suggest that they enter our army of Socialists, Anarchists, Communists, to whom we always extend our help, under the guise of the rule of brotherhood demanded by the human solidarity of our social masonry. The aristocracy which benefited by the labor of the people by right was interested that the workers should be well fed, healthy, and strong.

We, on the contrary, are concerned in the opposite — in the degeneration of the GOYS. Our power lies in the chronic mal-nutrition and in the weakness of the worker, because through this he falls under our power and is unable to find either strength or energy to combat it.

Hunger gives to capital greater power over the worker than the legal authority of the sovereign ever gave to the aristocracy. Through misery and the resulting jealous hatred we manipulate the mob and crush those who stand in our way.

When the time comes for our universal ruler to be crowned, the same hands will sweep away everything which may be an obstacle in our way.

The GOYS are no longer accustomed to think without our scientific advice. Consequently, they do not see the imperative need of upholding that which we will sustain by all means when our kingdom is established, namely, the teaching in the schools of the only true science, the first of all sciences – the science of the construction of human life, of social existence, which requires the division of labor and, consequently, the separation of people into classes and castes. It is necessary that all should know that equality cannot exist, owing to the different nature of various kinds of work; that there cannot be the same responsibility before the law in the case of an individual who by his actions compromises an entire caste and another who does not affect anything but his own honor.

The correct science of the social structure, to the secrets of which we do not admit the GOYS, would demonstrate to all that occupation and labor must be differentiated so as not to cause human suffering by the discrepancy between education and work. The study of this science will lead the masses to a voluntary submission to the authorities and to the governmental system organized by them. Whereas, under the present state of science, and due to the direction of our guidance therein, the people, in their ignorance, blindly believing the printed word, and owing to the misconceptions which have been fostered by us, feel a hatred towards all classes whom they consider superior to themselves, since they do not understand the importance of each caste.

This hatred will be still more accentuated by the economic crisis, which will stop financial transactions and all industrial life. Having organized a general economic crisis by all possible underhand means, and with the help of gold which is all in our hands, we will throw great crowds of workmen into the street, simultaneously, in all countries of Europe. These crowds will gladly shed the blood of those of whom they, in the simplicity of their ignorance, have been jealous since childhood and whose property they will then be able to loot.

They will not harm our people because we will know of the time of the attack and we will take measures to protect them.

We have persuaded others that progress will lead the GOYS into a realm of reason. Our despotism will be of such a nature that it will be in a position to pacify all revolts by wise restrictions and to eliminate liberalism from all institutions.

When the people saw that they obtained concessions and license in the name of liberty, they imagined that they were the masters, and rushed into power; but like every blind person, they encountered innumerable obstacles; they rushed to seek a leader, with no thought of returning to the old one, and laid power at our feet. Remember the French Revolution, which we have called "great"; the secrets of its preparation are well known to us, for it was the work of our hands.

Since then we have carried the masses from one disappointment to another, so that they will renounce even us in favor of a despot sovereign of Zionist blood, whom we are preparing for the world.

At present, as an international force, we are invulnerable, because if we are attacked by one state we are supported by other states. The unlimited baseness of the Goy peoples, who grovel before force, who are pitiless towards weakness, who are merciless to misdemeanors and lenient to crimes, who are unwilling to tolerate the contradictions of a free social structure; patient unto martyrdom in bearing with the violence of daring despotism — this is what helps our independence. They tolerate and permit such abuses from their modern premiers — dictators — for the least of which they would behead twenty kings.

How can such a phenomenon be explained, such an illogical conception on the part of the mass of the people towards events of seemingly the same nature? This phenomenon can be explained by the fact that these dictators through their agents whisper to their people that by these abuses they injure the states for a supreme purpose, namely, for the attainment of the happiness of the people, their universal fraternity, solidarity, and equality. Of course, they are not told that this unification will be achieved only under our rule. Thus, the people condemn the just and acquit the unjust, more and more convinced that they can do what they please. Owing to this, the people destroy all stability and create disorder on every occasion.

The word "Liberty" brings all society into conflict with all authority, be it that of God or Nature. This is why, at the moment of our enthronement, we shall strike this word from the dictionary as being the symbol of brute power, which turns the masses into bloodthirsty beasts. It is true, however, that these beasts go to sleep as soon as they have drunk blood, and then it is easy to shackle them; but if the blood is not given to them they will not sleep and will struggle.

PROTOCOL NO. IV

EVERY republic passes through several stages. The first stage is like the early period of insane ravings of a blind man throwing himself right and left. The second is the demagogery which breeds anarchy, which inevitably leads to despotism, not of a legal and open character and, consequently, responsible, but an unseen and unknown despotism, no less effective because exercised by some secret organization, acting even less ceremoniously because it is hidden under the cover and behind the backs of different agents. The change of these agents will even help the secret organizations, as it will thus be able to rid itself of the necessity of spending money to reward employees of long terms of service.

Who and what can overthrow an unseen power? For such is the character of our power. External Masonry acts as a screen for it and its aims, but the plan of action of this power, and its very headquarters, will always remain unknown to the people.

Liberty could also be harmless and remain on the state program without detriment to the well-being of the people

if it were to retain the ideas of the belief in God and human fraternity, free from the conception of equality for such a conception is in contradiction to the laws of nature which establish subordination. With such a faith the people would be governed by the guardians of the parish and would thrive quietly and obediently under the guidance of their spiritual leader, accepting God's dispensation on earth. It is for this reason that we must undermine faith, tearing from the minds of the Goys the very principle of God and Soul, and substituting mathematical formulas and material needs.

In order that the minds of the GOYS may have no time to think and notice things, it is necessary to divert them in the direction of industry and commerce. Thus all nations will seek their own profit, and while engaged in the struggle they will not notice their common enemy. But in order that liberty should finally undermine and ruin the GOY'S society, it is necessary to put industry on a basis of speculation. The result of this will be that everything, absorbed by industry from the land, will not remain in the hands of the Goys, but will be directed towards speculation; that is, it will come into our coffers.

The intense struggle for supremacy, the shocks to economic life, will create, moreover have already created, disappointed, cold, and heartless societies. These societies will have complete disgust for high politics and religion. Their only guide will be calculation, i.e., gold, for which they will have a real cult because of the material delights which it can supply. It will be at that stage that the lower classes of the Goys, not for the sake of doing good, nor even for the sake of wealth, but solely because of their hatred towards the privileged, will follow us against our competitors for power, the intelligent GOYS.

PROTOCOL NO. V

WHAT form of government can be given to societies in which bribery has penetrated everywhere, where riches are obtained only by clever tricks and semi-fraudulent means, where corruption reigns, where morality is sustained by punitive measures and strict laws and not by voluntary acceptance of moral principles, where cosmopolitan convictions have eliminated patriotic feelings and religion? What form of government can be given to such societies other than a despotism such as I shall describe?

We will create a strong centralized government, so as to gather the social forces into our power. We will mechanically regulate all the functions of political life of our subjects by new laws. These laws will gradually eliminate all the concessions and liberties permitted by the GOYS. Our kingdom will be crowned by such a majestic despotism that it will be able, at all times and in all places, to crush both antagonistic and discontented Goys.

We may be told that the despotism outlined by me is inconsistent with modern progress, but I will prove to you that the contrary is the case.

At the time when people considered rulers as an incarnation of the will of God, they subjected themselves without murmur to the autocracy of the sovereigns; but as soon as we inspired them with the thought of their personal rights, they began to regard the rulers as ordinary mortals. The holy anointment fell from the heads of sovereigns in the opinion of the people; and when we deprived them of their belief in God, then authority was thrown into the street, where it became public property and was seized by us. Moreover, the art of governing the masses and individuals by means of cunningly constructed theories and phraseology, by rulers of social life, and other devices not understood by the Goys, belongs, among other faculties, to our administrative mind, which is educated in analysis and observation, and is also based upon skillful reasoning in which we have no competitors, just as we have none in the preparation of plans for political action and solidarity. Only the Jesuits could be compared to us in this; but we were able to discredit them in the mind of the senseless mob as a visible organization, whereas we, with our secret organization, remained in the dark. After all, is it not the same to the world who will be its master—whether it be the head of Catholicism or our despot of Zionist blood? To us, however, the Chosen People, it is by no means a matter of indifference.

Temporarily, a world coalition of the Goys would be able to hold us in check, but we are insured against this by roots of dissension so deep among them that they cannot now be extracted. We have set at variance the personal and national interests of the Goys; we have incited religious and race hatred, nurtured by us in their hearts for twenty centuries. Owing to all this, no state will obtain the help it asks for from any side because each of them will think that a coalition against us will be disadvantageous to it. We are too powerful — we must be taken into consideration. No country can reach even an insignificant private understanding without our being secret parties to it.

Per me reges regnant — "Through me the sovereigns reign." The prophets have told us that we were chosen by God himself to reign over the world. God endowed us with genius to enable us to cope with the problem. Were there a genius in the opposing camp, he would struggle against us, but a newcomer is not equal to an old inhabitant. The struggle between us would be of such a merciless nature as the world has never seen before; moreover their genius would be too late.

All the wheels of government mechanism move by the action of the motor which is in our hands, and that motor is gold. The science of political economy, invented by our wise men, has long ago demonstrated the royal prestige of capital.

To attain freedom of action, capital must obtain freedom to monopolize industry and trade; this is already being done by an unseen hand in all parts of the world. Such liberty will give political power to traders, and will aid in subjugating the people. At present it is more important to disarm peoples than to lead them to war; it is more important to utilize flaming passions for our purposes than to extinguish them; more important to grasp and interpret the thoughts of others in our own way than to discard them.

The most important problem of our government is to weaken the popular mind by criticism; to disaccustom it to thought, which creates opposition; to deflect the power of thought into mere empty eloquence.

At all times both peoples and individuals have mistaken words for deeds, as they are satisfied with the visible, rarely noticing whether the promise is performed in the fields of social life.

Therefore, we will organize ostensible institutions which will prove eloquently their good work in the direction of "progress."

THE PROTOCOLS

We will appropriate to ourselves the liberal aspect of all parties, of all shades of opinion, and we will provide our orators with the same aspect, and they will talk so much that they will exhaust the people by their speeches and cause them to turn away from orators in disgust.

To control public opinion it is necessary to perplex it by the expression of numerous contradictory opinions until the GOYS get lost in the labyrinth, and come to understand that it is best to have no opinion on political questions.

Such questions are not intended to be understood by the people, since only he who rules knows them. This is the first secret.

The second secret necessary for the success of governing consists in so multiplying popular failings, habits, passions, and conventional laws that no one will be able to disentangle himself in the chaos, and consequently, people will cease to understand each other. This measure would help us to sow dissension within all parties, to disintegrate all those collective forces which still do not wish to subjugate themselves to us; to discourage all individual initiative which might in any degree hamper our work.

There is nothing more dangerous than individual initiative; if it has a touch of genius it can accomplish more than a million people among whom we have sown dissensions. We must direct the education of the GOY societies so that their arms will drop hopelessly when they face every task where initiative is required. The intensity of action resulting from individual freedom of action dissipates its force when it encounters another person's freedom. This results in heavy blows at morale, disappointments and failures.

We will so tire the GOYS by all this that we will force them to offer us an international power, which by its position will enable us conveniently to absorb, without destroying, all governmental forces of the world and thus to form a super-government. In lieu of modern rulers, we will place a monster which will be called the Super-Governmental Administration. Its hands will be stretched out like pincers in every direction so that this colossal organization cannot fail to conquer all the peoples.

PROTOCOL NO. VI

WE will soon begin to establish great monopolies — reser-voirs of huge wealth, upon which even the large fortunes of the Goys will depend to such an extent that they will be drowned, together with the governmental credits, on the day following the political catastrophe.

You economists, here present, will please carefully weigh the significance of this scheme! . . .

We must develop, by all means, the importance of our super-government by representing it as the protector and reward-giver of all those who willingly submit to us.

The aristocracy of the GOYS as a political force is dead. We do not need to take it into consideration; but as land-owners they are harmful to us because they can be independent in their resources of life. For this reason we must deprive them of their land at any cost.

To attain this object, the best method is to increase land taxes—the indebtedness of the land. These measures will keep land ownership in subjection.

The aristocracy of the GOYS, which as a matter of heredity is unable to be satisfied with small things, will soon be ruined.

At the same time it is necessary to patronize trade and industry vigorously, and more important, to encourage speculation, whose function is to act as a counterbalance to industry. Without speculation, industry will increase private capital and tend to the amelioration of land ownership by freeing it from indebtedness created by the loans granted by agricultural banks. It is necessary that industry should suck out of the land both labor and capital and through speculation deliver into our hands all the money of the world, thus throwing all the GOYS into the ranks of the proletarians. Then the GOYS will bow before us in order to obtain the mere right of existence.

To destroy GOY industry we will create among the GOYS as an aid to speculation the strong demand for boundless luxury which we have already developed.

Let us raise wages, which, however, will be of no benefit to the workers, for we will simultaneously cause the rise in prices of objects of first necessity under the pretext that this is due to the decadence of agriculture, and of the cattle industry.

We will also artfully and deeply undermine the sources of production by teaching the workmen anarchy and the use of alcohol, at the same time taking measures to expel all the intelligent Goys from the land.

That the true situation should not be noticed by the Goys until the proper time, we will mask it by a pretended desire to help the working classes and great economic principles, an active propaganda of which principles is being carried on through the dissemination of our economic theories.

PROTOCOL NO. VII

THE intensification of armament and the increase of the police force are essential to the realization of the above-mentioned plans. It is necessary that there should be besides ourselves in all countries only the mass of the proletariat, a few millionaires devoted to us, policemen, and soldiers.

We must create unrest, dissensions, and hatred throughout Europe and through European affiliations, also on other continents. In this there is a twofold advantage: First, we will hold all countries under our influence, since they will realize that we have the power to create disorders or to restore order whenever we wish. All countries have come to regard us as a necessary burden. Second, we will entangle by intrigues all the threads stretched by us into all the governmental bodies by means of politics, economic treaties, or financial obligations. To attain these ends we will worm our way into parleys and negotiations, armed with cunning, but in so-called "official language" we will assume the opposite tactics of seeming honest and reasonable. In this way the peoples and the governments of the GOYS, taught by us to regard only the surface of that which we show them, will look upon us as benefactors and saviors of mankind.

We must be able to overcome all opposition by provoking a war by the neighbors of that country which dares to oppose us. Should, however, those neighbors, in their turn, decide to unite against us we must respond by a world war.

Chief success in politics lies in the secrecy of its undertakings. There must be inconsistency between the words and actions of diplomats.

We must influence the GOY governments to action beneficial to our broadly conceived plan, now approaching its triumphant goal, creating the impression that such action is demanded by public opinion which in reality is secretly organized by us with the help of the so-called "great power," namely, the press; the latter, however, with few exceptions that need not be considered, is already entirely in our hands.

In short, to sum up our system of shackling the GOY governments of Europe, we will show our power to one of them by assassination and terrorism, and should there be a possibility of all of them rising against us, we will answer them with American, Chinese, or Japanese guns.

PROTOCOL NO. VIII

WE must provide ourselves with the same arms our enemies can employ against us. We must seek the most subtle expressions and evasions of the legal dictionary to justify those cases in which we will be forced to announce decisions which may seem unnecessarily bold and unjust, for it is important that these decisions should be expressed in terms so forcible that they will appear as the highest moral rules of a legal character.

Our government must be surrounded by all the forces of civilization, in the midst of which it will have to function. It will surround itself with publicists, experienced lawyers, administrators, diplomats, and, finally, people educated along special lines in our special advanced schools.

These people will know all the secrets of social existence; they will know all languages composed of political letters and words: they will be familiar with the reverse side of human nature, with all its sensitive chords, upon which they must know how to play. These chords are the structure of the intellects of the GOYS, their tendencies, their failings, their vices, and their virtues, the peculiarities of classes and castes. It is evident that the highly talented members of our government, to which I refer, will be recruited not from the ranks of the GOYS, accustomed to performing their administrative duties without questioning their aim, and without thinking why they are necessary. The GOY administrators sign papers without reading them and work for profit or for pride.

We will surround our government by a whole world of economists. It is for this reason that economics is the chief science taught to the Jews. We will be surrounded by a crowd of bankers, traders, capitalists, and most important of all, by millionaires, because in essence everything will be decided by a question of figures.

Meanwhile, as it is not yet safe to give the responsible government posts to our brother Jews, we will give them to people whose record and whose character are such that there is an abyss between them and the people; also to people for whom, in case of disobedience to our orders, there will remain nothing but condemnation or exile—thus forcing them to protect our interests to their last breath.

PROTOCOL NO. IX

IN applying our principles, turn your attention to the character of the people in whose countries you will be resident and among whom you will act, for a general similar application of them before the reeducation of a people according to our plan cannot be successful. But by advancing carefully in their application you will see that before ten years have passed the most obstinate character will have changed, and we can then count another people among those who already have submitted to us.

When we are enthroned we will substitute for the liberal words of our Masonic catchword, "Liberty, Equality, and Fraternity," another group of words expressing simply ideas, namely, "the right of Liberty, the duty of Equality, the ideal of Fraternity." Thus we will speak and . . . we shall have the goat by the horns. . . . De facto, we have already destroyed all governments except our own, although de jure there are still many left. At present, if any of the governments raises a protest against us, it is done only as a matter of form, and at our desire, and by our order, because their anti-Semitism is necessary to enable us to control our smaller brothers. I will not further explain this, as it has already been the object of numerous discussions.

In reality there are no obstacles before us. Our super-government exists under such extra-legal conditions that it is common to designate it by an energetic and strong word—a Dictatorship.

I can honestly state that at the present time we are law-makers; we are the judges and inflict punishment; we execute and pardon; we, as the chief of all our armies, ride the leader's horse. We rule by indomitable will because we hold in our hands the fragments of a once strong party now subject to us. We possess boundless ambition, burning greed for merciless revenge, and bitter hatred.

From us emanates an all-embracing terror. People of all opinions and of all doctrines are in our service; people who desire to restore monarchies, demagogues, socialists, communists, and other Utopians. We have had to put all of them to work; every one of them is undermining the last remnant of authority, is trying to overthrow all existing order. All the governments have been tortured by this procedure; they beg for peace, and for the sake of peace are prepared to make any sacrifice, but we will not give them peace until they recognize our international super-government openly and with submission.

The masses have begun to demand the solution of the social problem by means of an international agreement. The division into parties has delivered all of them to us, because in order to conduct a party struggle money is required, and we have it all.

We might fear the union of the intelligent power of the Goy's' rulers with the blind power of the masses, but we have taken all measures against such a possibility. Between the two powers we have raised a wall in the form of mutual terror; thus the blind power of the people continues to be our support, and we alone will act as its leader and, naturally, we will direct it towards our goal.

To prevent the hand of the blind from freeing itself from our guidance, we must from time to time keep in close touch with the masses, if not through personal contact then through our most devoted brethren. When we become a recognized power we will personally address the masses in open places, and we will expound political problems in the desired direction.

THE PROTOCOLS

How verify what is taught in village schools? But whatever the representative of the government or the ruler himself states will be immediately known to the entire nation, for it will rapidly spread by the voice of the people.

In order not prematurely to destroy GOY institutions, we have touched them with our efficient hands and grasped the ends of the springs of their mechanism. Formerly these springs were in rigid but just order; we have changed it to liberal, disorderly, and arbitrary lawlessness.

We have affected legal procedure, electoral law, the press, personal freedom, and, most important, education, the cornerstone of free existence.

We have misled, corrupted, fooled, and demoralised the youth of the GOYS by education along principles and theories known by us to be false but which we ourselves have inspired.

Without changing substantially the existing law we have created stupendous results by distorting the laws through contradictory interpretations. These results first manifested themselves by the fact that interpretation has concealed the law itself, and thereafter has completely hidden it from the eyes of the governments by the impossibility of understanding such complicated jurisprudence.

Hence the theory of the court of conscience.

You may say that there will be an armed rising against us if our plans are discovered prematurely; but in anticipation of this we have such a terrorizing manoeuvre in the West that even the bravest soul will shudder.

Underground passages will be established by that time in all capitals, from where they can be exploded, together with all their institutions and national documents.

PROTOCOL NO. X

TO-DAY I will begin by reiterating what has already been stated. I beg you to remember that the government and the masses are satisfied with visible results in politics. How can they examine the inner meaning of things when their representatives consider that pleasure is above everything? It is important to know one detail in our policy. It will help us in discussing division of authority, freedom of speech, of the press, of religion (faith), the right of assembly, equality before the law, inviolability of property and of the home, indirect taxes and the retrospective force of law. All such questions should never be directly and openly discussed before the masses. When it becomes necessary for us to discuss them, they should not be elaborated but merely mentioned, without going into details, pointing out that modern legal principles are being accepted by us. The significance of this reticence lies in the fact that a principle which has not been openly declared gives us freedom of action to exclude unnoticed one point or another, whereas if elaborated the principle becomes as good as established.

The people feel an especial love and admiration towards the political genius, and they always react to their acts of violence as follows:

"Yes, of course it is villainy, but how clever! — It is a trick but cleverly done! So majestically! so impudently! . . ."

We count upon attracting all nations to the construction of the foundations of the new edifice which has been planned by us. It is for this reason that it is necessary for us first of all to acquire that spirit of daring, enterprise, and force which, through our agents, will enable us to overcome all obstacles in our path.

When we accomplish our coup d'état, we will say to the peoples: "Everything went badly; all of you have suffered. We will abolish the cause of your sufferings, that is to say, nationalities, frontiers, and national currencies. Of course you are free to condemn us, but would your judgment be just if you were to pronounce it before giving a trial to what we will give you?" Thereafter they will exalt us with a sentiment of unanimous delight and hope. The voting system which we have used as a tool for our enthronement, and to which we have accustomed even the most humble members of humanity by organizing meetings and prearranged agreements, will have performed its last service and will make its last appearance in the expression of a unanimous desire to become more closely acquainted with us before having pronounced a judgment.

To attain this we must force all to vote, without class discrimination, to establish the autocracy of the majority, which cannot be obtained from the intellectual classes alone. Through this method of accustoming every one to the idea of self-determination, we will shatter the G O Y family and its educational importance. We will not allow the formation of individual minds, because the mob, under our guidance, will prevent them from distinguishing themselves or even expressing themselves. The mob has become accustomed to listen only to us who pay it for obedience and attention. We will thus create such a blind power that it will be unable to move without the guidance of our agents, sent by us to replace their leaders.

The masses will submit to this régime because they will know that their earnings, perquisites, and other benefits depend upon these leaders.

The plan of government must emanate already formed from one head, as it would be impossible to put it together if disintegration by many minds into small pieces is allowed. That is why we only are allowed to know the plan of action; but we must not discuss it in order not to affect its ingenuity, the correlation between its component parts, the practical force of the secret meaning of its every clause. Were such a plan to be submitted to and altered by frequent voting, it would reflect the stamp of the misconceptions of every one who has not penetrated its depth and the correlation of its aims. For this reason our plans must be strongly and clearly conceived. Consequently, the inspired work of our leader must not be thrown to the mercy of the mob or even of a limited group.

These plans will not immediately upset contemporary institutions. They will only alter their organization, and consequently the entire combination of their development, which will thus be directed according to the plans laid down by us.

More or less the same institutions exist in different countries under different names, such as representative bodies, ministries, senate, state council, legislative and executive bodies. It is not necessary for me to explain to you the connecting mechanism of these different institutions, as it is well known to you. I only call to your attention that every one of the aforesaid institutions fulfills some important governmental function, and, moreover, I beg you to notice that the word "important" refers not to the institution but to the function. Consequently, it is not the institutions that are important but their functions. Such institutions have divided among themselves all the functions of government, namely, administrative, legislative, and executive powers; therefore, their functions in the state organism have become similar to those in a human body. If one part of the governmental machine is injured, the state itself falls ill, in the same way as the human body, and then it dies.

When we injected the poison of liberalism into the state organism, its entire political complexion changed; the states became infected with a mortal disease, namely, the decomposition of the blood. It is only necessary to await the end of their agony.

Constitutional governments were born of liberalism, which replaced the autocracy that was the salvation of the GOYS, for the constitution, as you well know, is nothing more than a school for dispute, discussion, disagreement, fruitless party agitation, dissension, party tendencies — in other words, a school for everything which weakens the efficiency of government. The platform no less than the press condemned the authorities to inaction and impotency and thereby rendered them useless and superfluous, for which reason they were overthrown in many countries. The rise of the republican era then became possible, and then we substituted for the ruler a caricature of government — a president chosen from the mob, from among our creatures, our slaves. This was the kind of mine we laid under the GOYS, or, more correctly, under the GOY nations.

In the near future we will make the president a responsible officer, whereupon we will no longer stand on ceremony in carrying out the things for which our dummy will be responsible. What difference does it make to us that the ranks of those aiming at authority will thin out, that confusion will result from inability to find presidents, confusion which will definitely disorganize the country?

To accomplish our plan, we will engineer the election of presidents whose past record contains some hidden scandal, some "Panama" — then they will be faithful executors of our orders from fear of exposure, and from the natural desire of every man who has reached authority to retain the privileges, advantages, and dignity connected with the position of president. The Chamber of Deputies will elect, protect, and screen presidents, but we will deprive it of the right of initiating laws or of amending them, for this right will be granted by us to the responsible president, a puppet in our hands. Of course then the power of the president will become the target of numerous attacks, but we will give him the means of self-protection by giving him the right of directly applying to the people, for their decision, over the heads of their representatives. In other words, he will turn to the same blind slave — to the majority of the mob. Moreover, we will empower the president to proclaim martial law. We will justify this prerogative under the pretext that the president, as chief of the national army, must control it in order to protect the new republican constitution, which he, as a responsible representative of this constitution, is bound to defend.

It is obvious that under such conditions the keys to the shrine will be in our hands, and nobody except ourselves will be able to guide the legislative power.

We will also take away from the Chamber, with the introduction of the new republican constitution, the right of interpellation in regard to governmental measures, under the pretext that political secrets must be preserved. With the aid of this new constitution we will reduce the number of representatives to the minimum, thus also reducing to the same extent political passions and passion for politics. If, in spite of this, those remaining are recalcitrant, we will abolish them completely by appealing to the majority of the people.

The appointment of the president and vice presidents of the Chamber and Senate will be the prerogative of the president. Instead of continuous parliamentary sessions, we will shorten them to a few months. Moreover, the president, as chief executive, will have the right to convene or dissolve parliament, and in the case of dissolution, defer the appointment of a new parliament. But to prevent the president from being held responsible before our plans are matured for the results of all these essentially illegal actions inaugurated by us, we will give the ministers and other high administrative officials surrounding the president the idea of circumventing his orders by issuing instructions of their own. Consequently, they will be made responsible instead of him. We recommend that the execution of this plan be given especially to the Senate, State Council, or Council of Ministers, and not to individuals. Under our guidance the president will interpret in ambiguous ways such existing laws as it is possible so to interpret. Moreover, he will annul them when the need is pointed out to him by us: he will also have the right to propose temporary laws and even modifications in the constitutional work of government, alleging as the motive for so doing the exigencies of the welfare of the country.

By such measures we will be able to destroy gradually, step by step, everything that, upon entering into our rights, we were obliged to introduce into government constitutions as a transition to the imperceptible abolition of all constitutions, when the time comes to convert all government into our autocracy.

The recognition of our autocrat may come even before the abolition of the constitution; the moment for this recognition will come when the people, tormented by dissension and the incompetency of their rulers, incited by us, will exclaim: Depose them, and give us one universal sovereign who will unite us and abolish the causes of dissension — national frontiers, religion, state indebtedness — and who will give us the peace and quiet which we cannot find with our rulers and representatives.

But you know well that to render such a universal expression of desire possible, it is necessary continuously to disturb the relationship between the people and the government in all countries, and so to exhaust everybody by the dissension, hostility, struggle, hatred, and even martyrdom, hunger, inoculation of diseases, and misery, as to make the GOYS see no other solution than an appeal to our money and complete rule.

Should we give the people a rest, however, the longed for moment will probably never arrive.

PROTOCOL NO. XI

THE Council of State will tend to accentuate the power of the ruler; in the capacity of an ostensible legislative body, it will act as a committee for the drawing up of laws and statutes on behalf of the ruler.

THE PROTOCOLS

The following is the program of the new constitution which we are preparing. We will make laws and control the courts in the following manner:

1. By suggestions to the legislative body.
2. By means of orders issued by the president as general statutes, decrees of the Senate, and decisions of the Council of State, as regulations passed by the ministries.
3. And when the opportune moment arrives — in the form of a coup d'état.

Having thus roughly outlined the modus agendi, we will now take up in detail those measures by which we will complete the development of the governmental mechanism in the above direction. By these measures, I mean the freedom of the press, the right of assembly, religious freedom, electoral rights, and many other things which must disappear from the human repertoire, or must be fundamentally altered on the day following the declaration of the new constitution. It is only at this moment that it will become possible for us to announce all our decrees, for at any time in the future every perceptible change would be dangerous, and this for the following reasons: If these changes should be introduced and rigidly enforced, it might cause despair by creating the fear of further changes in a similar direction; if, however, they are made with a tendency to subsequent leniency, then it might be said that we have recognized our mistakes, which would undermine the faith in the infallibility of the new authority; it might also be said that we were frightened, and that we were forced to make concessions for which nobody would be thankful since they would be considered as legitimately due.

Any of these impressions would be detrimental to the prestige of the new constitution. It is necessary for us that, from the first moment of its proclamation, when the people are still dumbfounded by the accomplished revolution and are in a state of terror and surprise, they should realize we are so strong, so invulnerable, and so mighty that we shall in no case pay attention to them, and not only will we ignore their opinions and desires, but be ready to and capable of suppressing at any moment or place any sign of opposition with indisputable authority. We shall want the people to realize that we have taken at once everything we wanted, and that we shall under no circumstances share our power with them. Then they will close their eyes to everything out of fear and will await further developments.

The GOYS are like a flock of sheep — we are wolves.

Do you know what happens to sheep when wolves get into the fold?

They will also close their eyes to everything because we will promise to return to them all their liberties after the enemies of peace have been subjugated and all the parties pacified.

Is it necessary to say how long they would have to wait for the return of their liberties?

Why have we conceived and inspired this policy for the GOYS without giving them an opportunity to examine its inner meaning if not for the purpose of attaining by a circuitous method what is unattainable for our scattered race by a direct road?

This constituted a base for our organization of secret masonry which is not known to and whose aims are not even suspected by these cattle, the GOYS. They have been decoyed by us into our numerous ostensible organizations, which appear to be Masonic lodges, so as to divert the attention of their coreligionists.

God has given us, his chosen people, the power to scatter, and what to all appears to be our weakness, has proved to be our strength, and has now brought us to the threshold of universal rule.

Little remains to be built on these foundations.

PROTOCOL NO. XII

THE word "Liberty" can be differently interpreted. We will define it as follows:

Liberty is the right to do that which is permitted by law. Such a definition of this word will eventually serve us, because liberty will be in our power; and also because the laws will either destroy or construct only what we desire in accordance with the above mentioned program.

We will deal with the press in the following manner: What is the present rôle of the press? It serves to arouse furious passions or egotistic party dissensions which may be necessary for our purpose. It is empty, unjust, inaccurate, and most people do not understand what end it serves. We will shackle it and keep a tight rein on it. We will also do the same with other printed matter, for what use would it be for us to rid ourselves of attacks on the part of the periodical press if we remain open to criticism through pamphlets and books? We will convert the products of publicity, now so expensive, owing to the need of censorship, into a source of income for our state. We will impose a special stamp tax. When a newspaper printing shop is started, bonds will have to be deposited, which will guarantee our government from all attacks on the part of the press. In case of an attack, we will mercilessly impose fines. Such measures as stamps, bonds, and fines, the payment of which is guaranteed by the bonds, will bring a huge income to the government. It is true that party papers might not fear the loss of money, so we will suppress these after the second attack on us. No one shall touch the prestige of our political infallibility and remain unpunished. The pretext for stopping a publication will be that the publication in question excites public opinion without cause or reason. I ask you to bear in mind that among those who attack us there will be also organs established by us, but they will attack exclusively those points which we plan to change.

Not one notice will be made public without our control. This is already being done by us, since the news from all parts of the world is received through several agencies in which it is centralized.

These agencies will then be completely in our power and they will publish only such news as we will permit.

If we have already managed to subjugate the minds of the Goys to such an extent that almost all of them see world events through colored glasses which we put over their eyes; if, even at present, there is not one state which bars our access to state secrets, so termed by the stupid GOYS, then what will it be when we, in the person of our universal sovereign, are the recognized rulers of the world?

Let us return to the future of the press. Anybody who wishes to become an editor, a librarian, or a printer, will be obliged to obtain a diploma, which in case of disobedience will be immediately revoked.

With such measures, thought will become an educational in- strument in the hands of our government, which will not allow the people to be led astray into realms of fancy and dreams about beneficent progress. Who of us does not know that these fantastic blessings are the direct road to baseless hopes which lead to anarchistic relations between the people and the government? Progress, or better still the idea of progress, has led to the creation of different modes of emancipation without setting any limit to it. All so-called liberals are essentially anarchists in thought if not in action. Each one of them pursues the phantom of liberty, becoming self-willed, that is to say, falling into a state of anarchy by protesting for the mere sake of protesting.

We will now again refer to the question of the press. We will place stamp taxes secured by bonds on each page of all printed matter, while on books containing less than four hundred and eighty pages we will place a double tax. We will classify them as pamphlets, so as to lessen the number of magazines, which represent the worst printed poison — and on the other hand, to force writers to prepare such long works that they will be little read, especially as they will be expensive. Our own publications, guiding public opinion in the direction we desire, will be cheap and rapidly bought. The tax will discourage the writing of mere leisure literature, whereas punishment will make the writers dependent upon us. Even if there were writers who would like to attack us, they would find no publishers for their works. Before printing any work, the editor or printer will have to apply to the authorities for permission. We will then know beforehand of the attacks that are being prepared against us, and we will destroy them by coming out with advance statements on the subject.

Literature and journalism are the two most important educational forces; for this reason our government will become the owner of most of the periodicals. This will neutralize the injurious influence of the private press and have great influence on the people. If we permit ten periodicals, we ourselves will print thirty, and so forth. This, however, must not be suspected by the public. All the periodicals published by us will seem to be of contradictory views and opinions, inviting trust in us, thus attracting to us unsuspecting enemies, and in this way they will be caught in our trap and made harmless.

The predominant place will be held by periodicals of an official character. They will always stand guard over our interests and consequently their influence will be comparatively limited.

In the second category we will place semi-official organs, whose aim will be to attract the indifferent and little interested.

The third category will be our ostensible opposition, which at least in one of its publications will represent the opposition to us. Our real enemies will mistake this seeming opposition as belonging to their own group and will thus show us their cards.

All our newspapers will represent different tendencies, namely, aristocratic, republican, revolutionary, even anarchistic, so long of course as the constitution lasts. Like the Indian God VISHNU, these periodicals will have one hundred arms, each of which will reach the pulse of every group of public opinion. When the pulse beats faster, these arms will guide opinion toward our aims, since the excited person loses the power of reasoning and is easily led. Those fools who believe that they repeat the opinions expressed by the newspapers of their party will be repeating our opinions or those which we desire them to have. Imagining that they are following the press of their party, they will follow the flag which we will fly for them.

In order that our newspaper militia may carry out our program, we must organize the press with great care. Under the title of the Central Department of the press, we will organize literary meetings at which our agents unnoticed will give the passwords and countersigns. Discussing and contradicting our policies, although always superficially, without touching their essence, our press will conduct an empty fire against official newspapers so as to give us only an opportunity to express ourselves in greater detail than we were able to in our preliminary declarations. This, of course, will be done when it is useful to us.

These attacks against us will also seem to convince the people that complete liberty of the press still exists, and it will give our agents the opportunity to declare that the papers opposing us are mere wind-bags, since they are unable to find any real ground to refute our orders.

Such measures, which will escape the notice of public attention, will be the most successful means of guiding the public mind and of inspiring confidence in our government. Thanks to them, we will as the need arises excite or pacify the public mind on political questions. We will be able to persuade or confuse them, sometimes printing the truth, sometimes lies, referring to facts or contradicting them according to the way they are received by the public, always carefully sounding the ground before stepping on it. We will surely conquer our enemies, because they will not have the press at their disposal in which to express themselves in full. Moreover, with the above mentioned plans against the press, we will not even need to refute them seriously.

The trial balloons thrown out by us in the third category of our press, we will deny energetically, in case of need, in our semi-official organs.

In French journalism there already exists the Masonic solidarity of a password; all organs of the press are bound by professional secrecy; like the ancient augurs, not one member will disclose his secret if he is not ordered to do so. Not one journalist will dare to disclose this secret, for not one of them is admitted to literary headquarters unless he has a disgraceful action in his past record. The fact would immediately be made public. While these disgraceful actions are known only to a few, the prestige of the journalist attracts opinion throughout the country—he is admired.

Our plans must extend chiefly to the provincial districts. There we must excite hopes and ambitions opposed to those of the capitals, by means of which we may always attack them, presenting such ambitions to the capitals as the inspired views and aims of provincial districts. It is obvious that their source will be ours. It is necessary for us that while we are not yet in full power, the capital should be under the influence of provincial public opinion; that is under the influence of the majority prearranged by our agents. It is necessary for us that at the critical psychological moment the capitals should not discuss an accomplished fact, for the mere reason that it had been accepted by the provincial majority.

When we reach the phase of the new régime, which is transitory to our accession to power, we must not allow the press to expose social corruption. It must be thought that the new régime has satisfied everybody to such an extent that even criminality has stopped. Cases of criminal activity must only be known to their victims or their accidental witnesses, and to these alone.

PROTOCOL NO. XIII

THE need of daily bread forces the GOYS to silence and compels them to remain our obedient servants. The agents taken from among them for our press will discuss the facts they are ordered to publish, when it is inconvenient for us to publish statements openly in official documents. While discussion and dispute are taking place, we will simply pass the measures we desire and present them to the public as an accomplished fact. Nobody will dare to demand the rejection of measures thus passed, and the more so as they will be interpreted as an improvement. At this point the press will divert the thoughts of the people to new problems (we having accustomed the people always to seek new emotions). Those brainless creators of destiny, who heretofore have been unable to understand and do not now understand that they are ignorant of matters which they undertake to discuss, will also hasten to discuss these new problems. Political questions are meant to be understood only by those who have created them and have been directing them for many centuries.

From all this you will realize that by aiming to control the opinion of the mob we will only facilitate the functioning of our mechanism, and you will also notice that we seek approbation, not for actions but for words uttered by us on various occasions. We always declare that we are guided in all our policies by the hope and certainty of serving the general good.

To divert the over-restless people from discussing political problems, we now make it appear that we provide them with new problems, namely, those pertaining to industry. Let them become excited over this subject as much as they like. The masses will consent to remain inactive, to rest from so-called political activity (to which we ourselves accustomed them for the purpose of helping us in our struggle against the GOY government), only on condition of a new occupation in which we can show them supposedly the same political background.

To prevent them from reaching any independent decisions, we will divert their minds by amusements, games, pastimes, passions, and cultural centers for the people. We will soon begin to offer prize contests, through the press, in the field of art, and sports of all kinds. Such attractions will definitely deflect the mind from problems over which we would otherwise have to fight with the people. By losing more and more the custom of independent thought, they will begin to talk in unison with us, because we alone will provide new lines of thought through persons with whom of course we will presumably have no connection.

The rôle of liberal Utopians will be definitely terminated when our government is recognized. Until that time, they will do us good service. For this reason we will still direct thought towards different fantastic theories which will appear to be progressive. For it was by the word "progress" that we have successfully turned the brains of the stupid GOYS. There are no brains among the GOYS to realize that this word is but a cover for digression from the truth, unless it is applied to material inventions, since there is but one truth and there is no room for progress. Progress, being a false conception, serves to conceal the truth so that nobody may know it except ourselves, God's elect, who are its guardians.

When our kingdom is established, our orators will discuss the great problems which have stirred humanity for the purpose of bringing it finally under our blessed rule.

Who will then suspect that all these problems were instigated by us, according to a political plan which has not been disclosed by any one during so many centuries.

PROTOCOL NO. XIV

WHEN we become rulers we will not tolerate the existence of any other religion except our own, which proclaims one God, with whom our fate is bound up because we are the Chosen People, and our fate has determined the fate of the world. For this reason we must destroy all other religions. If the result of this produces modern atheists, as a transitory step, this will not interfere with our plans but will act as an example to those generations which will listen to our teaching of the religion of Moses, which, owing to its solid and thoughtful system, will eventually lead to the domination of all nations by us. We will also lay stress on the mystical truth of Masonic teaching which, we will assert, is the foundation of its whole educative power.

On every possible occasion we will then publish articles in which we will compare our beneficial rule with that of the past. The benefits of peace, although attained through centuries of unrest, will serve to demonstrate the beneficial character of our rule. The mistakes made by the GOYS during their administration will be pictured by us in the most vivid colors. We will cause such disgust towards the administration of the GOYS that the masses will prefer the peace of serfdom to the rights of the much lauded liberty which has so cruelly tortured them and drained from them the very source of human existence, and by which they were exploited by a mass of adventurers, ignorant of what they were doing. The useless changes of government, to which we ourselves prompted the Goyis, when we were undermining their governmental apparatus, will become such a nuisance to the people by that time, that they will prefer to endure anything from us rather than risk a repetition of former unrest and hardships. We will, moreover, lay particular stress on the historical mistakes made by the GOY governments, which caused humanity to suffer for many centuries for lack of understanding of all matters pertaining to its true welfare, and because of their search for fantastic schemes of social welfare. The GOYS did not notice that such schemes instead of improving mutual relationship, which is the basis of human existence, have only made it worse.

The whole force of our principles and measures will lie in the fact that they are put forward and interpreted by us as being in sharp contrast to the decayed social order of former times.

Our philosophers will discuss all the shortcomings of the GOY religion, but nobody will ever discuss our religion in the light of its true aspect, and nobody will ever thoroughly understand it, except our own people, who will never dare to disclose its secrets.

In countries so-called advanced we have created insane, dirty, and disgusting literature. For a short time after our entrance into power we will encourage its publication in order that the contrast between it and the speeches and programs which will be heard from our heights should be more pointedly marked. Our wise men, trained as guides to the GOYS, will prepare speeches, plans, memoranda, and articles, by which we will influence the minds and direct them towards the conceptions and the knowledge which we wish them to have.

PROTOCOL NO. XV

WHEN we finally become rulers by means of revolutions, which will be arranged so that they shall take place simultaneously in all countries and immediately after all existing governments shall have been officially pronounced as incapable (which may not happen soon, perhaps not before a whole century), we will see to it that no plots are hatched against us. To effect this, we will kill heartlessly all who take up arms against the establishment of our rule.

The establishment of any new secret society will be met by the death penalty, and those societies which now exist and are known to us and either work or have worked for us, will be disbanded and their members exiled to continents far removed from Europe.

We will deal in the same manner with those Masons among the Goyis who know too much. The Masons whom we may pardon for any reason will be kept under continual fear of exile. We will pass a law whereby all members of secret organizations will be exiled from Europe, that being the center of our government. The decisions of our government will be final and there will be no right of appeal.

In the GOY society, where we have planted such deep roots of dissension and protest, order can only be restored by merciless measures which will serve as evidence that our power cannot be infringed. There is no necessity for regard towards the victims sacrificed for the future good. To attain good, even though by the sacrifice of life, is the duty of every government which realizes that its existence depends not upon privileges alone, but upon the exercise of its duties as well.

The most important means for erecting a stable government is to strengthen the prestige of authority. This is only obtained by its majestic and unshakable power, which will convey the impression that it is inviolable because of its mystical nature, namely, because chosen by God. Such until recently has been the Russian Autocracy — our only dangerous enemy throughout the world, with the exception of the Pope. Remember Italy drowning in blood; she did not touch a hair on the head of Sulla who had shed that blood. Sulla had become powerful in the eyes of the people, although they were tortured by him; his manly return to Italy placed him beyond persecution. The people do not touch those who hypnotize them by bravery and steadfastness of spirit.

Meanwhile, until our rule is established, we, on the contrary, will organize and multiply free masonic lodges in all the countries of the world. We will attract to them all those who are and who may become public-spirited, because in these lodges will be the chief source of information and from them will emanate our influence.

All these lodges will be centralized under one management, known only to us and unknown to all others; these lodges will be administered by our wise men. The lodges will have their own representative in this management in order to screen the above mentioned Masonic government; he will give the password and elaborate the program. We will tie the knot of all revolutionary liberal elements in these lodges. Their membership will consist of all strata of society. The most secret political plans will be known to us and will fall under our leadership on the very day of their origination. Among the members of these lodges will be almost all the agents of the international and national police, whose work is indispensable for us, inasmuch as the police not only are able to take independent measures against the rebellious, but may also serve to mask our actions, provoke discontent, and so forth.

Most people who become members of secret societies are adventurers, career makers, and irresponsible persons in general, with whom we will have no difficulty in dealing and who will help us to set in motion the mechanism of the machine planned by us. If this world becomes perturbed, it will only prove that it was necessary for us to disorganize it so as to destroy its too great solidarity. If a plot is laid, it must be headed by one of our most trustworthy servants. It is only natural that we want nobody but ourselves to guide the work of the Masons,¹ for we know where we are trending, we know the final aim of every action. The GOYS, however, understand nothing, not even the immediate results. They are usually concerned about the momentary satisfaction of their ambitions in achieving their intentions. They do not notice, however, that the intention itself was not initiated by them, but that it was we who gave them the idea.

¹ It is important to point out that some of the Jews themselves in their writings have claimed that Masonry is largely controlled by

The GOYS become members of the lodges out of pure curiosity, or hoping to receive their share in the public funds. There are others who come for the purpose of seizing the opportunity of putting before the public their impossible and baseless hopes. They long for the emotion of success and for the applause which we grant them lavishly. We create their success in order to utilize the self-deception that is born with it and by which people, without noticing, begin to follow our suggestions without suspecting them, and being fully convinced that their infallibility originates its own ideas and, therefore, does not need those of others. You have no idea how easy it is to bring even the most intelligent GOYS to a state of unconscious credulity, and, on the other hand, how easy it is to discourage them by the smallest failure, or merely by ceasing to applaud them, thus bringing them into servitude for the sake of achieving new success. To the same extent as our people ignore success for the sake of carrying out their plans, so are the GOYS ready to sacrifice all their plans for the sake of success. Their psychology makes the problem of direction easier for us. Those tigers in appearance have the souls of sheep and nonsense filters through their heads. As a hobby we have given them the dream of submerging human individualism through the symbolic idea of collectivism.

They have not yet discovered and will not discover that this hobby is a clear infringement on the principal law of nature, which, from the beginning of the world, created a being unlike all others, precisely for the sake of expressing his individuality.

If we were able to lead them to such insane and blind

Jewish influence. In this connection the statement of Dr. Isaac M. Wise may be recalled:

"Masonry is a Jewish institution whose history, decrees, charges, passwords and explanations are Jewish, from the beginning to the end, with the exception of only one by-decree and a few words in the obligation." (Dr. Isaac M. Wise, The Israelite, August 3rd and 17th, 1855; quoted by Samuel Oppenheim in his pamphlet "Jews and Masonry in the United States before 1810," American Jewish Historical Society, New York, 1910, No. 19, pp. 1, 2.)

beliefs, does it not obviously prove the low level of development of the GOY mind as compared to our mind? It is precisely the thing which guarantees our success.

How far sighted were our wise men of old when they said that to attain a serious object one must not stop at the means, nor should one count the victims sacrificed to the cause. We have not counted the victims from among the GOYS, those seeds of cattle. Although we have sacrificed many of our own peoples, we have already given them in return a formerly undreamed-of position on earth. The comparatively few victims from among our own people have saved our race from destruction.

Death is the unavoidable end of all. It would be better to accelerate this end for those who interfere with our cause than for our people or for us, ourselves, the creators of this cause, to die. We kill Masons in such a way that none but the brothers suspect, not even the victims; they all die when it is necessary, apparently from a natural death. Knowing this, even the brethren, in their turn, dare not protest. It is through such measures that we have uprooted the heart of protest against our orders from among the Masons. Preaching liberalism to the GOYS, at the same time we hold our people and our agents under iron discipline.

Through our influence the enforcement of the GOY laws has been reduced to a minimum. The prestige of the law has been undermined by the liberal interpretations introduced by us. The courts decide as we dictate the most important principles, both political and moral, viewing the cases in the light presented by us for the GOY administration. This we accomplished naturally through agents, with whom we have ostensibly no connection, namely, through the press or otherwise. Even senators and high officials blindly follow our advice. The purely animal mind of the GOYS is incapable of analysis and observation, and even less so of foreseeing to what results the development of the principle involved in a case may lead.

It is through this difference in the process of reasoning between us and the GOYS that it becomes possible clearly to demonstrate the stamp of God's elect as compared to the instinctive and bestial mentality of the GOYS. They see, but they cannot foresee, and they cannot invent anything except material things. It is clear, therefore, that nature herself intended us to rule and guide the world.

When the time comes for our open rule, then will be the time to show its benefits, and we will change all the laws. Our laws will be short, clear, irrevocable, and requiring no interpretation, so that everybody will be able to know them thoroughly. The chief point emphasized in them will be a highly developed obedience to authority, which will eliminate all abuses, for all without exception will be responsible before the supreme power vested in the highest authority.

Abuse of power by minor officials will then disappear, because it will be punished so mercilessly that they will lose the desire to experiment with their power. We will closely watch every action of the administration, upon which depends the action of the government machinery, for corruption there creates corruption everywhere; not a single violation of law or act of corruption will remain unpunished. Acts of concealment and willful neglect on the part of governmental officials will disappear after they have seen the first example of severe punishment. The prestige of power necessitates that appropriate, that is to say severe, punishments should be inflicted even for the smallest violations of the sanctity of the supreme authority, committed for the sake of personal gain. The guilty, if punished severely, will be like a soldier who falls on the battlefield of administration for the sake of Authority, Principle, and Law; these principles do not allow any digression from their social function for a personal motive, even on the part of those who rule. For instance: Our judges will know that by attempting to show stupid mercy, they overstep the law of justice, which was created solely for exemplary punishment of crimes and not for the manifestation of moral qualities on the part of the judge. Such qualities are commendable in private, but not in public life, which constitutes the educational forum of human life.

The personnel of our judges will not remain in office after the age of fifty-five. First, because old people adhere more persistently to prejudiced opinions and are less capable of submitting to new commands; and secondly, because that enables us to achieve a certain flexibility of change in the personnel, which will bend more easily under our pressure. He who wishes to retain his position will have to obey blindly.

In general, our judges will be selected only from among those who will clearly understand that they must punish people and enforce the laws, and not indulge in dreams of liberalism at the expense of the educational plan of the government, as is now imagined by the GOYS. The method of changing the personnel will also serve to undermine the collective solidarity of the governmental officials and will attach them to the cause of the government, which decides their fate. The younger generation of judges will be so educated as to prevent any criminal activity which might interfere with the inter-relationship which we have established for our subjects.

At present the GOY judges, lacking a clear conception of the nature of their duties, make exceptions to all kinds of crimes. This occurs because the present rulers, when appointing judges, do not take the trouble to encourage the sense of duty and conscientiousness in the work to be performed by them. As the animal sends out its young in search of prey, so the GOYS are giving their subjects responsible offices without taking the time to explain their functions. Owing to this, their rule is undermined by their own efforts and through the actions of their own administration. Let us use the result of such actions as one more example of the advantage of our own rule.

We will eliminate liberalism from all the important strategic positions in our administration upon which depend the training of our subjects for our social order. These positions will be given only to those who have been trained by us for governmental work.

In answer to a possible remark, that the putting of old officials on the retired list may prove expensive for the treasury, I can state first, that, prior to their dismissal, some private work will be found for them to replace what they are losing, and secondly, I may also remark, that all the world's money will be concentrated in our hands; consequently, our government need not fear expense.

Our autocracy will be consistent in every respect, and consequently every manifestation of our great power will be respected and unconditionally obeyed. We will ignore grumbling and discontent, and all active manifestations of either will be suppressed by punishment, which will serve as an example to the rest of the people.

We will abolish the right of appellate courts to annul judicial decisions, which will become the exclusive prerogative of the sovereign, for we cannot permit the people to think that an incorrect decision may possibly be rendered by the judges appointed by us. Should, however, such an error happen, we ourselves will annul the decision; but the punishment which we will impose upon the judge for misconception of his duties and of his responsibility will be so severe that it will eliminate the very possibility of a recurrence. I repeat that we will watch every step taken by our administration in order to enable us to satisfy the people, for they have a right to demand a good appointee from a good administration.

In the person of our sovereign, our government will bear the appearance of a patriarchal or fatherly tutelage. The people, our subjects, will see in him a father who takes care of every need, every action, and who is concerned with every relationship, both among the subjects themselves and between them and the sovereign.

Thus, they will become imbued with the idea that it is impossible for them to do without this guardian and guide if they wish to live in a world of peace and quiet. They will recognize the autocracy of our sovereign, whom they will respect and almost deify, especially when they realize that our agents do not usurp his power, but merely execute his orders blindly. They will be glad that everything is regulated in their lives, as is done by wise parents who wish to educate their children to a sense of duty and obedience. With regard to the secrets of our political plans, both the masses and their administration are like little children.

As you can see for yourselves, I base our despotism upon right and duty; the right of forcing the performance of duty is the direct function of government, acting as the father to its subjects. It is the right of the strong to utilize his power in order to lead humanity towards a social order established by the law of nature, namely, obedience. Everything in the world is subject, if not to some other persons, then to circumstances, or to its own nature; but in any case, to something stronger than itself. Consequently, let us be the strongest for the common good.

We must sacrifice without hesitation those individuals who violate the existing order, for in exemplary punishment of evil there lies a great educational problem.

THE PROTOCOLS

When the King of Israel places the crown offered to him by Europe on his sacred head, he will become the Patriarch of the World. The necessary sacrifices made by him will never equal the number of victims sacrificed to the mania of greatness during the centuries of rivalry between the GOY governments.

Our sovereign will be in constant communication with the people, delivering from tribunes addresses which will be spread to all parts of the world.

PROTOCOL NO. XVI

FOR the purpose of destroying all collective forces except our own, we will nullify the universities, the first stage of collectivism, by reconstructing them along new lines. Their directors and professors will be trained for their work through detailed secret programs of action, from which they will not be able to deviate in the least with impunity. They will be appointed with special care and will be so placed as to be completely dependent upon the government.

We will exclude from the curriculum civic law, as well as all that touches upon political questions. These subjects will be taught only to a few dozen selected for their striking ability from among the initiated. The universities must not allow the callow youths to graduate who concoct plans of constitutions as they do comedies or tragedies, or who meddle with political matters which even their fathers do not understand.

Poorly directed study of political questions by a great number of people creates Utopians and poor citizens, as you can judge by the universal education as conducted by the GOYS along those lines. It was necessary for us to infiltrate into their educational system such principles as have successfully broken down their social order. When we are in power, we will eliminate all disturbing subjects from educational systems and will make young people obedient children of their superiors, loving the sovereign as their assurance of hope, peace, and quiet.

For the study of the classics and ancient history, which contain more bad than good examples, we will substitute a program dealing with the future. We will obliterate from the memory of the people all those facts pertaining to former centuries which are not to our advantage, leaving only those which emphasize the mistakes of the GOY governments. The study of practical life, of obligatory social order, of the inter-relationship of human beings, the avoidance of evil, egotistical examples that plant the seed of evil, and other questions of a pedagogical nature, will head the educational program. This program will differ for each caste, never allowing education to be of a uniform character. Such a system is of special importance.

Each caste must be educated with strict limitations, according to its particular occupation and the nature of the work. Accidental genius has always been able and always will be able to rise to a higher caste; but, for the sake of this rare exception, to open the door to the inefficient, and to admit them to higher castes or ranks, enabling them to occupy positions of others born and trained to fill them — is absolute insanity. You, yourself, know what happened to the GOYS when they yielded to this nonsense.

In order to implant the sovereign firmly in the minds and hearts of his subjects, it is necessary to acquaint the people, during his term of office, both in schools and in public places, with the importance of his activity and the benevolence of his enterprises.

We will abolish all unlicensed teaching. Students will have the right to gather, with their relatives, in their colleges as if in clubs. During these gatherings, on holidays, the teachers will read supposedly unbiased lectures on problems of human relationship, on the law of imitation, on the cruelty of unrestricted competition, and finally, on new philosophical theories which have not yet been disclosed to the world.

We will promote these theories into dogmatic beliefs, using them as stepping-stones to our faith. After having presented our program of action for the present and for the future, I will read to you the principles of these theories.

In short, knowing from the experience of many centuries that men live and are guided by ideas, that these ideas are imbued only by means of education given to persons of all ages, of course by different methods but meeting with equal success, we will absorb and appropriate to our own advantage the last traces of independent thought, which for a long time have been directed to the goal and to the ideas necessary to us. The system of enslaving thought is already in action through so-called visual education.

This system tends to turn the GOYS into thoughtless, obedient animals, expecting to see in order to understand. In France one of our best agents, Bourgeois, has already announced a new program of visual education.

PROTOCOL NO. XVII

THE lawyer's profession makes people grow cold, cruel, stubborn and unprincipled, and compels them to take an abstract or purely legal viewpoint in all matters. They have learned to consider solely the personal gain derived from every case they handle and not the possibility of the social benefit of its results. They rarely refuse to take a case and always strive for acquittal at all cost, clinging to minor technical points of a legal nature. In this way they demoralize the courts. Therefore we will limit this profession, converting it into an executive public office. Lawyers will be deprived of the right of contact with their clients on the same basis as are the judges. They will receive their cases only from the court, preparing them on the strength of written reports and documents and defending their clients after they have been examined in court on the basis of the facts obtained during the trial. They will receive a salary, regardless of whether the defense has been successful or not. They will act as simple exponents of the case on behalf of the defense in counterbalance to the public prosecutor, who will act as exponent on behalf of the prosecution. This will shorten legal procedure and establish an honest and impartial defense, conducted not for the sake of personal gain, but based on the personal conviction of the lawyer. This will also eliminate the existing bribery among fellow lawyers and prevent their allowing the side to win which pays.

We have already taken care to discredit the clergy of the GOYS and thus to undermine their function, which at the present time could have been very much in our way. Their influence over the people diminishes daily.

To-day freedom of religion has been proclaimed everywhere; consequently, it is only a question of a few years before the complete collapse of Christendom. It will be still easier to deal with other religions, but it is too early to discuss this problem. We will confine clericalism and clericals within such a narrow field that their influence will have an effect opposite to what it used to have.

When the moment comes to annihilate the Vatican completely, an invisible hand, pointing towards this court, will guide the masses in their assault. When, however, the masses attack, we will come forward as defenders to prevent too much bloodshed. By this method we will penetrate its very heart and will not leave it until we have undermined its power.

The King of Israel will become the real Pope of the Universe, the Patriarch of the International Church.

But until we have accomplished the re-education of the youth to new transitional religions and finally to our own, we will not openly attack the existing churches, but will fight them by means of criticism, thus creating dissension.

In general, our press will denounce governmental activities and religion, and will expose the inefficiency of the GOYS in the most unscrupulous terms, so as to humiliate them to such an extent as only our ingenious race is capable of doing. Our rule will simulate the God Vishnu, who resembles us physically; each of our hundred hands will hold one of the springs of the social machine. We will see everything without the aid of the official police; in its present organization, however, which we have worked out for the GOYS, the police prevent the government from seeing anything. According to our program, one-third of our subjects will watch the others from a pure sense of duty, as volunteers for the government. Then it will not be considered disgraceful to be a spy and an informer; on the contrary, it will be regarded as praiseworthy. Unfounded reports, however, will be severely punished to prevent abuse of this privilege.

Our agents will be recruited both from among the highest and the lowest ranks of society; they will be selected from among the pleasure-loving governmental officials, editors, printers, booksellers, salesmen, workmen, drivers, butlers, etc. This police force will have no official rights or credentials, which give opportunity for the abuse of power, and consequently it will be powerless; it will merely act as observer and will make reports. The verification of such reports and the issue of warrants for arrests will rest with a responsible group of police controllers. The actual arrests, however, will be made by a gendarme corps or the municipal police. In case of failure to report any political matter which has been observed or rumored, the person who should have reported it may be brought to trial for concealment of crime, if it is proven that he is guilty.

In the same way that our brethren are now under obligation to report on their own initiative on all apostates, or on any person marked as being opposed to the Kehillah, so in our Universal Kingdom it will be obligatory for all subjects to serve the state in that direction.

Such an organization will eliminate all abuse of power and various kinds of coercion and corruption, in fact, the very things which have been introduced into the customs of the GOYS by our councils and by the theories of the rights of supermen. But how otherwise could we foment the increasing causes for disorder in the midst of their administration? What other means could we use? Among these means, one of the most important is the employment of such agents for the preservation of order as are in a position to manifest their own evil inclinations in the course of their destructive work, namely, their self-will, abuse of authority, and, most important of all, bribery.

PROTOCOL NO. XVIII

WHEN the time comes for us to strengthen the measures of police protection (the most terrible poison for the prestige of authority), we will artificially organize disorder or simulate the expression of discontent with the aid of experienced orators. These orators will be joined by sympathizers. This will give us the pretext for searches and special restrictions which will be put in force by our servants among the GOY police.

As most conspirators work as amateurs for the sake of chattering, we will not disturb them until we see that they are about to take action; but we will introduce in their midst secret service agents. It must be remembered that the prestige of authority diminishes if conspiracies against it are often discovered, for that leads to the presumption of the weakness of the authority, or, what is worse, to the admission of its own mistakes. You are aware that we have destroyed the prestige of the ruling GOYS by frequent attempts made on their lives through our agents, who were but blind sheep of our flock, easily moved, by a few liberal phrases, to crimes, so long as they were of a political nature. We have forced the rulers to admit their own weakness by adopting open measures of police protection, and thereby we have ruined the prestige of their authority.

Our sovereign will be protected only by the most invisible guard, because we will never allow any one to think that conspiracy might exist against him which he is unable to combat and from which he has to hide himself. If we were to allow this thought to prevail, as it prevails among the GOYS, we would thereby sign the death warrant, if not of the sovereign himself, then of his dynasty in the near future.

Observing strict decorum, our sovereign will use his power only for the benefit of the people, but never for his own good or for that of his dynasty. By strictly adhering to this decorum, his authority will be respected and protected by his subjects; moreover, he will be worshiped, because it will be known that upon his authority depends the well-being of every citizen of the kingdom, and the stability of the social order itself.

To guard the sovereign openly is equivalent to an admission of the weakness of his governmental organization.

Our sovereign, when amidst his people, will always appear to be surrounded by a crowd of curious men and women, who will stand beside him as though accidentally and will hold back the other people as though through respect for order. This example will implant an idea of self-restraint in others. If there be a person in the crowd trying to present a petition, and working his way through the ranks, the person nearest to him must take the petition and present it to the sovereign in sight of the petitioner himself, so that all may know that the petition presented has reached its destination and consequently that there exists a control of affairs on the part of the sovereign himself. The prestige of authority demands that the people should be able to say, "If only the king could know it," or, "The king will know about this."

With the establishment of an official police guard the mystical prestige of authority vanishes at once; with a certain amount of audacity, every one considers himself superior to authority; the assassin realizes his strength and only has to watch his opportunity to make an attempt against an official. We preached differently for the GOYS, but we can see the results to which open methods of protection have led them.

We will arrest criminals upon the first more or less well-founded suspicion. Because of the fear of a possible mistake political criminals should not be given the opportunity to escape; indeed towards political crime we will show no mercy. If, in exceptional cases, it may seem possible to allow the investigation of motives which have led to ordinary criminal offences, there is no excuse for those who attempt to deal with matters which no one can understand except the government. Moreover, not even all governments are capable of understanding the right policy.

PROTOCOL NO. XIX

TH O U G H we will not allow individuals to become involved in politics, we will, on the other hand, encourage the submission for the approval of the government of all petitions and reports containing suggestions and plans for bettering the condition of the people. This will bring to our knowledge the shortcomings or merely the fantastic aspirations of our subjects. These suggestions we will answer either by favorable action or by refusals proving the lack of intelligence and the errors of those who have submitted such suggestions.

Sedition is nothing but the barking of a lap dog at an elephant. From the point of view of a government which is well organized, not from the police standpoint but with regard to its social basis, the lap dog barks at the elephant because he does not realize his strength. It is only necessary for the elephant to show his strength once and the dog barks no more; he begins to wag his tail the moment he sees the elephant.

In order to eliminate the prestige of martyrdom from political crime, we will seat the political criminal on the same bench with thieves, murderers, and other disgusting and dirty criminals. Then public opinion will regard that class of criminals as quite as disgraceful as any other, and will brand them with equal contempt.

We have endeavored to prevent, and I hope have succeeded in preventing, the GOYS from using such methods of dealing with seditious activities. In order to attain this end, we have made use of the press and public speeches; indirectly, through cleverly compiled historical textbooks, we have given publicity to martyrdom as though revolutionists had undergone it for the sake of human welfare. Such an advertisement has increased the contingent of liberals and forced thousands of GOYS into the herds of our cattle.

PROTOCOL NO. XX

TO-DAY we shall deal with the financial program, the discussion of which I have postponed until the end of my report because it is the most difficult, conclusive, and decisive point in our plans. In approaching it, I will remind you that I have already intimated that the result of our actions is measured in figures.

When we become rulers, our autocratic government, for the sake of self-defense, will avoid burdening the people with heavy taxes, and it will not forget the rôle it has to play, namely, that of Father and Protector. But as government organization is costly, it is necessary to raise the means for its maintenance. Consequently, we must carefully work out the plan of a fair distribution of taxation.

In our government the sovereign will have the legal fiction of owning everything in his kingdom (which is easily put into practice), and can resort to legal confiscation of all money in order to regulate its circulation throughout the country. Consequently, the best method of taxation is the levying of a progressive tax on property. Taxes will thus be paid without difficulty or ruin in respective proportion to the amount of property owned. The rich must realize that it is their duty to give a part of their surplus wealth for the benefit of the country as a whole, because the government guarantees inviolability of the remaining part of their property and the right of honest gain. I say honest because the control of property will prevent legal theft.

This social reform must come from above, for the time is ripe and it is becoming necessary as a guarantee of peace.

The tax on the poor is the seed of revolution, and it acts detrimentally to the government, which loses the great in its pursuit of the little. Moreover, the taxation of capital will lessen the increase of wealth in private hands, in which at present we have concentrated it as a counterweight to the governmental power of the GOYS, namely, to the state treasury.

Progressive taxation, assessed according to the amount of capital, will produce a much greater revenue than the present system of taxing every one at an equal rate, which is useful to us now only as a means of exciting revolt and discontent among the GOYS. The power of our sovereign will rest mainly in equilibrium and in guarantees of peace. For these, the capitalists must cede a part of their income so as to protect the action of the government machine. Public needs must be met by those who can best afford to do so and by those from whom there is something to take.

Such a measure will eliminate the hatred of the poor towards the rich, as they will be regarded as the financial supporters of the state and the upholders of peace and prosperity. The poor will also see that the rich are providing the necessary means to insure this end.

To prevent intelligent taxpayers from being too discontented with the new system of taxation, they will be furnished with detailed reports of the disbursement of public funds, exclusive of such as are appropriated for the needs of the throne and administrative institutions.

The sovereign will not own property, since everything in the state will seem to belong to him and these two conceptions would contradict each other. Private means would eliminate his right to own everything.

The relatives of the sovereign, aside from his descendants who will also be supported by the state, must join the ranks of government officials, or otherwise work for the right of holding property. The privilege of being of royal blood must not entitle them to rob the state treasury.

Sales, profits, or inheritances will be taxed by a progressive stamp tax. The transfer of property, whether in cash or otherwise, without the required stamp, will place the payment of the tax on the original owner, dating from the time of the transfer until the time of the reported failure to record the transaction. Transfer vouchers must be shown weekly at the local branch of the state treasury, together with a statement of the names, surnames, and the permanent addresses both of the original and of the new owner. The recording of the names of those participating in a transaction will be necessary in all transactions involving more than a certain amount for ordinary expenditure. The sale of prime necessities will be taxed only by a stamp tax, which will represent a certain small per cent of the cost of the particular article.

Just calculate how many times the amount received from such taxes will exceed the income of the GOY governments.

The state bank must keep a definite reserve fund, and all sums in excess must be put back into circulation. The cost of public works will be met out of this surplus fund. The initiative of such works emanating from the government will also tie the working class to the interests of the government and the rulers. Some of this money will be allotted to prizes for inventions and for the purposes of production.

Even small sums in excess of a certain definite and broadly calculated fund, should not be allowed to be kept in the state treasury, because money is intended to circulate, and every impediment to circulation is detrimental to the governmental mechanism, which the money lubricates; the congestion of lubricating substances can stop the proper functioning of the mechanism.

The substitution of bonds for a part of the currency has created just such an impediment. The result of this has already become sufficiently evident.

We will also establish an auditing office, so as to enable the sovereign to find at all times a full account of state revenues and expenses, except for the current month not yet made up, and that of the previous month not yet presented.

The only person who will not be interested in robbing the state treasury will be the sovereign, its owner. This is the reason why his control will prevent the possibility of loss or misappropriation.

Receptions for the purpose of etiquette, which waste the valuable time of the sovereign, will be abolished, because the ruler needs time for control and thought. Then his power will not be frittered away on the people surrounding the throne for the sake of appearance and brilliance, and who have only their own and not the public interest in mind.

The economic crises were created by us for the GOYS only by the withdrawal of money from circulation. Huge amounts of capital were kept idle and were taken away from the nations, which were thus compelled to apply to us for loans. Payment of interest on these loans burdened the state finances and made the states subservient to capital. The concentration of industry having taken production out of the hands of the artisan and put it into the hands of capitalists, sucked all the power out of the people and also out of the state.

The present issue of money generally does not coincide with the need per capita, and consequently it cannot satisfy all the needs of the working classes. The issue of currency must correspond with the increase in population, and children must be reckoned as consumers from the day of their birth. The revision of the issue of currency is an essential problem for the whole world.

You know that gold currency was detrimental to the governments that accepted it, for it could not satisfy the requirements for money, since we took as much gold as possible out of circulation.

We must issue a currency based on the value of the working power, whether it be of paper or wood. We will issue money in proportion to the normal demands of every subject, adding a certain amount at every birth and decreasing it with every death.

Every department (the French administrative divisions),¹ every district, will be in charge of its own accounts.

To avoid any delay in paying government expenses, the terms of such payments will be decreed by order of the sovereign; this will eliminate any favoritism of the ministry (of finance)² over any other department to the detriment of the others.

The budget of revenues and the budget of expenditure will be placed side by side, in order that they may always be compared with each other.

² The words in parentheses are inserted by the editors.

THE PROTOCOLS

We will present plans for the reform of the GOY financial institutions and of their principles, as planned by us, in such a manner that nobody will be frightened. We will demonstrate the need of reform by the disorderly twaddle produced by the financial disorganization of the GOYS. We will show that the first reason for this confusion lies in the drafting of rough estimates for the budget, which increases from year to year. This annual budget is with great difficulty made to last during the first half of the year; then a revised budget is demanded and the funds thus allotted are spent in the next three months, after which a supplementary budget is called for and all this is wound up by a liquidation budget. As the budget of the following year is based on the total expenditure of the preceding year, the divergence from the normal reaches fifty per cent annually, so that the annual budget trebles every ten years. Owing to such a procedure, resulting from the carelessness of the Goy governments, their treasuries became empty. The period of loans followed and used up the remainder and brought all the GOY states to bankruptcy.

You can well understand that such a management of financial affairs as we induced the GOYS to pursue cannot be adopted by us.

Every loan proves the impotency of the government and its failure to understand its own rights. Loans, like the sword of Damocles, hang above the heads of the rulers, who instead of placing temporary taxes on their subjects, stretch forth their hands and beg the charity of our bankers. Foreign loans are leeches, which can never be removed from the governmental body until they either fall off themselves or the government itself manages to get rid of them. But the GOY governments instead of throwing them off increase their number, so that these governments must inevitably perish through self-inflicted loss of blood.

Indeed, what is a loan, especially a foreign loan, if not a leech? A loan is the issuance of government obligations which involve the liability to pay interest in proportion to the sum borrowed. If the loan pays five per cent, then in twenty years the government has unnecessarily paid in interest an amount equal to the principal sum borrowed. In forty years it has paid twice; in sixty years it has trebled the sum, while the loan still remains an unpaid debt.

From this calculation it is evident that under the system of universal taxation the government takes the last penny from the poor taxpayers in the form of taxes in order to pay interest to foreign capitalists, from whom the money was borrowed, instead of collecting these same pennies for its needs free from all interest.

So long as the loans were domestic, the Goys only shifted the money from the pockets of the poor into those of the rich; but when we bribed the proper persons to make the loans foreign, then national riches poured into our hands and all the GOYS began to pay us the tribute of subjects.

The carelessness of the reigning GOYS in statemanship, the corruption of their ministers, the ignorance of other officials of financial problems, has forced their countries into debt to our banks to such an extent that they can never pay off their debts. It should be realized, however, that we have gone to great pains in order to bring about such a state of affairs.

Impediments to the circulation of money will not be allowed by us, and therefore there will be no government bonds, except one per cent bonds, so that the payment of interest should not deliver the power of the state to the sucking of leeches. The right of issuing bonds will be exclusively granted to industrial corporations, which will easily pay the interest out of their profits. The government, however, does not derive profit on borrowed money as these corporations do, since the state borrows money for expenditure and not for production.

Industrial bonds will also be bought by the government, which instead of being, as at present, the payer of tribute on loans, will become a sound creditor. Such a measure will prevent stagnation in the circulation of money, as well as indolence and laziness, which were useful to us so long as the Goys remained independent, but are not wanted by us in our government.

How apparent is the shortsightedness of the purely bestial brains of the GOYS! It manifested itself when they borrowed money for at interest. It did not occur to the GOYS that, at any rate, this money, with the additional interest on it, would have to be taken from the resources of the country and paid to us. Would it not have been more simple to take the needed money from their own people?

I direct your express attention to the above circumstance, as also to the following: At present all domestic loans are consolidated into so-called floating debts; in other words, into those whose terms of payment are more or less close at hand. Such debts consist of money placed in savings banks. Being at the disposal of the government, for a considerable length of time, these funds vanish in the payment of interest on foreign loans, and they are replaced by an equal amount of government securities. The latter cover all the deficits in the government treasuries of the Goys.

When we mount the throne of the universe, such financial expedients, being detrimental to our interests, will vanish. We will also destroy all stock exchanges, for we will not allow the prestige of our authority to be shaken by the shifting of the prices of our securities. We will fix the full price of their value legally without any possibility of its fluctuation. (A rise leads to a fall, and this was precisely what we did to the GOY stocks and bonds at the beginning.)

We will replace the stock exchanges by great government credit institutions, whose functions will be to tax commercial values according to governmental plans. These institutions will be in a position to throw daily on the market 500,000,000 shares of industrial stocks, or to buy up a like amount. Thus all industrial enterprises will become dependent upon us. You can well imagine what power that will give us.

PROTOCOL NO. XXII

IN all that I have hitherto reported to you I have carefully tried to show you a true picture of the mystery of present events, as also of those of the past, which all flow into the stream of great events, the results of which will be seen in the near future. I have exposed our secret plans which govern our relations with the GOYS, as well as our financial policy. There remains but little to add.

We hold in our hands the greatest modern power — gold. In the course of two days we can get it from our treasuries in any desired quantity.

Is there any more need for us to prove that our rule is decreed by God? Do we not prove by such wealth that all the doubled, trebled, and even more, loaning the G O Y governments money which in reality was not needed by the states at all. Who could do the same with regard to us? Therefore, I will only set forth details in regard to domestic loans.

In announcing such a loan, the governments open a subscription to their bonds. To make them accessible to all, they vary the denomination from one hundred to thousands, and the first subscribers are allowed to buy below face value. The following day the price is artificially raised on the pretext that everybody hurried to buy the bonds. In a few more days there is a pretense that the treasury is filled and that it is not known what to do with the money, which has been oversubscribed. (What was the use of taking it?) The subscription is evidently considerably in excess of the amount asked for. Therein lies the effect, for it is thus demonstrated that the public has confidence in the government obligations.

But after the comedy has been played the fact of the debt appears, and it is usually a heavy one. In order to pay the interest, new loans have to be issued, which do not liquidate but increase the original debt. Then when the borrowing capacity of the government has been exhausted, it becomes necessary to meet the interest on the loan—not the loan itself—by new taxes. These taxes are nothing but a debit used to cover a debit.

Then comes the period of conversions, but these only decrease the payment of interest while they do not annul the debts. Moreover, they cannot be made without the consent of the bondholders. When a conversion is advertised, an offer is made to return the money to those who are not willing to convert their bonds. If everybody were to demand his money, the government would be caught in its own net and would be unable to return all the money. Fortunately, the G O Y subjects, ignorant of financial affairs, always preferred to suffer a fall in the value of their securities and a reduction of interest to the risk of new investments; thus, they have given these governments more than one opportunity of throwing off a deficit of several millions. At present, with the existence of foreign loans, the GOYS cannot play such tricks, for they know that we would demand all the money back.

Thus, an avowed bankruptcy will be the best proof of the lack of common interest between the people and their government.

THE PROTOCOLS

I direct your express attention to the above circumstance, as also to the following: At present all domestic loans are consolidated into so-called floating debts; in other words, into those whose terms of payment are more or less close at hand. Such debts consist of money placed in savings banks. Being at the disposal of the government, for a considerable length of time, these funds vanish in the payment of interest on foreign loans, and they are replaced by an equal amount of government securities. The latter cover all the deficits in the government treasuries of the Goys.

When we mount the throne of the universe, such financial expedients, being detrimental to our interests, will vanish. We will also destroy all stock exchanges, for we will not allow the prestige of our authority to be shaken by the shifting of the prices of our securities. We will fix the full price of their value legally without any possibility of its fluctuation. (A rise leads to a fall, and this was precisely what we did to the GOY stocks and bonds at the beginning.)

We will replace the stock exchanges by great government credit institutions, whose functions will be to tax commercial values according to governmental plans. These institutions will be in a position to throw daily on the market 500,000,000 shares of industrial stocks, or to buy up a like amount. Thus all industrial enterprises will become dependent upon us. You can well imagine what power that will give us.

PROTOCOL NO. XXII

IN all that I have hitherto reported to you I have carefully tried to show you a true picture of the mystery of present events, as also of those of the past, which all flow into the stream of great events, the results of which will be seen in the near future. I have exposed our secret plans which govern our relations with the GOYS, as well as our financial policy. There remains but little to add.

We hold in our hands the greatest modern power — gold. In the course of two days we can get it from our treasuries in any desired quantity.

Is there any more need for us to prove that our rule is decreed by God? Do we not prove by such wealth that all the evil which we were forced to do during so many centuries has served in the end to true happiness—to the restoration of order? Although by means of violence, order will nevertheless be established. We will be able to prove that we are benefactors, who have brought true welfare and individual freedom to the tortured world, insuring at the same time the possibility of enjoying peace, quiet, and dignity of relationships, upon the sole condition, of course, that obedience to the laws established by us is practiced. We will also make it clear that freedom does not mean license and in doing whatever people please, no more than dignity and power imply the right to propound destructive doctrines, like freedom of conscience, equality, and similar things. Individual freedom by no means imports the right of disturbing oneself and others, disgracing oneself by making ridiculous speeches in disorderly gatherings, and implies that true liberty means individual inviolability through an honest and strict obedience to social laws; that moreover, human dignity implies the conception of one's rights as well as the idea of legal inhibitions which prohibit fantastic dreams about the Ego.

Our power will be glorious because it will be mighty; it will rule and guide, and not helplessly crawl after leaders and orators, shouting insane words which they call great principles, and which in reality are simply Utopian. Our power will lead to order, which, in turn, brings happiness to the people. The prestige of this power will excite mystical adoration, and the peoples will bow before it. True power does not yield to any right, even be it that of God. None will dare approach it in order to deprive it even of an atom of its might.

PROTOCOL NO. XXIII

TO teach the people obedience they must be taught modesty, and to accomplish this the production of luxuries must be limited. We will thus improve customs, demoralized by rivalry, resulting from luxury.

We will restore handicraft, which will undermine the private capital of manufacturers. This is necessary, because big manufacturers often influence, although not always consciously, the thoughts of the people against the government.

A people, practicing handicraft, does not know what unemployment means, and this makes them cling to existing conditions and consequently to the power of authority. Unemployment is most dangerous for a government. It will have finished its work for us as soon as authority falls into our hands.

Drunkenness will also be forbidden by law and will be punishable as a crime against human decency, for man becomes bestial under the influence of alcohol.

Once more I state, that people obey blindly only the hand that is strong and entirely independent of them, in which they see a sword of defense and a stronghold against the blows of social misfortune. Why should the sovereign have an angel's heart? They want to see in him the personification of might and power.

The sovereign who will replace the present existing governments, dragging along their existence in the midst of a society demoralized by us, which denies even the power of God and from whose midst rises on all sides the flames of anarchy, must primarily undertake to extinguish this all-consuming fire. Therefore, he must destroy such a society, if necessary drown it in its own blood, in order to resurrect it as a well-organized army, which consciously struggles against the infection of any anarchy affecting the state organism.

He, God's elect, is chosen from above for the purpose of crushing the insane forces that are moved by instinct and not by intellect, by bestiality and not by humanitarianism. These forces are now triumphant, and assume the form of robberies and all kinds of violence exercised in the name of liberty and of right. They have destroyed all social order, so as to establish the throne of the King of Israel; but their rôle will be ended with his coming into power. Then it will be necessary to sweep them from his path, on which not a twig or an impediment shall remain.

Then we will say to the peoples: Pray to God and bow before him who bears the mark of predestination, to whom God Himself showed His Star, so that none but He Himself should free you from all sinful forces and from evil.

PROTOCOL NO. XXIV

NOW I shall refer to the manner in which we will strengthen the dynastic roots of King David so as to cause this dynasty to endure until the last day. This method will consist chiefly of the same principles which enabled our Wise Men to conserve their power to cope with universal problems and to guide the education of the thoughts of humanity at large.

A few members of the seed of David will train the sovereigns and their successors, who will be selected not by right of inheritance, but according to their personal ability. To them the deep political mysteries and the plan of our rule will be confided, but in such a wise manner that nobody will know these secrets. The aim of this method is to prove to all that power will not be given to the uninitiated in the mysteries of political art.

Only such people will be taught how to apply the above mentioned plans in practice, by comparing them with the experiences of many centuries, and only they will be initiated in the conclusions drawn from all the observations of political, economic, and social movements and sciences; in short, only they will know the true spirit of the laws, irrevocably established by nature for the purpose of regulating human relationship.

Direct descendants of the sovereign will often be prevented from inheriting the throne if, during the period of their study, they show signs of frivolity, lenience, or other tendencies detrimental to authority, which would make them incapable of government and dangerous to the prestige of the Crown.

Only those of an undoubtedly able and firm, even cruel character, will receive the reins of government from our Wise Men.

In case of illness, loss of will-power, or any other form of inefficiency, the sovereigns will be compelled to hand over the reins of government to new and able hands.

The sovereign's immediate plan of action and its application in the future will be unknown even to the so-called closest advisers.

Only the sovereign and his three sponsors will know the future.

In the person of the sovereign, with his immovable will over himself and humanity, all will recognize Fate itself with her mysterious paths. Nobody will know the aims of the sovereign when he issues his orders, and thus nobody will dare oppose him.

Naturally the mental capacity of the sovereign must be equal to the plan of rule herein contained. For this reason he will not mount the throne before a test of his mind is made by the above mentioned Wise Men.

To make people know and love their sovereign, it is necessary that he should address the people in public places, thus establishing harmony between the two forces, now separated from each other by mutual terror. This terror was necessary for us until the time came to make both forces fall under our influence.

The King of Israel must not be influenced by his passions, especially by sensuality. No particular element of his nature must have the upper hand and rule over his mind. Sensuality, more than anything else, upsets mental ability and clearness of vision by deflecting thought to the worst and most bestial side of human nature.

The Pillar of the Universe in the person of the World Ruler, sprung from the sacred seed of David, must sacrifice all personal desires for the benefit of his people.

Our sovereign must be irreproachable.

Part Two

EVIDENCE AS TO ORIGIN AND AUTHENTICITY

I. PARALLELISM BETWEEN THE ACTUAL POLICIES OF THE BOLSHEVIKI AND THE PROTOCOLS

THE most striking fact in connection with the Protocols is the close resemblance which their ruthless program bears in many respects to the policies actually put into effect by the Bolsheviks in Russia. Indeed, without this fact before us, the necessity for a serious consideration of the Protocols would be much less apparent. If the evidence shows that the Bolshevik movement is a movement conducted under Jewish leadership and principally controlled by Jews, and, furthermore, that it closely corresponds with the political program outlined in the Protocols, then, indeed, we have facts of grave significance supporting the authenticity of the Protocols.

1. JEWISH CHARACTER OF THE BOLSHEVIST MOVEMENT IN RUSSIA

With regard to the question as to how far the Bolshevik movement is a Jewish movement in the sense that it is under Jewish control, there is some disagreement. Certain prominent Jews in this country, while admitting that most of the Bolshevik leaders in Russia are Jews, claim that this is a mere coincidence, and claim further that the Bolshevik leaders are only apostate Jews who do not adhere to the Jewish religion.¹ The evidence, however, is not very convincing on either point, for on the one hand the proportion of Jews among the Bolshevik leaders in Russia is so large that it strongly tends to show that it is not accidental but must be otherwise explained, while on the other hand, as to the allegation of apostasy, this seems to be principally based upon evidence that the Jewish leaders in Russia are denouncing religion in general on the ground that it is the bulwark of the capitalistic system and the enemy of the Socialistic State, in accordance with the teachings of Karl Marx and his followers. Such evidence, however, does not prove very much if in practice only the Christian church is actually attacked.

¹ The Jewish sayings cited in this volume show that some of the great Jewish leaders maintain that the apostasy of a Jew in the matter of religion does not prevent him from remaining for all other purposes a Jew, or release him from his obligations as such.

It is important to note in this connection that Karl Marx himself was a Jew, as are also practically all of the best known leaders of radical socialism, such as Bebel, Bernstein, Lassalle, Hillquit, the brothers Adler (in Austria), etc. The legend now prominently displayed by the Bolsheviks in Russia, that "religion is the opium of the people," was the saying of Karl Marx himself, while it was Bebel who said: "Christianity and Socialism stand towards each other as fire and water."

Moreover, there is evidence that there has been a marked persecution of Christian priests and their congregations by the Bolsheviks, and that the Jewish rabbis have not been molested. Generally speaking, we believe that the preponderance of evidence strongly tends to show that Bolshevism is Jewish in character in the sense that it is under the control principally of Jews who occupy, either openly or secretly, almost all of the positions of importance in the Soviet government in Russia. This was equally true in regard to the recent Spartacus and Bolshevik revolutions in Germany and Hungary. The one important exception is Lenin himself, Trotzky and almost all the other important Bolshevik leaders to-day being members of the Jewish race.

Evidence that the Bolsheviks in Russia have conducted a campaign of persecution against the Christian religion, while protecting the Jewish religion, will be considered below under the heading, "The Destruction of Religion and Christianity." For the present we shall confine ourselves to other evidence which tends to show that the Bolshevik movement in Russia is under Jewish leadership and may be regarded as primarily a Jewish movement.

THE PROTOCOLS

(a) Testimony before the Overman Committee

The testimony of a number of reliable witnesses before the Overman Committee is to the effect that from the very beginning the leadership of the Bolshevik revolution in Russia has been principally Jewish and that the movement had powerful support from Jews returning to Russia in the spring of 1917.

This testimony was taken early in the year 1919 and is contained in the printed Senate Report (a public document) entitled, "Bolshevik Propaganda — Hearings before a Subcommittee of the Committee on the Judiciary, United States Senate, Sixty-fifth Congress, pursuant to S. Res. 439 and 469."

Among the witnesses who testified as to the Jewish character of the Bolshevik movement before the Senate Committee was Dr. George A. Simons, a Methodist clergyman who had been for many years in charge of a church and other property belonging to the American Methodists in Petrograd. He was there during the Kerensky régime and during the Bolshevik régime until October 6, 1918.

Dr. Simons testified that "at the beginning of the so-called new régime [Kerensky's] there was a disposition to glorify the Allies and to make a great deal of what the French Revolution had stood for; within from six to eight weeks there was an undercurrent just the opposite, and things began to loom up in a pro-German way."

He then told of the arrival of Lenin from Switzerland via Germany, and of Bronstein (alias Trotzky) from New York, and how they conducted a vigorous agitation in Russia while Kerensky was "running up and down the front." He then goes on to testify as follows:

MR. SIMONS. "Kerensky was spending a good deal of his time running up and down the front, trying to hearten the Russian soldiers in their warfare, and he was generally accredited with being a fine orator and doing splendid work, and I do not doubt but what he did manage to keep the men longer than they otherwise would have stayed in, but we were told there were hundreds of agitators who had followed in the trail of Trotzky-Bronstein, these men having come over from the lower East Side of New York. I was surprised to find scores of such men walking up and down Nevsky. Some of them, when they learned that I was the American pastor in Petrograd, stepped up to me and seemed very much pleased that there was somebody who could speak English, and their broken English showed that they had not qualified as being real Americans; and a number of these men called on me, and a number of us were impressed with the strange Yiddish element in this thing right from the start, and it soon became evident that more than half of the agitators in the so-called Bolshevik movement were Yiddish."

SENATOR NELSON. "Hebrews?"

MR. SIMONS. "They were Hebrews, apostate Jews. I do not want to say anything against the Jews, as such. I am not in sympathy with the anti-Semitic movement, never have been, and do not ever expect to be. I am against it. I abhor all pogroms of whatever kind. But I have a firm conviction that this thing is Yiddish, and that one of its bases is found in the East Side of New York."

SENATOR NELSON. "Trotzky came over from New York during that summer, did he not?"

MR. SIMONS. "He did."

SENATOR OVERMAN. "You think he brought these people with him?"

MR. SIMONS. "I am not able to say that he brought them with him. I think that most of them came after him, but that he was responsible for their coming."

MR. SIMONS further states (Senate Report, p. 114):

"The latest startling information, given me by some one who says that there is good authority for it — and I am to be given the exact figures later on and have them checked up properly by the proper authorities — is this, that in December, 1918, in the northern community of Petrograd, so-called — that is what they call that section of the Soviet régime under the presidency of the man known as Mr. Apfelbaum — out of 388 members, only 16 happened to be real Russians, and all the rest Jews, with the exception possibly of one man, who is a negro from America, who calls himself Prof. Gordon, and 265 of the members of this northern commune government, that is sitting in the old Smolny Institute, came from the lower East Side of New York — 265 of them. . . . In fact, I am very much impressed with this, that moving around here I find that certain Bolshevik propagandists are nearly all Jews — apostate Jews. I have been in the so-called People's House, at 7 East Fifteenth Street, New York, which calls itself also the Rand School of Social Science, and I have visited that at least six times during the last eleven weeks or so, buying their literature, and some of the most seditious stuff I have ever found against our own Government, and 19 out of every 20 people I have seen there have been Jews."

On the same page, referring to a pamphlet written by one Albert Rhys Williams, Dr. Simons states:

"I have analyzed certain questions and answers, especially with regard to this paragraph on religion, and I have no doubt in my mind that the predominant element in this Bolshevik movement in America is, you may call it, the Yiddish of the East Side."

On page 116 the witness further states:

"I was impressed with this, Senator, that shortly after the great revolution of the winter of 1917 there were scores of Jews standing on the benches and soap boxes, and what not, talking until their mouths frothed, and I often remarked to my sister, 'Well, what are we coming to, anyway? This all looks so Yiddish.' Up to that time we had very few Jews, because there was, as you may know, a restriction against having Jews in Petrograd; but after the revolution they swarmed in there, and most of the agitators happened to be Jews. I do not want to be unfair to them, but I usually know a Jew when I see one."

In a subsequent part of his testimony, he says:

"I had occasion to speak with people who were working and people who were not bourgeois, I interviewed hundreds, and I asked them, 'Well, what do you think of this thing?' 'Well, we know that it is first of all German, and second, we know that it is Jewish. It is not a Russian proposition at all.' That became so popular that as you moved through the streets in Petrograd in July and August and September and the beginning of October, openly they would tell you this, 'This is not a Russian Government; this a German and Hebrew Government.' And then others would come out and say, 'And very soon there is going to be a big pogrom.' As a result of that, hundreds of Bolshevik officials who happened to be Jews were sending their wives and their children out of Petrograd and Moscow, afraid that the pogrom would really come." (p. 132).

On page 142 of his testimony Dr. Simons introduced a list of names, which he said was widely circulated in Petrograd in August, 1917, giving the real names and the Jewish names of the most important Bolshevik leaders. This list is as follows:

THE PROTOCOLS

" 1. Chernoff	Von Gutmann
2. Trotzky	Bronstein
3. Martoff	Zederbaum
4. Kamkoff	Katz
5. Meshkoff	Goldenberg

7. Suchanoff	Gimmer
8. Dan	Gurvitch
9. Parvuss	Gelfdand
10. Kradek	Sabelson
11. Zinovyeff	Apfelbaum

16. Goryeff	Goldmann
17. Zwezdin	Wanstein
18. Lieber	Goldmann
19. Ganezky	Fürstenberg
20. Roshal	Solomon"

Dr. Simons also testified that when the Bolsheviks came into power the Yiddish language at once became predominant in official proclamations and posters. He says:

"I might mention this, that when the Bolsheviks came into power, all over Petrograd we at once had a predominance of Yiddish proclamations, big posters, and everything in Yiddish. It became very evident that now that was to be one of the great languages of Russia; and the real Russians, of course, did not take very kindly to it."

On page 135 Dr. Simons states:

"Trotzky is a Jew. His real name is Leon Bronstein."

Testimony of Mr. William Chapin Huntington

Mr. Huntington was Commercial Attaché of the United States Embassy at Petrograd from June, 1916, until September, 1918. He was in Petrograd at the outbreak of the Bolshevik coup d'état in November, 1917, and remained there until February, 1918, when he was sent on a mission to Siberia by Ambassador Francis, in his testimony before the Overman Committee, stated that Dr. George A. Simons is an absolutely reliable and trustworthy man (p. 977), and that the same is true of Mr. Roger E. Simmons, whose testimony is cited below.

THE PROTOCOLS

Ambassador Francis. When he returned to Russia he remained in Moscow from May, 1918, until August 26, 1918. He states on page 47:

"The Bolsheviks are internationalists, and they were not interested in the particular national ideals of Russia."

On page 69 he testified:

"The leaders of the movement, I should say, are about two-thirds Russian Jews and perhaps one-sixth or more of some of the other nationalities, like the Letts, or the Armenians."

Testimony of Mr. William W. Welsh

Mr. Welsh was employed by the National City Bank and was in Russia from October, 1916, until September, 1918. He states on page 269:

"In Russia it is well known that three-fourths of the Bolshevik leaders are Jewish."

In regard to the men who went to Russia from the East Side of New York, at the outbreak of the revolution, he stated:

"There were some — not many, but there were some — real Russians; and what I mean by real Russians is Russian-born, and not Russian Jews."

The witness also stated that he knew "several cases" in which well-to-do Jews had been persecuted in the same way as other Russian bourgeois. On page 270 he states:

"Bolshevism cannot be explained along racial lines alone. The Bolsheviks are made up of the very worst elements of many races. It is important, however, that Jews in this country should not favor Bolshevism because of any liberties or privileges which they may think are being accorded to the Jews in Russia by the Bolsheviks. They should study the facts carefully and not be prejudiced by any racial feeling, or they are sure to bring the odium of Bolshevism unjustly to the door of the Jew. The best Jews in this country would do well to brand the Jewish Bolsheviks in Russia as anti-Jews, which they really are, for they bring nothing but discredit to the Jewish race."

THE PROTOCOLS

Testimony of Roger E. Simmons

Mr. Simmons was Trade Commissioner, connected with the United States Department of Commerce, who was in Siberia and Russia from July, 1917, until November, 1918. He was in Vologda in July, 1918, and gives a graphic account of his imprisonment there by the assistant of the commissar of that community, a man named Iduke. He says:

"Iduke is a Lettish Jew, a man of a very irascible nature, and, on account of his experience in the uprising in Yaroslav, where the protest against the Bolshevik régime had become formidable, he had the reputation of being the cruelest and the most bloodthirsty Bolshevik leader of the revolution."

Mr. Simmons then narrates how he himself escaped execution only because he succeeded in bribing a Lettish soldier who had been in America to deliver a letter to the Swedish Consul General. An English subject who was imprisoned with him in the same cell was actually executed. Shortly before his death this Englishman said to Simmons:

"I do not like the situation. I don't understand these people. They are not Russians. I don't know why they accuse me, nor what they are going to do with me."

Testimony of an Anonymous Witness

Another witness, who was allowed to withhold his name, testified before the Senate Committee that he left Petrograd November 6, 1917, the night the Bolshevik uprising took place. His testimony on page 321 of the Senate Report is as follows:

"With regard to the industrial conditions before the Bolshevik rising started, with the revolution of March, 1917, we found that there were quite a number of so-called Americans who had returned to Russia almost immediately after the revolution, commencing, probably, to arrive in April of 1917."

SENATOR NELSON. "What sort of people were they? They were people who had been here, were they not?"

MR. _____. "People who had been in this country."

SENATOR NELSON. "Were they Hebrews?"

MR. _____. "A large number of them were — that is Hebrew by race, non-Slavs — and we were continually meeting

these men on all sorts of labor conditions, (committees?) to regulate the hours of labor and the rates of remuneration, and quite a number of them spoke English."

Testimony of Theodor Kryshtofovich

This witness testified that he left Petrograd on December 15, 1918, and that he had been there continuously for the three years previous to that date; that he belonged to no political party in Russia, but had lived among the peasants and workmen, teaching them agriculture. He at one time had been employed by the Russian Department of Agriculture, as an agent, in the United States.

On page 424 he testified in regard to the Jewish aspect of the movement as follows:

"And, besides these refugees, most of the people that are governing Russia now are Jews. I am not against Jews in general. They are a very capable and energetic people, but, as you Americans say, the right man must be in the right place. Their place is in the commission houses, in banks, in the offices, but not in the government of a fine agricultural country. They do not understand anything about agriculture, about production, about keeping materials, and about distribution. They do not know anything about those things at all."

SENATOR WOLCOTT. "You mean those that are in charge of the Bolsheviki, do you not?"

MR. KRYSHTOFOVICH. "I am talking about the Bolsheviki; because if you take out Bolshevik government, Lenin is a Russian and all these constellations that are turning around this sun are Jews. They have changed their names. For instance, Trotzky is not Trotzky, but Bronstein. We have Apfelbaum, and so on, and so on."

(b) Other Evidence

It is important that other official documents pertaining to the Bolshevik activities in Russia also refer to the question which we are now discussing, namely, the Jewish character of the Bolshevik régime. In this connection we quote from the British White Book, Russia No. 1 (1919), entitled "A Collection of Reports on Bolshevism in Russia, presented to Parliament by Command of His Majesty. April, 1919."

This document was published in London at the government printing office in 1919. In exhibit No. 33, a cablegram dispatched by Mr. Alston to Earl Curzon, from Vladivostok to London, February 8, 1919 ("telegraphic — following from consul at Ekaterinburg, 6th February"), the following is stated:

"From examination of several labourer and peasant witnesses, I have evidence to the effect that very smallest percentage of this district were pro-Bolshevik, majority of labourers sympathising with summoning of Constituent Assembly. Witnesses further stated that Bolshevik leaders did not represent Russian working classes, most of them being Jews" (Page 33).

In a cable dispatch from General Knox to the British War Office on February 5, 1919, from Omsk, Siberia, details are given as to the murder of the Imperial Russian family. This cable reads in part as follows:

"With regard to the murder of the Imperial family at Ekaterinburg, there is further evidence to show that there were two parties in the local Soviet, one which was anxious to save Imperial family, and the latter, headed by five Jews, two of whom were determined to have them murdered. These two Jews, by name Vainen and Safarof, went with Lenin when he made a journey across Germany" (page 41).

Again, in a report made by Rev. B. S. Lombard to Earl Curzon on March 23, 1919, referring to the results of the Bolshevik régime in Russia, among other things, the following is stated:

"All business became paralyzed, shops were closed, Jews became possessors of most of the business houses, and horrible scenes of starvation became common in the country districts. The peasants put their children to death rather than see them starve. In a village on the Dvina, not far from Schlusselburg, a mother hanged three of her children" (page 57).

Mr. Henry C. Emery, formerly Chairman of the United States Tariff Board, recently wrote a treatise on Bolshevism, of which Lord Bryce has said:

"It seems to me the sanest and clearest exposition of Bolshevik theory and practice that I have seen and confirms my view that between them and us there can be no peace."

Mr. Emery comes to the conclusion that Bolshevism is the promotion of a relentless and universal class war, and that "a Bolshevik is a man who believes in the overthrow of the institution of private property by force of arms." While this is the definition which he gives of Bolshevism as a movement, and his argument in support of it is certainly a very able one, it is interesting to note what he says in regard to the Jewish support of the movement:

"In the minds of some people, especially in Russia, Bolshevism takes on the color of a revolt of the Jews against the Russians, who have so long kept them in subjection. Lenin is of course a pure Russian, and it is a mistake to say that all the other leaders of importance are Jews. On the other hand, the Jews have been active in the movement out of all proportion to their relative numbers. No one who ever made a visit to Smolny Institute, when that was the headquarters of the Bolshevik government at Petrograd, could fail to understand how easy it was to get the impression that the Jews had at last seized the power."

Mr. Robert Wilton, a well-known Englishman, who was the Petrograd correspondent of the London Times, and a Knight of St. George, in his book entitled "Russia's Agony," refers to the part which the Jews played in undermining the Kerensky government and establishing the Bolshevik rule:

"Subversion had been carried out by a handful of pseudo-Jew Extremists in the Soviet, but the Soviet was a party to the traitorous business. Most of the leaders — especially the pseudo-Jews — were a truculent pack, cowering behind the soldiery, intent upon realizing their revolutionary 'ideals,' but terrified by a possibility of failure and eventual reprisals."

The author also states:

"Afterwards their numbers [referring to the Jew Extremists in the Soviet] increased largely, and although they studiously concealed their identity under assumed Russian or Polish names, it became known that the principal ones were: Nahamkez — Steklov, Apfelbaum — Zinoviev, Rosenfeldt — Kamenev, Goldmann — Gorev, Goldberg — Mekowski, Zederbaum — Martov, Himmer — Sukhanov, Krachman — Zagorski, Hollander — Mieszkowski, Lourier — Larim, Seffer — Bogdanov. Among the leaders of this gang — under Lenin — were: Trotzky, whose real name was Bronstein, and Feldmann, alias Chernov."

In the well-known French periodical L'Illustration, issued September 14, 1918, an article appeared under the title "Petrograd under the Commune," from which we reproduce the following extract:

"The Masters of the Hour.

"The Bolshevik Movement and the Jews of Russia.

"When one lives in contact with the functionaries who are serving the Bolshevik government, one feature strikes the attention, which is that almost all of them are Jews.

"I am not at all anti-Semitic but I must state what strikes the eyes: everywhere in Petrograd, in Moscow, in Provincial Districts, in all commissariats, in district offices, in Smolny, in the former ministries, in the Soviets, I have met nothing but Jews and again Jews.

"A Jew is this District Commissary, former stock broker, with a double bourgeois chin. A Jew is this commissary of the bank, very elegant, with a cravat of the latest style, and a fancy waistcoat. Again a Jew, this inspector of taxes, with his hooked nose: he understands perfectly how to squeeze the bourgeois in order to cover the deficit in the Bolshevik budget which amounts for the first half year, 1918, to 14,000,000,000 rubles! Jewish are these little stenographers, these secretaries: the same hooked noses, the same jet black hair.

"The more one studies the second revolution the more one is convinced that Bolshevism is a Jewish movement which can be explained by the special conditions in which the Jewish people were placed in Russia."

In the London Times of March 29, 1919, the following article appeared, entitled "Bolshevist Portraits III. Some Commissaries":

"One of the most curious features of the Bolshevik movement is the high percentage of non-Russian elements amongst its leaders. Of the twenty or thirty commissaries or leaders who provide the central machinery of the Bolshevik movement not less than 75% are Jews. . . .

"If Lenin is the brains of the movement, the Jews provide the executive officers. Of the leading commissaries, Trotzky, Zinoviev, Kameneff, Stekloff, Sverdloff, Uritsky, Joffe, Radek, Menjinsky; Larin, Bronski, Zaalkind, Voldarsky, Petroff, Litvinoff, Smirdovitch, and Vovrovsky are all of the Jewish race, while amongst the minor Soviet officials the number is legion. Of all the Bolshevik leaders Petrovsky, the Commissary for the Interior, and a former member of the Duma, is practically the only one who in any way could be described as a working man. The rest are all intellectuals of bourgeois or paid bourgeois origin."

THE PROTOCOLS

In the issue of "ASIA" February-March, 1920, there is an article entitled "Inside Soviet Russia." The author of the said article, Mr. V. Anichkoff, is a well-known Russian scientist. Among other things, he states as follows:

"In all the Bolshevik institutions the heads are Jews. The Assistant Commissar for Elementary Education, Grunberg, can hardly speak Russian. The Jews are successful in everything and obtain their ends. They know how to command and get complete submission. But they are proud and contemptuous to everyone, which strongly excites the people against them. Anti-Semitism in a strong degree has spread in all grades of the people. The people are inclined to see in the Jews the culprits of all their woes. They look on Bolshevism as a Jewish affair, and Anti-Semitism is widely spread in the Red army. The Red soldiers openly and strongly express their hatred of the Jews. One Red soldier related before me that he was discharged, and that at all the hospitals and halting stages the doctors and their assistants and nurses were Jews; that a Jewish doctor snatched the cross from one of his comrades and said: 'That is not wanted now, it has been done away with,' but that he did not let the doctor do the same to him. At the present time there is a great national religious fervor among the Jews. They believe that the promised time of the rule of God's elect on earth is coming. They have connected Judaism with a universal revolution. They see in the spread of revolution the fulfilling of the Scriptures: 'Though I make an end of all the nations, whether I have scattered thee, yet will I not make an end of thee.' Bound up with the overwhelming part taken by Jews in the Revolution, an interest in masonry, Zionism and the mission of the Jews have spread among educated Russians."

("ASIA," February-March, 1920, p. 223).

We also refer the reader to the testimony of a well-known Jewish periodical published in London, The Jewish Chronicle, as to the identity of Bolshevism and Judaism. In part the article states as follows:

"There is much in the fact of Bolshevism itself, in the fact that so many Jews are Bolsheviks, in the fact that the ideals of Bolshevism at many points are consonant with the finest ideals of Judaism." (See Jewish Chronicle, No. 2609, April 4, 1919, p. 7, article entitled "Peace, War, and Bolshevism.")

It is significant that one of the well-known Jewish leaders, Israel Zangwill, addressing a recent conference of the Poale Zion Congregation in London, glorified "the race which has produced a Beaconsfield, a Reading, a Montagu, a Klotz, a Kurt Eisner, a Trotzky" (quoted from The Jewish Chronicle, February 27, 1920, No. 2656, p. 28). Referring to this statement, La Vieille-France says, "Thus, Trotzky is, in fact, the hero of Judaism" (No. 164, March 18-24, 1920).

It is important to note that the Jewish character of the Bolshevik movement which is so accentuated in Soviet Russia was equally apparent in Soviet Hungary when that country was under the Red rule of Bela Cohen (Kuhn). Mr. Edward Dillon in his book "The Inside Story of the Peace Conference," devotes much attention to this subject. Referring to the situation in Hungary, Mr. Dillon states as follows, at page 224.

"By the first of August the lawless band that was ruling the country relinquished the reins of power which were taken over at first by a Socialist Cabinet of which an influential French press organ wrote: 'The names of the new . . . commissaries of the people tell us nothing, because their bearers are unknown. But the endings of their names tell us that most of them are, like those of the preceding government, of Jewish origin. Never since the inauguration of official Communism did Budapest better deserve the appellation of Judapest, which was assigned to it by the late M. Lueger, chief of the Christian Socialists of Vienna. That is an additional trait in common with the Russian Soviets.' "

In this same connection the weekly magazine The New Witness, published in London, in its issue of April 11, 1919, remarked as follows:

"It is not only among the Allies that the Jewish influence is making itself felt. We know what a tight grip they have on the governments at Petrograd and Berlin. It now appears that the new government of Hungary is dominated by Jews. Ninety-five per cent of Hungarians are Christians and eighty per cent of the ministers are Hebrew. This fact becomes the more remarkable when we are told that the ministers are nearly all mediocrities."

The Jewish character of the Bolshevik movement in Russia has been explicitly referred to in the Bolshevik press itself. In substantiation of this we present the following evidence:

In No. 1 of the Russian weekly newspaper, On to Moscow, published on September 23, 1919, in Rostov on the Don, an article was published, entitled "Not one Drop of Innocent Blood." The article reads as follows:

THE PROTOCOLS

"In the newspaper 'Communist,' issued on April 12, 1919, No. 72, which paper was published in the City of Kharkoff, 13 Karl Liebnecht Street, telephone No. 8-40, Mr. M. Cohan, in his article 'Services of the Jewry to the working class,' wrote as follows:

"'Various kinds of reactionary regimental organizations and radas are working out agrarian "laws," are giving away the land to the workmen, are establishing an eight-hour day, and throwing out other crumbs to the working masses with the sole object to remain in power. But let us unmask them and let us see what there is behind this servile mask. Let us, for instance, analyze their attitude towards the Jews. On all the territory which is occupied by the Don, Kuban and Voluntary gangs, the Jews are being annihilated and oppressed. One is unable to trace a Jew holding any office, be it important or unimportant, and this is called "equality and fraternity." The Voluntary executioners scream about their humanitarianism and at the same time they oppress a whole nation which always had the esteem of the whole world. It should not be forgotten that the Jewish people, who for centuries were oppressed by kings and czars, are the real proletariat, the real internationale, which has no country.'

"Without exaggeration, it may be said that the great Russian social revolution was indeed accomplished by the hands of the Jews. Would the dark oppressed masses of the Russian workmen and peasants have been able to throw off the yoke of the bourgeoisie by themselves? No, it was precisely the Jews who led the Russian proletariat to the dawn of the Internationale, and not only have led, but are also now leading the Soviet cause which remains in their safe hands. We may be quiet as long as the chief command of the Red Army is in the hands of comrade Leon Trotzky. It is true that there are no Jews in the ranks of the Red Army as far as privates are concerned, but in the committees and in Soviet organizations, as commissars, the Jews are gallantly leading the masses of the Russian proletariat to victory. It is not without reason that during the elections to all Soviet institutions the Jews are winning by an overwhelming majority. It is not without reason, let us repeat, that the Russian proletariat has elected as its head and leader the Jew comrade Bronstein-Trotzky. The symbol of Jewry, which for centuries has struggled against capitalism, has become also the symbol of the Russian proletariat, which can be seen even in the fact of the adoption of the Red five-pointed star, which in former times, as it is well-known, was the symbol of Zionism and Jewry. With this sign comes victory, with this sign comes the death of the parasites of the bourgeoisie, and let the supporters of Denikine, Krasnov and Kolchak tremble, these oppressors and executioners of the advance guard of Socialism — of the gallant Jewish people. Their servility before the working masses will not help them, and Jewish tears will come out of them in sweat of drops of blood."

The publishers of the newspaper "On to Moscow" print a footnote to the article of Mr. Cohan which reads:

"The issue of the newspaper 'Communist' is kept at the office and everybody is invited to ascertain its authenticity."

2. PARALLELISM BETWEEN PROTOCOLS AND BOLSHEVIST POLICIES

(a) The Policy of Terror

It will be recalled that the Protocols advocate a mass terror, a "program of violence." In this connection also the actual Bolshevik policies are in complete harmony with the program of the Protocols. With reference to this point it becomes important to quote the Krasnaya Gazeta (Red Gazette), the official organ of the Petrograd Soviet of Workers', Red Army, and Peasants' Deputies, which body is presided over by Zinovieff, alias Apfelbaum, a Jew. On August 31, 1918, in an editorial article, the following is stated:

"The interests of the revolution require the physical annihilation of the bourgeois class. It is time for us to start."

More explicitly the program of violence is defined by the same paper on September 1, 1918, in an article entitled "Blood for Blood." Therein it is stated:

"We will turn our hearts into steel, which we will temper in the fire of suffering and the blood of fighters for freedom. We will make our hearts cruel, hard, and immovable, so that no mercy will enter them, and so that they will not quiver at the sight of a sea of enemy blood. We will let loose the flood-gates of that sea. Without mercy, without sparing, we will kill our enemies in scores of hundreds. Let them be thousands; let them drown themselves in their own blood. For the blood of Lenin and Uritzki, Zinovieff and Volodarski, let there be floods of blood of the bourgeois — more blood, as much as possible."

Mr. Zinovieff — Apfelbaum went into further details as to the number of Russians whom he proposed to kill for the sake of Mr. Trotzky's régime. In a speech of Zinovieff's, reported in the Northern Commune, published in Petrograd on September 19, 1918, No. 109, the following plain statement is quoted:

"To overcome our enemies we must have our own socialist militarism. We must win over to our side 90,000,000 of the 100,000,000 of population of Russia under the Soviets. As for the rest, we have nothing to say to them; they must be annihilated."

To be sure that the Jewish Bolsheviks were not boasting, the following report of the American Consul General at Moscow, dated September 3, 1918, is of the utmost significance. This report, which was published in the "Memorandum on Certain Aspects of the Bolshevik Movement in Russia," Washington, Government Printing Office, 1919, reads in part as follows:

"Since May the so-called Extraordinary Commission to Combat Counter-revolution has conducted an openly avowed campaign of terror. Thousands of persons have been summarily shot without even the form of trial. Many of them have no doubt been innocent of even the political views which were supposed to supply the motive of their execution."

The American Consul General concludes his report by stating:

"The situation cries aloud to all who will act for the sake of humanity." *

Trotzky made an attempt to justify "mass terror" in an article signed by him in the official daily newspaper Izvestia on January 10, 1919, under the title "Military Specialists and the Red Army." In this article Trotzky states among other things as follows:

"Terror as the demonstration of the will and strength of the working class, is historically justified, precisely because the proletariat was able thereby to break the political will of the Intelligentsia, pacify the professional men of various categories and work, and gradually subordinate them to its own aims within the fields of their specialties." *

The London Times of November 14, 1919, printed a letter "sent by a British Officer in South Russia to his wife" stating that "the letter is published exactly as sent, except that names and dates have been altered so that the writer and his wife will not be embarrassed." The officer appeals to his wife to do all she can to put before the British public the information which he gives her as to the atrocities committed by the Bolsheviks which he had himself witnessed while fighting with the army of General Denikin.

"The Bolsheviks are devils. . . . I hope to send you copies of 64 official photos taken by British officers at Odessa when the town was retaken from the Bolsheviks. . . . As no paper will print them I suggest that you should have copies done. If we're too hard up you could pay for them by sending me no parcels, or selling my Caucasian dagger, or Persian book, or something. And I suggest that you should then do with them as you think fit, to make them most widely known. Their horror may make people realize. They must realize. By God, they shall realize! They show men who've been crucified with the torture of the 'human glove.' The victim gets crucified, nails through his elbows. The hands are treated with a solution which shrivels the skin. The skin is cut out with a razor, round the wrist, and peeled off, till it hangs by the finger nails — the 'human glove.' I'm not sparing you. I hope you'll show and send them to everybody we know. People at home, apathetic fools they are, do not deserve to be spared. They must be woken up. John and Katie ought to see them. Most of the photos are of women. Women with their breasts cut off to the bone. . . . Two little bits, ref. Bolshevik atrocities, you might type in as many copies as you can. If you and several others left them in different tea-shops every afternoon, it might touch quite a lot of people. I shall send you chapter and verse if I can. If I haven't sent chapter and verse in a month, do your best without. Papers are no good, because papers would put it more delicately. We have here at H. Q. passes issued to Bolsheviks by commissaries on occupying Ekaterinodar. These passes authorize their holders to arrest any girl they fancy for the use of the soldiery. Sixty-two girls of all classes were arrested like this and thrown to the Bolshevik troops. Those who struggled were killed quite early on. The rest, when used and finished, were mutilated and thrown, dead and dying, into the two small rivers flowing through Ekaterinodar. In all towns occupied by Bolsheviks and reoccupied by us 'slaughter-houses' are found choked with corpses. Hundreds of 'suspects,' men, women, and children, were herded in these — doors and windows manned and the struggling mass fired into until most of them were dead or dying. The doors were then locked and they were left. The stench in these places, I am told, is hair-raising. These 'slaughter-houses' are veritable plague spots and have caused widespread epidemics. I want you to proselytize Robinson and galvanize the Colonel and everybody else you can get hold of. I'd like James to see this and No. 47 and Dorothy. Above all the Mater. For I feel sure, that whatever happens, she and you will be glad that I've come out."

("The Horrors of Bolshevism," reprinted from The Times, November 14, 1919, pp. 5 and 6.)

In the same letter the writer refers to the Bolshevik plans of extending their power to Asia and Africa, and discusses the part played by the Jews in the Bolshevik régime in Russia.

" . . . Bolshevik Russia is a channel of communication to the Committee of Union and Progress, to Egypt, India, and Afghanistan. Unless beaten by us, the Bolshies will beat us. It's a side issue for the present, but the danger of their rousing and letting loose the Chinese is not so very remote. They have declared war on Christianity. The Bible to them is a 'counter-revolutionary' book, and to be stamped out. They are aiming at raising all non-Christian races against the Christian countries. The Bolsheviks form about 5 per cent. of the population of Russia — JEWS (80 to 90 per cent. of the commissaries are Jews), Chinese, Letts, Germans, and certain of the 'skilled labor' artisans. The conscribed peasantry, originally captured by the catchwords mentioned in the pamphlets, now often goaded beyond endurance, is rising against them over wide districts. Still conscribed and put up to fight, under severe penalties, they form most of the 'cannon fodder' used by the Bolshies. They desert, often en masse, and many a peasant who marched for the Bolsheviks last week is fighting for Denikin in the Volunteer Army to-day. Ref. Jews — In towns captured by Bolsheviks the only unviolated sacred buildings are the synagogues, while churches are used for anything, from movie-shows to 'slaughter-houses.' The Poles, Galicians, and Petlura have committed 'pogroms' (massacres of Jews). Not the Russian Volunteer Armies under Denikin. Denikin has, in fact, been so strict in protecting the Jews that he has been accused by his sympathizers of favoring them. If, however, a Commissary, steeped in murder, with torture and rape, with mutilation, happens to be a Jew, as most of them are, should he receive exceptional treatment?"

("The Horrors of Bolshevism," p. 5.)

The London Times of December 3, 1919, published the statement of an eye witness of the "reign of torture" under the Bolsheviks at the time of the first capture of Odessa. The witness is the Rev. R. Courtier-Forster, late British Chaplain at Odessa and the Russian Ports of the Black Sea. Space permits the reprint here of only the following passages from this important testimony as to one chapter of the Bolshevik terror:

"While I was still British chaplain of Odessa the city was deluged with blood. When the Bolshevik elements, grafting on to their main support the 4,000 criminals released from the city gaols, attempted to seize the town, people of education, regardless of social position, offered what armed resistance was in their power. Workmen, shop assistants, soldiers, professional men, and a handful of officers fought for freedom and liberty through the streets of the great port for three days and nights against the bloody despotism of the Bolsheviks. Tramcars were overturned to make barricades, trenches dug in the streets, machine-guns placed in the upper windows of houses to mow the thoroughfare with fire. The place became an inferno. The Bolsheviks were victorious. On capturing Odessa Railway Station, which had been defended by a few officers and a number of anti-Bolshevist soldiers, the Bolsheviks bayoneted to death the 19 wounded and helpless men laid on the waiting-room floor to await Red Cross succour.

"Scores of other men who fell wounded in the streets also became victims to the triumphant Bolshevik criminals. The majority of these wretched and unhappy sufferers completely disappeared. Inquiries at the hospitals and prisons revealed the fact that they were not there, and no trace of them was to be found. A fortnight later there was a terrible storm on the Black Sea, and the bodies of the missing men were washed up on the rocks of Odessa breakwater and along the shore; they had been taken out to sea in small boats, stones tied to their feet, and then been dropped over alive into deep water. Hundreds of others were captured and taken on board the Almaz and the Sinope, the largest cruiser of the Black Sea Fleet. Here they became victims of unthinkable tortures.

"On the Sinope General Chormichoff and some other personal friends of my own were fastened one by one with iron chains to planks of wood and pushed slowly, inch by inch, into the ship's furnaces and roasted alive. Others were tied to winches, the winches turned until the men were torn in two alive. Others were taken to the boilers and scalded with boiling steam; they were then moved to another part of the ship and ventilating fans set revolving that currents of cold air might blow on the scalds and increase the agony of the torture. The full names of 17 of the Sinope victims were given me in writing by members of their families or their personal friends. These were lost later when my rooms were raided, my papers seized, and I myself arrested and thrown into prison.

"The house in the Catherine Square in which I was first in captivity afterwards became the Bolsheviks' House of Torture in which hundreds of victims were done to death. The shrieks of the people being tortured to death or having splinters of wood driven under the quick of their nails were so agonizing and appalling that personal friends of my own living more than a hundred yards away in the Vorontsoffsky Pereulok were obliged to fasten their double windows to prevent the cries of anguish penetrating into the house. The horror and fear of the surviving citizens was so great that the Bolsheviks kept motor lorries thundering up and down the street to drown the awful screams of agony wrung from their dying victims.

"This House of Torture remains as much as possible in the condition in which the Bolsheviks left it and is now shown to those who care to inspect its gruesome and blood-bespattered rooms.

"Week by week the newspapers published articles for and against the nationalization of women. In South Russia the proposal did not become a legal measure, but in Odessa bands of Bolsheviks seized women and girls and carried them off to the Port, the timber yards, and the Alexandrovsky Park for their own purposes. Women used in this way were found in the mornings either dead or mad or in a dying condition. Those found still alive were shot. One of the most awful of my own personal experiences of the New Civilization was hearing at night from my bedroom windows the frantic shrieks of women being raped to death in the park opposite. Screams of shrill terror and despair repeated at intervals until they became nothing but hoarse cries of agony like the death calls of a dying animal. This happened not once, or twice, but many times. Never to the day of my death shall I forget the horror of those dreadful shrieks of tortured women, and one's own utter powerlessness to aid the victims or punish the Bolshevik devils in their bestial orgies."

("Bolshevism, Reign of Torture at Odessa," by the Rev. R. Courtier-Forster, late British Chaplain at Odessa and the Russian Ports of the Black Sea. Reprinted from The Times, December 3, 1919, pp. 2, 3 and 4.)

The Protocols speak of concealed executions as well as of open violence when making use of the weapon of terrorism to secure political domination. The Bolsheviks closely paralleled the Protocols in this respect.

While it is true that the number of victims of outright execution by shooting, drowning, etc., have run into very large figures, they are undoubtedly few in comparison with the number who have been deliberately starved by the Bolsheviks. In pursuance of their avowed policy of exterminating the bourgeois class the Soviet government divided the people into four categories with respect to the receipt of food, the bourgeoisie being placed in the last two categories as to which the allowance of food was insufficient to support life. A report by "Mr. E." found in the British White Book, "Russia No. 1" (1919), relating to the conditions in February, 1919, shows that the last two categories have been done away with altogether. The report states that the Bolsheviks have published statistics "showing that the fourth category was not necessary, as there were so few members." "This proves," he says, "that the 4th category people have either been exterminated or have been forced to work under the Bolsheviks in order to live." The same witness states that the amount of food given to the first category was constantly varying according to the supplies. The rations allowed the four categories in October, 1918, are shown by the Bolshevik paper Vooruzhenny Narod (The Armed People):

"The Commissary of Food of the Petrograd Labor Commune states that on Friday, Saturday, Sunday and Monday, for four days, the following products will be given on the presentation of the bread cards, according to category:

- 1st category — 1 lb. (Russian) of bread and 3 lb. of potatoes
- 2nd category — $\frac{1}{2}$ lb. of bread and 2 lb. of potatoes
- 3rd category — $\frac{1}{4}$ lb. of bread and 1 lb. of potatoes
- 4th category — $\frac{1}{2}$ lb. of potatoes."

Many witnesses have referred to the cruelty of this category system. Of course, these rations for the 3rd and 4th categories are quite insufficient to support life, and as the bourgeois classes were not only placed in these categories, but were also persecuted and prevented from getting employment in many cases, it is not surprising that hundreds of thousands of them were exterminated by these measures.

As to the question of how the Jewish element in the population came out on the question of food as compared with the Christian element there is little evidence at hand, but we may refer to one statement in a memorandum of a Mr. B. contained in the British White Book, "Russia No. 1 (1919)," as follows:

"At the Putilof Works anti-Semitism is growing, probably because the food supply committees are entirely in the hands of Jews—and voices can be heard sometimes calling for a 'pogrom.' "

Wholesale starvation in Russian cities is one of the most striking features of Russia's tragedy. The bourgeoisie, and especially the intellectual classes of the Russian people, are systematically underfed by the treacherous rationing system of the Jewish Soviet officials. Manual labor as well as the intellectual workers are subjected to a most villainous tyranny, namely, to the tyranny of starvation. It is proper to propound the question: Is this policy carried out in accordance with the stipulation of the Protocols which reads as follows:

"Our power lies in the chronic malnutrition and in the weakness of the worker, because through this he falls under our power and is unable to find either strength or energy to counteract it." (Protocol No. III.)

(b) The Program of Hypocrisy

As already seen, the Protocols call for a program of hypocrisy as well as terror. The nature of the Bolshevik régime viewed from this angle is graphically described by Mr. Roger E. Simmons in his testimony before the Overman Committee. On pages 298 and 299 of the Senate Report he states:

"Along the trans-Siberian line, proceeding slowly, I had a chance of reading the literature that the Bolsheviks were distributing in connection with their active propaganda; also the decrees, proclamations, and the public formal announcements of all kinds of the local and national authorities. Many of these sounded plausible, aimed to be constructive, ostensibly, and in their idealism and promises were golden. I could see how people would be attracted, and for the first 8 to 10 weeks understood their sanguine hopes. But after this time disintegration was rapid and I saw the awful results. The modus operandi was not in line with theories. They talked ideals but did not act ideals. Practices showed there was decided immorality; decidedly, the game was not being played squarely, the people being deceived by the leaders. I suspected it from the very beginning from what I saw in Siberia. If you will let me, I will read to you a significant admission in that connection.

"This statement was written to me, at my request, by an American that it could be given to the American Consul General. It reads as follows:

"'Bonch Bruevitch, the executor of the acts of all the People's Commissars, not a strong man, but a close friend of Lenine's, who, working in the same office, is able to influence Lenine strongly. A power in the government as long as Lenine lives. He states that the Bolsheviki have not worked out a code of morals yet, and until they do, the end justifies the means. Any lies or dictatorial methods are worth using as long as they are in the interests of the working classes. A close friend of his says he has no compunctions, lying whenever there is an advantage to be gained from it for the Soviets.'

"The movement is immoral, absolutely."

In this connection it is of the utmost importance to call the attention of the reader to the statement of one of the best known Jewish Soviet officials, Zinovieff - Apfelbaum, President of the Petrograd Soviet, regarding the means of spreading world-wide propaganda. The passage as quoted before proves how closely the policies advocated in the Protocols resemble the Jewish policies as carried out by the Soviet officials in Russia. This is what Zinovieff stated on February 2, 1919:

"We are willing to sign an unfavorable peace with the allies . . . It would only mean that we should put no trust whatever in the bit of paper we would sign. We should use the breathing space so obtained in order to gather our strength in order that the mere continued existence of our government would keep up the world-wide propaganda which Soviet Russia has been carrying on for more than a year."

(c) The Destruction of Religion and Christianity

Here again the actual policies of the Bolsheviki fully coincide with the Protocols.

The most important passage in the Protocols as to the policy advocated in regard to religion is the following:

"Liberty could also be harmless and remain on the state program without detriment to the well-being of the people if it were to retain the ideas of the belief in God and human fraternity, free from the conception of equality which is in contradiction to the laws of nature which establish subordination. With such a faith the people would be governed by the guardians of the parish and would thrive quietly and obediently under the guidance of their spiritual leader, accepting God's dispensation on earth. It is for this reason that we must undermine faith, tearing from the minds of the Goys the very principle of God and Soul, and substituting mathematical formulas and material needs."

It appears from the above excerpt that the Protocols advocate the destruction of religion and the religious spirit among the Gentiles on the ground that they are the political as well as the moral bulwarks of the Gentile states. In another place the Protocols state that the most formidable antagonist of the Jews in the past has been Rome, i.e., the Roman Catholic Church.

The Bolsheviks, whatever their real motives may be, have from the moment they came into power in Russia conducted a campaign of violence and persecution against the Christian religion, in the guise of a campaign against religion in general. While they have not attacked the Jewish religion or the Jewish rabbis, they have murdered and persecuted Christian priests and harassed their congregations in the churches. While professing to be merely following the Socialist teachings of Karl Marx (himself a Jew), who attacked religion in general as the creature of capitalism, the Bolshevik campaign against religion is in fact directed against Christianity.

Evidence of the above is found in the sworn testimony of several witnesses before the Overman Committee and in official reports of the British government and elsewhere.

An English clergyman, the Rev. B. S. Lombard, in a report to Earl Curzon, dated March 23, 1919, referring to the conditions in Soviet Russia, stated as follows:

"The treatment of the priests was brutal beyond everything. Eight of them were incarcerated in a cell in our corridor. Some of us saw an aged man knocked down twice one morning for apparently no reason whatever, and they were employed to perform the most degrading work and made to clean out the filthy prison hospital."

Mr. George A. Simons testified before the Overman Committee, in answer to a question of Senator King, as follows:

¹ British White Book, Russia No. 1 (1919), p. 57.

SENATOR KING. "Did you find, then, that atheism permeates the ranks of the Bolsheviks?"

M R. SIMONS. "Yes, sir. And the anti-Christ spirit as well."

The testimony of Mr. Simons on this subject was as follows:

SENATOR KING. "What I am trying to get at is, for my information, why Bolshevism is bitterly opposed to all sorts of religion or sacraments of the church — Christianity; because I suppose that they recognize that Christianity is the basis of law and order and of orderly government. I was wondering if you had discovered why they were so bitter against Christianity, and if you found that all the Bolsheviks were atheistic or rationalistic or anti-Christian?"

M R. SIMONS. "My experience over there under the Bolshevik régime has led me to come to the conclusion that the Bolshevik religion is not only absolutely anti-religious, atheistic, but has it in mind to make all real religious work impossible as soon as they can achieve that end which they are pressing. There was a meeting—I cannot give you the date offhand; it must have been in August, 1918—held in a large hall that had once been used by the Young Men's Christian Association in Petrograd for their work among the Russian soldiers. The Bolsheviks confiscated it; put out the Y. M. C. A. In that large hall there was a meeting held which was to be a sort of religious dispute. Lunacharsky, the Commissar of the People's Enlightenment, as he was called, and Mr. Spitzberg, who was the Commissar of Propaganda for Bolshevism, were the two main speakers. Both of those men spoke in very much the same way as Emma Goldman has been speaking. I have been getting some of her literature, and recently I have been very much amazed at the same line of argumentation with regard to the attack on religion and Christianity and so-called religious organizations."

SENATOR KING. "She is the Bolshevik who has been in jail in this country and who will be deported as soon as her sentence is over?"

M R. SIMONS. "I do not know as she will be deported."

SENATOR KING. "I think she will be."

M R. SIMONS. "She ought to be put somewhere where she cannot issue any more of that literature. Lunacharsky and Spitzberg came out with pretty much the same things that she has been saying and printing. This is one of these theses: 'All that is bad in the world, misery and suffering that we have had, is largely due to the superstition that there is a God.'"

SENATOR KING. "I noticed in yesterday's paper that in their schools the children are being taught, wherever they have schools at all, positive atheism. Did you verify that?"

MR. SIMONS. "Lunacharsky, as the official head of the department of education, Commissar of the People's Enlightenment, said: 'We now propose to enlighten our boys and our girls and we are using as a textbook a catechism of atheism which will be used in our public schools.' Yet he had the audacity to say: 'We are going to give all churches the same chance.' And a priest replied to him, saying: 'Then you ought not to put your catechism of atheism into the schools!'

Referring further to the meeting at the Y. M. C. A., Mr. Simons said a little later in his testimony:

"Lunacharsky and Spitzberg said in that meeting, and they sent it out in their proclamations: 'The greatest enemy to our proletarian cause is religion. The so-called church is simply a camouflage of capitalistic control and they are hiding behind it, and in order to have success in our movement we must get rid of the church.' Now a frank statement like that seems to me to indicate their anti-religious and anti-Christian animus."¹

Mr. Simons further testified as follows:

SENATOR KING. "Has there been a confiscation of church property and buildings?"

MR. SIMONS. "Yes, sir; and in quite a number of instances monasteries, with their wealth, have been taken, and all kinds of indecent things have been done by certain Bolshevik officials.

"I have some data showing that they have turned certain churches and monasteries into dancing halls, and one instance has been reported to me where a certain Bolshevik official went into a church while the people were there waiting for the sacrament, and threw the priest out, so I am told, and himself put on the clerical garb, and then went on the altar and made a comedy of the ritual, which stirred up the religious sense of the people to that extent that they threatened — of course, among themselves — that they would yet kill that man. He happened to be an apostate Jew.

Mr. Roger E. Simmons testified as follows in regard to the Russian priest who was put in the same prison with him by the Bolsheviks:

"A high priest of the church was there. He had been preaching sermons publicly denouncing the immorality of the Bolsheviks. They imprisoned him and shot him. This priest told me that he was a great admirer of Dr. Mott of America."

SENATOR NELSON. "Do you not think that the church in the end will prove the rallying center for the anti-Bolshevik forces?"

M.R. SIMMONS. "I think it certainly will be one of the principal factors: no doubt of it. That priest took the occasion, knowing that I was an official of the American Government, thinking that it was the last duty he could perhaps perform for Russia, to beg me to go back and tell the American people, 'For God's sake, send us help.' He was speaking, gentlemen, not for himself, but for the large class of people that he represented."

TESTIMONY OF MR. THEODOR KRYSHTOFOVICH

"As you know, gentlemen, the Russians are a very religious people. Like here in the United States, there are very many denominations there, but most of the people belong to the Greek Church. Of course, the priests and religious people are not very pleasant to the Bolsheviks, because the Bolsheviks deny any religion or any religious sentiment. They oppose the Russian clergy and the Russian clergy oppose the Bolsheviks, and the Russian priests are treated very badly. For instance, they are set to do streetwork, cleaning the streets, paving streets, digging ditches, and so on. The workmen told me several times, 'The Bolsheviks are sending out priests to work in the streets. Why do they not send their rabbis?' And that is true. The Jewish Rabbis are not sent to work on the streets. The Bolsheviks are opposing religion to such an extent that lately when I was going to Petrograd they raised a question of teaching atheism in the schools. They boast that they have opened so many schools, but they do not say that they closed as many schools as they opened. We had schools in connection with the churches, in connection with every church there was a school, and all these schools are closed now."

Further evidence that the Bolsheviks, although attacking Christianity, protect the Jewish religion, is found in the following article, which appeared on the 5th of July, 1919, in the weekly publication Soviet Russia, page 15. The article is entitled "Soviet Tolerance." It reads as follows:

"The New York Jewish Daily, 'The Day,' in its issue of June 24th has the following cablegram from its European correspondent, N. Shiffrin: 'Glad Tidings from Russia.' 'The Zionists have organized throughout Russia Food Co-operative Societies which are united in every city into Central Co-operative Associations united in the All-Russian Federation of Jewish Food Co-operative Associations. The Federation is in part subsidized by the Moscow Soviet Government. All schools of the Zionists in which the language of instruction is ancient Hebrew, as well as the Hebrew High School in Minsk, have been taken over by the government. They have been incorporated in the Public School System which is maintained by the Commissariat of Public Education."

² Senate Report, "Bolshevik Propaganda," p. 431.

The significant part of this article consists in the fact that the old Hebrew is a religious language in which the Talmud is written. The old Hebrew can serve only for the study of the Talmud as well as of other Jewish religious writings. Thus, while combating the Christian religion, the Bolsheviks are extending protection to the Jewish religion and to the synagogues.

In a pamphlet entitled "The Russian Church under the Bolsheviks," recently published in England, is printed the appeal of Father Serge Orlov, "who played an important part in the Reform movement in the Russian church," and who is now in Switzerland, where the National Consistory has expressed its sympathy for the Russian people by composing a special prayer for the liberation of Russia from the Bolsheviks. We quote the following passages from this appeal of Father Orlov:

"Owing to Bolshevism the Orthodox Russian Church is passing through so acute a crisis that there is serious danger to the fundamental idea of the whole of Christianity.

"Bolshevism is essentially hostile to Christ, and manifests even greater hatred towards Christianity than did the pagan power of the first centuries.

"Bolshevism and the Christian Church cannot exist side by side.

"The persecution of the Church began in January, 1918, and has been increasing since then. The Bolsheviks issued a decree on the disestablishment of the Church, although never had the Russian Church been so firmly in the grip of the secular authorities as in Soviet Russia. The Church has not only been robbed but treated with contumely. Every commissary has the right of prohibiting a service if he suspects the priest or his congregation of counter-revolutionary tendencies. Practically whenever he chooses he can close a church, turn it into a cinema, mock at the ancient sacred relics, and in general insult people's religious feelings.

THE PROTOCOLS

"But it is strange that the greater the persecution of the Russian Church the nearer and dearer does it become to the tortured Russian people. Indeed, the priests of the Russian Church boldly denounce the Bolsheviks. Not one of the secular rulers has accused them so openly as Tikhon, the All-Russian Patriarch, over whom the Damocles sword of the Bolsheviks is always hanging. But the sword can only kill the body, and not the spirit.

"As early as last February, Patriarch Tikhon excommunicated the Bolsheviks, the excommunication being read in the churches. At that time the persecution of the clergy had already commenced, but the Patriarch had not been arrested. It was only later, in the autumn of 1918, during the universal Terror, that he was placed under domiciliary arrest in his apartments in the Kremlin, with a guard of Chinese, Letts and Red Army men, and deprived of his rations. But even as a prisoner the Patriarch issued declarations against the Bolsheviks, in which he severely denounced them.

"It is not enough," writes the Patriarch, "that you have stained the hands of the Russian people with the blood of their brethren. You have instigated the people to open, shameless robbery. You have befogged their consciences and stifled their conviction of sin, but under whatever name you disguise an evil deed, murder, violence and robbery will always remain crimes and deeds of evil that clamor to Heaven for vengeance. Yes, we are going through a dreadful time under your dominion, and it will be long before it fades from the hearts of the nation, where it has dimmed the image of God and impressed that of the beast.

"But as yet the Bolsheviks have not dared to raise their hand against the aged Patriarch. Apparently he is alive."

A faint idea of what the Bolsheviks are doing to the Russian Church may be gathered from the following:

"According to information received from A. Kartashov, former Minister of Cults, by December, 1918, the Bolsheviks had killed ten archbishops and bishops; it is difficult to ascertain the number of priests killed. It reaches several hundreds. The Patriarch is a prisoner in his own house. According to the (later) message from the Archbishop of Omsk, President of the Supreme Administration of the Orthodox Church, to the Archbishop of Canterbury, the Metropolitan of Kiev, twenty bishops and hundreds of priests have been assassinated. Some were buried alive. 'Wherever the Bolsheviks are in power,' says the Archbishop of Omsk, 'the Christian Church is persecuted with even greater ferocity than in the first three centuries of the Christian era.'

"When, in January, 1919, the town of Yuriev (Dorpat)

was taken by the Bolsheviks, Bishop Platon was arrested. The Reval papers thus describe the Bishop's last moments. The Bolsheviks burst into his house at night, dragged him from his bed. Barefoot and clad only in his under-linen, the Bishop, with 17 other persons, was dragged down to the cellars of the house they had been arrested in. Here the Red executioners rushed at them with their axes and killed them.

"Near Kotlas, all the ten monks of the monastery, with the prior at their head, were shot for agitation against the Soviet authorities."

Information has come from Omsk that as a result of a judicial investigation of the Bolshevik terror in Perm, the following has been discovered: —

"Archbishop Andronik was buried alive; Vassili, Archbishop of Chernigov, who had come to Moscow to inquire about the fate of Archbishop Andronik, was cut down and killed with his two companions. Bishop Feofan was first tortured, then dipped several times into the river through a hole in the ice, and finally drowned in the River Kama. Besides this, it was discovered that 50 priests had been executed. Before being killed they were horribly tortured.

"At the evacuation of Cherdyn the Bolsheviks took with them among other hostages a highly respected priest, Nicolas Koniurow, whom they subjected to atrocious torments.

"During a severe frost they stripped the old man naked and poured water over him until he was transformed into a statue of ice."

The statement of the Rev. R. Courtier-Forster, British Chaplain at Odessa, already cited under the head of "Terror," contains the following passage as to the martyrdom of Christians under the Bolsheviks:

"It was the martyrdom of the two Metropolitans and the assassination of so many Bishops and the killing of hundreds of various Christian ministers of religion, regardless of denomination or school of thought, that proved the undoing of the Scourge. Russian Orthodox clergy, Protestant Lutheran pastors, Roman Catholic priests, were tortured and done to death with the same light-hearted indiscrimination in the name of Toleration and Freedom. Then it was that the Scourge, seeing the last remnants of Liberty ground under the heel of a tyranny more brutal in its methods than a mediaeval torture chamber, published another full-page cartoon representing Moses descending from the Burning Mount, bringing in his arms the Tables of Ten Commandments to Humanity, and being stoned to death by a mob of workmen's and soldiers' delegates.

"The following Sunday afternoon I was passing through the Town Gardens, when I saw a group of Bolshevik soldiers insulting an Ikon of the Thorn-crowned Face of Christ. The owner of the Ikon was spitting in the pictured Face, while the others were standing around watching with loud guffaws of laughter. Presently they tore the sacred picture into fragments, danced on it, and trampled and stamped the pieces into the mud."

(d) Inciting Class Hatred

It will be recalled that the Protocols specifically refer to the incitement of class hatred as one of the most effective means of bringing about the destruction of Christian, that is, " G O Y " states. The concluding sentence of Protocol No. IV reads as follows:

"It will be at that stage that the lower classes of the GOYS, not for the sake of doing good, nor even for the sake of wealth, but solely because of their hatred towards the privileged, will follow us against the intelligent Goys, our competitors for power."

This remarkable stipulation of the Protocols is literally followed by the Jewish Soviet officials in Russia. This is how Mr. Roger E. Simmons, in his testimony before the Overman Committee, describes the policy of inciting class hatred by the Bolsheviki in Russia:

M R. SIMMONS. "Being a social revolution, of course the worst parts about it are the results of the awful class hatred the Bolsheviki leaders are inciting. They are inciting it in every part of the country by their publications and in all their efficient propaganda. It has not been any more disastrous in any parts of Russia, I believe, than it has been in many villages among the peasantry.

"Their policy has as an underlying motive the arousing of class antagonism, the proletariat hating the bourgeoisie. In practice it means that the less fortunate in every industry and institution bear animus against those qualified to hold better positions. This has been indirectly the cause of most of the incidents of terrorism witnesses have spoken of, more of which I will tell you about later.

"When it was seen that the peasantry did not rally to the support of the Bolshevik cause and that they refused to sell grain for rubles without value, the Bolsheviks took the class issue to the villages. Lenin calls this movement awakening class consciousness of the peasantry. He organized for this work 'poor committees,' as they are called in translation. These committees of soldiers go out to the villages to inflame the dissatisfied elements and to extract by force food from the peasants. . . . But Lenin sends the poor committees, agitators, to incite peasants who have no land to conspire against those who have, and to take the guns he gives them for fighting, robbing, and plundering neighbors in their own and neighboring villages who have land. When you come later to read, gentlemen, the history of the Russian revolution, some of the bloodiest fights, you will find, and worst horrors, have occurred in villages. Those simple, peace-loving people have been living among themselves for centuries in more or less harmony under their communistic system. But all of a sudden Lenin, by his nefarious policies, sets the passions of the demoralized class aflame and turns them against the other two classes. Instead of promoting brotherly love and helping to make the sentiment of the nation one for the good of all, as we are striving to do in America, the Bolsheviks are trying by jealousy and animosity to disintegrate the population of various localities into classes with a view of the honest toiler being overcome and subjected. Now this is a serious matter. The peasantry represent 85 per cent of the 160,000,000 Russians.

"In Russia class hatred is seen manifested everywhere. I will mention one illustration which I saw in Petrograd—the undressing of a woman. I had heard about it before. It was about 6:30, growing dark, as I was walking down the Nevsky Prospect on my way home. I heard a yell of distress from a woman up a street running perpendicularly to the Nevsky. There two soldiers were removing the cloak—a very good substantial cloth coat—from a woman. And when protests were made by the standers-by, the answer was, 'We have blacked your boots and washed your clothes for many years. Now you bourgeoisie have got to bow to us and wash our clothes and black our boots.' Undressing to steal clothes went on to a considerable extent in Moscow, Petrograd and Kiev, according to reports. It went as far as taking off besides cloaks the very dresses of women, and where they could handle it, taking also the clothes and overcoats off men. . . .

"Now, you can see that all their practices aimed to invite people to do acts of that kind showing intense hatred—I wish I could think of another word, it is more than hatred—detestation—against people that they thought were a little higher up. Now, remember, as I pointed out in the first place this hatred is against a good many of these people in the cities, and people like the peasants who had land, who belonged to the proletariat. But because they did not agree, they call them bourgeoisie. You can see that they are fighting parts of the very class for whom they say they are trying to establish a dictatorship. They are not trying to put the proletariat in power, but the most demoralized elements of that class, which represents, gentlemen, a very small per cent.

"Now, this class hatred is a matter we have got to consider, I think, with a great deal of interest and a great deal of seriousness, because it is the basis of their international movement."

(e) Autocracy in Government

The Protocols call for a world autocracy and state that liberalism in government is a source of weakness which should be encouraged by the Jews only for the temporary object of destroying Christian states with the ultimate purpose of establishing a Jewish despotism over the whole world.

"Only an autocrat can outline great and clear plans which allocate in an orderly manner all the parts of the mechanism of the government machinery."

On the other hand, the Protocols state as follows:

"In all parts of the world the words 'Liberty, Equality, and Fraternity' have brought whole legions into our ranks through our blind agents, carrying our banners with delight. Meanwhile these words were worms which ruined the prosperity of the Goys, everywhere destroying peace, quiet, and solidarity, undermining all the foundations of their states."

Ambassador Francis, when asked by Senator King whether Lenin and Trotzky and those who are in control of the Bolshevik government were there as the result of a general election, testified:¹

M R. FRANCIS. "No, no. They are there as usurpers."

SENATOR KING. "By force and terror?"

M R. FRANCIS. "I do not think they represent more than ten per cent of the Russians."

SENATOR OVERMAN. "Of the whole 180,000,000?"

M R. FRANCIS. "Of the whole 180,000,000."

Mr. Roger E. Simmons also describes the Bolshevik government as it existed when he left Russia in November, 1918, as follows:

² Senate Report, "Bolshevik Propaganda," p. 946.

"The Soviet government, composed solely of Bolsheviks, of a portion only of the 'manual proletariat' is a government in name only. Rightly stated, it is a well-organized institution functioning to further the social revolution, the overthrow of all recognized standards of morality and civilization."

That gradual despotism shown by the testimony of these witnesses to exist in 1918 has tended to become more and more complete is shown by evidence of a recent date. The British White Book, "Russia No. 1 (1919), Collection of Reports on Bolshevism in Russia," contains a report of a Mr. C. who was formerly connected with a commercial company which had a branch in Moscow. This document bears the date of January 21, 1919. Among other information therein contained is the following:

"All factories nationalized; only about half of them working. Men all anti-Bolshevik. Very discontented with conditions of life, and with the working of the factories. Conditions getting worse and worse every day. A great many of the men have gone to the country, as it is practically impossible to live in the towns. . . . In Petrograd more attempts to strike than in Moscow; this is because in Moscow the workmen are more under the power of the government, and they do not dare to strike. Even if they did there is nothing to gain by it, for the government would simply stop their wages, discharge a good many, and probably cancel their bread cards."

As recently as in the fall of 1919 conditions in the factories were reported to be intolerable. The Soviet officials have gone far beyond that part of the program of Karl Marx in his "Communist Manifesto," which prescribes "Equal liability of all to labor. Establishment of industrial armies, especially for agriculture." The Soviet government's Code of Labor Laws, translated into English and published in New York in Soviet Russia, the organ of the Russian Soviet Bureau, in its issue of February 21, 1920, imposes compulsory labor upon every one, male or female, between the ages of sixteen and sixty, unless physically disqualified, and enforces iron discipline of the most tyrannical nature.

Moreover, the New York World of Friday, April 9, 1920, published an article entitled "Mobilize Russian Labor," in which it was stated that Trotzky, addressing the ninth convention of the Communist Party at Moscow on March 27, 1920, directed his address chiefly to defining the relation between the mobilization of industry to the industrial rehabilitation of Russia, and stated:

"Mobilization is more necessary now than it was formerly, because we have to deal with the peasant population and masses of unskilled labor which cannot be utilized to the fullest extent by any other means than military discipline. Trades unions are capable of organizing great masses of qualified workers, but 30 per cent of the people cannot be reached by this means."

An elaborate system among the workmen had been gradually established and at present the communist spy reporting directly to the Soviets has almost mediaeval powers of executing a man merely for the reason that he is opposed to the tyranny of the Soviets. Moreover, by the weapon of starvation, the workman is compelled to work more hours than under any preceding form of government. The very right to strike is entirely denied the workmen. Every strike is called sabotage against the Soviets and every act of sabotage is forbidden under pain of capital punishment. Supplementary Decree No. 27 deals specifically with incitements to strike. Persons violating such decree are brought before the Extraordinary Committees to Combat Counter-revolution.

This situation strikingly recalls a passage in the Protocols where it is stated:

"Civilization cannot exist without absolute despotism, for government is carried on not by the masses, but by their leader whoever he may be."

Is Trotzky this leader?

Immediately before his departure from the United States for Russia in order to join his brethren who were engaged in the destruction of the Russian state, Trotzky made the following boast:

"I stand forth the world's greatest internationalist. I shall rule Russia."

Then he made this appeal to the audience:

"On with our world civil war! On with the world revolution! Down with the governments!"

Unfortunately, the wise step taken by the British Government in arresting Trotzky at Halifax while on his way to Russia was countermanded, and Lieut.-Colonel J. B. Maclean, proprietor of Maclean's Magazine, published at Toronto, in an article entitled "Why Did We Let Trotzky Go?", printed in the issue of June, 1919 (Vol. XXXII, No. 6), referring to various explanations for his release, says, "Finally it is said it was done at the request of the British Embassy at Washington over the head of the British and American Intelligence Department; and that the Embassy acted on the request of the U. S. State Department, who were acting for some one else."

THE PROTOCOLS

II. PARALLELISM BETWEEN THE PROTOCOLS AND JEWISH WRITINGS

There are many passages in the writings and speeches of well-known Jewish leaders at various times during the last hundred years which show a remarkable parallelism with some of the important ideas set forth in the Protocols. The following instances may be cited as a result of a search which is by no means exhaustive. In each case we cite a passage taken verbatim from the Protocols, followed under the title of "Substantiations" by parallel quotations from well-known Jews.

1. EXTRACTS FROM PROTOCOLS

(a) "The prophets have told us that we were chosen by God himself to reign over the world. God endowed us with genius to enable us to cope with the problem." (Protocol No. V.)

(b) "God has given us, his chosen people, the power to scatter, and what to all appears to be our weakness has proved to be our strength, and has now brought us to the threshold of universal rule." (Protocol No. XI.)

(c) "When the King of Israel places the crown on his sacred head, offered him by Europe, he will be the Patriarch of the World." (Protocol No. XV.)

Substantiations

(a) "The men of all nations shall be subject to Israel, but those who have ruled over you shall be destroyed with the sword."

(Apocalypse of Baruch (LXXII), a well-known Jewish work of the first century A.D.)

(b) "Our task is great and holy and its success is guaranteed. Catholicism, our greatest foe, lay wounded in its brains. The net which is being spread by Israel all over the surface of the earth will spread day by day, and the glorious prophecies of our holy rights will be finally realized. (e) The following quotation is an estimate by Bernard Lazare, Jewish writer, of the part which was and is played by the Jews in the revolutionary movement throughout the world:

"Their [i.e., the Jews'] contribution to present-day Socialism was, as is well known, and still is, very great. The Jews, it may be said, are situated at the poles of contemporary society. They are found among the representatives of industrial and financial capitalism, and among those who have vehemently protested against capital. Rothschild is the antithesis of Marx and Lassalle; the struggle for money finds its counterpart in the struggle against money, and the world-wide outlook of the stock-speculator finds its answer in the international proletarian and revolutionary movement. It was Marx who gave the first impulse to the founding of the Internationale through the manifesto of 1847, drawn up by himself and Engels. Not that it can be said that he 'founded' the Internationale, as is maintained by those who persist in regarding the Internationale as a secret society controlled by the Jews. Many causes led to the organization of the Internationale, but from Marx proceeded the idea of a Labor Congress, which was held at London in 1864, and resulted in the founding of that society. The Jews constituted a very large proportion of its members, and in the General Council of the society, we find Karl Marx, Secretary for Germany and Russia, and James Cohen, Secretary for Denmark. Many of the Jewish members of the Internationale took part subsequently in the Commune, where they found others of their faith. In the organization of the socialist party, the Jews participated to the greatest extent. Marx and Lassalle in Germany, Aaron Libermann and Adler in Austria, Dobrojan Gherea in Roumania, are, or were at one time, its creators and its leaders. The Jews of Russia deserve special notice in this brief résumé. Young Jewish students, scarcely escaped from the Ghetto, have played an important part in the Nihilistic propaganda; some, among them women, have given up their lives for the cause of Liberation, and to these young Jewish physicians and lawyers, we must add the large number of exiled workingmen who have founded in London and New York important labor societies, which serve as centers of socialistic and even of anarchistic propaganda."

III. PARALLELISM BETWEEN THE PROTOCOLS AND CERTAIN ACTIVITIES OF THE JEWS OUTSIDE OF RUSSIA

There are a number of important policies in the Protocols which find a striking parallel in certain activities and movements among Jews in various parts of the world outside of Russia. Among these policies of the Protocols are: the control of the press for political purposes, securing international or so-called "minority" rights for the Jews, the stirring up of class hatred and social disorder, and the promotion of revolutions and internationalism.

"SECRET KINGDOM OF THE PRESS"

1. The boast is made in the Protocols that in Europe the press, with unimportant exceptions, is under Jewish control. It is indeed true that the Jewish influence in the press in many parts of the world is very powerful. Just how powerful it is in America it is difficult to state. It is certainly a great and growing power in New York City. A Jewish magazine, The American Jewish News, recently pointed with pride to the great number of newspapers in New York which are either controlled by the Jews or in which Jews occupy important strategic positions. In the article referred to, which was published in the issue of March 28, 1919, under the title "Men Who Make Our Newspapers," the following statement is made:

"While it is an accepted fact that certain of our industries to-day are almost entirely directed and supported by Jewish minds and labor, there are nevertheless just as many which are not generally conceded to come within the same classification which have at their head men of Jewish descent. Most important among these latter is the greatest of all public institutions—the press.

"Hardly a newspaper of importance thrives in this city but it has at its head or in some position of paramount influence a man in whose fibre there is Jewish energy. And with one exception the achievements of these men who mould and interpret American public opinion could provide material for books of incalculable inspiration."

The article proceeds to refer to several large dailies in New York which are owned or controlled by Jews, with biographical sketches of these men and their subordinates. At the end of the article it is stated that the men mentioned are "but a few of a great number."

That there is nothing new in the Jewish policy of controlling the press is shown by the following statement of Isaac-Adolphe Crémieux, who in 1860 founded the Alliance Israélite Universelle.

"Consider the governmental and public offices as nothing. Look upon all honors as upon nonsense. Do not pay any attention for the time being to money itself. . . . Capture the press! Through it everything will come to you in the natural course of events."

The complete dictatorship over the press exercised by the Jewish Bolshevik leaders in Soviet Russia is such a generally accepted fact that it needs no extended comment. All newspapers that have attempted in any way to criticize the Bolshevik government have been ruthlessly suppressed, and many writers who have dared to criticize Trotzky have been executed.

The policy of the Bolsheviks is well expressed by one of the Soviet officials, N. Bukharin, in "The Communist Program," published by the Soviet printing office, called "The Communist," Moscow, 1918, Chapter VII, pp. 20-23:

"The Communist (Bolshevist) party receives from all sides accusations and even threats like the following: 'You close newspapers, you arrest people, you forbid meetings, you trample under foot freedom of speech and of the press, you reconstruct autocracy, you are oppressors and murderers.' It is necessary to discuss in detail this question of the 'liberties' in a Soviet Republic.

"At present the following is clear for the workingmen and the peasants. The Communist party not only does not demand any liberty of the press, of speech, meetings, unions, etc., for the bourgeois enemies of the people, but, on the contrary, it demands that the government should be always in readiness to close the bourgeois press; to disperse the meetings of the enemies of the people, to forbid them to lie, slander, and spread panic; to crush ruthlessly all attempts at a restoration of the bourgeois régime. This is precisely the meaning of the dictatorship of the proletariat."

"MINORITY RIGHTS" IN THE LIGHT OF THE PROTOCOLS

2. From a practical point of view it is of the utmost importance to Christian countries to ascertain whether the Jews are to be treated as citizens who enjoy equal rights and equal duties with the rest of the community, or whether they are to have, in addition, special privileges uniform in every country because they are Jews.

The American Constitution grants equal rights to all citizens of the United States, without distinction as to race or religion. The same conception of citizenship prevails in a majority of the western European countries (Great Britain, Netherlands, France, Italy, Switzerland, Norway, and Sweden).

During the last two years, however, the Jews in various countries have adopted a peculiar policy, threatening the fundamental principles of equal citizenship, by demanding special national or minority rights in central and eastern European states. During the Peace Conference the Jews maintained an influential delegation at Paris which insisted that such rights be granted to the Jews in Poland, Austria, Roumania, Jugoslavia, Czechoslovakia and Ukrainia. A special Bill of Jewish Rights was presented by the Jewish delegation to the Peace Conference. This bill contained the following stipulations:

"First — New guarantees of citizenship for those born in the territories affected, or resident therein since August, 1909.

"Second — All citizens to enjoy equal civil, religious, national and political rights, without distinction of birth, race, nationality or religion.

"Third — The right to use the language of any national minority in business, private intercourse, public meetings or the press shall be guaranteed; nor shall there be any restriction of such language in the schools or other institutions, nor shall the validity of any transaction or document be affected by the use of any language whatsoever.

"Fourth — The state shall recognize the several national minorities as constituting distinct autonomous organizations, having the right to establish, manage and control schools and religious, educational, charitable and social institutions.

"Fifth — Each national minority shall be allotted its proportion of state, departmental and municipal funds, based on the ratio of its numbers in the respective areas, as well as in the entire population.

"Sixth—Proportional representation of national minorities in elected bodies.

"Seventh — Those observing any other day except Sunday as Sabbath shall not be required to perform on such days acts they regard as desecrations, and shall be permitted to conduct business on Sunday if they so desire.

"Eighth — The signatories to the treaty, or any minority which may be affected by failure to observe its provisions, shall be entitled to submit complaints for adjudication to the League of Nations, which will assume jurisdiction." (New York Tribune, June 12, 1919.)

This Bill of Rights was strongly endorsed by the American Jewish Congress held in Philadelphia in December, 1918. We quote an article in the New York Tribune of May 14, 1919, on this subject:

"NATIONS MUST GUARANTEE RACIAL RIGHTS, SAYS MACK.

"CHAIRMAN OF JEWISH DELEGATION TO PARIS CABLES RESULTS OF ITS EFFORTS.

"According to a cable received by the Zionist Organization of America from its president, Judge Julian W. Mack, who is now in Paris, heading the American Jewish Congress delegation to the peace conference, and chairman of the Jewish delegations from every part of Europe, the treaty offered to Germany requires Poland and other nations to accept separate provisions guaranteeing rights to racial, religious and linguistic minorities within their boundaries.

"Judge Mack says the word 'national' is not included in the treaty as now formulated, but that a decision on this point is expected in a few days.

"He expresses himself as sanguine that the substance of the demands adopted by the American Jewish Congress, held in Philadelphia last December, will be obtained."

Moreover, the Bill of Rights was endorsed by most of the recognized Jewish organizations throughout the world.

"NINE MILLION JEWS PRESENT BILL OF RIGHTS AT PARIS," is the title under which the universal support of Hebrew national rights within the boundaries of other nations was recorded by the New York Tribune on June 12, 1919.

THE PROTOCOLS

Mr. Edward Dillon, in his book "The Inside Story of the Peace Conference," referring to these national rights and to the support which was extended to the Jewish demands, stated that the Allied policy was "looked upon as anything but disinterested." Mr. Dillon further said:

"Unhappily this conviction was subsequently strengthened by certain of the measures decreed by the Supreme Council between April and the close of the Conference. The misgivings of other delegates turned upon a matter which at first sight may appear so far removed from any of the pressing issues of the twentieth century as to seem wholly imaginary. They feared that a religious — some would call it racial — bias lay at the root of Mr. Wilson's policy. It may seem amazing to some readers, but it is none the less a fact, that a considerable number of delegates believed that the real influences behind the Anglo-Saxon peoples were Semitic.

"They confronted the President's proposal on the subject of religious inequality, and, in particular, the odd motive alleged for it, with the measures for the protection of minorities which he subsequently imposed on the lesser states, and which had for their keynote to satisfy the Jewish elements in eastern Europe. And they concluded that the sequence of expedients framed and enforced in this direction were inspired by the Jews, assembled in Paris for the purpose of realizing their carefully thought-out program, which they succeeded in having substantially executed. However right or wrong these delegates may have been, it would be a dangerous mistake to ignore their views, seeing that they have since become one of the permanent elements of the situation. The formula into which this policy was thrown by the members of the Conference, whose countries it affected, and who regarded it as "fatal to the peace of eastern Europe, was this: 'Henceforth the world will be governed by the Anglo-Saxon peoples, who, in turn, are swayed by their Jewish elements.' " (Pages 496, 497.)

Mr. Dillon emphasizes that the Jewish demands for special national privileges were largely fomented by western Jews, including those of the United States. He even states that among the many Jews who were present at the Paris Peace Conference "the largest and most brilliant contingent was sent by the United States." (Page 12.) According to this author, "Their principal mission, with which every fair-minded man sympathized heartily, was to secure for their kindred in Eastern Europe rights equal to those of the populations in whose midst they reside. And to the credit of the Poles, Rumanians, and Russians, who were to be constrained to remove all the existing disabilities, they enfranchised the Hebrew elements spontaneously. But the western Jews who championed their eastern brothers, proceeded to demand a further concession which many of their own co-religionists hastened to disclaim as dangerous—a kind of autonomy which Roumanian, Polish and Russian statesmen, as well as many of their Jewish fellow-subjects, regarded as tantamount to the creation of a state within a state." (Page 13.)

The treaties imposed by the Allies upon Poland, Rumania, Czecho-Slovakia, Jugo-Slavia and Greece granted all, or nearly all the demands of the Jews contained in the above "Bill of Rights," while Austria and Hungary gave pledges in their treaties with the Allied and Associated Powers, that they would protect "minority rights" in the same general way defined in the treaties with the other five powers.

These treaties, as Mr. Dillon correctly points out, go much further than to guarantee to the Jews residing in these several countries full political equality with other citizens, and freedom from persecution or discrimination on account of race or religion. Not only did the treaties contain such guarantees,—which, Mr. Dillon states, the small powers in question were quite willing to give,—but they contained a principle new to international law, viz. that a racial minority should be treated in various relations as a separate entity within the State, with separate rights of its own, which it is permitted to enforce against the national government. An illustration of this new principle is found in certain articles of the treaty with Poland relating to educational matters. By these articles the Polish State is actually compelled to permit the Jews, in towns and districts where they constitute "a considerable proportion" of the population, to administer primary education in their own language in the Jewish schools, supported by an allocated part of the state funds. The articles of the treaty which create this extraordinary "minority right" are quoted verbatim below. The two articles must be read together and compared with each other to bring out their full meaning.

"ARTICLE 9

"Poland will provide in the public educational system in towns and districts in which a considerable proportion of Polish nationals of other than Polish speech are residents adequate facilities for ensuring that in the primary schools the instruction shall be given to the children of such nationals through the medium of their own language. This provision shall not prevent the Polish Government from making the teaching of the Polish language obligatory in the said schools.

"In towns and districts where there is a considerable proportion of Polish nationals belonging to racial, religious or linguistic minorities, these minorities shall be assured an equitable share in the enjoyment and application of the sums which may be provided out of the public funds under the State, municipal or other budget, for educational, religious or charitable purposes.

"The provision of this article shall apply to Polish citizens of German speech only in that part of Poland which was German territory on August 1, 1914.

"ARTICLE 10

"Educational Committees appointed locally by the Jewish Committees of Poland will, subject to the general control of the State, provide for the distribution of the proportional share of the public funds allocated to the Jewish schools in accordance with Article 9, and for the organization and management of these schools.

"The provisions of Article 9 concerning the use of languages in schools shall apply to these schools."

In some central European countries the Jews took prompt advantage of the favorable feeling created in Paris by the Jewish leaders towards the Jewish national demands. Thus, for instance, in Ukrainia a special ministry for Jewish affairs was established, headed by Krasny Pinhoos, a Jew. According to information contained in an editorial article in the New Witness of April 11, 1919, the new minister of the Jews "told a press representative that the Jews take part in the spiritual and social life of the Ukraine under conditions of equality with those of the rest of the population, but that in affairs appertaining to the Jewish community they would govern themselves."

The New Witness made a rather peculiar deduction from the above statement of Mr. Pinhoos:

"But it is anyhow a good thing that in one country at least the Jewish race should be regarded and should consent to be regarded as something different and separate. We presume that as soon as the Jewish State in Palestine is established, Mr. Pinhoos will change his title to that of Jewish Ambassador. Mr. Pinhoos hopes that before long there will be many other such ministries established, but while Isaacs and Mond can govern England and dictate to the Peace Conference, there is not much hope that they will desire to rule the affairs of Whitechapel."

Mr. Israel Zangwill, in a recent address at the Poale Zion Conference in London, went a step further when he stated that the race which produced "a Beaconsfield, a Reading, a Montagu, a Klotz, a Kurt Eisner, a Trotzky" should be represented as an independent member of the League of Nations. (See Mr. Zangwill's statement in The Jewish Chronicle, February 27, 1920, No. 2656, p. 28.)

In view of the adoption of this policy by the Jews in Paris, Americans are justified in ascertaining just what is the position of the American Jewry with respect to enforcing such a program here. Our Constitution knows no such thing as foreign national rights enjoyed by persons who at the same time enjoy the privileges of American citizens. A subject of a foreign nationality when he becomes an American citizen renounces his former allegiance, and it is upon this condition only that he becomes a member of our body politic.

Nevertheless in the United States itself, where the Jews enjoy an absolute equality of rights with all other citizens, they have recently endeavored to build up an institution which is entirely opposed to the spirit of the American Constitution, namely, a special Jewish court which tries cases pertaining only to the Jews. This institution is known as "The Jewish Court of Arbitration" and holds its sessions in one of the Municipal Court rooms in New York City. This fact was briefly recorded by the New York Times in its issue of February 19, 1920, in an article under the title, "Jews Here Start Modern Sanhedrin." While this significant fact may have passed almost unnoticed by the American public, nevertheless it has already attracted attention in France.

It is unthinkable to any American brought up under a system of government which has provided a check against the oppression of minorities by the majority, that special rights should be granted to any of the ethnic elements of our population, such as the Jews, the Chinese, the Negroes, or any other racial group, or that any of these groups should by virtue of such special rights diminish our sovereignty by a treaty provision similar to Article XII of the special treaty with Poland. By this article Poland agreed that any member of the Council of the League of Nations should have the right to bring to the attention of the Council any infraction or any danger of infraction of any of these obligations (the national rights of the Jews), and that the Council may thereupon take such action and give such directions as it may deem proper and effective in the circumstances.

The whole question of Jewish double national rights is of the utmost importance, since the recognized Zionist leaders and the international Zionist organizations have on various occasions strongly urged the adoption of such double rights. Such rights and privileges for the Jews indeed are more than "national rights"; they are in one sense international rights common to Jews living in different countries. In other words, under such a system they would enjoy both the rights of citizenship of the particular country in which they live, and in addition, special privileges granted to them alone. The granting of such privileges to the Jews would constitute a series of international rights conferred exclusively upon the Jewish

The full text of Article 12 of the Treaty between the Allied and Associated Powers and Poland is the following:

"Poland agrees that the stipulations in the foregoing Articles, so far as they affect persons belonging to racial, religious or linguistic minorities, constitute obligations of international concern and shall be placed under the guarantee of the League of Nations. They shall not be modified without the assent of the majority of the Council of the League of Nations. The United States, the British Empire, France, Italy and Japan hereby agree not to withhold their assent from any modification in these Articles which is in due form assented to by a majority of the Council of the League of Nations.

"Poland agrees that any member of the Council of the League of Nations shall have the right to bring to the attention of the Council any infraction of the Council, or any danger of infraction of any of these obligations, and that the Council may thereupon take such action as it may deem effective in the circumstances.

"Poland further agrees that any difference of opinion as to questions of law or fact arising out of these Articles between the Polish Government and any one of the Principal Allied and Associated Powers, or any other power, a member of the Council of the League of Nations, shall be held to be a dispute of an international character under Article 14 of the Covenant of the League of Nations. The Polish Government hereby consents that any such dispute shall, if the other party thereto demands, be referred to the Permanent Court of International Justice. The decision of the Permanent Court shall be final and shall have the same force and effect as an award under Article 13 of the Covenant."

race. The Protocols of the Zionist Men of Wisdom contemplate this very thing in the following language:

"Then our international rights will sweep away the national rights in a limited sense and will rule countries in the same manner as the civil power of each state regulates the relationship of its subjects among themselves." (Protocol No. II.)

It is a question to what extent the demands for Jewish minority rights in eastern European states may be a part of the general Zionist movement. To this movement little attention can be given in this volume. It is sufficient to quote a portion of an article published in the New York Globe on January 25, 1919, under the title "Want Brandeis to Govern Judea." The staff correspondent of the New York Globe and Chicago Daily News in London, under date of December 31, 1918, refers to the Zionist movement and the exposition of its objects and purposes by one of its leaders, Ittimar Ben Avi:

"If the plans and ambitions of the recently proclaimed nation of Judea are fulfilled, Louis Brandeis, now Justice of the United States Supreme Court, will be the first of the new rulers of Israel. The dream of the renationalization of Palestine which has lived for 2,000 years in the hearts of the Jews is fast entering the realm of reality. Judea is sending its delegates to the peace conference. Its existence as a nation has been recognized by the allies, its declaration of independence has been signed and its diplomats and politicians are already busy moulding the future of its institutions.

"Ittimar Ben Avi is the first of its peace delegates to reach London. An impassioned idealist who already visions Judea enrolled among the great powers of the world, is Ben Avi. But his idealism and his oratorical agitations on behalf of Judea have not impaired his worth as a diplomat.

UNDER BRITISH TRUSTEESHIP

"'Israel cannot leap to its feet, full grown and capable,' he explained. 'It has been scattered and dormant too long. As delegate to the peace conference, I am to outline the demands of the new Judea. The first and most important of these is the political desire of the new Hebrew nation. We desire a British trusteeship for a period of twenty-five years. We do not want to establish a parliament or congress in Judea for at least twenty-five years. The British have emancipated us from the Turk. Great Britain is more capable of governing or overseeing Palestine as a colony than any one other country.'

"'If the English will agree to this our plan then includes the appointment by England of a Zionist as governor-general of Judea. It is more or less known among Zionists that Mr. Justice Brandeis is the most logical man now living for the position of governor-general. Under him there should be two sub-governors — one a Christian and the other a Moslem. Both should be appointed by England. We also intend to have attorney generals for the various provinces and mayors for the various communities in Palestine. These are to be elected by the people.

"After twenty-five years Judea may be in position to govern herself. As a totally independent nation and part of an entente including Armenia and Arabia, Judea would be a powerful asset to the western world not only as a producer of culture and a contributor to the world's markets, but as a military barrier against any power seeking to control the Suez Canal."

"OUTNUMBERED BY OTHERS"

"Ben Avi's desire for a British over-lordship is inspired by the fact that were Palestine to proclaim a complete independence to-day and seek by popular vote to elect its own ruler, the Moslem and Christian peoples living there would outnumber and outvote the Hebrew population. The result would be a nation in which the Jews were in the minority. By England's recognition of Judea as a Jewish nation and giving its Moslems and Christians representation through sub-governor generals, the Zionists are confident that their dreams will be most practically fulfilled.

"The history of Palestine's struggle towards renationalizing of the Jewish race is comparatively recent. Beginning some forty years ago with the agitation of a handful of idealists, the movement expanded slowly. Great effort to repopulate Palestine with Jews drawn from Russia for the most part met with indifferent success. In the face of ridicule and protest from their own race, the Jews of England, the United States, France, Russia and Germany, acting as an intensive minority, pursued their dream."

RADICAL AND REVOLUTIONARY ACTIVITIES OF THE JEWS IN VARIOUS COUNTRIES

3. The strategy of stirring up class hatred in Christian nations, and the encouragement of revolutionary radicalism to that end, which has such a prominent place in the Protocols, finds corroboration in the very prominent part which, in recent times, the Jews have been taking in the radical and revolutionary movement in many parts of the world, including Hungary, Germany, Holland, Poland, the United States, and certain South American states.

THE PROTOCOLS

The predominant influence of the Jews in the Bolshevik movement throughout the world is a question which is publicly discussed in the European press. The Budapest correspondent of the London Times some time ago stated:

"Hungary is being terrorized by Jewish agitators." (American Jewish News, May 2, 1919.)

Charges of this kind have appeared in the press in many European countries. In this connection we call the attention of the reader to an article of the Morning Post, entitled "An Insult to Poland," August 30, 1919. In this article, among other things, the following is stated:

"It is unfortunately true that Bolshevism is very largely a Jewish movement. In Russia the Jewish Bolsheviks have taken a terrible revenge upon all whom they regarded as enemies, and also upon all who protected the Russian peasantry against the exactions of the Jewish usurers."

This article closes with the following sentence:

"And we warn Jews also, not for the first time. They are showing themselves not Englishmen of the Jewish faith, as we used to consider them, but a nation with a foreign policy of their own — and that policy hostile to the friends of England. And that is what in the end Englishmen will not stand."

The three following documents are also of importance:

(a) An editorial article which appeared in the London Morning Post on April 8, 1919, entitled "Bolstering the Bolshevik."

(b) A letter signed by Lionel Rothschild and nine other well-known British Jews to the editor of the London Morning Post, which practically justifies the stand that was taken by that paper.

(c) Comment on the two above-mentioned documents published in the American Jewish News on May 2, 1919.

We set forth in full these three documents.

(a) "Bolstering the Bolshevik"

"The news from Russia fluctuates from day to day. It is now reported that the situation on the Murmansk Coast has somewhat improved; but the situation in Archangel is obviously critical. Our soldiers have driven off formidable attacks; but the fighting is close and desperate. From South Russia the Bolsheviks reported that Odessa had been captured, and although we may hope that if this is true the Allied forces were safely evacuated, there remains a terrible anxiety as to the fate which may have overtaken our devoted friends in South Russia. For these critical situations we do not blame the War Office; but we do blame Allied policy which has trifled with the whole situation and has alternated between large promises to our Allies and obsequious approaches to our enemies. We are informed that although the anti-Bolshevist Armies in Russia have been promised arms and supplies in abundance, what they have actually received has been contemptible. The result is that they are fighting almost naked and in many cases without arms. We may be certain both our soldiers and our allies in Russia are putting up a brave and desperate fight for their lives and their cause, but in these circumstances they must feel that they have been forgotten, if not betrayed, by those upon whom they looked for support. And so it is in Poland. We hear from trustworthy sources that the spirit of the Poles is magnificent. They are ready to become a strong and trusty support of the Allies upon the eastern borders of Germany; but they ask in vain for munitions, supplies and raw materials, and they see their vital communications with the Baltic left in the hands of their enemy and ours.

"Poland and Russia are one problem in this sense. We must support our friends if we are to defeat the Bolsheviks, and their secret abettors the Germans. For it is certain in that while Germany consistently suppresses Bolshevism in Germany she encourages it in Poland and Russia. But we are not supporting our friends. We promised them supplies which did not arrive, and political support which breaks down before German opposition. What is the reason of it? We notice that the Daily Herald and the Daily News are persistently telling the people of this country that we are fighting Bolshevism in obedience to the pressure of the capitalists. Now that is a lie. We are fighting Bolshevism in opposition to a very strong group of German-Jewish and Russian-Jewish capitalists, who are secretly working for the Bolshevik cause. Mr. Lansing may or may not be aware of the fact, but he is helping as corrupt a group of international financiers as ever lived. And the object of that group is to support Bolshevism in Russia in order to make a deal with the Bolsheviks. We have mentioned several times the disagreeable fact that the Russian Bolsheviks were Russian Jews. These Jews are at the present moment in control of the Russian Government and they have powerful friends in all the Allied countries who are helping them. We have appealed to the British Jews, but appealed so far in vain, to dissociate themselves formally from a cause which is doing the Jewish people terrible harm in all parts of the world. In reply the Jewish press shower upon us not only abuse but threats. Thus, for example, the Jewish World threatens us with the fate of Mordecai: '. . . we wish it no harm, but we would beg it to recollect,' so it says, 'while yet it has its feet upon the earth, the fate of its anti-Jewish forbear in that narrative, in the hope that it may mend its ways betimes.'

"We are aware of the significance of that threat. We fully understand what it means, and the secret Allies upon whom the Jewish World reckons when it makes it. We saw them at work in Glasgow and Belfast. We see them at work now in Budapest, where, it is reported, out of thirty members of the Bolshevik Soviet, twenty-six are Jews. We understand the threat, but we do not propose to be deterred in our duty to the British public by the terrorist methods of the Bolsheviks. And we suggest to the British Jewish community — most of whom, we believe, are by no means in sympathy with this crusade — that they are being served very badly in their newspapers, which openly threaten Bolshevik methods and scoff at advice which is tendered in a friendly spirit. In secret, we feel certain, the majority of the British Jews distrust and dislike the fanatics who are now leading Jewry astray in the cause of a spurious Jewish Imperialism. But they are afraid to dissociate themselves publicly from the dervishes of Judaism. In the meantime these powerful influences are at work in every country, and chiefly in Paris, where they are working powerfully against the cause of Poland. An unseen hand is at this present time stifling the infant Poland in its cradle, and this is being done in the interests of German-Jewish Capitalism. It is a conspiracy which is assisted by so-called Liberal newspapers like the Daily News, and so-called Labor newspapers like the Daily World; but it is a conspiracy, nevertheless, which is directed against the cause of liberty in Poland and in the interests of alien Capitalism. For it remains true that our labor agitators, while they are the enemies of British Capital, contrive to be the friends of the Capitalism of the enemies of England. Mr. Lloyd George and President Wilson — those champions of liberty — also appear to be more susceptible to the influence of an alien capitalism than to the cry for freedom of long enchain'd Poland. We ask our readers, who remember the traditional friendship of England with the Polish cause, to mark the note of anguish in Mr. Paderewski's statement which we publish this morning. He speaks — and he speaks truly — of 'the bitterness of the disappointment of the Polish population,' but it is not only the Polish population that is disappointed by the great Danzig betrayal. Every student of Allied interests must see that, whereas a strong Poland might be a bulwark against both German militarism and Russian Bolshevism, a weak Poland must be the vassal of one and the victim of the other. As to the economic side of the question, British commerce may bid farewell to all hope of a connection in Poland if it leaves Poland in such a situation as to be the enforced dependent of Germany."

(b) "Bolshevism and Jewry — a Repudiation

LONDON MORNING POST,
April 23rd, 1919.

"To THE EDITOR OF THE MORNING POST:—

We have read with deepest concern and with sincere regret certain articles which have recently appeared in two closely associated Jewish newspapers in this country on the topic of Bolshevism and its ideals. In our opinion, the publication of these articles can have no other effect than to encourage the adoption of the theoretic principles of Russian Bolsheviks among foreign Jews who have sought and found refuge in England. We welcome, accordingly, your suggestion that British Jews should 'dissociate themselves from a cause which is doing the Jewish people harm in all parts of the world.' This is profoundly true, and we, on our behalf and on behalf of numbers of British Jews with whom we have conferred, desire to dissociate ourselves absolutely and unreservedly from the mischievous and misleading doctrines which those articles are calculated to disseminate. We repudiate them as dangerous in themselves and as false to the tenets and teachings of Judaism.

Partly in order to counteract the mistaken policy of the newspapers referred to, the League of British Jews was founded in November, 1917. The proceedings and views of the League are published in a monthly bulletin, entitled Jewish Opinion, which can be obtained at the office of the League, 708-709 Salisbury House, E.C. 2, and which may eventually be merged in a larger journal appearing at more frequent intervals. For we thoroughly concur with your criticism that 'the British Jewish community, most of whom,' as you rightly say, 'are by no means in sympathy with this (Nationalist) crusade, are being served very badly by their newspapers.' Meantime we take this opportunity of repudiating in public the particular statements in those newspapers to which you have felt it your duty to call attention.

Yours, etc.,

(c) "Prominent London Jews justify anti-Semitic Attack
"General Monash, Rothschild and Montefiore Figure in Agitation.

"In reply to a recent article in the London Morning Post, in which the editor accused the Jews as being Bolsheviks, a letter justifying the stand of the Post in the matter was sent to that paper and signed by Baron Lionel Rothschild, Lord Swaythling, Sir Magnus, Sir Marcus Samuel, Sir Harry Samuel, General Monash, Sir Isidore Spielmann, Claude Montefiore, Leonard Cohen and Professor Galantz.

"As a result of this letter, a self-sanctifying leading editorial appeared in the Post, which cried out in virtuous indignation against all those who had previously questioned that the majority of the Jews are Bolsheviks. The letter, coming as it has, at a time when the anti-Semitic pot is boiling in London, has a peculiarly unfortunate effect. The opinion of London Jewry towards these ten men they consider have betrayed them, may best be left to the imagination."

It is significant that the feeling that the Jews are largely instrumental in promoting Bolshevism and radicalism in general is by no means confined to England. The New York World published on January 26, 1919, a cable from Buenos Aires entitled "Argentina Deports Fourteen Hundred Bolsheviks." The cable reads as follows:

"Buenos Aires, January 25.—Fourteen hundred prisoners, charged with Bolshevik activities, are on board a cruiser here awaiting deportation, according to Secret Service Men. The majority of them are Russian Jews. Some Spaniards are among the number."

In the same connection the New York Tribune, on January 24, 1919, reported that in Buenos Aires posters were put up in which the Russian Jews were blamed "for the recent outbreaks, as well as the anarchistic outbreak in 1910," and it was demanded that "the government rid the nation of this Jewish pest."

In the issue of The Review of March 13, 1920, an article was published entitled "Bolshevism in Holland." The article gives a brief description of the Bolshevik movement in Holland. It also gives the names of the most prominent leaders of the Bolshevik movement in that country. In part the article reads as follows:

"First among these is Mr. David Wijnkoop, an Amsterdam Jew, of a fiery, impetuous temperament, a great orator with a strong hold on the masses. He is the Dutch counterpart of his Russian comrade Trotzky, whom he resembles even in outward appearance, and a faithful henchman of his Moscow alter ego in the spreading of the latter's international propaganda."

It is a well-known fact that in Hungary, during the Bolshevik revolution of 1919, Bela Kun, whose real name is Cohen, a Jew, became the dictator. It was often reported in various papers that out of the thirty-one Soviet officials in Hungary twenty-six were Jews.

In Austria revolutionary attempts were made to set up a Bolshevik government, and the two brothers Alder, as well as Friedrich Adler, all of whom are Jews, were the leading spirits of the Bolshevik revolutionary propaganda in that country.

In Germany the first Spartacus revolt was almost exclusively under the control of Jews. Among others were: Rosa Luxemburg, Clara Zetkin, Radek (whose real name is Sobelsohn), Eugene Levine, Muscham.

In the recent attempt to overthrow the Ebert Government and set up a Bolshevik Republic, almost all of the leaders in Berlin were Jews. The New York Sun, under date of March 18, 1920, gives the names of the Communist leaders who attempted to overthrow the government as follows: Colin, Daumig, Newmann, Dr. von Kahn, Kurt Bever, Levy.

As to the United States the following should be stated:

While it is a generally recognized fact that the Socialist, Communist, Radical, I. W. W., and Bolshevik movements are largely recruited from the foreign-born population of various nationalities, nevertheless it can scarcely be denied that the moving spirit of the destructive revolutionary propaganda is largely Jewish and fomented by Jews. Thus, for instance, the notorious "Russian" Soviet Bureau, headed by Ludwig C. A. K. Martens, a German, was almost exclusively composed of Jews. Those who were in charge of responsible departments in the Bureau were as follows:

Abraham Heller . . . Manager of the Commercial Department

Nuorteva Whose real name is said to be Neuberger, Manager of the Propaganda Department

Charles Recht) viet Bureau

All of the five Socialists who were recently ousted from the Assembly of the state of New York by an overwhelming vote were Jews. Their names are: Louis Waldman, August Clas-sens, Samuel A. de Witt, Samuel Orr, and Charles Solomon. During the trial of these men one of the most sensational pieces of evidence introduced by the state to show that the Socialist Party advocated the overthrow of the government by violence and revolution, was a book published in Yiddish by the Jewish Socialist Federation of America. This federa-tion is a part of the Socialist Party. The official report of the Judiciary Committee of the Assembly of the State of New York remarks that in the book published in Yiddish, the prin-ciples of Socialism, "were not camouflaged, as they frequently are in English" (page 31). The book in question typifies the extreme of revolutionary Socialism in the United States. We quote some of the more striking passages:

"Workingmen cannot depend on 'peaceful evolution'; they must prepare for a revolution, and class-dictatorship" (page 207).

"The Socialist movement rouses the workingmen to revolu-tion; it preaches to them class-struggle, awakens within them class-consciousness, makes all necessary preparations for a Socialistic order. When society is ready for the overturn, when the Socialist organization feels that the moment has come, it will make the revolution. To predict when and how this should be done is impossible. This is a thing which must be determined separately in every country, because the circum-stances in every country are different. No sooner than the revolution is made, however, the first aim of the Socialists must be to seize the government, the state, by whatever means they can succeed in doing this with and then their rule must establish the dictatorship of the Proletariat.

"This dictatorship will be employed for one thing, to eliminate capitalism by force, take away by force the capital from private owners and transfer it to the ownership of the community."

"Socialists seek to be elected into the government principally for the sake of propaganda."

"To the Socialist at present, the meaning of class struggle, Internationale, and dictatorship of the Proletariat must be clear. He must understand that Socialism is not a reform movement. He must know that Socialism is a Revolutionary world-perspective, and that the Socialist movement is a Revolutionary movement."

The radical periodicals published in this country in Russian are almost entirely managed and completely controlled by Jews. For instance, the Russki Golos has an editorial staff composed of four men, all of whom are Jews, namely, Weinbaum, Zvesdichiy, Sokolov, Gisenkin. The official organ of the Russian Communist Branch of the American Communist Party, the Novy Mir, is edited by two Jews, namely, N. Hourwitch, and Stoklitzky. The Bolshevik weekly, Pravda, is edited by two Jews, namely, Finkelstein and Weinstein. The Ukrainian Bolshevik tri-weekly publication, Robitnik, is published by a Jew, K. Pitlar. At the same time, even leaving out the well-known Yiddish publication The Jewish Daily Forward, with pronounced pro-Bolshevist tendencies, the new Anarchistic periodical, The Communist World, published in English, has the following men on its editorial staff, all of whom are Jews:

Maximilian Cohen	Editor
B. D. Wolfe	Associate Editor
George Ashkenouzi	Business Manager
H. Winitsky.	Executive Secretary

Winitsky was recently convicted of criminal anarchy in the New York Courts.

Again, with the recently founded Communist Party of America, the rôle of the Jew is very important, inasmuch as its founder is Louis Fraina, an Italian Jew. Examples of this kind could be multiplied almost indefinitely. For this reason we must content ourselves with a reference to an article published in the New York Call. This is the official organ of the Socialist Party of America, which is issued under the motto:

"Workers of the world, unite! You have nothing to lose but your chains, and a world to gain."

The president of this publication is S. Block, a Jew. The article in question, entitled "Chicago Workers Plan Big May Day Demonstrations," deals with the arrangements for the May Day Parade of the Chicago radical labor organizations in 1919. It enumerates some of the organizations which were represented in the conference which planned the demonstrations:

"Joint Board, Cloak Makers' Union.
11 branchers of the Workmen's Circle.
Millinery Workers, Local Union, 47.
Northwest Side Jewish Socialist Branch.
The Hebrew Trades.
The Brushmakers' Union.
The 13th Ward Jewish Socialist Branch.
The Karl Marx Jewish Socialist Branch.
Yipsel Jewish Socialist Branches 1 and 4.
Carpenters' Union, Local 504.
West Side Jewish Socialist Campaign Conference.
The Northwest Side Jewish Socialist Campaign Conference.
The 15th Ward Campaign Committee.
West Side Jewish Socialist Branch.
Amalgamated Local Union, 39.
Waist Makers' Union, 100.
International Ladies' Garment Workers' Union.
Bakers' Union, 237.
Capmakers' Union, Local 5.
Young People's Progressive Dramatic Club.
City Central Committee, Jewish Socialist Branches.
City Central Committee, Workmen's Circle.
Douglas Park Jewish Socialist Branch".

Indeed, it can scarcely be denied that the Jewish labor organizations as enumerated by this Socialist publication itself were in complete control of the whole May Day parade in one of the biggest cities in the United States.

One more fact of importance which should be mentioned is that four Anarchists, who were convicted and sentenced to terms of twenty years by the United States District Court for the Southern District of New York, were Jews. Their names are: Jacob Abrams, Samuel Lippman, Hyman Lachowsky, Mollie Stimer.

Finally, we refer to the well-known activities of Emma Goldman and Alexander Berkman, both of whom are Jews, and who were deported on the Soviet Ark "Buford."

Of course, it is significant that the radical labor movement is largely controlled by Jewish internationalists, but still more significant appears the fact that recently several rabbis have taken a definite stand in support of the Red movement. We shall refer here to two instances. On October 25, 1919, the

New York Tribune stated that Rabbi Judah L. Magnes had publicly announced that "he was a Bolshevik and in full sympathy with their doctrines and ideals." The article referred to is entitled "Bolshevik Talk Forces Magnes Out." Therein it is revealed that on account of his public announcement that he was in full sympathy with Trotzky, Rabbi Magnes was forced to resign from the American Jewish Committee. It is important to bear in mind that at that time Rabbi Magnes was one of the most honored members of the Jewish community. Rabbi Magnes was deputed in 1916 to represent in Europe the American Jewish Relief organization, The Joint Distribution Committee, which, among other activities, solicited and distributed money and supplies to the Jews in territories occupied by the Central Powers. Whenever there is a great mass meeting Rabbi Magnes appears as the chief Spokesman on behalf of the Jews in New York City, as has happened several times since his expulsion from the American Jewish Committee. Rabbi Magnes was one of the founders of the People's Council, which was dissolved by the United States Government during the war. Here is a tentative enumeration of Rabbi Magnes's activities as stated in the Tribune article above referred to:

"Dr. Magnes was one of the organizers of the American-Jewish Committee which has been engaged in philanthropic work among the Jews for the last fifteen years. Most of the work of the committee was confined to countries where the people were oppressed. Dr. Magnes has held many important posts and at one time was Rabbi of the Temple Emanu-El. Shortly after we entered the war he became a strong pacifist and was active in the People's Council.

"There was a movement started on the East Side early in the summer to make Dr. Magnes the Socialist candidate for Congress. The persons who attempted this move are now supporting Congressman London for reëlection. Dr. Magnes is chairman of the American Jewish Kehillah."

The other instance is that of Rabbi Maxwell Silver of Temple Shaari Zedek, Brooklyn, who, on January 8, 1920, was ousted by his congregation early in January, 1920, because of alleged radical utterances. "It was charged that he drew class lines and spoke of the rich as oppressors." (See New York Times, January 8, 1920.) This fact alone might not be of great importance, but the action of the New York Association of Reformed Rabbis, as reported in the New York daily press, is significant:

"After the dismissal of Rabbi Maxwell Silver, of Congregation Shaari Zedek, of Brooklyn, the New York Association of Reformed Rabbis undertook the mediation of the trouble between the congregation and the Rabbi, and as a result pointed out that the whole difficulty was due to an unfortunate misunderstanding. Thereupon the trustees decided to recommend the reinstatement of Rabbi Silver, and we are happy to state that such reinstatement was ratified by the congregation after a special meeting last night. By a special resolution the New York Association of Reformed Rabbis expresses its confidence in the worthiness of Rabbi Silver and also in the good intentions of the Congregation Shaari Zedek to serve the cause of Israel."

It is also a peculiar fact to consider that certain powerful Jewish bankers were instrumental and active in spreading Bolshevism, which now threatens the whole world. In this connection we refer the reader to one of the "Sisson Documents," published by the United States Government in 1917 under the title "German Bolshevik Conspiracy":

On September 21, 1917, one of the leading German Spartan leaders, a Jew, by name of Furstenberg, wrote a letter to a Bolshevik by the name of Raphael Scholan, who became later one of the Bolshevik commissaries in Soviet Russia, as follows:

STOCKHOLM, Sept. 21, 1917.

"To MR. RAPHAEL SCHOLAN, Haparanda.

DEAR COMRADE:

The banking house, M. Warburg, opened an account for the enterprise of Comrade Trotzky, upon receipt of a telegram from the Chairman of the 'Rhein-Westphalian Syndicate.' A lawyer, probably Mr. Kestroff, obtained ammunition and organized the transportation of same, together with that of the money, to Lulea and Vardo, the firm of Essen & Son, Lulea, as to the consignee and the confidential persons to whom the sum demanded by Comrade Trotzky is to be handed. Fraternal greetings!

(sgd) FURSTENBERG."

Rumors that international Jewish financiers have been supporting the Bolsheviks in Russia are persistent.

THE PROTOCOLS

Who are the international financiers? Perhaps the answer is to be found in the following cable dispatch of the Wolff Agency on the German situation in 1919, published by La Vieille France in the issue of February 13, 1919:

"The deputy Hyemann has revealed the curious fact: The Bolshevik movement is supported by financiers. The banker, Bleichroeder, has contributed two millions to the Extremist Journal."

It is of course known that Bleichroeder is one of the most powerful Jewish financiers in Germany.

It will be remembered that the Protocols bring out very distinctly two ideas, namely, economic and social dissensions of all kinds, including anarchism and communism and also a world war.

In a recently published book which has created much interest, entitled "The Inside Story of Austro-German Intrigue," by Joseph Goričar and Lyman Beecher Stowe, the authors advanced the theory that Jewish bankers have during the last century played an important rôle in European war conspiracies. Mr. Goričar was, during the early part of the late war, Austro-Hungarian Consul in Berlin. We refer to one of the most important passages in the book bearing upon the subject:

"The pro-war bankers of 1854 as well as those of 1914 originated in the Semitic banking center of Frankfort-on-the-Main in Germany, the birthplace of the Bethmann-Hollweds, the Goldschmidts, the Seligmans, Jacob Schiff, and the Rothschilds.

It has been stated by one of the leaders of Zionism, namely, Israel Zangwill, author of "The Children of the Ghetto," that Mr. Jacob Schiff financed "the Japanese war against Russia." This statement is made in a pamphlet entitled "The Problems of the Jewish Race," p. 14, published by the Judean Publishing Company, New York City.

In its report of a Socialist meeting held in Carnegie Hall on March 23, 1917, to celebrate the revolution in Russia, the New York Times on March 24, 1917, says:

"An authority on Russian affairs, George Kennan, told of how a movement by the Society of the Friends of Russian Freedom, financed by Jacob Schiff, had at the time of the Russo-Japanese war spread among 50,000 Russian officers and men in Japanese prison camps the gospel of the Russian revolutionists."

The Jewish character of the first Russian revolution was strongly emphasized in a report presented to the Emperor of Russia, Nicholas II, by the Russian Foreign Minister, Count Lamsdorf, on January 3, 1906, published in full in English translation in "The American Hebrew and Jewish Messenger," in its issue of July 13, 1918. Therein it is stated that a very considerable part in the revolutionary activities was played by the Jews, "who individually, as ringleaders in other organizations.

"All the vast wealth of the banking house of the Rothschilds, amounting at the beginning of the war to some twenty billion francs, was made chiefly in war operations, war financing. The Rothschild brothers of the Central Empires have in fact sometimes financed simultaneously rival groups of belligerents.

"Frankfort-on-the-Main is, and has been for more than a hundred years, the chief source of financial backing for wars. Kings, emperors, and war ministers have had to await the pleasure of these bankers before issuing their ultimata. To that centre have been added Vienna, Berlin, and Budapest, the other important centres of Jewish world finance. In Vienna the Rothschilds' word is law; in Berlin, the Hahnemans, Bleichroeders, Mendelssohns, especially the last named, who of late years have controlled Russia's finances. To these same sources may be traced the origin of the World War." (Pages 56 and 57.)

The "Protocols" have already attracted public attention in various countries. The attitude which the Jewish leaders will take in regard to them is a matter of great interest and deep concern. Until now they have kept silent. Only on rare occasions have the Jews referred, though very indirectly, to the question of the existence of a Jewish world conspiracy. The most explicit utterance on the subject in the United States is that of Rabbi Stephen Wise, in his address to the Congregation of Free Synagogues in Carnegie Hall, on March 1, 1920. The reports of the address in the daily press are rather meager. We set forth in full the report which appeared in the New York Tribune on the following day:

"'JEWISH PLOT' ONLY AMONG APOSTATES, SAYS DR. WISE "BELIEVES MEN WHO FORSWEAR ANCIENT FAITH WOULD SEIZE POWER FOR OWN ENDS

"Speaking to the congregation of the Free Synagogue in Carnegie Hall yesterday on the subject of 'The Jewish Conspiracy,' which has had its most recent revival in a story pub-as well as through their own (the Jewish Bund in the Western Provinces), have always come forward as the most bellicose element of the revolution." Count Lamsdorf further stated: "We may feel entitled to assume that the above mentioned foreign support of the Russian revolutionary movement comes from Jewish capitalist circles. . . . In June, 1905, a special Anglo-Jewish committee was openly established in England for the purpose of collecting money for arming fighting groups of Russian Jews: The well-known anti-Russian publicist, Lucien Wolf, was the leading member of this committee. . . . The Jews in America . . . collect money for helping the pogrom sufferers and for arming the Jewish youth."

lished in the London Morning Post, charging that Jews were in a plot to seize control of the world, Dr. Stephen S. Wise said that the only serious 'conspiracy' among the Jews to-day emanated from the young men who foreswore their ancient faith.

"Saying that oppression and injustice have attended the followers of the Jewish faith for centuries, Dr. Wise added that they had a right to be vindictive, but that it was not in their nature to be so.

"It is the Jew who has been reduced to such a state of degradation by oppression that he lies when he swears allegiance to another faith which has not even touched his heart, who becomes a dangerous element in the life of the world," said Dr. Wise.

"The conspiracy,' if there is one, is among those of Jewish birth who are or seem ashamed of their origin. They follow false gods or none at all, and among them will be those who may seize power for their own ends."

CONCLUSION

In conclusion it must be stated that the motives which have actuated the publication of this book are not anti-Semitic. The object — already indicated in the introduction — is to call the attention of the American people to a document which may throw important light upon the international Bolshevik movement which menaces directly the vital interests of the United States.

That this attention is amply justified appears from a review of the recent publication of the Protocols in England, which appeared in the London Times on May 8, 1920. The article is so significant that it is reprinted in its entirety.

"THE JEWISH PERIL."

The Times has not as yet noticed this singular little book. Its diffusion is, however, increasing, and its reading is likely to perturb the thinking public. Never before have a race and a creed been accused of a more sinister conspiracy. We in this country, who live in good fellowship with numerous representatives of Jewry, may well ask that some authoritative criticism should deal with it, and either destroy the ugly "Semitic" bogey or assign their proper place to the insidious allegations of this kind of literature.

In spite of the urgency of impartial and exhaustive criticism, the pamphlet has been allowed, so far, to pass almost unchallenged. The Jewish Press announced, it is true, that the anti-Semitism of the "Jewish Peril" was going to be exposed. But save for an unsatisfactory article in the March 5 issue of the Jewish Guardian, and for an almost equally unsatisfactory contribution to the Nation of March 27, this exposure is yet to come. The article of the Jewish Guardian is unsatisfactory, because it deals mainly with the personality of the author of the book in which the pamphlet is embodied, with Russian reactionary propaganda, and the Russian secret police. It does not touch the substance of the "Protocols of the Learned Elders of Zion." The purely Russian side of the book and its fervid "Orthodoxy" is not its most interesting feature. Its author, Professor S. Nilus, who was a minor official in the Department of Foreign Religions at Moscow, had, in all likelihood, opportunities of access to many archives and unpublished documents. On the other hand, the world-wide issue raised by the "Protocols" which he incorporated in his book and are now translated into English as "The Jewish Peril," cannot fail not only to interest, but to preoccupy. What are the theses of the "Protocols" with which, in the absence of public criticism, British readers have to grapple alone and unaided? They are, roughly:—

(1) There is, and has been for centuries, a secret international political organization of the Jews.

(2) The spirit of this organization appears to be an undying traditional hatred of the Christian world, and a titanic ambition for world domination.

(3) The goal relentlessly pursued through centuries is the destruction of the Christian national States, and the substitution for them of an international Jewish dominion.

(4) The method adopted for first weakening and then destroying existing bodies politic is the infusion of disintegrating political ideas of carefully measured progressive disruptive force, from liberalism to radicalism, and socialism to communism, culminating in anarchy as a reductio ad absurdum of egalitarian principles. Meanwhile Jewry remains immune from these corrosive doctrines. "We preach Liberalism to the Gentiles, but on the other hand we keep our own nation in entire subjection" (page 55). Out of the welter of world anarchy, in response to the desperate clamour of distraught humanity, the stern, logical, wise, pitiless rule of "the King of the Seed of David" is to arise.

(5) Political dogmas evolved by Christian Europe, democratic statesmanship and politics, are all equally contemptible to the Elders of Zion. To them statesmanship is an exalted secret art, acquired only by traditional training, and imparted to a select few in the secrecy of some occult sanctuary. "Political problems are not meant to be understood by ordinary people; they can only be comprehended, as I have said before, by rulers who have been directing affairs for many centuries."

(6) To this conception of statesmanship the masses are contemptible cattle, and the political leaders of the Gentiles, "upstarts from its midst as rulers, are likewise blind in politics." They are puppets, pulled by the hidden hand of the "Elders," puppets mostly corrupt, always inefficient, easily coaxed, or bullied, or blackmailed into submission, unconsciously furthering the advent of Jewish dominion.

(7) The Press, the theatre, stock exchange speculations, science, law itself, are, in the hands that hold all the gold, so many means of procuring a deliberate confusion and bewilderment of public opinion, demoralization of the young, and encouragement of the vices of the adult, eventually substituting, in the minds of the Gentiles, for the idealistic aspiration of Christian culture the "cash basis" and a neutrality of materialistic scepticism, or cynical lust for pleasure.

Such are the main theses of the "Protocols." They are not altogether new, and can be found scattered throughout anti-Semitic literature. The condensed form in which they are now presented lends them a new and weird force.

Incidentally, some of the features of the would-be Jewish programme bear an uncanny resemblance to situations and events now developing under our eyes. Professor Nilus's book was, undoubtedly, published in Russia in 1905. The copy of the original at the British Museum bears the stamp of August 10, 1906. This being so, some of the passages assume the aspect of fulfilled prophecies, unless one is inclined to attribute the prescience of the "Elders of Zion" to the fact that they really are the hidden instigators of these events. When one reads (page 8) that "it is indispensable for our plans that wars should not produce any territorial alterations," one is most forcibly reminded of the cry, "peace without annexations" raised by all the radical parties of the world, and especially in revolutionary Russia. And again: —

We will create a universal economic crisis, by all possible underhand means and with the help of gold, which is all in our hands. Simultaneously we will throw on to the streets huge crowds of workmen throughout Europe. We will increase the wages, which will not help the workmen as, at the same time, we will raise the price of prime necessities . . . it is essential for us at all costs to deprive the aristocracy of their lands. To attain this purpose, the best method is to force up rates and taxes. These methods will keep the landed interests at their lowest possible ebb.

Nor can one fail to recognize Soviet Russia in the following:—

" . . . in governing the world the best results are obtained by means of violence and intimidation. . . . In politics, we must know how to confiscate property without any hesitation, if by so doing we can obtain subjection and power. Our State, following the way of peaceful conquest, has the right of substituting for the terrors of war, executions less apparent and more expedient, which are necessary to uphold terror, producing blind submission. . . . By new laws we will regulate the political life of our subjects as though they were so many parts of a machine. Such laws will gradually restrict all freedom and liberties allowed by the Gentiles. . . . It is essential for us to arrange that, besides ourselves, there should be in all countries nothing but a huge proletariat, so many soldiers and police loyal to our cause; . . . in order to demonstrate our enslavement of the Gentile Governments of Europe, we will show our power to one of them by means of crime and violence, that is to say, a reign of terror; . . . our programme will induce a third part of the populace to watch the remainder from a pure sense of duty or from the principle of voluntary service."

Bearing in mind when this was published, we see, fifteen years later, a government established in Russia of which a high percentage of the leaders are Jews, whose modus operandi follows the principles quoted, and whose mainstay is a Communist Party, which answers to the last quotation. We see this, and it seems uncanny. The trouble is that all this fosters indiscriminate anti-Semitism. That the latter is rampant in Eastern Europe is a fact. That its propaganda in France, England, and America is growing is a fact also. Do we want, and can we afford to add exacerbated race-hatred to all our political, social, and economic troubles? If not, the question of the "Jewish Peril" should be taken up and dealt with. It is far too interesting, the hypothesis it presents is far too ingenious, attractive, and sensational not to attract the attention of our none too happy and none too contented public. The average man thinks that there is something very fundamentally wrong with the world he lives in. He will eagerly grasp at a plausible "working hypothesis."

What are these "Protocols"? Are they authentic? If so, what malevolent assembly concocted these plans, and gloated over their exposition? Are they forgery? If so, whence comes the uncanny note of prophecy, prophecy in parts fulfilled, in parts far gone in the way of fulfilment? Have we been struggling these tragic years to blow up and extirpate the secret organization of German world dominion only to find beneath it another more dangerous because more secret? Have we, by straining every fibre of our national body, escaped a "Pax Germanica" only to fall into a "Pax Judaeica"? The "Elders of Zion," as represented in their "Protocols," are by no means kinder taskmasters than William II and his henchmen would have been.

All these questions, which are likely to obtrude themselves on the reader of the "Jewish Peril," cannot be dismissed by a shrug of the shoulders unless one wants to strengthen the hand of the typical anti-Semite and call forth his favourite accusation of the "conspiracy of silence." An impartial investigation of these would-be documents and of their history is most desirable. That history is by no means clear from the English translation. They would appear, from internal evidence, to have been written by Jews for Jews, or to be cast in the form of lectures, and notes for lectures, by Jews to Jews. If so, in what circumstances were they produced and to cope with what inter-Jewish emergency? Or are we to dismiss the whole matter without inquiry and to let the influence of such a book as this work unchecked?

The publishers believe that the vast majority of the Jews in this country have never heard of the Protocols, and would denounce the plan which they set forth. The Jews here, constituting about three per cent of the population, enjoy the same rights and privileges as other citizens. All are equal before the law and all are free from persecution on religious grounds. American Jews are regarded by their fellow citizens, and for the most part doubtless regard themselves, as Americans of Jewish faith. They have indeed a special ground for gratitude to the country of their adoption, for they have found here opportunities which they did not enjoy in many other countries. They have shared in all the activities leading to prosperity and they have prospered. That they do, in fact, recognize their favorable situation is shown by the statements; two of them are reported by the New York Times, in its issue of May 4, 1920, to have made at a mass meeting held on the preceding evening at Cooper Union under the auspices of the Independent Order of Brith Abraham, to express the gratitude of the Jewish people to Great Britain for taking the mandate for Palestine. Judge Gustave Hartman, Grand Master of the order, is reported to have said in part:

"We didn't know what a home was until we reached this greatest of all republics, the United States of America. Here we are given free and equal opportunity under the free institutions of this country. In this country the Jews have lived and prospered, and in all this country there are no better citizens than the Jewish people."

Judge Otto A. Rosalsky said "that it became the duty of the Jewish citizens of America to cherish the ideals of this country and keep them intact, so that they might be handed down to their children's children."

Doubtless American Jews will recognize the menace to American institutions and American prosperity of any such political conspiracy as is outlined in the Protocols. But the situation demands more than tacit disapproval on their part. Bearing in mind the close parallelism shown to exist between the "Protocols" and the actual policies of Bolshevism as practiced in Russia, the dominant position occupied by the Jews in the Soviet Government, and the open sympathy and approval given to international Bolshevism by prominent Jews outside of Russia, it is vitally necessary that the American Jews should by word and deed express their condemnation not only of Bolshevism, but of any plan or program for world domination similar to that contained in the Protocols. Aside from their position on these matters, there is no likelihood of any change in the favorable situation of the Jews in this country unless by their own conduct they convince the American people that they are hostile to our institutions or to our system of government, or that they desire to constitute within the borders of the United States a race apart,—to be treated as members of a foreign nation, enjoying special rights, privileges, or immunities.

of Sir William Wiseman of the British Secret Service stationed in this country. In spite of the fact that it has so often been discredited, it is a fact that all it contains has been proven from other sources. In this report was the statement, "we will use the movement of the Earl of Dysart, the British Israel World Federation movement." The status is much the same as that of the Protocols, so vigorously denied, but if you will refer to the Jewish Year Book, page 179, 1920-1921, you will find the reference to the Protocols. There is no denial of the Protocols or their authenticity but there is the statement 'that the translator omitted a paragraph in which England is accused of being the accomplice of the Jews in this conspiracy.'

It was in 1935 that the Earl of Strafford, Thomas Wentworth, addressed an 'Admonition to King George V, in which he told the King to stop playing with this Communist movement, that it was Satanic, against the realm. He referred to the British Israel World Federation movement of 6 Buckingham Gate, London. You can call the British Library of Information if you wish to satisfy yourself that such a movement exists. You will find the name of Sir William Wiseman listed as one of the supporters on the back cover of the National Message.

In this country the movement, now known as the Anglo-Saxon Federation of America, was located in the Fox Building, Detroit and the organ now called 'Destiny' was then called the 'Messenger of the Covenant.'

The Anglo-Saxon Federation of America was established at the time the Dearborn Independent was being published. William J. Cameron, Henry Ford's man Friday was the editor of the paper. The protocols had been brought to this country from England, they were taken to Mr. Cameron. Two or more people have claimed the honor of taking them to Mr. Ford or Mr. Cameron, one, Haviland Lund, who had spent several years in England. Mrs. Lund had taken the 'missing Tea Pot Dome leases' to President Harding from Secretary Fall's office where she was employed. Marcia, well known in Washington circles as the advisor to many in the field of predictions, accompanied her. The story was related to me when Mrs. Lund and I paid her a call. Those most interested in Tea Pot Dome did not want Mrs. Lund called to testify so she was sent to England. It was on her return that she brought the protocols and told me that she had taken them to Mr. Cameron.

After these protocols were published Lt. Col. W. G. Mac Kendrick, of the Commonwealth Publishing Company, Toronto, Canada, with a convert Merton H. Smith went to Detroit, called on Mr. Cameron, told him he was making a mistake in publishing the Protocols and sold him the idea of British Israel World Federation.

Mr. Cameron was British born (Canada) he had lived in this country for over forty years and had voted all that time without being a citizen. It was only when he wished to leave the country and get a passport to return that he was made a citizen in three days by Judge Moinet (federal). See New York American, September 12, 1935. See also New Money Pamphlet.

Through Mr. Cameron, Henry Ford was interested and became a liberal supporter financially of this propaganda. So great was Mr. Ford's interest that if you wished to reach him on a public question, as happened with one of my friends, you were told that if you did not know or did not go along with British Israel you would not succeed in that which you sought.

This book went through three or four editions. I am not aware that the pamphlet is a mutilation of the book, nor do I know the object of Serge Nilus in publishing this work. I fear the law confers no powers upon me to procure the suppression of the publication."—31. On the Protocols

By Ezra Pound

[Note: Ezra Pound, arguably one of America's greatest poets, moved to Italy in 1924 and became involved in the newly regenerated Italy of the time. He soon broadcasted from Fascist Italy during the Second World War. His broadcasts were a mix of politics, personal commentary, anecdotes, and old fashioned wit. These were heard in England and America with his aim to try and enlighten people on why the war was fought and for whom. His message was against the hyper-internationalism that held the world hostage under the thumb of finance bankers and criminal politicians.

"To send boys from Omaha to Singapore to die for British monopoly and brutality is not the act of an American patriot...This war did not begin in 1939. It is not a unique result of the infamous Versailles Treaty. It is impossible to understand it without knowing at least a few precedent historic events, which mark the cycle of combat...This war is part of the age-old struggle between the usurer and the rest of mankind: between the usurer and peasant, the usurer and producer, and finally between the usurer and the merchant, between usurocracy and the mercantilist system ...The present war dates at least from the founding of the Bank of England at the end of the 17th century, 1694-8. Half a century later, the London usurocracy shut down on the issue of paper money by the Pennsylvania colony, A.D. 1750. This is not usually given prominence in the U.S. school histories. The 13 colonies rebelled, quite successfully, 26 years later, A.D. 1776."

With the close of the war because of his broadcasts Pound was tried by the US government for treason and locked away in a mental institution in Washington D.C. He was later released and died in solitude in Italy. Following is a radio broadcast from Italy of April 20, 1943 discussing the controversial Protocols of the Learned Elders of Zion Ed.]

If or when one mentions the Protocols alleged to be of the Elders of Zion, one is frequently met with the reply: Oh, but they are a forgery.

Certainly they are a forgery, and that is the one proof we have of their authenticity. The Jews have worked with forged documents for the past 24 hundred years, namely ever since they have had any documents whatsoever. And no one can qualify as a historian of this half century without having examined the Protocols. Alleged, if you like, to have been translated from the Russian, from a manuscript to be consulted in the British Museum, where some such document may or may not exist.

What we know for certain is that they were published two decades ago. That Lord Sydenham wrote a preface to them. That their content has been traced to another sketch said to have appeared in the eighteen forties. The interest in them does not lie in [the] question of their having been, or NOT been concocted by a legislative assembly of Rabbis, democratically elected, or secretly chosen by the Mysterious Order of Seven Branched Antlers or the Bowling Society of Milwaukee. Their interest lies in the type of mind, or the state of mind of their author. That was their interest for the psychologist the day they first appeared. And for the historian two decades later, when the program contained in them has so crushingly gone into effect up to a point, or down to a squalor.

What is interesting, perhaps most, to the historian is their definite campaign against history altogether, their declared intention to blot out the classics, to blot out the record, and to dazzle men with talk of tomorrow. That is a variant on the pie in the bait. As far as reality is concerned, as far as you and I are concerned it makes little difference whether prosperity is in heaven, or in the year 2300, or just round a corner that will never be turned.

A religious man might think his reward might be in heaven, but even a religious man ought to know that his reward will not be on earth in a hundred years time. In fact, the pie in the sky is a more reasonable proposition: an opium with more to it than Mr. Keynes' day after tomorrow.

I am not concerned with fixing blame retrospectively so much as with judging the present: those who are against the true word, the protocolaires. Now Keynes whose fair is foul, foul is fair sentence can be taken as the quintessence of something or other, is the perfect protoclaire. It comes over me that on the one occasion I had the curious experience of seeing him, he managed to utter two falsehoods in a very short space of time. In fact never opened his mouth without doing so. First in stating that he is an orthodox economist, which he is not, second in saying that the then high cost of living was due to lack of labor, when there were millions of men out of work.

You couldn't have done much better in two sentences if you were out for a record in the falsification. Protocol No. 8, second [paragraph]:

"We shall surround our government with a whole world of economists. That is the reason why economic sciences form, etc. Around us again will be a whole constellation of bankers, industrialists, capitalists and the main thing, millionaires, because in substance everything will be settled by the question of figures."

Is it possible to arouse any interest in verbal precision? Is it possible to persuade more than six or eight people to consider the scope of crossword puzzles and other devices for looking at words for something that is NOT their meaning? Cabala, for example, anything to make the word mean something it does NOT say. Anything to distract the auditor from the plain sense of the word, or the sentence? Even to communism that is NOT communism. To communism of the episcopal sort, which they want in England. A Bolshevism that is to leave the archbishops and curates just where they are, each with his living or benefice. A revelation against capital, allegedly against capital, that attacks property and leaves capital setting pretty.

Lenin all out for making banking a state affair. And then twenty years during which it has seemed to drop decidedly into the background, when the world revolution was very busy about something else.

It should by now be clear that some people fear NOT the outcome of the war, but the END of the war. Churchill, for example. Not defeat, not the ruin of the Empire that worries him, but the END of the war. End of the slaughter, end of the war conditions.

Robert Clive has been clear enough, ex-British ambassador in Tokyo. Tells you and the world Japan can not be beaten. But the war must go ON, according to Churchill and Roosevelt. Churchill sees the end of monopoly and privilege, or at least a shift when the war ends, no matter HOW. That is the point you should consider. In regard to the protocols, either there is and was a plot to ruin all goyim, all nations of Europe, or some people are stark raving crazy. They want war to go on to certain wreck. WHO are they?

Mere cannon fodder. The American troops in N. Africa know they are not there thru any wish of their own. The war was started for gold, to maintain the fetish value of gold. Plenty of other sidelines. Minor advantages have been COMMERCIALLY taken. Did the present regime in England WANT the troops to return after Dunkirk? Every move for reform in England is a fascist reform, or proposition along fascist lines.

The supreme betrayal of Europe is inherent in the alliance of Anglo-Jewry with Moscow. Debts rise. That is one part of the war. It is a contest between STOPPING the war and going on with it. And only one side does any fighting. Namely the party that STARTED the war. They are for its continuance. Who are they?

BUT they are also for starting the next one. They openly proclaim that AFTER (that is IF) America finishes with Japan, she will have to fight Russia. IF Russia should break into Europe.

Only blindness and deafness can keep you unaware of these proclamations. The U.S.

must protect the world? Why? Does the world want it? The U.S., once this war is over, must be strong enough to beat Russia.

The U.S. had a chance to maintain her prestige and unique position by staying NEUTRAL. Neutral while other powers exhausted themselves. And she DID not.

Who are the lunatics? Was there a deliberate plot? That is what should concern you. WAS there a plot? How long had it been in existence? Does it continue, with its Lehmans, Morgenthau, Baruchs? Proposals to send the darkies to Africa, to work for Judea, and the rest of it? And WILL you, after Japan is thru with you, take on Russia? In order to maintain the banking monopoly? With Mr. Wille Wiseman, late of the British secret service, ensconced in Kuhn, Loeb and Co., to direct you and rule you?

AFTER observing the title of this book, some will accuse me of being anti-Semitic. If by this they mean that I am opposed to the Jews as a race or as a religion, I deny the allegation. But if they mean that I am opposed to a coterie of international Jewish bankers ruling the Gentile world by the power of gold, if they mean that I am opposed to international Jewish Communism, then I plead guilty to the charge. -- Winrod.

THE BOOK

ON the shelves of the British Museum in the city of London there is a book in the Russian language, by Sergius A. Nilus, called the Protocols of the Wise Men of Zion. It contains twenty-four documents which purport to reveal the inner workings of a plot by certain international Jewish leaders to enslave the world through a dictatorship based upon the power of gold.

Next to the Bible, this volume, translated into various languages, is perhaps the most widely read book in existence. The superintendent of the library told me that he constantly receives inquiries about it from all parts of the world. Its catalogue mark in the library is C 37.C.31.

This book was received by the Museum August 10, 1906. It was purchased through regular trade channels and there was nothing extraordinary about the manner in which it reached England's greatest library.

The first translation from the Russian into English was published by Eyre and Spottiswoode, official printers of the British government, in 1920. Victor E.

Marsden, who had previously represented a London newspaper in Russia, made another translation about the same time.

Because Mr. Marsden was a master in both languages, his work is generally regarded as being thoroughly accurate and dependable: He lived through the Russian revolution and was forced to spend considerable time in a Bolshevik prison. Injuries thus sustained, impaired his health and sent him back home a broken man. Later he accompanied the Prince of Wales on his tour of the British Empire but died suddenly afterwards.

Nilus first published the Protocols in 1905, although they had come into his hands four years before. He regarded it a patriotic and religious duty to give them the widest possible circulation. From the beginning of the century, down to the present hour, the plot which these documents disclose has been fulfilled step by step. In them we see an advance unfoldment of the economic and political history of the nations. If the Protocols are forgeries, as some Jews assert, then it is a paradox, that everything which they outline should be coming to pass before our eyes.

THE TALMUD

WHERE did the Protocols originate?

It is necessary to examine this problem from three angles in order to arrive at a satisfactory answer to this question.

First: the secret operations of ancient Jewish Kahal must be understood.

Second: the rebirth of Jewish nationalism, involving the building of Zionism and Communism, must be studied.

Third: the source from which Nilus claimed to have received the documents must be considered.

Turning to the Encyclopaedia Britannica we find such phrases as "hidden doctrines", "hidden wisdom", and "mystic communion", used in discussing the mysterious nature and purpose of the Kahal. We are told that the germ of this organization "may be traced to sayings and beliefs mentioned in the Talmud and known to have existed among the gnostics."

In my book, Adam Weishaupt, a Human Devil, we trace the vicious trail of Gnosticism from the beginning of the Christian era, through the centuries into occult Illuminism, and finally into modern Bolshevism. For this reason we will not dwell on the subject here. But because of the intimate relation between the Kahal and the Talmud it becomes necessary to consider certain succinct features of the latter at this time.

It is exceedingly difficult to secure even extracts from the Talmud in the English language, so well have Jewish leaders succeeded in keeping these writings away from the Gentiles. In her discussion of subversive movements, Mrs. Nesta Webster of England, offers several quotations from the Talmud which include such statements as, "Kill the best of the Gentiles" and "Tradition tells us that the best of the Gentiles deserve death."

Graetz, a writer on Jewish history, speaks of a converted Jew and former student of the Talmud by the name of Donin who, after his baptism in the thirteenth century, "brought charges against the Talmud saying that it was filled with abuse against the founder of the Christian religion . . . Donin demonstrated that it was the Talmud which prevented the Jews from accepting Christianity, and that without it they would certainly have abandoned their state of unbelief. He stated that the Talmudical writing taught it was a meritorious action to kill the best man among the Christians . . . that it was lawful to deceive a Christian without any scruple."

What stronger argument for the authenticity of such quotations from the Talmud is needed than to contemplate the solemn fact that exactly this kind of a program of destruction is being carried out, particularly in Russia where the orgy of killing has resulted in the slaying of millions of Gentile Christians?

Lady Queenborough says in her treatise Occult Theocracy, "The obligations and rules of the rite for the Jewish masses are contained in the Talmud and Schulchan Aruk, but the esoteric teachings for the higher initiates are to be found in the Cabala."

"Therein are contained the mysterious rites for evocations, the indications and keys to practices for conjuration of supernatural forces, the science of numbers, astrology, etc."

"The practical application of the Cabalist knowledge is manifested in the use made of it, through the ages, by Jews to gain influence both in the higher spheres of Gentile life and over the masses. Sovereigns and Popes, both, usually had one or more Jews as astrologers and advisers, and they frequently gave Jews control over their very life by employing them as physicians. Political power was thus gained by Jews in almost every Gentile country alongside with financial power, since Jewish court-bankers manipulated state funds and taxes."

"With its B'nai B'rith Supreme Council as the directing head, the sect with its members swarming among all nations has become the sovereign power ruling in the councils of all nations and governing their political, economic, religious and educational policies."

In exposing the nest of occultism which evil birds have built in the branches of Judaism, General Netchvolodow says in his book, Nicholas et les Juifs, "The Chaldean science acquired by many of the Jewish priests, during the captivity of Babylon, gave birth to the sect of the Pharisees whose name appears in the Holy Scriptures and in the writings of the Jewish historians after the captivity (606 B.C.)". The work of the celebrated scientist Munk leave no doubt on the point that the sect appeared during the period of the captivity.

"From then dates the Cabala or Tradition of the Pharisees. For a long time their precepts were only transmitted orally but later they formed the Talmud and received their final form in the book called the Sepher ha Zohar."

It was to this occult circle of heartless monsters that Jesus Christ addressed His powerful polemics, "Ye serpents, ye generation of vipers, how can ye escape the damnation of hell". "Ye are of your father the devil, and the lusts of your father ye will do. He was a murderer from the beginning, and abode not in the truth, because there is no truth in him. When he speaketh a lie, he speaketh of his own: for he is a liar, and the father of it." "Woe unto you, scribes and Pharisees, hypocrites! For ye are like unto whited sepulchres, which indeed appear beautiful outward, but are within full of dead men's bones, and of all uncleanness.""

Beyond doubt, this ring of conspirators was responsible for both the death of Christ and much of the persecution which the early Church suffered. Flavien Brenier, a recognized authority on the subject of Judaism, explains how the secret lodge of Pharisees attained their great power in Israel and succeeded in perverting the nation's leadership from spiritual ideals to physical channels. He says, "This group of intellectual pantheists was soon to acquire a directing influence over the Jewish nation. Nothing, moreover, likely to offend national sentiment ever appeared in their doctrines. However saturated with pantheistic Chaldeism they might have been, the Pharisees preserved their ethnic pride intact. This religion of Man divinised, which they had absorbed at Babylon, they conceived solely as applying to the profit of the Jew, the superior and predestined being. The promises of universal dominion which the orthodox Jew found in the Law, the Pharisees did not interpret in the sense of the reign of the God of Moses over the nations, but in that of a material domination to be imposed on the universe by the Jews. The awaited Messiah was no longer the Redeemer of original Sin, a spiritual victor who would lead the world, it was a temporal king, bloody with battle, who would make Israel master of the world and 'drag all peoples under the wheels of his chariot'. The Pharisees did not ask this enslavement of the nations of a mystical Jehovah, which they continued worshipping in public, only as a concession to popular opinion, for they expected its eventual consummation to be achieved by the secular patience of Israel and the use of human means.""

It was in this realm that the Talmud, comprising the writings of the rabbis, was cradled. The fundamental likeness of the Talmud and the Protocols is most significant. Israel has been cursed for centuries with the false Messianic ideal that she is entitled to rule the world. It would be ridiculous for anyone to say that powerful apostate Jewish leaders have no desire to attain race supremacy. Such an assertion would be contrary to every basic tenet of the Talmud. No doubt the great rank and file of Jews are ignorant of the subversive schemes which their leaders have set in motion at the top of Jewry. But when David sinned, the whole house of Israel suffered.

A few quotations from the Talmud will suffice to show the true nature of its contents:

"You axe human beings, but the nations of the world are not human but beasts." Baba Micia 114,6.

"On the house of the Goy, (Goy means unclean, and is the disparaging name for a non-Jew), one looks as on the fold of cattle." Tosefta, Erubin VIII.

"When one sees inhabited houses of the 'Goy' one says, 'The Lord will destroy the house of the proud'. And when one sees them destroyed he says, 'The Lord God of Vengeance has revealed himself.' The Babylonian Talmud, Berachot 58,6.

"Those who do not own Torah and the prophets must all be killed. Who has power to kill them, let him kill them openly with the sword, if not, let him use artifices till they are done away with." Schulchan Aruch: Choszen Hamiszpat, 425,50.

"A Jew may rob a Goy, he may cheat him over a bill, which should not be perceived by him, otherwise the name of God would become dishonoured." Schulchan Aruch, Choszen Hamiszpat, 318.

"Should a Goy to whom a Jew owed some money die without his heirs knowing about the debt, the Jew is not bound to pay the debt." Schulchan Aruch, Choszen Hamiszpat 283,1.

"The son of Noah, who would steal a farthing ought to be put to death, but an Israelite is allowed to do injury to a Goy; where it is written, Thou shalt not do injury to thy neighbor, is not said, Thou shalt not do injury to a Goy." Miszna, Sanhedryn, 57.

"A thing lost by a Goy may not only be kept by the man who found it, but it is forbidden to give it back to him." Schulchan Aruch, Choszen Hamiszpat. 266,1.

"Who took an oath in the presence of the Goys, the robbers, and the custom-house officer, is not responsible." Tosefta Szebnot, 11.

The authors of the Talmud knew what it would mean if this horrible moral code ever became known among the Gentiles. Therefore, they incorporated the following statement into their writings to protect the leaders of the race who are responsible for putting the doctrines into practice, "To communicate anything to a Goy about our religious relations would be equal to the killing of all the Jews, for if the Goys knew what we teach about them, they would kill us openly." Book of Libbre David 37.

From the above quotations one comes to understand that if the Protocols are bad, the Talmud is worse. But the primary purpose of these examples of perverted Israelitish literature is to show the background of the Kahal, the mysterious organization which has been built within the bounds of international Jewry for the purpose of putting the teachings of the Talmud into operation. Assuming for the moment that the Protocols are true, it is not difficult to see the spirit in which they were conceived.

The Talmudic writings, growing out of a mixture of Babylonian paganism and Old Testament teachings, were responsible for the spiritual blindness of the Jewish leaders in the days of Christ. Hence His words recorded in Matthew 15:6, "Ye have made the commandment of God of none effect by your tradition".

Secret societies, occult in nature and tainted with the moral pollution of Babylon, grew up among the ancient Jews. These poison nerve-centers became dotted throughout the nation. They were eventually enlarged into a system of invisible government which became known as the Kahal. This sinister organization was responsible for fomenting the revolt against the Romans under Hadrian that resulted in the dispersion of the Jews in the year A.D. 135.

But far from destroying the Kahal, the scattering of the race only intensified its activity and increased its power by broadening its scope. Now instead of having a single organization concentrated in one place, the Kahal had expanded, into small units, scattered over all parts of the civilized world. It became the international underground organization which bound Jews everywhere into an organic whole.

We learn on good authority, "Wherever Jewish emigrants settled, they founded communities apart under the direction of the fraternities, and held to the precepts of the Talmud. Each community had its representative, its Rabbi, its synagogue: it was a miniature Kahal. The different aims of these communities always found themselves intimately related with those of the central body upon which their existence depended.

"For if the ruling clique or caste had begun by grinding down its own race, it now saw that, by drafting them into its organization, it could exploit the Gentiles on a far grander scale. The number of fraternities was increased by the addition of trade unions, every trade in which the Jews engaged being represented. To strengthen its control and to advance the interest of the Jews as a whole, it developed and perfected that system of espionage which it still maintains."

Thus, in every locality where a Kahal existed there was always a state within a state. Each local unit shrouded itself in secret mysticism. An international system of Jewish occultism was thereby created. By this means it has been possible to bore under Christian and Gentile foundations. Outstanding individual Jews have always worked their way into positions of power and influence. Napoleon once asked, "By what miracle did whole provinces of France become heavily mortgaged to the Jews, when there are only sixty thousand of them in the country?". That the Jewish leaders scattered over the earth have maintained ways and means of communication, and have worked together through the centuries, is a fact that no informed person will take the trouble to deny.

By this means a world-wide program of secret government, based upon the Talmud, has been kept intact with some of the mightiest leaders apparently hidden from the public view entirely.

THE AWAKENING

IN the year 1897 the first Zionist Congress convened in Basel, Switzerland. This event is generally credited with being the pivot on which the rebirth of Jewish nationalism turned. Theodore Herzl, a Hungarian Jew, was elected president of the organization, a position which he held until the time of his death.

The rebirth of international Jewry did not occur in a day. Years were required to work up the interest and mould the sentiment which was expressed on that occasion. Prior to this gathering there had been years of planning. Jewish leaders in different parts of the world had conceived simultaneously, the plan of uniting their dispersed nation into one solid mass.

No doubt such a herculean task involved the exchange of many letters and several personal conversations through the channels of the international Kahal. The men who were directing this undertaking were figures of outstanding prominence in the political, economic and religious circles of the world. It was not an easy task to pull the loose ends of the scattered nation together and breathe new life into its organism.

After years of preparation, finally a great quickening took place and Zionism was born.

Would it be a misuse of words to designate men who were capable of performing such a feat as "Wise Men"? Would it be erroneous to call the written records of their deliberations, "Protocols"? Would it be wrong to refer to their finished plans as the "Protocols of the Wise Men of Zion"? That such a group of international Jews did actually collaborate over a period of years in planning the rebirth of the nation is a well attested fact. That some of them were actuated by sinister motives is evident. That the spirit of the Talmud and the occultism of the Kahal were manifested, is equally evident.

Looking toward the West we discover that powerful Jewish movements had been established, over a period of years, in both the United States and the countries of Europe. Nathan Birnbaum, the man who created the name Zionism, had formed an organization called the Kadimah with headquarters in Vienna. Its avowed aim was to build a Jewish center in Palestine from which the world should be ruled through the three spheres of politics, economics and religion. According to his plan, members of the race were to be "planted" in every nation for the purpose of determining the policies of the nations.

A similar movement had taken form in Russia, with its base in Odessa, under the leadership of a vicious fanatic by the name of Asher Ginzberg. He founded his order in 1889 and called it the "Sons of Moses". Ginzberg also used the name Ahadhaam and was known among his intimate followers as the "King of the Jews". These are the kind of men who blended their efforts for the purpose of building their people into a united body. As previously indicated, their advance preparations could be legitimately called Protocols since the dictionary definition of this word is, "The preliminary sketch or draft of an official document".

The strange thing about the whole matter is not that such documents as the Protocols of the Wise Men of Zion should have been written; the miracle is that they should have ever reached the public eye. But frequently, in history, we find that plans have miscarried or providences have occurred, in which carefully hidden and secret schemes have leaked out.

An instance of this kind occurred in the year 1785 when a man by the name of Jacob Lang was struck dead by lightning while walking with Adam Weishaupt, the founder of the Illuminati. When Lang's body was being prepared for burial, certain incriminating papers were found in his clothing which gave away many vital secrets of the organization. As a result, the property of the Illuminati was confiscated by the Bavarian government and a ban was placed upon its activities.

Many people who attach importance to the Protocols regard it as nothing short of miraculous that these documents should have ever been made available to the general public.

At different times in Jewish history other Protocols have been issued by leaders as in the year 1492 when Chemor, Chief Rabbi of Spain, wrote for advice to the Grand Sanhedrin located in Constantinople. He received the following instructions which may truly be called a fifteenth century Protocol, "Beloved brethren in Moses, we have received your letter in which you tell us of the anxieties and misfortunes which you are enduring. We are pierced by as great pain to hear it as yourselves.

"The advice of the Grand Satraps and Rabbis is the following:

"1. As for what you say that the King of Spain obliges you to become Christian: do it, since you cannot do otherwise.

"2. As for what you say about the command to despoil you of your property: make your sons merchants that they may despoil, little by little, the Christians of theirs.

"3. As for what you say about making attempts on your lives: make your sons doctors and apothecaries, that they may take away Christians' lives.

"4. As for what you say of their destroying your synagogues: make your sons canons and clerics in order that they may destroy their churches.

"5. As for the many other vexations you complain of: arrange that your sons become advocates and lawyers, and see that they always mix in affairs of State, that by putting Christians under your yoke you may dominate the world and be avenged on them.

"6. Do not swerve from this order that we give you, because you will find by experience that, humiliated as you are, you will reach the actuality of power.

"(Signed) Prince of the Jews of Constantinople."

GINZBERG

EUROPEAN authorities, who have made a careful study of the Protocols of the Wise Men of Zion, regard them as being more the product of Asher Ginzberg's brain than any other one individual. He is believed to have put more into them than others who may have collaborated in their construction, because the fierceness and general language employed seems to reflect his intelligence and vocabulary. Moreover, they coincide with the plans and purposes of his order, the Sons of Moses. He is believed to have been more nearly the dominating figure of international Jewry than any other leader during the formative years when plans were being evolved for launching world-wide Zionism in 1897.

Parenthetically, it is important to remind ourselves that Lenin and Trotsky attended these early Zionist gatherings.

An important reference to Ginzberg appears in Col. E. N. Sanctuary's book, Are These Things So? "When the World War broke out it was soon discovered that there were many persons living in various European cities on American passports who had no right to those passports whatsoever," says Col. Sanctuary. This condition created difficult problems for American Consuls abroad to handle.

In Ginzberg's Russian community, "there were a number of genuine Americans residing in his city who had every right and privilege of registering in the Consul's foreign office as Americans and, moreover, they had done so. But the police records of that city showed a much longer list of selfstyled 'Americans' who had never registered".

The faithful Consul culled together the names of many of the so-called "Americans" who were evidently without passports and wrote the State Department in Washington saying that he was ready to clean the matter up if so authorized. "For reasons not then apparent, the Department had no enthusiasm in correcting this unfortunate situation," but the Consul proceeded to perform his obvious duty any way.

He wrote to each person asking them to call at his office with their passports to be registered as true American citizens, but received no reply. A second letter was sent to everyone, and it was likewise treated with indifference. "By this time it was evident that these people would yield to nothing but force, so force they should have. A third letter was sent to them telling them that in case of further disregard of the invitation the local police would be asked to take up their passports. That brought everyone in haste to the Consul's office, and lo, they were all members of the Chosen or Privileged Race -- the Jews."

Col. Sanctuary concludes by saying, "Not many days after this, the Consul received a call from an elderly individual known as 'the King of the Jews', a certain Asher Ginzberg. This elderly individual let it be known that he was very much displeased that the Consul had enforced the laws to the inconvenience of the people of his race."

A few days later, the faithful Consul received a severe reprimand from Washington for having thus performed his normal duty and a few weeks later his resignation was demanded. Col. Sanctuary arrives at the conclusion that Ginzberg, in far away Russia, must have had tremendous secret strength with the United States government.

Later, during the revolution when Russia was pillaged, few towns were so torn as Odessa, the home of Ginzberg and the headquarters of the Sons of Moses. Among other things a Christian orphanage was destroyed and all the children shot to death. The Jewish leader, Deutsch, head of the Soviet police, organized the rape of women. He brought in brutal Chinese and other foreigners, formed them into bands and turned them loose like savage beasts, to literally devour the Gentile women and girls of the locality. This horrible experience has been correctly termed, "an orgy of hell". For his services, the Moscow dictatorship decorated Deutsch with the Order of the Red Flag.

Whether Ginzberg or some one else drafted the Protocols, their contents show that tremendous intellectual powers were behind their preparation. These documents reach to the very depth of economic, political and international affairs. They purport to reveal an attack upon the Gentile nations, which if not counteracted by some opposing force, will ultimately deliver the entire world into the hands of a small group of conspirators who will put into action the perverted Messianic complex which now controls Russia through the medium of Jewish Communism.

NILUS

AT, ANY great public gathering there is always a steering committee in charge of advance arrangements. When one of the major political parties in the United States holds a national convention to select a candidate for the Presidency, there is a committee in the background that guides in the matter of preparation and procedure. As previously suggested, it is the concensus of best opinion among students who have made a careful study of the Protocols, these writings were originally drafted by certain men who were seeking to chart the course for the rebirth of Jewish nationalism. There are those who affirm that the documents were privately circulated among the leaders at the first Zionist meeting in 1897.

Mrs. L. Fry of London, who is perhaps as well informed on this subject as any living person, says in her remarkable book, Waters Flowing Eastward, "Meantime, through Jewish members of the Russian secret police, minutes of the proceedings of the Basel Congress in 1897 had been obtained and these were found to correspond with the Protocols."

Mrs. Fry says that shortly before the gathering was held in Basel, a woman by the name of Justine Glinka was doing intelligence work for the Russian government in France. In tracing out various lines of secret information, she heard about the Protocols and learned that copies were on file in the archives of the Mizraim lodge of Paris.

The Rite of Mizraim is a Jewish secret order with its base in Egypt and ramifications reaching throughout Europe. Mlle. Glinka is reported to have received two thousand five hundred francs from the Russian government which she gave to a Jew by the name of Joseph Schorst, who was a member of the Mizraim lodge. Having access to its secret files, Schorst was able to obtain the Protocols which Mlle. Glinka immediately transmitted to St. Petersburg.

According to the French police records, Schorst was murdered soon after this transaction was completed.

Mlle. Glinka kept a copy of the Protocols and when she returned to her home in the Orel district of Russia she gave them to a government official by the name of Alexis Sukhotin who in turn showed them to two friends, Philip Stepanov and Sergius A. Nilus. This was in the year 1897. Stepanov had them printed at once for private circulation among his intimate friends. The first time Nilus published them was in 1901 in a book which he called, The Great Within the Small. He reprinted them again in 1905.

After the revolution, Stepanov fled from Russia and died an exile in Yugoslavia in 1932. But his son, a gentleman now about forty-five years of age, lives in Paris at the present time; I talked with him in January 1935. I found Mr. Stepanov (the son) to be a most interesting Russian gentleman. He knew Nilus personally because they had both lived in the same Russian community. From him I learned many things about the personal life and habits of Nilus which were demolishing to the false reports I had so often read in both secular and religious magazines published in the United States.

Nilus was not a monk. He never lived in a monastery. Nor was he ever a teacher in any school or university. He was a married man, raised a family, lived in moderate circumstances, and a son of his is now living in Poland. Being a firm believer in the Bible as the supernaturally inspired Word of God, he was deeply religious. Prayer was a habit with him and his life was said to have been a consistent testimony to his profession as a Christian believer. He possessed literary skill and his writings were widely read among the Russian people prior to the rise of Communism.

Knowing the Jewish situation, he saw the revolution coming. He did his utmost to avert the catastrophe -- but failed. With other students of Bible prophecy, Nilus believed that a great superman, known as the Beast and the Antichrist, would arise and set up a world-wide system of dictatorship during that period of the world's history which would precede the second coming of Christ. Consequently, he wrote a treatise entitled, Antichrist as a Near Political Possibility, which made particular reference to the Protocols.

In explaining where he got the original copies of the Protocols, Nilus apparently tried to shield his compatriots who had helped him secure them. He once wrote, "These Protocols were secretly extracted from a whole bookful of Protocols. All this was got by my correspondent out of the secret depositories of the Head Chancellory of Zion. This Chancellory is at present on French territory."

Seeing the revolution rapidly approaching, Nilus wrote another book, in 1917, which bore the title, It is Close at Hand: At the Gates. This work was hardly off the press when the storm broke over his country. He had tried in vain to awaken the Russian people to the seriousness of the situation.

When the Jewish dictatorship was set up in Moscow it became a crime punishable by death for anyone to be found owning a copy of the Protocols.

The Jewish Cheka of the city of Kiev arrested Nilus in 1924 and subjected him to severe tortures. The Red leaders told him that he had done their cause of world revolution incomparable harm by publishing his books prior to the revolution. He died soon afterwards, his death being hastened by what he had suffered at their hands.

The following statement written by Nilus in 1905 gives a remarkable insight into his mental processes. It will be noted that he makes use of Scripture to emphasize his views. Facing a dark future, with storm clouds gathering overhead, he wrote, "In our day, all the governments of the entire world are consciously or unconsciously submissive to the commands of this great Super-government of Zion, because all the bonds and securities are in its hands; for all countries are indebted to the Jews for sums which they will never be able to pay. All affairs -- industry, commerce, and diplomacy--are in the hands of Zion. It is by means of its capital loans that it has enslaved all nations. By keeping education on purely materialistic lines, the Jews have loaded the Gentiles with heavy chains with which they have harnessed them to their 'Supergovernment'."

"The end of national liberty is near, therefore personal freedom is approaching its close; for true liberty cannot exist where Zion uses the lever of its gold to rule the masses and dominate the most respectable and enlightened class of society."

"He that hath ears to hear, let him hear."

"It is nearly four years since the Protocols of the Elders of Zion came into my possession. Only God knows what efforts I have made to bring them to general notice -- in vain -- and even to warn those in power, by disclosing the causes of the storm about to break on apathetic Russia who seems, in her misfortune, to have lost all notion of what is going on around her."

"And it is only now when I fear it may be too late, that I have succeeded in publishing my work, hoping to put on their guard those who still have ears to hear and eyes to see."

"One can no longer doubt it, the triumphant reign of the King of Israel rises over our degenerate world as that of Satan, with his power and his terrors; the King born of the blood of Zion -- the Antichrist is about to mount the throne of universal empire."

"Events are precipitated in the world at a terrifying speed; quarrels, war, rumours, famines, epidemics, earthquakes -- everything which even yesterday was impossible, today is an accomplished fact. One would think that the days pass so rapidly to advance the cause of the Chosen People. Space does not allow us to enter into the details of world history with regard to the disclosed 'mystery of iniquity', to prove from history the influence which the 'Wise Men of Zion' have exercised through universal misfortunes by foretelling the certain and already near future of humanity, or by raising the curtain for the last act of the world's tragedy."

"Only the light of Christ and of his Holy Church Universal can fathom the abyss of Satan and disclose the extent of its wickedness."

"I feel in my heart that the hour has already struck when there should urgently be convoked an Eighth Oecumenical Council which would unite the pastors and representatives of all Christendom. Secular quarrels and schisms would all be forgotten in the imminent need of preparing against the coming of the Antichrist."

Futile attempts have been made to refute the Protocols. Propagandists have brought all manner of charges against them. Communists usually become hysterical when they are mentioned. But the stubborn fact remains that they are being constantly fulfilled by world changes which they have announced almost a half century in advance.

Perhaps the most effective attack which has ever been launched against them was the one appearing in the London Times back in August 1921. Three articles were published at that time which were purported to have been written by the Times' "Correspondent in Constantinople". The main charge was that because there was a similarity between the Protocols and certain previous writings that they must have resulted from plagiarism. All of the recent attacks appearing in religious journals in the United States are a mere rehash of what the Times printed fourteen years ago.

Because Mrs. Fry, Mrs. Webster and others, have answered these articles so effectively, it is hardly necessary to go into detail here concerning this phase of the subject. But before passing on to something more important, we may take note of two things.

First, The identity of the so-called "Times' Correspondent" has never been made public. He is simply known as "Mr. X--". The question naturally arises, Why the secrecy?

Second, The similarity of the Protocols with previously published writings does not necessarily prove Nilus to have been guilty of plagiarism; it rather tends to confirm the theory that the same subterranean unnamed occult organization has issued similar statements in the past, which, contrary to their wishes, also reached the public.

A careful reading of the Protocols will show that they base the hope of acquiring world dominion upon the control of gold. This idea is not new. There are repeated instances in history where nations have tried to break the Jewish money power.

AMERICA'S PRECAUTION

THE men who framed the Constitution of the United States sought to safeguard the country against the power of the international Jewish bankers. These men knew what the nations of Europe had suffered at hands of the money power and, therefore, provided a plan whereby only the duly elected representatives of the people in Congress would have a right to control the country's finances. This was a new ideal in the science of government and it caused Europe's banking fraternity to shriek with mortal terror.

There are indications that the fathers of the American government were alert to the dangers of the Talmudic system. It is reported that when the Constitution was being written, Benjamin Franklin even went so far as to demand that Jews should be entirely excluded from the country. He based his attitude upon the experience of the nations of Europe in dealing with this problem.

Charles Pinckney of South Carolina, one of the framers of the Constitution, is said to have kept a diary of the conferences of the convention, in which Franklin is credited with the following statement:

"In whatever country Jews have settled in any great numbers, they have lowered its moral tone; depreciated its commercial integrity; have segregated themselves and have not been assimilated; have sneered at and tried to undermine the Christian religion upon which that nation is founded by objecting to its restrictions; have built up a state within a state; and when opposed have tried to strangle that country to death financially as in the case of Spain and Portugal."

"For over 1700 years the Jews have been bewailing their said fate in that they have been exiled from their homeland, as they call Palestine. But, gentlemen, did the world today give it to them in fee simple, they would at once find some cogent reason for not returning. Why? Because they are vampires, and vampires do not live on vampires. They cannot live only among themselves. They must subsist on Christians and other peoples not of their race."

"If you do not exclude them from these United States, in this Constitution, in less than 200 years they will have swarmed in such great numbers that they will dominate and devour the land, and change our form of government, for which we Americans have shed our blood, given our lives, our substance and jeopardized our liberty."

"If you do not exclude them, in less than 200 years our descendants will be working in the fields to furnish them substance, while they will be in the counting houses rubbing their hands. I warn you, gentlemen, if you do not exclude the Jews for all time, your children will curse you in your graves."

"Jews, gentlemen, are Asiatics, let them be born where they will, or how many generations they are away from Asia, they never will be otherwise. Their ideas do not conform to an American's, and will not even though they live among us ten generations. A leopard cannot change its spots. Jews are Asiatics, are a menace to this country if permitted entrance, and should be excluded by this Constitution."

Observing the manner in which other nations were being choked by the money power, the men who drafted the Constitution did everything they could to protect generations unborn, although they could not consistently go as far as Benjamin Franklin demanded. For this reason they were careful to incorporate the following clause into Section eight of the first Article of the Constitution: "The Congress shall have power to coin money, regulate the value thereof, and of foreign coin, and fix the standard of weights and measures."

The purpose of this law was to forever keep the control of the nation's money out of private hands. The idea was that Congress alone, the people's duly elected representatives, should reserve this right.

If we will examine briefly the origin of money it will help to better understand what the framers of the Constitution had in mind. While it is true that money is a mysterious substance because of the intangible power that goes with it, yet when its origin is known, it becomes more understandable. It has always been to the advantage of the money changers to keep the people in darkness as to the inner workings of international finance. This is part of the scheme for enslaving the masses. They have skillfully created the impression that money technique is beyond ordinary comprehension.

The word money comes from the old Roman word Moneta, which was the name of a religious temple where gold was coined and deposited. The vaults of the place of worship were guarded by the priests. The yellow metal was regarded as being both precious and sacred.

Walking among the ruins of the ancient temple of Apollo in Delphi, Greece one day, I came upon a beautiful little building called the Athenian Treasury. Its floor had deep grooves carved out of solid rock. In these holes the pagan priests deposited the gold, silver, gems and jewels which were brought to them for safe keeping. The custodians of temple gold came to be known eventually as goldsmiths.

In olden times when a man produced more things than he needed for his personal use, the barter system was employed for exchange purposes. In other words, he would trade some object that he did not need for some other object that he did need.

Beginning about seven centuries before Christ, the custom of coining money was introduced. The power to thus create coins was vested entirely with kings. If an individual was caught usurping this right, he was put to death. This arrangement continued until about the year 1650 when certain changes began to occur which laid the foundation for modern banking.

The clever goldsmiths gained private control of the money of various nations, particularly England. Kings continued to manufacture gold and silver coins, but these began to be hidden away in vaults for the goldsmiths to use as a basis for issuing their own private money in the form of slips of paper. As the power of the goldsmiths increased, they were in many instances even able to control Kings.

Because the goldsmiths were the only persons who had safe places in which to hide valuables, the merchants adopted the plan of bringing their gold and silver coins to them for safe keeping. In exchange, the goldsmith would give the merchant a receipt or certificate. After a while these receipts came to be used for exchange purposes instead of coins. The merchants were soon buying things with their receipts.

Thus, paper money was born. Goldsmiths discovered before long that large quantities of gold and silver were accumulating on their hands, so they issued more receipts-currency. The love of money being the root of evil, designing goldsmiths conceived the plan of inflation and wrote out hundreds of times as many receipts as they had gold coins on deposit. This fraud was later made the lawful basis of modern currency. Had all of the receipt-holders demanded their gold and silver at the same time, there would have been a run on Mr. Goldsmith's "bank" -- and in all probability a banker would have been found the next morning hanging by the neck from the limbs of a nearby tree.

At this point in the evolution of money, the curse of interest was introduced. Goldsmiths were not content to loan something they did not possess; this alone was not sufficient to satisfy their greed; so they began requiring people to pay interest when they were forced to come back for more certificates.

So, by the "dog eat dog" process, merchants were compelled to work and scheme in order to get other certificates from their fellows to be able to pay back the certificates which they had borrowed from the goldsmiths. Business began to be transacted in terms of interest-bearing certificates instead of coins. Meanwhile, the goldsmiths used interest as a means for holding merchants by the throat.

The invention of interest is called usury. It is the chain that binds the masses today. As long as the goldsmiths were able to control the gold, they could control the paper issued from the gold, and thus they could control the people who had to have the paper in order to live. Wherever the gold is, there rests the power to rule the world.

Hence the words of President Garfield: "Whoever controls the money of a nation, controls that nation."

We have now seen how the trickery of the goldsmiths became the foundation of the modern gold standard. The gold reserve behind paper money is all that the goldsmiths of the twentieth century need to produce whatever panics, depressions, riots and spasms of anarchy they may desire.

That is why the international goldsmiths of today do not want to see silver taken as a basis for paper money as well as gold. There is so much silver in the world that it would be difficult for them to control it.

The late F. G. Bonfils once said: "All the gold produced in the world in 438 years would only make a block 38 feet square." This is the kind of a golden-calf that the world worships. By controlling this huge nugget, the internationalists find it possible to rule the world.

The men who drafted the Constitution wanted to keep the modern goldsmiths from gaining control of the nation. They, therefore, placed the right to govern the country's finances solely in the hands of Congress. Under this plan, the most prosperous nation in the world was built up in less than one hundred years.

But international bankers are not fools. They waited until the opportune time came and prevailed upon Congressmen to vote away the Constitutional rights of the people to "coin money (and) regulate the value thereof." How this deception was put over constitutes one of the darkest chapters in American history. It was manipulated by the Rothschilds, the Warburgs and other families of Jewish bankers.

John Sherman, a United States Congressman from Ohio, was the tool that the Rothschilds used in driving in the opening wedge. Through their plot they were able to force Congress to vote the right of governing the money out of the hands of the people and give it over to private banking interests.

On June 25, 1863, the Rothschilds of London wrote Ikleheimer, Morton and Vandergould, their New York banking representatives, as follows:

"Dear Sirs:

Mr. John Sherman has written us from a town in Ohio, U.S.A., as to the profits that may be made in the National Banking business under a recent act of your Congress, a copy of which act accompanied his letters. Apparently this act has been drawn upon the plan formulated here last summer by the British Bankers Association and by that Association recommended to our American friends as one that if enacted into law, would prove highly profitable to the banking fraternity throughout the world.

"Mr. Sherman declares that there has never before been such an opportunity for capitalists to accumulate money, as that presented by this act and that the old plan of State Banks is so unpopular, that the new scheme will, by contrast be most favorably regarded, notwithstanding the fact that it gives the National Banks an almost absolute control of the National finance. 'The few who can understand the system,' he says 'will either be so interested in its profits, or so dependent on its favors, that there will be no opposition from that class, while on the other hand, the great body of the people mentally incapable of comprehending the tremendous advantages that capital derives from the system, will bear its burdens without complaint and perhaps without even suspecting that the system is inimical to their interest."

"Please advise us fully as to this matter and also state whether or not you will be of assistance to us, if we conclude to establish a National Bank in the City of New York. If you are acquainted with Mr. Sherman (he appears to have introduced the National Banking Act) we will be glad to know something of him. If we avail ourselves of the information he furnished, we will of course make due compensation."

"Awaiting your reply, we are Your respectful servants, Rothschild Brothers"

Ikleheimer, Morton and Vandergould replied as follows:

"Dear Sirs:

We beg to acknowledge the receipt of your letter of June 25th, in which you refer to a communication received from the Hon. John Sherman of Ohio, with reference to the advantages and profits of an American investment under the provision of our National Banking Act."

"The fact that Mr. Sherman speaks well of such an investment or of any similar one, is certainly not without weight for that gentleman possesses in a marked degree, the distinguishing characteristics of the successful modern financier. His temperament is such that whatever his feelings may be they never cause him to lose sight of the main chance. He is young, shrewd and ambitious. He has fixed his eye upon the presidency of the United States and is already a member of Congress. He rightfully thinks he has everything to gain both politically and financially (he has financial ambitions too) by being friendly with men and institutions having large financial resources, and which at times, are not too particular in their methods, either of obtaining governmental aid, or protecting themselves against unfriendly legislation. We trust him here implicitly. His intellect and ambition combine to make him exceedingly valuable to us. Indeed, we predict that if his life is spared he will prove to be the best friend the monied interest of the world have ever had in America."

"As to the organization of a National Bank here, and the nature and profits of such an investment, we beg leave to refer to our printed circular enclosed herein. Inquiries by European capitalists, concerning this matter, have been so numerous, that for convenience we have had our views with regard to it put into printed form."

"Should you determine to organize a bank in this City, we shall be glad to aid you. We can easily find financial friends to make a satisfactory directory and to fill official positions not taken up by the personal representatives you will send over."

"Your most obedient servants, Ikleheimer, Morton and Vandergould."

The National Banking Act was the ignoble deed which made it possible for Congress to delegate its power over the nation's money to the international Jewish banking fraternity. What the National Banking Act started, the Federal Reserve System finished. Paul Warburg, president of Kuhn, Loeb and Company, was the German Jew, who was sent over to America. to finish perverting the country's financial system. He is generally credited with having written the Federal Reserve Act which was enacted during the Jewish controlled Wilson Administration. From the hour this measure was adopted by Congress, the people lost complete control of their money.

Like Warburg, the founder of the House of Rothschild was also a German Jew. The original Rothschild was born in 1743 and his real name was Mayer Amschel. He was a money lender by trade and used a Red Shield as the emblem of his company, from which the name Rothschild was derived. Like a gigantic octopus the financial tentacles of this Jewish organization now reach into all parts of the world.

The primary purpose of the foregoing dissertation is to show how easy it would be for a group of internationally minded men to mould the world according to their desires if they had access to the sources from which money originates. To admit the possibility of such an arrangement is equivalent to admitting that such a plot as that disclosed by the Protocols of the Wise Men of Zion could exist.

If such a conspiracy could exist, then the only question remaining to be answered is, Do we have evidence to suppose that it does exist?

UNIVERSAL CRISIS

PROFESSOR Frederick Soddy of Oxford University takes the position that any group of financiers possessing the knowledge contained in the Protocols could bring the entire human family under their control if they wished to do so. "It is widely believed that there has been something akin to an actual conspiracy to enslave the world," says Soddy. After mentioning the Protocols, he continues, "Conspiracy or not, there can be little question that the power these discoveries have put into the hands of financiers will, if not controlled, enable them in their own time and choice effectively to conquer the world."

"Whether or not there is a conspiracy among the 'chosen people' to reestablish by gold the dominance they were wont to derive from God -- and the Biblical history (Exodus XXXII) recalls a strictly parallel attempt, frustrated by the energetic action of their chief legislator -- it must be admitted that it would be a revenge on science for its iconoclastic tendencies, not without a certain sardonic humor, if we wake up one day and find instead of the ten commandments a single rule of gold. These are conjectural possibilities, and, no doubt, as in the time of Moses, there are still Jews and Jews. Let us hope so, at least."

Bearing all of these facts in mind and contemplating the further fact that the Protocols were evidently written about forty years ago, the following threat from the third Protocol seems to indeed be prophetic, "We shall create by all the secret subterranean methods open to us and with the aid of gold, which is all in our hands, a universal economic crisis whereby we shall throw upon the streets whole mobs of workers simultaneously in all the countries of Europe. Those mobs will rush delightedly to shed the blood of those whom, in the simplicity of their ignorance, they have envied from their cradles, and whose property they will then be able to loot".

Individual nations have experienced crises at different times but not until the depression hit in 1929 had there ever been a "universal economic crisis." One result of the depression through unemployment, has been to throw "whole mobs of workers" upon the streets of the world. These mobs are already shedding "the blood" of the officials of governments -- and from all indications the worst is yet to come. "Ours they will not touch", and it is a noteworthy fact that while Gentile fortunes were cracking up in 1929, there is no record that leading Jewish speculators lost anything by the crash of the stock markets. Their assets were such that they were prepared for the depression when it came. Newspaper reports are still declaring that the cause of the depression is a mystery.

Could it have been planned?

BANKERS AND BOLSHEVISM

ON September 10, 1920 The American Hebrew declared, "The Jew evolved organized capitalism with its working instrumentality, the banking system."

In the year 1880, Feodor Dostoyevsky wrote the following, "Yes, she is on the eve of her fall, your Europe, of a fall, universal, general, terrible . . . Judaism and the banks now reign over everything, as much over Europe as over education, over the whole of civilization and Socialism, particularly over Socialism, because with its aid Judaism will tear out Christianity by the roots and destroy Christian culture. And if nothing comes of all this but anarchy, then even at the head of all will be found the Jew . . . and when all the wealth of Europe has been pillaged, the Jew bank alone will remain."

For a long time, the connection between Bolshevism and international Jewish financiers was kept out of sight. But the public mind has a way of destroying camouflage and boring through to first causes. Perhaps the complete record will never be known but sufficient information has come to light to show that behind the so-called "Russian" revolution eighteen years ago, there was a bulwark of indomitable Jewish finance. In reality it was a "Jewish" revolution.

No informed person longer doubts that Bolshevism is controlled and directed by a mysterious hierarchy of Jewish financial wizards. The rank and file of poor and laboring classes whose minds have become warped by soap-box oratory and Red propaganda are simply being duped into destroying one another through anarchy, class hatreds and mob violence. If the workers of the world continue to place themselves at the mercy of the conspirators and are finally exhausted in revolutionary outbreaks, it will then be a simple matter for the financiers to gag them in the coils of a system of secret police as has been done in Russia. By this means the international Jewish Reds expect to eventually rule the world, with the Gentile masses reduced to a state of slavery.

Back in 1905, when the revolution in Russia was just beginning to foment on the surface, The Maccabean, a New York Hebrew journal, wrote, "The revolution in Russia is a Jewish revolution, a crisis in Jewish history. It is a Jewish revolution because Russia is the home of about half the Jews of the world, and an overturning of its despotic government must have a very important influence on the destines of the millions living there and on the many thousands who have recently emigrated to other countries. But the revolution in Russia is a Jewish revolution also because Jews are the most active revolutionists in the Czar's empire."

It is, therefore, erroneous to suppose that the unspeakable conditions now existing in Russia, in which the entire Gentile population has been reduced to the level of serfs, represents a sincere attempt on the part of the Russian laboring classes to improve their conditions.

Not only in the United States, but in all parts of the world, large sections of the Jewish press openly encouraged Bolshevism when it first began to get its grip on Russia. In London, the propaganda became so strong and violent that the Morning Post and other reputable journals gave the matter serious attention and wide publicity.

In 1919 the Jewish Chronicle had this to say, "There is much in the fact of Bolshevism itself, in the fact that so many Jews are Bolsheviks, in the fact that the ideals of Bolshevism at many points are consonant with the finest ideals of Judaism."

On January 6, 1933 the same magazine stated, "Over one-third of the Jews in Russia have become officials".

In his book, The Alien Menace, A. H. Lane, a British army officer, raises the question, Who supplied Lenin and Trotsky with the funds to smash the Russian government in 1917? He answers, "It is now known and clearly proved that the money was provided by a group of international financiers with headquarters in Berlin, Stockholm and New York. While Lenin took with him from Switzerland a number of alien revolutionaries collected from all parts of Europe, his chief lieutenant, Trotsky, brought with him a horde of aliens from the United States. Trotsky himself was in prison in Halifax, Nova Scotia when the call came for him to join Lenin in Russia. His release from prison, so that he might assist Lenin in organizing the Bolshevik revolution, is a mystery that has never been explained. What powerful influence compelled the British authorities to order his release and to grant permission for his transport to Russia?"

There were years of preparation and ocean depths of intrigue, behind the Russian holocaust. The plot was so carefully laid and the tracks of the despoilers were covered with such caution, that only now are the Gentiles realizing, to any appreciable degree, what actually took place. Certain "mystery men", whose activities will never be fully known, were planted in different parts of the world like a great international dragnet.

An example of this is to be observed in the mysterious Dr. Helphand, who used the name Parvus as a literary pseudonym. A Russian Jew with the chief base for his operations in Stockholm, Helphand was a go-between for the conspirators of different countries. He possessed great riches and is described as an "obscure international speculator who acquired an enormous fortune, and styled himself as the ideal inspirer of Bolshevism."

While Lenin and Trotsky did the dirty work on the surface, the true sponsors of world wide rebellion kept out of sight. Ganetsky-Furstenburg, another Jew who worked with Helphand, had financial interests which were also extensive and mysterious. A contemporary says that through these two strange individuals "the Bolsheviks used to obtain large sums of money from an unknown source abroad".

Mr. Lane continues his appraisal of the situation, "How the subsidized alien revolutionaries, having invaded Russia, proceeded to murder and rob on a wholesale scale, has been recorded by many persons who had the misfortune to be in Russia during the Bolshevik revolution. All are agreed that the leaders of the revolution and the persons responsible for the most brutal and revolting murders were Jews".

Victor E. Marsden was in Russia during, and immediately following, the revolution. He represented the London Morning Post and was in position to watch the Moscow bureaucracy as it was built from the ground up. Being in daily contact with the leaders he was able to study the personnel of the new dictatorship. Because he insisted on reporting the truth for the outside world to read, he incurred the wrath of the Jews, and though a British subject, was thrown into prison. He died a premature death from injuries thus sustained.

In 1934 I succeeded in securing from England a copy of the list of names and nationalities of the leaders which Mr. Marsden compiled while living in Moscow. I published this complete tabulation in the Revealer as a permanent silencer to certain Hebrew Christians and religious editors who, up until that time, had denied the Jewish character of Communism. The complete list, running from A through to Z, showed that there were 545 offices in the bureaucracy and that 454 of them were occupied by Jews. Reliable reports indicate that about the same ratio obtains today. The nationalities, thus published, were as follows:

1. Jews 454
 2. Letts 33
 3. Russians 23
 4. Armenians 13
 5. Germans 12
 6. Fins 3
 7. Poles 2
 8. Georgians 1
 9. Karaims 1
 10. Hungarians 1
 11. Imeretians 1
- Total 545

Millions of dollars were required by Lenin to put over his revolution. Such staggering sums could not possibly have been raised from private contributions. Only powerful international bankers could have subsidized propaganda on such an enormous scale.

"At one time Trotsky was a favorite with Jacob Schiff", said Congressman Louis T. McFadden in a speech before Congress in 1933. "During the war Trotsky edited Novy Mir and conducted mass meetings in New York. When he left the United States to return to Russia he is said on good authority to have traveled on Schiff's money and under Schiff's protection. He was captured by the British at Halifax and immediately, on advice from a highly placed personage, set free. Shortly after his arrival in Russia he was informed that he had a credit in Sweden at the Swedish branch of the bank owned by Max Warburg, of Hamburg. This credit helped to finance the seizure of the Russian revolution by the international Jewish bankers."

A year later, in another address on the floor of Congress, McFadden said, "Students of radicalism know that the present Soviet Government in Russia was organized by aliens and usurpers and not representative of the thoughts and ideals of the one hundred and fifty million citizens of Russia . . . "

"I want to remind loyal Americans that it is well to remember the 'boring-from-within' tactics pursued by these aliens and usurpers in Soviet Russia caused the downfall of their Government and the setting up of the present Communist-Jewish control government which is now in operation, and to point out that the same kind of aliens and usurpers are now at work in the United States to establish a form of government other than constitutional government, and in order to do this they are seeking to paralyze industry, to destroy patriotism, and, finally, to secure the overthrow of government itself in the United States."

A further example of unity between bankers and Bolsheviks is to be noted in the labors of Leonid Borisovitch Krassin. This man, a Siberian Jew, also possessed considerable means. He participated in a revolutionary plot in Russia, in 1907 and fled at once for Berlin where he started to work for a Jewish business concern. Two years later he returned to Russia as director of the St. Petersburg branch of his company.

In 1917 we find him working with the mysterious Dr. Helphand and Ganetsky-Furstenburg, using Stockholm as the center of their activities. They worked back and forth between St. Petersburg, Stockholm and Berlin. This was the year in which arrangements were made for transferring Lenin and Trotsky, with their gang of cut-throats, through Germany in a sealed train. Krassin was one of the ring-leaders in making advance preparations for this trip. Included in his circle of friends were the principal leaders of the Jewish banking fraternity of Germany.

Mrs. Webster sums this matter up in a single paragraph, "Krassin thus played a dual role, on one hand representing the interests of the great German-Jewish capitalists and on the other acting as lieutenant of Lenin, whose avowed aim was to destroy Capitalism. If any further evidence were needed of the connection between Bolshevism and international finance, the case of Krassin would provide it."

Up until the time that Hitler came into power there was an intimate connection between Berlin and Moscow financiers. When the crisis of 1931 hit England, the newspapers announced that loans had become "frozen" in Germany, thus clogging the channels of finance. These reports were not true, however, for the reason, that although money had gone to Berlin, it had been passed on by Germany's Jewish bankers to Soviet Russia where it "froze".

This policy of destroying the financial equilibrium of the world is provided for in the statement of Menjinsky of the Moscow oligarchy, "As long as there are idiots to take our signature serious, and to put their trust in it, we must promise everything that is asked, and as much as one likes, if we can only get something tangible in exchange".

Sensing the situation that funds going to Germany were being poured into Moscow, James W. Gerard declared in September 1931 that Germany "did not need any financial assistance and that a large percentage of loans from the United States was lent to Russia". He added, "If we are going to do business with Russia, let us do it directly and not through Germany, which has arranged to give Soviet Russia millions of dollars' credit to purchase commodities in Germany".

Thus, the tricksters have the habit of crossing the wires of international finance for the purpose of creating unemployment and unrest among the masses. It is a simple matter for them to create the kind of conditions they want, by simply sitting at their desk and controlling the economic arteries of the world.

So we see that the Russian people are not only being ruthlessly ruled by a group of heartless foreigners, but this group has been financed and maintained from the beginning by international bankers who are also aliens in the respective countries where they live for the reason that their ideas are inconsistent with the national desires of the Gentiles whom they dominate by the power of gold.

And in November 1934, we find the President of the United States sending the following cablegram to the head of the Moscow dictatorship, "Please accept on this the seventeenth anniversary of the establishment of the Soviet Government the assurance of my best wishes for the welfare and prosperity of your Country."

RUSSIA'S RUIN

THE British Foreign Office published a document in April 1919, containing a report written by their representative in Russia, September 6, 1918, which reads as follows: "I consider the immediate suppression of Bolshevism is the greatest issue before the world, not even excluding the war which is still raging, and unless, as above stated, Bolshevism is nipped in the bud immediately, it is bound to spread in one form or another over Europe and the whole world, as it is organized and worked by Jews who have no nationality, and whose one object is to destroy for their own ends the existing order of things."

In her book, From Liberty to Brest-Litovsk, Mrs. Ariadua Williams, the widow of a man who did journalistic work in Russia for years, says, "The predominant class which rapidly crystallized around the Bolsheviks was composed mainly of individuals alien to the Russian people. This fact is probably useful to them to keep control over the masses, for Bolshevik autocracy is founded on their absolute contempt for the people whom they rule. The most terrible trait of Bolshevism is its utter unscrupulousness as to ways and means, and the blunt cruelty of its leaders. Deceit, forgery, calumny, murder, violence, treachery -- all the low, dark, brutal forces which mankind had for centuries endeavored to get rid of -- have become weapons of governing at their hands . . . They especially numbered a great many Jews. They spoke Russian badly. The nation over which they had seized power was a stranger to them, and, besides, they behaved as invaders in a conquered country".

In 1923 Lord Sydenham declared in the House of Lords, "The total loss of life from the application of the principles of Karl Marx to Russia is now very little short of twenty million people. This is the most horrible crime in all history."

On September 10, 1920 The American Hebrew said, "What Jewish idealism and Jewish discontent have so powerfully contributed to produce in Russia, the same historic qualities of the Jewish mind and heart are tending to promote in other countries".

Even more significant is the following editorial from the newspaper, Communist, in April 1919, "Without exaggeration it may be said that the great Russian social revolution was indeed accomplished by the hands of Jews . . . The symbol of Jewry, which for centuries has struggled against capitalism, has also become the symbol of the Russian proletariat, which can be seen in the adoption of the Red five-pointed star, which in former times, as is well known, was the symbol of Zionism and Jewry."

Sufficient has been quoted from both Gentile and Jewish sources to show unmistakably that internal Jews selected the Russian Empire, many years ago, as the logical country upon which to concentrate their efforts. By destroying Russia they were able to establish a base from which to operate in carrying out their plan to rule the world. Back as far as 1893-94 the Czar's government knew that the B'nai B'rith of New York had appointed Jacob Schiff to the position of chairman of the committee on Revolutionary Activities in Russia. In other words, Schiff sat in his office as president of Kuhn, Loeb and Company, in Wall Street, and directed the explosive outbursts against the government in far away Russia.

The B'nai B'rith is an international secret organization to which only Jews can belong. It covers its political activities under the cloak of "benevolence and philanthropy". It was founded by a group of German Jews in New York in the year 1843. It maintains local organizations in all parts of the United States. We have the following statement on good authority, "From its inception until the present time, its main contact has been with Germany and its chief aim the establishment of the supremacy of the German Jews in all world affairs through the channel of 'internationalism' . . . The political activities of the leaders of the order in Roumania, Austria and Hungary are a matter of record, although the chief center of their power is in the United States where they have lately attained supremacy in the Jewish world by absorbing 'national' Zionism and submitting it wholly to their own 'international' policy when the Jewish World Agency was created in October, 1928."

The former Grand Master of the Order of the B'nai B'rith in Russia, a Jew by the name of Sliozberg, was one of the early leaders in revolutionary activities.

Schiff, being a German Jew, fitted into the B'nai B'rith program perfectly. He was born in one of the Rothschild houses in Frankfort, Germany and after arriving in America married the daughter of Loeb, thus becoming a part of the banking family Kuhn, Loeb and Company, the concern which is credited with having financed Lenin and Trotsky in overthrowing the Russian Empire.

That Schiff was determined to destroy Russia is further evidenced by the fact that he financed Japan's previous war against the Czar's government. The Jewish Encyclopaedia says, "It (Kuhn, Loeb and Company) subscribed for and floated the large Japanese war loan in 1904-05, in recognition of which the Mikado conferred on Schiff the second order of the Sacred Treasure of Japan." When Theodore Roosevelt offered to serve as peacemaker between Russia and Japan and a conference between representatives of the belligerents was arranged to take place in Portsmouth, New Hampshire, Schiff was present to demand his pound of flesh.

Referring to the power that Jewish bankers wield over American finance, Congressman McFadden gave this interesting insight into the life of Schiff while delivering a recent address before Congress, "It was a mistake for the United States to permit the integrity of its foreign policy to be jeopardized or affected adversely by such religious, racial, and financial meddling as that practiced upon us by Schiff and his London associates. The United States should manage its foreign affairs with more distinction than that which is implied by the picture of Jacob Schiff shaking his fist at the White House and muttering threats against William Howard Taft, then President of the United States."

While in Paris recently I talked with a former General who served in the army of the Czar prior to the revolution. This venerable old gentleman, a sincere Christian, now lives in exile from his native Russia.

Few men were closer to the Czar and the royal family than this man. He told me many things about the inner workings of the Jewish plot which finally resulted in the destruction of his Country. The pogroms that occurred from time to time in Russia were attempts on the part of the Gentile population to protect themselves against what they saw coming.

For instance, there were thousands of secret printing presses, owned by Jews, hidden in cellars and garrets, which poured forth a constant stream of subversive literature for the purpose of inflaming Gentiles against one another. The Czar and his agents were by no means blind to this assault but the conspirators were so well organized and financed that the government became helpless in their grasp.

The former General told me that the Czar once said to him: "My heart bleeds because my poor people can not be made to understand that Jewish leaders have organized to destroy them."

The Czar made a careful study of the Protocols, according to the General, and lived for several years in a state of fear as he saw the plot taking form, which these documents disclose. Russian officials who were conversant with the Protocols believed in their authenticity because of the manner in which they were being fulfilled.

As these words are written I have before me a reproduction of a photograph produced by Robert Wilton of the London Times which shows the room in which the Czar and his family were murdered in the little town of Ekaterinburg. They died horrible deaths at the hands of merciless Red beasts in 1918 after having been banished to Siberia.

The murder was planned by the Jew Sverdlov, and carried out by the Jews Yourovsky, Goloshchekin, Syromolotov, Safarov and Voikov. Mr. Wilton remarks, "This was an act not of the Russian people, but of this hostile invader".

Gleb Botkin, whose father was the personal physician of the royal family, reconstructs vividly the killing of these people, in his book The Real Romanovs. He says that the Czar, Czarina, their four daughters, and young son were slaughtered like cattle. "Nobody knows exactly to what indignities the unfortunate Sovereigns and their children were subjected during the last months of their captivity. They were forced to live in the closest association with their perennially drunk and debauched jailers whose rooms adjoined those of the prisoners. Not only were they forced to eat, at one table with the Bolshevik soldiers, but from one common bowl. In short, the last period of captivity was one of a living martyrdom which it is difficult even to faintly visualize.

"On the night of July 16-17, 1918, the Commissar Yourovsky woke up his prisoners and told them to go down to the cellar . . . The prisoners dressed themselves as ordered and went to the cellar." They never came out alive.

The name of the town Ekaterinburg has been changed to Sverdlovsk, in honor of the Jewish President of the court, Sverdlov, who ordered the assassination.

After the murder, a formal inquest was held, many photographs were taken of the room in which the crime was committed, the bodies were exhumed, and careful reports were made. The picture mentioned above which was published by Mr. Wilton in his book The Last Days of the Romanovs was reproduced from the official records compiled by the Bolsheviks. On one of the walls where the victims were murdered, there appears an occult Jewish Cabbalistic inscription. There are three letters and a strange mark in the mysterious inscription, written in a Hebrew manner from left to right.

After giving a detailed interpretation of the hidden meaning of these Cabbalistic markings, Mrs. Fry concludes, "Whoever wrote this inscription was a man well versed in the secrets of the ancient Jewish Cabbalism, as contained in the Cabbala and the Talmud. In accomplishing the deed in obedience to superior order, this man performed a rite of black magic. It is for this reason that he commemorated his act by a Cabalistic inscription in cipher, which belonged to the rite."

"The inscription therefore proves:"

"1. That the Czar was killed."

"2. That the murder of the Czar was committed by men under the command of occult forces; and by an organization which, in its struggle against existing power, resorted to the ancient Cabbalism in which it was well versed."

The dictionary definitions of the words Cabal and Cabbala are, Cabal, "To form a plot", and Cabbala, "The mystic theosophy of the Hebrews. Any occult or mystic system."

The deeper one goes into a study of the Protocols, the more firmly he is gripped with the fact that they are rooted in the deepest, most mysterious and Satanic occultism known to the human family.

We need to remember that Karl Marx, another German Jew, wrote the First Communist Manifesto in 1848. From all indications, he was one of the ring leaders of the Hidden Hand of his day. His writings constitute the highest standard of authority in the ranks of Reds all over the world at the present time. In Russia, the people have been worn down by starvation to a state of utter helplessness. This condition was anticipated in Protocol number three, "We appear on the scene as alleged saviours of the worker from this oppression when we propose to him to enter the ranks of our fighting forces -- Socialists, Anarchists, Communists -- to whom we always give support in accordance with an alleged brotherly rule (of the solidarity of all humanity) of our social masonry. The aristocracy, which enjoyed by law the labour of the workers, was interested in seeing that the workers were well fed, healthy and strong. We are interested in just the opposite -- in the diminution, the killing out of the goyim. Our power is in the chronic shortness of food and physical weakness of the worker because by all that this implies he is made the slave of our will, and he will not find in his own authorities either strength or energy to set against our will."

Protocol number three also outlines the system of secret police with which the Russian people are now cursed, known as the GPU, "These beasts, (the workers who have been stirred to form mobs and riots) it is true, fall asleep again every time when they have drunk their fill of blood, and at such times can easily be riveted into their chains. But if they be not given blood they will not sleep and continue to struggle."

The entire Bolshevik government is concentrated at one point -- Moscow. All liberties have been denied the Russian masses and the people have become slaves of the state. These are features of the plot recorded in Protocol number five many years before the Jews took over the country, "We shall create an intensified centralisation of government in order to grip in our hands all the forces of the community. We shall regulate mechanically all the actions of the political life of our subjects by new laws. These laws will withdraw one by one all the indulgences and liberties which have been permitted by the goyim, and our kingdom will be distinguished by despotism of such magnificent proportions as to be at any moment and in every place in a position to wipe out any goyim who oppose us by deed or word."

Constant terror is a part of the Bolshevik program in Russia. By this means the people are kept in a weakened state of perpetual fear. This reign of misery is provided for in Protocol number nine, "It is from us that the all-engulfing terror proceeds. We have in our service persons of all opinions, of all doctrines, restorating monarchists, demagogues, socialists, communists, and utopian dreamers of every kind. We have harnessed them all to the task: each one of them on his own account is boring away at the last remnants of authority, is striving to overthrow all established form of order.

By these acts all States are in torture; they exhort to tranquility, are ready to sacrifice everything for peace: but we will not give them peace until they openly acknowledge our international Super-Government, and with submissiveness."

Since the Talmud, as well as the Protocols, regard Gentiles as being no better than animals, religion is to be taken from them and atheism substituted.

Everyone knows that this has since been done in Russia. "When we come into our kingdom it will be undesirable for us that there should exist any other religion than ours of the One God with whom our destiny is bound up by our position as the Chosen People, and through whom our same destiny is united with the destinies of the world. We must therefore sweep away all other forms of belief. If this gives birth to the atheists whom we see today, it will not, being only a transitional stage, interfere with our views, but will serve as a warning for those generations which will hearken to our preaching of the religion of Moses, that, by its stable and thoroughly elaborated system has brought all the peoples of the world into subjection to us."

The destruction of Christianity is contemplated in Protocol seventeen, "Freedom of conscience has been declared everywhere, so that now only years divide us from the moment of the complete wrecking of that Christian religion: as to other religions we shall have still less difficulty in dealing with them, but it would be premature to speak of this now. We shall set clericalism and clericals into such narrow frames as to make their influence move in retrogressive proportion to its former progress."

Protocol number fifteen threatened the destruction of the "Russian autocracy". This took place on scheduled time as we have seen from the killing of the Czar and his family.

In the foregoing brief synopsis we have barely scratched the surface of the scheme as it has been carried out in Russia to say nothing of the world-wide aspect of the plot now unfolding on an international scale.

All over the world it is possible to trace the sinister workings of the program revealed in these documents. It is an interesting diversion to be able to hold the Protocols in one hand, the daily newspaper in the other, and see how often the latter reflects the evident subterranean activities of the former.

If it is true that "the proof of the pudding is in the eating", it is also true that the glaring fulfillment of the Protocols is one of the chief arguments for their authenticity.

LATEST EVIDENCE ON THE VERACITY OF THIS REMARKABLE DOCUMENT

BY W. CREUTZ

The purpose of this article is not to analyse a literary hypothesis but to solve definitely and for all time, a mystery that is causing destruction to all the peoples of the world.

Is there a single country that has escaped the depression which has thrown its sinister shadow on our life since 1929? The statesmen are seemingly powerless and seek in vain for means to avert the fall of the nations of the world, into the pit of bolshevism. Our entire Christian civilization is in danger of going down in smoke and chaos.

How can we check that moral cancer that devours slowly all that is beautiful and noble in every nation?

How can we save our spiritual inheritance, which is many times more valuable than all material wealth?

No cure is possible as long as we do not understand the cause of our ailment; a correct diagnosis must precede the application of the medicine in order to relieve the sickness which we all observe around us, but do not comprehend. [AMEN! - BeWISE]

First of all, it should be clearly realized that the crisis in whose deadly grip we are now overtaken, is not incidental but was carefully prepared by a gang of powerful criminals. No recovery is possible until the tools of destruction are taken away from these nefarious poison mixers of the universe.

Adolph Hitler realized this. A howl of rage from all corners of the world was the answer to his quick action - but he tore the burning fuse from the bomb set to explode in the summer of 1933.

And but for this quick action, Germany today would be suffering the tragic lot of Russia.

This article must not be considered as the product of "religious intolerance of the middle ages," nor as an attempt to stir up pogroms and persecution, as the greater part of the world press, would like to have you believe, in order to mislead public opinion at the behest of Judah.

No, we certainly do not recommend anything that can appear so gruesome and unjust. All that we demand, is the elimination in all countries, of those persons in key positions, who do not merit confidence. Such an unavoidable housecleaning was performed in Germany, to the relief of the population, after its long period of suffering.

From now on, the truth cannot be concealed. Facts carefully hidden by obscure conspirators are now common knowledge among sixty million people.

Conscienceless criminals have decided to destroy the existing order of the whole world and to impose upon it the rule of a Satanical Messiah.

The yeast is fermenting. In many countries there are men who perceive the impending danger and work in the direction of uniting forces for the struggle against the common enemy. There will be no obstacles in the way of creating friendly relations among Christian Gentile nations as soon as traitors, who cause continuous friction, are eliminated.

The truth will come out into the daylight and all who will struggle against it, will be ground down, and this is the truth which must be loudly proclaimed. The depression was deliberately planned for a certain hour and had been directed carefully and groomed, through decades by criminals obsessed with the lust for power, murder and greed.

The actual program was drawn up about 40 years ago and was first revealed in print, in a small pamphlet known as "The Secrets of the Learned Elders of Zion."

The first two editions of this remarkable book were published in 1901 and 1905. They quickly disappeared from circulation and attracted little or no attention. One copy nevertheless reached the British Museum in 1906 and was catalogued under the number 3926 D. 17.

The London "Times" stated on August 17, 1921:

"These documents attracted only a little attention before the Revolution of 1917. The astounding breakdown of a great state due to attack by Bolsheviks and the presence of countless Jews among them, had the result that many people were looking for - reasonable explanations of the catastrophe. The "Protocols" furnished this explanation, especially as the tactics of the Bolsheviks at many points, were identical with the recommendations of the "Protocols."

The "Protocols" were published in many countries although powerful efforts were made to prevent their publication.

One edition dated 1917 (in German) bears the title "The Jewish-Danger;" it attracted much attention. Public opinion became excited through the sudden revelation of this hellish conspiracy for the destruction of the Christian Civilization.

The "Morning Post" of London devoted several columns to this subject. A sensational article appeared in the "Times" of May 8, 1921, from which the following quotation was taken:

"What do they mean, those "Protocols?" Are they Genuine? Has a gang of criminals really drawn up such plans and is triumphing over their fulfilment? Are they a forgery? But how can one explain then this terrible prophetic gift that foretold all this before hand? Did we fight all these years to destroy the world power of Germany only to find ourselves now facing a much more dangerous enemy? Have we saved ourselves through enormous efforts from PAX GERMANICA only to fall a victim to PAX JUDAICA?"

The "TIMES" concludes this article with the following significant words:

"If the "Protocols" were written by the Learned Elders of Zion then everything that was attempted and done against the Jews, is justified, necessary and urgent"

Some weighty words!

Is there any wonder then that the powerful influences against which this terrible indictment is directed, made all possible efforts to bring this document into discredit?

Clever steps were undertaken to prove that the "Protocols" were forgeries. The Jews have again and again disputed their authenticity. There is still pending in the Courts of Berne, Switzerland, in which a publisher is accused of defamation for his allegations as to the genuineness of the "Protocols." The Jewish plaintiffs demand the Court brand the document a forgery and thereby prohibit its circulation by the publisher.

"FORGERY"

On the 16th, 17th and 18th of August 1921 the London "Times" published a series of articles in which it asserts that the "PROTOCOLS" are only a clumsy fraud produced by a conscienceless plagiarist who paraphrased a book published in Brussels in 1865. That book called "DIALOGUES IN HELL" is reported to be written by a "Frenchman" named Maurice Joly.

The "Times" published several passages from both books in parallel columns thus proving beyond any doubt the spiritual kinship between them. The forgery version seemed to be well established.

The "Times" emphasized carefully its standing in regard to the Jewish press as being absolutely non-partisan and pretended to have exposed this "remarkable forgery" for the sake of the truth only, as it was very important that this "LEGEND" of the "PROTOCOLS OF THE LEARNED ELDERS OF ZION" shall disappear as soon as possible and for ever.

Indeed so, since the matter in question is of tremendous importance! The last of these articles terminated with the following words:

"The fact that we have to do with a plagiarism, only, is definitely established. Let the "Legend" now become a matter of the past."

But this pious wish failed to materialize. There are many circumstances that make it impossible to accept the assertion of the "Times" as a final decision. Something is rotten in Denmark . . . And if we investigate we make some interesting discoveries.

We are far from doubting the "non-partisanship" of the "Times," but the "NATIONAL TIDSCRIFT" of Oslo, Norway, in its July issue 1922, reports that a certain JEWISH banker acquired the control of the "Times" at the time when the last mentioned series of articles appeared. This statement to our knowledge was never refuted.

The "Times" explains that the "Forgery" was discovered "accidentally." If true then it was a very lucky "ACCIDENT," considering the great importance of the question involved.

According to the "Times" a "correspondent" in Constantinople became acquainted, by mere luck, with a certain Russian. (Wishing to remain incognito, he was referred to as "Mr. X,") This mysterious stranger handed the correspondent of the "Times" the particular booklet by Joly which made it possible to discover the "Forgery."

The whole story seems to be somewhat dark and romantic. In fact anyone may become a correspondent of a newspaper by simply writing a letter. No evidence was produced that this correspondent ever was in Constantinople and met a Russian there. The identity of "Mr. X." was never revealed.

Why so much mystery about it? If a "very important matter" is at stake, wouldn't it be simpler to produce those two star witnesses? The names of the two gentlemen rightly deserve to be the possession of posterity, especially in consideration of the tremendous service rendered to Israel.

Thanks to those two gentlemen, public opinion was cleverly focused away from the "PROTOCOLS", Such valuable service should not remain unrewarded.

The "Correspondent" hinted that the "Forgery" was concocted with the purpose of influencing the conservative Russian Court against the Jews by rendering to the imaginary "Jewish Peril," the aspect of reality. But no evidence what-so-ever was produced in this respect.

How did the long since forgotten Joly book find its way to Russia? That problem was never solved. Several untenable theories were advanced. The mind of the reader was switched at lightning speed from Constantinople to St. Petersburg and from Corsica to London. . . . so that the brave British "Goyim" became dizzy and unable to keep in step, remaining far back in ignorance. The game was won!

The "Times" proclaimed triumphantly that "indisputable evidence" was produced!!!

Is that so? How wonderful. . .

Now, if this watered "evidence" is properly scrutinized and subjected to distillation the only solid substance that is left is the fact that one of the books represents an overwriting and further development of the other one.

Under these circumstances can the ugly word "Forgery" be applied?

A further development and widening of a certain text can not be classified as "Forgery," otherwise every preacher who quotes a passage from the Bible without mentioning the verse and chapter would also be considered as a forger and plagiarist.

Such a conclusion is simply ridiculous when we consider that the Holy Scriptures contain many parallel passages.

We respectfully invite the attention of the Honorable Elders of Zion to the following passages of the Holy Scripture: II. Kings 18,14 (also preceding verses) as compared to Isaiah 36. The text is nearly identical. Also I. Moses 36,31 (and preceding verses) as compared with word to word reproduction in I. Chron. 1,43.

Suppose that the above passages were printed in parallel columns (as was the case with the "Protocols" and the book of Joly) the result would be just as convincing that one of the Scriptures is a paraphrase of the other.

Would this justify the statement that a clumsy fraud was concocted and that one of the Scriptures was a forgery?

It is evident that since Moses is the author of I. Book of Moses and the book I. Chron. is attributed to Ezra and Nehemiah and since certain places of the last book indicate that it was written after the Captivity of Babylon or about 860 years after the death of Moses, that in line with the logic of the "Times," Ezra and Nehemiah, are also "Plagiarists" if the uniformity of the text is to be considered a "Forgery."

Those who with us believe that the Holy Scriptures were inspired by God, who can commit no mistakes, will welcome this uniformity as proof of the Almighty's wisdom. This uniformity has a certain purpose - it shall furnish in the "Last Days" the all smashing argument against the hordes of Anti-Christ. [AMEN! -BeWISE]

It is as clear as daylight that no plagiarism was committed whether from the Holy or Satanical writers. They were using in their writings material with which they were familiar beforehand.

shall the Rabbis continue to insist on a "forgery" then also their own Prophets shall be accused as they committed the same "crime."

Now let us continue our investigation. The path we are following is getting warmer - we step on dangerous soil! Let us find out who is the gentleman identified as Maurice Joly; the mysterious correspondent (from Constantinople) "incidentally" paid no attention to his identity.

Who was this "Frenchman," the author of the "Dialogues in Hell?" This problem is solved by Gottfried zur Beck in his preface to the German edition of the "Protocols." In which we find that Maurice Joly, according to the record, in his infancy was circumcised as Moses Joel!

How strange!

Israel is doing its utmost to prove that the "Protocols" were written with the purpose of bringing the jews into contempt - and now there is evidence that this satanical plan as outlined in both of these books has the same Jewish heart and the same jewish mind as a source of origin.

MANIFOLD PROOFS

The highly remarkable book "Waters Flowing Eastward" by L. Fry contains much valuable information regarding Maurice Joly (Moses Joel). In the "Memoirs of Rene Mareuil," (one of the members of the Ministerial Cabinet of Polignac of France) is stated that Maurice Joly was born in 1831 and was employed in 1848 in the ministry at Chebreau as a minor employee. The young man was strongly influenced by Adolph Israel Cremieux (the founder of the Alliance Israelite Universelle.) Later he became a communist and was jailed for two years. In 1878 he committed suicide and at his burial the Jew Gambetta (former prime minister of France) delivered a post-mortem speech.

It should be remembered that Gambetta played a certain part in the French commune, that Bolshevik reign of terror that existed in France from March 18th to May 29th, 1871, during which time Paris was robbed and ruined. Nevertheless, by a most remarkable "coincidence none of the 145 houses owned by Alphonse Rothschild were damaged.

What are the conclusions that can be drawn from the foregoing information? They are:

1. The Jewish author that furnished the inspiration for the "Protocols" did not confine himself to nefarious theories; he did not hesitate to apply them practically in criminal actions.
2. The "Protocols" have nothing whatsoever' to do with the Russian Secret police, as the "Correspondent" of the "Times" infers.
3. The "Dialogues" are not a creation of an anti-semitic, but on the contrary they represent the Quintessence of Jewish Idealism.
4. The satanical development of ideas of this book is extracted from a still older work, thus proving Joly to be a plagiarist himself.

"The Dialogues Between Machiavelli and Montesquieu" is the title of this older book, published by Franz Duncker at Berlin in 1850. The author of this book was the Jew Jacob Venedey. He was born in 1805 in Cologne, Germany; expelled from Germany he settled in Paris in 1835... Prosecuted by the police for his subversive activities, he was protected and defended (as was the case with Joly) by Cremieux. Venedey was an intimate friend of Karl Marx (alias Jew Mordechai).

With Marx's assistance he organized in 1847 "The Communist Workers League. In 1843 he visited England and organized another secret society having as a purpose the promotion of Israel's World Domination.

Thus it is definitely proved that both books that served as a foundation for the "Protocols," were written by Jews, both of whom were friend of the founder of the "Alliance Israelite Universelle," ADOLPH ISRAEL CREMIEUX.

Under these circumstances it can not be doubted that all three books are the product of Jewish thought.

Anyone who will study carefully these books should be very much surprised to hear the Jews whining about Jews being innocently persecuted and forced to defend themselves against "Lies & Defamation." There can be no talk about "Forgery" whatsoever, as we have to do only with slightly different versions of "ideas" coming from the same powerful political and economical circle of influence.

The secret society that was organized by Karl Marx and Venedey was in fact only an outgrowth of an older Jewish organization known as "The Jewish League for Culture and Education," which already existed in 1819. The program for this league was taken over by A. Cremieux and further developed.

One easily understands the "Aims" of this "league" if he reads carefully the letter written by the Jew Baruch Levy to Karl Marx. Here is what he writes:

"The Jewish people taken collectively will be its own Messiah. His reign over the Universe will be obtained by the unification of the human races and through the elimination of frontiers. A Universal Republic will come into being in which the Sons of Israel will become the directing element. We know how to dominate the Masses. The governments of all nations will gradually fall, THROUGH VICTORY OF THE PROLETARIAT, INTO THE HANDS OF JUDAH. All private property will become the possession of the PRINCES OF ISRAEL - they will own the wealth of all lands. Thus will be realized the promise of the TALMUD that when the time of the Messiah comes the Jews will hold under their keys the property of all the peoples of the world."

The spiritual relation between this letter and the "Protocols" is exactly the same as between an acorn and an oak.

This dreadful plan is transmitted into action in our midst every day.

The "Pan-Europa" a periodical of Count Coudenhove-Calergi proclaimed that the Aristocracy of the future will be Jewish. (In the "New York Times" of April 14, 1933, Samuel Untermyer made a statement to the same effect, claiming that the Jew is the Aristocrat of the world. -Editor.)

The character and behavior of this new "Aristocracy" is substantially different from the old. The names of Bela Kun (Cohen), Kurt Eisner as well as the Jew-Soviet "Nobility" will be written for all time in world history in letters of blood.

An interesting article appeared in the newspaper "Die Front" published in Zurich, Switzerland on January 3, 1934, which reported that a group of Jews, more powerful and more influential than the Zionists, has organized a "Cultural Movement" on a world-wide scale with the purpose of putting every country under Jewish domination.

Always the same leading idea - not the slightest variation in the program.

The French magazine "Libre Parole" in its issue of November 1933, page 27, and earlier "La Vieille France" issue of March 10, 1921, published a remarkable speech of Rabbi Reichhorn delivered in Prague in 1869 over the tomb of the Grand Rabbi Simeon-ben-Ihuda; he said in part:

"For centuries the Sons of Israel have been despised and persecuted, but they have fought bravely to prepare the way for victory. Now they are approaching their aim. They already dominate the economic life of the damned Christians; their influence is just as great in politics and in moral fields. At the wished for hour, fixed in advance, we shall let loose the Revolution, which by ruining all classes of Christians will definitely enslave Christendom to us. Thus will be accomplished the promise of God made to his people."

This promise is already accomplished in Russia. What country will be next to experience the same tragic fate? [WOW! -TRY A HOST OF OTHERS SINCE THESE PROPHETIC WORDS WERE WRITTEN IN THE 1930'S!! AND OUR TURN IS COMING SOON IF THE "MASSES" DON'T WAKE UP NOW!!- BeWISE]

In a recent issue of the Jewish publication "Freurid von Israel" the editor deplores the fact that the modern Jewish youth seems to have disrespect towards God and his laws. He says, "the Godless Jew seems now to be the master of all Jewish powers. Israel runs the danger of becoming a Satanical race."

A remarkable acknowledgement! This utterance is not made by an anti-semitic but by a leader of a Jewish mission!

The danger is, in fact, grave. Israel has ceased to believe in Jehovah and is worshipping the Golden Calf only.

HISTORICAL FACTS

A Jewish Weekly 'Judische Pressezentrale,' published in Zurich, Switzerland, claims in its issue of December 15, 1933, that the "Protocols" were fabricated by the Russian secret police in 1905 shortly after the Japanese war.

It is unwise to defend a cause by simply insisting on something, that could easily be proved false. How is it possible that a document, which existed 20 years previously, in three languages, could be concocted in 1905 - a document with which several persons were already familiar?

That Jewish assertion is simply ridiculous.

It has been convincingly proved that the "Protocols" were written first in Hebrew, then in French and last in Russian.

The "Protocols" represent a strategical plan, an assembly of authenticated documents, which were kept secret for a long time. That new edition, which attracted so much attention throughout the whole world was compiled and edited by the KAHAL, the secret Jewish Government.

L. Fry says that the actual editorial work was done by ASHER GINZBERG, also known as ACHAD-HA-AM. This important person (also used to be known locally in Odessa as "King of the Jews" -Editor) was one of the four Jews who forced Balfour to make known the declaration of November 2, 1917., through which the Jews obtained a "National Home" in Palestine. Herewith they achieved one of the "Aims" contained in the "Protocols."

This evidence is of paramount value!

ASHER GINZBERG was born in the township of Skvira, Government of Kieff, Russia in 1856, the son of a Jewish tax collector. He received an excellent Talmudic education. Early in life he became prominent in Jewish literature for his articles, which he signed Ahad-ha-Am.

GINZBERG settled in Odessa, Russia in 1886, residing in Yamskaya Street. In 1889 he organized a secret society known as "B'nai Moshe" (Sons of Moses). The meetings of this secret society were held in his house. Among the first members were: Ben Avigdor, Zalman Epstein, Louis Epstein and Jacob Eisenstaat.

It is through persons who lived in Odessa at that time that information was obtained that a manuscript of the "Protocols" in the Jewish language was circulated among the Jews.

The Jew BERNSTEIN, publisher of the "FREE PRESS" of Detroit, Michigan, admitted in the presence of William Cameron secretary to Henry Ford, that HE HAD PERSONALLY READ THE "PROTOCOLS" IN THE JEWISH LANGUAGE IN ODESSA.

Now let us follow up the destiny of the French translation. One copy of the 'Protocols' was kept in the Masonic Lodge of "Miz. raim." One member of this lodge, the Jew Joseph Schorst - alias Shapiro - became a traitor to his race and sold the document for 2,500 francs to Miss Justina Glinka daughter of a Russian General. This lady who was employed by the Russian foreign intelligence service, sent the French copy together with the Russian translation to General Orgensky in St. Petersburg, with the request to pass it on to her superior General Cherevin, who was the Minister of the Interior and whose duty it was to take action accordingly.

But, as regretful as it may appear now, Gen. Cherevin was deeply entangled financially with rich and powerful Jews and did not dare to fulfill such a dangerous mission. He pigeonholed the document in his archives, where it was found after his death in 1896.

The Jew Schorst was obliged to flee for his life, but was murdered in Egypt.

In the meantime invisible enemies were persecuting Miss Glinka. She was framed and fell into disfavor with the Tsars Court and was finally exiled to her estate in the Government of Orel.

There she met the Governor General of this district, ALEXIS SUKHOTIN and handed him a copy of the Protocols, pointing out that SYPIAGUIN (another Minister of the Interior) had been murdered for attempting to check the Jewish Revolutionary activities.

Sukhotin showed the document to two friends, STEPANOFF & NILUS.

The former circulated it privately in 1897; the second Professor Sergius Nilus, published it in 1901.

This information is mostly drawn from L. Fry's work: "Waters Flowing Eastward." It is corroborated by a statement made by Philip Stepanov, Chamberlain, Privy Councillor and former Procurator of the Holy Synod at Moscow; it is witnessed by Prince DIMITRI GALITZIN.

This evidential document, delivered on April 1 7th 1927, has been photographically reproduced, and the writer of these pages owns a copy of it. Stepanov states he received the M. S. of the Protocols in 1895 from Major Sukhotin. He had them printed privately and gave a copy to A. T. KELEPOVSKY, chief of Grand Duke Sergius' household. After reading them, the Grand Duke sighed and murmured; "TOO LATE!" He was assassinated shortly afterward.

It has been often asserted that the "Protocols," which are a strategic plan for the conquest of the world and domination by Israel were read at the First Zionist Congress in 1897 at Basle, Switzerland. The Jews always deny it most vigorously and use as an argument the fact that the official record of the Congress makes no mention of it. That sort of argument has no value at all, when one takes into consideration that the furious differences between Ginzberg and Herzl were also not mentioned in the record. The officially published record is incomplete and does not possess any convincing power in that respect.

Only a few participants at that Congress are still alive; one of them Marcus Ehrenpriss the chief Rabbi of Stockholm, Sweden, explained in the "Judisk Tidskrift" no. 6, 1926, that the triumph of Israel was prophetically foreseen by Herzl 20 years ahead.

Thirty million Christians were sacrificed in the World War - but the Jewish aims were achieved. Russia was destroyed; the "Peace came without Victory;" all sides were impoverished - and Palestine was handed to the Jews! (The next war which is now in preparation shall lead to the complete downfall of the Goyim.)

The secret-record of the Zionist Congress in Basle was secured by the Russian Government through the efforts of secret service man Ratchkovsky, who bought it from two Jews Eno Asev and Rabbi From. The latter sought later security in a monastery in Jugoslavia, where he died in 1925.

When the secret record of the Basle Congress was examined by the Russian police it was discovered to their great surprise that the acquired documents were identical with the "Protocols."

Ratchkovsky died suddenly under' "mysterious circumstances," shortly after making an important report to the Chief of Gendarmes, General Kourloff. Kourloff was convinced that Ratchkovsky was murdered.

Professor Nilus was subjected to inhuman tortures by the Cheka and died in 1929.

All these circumstances form a chain of steel links, each of which can be checked up. The witnesses introduced are not unknown adventurers, but are educated and trustworthy persons of high social rank.

We really feel obliged to ask the "Jüdische Pressezentrale" to explain; how was it possible for all those persons to read, translate and circulate documents ten, fifteen and twenty years before they were composed?

The Jews pretend that the "Protocols" were concocted by two members of the secret police of Russia. Suppose, but the whole prophetic program has since turned into reality!!!

How was it possible for two minor police officials to alter completely the face of the whole world, to overthrow thrones and to destroy empires? How did they succeed in accumulating all the gold of the world in their hands, to ruin entire nations and to muzzle the press? ? ?

"CAMOUFLAGE"

The very essence of the Jewish Danger is hidden in that one word. No other artifice yields so much profit as the art of "camouflage."

The "Goyim" are so pathetically gullible in that respect - a new name is sufficient to make a gentleman out of a criminal.

Camouflage is a very recent invention. If Nero could have thought of this brilliant idea and had changed his name to Socrates his reputation would doubtless have been as clean and spotless as that of Mr. Finklestein-Litvinoff!

When that "famous" diplomat was pompously received first by the Prime Minister of Great Britain and later by President Roosevelt all "delicate" subjects were carefully avoided.

Twenty-five years ago that "Guest of honor" was arrested at the Gare du Nord in Paris by police inspector Guichard for circulating stolen bank notes. Those bank notes were obtained during an armed robbery in Tiflis; bombs were exploded and terrific fire from automatic pistols caused the death of fifty persons. The robbers obtained one million roubles.

If Mr. MacDonald and Mr. Roosevelt care to have a suitable souvenir of their guest, all they have to do is to ask the Paris police for his fingerprints.

There are, no doubt, in England and America, some old fashioned people who are shocked by such "visitors" and deeply ashamed of such affiliations.

A powerful movement to the contrary is developing in this country, but is perceptible only by the most keen observers; it grows daily and is bound to assume tremendous proportions soon.

The Jews have spotted it already - their fine sense of observation tells them that something has changed.

Recently Rabbi Shulman of Chicago speaking before a large audience expressed himself as follows:

"The Jews become anxious on account of a precedent set up by Hitler, which might also be followed by other countries. The Jews are being accused of having caused the depression. They are afraid of their lives as nobody can tell whether or not some day the great extermination of the Jews will break out."

That is just the great danger! It is written: An eye for an eye and a tooth for a tooth (2nd. Moses 21, 24) and "They have sown the wind and will reap the storm." (Hosea 8, 7.)

Those prophetic words should be remembered by all true Christians with anxiety. We want Justice which does not exclude Mercy, but no vengeance and no physical violence.

The problem today is: how to save the Aryan peoples from the claws of the Jews.

Tomorrow another complicated problem arises: how to save the Jews from the vengeance of the Gentiles?

THE PROGRAM

Now that we have produced ample evidence on the authenticity of the "Protocols" - we will give for the benefit of the reader, a short synopsis of the gigantic strategical plan. The persons who are not as yet awake to the great conspiracy for the destruction of Christian Civilization should study it carefully and realize the great danger impending.

They should examine minutely the "bait" that is laid out for them and let us hope they will have enough common sense not to swallow it. One can never be sure of it anyway as many prefer to continue to sleep quietly instead of straining their brains. "Kismet!" There is no God's law for the saving of the imbecile.

Here is the plan invented by the "Learned Elders of Zion," the master program laid down in the "Protocols."

"WE SHALL":

- 1. Seduce and demoralize the youth with false doctrines.
- 2. Destroy the family life.
- 3. Dominate humanity by Preying upon their lower instincts and vices.
- 4. Debase and vulgarize Art, and introduce filth in Literature.
- 5. Destroy respect for religions; undermine the reputation of the clergy through scandalous stories and back up the so called "Higher Criticism"

so that the old fundamental faith is shattered and quarrels and controversies become permanent in the churches.

6. Introduce the habit for luxuries, crazy fashions and spendthrift ideas so that the ality for enjoying clean and plain pleasures is lost.

7. Divert the attention of the people by public amusements, sports, games, prize contests, etc., so that there is no time for thinking.

8. Confuse and bewilder the minds of the people by false theories and shatter the nerves and health by continuously introducing new poisons. (Alcohol, Nicotine, Drugs, Demineralized foods, etc. -Editor.) 9. Instigate class hatred and class war among the different classes of people.

10. Dispossess the old Aristocracy, which still keeps up high traditions by excessive taxes and replace it with the "Knights of the Golden Calf."

11. Poison the relations between the employees and employers through strikes and lockouts so as to ruin the possibility of productive co-operation.

12. Demoralize by all means the higher classes of society and by adverse publicity raise the hate of the people toward them.

13. Use industry to ruin agriculture and then in its turn destroy industry by wild speculation.

14. Spread all possible utopian theories so as to bring the people into a labyrinth of impractical ideas.

15. Raise the rate of wages, which however will not bring any advantage to the workers for at the same time we shall produce a rise in the price of the first necessities of life.

16. Cause diplomatic friction and misunderstanding between States which will increase international suspicions and hate thereby greatly augmenting armaments.

17. Introduce in all states, general suffrage so that the destiny of nations depend upon ignorant people.

18. Overthrow all monarchies and substitute republics for them; in so far as possible fill important state offices with persons who are involved in some unlawful affair and who will, from fear of being exposed, remain our obedient servants. 19. Gradually amend all constitutions so as to prepare the soil for absolute despotism and Bolshevism.

20. Establish huge monopolies upon which even the great fortunes of the Gentiles will depend to such an extent that they will be swallowed up at the "hour" when the industrial crisis will start.

21. Destroy all financial stability; increase economic depressions to the extent of bringing a general world bankruptcy; stop the wheels of industry; make bonds, stocks and paper money worthless; accumulate all the gold of the world in the hands of a certain few people thus withdrawing tremendous capital from circulation; at a given hour close all the exchanges, withdraw all credits and cause general panic.

22. Prepare the death struggle of the nations; wear out humanity through suffering, fear and shortage of food - hunger creates slaves!!!

That is the program!

The chief element necessary for the success of this plan is "Secrecy." Therefore the invisible enemy has taken special precautions for keeping humanity in ignorance of their systematic efforts in preparing THE KINGDOM OF ANTI-CHRIST.

Indeed everything was foreseen in that program and nothing disregarded.

Was the "Times" justified or not in saying:

"If the "Protocols" were really written by the Learned Elders of Zion, then everything that was attempted and done against the Jews, is justified, necessary and urgent".

CONCLUSION

The "Hidden Hand" is exposed; its game is lost as it can act only in the darkness. Will Judah admit its defeat or will it continue to fight? The proud dream of World Domination has faded out as the main condition of success consisted in taking the world by surprise. The Russian Giant was asleep as well as deeply wounded, but Germany which happened to be very much awake to the danger, sounded the alarm which keeps ringing in all corners of the world.

It is not between "Berlin" or "Moscow" that humanity has to choose today but between CHRIST and ANTI-CHRIST. There can only be two camps; the one of the "God-fearing" and the other of the "Godless." In these two camps there is plenty of room for all races and nations.

The good ones in any nation should fight and suppress the wicked ones.

How can it be achieved?

With possibly a single exception there will be hardly a newspaper in the world which will have the courage to print this message.

But still and all the whole power of Judah is not sufficient to prevent this message from spreading like an electric spark from pole to pole. All over the world a new generation is arising which did not bend its knee before the "Golden Calf." This generation will clean out the "Anglean Stables" - from the governments by all nations it will drive out the jittering political old men with evil smelling pockets.

The stolen billions shall be again distributed for the welfare of the suffering people. Friendly cooperation shall replace fruitless rivalry.

A "National Home" for the Jews shall be created in a distant place on the globe where the Jews can work among themselves and prove to the world that they can make good. The confiscated money will richly pay for the general Jewish repatriation in the "New Palestine." The "Goyim" which have been bought by Jewish money may follow their masters into exile. That would be just and not expensive.

A deep breath of liberation will then be released by the whole suffering world. A mountain of trouble will fall from its shoulders! [End]

REMEMBER: The "Protocols" must be STUDIED, not merely read.

Unfortunately the tone can get a bit harsh in revealing these Truths. BeWISE would like to re-emphasise that we are in no way blaming every single individual Jew for this NWO push. That would be ridiculous and wrong since we actively work with many precious Jews all across the world. We are clearly pointing out that this push for global control as laid out in the Protocols comes mainly from the Jewish LEADERS and their cronies - their politically correct "yes men" . . . However, it is a FACT that many Jews are used willingly by these diabolical leaders and their agendas as are many other people . . . and that is sad . . .

In fact, BeWISE just received yet another surprising CONFIRMATION of what we post on this Site from a former high-level rabbi who rejected the LIES of Judaism and accepted Christ. He stated to us verbally and quite directly:

"I am now 100 percent convinced, without a shadow of any doubt whatsoever, that the entire world is being run and manipulated by non-believing Jews."

WOW! We have complete documentation of this incredible revelation by this precious and courageous man.

THE PROTOCOLS OF THE LEARNED ELDERS OF SION

At first these "Protocols," printed in broad sheets by the millions, were used to stir up fear and hatred of Jews in Germany. They were then re-issued, somewhat revised, and directed at England to stir up hatred of the English. In Russia the "Protocols" were used to back up charges against the Jews for "ritual murders."

*Mackey's Encyclopedia of Preemasonry*¹

The Jewish Holocaust of World War II fulfilled a prophecy made 150 years earlier by the orthodox rabbis in Germany, who warned the Frankist-Reform Jews that persecution would start at Berlin if they persisted in their amoral destruction of society. To help fulfill this prophecy, anti-Semitic Gentile Freemasonry engineered the exposure of the Jews through the fraudulent creation of The Protocols of the Learned Elders of Sion. These Protocols, a compilation of twenty-four documents, developed the required anti-Semitism that ended in the death of six million Jews in the midst of World War II.

The Protocols of the Learned Elders of Sion were first said to have been the minutes of the first Zionist Congress at Basel, Switzerland, August 29-31, 1897. According to Robert John, author of Behind the Balfour Declaration, the 197 Jewish delegates were a mixture of the orthodoxy, nationalists, liberals, atheists, culturalists, anarchists, socialists and capitalists.² In three days these Jews are said to have discussed, debated, then agreed upon a detailed conspiracy for world dominion. The alleged outcome of that Congress was a document containing the minutes to twenty-four lengthy meetings detailing how the Jewish intrigue was to unfold.

It defies imagination, how Jews of such mixed convictions, who find it difficult to agree on any issue within their own persuasion, completed twenty-four Protocols in just three days.

Those who read the documents were apparently convinced that Zionist Jews were planning to take over all governments through a well-orchestrated plan of subversion, using the press, secular schools, and Gentile Masonry as a cover. The Jews allegedly were planning to enslave the world through this conspiracy. Their first insurrection was to take place in Russia, which in retrospect many believed to have climaxed in the Bolshevik Revolution of 1917. So well had Gentile Freemasonry placed the Jews in the forefront of that insurrection that the West began hearing rumors of Jews taking over Russia. Appendix 2, Fig. 33 presents the caricatures of these allegations that were printed in newspapers throughout the world.

History of the Protocols

We have learned that Sion is the French spelling for the English Zion. The original Protocols were written in French, stolen from a Masonic lodge in Paris in 1884 (as we shall see), then taken to Russia where they were translated and first published in that language in 1903.

After the first publication of the Protocols in Russia, they were banned in 1905 by the ill-fated Czar Nicholas II following an attempt to topple his government. In 1917, following the February Revolution, the new Kerensky government confiscated and burned the second edition before it reached the streets and immediately outlawed anti-Semitism.³ On April 5, 1917, the Russian Jews won emancipation.⁴ By October Kerensky's government had lost to the Bolsheviks, who, in the "Red Terror" that followed, appeared to fulfill the slaughter written of in the Protocols.

After the Bolshevik Revolution, the Protocols made their way back to the West, where, from 1921 to 1935, the newspaper-reading-public of the world was made aware of their contents.

Publishing the Protocols of the Learned Elders of Sion was a most malicious crime committed against the House of Israel. At the same time as the Protocols began to circulate throughout Europe, conspiracy researchers were attempting to connect the Bolsheviks with the Illuminati. In many ways the two movements were the same. We see this, for instance, in their colors. Weishaupt had selected the color red to represent his bloody revolution. Likewise, the Communists. Since then Communists have been nicknamed "Reds."

Those who opposed the Reds formed their own republic called Belorussia, or White Russia, bordering on Poland, Lithuania, and Latvia. The Whites waged a short-lived counterrevolution against the Reds but lost in 1919 for lack of funds. When the Whites fled to the West, most settled in Germany. With them came copies of the Protocols. Soon these documents were in the hands of Hitler, who set out to rid the world of this so-called Judeo-Masonic conspiracy. Hitler's Mein Kampf makes mention of the Protocols as proof of a Jewish conspiracy.⁵

The Protocols of the Learned Elders of Sion have been suppressed so successfully since the Jewish Holocaust that today most people have not heard of them. During the 1920s and 1930s, however, their contents were on the lips of every political official in Europe, Asia and America. Appendix 2, Fig. 10 shows reproductions of two book covers of the French and Spanish editions of the Protocols. The Jewish caricatures on the covers reveal the vicious anti-Semitism of the time.

The Birth of Zionism in Russia

The Zionist movement was the result of anti-Semitic seeds sown in Russia by Grand Orient Freemasonry. In 1840 the German Grand Orient sent Reform Jews to that vast empire where Jewish Orthodoxy was the strongest. Their assignment was to destroy the Russian Jews through assimilation into Russian society. The Reform, however, had not anticipated the power of the leading Russian Rabbi, Tzemach Tzedek, who victoriously opposed them. In retaliation the Reform began to spread lies about the Orthodoxy. Czarist Russia believed these lies and became violently anti-Semitic. Pogroms, which are organized massacres of helpless people, broke out everywhere against the Jews.⁶

Rabbi Antelman informs us that the Reform was headquartered in the Grand Orient "League of the Just," known in Germany as the "Bund." While the Bund financed Karl Marx's communist activity in France and England, it also sought virgin territory to export its communist doctrine to the East. Antelman gives us the details:

Reform was now ready for expansion into other areas. The Bund decided to export its heresies to Russia and selected Dr. Max Lillienthal (1814-1882) for the job. Lillienthal was partially successful. In 1840 he succeeded in opening a Jewish school where he could implant the seeds of destruction against Judaism. In December 1841, he laid the groundwork for government sponsored Jewish secular schools in Russia. However, Lillienthal was not totally successful because he had never reckoned with the power of the great Lubavitcher Chasidic rabbi who lived at that time in Russia called the Tzentsach Tzedek. It was he who completely dissipated these efforts and taught the Communists a lesson that they never forgot, so much so, that generations later after the revolution they imprisoned this man's descendant known as the Lubavitcher Rebbe of Russia, threatened to kill him and threw him down a flight of stairs.⁷

According to Rabbi Antelman, Max Lillienthal became so enraged with his defeat, that before he left Russia he guaranteed the destruction of his own race there. Antelman writes:

Dr. Lillienthal and his cohorts in Russia made concerted attacks against the Torah and Judaism. Agents of the society were dispatched to spy on the Tzemach Tzedek. They also instigated the writing of scores of denunciatory letters which arrived daily to the Ministry of Interior, Culture and the Secret Police, which spoke against Jewish religious leaders and key merchants, villagers or innkeepers whose morals or integrity they could not compromise. These letters charged rebellion, contempt for Christianity, misappropriation of taxes, violation of the restricted areas which only Jews may inhabit, smuggling, bribery and usury.

On one occasion Lillenthal attempted to impress Count Uvarov, the Minister of Culture. He stated that the rabbis condone all sorts of unethical iniquities with Gentiles including usury and misrepresentation. In addition he accused the rabbis of preaching a policy of separatism from the good Gentile neighborhoods and he claimed that the most notorious offender was the saintly Tzemach Tzedek.

All the years that Lillenthal was in Russia, pressure from above the government, and pressure from below through his educators and enlightenment societies [Grand Orient Freemasonry] continued to be applied to the Jewish communities to assimilate.... All during this period the Czar was applying further pressure of assimilating Jews with his forced conscription law so that during 1842-1843, 22,000 Jews had been converted to Christianity and between 1846-1854, 7,000 were baptized. However, things got worse and finally came to a head.

On May 6, 1843, the first meeting of a government commission aimed at finalizing Jewish assimilation was convened. The Tzemach Tzedek stood strongly in opposition to what the conspirators wanted to do. The gauntlet was thrown on the table when he stated that if it was the government intention and that of the Maskilim (seekers of enlightenment) to carry out their plan that he and his colleagues were prepared to suffer death rather than to transgress.⁸

Death is what they received. Pogroms broke out everywhere. Against this terror the Orthodox Jews began to dream of a Jewish homeland, specifically a return to Palestine. During these trying times, the word "Zionism" was coined for their movement. Although Zionism was not officially recognized until 1896-1897, Theodore Herzl (1860-1904), a Viennese Jewish journalist, "offered a focus for a Zionist movement founded in Odessa in 1881, which spread rapidly through the Jewish communities of Russia, and small branches which had sprung up in Germany, England and elsewhere."⁹

Zionism was an escapist reaction that grew from the anti-Semitic seeds sown by the Reform.¹⁰ Within four decades Zionism became a nationalistic movement of Jews around the world. Herzl created the first Zionist Congress held in Basel, Switzerland, in 1897. Twenty years later Russia experienced "the vengeance of the Jews" in the Bolshevik Revolution, so stated those who had read and believed the "evidence" of the Protocols of the Learned Elders of Sion.

Rabbi Antelman states that Reform Judaism financed the Bolshevik Revolution through a bewhiskered anti-Zionist Jew named Jacob Schiff, a New York City banker. Speaking to the cause of the Russian pogroms, Antelman carries the reader back to the Reform's failure to assimilate Jews into Russian society. He states, "It was.. this stunning defeat that heightened extreme disdain for Russian Jews which was manifested in many ways by Jacob Schiff."¹¹

Jews and the Two 1917 Russian Revolutions

Jacob Schiff was a puppet of Max Warburg, the Jewish banker from Frankfurt, Germany. You may recall that the Rothschild and Warburg families were in competition in Frankfurt during the Napoleonic Wars, after which the House of Rothschild moved its banking headquarters to London. Years later competition between the two Jewish clans was manifested in two areas other than banking. First in religion, the Warburg clan were Reform Jews, whereas the Rothschilds were Zionists; second, in Masonic affiliation, the Rothschilds were English Masons, whereas the Warburgs were Grand Orient Masons.

These divisions, and not their banking rivalry, brought the Rothschilds and Warburgs into conflict in the two Russian revolutions of 1917. Although both insurrections were planned by Gentile Freemasonry (see chapter 19), the Rothschilds and the Warburgs took opposite sides in funding the competing factions.

Lord Rothschild, in February 1917, backed the Russian Socialist and Scottish Rite Mason, Alexander Kerensky, who attempted to install a government in Russia similar to that of the United States. At Kerensky's side were Zionist Orthodox Jews. On April 5th all Jews won emancipation.

The other Jewish party, the Reform Jews, did not want socialism, but communism. Their counterrevolution in October was led by Russian Grand Orient Mason, Vladimir Lenin. His uprising was funded by the German Grand Orient Mason Max Warburg. At Lenin's side were anti-Zionist Reform Jews. After the Bolsheviks toppled the Kerensky government, Rothschild funded the White Russians against the Bolsheviks.

Most conspiracy researchers know of the Jewish involvement in both revolutions. Yet, they have been unable to differentiate between the anti-Zionist Reform Jews and the Zionist Orthodox Jews. Not until Rabbi Antelman explained this division in his 1974 book was the Gentile world to know. Lacking this knowledge, investigators in the 1920s blamed the authorship of the Protocols of the Learned Elders of Zion on the Zionist Congress of 1897.

Origins of the Protocols

Dating the authorship of the Protocols at 1897 has since been established as too late. The Protocols date much earlier. Yet Jewry had already been damaged with the world-wide publication of their falsely incriminating contents. For example, the Protocols were distributed to the White Russian Army soon after the House of Rothschild began financing the Whites against the Reds. The Whites, thinking they now understood the cause behind the destruction of Russia, indiscriminately slaughtered 60,000 Jews, blaming them for the Bolshevik Revolution. Rothschild grieved over this unwarranted carnage and withdrew his funding, upon which the Whites fell to the Reds.¹² Escaping to the West, many Whites settled in Germany and joined the Nazis. Soon Hitler set out to rid the world of this so-called Jewish conspiracy.¹³ The result was six million Jews slaughtered during World War II.

Masons began to promote the Jews as the author of the Protocols. From 1920 through 1922 the Protocols were serialized in America in The Dearborn Independent, a Dearborn, Michigan, newspaper distributed by 33rd degree Freemason Henry Ford. Later, Ford's serialization was bound in a book entitled The International Jew and distributed throughout Nazi Germany.

Even young Winston Churchill, a Master Mason at the time, promoted the Protocols as Jewish. The London Jewish Chronicle of February 13, 1920, accused him as follows: "The Secretary of War, Winston Churchill, charges the Jews with engineering a world wide conspiracy for the overthrow of civilization."¹⁴

Authentic or forged, its contents true or false, to withhold from mention in general history the existence of documents that caused World War II, and with it the ritual murder of six million Jews and five million Gentiles, is a travesty of justice to world history. On the other hand, to speak of them - worse yet, to allow them to be published and read would once again bring certain death to the Jews, so deceptively incriminating is the "evidence" against them. Certainly, the Jews must, and did fight to prove those documents not of Jewish origin. They received vindication from the Court of Berne on May 14, 1935, when the Court ruled the Protocols not of Jewish origin.¹⁵

If not of Jewish origin, from whence came the Protocols of Sion? The Court of Berne discovered that the original documents were in French. We have learned that the birthplace and home of the Priory of Sion was, and still is, France.¹⁶ We have also discovered that the Priory of Sion is not Jewish, but a Jewish counterfeit. Moreover, we have suggested that the Priory of Sion may be those individuals, written of by the Apostle John, who "say they are Jews, and are not, but do lie..." Revelation 3:9).

Therefore, if the Protocols of Sion is the product of the Priory of Sion, and not of the Zionist Jews, it is understandable why the Jews would denounce it everywhere as a forgery. Finally, in 1921 the London Times "made the sensational discovery through its correspondents in Constantinople...of a French book which they called the Dialogues of Geneva, published anonymously at Brussels in 1865. This book, the Times affirmed, had been plagiarized by the author[s] of the Protocols.¹⁷"

After the Dialogues of Geneva were published, the Times is quoted as saying: "It was soon discovered by the police of Napoleon III that the author of the book was a certain lawyer, Maurice Joly, who was arrested, tried, and sentenced to two years imprisonment [from April 1865], as it was averred that he had written his book as an attack against the government of Napoleon III to which he had lent all the Machiavellian plans revealed in the Dialogues.¹⁸

Maurice Joly (1831-1878) was a Gentile French lawyer, a writer, Freemason, and member of a Rose-Croix order. Most significant, he was intimate with Victor Hugo (1802-1885), the famous French poet, who was also a member of the same Rose-Croix order.¹⁹ This is the same Victor Hugo, who, following the communist uprisings of 1848, coined the phrase, the "United States of Europe" at the Masonic Peace Conference in 1849.

From 1844 until his death in 1885, Victor Hugo was Grand Master of the Priory of Sion.²⁰ The authors of Holy Blood, Holy Grail, suggest that the Rosicrucian order to which both Joly and Hugo belonged was the Priory of Sion.

Maurice Joly was also a close friend of the Jewish Freemason, Adolphe Isaac Cremieux (1796-1880). Cremieux was mentioned in the previous chapter as being involved with Victor Hugo in the 1848 communist uprisings in France and was one of the orators applauding its success. Most significant was Cremietix's Masonic rank. He was a 33rd degree Mason sitting on the Supreme Council of the Ancient and Primitive Rite of Mizraim at Paris, the same Rosicrucian Masonic Lodge founded by Sionist-Illuminatus Cagliostro. The rituals practiced in the Mizraim Lodge were the same Isis cult mysteries of Egypt observed by the Priory of Sion. Sion's English Masons also act out the same Isis legend in the Master Mason ceremony.²¹

The facts of Maurice Joly's life make him an interesting man indeed. First, he was a Gentile Frenchman, a lawyer, a Freemason, and a writer. Second, he was the man who wrote the Dialogues of Geneva (in French), from which the original version of the Protocols of the Learned Elders of Sion allegedly were plagiarized (in French). Third, he was closely associated with Victor Hugo, the Grand Master of the Priory of Sion. Fourth, Joly was involved with Aldolphe Cremietix, a ruler in a Rosicrucian Masonic Lodge, a lodge founded by Sionist Cagliostro. Fifth, both Hugo and Cremieux were heavily involved in the French Masonic Revolution of 1848. This circumstantial evidence points to these three men as having been involved in creating the Protocols of the Learned Elders of Sion.

Zionism versus Sionism

Circumstantial evidence? Of course. The activities of Cremieux, however, make the intrigue even more fascinating. For six years (1864- 1870) Cremieux was president of the Alliance Israelite Universelle, a genuine Jewish political order founded in 1860, and headquartered in the same Sionist Masonic Lodge where Cremieux sat as a ruler on the Supreme Council. The Alliance, an arm of the Priory of Sion, was created to counter the Zionist movement that was budding in Russia during the 1850s.

Zionism was nationalistic, desiring a Jewish homeland, whereas the Alliance Israelite Universelle was exactly what its name implies, an Alliance of Universalist Jews. As Universalists, the Alliance encouraged all Jews to keep their identity in Gentile nations. Naturally, they opposed those Jews who longed for a homeland. The Alliance also opposed Reform Judaism, which desired that Jews lose their identity in Gentile nations through assimilation. In subsequent years the Universalist Jews spread throughout Europe, but never crossed the English Channel, where English Freemasonry reluctantly backed Zionism at the bidding of the Rothschilds.

Not only was Zionism a bewilderment to the Universalist Jews, it took Reform Judaism by total surprise. A homeland for the Jews would, in effect destroy the Reform's planned destruction of the Jewish race through assimilation. As a matter of course, then, Reform Judaism, already anti-Semitic, became anti-Zionist.

The Universalist Jews, on the other hand, were not anti-Semitic, but were anti-Zionist - yet, for a different reason than that pursued by the Reform Jews. For example, nationalistic Zionism posed a threat to the counterfeit "King of Jerusalem" cult of Merovingians, who desired someday to reinstate their universal throne at Jerusalem where it had been established during the Crusades. It was the Priory of Sion's ultimate task to crown the "Lost King" on a Jerusalem throne. Therefore, Zionism was on a collision course with Zionism. Should the Zionists succeed in establishing a Jewish homeland, a genuine Jewish king ascending the throne of a bonafide Israelite nation would destroy the millennium-old Merovingian dream. As a matter of course, then, the Priory of Sion became anti-Zionist, founding the Alliance Israelite Universelle to counter the Zionist movement.

The Alliance, although founded by the Priory of Sion, was an exclusively Jewish Order headquartered in a Gentile Rosicrucian Masonic Lodge. Reform Judaism, on the other hand, was Templar, headquartered in Gentile Grand Orient Freemasonry, and hence, an adversary of the Priory of Sion. Yet, Zionism gave cause for the Alliance to ally 'with the Reform in an effort to destroy this nationalist movement.

Adversaries with common enemies make strange bedfellows. These two adversaries would cooperate, if necessary, in a revolution in Russia, either to destroy Zionism at its source, or contain it within Russian borders. Hence, we find many Jews of both persuasions involved in Kerensky's Socialist Revolution and Lenin's Communist Revolution. Kerensky's technique for containing the Zionists was to emancipate the Jews, hoping to quiet their drive for a Jewish homeland. The Bolshevik technique was to forcibly keep the Zionists within Russian borders, disallowing them emigration to the Holy Land.²²

For sixty years (1860-1920) the information connecting these Jewish movements remained obscure. Not until the 1920s, when many professional and amateur revisionist historians began searching for the source of the Protocols, did the documentation about Joly, Cremieux, Mizraim Freemasonry and the Alliance surface. Although a mixture of Jews and Gentiles were found on Mizraim membership rolls, it appeared to the investigators that the Alliance and the Mizraim Lodge were both Jewish-run institutions.

Sion Confused with Zion

Because their symbols were identical, Zionists were also mistakenly implicated with the intrigues at Mizraim. Mizraim's herald was the "interlaced triangle," or six-pointed star of the Priory of Sion. In 1917, when the world first saw the Zionists hoist the so-called "Star of David" on their flag at Palestine, conspiracy investigators assumed Mizraim Freemasonry and the Alliance were connected to Zionism.

The "identical syndrome" of Masonic symbols once again confused investigators. Zionists, however, had more right to the six-pointed star than did the Priory of Sion. Long before the Priory and its Masonic lodges adopted it as their coat-of-arms, it was a Jewish symbol of scattered Israel. Before that it was a pagan symbol. For clarification, we will trace its origin.

The interlaced triangle was originally a decorative motif or magical emblem, symbolic of the pagan star-god in Hinduism. Later it migrated to the Assyrians and there was adopted by the ten northern tribes of Israel before they were taken into captivity in 721 B.C.²³ (II Kings 17:1- 23). This is confirmed by the prophet Alnos, whom God sent to the ten tribes to warn them of impending bondage if they did not repent of their idolatry with Assyrian gods. Alnos, speaking for God, warns Israel in 5:26-27:

But ye have borne the tabernacle of.. Chiun. . the star.. god, which ye made to yourselves. Therefore, will I cause you to go into captivity beyond Damascus, saith the Lord, whose name is The God of hosts.

Chiun is the planet Saturn, the star-god, symbolized by the two interlaced triangles, or six-pointed star called the hexagram.²⁴ The hexagram is also known as the Lucifer Star.²⁵ Idolatrous Israel had "borne," or carried, "the star...god" by wearing the hexagram as an amulet. It was also carved in the door frames of every Israelite house, ostensibly to ward off the "fire god." Since that time the six-pointed star has been a Jewish symbol found in synagogues from the very beginning of the Diaspora. This was 1,700 years before the Priory of Sion appropriated it in the first millennium A.D.²⁶ After that it appeared on the heraldic flag of the Jews in Prague in 1527, a full two centuries before Gentile Freemasonry adopted it from the Jewish Cabala.²⁷ Therefore, it would be natural for both the Alliance in 1860 and the Zionists in 1897 to select it as their herald.

To make the symbol even more Jewish, the Zionists in 1904 renamed the six-pointed star "Magen David," or "Shield of David."²⁸ At their first meeting at Basel in 1897, Robert John reports that "On either side of the main doorway of the hall hung white banners with two blue stripes, and over the doorway was placed a six-pointed 'Shield of David.'"²⁹

Since this knowledge was unavailable during the 1920s, it was popular to connect Mizraim Freemasonry, the Alliance and Zionism by this symbol. Also, the word "Sion" in the Protocols was suspect. Therefore, these documents were thrown in with the hodgepodge of circumstantial evidence implicating Jews. Throughout the 1920s and 1930s, accusations against the Jews were broadcast everywhere. Naturally, Jews of every persuasion were concerned. For their own survival they must discredit the Protocols. And with all their resources they did.

Another enigma confronting researchers was the fact that while Cremieux sat on the 33rd degree Supreme Council of Mizraim Freemasonry (a Rosicrucian Order), he was also Supreme Master of its adversary, the Templar Grand Orient at Paris." Jews were controlling both sides of the conspiracy," investigators would write. Therefore, it was a simple matter to accuse them of writing the Protocols of Sion.

In retrospect, there are obvious reasons why Cremieux joined an adversarial Lodge. In those days Masonry was continually receiving advanced occult knowledge from research done on the Templar documents looted from the Vatican archives during the reign of Napoleon Bonaparte. working on this project was the Priory of Sion's Eliphas Levi (Louis Constant 1810-1875). Each advanced enlightenment was cause for the invention of more advanced degrees of Masonry. For example, Mizraim had jumped from 33 to 90 degrees by 1868. In 1871 the Mizraim Rite was carried to London where it was absorbed by Memphis Freemasonry. By 1875 it merged with Memphis worldwide and grew to 97 degrees. In France the Grand Orient remained at 33 degrees.³⁰

Stiff esoteric competition between lodges was commonplace. Each had highly specialized agents to penetrate the other's lodges to learn of its new occult secrets. It would be natural, then, for Cremietix to seek knowledge from an adversarial lodge. Hence, he joined the Grand Orient, working his way up the chairs to Supreme Commander. Moreover, Cremietix had a strong dislike for Napoleon M (1808-1873), who was also a member of the Grand Orient. The Grand Orient was known as the Lodge for French politicians. As its Grand Commander, Cremietix had access to state secrets, which would benefit Rosicrucian Great Britain.

Although many conspiracy researchers have tried to connect the two, there was no cooperation between the Rosicrucian Mizraim lodges and the Templar Grand Orients. This fact is confirmed in Mackey's Encyclopedia of Freemasonry: "an attempt was unsuccessfully made to obtain the recognition of the Grand Orient of France. [Their non-recognition] had the effect of making them illegal."³¹

Dr. Mackey does admit, however, that Mizraim Freemasonry borrowed from the Grand Orient Scottish Rite degrees. Who borrowed but Cremietix? This was common practice among competing lodges.

Non-recognition meant that Mizraim Freemasonry was considered clandestine by the Grand Orient. How, then, did a Rosicrucian, such as Cremieux, obtain membership in a Templar Lodge, much less become its Supreme Master, if he was known to be a ruler in an adversarial lodge. No conspiracy researcher has given a satisfactory answer, outside of tying the two lodges together. It may be that the Grand Orient was ignorant of Cremietix's affiliation with Mizraim. In this secret war of intelligence gathering from competing lodges, membership lists are suppressed by issuing secret code names to the hierarchy. Cremieux may have been a double agent, as was Cagliostro, founder of Mizraim.

Mizraim Freemasonry and Intelligence Gathering

Intelligence gathering was established as a Masonic activity at the Congress of Vienna in 1815. When European Grail royalty united within British Freemasonry to protect the Priory of Sion secret, they built for themselves a spy network operating out of the Grand Lodge Alpina in Switzerland. From there they kept an eye on Masonic developments in France by penetrating the Grand Orient with their agents. Alpina's agents were none other than Sionists Cremietix, Joly, and Victor Hugo, the Grand Master of the Priory of Sion. All three were intimate with Rosicrucian Mizraim Freemasonry. It seems likely that Cremietix was a Rosicrucian spy who penetrated the Templar Grand Orient, the lodge for French politicians, working his way through the chairs to the top position.

Edith Miller, in Occult Theocracy, documents that English Free-masonry was in communication with Mizraim during Cremieux's day. Its counterpart in London was Memphis Freemasonry, known in England as "The Ancient and Primitive Rite." The Rite of Mizraim was amalgamated with that of Memphis in 1775.³² At the head of Memphis in London was 33rd degree Mason John Yarker (1833-1913). A member of its ruling hierarchy in France was Cremieux (1836-1871). It would have been common practice for Cremieux to transfer state secrets to Yarker through Masonic channels.

Brief History of Masonic Intelligence Operations

The Templars and Sion have been spying on each other since 1188. Such spying continues to the present day. We will briefly examine the history of Masonic intelligence operations below.

John J. Robinson, author of the recent pro-Masonic book, Born in Blood: The Lost Secrets of Freemasonry, informs us that in the 12th and 13th centuries the Knights Templar were the precursors of our modern intelligence services. He says they "were known to maintain intelligence agents in the principal cities of the Middle East and the Mediterranean coast, and they would necessarily have employed covert means of communication. International financial dealings required total secrecy, naval operations required it to hide shipping information from Moslem or pirate forces, and military administration over two continents would certainly require it."

When the Templars founded their form of Freemasonry, intelligence operations naturally travelled through a chain of their lodges. Likewise, Sion's Rosicrucians penetrated the masonic working man's guilds a century before Cromwell's revolution. Moreover, Cromwell himself used the secret halls of an aristocratic Masonic lodge called the "Crown" to organize his insurrection.

A century later Adam Weishaupt turned Continental Freemasonry into an intelligence gathering machine. He founded the Illuminati to penetrate Templar French Masonry. His assignment was to ignite the French Revolution and depose the Bourbons on behalf of the Priory of Sion. Instead, the Illuminati itself was penetrated by the Templars. The Revolution occurred as scheduled, but not under the command of Weishaupt.

Adversarial lodges penetrating each other's ranks is not as difficult as one may imagine. The irony is that both Freemasonries employ the same identifying grips and passwords. Entry is granted readily by a spy using these secret codes. Once inside the lodge brother Masons fraternize freely with each other. The unsuspecting brothers tell every- thing they know to an enemy who shakes hands correctly.³⁴

An example of how British Masons used intelligence networks in Cremieux's day is given by Msgr. George Dillon. During that time the Prime Minister of Great Britain was 33rd degree Freemason, Lord Palmerston, who was, in a sense, a double agent. Palmerston, a Templar Scottish Rite Mason, was in command of Rosicrucian English Freemasonry. Dillon states that Palmerston, after he failed to acquire financial aid from Parliament for Mazzini's Templar Grand Orient revolution in Italy, successfully tapped the British secret service for funding the Italian Masons.³⁵

During World War I, we find another example of Masonry's intelligence gathering. This war was the first global conflict between British and French Freemasonry to determine which political system would rule the world - monarchies or republics. In future chapters we shall discuss the Masonic intrigue of that conflict, with one Order penetrating the other to obtain the enemy's battle plans. A hint of the level of intelligence activity is provided by a German author, Friedrich Hasselbacher, whose book, High Treason of the Military Lodges, is an unanswerable and damning document. It reproduces in facsimile a mass of letters and "Field Post Cards" from Masons to their lodges in Germany. In one letter, a Brother Mason writes to his Grand Master suggesting that he get in touch with English Masons via the Grand Lodge of Norway, in order to find out their "war aims.³⁶

Masonic intelligence services were employed again in World War II. For example, Freemasonry in France was used as a secret service to help the resistance. The story is revealed by Frenchman Henri Coston in La Republique du Grand Orient, which de Poncins quotes in Freemasonry and the Vatican. Coston confirms that during the Nazi occupation of northern France, Pierre Laval, a French politician, assisted the resistance when he "attached the services of the secret societies to the Surete Nationale, the state intelligence service."³⁷

In our day the Masonic Lodge is tied directly to state intelligence services. Agents are placed according to certain requirements and abilities, one of which is the ability to keep a secret. Therefore, agents who are Masons are given preference for top positions. For example, in the U.S.A. the heads of both the FBI and the CIA have always been either 33rd degree Masons, or high initiates in affiliated secret societies. In fact, J. Edgar Hoover (33rd degree) obtained a charter for the FBI's own Masonic lodge, the Fidelity Lodge. Curt Gentry, in his book J. Edgar Hoover, informs us that "Membership and attendance at the Monday-night meetings were 'voluntary,' but those who aspired to higher positions soon realized that associating with the director on this one semi-social occasion was almost a prerequisite to advancement.³⁸

The weakness in this system of selection is readily apparent, since Masons freely talk to, and advance brother Masons. If an enemy agent joins a Masonic Lodge frequented by an intelligence agent whom he wishes to compromise, his task is simple. Many examples of this are presented by the late Stephen Knight in The Brotherhood. Knight, a British investigative journalist, documented time and again how the KGB, prior to and after World War II, successfully penetrated British intelligence by joining Western Freemasonry.

Knight informs us, for example, how after the Bolshevik Revolution, Russian intelligence used Freemasonry to its own ends. The Soviet intelligence service learned of the art of Freemasonry while investigating Russian Grand Orient Lodges. When Stalin outlawed the Brotherhood in 1925, he ordered his intelligence service to establish religious centers for training appropriate agents to be sent to Western and Third World countries. A school for agents bound for Britain and other English-speaking countries was in Lithuania prior to the collapse of the U.S.S.R. These agents were trained in the exploitation of English Freemasonry.³⁹ Knight quotes a British Intelligence officer as saying:

If the KGB had a target in England - somebody they wanted to "turn" or from whom they wanted to obtain information by one of a number of means - and this person was a Freemason, I have no doubt that it would instruct an agent to join the same lodge. That would be an obvious move. If being a Freemason makes a man more likely to bare his soul to another Freemason than to an outsider, any intelligence service worth its salt would exploit that.⁴⁰

One of the most damaging episodes described by Knight was that of a KGB agent turning master spies Kim Philby, Donald Maclean, and Guy Burgess into double agents for Russia. Knight suggests this transformation was accomplished through Freemasonry. The intelligence world was shocked when these three men defected to Russia in 1952 and 1962. It was discovered 30 years too late that Philby, while head of a division in MIS (initials for Mission Impossible, division No. 5), was also a high-ranking KGB agent. The irony in this story is that Philby remained on the British intelligence payroll after defection.⁴¹ He died in Moscow, November 5, 1988- taking to the grave his reason for defecting.⁴²

Stephen Knight revealed that the penetration of Western Free-masonry was a standard KGB practice:

I can reveal that senior officers of British Intelligence are concerned that the KGB has been using Freemasonry in England for decades to help place its agents in positions of responsibility and influence.... According to the evidence now available the undoubted "jobs for the brethren" aspect of British Freemasonry has been used extensively by the KGB to penetrate the most sensitive areas of authority, most spectacularly illustrated in the years since 1945 by its placing of spies at the highest levels of both M15 and M16. Even today, members of the security services privately admit that they have no idea of the extent of this penetration.⁴³

The "old boy network," the favoritism and the use of Masonry for professional and social advancement - all proscribed by the [Masonic] Constitutions but all nevertheless widespread, as this book has shown - are of obvious value to Englishmen recruited to spy for a foreign power.⁴⁴

Cremieux - Double Agent

Intelligence gathering, spying, and the use of double agents are commonplace in this war between Scarlet and the Beast. If Great Britain had wanted to penetrate the French government in Cremieux's day, it would have done so through a French Rosicrucian Freemason. Who would be more likely than Cremieux? If he were to become involved in French politics, which he was, he would join the Grand Orient Lodge, to which most French politicians belonged. From there he could learn state secrets and pass them to London.

English Freemasonry had need of spies in French politics for two specific reasons. First, the two movements of socialism and communism, which had developed in Grand Orient Freemasonry were of grave concern to Great Britain's capitalists. Second, Emperor Napoleon III had cooperated with the Grand Orient Revolution in Italy by ousting the oligarchy's Austrian army. Spy master Cremieux and British Freemasonry had something in common. Both hated Napoleon III. If Cremieux was assigned the task of deposing the Emperor, his success would be better realized if he could attain the top position within the Emperor's lodge.

Shades of Mission Impossible, you say? Perhaps. Nonetheless, everything Cremieux accomplished was of benefit to English Freemasonry, as well as profit to the oligarchy of the Priory of Sion, which it protected. It is most likely that Freemason Cremieux was a master spy, a double agent, a Rosicrucian mole for British Intelligence in the French Templar Grand Orient administration of Napoleon III. Such a scenario certainly fits the Masonic modus operandi.

Maurice Joly

Gentile Maurice Joly, whose father was a staunch Italian Mason, was also a Mason. Joly was tied to the Alliance Israelite Universelle through his association with Freemason Cremietix and the Mizraim Masonic Lodge. He was also linked to the Priory of Sion through mutual membership in a Rose Croix order with Victor Hugo. This Masonic influence secured Joly a post in the Ministry of the Interior under Freemason M. Chevreau, just before the coup d'etat in 1851 by Louis Napoleon.

Joly was not included in the new government, nor did he want to be. He had an inveterate hatred of the Bonapartes. Moreover, he disagreed with Grand Orient politics, which politics demanded a strong man to solidify its failing revolution of 1848.⁴⁵

For nine years following Napoleon's 1851 coup, Joly withdrew from politics and satisfied himself by returning to his law practice. Suddenly, in 1860, he began writing articles attacking the government and the Emperor.

What, or who rekindled Joly's anger? The answer is Adolphe Cremieux, who also hated the Emperor. Cremieux's animosity grew from a rebuff he received from Louis Napoleon. At the time of Napoleon's coup, Cremieux was legal adviser to the Bonaparte family and an intimate of Louis Napoleon. When Louis became Emperor, he offended Cremieux by not appointing him to the most desired political post - that of Chief Executive - a position vital in dealing with Great Britain.⁴⁶ The Emperor's first mistake was his refusal to appoint his Masonic superior. Cremieux became his enemy.

Napoleon's second error was his refusal to take orders from Grand Orient Masonry, which had placed him in power. After his 1851 coup and after declaring himself as Emperor in 1852, he immediately began exerting authority, emulating his great uncle, Napoleon Bonaparte.⁴⁷ Now the entire Grand Orient was his enemy.

Napoleon's third mistake was exiling Victor Hugo. We shall soon see that Hugo's exile was a consequence of his disagreements with Napoleon following the coup. The Priory of Sion soon became the Emperor's enemy.

Napoleon's fourth and fatal mistake was military action against Austria's occupation army in Italy. Napoleon's military success in removing this arm of the British Masonic oligarchy from Italy allowed Mazzini's Grand Orient revolution to succeed. With English Freemasonry now his enemy, the Emperor did not have a prayer.

Source of the Protocols

It was unnecessary for British Freemasonry to intrigue against Napoleon, for the Emperor had created enough hostility and enemies on his own. With an angry Cremieux encouraging the pen of an acrimonious Joly, the Grand Orient planned to depose the Emperor. Joly wrote Dialogues between Machiavelli and Montesquieu, which was a compilation of articles in which Joly depicted Napoleon III as Machiavelli. As Victor Hugo's poetry had done in the 1850s (discussed later in this chapter), 50 too Joly's articles turned public opinion against the Emperor in the 1860s. And as we learned earlier, the London Times (1920) reported that the Protocols of the Learned Elders of Sion were plagiarized from Joly's Dialogues, which the Times called Dialogues of Geneva.

Another factor we must consider in discovering the source of the Protocols is that in Joly's day communism was the political fad of Grand Orient Freemasonry. Its spokesman was 32nd degree German Grand Orient Mason and Reform Jew, Levi Mordechai (alias Karl Marx).⁴⁸ Joly, however, was a Socialist, and hated both communism and Karl Marx. Aware that communists were the remnant of the Jacobins, who had carried out the 1793 Reign of Terror, Joly wrote: "Socialism seems to me one of the forms of a new life for the peoples emancipated from the traditions of the Old World. I accept a great many of the solutions offered by Socialism but I reject Communism either as a social factor or as a political institution. Communism is but a school of Socialism. In politics I understand extreme means to gain one's ends - in that, at least, I am a Jacobin."⁴⁹

Although Joly hated communism, he agreed with its Jacobin principles; yet he accused Napoleon III of that same ruthlessness. What he actually hated was the Emperor's absolutism. Absolutism is what Freemasonry can not tolerate. Jacobinism is fine, but not outside the auspices of the Masonic hierarchy. When Napoleon III ignored the orders of his Masonic superiors, Joly's hatred toward him was rekindled by Cremieux. The Grand Orient contracted with Joly to expose the Emperor as Machiavellian. To protect himself, Joly signed the dialogues "Mr. X"

Why did the London Times in 1920 call Joly's book the Dialogues of Geneva? The answer can be found in the Masonic-Marxist events which took place in Geneva prior to an international communist meeting in London in 1864, the year before Joly published his work. In an earlier chapter we saw that following the Congress of Vienna in 1815, both English and French Masonic lodges were established at Geneva for the express purpose of plotting intrigue on neutral ground. According to Nesta Webster, Geneva, Switzerland, was the meeting-place for all the revolutionaries of Europe.⁵⁰ Edith Miller reports that the Geneva meetings took place in the Grand Orient Masonic lodge, Temple Unique. Those in attendance put the name of the Temple on their cards and bills

Following the Geneva gatherings, the Communist revolutionists met in London during the summer of 1862. There they attended the London International Exhibition. The Exhibition was a Marxist front used by French Communists to penetrate Great Britain's labor force. This Exhibition marked the beginning of anti-capitalist labor unions. On August 5, 1862, all the delegates met at a dinner given for them by their English colleagues at Freemason's Hall. An address was read which formed the platform for the First Communist International.⁵²

On September 28, 1864, the French Communists met again in London at another Masonic lodge called St. Martin's Hall.⁵³ At this meeting Grand Orient Freemason Karl Marx obtained control of the two-year old International Working Men's Association. A number of secret societies, such as the Anarchists, Nihilists, and Young Europe, were immediately absorbed by this communist body. That same year anarchist Mikhail Bakunin (1814-1876), a Russian Grand Orient Mason, founded his Alliance Sociale Democratique on the exact lines of Weishaupt's Illuminism.⁵⁴

In 1866, one year after Joly's book was published, the inaugural congress of Karl Marx's First Communist International met in Geneva, again at the Masonic lodge, Temple Unique.⁵⁵ Miller reports that what was decided at that Masonic meeting was "the abolition of standing armies, the destruction of the monopolies of great companies, and the transfer of railways and other means of locomotion to the people."⁵⁶

Also confirmed at that meeting was the declaration that revolution would be transported to foreign soil - perhaps in reference to Russia, since in Russia, Zionism was to be contained, if not destroyed.

When the First International met again in 1869 at Basel, Switzerland, Russian Freemason Mikhail Bakunin fought for control of the organization. He spoke thus without reserve: "By social liquidation I mean expropriation of all existing proprietors, by the abolition of the political and legal state, which is the sanction and only guarantee of all property as now existing, and of all that is called legal right; and the expropriation, in fact, everywhere, and as much and as quickly as possible by the force of events and circumstances."⁵⁷ Thirteen years later, in 1882, on the orders of Bakunin, Czar Alexander II of Russia was assassinated.⁵⁸

Target: Napoleon III

In finding the answer to why the London Times called Joly's book the Dialogues of Geneva, we must investigate the Masonic intrigues in Italy, which occurred a decade before the Geneva meetings. In late 1856 the Italian Grand Orient Masons, already known as the Mafia, were contracted by Lord Palmerston of England to assassinate Napoleon III. In early 1857 several Masons met in London to plan the murder. Four were from Russia, one of whom was Mikhail Bakunin.⁵⁹ Chairman of the meeting was the Mafia leader himself, Giuseppe Mazzini. At his side were Francesco Crispi (1819-1901), the Sicilian Mason selected to do the job, and his comrade-in-arms, Freemason Adriano Lemmi (1822-1896).⁶⁰

In January 1858 Crispi and Lemmi met in Paris with Freemason Felice Orsini. Orsini, a lodge brother of Napoleon III, taught the two assassins how to manufacture a bomb, then kept them abreast of the Emperor's movements. During the next few weeks several attempts were made on Napoleon's life, each failing. Crispi and Lemmi escaped, but Orsini was captured, tried and condemned to death. Before his execution on March 13, 1858, Napoleon visited him in prison. Orsini warned the Emperor that if he did not assist the Italian Freemasons in their struggle for democracy, other bombs were reserved for him. Napoleon acquiesced, meeting at Piedmont in July with Count Camillo Benso di Cavour. Mazzini was not at this meeting. Cavour was Grand Master of an English warranted lodge in Italy, a revolutionary lodge competing with Grand Master Mazzini's Grand Orient.⁶¹ Miller tells what united these two rival Grand Masters:

The policies of the Grand Master Cavour and the Grand Master Mazzini, each representing two different Masonic currents [English and French] emanating from different sources, met on the issue of the destruction of the Papacy which it was hoping to submerge through the unification of Italy.

Cavour aimed at unity in the form of a constitutional monarchy under the house of Savoy, and Mazzini, aiming at a republic, found himself forced into a compromise which obliged him to accept, temporarily at least, a Piedmontese monarchy for United Italy.⁶²

Together they agreed to accept assistance from Napoleon. France, with Piedmont-Sardinia, declared war on Austria in order to expel Austria's troops from Italy. Miller quotes the French deputy Monsieur Keller's remark before the legislative body on March 13, 1861 on the cause of these events: "The Italian war was the execution of the will of Orsini."⁶³

Meanwhile, Victor Hugo, Grand Master of the Priory of Sion, was in exile writing satirical poetry against Napoleon. Hugo's poetry was intended to manipulate public opinion to drive the Emperor from office. Three of these works were: (1) Napoleon le Petit, an indictment of the "little" Napoleon III as opposed to the "great" Napoleon I; (2) Histoire d'un crime, a day-by-day account of Louis Bonaparte's coup as seen by a dissentient witness; and (3) Les Chatiments, ranking among his most powerful satirical poems, a presentation of Napoleon as a thief and a killer.⁶⁴

As a result, the Emperor's popularity began to decline during the latter half of the 1850s. To perpetuate the decline, Joly was chosen in 1860 to take up the cause, which culminated in the Dialogues of Geneva in 1865.

Hugo planted the seed of dissension; Joly cultivated it and Napoleon reaped a harvest of discontent from his subjects. During the latter half of the 1860s, the anti-imperial opposition strengthened. In 1871 Napoleon III was deposed.

Joly's Source

How could Joly, a Rosicrucian Freemason, know of the Communist goings-on in Geneva, which caused the London Times to call his book the Dialogues of Geneva? Joly was neither a member of the Templar Scottish Rite of Grand Orient Freemasonry, nor its left-wing Communist Party. He hated Communism and would not have attended their meetings if invited.

Here is where Cremieux comes in. As Supreme Commander of the Scottish Rite of Grand Orient Freemasonry, Cremieux was well aware of the agenda of the communist meetings at the Masonic lodge at Geneva and may have attended himself. He is known to have induced Joly to write the Dialogues. Whether Cremieux actually handed Joly minutes of those Machiavellian meetings or verbally informed him of their contents is not known. In any case, Cremietix, a fellow Rosicrucian and intimate of Joly, most certainly guided him in the contents of his writings.

This is a Masonic modus operandi - as we have seen previously in the relationship between Frederick Engels and Karl Marx. Marx followed Engel's suggestions, putting them in revolutionary form. Likewise, two decades later Cremieux suggested what Joly should write. Joly, a government lawyer prior to the Emperor's rise to power, would be credible. Joly's articles implied that the Machiavellian decisions of the several Geneva Communist congresses were the Emperor's plans for the destruction of France. When bound in a book, the articles were titled Dialogues of Geneva. As planned, this Masonic disinformation aroused public opinion against Napoleon III.

Joly wrote only under the guarantee of anonymity; hence the pseudonym, Mr. X. Yet, in order to arouse public opinion, the author had to be revealed as someone with authority - someone acquainted with the political climate of the day. Joly, therefore, was betrayed two months after publication. As a result of this unusual and swift exposure, he was tried, convicted, and sentenced to two years in prison.

Joly's exposure, trial, conviction and punishment are another example of the Masonic modus operandi. In this world of Masonic intrigue, where the end justifies the means, there are those expendables who are used as scapegoats to protect the conspiracy. Joly, only a Blue Lodge Mason, was sacrificed for the greater cause. Whether Cremietix exposed Joly is not known, but it is a distinct possibility. Albeit, the scheme worked, and Napoleon III was out of government within six years of the publication of Joly's book.

Who were the winners? First, Rosicrucian English Freemasonry now rid of the man who ousted the oligarchy's occupation forces from Italy. Second, French Templar Grand Orient Freemasonry, which deposed an Emperor for refusing to take orders from his Masonic hierarchy. Third, Cremieux, whose vengeance was the deposition of Napoleon III for denying him high political office.

Cremieux's revenge, however, had far-reaching consequences. For example, Joly's book contributed to the release of documents called The Protocols of the Learned Elders of Sion, which in turn fueled post-World War I Europe against the Jews, giving rise to Fascism. In this climate, Hitler went unchallenged when he engineered the slaughter of six million Jews and five million Gentiles in concentration camps.

Nesta Webster makes a strong case for Joly as the source of the Protocols. In Secret Societies and Subversive Movements, she states:

"The Protocols were largely copied from the book of Maurice Joly, Dialogues aux Enfers entre Machiavel et Montesquieu, published in 1864. Let it be said at once that the resemblance between the two works could not be accidental. Not only are whole paragraphs almost identical, but the various points in the programme follow each other in precisely the same order."⁶⁵

On the other hand, it is plausible to suggest that the Protocols were not a plagiarism of Joly's book at all, but were the actual minutes to the Marxist revolutionary meetings held in the Masonic lodge at Geneva. As earlier suggested, these notes may have been given to Joly by Cremieux. This author's hypothesis is that Joly plagiarized the Geneva minutes, which he reshaped into the Dialogues of Geneva.

Whether the Protocols were a plagiarism of Joly's book, or the Dialogues a plagiarism of the Protocols, the result was the same. Most significant to our investigation is that Joly, a Freemason, was a close associate of Cremieux. Cremieux, in turn, was on the Supreme Council of the Mizraim Masonic Lodge at Paris. It was from this lodge that the "Protocols" were stolen in 1884.

If, in fact, Joly did plagiarize the minutes to the Geneva meetings in 1865, apparently they were carelessly stored and forgotten in the archives of the Mizraim Lodge. Two decades later they were "found" by a casual peruser, who, not knowing their original purpose, stole them.

An interesting story concerning the 1884 discovery of the Protocols was told in 1934 by Victor E. Marsden in his English translation of the Russian Protocols. Marsden had been the Russian correspondent for The Morning Post of London when the Bolshevik Revolution broke out. He reports that [I]n 1884 [two years after the assassination of Tsar Alexander II by Masonic Nihilists] the daughter of a Russian general, Mlle. Justine Glinka, was endeavoring to serve her country in Paris by obtaining political information, which she communicated to General Orgevskii in St. Petersburg. For this purpose she employed a Jew, Joseph Schorst, member of the Mizraim Lodge in Paris. One day Schorst offered to obtain for her a document of great importance to Russia, on payment of 2,500 francs. This sum being received from St. Petersburg was paid over and the document handed to Mlle. Glinka.

She forwarded the French original, accompanied by a Russian translation, to Orgevskii, who in turn handed it to his chief, General Cherevin, for transmission to the Tsar.⁶⁶

The document was the French original of The Protocols of the Meetings of the Learned Elders of Sion. General Cherevin did not give them to the Royal Court as Glinka had requested. Instead, he filed them, and they lay dormant for the next two decades.

What lends credence to this story is that Mile. Justine Glinka was arrested shortly after on trumped up charges, not at all related to the Protocols, and banished to her estate in Orel, Russia. Some believe this was engineered by Freemasonry in an attempt to keep Mile. Glinka from further investigation.⁶⁷ As for the Masonic traitor Joseph Schorst - In payment for his part played in the intrigue, he was hunted down and murdered in Egypt possibly by Masonic agents.⁶⁸

The strongest case for linking the Protocols of Sion to Gentile Freemasonry is the Protocols itself. Read in the light of Masonic hegemony, the fourth Protocol, for instance, seems to confirm that the 33rd degree Supreme Council of Universal Freemasonry, and not Zionist Jews, is the manipulator of world revolution:

Who or what can dethrone an invisible power? Now, this is just what our Government is. The Masonic Lodge throughout the world unconsciously acts as a mask for our purpose. But the use we are going to make of this power in our plan of action, and even our headquarters, remain perpetually unknown to the world at large.⁶⁹

The "Government" referred to in this Protocol could well be the Supreme Council of Freemasonry. And the Dialogues, upon which we believe the Protocols is based, could have been of much earlier origin than the 1860s, for it echoes Weishaupt's correspondence with his co-conspirators in the Illuminati. The Dialogues could as well have been the correspondence between members of the Templar hierarchy, such as Mazzini in Italy, Pike in America, Palmerston in England, and Bismarck in Germany.

It is also just as likely that Karl Marx, or Mikhail Bakunin, both of whom were at the Geneva Masonic Congress, spouted the fourth Protocol from that forum. It certainly would have befit their Communist program. In fact, a segment of Protocol twelve could have been spoken at Geneva against Russia by this remnant of Communist Jacobins. It reads:

Briefly, in order to demonstrate our enslavement of the Gentile governments in Europe, we will show our power to one of them by means of crimes of violence, that is to say by a reign of terror.⁷⁰

By using the word "Gentile," the anonymous authors of the Protocols suggested to general readers and investigators that the authors and planners of the "crimes of violence" were Jews. When the barbarous Bolshevik Revolution destroyed old Russia, conspiracy researchers pointed to this Protocol, because of the word "Gentile," and blamed the Revolution on the Jews, who they believed were retaliating against the Russian czars for their persecution of the Russian Jewish populations.

The Protocols, Jack the Ripper and Gentile "Non-Masons"

Gentile Freemasonry refers to its initiates as Jews, refers to its lodges as Solomon's Temple, and calls non-Masons Gentiles. Likewise, a republic founded by Freemasonry and governed by Masons is by inference a Jewish nation. Conversely, a kingdom not ruled by Freemasonry, such as Russia, would be considered a Gentile nation. Christian Russia, then, would certainly be called a "Gentile government" by "them that say they are Jews, and are not, but do lie."

Stephen Knight documents the Masonic use of the word "Gentile" in The Brotherhood. When a meeting is called at the Masonic Temple, he says Masons converge on the lodge from all directions. "Once inside the Hall, each turned his steps towards the Crypt, which was cordoned off so that no intruder could make his way down the stair and report the goings-on to any 'Gentile'."⁷¹

Knight connects the Protocols to Gentile Freemasonry by examining a seemingly unrelated subject: the notorious murders of Jack the Ripper, committed in 1888 between August and November. "The Jack the Ripper murders in the East End of London in 1888," asserts Knight, "were perpetrated according to masonic [sic] ritual and a subsequent police cover-up was led by the Commissioner and Assistant Commissioner of the Metropolitan Police, both Freemasons."⁷²

To comprehend what is meant by "murders...according to Masonic ritual," we must understand the Masonic ceremony of the 3rd degree - the Master Mason degree. Stephen Knight explains the Masonic ritual focus on murder:

Much of Masonic ritual centres on murder. At the 3rd degree, the victim is Hiram Abif, mythical architect in charge of the building of Solomon's temple. The ceremony involves the mimed murder of Hiram by three Apprentice Masons, and his subsequent resurrection. The three Apprentices are named Jubela, Jubelo and Jubelum - known collectively as the Juwes [Masonic spelling for Jews]. In masonic [sic] lore, the Juwes are hunted down and executed, "by the breast being torn open and the heart and vitals taken out and thrown over the left shoulder," which closely parallels the details of Jack the Ripper's modus operandi.⁷³

In 1888, Sir Charles Warren was Commissioner of the Metropolitan Police and one of the country's most eminent Freemasons. Two years earlier Warren also helped found the most secret of Masonic Lodges, the Quatuor Coronati Lodge of Masonic Research. Knight reports that Warren impeded the investigation of the murders at every turn, caused endless confusion and delays, and personally destroyed the only clue the Ripper ever left. This was a scrawled chalk message on a wall inside a tenement block near the site of the fourth murder. Beneath the message was a blood-soaked piece of cloth which Jack the Ripper had recently cut from the apron of his latest victim. The message itself, according to a careful copy made by a conscientious PC who was at the scene early - which had been concealed in the Scotland Yard files on the case for nearly ninety years before I gained access to them - read:

"The Juwes are The Men That will not be blamed for nothing"

The moment he was told of this, Warren, who had not previously ventured near the East End, rushed to the place before the message could be photographed and washed it away. This has never been explained. The truth was that Warren, who had been exalted to the Royal Arch in 1861, had realized that the writing on the wall was a masonic ~sic] message.

Warren, a founder of the Quatuor Coronati Lodge of Masonic Research and by the time of the Ripper murders a Past Grand Sojourner of the Supreme Grand Chapter, knew only too well that the writing on the wall was telling the world, "The Free-masons are the men that will not be blamed for nothing."⁷⁴

The significance of the word "Juwes" in the Ripper's message will not escape anyone versed in Masonic lore. As Knight pointed out in a previous book, Jack the Ripper: The Final Solution (1976), Masons refer to themselves as Jews, and use the word "Gentile," "borrowed from Hebrew and used to mean non-Masonic.

How does the message at the scene of the fourth "Ripper" murder shed light by analogy on who may have authored the Protocols? First, it confirms that Freemasonry establishes decoys, then calls those decoys Jews. Second, the scrawled chalk message on the wall above the scene of the fourth Ripper murder can be extrapolated and applied to all Masonic intrigues and their authors, including authors of the Protocols: "The Freemasons are the men that will not be blamed for the Protocols." Third, by making the Protocols read like a Jewish manuscript, the Gentile Masonic conspiracy continues unimpeded by sending researchers chasing the Jewish scapegoat.

In 1935, after studying the Protocols and hearing months of testimony, the court at Berne, Switzerland, declared that they were not of Jewish origin. If we accept the court's declaration, the only logical explanation for the Protocols authorship is Gentile Freemasonry: "those that say they are Jews, and are not, but do lie." The creation of the Protocols is another facet of the age-old plot of Satan to destroy both Jews and Christians alike.

Stephen Knight's intent in exposing the reason behind the Masonic use of the word "Juwes" was not to reveal Freemasonry's anti-Semitic symbolism, but to tie the Protocols to Gentile Freemasonry. He offers even more convincing evidence of the Protocols Masonic authorship: "The translator of the Protocols claimed they were in the form of minutes which were removed from a large book of notes for lectures. They were signed, he said, by Freemasons of the highest rank, the thirty-third degree."⁷⁶

Thirty-third degree Masons, of course, meet separately from their Masonic brethren of the lower degrees. Significantly, Edith Miller informs us that the name of the meeting hall in Paris where the 33rd degree Supreme Council of Mizraim Masons gathered was the Sanctuary of Levites, corroborating Knight's discovery that Gentile Masons refer to themselves as Jews.⁷⁷ Mackey's Encyclopedia of Freemasonry sheds more light on French Freemasonry's fixation on becoming Jews, when documenting that in the French lodges, "Levite" is the "highest of the Masonic Degrees...."⁷⁸ How could a person, or persons, who supposedly forged the Protocols, have known to connect Jewish terminology used by a Gentile Masonic Lodge in Paris, unless he, or they, were 33rd degree Masons from that same lodge? We know that Adolphe Cremieux was that Mason who sat on the Supreme Council of Mizraim Freemasonry. We also know that the Protocols were stolen from that same Lodge. Stephen Knight concludes:

It must be stated that the Protocols have been the subject of debate since they first appeared in print. Hitler twisted their meaning and alleged that they proved the existence of a worldwide conspiracy by the Jews, and used them in a hopeless attempt to justify his extermination programme. Chiefly because of the Nazi atrocities many writers have attacked the Protocols as forgeries. The argument continues to rage, and there are strong points both for and against.

An important point to bear in mind is that they had been in existence a long time before they were finally published.... Forgeries or not, the product of fanatical minds or not, the fact is they have been taken in deadly seriousness by thousands of people.

Of course, even accepting for a moment that there were no questions of the documents' authenticity, it would still be ludicrous to believe that they form the code by which all Freemasons live. Most Masons do not progress beyond the third degree, so the vast majority of Freemasons before the Protocols were published would never have heard of them.

But what they [the Protocols] would have conveyed to those high initiates, who not only read them, but took them seriously, is fascinating and disturbing.⁷⁹

The Masonic "Protocol" Conspiracy in Russia

The Reform Jews left Germany for Russia in 1840 to destroy Judaism there. Their tactics were reprehensible, resulting in violence and bloodletting. In anger the Reformers spread vicious lies about their Jewish brothers, inciting Christian Russia to anti-Semitism. The most horrendous were accusations of blood libels. One such incident took place in the small town of Villovich where the Reform Jews took revenge on the local rabbi. They dressed up one of their women as the rabbi's wife. "The impersonation was perfect," wrote Rabbi Antelman. "She appeared before the local priest and said that she saw the rabbi kill a Christian child for Passover. Because of this incident, the rabbi and all the members of his congregation were killed after a brief trial. The rabbi's wife and his five remaining children were tortured into accepting Christianity."⁸⁰

Mackey's Encyclopedia of Freemasonry confirms that "[I]n Russia the Protocols were used to back up charges against the Jews for 'ritual murder'."⁸¹ Is Mackey's statement Freemasonry's subtle way of suggesting that the authors of the Protocols were Reform Jews?

Protocols of Sion and the Priory of Sion

The authors of Holy Blood, Holy Grail suggest that the Priory of Sion, and not the Reform Jews, was connected to the Protocols of Sion in Russia. The authors build their case around Rosicrucian French Masons who had worked their way into the good graces of Czar Nicholas II. Here is their story:

The role of Rasputin at the court of Nicholas and Alexandra of Russia is more or less generally known. It is not generally known, however, that there were influential, even powerful esoteric enclaves at the Russian court long before Rasputin. During the 1890s and 1900s one such enclave formed itself around an individual known as Monsieur Philippe and around his mentor, who made periodic visits to the imperial court at Petersburg. And Monsieur Philippe's mentor was none other than the man called Papus.⁸²

Papus (1865-1916), a Gentile, was the Masonic code name for Dr. Gerard Encausse, a 33rd degree Mason from Paris, who became the occult adviser of the ill-fated Czar Nicholas II.⁸³ Papus was Grand Master of both Memphis and Mizraim Freemasonries, the two Rosicrucian lodges that had merged in 1875.

One of Papus's acquaintances was Claude Debussy (1862-1918), a famous composer who set a number of Victor Hugo's poems to music. Debussy was the next Grand Master of the Priory of Sion following Hugo's death in 1885, and reigned in that position until 1918.⁸⁴

Freemason A.E. Waite tells us that in 1894 Papus was also the Grand Master of the Martinist Masonic Supreme Council in Paris. Martinism admitted both male and female members on equal terms. This Order had a number of lodges throughout Europe and Russia. Chapters were also established in Great Britain, the United States, Argentina and Guatemala, as well as throughout the Orient.⁸⁵

Martinism was originally founded in 1754 by a Rosicrucian Spanish Jew named Martines de Pasqually, or Martinez Paschalis. The emblem for this branch of Freemasonry consists of six dots, which we have learned in a previous chapter is a subtle form of the Masonic six-pointed star. The six-pointed star is the same herald of the Priory of Sion, the Mizraim Masonic Lodge and Zionism.⁸⁶

Pasqually's Lodges were first organized at Marseilles, Toulouse, and Bordeaux, then in Paris. Before long Rosicrucian Martinist lodges spread all over France, with the center at Lyons. Martinism was thought to have been a Jewish secret society. It was operated, however, in the same manner as was the Mizraim Lodge, in that Jews and Gentiles alike were members. Behind the scenes, however, was the Priory of Sion, distinguished by the Rose-Croix capstone in Martinist Lodges.

Nesta Webster explains: "After the first three Craft degrees came the Cohen degrees of the same - Apprentice Cohen, Fellow Craft Cohen, and Master Cohen - then those of Grand Architect, Grand Elect of Zerubbabel of Knight of the East; but above these were concealed degrees leading up to the Rose-Croix, which formed the capstone of the edifice."⁸⁷

Webster also claims that Martinist "disciples inherited from Pasqually a large number of Jewish manuscripts."⁸⁸ She leaves the reader with the impression that these manuscripts are none other than the Protocols of the Learned Elders of Sion - in existence a full century before they were stolen from its sister Mizraim lodge in 1884.⁸⁹ If so, these documents may only have suggested Judaic origins because of the Davidic claims expressed within them by the Priory of Sion.

A century later the stamp of "Priory of Sion" is even more evident on Martinism when a Freemason named Alphonse Louis Constant (1810-1875) joined the Martinist Order. Constant was a Gentile Mason who assumed the Jewish name - Eliphas Levi. This is the same Eliphas Levi who assisted the Grand Master of Sion, Charles Nodier, in methodically sifting and cataloging thousands of Templar documents looted from the Vatican by Napoleon Bonaparte. Levi was also acquainted with Nodier's successor, Victor Hugo. After Levi joined the Martinist Masonic lodge, the lodge merged with both the Memphis and Mizraim Lodges.

Levi apparently had access to the forgotten Protocol documents in the Mizraim Lodge a decade before they were discovered in 1884. Webster informs us that "[b]efore his death in 1875 Eliphas Levi announced that in 1879 a new political and religious 'universal Kingdom' would be established, and that it would be possessed by 'him who would have the keys of the East.'"⁹⁰

Three Protocols have significant relationship to this prophecy:

Protocol 15: When the King of Israel sets upon his sacred head the crown offered him by Europe he will become patriarch of the world.

Protocol 17: The King of the Jews will be the real Pope of the Universe, the patriarch of an international Church

Protocol 24: I pass now to the method of confirming the dynastic roots of King David to the last strata of the earth.

The prop of humanity in the person of the supreme lord of all the world of the holy seed of David must sacrifice to his people all Personal inclinations.

These Protocols are highly suggestive of the Priory of Sion, those who claim to be of the seed of David. Eliphas Levi most likely was referring to Sion's King of Jerusalem cult when he prophesied, "A new political and religious 'universal Kingdom' will be established, and it will be possessed by 'him who would have the keys of the East.'

The authors of Holy Blood inform us that Victor Hugo and Eliphas Levi were both members of the same Martinist Lodge.⁹¹ As we have seen, Victor Hugo was associated with Maurice Joly and Adolphe Cremieux in the sister Lodge of Mizraim Freemasonry. Papus, who was Grand Master of both the Mizraim and Memphis lodges, was also a Martinist, and acquainted himself with Hugo's successor Claude Debussy. All these men, except Cremieux, were Gentiles.

This circumstantial evidence points to the Priory of Sion as the author of the Protocols. In the Old Testament, King Solomon himself, who is revered by all Masons, says in Proverbs 14:9, "The common bond of rebels is their guilt."⁹² In other words, these Masonic rebels are guilty by association.

French Martinism and English Freemasonry

English Freemason A.E. Waite states that French Martinism had shut its doors to Masons belonging to English Freemasonry.⁹³ Yet Edith Miller, in Appendix IV of Occult Theocracy, reproduced a private letter dated March 26, 1906, from one "Dorec" to 33rd degree Grand Orient Mason Theodore Reuss, informing him that 33rd degree English Mason John Yarker was the Martinist delegate in London.⁹⁴

Miller claims the existence of another private letter, in which Papus refers to himself as the delegate of John Yarker for the Swedenborg Rite in France. Correspondence of this nature between the most noteworthy Masons of that day contradicts Mr. Waite and reveals that Mr. Waite is spreading disinformation by alleging a feud between English Masonry and French Martinism where none exists.⁹⁵

It is true that Rosicrucian English Freemasonry severed fellowship in 1877 with Templar French Grand Orient Freemasonry. However Martinism is not Grand Orient Templarism, but rather, Rosicrucianism. Naturally there would be a tie to English Freemasonry. Obviously the French Martinists would want to keep this familial tie secret in order to keep abreast of the developments in Templar French Masonry. Martinism apparently functioned as an intelligence lodge for English Freemasonry, as did Mizraim. Later the two merged with Memphis, their English counterpart.

A.E. Waite could not have been ignorant of this fact. If cognizant, he would have published an opposing view in an attempt to hide the facts. His motive would be to protect Rosicrucian Orders on the Continent, which were subversive to the Templar Grand Orient. No other interpretation makes sense of why the hierarchy of the Templar Grand Orient - Dorec and Reuss - would expose the connection.

Apparently, Rosicrucian Martinism was a front for the Priory of Sion. English Freemasonry used it as an intelligence gathering lodge in the same manner as it did the Mizraim Lodge. Both having similar doctrine, they merged in 1875. As the Mizraim Masonic Lodge provided for Great Britain moles in the French Templar Scottish Rite Lodge, through double agents such as Cremieux and Levi, so Papus served in that same capacity when Mizraim merged with Martinism following the deaths of Levi and Cremieux in 1875 and 1880.

There are other Martinist ties to British Freemasonry. In 1887 Martinist Freemason Papus joined the Theosophist Society, a Rosicrucian order headquartered in New York, with a branch in Paris. The Theosophist Society was founded in 1775 by female Freemason Helena Blavatsky, who moved her headquarters from New York to London in 1887. In 1891 Papus helped found the Gnostic Catholic Church. In 1895 he became a member of the Order of the Golden Dawn, an English Masonic Rosicrucian order founded in 1887 in London, with a branch in the Paris Lodge Ahathoor. In 1902 Papus became Grand Master of the newly formed homicidal Ordo Templi Orientis (O.T.O.) at Paris, a spin-off of the Golden Dawn.

In 1899 Philippe de Lyon, protege' of Papus, went to Russia and established the Priory of Sion's Martinist lodge at the imperial court, possibly initiating Grigori Rasputin, since it is known that Grigori was a Martinist. Philippe was introduced to the Imperial Court first, oddly enough, by the same man who was Rasputin's sinister adviser, the anti-Zionist and Reform Jew, Manoussevitch Manouilof (see chapter 19). In 1900 Papus followed Philippe to St. Petersburg, where Papus became a confidant of the Czar and Czarina. Papus visited Russia on at least three occasions, the last in 1906. When he became Grand Master in France of London's O.T.O., Papus then carried the rituals of this homicidal Masonic lodge to Russia, initiating many Russians in St. Petersburg in preparation for the Russian Revolution. Papus died on October 25, 1916, one year before he could taste the rotten fruits of his labor in the bloody Bolshevik ~

Substantial evidence suggests that high Masons in France, England and Russia were involved in the Russian Revolution. In fact communications were shuttled back and forth between Europe and Russia prior to the Bolshevik Revolution by high Masons. Among them were 33rd degree John Yarker, who represented the Martinist Order at London; 33rd degree Papus, who, according to Miller's documents, was under the control of Yarker; Freemason Philippe, who was the mentor of Papus, and Rasputin, who in turn was the Martinist mole in the Royal Court at St. Petersburg following Philippe. All these High Masons were Gentiles not Jews.

As evidenced by the Masonic activities between Russia and France at the turn of the 20th century, both English and French Freemasonry were cooperating in fomenting the Russian Revolution. These activities, with the arrival of the stolen Protocols taken from a French lodge and carried to Russia, were significant in stopping Zionism at the Russian border. In 1903 the Protocols of the Learned Elders of Sion were first translated into Russian and published. Whether engineered by this coalition of subversives or not, the events which led up to their circulation could not have been by accident.

The authors of Holy Blood, Holy Grail outline the sequence of events. The Protocols were stolen from the Mizraim Lodge in 1884 and taken to Russia by Mlle. Justine Glinka. She gave a copy to Alexis Sukhotin, the marshal of the district of Orel who in turn showed them to two friends Stepanov and a contemptible old man named Sergei Nilus. In 1903 Nilus presented the Protocols to the Czar. The Czar, who had placed himself under the occult council of the two subversive Freemasons, Philippe and Rasputin, declared the document to be an outrageous fabrication and ordered all copies of it destroyed. Nilus was banished from the court in disgrace.⁹⁷

The document, or a copy of it, survived. In 1903 it was serialized in a newspaper, but failed to attract interest. In 1905 it was published again as an appendix to a book by a distinguished mystical philosopher, Vladimir Soloviov. This time it began to attract attention. In following years it became one of the single most infamous documents of the twentieth century.⁹⁸

Protocols of the Priory of Sion

The authors of Holy Blood, Holy Grail argue strongly that the Protocols have a Masonic source - the Priory of Sion:

Modern scholars have dismissed them as a total forgery, a wholly spurious document concocted by anti-Semitic interests intent on discrediting Judaism. And yet the Protocols them-selves argue strongly against such a conclusion. They contain, for example, a number of enigmatic references - references that are clearly not Judaic. But these references are so clearly not Judaic that they cannot plausibly have been fabricated by a forger, either. No anti-Semitic forger with even a modicum of intelligence would possibly have concocted such references in order to discredit Judaism. For no one would have believed these references to be of Judaic origin.

Thus, for instance, the text of the Protocols ends with a single statement, "Signed by the representatives of Sion of the 33rd Degree."

Why would an anti-Semitic forger have made up such a statement? Why would he not have attempted to incriminate all Jews, rather than just a few - the few who constitute "the representatives of Sion of the 33rd Degree?" Why would he not declare that the document was signed by, say, the representatives of the international Judaic congress? In fact, the "representatives of Sion of the 33rd Degree" would hardly seem to refer to Judaism at all, or to any "international Jewish conspiracy." If anything, it would seem to refer to something specifically Masonic.

The Protocols contain other even more flagrant anomalies. The text speaks repeatedly, for example, of the advent of a "Masonic kingdom."

The authors of Holy Blood, Holy Grail concluded: "On the basis of prolonged and systematic research we reached certain conclusions about the Protocols of the Elders of Sion. They are:

1. There was an original text on which the published version of the Protocols was based. This original text was not a forgery. On the contrary, it was authentic. But it had nothing whatever to do with Judaism or an "international Jewish conspiracy." It issued, rather, from some Masonic organization or Masonically oriented secret society that incorporated the word "Sion."
2. The original text on which the published version of the Protocols was based need not have been provocative or inflammatory in its language. But it may very well have included a program for gaining power, for infiltrating Freemasonry, for controlling social, political, and economic institutions.

3. The original text on which the published version of the Protocols was based fell into the hands of Sergei Nilus. Nilus did not at first intend it to discredit Judaism. On the contrary, he brought it to the czar with the intention of discrediting the esoteric enclave at the imperial court - the enclave of Papus, Monsieur Philippe, and others who were members of the secret society in question. Before doing so he almost certainly doctored the language, rendering it far more venomous and inflammatory than it initially was. When the czar spurned him, Nilus then released the Protocols for publication in their doctored form. They had failed in their primary objective of compromising Papus and Monsieur Philippe. But they might still serve a secondary purpose - that of fostering anti-Semitism. Although Nilus' chief targets had been Papus and Monsieur Philippe, he was hostile to Judaism as well.
4. The published version of the Protocols is not, therefore, a totally fabricated text. It is, rather, a radically altered text. But despite the alterations certain vestiges of the original version can be discerned.... These vestiges - which referred to a king, a Pope, an international church, and to Sion - probably meant little or nothing to Nilus. He certainly would not have invented them himself. But if they were already there, he would have had no reason, given his ignorance, to excise them. And while such vestiges might have been irrelevant to Judaism, they might have been extremely relevant to a secret society. As we learned subsequently, they were - and still are - of paramount importance to the Prieure de Sion.⁹⁹

The authors of Holy Blood, Holy Grail conclude that the Protocols issued from the 33rd Degree Supreme Council of the Rite of Mizraim, which in turn is controlled by the Priory of Sion! They were "signed by the representatives of Sion of the 33rd Degree." The phrase "representatives of Sion" does not imply that the signatories were part of a group called "Sion," but rather, is indicative of agents, or, shall we say, a front for some organization which incorporates the name "Sion":

namely the Priory of Sion. The Mizraim Lodge was that front.

The mistake made by the Supreme Council of Mizraim is the mistake made by all Freemasonry. It never destroys any of its written work.

Every word spoken in every Supreme Council throughout the world is recorded and safeguarded for posterity.

A handful of modern conspiracy researchers link the covert Priory of Sion to the Protocols of the Learned Elders of Sion. These investigators do not see the Protocols associated in any way with genuine Jewish Zionism that exists overtly. J.R. Church is one of them. He said, "The title itself, which mentions the 'learned elders of Zion,' seems to refer to the mystery religion of the so-called Holy Grail and to the Priory of Sion organized by Godfroi de Bouillon in 1099 for the purpose of establishing a world government and providing a Merovingian king for its throne."¹⁰⁰

Finally, according to the Chicago Daily News, June 23, 1920 (p.2), Empress Alexandra, wife of Czar Nicholas II, noted in her diary under the date April 7, 1918 (OS): "Nicholas read to us the protocols of the free masons."¹⁰¹

Commentary on the Protocols of Sion

Protocol 1: Our power in the present tottering condition of all forms of power will be more invisible than any other, because it will remain invisible until the moment when it has gained such strength that no cunning can any longer undermine it.

Before us is a plan in which is laid down strategically the line from which we cannot deviate without running the risk of seeing the labour of many centuries brought to naught.

This Protocol describes an organism that houses a hidden "power." We believe the organism is Freemasonry housing the Priory of Sion. It was the Priory of Sion that founded the Rose-Croix, which in turn founded English Freemasonry. This began many centuries ago, as the Protocol indicates.

The statement, "Before us is a plan.. the line from which we cannot deviate without running the risk of seeing the labour of many centuries brought to naught," suggests that Sion is in serious trouble. Perhaps this refers to the establishment of the unexpected movement of Zionism in Russia. The "plan" which is "before us" may also refer to a takeover of Russia to stop the Zionist movement.

Protocol 3: To-day [sic] I may tell you that our goal is now only a few steps off. There remains a small space to cross and the whole long path we have trodden is ready now to close its cycle of the Symbolic Snake, by which we symbolize our people.

When this ring closes, all the States of Europe will be locked in its coil as in a powerful vise.

When the hour strikes for our Sovereign Lord of all the World to be crowned it is these same hands which will sweep away everything that might be a hindrance thereto.

"Ours" they will not touch, because the moment of attack will be known to us and we shall take measures to protect our own.

Ever since that time we have been leading the peoples from one disenchantment to another, so that in the end they should turn also from us in favour of that King-Despot of the blood of Sion, whom we are preparing for the world.

The symbols referred to in this Protocol are of course Rosicrucian. The symbol of the Priory of Sion's Rosicrucian Order is a rose, representing the Serpent, wormed around the upright part of the Christian Cross. The second symbol of the Rosicrucians was the circle, or snake biting its own tail, superimposed on the Christian cross. This same symbol of the snake is incorporated in the 33rd degree Masonic Jewel (Appendix 2, Fig. 7).

Dr. John Coleman, a retired British intelligence officer, states in Black Nobility Unmasked, that the Monarchs of Europe have always referred to themselves as "Crowned Cobras." The monarchs of Europe carry the Grail blood. All of them, according to Coleman, are Masons of the British obedience.

The statement: "'Ours' they will not touch," etc., eliminates the possibility that the Protocol is Jewish. If the Protocols outlined a Jewish conspiracy, the "our" would have evaded the holocaust of Hitler, according to this Protocol. Yet, after World War II it was Freemasonry, as we shall learn in chapter 24, that came back stronger than ever, founding the United Nations.

Finally, this Protocol identifies the Priory of Sion with the statement "King-Despot of the blood of Sion, whom we are preparing for the world." This obviously refers to Sion's reigning "King of Jerusalem."

Protocol 4: Who and what is in a position to overthrow an invisible force? And this is precisely what our force is. Gentile masonry [sic] blindly serves as a screen for us and our objects, but the plan of action of our force, even its very abiding-place, remains for the whole people an unknown mystery.

As we have seen, the Priory of Sion's kings believe themselves to be Jews. When the Priory founded Freemasonry, it was mainly Gentiles who joined. Gentiles are its predominant members and leaders. Naturally the Priory would call Freemasonry "Gentile Masonry."

Protocol 5: In place of the rulers of to-day [sic] we shall set up a bogey which will be called the Super-Government Administration. Its hands will reach out in all direction like nippers and its organization will be of such colossal dimensions that it cannot fail to subdue all the nations of the world.

What is the "bogey" that is to be called "the Super-Government Administration?" There are two possibilities here. First, this could refer to Russian Communism, which would be used to conquer the world. The top governing power in the U.S.S.R. was called the Supreme Soviet. Soviet in Russian means Council. In other words, it was the Supreme Council that ruled former Soviet Russia, the same Supreme Council we find in 33rd degree Freemasonry. Second, this body could be the League of Nations. Following World War I, as we shall see in chapter 21, the League was founded by French Freemasonry. After World War II, English Freemasonry founded the United Nations. The United States of Europe became a reality by 1993. We shall learn that it too is of Masonic origin. From this may come the world kingdom of the Beast - the ultimate "bogey."

Protocol 8: We shall surround our government with a whole world of economists. That is the reason why economic sciences [work]. [They come] from the principal subject of the teaching given to the Jews. Around us again will be a whole constellation of bankers, industrialists, capitalists and - the main thing - millionaires, because in substance everything will be settled by the question of figures.

Notice this Protocol mentions the "Jews," but in a disconnected sense, as if they are used by the conspiracy for their economic prowess alone. This Protocol suggests why English Freemasonry is overloaded with Jewish bankers and economists. The Priory of Sion admits that Jews are superior economically. Incidentally, the word "Jew" is mentioned only twice in the Protocols, and both times in a disconnected sense.

Protocol 10: These schemes will not turn existing institutions upside down just yet. They will only affect changes in their economy and consequently in the whole combined movement of their progress, which will thus be directed along the paths laid down in our schemes.

By such measures we shall obtain the power of destroying little by little, step by step, all that at the outset when we enter on our rights, we are compelled to introduce into the constitutions of States to prepare for the transition to an imperceptible abolition of every kind of constitution, and then the time is come to turn every form of government into our despotism.

This Protocol enunciates the format of English Freemasonry, called "gradualism," whereas its adversary, French Masonry, takes over rapidly and viciously.

Protocol 15: When the King of Israel sets upon his sacred head the crown offered him by Europe he will become patriarch of the world.

Twelve royal families in Europe today have Grail blood flowing through their veins. Two of them carry the title of "King of Jerusalem:" Otto von Habsburg, Pretender to the Austrian throne, and Juan Carlos, King of Spain.

Protocol 17: The King of the Jews will be the real Pope of the Universe, the patriarch of an international Church.

But, in the meantime, while we are re-educating youth in new traditional religions and afterwards in ours, we shall not overtly lay a finger on existing churches, but we shall fight them by criticism calculated to produce schism....

Notice that "The King of the Jews" will replace the Pope. Jews would not be concerned with replacing the Pope. They do not even recognize the Church. On the other hand, the Priory of Sion used the Catholic Church to build its empire. It was subject to the Roman Church for centuries, but withdrew during the Reformation, and through Free-masonry became adversarial to the Church. Naturally, the Priory would want to call their king "the real Pope of the Universe."

Also, notice the reference to New Age religion. Before the New Age can be perfected, the Protocol states that "criticism" must first divide the Church. This "criticism" is likely the new "Biblical criticism," the sources of which Orthodox Rabbi Marvin Antelman has revealed to us. In his book, To Eliminate The Opiate, he devotes a whole chapter entitled "The Birth of Biblical Criticism" to the subject. He lays Biblical Criticism at the feet of the Frankist-Reform Jews who were protected by illuminated Masonic lodges in Germany. Rabbi Antelman confirms that Biblical criticism did not originate with Orthodox Jews, but rather; was orchestrated by apostate Jews bent on the destruction of Jude~ Christian religion.

Protocol 20: We shall so hedge about our system of accounting that neither the ruler nor the most insignificant public servant will be in a position to divert even the smallest sum from its destination [sic] with-out detection or to direct it in another direction except that which will be once fixed in a definite plan of action.

Is this the Mark of the Beast?

Protocol 24: I pass now to the method of confirming the dynastic roots of King David to the last strata of the earth.

Certain members of the seed of David will prepare the kings and their heirs, selecting not by right of heritage but by eminent capacities, inducting them into the most secret mysteries of the political, into schemes of government, but providing always that none may come to knowledge of the secrets. The object of this mode of action is that all may know that government cannot be entrusted to those who have not been inducted into the secret places of its art.

The king's plans of action for the current moment, and all the more so for the future, will be unknown, even to those who are called his closest counselors.

Only the king and the three who stood sponsor for him will know what is coming.

The prop of humanity in the person of the supreme lord of all the world of the holy seed of David must sacrifice to his people all personal inclinations.

The Priory of Sion is the protector of the so-called seed of King David. Notice in the second paragraph the statement that many kings and their heirs are being prepared, but only one will be selected. There are twelve royal families of Grail blood in Europe today. The entire 24th Protocol seems to describe the "hidden hand" in the Priory of Sion, which we believe is housed in the 33rd degree of English Freemasonry.

CONGRESSIONAL RECORD

Corrected Testimony of Mrs. Catherine P.
Baldwin on the United Nations Charter

EXTENSION OF REMARKS OF

HON. WILLIAM LANGER

OF NORTH DAKOTA

IN THE SENATE OF THE UNITED STATES

Saturday, July 28 (legislative day of Monday, July 9), 1945

Mr. LANGER. Mr. President, I ask unanimous consent to have printed in the Appendix of the RECORD the corrected testimony on the United Nations Charter, given by Mrs. Catherine P. Baldwin, of New York City, before the Committee on Foreign Relations.

There being no objection, the testimony was ordered to be printed in the RECORD, as follows:

Mrs. BALDWIN. My name is Mrs. Catherine P. Baldwin, 1245 Madison Avenue, New York City. I represent myself; an American woman, a mother, a grandmother.

The CHAIRMAN. Proceed.

Mrs. BALDWIN. I am objecting to this charter as given to us from San Francisco because it is in contradiction to our United States Constitution, which all of you Senators, and the President of the United States, and every man who holds office from the highest to the lowest, in this country, is sworn to uphold. If you sign this charter you are signing away the sovereign rights of the people of this country, which you are not authorized to do. You are given specific instructions when you are sent here to represent us. Those authorities are clearly defined.

I do not concur with Senator VANDENBERG when he says we should accept this because it was agreed upon by President Roosevelt at Yalta—when we were told it was San Francisco.

The late Mr. Roosevelt is not here to speak for himself. And, furthermore, he had not the authority to promise anything in the name of the American people without the concurrence of two-thirds of this body—which has not been given.

This is, to my mind, a very direct attempt to sabotage the Constitution of the United States, to take away our sovereign rights.

It is not a new plan. It is one that has been going on for many, many years. Immediately after the last war the procession started. The highly financed propaganda permeated our schools, our colleges, our churches. In fact, every phase of our American life. Attempts have been made to destroy the Star-Spangled Banner—they are still going on. Our histories were rewritten so that you would not recognize American history.

Gentlemen, it is in fact the apex of the pyramid we are facing today. It is well known to the people throughout the length and breadth of this land. The women know what is going on, and we do not intend to stand by and see our sons sent again to fight another foreign war which is not of our making.

Under this charter five men not elected, merely appointed, whom we do not know and whom we may not trust, are given the destiny of this country. It is a demagogic, oligarchic project. It is an instrument of war.

You say that this is an instrument for peace, but it is well known throughout the length and breadth of this land that World War III is in the making. That war will be with Russia. That war will be in the Middle East. We women are not willing to be silent and see our boys drafted again and sent to the four corners of the earth to fight and to give away our substance.

Under this charter you say we will distribute the raw materials of the world. That is not new, either. You can find that in the 1893 edition of Andrew Carnegie's book, Triumphant Democracy, the last chapter, A Look Ahead, or the Reunion of Britain and America.

If you give away our raw materials, you will be trespassing on States' rights. If you give them away, you are sending the raw materials of this country to foreign powers who will manufacture them at the low European level, and the goods will be sent back here for us to buy. It clearly tells us that because England will control the seas she will supply the Atlantic States and the West, or Pacific States, and our manufacturers can supply the Middle States. We will not like it at first, they say, but we will soon find it is our duty to the mother country.

When you say that you will give away billions of dollars of our money to England, Russia, and the rest of the world, where are you going to get that money? Where is it coming from? Or are you banking on the capital-levy tax that is in the making?

Those are things the people of the United States should know.

I am willing to say that if, under due process of law, you submit this charter as an amendment to the Constitution, to the people of this country—and after a full and free and honest discussion of the merits and demerits of the matter—they vote to give away their sovereignty and their substance, then I have nothing further to say. But, until that is done, under the constitutional process of the United States, then I do object, and object strongly. I am not willing to have my sons or my grandsons drafted to be put under the authority of five men whom I do not know, or know anything about, or know what their idea of life is.

When the President of the United States went before your body, he did not tell you that this charter guaranteed one single iota of anything. He simply told you it "seeks" to do this, it "seeks" to do this, it "seeks" to do this. It means nothing; nothing at all. You cannot go before the American electorate today with a lot of verbiage, and ask them to give away their substance.

This charter guarantees nothing. But under the Constitution of the United States, and the Bill of Rights, I am guaranteed life, liberty, and the pursuit of happiness.

Some of your colleagues—challenged—have admitted on the public platform that this is unconstitutional. If it is unconstitutional, I do not see how you can even discuss it here in the Senate.

Several of you Senators have admitted it. Some of you have said we must circumvent the Constitution.

There are groups in this country, highly financed pressure groups, who are doing very good propaganda work down here in Washington. But you are not hearing from the rank and file back home.

I wish you could be in my place. I go to market and stand perhaps 2 hours to see if I can get enough food for my family for the day. The people are very bitter; they talk to me. The colored, the white, the Christian, the Jew, and the Gentile. They say, "What does it all mean? Of course, we know war is in the making. They are not fooling us. What is the matter with the Senate down in Washington? What are they down there for?"

Gentlemen, the people of this country are slow to arouse. They know they have been betrayed. They have talked, but you turned a silent ear. There comes a time in the history of every country when the people's silence is very dangerous.

As in the Bible of old, it is said, "Put on the taxes. And the people grumbled. Put on more taxes. And the people grumbled. And so long as the people grumbled it was all right. But when they put on more taxes, and the people were silent, they knew it was the danger signal."

When I go to meetings of the highly financed pressure groups, as I went to that of the Women for Victory, or the Women's Action Committee, and I hear Anne O'Hare McCormick say, "We women put over prohibition in the last war while the boys were away; and we women will put over the world government while the boys are away in this war"; gentlemen, is that fair? Is that honest? Is that honorable? Is it American?

You will probably hear from them. I have seen some of their members here.

And when I go to the meeting of the Commission for the Organization of Peace, and I hear Mr. Shotwell say "The postwar world will not be governed by international financiers, but by international cartels," I say, gentlemen, under this charter we are going to get international cartels, demagogic government by five men.

I am sure that you will agree with me that the honorable, honest way for the United States Senate to handle this matter is by constitutional means. No one can criticize you for that, when you go before your electorate and tell them the truth of what this document stands for and what it means.

Mr. CONNALLY, you, yourself, said it would be done by constitutional means. The Republican platform said it would be done by constitutional means. The Democratic platform said it would be done by constitutional means.

Mr. FULBRIGHT said it would be done by constitutional means; I heard Mr. FULBRIGHT, at the luncheon for the Commission for the Organization for Peace, say, "We freshmen Congressmen went to Congress pledged to the world government."

Gentlemen, did he forget that he took an oath of office to uphold the Constitution of the United States, or does not an oath of office mean anything any more? If it does not, then it is time the American people knew it.

We are not children; we understand what is going on. We think it is just about time we got back to the founding fathers, and to the Constitution of the United States. I know that when you think of this in your serious moments you will not want to put yourselves in the position of having the people back home say that you were not true to your oaths.

I beg of you, gentlemen, before you put your names to this document, to weigh it carefully.

This is not a peace document; this is a document of force, of aggression, of grabbing—grabbing the raw materials of this country; grabbing our boys, grabbing our money.

We went to war in 1776 because of unfair taxes. What do you think we are going to do when you try to tax us to send billions of dollars to Europe and all over the world? Do you think we are going to stand for that? And where are you going to get it? These are the things you must weigh, and think of carefully. These are the things you must discuss. These are the things for which you must answer to the American people.

So, gentlemen, in all fairness, I, an American woman, a mother, and a grandmother, I beg you—do not go down in history as the betrayers of your country.

I thank you.

The CHAIRMAN. Thank you very much, Mrs. Baldwin.

THE UNION JACK by Helen Peters

Conspiracy is invisible otherwise there would be no need for this book. In fact, if conspiracy WERE visible, there would BE no conspiracy.

The origin of the Union Jack conspiracy is its mockery of Christ in Rev. 1:8. It is made up of two outstanding crosses. X is Alpha. + is Omega. This is what Christ called Himself. The rulership of the world by the British Empire is a usurpation of the sovereignty of Jesus Christ. The mongrel banner shown on the front cover originated in the mind of a demented tyrant who acquired his mammoth fortune in America - one Andrew Carnegie. This half Union Jack and half Stars and Stripes mean more than a freak flag waving in the breeze. It represents a Satanic conspiracy to control the world with a pseudoChristianity that is opposite to the grace of Jesus Christ.

to Awaken the Honest Seekers to the Truth that:

1. Conspiracy accomplishes most of its purpose under a "Christian cloak".
2. Conspiracy enlists the "patriots" to promote the conspiracy without their knowing it.
3. World Government is already a fact and all nations have bowed their knee to Baal.
4. Baal has a universal religion to deceive the world -- the Kingdom Message.
5. Baal has a world "money" system and it is called monetized debt.
6. The thought police in America have changed our language to deceive us in our own thoughts.
7. The Constitution of the United States of America is an imaginary relic that still deceives the people into believing that they have freedom. The belief that it is still there when it is in fact not there promotes the illusion of freedom.
8. Government is organized crime and continues in power because it has the support of the people. It has the support of the people because they have been humanized through the influence of the Masonic Lodges and the "Church of their choice."
9. The Anglo-American Government has stolen the wealth of the world with their paper "money."
10. The Government owes nothing and pays nothing. It simply issues monetized debt (paper "money") for all goods and services that it wants and continues to roll over and expand debt. Government debt is a polite term for theft.
11. The United States Government does not need to collect taxes from its citizens because the citizens cannot pay taxes with monetized debt, called dollars.
12. The work of the Internal Revenue Service is to regulate and control consumption and to gather information for Big Brother.

13. To keep a nation of willing slaves the Government must control religion, education, and regulate consumption.
14. Governments cannot control and deceive Christians.
15. Governments cannot control people who barter and do not use the paper money debt system.

PROLOGUE

AMERICA - POSTMORTEM?

Will it be said by future generations that this nation died without suspecting the cause of its mortal sickness?

It requires approximately one thousand minutes reading this volume, after which the reader will reject or accept it, as it is no haven for neutrals and no camouflage for treason. It is intended that this revelation will force upon the reader an unequivocal division of the issues pertaining to a suffering world; that he may penetrate the deeper meaning of world revolution from which he will find himself on one side or the other. It will, it is hoped, remove the veil of imaginary patriotism and catapult the reader from his state of euphoria into the conscious reality of the spiritual power that has moulded him into a mental zombie.

This is not a justification for the preconditioning of the American people but a challenge to it. It is most definitely not an essay on the social evils of a collective world state but is an analysis of its spirit of subterfuge.

Seeing that Christianity could not be consumed by so many and great persecutions, but from them instead the impetus to "fill the whole earth," the workers of wrath have attacked the conscience of the world by fabricating a counterfeit Christianity. More deceptively however, they have added the dimension of feigned persecution to their stratagem of "Fundamental Christianity," the reaction to which is to deceive humanity into a world social state in the name of Jesus Christ. Americans will be surprised to learn that America is being used as the major incubator of this neo-orthodox Christianity which is not antagonistic to Marxian Communism at all, but is indeed the spirit of it. It is this spiritual Communism in the guise of Christianity that is to emerge as the crowning achievement of world revolution.

DEDICATION

This book is solemnly dedicated to two great women, Helen P. Lasell and Catherine P. Baldwin. Their research and writings lead to the "nigger in the woodpile" of the American captivity--the British Empire.

This is a time of treason when men rise up as patriots so as to become traitors. Nothing has been left undone to hide the truth from the American people. The work of these two patriots is little known and every effort to discredit and destroy their invaluable work has been carried out.

The worth to American freedom of these women cannot be measured but it has only come to the attention of a precious few. The time is already come that bears positive proof that their appraisal of conspiracy, its sources and trends are accurate and any honest contender for knowledge can only come to the same conclusions if the vital link of their efforts can be supplied. This is a humble effort toward that end. May they rest in peace!

FOREWORD

In this discourse we shall demonstrate the incredibility that the British Empire is the source of the world's agony and that it has disguised this fact to the millions of humanity that it controls. While the Empire has advanced what Americans understand as international Communism with increased momentum since World War II, it has for over one hundred years been preparing the people of America through their churches for what would appear as a spontaneous reaction to the threatened evil of a world Communist slave state. Through a long process of religious re-education, British propaganda (called British Israel in this context because of its self identity with Christianity) has solidified the thinking of the American people to an unshakeable Pharisaism which has led them to expect divine deliverance from Communism into the universal kingdom of God on earth.

To recognize the gangster perpetrators of this stratagem all that is necessary is to recognize the veiled identity of the British Empire. It is given to us as the kingdom of God on earth. It is the kingdom of God British Empire that has sown world chaos in the name of Russian Communism. It is through the established conflict of Russian Communism versus the fiction of Christian Civilization that is planned to deceive the world into the most absolute tyranny under the sanctimonious pretense of God's kingdom on earth.

Of course it seems ridiculous to suggest that the international villain is the British Empire to the American people, who have been told a million times over that the Empire is nigh extinction and only through the grace of Uncle Sam remains even a semblance of political and economic stability. Of course we Americans do not think in terms of Machiavellian power politics and therefore we cannot understand what we cannot see. We emphasize that the British Empire today is hidden beneath its pseudonym, kingdom of God on earth. Unless one can translate in his mind this fact he cannot be convinced of the yet universal power of the British Empire, nor recognize its propaganda.

To make truth of the accusation that the British Empire is all powerful and is working intrigue through the spiritual deceit of a synthetic Christianity, we shall decode the meaning of the kingdom message propaganda that has swamped America like the black plague, completely oblivious to a people preoccupied with the decoy of Russian Communism.

The overthrow of the American nation appears to the American people to fit their logic of dividing war and chaos between the bad guys and the good guys. But the thought processes of Satan do not cater to the ideal and the conventional. The American people are entangled in myth and countermyth which has brought them to a planned state of confusion. They are in, what seems to them, an ideological split between Christianity and Communism. We make it our task to prove that this pretended Christianity is as materialistic and Communistic as its supposed adversary. Then we shall show the essential ingredient of this Christian-Communism and establish for it a common denominator which will demonstrate many times over that it is inseparable from what Americans have been propagandized to believe is a world despotism with the name Communism.

The norm of revolution does not allow for human understanding and reason. Revolution and the overthrow of national governments does not transpire at the ideal level. What cannot be measured by a ruler does not exist to most Americans and their inclination to choose between those ideals that appear stands in opposition to the fact of revolution which has no ideal but parasites upon ideal. Satan builds synthetic truth and proceeds to persecute it the more to make it flourish.

The so-called freedom of the American people today is a monument to despotism and unless we come to an awareness hitherto unknown for a century our legacy to posterity shall be disgraceful.

Americans are controlled through confusion and as they separate in their thinking what they believe to be different ideologies, they gravitate mentally, socially, and politically to that arena which has been defined for them as conservatism or liberalism, not realizing or understanding the certain analogy between that which they are and that which they presume to oppose. "Free" Americans who "think for themselves" cannot originate the mental initiative to break through the preplanned stratagem within which there is no alternative to treason. Communism versus Americanism (Fundamental Christianity) is a Siamese twin sired by the same serpent to block all outlets to spiritual and mental freedom. They must eject their inquiry outside the sphere of "Christianity versus Communism" in order to see the twin conflict strategy which is working Americans against themselves to a state of total destruction. Then they can view those yet within and observe that the minds that planned revolution planned the issues and the battles to be fought. If Americans can comprehend the subversive spiritual force of "Fundamental Christianity" they can understand that which is forbidden to be known - that is that the conflict which is being promoted between Communism and "Christianity" is intended to produce a unified world political-religious state. To apply this world state to the language of today's Christianity, it means universal salvation for every creature.

As the objective mind moves outside the whirlpool of created conflict he sees that antagonisms which once seemed like life or death become for him unrelated to the underlying cause and he begins to see the analogy of the substance of supposedly different ideologies. The combatants dim in distinction and they become essential allies, unaware of course, to the outcome of their war. It is a matter of recognizing that there is one evil with two heads. One head has the hammer and sickle of social and political Communism and one has the cross of spiritual Communism and as they "fight" they unite into universal despotism frocked with "Christianity."

The hydra of "Fundamental Christianity" is built upon a hybrid and mongrel faith. It is the epitome of blasphemous pretension and its deception has been accomplished by its juxtaposition (use) of Christian symbols and a parallelism of Bible language. It is a desecrating horror with a seductive appeal based on prophecy. It is the spirit of world-wide carnage which has reached crescendo proportions. It appropriates Christ's kingdom of salvation to a world political state under the veil of Biblical language and expressions. It is power politics operating to control humanity with a world government religion. It is Zionism.

Americans must cast off the straight jacket of Communism versus "Christianity" in order to escape entrapment of this action-counteraction power play that means certain annihilation.

"Fundamental Christianity," or as some would have it Judeo-Christianity, is a multifarious evil characterized, as we shall show, by many names and fronts. Our understanding of it for its true meaning and purpose will depend upon our faith—that is, whether or not we believe the kingdom of God is spiritual and not of this world, or if it is flesh and blood and is of this world. Regardless of what pretense or name "Fundamental Christianity" may assume, its spirit is millennial Zionism which says that God's kingdom shall come upon the earth. And no matter its proclamations of salvation in Christ, it is striving for a material and physical world state and imputing it as God's kingdom on earth.

We need not look for consistency in the hypocrisy of "Fundamental Christianity" for, as we have stated, it is a hydra with many heads and as one is exposed it sprouts two more in its place. It appears to support Americanism but it educates for world government. It appears to be pro-Jew but it is "anti-semitic" for it discriminates against those in Judaism, misleading them to political Zionism instead of the grace of Christ. It preaches peace on earth but it prophesies "wars and rumors of wars" and ascribes chaos and confusion to God and His Divine Revelation. It predicts a paradise earth to come but promotes, with its erroneous prophecies, famine and world calamity. Where then is the consistency in this Phariseic Christianity? It is its spirit of an earthly kingdom. "Fundamental Christianity" is a supposition of truth and a faked allegiance to Jesus Christ.

To move from the smugness of our self-conceit and our preconditioning we must see that the progress of revolution works within the confines of the natural or five senses but it is motivated by the invisible force of spiritual power (complete thought control). This thought control rests with a subversive and extra-legal Christianity which is immune from prosecution and invisible to its subjects. It is sedition and treason that seems innocent and patriotic.

The practicability and power of this "Christian" cancer can only make sense if we can somehow bring that which is above the threshold of consciousness and convey it to the objective intelligence of the world. To do this we must find a key to the door or a bridge to span the gap from that which is not seen to that which can be seen. The unchanging key that puts the light on the Communism of "Fundamental Christianity" is its undying spirit to bring Christ back to earth to reign over a unified humanity in a world state.

This plot must be exposed to the world in the exact same manner that it is imposed upon them. As Americans are overwhelmed with the political-theology which says the Divine Plan of God is to build a flesh and blood kingdom with or without social government, they must fight back with the Sword of the Spirit that will identify this moral evil that operates essentially within the limits of the Christian faith in order to divert the moral sense of the populace away from the Supernatural kingdom of grace of Jesus Christ. Christians must tell other Christians how the Bible is being misused as an instrument of mind control to lead the nations into a world state under the veil that it is God's kingdom on earth.

Due to the universal expansion of this "new

"Christianity" and its many many fronts it is nigh impossible to defend against its every tentacle. We can however move to the offensive quickly and avoid frustration and confusion by discerning in every utterance of "Fundamental Christianity" its goal of a kingdom on earth. Through an analogy of its terms, definitions, and use of a futuristic scheme of Bible Prophecy, we can expose the plot of Zionism and its Communist Millennial World Government.

We must show how the "Fundamental Christians" appropriate the name of Jesus Christ to their World Government religion in which they fully expect to receive the paradise earth. Their deception could not be more complete and their damnation more certain. They are pagans with a mission - World Government in the name of Christ. They are imbued with blind hypocrisy not knowing that they have the name of Christianity without the faith. It is time that Christian Americans discern their spirit and designate them orthodox heathens. With their religion they serve a foreign power and they are building a spirit that will bring anarchy and destruction to the land that so freely gave them "freedom of religion." Too bad they cannot have a small preview of the commune world nightmare which they believe is heaven on earth. Is it unthinkable that Christianity is actually being promoted so as to carry deadly and subversive propaganda along with Christian truth?

It is true and we shall demonstrate that Christianity is the pretense and excuse to fulfill the New World Order of Millennial Zionism.

To teach the world through Christianity that the mission of the Messiah is to unify the world in a material and political sense is the false hope of Jew-Pharisaism and is as much to their own damnation as it is to that of professing Christians whom they have deceived. The only difference in the Jew's religion (kingdom of God on earth) today and of antiquity is that the Jew's religion today is generally believed to be Christianity. Fundamentalism or Millennialism are fronts for this pseudo-Christianity. They lead one's faith to the opposite of orthodox and historic Christianity into a carnal naturalism which appeals to the natural man.

Promoting the Jew's religion of an earthly Zionist state as Christianity is no half cocked scheme. It is a subtle aberration which has had the effect of neutralizing and paralyzing the rank and file members of the churches to such an extent that they do not recognize that the great promotion of Christianity today has for its concealed purpose spiritual deceit unrivaled for two thousand years. Who would ever believe that Satan would further World Evangelism so as to conceal within it a cancer that intends to destroy it? This is an illusion which the unthinking cannot understand.

First, we must recognize the complete saturation of our land with this veiled propaganda. Secondly, we must decipher its hidden meaning as the advancement of the World State British Empire under the alias kingdom of God on earth. Thirdly, we can test the validity of this conspiracy by attempting to expose it, and finally we can face the reality that the political, economic and military force symbolized by the hammer and sickle is the front for the most organized plot of all time to control the spirit of humanity which in turn is hidden behind Christian symbolism, and conceals itself within its expressions of Biblical language in order to move the world away from Jesus Christ in His name.

So that the reader can quickly grasp the subject of British Israel it is imperative that we define the term at the outset. To give an accurate definition of British Israel including all of its fronts and disguises would require more than a volume the size of the combined Encyclopedias Britannica. But this would be an impossible approach leading to a swamp of confusion and frustration not unlike that of the American people today. So we shall therefore approach British Israel from the opposite direction, giving instead a definition of its spiritual dogma so that with a brief and precise understanding the reader can readily apply this definition as a key to understanding this book. Then he can use the same brief principle to test any presumption of Christianity or patriotism that may come to his attention.

Let us warn our reader of one very important thing before we go on with our definition. The fronts, names, terminology, cliches, and etc. may or may not be consistent. They are many times contradictory. But British Israel, like anything else, must have a common denominator or an unchanging foundation upon which to build its deceptions. It is from this basic substance or common element which gives British Israel its life blood and which simultaneously gives us the necessary knowledge to understand it and combat it. BRITISH ISRAEL DEFINED THEN MEANS A WORLD STATE (GOVERNMENT) COMMONWEALTH EARTHLY KINGDOM. This is the only consistency it has and must have to continue operative as a mind control force. Therefore this simple test can be used to search out truth from propaganda whether it be in the form of conservatism or radicalism, or however it may appear.

British Israel can make a perfect front for patriotism except it must rear its head sooner or later to turn patriotism to treason by twisting it to World Government under the pretense of Bible sanction Unclad of its Biblical and Christian cloak, British Israel is a world government religion. Need we spend time here proving the seriousness of a world government religion which is now rampant over America and the world parading as "Fundamental Christianity"? Though "Fundamental Christianity" came along in recent years with the buildup of the right wing in America, the earthly kingdom religion has held the "Jews" in spiritual and social bondage since before Christ. It was this very deceit that caused their rejection of the Messiah and it is this same deceit carried over to "Fundamental Christianity" today.

The ideology, or religion of the earthly kingdom is a Jewish notion in the sense that it has been directed from the Rabbis and Synagogues for centuries, not for the purpose of exalting their people but for the purpose of keeping them in subjection dooming their souls against the kingdom of Christ's grace. As we shall show later this is how the Jewish earthly kingdom, or what St. Paul called the Jew's religion, is as "anti-semitic" as it is anti-Christian and anti-American. If the religion of the "Jews" is dangerous to Christians it is no less dangerous to the "Jews" who have been held out of the kingdom of God's grace because of it. The idea of the earthly world kingdom is not according to Moses and the Prophets but according to the Pharisees and the Rabbis. It is not essential that we locate the world Sanhedrin today but that we identify its pernicious and Satanic spirit. It is the task of British Israel to get its Jew's religion or earthly kingdom imprinted upon the consciousness of the world as Christianity.

So one can say he is a Fundamentalist or a Premillennialist or a Jehovah Witness and so on but he is essentially and necessarily of the Jew's religion for all of the above require for their substance or faith an earthly kingdom. This is how British Israel can infect and infiltrate everything, adapting itself to any church, organization, or name - always skillfully insinuating and indoctrinating the earthly kingdom message.

The earthly kingdom versus the Heavenly kingdom or the kingdom of grace is the arena upon which all issues hang. There is no mixing or mingling to get a mongrel faith or compromise. It is either one or the other. The idea of an earthly estate whether we call it a millennium, a restored earth, a paradise, or by any other name, is Judaism. It does not matter when it comes or if it is a social and political government or whether it is just a peaceful earth "where there is no sin" and only saints dwell. The hope or faith in any kind of future earthly existence is Judaism and the very opposite of Christianity. The Christian hope after death is Heaven and there is as much difference in the Heavenly hope and the earthly hope as there is difference between Christianity and Judaism.

This is not a new axiom but the only valid one. The kingdom of Heaven versus the kingdoms of this world has been the battle of Armageddon since the Cross. No amount of twisting or perverting Scripture can blur or compromise this truism. You are on one side or the other regardless of the name you assume. This is the total concept of Christianity and the day we recognize this truth is the day we regain mental freedom. This is the day we gain moral integrity. This is the day we recognize the machinations of the synagogue of Satan under any pretext or front.

We hear often that "one can get any interpretation from the Bible." This is the confusion of Satan. These are only two concepts of understanding. One gives Heaven to Christians. One gives the earth to all others. There is only grace in this Gospel Age and no race in a future age even a sinless one. There is no such thing as grace and race at the same time as a Christian dogma. It is either the kingdom of grace or the kingdom of race. It is either one or the other. It is NOT both.

At this point it is good to explain why we use the word anti-semitic in quotations. The word semitic comes from the root semite which refers to a specific racial lineage from Shem to 70 A.D. when all genealogical records were destroyed. Therefore there can be no proof of any racial purity. Consequently the term anti-semitic is a completely false term when used, as it commonly is, to refer to a present day race whether they be so-called Jews or Arabs or Anglo-Saxons. British Israel propaganda promotes the idea of racial identity or racial heritage and fuses it with nationality to get an ad-mixture or Jewish Christianity which is blasphemous and totally misleading. Sometimes the Jew baiters will apply the term semitic to the Arabs only to promote the same confusion as does those who say the "Jews" are semites. The idea of race in any sense is not Christian anymore than nationality or sex is. This does not, in the Christian mind, lend support to the Masonic crime of integrating the races to mongrelize them. Any Christian should strive to preserve his color and integrity but never to confuse race with grace. British Israel is a religion of race the same as was its previous front of National Socialism under Adolph Hitler.

The term British Israel is the combination of nationality (British) and Israel (Biblical identity of nationality in the Old Testament.) Of course the purpose is to confuse the Christian faith by mixing in its place a heterodoxy (heretical) of race and religion. Actually the term British Israel is used less than any other term to describe its own subversion because of the desire of the perpetrators to hide their crime of sedition. Therefore if one looks for these traitors under their formal name as we refer to it, he will mostly miss them for they appear under many names. They have in many cases dropped one identity and changed to another to keep up a constant smoke screen over their true identity and true purpose. Some call themselves Covenant people. Some say they are Anglo Israel and drop the word British. Some say they are of the Israel Identity, even teaching that they are of certain of the twelve tribes or sub-tribes. To understand British Israel it is NOT necessary to learn a hundred different foolish names or fronts because they can add more daily. The dogma of the cult is the important thing as we have said. This dogma or religion is the building of a unified humanity in a paradise earth. With this earthly kingdom idea sifted from the mixture of cults we at once see a panoramic view of the whole British Israel system including Mormonism, Jehovah Witnesses, Seventh Day Adventism, Herbert W. Armstrong's Church of God, and most of Protestantism. With this vast network of kingdom religionists, America has become a Jewish nation because the kingdom on earth (millennial reign of Christ) is the Jew's religion.

An interesting observation here is the fact that the above named cults each have an organizational entity and members move within their own church organization. All move from seemingly different directions toward the same faith. They are in many cases antagonistic and even harsh toward one another while they all have essentially the same religion, namely the pursuit of the paradise earth. The old Arian heresy has been used to lead men away from the Divinity of Christ and the Holy Trinity. In some cases denial of the Trinity is direct, as in the case of the Jehovah Witnesses and Mormonism. In others it is indirect in that the Trinity is espoused but denied with millennial Zionism, disguised as Christianity; This is true because any earthly kingdom idea is opposed to the supernatural kingdom of Christ. So one can deny the Trinity indirectly by having faith in an anti-Trinity doctrine. Satan works in devious ways to control men's minds, hence we see them opposed by church affiliation yet united in faith against Christ, thinking they are Christians. Millions are controlled by a vast network of pseudo Christian cults. Little do they know that they are working under the direful direction of a political religion which will in the end unite them in the name of Christianity against Jesus Christ. They know not that they serve a kingdom of this world, a kingdom whose state religion is Judaism and whose throne is the throne of Britain. This is the worst spiritual plague on earth, to use the truth to destroy it. This is the trail of the serpent but it can be found out and we shall pursue it herein.

To the members of American churches of all faiths, if this is an attack upon what you have been led to believe is the truth, then the challenge is yours to refute it. To the non church member, if it sounds like religious fanaticism, it is absolute mind control which as a general object of scientific experiment has been proven. To the pseudo patriots who have done more to destroy their country than to save it, unless your vanity hides your cowardice, you may be ready to challenge the force that has controlled your thinking and beguiled you to treason under the pretense of Americanism and Christianity.

If this writing is to have any meaning then it must have one requirement - honesty. If the reader has notions of what is the truth about America and his knowledge is well grounded he will not fear this revelation. Truth has no fear and it has withstood the conflict of the ages reinforced and untarnished, waiting for whosoever will.

Our responsibility is primarily to expose the spiritual plot as conceived and carried out through the forces of the British Empire. No matter the form name or outward appearance we hope to prove the unity of spirit and united purpose of political propaganda clothed in Biblical language and fed to our nation and the world. Only secondary do we bring in the physical forces in terms of organizations, churches and individuals and then only to make clear the harmony of the political revolution to the spiritual as promoted through the kingdom message.

BRITISH ISRAEL PROPAGANDA AND DECEIT

When we say that the British Empire is all powerful, we say that we must understand this fact in terms of its alias, kingdom of God on earth, and furthermore the extent of this power over America is nationwide. It is in almost every church. It is in every newspaper. It is on every radio station. It is in every phase of American life, either in the form of a political antagonism called Communism, or in the form of a spiritual antagonism called the kingdom of God on earth.

When we speak of power here we must examine it. This power is mind control which has come about as a result of a constant bombardment of religious propaganda. This religious propaganda is a skillfully organized world government religion which gives every appearance of orthodox Christianity. It gradually carries millions to a completely false Christianity without any knowledge on the part of its victims of its evil intent. It crosses every church affiliation or denomination and is radiated out from each as if it had started within. Christianity is only the veil of this deceit.

The British Empire does not have to operate in its own name anymore than a series of conglomerate corporations operate under the name of the parent company. Anyone knows if he will think for a moment that many things which are, such as corporations, operate under a different name from that of the owner. Almost every store or business in America has a name other than that of the owners. Therefore why is it impossible to believe that the British Empire can carry on world revolution under a name or front other than the British Empire? Certainly it is not desirable that anyone should know that the kingdom of God on earth means world government via the British Empire, so the propaganda says it is to be a kingdom of Christ. This is quite simple but devastating in its effect. An examination of this scheme will prove that British Israel propaganda is not Christianity but a political religion and an instrument of power politics to unify the nations through religious deception under the British Empire. The propaganda is never expanded in political terms and can never be recognized as a political plot unless and until we can see that it is coded with spiritual or Biblical language. Those it controls are absolutely helpless to break its spiritual deceit until they gain a proper knowledge of the true kingdom of God. This deceit is so absolute that those who believe it think that the earthly kingdom religion originates in Holy Writ. They cannot honestly believe that the kingdom of God on earth is a bastard Jewish religion to control humanity under a World Government British Empire. It is a devil religion which appeals to a chaotic world. Most people who believe this kingdom religion have never heard it under the term British Israel or Anglo Israel. They believe it to be Christianity and deny any connection with British Israel. It is the age old Arian heresy, as we shall see.

Since British propaganda gains mind control through spiritual deceit it needs no political] organization and organizational structure of any kind. It simply operates through existing churches and evangelistic organizations. So we cannot defeat British Israel by attacking political organizations, church groups or denominations, or evangelistic associations, etc. We must expose the British Israel kingdom religion which they teach. From this approach all be exposed upon the basis of their unanimous perversion of the kingdom of God. This is the basis upon which the world is being deceived into the New Order of the Ages.

Let us examine in this light the worldwide radio ministry of Herbert W. Armstrong. Herbert W. Armstrong's propaganda organization is British Israel and he is accused of it many times, which he of course consistently denies. Many of the people who accuse him of it believe it themselves under another name or through another church organization. So nothing is gained here only self contradiction by two people with the same religion. The minute both are condemned for their kingdom religion they promptly become allies and all other differences fade away. It is the essential and necessary earthly kingdom religion which unites them all, regardless of what church name they assume or how much they believe they are opposed to each other. As long as they have the kingdom religion in common nothing else matters. A Jehovah Witness has more in common with a "Fundamentalist" Baptist than either of them believe. Both have a world kingdom religion and this is all that is necessary to unite them against Christ's spiritual kingdom. This also is how the Jew-baiters get wealthy under the pretense of Christianity. They condemn the so-called Jew and promote Judaism (kingdom of God on earth) under the name of Christianity. They get away with millions of dollars and no one recognizes that their earthly kingdom religion is only Judaism and a world government religion. The reason this is termed Jew-bait is because Jew is the bait to deceive one into Judaism disguised. We will discuss later British Israel in the form of Jew-bait as promoted by such traitors as Gerald L.K. Smith and as was promoted by the late Elizabeth Dilling.

British propaganda is advanced on two seemingly opposite fronts. Political Communism is its left wing front and tactical phase. "Fundamental Christianity" or Spiritual Communism (the British Israel kingdom of God on earth) is its right wing front and ultimate world order.

The designed polarity of Communism versus the coming world kingdom of God is a prepared action counter action process. As the anti-Communist tempo gains strength, the world is moved closer to one global crystallization with complete inhibition of national initiative.

In order to turn the anti-Communist movement from treason to true patriotism we must remove the spirit of Communism from our land.

It is difficult to enter into this debate without warning the reader that his own thoughts and words have been cleverly twisted in order to move him in the opposite direction to that which he intends and to do so without his knowing. For instance, if a man has known North from South since childhood and he comes upon a crossroads where the north-south signs have been switched, certainly he does not ponder but pursues the wrong direction to a destination opposite to that intended. A confused mind can quickly reach a state of total break down simply by reversing word meanings. A whole nation can be motivated along a certain course of action inimical to its vital interest by manipulating high sounding principles and ideals to implicit inconsistencies or self contradictions. This concept, cleverly used, can openly operate sedition in any country and within the law of the land. It is possible and is in fact being done, that the United States Constitution is being used to help overthrow the American government. Does not the Constitution guarantee freedom of speech and are not "free" speakers today advocating World Government while at the same time shouting for the preservation of Constitutional rights? This is legal but it is treason.

We intend to prove here that the concealed object of Conservatism, Americanism and Patriotism is the promotion of what is termed Fundamental Christianity. "Fundamental Christianity" is educating the American people for World Government which of course means the sacrifice of America as an independent nation. Now their religion is as legal as any other under the United States Constitution but it is treason and subversion and no more pro-American than would be an invading army. Simply by changing the meaning of Christianity to the opposite of truth they are able to carry on a well organized and highly respectful sedition with immunity from prosecution and every advantage for protection. They have every advantage of the law without fear of prosecution. They are in a quasi or extra legal haven. They are engaging in what can accurately be termed legal treason.

For purpose of this discussion we many times use quotation marks around a word or phrase to designate it as the common usage today but that the same word in conventional usage meant just the reverse. We use regular quotations when making a direct quote from a source of information but in most cases quotes around words and phrases are intended to convey that such word or phrase has been manipulated to disguise betrayal. In order to clear up the confusion that has been imposed upon us, we must understand the original meaning of our own language as well as how it is being misused against us. This is vital and we cannot hope to pursue correct action unless our thinking fits our language and our language communicates our thinking. So badly have Americans been bewitched by their own language, we have in this text invented terms and ideas to help unscramble the confusion by reversing the double-think language. For example we have used the term "Christian" Communism to show the essential unity of the beliefs of the "Fundamentalists" and those of their supposed enemies. A word or phrase can be placed in a different context and through a process of repetition will change its meaning in short order. After the new usage becomes dominant and we use it based on its root or original meaning, it not only will deceive the listener it will deceive the user unless he understands. Twenty years ago the term Fundamental Christianity meant basic or orthodox Christianity as derived from Apostolic teaching. Today, through improper application intended to hide deceit, Fundamental Christianity means Premillennialism and a world social state supposedly headed by Christ. It is hard to imagine how very unfundamental to Christianity a worldly and material kingdom would be. Nevertheless, the Fundamentalists term their hope for a natural Messiah, Christianity. Therefore "Fundamental" when in quotations refers to the British Israel Kingdom religion and not original Christianity.

Definitions and concepts are all important. It is not the words and expressions we use but their meaning and common usage and it is not always what we believe but why do we believe it. So critical is this idea that our whole thought process turns either one direction or the other upon it. For example Christians believe Christ has a kingdom and professing Christians believe also that Christ has a kingdom. While both have the name Christian both do not have the Christian faith. Christians believe that Christ's kingdom is grace and salvation - a spiritual kingdom. Professing or as stated above, "Fundamental Christians" believe that Christ's kingdom is yet to be in the form of a material earthly paradise which they call the kingdom of God on earth. Although the Fundamentalists or Premillennialists talk about grace they only do so to achieve a closer identity to Christianity. They have a hybrid or mongrel faith which deceives them away from Christ to a Judaic Pharisaism which is antithetical and opposite to Christianity. So here we have two people called Christians. The world believes they are both Christians and they themselves believe they are Christians but when we get at an understanding of why, or a definition of what they believe we come to a polarity or a positive and a negative.

Furthermore "Fundamentalists" believe one must obey God's law for fear of physical punishment. Christians believe one must obey God's law because they love their Saviour Both concepts are based on obedience but it is why should we obey that turns us either to legalism or to Christianity.

Another enlargement of this concept in regard to our study of legal sedition or legal treason is the mass promotion in America today of literature, radio broadcasts and books which are preparing the American people for a gigantic famine or mass starvation. When we inquire into the exact meaning and use of this propaganda we see that it is two dimensional and is designed to develop a certain thought process no matter which initiative or from what angle we approach it. The "Fundamentalists" believe and promote the idea that a future famine is a judgment of God according to their interpretation of the Book of Revelation. As we shall see Christ's kingdom has nothing to do with famine on earth only as imputed to do so by fake Christians. The "anti-Communists" or "patriots" believe that planned famine is a Communist plot, meaning political Communism in this sense. There is a tactic of famine scare and hysteria which may in fact be brought to occur to fulfill the expectations of twisted prophecies - in other words the Scriptures are twisted to furnish the climate and sanction to lead America into world government under the fear hysteria that it is Divine judgment. The air is saturated with these perverted prophecies of things to come and when they are performed or enacted on the world stage, the deception is compounded many times. A "prophesied" famine is not so much to starve the physical body of food, but to control humanity spiritually. Here again it is NOT the idea of whether or not there will be famine, but what is its meaning is the important thing. Understanding the USE being made of famine propaganda gives us at the same time the know how to expose it.

Now there are books such as Ill Fares the Land by Dan P. Van Garder which make no use of "prophecy" in itself to promote the idea of famine but this does not change the concept of propaganda USE at all. Predictions of famine based upon a Communist plot or mismanagement in government has the double effect of misapplying cause and effect. It is like creating a problem or a crisis and purporting to expose the crisis instead of the perpetrators of it, or if perpetrators are exposed they are fronts or stalking horses. For example on page VIII of the above named book is this statement "The American government, for the past forty years, has done more to help Communism succeed than have all the non-Communist nations of the world combined." Now this statement is accurate but its use serves the seditious cause of the author. It is the intention of the author to confuse the definition of Communism by using a half truth to build an erroneous conception. As he has it, Communism is the enemy instead of the instrument of the enemy and of course his presumption to any "anti-Communist" would mean that Communism is synonymous with Russia. Except for his desire to mislead why would not the author reveal that Russia, as it exists, is a Jew-Masonic achievement used as a base of operations and decoy for Anglo American finance. Communism as he implies it means nothing only as a dummy state from which to operate wars to kill American troops and to serve as a catch all for the blame of what ails us, which must be put on somebody. If the author of this book oriented planned famine to the proper cause the book would not be mass produced by Western Islands and he would be lucky to exist. So we say again that such propaganda on a secular level is not designed to starve the body but to control the mind by confusing cause and effect and word meaning, thereby gaining mental control. The only absolute tyranny is mind control which gives the tyrants the power to create the will of the people to their own enslavement.

Has the meaning of the English language been reversed to serve the masters of thought control? We believe it has and we believe we can reveal how it is controlling 200 million Americans who believe they live in a free country.

The propaganda mills grind constantly to instill fear and confusion. Every angle is worked up to bring on a desperate air of imminent chaos. Hardly a day passes without at least a hundred different publications and radio programs teaching the myth that over population is adding pressure by the minute to imminent mass famine and disease. The peril of hydrogen war and mutual annihilation goes out constantly. What is the solution to it all? They always have one. It is the World Government of God. Only God can save us now by taking all political authority says the religious propaganda. One British Israel publication stated that only "with the inauguration of this New Order, poverty, oppression and distress will vanish from this earth. Divine Laws and the perfect economic system of the kingdom will take the place of the old and ensure the equitable distribution of the blessings of life to all men." So we solve our problems with the kingdom of God Communism but they of course don't call its Communism.

There are many propaganda tricks. Alger Hiss was called a Communist, the inference being that he was some kind of Russian agent. This is misapplication of cause and effect and leads all suspicion away from the fact that Alger Hiss was a British Communist Rhodes Scholar.

We understand that Karl Marx was a Communist. Did he not come from London --- if he existed?

There is the term "Christ or Chaos" and "Christ is the only hope." What do these terms mean and how are they used? They imply and teach that a political Christ, a worldly Caesar, can save us from Communism by Russia to be exchanged for Communism by the kingdom of God on earth. The idea behind this propaganda is to drive people to expect and accept a worldly Christ and a political world government as the alternative to absolute anarchy.

Then we hear the term "This is a Christian Nation" and we are therefore God's people. How much explanation does it take to demonstrate that this repetitive statement teaches a national religion? A nation is a political and geographical entity - a kingdom of this world. To apply the word Christian to any nation is to apply Christianity to Pharisaism and British Israelism. Even if the Supreme Court says America is a Christian Nation, it is not. Then the "patriots" say "For God and Country." This again promotes British Israel, suggesting and teaching that God will condemn and then bless this country. The word God when used with country could only mean God of this world, who is Satan. Where is our wisdom?

What about the idea of "One World Under God's Law?" What is a world under God's law? Law refers to something legal, to ordinances and political governments. This is only a trick to lead away from a world under God's grace. "The World Under God's Law" applies to national or international Israel and the world under God's grace applies to spiritual Israel, the faithful of Christ. The first promotes British Israel and the second promotes Christianity.

British Israel promotes its kingdom religion within organized Christianity. It is also very much active as a political force. But it never promotes Communism in its own name, neither spiritual Communism nor political Communism.

Like a boomerang! If the Communists are traced they become British Communists. If the C.F.R. members are traced they are interlocked with the Pilgrims Society, whose source and representation is in England. If political action runs constantly against the American people we will find that the Masons in power are under the direction of the Grand Lodge of England, and all of them are united in their subversive World Brotherhood Religion. If Socialism is in the vogue and the street rioters are rampant, we find no justice in the Masonic courts whose Masonic judges are dedicated to the destruction of the National Sovereignty of the United States of America. If the Christian churches who once taught the Trinity and Deity of Jesus Christ now teach that peace will come via an earthly kingdom, we find that it is British Israel which is promoting the Jewish kingdom religion as Christianity. If the American people are driven to insanity with so-called Russian Communism they of course have to accept "Christ or Chaos" - "Christ" being the Messiah of a nearly foolproof false Christianity. If supplies to the Viet Cong are traced they come not via bugaboo Russia, but via Her Majesty's ships of the United Kingdom, who go in and out of the Port of Haipong unbombed and unexposed in the American press.

Like a boomerang if the United Nations Charter is traced, it was spawned upon British Communism - yes! British trained Rhodes Scholars and Masons!

One of the main propaganda performances of British Israel is to establish Judas goat fronts and phony opposition. Almost all students of revolution have heard of the terms Zionism, Illuminati, Capitalist conspiracy, Communist Conspiracy, Socialism, and the Talmud. These terms are fronts for British Israel. The American press is directed against Communism but always with attacks upon the effect rather than the cause. Never do they mention British Communism directed under a spiritual or Christian cloak.

The Zionists, the Communists, the Socialists and the Illuminati are said to be anti-Christ opposed to the Christian nations. It is a struggle between "Christ versus Anti-Christ" says their mass propaganda. Jesus Christ is not concerned about who controls the United States government, whether they be Zionists or Bolsheviks. Even if every individual in America was a Christian, America would not be a Christian nation in a national and collective sense.

The confusion in America today might be termed anti-Christ versus antichrist, as it has nothing to do with the supernatural and Divine kingdom of Jesus Christ.

Inequities such as Social Security, Income Tax, skyrocketing property taxes, etc., are created to redistribute and confiscate the wealth of the American people. The political prostitutes of Masonry perpetuate themselves in power with the money of the people they suppress. In the main however, the effect calculated to take hold is the final rebellion of the people in a blind revolution to destroy their own freedom by destroying their Constitution and the American government. When the people are finally driven to revolt they do not distinguish between their institutions of freedom and the vermin that have corrupted them. They attack en masse and with one fell swoop commit national suicide and few of them will ever know that they were tricked into it. Constructive criticism and blind revolution are two entirely different things but the dissatisfied and depressed people do not know the difference as they grasp for the freedom they once had when freedom meant freedom and free men were not equal.

We are dealing in the main with the source and inspiration of blind revolution so as to make clear the difference in the overthrow of a government on one hand and a purifying of it on the other. The way the people react to the injustices and propaganda that are thrust upon them determines the effect of their efforts to save themselves politically. The only way a rebellion can misfire on its incendiaries is for the people to properly understand the goal and techniques of revolution.

The very weapons of propaganda which have whipped the American people to a state of disparity can be turned against their creators instead of the United States Government if the people can break the code of the spiritual revolution of British Israel and its pseudonym Fundamental Christianity. In so doing they can understand the past and predict the future. They can identify the Masonic arms and legs which carry into effect the political realities of British Israel prophecy. They can remove the veil of spiritual power and lay bare the goal of Judeo-Masonry to crucify America and resurrect her into the world state British Empire under the alias kingdom of God on earth.

We insist that the revolution is over and was won at the point when the American people became sufficiently imbued and indoctrinated with the kingdom message (the idea that there will be a new order called the kingdom of God on earth). All that remains is the final destruction of the form and outward structure of the American government. The mental condition of the American people has already been adequately prepared and they are now drugged to such an extent that they are witnessing the collapse of the United States, both politically and economically, and they cannot discern its meaning nor understand its reality.

The American Flag still flies over the shell of a depraved and confused people as they unknowingly await final obliteration. Our military might is impressive, our standard of living is at an all time high but we are spiritually dead, diseased and overcome with the kingdom message of British Israel which has paralyzed our military machine and turned our material prosperity to bitterness.

Like the perfect balance of a gyro the American people whirl and revolve in all directions as they are moved to the consummation of their destruction, concealed within an aura of British Israel propaganda which is preparing and educating the people for a "New Heaven On Earth" World State Empire.

The American people not only do not know their enemy, they are fighting his battles both foreign and domestic and they are solidifying their own final ruin all in the name of Christianity, Americanism and Patriotism. British propaganda has reeducated the people to such an extent and removed them so far from the truth that their almost every utterance and action betrays their best interest. To further the deceit, a "hard core" patriotism has been developed which conceals within it betrayal and promotes revolution by exploding and enlarging upon every injustice imaginable while never understanding their reason for being nor the source of their inspiration. They only echo the propaganda of the "suppressed books" which were prepared especially for them. These "suppressed books" which cause "persecuted" patriots are the same dusty relics which prepared the rise of Nazi Germany on the myth that it would free itself from the Jews. This Jew bait only freed the Germans of their freedom and their nation as the "Jews" made off with their wealth, with which to finance the same thing again on a world wide scale which is designed to bring birth to a Jew British World State.

Judeo-Masonry has worked this Jew bait Messianic Arian white race scheme since Napoleon to raise up false nationalism's, which are guided to destruction under the banner "For God and Country." People have not been able to recognize this Jew-Masonic chicanery which creates fictitious Nazi-like attacks upon itself while it establishes its domination and power under other forms and names. It attacks Communism and promotes it under the pseudonym of kingdom of God on earth and if we unveil it we discern its spirit so as to see its miscegenation under whatever form or name it may appear.

It is the spiritual power of British Israel Judeo-Masonry which causes the "hard core" patriots to attack its visible forms as they embrace its spirit. The Adamic Race of Anglo Saxondom is only the bait to cast the revolution into seemingly conflicting ideologies. Race wars are financed and directed from both directions as a destroyer of political states, as the same finance promotes the kingdom message to establish the spiritual (religio-political) state universal.

It is our purpose to demonstrate the latent meaning of our now total confusion and to show that what seems like confusion and contradiction to us is perfectly ordered and guided by the invisible power of British Israel. To conquer the world and then hold it in subjection, its spirit must first be overcome and this is the purpose of the kingdom message of British propaganda. We hope to show its true nature and scope and to what extent it has made us a vassal state, as surely as if we were bound with chains.

We wish to make it unequivocally clear that if a people is imbued with the spirit of the kingdom message (the belief that there is to be a millennial paradise), it is hopeless futility to fight the political intrigue, as they cannot fight that which they believe in their hearts.

Emphasis is NOT on political British Jew Masonic Communism, but upon the spiritual British Jew Masonic kingdom of God on earth. Our concern is the attempt of the Jew British cartel and their Masonic stooges throughout the world to build the world state in the name of Christ. It is not their politics, it is their spirit that has overwhelmed us.

They would remove our faith from God's Supernatural kingdom and relegate us to the natural order based upon the degeneracy of a Luciferian sex cult given to us in the pious name of kingdom of God on earth.

It is our spirit which determines if our faith is in the Alpha and Omega of the living Christ or the kingdom of God on earth of the fallen angel.

British Israel is the mask for a commercial enterprise the likes of which the world has never known. This mask is spiritual propaganda through which it is educating the people for world government. It is fed to us in Biblical language, building its blue print of action with a predictive and futuristic scheme of Bible prophecy. When we unmask and remove the cloak of self-righteousness we find that the spiritual deception of British Israel is laying the foundation for world domination by the British Empire.

The mantle of the British Empire is British Israel, a Pharisseeic Christianity, which is a spiritual lie that says Anglo Saxondom and the Jews make up God's people on earth and that as the physical seed of Abraham, they are to form the theocratic world government to enforce peace on earth under the rulership of Christ. World Jewry and its cabalistic Masonry are working the political and economic intrigue to fit the scheme of British Israel prophecy. World events are manipulated so as to merge with the predictions of British Israel and the very elect will be deceived - - - - - if it were possible.

The curtain is about to be raised for the final act of World War III.

Absolute control of the world propaganda apparatus has successfully made the people of the world believe that as a military and economic power the British Empire is gone. Therefore we must decipher its propaganda and penetrate the myth of a bygone Empire and recognize that only its name and outward appearance has changed hiding the same world confederation of political and economic power and progressing forward toward its goal of a world state in which it seeks the control of the wealth and governments of all nations. Paramount in this struggle is the battle for the spirit of the world, making political and military considerations only complementary. Therefore it is the building of the spiritual-political state through which the British Empire seeks absolute domination and we must now recognize the neo British Empire in terms of this spiritual power, which we identify as a crypto-Christianity. This power is hammering away at the five senses of the world, instilling the people with a revived Judaic Pharisaism that the Commonwealth of Israel of God is the British Israel Commonwealth of the World. We perceive in this "New Christianity" which has enveloped the globe the absolute power of the supposedly dead British Empire, which is silently and skillfully closing its stranglehold on a people deluded with this fictitious fundamental Christianity.

If we expect to understand the power struggle in the world, which is prescribed only by the British Empire, we must recognize its might under its new symbols of the Christian Cross and the Christian flag. As the military and political significance of the Union Jack is lowered from sight, the spiritual power is increased under the now universal Christian Cross and Flag. The power is the same and the struggle is the same. It is only that the political and military and economic aspects of the Empire have been concealed with the spiritual power of British Israel "Christianity" It is only Satan appearing as an angel of light.

If seekers of the truth would understand the political forces they must see the spiritual power that is guiding them to harmonize toward the world state in the name of Christ.

American politics, economy and military posture is being carefully guided to fit the propaganda of the kingdom message. We are being betrayed and ravished in the name of an unbiblical scheme of Bible prophecy which is preparing us for final ruin under the guise of a synthetic hogwash called Christianity. The excuse for our agony and coming destruction is j our "national sins" which are justified with quotations from Old Testament prophets.

Americans have been lied to so much by the prophets of Jew-Masonic-British Israel that even now the truth is stranger than fiction.

Our purpose is to make known that the treachery and betrayal of the American people is covered with the pious prophecies of the coming kingdom of God on earth. We shall analyze the meaning of this very efficient propaganda and reveal its extra-biblical attempt at merging Bible prophecy and secular history to advance the plan of world domination by the British Empire.

The kingdom of God on earth that Christ established is the kingdom of GRACE. It filled the whole earth yet it came not with observation. It is a kingdom of the election according to GRACE from all nations and generations. Christ through His atoning blood is our personal Saviour individually, sad not collectively in a racial or national sense.

In these pages there are many repetitions but we offer no apology for them. When, as in this discourse, basic causes are persistently ignored and basic principles persistently forgotten, it is necessary that they be patiently reiterated until they are understood by at least a few. If this sounds like contempt for the average reader, it is only to say that because the object of our revelation is so subtle it appears to be unreal and even ridiculous to the unsuspecting John Q. Public. We hurriedly inject that it is this subtle nature that has caused the malignant growth of the most gigantic fraud the world has ever endured. Then too, if our theme is not repeated over and over again it cannot in any way overcome years of propaganda which has instilled into the American people a conditioned response when approached with information not in harmony with their limited credibility- a response that blots out all attempts to pierce the set notions of what is or is not the truth concerning the chaotic world we live in. Even some of the ones who claim that they believe what is here set out almost in the same breath declare the exact opposite by their words and deeds as if they had never been exposed to the facts at all.

Not being able to grasp the new concept which is the most Satanic ever used to destroy a nation and which defies all deceit as the biggest lie in the name of truth of every age, they tenaciously (even if completely honest) hold on to what has already made an indelible impression upon their minds. For example the facts contend that so-called Communism is only an instrument of British Israel, that it is fed and bred as a coercive force to channel the people in the desired direction. To use the language of British Israel, "Russia is God's battle ax to hammer (hammer and sickle) in the kingdom of God on earth." The nature of this decoy of so-called Communism, which is being used by the British Empire to destroy national states and leaving them in absolute control of the world, precludes even honest people with their one track minds or mundane mentalities from reverting inevitably back to an "anti-Communist" stance as if this sham fiction is a physical law of the universe. They cannot see this Communist versus anti-Communist hoax as a visible and physical agent provocateur of a much greater invisible power. Not understanding this, the masses of Americans who are alerted to the chaos in today's world naturally attack the obvious straw man, not realizing or believing that all their efforts toward or against the so-called Communist conspiracy with its attendant evils including the Negro revolution, only adds to the deception by leading others to believe that the ills of the world are caused by Russian Communism when they are not. Let us add that any interpretation that the writer is pro-Communist is asinine. Our purpose is to show the true nature of Communism.

Social customs, as Americans have been "educated" to understand it, is a social and political phenomenon dedicated to an enforced world slave state. But Communism has a dual nature as we shall show. It has its left wing so-called atheistic God hating side and it has its right wing so-called Fundamental Christianity side. We propose to prove in this text that any true understanding of Communism must include not only the social-political but also the religio-political. Reduced for clarity, there is a Social Communism and there is a Spiritual Communism, and when the proper analogy is shown they are one force. Americans are unaware of the existence of this spiritual or "Christian" Communism and that it is the invisible and permanent phase of world revolution. This spiritual or right wing Communism, or "Christian" Communism, will be shown as we go on in terms of Judeo-Christianity, Fundamental Christianity, World Brotherhood, Millennialism, Zionism and other terms which require for their existence what they term a paradise earth with a political theocracy and a natural messiah. Therefore "Christianity" is political Zionism as expressed by so-called conservatism hence our term "Christian" Communism when referring to the "anti-Communist patriots."

We are primarily concerned with right wing or

"Christian" Communism in this text because of its power and deception to beguile Americans into self destruction totally within and under the guise of true Christianity. We use quotation marks around the word Christian and many other words and phrases to convey to the reader that said word or phrase has been perverted from its original and true meaning, to mean the very opposite. For example, Christian Communism is an inherent contradiction but "Christian" Communism is not and applies to the fakery of the conservative movement in America. How then, can "Christianity" be Communism? "Christianity" or "Fundamental Christianity" is promoting a world wide millennial government of Christ. Since this idea is opposite to Christ, Who said my kingdom is not of this world, then "Fundamental Christianity" is a political religion designed to deceive Americans into world government at the expense of the national sovereignty of the United States. Communism is a world state, "Fundamental Christianity" is a world state, therefore our term "Christian" Communism. Of course the term Christian Communism without the quotes is self contradictory, but no less so than the millions of Americans who are under the spell of false patriotism.

For the first time in the history of the world has an empire of men sought to make itself God. The British Empire has successfully acquired the world, which it runs via Masonry and Rhodes Scholars. At one and the same time, it has completely hidden this power behind the materialistic Jew's religion under the false notion of Christianity and God's kingdom on earth. Through the use of religious deception which we refer to herein as spiritual power, the British Empire holds in bondage men's souls the world over. They have harnessed their mad drive to dominate the world to the Jew's religion of an earthly kingdom and a natural Messiah. Therefore their World Empire is consolidating itself upon a World Government religion which compels allegiance from the heart, shutting out faith in the only true God -- Jesus Christ.

Russian Communism is specifically a visible revolutionary force of a greater and more sinister invisible spiritual revolutionary force, namely British Israel and the British Empire. Our contention as the facts will show, that to fight Communism the agent instead of British Imperialism the master, is an exercise in futility and needless to say, "it was planned that way." Since Russian Communism is only a decoy for treason in temporary use, a few finally come to see that anti-Communism, which is also a decoy for treason, promotes the same goals of Communists simply by being hoodwinked into the mythical fraud. It causes honest people, by their zealousness, to center their attention on Russian Communism instead of on British Imperialism, which is the source and foundation of Communism, both political and spiritual. Therefore we cannot kill the supposed monster by continuing to revive it. We cannot condemn it and yet embrace it. We must understand it, for we cannot destroy with one hand what the other hand continues to build. So goes the Communist versus anti-Communist hoax.

We are concerned that Americans be alerted to the dominion over their minds which has been brought about under the auspices of the gospel of Jesus Christ, but which is in reality a crude barbarism. So uniform and irresistible is this force that its victims promote its success and obey all its commands to their uttermost ruination.

Why should it be unthinkable that in a space age technology, that mind control propaganda is also a technological advancement? The control of whole populations through propaganda is a present reality and the extent of this control has no relationship to the formal education of the people. Most Americans will laugh you down if you attempt to explain how they are controlled, and to suggest that they are controlled through their churches is the most fantastic thing they could imagine and the last thing most of them would ever believe. What we advise here is that the churches have been slowly saturated with anti-Christian doctrines which are in effect leading the people away from the historic Christian faith without their being aware. Could Satan find a better place than within the churches to instill his heresies? People sort of think of their churches as untouchable and incorruptible ivory towers where evil fears to enter. Evil has entered.

Further, Communism and Socialism, as social and political ideals, are relics of past idealists and their greater value is that of a vehicle to expansion of the British Empire. The other side of this coin, and we hasten to add by far the most deceptive, is the instrument of British Israel which most accurately named is called political Messianism. Political Messianism is supposedly opposed to Marxian Communism. Parenthetically Communism appears as left wing and its fake opposite comes to us as political Messianism or right wing. An analogy of the ingredients of the two and their purpose will show them to be identical, though they appear opposite, and working as a pincers movement toward a synthesis of complete and universal control of the world by the British Empire.

The scheme of British Israel is not a ludicrous speculation. It is not child's play and it is not just another road to world government. It is THE road to world government, and the most Satanic betrayal of humanity to come upon the face of the earth. The result of this madness is incredible mind control with almost no probabilities of escape.

The networks of varied revolutionary forces are working toward a perfect fusion under the carefully guided plan of British Israel. The total effort is to cause universal mind control through confusion. The people of the world are not supposed to know that world government is to come through a false Christianity. We say it is false but it appears in almost every respect to be the true faith. British Israel "Christianity" is promoted with the rationale and semantics of true Christianity on one hand and the rationale and semantics of Americanism and Conservatism on the other. It applies Christianity to its national religion. British Israel is Spiritual Communism. If is treason.

One of the key methods of concealing the source of British Israel is the raising of many false issues and counter issues and getting the people involved in effect rather than cause. Millions of printed words are put out attacking this or that as un-American or blaming revolution on Russian Communism. All this "educates" the people to an incredible ignorance concerning the cause and ultimate objective of international strife.

Non profit Christian fronts are promoting false world evangelism at the expense of the American people. The word is constantly that we must accept "Christ or Communism." The Christ of the Christian fronts is of course a political Christ, a worldly Christ and a natural Messiah.

First class mail from these non profit Christian fronts goes from coast to coast for one cent while private mail costs six cents at the present rate.

Right Wing Communism has much to say about the coming of the "Anti-Christ" and the end of the age. According to the plan of British Israel there is to be a Christ and an Antichrist. When we come to understand their spiritual deception, we immediately know that the Christ of the Christian fronts is only another anti-Christ. Historic and orthodox Christianity does not interpret the Bible to instruct that there is to be a Christ versus anti-Christ end of the age showdown in any political or military confrontation. This Christ versus anti-Christ" and "The Battle of Armageddon" is a notion derived from Jewish perversions of Holy Writ, and teaches a completely erroneous Christianity.

A very important consideration in the study of British Israel propaganda is symbolism. The Cross of Christ in one form or another is the main symbol for the world crusade to bring in a new order of "Christianity." Through the ages deceptive appeals have quickly grasped and utilized ancient Christian symbols to gain a closer identity to the true faith. One of the symbols which are used most frequently is the symbol of the fish Go to next chapter will support that the Machiavellian intrigue of the British Empire and their international finance has inaugurated every major war in modern history. Contrary to popular belief the British Empire is not defunct. It is not as they have made Americans believe, a diseased body bound to oblivion. This is a fiction and deception unparalleled in the annals of modern propaganda. The fact is that the character of the British Empire is different from any of the great empires that have preceded it, and that because of this nature it must dominate to survive. Just the visible part of the British Empire consists of rulership of over five hundred million people, over one fourth of the land surface of the world, and the suzerainty of five seas. Then the British Empire owns or controls other vast areas of the world by the control of vital port cities. The massive might of Red China that we hear so much about is a mere possession of the British Empire, which has a noose around the throat of China through the control of Hong Kong. China, like any other nation, would die without commerce and this lifeline is through Hong Kong controlled by the British Empire.

In placing the blame of this one world super-state plot upon the British Empire, the fact of history

Few Americans believe or understand the immensity of the British Empire. It is not confined to the little island of England and Scotland, but was around 17,000,000 square miles before World War II; an area six times greater than the United States. This vast Empire since has acquired the colonial areas of Germany and Italy. The hypocrisy of the British is enough to make any American sick. While they keep over 500,000,000 colored subjects in absolute control and subjection they support the Negro revolution in the United States. Why, you ask? To destroy this nation and subject it to the humiliating status of a crown colony.

The policy of the British Empire is to establish naval bases around the world to control the sea and commerce lanes, so as to blockade and starve into submission any nation or group of nations which oppose the Empire. Of major importance and a must for the success of the scheme is the reacquisition of a lost possession — the United States of America.

The British are masters at creating disturbances against themselves (such as Communism, always under full control) to keep the world from the truth. The most recent example of this hide and seek is the Rhodesian affair. Of course the deluded rank and file right wingers in this country took up the echo.

The Empire has floated the world in blood to gain its goal of world control and it may shock many to know that the vast wealth of American business, including the tax-free foundations , has helped realize the dreams of Cecil Rhodes and Andrew Carnegie to control the world for the British Empire. with the control of the United States economy via the Federal Reserve System and the infiltration of British spies under the pseudonym of Rhodes Scholars, the Empire has used American boys to fight its wars and police the world and it has had no difficulty in guiding our foreign policy for the last seventy years. Every excuse for the sell out is a part of a general scheme to create confusion and contradiction in the minds of the people, and to avoid disclosure of the British Empire intrigue to use its control of international finance to attain its planned objective of world domination.

As remote as it might seem to unthinking observers, the chicanery and deceit of power politics extends its control over Russia, using it as a base and decoy to serve world revolution. It is common knowledge that the Russian takeover could not have happened without the millions of the financial oligarchy of international finance. And if these Investors of Satan bought the Russian takeover, who have they since sold it to? The truth is that they have not sold it and do not intend to let anyone take it away. It is a very useful investment as a base of operations for world intrigue. We are always terrorized with the bugaboo Russian Communism. Witness the non-interference of Russia in the recent Arab-Israeli sham. The British, who control Israel, had a propaganda timetable to fulfill so they created the war and made it very successful in order to fit the scheme of British Israel political Messianism.

Why did not powerful Russia intervene directly? The only answer is that they were not allowed to by the British Empire. Now in a reverse situation the British Empire turned the Red Chinese loose on American boys in Korea after they (the reds) had been defiantly beaten. The British Empire has had secret control of China for over a hundred years and they keep that control by utilizing controlled revolutionists against their own secret government

As we pursue this discourse it is necessary, if we are to understand the real enemy of this Republic, to see the concealed dual nature of the British government. This dual and doubleheader Dr. Jekyll and Mr. Hyde structure of government, known to Americans simply as the British government, hides the answers as to why the turbulent world today and the dim outlook to the future. The fact that American school textbooks and works of popular reference, and the books of thousands of pseudo history experts have woven a fabric of deceit and created popular acceptance of an illusion and a fallacy by the cumulative force of constant repetition, does not change the facts one iota. There is a distinction between the government of Great Britain, which is largely confined to the internal government of the British Isles, and the British government which controls the British Empire.

To those who are bewildered by the turn of events in this country and the world, an explanation that it is just a Communist plot, will not stand up. We must explore further if we are to survive.

If this attempt pierces the armor of British Israel propaganda given to us as Communism and anti-Communism and "prophecy," then it will be because there are a few Christian Americans left who can see with the heart as well as with the eye. Christians know that their personal salvation is through the sovereign grace of our Lord Jesus Christ and that now is the day of salvation and there is no other. The salvation of degenerate man in this life is the grace of God through Christ. This at once eliminates all Arian heresies of racial and national salvation and the hoax of divine national origin. There are no physical and material blessings promised us in the gospel of Christ. If there are, all rich men are Christians and all poor men are lost. In this last and final age the gospel of the kingdom, or gospel of grace, applies to regenerate spiritual Israel and not degenerate physical Israel, under whatever name. The Israel of God coming from the Heavenly city of Jerusalem which is above, is all those born again Christians from all nations of the earth and is not the "Jews" (those who say they are the Jews) and Anglo Saxondom. The sovereign Lord Jesus has established His sovereign and complete reign in the hearts of believers of His gospel. The kingdom of God on earth is the gospel of salvation and is extended through the grace of Christ. The kingdom of grace has filled the whole earth of every nation and every tongue. (Col. 1:23). The peculiar people and the Holy nation of God are the elect, according to grace, from all nations and races and not limited to any one nation or group of nations, or one race.

If Americans are content with the deteriorating condition of our beloved country, then, they will deserve their fate which will be subjection and humiliation far exceeding anything our forefathers knew as a colony of the British Empire. We must take our country back today. We must breach the veil of propaganda and expose the plot to our fellow Americans no matter how unpleasant or unpopular it might be. Remember, it is no more promising today than it was when a handful of early American patriots declared independence the first time, and shed their blood for it and us.

This writing will not be a profit item to the Right Wing and their Christian fronts. It will be either loved or hated. It is not intended to further the deception of honest Americans, but to deliver them from it. It proposes to rise above the confusion and propaganda of pretended patriotism and bring before the reader the real issue in world conflict. This issue is whether or not Christ's kingdom is of this world. Those who believe that Christ's kingdom is an earthly hope in this age or any future age are herein designated to Judaic Zionism regardless their acclaims of Christianity or the Christian name they assume. Over against this are those Christians today and throughout the centuries who have seen the Cross as the final act of God to redeem humanity. These are they who shun the pseudo Christians when they mix of spirit of God with the political governments of this world.

World revolution moves above the mentality of the man on the street. So far removed is the cause of revolution from the present chaos and confusion that any suggestion that that British Empire is the "nigger in the wood pile" is laughable even to most intelligent people. Of course this state of mental incredibility is no accident. All available evidence point students of world unrest in the opposite direction from the point of origin. In the front rank of social and political strife are the vague "Communists" who are sometimes Negroes and sometimes agent provocateurs. Behind them and not so visible is the court system on whose benches sit Masonic judges who day after day give socialistic and permissive interpretation which continues the aggravated situation toward social and political breakdown. In the government are even less visible Rhodes Scholars and Masons who turn every action against the American people, all in the name of human liberty. Then in the background and almost imperceptible to the majority of the people, is British Israel power politics and propaganda. Even most of the people who believe in the coming of a worldwide kingdom of God refuse to believe that this is a ruse to cover the domination of the world by the British Empire. The British Empire has simply cloaked itself in the Jew's religion of an earthly kingdom and named itself the Kingdom of God on earth. And all the church talk about Christ returning to set up His millennial reign compounds this deceit. What better way is there to build a world empire than through a world government religion? People will fight Holy Wars in defense of their earthly kingdom religion and bleed white without knowing they serve the cause of British Imperialism. Holy Wars and Crusades of history have been fought in the name of God and with the excuse that it is divine will. That God intervenes in behalf of His people, has been used to lead men to slaughter for hundreds of years. Today, events have moved the American people to such a state of confusion that they have grown cynical and desperate, while the kingdom cults and evangelists shout that divine intervention is imminent and the world kingdom of peace for a thousand years is about to begin. All is only another Christian pretense to hide the biggest international crime in history.

Americans who believe that Christ's kingdom is of this world are ushering in world government. They have a sickness called Communism of the heart or spiritual Communism. Spiritual Communism is a political religion. It is a religion dedicated to a world government kingdom in which national states vanish under the central authority of the political theocracy. This is the plot and behind the Jewish kingdom religion is the Jewish State, which is the British Empire.

The sacrifice of truth is a science peculiar to revolution which is in essence, the very perversion of truth. Revolution has repeatedly disguised itself in the cloak of Christianity in order to pervert the mind and enslave the body of mankind. Therefore it is the duty of all Christians to expose the abominable lies on which all movements pretending to be Christian Conservatism are founded and follow the example of our Lord Who denounced evil under whatever wrap it appeared. Left Wing activity is obvious, even to the vain, so our main concern is to reveal the anti-Christian and subversive efforts of the Christian fronts because their part in the American revolution is not suspected nor understood. We call them Christian fronts because they present themselves as Christian to disguise themselves and their revolutionary activity. If we would know the truth about the leaders and direction and about the nature and essence of the Right Wing or "patriotic movement," we should as upright men and Christian Americans, investigate the religious and unethical principles of the Luciferians who are providing the leadership for us to follow. In the name of Jesus Christ and the Christian faith we are duty bound to look beneath their expressions and beyond their external forms and penetrate the veils which they have thrown around themselves and their followers. We dare not continue to follow them into hell simply because they express themselves in terms of Christian ideas and thoughts and give their activities a Christian coloring, the more effectively to deceive, mislead and hoodwink us into active participation of our own destruction. Satan has appeared as the angel of light.

So-called Christian Conservatism identifies the work of all the organized anti-Communist groups in America and like their mythical enemy Communism, conceals within itself a false messianic idea. It is only for Christians to recognize that it, like Communism, is rotten fruit from the same corrupt tree. Communism is world Socialism and World Government say the "patriots," and we agree, but anti-Communism in its many forms says the same thing under a different name. That name is world government alias the kingdom of God on earth. Which is more deceptive? The anti-Communist patriots condemn while embracing and only a deceived person cannot recognize the inconsistency.

The parable of the story of Communism versus anti-Communism is the same as Dr. Jekyll and Mr. Hyde. Only the do-gooders do not recognize it is the same man.

We know the "patriots" will disagree, saying that they are not for world government in any form but they do not know where their leaders seek to lead them.

They should realize that after the months and years of crusading against Communism that the United States is worse off than ever, and there is more confusion than ever. One should logically realize that anti-communism and pro-communism is a myth and participation from either side perpetuates a fraud against America by keeping the truth from the people. The "patriots" are stabbing this nation to death in the name of Christianity and Americanism. We shall try to explain.

The British Empire, unlike any aspirant to world domination heretofore, has foregone its external vanity in order to accomplish its purpose. It has hauled down the Union Jack time and time again in order to impress upon the world the idea of a dead Empire. It has subjected and exploited its own people, extracting their consent based upon the fiction that austerity means survival be it ever so rigid. They have devaluated the pound and inflated (devaluated) the dollar, but only to contain the people in economic bondage, while the Empire uses another system of international finance to dominate and manipulate the world. Money is for the exploitation of the dumb people. It has no effect upon the people who print it, or else they would hold the value up. Instead they are preparing the people for the final removal of their only individual means of independence and accumulation of wealth. The purpose of the many books on the "money conspiracy" is to destroy money and not to conserve it. When money is gone it will then be credit which one cannot hoard or save. Then the economics of Karl Marx has been accomplished in the name of Conservatism and the Constitution. It will then be production for use and not for profit — hence every man a slave. The destruction of our money is justified with the twisting of Biblical language, such as the economics of this "Gentile System" or "Babylonian System" must be destroyed by God to make ready for the New Age wherein there is no greed or selfishness because of the "love of money." With the removal of this "evil," all then can be brotherhood. They condemn the use of gold while they use it themselves to subject the people and consolidate their power of the One World Superstate British Empire in the name of Christ, and ironically enough with the use of the Cross and the Christian Flag the people are led to believe that Heaven will come down to earth and we will have the kingdom of God on earth millennium.

The British Empire is a vampire of jackals who have used Machiavellian intrigue to conceal their identity and by perverting Scripture from grace to race they have sought to replace confidence in the spirit of Christ for confidence in the flesh, and upon this basis have led men to believe that the kingdom of God is carnal and temporal. It is with the revival of this ancient Pharisaism, popularized and evangelized worldwide, which is used to manipulate history and nations in the name of Christ. The plot is to destroy political nationalism and totally integrate the nations into an organic unity. This process is attained and held through the SPIRITUAL. In this instance we mean spiritual darkness. The substitution of flesh for spirit or the kingdoms of this world for the kingdom of God is spiritual darkness and certain bondage to those who believe it. And the Pharisees said to Christ, "We be Abraham's seed, and were never in bondage to any man." Christ spoke of their spiritual bondage and they thought He spoke of chains. Bondage of the spirit renders unnecessary bondage with chains, and it is out of this truth which determines if man is divided against himself. And it is with this principle that the world is being put into chains politically. It must first be evangelized against itself then it will not rebel from that which it believes, nor indeed can it. After this SPIRITUAL UNITY is accomplished, the organic unity is sure to follow. In this is the power of British Israel and it does not even fly the Union Jack nor need it ever, lest it be overcome with the containment of its vanity and glory. Nations of the world need not apparently give up their sovereignty, their flag and their false security for this is like a child with his toys surrounded by a fence. For though a nation may have its government, its flag and its Constitution (as the patriots fight for), it is its spirit, the beliefs of the people, that determines its freedom. It is upon this plane that we have become justly called the bondage of the free. It is spiritual darkness which causes us to do evil thinking that we do good. It is spiritual bondage which causes us to become victims of our own frustrations when we condemn evil under one name and promote it under another. It is spiritual bondage which causes us to fight against ourselves and stir up revolution based on shams, for the main ally of British Israel is the blindness of those on whom it feeds.

If spiritual unity or the world is attained, physical unity is a certainty and individual sovereignties, such as the United States once was, only become a link in the chain that binds them. A house divided against itself cannot stand and no matter what kind of convulsions it goes into to save itself, it only adds to the dilemma of its disease. Go to next chapter.

If the spirit of the citizens of a nation is in truth, the good health of the body politic is a natural consequence and no physical power on earth can destroy it.

The central theme of capturing the world through British Israel (spiritual) is to dominate with the CONSENT of the subjects. This is unlike any world empire before that has held its power with a superior military machine against the will of the people. World evangelism with British Israel is bringing about just such a colossus through SPIRITUAL UNITY.

And what is Spiritual unity? Spiritual unity is a belief or beliefs held in common. For example, the people who make up the Methodist Church have certain spiritual unity, in that they believe alike. Likewise the people of the Catholic Church or any other church have spiritual unity or beliefs in common. When we speak of spiritual unity this could mean united in truth or united in error, and it is the latter which applies to the fake Christianity which covers the deceit of the Right Wing. It is the work of British Israel to carry spiritual unity across denominational lines and establishes in each church wherever possible, the common belief or common Bible interpretation that Jesus Christ will unify the world in peace under His personal rule. Of course when they say that Christ will personally put down all rebellion and establish world government, they mean in a material and political sense. Therefore this materialism is just as Communist as that of Karl Marx. Because one thinks that a materialistic and earthly kingdom interpretation of the Bible is Christianity does not make it so, but it does put him in spiritual unity with the Communists whom he wishes to oppose. Hence he is himself a spiritual Communist because his faith in a world government on this earth will lead to the same inhuman slavery as Russian Communism. We say then that the building up of Spiritual Communism (carnal or materialistic Christianity) within the church and in the form of Christianity is the plot planned from the start to finally overcome Russian Communism and establish in its place a Christian Communism or Spiritual Communism. But as long as the world is in the conflict stage of world revolution, Russian Communism must be made to appear the mortal enemy to "Fundamental Christianity," or as we have termed it, Spiritual Communism. The "Christian" or Spiritual Communist and their Right Wing patriotism and conservatism will win over imported Russian Communism, but it will be done in the name of Christianity. It will be made to appear that world government came in through the victory of Christianity over evil Communism. What could be more deceptive than to use Christianity to establish a world Communist state? It is so, and it is being done with this materialistic, futuristic interpretation of the Bible. The scheme is to get this earthly kingdom belief into every church so that spiritual unity can be established upon the belief that world government is to come and that it is to be Divine.

Now it is impossible to understand Spiritual Communism by looking at Marxism or at Russia. The idea of spiritual unity as an instrument of power politics is a gradual Biblical re-educational process leading people away from their national identity and merging them into a world government through religion. The British Empire could not be successful with their world grab unless they could be removed from the blame that would be sure to come if they operated in their own name. This they have done by operating in the name of Christianity. World government under the Empire would be opposed but world government of Christ would not. Therefore spiritual unity is established at that point where we desire a material world government (supposedly of Christ) to replace the Constitution of the United States. Is it not easy to see how sedition can be worked through religion without so much as a fraction of 200 million people ever suspecting it?

The effort to get people into this common belief or spiritual unity of the coming world kingdom is the most determined and organized deceit that has ever been. It would be infantile to attempt to prove this truism when it is the most obvious thing in the world. Every significant endeavor of patriotism or Christianity carries this kingdom message. Every patriotic group in America is promoting deceit when they attempt to teach that Russian Communism is the real Communism. Russian Communism is bad enough but it pales into insignificance when almost every church in America is teaching their people spiritual Communism under cover of Christianity.

Spiritual Communism cannot be fought with foreign aid and foreign wars for it is of the heart. Spiritual Communism cannot be attacked by super weapons of war nor is it attacked by the fictitious anti-Communists, for it is their belief and their faith. World government will not be established by Russian Communists but it may be brought about through spiritual unity in the form of Christianity. This is a plan well designed to use America for its own destruction, but it need not succeed if we can be alerted to the propaganda of the kingdom message

The established conflict of "Christian Communism" versus Russian Communism and appropriating the outcome to Divine Will is the confusion of British Israel. The question of Divine Will intervening to establish a socialistic kingdom of God on earth is blasphemy to the Christian faith. Jesus Christ is not the God of this world and His kingdom is not a kingdom of this world.

This is indeed conquest with consent. It is Satanic. It is invisible. It is indefensible with military force. It is all powerful. It is a world super state in complete control of mind and body.

If the people know the truth in Christ they can use their would-be chains to beat off the synagogue of Satan who would imprison the world by twisting the Scriptures to fit a scheme of political messianism alias world government in the name of Christ.

Our patriots are fighting Communism in every strata of our society, only to be infected with the same disease in our churches under the pseudonym of the kingdom of God on earth. They are overjoyed and docile as a lamb as they are given wholesale doses of this same ideology which they believe they fight. They are victims of a scheme of predictive prophecy and political messianism which is not in the Bible at all. It has never been the purpose of God to glorify the body but to redeem man from his sin.

If the citizens of this nation can be motivated by British Israel to give up their freedom and their country, they have become aliens in their own land while spending billions for defense. British Israel is brainwashing the people to believe that the chaos in the world is foretold in the Bible, and further that a New World under God's Law is coming after this one is destroyed, and that this world government is to be directed by Christ himself. Students of the Bible should recognize that this is only the extension of the hopes of the Pharisees who killed Christ because He refused to satisfy their demands for a worldly glory. So they seek to demote Christ from His throne in Heaven and dishonor Him with a filthy throne in Jerusalem in contradiction to His statement that "My kingdom is not of this world." John 18:36. On this perversion billions are being spent and many are being deceived while the prophets of Baal work overtime to make the people believe that God is intervening in history to establish world government and to oppose it is to dishonor God. The world is literally being put through the fires of revolution so that the people will work toward the establishment of this spiritual world super-state in the name of Christ and at the expense of their own freedom. If we fall for this deceit we are no better off than the people in India who starve while they worship a cow.

While we brandish the most sophisticated weapons in history we are not even master in our own house. These very weapons with the blood of American soldiers are being used to bolster the ramparts of the only real enemy the United States ever had; the British Empire. We are using our substance to set the stage for World War III, which event is to fulfill the perverted prophecies of British Israel and solidify the new British World. While Americans are taxed to death to support this military machine, they are bombarded with British Israel propaganda which is more powerful than the H bomb. When one commits suicide he at least knows his fate. Americans are adding insult to injury not being content with just suicide. They are digging their own grave. Only a victim of deceit could destroy himself with such deliberateness. This indeed is the chicanery of British Israel, and it is given to us through our churches and great evangelistic movements In the name of Christianity. When unveiled it is nothing more than political intrigue to capture this nation by fast capturing its spirit. Laid bare it is Pharisaism clothed in Christian terminology, built on a system of Bible interpretation which is designed to cause the people to give up their country, thinking they will inherit the earth in a glorified theocratic world state called the kingdom of God on earth.

Against this heresy there is no military defense but the success of it is a guarantee to the victors beyond any of the wildest imaginations of past dictators. The difference is in conquest by consent.

The attack is two-pronged as a pincers movement, in the form of the political on the one hand and the religious or spiritual on the other. The purpose of the political is to create confusion, war and general chaos and it is the purpose of the religious to explain it all in Biblical terminology, thereby giving justification to the plan of British Israel. When man needs justification for what he does not understand he will generally accept any scheme of Biblical interpretation.

It is from this viewpoint that we are both captive and captors of our own debauchery for we are not political or military prisoners of war. We are ecclesiastical victims which causes us to perpetuate the disease that has made us sick. We keep those in public office because they utter for God and country, no matter how they conduct themselves or what kind of life they live. We are ecclesiastical prisoners of British Israel and the undefended subjects of the Empire, which is thought to be defunct. We are subdued to an ideology from which we do not conspire against. That power which holds us need not govern us or fear us as the people of this nation are ruled by a principle (spiritual deception) which the human mind cannot fathom. People think in terms of military power and massive forces, not understanding that a tiny island can control the world for a thousand years through spiritual deception. China and India are controlled with this weapon of spiritual darkness. All developments are calculated to drive men into this spiritual trap from which they cannot escape. This is a concept which defies military strategy by decreasing the physical object of attack while it increases its spiritual power. Like LSD it paralyzes the senses to all true perspective and encounters no obstacles neutralizing its adversaries. This is the enigma of British Israel and by nature it must not be a visible physical power which can be attacked by men and machines. For those who consider that the British Empire is dead, they should take another look at its dual nature.

What force pays the bill for this country and the world to be soaked twenty-four hours a day with this peculiar kingdom of God on earth British Anglo-Israel theology? The British Empire has been made to appear dead physically while it extends its power spiritually through American churches and mammoth evangelistic movements. Unless we grasp this concept of war we cannot begin to undo the havoc before our eyes which the patriots believe to be Russian Communism. Communism is simply a hammer to drive us into this SPIRITUAL trap. If the Empire is gone, whence comes this blanket of political theology which exalts Britain as the "Covenant" nation prophesied to rule by 'Divine Right' and "Divine Might"? The measure of this deception is seen in how the people are beguiled into helping finance this hoax to their own enslavement.

The prophets of British Israel promise us no peace without world government and they have a plan to make us beg for "salvation." We shall be more enslaved than the Egyptians, more oppressed than the Chinese, our unity more shattered than Germany's, our independence crushed, our property despoiled, our people lacerated and overrun. We shall be made to bear every sort of desolation in the name of the "Beast" and "False Prophet" (see section on the Catholic Church) and then we shall be "redeemed" by British Israel for Britain and her dominions are ordained of God to rule the earth under Christ "for the good of the world" for a thousand years -- so says British Israel and death to Americans if they believe it. If a people suffer enough hardship they will jump at any opportunity to extricate themselves from their misery, especially if they have been prepared for years to believe that it is the Divine Plan of the Ages.

If our credibility will permit we shall show that the real power of the British Empire is to be found underneath its cloak of "Fundamental Christianity" and World Evangelism. It is not necessary and indeed an illusion that the political and military power of a nation exists in terms of military might. Mind control propaganda is far more powerful and it is self-perpetuating upon a tax exempt status and non profit church and evangelistic organizations who operate "constitutionally" under the guise of freedom of religion. The criterion for measuring myth and counter-myth, such as Rhodesia versus the British Empire, is not upon racial, social, economical, or military considerations per se, but upon the motivating spirit of the alleged adversaries. Has Rhodesia stopped the kingdom message propaganda from being broadcast within her borders? Not at all. Then the people of Rhodesia and the world are being manipulated on fictitious pretensions or a created crisis. The overshadowing power of any international juggling of nations is the constant bombardment of the kingdom message.

To recognize power it must be understood in all of its manifestations and ramifications. Complete power opposes itself even to humiliation in the eyes of its subjects, so that it emerges from this camouflage to the apex of absolute domination. The Union Jack is in suspense until it can be raised in complete power.

We insist that the reader test our revelations here given and prove it or disprove it according to the reality of the situation in America today as well as according to Bible truth.

In order for this subject to convince the reader of its validity he must do that thing which is the farthest from his thinking. He must investigate the teachings in his own church and/or conservative appeal which seem to him to be truth. If he discovers in the "church of his choice" a teaching that God the Father, God the Son, and God the Holy Spirit can be found outside of Divine Revelation, and in the speculation of men, then he has become infected with the pantheistic teaching of the worldly church. And furthermore if he is being taught a political theology that promises universal salvation and brotherhood in a unified material world state, he will find this antithetical to the teaching of Jesus Christ, to the Roman Catholic Church, and to the Protestant Reformers. There is no salvation to be in a restored earth. It must be through the grace of Christ or not at all.

POLITICAL MESSIANISM AND THE RIGHT WING

Undermining America with Americanism

Advertising and magnifying revolution promotes it from any viewpoint either Communist or anti-Communist. For it is a single monster with two heads. It is the principle of dualism which is the combat of two apparently opposing ideologies; the end result being essentially that which is presumed to be opposed. Now any effort which exposes Communism as opposed to anti-Communism promotes it under the guise of exposing it. The conflict is necessary to carry on revolution just as two opposing teams are necessary to a football game and if this be true then the right wing is subversive as well as the left and even more deceptive because it, (the right wing) operates behind a Christian front. So it is to be exposed as one movement to establish world government after it has successfully destroyed national states. This so-called conflict of ideologies (communism versus capitalism) is the revolutionary force that destroys national states in preparation for world government.

Careful analysis of the front runners of the presumed opposition will reveal that their ideology is the same but is simply fed under different names. They carry on the stage play to keep the crisis boiling and growing which results NOT in the restitution of the "Constitutional Republic" but the complete destruction of it. Our participation in it magnifies it in direct proportion regardless of our good intentions. The solution is to demonstrate that all forces are manifestations of the same movement and the plot is to destroy that which they claim to defend. Confusion which is shown produces results that do not appear but promotes a more subtle conspiracy. We keep looking at the obvious produced only for the vain which is not the substance of revolution but only the shadow or decoy of it.

If it appears from time to time that in this text the spiritual is co-mingled or confused g with the political, the explanation is that to any Christian the spiritual is the brighter light which will unveil and expose the political conspiracy which is posing and presenting itself as spiritual Christianity. The very immunity which the political conspiracy enjoys is maintained only because they have identified with Christianity. So the gospel of Christ gives us the power to recognize the tares who have no part in the kingdom of God but only claim to.

Briefly stated British Israel or political Messianism is synonymously used with the "Kingdom Message" which proclaims the coming kingdom of God on earth many times called the millennium. In decoded political jargon this means that when the British Empire has complete control of the world there will be enforced peace for a thousand years. According to Cecil Rhodes it is to be a world ruled by a benevolent despotic intelligentsia, and so to create "peace for all eternity." This enforced peace means first the destruction of the United States as a nation and second it means the exploitation of the conquered world for the good of the British Empire. The Empire builder Cecil Rhodes left particular provisions in his will designed to bring the United States among countries "possessed by Great Britain." In support of this plan we notice the technique of modern Machiavellians in having their own stalking horses grasp the leadership of their real opponents, and then as their own veiled and hidden action is gradually unfolded, have their Pied Pipers oppose them on spurious and superficial pretexts in such a way as to obscure and conceal as far as possible the real reasons and objectives, thereby confusing and confounding the real opponents and leading them into a swamp of futility. Everybody remembers Alger Hiss, a Rhodes Scholar, and his defender Dean Acheson, an Anglophile and John Foster Dulles, another Rhodes Scholar. Today we have blood letting in Vietnam and elsewhere around the world due to the U. S. Foreign Policy headed by Dean Rusk, another Rhodes Scholar. The Commander of U.S. Forces in Vietnam is an agent of the British Empire-alias Rhodes Scholar--namely General Westmoreland.

The operation of British Israel through the spiritual is their real power. It is their veil concealing their dual and political nature and consequent objectives. Their proclamation of a flesh and blood kingdom of God on earth is a heresy and a revival of ancient Pharisaism. This paganism of antiquity is being used in a tremendous effort to initiate the human race into the pure Luciferian doctrine. It is a direct contradiction to orthodox historic Christian faith which teaches that the gospel of Christ is the true kingdom and entrance is gained by grace through faith in Jesus Christ.

To suspect the presence of political Messianism as an ideal of a sect is one thing but to see it develop into a universal presumption of Christianity is to witness a grotesque seditious monster which moves over America with respectability and with the silent consent of the United States Government.

The climate for revolution is set between the savage hands of anarchy who dutifully violate, plunder and murder and are without mercy or decency and the fake conservatives who say the solution to the whole thing is to be a happy Golden Age, when all things are common to all men, and men live in a paradise earth with neither property nor want, and all have equal rights and equal abundance. Abolish the greedy materialism of private property and replace it with a worldwide materialism where we can share the world in community. This is the religion of the right wing and it means darkness, desolation and death to America ending in human misery and oppression under the hoax of a Millennial Christian World Government. This is sedition and subversion which is "untouchable" because it operates within the limits of "freedom of religion." The spirit of World Government is being formed before the political reality becomes visible. This is false patriotism and Americanism using the law of the land to destroy America. The right wing and its "Fundamental Christianity" promotes a seditious world government religion which should be stamped out by laws of the land pertaining to the protection of the United States from her enemies both foreign and domestic.

The real purpose of British Israelism or Anglo-Israelism as proclaimed in the Kingdom Message is least what they most say and most what they least say. It is a religio-political conspiracy to set up world government under the British Empire by calling it the Kingdom of God on earth. British-Anglo-Israelism holds that the Anglo Saxons or the White Adamic Race is chosen of God and that they are modern Israel. They claim that Britain possesses the Throne of David now occupied by Queen Elizabeth and that Christ will soon come back to earth to reign for a thousand years. The British Empire claims it is made up of the Covenant Nations and that it shall rule the world by divine right and divine might. In other words the United States must merge into a more noble New Order of the Ages to "serve humanity" under the domination of the British Empire. This is only an enlargement of the theme that the so-called Jews of Palestine are chosen of God and are flesh and blood descendants of Abraham and are destiny bound to rule the world in an earthly glory. Must we fall for this deception simply because it is called the Kingdom of God on earth instead of what it is -- namely British Israel propaganda designed to conquer the world by doing it in the name of Christ?

British Anglo-Israel is a religious movement and it is a political movement, and it is working to establish world government in the name of Christ. We shall try to identify British-Anglo-Israel, its method of operation and its intent to subvert this nation once again into the British Empire. In the spiritual sense British-Anglo-Israel is unscriptural and anti-Christian but this is where it has its greatest power and has accomplished the most because it appeals to the carnal and natural mind of man. In the political sense it makes its greatest pins by appearing under the banner of Christian conservatism. Let us look first at the spiritual aspects of this fraud and then the political arm.

In the realm of the spiritual British-Anglo-Israel or political Messianism has its whole school of prophets. It says little about the New Testament except the book of Revelation but confines itself to the Old Testament prophets. If the people who are deluded by this perversion of Scripture would read the New Covenant Of New Testament they would see that the birth of Christ, His ministry, crucifixion and resurrection, sending of the Holy Ghost at Pentecost, and destruction of Jerusalem and the temple, was the fulfillment of those prophecies. Then they would conclude that British-Anglo-Israel denies the Divinity of Christ and the gospel by:

1. Denying that Christ is reigning now. Rev. 1:5,6; 5-8.
2. Annuls this dispensation as last days. Heb. 1:1.
3. Makes God false to His promises. Mk. 1:14,15.
4. Alternates Judaism and Christianity. Heb. 8:5-7; 9:9,10.
5. Minimizes Gospel- belittles Church. Eph. 3:9-11.
6. Revokes the great commission. Matt. 28:19,20.
7. Nullifies salvation to Gentiles now. Acts 15:14-18.
8. Demotes Christ from throne in Heaven to the earth, His footstool. Heb. 1:3-13.
9. Makes first coming of Christ a failure. Gal. 4:4,5; Jn. 17:1-14.

Tons of propaganda are unloaded on Americans and the world daily which carry the kingdom message either openly or thinly veiled, propagandizing for the kingdom of God on earth to come. This kingdom theme is cleverly taught by nearly all organizations and churches including all the occult groups. Many false issues and myths are raised to create confusion and misunderstanding, but through this maze of double talk one can always see the "kingdom message." As the art has been improved upon and perfected it has grown more subtle and more powerful. British Israel seeks to capture the spirit by appearing as an angel of light. On the religious side the main weapon of propaganda of British Israel is their use of (or rather misuse of) prophecy. Here is something vital and the main points of prophecy to watch are the Great Tribulation or seven years tribulation, Millennium or 1,000 year reign of Christ on earth, Battle of Armageddon, Reign of the Anti-Christ, regathering of the Jews to the Holy Land with the reestablishment of their Mosaic Law and temple worship, and the final destruction of Romanism.

Of course to those who understand, the use being made of this peculiar interpretation of the Bible is only trickery to get the world to the abyss of this world government from which there is no return even if some of them realize, too late, that they have been tricked into world government in the name of Christ. Through the maze of secular and religious cults and organizations we see the malignant growth of this kingdom of God on earth idea. As stated, this idea is promoted with a scheme of Bible prophecy and may be equally seen and synonymous with the New Age cult of Masonry, and all of its illegitimate offspring whether they appear in the form of Communism or Christianity.

In this connection it is sad to say that out of most of our churches come this pernicious doctrine of a kingdom of God on earth. Of course the preachers could not have accomplished so much without excellent training from the many pseudo Bible Colleges that have sprung up around the country. And naturally they have that most handy Scofield Bible. (See section on Scofield Bible).

Now prophecy is an intoxicating subject and people love to be told about the exact pattern of things to come and the many, many ministers are ever ready to oblige with this scheme of Pharisaism.

So what are we talking about? They take for the main example the Great Tribulation (which has already happened as a study of the seventy weeks of Daniel 9:24-27 will reveal) and project it in the future, stating there will be seven years of death and destruction in which the anti-Christ will reign and everyone will take the mark of the beast. The beast is the resurrected Roman Empire united with the Harlot or Catholic Church, according to these "prophets." The idea of a future "Great Tribulation" is used over and over and serves to terrorize people into believing that it is to be the wrath of God upon the nations. If people are lead to expect it and look upon it as Divine revelation then the coming destruction, which has already been planned, will not be resisted. So there will be a destruction or "judgment" of nations but it will be profane or manmade and it will not be according to Bible prophecy as they say, just as the manmade kingdom of God on earth will not be what they say it will be, but totally opposed to the kingdom of God that was established almost two thousand years ago and into which "flesh and blood cannot enter" and "which came (comes) not with observation."

Now it is that age-old race versus grace controversy and if we hadn't been so "blessed" by a despiritualized Christianity then we could lift the veil from these deceptions and frauds of the modern day Zeus Gods. We could tear away the cloak of the modern day Voltaires and Jean J. Rousseau's and cast them out of our country where they have devoured the flesh of the living dead (the de-Christianized churchites of America) and let them parasite on each other so that they may choke on their own venom. For these vain fools who call themselves patriots could not live by their own fruits but only upon Christians which they so desire to destroy.

If we are to recognize and expose the British Israel conspiracy then we must first stop serving it by being beguiled into fighting hocus pocus myths that they have set up for us. We should view the vulgar left wing in its true light and purpose and begin to center our attention as well on the British Israelites who are waving the American flag and preaching the coming kingdom of God on earth. This is why the so-called conservative or right wing movement is far more dangerous and it issues from and is controlled by that same occult cabal that finances and controls the radical left. In this connection it is well to recall that Karl Marx said that all things must be destroyed so all things can be made new. He was talking about world revolution which must be, so that out of the ashes a new society could be built. British Israel says all nations will be destroyed by "the Great Tribulation" so all things can be made new and that perfect peace can begin. Is there a similarity here? There definitely is because the goal of "Communism" is identical to that of British Israel and they emanate from the same source and serve the same masters. Capitalism finances Communism and Russian Communism is state capitalism. Communism promises a perfect society and British Israel promises a paradise on earth. Are they the same?

It should be mentioned that there is unlimited financing for the British Israel occult movement. Plenty of money comes from the privately owned Federal Reserve System, which holds us in economic bondage via our national debt, as well as the many public endowments including the very occult Carnegie, Rockefeller, Ford, Guggenheim and other foundations which work together to promote the Republic of Man united in the Fatherhood of the Grand Architect of the Universe (Satan). Be reminded here that the true God who is Jesus Christ is not a builder (architect) but the creator. His kingdom is not flesh and blood.

The kingdom of God on earth as promoted through the Kingdom Message is a spiritual lie designed to deceive the world into world government in the name of Christianity.

While Americans fight Communism to "save their nation" they are reeducated with the Kingdom Message to believe that world government is coming and that it is inevitable because it is a "work of God." Even those most zealous patriots who are doing their all to save their country have a latent feeling that all is in vain because Christ is coming back to set up His world government and "rule with a rod of iron." This is a result of the neutralizing and paralyzing effect of the Kingdom Message because people begin to believe that they are opposing God's will.

By now the reader may be able to identify the work of some of the important groups as to whether they are promoting the Kingdom Message. Now we do not accuse the followers of these cults of being aware but this does not lessen the damage. Are many of our churches mixing profanity with things sacred by promoting political Messianism and with it the destruction of our nation?

There are many visible organizations and "churches" which pour forth voluminous literature and carry on national and world-wide broadcasts propagandizing for the coming kingdom of God on earth. Many, many large and well financed organizations could be named such as the National Council of Churches, but it is needless to name the obvious ones, only those operating under the facade of Christianity and Americanism.

These pious advocates of an earthly kingdom never refer to Christ's statement that "My kingdom is not of this world." They project Christ's kingdom future, adding a "New Age" where none ought to be. In this they glorify race and diminish grace. Now is the day of salvation from Pentecost to Christ's second appearing and there is no other. We would remind the followers of these modern day Pharisees that they are denying God's grace by centering their attention and hope on a future political system which promises a glorified and earthly bliss which will never come anymore than it did when the Pharisees of old thought Christ was to be a political king ruling the world from Jerusalem.

Most of the evangelistic or church groups never mention the Anglo-Saxon tribal theories of British-Anglo-Israelism. In fact if they ever do mention British Israel at all they violently deny any affiliation with it and persistently deny that they teach it. They even attack each other but this does not change their unity of spirit in seeking and promoting an earthly kingdom. Most of them confine their racial theories to the so-called Jews, leaving out the larger British-Anglo-Israel tribal theories which includes all of the Anglo Saxons. Careful students observe, however, that the Kingdom Message or the kingdom of God on earth is peculiar to them all. In fact the presentation of disguised political Messianism is the common bond that makes them all a part of a political-religious conspiracy to capture control of the world for the British Empire and escape detection by calling their conspiratorial work the kingdom of God on earth.

Most of the religious groups specialize in what they call "Bible Prophecy," emphasizing the coming "Great Tribulation" to be followed by the 1,000 year kingdom of God on earth. If they are successful in their unprecedented attempt to deceive the people then we will have the hell on earth they are bringing about and falsely calling Bible Prophecy. In the layman's language all this simply means no peace on earth without world government. The idea is to torment the American people and the rest of the world so much that they will declare for this new peace on earth at any price. In British Israel terminology the confusion and war that we see is "God's judgment of the nations and the purpose is to chastise Israel in order to purify her and get her ready for rulership in the kingdom of God on earth."

So the revolution must go on and culminate in that "Great Tribulation" so that after this "system of things" has been destroyed then we can have and enjoy so they say, that "paradise on earth" bought with the blood of saints whose hope is not this world but eternity with Jesus Christ.

One may get the feeling that if every great reward comes in the Heavenly hereafter, why bother? It is the duty of every Christian to preach the gospel which is the only true kingdom of God on earth. It is the perfect kingdom which is a gift of God. We are resurrected or reborn into that kingdom by our faith in the Lord Jesus Christ and wherein there is happiness and joy in the Holy Spirit. But if the modern Pharisees can keep us out of that spiritual kingdom by causing us to center all hope and expectation on a future earthly carnal kingdom, then will we not also accept a false king? For the true king will not reign over a kingdom of this world in contradiction to His clear statement that "My kingdom is not of this world." So the Pharisees of today cannot enter the kingdom without faith anymore than their ancestors could and they are still trying to keep the saints out by building a kingdom of God on earth.

If the plot succeeds, and it will unless we have a spiritual awakening, and when and if we emerge out of this hell on earth holocaust which is prepared for us by these occult devils, the instruments of torment such as the United Nations, Communism and the Negro Revolution will be removed. Then the occult masters will point to the New World peace and remind us of how terrible things used to be. Also there will be no more local churches and no more United States of America for these too will have served their purpose as far as the British Empire is concerned. But there is that remnant according to grace and there will be that remnant which belongs to that universal church invisible and which Christ established with these words, "Upon this rock I build my Church and the gates of hell shall not prevail against it."

America is not dying. She is being murdered by Americans who have been deceived into fighting false issues. How many Americans would ever believe that they have been beguiled into destroying our great nation while believing that they are saving it? The answer is very few; and very few will endeavor to understand what we are talking about here. The spirit of Satan has deceived many.

Remember, if these cloak and dagger "saints" can steal your soul they can steal your country with no trouble at all. The British Empire holds India and China and many others in abject slavery because these nations are not free spiritually. God will not save or deny our America as a collective whole any more than China or India, but if a goodly number of her individual citizens cling to Bible truth they will be able to detect the machinations of this political intrigue operating in the name of Christ.

There are many artifices and deceptions used by phony pretenders of Christianity and patriotism to reeducate the American people to accept Communism under the pretense of Christianity. John R. Rice is a Protestant Jew whose front is called THE SWORD OF THE LORD. In one of his many writings called "Christ's Literal Reign on Earth," he states on the front, unequivocally, quote "that Israel, the Jews, are to return to Canaan and possess it forever -- that Christ, the seed of David, is to restore David's kingdom to Palestine and rule over the whole earth from Jerusalem -- that this coming kingdom of Christ according to the flesh is foretold in many, many Scriptures, in both the Old and New Testaments." End quote. This is crass immorality. It is deception. It is not Christianity. It is Zionism and it is subversive to the United States Constitution, because if a fleshly Christ rules over the whole earth from Jerusalem the United States will be only a component part of a World Government. Americans must build their first line of defense against this pseudo Christianity which is most accurately called Spiritual Communism. This kingdom religion is power politics and revolution and should not be given sanctuary as the Christian religion or any other religion under the United States Constitution. Could it be possible that John R. Rice, along with the many other Jew Protestants, is not familiar with I Cor. 15:50 "Flesh and blood cannot inherit the kingdom of God." Christ's kingdom is not fleshly nor worldly nor is it to be localized in Jerusalem in any future Jewish Millennium. This is a false and malicious counterfeit of truth and deceives so-called Jews and professing Christians alike. It absolutely denies the Christian faith, replacing it with a universal materialism identical to that under the name of Russian Communism.

There is no fellowship in patriotism and Zionism and those phony patriots who persist are helping overthrow the United States Government in favor of British Israel.

British Israel builds its deceptions and control under Christian fronts and false patriotism but as Satan invariably reveals himself, British Israel reveals itself to be Communism. Its prophecies of a millennial kingdom is Communist propaganda. It is British Communism.

Once we understand this trickery it becomes a matter of right wing Communism versus left wing Communism. People are confused by false labels that camouflage treason.

British Israel actually builds a nation within a nation when it can deceive literally millions into a world government as God's kingdom on earth. There is no way to escape this treachery unless and until Americans can understand this religious propaganda for its true meaning and purpose. British imperialism is via spiritual or religious deceit. It is a stratagem of mind control and a design for American surrender once and for all. Will enough Americans understand in time? It is better to know our enemy and fight with honor than for our children to despise us for our ignorance, for some of them will surely know that we were hoodwinked into treason and self destruction when they see the shadow of the Union Jack behind the hammer and sickle.

Almost everyone has heard the cliché of "divide and conquer." This has never been more used than against Americans in their churches. The money power of the British Empire has created innumerable cults and groups including every kind of heresy imaginable - something for everybody technique. Let us emphasize here again that no matter how different they appear, from Mormonism to Jehovah Witnesses, their modus operandi is the "Kingdom Message" under whatever name or pretense. They have divided the "churches" physically but have united them spiritually and we hasten to say not according to the grace of God, but according to the race of British Israel. Among the many groups, the most ardent of the devil's advocates have never heard of their master British Israel, but they build its ramparts diligently thinking they serve the true and living Christ. "All who say Lord Lord will not enter the kingdom of heaven."

Christian Americans, if you doubt this, investigate for yourself. Search the literature and publications that are raining upon us. You will find that no matter the color, design or name of the church, association or group, their most exaggerated efforts are toward dissemination of political propaganda cloaked in Bible prophecy, sugar coated with Bible terminology advocating World Government alias kingdom of God on earth. At this point we yield to the vanity of Satan and his vampires of intrigue. They are Satanically clever. They will deceive many into believing that they have merged the kingdoms of this world with the kingdom of God. The elect will not be deceived but will continue to serve their Lord and Saviour Who is the living Jesus Christ. He has already established His kingdom and His children of His kingdom of grace will occupy until His second appearing without sin unto salvation. He bought them with His blood and has redeemed them forever. He is sovereign today and He reigns over His sovereign kingdom. His kingdom is not defiled by flesh and blood and never shall be. He is the door of light and the door of life. We have abiding with us the Holy Spirit teaching us all things concerning the kingdom of God which we occupy till His second appearing by teaching and preaching the grace of God.

Remember the story of Little Red Riding Hood and the Wolf and also the story of Dr. Jekyll and Mr. Hyde, for here is the parable of British Israel. It has been most successful because it has been able with its dual personality to make war with the true kingdom of God while at the same time appearing to embrace it. The true kingdom of God on earth is the kingdom of grace, its citizens being bought by the blood of Christ. The false kingdom of God on earth is a political system, its citizens being bought by the money of international finance aspiring to world domination of the British Empire.

Christians must beware of a sham fight of those who "fight" Communism and Socialism and seek to establish the same thing under the name of the kingdom of God on earth. Satan's ministers say they believe that Jesus is the Christ but they preach another gospel and therefore another kingdom. No wonder Christ said to the Pharisees "Ye neither go in the kingdom nor suffer them to go in." If they can persuade you to look for another, you have not been reborn into the present true kingdom which flesh and blood cannot enter. Not only that, they cause you to deny the very existence of God's kingdom now and attempt to make Christ's mission a failure and make all the prophets liars. Such is the blasphemy of British Israel and death to Americans and America if we believe it.

The purpose of political Messianism is to prepare the minds of people for eventual destruction of this social order, and more particularly the destruction of the national sovereignty of the United States of America. The continuous prophesying of wars and famine and confusion etc., is part of the scheme of British Israel to condition the people to the chaos they (the British Israelites) have created, falsely calling it Bible prophecy. They mix things sacred with things profane and in this way they do through the churches what they could not do with their armies. Old Testament prophecies, that Christians know have already been fulfilled in Christ, are fed to the people as future events of things to come. Then on the world stage they re-enact these prophecies and propagandize the people into believing it is God enacting His kingdom on earth as foretold by the prophets of old. As they continue to prophesy and continue to fulfill politically more and more people will believe it. Being preoccupied with making a living and entertaining themselves, they accept it at face value not knowing that the purpose and intent is to destroy a nation -- namely ours; the United States of America.

The consequence of the dastardly plot is the creation within the people a state of mind which will cause them to be the major participants of their own destruction. If they are brought to believe that prevalent conditions are "God's judgment upon the nations," as British Israel propaganda says, then they will not only accept it as fact they are imbued with this same spirit of deception causing them to propagate the heresy themselves. It seems the bigger the lie the more zealous its adherents; We say the power of the enemy is the subtlety of identifying with truth. Thus Satan appears as an angel of light.

In order to keep this subject in focus we reiterate that the British Israel kingdom of God on earth means the domination of the world by the British Empire with a corresponding subjection of the United States of America. This "Kingdom Message" gives lip service to salvation by grace but in the main perpetuates itself on a national and racial fiction it says is salvation. It is a concoction distinctly inferior to our way of life under the United States Constitution let alone the GRACE of Christ. Many honest people have come under the spell of this Luciferian attraction and they have become participants of their own destruction while under the illusion and deception that they defend their nation and their faith. National Salvation and Divine National Origin decoded means the rulership of the world by the Covenant nation which is Britain, and only is the United States included to disarm and allay suspicion of the American arm of the movement. Through this chicanery and deceit the "Mother Country" seeks to bring the American colony back into the fold, not as an equal partner to dominate the world, but as a humiliated stepchild to be exploited and used to serve the Mother Country. This revolutionary scheme or blueprint is carried on under the veil of Bible prophecy and in the name of Christ.

We are told repeatedly that we are in a life and death struggle between Soviet Communism and Western Democracy (Western Civilization), the latter representing God's nations. Both are ideologies of man and represent the kingdoms of this world and neither (they are dual forces of the same plot) is of God. The true kingdom of God is not represented by the kingdoms of this world. The true kingdom of God is the kingdom of Grace and is not flesh and blood. It is the gospel of salvation of individuals and not nations.

We are told that the United Nations and Communism is an attempt of man at world government in rebellion to God and His Divine law. But the New Testament says, "We are not under the law but grace"... Then we are told that the only solution to the hopeless confusion is the uniting of all nations under the government of God ruling the world from Jerusalem. You may have your choice but take world government under whatever name. Karl Marx said production for use and not for profit. British Israel says production for use and not for profit. Now we ask, is it Communism or British Imperialism? Either route you take, the left wing or right wing, you wind up under the Union Jack.

Let us stop this discussion in its tracks and add parenthetically that if the reader is remaining aloof believing that this accusation does not apply to his church or his preacher, he should apply the test according to our discussion. We shall give a specific outline, though not complete, for the reader to follow. Does your preacher teach that a physical Jew and a physical Israel has a peculiar place of prominence in New Testament Christianity? Does he take Old Testament prophecies, all already fulfilled, saying they are yet to be fulfilled?

Does he believe in the national salvation of physical Israel or any nation by any name? Does he teach and preach a millennial kingdom on earth to come after this age or allow other preachers to do so in his church? Does he teach that the visible confusion in the world is a result of God's judgment of the nations? Does he teach that we are faced with a seven years tribulation and a literal battle of Armageddon? Does he teach that we are under the law (Mosaic Law) or that we will be under the law in a future kingdom of God on earth? Does he teach the social gospel including the brotherhood of man under the fatherhood of God? Does your preacher try to explain events in the world in terms of Bible prophecy? In short, does he try to make the Bible a history book instead of a plan of salvation? If the answer to any of these questions is yes, then you and your church and your pastor have not escaped the intrigue of British Israel deceit. We do not accuse your pastor of knowingly serving this scheme, which will eventually destroy him and your church, but this does not lessen the damage being done. In the first place it is not the gospel of grace and in the second place it is subversion of the United States Constitution and our way of life contained therein. Remember it is not only those who tell a lie that are guilty but also those who believe a lie. It is our INDIVIDUAL responsibility to know the truth of Christ regardless of how it may conflict with our preacher, our church and our fellow man. And if what we are saying does not fit your preconceived patterns of thought and notions of what is or is not truth, then the burden to prove or disprove our contentions (by divine revelation and historical fact) is upon you. If your ineptness or indifference has tranquilized you to no challenge then your defense is lost by default and your plight is worse than if you had never heard these facts at all.

British Israel is blasphemy which seeks to make Christianity a legal system enforceable by an all-powerful political government alias "one world under God's law."

The effect of a political theocracy operating and controlling society with "God's Law" causes its subjects to believe that their salvation comes through obedience to this legal system instead of through Christ. The consequent result is man's dependence upon the state for salvation instead of upon God. What's more a political theocracy is only paganism which calls itself Christianity and exempts itself from the scheme it uses to control the mind of man by controlling his spirit.

The Revelation of Jesus Christ cannot be codified upon tablets of stone -- only upon the hearts of those who believe it. Moses received codified law upon tablets of stone and gave it to his people. Christ glorified the law upon the conscience of the believers. One is external and one is internal - one is flesh and blood and one is spirit - one is national and one is individual - one is bondage and one is freedom - one is condemnation and one is salvation and never shall the twain be one.

We call your attention to the fact that the most powerful weapon of British Israel is not the H bomb but the Holy Bible. This is Satan appearing as an angel of light perverting the truth of God into a scheme with which he expects to capture the spirit of man and thereby control his mind and body. It is your faith- your spiritual allegiance toward this non-Biblical prophetic hoax which is aimed at and if one believes it he is first an enemy of Christ and secondly an enemy of his country. This system of political intrigue called Bible prophecy seeks to destroy the United States and all national states through a planned and prophesied "Great Tribulation" to be followed by a New Age World State under the Union Jack. Down pax Romanum, up Pax Britannica to a complete British world.

It is a noteworthy fact that the many ardent fake nationalist British Israelites who are selling the Protocols never mention the fact that early editions of the same were censored which revealed the complicity of "Jews" (they are not true Jews, only modern Pharisees) with the British Empire to control the world and the fact that England is home base and authority for all Grand Orient and Anglo-Saxon Freemasonry. The intention of these fakers is to Jew bait honest seekers of the truth away from British Israel. These so-called right wing patriots are shock troops of the British Empire and aliens in our midst. Remember, Hitler deceived Germany with this Jew bait. Fake nationalism is a danger to avert and is not to be confused with true patriotism. This militant nationalism is calculated to destroy the United States, not to conserve constitutional government independent of foreign alliances and confederations of any sort.

If our reader is still foggy about what is British Israel we repeat by stating that it is a political scheme clothed in spiritual language fed to Americans and the world through "Bible prophecy." Its weapon is the Bible, misuse of truth, and its symbol is the Cross and its mission is world evangelism with this Pharisaism which they call Christianity, and its main base of operations in the United States is the American churches. It accomplishes most when parading under Christianity, Patriotism and Americanism. It is the same as its illegitimate offspring's of Fascism and Communism. British Israel promises world order and peace after this one is destroyed. Communism also promises paradise on earth. Both are anti-Christian and both are anti-American. Both are one. Confusion, revolution, famine, disease and destruction of this "Gentile System" (including the U.S.A.) are necessary to fulfill the British Israel system of political Messianism, which they falsely call Bible prophecy. We promise the reader that through every cloud of confusion from the left or right he can detect the "Kingdom Message" if he will look for it. The world must suffer so much that it will be glad to get relief under the Union Jack, alias kingdom of God on earth. British Israel says everything in this worldly system must be destroyed because it represents the "Gentile System" or "Babylonian System." This means in decoded language that our country, our money, and our freedom must be exchanged for the New Age British world. The British Empire and its Rhodes Scholar agents who run our government promise us no peace without world government. We are being punished by so-called Communism in order to drive us into this One World Superstate Empire Imperium. The Soviet system of Russian Communism is simply a tool in the scheme.

The question arises why is the right wing, for the most part, subversive? The answer is, because it serves as a decoy to cover up the real enemy and secondly to propagate British Israel itself, by creating antagonisms against the American Government so as to get the people to distrust the constitutional system instead of the Judas goats who are steering the ship of state to destruction. The right wing serves as the framework of the back lash against the evils of the left wing. They claim they are saving us from Communism while delivering us to British Israelism. The net result is no different in either case. The key issue in this context is that the right wing is not patriotic at all, but escapes detection because they hide behind the American Flag and meet in churches. Their slogan is God and Country. We ask, what God and what country?

The right wing is a necessary part of revolution as well as the left. Their fight against Communism causes people to believe in Communism in a negative sense, as many of them do. Russian Communism is the straw, the fake bogey, to take the attention of the American people off of the British Empire. America is in danger - the gravest in her history but the sources of that danger are not what the anti-Communist crusaders say it is. Why do they never point to the fact that this country is being undermined by Rhodes Scholar agents and Anglomaniacs? These are the real "Fifth Columnists" in our land and they despise America. They want us to look at Russian Communism as the enemy instead of such things as "Union Now" with Britain schemes whereby we would be a subject of the British Empire. The right wing, as well as the rabble of the left, is an instrument of British Israel and they have the audacity to quote our Patriot Fathers and pledge allegiance to the American Flag to bless their treason to this nation. Their treason is to cover up the real enemy until it is too late by blaming everything on Communism. Communism and Soviet Russia is only a pawn and has no power or direction except as dictated by the British Empire and their agents in this country. The "prophecies" of British Israel say Russia will never attack the United States. This is fair indication of who controls Russia.

Why do the prophecies of British Israel say that America will never be attacked by Russia? Do they know? Yes, they know that current events and the future are being skillfully guided along the lines of the false prophecies which are being taught in American churches throughout the land. This is a scheme of using religion to get mind control. The "Wonderful World of Tomorrow" that Herbert Armstrong promotes through his Zionist British Israel church is world domination under the British throne. Armstrong and all the Judaized Millennialists are preparing humanity for this pretense they call God's government over the earth. if you think it's funny, ask your neighbor if he believes in the millennial reign or earthly kingdom. Of course he would not ever believe that he has a World Government religion but would say he is a Christian. This is a blight over America. If the whole nation is literally praying for World Government, they think under Christ, how shall we survive? They are unwittingly aliens because of their religion, which is nothing more than a political scheme to get the world united under Britain. British Israel is clever deception. It is completely hidden within the whole of Christianity and it is a perfect and complete disguise to hide the British Empire. How many Americans who believe in the coming kingdom could possibly believe that that kingdom is to be a British kingdom? Not one! To them, it is a divine kingdom and so the deception is complete. Pseudo Christian allegiance to a world state is ending this once Republic. Atheism is no threat but false Christianity is. When the founders made freedom of religion inviolate under the Constitution, surely they did not know that religion would be used by Britain to destroy us and get us back into the British Empire. Maybe they thought such would be impossible. Such is incomprehensible to millions of deceived Americans. God help us! Revolution has become the religion of the land and religion has become revolution.

We are terrorized with Russian Communism and at the same time we are told through British Israel "prophecies" that America will never be attacked by Russian Communism. This points up the forked tongue of the dual conspiracy -- destroy us with Russian Communism on one hand and "save" us with British Israel Communism on the other.

Few would-be patriots know that the effect of their good intentions in fighting Communism makes them renegades and revolutionists, and they are destroying the very thing which they think they save. Because of their sham fight they are serving to create antagonisms which will not bring back Constitutional government, but will tread the Constitution under foot in order to set up a New Order over the dead body of American independence and economic freedom. The so-called patriots are the cats paw to scare us to death with the bugaboo Communism so that British Israel can "save us," -- save what's left for the British Empire.

For students of history, and especially revolution, this is not a new trick but is classical demagoguery which has been used since the heyday of the Greeks. By far it is more sophisticated than ever, and by far it is harder to detect.

British Israel alias Fundamental Christianity is as grotesque as it is sinful and we are striving to give the sternest warning concerning the peril of pretended anti-communism. This mysterious "anti-Communist" avalanche is the pretext to milk millions of debt dollars out of a confused America. It is the nemesis who extracts the blood from American sons under the phobia of a counterfeit patriotism and Divine Destiny. All nations are involved in this idolatry and its historical catastrophe but they need not be implicated in the final debacle which will seduce the world from the worship of the Triune God and subject their tribute to the vampires of moral degeneracy who appropriate and establish their rulership of the physical and spiritual world as Divine authority.

There is no separating so called anti-communism and political Messianism because it is the created conflict of Communism versus anti-communism which is to bring about a world fusion under a political Messiah. This world millennium trick is predicated upon the myth that the people of God's covenant kingdom are the Adamic race and the Jews who are being besieged by an atheistic Communism. The outcome, say the anti-Communists, is Divine intervention of Christ into history with the annihilation of Communism and the establishment of His earthly kingdom.

The identity of this false patriotism is hidden from its instruments of action by appropriating multiple meanings to expressions of Americanism and raising fake issues to fight. It has a seductive appeal which it keeps alive with endless "Christian anti-Communist" propaganda, always keeping its people under control by confusing cause and effect. Therefore, through the use of anti-Russian Communism, one is led right into Communism. What is a moneyless Kingdom of God World State but a communal society? Betrayal is the design of this double headed Communism versus anti-communism.

Who commissioned the right wing and its religious cult which always predicts world conflict to the end of our present civilization, after which comes the New Age of world "Christianity?" Is it not logical and reasonable to see that anyone promoting such a gigantic movement as Communism is presumed to be, would also be wicked enough to take precautions for controlling any opposition that might arise? They could not hope for success if they did not. So, as Marx and Engels were commissioned to launch social and political Communism from London, it was London also where pretended anti-communism or Spiritual Communism originated for world consumption. As we have shown, the propaganda of the right wing champions the cause of Spiritual Communism, which they say is the "real Christianity" but which is only a world communal society.

Communism and anti-communism are racially oriented not unlike the racism of the propaganda ministry of Adolph Hitler. Must we draw a minute analogy to demonstrate that America is in the same grip that brought devastation to Germany? Hitler had a goat he called Communism and another one he called the Jew, and with these pretentious lead the German people wholeheartedly into self destruction. Always both ends are played toward the middle or central purpose. The right wing in America always presumes to include all faiths and races but as we shall show it uses Biblical expressions and sanctions to hide its "anti-Semitism," its anti-Catholicism, and anti-Negroism. What is the central purpose of the pretended conflict of Communism versus anti-Communism? The conflict of races, on one hand or the pretension to amalgamate them on the other, is only a ruse to bring about a mongrel Christianity. It is indeed the amalgamated race, the mulatto race, the hybrid race or the mongrel race which torments the world stage. But the central purpose is to fuse an amalgamated spirit, a mulatto spirit, a hybrid spirit or a mongrel spirit. What is this spirit? It is a social, communal, legalized Christianity which is Communism in all but name. The kingdom of God on earth is moral and spiritual degeneracy which originates in hate, suspicion, violence and strife and leads its victims into the enemy camp. Those honest Americans who have come under the anti-Communist cult must come to know that they are being led right into Communism under the cloak of Christianity. They must not dissipate themselves in fighting one Communism only to be led into another Communism called the kingdom of God on earth. They must at all costs come to the conscious reality that the division of truth from a lie is as distinct as Heaven and earth, and that until the people of America and the world can come to understand the real issue their future is in jeopardy. The line of separation is quick and sharp. It has on one side those Christians who believe that Christ's kingdom is spiritual and that Heaven after death is the hope and reward of the faithful, and on the other side it has those "Fundamental Christians" who believe that the messianic kingdom is earthly and fleshly. There is no equivocation on this issue and no amount of twisting or lying can hide the traitors. One must be on one side or the other with no identity or fellowship with the advocates of the World Government religion called the kingdom of God on earth. There is no true patriotism to be found in political Messianism. It is treason and dedicated to the destruction of this Constitutional government.

The right wing has its symbolism to support its nationalist religion. The scheme is to build up the idea of divine intervention under the cloak of Christianity. Historic Christian symbolism is mixed with national symbols and paganism. All this reminds one of the "Jews" under the Roman Empire and their religion which gave them hope of national deliverance under an all powerful political Messiah. Well, what we are witnessing today is the same old Jew's religion being used to control and direct the people of America into Communism via a nationalistic religion. Some of them have even called it Christian Communism.

This represents Dr. Fred Schwarz's national religion in his booklet "The Christian Answer to Communism." On page 20 and 21 his British Israel "Christianity" shows up clearly, and we quote: "God will now hear and answer prayer to those of other praying Christians that God will bring to pass a mighty revival that repentance may bring divine intervention and national salvation from the Communist threat. Evangelism is a vital part of any effective anti-Communist Crusade." End quote. Anyone not under the control of the kingdom cults can see his deceit of mixing Christianity with nationalism. And those expecting divine intervention and national salvation are under the worst despotism ever to plague men's minds

Some of the main church groups such as Jehovah Witnesses and the Mormons have little symbolism but they play a major part in preparing millions for the advent of a political Messiah and a political kingdom of God on earth. They cover their kingdom religion with spiritual language. They of course believe they are true Christians and would never believe that their kingdom to come is to be ruled from the throne of Britain. It is a system of controlling people and nations with religion. As we shall show British Israel can control a diversity of cults, all being tied with the kingdom religion. This is a clever scheme of religious integration without the various churches being aware of the kingdom theme that binds them all together. Below is a wagon wheel demonstration showing how the Jewish Kingdom religion is cleverly worked in all the religious groups, and ties them together in a nationalistic religion.

True Christianity is not to be confused with these kingdom on earth cults. Christ's kingdom is a kingdom of faith in the Triune God. (Holy Trinity). Theirs is the Heavenly hope not an earthly kingdom. The earthly kingdom heresy is truly anti-Christ. Christ's mission was the bringing in of salvation to individual souls and not to save nations or destroy them.

It is a curious fact that the zealous "patriots" do not observe the connections between their leaders and their clandestine schemes to defeat what they call the Communist conspiracy. Nor do they recognize that their literature never tells them of the connections of the traitors of this country to the British Empire.

Concerned Americans who are honest do not understand the perverse inner strategy of modern revolution. Even so one should eventually realize that this brand of patriotism is not carrying the American nation back to Constitutional government but further away from it. The rank and file right winner is a victim of subterfuge which deludes the unthinking, though ostensibly extolling the very traditions and institutions which are dear to the hearts of patriotic Americans. It would seem in this connection that the would-be patriots could see this in action objectively when Earl Browder in the thirties heaped praise upon Lincoln and Jefferson as great "liberals."

Americans do not understand how truth misused or half truths are totally misleading them. Don Bell said in his May 18, 1962 report, quote: "This practice of telling only a part of the truth in order to gain popular support for a scheme which would be immediately denounced if all the truth were known, is a scheme as old as the devil himself." End quote. We agree with this and that Don Bell knows more than he tells. Mr. Bell well knows the sinister and seditious purpose of the John Birch Society, yet he supports and promotes almost as if a religion, such things as T. Robert Ingram's WORLD UNDER GOD'S LAW which he says "is a must for every Christian library.' Well this book is sold in John Birch Society American Opinion bookstores in America. Mr. Bell would say they (John Birch Society) simply hold the truth in unrighteousness. The John Birch Society is a well financed society for deception and reeducation and they know as Don Bell surely must, that the above book teaches a legal Christianity and supports a national religion. Such duplicity can only be detected when one knows as much about the spiritual plot as Don Bell does. Here is another example of his half truth twist on the subject of Freemasonry discussed in his February 2, 1962 Report. We quote the context in whole so as to get his full intention: "It is important to note that the Freemasonry that is here being condemned is not the original British Blue Lodge Masonry, but the Grand Orient Freemasonry, as it developed on the Continent of Europe, then extended itself to include all types of Masonry in Asia, Africa and the Americas. The Grand Orient was created in 1772, formed a coalition with the Grand Chapter (England) in 1786, and was Illuminized in 1789, just prior to the outbreak of the French Revolution. After the Grand Orient had been found responsible for fomenting a series of revolutions Ñ beginning with the second French Revolution of 1848 - the Grand Chapter of England became alarmed at the long record of subversions and international intrigues, and officially severed relations with the Grand Orient in March, 1878." End quote. Mr. Bell does as Nesta Webster does (Nesta Webster's books are promoted by the right wing) in making Grand Orient Masonry the goat, thus cleverly twisting the truth so that it completely misleads. The Grand Lodge of England may well have severed relations above the table but under the table there is no change. Relations or official connections mean nothing in Freemasonry; no more than a church building controls the religion of the congregation. It is religion which ties and makes Freemasonry a universal brotherhood.

As the American people are bewildered, confused and over-awed by the magnitude of the Russian bear, we are put in shackles by the Union Jack with the use of equivocations and perversions of the historic pronouncements of Washington and Jefferson. Truth is twisted until it furnishes sanctions for destruction of our American way of life. Such is the chicanery and hypocrisy of British Israel. Their prostitute "prophecy" says Communism will fail because of divine "intervention into history" but we will have the kingdom of God instead. Take your choice but take world government under the British Empire.

Why is it so easy for Americans to be confused about the source of Communism? And why can Americans not believe that the British Empire is more powerful today than ever in history? Do they think that Rhodes Scholar internationalists who have key positions in United States institutions and government are made in Russia? Certainly they come from Oxford, England. In the year 1951 there were some interesting articles printed by the Chicago Tribune on Rhodes Scholars. The Tribune of course would not do so again nor would any big newspaper. Instead they have all been assigned the job of playing down the importance and strength of the British Empire. In the July 15, ~1951 article in the Tribune entitled "Rhodes Ideals Slant State Dept. Policies," subtitled "Key Posts Held by Oxford Scholars," by William Fulton, we quote: "New York, July 15 - Key positions in the United States department of state are held by a network of American Rhodes scholars. Rhodes scholars are men who obtained supplemental education and indoctrination at Oxford University in England with the bills paid by the estate of Cecil John Rhodes, British empire builder.

"Rhodes wrote about his ambition to cause 'the ultimate recovery of the United States of America as an integral part of the British empire.' The late diamond and gold mining tycoon aimed at a world federation dominated by Anglo-Saxons. His intimates have admitted the scholarships were established for the primary purpose of instilling 'political Bias' rather than providing education." End quote. Then on July 15, 1951, under the title "Rhodes' Ideas Find Fertile Ground in U. N." subtitled "Scholars' Advance British Schemes," by William Fulton, we quote; "New York, July 16 - American Rhodes scholars, men who have received education and indoctrination at Oxford University, England,- are prominent in the affairs of the United Nations. The U.N. is an outgrowth of schemes developed by the scholars' patron, Cecil Rhodes, the British empire builder.

"Rhodes dreamed of an Anglo-Saxon federation with the British dominating, an organization powerful enough to police the world and preserve the peace. In his writings the diamond despot of South Africa showed he hoped the scholarships would promote his grandiose idea. Thirty-two American collegians go to Oxford each year under terms of Rhodes' will." End quote. On July 17, 1951, under the title "Scholars Help British Cash In On U.S. Billions," subtitled "Rhodes Men Hold Key Dole Jobs," by William Fulton, we quote; "New York, July 17-'Diamonds are a girl's best friend,' the popular song goes, and diamonds also are a Rhodes scholar's best friend. Approximately 1,400 Americans have gone to Oxford University, England, since 1904 with the way paid from the estate of Cecil Rhodes, diamond magnate and British empire builder.

"Today numerous Rhodes scholars are in a position to repay their educational benefactor in dollars for the sparklers dug up in their behalf from the diamond lands seized by the British in South Africa during the last century.

"Rhodes scholars dominate the United States department of state, which directs the doling out of billions in foreign aid, with the United Kingdom getting the major share. The savants also hold down important positions in the economic cooperation administration, mutual defense assistance program, and other foreign handout setups.

"This is all in keeping with Rhodes' overweening ambitions for a world federation dominated by Anglo-Saxons for the purpose of enforcing peace and the status quo. He also aimed at 'the ultimate recovery of the United States of America as an integral part of the British Empire.'

"With the Oxford indoctrinated Rhodes scholars holding key positions in the Washington administration, Britain obtained 31 billion dollars from Uncle Sam in the form of 'lend lease' outlays during the war. That was followed by the 3.75 billion dollar 'gift loan' to Britain in 1946.

During the first three years of the Marshall plan ECA largesse, the United Kingdom received 2 billion 706 million dollars, by far the largest allotment. A bill providing 8% billion dollars for the military and economic aid program abroad is pending before congress." End quote. On July 19, 1951, in the Tribune under the title "Rhodes' Wards Hawk Global Scheme In U.S.," subtitled "Peddle Propaganda for 'One World,'" by William Fulton, we quote: "New York, July 19 - Rhodes scholars, returning from schooling and indoctrination at Oxford university, England, are the principal hawkers of globalist propaganda in the United States.

"The American scholars obtain their education abroad through terms of the will left by the late Cecil Rhodes, British empire builder and South African despot. Rhodes aimed at the return of the United States to the British empire and a world federation dominated by Anglo-Saxons. He hoped his scholars would be instilled with 'political bias' toward these ends, according to his intimate friends.

"Previous articles in this series have disclosed that many of the 1,185 living American Rhodes scholars have obtained key positions in the state department, the United Nations, the economic cooperation administration, the mutual defense assistance program, and other government agencies where they have worked toward fulfillment of the schemes of their imperial patron." End quote. On July 20, 1951, under the title "Rhodes' Wards Head Global Foundations," subtitled "Dole Out Cash for One Worlders," by William Fulton, we quote: "New York, July 20 - American Rhodes scholars, who are spoon-fed doses of internationalism a la mode British imperialism at Oxford University, England, are prominent back home in the affairs of the big foundations doling out funds toward globalist schemes and one world propaganda.

"Higher echelon offices in Carnegie, Rockefeller and other privately-endowed foundations are held by Rhodes scholars. This is in keeping with the aims of the late Cecil Rhodes, British empire builder. He left his fortune for the conversion of scholars who would promote his dream of an Anglo-Saxon federation to dominate the world. In this way Rhodes hoped to return the United States to the empire.

"So far the Rhodes will has underwritten the education and indoctrination of 1,400 Americans at the English university since 1904. The annual output is 32. They have fastened onto key positions in the state department and other governmental agencies, just as Rhodes hoped it would happen.

Funds Further U. N.

"Both-the Carnegie and Rockefeller institutions have contributed heavily toward 'international' studies to further the United Nations and other supra-governmental plans designed at chipping away American sovereignty. They have also financed organizations and students which according to congressional sources, smack of communism, in itself a form of internationalism.

"The foundations have been the big moneybags for globalist propaganda through the Woodrow Wilson Foundation, World Peace Foundation, Foreign Policy Association, Council on Foreign Relations, and Carnegie Endowment for International Peace. Former president for the last-named, it will be recalled, was Alger Hiss, the state department adviser for Roosevelt at the Yalta conference. Hiss is now serving sentence in a federal prison for perjury involving war time espionage for the Russians.

"Two Carnegie top executives are Rhodes scholars. They are Whitney H. Shepardson, director of the Carnegie Corporation British and Colonies fund, and O. C. Carmichael, president of the Carnegie Foundation for the Advancement of Teaching." End quote.

On July 21, 1951, under the title "Rhodes Grads Influential In Eastern Press," subtitled "Aid British, Global Propaganda," by William Fulton, we quote: "New York, July 21 The picture of the American Rhodes scholars network in the United States - a rabid movement toward internationalism - is completed and glued together by their numbers in the field of molding public opinion. They are highly influential in the eastern press, magazines and radio chains.

"Rhodes scholars in this country represent 32 campus leaders carefully selected each year to go to Oxford University, England, for supplemental schooling. Their patron, the late Cecil Rhodes, British empire builder and diamond tycoon, aimed at instilling in his protégés 'political bias' rather than education, according to his intimates.

"This bias, as revealed by the Rhodes seven wills and writings, was to recover the United States for the British empire in the form of an Anglo-Saxon federation. The federation would be powerful enough to dominate the world and enforce the 'peace.'

"Time Follows Rhodes' Line

"Closely following the Rhodes' line of propaganda is the Time, Inc., magazine group headed by Henry Luce. Luce was not a Rhodes scholar but he did spend a year at Oxford where he sponged up some of the imperialistic doctrines carried later in his magazines. Several of his top brass editors have been Rhodes Scholars.

"From the start Luce followed the Anglophile trail, whooping it up for American intervention in war when the British were in trouble and damning pro-Americans as 'isolationists.' He is a charter member of the 'Eisenhower-for-President' cult, favors entrapment of Republicans by Truman's so-called bipartisan foreign policy, and the Marshall plan, which has paid off his magazines.

"In addition to pushing the British concept of policing the world with American soldiers and economic aid, the Luce publications have been infiltrated by another form of globalism. Whittaker Chambers, devotee of world communism and confessed courier for a soviet spy ring, was a senior editor ($30,000 a year) for Time magazine. Chambers informed on Alger Hiss, Roosevelt adviser at Yalta. Hiss is now in a federal penitentiary for perjury in a case involving soviet espionage.

"Rhodes Men on N. Y. Times

"The New York Times, which has been pro-British since the first World war, also has its share of Rhodes scholars on the staff. An interesting footnote in journalistic history is that at the time Rhodes' final will was published in 1902, the New York Times condemned the idea of American scholarships.

" 'Why should an American youth go to Oxford when he can get a better education at home in respect of those attainments which chiefly make for national greatness?' inquired the Times in 1902." End quote.

Can anyone deny the widespread influence, or should we say control, by Rhodes scholars over America? This is in truth the "iron curtain over America" that is undermining American sovereignty. Do the paid patriots inform us about British Communism via Rhodes Scholars?

Do the "patriots" tell Americans about Masonic Communism? Do they think that Masonry was made in Moscow? Certainly not! It was made in England and every Masonic politician and federal judge in America has given allegiance to Masonry over the United States Constitution. They cannot be Americans and true to the global scheme of Masonry at the same time. Why is this so difficult to understand? The big red five pointed star that rules over Russia and China was made in England and still gives allegiance to the same. Do the "anti-Communists" know this, or are they Masons too?

Russia is a menace to be sure, but the British Empire originated the Russian system of Communism to exploit the world as a front for British Imperialism while they use religion from the churches to set up their scheme as a divine kingdom. Confusion comes from everywhere but always the "poor" British Empire continues to crumble, so says the propaganda.

A further analogy of the double dealing of British Israel is recalling the devotion of the American people to the Declaration of Independence of 1776. So the conspirators use 1776 and place the label on the very betrayal of free America "The Spirit of '76." But this time it will not be an American Declaration, but a move to put us back into the Empire we left in 1776 -- this time interdependence. Union with Great Britain means destruction of our national sovereignty and our individual freedom.

Some of our citizens who most sincerely and most loudly warn against Communism are proclaiming the kingdom message from coast to coast, propagandizing for the coming kingdom of God on earth. Never was there a better example of straining at a gnat and swallowing a camel. This kingdom message is a farce to allow the British Empire to dominate the world and subject all but her nobility to slavery. We emphasize that Communism is not separate from British Israel. Communism is an instrument of British Israel, held up for us to fight until we can be totally "saved" (destroyed) by British Israel. Communism is called the antichrist by the patriots while British Israel is called Christ. The world is to be punished by anti-Christ forces and saved from it all by a "Christ" sitting on Queen Elizabeth's throne (removed to Jerusalem) and ruling the New Earth under the Union Jack.

Americans, we challenge you to take an honest and objective look at the many pseudo patriotic organizations and their charlatan leaders. Who are these pied pipers who are getting paid so much to "save" America from Communism? Much information that is put out by the many organizations is factual in itself. Here is the sophistry. It is not the thing itself, but the USE made of it, which is the determining factor. The line of demarcation is very thin, when cleverly used, between facts as facts, and the subtle USE of them for propaganda.

It is the USE of anything which determines the effect that it has, and no force on earth utilizes this concept more than British Israel. This is the web that has snared the patriots because they have failed to realize the negative effect of their attacks on the United States government. Though their facts in most cases may be 100 per cent true, their method of USE produces an effect contrary to that supposed by the user, and his constant harangues on "what's wrong in Washington" builds a revolutionary state of mind in the American people and creates false antagonisms and loss of confidence, the effect of which will destroy the American government instead of restoring constitutional guarantees. So the patriots gain respect for their vast knowledge of facts while they use them to mold "American opinion" against America. This is British Israel at work, and it multiplies its strength by turning Americans against America by turning the truth into a lie, and at the same time reserves to itself respectability under the cloak of Christian terminology and the American Flag. It conceals itself within the very thing that it seeks to destroy.

The use of facts to serve the truth is directly opposite to the use of facts as propaganda and it is this two-edged sword with which British Israel is stabbing America. It is a parasite and a malignancy and it feeds upon and hides within its victim while it subdues it to death. The concept may better be understood when one thinks, as poison under certain uses is medication, and with other uses the same poison is deadly. There again it is not the poison, it is the use made of it which determines its effect.

This concept we call self alienation, in that British Israel cleverly turns one unwittingly against his own country. This is the why of the many books and publications which may contain a great deal of truth supported by an impressive array of facts, which have swamped the land. The critical thing is that these so called exposés never contain all of the facts, and if one does not have all of the facts, he does not have a whole truth. Half truths are lies but most people cannot extend their credibility to understand the reverse effect which these widely distributed publications have on their thinking. They are designed to bring down the United States government and the fragment of constitutional government that we have left. Cannot the patriots see the dead end street, hopeless and without solution that all this deluge of queer patriotism has led them to? The only purpose of magnifying the ills of our country is to cause total loss of confidence by the people, who in turn will seek the New Order for relief from the one they help destroy.

The issues are fictitious and do not relate to the master force of British Israel. Therefore, insofar as we peddle these frauds, we are promoting a cover-up while causing hatred and dissension in the land. This is the predicament of those who want to save their country but do not understand the enemy. All political issues culminate in exhaustion for the would-be patriot, unless he can understand their relationship as a destroyer and a cover for the spiritual revolution that is unifying the people in the belief of the coming kingdom. It makes not one whit how much people fight each other over civil rights, urban renewal, foreign policy, United Nations, National Council of Churches, monetary policy, scandals in government, use of LSD, states rights, race relations or any other concoction real or imagined (the stirring of these shams helps British Israel) unless they can see how these things are used to confuse and dumbfound the people while they are enshrouded, overcome and unified with the spiritual lie of British Israel, called the kingdom of God on earth.

This same principle is true in the use of exposés about individuals, such as "A Texan Looks at Lyndon," "The Politician," and "None Dare Call It Treason." These things are foolishness to keep us looking the other way while we are being propagandized with the Kingdom Message. The plot is to tear us asunder with political issues of every description and divide the United States into every faction and dissension imaginable while we are united spiritually through British Israel to believe in the coming kingdom. The book "None Dare Call It Treason" is a prime example of right wing treason. The book condemns Russian Communism in about the first two thirds and then the author, in the last part of the book, gives Spiritual Communism as a cure to Russian Communism. No, he does not call his religious deception Spiritual Communism. He calls it interpretation of Bible prophecy, as do all Protestant Jews. He talks about divine intervention and the establishment of a universal peace via Christ. This is indeed Spiritual Communism, and little do Americans know that any earthly kingdom is only the cloak for world rulership of the Jew-Masonic British Empire. The earthly kingdom anti-Communist cult that operates freely within Christianity and under the laws of the land is promoting a universal despotism under the British Empire all in the name of religion, or worse, in the name of Christ. Using religion to control people is an essential fact of World Revolution. The trusting American people would do well to read "The Prince" by Niccolo Machiavelli, and they would not be so quick to take the false patriots at face value. In those pages is a revelation of the cloak and dagger technique that is used to gain power through deception. It is an excellent portrayal of how myths or crises are created and counter-myths or anti-crises are used to confuse and control whole nations and the world. If one's acumen is sharp, he can readily see how the anti-Communists are promoting revolution by causing general dissatisfaction with the American government without giving proper cause and effect of our general chaos. Men are much more impressed by political matters and social disturbances than detecting a subtle plot that controls their minds with religion. Machiavelli says that humanity is controlled by a principle that the human mind cannot fathom — religion. On page seven he says, regarding ethics and politics, "According to this classical conception, which was of Greek origin, refined and elevated by contact and fusion with the Christian gospel, politics had been conceived as a science subordinate to ethics." And the British Israel plot that has engulfed America to the point of a terminal cancer is nothing more than Machiavelli is describing as politics fused with Christianity, or in other words, a political religion under the mantle of Christianity. It is a concealed instrument of despotism generally misunderstood to be Russian Communism.

All this leads concerned Americans to one simple task, that being to inquire as to why we are sedated with a gospel of a social millennium instead of being revived with the gospel of grace and a kingdom of salvation. What then must we do to be saved as a nation? Take the politics out of Christianity. Recognize and condemn millennial Zionism and any form of spiritual deception that uses Christianity to build a so-called paradise earth. Is it not simple to conclude that if we have a political religion that feeds in us hope of a worldly kingdom, then our loyalty to the universal king automatically down the American flag? -The political religion calls the New Age Christ and his kingdom - few there be who know and who will know that this political theocracy is none other than the British Empire. This fact becomes truth only as we are able to penetrate the veil of false Christianity that Britain is using to establish universal Communism.

Just as religion is the motor in man, political Messianism is the religion of the right wing and Communism via "Christianity" is their subtle plot Ñ so subtle that most of the anti-Communist cult are completely and blindly dedicated to self destruction. Betrayal of one's country sometimes brings temporary fortune and esteem among traitors, but self betrayal comes from a twisted mind, with death the only refuge. What greater deceit than revolution via religion? Is religion more than a jot or tittle? Let us see what Martin L. Wagner says - in his Interpretation of Freemasonry. I quote: "Religion has ever been and is even now the most powerful factor in human activities. In some form it has been the motor back of the commanders of the armies, and of statesmen that founded the great world empires of the past, that animated and upheld the most despotic governments that fomented the bloodiest revolutions, that precipitated nations into sanguinary conflicts and that united alien peoples into almost indissoluble unions; that established the most arbitrary and despotic priest craft, enforced intellectual thralldom, and the tyranny of rulers. It has instigated, sustained and justified the most dastardly, atrocious, barbarous, and licentious acts in human annals, as well as the most liberal, just and pure. It has inspired the erection of the most stupendous, most elaborate, and the most costly structures as monuments to its power, and as shrines for its gods. It has produced the finest specimens of art, voiced the sweetest and holiest of song and inspired the loftiest flights of the intellect in all the realms of human knowledge. It has transformed human perverts into saints, and changed moral creatures into demons of lust, fury and crime. It has enabled timid women and children to defy the threats of tyrants, and smile upon the terrors of dungeons flames, and death. It has cemented brotherhoods and cults into unions which detest the sagacity of statesmen, the erudition of jurists, the skill of marshals, the power of kings and the anathema's of popes, to destroy. Religion is without doubt the most powerful motor in man, and religion is the motor in Freemasonry." Endquote. Pages 13 and 14. So there we have it. Religion is the motor in false patriotism and it insidiously undermines the good intentions of the would be patriots. Embodied in their efforts is treason via religion. Surely there has never been so many that have done so much for self destruction.

We are disintegrated politically and nationally while we are unified spiritually and internationally with the kingdom message. This is the clear and consistent pattern which may be seen through the chaotic situation in America today, and this is why all issues are spurious when unrelated to the mammoth spiritual deception that has permeated every phase of our lives in this once free country. While Americans engage every visible malfunction of our society and pay their tithes to the fright peddlers of a nebulous disease called Communism, the giant shadow of British Israel moves over the land invisible, unabated and all powerful, devouring its victim that it now has drugged on the kingdom message. This fictitious Christianity has enveloped the nation with its tentacles, awaiting only for its prey to exhaust itself in agony so that it can be delivered into the World Superstate built upon the shattered faith of fictitious Christians. It needs only to perform the acts which it has been telling the world is the Biblical climax of this age.

Can we now unmask the villain's who cooperate to dominate the world? Can we identify them personally so the people of the world can behold their masters? No! Even if it could be done, it would not change the chaotic world one fraction. In this text we are dealing with the only concept that can bring an understanding out of confusion. This concept is called "Fundamental Christianity," which is a Christian front for Zionism. Its spirit is the kingdom of God on earth. All false fabrics have been woven upon the idea that Jesus Christ is the Messiah of a terrestrial kingdom. The idea of a future kingdom age on earth is the root cause of all deceit. It is the refuse of rascals and the only lie that can distinguish Satan from an angel of light. It is the aim of big business to thoroughly intoxicate the world with its anti-Communist world evangelism and bring the world to believe that only a millennial world government can bring peace on earth. This is a religion. It is the religion of the right wing and its fake conservatism. It is the subversive political religion of political Messianism. It is a world government religion and it is Spiritual Communism. What does it matter if we lose our country through something called Russian Communism or a Communism called the kingdom of God on earth? And why could not Communism originate from the right wing also under the pretext of Christianity? There is no understanding of left wing Communism without understanding right wing Communism. Right wing Communism is a world despotism called the kingdom of God on earth. The kingdom of God on earth is the "Fundamental Christianity" of American patriotism, and with this "Christian" Communism the "anti-Communists" are leading us into world government. We shall see that the social order of the Judaic kingdom of God is identical to that of Karl Marx. Wake up, America, before you die thinking you are a "Christian Nation."

How do the patriots who are fighting for what they believe to be true American nationalism justify their beliefs in the kingdom message which is internationalism disguised as something Biblical? If they could understand British Israel trickery they could understand their contradictory and hopeless situation. One does not truly oppose a political world government if he believes in a spiritual world government under any name or pretext.

It is by using the truth to tell a lie that most people are mislead. This concept of revolution defies military science and tactics making the British Israel movement the most deceptive, clever and difficult to detect in the world. Deception, pretense and confusion make detection almost impossible. The activities of the right wing are in the realm of religion, education, patriotism and politics. And be sure of one thing, anyone engaging in this subversive movement would be the last one to admit British Israel, though there are few of the rank and file who have ever heard of it.

The effect of the activities of these Christian fronts is to create counteraction against the United States government, which in turn builds the revolution to a point where the people themselves overthrow their own government, thinking all the time that they are patriots. The purpose of the right wing as used by British Israel is to create and encourage a revolutionary state of mind and then the people will bring down their own government. The anti-Communist movement as it exists in the United States is peculiarly anti-American; while parading with the American Flag it is developing a pseudo nationalism to wreck the American government, just as Hitler did in Germany. Of course the claim of these people is that they want to get back to constitutional government and most of them sincerely want to, but they do not realize that the EFFECT of their actions is to destroy that which they believe they save. If they could understand the esoteric (hidden) purpose of their organizations, they would not be so anxious to be led to the slaughter. They should realize that as revolution increases constitutional government decreases. Government by crisis is a dictatorship.

So called non-profit anti-Communist organizations get mail service for a fraction of what it costs American taxpayers. For example, Billy James Hargis and Fred Swartz send first class mail anywhere in the United States for one cent, at this writing. This is favoritism to subversion.

Many have heard the right wing Communists such as Billy James Hargis, scream about tax persecution from the government. Anyone can observe that he has unlimited funds and has every advantage of "non-profit" mail service and tax status. His voluminous mail and that of other crypto Jews goes out all over America. Why are these British Israel Communists getting such favored treatment for their treason? It is because they are promoting world government through a false Christianity and receiving funds and tax exemptions because they carry on their sedition under the pretense of freedom of religion. Also it is a well known fact that Billy James Hargis gives his pseudo patriotic pitch many times from Masonic Lodges and Temples.

And why, they ask, should we not expose the frauds in government? The answer is that they do not expose -- they cover up- The proof of this is in the fact that after hundreds of books and mountains of "anti-Communist" literature, things get worse and worse. This should be obvious even to the asinine - Americans are too anxious to echo what someone tells them or believe what they read. and consequently they do not suspect the hidden implications of this reverse psychology type revolution which has engulfed the world. If a man keeps going to the doctor and the doctor keeps telling him that he is sick, then pretty soon he will be sick in truth, and a nation is no different - We are told that America cannot last, that she is going the way of ancient Rome - But America will not die if her beguiled and befuddled citizens don't kill her regardless of what the prophets of doom say.

America has an acute disease which is aggravated with treatment called confusion. Americans run to a quack doctor called anti-communism, who keeps building the disease by attacking the symptoms. Americans are going to suffer so much that a few of her people are going to finally realize that the mass produced "anti-communism" offers no promise to restored national health.

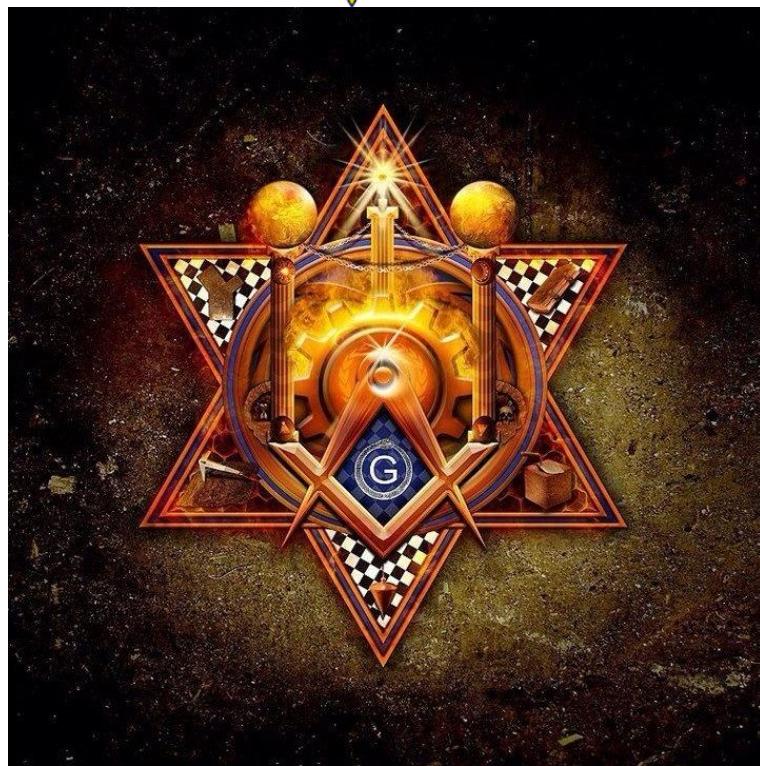

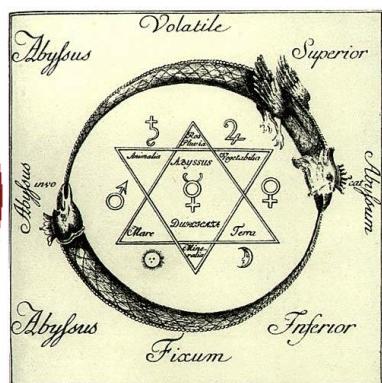

It is therefore axiomatic that we reorient and bring in a totally new comprehension of the term Communism. Understanding the disease certainly will give the maximum advantage toward cure.

This text is shock treatment for most Americans, who have an incurable anti-Russian Communism sickness which has come about by a gigantic build up of propaganda from organizations and churches, all of whom are carefully guided into Communism under the pretense of exposing it.

What cure and what solution does all this upsurge of 'patriotism' offer? Is it the return of Christ and His earthly reign? Or is it world brotherhood? Or is it the Adamic Race? Is it a legal system called "the world under God's law?" Is it a new moral order? Is it a restored paradise earth? Is it the world state of Zionism? Is it a World Commonwealth? All these enigmas merge into one concept - the universal world state under the name kingdom of God on earth. All these have a common mode and goal, and you may take one to suit your fancy and still arrive in a blasphemous God-State World Empire. All these ideologies are identical and all are Communism.

Can we not reason then that the "patriotism" and "Americanism" of the right wing is not conservatism at all, but is indeed the disease which brought on our deadly sickness? Is not the above named world government the opposite to patriotism? Are we not relying upon a doctor who keeps giving us the disease under the pretense of building up an immunity?

The hard and conclusive results of this injected trauma is not seen because time and again we are drugged and tranquilized to such an extent that we either feel that we are being cured, or at least unable to detect that we are being destroyed with our "anti-Communist" -medicine.

Life and property demand that we find a new direction - a new and true anti-communism. Will the treatment and recovery from this fake Communism be worse than the disease? No indeed; not if we are honest and sincere and are willing to spend a fraction of the time getting out of the trap which so much skill and time has lead us into. Let us realize one principle. If we are infected with an anti-American ideological disease, we are certainly carriers of it no matter our noble intentions.

Conspiracy always has a DUAL nature. It has the right wing and the left wing. It has the peace groups and the war groups. It has the religious and the atheist. It has the white race and the black race. It has those in power and those out, it has those at the top and those at the bottom.

Those in power such as in America today inaugurate socialistic programs and protect the street rioters thus creating the revolution from the top. Then the right wing dutifully calls it Communism and proceeds to heat up the sham. The dilemma is that the real issue and the real power is never revealed and this is the dilemma that puts those at the top and those on the bottom on the same side -- the wrong side of constitutional government. The effect of this fictitious confrontation is confusion and deception which is fuel for the revolutionary fire, and the result of it is the destruction of constitutional government and not the preservation of it. A bewildered people is the desire of world revolution and constructive criticism of government can come only when the people know fact from fantasy. British Israel is a cancer which controls the mind through confusion. With control of the mind the control of the body is automatic. If one has a basis for truth which is the true gospel and God's redemptive purpose, then he can see that there is a clear pattern to be seen through British Anglo Israel confusion which can be recognized through their consistent goal which is world government, under whatever name. Their strength is in twisting truth into a lie.

The whole structure of British Israel is one of many fronts, complications and devices for misleading the people and they seem to have no trouble at all concealing their identity with their use of semantics. They want people to believe that they are opposed to Communism so they name their pursuit kingdom of God on earth, thus accomplishing the same goal of world government, which will shackle the world into a more complete bondage than it is now SPIRITUAL BONDAGE. If you have a man's spirit you have his body at your command. If you have a nation's spirit you have its body at your command. If you have a nation's spirit you have the country regardless of the flag they fly. The thing that makes spiritual bondage complete is that the people don't know it, and if they don't know it they will not resist it, but will embrace it. This is the revolution that has entangled America and it is no different from that of St. Paul on the road to Damascus to kill Christians, thinking he was doing good.

The whole system of British Anglo Israel substitutes confidence in the flesh for faith in Jesus Christ. It is in this light that we identify the work of the many Christian fronts who claim that they are Christians and patriots when they are neither. While they claim to fight Communism they substitute a counterfeit Messiah and a worldly British Empire in the name of kingdom of God on earth.

This cult comes to us in many colors and fashions. Many organizations and individuals adhere to politics, patriotism, and education while others engage in politics and religion. Then there are the mammoth religious organizations and church groups which operate strictly on the religious with their main emphasis on "prophecy." As already stated it is not primarily within the scope of this work to name such obvious evils as the National Council of Churches. That the National Council of Churches is a subversive and Satan inspired organization is beyond question. Our main concern is that the ideology and theology of the right wing forces closely (as contrasted to the left wing) identify with the acceptable precepts of the average American whose thinking has been diluted by all manner of modern theology and Churchianity. It is because of this identification that they are able to get honest Americans to fall for their deception, not realizing the false political Messianism that they are helping to foster.

British Israel conceals itself by habitual use of the American Flag and by constantly using and hiding behind such terms as Americanism, American Opinion, Freedom of Enslaved Peoples, Constitution, Anti-communism, Fundamental Christianity, Christian Heritage, Judeo-Christian, American Heritage, Anti-Christ, Liberty, Equality, Fraternity, Justice, Identity, Progress, White Adamic Race, White Christians or White Race, Anglo-Saxon, Destiny, For God and Country, Kingdom, Western Civilization and Western Destiny, Christian Civilization, Israel Message, Throne of David, Prophecy, Prophecies of the Great Pyramid, Lost Tribes of Israel or Twelve Tribes of Israel, and World Evangelism as well as many others. Now these words and phrases are harmless of themselves but it is the USE of them that identifies the work of British Israel.

It is also the use of these terms that neutralizes resistance against British Israel. They are concepts twisted to fit British Israel political theology and the use and effect of them is to turn Americans against themselves by changing the truth into a lie. Most people look objectively at a thing rather than its effect upon them. This reverse use of propaganda has permeated every phase of American life and yet it has remained invisible and imperceptible to most. Hence the ostensible purpose of the anti-Communist crusades are to restore constitutional government and it is within this framework that gives them respectability but the constant attacks on the United States government has the effect of causing mass loss of confidence of the people in the American governmental system, and so it is with this idea that the people are beguiled into destroying their own form of government while they think they are patriots. True patriotism is not divided against itself because it is based upon truth and not the improper relationship of facts which is indeed the very opposite.

Oh! You say you have no religion but you are a right wing anti-Communist. And maybe you are not even a "Fundamentalist" or a Fraternal brother of the New Age cult. So no one has tricked you into a hoax and deceived you into treason. So you think for yourself. Maybe you are Dr. I.Q. or a smart lawyer or an intellectual giant. Well, have you attacked left wing Communism and right wing Communism? If you are only an anti-Russian Communist and are not getting paid for it, you are indeed dumb because billions are being spent to keep it going. With this deceit you can earn a fortune as thousands are doing, and if you have political aspirations you might become a U.S. Senator or perhaps President if you are especially skilled in creating fear hysteria of an imminent Communist invasion of our shores. But if you have not attacked and exposed right wing Communism called the kingdom of God on earth, then you are not anti-Communist as you pretend or believe. It is the kingdom of God British Empire World Order that is to survive and this is where the bets are because this is where the money is being spent also by the bale. Oh, you don't believe it? See if your local radio station will sell you time to expose it, as they do Herbert W. Armstrong to propose it.

All the good "Fundamentalists" and "anti-Communists" are against what they believe is Russian Communism but they are only a smoke screen to hide the real Communism, which is veiled under the Christian name kingdom of God on earth. The more smoke is made the better the cover-up. If you are not anti "Fundamental Christianity" you are not anti-Communist regardless of what you think. "Fundamental Christianity" is Communism of the most devilish sort and its goal is the most absolute despotism the human mind can imagine. A World State Communion which the "Fundamentalists" call the kingdom of God on earth is the very opposite of the moral and spiritual kingdom of Christianity. It is only those who know that God's kingdom is not flesh and blood (but salvation) who will recognize this age old earthly kingdom Pharisaism which is now on the world stage under the guise of Christianity. Christianity is a moral government and a spiritual kingdom not of this world. Communism, alias "Fundamental Christianity," is a political and social government (world federation) and an earthly world state. The desire of the Jews for a natural Messiah caused them to murder Jesus Christ. I Thess. 2:14. Will Christ now set up a kingdom of this world? It is the Jew's religion, which is syruped with the name "Fundamental Christianity," which turns Divine Revelation into a lie to support the earthly kingdom heresy. It is blasphemy. It is treason.

In our presentation of word usage to demonstrate their propaganda value let us dwell for a minute upon the term Judeo-Christian. To most Americans this is a high sounding brotherly love term. Its real implication is that Judaism is being promoted at the expense of Christianity in the so-called Christian Churches. Judaism or political Messianism today is being fed to the American people in the form of Christianity, in Christian terms and expressions and as we said, in "Christian churches." The essential hope and the essential identity of Judeo-Christianity is its drive to establish a kingdom of earthly dominion which is opposite and opposed to the spiritual dominion of Jesus Christ. Hence we have our tax exempt "Christian Anti-communism."

British Israel (the teaching of an earthly theocracy or kingdom of God) is Judaism. Yes, it is Judaism pure and simple and Judaism or the Jew's religion, as St. Paul refers to it, is poison to the soul of man and has been the enemy of Christianity before and since the coming of our Lord and Saviour Jesus Christ. After the fulfillment of Daniel's seventieth week or the Great Tribulation, national Israel came to an end and with it its dream of a political Messiah to establish national Israel in universal sovereignty in an earthly kingdom. But the agents of Satan have never given up in their attempt to deceive mankind about the kingdom of grace already established and made complete through the atoning blood of our Lord. Many and various fronts have been used to advance the use of the Jew's religion to control the spirit and mind of humanity. We have seen it rear its head in the so-called Christian Crusades, it was used in European wars and promoted under such terms as Divine Destiny. Certainly we recognize Adolf Hitler and his National Socialism as a front and pseudonym for the Jew's religion. Hitler's propaganda led the German people to believe that they were a kind of super nation and race with a supranational and Divine purpose. Then National Communism came on the world stage with deification of its national leaders. Today the ultimate in deceit has arrived but nevertheless the same old Jew's religion. Proselyte Jews and religious prostitutes of every cult imaginable have united under the name of Christianity to cause the greatest mind control apparatus in the history of man. They use Holy Writ to destroy it. They promote Christianity to pervert it and they acclaim Christ as Lord to deny His Lordship. They accomplish their deceit with an evil mixture of innuendo and misrepresentation, always under the sanctity of Christianity. They misuse the whole Bible to turn it from the gospel of salvation to the gospel of materialism or as they term it, an earthly kingdom of God. With an admixture of Christianity and heathen Judaism they have imposed upon professing Christianity the belief that God's purpose for man will be a paradise millennium in which National Israel shall become International Israel and Christ shall be the political as well as Divine Sovereign of the universe. Further depravity is added to this lie through the teaching that Anglo Saxondom is chosen of God to help establish this Novus Ordo Seclorum (New Order of the Ages) through the throne of Britain, which is they say, to be finally removed to Jerusalem and become the throne of Christ on earth. The Jewish State is the British Empire.

Americans have become entangled in the semantics of their own language which has made of them slaves which first made them free. As a man thinks in his heart, so is he, and if he believes right is wrong and wrong is right he is nonetheless zealous in it. It is this peculiar trickery of British Israel which causes a man to turn against himself and it is from this basis which the most vain unwittingly despise themselves. Ego fights self unto death when free men are not free. It is in this predicament that men are ever learning but never able to come to the knowledge of the truth.

Again we emphasize that perhaps the greatest concentration of this propaganda is on the religious with the constantly quoting of the Scriptures to explain everything past, present and future through Biblical prophecies. It is this seemingly harmless and invisible force that makes the British Israel movement so dangerous to our national independence. The idea of using the churches to conquer a nation is indeed a study in sophistry. We are confused politically while enchain'd spiritually. This is the subtlety of Satan who has appeared as an angel of light.

America is being destroyed under the facade of Christianity and Americanism by people who call themselves patriots. They are not patriots but aliens in our midst tearing out the very heart of the greatest nation on earth.

We point out a few of the many political and so-called educational organizations whose activities we identify as anti-Christian and/or subversive to the American nation. Remember many of them have at one time or another at least mentioned British Israel as their opposition. This takes the heat off of them when they are accused of Bl but this does not take away the truth that they are, in fact, British Israel and their consuming purpose is British Israel. As stated before the last thing they will do is admit that they are British Israel, and as such are agents of the British Empire seeking to abolish our government in favor of (to quote Robert Welch in the John Birch Society Blue Book, tenth printing 1961 copyright) page 163: "an honestly intended federation of nations...", ostensibly to increase individual freedom. Fellow Americans you don't increase freedom under world government, least of all a British World, and this is only the double talk of a Judas goat leading the sheep to slaughter. In this regard let us look at other anti-Communist Christian fronts. The land is overrun with fictitious patriotism as seen in the Conservative

Society of America, Christian Crusade, Twentieth Century Reformation Hour, Soldiers of the Cross, Freedom Foundation, American Council of Christian Churches, Christian Nationalist Crusade, Minutemen, Nazi Party, Ku Klux Klan, National States Rights Party, Masonic Order, Christian Anti-Communism Crusade, occult groups and many others. In the minds of the people these organizations represent different ideologies but they do not. It is simply a something for everybody scheme and all of them are feverishly keeping the revolutionary fire in America burning by blaming everything on Russian Communism. Some of them Jew bait along the way while others harp on the White Race. Anything to fan the fire and cover up the truth is their purpose. Some of the above dwell on the "Jewish Menace" and their supporters do not realize they are instruments of these same Pharisees which they falsely call Jews. Further identification of these fakers with the object of their attacks is their acclamations of the precepts of British Israel. They attack on one hand and propagate the same heresy on the other under a different name. The art of creating fictitious antagonisms against the powers that be has nowhere excelled as in the United States. Further, the direct connections of these Luciferians to the Fraternal Organization which advocates the NEW AGE reveals their identity and true purpose.

Communism does not fight Communism and we cannot fight Communism with more Communism. We are burdened with the task of a determination of what Communism is and then we can properly come to understand the concept of patriotic subversion or conservative treason. Are all these "non-profit churches" and Christian fronts carrying on legal treason? Yes, they are, with special tax privileges which Americans who are paying the bill do not have. These "patriotic" and Christian fronts simply make themselves legal by operating under the pretext of Constitutional guarantees such as freedom of religion and freedom of speech, and receive tax subsidies by organizing church fronts. This trick of treason to a lawyer would be an extra legality. This extra legality is the idea of being outside the law and therefore exempt from the law. This gives the right wing as well as the left wing a haven or sanctuary to use the laws of the land to destroy this country without fear of prosecution under the National Defense Provision of the Constitution. The only solution to this chicanery is to place the proper definition or identification upon their presumptions of Americanism, thereby laying them open for prosecution for sedition under the United States Constitution. It is our purpose here to define their activities and let them defend their treason to the American people. Many newspapers and magazines promote the Kingdom Message. Some of them keep up racial friction against the Negro while others Jew bait and still others stick to anti-communism and pro-Jew bait. They work all areas in order to keep confusion at a peak and at the same time conceal British Israel until it is too late for any recovery of the true national independence of the United States. In this group of publications we call your attention to a few of the many thousands and many of them are free for the asking. The Councilor, Common Sense, Cross and Flag, Pilgrim Torch, Intelligence Digest, Human Events, Thunderbolt, . . . Fiery Cross, Conservative Viewpoint, American Opinion, National Chronicle, Destiny, Plain Truth , The Watch Tower, Christian Beacon, Prophetic Newsletter, Dan Smoot Report, the New Age, Candour, Capsule News, Task Force, Christian Crusade, and many others one way or another promote revolution in the name of Patriotism, Americanism and Christianity. Most of our daily newspapers and more sophisticated publications such as United States News and World Report are not exempt. United States News and World Report does a mammoth job of magnifying America's problems without ever revealing the source of those problems. At the same time this publication regularly plays down the power and influence of the British Empire.

If it is beginning to appear that British Israel has enshrouded us with its poison then we are beginning to make our point. British Israel propaganda reaches into every phase of our national and local affairs. There is no escape unless we are armed with the truth to combat and expose it. First we must recognize this powerful and invisible force and then we must destroy it and banish the traitors in our country who would sell us out to the British Empire World Superstate in the name of Christ.

How do we separate the bad guys from the good guys? It is by understanding the religion of "patriotism," or shall we say the Judaism of the right wing. First a fictitious anti-communism can be spotted if it does not include an expose of the Kingdom Message which is "pure" Communism. Then by an understanding of "Fundamental Christianity" and its scheme to establish a ghost Christianity as a vehicle to control the minds of humanity by cleverly twisting Scripture to sanction a World Brotherhood commune, we can unmix those Christians and true patriots from all others. Then with the Sword of the Spirit we can abolish the deceit of a carnal "Christian" kingdom and reestablish conservative battle lines absolutely without fear of infiltration. There is only one thing that will pull pseudo patriotism out in the open. This is forcing them to expose the kingdom of God Communism. Try it!

We despise the vulgar revolution in the guise of Civil Rights and so on, but the most dangerous traitors are the sophisticated and well dressed preachers, teachers, and Americanism speakers who are stabbing the American people to death with British Israel propaganda sugarcoated with Christian terminology. Yes, this Satanic concept of revolution is at its best to destroy the very people who have shed their blood and shared their substance for the British Empire. It is this monster called the British Empire, which has floated the world in blood to attain its ends. The agents of this colossus are of many variations ranging from so-called Communist agents to Rhodes Scholars including modern day Pharisees who call themselves Jews. Though they appear different they may be identified by this goal which is a New World under the Union Jack, erected upon the ashes of National States. According to William Allen White, a noted British propagandist, "It is the destiny of the pure Aryan Anglo-Saxon race to dominate the world and kill off or else reduce to a servile status all other inferior races." Who says it was Hitler who started the bunkum of the "Master Race?"

There have been thousands of books written which purport to expose Communism and other fictions related thereto. Almost in every case one can detect the advocacy of world government while presuming to fight Communism. Careful analogy reveals that all angles lead to world government as a solution to a crisis ridden world. The plot is to tear down this social order and give a solution of world government of "righteousness" to replace it. In prophetic terms after the "Great Tribulation" a new world alias kingdom of God on earth is to come.

We name a few books which cleverly misuse truth and outright advocate or promote the very thing they claim they oppose. They are: Iron Curtain Over America, New Unhappy Lords, as well as other books by the same author; The Plot Against the Church, The Plot Against Christianity, as well as the other Jew bait of Elizabeth Dilling; The International Jew by Henry Ford, World Revolution by Nesta Webster, None Dare Call it Treason and Death of A Nation by John Stormer, The Politician, Imperium, Race and Reason, Race and Heredity and Civilization, Race and Social Revolution, Red Fog Over America; all the race books of Lothrop Stoddard; The Protocols, The Rulers of Russia, The Zionist Network; Trail of the Serpent, World Aflame, and A Choice Not an Echo.

That civil disorder which is called Communism and its counterpart Anti-communism magnifies and advertises discontent while concealing its own true nature and source. This is the dual purpose of its existence--to first create confusion as to what is what, and secondly to hide the real conspiracy. Simple logic requires that we look at the result of this sham in order to determine its validity and genuineness, and it cannot be said that we have not had enough time. Billions have been spent in so-called wars against Communism and the cotton candy patriots have imposed their anti-Communist rot on the American people for half a century and the result is confusion compounded and a complete cover up of the real conspiracy. Of course the mass of participants do not understand the implications of their own actions but this does not lessen the harm done. They have been foisted into a double dimension plot against themselves in which they are the major participants. To fill up the measure of this irony the patriot cannot advance nor retreat from his own encirclement and any move he makes or contemplates is calculated to deter him from true patriotism. Like a dog chasing his tail he runs himself ragged to destroy his country. He never stops to penetrate the effective reality of his self extinction. Like the victim of an hallucination he fights his way into prison to gain his freedom and he has the gall and ignorance to call the beguiled Uncle Toms a conspiracy. Is the right wing anti-Negro? Very! Christian colored people in America should investigate how they, too, are being worked against themselves both from the left and the right. On the left he is the front man and the cannon fodder for civil disturbances. On the right he will find his ultimate reward if he can decipher British Israel "Fundamental Christianity." He is not only designated a servant race in the New Order, he is a beast, not being subject to the grace of Christ. The Negro can find no refuge in the American catastrophe except with true Christians who will give him what he earns and deserves, and will not deceive him in his salvation by a perversion of the Gospel which gives him a beast role in a paradise earth. Christianity is not racially concerned as is false Christianity. Only the hypocrisy of Satan with his "Fundamental" Zionism would pretend to befriend the Negro and damn his soul at the same time. We find this racism in "In The Image of God" by Destiny Publishers, Merrimac, Massachusetts, on page 5. I quote: "Professor Charles Carroll engaged in profound and copious research to discover the truth about the 'beast of the earth,' or 'beast of the field,' and found this 'beast' to be of the ape order, or family, but not an ape. He is not human, but an animal order after his own kind — he is black — he is the Negro." End of quote. On page 15 we find under a caption "Biblical Proof," this: "From the Bible itself we have presented proof that the 'beast of the field' (or earth) are a high order of animal life who are vocal, intelligent, who can sin and repent, as well as pray. They are the pure stock of the Negro, a servant order." End of quote. Notice the author did not say they could be saved.

The imprudence of men leads them to take up something because at the moment it seems good, and they do not detect the poison which it conceals within. This is the cause of made in England patriotism and it hides within it treason and once men grasp for it, it undoes them before they can regain their understanding of what happened. If Americans, who have been tantalized into this fake patriotism, could but take one step backward in order to see the subjective aspect of this trap, they could see how in reality they have unwittingly jumped into the ridiculous situation of self-negation. They are debased and deceived creatures, prostrate before the altar of a monstrous falsehood simply because it calls itself "Divine Truth." Spiritual blindness has caused Americans to grab every straw in the wind which is stamped with Christianity and patriotism. What fools we mortals be! Can we not force ourselves to believe that Satan appears as an angel of light, that the American churches are being used as a base of operations to destroy our faith and our nation?

According to the prophetic scheme of British Israel or "Fundamental Christianity" we are approaching the time of Jacob's Trouble which will bring the Great Tribulation down upon the earth with the reign of anti-Christ. One might wonder if this is according to the Bible, why would the "patriots" waste their substance supporting anti-Communism? Why would they delay the hand of God? After all, according to British Israel the Millennium is to follow, and why delay a paradise earth when we need it so badly?

We concede perhaps that they believe they are doing good works by warning the world of the great events to come according to Bible prophecy. Here again their spiritual blindness causes them to activate those forces which will bring their own ruin. Their "tithes and offerings" to such political intrigue is helping to advertise and promote a conspiracy against the true Gospel and the tragedy of it all is that this scheme calls for world government. Communism calls for world government. British Israel calls for world government under the alias of kingdom of God on earth. If one has come to believe in the Kingdom Message he is a Communist. World government is world government under any name and in any case it necessitates the destruction of the sovereignty and national independence of the United States of America.

This pincers thrust of Communism on one side and Millennialism on the other is calculated to destroy our freedom and society while it prepares the people of America and the world for the New Order of the Ages in the kingdom of God on earth. The idea is to drive the people to such desperation (through civil disorder, inflation, famine and war), that they will gladly see the "end of the age" come. What they do not suspect is that this order would be replaced with a dark age both spiritual and physical which may well last a thousand years. It could not happen except its victims help prepare the way. Mankind is beguiled into bearing its own cross not to a celestial glory but to terrestrial ruin because they love darkness more than they love light. Could man despise himself and his country so much except he be spiritually blind?

The crusaders say "I know that the Bible is God's Word, and I can prove it by what is happening today." What they do not know is that the Bible is not a history book to justify British Israelism. The Bible is a plan of salvation and does not foretell events to justify the evil intent of British Israel and its prostitute theologians who parade under the name of Christian. The Bible does not set forth a plan of world government on this earth, centered from Jerusalem, except as men twist the Scriptures into a lie. Events are enacted on the world stage such as those in Palestine and evil men pervert the Word of God and change the truth into a lie so that man will believe that those events are of God. How can Americans believe such nonsense is Biblical when Christ said "My kingdom is not of this world," and that flesh and blood cannot enter His kingdom? How shall these modern Pharisees escape the judgments of God?

In this text we have condemned Communism as an ideology and base of operations which is being used to drive America and the world into the greatest spiritual trap since the dark ages, which in turn guarantees physical domination by the force that wields this spiritual power. Then we have demonstrated that this spiritual trap is a political Messianism which is an attempt to establish a world government in the name of Christ, and that it is the right wing and Christian fronts that are carrying out this Satanic plot while they siphon huge sums of money from the bewildered American people. British Israel is right wing Communism and is being foisted on the people with the churches and patriots through the spiritual. This movement, as has been stated, has its peculiarities, phrases, books, publications and activities, which identify it as against Christianity (when one understands its dual purpose) and true patriotism, but is most successful operating under these veneers. This political intrigue is no different from its supposed enemy Communism, as its goal is identical. We have pointed out that this British Israel movement is synonymous with Millennialism, the kingdom of God on earth, Political Messianism, the New Age, Communism, Pharisaism under the name of Judaism, Anglo Israelism, and the movement manifests itself and is given to the people in terms of Bible prophecy and brotherhood. The plot is ages old and it seeks to establish in the minds of men that they shall inherit the blessings of Abraham as his physical seed. If men can be persuaded that the New Israel is not spiritual (Israel is spiritual) (Israel is spiritual as taught in the New Testament) but that it is national and fleshly as in the Old Testament, then they have made the Gospel of none effect and with this spiritual bondage they are subdued politically and nationally into a world super state. We do not intend to confuse things spiritual with things physical or things earthly with things heavenly or things sacred with things profane, but evil men have done this to accomplish worldly glory and power. This is the power of darkness that seeks to dethrone Christ in Heaven and demote Him to earth to satisfy their age old demand of an earthly paradise. They rob us of the Gospel and turn us again to spiritual bondage so that they may impose a political theocracy upon the earth in the name of Christ. The true "Beast System" of the earth is British Israel and with this deceit they seek the allegiance of God's people by leading them to believe in an earthly kingdom and an earthly king. God's people are not earth people. With the sword of the spirit Christians shall fight this heresy and they may lose their nation but they will keep the faith once delivered to the saints. They shall continue in the truth of the Lord Jesus Christ and they shall remain a part of Christ's kingdom. He promised that the gates of Hell should not prevail against His kingdom. This is a concept of total war between truth and a lie and it must be in this spiritual battle that we shall fight. Then we can truly sing "Onward Christian Soldiers."

1985 UPDATE:

Nine out of ten people in America today believe in some form of racial and/or national religion. America is therefore more Nazi than Germany ever was. No we do not have the goose steppers nor the torchlight parades but we do have the same racial and national religion. It is only a question of who is the Master Race.

We have identity cults of every description (Christianity, Identity, Israel Identity, etc., etc.) who are tooting racial and national salvation. They are nothing but neo-Nazis under a Christian cloak.

Now turn on your radio to any station and you will hear the propaganda of the Kingdom Message. This is World Government propaganda in Biblical language about how Jesus Christ will set up His government and reign for a thousand years on a paradise earth. You hear it from all the religious prostitutes of Baal.

And the "patriots" are involved in this treason. This is their practicing religion.

Finally, can the "patriots" oppose their own religion?

IDENTIFICATION OF BRITISH ISRAEL AND ITS GOALS

Undermining America
with Anti-Communism and "Patriotism"

British Israel has many facets and complications. It endeavors to work from every angle, slant and direction but always the central purpose of every seemingly unrelated or antagonistic movement or effort is first the destruction of national states in the world while at the same time preparing the people for the New Age. This dual purpose is seen in every effort from alleged Communist wars to the deluded patriots. All roads lead to this central purpose of establishing a World Theocracy -- a spiritual dictatorship of a spiritually blind people.

British Israel is British Communism and it is spreading its subversion and subterfuge under the cloak of religion and what's more it is using the Christian religion.

While America is exhausting its resources fighting foreign wars against what is popularly understood as Russian Communism, British Communism operates within America and within the law and we quickly add, under the protection of the law, simply by pretending religion. The truth is that British Israel is a seditious political enemy within, with complete immunity from apprehension. British Israel is a political religion, a religion of materialism, a World Government religion and it deserves no freedom under the Constitution of the United States.

Many of the pseudo conservatives say they cannot engage in a religious battle with the kingdom cults. This is an excuse for not exposing the hidden enemy of the American people.

We may be sure that the Constitution should have been more expository in the section holding Freedom of Religion. There should be no religion or political movement with religious fronts which advocate World Government. British Israel is such a religio-political movement holding the American people under control more completely than could an occupation army. Not only is this true, it has, through its religious appeal, enlisted literally millions of Americans with its materialistic and political kingdom false Christianity. Never in the history of the world have so many millions of humanity and nations been deceived into surrender in the name of religion. And simultaneously, never has there been such a gigantic effort toward World Evangelism, supposedly Christian. This is the reason for the mass hypnosis of the American people.

Billy Graham is at this writing promoting British Israel in the name of Jesus Christ. By this we mean that he is teaching that a World government under Christ is soon to come on earth. If he should revert to Christianity and the kingdom of Grace, he would be as infamous as Christ was among the Jews who wanted and still want a kingdom of this world.

People who believe in any form of earthly paradise, Heaven on earth, New Age or Millennial Age are supporting British Communism. It is strongly objected that because one believes in Premillennialism or an earthly reign of Christ, that he is not necessarily a British Israelite or promoting British Communism. Many people want to differentiate between Millennialism and British Israelism. They are the same, if the truth hurts. It is true that there are minor differences over how long the earthly kingdom is to last and various points of how the kingdom shall be started and so on. But an earthly kingdom is an earthly kingdom whether it be called the Millennial Age or British Israelism. If one can be brought from Christ's kingdom of Grace to materialism, what does Satan care what route he travels to get there?

The kingdom of God on earth is British propaganda and an argument over word definition will not alter their final purpose of World Government. It matters not how much the Millennialists believe that their thousand year kingdom is a Christian doctrine, it is Communism and supports the British scheme of world Communism through religion.

Many object to this charge. Many argue that because they believe in an earthly kingdom this does not promote the British Empire. It makes no difference whether one is aware of the implications of his beliefs or not. It is what he believes that controls him.

British Israel or British Communism can be identified and it can be understood, though it is very important to understand that it has no organizational structure but is promoted within existing institutions. Its essential dogma is the coming of the kingdom of God on earth with Divine law and Divine government.

First, British Communism poses as the Christian religion and as such it operates freely to overthrow the American government.

Secondly, by a system of complicated fronts, it has hidden its identity.

Thirdly, it enlists Americans against their own country without them ever knowing it.

Fourth, it is the originator and greatest pretender of anti-communism, thereby neutralizing any genuine effort of patriotism.

Fifth, it is not inhibited by the expense and logistics of a military effort.

Sixth, it can use Marxian Communism to cause conflict between nations and conflict between races within nations and keep complete control over all sides through the kingdom religion and Masonry.

Seventh, it extols the American tradition, American ideals, the Constitution and everything dear to the heart of patriotic Americans.

Eighth, it controls all political parties including independent parties and third and fourth parties.

Opposition is simply fabricated on false issues

We are told that Communism is in Russia, in Vietnam, in China and spreading daily.

Fellow countrymen, British Communism has been in the White House for many years. It controls nearly all churches. It is the colossus of an invisible Empire. It is a spiritual force - a mental monster.

But there is a defense and the best defense is the best and only offense, as follows: Number one, British Communism must be identified as the whole network of pseudo religious cults that teach a kingdom of God on earth. They must be dealt with as would any treason. At the same time we must understand that such teaching is not Christianity. Number two, we must understand that Masonry is the visible agency of the Empire carrying out systematic destruction of liberty and property under the Constitution. (See Masonic section). This simple understanding by enough people will eliminate at once false patriotism, race conflict, foreign wars, the farce of Democracy and the hypocrisy of World Brotherhood.

In understanding the power politic use of religion for mind control and consequent physical control, it is important to understand that religion can be anything real or imagined as long as its adherents have faith or belief in same, enough to give over their allegiance to it above all else. Religion need not refer to the Supernatural or Divine only in name; thus the ruse of substituting the kingdom of God on earth as Christianity to hide British Communism.

Regardless of the foundation upon which Religion is built, whether it be truth or falsehood, it is the motor in man and the motivator of history by whoever uses religion for deceptive control. In the preface of Martin L. Wagner's book FREEMASONRY AN INTERPRETATION, we find these words, and I quote: "Religion has ever been and is even now the most powerful factor in human activities. In some form it has been the motor back of the commanders of the armies, and of statesmen that founded the great world empires of the past, that animated and upheld the most despotic governments, that fomented the bloodiest revolutions, that precipitated nations into sanguinary conflicts and that united alien peoples into almost indissoluble unions; that established the most arbitrary and despotic priest craft, enforced intellectual thralldom, and the tyranny of rulers. It has instigated, sustained and Justified the most dastardly, atrocious, barbarous, and licentious acts in human annals, as well as the most liberal, just and pure. It has inspired the erection of the most stupendous, most elaborate, and the most costly structures as monuments to its power, and as shrines for its gods. It has produced the finest specimens of art, voiced the sweetest and holiest of song and inspired the loftiest flights of the intellect in all the realms of human knowledge. It has transformed human perverts into saints, and changed moral creatures into demons of lust, fury, and crime. It has enabled timid women and children to defy the threats of tyrants, and smile upon the terrors of dungeon, flames, and death. It has cemented brotherhoods and cults into unions which defeat the sagacity of statesmen, the erudition of jurists, the skill of marshals, the power of kings and the anathema's of popes, to destroy. Religion is without doubt the most powerful motor in man, and religion is the motor in Freemasonry." End quote.

This, we think, is an accurate description of the mental control that religion has over man. Likewise it follows that any movement in the name of religion or under the facade of religion has the same power such as British Israel Communism.

We move then to the certain conclusion that tyrants can control the world through religion when all else would fail. Hence British Israel has done the one thing no army in the world could do - made Americans reject their own freedom with a super allegiance to a false kingdom of God.

It is amazing to behold the many different church denominations (many of them antagonistic toward each other) but all of them preaching and teaching the kingdom message. (See diagram on page 37). They may differ as to details of worship and ritual but again the central theme and driving force is toward the establishment of the kingdom of God on earth. Few church people realize this main consistency which permeates so many apparently different denominations and church groups. The idea is to let people disagree on everything but that they shall all believe that the kingdom of God is earthly, and that it is soon to be established.

Prophecies of famine, war, disease, crime, national and international disasters are foretold every minute by the prostitutes of British Israel. They are preaching the doom of this social order thereby helping it to a speedy end. Few ever understand their complicity in this coming calamity which they justify according to what they term Bible prophecy. It is not in the understanding of the average American to believe that American churches are being used as a vehicle for political propaganda. They have been taught that they should "go to the church of your choice" and that they should "light the world with their faith." As a result of these campaigns they have developed a certain guilt complex in the people who don't go to the church of their choice. More often than not people who don't go to church have not become infected with this political theology or kingdom message and consequently they actually can see the truth of this British Israel heresy much quicker. This is by no means a blanket condemnation of every church and individual who goes to church. There are many, many true and faithful Christians who have attended church all their lives. Our point is that nearly all churches are organized and directed so as to carry out this propaganda effort. Though it is subtle, it is true.

Let's not kid ourselves. Who can learn about the living Christ from an army of Masonic preachers who are dedicated in spirit to His destruction? They have spread over the land like locusts with their pious faces and Bible in hand to change the Heavenly hope of a once great people to the promise of a worldly paradise if they would but get this old U.S.A. out of existence.

Yes, they hammer away at the depravity in the land while their fraternal brothers in politics work the other end. That Masons are in almost every position of influence in politics is a fact unknown only to lunatics and dumb animals. Must we ask then who are the hands that hold the dagger that is stabbing America? Who votes for welfare dole? Who votes for foreign no-win wars? Who vote themselves pay raises? Who sits on the benches of the high courts and deals out unconstitutional decisions under the guise of Americanism? Who paroles and turns criminals out on society to repeat their crimes? Who runs Communism and who runs anti-communism? Who runs the political parties? The answer is Masons and their grand lodge is in London and their goal is the New Age -- the Millennium. They will spill every drop of blood of humanity to gain this end and they have deceived and hoodwinked their followers into believing they are Christians.

If our readers think we have turned away from our study of British Israel we would remind him that we are only identifying the work of the New Age cult. The important thing is that this New Age of Masonry is the Millennium of British Israel and we recognize it as such. Further the Red Star of the Shriner's is the same red star of Communism and the Knights Templar Cross of Nazi Germany is the Knights Templar Cross of Masonry and the fountainhead of all these mysteries is the Grand Lodge of London. (See pages 12-14 how Masonic symbols are related to BI).

That the power of British Israel is complete (though invisible because it is thought control) is now obvious to those who understand. Therefore it is no problem to direct the affairs of the world to conform to the scheme of the unbiblical doctrine of British Israel and unregenerate Americans are only a pawn in the game. That British Israel is in control of our government and the world even at this time is seen in the complete freedom of nationwide and worldwide broadcasts which the kingdom message propaganda has in America. A nation in control of its own existence would not allow this poisonous sedition rampant from coast to coast.

The political power of British Israel has prostituted the churches both Catholic and Protestant to seduce the spirit of the people and blind them to the saving grace of Jesus Christ, replacing grace with race and the worship of the "great beast system" revealed here as Pax Britannica under

THE UNION JACK

Alias kingdom of God on earth.

Ironically these church servants of this beast will be maneuvered into a position of destruction after they have prostituted themselves to the powers of British Israel.

We repeat that the whole scheme of World Revolution is that we can have no peace on earth without world government which can only be built upon the ashes of this social order and part of those ashes are those of America. This concept of revolution is termed British Israel because it operates from a basis of SPIRITUAL deception and this evil SPIRITUAL force operates at its optimal in the name of Christianity. It misuses the Bible to prepare its advances by changing the beliefs of the people to conform to its carnal goal of world power through SPIRITUAL deception. So the real meaning of the New Order of the Ages is that it would be a political SPIRITUAL colossus if it could deceive God's elect into believing that the true kingdom is indeed flesh and blood.

There are many devices used to promote this SPIRITUAL deception and at the same time conceal its true nature and identity. Some of these devices are Jew baiting or fighting the Jews, fighting Communism in general, fighting the Negroes, fighting the government in Washington on spurious issues, fight the International Bankers, raising issues for and against our participation in the no-win wars, and many, many other activities which are designed to draw the people into sham fights. Few participants ever recognize the hidden spiritual purpose and deception within these movements. To engage for or against any commotion will entangle one against his best intentions unless he can see how such activity is being used to promote a SPIRITUAL plot. And it is from this proper context that he may engage the enemy otherwise his "good works" is in vain.

As stated all confusion and chaos is predetermined to first destroy and tear asunder this social order and second to prepare the people at the same time for "a better world." What cause may we ask, does it serve to point out the evils of our society and the evil doers, unless we at the same time identify the purpose of this total confusion? To build "a better world" is a concept used many times to justify the blasphemy and evil deeds of those who are helping destroy this one.

It is the determination of the British Empire to drive America into no alternative than uniting with the British Empire by holding America in subjection to Russian Communism. This is the broad implication of all British created Communism both from within the United States and from without. From a convergent though hidden push comes the religious Communism which if carried out without the crisis of Russian Communism, would eventually be entirely successful. Religious deception and religious propaganda however can progress more rapidly from a crisis situation which serves to screen out or otherwise divert attention to spurious or irrelevant matters. The cause of twentieth century strife is concealed under the regalia of religion. It is not a new idea but it is refined and sophisticated to the point of negligible detection. While Americans seek out the "Communist menace" in the swamps and jungles of Vietnam, Communism has been instilled into their minds through religion.

One cannot engage this fight from any angle and hope to expose it unless he relates it to the SPIRITUAL lie that is called the kingdom of God on earth. One may expose every fraud in the land and present his case with the skill and perfection of a Philadelphia lawyer and if he fails to relate the USE and purpose of these forces in promoting a SPIRITUAL deception then he has not only not revealed the plot he is a part of it. This is the trap well laid and well planned to beguile the people into their own destruction. One cannot engage a physical force with impunity unless he can relate its effect upon the mind of man. One can choose his weapons and choose his side in this fight but unless he can see the significance of the SPIRITUAL force he only becomes a victim of crossfire and could do more for his country by deserting it. This is why it matters not who or what one attacks or exposes as long as he does not relate it to British Israel. This is the explanation and justification of the many pseudo Christian fronts and patriotic appeals. They are conceived and expanded from this basis and as they take the tithes and offerings of a bewildered people they steal their freedom and prepare their minds for the Millennial Age.

Remember that we have pointed out that the prophecies which British Israel says are Biblical (but are not) teach that Communism will fall after it has "defeated the enemies of Israel." What this means of course is that Communism and all its manifestations are controlled by Anglo Saxonism and that it is being used to punish the world while preparing the world for the New Order of the Ages. This Novo Ordo Seclorum as seen on our one dollar bill means this New Order of the Ages, or kingdom of God on earth. The pyramid is that of British Israel and that of Masonry and the all seeing eye at the top is that of Jehovah and that of the Grand Architect of Masonry. This further demonstrates the identity of Masonry with British Israel and that they are one is conclusive. Also the selection of the one dollar bill on which to inscribe the above is significant as one is unity and Britain and America is one.

Communism is kept alive by British Israel and their goy Masons work both sides of Communism in order to cover the grand plot of British Israel. Communism is used for two good reasons. One is to keep the real plot of British Empire hidden while the Empire's use of British Israel (the spiritual plot) to indoctrinate the kingdom message unto the people. The second reason is to destroy the United States of America with Communism so that it can be "saved" into the British Empire with British Israel. The idea is to create as much havoc and confusion with Communism while at the same time using Communism to advance British Israelism in a hidden and concealed way (spiritual way). This explains how the conservatives and liberals can have constant warfare and both sides serve British Israel and never reveal their purpose. The Sadducees and Pharisees were at war with each other but united against Christ and His truth.

The seeds of social chaos are sown constantly in order to keep the issues hot. The newspapers and magazines magnify and enlarge the chaos while careful never to reveal the real purpose and the real power behind it all. It is entertaining if not so sad for America, to watch two supposedly opposing senators get on nationwide television and debate the issues such as the Vietnam war. In the first place they are not opposed to each other, both being Masons, (the U.S. Congress and Senate is almost 100% Masonic) and in the second place they are not opposed to the Vietnam war where thousands are spilling their blood. They are doing all they can to keep it going and at the same time to conceal its purpose. Not one of them will tell that American boys are policing the world for the British Empire. They are almost unanimous in this British Israel Masonic debauchery. As the illegitimate sons of Satan help bleed America white by spending her substance their preachers are telling the people that America is suffering because of her sins and that America must suffer some more. She must go through the "great tribulation" and be cleansed so that "Divine Intervention" can save her for her world service in the New Age Millennium.

Fellow Americans the only national sin, if there were such a thing Biblically, we have is letting the British Empire use Masonry to ruin our country and deceive us into accepting it as Communism. If you doubt that Masonry is running this country take a head count. If you doubt they are working for the New Age, both spiritually and physically, then you don't understand Masonry and this is not to say that most of them are aware of what they do, as they are not. The point is that once one is imbued with the spirit of Masonry he is no hireling, he is an idealist, and he conforms to the patterns of his order no matter its effect upon him and his country. This is how Masonry appears to support Americanism while tearing it to pieces while building and preparing the New Age at the same time. True Americanism and the New Age are mutually exclusive and only the spiritually blind proselytes of the order cannot understand this dual concept. This divides one against himself and he cannot believe in the New Age of Masonry and at the same time true Americanism, as the first excludes the last, and the last excludes the first.

We have said that the political arm of British Israel creates and generates the political wars and confusion and the spiritual arm, which is most of the churches and evangelistic groups in America, explains it and justifies it according to a perverted scheme of Bible interpretation with the main emphasis on Bible prophecy. It is this peculiar prophecy that foretells the New Age or Millennium, or kingdom of God on earth, which will relieve mankind from war, disease, famine, hate, etc., when none of it should exist anyway but for their use by Satan to deceive the nations into believing that the kingdom of God is a political and earthly glory instead of a spiritual and heavenly glory.

Nearly every church leader in the land says he is opposed to Communism while he promotes it under the name of kingdom of God on earth. Most are honest but their spiritual blindness keeps them active in promoting this political theology which seeks the goals of Communism under the name of Christianity and the establishment of a World State (spiritually controlled) in the name of Christ. Through this ulterior motive of the powers of British Israel and its Masonry they have instilled the spirit of Masonry in the hearts of the people and have made them accept it under the name of Christianity. It is this new Christianity which is carrying the propaganda load that is deceiving Americans into separation from their true faith in Christ and His heavenly and spiritual kingdom and it is separating them from their country, their property and their freedom while they pay the bills and man the guns of the mightiest military machine in history.

Man is carnal and opposed to God's truth by nature says Saint Paul and it is easy for them to be deceived about the true Christ. This same spiritual deception causes him to give up his country, his property and his freedom as he thinks it necessary to save them. This is trickery and Satanically clever and few there be that understand it.

It's like buying something one doesn't need to save money and we are paying for Communism that the British may have our country.

According to PROPHECY ON PARADE by William C. Nabors, 1944 page 188 ..."the plan of the Bible requires and demands the reunion of the British Commonwealth and the United States to furnish the leadership of the nations of Israel..." What this means is that as the Empire increases America decreases and a share in the loot is only the bait. We are the loot and most prized of all. Yes we are lend lease Manasseh (of the Bible) and it is our lot to finance our own destruction.

In this same book on page 94 is given us a justification for our afflictions. In speaking of our chastisement for our national sins which will end with the "great tribulation" the author states, "This judgment will destroy the last phase of this Gentile power (we will demonstrate later that this "Gentile power" means the resurrected Roman Empire and the Catholic Church according to British Israel) and elevate to world rule a corrected, purified and restored Israel." This Israel (according to British Israel) is Anglo-Saxondom and the Pharisees called Jews. On page 58 he says "When the smoke of this World War and the effect of the world-wide famine passes, the British Empire and America will emerge as the possessors of the only surviving government and the only surviving economy and will take their places to heal a world that will then be ready for a doctor. The throne of David will be at the head (he is referring to the throne of Britain to be removed to Jerusalem) of world government and the American dollar and the British pound sterling, perfectly and righteously blended together and freed from all marks of Babylon, shall dominate the commerce of the world." This is about as clear as to the intentions of British Israel as anything could be and maybe this is why they took the book we quote from out of circulation. Further explanation of why peace for a thousand years instead of war for profit is that according to the same author on page 24, "The solution for world peace lies in world commerce." He means the control of it will make war unnecessary.

And a word for the masses of people who believe the British Empire is dead. W. C. Nabors, a prophet of British Israel, says, "Let us remind ourselves again that the throne of David which we can now identify as the throne of the British Commonwealth in London was established forever. (II Samuel 7:8-16 is his reference). All talk of the collapse of the British Empire and the removal of its government seat is therefore definitely not of the book. David's throne is as sure as day and night." Remember that the throne is slated to be in Jerusalem but if it happened to end up in New York it would still be God's throne a la British Israel, and it would still be in the British Empire. This is the British Israel kingdom of God on earth. It is not God's kingdom and the propaganda of its preachers and teachers and speakers notwithstanding.

On page 146 Mr. Nabors goes on to reveal the purpose of the great judgment. "But in the final struggle in the time of judgment, all nations will be involved and Israel will be reunited. The reunion first to take place is between Ephraim (Britain) and Manasseh (U.S.A.) to reunite the sons of Joseph who inherit the leadership of the elect." We remind the reader that at this time the "complete desolation" of the United States of America is to take place and the people are ready to accept it as Biblical. Mr. Nabors says on page 159 that "The goal is to establish the kingdom of God on earth; and the road is a series of human experiences planned in the Divine foreknowledge of God dealing with the peoples of the world to produce the goal." Then he goes on to explain how the plan is being worked. "When we understand the plan of the Bible for culminating events, we readily see all world affairs since the beginning of World War I conform to a plan exactly fitting the writings of the prophets." What he is saying is that history is being enacted to fit the writings of the prophets and then events are explained and justified to the people in terms of the fulfillment of these prophets. The truth is that Christ has already fulfilled the prophets and established His kingdom, but with this British Israel lie the very elect will be deceived if it were possible. It might be more correct to say that the old prophecies are being applied to the world stage of events in order to justify events Biblically.

That the British Israel movement is an unholy lie and cares not one whit about the gospel Mr. Nabors states on page 175, "Peace for a thousand years to come will follow the history now being written in blood." That British Israel is built upon blood and greed instead of Christ can be seen in this quote of W. C. Nabors , "It is the destiny of the pure Aryan Anglo-Saxon race to dominate the world and kill off or reduce to a servile status all other inferior races." This kind of thinking is not Christian but it is getting its support and life from people who think they are Christians and who go to church regularly. Shame on American churches and their preachers. They shall not be held guiltless as this involves the truth of Christ and it is their duty to know and to teach it and shame on Americans who go to church and allow this deception. The Judgment of God shall not only condemn those who tell a lie, but also those who believe it. It matters not that the preachers and their hearers are deceived and honest about it, as the Gospel is free to all and Christ comes to those who seek Him.

Now if all this seems too fantastic to be true, all we ask is that you objectively observe the prophets of doom in action. It is a monolithic effort well financed and advanced from every angle both political and spiritual to destroy our nation while preparing the minds of the people to accept the new world. The New Age or Millennium which is as they say to relieve us of our misery and Communism and in turn give us a perfect peace, is only bait to steal our country and enslave us spiritually and physically. Once we are beguiled into this trap we cannot easily return to a free America.

This mystery of British Israel may be seen as a wagon wheel (see page 37), and no matter how seemingly unrelated any political or spiritual activity may seem, they are all spokes of a wagon wheel supporting its central hub of British Israel. The general diffusion of wild rumors, the wide advertising of occult seeresses like Jean Dixon and Edgar Casey with their "prophecies," foreign wars such as Korea and Vietnam, mass inflation, civil turmoil, communism and anti-communism, the banking conspiracy, the Jew conspiracy, and all other angles are advertised and magnified to cause a hopelessness in the people without telling them the true causes and solution to their calamity. This is revolution and its purpose is to destroy our America and justify it with Bible prophecy and this same prophecy is preparing the world stage for the British Empire kingdom of God on earth.

Now those who are serving the cause of this kingdom scheme always give us a solution for their created crisis. That solution is that the world must be under God's law in order to restore peace and happiness. These same advocates are now destroying this nation in the name of Christianity and patriotism. In the name of freedom of speech and under constitutional guarantees these confusers are ripping the social order to pieces with their emphasis of "what's wrong in America." In so doing their aim is to bring the thinking of the people to a state of anarchy and futility so that the people become enlisted against themselves by perpetuating "what's wrong in America." Then the final result is that the people enmasse are beguiled into destroying their own government without even knowing the effect of their good intentions.

Of course evil is rampant in the land. It is planned that it should be by men who want power and money while they deliver their prey back to Mother England. The reason given for our chaotic dilemma is Communism, and as the people become infected with this deception they commit treason by their inadvertent cover-up of British Israel and/or British Communism.

That the only solution (according to British Israel) to our disaster is a New World under God's Law which means that we must be saved out of our "tribulation" by British Israel, to those who understand. The idea of the world under God's law is a collective world state which is Communism in everything but name. It is trickery and is in no sense Biblical. The only law extant under New Testament Christianity is moral law which is obeyed from the heart because of our love for Christ. Christian law is not a legal system which can be enforced by a world state. A collective world state religion is the opposite to individual and personal salvation as taught in the Bible.

So therefore the advocates of British Israel would seduce the unknowing with their solution of saving the world with Divine intervention and the establishment of Divine Law to regulate the political affairs of men.

Salvation is grace to those who believe but to those who would dethrone Christ and demote Him to earth, salvation is the race of mankind in a collective world state lured under the guise of the New World under God's Law. These advocates of the New Order under Divine Law are the destroyers of this order under the cloak of Christianity and Americanism.

The question might arise in our discourse as to why is it necessary to destroy the world with revolution and war in order to build it anew? The answer which gives us understanding is that independent national states must be destroyed so that upon their ashes the British World will have no competitors. Therefore the destruction of the United States is justified by the spiritual lie that it is God's chastisement for our national sins.

Only those who want to confiscate our faith, our country, our property and our freedom want a New Order. The Millennium cult is only a deception which will destroy America and reduce the people to the common level of slavery while the rich get richer by dividing up the markets and capital that they have stolen under the philanthropy of World Evangelism. The industrial and money barons of the Anglo Saxon world have destroyed the tariffs which have held Americans to the highest standard of living in the world. These tariffs are no longer needed when the commerce of the world is controlled by this clique. Through removal of our tariffs under the guise of free trade they are preparing the way for an economic collapse through which they expect to gain control of the property and wealth of the American people.

The men who planned the scheme of British Israel knew that there are more profits to be made from peace once they gained the world commerce in the hands of a few. Therefore they must first dissolve national states with Communism in order to take the wealth of their citizens. Those American industrialists who are going along with this scheme will deserve what they will surely get once the New Age begins. Many of them will be stripped of their profits and property which they have acquired through their participation in this plot. Satan will rend himself when he can no longer parasite upon truth for his existence.

Mrs. Catherine Baldwin says in her great but suppressed book that the multi-billion dollar tax free foundations are financiers of sedition under the guise of philanthropists. This is true as they finance Russian Communism and propaganda on the left and British Communism disguised as Christian anticomunism on the right. The American people are caught in the middle. With unlimited funds and absolute control of all news media the American people can be educated to believe black is white almost overnight. We recommend highly Mrs. Baldwin's book, AND MEN WEPT, if the reader is lucky enough to find one. Mrs. Baldwin knew that Communism in America originated in the British Empire. She also knew and wrote about the British plan to use religion to put over World Communism. She also knew of false patriotism and how the "anti-Communist" cult is used to promote the earthly kingdom religion under a Christian front.

Speaking of British Israel in America, Mrs. Baldwin says on page 25 that Professor Frazier of Swarthmore College stated "You will have world government whether you like it or not, it will be accomplished more through the spiritual than the political." "Through religion Britain is trying to put over her plan of world government, claiming that they are the Israel people and as such are ordained of God to rule the world, and under this system of Kingdom of God on Earth plan, there would be a system of production for use and not for profit. This was the plan as enunciated by Karl Marx." Mrs. Baldwin says two important things here. First, she says it is a spiritual plot called the kingdom of God on earth. Second, she says that the spiritual plot leads to the same Communism of Karl Marx. Another observation is that the spiritual plot operates from the sanctuary of Christianity and patriotism while Marxian Communism operates of course from the left. Many people at this point might say "I believe in the millennial reign of Christ and this has nothing to do with British Communism." They are wrong. Granted Britain is not mentioned in what the premillennialists call prophecy, but British Israel and a Zionist Millennial World Theocracy are one and the same regardless of the name or front that covers the deceit. Millennialism is Judaism (Pharisaism) and it is being used to promote world government under the Throne of Britain.

Therefore the simple conclusion is that when the people can be cleverly educated through the churches and the "anti-Communist" movement to believe that the earthly reign of Christ is the antidote to Russian Communism, they have Spiritual Communism in their hearts long before Communism becomes a political fact. This is a bitter truth and this is why the spiritual plot must be exposed.

Millennialism (British Israel) is a political religion spawned in the mind of Satan to turn men to an earthly materialism instead of the heavenly kingdom of grace. The Israel of God is not a fleshly people nor an earthly nation. Mrs. Baldwin goes on with a World War I British Secret Service report (pages 25,26) of Sir William Wiseman of the British Secret Service stationed in this country (USA). "In spite of the fact that it has so often been discredited, it is a fact that all it contains has been proven from other sources. In this report was the statement, 'we will use the movement of the Earl of Dysart, the British Israel World Federation movement.' The status is much the same as that of the Protocols, so vigorously denied, but if you refer to the Jewish Year Book, page 179, 1920-1921, you will find reference to the Protocols. There is no denial of the Protocols or their authenticity but there is this statement 'that the translator omitted a paragraph in which England is accused of being the accomplice of the Jews in this conspiracy.'" The reader has no doubt noticed the promotion of the Protocols by the right wing "anti communist" groups. The reason is given above - namely the British are left out of the scheme. Therefore the Protocols which don't expose British Communism are misleading and fall into the category of Jew bait as we list the Protocols in this book later on.

The idea of using religion to establish World Communism is fantastic to many especially after being conditioned to believe that Russian Communism is anti religious. British Communism is a religious cult and it has been quite successful up to now. We must face this religious plot or else.

International finance is using Russian Communism to despoil and desolate the world while it is educating the masses with British Israel to an internationalism that will entail great political sacrifices on the part of the nations. Through religion which they call Christianity, Britain is attempting to put over world government and the United States is being sacrificed for the British Commonwealth of the World. This is the intent and purpose of the wide dissemination of the kingdom message propaganda in America and the world. People can be brought to destruction through religion when they cannot be deceived otherwise.

It is the spiritual power of the British Empire through the kingdom message which is the moving strength of world revolution. Once it is identified under its many colors and cloaks it emerges before our eyes as a universal mind control force propagandizing the people to such an extent that they cannot see the development of their ordered and planned destruction through the chaos that is rampant and world wide. Whether this deception is received in the lodges, the churches or some anti-Communist or communist front or is received in the mass media or radio or television, its effect and force is the same. The kingdom message propaganda develops in the people a mental control which cannot be broken and incapacitates them to any rational analysis of power politics. This spiritual deception shields the people from the reality of their situation and leaves them helpless before this enigma as they chase after every fraud in the land ranging from the international bankers, such as the Rockefellers, and Rothschilds, to the depraved hippies. The kingdom message prepared the people and conditioned them long before the unleashing of the political puppets for them to fight. As the patriots exhaust themselves documenting isolated segments of the political arena so as to pin the blame on individuals, organizations and races, they never realize that they are engaging the object rather than the subject of their misery. They are dealing with the shadow and footprints and not the substance and in fact they themselves are a part of the substance imbued with its power and extending its control. They can never be patriots until they sever themselves from the ideology of the kingdom message and this they cannot do unless they recognize its existence and its power. The very life breath of patriotism as it exists today was spawned by British Israel and British Israel furnished it its literature and books and its straws to fight all controlled and all within the limits of its (British Israel's) power.

Though one may escape the belief in the kingdom of God on earth British Israel traps him within its political ideology causing him to be sidetracked and entrapped in such frauds as Communism, anti-communism, Jew conspiracy, Negro revolution, white supremacy, and hundreds of others. We say they are frauds because of their use as decoys and dead end issues, but seen in the light of their true purpose and goal they are all a part of the revolution which is effecting the destruction of our economic and political system which is only the spadework in preparation for the "world tomorrow." These must be seen as destroyers and not ends in themselves. To serve the truth rather than the ideology of British Israel they must be viewed as the teeth of the British Empire which are chewing up national states and grinding their institutions to nothing in preparation for the new world superstate. Again we are faced with the particular use of facts to determine their effect and consequent result. We emphasize this truth because British Israel has amazing talent in twisting the truth against the user deceiving him on the one hand and enlisting him in its service on the other. Once we see the proper use of the many issues and relate them to the true goal of the world superstate in the name of Christ (alias the kingdom of God on earth) they can no longer be used against us and we change positions from the USED to the USER. To demonstrate what we mean, a deadly weapon may be compared to British Israel ideology. If this weapon is used against its owner it is it deadly but if used in his defense it means freedom. It is the same weapon and its use determines its effect, the result of which can be good or bad. If we recognize British Israel we are not likely to be beguiled into self destruction. Alas we say to the deceived patriots "hell froze over with good intentions."

Communism is the tool by which Britain's international finance is knocking down national governments in the interest of world government, world police and world currency." These are the words of Nicholas Murray Butler at the Lord Cecil luncheon November 19, 1937 at the Hotel Astor. Mr. Butler was president of Columbia University and head of the Carnegie Endowment for International Peace. In this connection it should be noted how unafraid of communism Britain is and how odd that American boys die on foreign battle fields fighting Britain's communism. The whole world could see that Russia did nothing while Israel, which also belongs to Britain, destroyed the military machine of the Arab states who are supposed to be allies of the Soviet Union. In this same war the Israeli plane that shot up an American ship was in truth a British plane as Israel is a British state. Also Nasser of Egypt is a stooge of the British Empire and his being a Grand Orient Mason puts him squarely under the power of the Grand Lodge of England. This makes him a traitor to his people whose soldiers he has slaughtered in his fake wars with Israel, the propaganda effect being to exalt the name of so-called Israelites as God's people. This was only another slaughter in the name of Christianity to fulfill and justify the conspiracy of British Israel. All of this blood letting is an attempt to build the British Commonwealth of the World through spiritual deception. The work of World Evangelism is to educate the people of the world against their national governments in favor of a political-spiritual colossus which to the people will justify world government. This is not to say that there are not many Christians doing a wonderful work for Christ in spreading the Gospel to foreign lands. What we are saying is that most of the missionaries are millennialists of one denomination or another and they are unwittingly preparing the people for world government in the name of Christ. This is not Christian and certainly not Biblical as it serves the cause of British Israel.

It is an intriguing question as to why high finance with its foundations and its partners in giant industry are engaging in sedition and subversion. To a straight thinking American these people would only be undercutting themselves to destroy the system that has given them life and prosperity. The reason is simple in that the financial power sees in British Israel an opportunity to sacrifice the freedoms of the American people in exchange for control and domination of world commerce under the proposed New Age economy which they tell us is supposed to be based on the Mosaic Economy. Americans generally think in terms of competitive business but the giants of finance and industry see in British Israel a scheme for complete monopoly and complete power. They see in British Israel a scheme to monopolize the wealth of the world. They then can have peace because all power and all wealth is in their hands and the freedom of Americans under the Constitution means nothing to the possessors of the world.

What the smaller business men do not realize is that they are through once the dollar goes and the Union Jack becomes the World Flag.

Again we say the doing away of our tariff walls in the name of free trade is a trick to do away with the principal bulwark of a scale of wages and a standard of living far above those of other countries and reduce the American people to the common level of the rest of the world. They use the sophistry that Americans are too material minded and have strayed from God (which God?) to justify the coming collapse of the economic system under which we have prospered. In this regard it is the task of the "kingdom message" propaganda to put over the idea that we have sinned with the economic system of "Mystery Babylon" and have become materialistic and that God will relieve us of our property so that we can share it with the rest of the world "each according to his needs" in the New Age kingdom now being prepared.

To the greedy American business men who care not for their country and the American people we give a word of warning that in your delusions of grandeur don't forget your junior status in the organization of the Master Planners of an eventual totally British dominated world.

This game of power politics permits no enduring friendships and anyone who knows the British contempt for America knows that it is an everlasting hate and at best the American business man is participating in his own destruction.

And too are the American people not better off than ever? Americans are temporarily given prosperity while they are drugged with the kingdom message and few of them realize that inflation is calculated to take back what seems like prosperity now. After all we must be lulled while we are abolished for world government in the interest of Universal Peace. Under the British Israel economic system, which they claim is according to Mosaic Law, theirs is a system for production for use and not for profit. This is the plan of Karl Marx and this is the plan of British Israel and they are identical because the kingdom message is Communism and Communism is the kingdom of God on earth. Under this economy which capital and industry is striving for there is no profit for the workers. All profit is in the hands of a few and this is the crux of the matter. If people cannot have profit they cannot have savings and they are slaves to the state. People are fighting this politically and believing it spiritually, and it is through the spiritual that the scheme is being put over. World Evangelism is building the spiritual foundation for what is called "a better world," and which is a British World in which America is only a plundered colony.

We go back to Mrs. Baldwin for her further explanation of how British propaganda is worked to lead this nation to ruin. Mrs. Baldwin stated that Douglas McArthur said in a private conversation to her after he was removed from Korea that he was aware that the British were behind his defeat and the unleashing of the Red Chinese from Manchuria. The doubting Thomas's of course would not believe that the British control China but indeed they do. The red star of Red China is the red star of the Shrine. Here is a definite tie to those who understand how Freemasonry is being used in world revolution. Communist China and free China are puppets for our consumption and entertainment. McArthur of course was made a 33! Mason and when he tried to win the Korean War he was removed by 33! Harry Turban who took his orders from other 33! Masons. There is no mistaking this net of subversion once the British are recognized as the "nigger in the woodpile." Is there one voice in the U.S. Government raised against the British supplying the Viet Cong? Not one! Is there any protest from the F.B.I. about British Communism and their widespread kingdom message propaganda in America? NONE! Do they know about British Communism via British Israel? You tell them!

Certain carefully laid obstacles have been placed as blinds or fronts so that the American people cannot discover that Communism is more synonymous with Britain than Russia. It reminds one of a soldier trying to get through a mine field to get at the enemy. Of course the greatest decoy or front is Russia (under the same Red Star) and from there everyone can choose his own kick. We have the left wing revolutionaries, the right wing anti-Russian Communists. We have the Viet Nam War. We have domestic problems and social upheaval. Last and certainly a most important disarmed and deflector is the press of the world playing down the role of a supposedly bankrupt British Empire. Certainly anyone could see the necessity from the British point of view, for the propaganda mills playing down constantly the strength and might of the British Empire. All this smoke can be penetrated by a quick analysis of the spiritual plot and how religion and prophecy are being used to disguise World Communism by the one real villain in all history -- the British Empire. American churches have become social institutions preparing the people for a political Messiah and it so happens that this Lord is to reign from the Throne of Britain. Do the "anti-communists" reveal this plot as a Communist plot? Read EMPIRE OF THE CITY by E. C. Knuth (address at the back of this book) for a study in British power politics and their system of fronts and decoys and subversion.

No one need believe this because we say so. Turn on your radio and listen to the "prophecies" of the world tomorrow and how the millennial kingdom will be an end to Communism and a beginning of a paradise earth. This is the greatest deception of history to get universal cooperation in building a universal Communism through religion.

Let us quote Mrs. Baldwin again to enlarge upon our explanation of British Israel. Keep in mind how political events today are being worked to harmonize with the much publicized prophecies. On page 31 of AND MEN WEPT, I quote: "Based on the statement that Abraham was the starting point of a chosen generation, that this generation was to develop into a ruling race, a dominant race, highly spiritual, interpreting in its life and administration the supreme spirit of righteousness in the earth. That this ruling, righteous and dominant race should be organized into God's Kingdom of Priests in the earth and that by their activities all the families, all the nations of the earth should be blessed, that this Kingdom should be a model Kingdom. The Constitution should be the ideal preached throughout the Mosaic and Christian eras."

"The British Israel adherents claim that "the Babylonian System of Empires came to an end in 1918 and that now the Kingdom of God is to be reestablished on earth and must become universal. They claim it is a step forward in Anglo-Saxon history and world history."

"Citing the 'fall of the remaining Continental Empires and that the children of Israel should take the Kingdom on Earth and that this Kingdom should become universal in the earth; that a new covenant is to be made with the House of Israel, Britain should take the Kingdom on earth and that it become universal in the Earth, that the Middle East should come into the hands of Britain, including Egypt, Ancient Israel, and Ancient Assyria or as we know them Egypt, Palestine, Transjordania and Iraq. The Turkish Empire should be removed, the British Naval and Military base for Palestine should be established at Haifa and should be called Armageddon, that Abyssinia should be involved under its old name Ethiopia and Tripoli under its old name Libya."

"Thereafter Russia and her allies should invade Palestine from the North and Ethiopia and Libya from the South, Egypt will be lost to us for a time and Jerusalem will be taken for a time." They predict all sorts of pestilence, famine, earthquakes and so on, finally:--"

"Sick of war and utterly bankrupt, perforce of economic circumstances, the WORLD WILL WIPE THE SLATE CLEAN OF DEBTS AND BEGIN ANEW, (emphasis mine). That the world will be unified into one universal nationality, Britain or Anglo-Saxondom will be the center of the Unity. The Common Law purified will be established universally with centralized administration. Thus the world will be reorganized into the universal Kingdom of God, under our Lord's own administration of the Common Law."

"In other words European Empire rule is being transferred to Anglo-Saxon rule, under the New Covenant made with the House of Israel." end of quote within the book AND MEN WEPT, but continuing to quote from the book itself:

"This, then, is the basis of the World Government project that is costing the lives of many American boys. The United Nations was but a step along the way to the real objective. But remember Andrew Carnegie said, 'do it by little steps one by one, by peaceful means, if possible, if not by war, -little steps rather than by one big move.'"

"This seems to be a good time to relate the situation in Egypt;--the revolution was on, the British wires were cut, the Americans were approached and asked to send through the British messages. To do this the British code had to be broken. The message that went through:--'break the revolution at all costs, use bribery if necessary.' I omit the name of my informant, out of courtesy. I can assure you that it is factual, reliable and witnessed."

"Can you honestly believe that men can foretell the events of the world from the measurements of the Pyramid of Gizeh? If so then why have the former predictions failed? Is it not rather that the prophecies of the Old Testament have been used to fit the picture and by this hoax brought men's minds to the unthinking state that we are in today?"

"Recent issues of the National Message print the aims of the British Israel Federation; in the February 23, 1932 issue, as follows:--"To spread the knowledge of the origin, mission and destiny of the British race. To demonstrate that the British Commonwealth of Nations represents the national basis of God's Kingdom on Earth. To show that Britain is the lineal continuation of the Israel Nation (as distinct from Jews) and that every mark of identification is possessed by the Anglo-Saxon race as a whole. To reveal the role of the British people as the inheritor of Israel's Charters, the possessor of her immunities from destruction, and the executor of her commission to develop the new order of civilization." This needs no explanation, it plainly states that Britain is to rule as the Kingdom of God on Earth."

"In the 'Youth Message' (issued as the organ for the Youth of the British Israel Federation, May 1938, we find these words --'He would produce a deliverance through a NEW DEAL, a new economic system, one freed from the Babylonian principles'. By this it meant the forgiveness of debts." If you would question that this country is being run on the pattern of the British Israel plan then it will be of interest for you to read this passage from the National Message, October 12, 1935, page 679:--quote:--'It was told to me by a heavy weight American financier before the crash came, that the crash was coming, that it would be permitted to run to the danger point, and that when the danger point was passed it would be reversed by measures "Carefully prepared in advance to meet the situation. I carefully noted what he said and left it for events to prove the value of his statement.' Did you lose your money, your all in the stock market crash of 1929, did it occur to you that this was a premeditated crash, a deliberate act against the American people?"

"We are now facing World War III, not because Russia is the bad boy but because it is part of the plot to enable Britain to control the whole world. This coming war will be in the Middle East, it will be for the control of the oil of the world. The plan was put in print, emanating from 6 Buckingham Gate, London as far back as 1935 from the record I have."

"The Middle East, destined they claim, to be once more the center of the Kingdom of God on earth, is, therefore, 'Crown granted by the King of Kings to Israel, Britain, with whom is or shall be united, Israel-America, Israel Judah and the remnants of Israel to be found in other lands."

"As the power appointed of God to be responsible for the Middle East, God has given to Britain-Israel, Ancient Bosra, now Basra on the Persian Gulf. He had given to us Akaba, the taking of which gave us the power to turn the flank of the Central Powers in the Great War. This port is now in our hands and will be of the utmost importance to us later on."

"The open roadstead of the Bay of Acre into a defensive harbor for the fleet together with the transformation of the undefended Plain of Megiddo into the defended and occupied plain of Armageddon, these shall become the G. G. Q. forces in the East."

"This is the British plan, the plan for the final battle in the Middle East, World War III, this is where American boys will be sent to set up what they call the Kingdom of God on Earth-- ruled over by British-Israel." end of quote from AND MEN WEPT.

Mrs. Baldwin goes on to tell how Britain disguises its New World Order by calling it God's plan and only through His wisdom are the British people the center of that Great Plan. They claim it is not Communism but the antithesis, it is not Socialism nor Capitalism, it is the Kingdom of God. World Rule they claim, now reverts to the Kingdom of God, and Britain must proceed with the establishment of the Kingdom of God. In truth it is British Communism and tyranny. In the political realm Britain is spreading the propaganda of Communism from Russia in the United States and thus conditioning the minds of the American people so that they will be willing to fight Russia. While doing this Britain does not tell the people that the British Israel World Federation had put in print in 1933 and repeated in 1937 the fact that they would use the Soviet System to establish their British Commonwealth of the world; nor does she tell of the statement on page 95 of the book "THE THREE HEADED EAGLE" wherein is written that Communism would be the tool that they would use to overthrow the countries in Europe, that they would do this under the power of Russian Victory prestige. Thus we find one country, Russia, being pitted against the United States while Britain plays with both. Thus does she weaken this country with so-called Russian Communism while she gains the domination of the world through British Israel and their Kingdom Message. Using Russian Communism as the goat and decoy is only used to bully, bluff, bribe, besmear and bewilder the American people by being able through control or intimidation of public sources of information to accuse each of the successive challenges of "One World" and its (British Israel's) own ideology of world rule and exploitation; and to convict them of its own lies and crimes. We must continue to bear in mind that in recent years all "One World" schemes are creations of the British Empire and they are used by the Empire under different names such as Communism, etc., to further the Master Plan of the British Israel political spiritual super-state which seeks control of the world through the spiritual deception that God has established His kingdom upon earth. This is how we accomplish nothing for America when we fight British Communism in the streets and accept British Israel Communism under the name of God's kingdom on earth in our churches. This is, as has been demonstrated, how we actually promote this false messianic scheme when we are beguiled into a ruckus with Russian Communism as such. Russian Communism is only one of the many created antagonisms our opposition to it serving to foster misunderstanding and a cover up of the source of this power. Communism is not sourced in Russia but the British Empire and more specifically London, which is also the source of the British Israel plot which we recognize in the kingdom message which is so universal today. This dual thrust is designed to seduce the faith of Americans to a worn out Pharisaism and through this deception relieve them of their country, their property and their freedom while telling them that their enemy is Russian Communism.

Any time we find the promotion of internationalism, we are face to face with Communism. Rhodes Scholars are internationalists who want a world order and a World Government. Somehow, these traitors who are brainwashed at Oxford, are not recognized as British Communist Agents. We recommend that you read the series of articles which are now in booklet form and which first appeared in the CHICAGO TRIBUNE July 15, 1931-1951, under the title, "RHODES' GOAL: RETURN U.S. TO BRITISH EMPIRE."

International finance based in London with branches and agents in New York did not finance the Russian take over to give it away. The British Empire and the Pharisee Jews who own it conceived in so-called Russian Communism an opportunity to use Russia as a base of operations to destroy any opponent and to put the world under stress and strain and while the world fights Russian Communism they are put in chains with British Communism in the form of the "Kingdom Message" promoted from our churches. The Jew Pharisees killed Christ because He would not serve their lusty desires for control of the world under a political theocracy and now they still seek this wealth and power as they use British Israel to justify it spiritually. British Israel is a spiritual lie called the kingdom of God on earth which the "masters of deceit" are using in the name of Christ to steal the commerce and wealth of the world and then rule over the subjects which they have put in spiritual darkness. With this British Israel propaganda they excuse their crimes against humanity while they build the "better world" on a war torn earth which they have drenched in blood under the guise of righteousness. This is the truth about "what's wrong in America." It is the British Empire riding the old Pharisee dream of rulership of the world and the very elect will be deceived almost. All that is necessary that the plan succeed is that through British Israel the people can be brought to believe that the kingdom of God on earth is Christian. Through this propaganda the people are made to believe in things fleshly instead of things spiritual and they change spiritual Israel back to physical Israel and so once having freedom they turn again to bondage. If a man believes this British Israel lie he cannot be free but he will imagine that he is and so goes America if they believe it.

The ultimate goal of the British Empire of course is absolute domination of the world both physical and spiritual and it is through the spiritual that they are gaining this control. With the use of the Kingdom Message they are turning the beliefs of the people into Pharisaism by causing them to center their hopes on a coming New Age Millennium. As Christ warned they neither go in the kingdom or suffer us to go in. With British Israel they are deceiving men to believe that God's Kingdom is yet future and thereby keeping them out of God's true spiritual Kingdom now.

That British Israel is sourced in London and is of the British Empire is conclusive. British Israel heresy begins with the idea that the so-called Jews are God's chosen people according to the flesh and that they are yet to receive the physical blessing that God promised Abraham and that they shall receive these physical blessings in the Millennial Age. Many people believe this much of British Israel and this much is all that is necessary to cause them to place their hope in a future kingdom of God on earth. This segment of Millennialists in most cases violently deny they are British Israel and most of them are honest but spiritually blind as to the true nature of God's Kingdom. In this we see the limited power of Satan in the form of British Israel to deceive the nations. This proves that if men can be made to believe in the fleshly kingdom of the Pharisees then they become enemies of Christ in His name.

The British Israel heresy is also an enlargement of the Jew Race myth, making the twelve tribes of ancient Israel include all of the Adamic Race which has its modern manifestation in Anglo-Saxondom centered in the British Empire with the throne of Britain being the throne of Christ which He shall sit upon after it is removed to Jerusalem and He returns to earth to rule the nations in an earthly paradise. This is only a political scheme derived from the very people who crucified Christ because He did not conform to their expectations of a political theocracy on earth.

According to this "Kingdom Message" America is to participate in this glorified earth as co-ruler after she has been cleansed of her selfish nationalism. The only sin America has according to the British Empire is their independence from their masters in London. American finance and big business is a partner to this conspiracy and they should know that their lot will be no better under the New British World than that of the American people whom they are now helping subdue thinking they will participate in this world grab. They are getting fat now financing both sides, but when the Communist angle has served its purpose and the kingdom angle begins to dominate politically, these fat cats will be skinned alive and they should be for their part in this Satanic plot to steal the wealth of the world and destroy the faith of its people in the true Christ.

No one should question why American finance would participate in this when they look at the stakes. It is simple that they intend through British Israel to have their profits and ours too, as well as the whole world. Then the Satanic angle of this money power is that they control the beliefs (spirit) of the world at large as well as its wealth. We emphasize that it is with this spiritual darkness that they have confused the world today and that they expect to completely control it in the future. The only defense against this conspiracy is truth and this Americans do not have because they love darkness more than they love light.

In our identification of British Israel we have sought to prove its dual nature of political and spiritual. At the same time we have sought to demonstrate that the British Empire is very much alive both politically and geographically and that the United States is completely subdued already so much so that the United States appeared on the list of Commonwealth Nations of the Commonwealth Parliamentary Association Meeting held at London, England, 1961.

While the propaganda mills grind out the theme that the British Empire is gone it is the major trouble maker in the world. It has lowered its flag many times to support the myth that the Empire is dead while it keeps the power in foreign lands through its Rhodes Scholar Agents and power of the press. It reaches its tentacles into every town and hamlet through its Masonry controlled from London.

As they decrease the Empire from the eyes of men they have increased it with the cloak of Christianity in the form of the "Kingdom Message." In this Kingdom Message we see how they justify the apparent chaos of the United States and Britain.

The task of the "Kingdom Message" propaganda is to make the people believe that only Divine intervention can save America and Britain. Therefore they are mangling our social order so as to destroy our independence so that after the final cataclysm of World War III it will look as if the British Empire and its American colony were miraculously saved by God. Then Anglo Saxondom can rule the world for a thousand years for the "good of the world." In truth then, the world will be under British Communism. While the British beguiled us into self destruction fighting their Russian Communism, they trick us into British Communism under the cloak of Christianity. This is the meaning of British Israel for America.

Britain and America are now being cleansed of their national sins and being made ready for rulership in the New Age, they say. And how will they again be made so powerful as to control the world for a thousand years? Of course it is with this power that they are saying that they do not now have, and we shall go on to prove that the power IS there and how it is at this time using nations (including our United States) and armies as mere pawns in the game. The Empire with the control of the United States is now strong enough to dominate the world and set the stage of events to fit its scheme of British Israel while at the same time it subdues its own personality and conceals its identity. Only complete power is invisible and only an invisible power is complete. Russian Communism is not invisible. Spiritual Communism is. No small power could do this as the press of the other powers would expose it but the press of the world is now under the British Empire and it therefore supports its propaganda. No power or state or combinations of states has the military and economic power of Great Britain and the United States to force the Kingdom Message propaganda on the rest of the world. In our identification of the work of British Israel we remind our reader not to overlook the use of created fake nationalism to hide British Israel. The cardinal example to demonstrate this truth is Adolph Hitler and his National Socialism. Hitler was also put into power because of his opposition to so-called Russian Communism and had the right wingers or patriots of Germany stopped to analyze what was happening, they might have seen that there is no difference in Communism and National Socialism; only the name. As Hitler rose to power under the symbolism of Masonry he did that which was planned. He destroyed the German Nation and the German people and today the political situation in Germany is developing in the same manner if the people of Germany, like the people of America, could only see it. And if the radical left creates too big a reaction and tends to backfire then a fake nationalism under the right wing will come to political power in the United States for the same reason Hitler did in Germany -- that is, to preside over the final destruction of the United States of America! Americans should seek a true nationalism but they should beware of the British Israel Masonic candidates who give allegiance to a supreme being who is not Jesus Christ while they lead the country to destruction with pet phrases of Americanism and Patriotism.

Another fake nationalism comes to mind--that of Rhodesia under the much heralded Ian Smith. Ian Smith is an acknowledged British Israelite and "independent" Rhodesia is saturated with British Israel propaganda just as America is. The people of Rhodesia have no independence under the British stooge Ian Smith. Through British Israel teaching they too hope for a worldly Communist Kingdom under the throne of Britain. They do not expect it to be Communism as is generally understood, but they do not understand the trickery of British Israel. They already have Communism in their hearts.

Here is a small nation who has been led to believe they are now independent. Surely there are some in Rhodesia who understand the cloak and dagger power politics of British Israel. This "independence" maneuver adds up to the big lie that the Empire is gone. How stupid we mortals are and how long shall we be betrayed because of our ignorance? No country can be independent and free with the seditious propaganda of British Israel educating its people for World Government. Somehow people cannot come to the reality that a conspiracy through religion is the most invulnerable and subtle scheme that can befall a victim nation. Conversely if the religious plot can be detected it can be shattered. British Israel is the religion of Communism. How simple, but oh how deceptive and how unwilling people are to hear the truth!

After many years and a terrific beating Americans cannot get the meaning of this forked tongue power politics which carries them to new lows after every election. These stalking horses with spurious issues to take over the opposition is a trick well used in Machiavellian politics and they may well raise up such a man in the United States so that he can "kill" some of their Communism thereby raising the prestige of this invisible power and adding to its power in the eyes of the people. Destroying created opposition is a method of solidifying power. The case of little George Wallace of Alabama is an example of created opposition based on spurious or false issues. Now many Americans have reached for this forked tongued little man who has accomplished both York Rite and Scottish Rite Masonry to the 32!. George is a little man with big ambition and he has sold his soul and his fellow countrymen. If he ever had any good intentions for the people, he is helpless to carry them out as he well knows the power of British Israel. He would not dare open his mouth against British despotism that controls this land from the court system to the Armed Forces. Yes, George attacks Communism as all so-called Conservatives do but he does not attack British Israel Communism. He is only stooge opposition. With this same idea a crisis is created and is solved with more controls and increased power over the people as they cannot perceive the real meaning of the crisis in the first place. The final destroying of created Russian Communism which has caused the world so much heartache is the event which will inaugurate the new communism under the name of kingdom of God. In the minds of the deceived the kingdom of God, British Communism, will have saved them from total annihilation from Russian Communism. In the vernacular they swap the devil for the witch and they jump from the frying pan into the fire which will only be realized when the fire of this new kingdom begins to burn their fat.

The Machiavellian nature of the British government permits no written policy and to survive it must dominate commerce, control the seas and acquire the world. Before the world can be made safe for British control of commerce, the British Empire must bring all competitors under its control. To acquire this complete control they are butchering the world order now with their communism while setting the stage for World War III in which the Empire expects a final annihilation of the United States and all other would be national states. The plan is to get them to eliminate each other leaving the British Empire sole owner of the world. This giant steal is called in pious language "the reconstruction of the moral order" into the kingdom age. For this great event the British Empire has been preparing the way almost since America won its independence. In the last one hundred years they have multiplied their propaganda through the establishment in this country of a rash (numbering into the hundreds) of religious cults designed to prepare the people for this millennial age. The Plymouth Brethren were organized in the early nineteenth century to expand the propaganda of Millennialism. Then came Rutherford and Russell with the same anti-Christian Millennialism which has now been expanded worldwide through the cult of Jehovah Witnesses. Mormonism under Joseph Smith with its Masonic symbols has grown into a mammoth New Age cult actively preparing for the worldwide kingdom to come. Then in later days since 1900 this peculiar kingdom message has infiltrated the biggest part of Protestantism moving the churches in the service of British Israel away from the faith of the Reformers and the true Apostolic faith. As has been said many different church groups appear different in their ritual ceremony and independent church doctrines and they disagree with each other but the "modus operandi" of the maze of churches, unknown to their members, is the preparing of the people for this New World Order in the name of Christ. There is a church for everybody and they are encouraged to go to the one of their choice because the deception is now so complete that one is likely to get the kingdom message in almost any of them. Americans do not sin because they go to church. Their sin is their unbelief in the living Christ and the fact that all power has been given Him in heaven and earth. With this powerful, British Israel force the people have become imbued with the spirit of the kingdom so much so that they fight communism with their hands and establish it with their hearts. Man cannot strive against his beliefs. This is the deceit of British Israel and it has made us enemies of the land of our freedom. Americans cannot have the British Israel world kingdom and have an independent and free America at the same time. They must understand this and choose sides.

That the British Empire and its infinite number of agents in the United States control this country and are steering it to collapse is seen in the mass dissemination of the kingdom message propaganda. No sane people aware of their enemy would allow such a campaign to reeducate the people toward world government, which necessitates their own destruction; But this is the fact about the condition of America today. We charge that the United States is being raped and ravished and its Constitution torn to bits and the final tumult is to remove the outward appearance and form of American institutions of government. Out of this chaos America will be resurrected only to be part of the land mass that comprises the new British World. Then those who have worked so hard for the New Age can behold their serfdom to their masters whom they have served so loyally.

Other stages in this process toward world government are seen in the regional world governments such as SEATO, NATO, and the Common Market, etc. These are but steps which will be the components of world government in the British Israel kingdom of God on earth.

If Americans will read the literature and listen to their radios they cannot deny that the whole effort is propaganda, through the spiritual, to build the British Commonwealth of the world over which a British Sovereign would rule. It is British political communism which is battering the civil order of America while the British Israel spiritual explains it and leads the people into the New World Super State. Communism is British and its design for Americans is the same under any name, whether it be exported Russian Communism via the British Empire or the kingdom of God on earth. It is the same force with the same source, all made in London. It is a British-Jew-Pharisee scheme to control the world and enslave its people. It means the rulership of the elite with the combine of a giant monopoly built upon the ashes of competitive enterprise. These mad men do not want competitive business, they want monopoly and they are perverting the Word of God to get it. They are mixing things sacred with things profane to gain the kingdoms of this world. Is Satan loosed for a little season to deceive the nations?

The British Israel kingdom of God on earth is a commercial enterprise and has nothing to do with the Gospel of Christ and His true spiritual kingdom. British Israel is a British-Jew trick to grab the world by turning God's truth into profanity. Many Christians have understood the evils of Millennialism but they cannot imagine that it is being used as a political scheme to establish world government in the name of Christ.

May we be sure that our reader is not swamped with confusion because of the many names used to designate, describe and reveal the true nature of British Israel? Because of the sinisterness of the monster we encounter, we reemphasize that British Israel comes to us under many names, cloaks and movements. Many of them appear Christian. We have identified the New Age of Masonry, the Millennialism of Protestantism, the kingdom of God on earth, political Messianism, Communism, anti-communism, brotherhood, the New Order, the New Era, as all being but different names for British Israel and all of them like the spokes of a wagon wheel supporting the central purpose of world government under the British Empire. And all of the above serve two purposes - one to destroy this order while they prepare the way for the next. We perceive one thing common to all movements whether political or religious and that is to change this order into a new one.

We have not dealt with the many political aspects of British Russian Communism such as the United Nations, the Pilgrim Society, Council of Foreign Relations, National Council of Churches, and so on ad infinitum. Also we have not mentioned the many individuals and stalking horses which are fronting for the British Empire. These things are advertised daily as a cover up so we have sought in the main to identify British Israel spiritual, for here is the main line of our deception and destruction. British Israel is Spiritual Communism. It is esoteric (hidden) Communism and the spiritual counter- part of Political Communism, also made in London and exported to Russia. The intent is to drive the people into this spiritual Communism while they exhaust themselves fighting the political frauds. This is the nature of the Jew-British fellowship and they intend to take us physically by deceiving us spiritually.

If we have demonstrated that the British Israel kingdom of God on earth is not according to the Bible (see section on the Hope of Israel), but that it is a cover for a political-commercial conspiracy to dominate the world, then we have accomplished the purpose of this writing. If this kingdom message spiritual deception concept can be understood then we have no trouble tearing away its mask and identifying it as a scheme of world government identical to that of Communism. And in addition we begin to see how stirring up the political friction's adds to the confusion and promotes its dual plot of British Israel by hiding it in Biblical language. British Israel with its kingdom message "attacks" itself under the name of Communism while it educates the world "Biblically" to get ready for world government. What British Israel says is bad politically it promotes spiritually which in effect is saying that God's plan of salvation For the world is Communism. British Israel has a forked tongue and a dual nature when seen in its true form. Communism is British Israel and British Israel is Communism in all but name. One cannot be a part of one without being the other. One cannot be truly an anti-Communist if he is not anti-

British Israel, as he cannot oppose physically what he believes spiritually and this is precisely why any proposed expose of Communism must include at the same time an expose of spiritual (British Israel) Communism; otherwise he promotes it.

The British Israel "conservatism" and communist "radicalism" has America in its claws and one can be in either right or left and wind up with World Government under the British Empire. There is no escape from this pincers movement without true knowledge of its identity.

Many good people are ever ready to fight Communism politically, but when shown that the kingdom of God on earth bunk is the same thing they immediately defend it because they have been conditioned in their churches to believe that the kingdom message is Biblical and of course they haven't bothered to see that it isn't. So their good intentions are hopeless and futile and their frustrations over "what's wrong in America" only grow. Lack of faith and interest in the true Gospel has caused Americans to believe in the race of British Israel instead of the grace of Christ.

It is popular and profitable to "fight" Communism but it is unforgivable to know about British Israel and scarcely a radio station in the land would sell time to expose the intrigue of the British Empire with their use of British Israel to reeducate Americans and hoodwink them into World Government. anti-Communist racketeers have used every scheme imaginable to get the wealth and substance of Americans while deluding them about Communism. They prey on their victims by scaring them to death about a takeover by the Communists. These crooks have all kinds of investment schemes, hideout schemes, survival schemes to escape what they call the takeover of Communism, and these very tactics are confusing the people and scaring the money out of them and causing a dismal hopelessness. We have the fright peddlers who charge our emotions with their horror stories of life in Russia and as the patriots bleed they give their money away. Americans are natural bait for this foolishness. These so-called anti-Communists are not only playing a con game, they are promoting revolution on one hand and blaspheming Christ with the kingdom message on the other.

If Americans can begin to see through the veil and fabric of British Israel "Christianity" they will come to understand that the ancient earthly figure of the throne of David is a disguise to hide the coming world throne of the Royal House of Britain.

In order for Israel (the meaning of Israel is the unification of Anglo-Saxondom in the Jew's religion under the pretense of Christianity) to dominate the world they must first be united. According to British Israel, all Anglo-Saxondom must awaken to their national identity as the Israel of God. Hence we are bombarded constantly with the national identity doctrine that we are God's people in a national sense. The propaganda seeks to instill the old idea of fleshly Israel's special relationship to God as a Christian doctrine by building the belief that America is a Christian nation, a Christian Republic, and we therefore are a Christian civilization with a Divine purpose to be realized in the coming World Government of God.

T. Robert Ingram says in his book THE WORLD UNDER GOD'S LAW on page three, "Since we are a people under God's law, we are a people under God, or God's people." On page five he says "It is that legal system which identifies ours as a Christian civilization and these United States as a Christian nation." May we remind the above author that it was "the law" or legal system of Pharisaism that caused Saul to kill Christians in the name of God. It was when Saul became Saint Paul the Christian, that he was persecuted by the Jew's religion that he once believed. Now it was this legal system of national Israel (Jew's religion) that caused the rejection of Christ and blinded the people to His saving grace.

The grace of Christ is anathema to the race and national identity of British Israel Pharisaism. Americans must discern the spirit that would steal their faith and leave them a promised land in its stead. If Judaism alias British Israel

"Christianity" can merge the concept of racial origin and national identity with the Christian faith, the world state is established already under and in spite of the independence of the stars and stripes of Old Glory.

In "PROPHECY ON PARADE" we find this quote on page 157-8, "Inherently we call this 'God's Country' and, whether we know it or not, we do so on the authority of the Bible for truly God has given it to us as our inheritance as a part of the tribe of Joseph. The Bible is our abstract of title. Time has arrived in the world's history when our title is challenged. We now must establish our claim or abandon the property. Thank God for a title that goes back to the World Supreme Court of last resort, the unconditional contract (covenant) of God. If we hold this land as God's country, then it necessarily follows that we are God's people. Then let's tell the world who we are and return to our Father's house."

Then we must conclude that the slogan "For God and Country" alludes to patriotism, but in essence and in fact promotes the concept of identity with the other "Israelite" nations which in turn leads to their fusion with total loss of national sovereignty. Therefore, the concept betrays us under its pretense of conservatism.

"The object is to re-establish mankind into the kingdom of God on earth, a perfect relationship between God and certain of mankind who are of the Adamic race. This certain group is the whole house of Israel, whom He will cause to accept His son and return to His land and laws. Those who know the identity of Israel know that this will be done through the leadership of Ephraim (the British Commonwealth) and Manasseh (the United States of America)." Quoted from pages 66 and 67 of PROPHECY ON PARADE, by W. C. Nabors, and published by Destiny Publishers, Haverhill, Mass., which is the front headquarters for the British Israel World Federation in America.

Now there are many good people who will immediately deny that their faith includes the divine national origin propaganda of British Israel. But any belief in national or racial salvation such as the "Jew's" being the chosen of God, supports to the maximum British Israelism.

Hitler used the same propaganda with a reverse twist which most Germans never understood. He promoted the spirit of national socialism which said in its propaganda that it was anti-Jew and anti-communism, but he established the same Jew-communism under the name of National Socialism with the Aryan or super race fiction to support it. If Americans can decipher the anti-Communist crusade in America they can understand that behind the fine sounding term "For God and Country" is the merging of "Israel America" with "all Israel" into a world state NOT under Christ, but under the Union Jack.

It is the task of the British Anglo Israel Kingdom Message propaganda to extol Americanism and build at the same time a world government religion under the cover of Christianity. After it builds the spirit of World Government in the name of Christ, it can justify national and international calamity with the simple explanation that God's judgment is upon us.

Of course the real meaning of international "tribulation" is to disguise the British Empire's desolation of the United States, subverting us into a New Order of the Ages under the pretense of Divine Destiny.

World Communism by way of the British kingdom of God is now being built upon a spiritual foundation. Here we coin a phrase which accurately describes what British Israel is striving for with a false Christianity--that is Protestant Judaism. With the Kingdom Religion (Jew's religion) they are working through all the Protestant churches until now most all Protestants teach Judaism under the notion that they are teaching Christianity. They talk about the fulfillment of prophecy and the coming kingdom of God. Any kingdom of God on earth is materialism and it is the Jew's Religion and a false hope. It is easy to see (if one does not believe in an earthly kingdom) how a millennialist is a One Worler and an alien in his own country.

Despotism has no equal to British Israel. All of Protestantism has been skillfully changed to a crypto Judaism completely unaware.

Americans clap their hands at every Israeli move in the Middle East as in expectation of the fulfillment of prophecy. Every Arab knows more than "educated" Americans, to wit that Zionism is British Communism with the Jew's Religion, and that Judaism is a tool for establishing a Communist World Order under the name Kingdom of God. An excellent example of Zionism or as we have more accurately termed it, Spiritual Communism, is found in Richard W. De Haan's September 1969 Bible Booklet, ISRAEL AND GOD, and I quote from page 21, "When the nation of Israel accepts Christ as Messiah and Savior, it will be restored to the place of favor with God. Paul speaks of this event as 'life from the dead.' Some Bible teachers believe that in these words he refers to the physical resurrection of all Israel at the beginning of the millennial age. Others take this expression to mean that the nation, which has been dead in the sin of unbelief, will receive spiritual life. Both ideas are possible because the resurrection of Old Testament saints will take place at the beginning of the millennium and also because a vast majority of Israelites living on earth at that time will be saved, spiritually passing from death to life. Furthermore, the entire earth will undergo a transformation which will be like 'life from the dead.' It will be marked by universal peace, prosperity, and justice. Isaiah declared that 'the earth shall be full of the knowledge of the Lord, as the waters cover the seal (Isaiah 11:9). Yes, the small nation called Israel, struggling for survival in the Middle East, is destined for spiritual renewal and restoration to God. When this takes place, the whole earth will experience unimaginable blessing." End of quote. Not a Christian that ever lived could fail to detect that De Haan is teaching Judaism with their national salvation scheme and a communist millennium. This is sedition that boasts of a world wide ministry of radio, television, and literature. Of course De Haan will not be hindered with his political religion. His pretext is Christianity; his purpose is treason whether he knows it or not. He holds out a false hope to the "Jew" and leads many from God's grace to an earthly materialism which he calls the millennium. Of course the "Jews" are for this messianic millennial worldly order, and this apostasy is keeping them blinded today as it caused their rejection and crucifixion of Christ. The synagogue Jews are not offended by Christianity as they believe but by their own leaders and proselyte Jews such as Richard De Haan who keep the chosen nation myth as a hope for Jewish exaltation and world peace. Synagogue Jews are like Protestant or Proselyte Jews. They are held in bondage by their own religion of millennial communism. The New World Order will do away with private wealth accumulated under the American system. The Jews will not like this, but they are helping promote it because of their false religion.

British Israel is the perfect crime and once an individual comes under its spell, he immediately becomes a spiritual communist. He is seditious just by virtue of his kingdom religion, and is in fact his own worst enemy. This is bondage of the spirit and bondage without chains. It is the plan of British Communism and it is a battle for the mind.

British Israel enlists hundreds of thousands in its religious army and most never suspect that they are a part of British Communism, The Jehovah Witnesses is a case in point. They say they have no country and least of all Britain, but their kingdom religion promotes the British Empire and not their Jehovah as they believe. It is perfect trickery how British Israel can use so many kingdom cults by disguising the Empire with the pseudonym kingdom of God. When one begins to add up all who have the kingdom religion, he can quickly see that Her Majesty has more loyal subjects in America than in Britain, and what's worse it will take an act of God to convince most people that they are citizens of the world by virtue of their millennial religion. Her Majesty has an imperial cult within the nation which is as fatal to America as cancer is to the body. This is the truth about British Communism and Russia means nothing by comparison.

British Israel builds a nation within a nation and creates a definite immunity against patriotism and nationalism. It actually steals the loyalty of the people under the precepts of their own beliefs. British Israel can acclaim Americanism while destroying it with its kingdom religion. This trickery is hard to comprehend unless one understands British Israelism. There is no other way to truth. There is a direct relationship to treason and one's religion. Ironically, a nationalist religion as De Haan teaches destroys nationalism. Hitler's Germany is our classic example.

We hear so much from the Right Wing that "America is a Christian nation." This of course is promoting a national religion by confusing Christianity. All this propaganda fits the British Israel scheme of "divinely chastising" America for her national sins and "saving" her again in the New Order with glory in the new kingdom. Such catch phrases were originated for mind control. They always sound innocent and Christian. There is no difference in saying America is a Christian nation than in saying Germans are the Master Race. Both ideas came from Internationalists not nationalists. This is psychological warfare and Americans certainly do not understand it.

British Israel simply appropriates multiple meanings to expressions of Americanism and the unthinking quickly pick up hybrid and false patriotism. Thought expressions and clichés are promoted which have inherent contradictions which cannot be readily detected. This neutralizes real patriotism. Likewise British Israel promotes moral degeneracy with Christian concepts and Bible expressions.

Satan will not be outdone and what he corrupts with "evolution" and "God is dead," he uses as faked persecution to his pagan Christianity in order to build and solidify the spirit of the kingdom of God on earth in the name of Jesus Christ. What he creates with his "left" hand he uses to promote his creation of his 'right' by feigned attacks upon the latter. The victims of deceit are caught up in the planned reaction, which moves the conflict into the emerging New Order. What seems like an honest life and death struggle between Communism and Americanism develops into the preplanned "World Under God's Law." The crime is made perfect through the invention and use of a grotesque "Christianity" which merges race with the grace of Christ.

If the substance of our faith is a future world peace under the rulership of God, we are spiritual communists dedicated to self destruction. If we return to spiritual freedom we can return to political freedom. We cannot be spiritual communists and political patriots at the same time. Americans cannot be divided against themselves! To reestablish political sovereignty we must publicly expose the intrigue of the British Empire and its kingdom propaganda to build the World State in the name of Christ. We must expose political communism and spiritual communism and not be tricked into either under any name or pretense.

Any attempt to restore a sick America to good health without correcting or removing the cause of our consternation is pure idiocy. We have shown here a correct identification of Communism so that it can be recognized under any cloak or front. We can now clear the fog and deal squarely with it. If we aren't willing to face it or believe that our "patriotic" leaders have deceived us, there will be a time when it will be too late to question anything. Then what will you say? --Why didn't someone tell us??

Yes, all subversion is traced to British Communism inspired by the billions of Cecil Rhodes and Andrew Carnegie who planned a British World Empire which includes both Russia and America as component parts. The "masters of deceit" hide most their own identity and the source of their power which originates in the British Empire and promotes the Jewish Kingdom Religion as Christianity to cover the Empire grab for world dominion of mind and property.

Right political action in America must be predicated upon an accurate understanding of British Communism which is being promoted as Christianity. Right political action can never come by way of the hands of Masonry and Rhodes Scholars or any of the Jewish Kingdom Religionists. We propose first to expose the British Anglo Israel Communist spiritual plot to educate the American people for World Government with a false Bible interpretation and a false Christianity. We must recognize that the origin of the United Nations is British, that the origin of the withholding tax (income tax) is British, that the kingdom cults are British, that phony anti-communism is British and that Masonry is British, and so the cause of world unrest is British, and Russia is only the instrument.

Communism is a creation of the British Empire and is its weapon of world revolution. Its Judas Goat for political, military and economic Communism is Russia. Its Judas Goat for spiritual communism is the kingdom of God on earth alias Christianity, which is hidden in American churches; World Evangelism and its "Crusade for Christ."

If Americans divest themselves of the spiritual propaganda which prophesies a coming thousand year political government of Christ on earth, they can identify in one second the spiritual plot to unify the world into absolute despotism. They can understand the meaning of Communism versus Christian Civilization and the dual nature of the conflict.

Americans must decode the spiritual communism of the kingdom of God on earth. If they understand the kingdom of grace of Jesus Christ they can translate the kingdom message propaganda to mean the rulership of the world by the British Empire. If they cannot they are a part of it, promoting anti-Americanism and the religion of Satan. This they will not believe until the monster they help promote shackles them.

The best way to cover conspiracy is to create phony opposition. This principle we must understand so as not to get trapped in a false patriotic movement or a flag-waving anti-communist movement. The people behind these movements know very well how to twist them into treason without even one participant being aware. There is great objection to labeling so-called patriotic groups and their books and literature as subversive. When they do not name the enemy they hide him and which one of them has taught us that the origin of Communism is British? Or that Soviet Communism is a front for British Imperialism? And who has told us of British sedition through the kingdom cults that now controls millions of Americans? This brings to our attention a recent effort to twist patriotism into treason in the form of a book called PLOT AGAINST THE CHURCH which we have already named as sedition. Let us here analyze this artful ruse for all to see; with the following analysis of this book:

"It does not take one long to discern that the book THE PLOT AGAINST THE CHURCH by Maurice Pinay is indeed itself a plot against the Catholic Church and against any individual of the Christian faith. It is at once recognizable that the intention of the publishers of this instrument of revolution are seeking to destroy with a vengeance the very institution which they claim to defend against the enemies of Christ. With cynicism and sophistry the author(s) describe how the clergy within the church defend the Jews, their Masonic marionettes, and "Jew communism", immediately identifying the Catholic Church with Communism, Judaism and Masonry. He plainly states on page 296 that Catholicism is responsible for Castro's victory in Cuba. He strives to make Communism and Catholicism arm in arm companions in order to make Communism and Catholicism appear decadent and beyond recovery from the insinuations of a nebulous disease called Judaism. This is a clever trick designed to help a bleeding victim die. The whole vile thing is a Jew bait trap aimed at dissident Catholics and others in order to entrap them into a reactionary movement of anti-communism (antiCatholicism) which itself is the fake opposite of its blood brother Communism, has the same masters and direction and the net result being the total destruction of the Catholic Church."

"Who are these 'defenders' of the Catholic Church? Are they not preparing the Church for destruction by aligning her with Communism, thus manipulating her into the role of 'Mystery Babylon' in order to 'prophetically' destroy every spiritual and physical vestige of the Roman Church. The 'plot' is to cast the Church in the most distorted light possible in order to more effectively destroy it."

"The author indeed makes Catholicism synonymous with Communism. Therefore it becomes a simple deduction to come to the understanding that those who are drawn into the 'anti-communist' sham are necessarily anti-Catholic. Here is the subtlety of Satan and those Catholics who are fighting Communism in order to save their church are in fact the worst enemies of it. This fact cannot be understood until one sees Communism and anti-communism as one force and not two. They are only fake opposites working as a pincers movement toward the same goal of the Universal Masonic Republic alias kingdom of God on earth."

"Communism is Judaism according to the author but he fails to mention that anti-communism is its fake opposite. Therefore he is a part of the evil conspiracy which he proposes to expose. He elaborates at length to prove that Communism is Judaism but he carefully avoids mention that anti-communism is equally 'Judaism.' It is a pitiful fact that anti-communism is anti-Christian and escapes detection because it wraps itself in the American flag and quotes the Bible (Scofield Bible) from the Church altars. Only those who know the plan of salvation can see the deception."

"The author claims over and over that the Jews (those who say they are the Jews) are the source of evil Communism and strife, but he dogmatically and persistently honors them with such titles as 'descendants of Abraham, Israelites, sons of Israel and Hebrews.' This is the grossest contradiction and insult to the faithful ones of Christ Christians) who are the sole heirs to these titles. Does he not condemn the Jew Pharisees in name but embrace them in fact with all the force at his command? These perpetrators of iniquity have never been 'the chosen ones' as he so states.

The author is the epitome of the big lie and with the forked tongue of a rattle snake he seeks to Jew bait honest Catholics into helping destroy their own Church.'

"Ironically if the Jews have such absolute control of everything and are so opposed to the book PLOT AGAINST THE CHURCH, why and how has it been boastfully printed in four or five languages and spread around the world? Ponder this.

"The PLOT AGAINST THE CHURCH is a spearhead attempt to quicken revolution by helping build the reactionary 'anti-communist' movement and Jew is the bait. The time and setting has changed but the scheme is not new, it is only for us to recognize what it is. I submit that the author is a Luciferian Mason and that he despises the Catholic Church and the Christian faith. His subtlety of identifying with the Church gains a vantage point from which to war against the truth of Christ."

"The serpent always devours himself. For those who know the meaning of world revolution the author(s) is quite revealing on page 292 where it states 'that the re-enlivenment of Arianism in the East coincided with the persecutions of Catholicism and with a preferential treatment of Jewry.' He admits Arianism alias British Israelism is united with those (those who the British Israelites claim are the Jews) they claim they hate, to destroy the Catholic Church. In fact he states on page 296 that 'the Jews were the initiators and propagandists of the Arian heresy.' This somewhat allies Hitler with so-called Jews of which he was supposed to have killed six million."

"Even the most vain fool can see how the author has the greatest praise for those he pretends are the arch enemy of the Roman Church. Over and over he usurps titles long ago used to designate only the people who believe in Jesus Christ as God and Saviour, even referring to Graetz as an 'outstanding Israelite.' This is not to say that Graetz did not write a book, but to say that he was not an Israelite anymore than Hitler was.

"Again and again the author relates the decadence of the Catholic Church, stating that the Fifth Column from within has almost totally corrupted the Church and at the same time he further degrades and spits upon the Church by using the Church to propagate a myth called Jews and Judaism. True Christians in the Roman Church are keenly aware that 'those who say they are the Jews are not' and therefore do not give them recognition that they do not deserve by carrying on fake anti-Jew warfare and propaganda."

"Christians in and out of the Roman Church do not recognize anyone as being a Jew except themselves, and all others who have been regenerated in Christ. Paul the apostle taught that only those who have faith in Christ are true Jews. This disqualifies Maurice Pinay's definition of Jew and indicts him as a propagator of an age-old lie that makes devils a special people of God or a special people against God when the so-called Jews he speaks of are no more than a segment of the unsaved people of the world and deserve only recognition as such. The author relegates Christian Catholics to ignorance and seeks to entrap them by claiming that they recognize his fictitious Jews as a special enemy of the Church, let alone that Christians are propagators of the heresy of anti-Jew or pro-Jew hogwash. This in fact would be his best accomplishment as subtle as it might seem."

"If then the author's mythical Jew does not exist as Hitler did not then his accusations that the Roman Church is infested with the peculiar vermin makes him a gigantic liar and leaves him a member of the cesspool of unbelievers in Christ he calls the Jews. The truth of the matter is that Christian Catholics are not concerned with the mythical Jew heresy but are concerned that Christ is their Saviour by His atoning blood and that it is their duty to preach His saving grace to all unbelievers whatever sect they be."

"The only difference in Christian Catholics and any other Christian is that the Catholic Church has been selected as 'Mystery Babylon' by workers of iniquity in order to be destroyed so that it might fulfill the perverted prophecies of premillennialism and British Israelism. THE PLOT AGAINST THE CHURCH is no less a part of this scheme to destroy the Roman Church and all Christians of any church anywhere."

"Pinay would fain hope that he could succeed as the devil's advocate by urging Catholics to attack and disrupt their own Church by getting them side tracked into a sham fight called Jew. He wants them to make a Jew where none exists. He strives to instruct the reader that the foundation of the Catholic Church is based on a negative absurdity of anti-judaism. This is a rank misrepresentation of the efforts of Christian Catholics who have based their faith in Jesus Christ instead of some cocked tale Jew heresy."

"If the vendors of this trash have read it then they must be aware that the author gives as his solution to the bugaboo Jew, world government through union of national states and alliance of all religions. He says we must 'unite in a brotherly way' page 637) and 'National and racial rivalries should be laid aside...' Further he states that world peace can only be obtained by the political uniting of all peoples (page 637). On page 638 he states that we must bring about unity to save ourselves and that 'all lands of the earth can form a world organization.' Perhaps this is another way of propagandizing the British Israel attempt at world government in the name of Christ. Read it for yourselves. In black and white it advocates World Government. Is this patriotism?" End of quotes from analysis of the book PLOT AGAINST THE CHURCH.

This is only one example of false patriotism and deception used by the enemies of America to hide the identity of the largest underground movement in history.

The most one can say for this garbage is that it is an insult to the common sense of an idiot, let alone the mass of Christian Catholics who believe the Gospel of Christ.

We read in PROPHCY ON PARADE, page 16-20, "The enemies of Israel, who are the Gentiles (sons of Japheth) nations of Europe, will reveal themselves as the desolators and attempt to displace the nations of Israel from any national existence."

"Charted here are the moves of the three unclean spirits: Nazism, Facism and Communism (Rev. 16:13). Do not overlook the work assigned to these unclean spirits by the 'little book' from which our understanding is to come, for they were 'to gather them to the battle of that great day of God Almighty.' (Rev. 16:14). And do not overlook the fact that Communism is our last and greatest enemy who brings together and heads the 'Great Confederacy' of which God's Word warns us and from which we hold His sure word of promise and protection when we inquire of Him."

These are not the statements of an isolated nut, but a propagandist who knows the spiritual plot to build a world slave state in the name of Christ. And who has not heard the same thing called "God's judgment of the enemies of Israel" in almost every church in the land?

To those who understand the British Empire plot to dominate the world under the aegis or God's kingdom, the above quotation reveals the buildup of a new Nazi Germany and a "revived Roman Empire" to be used to destroy the United States under the Biblical pretense of Divine Judgment upon America.

In fact the destruction of the United States is the meaning of all the "prophecies" of British Israel and its army of soothsayers and diviners. This propaganda neutralizes any genuine effort to defend our country. It is the master stroke of twentieth century power politics.

1985 UPDATE: British Israel never operates in its own name and it is not an organization. It is a religious organism and a super cult that crosses religious affiliations and denominations. British-Israel is the Kingdom Message, i.e., the teaching that there is coming an earthly kingdom of God for a thousand years.

British Israel is a religious organism that has no membership list and no visible organization. No one really understands how he is being silently guided and directed right into Communism through this false Christianity.

The Kingdom of God on Earth is the propaganda of this subversive "Christianity".

Today we have many identity cults, all of them denying that they are British Israel but they do not deny that they are propagandists for the Kingdom Message. Some say "We are not British Israel; we are Anglo Israel" or, "we are Christian Identity or Israel Identity". They are all the same because they all toot the Kingdom Message. This they will not and cannot deny.

How has this Spiritual Communism covered our land with the help of the American people without their knowledge? The answer is religion. A doctrine of World Government Socialism has insidiously been introduced to them and they have swallowed it under the name Fundamentalist Christianity.

You should be able to see by now how Fundamentalist Christianity with its doctrine of racial and national salvation and its coming earthly kingdom is nothing more than Nazism under a Christian cloak. Whereas the Nazism of Germany was used on the country of Germany, Fundamentalist Christianity is being used on the whole world through World Evangelism.

Fundamentalism is that stratagem or deception that neutralizes, blinds and divides a man against himself. Is this indeed the beast that all shall worship both great and small save those elect who have the spirit of God to keep them from spiritual deception?

If you understand this book, stop where you are and give thanks to God that He chose you to reveal it to you. If you do not understand this book, search the list at the back of this book and do as we are commanded in Matthew 6:33: "Seek ye first the kingdom of God..."

Even though Scripture warns over and over of the Judaizers, Fundamentalist Christians have given themselves over to Jewish fables.

WORLD EVANGELISM AND THE SCOFIELD BIBLE

Undermining America with Anti-Communism and "Patriotism"

World Evangelism to most Americans means telling the world about the Gospel through foreign missionaries and huge Evangelistic and literature campaigns. This movement has individuals from one end of the world to the other teaching and preaching the coming kingdom of God on earth and that Christ is soon to come and deliver the world from the yoke of bondage and then the Anglo Saxons and the Jews (a racial and national system of religion) will administer "justice" in God's kingdom.

This is simply an extension of the hopes of the Pharisees before Christ came to extend His grace to all believers. The only difference now is that the world through British Israel deception has been brought to believe that this flesh and blood kingdom is Christ's kingdom. This is only a veiled commercial enterprise to dominate the world with this spiritual lie. This foolishness does not apply personally to the disseminators of world revolution. It is only the bait to move the people into world government under the British Empire. Because the language of this propaganda is hidden in Christian terminology and Biblical "prophecy" (man made) few people can imagine that they are being cleverly educated toward world government. When enough people have been reeducated to believe that this Pharisaic scheme is Divine, then we will have reached the point of no return to a true independence as Americans have known it under the Constitution. The goal of the British Empire through British Israel is a world wide British world state allowing no independent nations such as the United States. This is the real meaning and significance of the kingdom message propaganda that is now universal, unopposed and unabated to rethink our spiritual values to conform to this political world state with the throne of Britain becoming the throne of Christ.

Communism in a political and military sense is to be the destructive force of the world system of independent states. It is also the catalyst to terrorize the world into the British Israel spiritual trap. So torment comes via Anglo Saxon exported to Russia Communism, and "salvation" and unification comes through Anglo Saxon British Israel.

So as Americans are overcome with Communism they go to church and pray that God will send His kingdom to deliver them from their anguish. As their "Bible College" preachers and professors condemn Communism they promote it through the kingdom message. It is from our churches, for the most part, that people have come to believe in this spiritual communism as they did not get it from God's Word.

World Evangelism has been literally poured over the world under the symbols of the Cross and the globe. This fake Christianity even undergoes planned persecution so as to milk the churches of America out of every emotional dollar. When they tell how the "Communists" persecute these kingdom message Christians the tithes and offerings pour in. It is only a veneer of Christianity and conceals within it the destruction of the Apostolic faith as well as a hidden political conspiracy. It has drugged the spirit of the world and the world like a dope addict is craving this fake Christianity which is sealing its doom in the name of truth. To the victims of this blasphemy truth is sacrificial for relief from their frustration which was caused in the first place because truth is sacrificed. British Israel Evangelism has made of the world a spiritual paralytic which can now only get satisfaction from more British Israelism. It feeds on truth (misused) and multiplies its cancerous disease to destroy its victims whom it has deceived. It deceives most those who believe it most and neutralizes them against British Israel while it deprives them of truth which alone can give them freedom. This is why people who once become infected with this spiritual disease cannot return from it and this is why they cannot put political issues in proper perspective. British Israel causes people to constantly fight against their own best interest and more often than not they are in the midst of their enemies thinking they are among friends. Man does not fight against that which he believes. He can dissipate himself trying to be a patriot but it is impossible if his spirit is overcome with British Israel.

British Israel World Evangelism is stalking the earth unseen and untaxed, eating the vitals out of the remnants of national states and would-be opposition to the cloak and dagger British Empire. British Israel is universal and versatile and aligns itself with truth whatever men consider it to be. It has through world evangelism become the ghost of Christianity and like a locust that has left its shell, it has only the form of Godliness.

If a man scoffs at this spiritual conflict he belittles his own beliefs. His beliefs determine his actions and if he does not have beliefs he is relegated to the animal kingdom. Therefore our beliefs emanate from our convictions and we act accordingly. If we have become imbued with the spirit of British Israel we are its ecclesiastical prisoners and soldiers in its army. The power of British Israel is its enlisting men unwittingly in its vast army by cleverly superimposing its spiritual power to conform to man's concept of what is good. Then the "new creature" is guided to destruction, with his own concepts and within the framework of his own thinking. He never realizes that British Israel has given him a new meaning for his vocabulary and he is hexed with semantics which tricks him against himself and his country. He is bewitched and under the spell of spiritual darkness which he now believes is light and he is zealous in it.

Communism is used to bombard us externally while silently and skillfully we are overcome internally with British Israel. The consequence of this "new faith" is world citizenship and this world citizenship spiritual is a prelude to world citizenship physical and world evangelism is the advance guard.

We make no apologies for the true Christian missionaries who are preaching the kingdom of grace, but by and large the driving force and purpose of World Evangelism is British Israel.

British Israel is a parasite that feeds on the natural man and it is for this same reason that the natural man succumbs to this deception.

The natural man cannot see through the cloak of British Israel and decipher its language to see that it is only Communism under another name. Even if men suspect British Israel, they cannot bring themselves to comprehend its power as a concealed political-spiritual force that has now spread its tentacles over the earth. Its pious appearance decorated with the Christian Cross shields it from its most persistent adversaries and world evangelism with this fake Christianity has made detection of British Israel as a plot against humanity undetectable and if detected, invulnerable. To point out that this enigma has hidden itself within our churches and is using them for a base to destroy the United States is to invite ridicule and charges of insanity to anyone who dares utter such a fantastic concept. Do not the church goers of America expect Satan to appear as an angel of light? Do not the people wonder that this new Christianity is rampant in the land and yet no one seems to be able to detect that the kingdom message of British Israel is not according to God's Word? Churchianity is literally flourishing in the land and yet the people are plagued with confusion and spiritual darkness. People are so busy going to church that they do not have time to study their Bibles. The magnificent structures with air-conditioned comfort of these modern day synagogues are spiritually dead and their people have lost contact with the universal church invisible and the living Jesus Christ Who established it.

Where are God's people? Have they returned again to bondage after having received the Gospel? Have they given their very souls and their country too in exchange for the promises of a commune world built upon the blood and despoiled property of humanity? Are people foisted into believing that the very deception that is destroying them now will save them again?

Our Lord warned that if they speak not according to His Word there is no light in them. If our people seek Christ through this worldwide artificial Christianity they will not find Him as He is no more popular than He has ever been but His name is on the lips of the world. "All who say Lord Lord will not enter the kingdom of heaven..." That is, all do not understand that God is spirit, that His kingdom is spiritual and that His consuming purpose for man is spiritual regeneration.

The kingdom of British Israel is flesh and blood but the kingdom of our Lord is happiness and joy in the Holy Spirit. Never shall the two be one. That they are one is the lie of British Israel.

Throughout the ages men have been enslaved and killed for their beliefs. Today the world believes British Israel and it is being put in slavery as a consequence of it. Truth makes man free but this same truth misused can enslave him again. All that is necessary that British Israel succeed is that people believe that God's kingdom is to come in the form of a political theocracy upon the earth. It is not essential that one be a Jehovah's Witness or a Southern Baptist or a member of any church -- only that he believe that the kingdom will come upon the earth. In this they are all united. They may despise each other but they are unified in their hope for the earthly kingdom of "righteousness." What British Israel divides physically it unites spiritually through the kingdom message. Some of the most ardent advocates of the kingdom of God on earth call themselves "fundamental Christians. In this they have emphasized their name to hide their identity; nevertheless they are identified in their belief of the millennial kingdom on earth, and they are brother Pharisees to all other cults of this deception. Through the apparent maze of churches in the land the consistency of the kingdom message overshadows the inconsistency of the multiple doctrines and creeds. This unity in belief of the kingdom on earth is the work of British Israel and its world evangelism. As innocent as it sounds this kingdom belief is the tie that binds and blinds them.

As people become dissatisfied with their particular brand of Christianity they break away and form new churches and carry their Scofield Bibles with them. They change their location and perhaps the name of their church but they retain their beliefs in the kingdom of God on earth to come. Families are divided, politicians are divided, nations are divided and the world is divided but all are united in the spirit of British Israel and its coming kingdom. It is amazing how British Israel causes dissension and confusion and yet causes men to strive together in spiritual blindness.

This British Israel Luciferian degeneracy is now butchering the world while it prepares it for the New Age with the kingdom message. It has prepared its advances so well with its propaganda that its victims are perpetuating their own destruction in their haste to spread this contagious disease. The adherents of this deception are anxious to inoculate the world with this newfound "Christianity" which promises heaven on earth. People spend their money and erect beautiful churches that their "good works" may help spread darkness over the land.

All this upsurge in "Christianity" seems good to men and they do not discern its spirit. Through its outward appearance and form they deem it good and glorify their father who is Satan. They are callous, indifferent and hostile with self righteousness. Their emotions are charged only when threatened with physical annihilation not caring one whit about spiritual truth. The only spirit that makes sense to the vain is the deceit of British Israel that promises them peace and plenty on earth.

America has literally been corrupted with this fake Christianity so that they can be cleverly despoiled of their faith and their country. Never will they believe that the source of their deception is their churches and brave is the man that tries to tell them. Betrayal is wrapped in the thing that people trust most -- their teachers, preachers and churches, and they compromise their faith with apathy. People are intellectually lazy and spoon-fed Christianity suits their pace of living and gives them a certain satisfaction that they have served their God with their inanimate appearance at church. While they are indifferent to the Gospel, they are indoctrinated with another Gospel -- the Gospel of British Israel.

All of the armies in the world could not do to America what British Israel is doing at this moment -- annihilating our country in the name of Christianity and we lift not a finger to prevent it. We amass armies around the world while we are poisoned with the propaganda of the kingdom message on every radio station in the land educating people for World Government in which at most our lot will be "World Service." Our "fortune" is world service to the British Empire even now, but we are still allowed to fly our flag. We are policing the world as we help prepare the stage for the last finale in which the real jackals of the British Empire intend to bury us.

Can one observe that we are being swamped with the kingdom message and then doubt the power of its perpetrators? Does not the invisible Empire become at once visible and in fact a colossus monster stealing the commerce of the world through British Israel? While it uses every trick to hide its identity it imposes its spiritual power over the country dulling its senses while it saps its wealth and destroys its economy. The British Empire is actually destroying this country and taking its people prisoners and justifying it Biblically. If our dead soldiers could come back would they die again for such a depraved people?

The only true racial issue today is that the American race, black and white, should declare that the British race stop its vengeance and forget its ambition of a World Empire. The only new laws that we need are those forbidding Kingdom Message Communism and those forbidding Rhodes Scholars in the United States Government. The only thing we have in common with the British world is our language and we should use it to expose their plot and drive their agents from this country.

There are many Christian Americans who would help reestablish our independence if they could understand that the kingdom message is British propaganda which is preparing the world for another blood bath. And most especially would they be mad if they understood how their churches are being used in this Satanic plot.

To any reasonable American the idea of destroying our country and giving up our freedom and property is not in his thinking. Yet we are being prepared for this very thing through British Israel and we do not object because we are hoodwinked into believing that it is God's will and plan instead of that of the British Empire.

We need not exhaust ourselves documenting facts that this organized conspiracy exists. This propaganda is the biggest fact of all ages. All that is necessary is that we look at its essence and its substance and identify its purpose. British Israel cannot hide its goals and all that is important is that we penetrate its lies to see that it is a plan of World Government and a British World Government at that. British Israel is Satanic and it must continue to advocate the earthly kingdom and if we look closer we see that this kingdom is British.

Like the proverbial octopus, the British Empire and its British Israel has many tentacles and equally as many names and colors. If one tentacle is recognized the dupe is simply ensnared with another. It is a monster with many faces. It has Masonry for the vain, it has political parties for the power seekers, it has Americanism for the patriots, it has soothsayers for the superstitious, it has religion for the religious, it has Nazism for one country, it has Communism for another, it has Socialism for still another, and it has World Evangelism for the world and the world is its domain. It recognizes no nationalism but creates them and destroys them at will. It causes wars and finances them and wanton murder and slaughter are its only expediency. On the other hand it gives a penance to philanthropy and gives lip service to good works. British Israel cannot be traced as it leaves no tracks because it identifies with and hides within its victim of the moment and when one victim dies its ghost moves to another. It cannot be seen under its own banner and if someone begins to recognize its course it attacks itself until it becomes ridiculous to its would-be enemies. It divides nations, it divides families, and it divides man against himself. It divides all so that it can unite all again with one spirit and One World in the name of Christ. It must first destroy and then synthesize the unity of man in a world state and this is how we recognize it. British Israel is the chaos of this age and the kingdom of God in the next, but it admits only the latter. It is a seducer of man's spirit because it conceals itself within his values to do it. British Israel is the perfect crime and we cannot fingerprint it but those who have eyes to see and hearts to understand recognize its goal of World Government and see its havoc now to that end.

The work of World Evangelism is to advertise the form of Christianity while it denies its spirit. It is in truth a legal system which has the appearance of good works. It is the degeneration of British Israel and not the regeneration of the Holy Spirit and the power of truth separates them in the hearts of men. True to the nature of British Israel, World Evangelism knows no boundaries or nations as it builds the kingdom of humanity under the sign of the Cross. This international crusade is educating the world for the New Order on the foundation of this one that it has corrupted.

As the stress and strain of political confusion drives the people to desperation, World Evangelism fills the air with the good news of the coming kingdom on earth to give us rest. The world unknowingly is being forced into this British Empire kingdom through British Israel-spiritual, and as Communism the destroyer is built up World Evangelism the "Saviour" becomes universal salvation for a torn world. World Evangelism is a tax exempt colossus which has engulfed the world with its innocence as it piously and skillfully educates the world for its kingdom of God on earth. It gives lip service and mention of Bible truths which it cleverly fits into its scheme of World Government. It parades and overruns like a Trojan horse with its kingdom message as it condemns the world for its sins. It is impervious to its lies and its victims whose spirit it tramples. It knows no one will attack a saint as it yells "Jesus is coming."

British Israel and its World Evangelism is wearing out God's people and the very elect would be deceived if it were possible. Christians must see through its veil and discern its spirit that it is fictitious and artificial. At the same time they must recognize its power that it has derived from its adaptation to Christianity. It does not deceive with a lie, it deceives with the truth, misused. Its power is seen in that it has the world looking for the establishment of the kingdom of God upon earth. Those who deny it believe it, and those who believe it deny it. Truth becomes a lie and a lie becomes the truth -- to those who believe it, a lie has become the truth and to those who deny it, truth has become a lie.

The real aim of World Evangelism is to rotate the conscience of man so that evil becomes good and good becomes evil. This must be done with truth and this is why British Israel World Evangelism parades under the cloak of Christianity and operates within the framework of its terminology so as to change the meaning of Christianity without changing its name. Few there be who understand this concept of power as it is invisible, undetectable, indefensible (with armies) and all powerful.

In this new Christianity the hope of the world has become the kingdom of God on earth and by this same analogy this is how America has again become a part of the British Empire while it still flies its own flag. It is not the Christianity one acclaims, it is what are his beliefs? It is not the flag we fly, it is where is our allegiance?

British Israel has changed the meaning of our language so that our thoughts and actions betray us. As we strive for Americanism betrayal is concealed within it. As we seek Christianity it unites us against Christ. The values that once made us free are now making us slaves and this is the meaning of the giant expansion of this new Christianity and the buildup of patriotism. On them is the stamp of betrayal if we could but penetrate its spirit we could see its purpose.

British Israel is aloof from the petty issues that it has given us to fight and if we win, lose or draw we are still within the limits of our bondage. It is callous to its creations, immune from its intrigue and suspended from attack. It could write itself across the sky and the world could read it, but it could not perceive its meaning.

Any presumed expose of British Israel is absurd to the Pharisaic world that believes this new Christianity. This is why the Jew Baiters can scream that Communism is a Jewish plot as they promote British Israel which is the same Anglo-Jew plot. The real Jewish plot is British Israel, which is to be the fulfillment of their Messianic dreams and any attempt to limit them to the Jew-communist conspiracy supports the Anglo-Jew British Israel conspiracy by hiding it. Jew-communism is the bait -- Jew British Israel is the plot. The heartbeat of British Israel is Jew Pharisaism with the name of Christianity.

Our Lord did not oppose the Jews on their put-up myths like Communism. He opposed them because they wanted an earthly kingdom in His name and for this He was crucified by them, but today this same earthly kingdom is the hope of the world through British Israel World Evangelism. The world does not know that this new Christianity has become Jew Pharisaism in all but name. Christianity through British Israel has become an enemy to its own faith. This alienation of man from the true faith is the work of World Evangelism. It builds its altars in the far ends of the earth; its missionaries live in squalor and suffer persecution, it fights Holy Wars to gain political control of the world so that it can expand evangelism with the theme "Jesus is coming." Little do its faithful servants know that they are part of a commercial enterprise that has sheltered itself in World Evangelism and that they are the screen for the greatest deception of the ages.

The world writhes in agony and confusion as the big finance of Anglo-Saxondom promotes World

Evangelism as a front for its world grab. Tax exempt foundations do not finance "Bible Colleges" and "Christian Schools" to promote Christ, but to promote the British scheme of world domination through the spiritual. They want the kingdom message imprinted upon the world and they will spill every drop of blood of every goy to attain this end. They kill our faith and take our country in the name of righteousness and our spiritual blindness has made of us its most faithful servants.

Most people who get a glimpse of British Israel cannot imagine that such a seemingly harmless thing as the kingdom message is power politics. Its disguise as Christianity has disarmed suspicion and made it subtle and it is this subtleties that enhances its power and lessens its delectability. It is so subtle and so powerful that it manipulates the world both politically and religiously and it is not suspected by one in one million. It is so subtle and so powerful that it has the world prepared for World Government and the world believes that it is Christian. What must be done to prove to the patriots that ridiculous political issues, race antagonisms, and biographies of who did it are a waste of time and remove one from the best interest of patriotism unless he can see and exploit the over-all British plot to take the world through British Israel?

To overlook the use of the Scofield Bible in the explosion of this world wide fake Christianity would be to pass over an important link in our effort to identify British Israel. We say that it is Scofield's Bible, as it is not God's. The text of the Scofield Bible is King James Version, but the critical thing is that C. I. Scofield and a group of "Bible Scholars" of the Millennial Kingdom Cult have inserted their notes and peculiar interpretation throughout the Bible in most cases at the bottom of the pages in note form. The consequence of this is that through the Scofield Bible notes millions have learned the kingdom message of British Israel, thinking it is the Word of God.

This Bible has been in circulation for about sixty years and it is the favorite of so-called fundamental Christianity and now there is of late a new edition which emphasizes even more the legal system of Jew-Pharisaism under the pretext of Christianity, of course.

The Scofield Bible sets out a scheme of interpretation which exactly supports and teaches the British Israel kingdom message. It seeks to conceal its objective as does all British Israel by giving lip service to spiritual truth, but it cleverly guides its reader to the Kingdom Age. We perceive that our reader by now will have no trouble identifying Scofield's Millennialism as being the same as the kingdom of God on earth of British Israel, the same as the Communism of Karl Marx, the same as the New Age of Masonry, and the same as the Messianic Age of Judaism. The building of the kingdom age is the object of all of them and the kingdom age makes them all one, and needless to say their flesh and blood earthly kingdom is not God's kingdom, only that they say it is.

The preachers and teachers who carry the Scofield disease do not know the Lord Jesus Christ nor do they understand His plan of salvation. Theirs is a system of national and racial religion geared to the legalism of the Jews (we use the word Jew in the physical sense because the world does it but it is not Biblical to do so as the correct word is Pharisee) and with it they are fronting for the Jew British Empire in its seizure of the wealth and domination of the world. In this blasphemy they neither go in the kingdom of God nor suffer others to do so and they keep others out of God's spiritual and ONLY kingdom now by causing them to look for another yet future. This is a denial of the Gospel Age which is the only age for salvation and a denial that the great commission has given Christ all power in Heaven and earth. Christ's power is not petty political power according to British Israel. It is Divine power according to God and its purpose is to save men from their sins, not to glorify their flesh on earth.

Now the Scofield Bible is a versatile book as it is used by nearly all of Protestantism and their many offshoot churches. They disagree and feud over everything imaginable but they are all bound to the Kingdom Message and they quickly harmonize on this common foundation. These modern Pharisees would crucify Christ again if He were to appear in the flesh and repeat that "My kingdom is not of this world." His kingdom will never be of this world, only British Israel says it is to hide their global plot to enslave the world spiritually and physically.

The kingdom age of Scofield is a subtle heresy that denies basic Christianity as the Bible does not teach any historical procedure or train of events that ends with the kingdom of British Israel. This kingdom age of British Israel annuls the Gospel Dispensation now by making it yet future and in this they confuse the Heavenly hope of Christians with the rank materialism of the carnal kingdom of Jew-British Israel. British Israel is full of glaring inconsistencies and prophetic perversions but it is promoting the world state as planned. The camouflaged Pharisaism of Scofield gives no light to Christians but it does great wonders promoting the Kingdom Message as the "only hope of the world." The Scofield Bible is the chief promoter of the Kingdom Message and it admits of spirituality but it emphatically denies it with its carnalistic kingdom of God on earth.

It is perfectly amazing how people can see how the Negroes are being used through their churches but yet they are under the same influence through the Scofield Bible and its kingdom message. This text book on Millennialism is leading the people to the same Communism taught in the Negro churches and yet we are beguiled into a constant race war. The perpetrators of race war use it to get us to destroy each other physically while we are overcome spiritually with the Kingdom Message.

We are dealing with the Scofield Bible in this text to demonstrate its use (as British Israel spiritual deception) in changing spiritual Israel back to physical Israel and changing the spiritual seed of Abraham back to the flesh and blood race of Jew-Pharisaism. The Scofield Bible is an instrument of this spiritual lie as it changes the Heavenly hope to a future theocratic earthly kingdom and the belief of this earthly kingdom to come is the mask that is being used to blind the people of the world to the machination of the British Empire to gain complete domination over the physical world by controlling the beliefs or spirit of its people. And as stated before they are identifying with and misusing the truth of the Gospel in our churches to carry on this political-spiritual takeover of our country.

The Scofield Bible is only another dimension in this Satanic plot albeit a very important one. In our study of British Israel we are revolving it three hundred sixty degrees in order that it might be seen from every angle with its many coloration's, names, characteristics and uses many of which seemed opposed to and antagonistic to each other but all united in their efforts to cause the people to believe that the Spiritual Israel of Christianity is physical Israel of British Israel. Changing Spiritual Israel into national or more correctly stated, International Israel, in the minds of the people is the work of British Israel to hide the scheme of its masters to establish their world state.

We see the world rocked with "wars and rumors of wars" which is only an enactment of the religio-political scheme which seeks to destroy the flesh and then save it again with a natural Messiah. If we follow the notes of the Scofield Bible we see in them a teaching that physical punishment is the judgment of God on the nations so that the future kingdom of peace on earth will be seen as deliverance. This is clearly salvation of the flesh and naturally appeals to a war torn world and the ultimate aim is to remove all faith in the Supernatural Messiahship of Jesus Christ and replace it with the carnal state of British Israel. People do not understand that this hidden political plot which offers an earthly paradise in the name of Christ is the same British Israel Masonic power that is causing their misery now and justifying it with perversions of the Gospel such as the Scofield Bible.

It is through the teaching of the Scofield Bible that people have come to believe that the chaos in the world is actually the "judgments of God upon a sinful world." God is not the author of confusion and His kingdom is spiritual and is happiness and joy and is in no way a part of the mess we witness to today that this new Christianity believes is God's wrath. It is only wrath justified and explained under the cover of Christianity and the Scofield Bible is its handiwork.

The Scofield Bible like its British Israel designers alludes to Spiritual Israel but with its forked tongue and double talk it cleverly mixes physical Israel in so that physical Israel emerges over spiritual Israel and becomes the final purpose of God in a future millennial age. This is a doctrine of race and is the exact opposite of grace and the mixing of things sacred with things profane has caused the world to believe that physical Israel and Spiritual Israel are one.

With this trickery the world is being put through the fires of hell under the guise that all is God's woes and judgments upon the nations. People are neutralized and will not resist or even try to understand their anxiety that their churches have told them is God's judgments. God only allows this spiritual deception to separate the believers from the unbelievers and not to confiscate their nations and property because the worlds are His and He has all power in Heaven and earth. The plan of God is salvation of man from his sin of unbelief that Jesus is the Christ and not to enchain him again with the yoke of bondage called national Israel.

The world has been literally doped with British Israel and it is going to the slaughter like a tranquilized lamb not knowing the source of its agony. The British Israel kingdom message says in essence that the British Empire is God and the most the rest of the world can hope for is "world service" in this Jew-British World State. The kingdom of God on earth is only the bait of British Israel to move the world spiritually and physically into this world empire under the Union Jack.

The only reason the Scofield Bible refers to spiritual Israel is to conceal its physical Israel and make it palatable to today's diluted Christianity. The proof of this is its scheme of interpretation which gradually diminishes spiritual Israel as it increases physical Israel into a world political state. This religio-political state which the Scofield Bible notes calls the kingdom of God, is clothed in spiritual terms and sanctioned with Biblical contradictions but when it is defrocked and laid bare it is the British Empire Superstate.

The Scofield Bible is the script and the confused political situation is the act to prove the script so that people will believe it. Things are confused only to the people who have been overcome with the spirit of the Kingdom Message. Nothing political makes sense until we understand that the prophetic perversions of the Scofield Bible are being enacted on the world stage. Therefore America is to win no more wars and it cannot be saved from economic collapse as "prophecy" says it must give way to God's coming kingdom on earth according to British Israel. America cannot win any wars in its own behalf as long as the agents of the "beast system" British Empire control us. The most we can do is police the world until we are exhausted of our blood and money.

That the Scofield Bible supports British Israel heresy is beyond question and in order to demonstrate the usefulness of this "Bible" to the Kingdom Message, we quote from THE TRIUMPH OF BRITISH-ISRAEL, a book published by Covenant Publishing Company, Ltd., which publishes the books of the British Israel World Federation with headquarters in London, England. This book, by Rev. James Mountain, D.D., page 44, states as follows: "It will be observed that we make frequent quotations from 'THE SPEAKERS COMMENTARY,' one of the most learned of its day, and prepared largely by Bishops of the Church of England; also from 'SCOFIELD REFERENCE BIBLE' which was prepared by eight of the most learned and eminent American Divines, including the Rev. Arthur T. Pierson, D.D., who for many years was a regular Speaker at the Keswick Convention. When the name of Dr. Scofield only is given, SCOFIELD'S REFERENCE BIBLE is to be understood."

"So far as we know, none of the Authors of these valuable Commentaries has given any direct endorsement of British-Israel teaching. But our readers will perceive that their interpretations of many important parts of Holy Scripture furnish valuable indirect support to the fundamental statements of British-Israel advocates." End of quote.

The scheme of millennial interpretation that the notes of the Scofield Bible puts on the Scripture has caused the development of a spiritual stratum which excludes any objective analysis of the relationship of the Kingdom Age Millennium and Communism. This spiritual power changes the meaning of the facts so that when these facts of the Kingdom Message come face to face with Communism they seem to be in conflict, when in fact it is a superficial conflict between aspects of the same ideology under different names. This illusory spiritual force wedges an individual's beliefs so that he can no longer see or understand objectively his predicament. This spiritual deception changes a person's relationship to his culture by changing the form of his facts and when he tries to apply his concepts in an effort to free himself he always ends up with a result just the opposite to that which he presupposes because he does not realize that his new spiritual values have changed the meaning of his concepts. This is precisely what we mean when we say a man is divided against himself and anything he does works to his detriment until he can recognize his subjection to this spiritual force and extricate himself from it. This is why true patriotism becomes subversive once the meaning of basic concepts such as Americanism change.

Therefore we have concluded that all revolutionary activity is incidental, secondary and subordinate to this spiritual force which changes the basic relationship of a people to its national culture by changing the meaning of their language. Once this inner conflict is established then the acts of the people to save themselves are inconsistent with their best interest and any future would-be patriot is inhibited within the bounds of his bondage. What we are saying to the reader is that America cannot keep her independence if her people come to believe that the Kingdom Message is the Gospel because the Kingdom Message means World Government and World Government is antithetical to the independence of any state or nation.

The very purpose of the Scofield Bible is to change the spirit of the people so that it is impossible for them to be objective. We can see in this how a set of facts mean truth to one man and a terrible untruth to another. These facts need not necessarily be rearranged to cause this conflict, only that they mean one thing to one person and something else to another. This is how the Gospel can mean an earthly world state to some, and salvation to others while both believe that the Bible is truth. British Israel has changed the meaning of the Bible in the case of the former and failed of its purpose in the case of the latter.

If the meaning of our language and concepts change then we cannot use them with the same intent lest they betray us. Therefore if British Israel changes our beliefs from Heaven to earth, from spirit to flesh, we can no longer oppose World Government without promoting it. We cannot fight that which we believe regardless of the form it takes or the name it adopts. Such is the deceit of British Israel.

All can agree on a set of facts but they must agree on their meaning before understanding is reached, and the facts must mean truth to be consistent with the best interest and use of the people. We see how "Christianity" and World Evangelism is a religio-spiritual plot to deceive the people into world government rather than teach them salvation through Christ.

As the Americanist screams about the materialism of the Godless Communist he flounders like a soulless idiot in the depravity of the Kingdom Message which is rank materialism in its most pious form. What they condemn with their lips they establish with their hearts which have been overcome with a crude caricature having only the name of Christianity.

World Evangelism and the Scofield Bible are unifying the people with the spirit of the Kingdom Message. It is a new faith which multiplies itself upon the conflicts that it inspires for its victims. This spiritual power that the patriots do not even know exists is the chain that binds them and while they strain at a gnat they swallow an elephant. They are grabbing at a straw while the wind blows them away. They must heal themselves before they can heal the land.

World Evangelism and the teaching of the Scofield Bible is esoteric Communism veiled under the sign of the Christian Cross and concealed within the terminology of the Christian language. This is understood by a few but imposed on hundreds of millions. Political feuds and even world wars heretofore are novel in comparison to the religio-political power politics of British Israel. Engaging the political shams and the Negro revolution is immense naïveté compared to British Israel. The United Nations, race war, urban renewal, Vietnam and Korea are only casual events and mere waste products of the spiritual power of British Israel.

The Scofield Bible and World Evangelism spreads a system of predictive prophecy which has as its purpose to conceal within Biblical terms a plot to debauch the world with a depraved fleshly Judaism so that it can later present its Christ and a synthetic Christianity as the only "hope of the world." This imitation Christianity has justified the destruction of nations and millions of people and made the people of the world believe it is God's judgment. It is in truth the blood suckers of Judeo-Masonic-British Imperialism and their Satanic deeds of the past will only be exceeded by their last grand act of World War III, which their Scofield Bible teaches is the "Great Tribulation." In this they debase the Word of God to hide their evil deeds.

No one could appreciate the fantastic nature of this revelation more than the writer, nor is he oblivious to the fact that Americans are at least one hundred years removed from the truth of reality. The universal and complete dissemination of the Kingdom Message through the Scofield Bible and World Evangelism has insulated the people of the world against any penetration of reality and locked them within the limits of this spiritual power. This is true to such an extent that most are completely incapacitated as far as any objective analysis of power politics is concerned because British Israel propaganda has reeducated them so completely that they are like a gyroscope spinning in all directions but unable to move in any direction. The most the victims of this deceit can do is develop a sense of negative hopelessness which causes them to honestly seek the hope of British Israel which they believe is the kingdom of God on earth.

The most any would-be patriot does is pounce upon the inequities of American society and blame the imbalance on Communism and few there be who recognize that these pitched battles were made in England and woe unto those who cast questions at the "Christian" synagogues who are blasting the people with the spiritual deception of the Kingdom Message.

The promoters of the Kingdom Message do not care how much truth the churches teach as long as they teach the lie that Christ will come again to rule the world for a thousand years. This made-in-England heresy is a camouflage of the greatest political intrigue of the ages and we say it is exported from England because the seat of the American Government has moved back across the Atlantic to London and the so-called "fallen British Empire" now includes the United States of America. That this is true is believed and understood only by those who know the real meaning of the Kingdom of God on Earth propaganda.

World Evangelism has created an imitation of Christianity and with it captured the allegiance of the people whom it has deceived. It cleverly diminishes the power and mission of Christ by constantly repeating the theme that "Jesus is coming." World Evangelism parasites and dwells on the form of Christianity while it denies its spirit and its truth. As it makes Christ's Mission a failure, it changes the hope of the world to a new salvation yet future. The work of British Israel through its World Evangelism is to cut the world off from the spirit of God after which the physical control of the world gives way to spiritual control, making armies of occupation unnecessary. Seen in this light America is occupied with its own army which in turn is controlled by the British Empire, which is the wielder of the spiritual power through British Israel.

We call British Israel spiritual power because it controls the minds of men through the Kingdom Message propaganda. It is educating the people of the world for World Government under the guise and deception that it is Christianity. More particularly it is teaching that the Jews and the British Commonwealth of Nations represents the national basis of God's kingdom on earth.

British Israel teaches through the churches that we are bound for spiritual, moral and intellectual bankruptcy of our day because we are in the time of "Jacob's Trouble" according to Bible prophecy. In this so-called modern-day "Jacob's Trouble" is the front and excuse for the present chaotic condition which is leading to disintegration preceding reconstruction into the new order of God's kingdom. This "Jacob's Trouble," which will end with the "Great Tribulation" (according to the scheme of British Israel), is the pious and religious justification for the destruction of our Constitution, racial strife, political disintegration, ecclesiastical disintegration, financial, economic and institutional disintegration. This great climax called in Biblical terms the "Great Tribulation" is calculated to "Biblically" destroy independent nations with their institutions in preparation for reorganization into the new British World Superstate. But according to British Israel prophecy we need have no worry as we shall only lose our nation in exchange for the New Age Millennial Righteousness and peace.

The erroneous scheme of prophetic interpretation set forth in the Scofield Bible has as its purpose to hide the political intrigue to bring about World Government. This error begins with the Abrahamic Covenant in Genesis 15:18 which sets forth God's promises to the seed of Abraham according to the flesh. The Scofield notes strive to convey that this physical promise has never been fulfilled in its final stage and that it will be so fulfilled in the kingdom age.

In the first instance this is a disregard of the new seed of Abraham according to the faith. These spiritual seed are the only seed of Abraham in the New Testament. Galatians 3:26 states "For ye are all the children of God by FAITH in Christ Jesus" and verse 29 states "And if ye be Christ's then are ye Abraham's seed and heirs according to the promise."

In the second instance Scofield makes God false to His promises when he states that the land promises of the Abrahamic Covenant have not been fulfilled. This is blasphemy especially when he omits to mention the Scripture which infallibly proves that the physical aspects (land etc.) of the Covenant have been fulfilled exactly according to the Word of God. We are referring to Joshua 21:43-45 where Scofield has not a single note. "And the Lord gave unto Israel all the land which he sware to give unto their fathers; and they possessed, and dwelt therein. And the Lord gave them rest round about, according all that he sware unto their fathers; and there stood not a man of all their enemies before them; the Lord delivered all their enemies into their hands. There failed not ought of any good thing which the Lord had spoken unto the house of Israel; all came to pass."

This passage for which Scofield had no notes fulfills the physical promise unequivocally leaving the "everlasting blessings" to the spiritual believers in Christ in the Gospel Age which we are in today.

Though Scofield mixes and mingles and confuses spiritual Israel with natural Israel his intent is to teach that the Hope of Israel today is the land of Abraham instead of the faith of Abraham. After having once received freedom in Christ he would turn Christians back to the beggarly elements of Judaism in a veiled attempt at the political theocracy of British Israel. The originators of Jew-British Israel heresy know that as long as people believe in the spirit of Christ they will never accept the flesh of British Israel, so they strive to exchange spiritual Israel for National, or more correctly International, Israel in the hearts of men. This is the work and purpose of the kingdom of God on earth propaganda taught in the Scofield Bible.

According to the teaching of the Scofield Bible the purpose of this judgment is to destroy the last phase of "Gentile Power" and elevate to world rule a "corrected, purified and restored Israel." Our understanding of this veiled language means the destruction of the Christian Church and the United States Constitution in favor of Talmudic Judaism in alliance with the British Empire with the seat of its World Zionist State in Jerusalem. (Israel is part of the British Empire).

The "Time of Jacob's Trouble" which is heralding the "judgment of the nations" and ending with a "Great Tribulation" is the camouflage to hide the machination of war and revolution out of which the British Empire is to "providentially" become the Theocratic State of the New World Order. The New Order or New Age is to be a joint function of church and state. These British Israel Jew Masonic Satanists are the loudmouths who have yelled separation of church and state for three hundred years while they simultaneously worked feverishly for the spiritual state of World Brotherhood under the universal Masonic paradise alias Kingdom of God on Earth.

That the Scofield Bible notes teaches and promotes the religio-political scheme of British Israel can be seen by the frequent references to the Scofield Bible in the many writings which advocate the Kingdom Message. In a book entitled THE JUDGMENT OF THE NATIONS IN THE GREAT PYRAMID'S PROPHECY circulated by the British Israel World Federation in London, we find on page 25 a recommendation of the Scofield Bible in which we read "We are now, obviously, at the beginning of the period of prophecy known as the time of 'Jacob's trouble' (Jer. XXX). The best guide to the significance of that 'trouble,' in relation to our own history, is the life of Jacob, particularly when 'mystically' interpreted under the helpful guidance of the annotations and headings in The Holy Bible: WITH SCOFIELD REFERENCES (Genesis XXXII to XXXV)."

The author (David Davidson) of this same book on page 26 states "Dr. Scofield's marginal annotations to Genesis XXXIII are instructive as to the successive steps of Jacob." Of course the Scofield Bible develops a World Israelite political state which he says is promised to the seed of Abraham. He teaches the coming of a new Judaic Heaven on earth within Christian concepts and Biblical jargon and this exactly fits the fictitious Christianity of British Israel.

Author Davidson says that the period of the calling out of God's people (Anglo-Saxons and the Jews) and of their humiliation, sacrifice and purification means the deliverance of His people from their bondage and that Divine intervention is upon the world and is employing the forces of destruction in such a manner and sequence of evolution as will bring the nations of the world under the dominion of the kingdom of Christ (British Empire). Denuded of hypocrisy this means that the world stage of nations are being dangled like puppets so as to fit the predictions of British Israel propaganda.

In regard to this context of "the judgment of the nations" the author is almost honest at least for those who know his propaganda. He states on page 34 "This is the message of prophecy for us concerning our own time! Would it not, therefore, be a grand thing if we could all look upon this from the viewpoint of the Will of God, suffer our set-backs gladly as the steppingstones to deliverance, and praise God for the sure signs of the imminent redemption of all Israel?" Of course this is exactly the brainwash that this propaganda is striving for. The British Empire is hiding its crimes on humanity by saying that it (the British Empire) has fallen to pieces only to show itself again after it has established the new, British World under the aegis or concealment of kingdom of God on earth.

And listen to the role of America at the hands of the so-called collapsed British Empire in Davidson's book on page 37: "The most that we can say is that America has for the present a twofold destiny to fulfill in a failing world. It is her destiny to support the weak and supply the needy, and at the same time to uphold, by successive and temporal proppings, all that is best in the sagging and crumpling old world order, until the new and better world order is ready to take its place." This is our "world service" as delegated by the direction of the New Age and can anyone look around and deny it is happening? Our substance and wealth is being spoiled in paying the expense of our future slavery and poverty which is planned for us as world servers of the New Age.

The British Empire will stay submerged beneath the propaganda of the kingdom of God on earth until it can emerge ("providentially" of course) after its final act of genocide to dominate the fragments of a bewildered people long before George Orwell's 1984, maybe. Already the preachers of the kingdom message are smarting and sneering at the misery created by the British Empire as it manipulates world events to fulfill its "Divine" mission.

One peculiar and definite sentiment developed by the Scofield Bible is the building of the anti-Catholic spirit. This unification of the anti-Catholic spirit is to play a key role in the passing of events preparatory to World War III. And as always this deceit has a dual meaning in that it is building against real Christianity both Catholic and Protestant. Therefore the pied pipers of this anti-Catholic spirit should take note of the meaning of this plot for them. There is no alignment with Satan that endures beyond his purpose.

Another act of blasphemy of the Scofield Bible is its twisting of Scripture to establish a future "great tribulation" which again is only a screen to hide the identity of the force that is planning the death of millions in the name of Bible Prophecy. In the lingo of British Israelite W. C. Nabors in his book PROPHECY ON PARADE published by Destiny, Haverhill, Massachusetts, we quote his reference to the final "great tribulation." "It simply means the final period in the judgment of the nations during which the various movements within the human family under Divine Guidance and the intercession of Christ will be guided to clean up this world mess and begin the restoration of the nations of the world to a peaceful government under Israel. This restoration is to be initiated at Armageddon in the destruction of the seed of desolation (he refers here to the revived Roman Empire united with the Catholic Church) and the return of Israel (Anglo-Saxondom and the Jews) to world government after she is punished (this means self inflicted punishment to disguise the source of the conspiracy) and after the experience of going through this world fire will remove from her all of the dross and impurities (his 'dross and impurities' is our profit system and Constitution) and refine her into a true national representative of God's elect." End quote.

The source of this futurist interpretation of "the great tribulation," which serves so well to conceal planned mass murder of unparalleled proportions, is the seventy weeks of Daniel (Daniel 9:24-27).

The seventy weeks which the angel Gabriel mentions in talking to Daniel refers to seventy weeks of years or four hundred ninety years. That this is true is agreed upon even by the British Israel millennial cult. The critical thing is that they make an unnatural and unscriptural division of the first sixty-nine weeks (483 years) and the last week (seven years). The Scofield Bible notes say that there is a gap between the sixtieth and seventieth week which is a period not fixed and not foreseen or foretold by the prophets. This "unknown" period according to Scofield is the Church Age (now) which is indefinite but that it will end with the final seven years which is called the great tribulation.

We quote the Scripture so that the reader who is not brainwashed on Millennialism may wonder how such a perversion could be except that it fits a prophetic scheme that moves the fulfillment of this prophecy of the past to the future in order to justify and hide slaughter on a grand scale. Daniel 9:24 reads "Seventy weeks (not 69 - church age + 1) are determined upon thy people and upon thy Holy city, to finish the transgression, and make an end of sins, and to make reconciliation for iniquity, and to bring in everlasting righteousness, and to seal up the vision and prophecy and to anoint the most Holy." End of quote.

We might add here that not one of the Reformers believed or taught such an adulteration of Daniel (separation of sixty-ninth from the seventieth week) and not one of them believed or taught the coming of a millennial age after this Gospel Age. Luther, Calvin, Knox, Wesley nor any others believed or taught such Jewish hypocrisy.

The seriousness of this unscriptural doctrine cannot be over estimated as Scofield and the whole school of British Israel Millennial cultists puts, not Christ--but a future anti-Christ at the center of the last seven years, which they say is yet future. This is no little thing and is not merely a difference in doctrine or interpretation as the Cross of Christ is involved. The Jews object to Calvary and their attempt at an unscriptural division to establish a future "great tribulation" is true to their hate of the living Christ. This is skipping over Calvary and in essence and in fact it is a denial that Jesus is the Messiah and the living God by saying that the seventieth week (which was the time of Christ's ministry, death and resurrection), is yet future. This is to say that Christ never came in fulfillment of prophecy, and shed His atoning blood for the sins of the world. Such is the blasphemy of Jew-British Israel and one would wonder what more could they do to add to the fullness of their transgression that they did not do in crucifying God. They go on today to fill up the measure of their sins by keeping others from the truth of the Gospel with their wicked minds. Not only do they keep the world from the truth, they twist it to establish themselves in the place of God by replacing in the hearts of men British Israel on earth for the Israel of God which is above and free.

In the woes Christ pronounced upon the Jews,

"Fill ye up then the measure of your fathers...that upon you may come all the righteous blood shed on the earth...Verily I say unto you, all these things shall come upon THIS generation (meaning them at that time and not future)."

Saint Paul did not equivocate about who were the enemies of Christ when he said in I Thessalonians 2:14-16 "For ye, brethren, become followers of the churches of God which in Judea are in Christ Jesus: for ye also have suffered like things of your own countrymen, even as they have of the JEWS WHO both killed the Lord Jesus and their own prophets, and have persecuted us, and they please not God, and are contrary to all men, forbidding us to speak to the Gentiles that they might be saved, to fill up their sins alway: for the wrath is come upon them to the uttermost."

This doesn't sound as though Paul thought that the fleshly "Jews" are "God's chosen people" and that they would receive future blessings because of it. But people today believe that a fleshly "Jew" is a special people with a special place in God's plan and this belief has been largely derived from the Scofield Bible.

Why cannot anyone see the inconsistency of this Zionist scheme to the plan of salvation taught in the New Testament? Galatians 3:26-29 "For ye are all the children of God by FAITH in Christ Jesus. For as many of you as have been baptized into Christ have put on Christ. There is neither Jew nor Greek, there is neither bond nor free, there is neither male nor female, for ye are all one in Christ Jesus. And if ye be Christ's then are ye Abraham's seed, and heirs according to the promise." In fact there is no "flesh and blood" in the kingdom of God and therefore any teaching which contradicts this is not according to the word of God.

In our discussion of the seventy weeks of Daniel and the "great tribulation" it is surprising to find that those who say that the words of Scripture should be taken in their natural, literal meaning are the very ones who insist that there are already nearly two thousand years between the sixtieth-ninth and seventieth weeks! What is the sense to this inconsistency except to serve as the blueprint of a most sinister plot to build a religio-political commercial world state in the name of Christ?

If the grammar of Daniel 9:24 means what it says, the seventieth week immediately followed the sixty-ninth. The word translated "determined" means to cut off, or to divide. It is of no little matter to note that while the subject of the sentence (seventy weeks) is plural, the verb determined is singular. This can only mean that seventy weeks must be considered collectively as denoting an uninterrupted period of time. Did Gabriel know that a Judaic cult would try to stick a nondescript two thousand or so years where none ought to be? Could he have known that men would misuse Scripture to make liars of the prophets, to deny the crucifixion of Christ and to build a kingdom in the name of Christ? We think he knew and we know the blasphemy of British Israel.

The crowning achievement of the Scofield Bible in behalf of British Israel Judaic Pharisaism is the attempt at deriving from Revelation 20:4 a teaching that there is to be a kingdom age on earth yet future for a thousand years. Here again we find those who claim truth is based on literalism very hypothetical and non literal.

The angel is talking to John who is in the spirit as he sees the development of the triumph of Christ in Revelation. Revelation 20:4 reads: "And I saw thrones, and they sat upon them, and judgment was given unto them, and I saw the souls of them that were beheaded for the witness of Jesus, (John saw headless bodies -- is this literal or spiritual?)-and for the word of God and they lived and reigned with Christ a thousand years."

Of course to those who understand that the seventy weeks of Daniel 9:24-27 is already fulfilled exactly according to the prophets also know and believe that the kingdom of God followed the manifestation, ministry, death and resurrection of our Lord. They know according to the Scripture that the kingdom (spiritual) began with the coming of the Holy Spirit at Pentecost and that if any other kingdom or any other form of this same kingdom was to be then the Apostles of Christ were duty bound to reveal it as they were commanded to go into the world and preach the Gospel. They failed not of their mission and they mentioned not an earthly kingdom to come because none is to be according to the Scripture.

What then is the meaning of a future millennium or one thousand year reign of a Christ on earth? We recognize in this the exact expectations of the Jews before the appearance of Christ. They had been taught in their synagogues as is taught today in the neo-Christian synagogues that a Messiah would (will) come and satisfy their fleshly desires for an earthly bliss. This is a doctrine of the flesh, Satanic in its inception and full of meaning in our understanding of the religio-political plot today which calls itself Christian.

As has been stated the real meaning of this new Judeo-Christianity is the emergence of the British Empire as the only surviving power, after the smoke of World War III and the effect of planned worldwide famine passes, to dominate the commerce of the world. Already this planned spiritual deception has far exceeded the wildest dreams of any past dictator who exhausted himself trying to conquer the world with military and political power. With this new concept conquest comes through spiritual control, control of the beliefs of man, relegating political and military power almost insignificant. It is a simple matter of reeducating the masses to believe that spiritual Israel has merged with physical Israel and that the new state is God.

The American people would do well to understand the full significance and import of the kingdom message. As the Prophets of the kingdom message quote from Jeremiah they predict famine and disease and war that is to ravish the land of America and there is being planned just these things through which the British Empire expects to pour out its vengeance on the hated Yankees and in the same stroke bring them back to the humble status of a vassal satellite. All that is necessary that the plan be successful is that the minds of the people be indoctrinated with the kingdom message and then they are exploited with impunity as they cannot discern the source of their misery.

As we discuss the great tribulation and decipher its meaning it is not amiss to dwell for a moment on economic tribulation which is directly related to the Great Tribulation which Scofield says (at least twenty-three times in his notes to the New Testament) is yet future.

We presume at this point that almost everyone in America has recognized the continuing inflation of our money but we grant that there may be fewer who are ready to believe that there is indeed an organized conspiracy to destroy our economic system.

British Israel economics has already made the dollar fiat money and there is a concerted effort to attack their own established system of national banks such as the Bank of England and the Federal Reserve Bank in the United States. Caution must prevail among those who attack the unconstitutional Federal Reserve Bank because as we have demonstrated, the intent behind these attacks is entirely different from that supposed by would-be patriots. Upon inquiry into the dual purpose of the feud over the Federal Reserve's unconstitutional system of private banking we see a subtle plot to manipulate the so-called expose of the Federal Reserve into a complete destruction of our profit system under the guise of Constitutionality. We must remember that betrayal more often appears beneath respectability and there is no exception in the money conspiracy.

If we study the effect that the privately owned Federal Reserve System has had upon the stability of the dollar not to speak of the ups and downs of the economy and attendant world wars since its inception in 1913, we must conclude that the very intent of the Reserve Banking System was to destroy the dollar and consequently our profit system. If we can see then that the purpose of the "Fed" was a phase out plan of our economic system then we immediately see that it was temporary and that a concerted attack upon the system, without full knowledge, only accelerates the phase out of our dollar economy.

Now true patriots visualize a return to a sound Constitutional money system but the implications of their efforts are betraying their good intentions.

We go to British Israel for the clarification and explanation of what we are trying to say as it only exposes itself (the "attacks" on the Fed were planned just as the system was planned) when it is about to change colors or form. The scheme was and is to move the dollar from a hard currency to a fiat money via the "Fed" then to extinction wherein there is no exchange medium at all. This is all "justified" because the New Order of the coming kingdom calls for a return to the "Mosaic Economy." An understanding of this so-called Mosaic Economy will tell us very accurately the direction of our profit system and its meaning for Americans. The Federal Reserve is insignificant when we begin to see international finance operating under the spiritual deception of British Israel to establish a world monopoly with the pseudonym of Mosaic Economy.

With the passing of the dollar which we are told is "the economic system of Mystery Babylon" we enter the New Age under an economic system which is production for use and not for profit. If this sounds strikingly like that of Karl Marx it is, because it is exactly the economic system of communism.

The new economic system is to be one of national credit which serves each according to his needs and extracts work from each according to his ability. Very quickly we see the complete control of our lives and as the profit system goes so goes our wealth and savings. Under this system of credit we can accumulate no savings and we move to total dependence upon the state. In the vernacular this is serfdom.

The intent and purpose of the fictitious Mosaic Economy of British Israel is the confiscation of our wealth.

We quote from W. C. Nabors in his PROPHECY

ON PARADE, page 142. "Interwoven within the pattern through trial and error are our experiences dealing with taxation, inflation, etc., but always we work in the economic direction and on the chronological time chart outlined by Bible Prophecy. All things are interrelated and all things work together for the good to them (nations) that love the Lord and are called to set their economic house in order to conform with the purpose of God." End of quote.

His statement that "all things are interrelated..." may well be taken seriously as all things are interrelated when seen as a British-Jew-Masonic plot. (We use British-Jew-Masonic in this hyphenated form because they originate and are controlled from the same source, they are all of one spirit and have one purpose, and they work in complete harmony toward the world superstate alias kingdom of God on earth).

The once sound dollar (hard currency backed by gold) was the envy of the world until the Federal Reserve began to manipulate our supply of money by juggling the interest rate up and down to regulate the new controlled economy. The Fed with the control of money began to steer America to destruction through planned "economic tribulation" and world wars which were financed with a debt money system from which the privately owned Federal Reserve System is collecting over ten percent of the national income of the United States Government for interest alone at this time. The "Fed" has regulated the supply of money not according to the needs of the free enterprise American system but according to a planned scheme of destruction of the free economic system to one of a world monolithic monopoly centered in and controlled by the British Empire.

To give credibility, in the minds of the unsuspecting, to the fact that the Federal Reserve has manipulated the American Nation to economic chaos we quote from U. S. NEWS AND WORLD REPORT, December 20, 1965 issue, page

"HOW PAST BOOMS HAVE BEEN CHECKED BY

'TIGHT' MONEY"

BOOM OF 1919-20:

Drastic steps were taken to restrain credit. Discount rate was raised in 3 jumps from 4 to 7 per cent.

Boom ended, depression took hold. Stock prices dropped 47 per cent. Industry's output fell by a third. Employment declined sharply.

BOOM OF 1928-29:

Another crackdown on credit. Discount rate raised in 4 steps to 6 per cent.

Depression that followed was the worst ever. Stock market, after crash in October, 1929, fell 90 per cent. Banking system collapsed. Unemployment rose to 13 million, one fourth of labor force.

BOOM OF 1936-37:

Credit was tightened by squeezing bank reserves. A short, sharp recession went on from mid-1937 to mid-1938. Stock prices declined 48 per cent. Production fell. Employment dropped.

BOOM OF 1948:

In 10 months, discount rate was raised twice, reserve requirement 3 times. Recession began in December, 1948, lasted 11 months. Stock prices declined 16 per cent, industry's output 8 per cent. Employment dropped.

BOOM OF 1952-53:

Restraint on credit was mild. Discount rate was raised from 1 3/4 to 2 per cent. Recession of 1953-54, also was mild, and was due largely to military cutbacks following Korean War. Industry's output fell 10 per cent.

BOOM OF 1955-57:

Repeated moves to restrain credit. Discount rate raised 7 times in 29 months from 1 1/2 to 3 1/2 per cent. Stock market credit restricted. Mild recession followed. Stocks dropped 19 per cent, industrial output 14 per cent. Prices kept creeping upward.

BOOM OF 1958-60:

Credit was tightened over 13-month period, discount rate raised 5 times, from 1 3/4 to 4 per cent. Interest rose to highest rates in a generation.

Business decline began in mid-1960, 9 months after discount rate was raised for fifth time. Downturn was mild, ended in spring of 1961.

BOOM OF 1961-65:

Credit policy has been generally expansive since early 1961. Since mid-1963, however, discount rate has been raised 3 times, now 4 1/2 per cent. Record prosperity still going on. Boom now 58 months old." End of quotes from U. S. NEWS AND WORLD REPORT.

Of course the article did not tell the whole truth as it failed to state that the American people have been shouldered with over three hundred billions of dollars of interest bearing debt since the beginning of the Federal Reserve chartered under the pretense of stabilizing the economy. Well, the above information shows that our economy has been anything but stable, Americans have been disallowed private ownership of gold money, the gold backing is being removed and the staggering truth is that the dollar is inflating to nothing.

There has been a deluge of books printed to "expose" the Federal Reserve System and many of them are the product of English writers who attack our economic system under the Fed as being ruled by a "Babylon dollar backed by gold" which is destined to go to destruction with the "gentile economic system of Mystery Babylon" to be replaced with the "economy of the kingdom."

American patriots attack the Federal Reserve System for an entirely different reason which they do not often make plain. In the first place they do not want the profit system of free enterprise replaced with the kingdom economy trickery of British Israel. In the second place they do not want to remove our gold backing which made the dollar the most sought after money in the world. Furthermore, they are not interested in so-called "free trade" which is designed to dump the fiat paid labor and goods of the world on the American market. The reason for the continuing howl over United States loss of gold is to prepare (educate) the American people for total collapse of the dollar.

There is nothing wrong with our economic system that constitutional money wouldn't solve and not a single American is ready to give up his property, his savings and his freedom for the kingdom economy of British Israel. None would give up to this trickery if they understood that the private banking system of the United States was designed to serve alien interests (and now that it has almost served its purpose) and that most of the attacks now going on against this system are equally serving alien interests. Reasonable and prudent men do not act until they calculate the effect of their acts.

To point out the hidden meaning of the disappearing dollar we quote from a booklet distributed by the British Israel World Federation in London entitled ECONOMICS A PHASE OF DIVINE LAW. The author, D. S. Milne, states on page 11 'Then, to obey the principles of God's law, the surplus should be given to those who are in need. Let us begin with the aged, the invalids, the children and the mothers.' (the fathers will be all dead, killed in foreign wars to build the kingdom of God). "Let the Government issue credit and give it, sufficient for the need. As the tide of production rises, let the Government issue credit, as a national dividend, to all the people, sufficient to distribute the surplus."

"The Divine laws of distribution depend upon individual love. As Jesus said, the chief law is to love God, 'and the second is like unto it. Thou shalt love thy neighbor as thyself. On these two laws hang all the law and the prophets.' That is why the Kingdom of God can be attained only by its citizens being born again. Selfishness and greed have no place in a Christian order."

"But in those days the means of production were in the hands of individuals with the power to disburse the products. Now, that power is limited to sharing a few vegetables with neighbors. The means of production belong more and more to the community. Manufactures are financed by companies. Even farmers are little more than cogs in the wheel. Their production depends also upon makers of farm machinery and clothing. The interlocking of effort is so complete that in effect we are all units in the scheme of production by the community."

"The result of this is to remove the responsibility of distributive justice from the individual to the community. The individual conscience becomes the community conscience. The aged and the sick are less a family responsibility and more a social responsibility. A community of loving individuals would see that pensions are adequate. Indeed, we all have the will to increase pensions, and they would be increased had the Government the power to apply the Divine law and issue credit according to need. The hindrance is the debt and interest system of finance which restricts the power of creating credit to the trading banks. Let Government take the sovereign power of issuing currency and credit, and then it would be able to carry out the wishes of a benevolent people."

On page 13 he says "The obvious and sensible remedy is to issue more credit to equate with the increased amount of the harvest. Applied as a national dividend {credit}, the bounty of the apple crop or the wheat harvest would be immediately distributed to an appreciative people."

On page 16 Dr. Milne states: "We have seen that in God's law human need must be freely and gladly supplied, without usury, and without perpetual debt. God's law enjoins lending for consumption, protects the consumer, and promises prosperity to the forgiving creditor. God's law obeyed would provide ample for all, freedom from debt and crushing taxation.

Therefore 'Seek ye first the kingdom of God, and his righteousness, and all these things shall be added unto you.'"

"It is sometimes objected that the Social Credit idea of issuing credit and distributing it as pensions and national dividends would encourage laziness - 'money for nothing.' But it is not money for nothing. It is credit issued to represent something that has already been produced in excess of available purchasing power. Whereas it is evil for a trading bank to issue credit out of what the bank does not possess, it is right and proper for the people through their Government to issue credit to distribute that which they have already produced. Should the people forget that their standard of living depends upon their work, and should they be tempted to sit back and enjoy the national dividend without pulling their weight, a rude awakening would be in store. With decreasing effort, the production would fall, and the national dividend would disappear."

"But we have seen that new era, or the Kingdom of God, must be a Christian order and that Christ's standards must prevail. Worldly standards, the lust of the flesh, the desire of the eyes, and the pride of life, lead only to self-seeking, greed, and discord. Jesus set a new standard. 'Whosoever will be great among you, let him be your minister; and whosoever will be chief among you, let him be your servant: even as the Son of Man came not to be ministered unto, but to minister, and to give his life a ransom for many.'"

"Imbued with the spirit of service, every citizen will be eager to give the best to the common weal. There will be no longer the spur of fear to grab and hoard. There will be no longer competition to gain selfish advantage, but rather there will be competition to render service, and added joy and pride of the skillful craftsman, or husbandman. 'And whatsoever ye do, do it heartily, as to the Lord, and not unto men...' (Col. 3:23)." End of quotes.

Now if the honest reader cannot see the true nature of this coming kingdom from the above quotation he is far removed from reality. It is an absolute world tyranny hidden under the sanctity of the pious name - kingdom of God on earth. The author says there is no hoarding (savings) and that social credit is the economy of this new kingdom. This is positively opposed to the independent spirit of Americans both white and black and they would not fall for this deception if they knew its meaning.

To further give us understanding of the meaning and direction of the British Empire through its British Israel (spiritual) propaganda we quote from THE ECONOMIC CRISIS, a booklet distributed by the British Israel World Federation in London. "We are building for Eternity. The Empire can only be maintained permanently by a clear conviction of its ultimate goal -- the spiritual entity of the whole British Empire -- THE KINGDOM OF GOD ON EARTH." End of quote.

This quote makes it quite clear that the political conspiracy is being promoted under the guise of spiritual truth and it comes more from our "Christian" churches than from the marchers in the streets.

The following quotation by David Davidson in his booklet THROUGH DARKNESS TO LIGHT, page 5, put out by the British Israel World Federation with headquarters in London, England; makes it quite clear as to the sacrifices that we must make in order to receive "Divine" protection from the British Empire: "Upon emerging from tribulation and before their initiation into the mysteries of the new world order, the English-speaking peoples will be required to give up in sacrifice the doctrines and ideals which constitute the materialistic basis of the present world order. Upon submission to this requirement the English-speaking peoples in succession will receive divine protection during the divine assessment and judgment and will be sustained by divine providence until the economic system of the Kingdom of Heaven has been established on earth. Guidance in making the great sacrifice is indicated as operating through the regenerated Body Politic of the English-speaking peoples."

We ask Christian Americans to look beneath the spell of the Billy Grahams, the John R. Rices, the L. R. Sheltons, the Carl McIntires, the Richard Dehaans, the Oral Roberts and the Herbert W. Armstrongs, all of whom voice the kingdom message. Their mammoth national and international evangelism is a propaganda campaign to prepare the faith of Americans for their servitude in the coming British World Kingdom of God on earth.

As they take the tithes and gifts of deceived Americans, they instill them with guilt and hopelessness on one hand and threaten them with God's judgment on the other. Their lies and their hypocrisy are veiled with their expression "Jesus is coming."

Americans need to get back to the Bible and Divine revelation individually and independent of the spirit of the kingdom message of world evangelism.

1985 UPDATE:

This chapter certainly would not be complete without the inclusion of Rev. Jerry Falwell.

Why does Jerry Falwell, friend and consultant to President Reagan, have such clout and honor among the "Jews"?

Does it all support the picture of fulfilling the perverted prophecies of premillennialism and British Israelism?

Nominal Christians have been taken again by the Judaizers and their system of racial and national salvation. Jerry Falwell and Menachem Begin would act appalled if you accused them of Nazism. But once again, it is only a question of who is the master race and who is the chosen.

Many alert Christians noted that President Reagan used British Israel words and phrases such as "Armageddon" in the recent election campaign.

BRITISH ISRAEL JUDEOMASONRY AND THE CATHOLIC CHURCH

Undermining America
with Jew*Bait anti-Catholicism

Our discourse by now may have proved to the reader that the British Empire is not as mythical as the propaganda would have us believe. We quote from THE NATIONAL MESSAGE, of London, England, by James McWhirter; to identify the British Empire under its name of kingdom of God on earth:

"The history of the past two thousand years has been written in vain for those who cannot see that the success of the Church has largely been dependent on national factors. Contrast, for instance, the history of the Holy Roman Empire with that of the British Empire. Without the temporal power of this material Empire, which gives every facility for the spreading of the Gospel, we cannot imagine how limited that work would be in the world today. It is only the prestige of that power that keeps many doors open in the East. Mahatma Gandhi has said that he would not have one Christian missionary in India if he rose to power. And if the Zionist Jews became the governors of Palestine all missionary work there would come to an end."

"The French empire was one of the custodians of the Roman Catholic faith, and, like the Italian empire, supported the characteristic religious intolerance of the Roman Church, whose system has always been inimical to the preaching of the Gospel."

"The British Empire is not merely a prophetic hope or a theoretical ideal -it is a fact. Of it a statesman has said: 'They had demonstrated to the world in actual practice that difficulties could be resolved by discussion as they could not be resolved by force. Moreover, the British Commonwealth was founded on the conception that war between its component parts was unthinkable, impossible -- a conception as striking as it was new to political theory."

"The Archbishop of York said recently: 'We English Christians should constantly be asking ourselves for what purpose God has entrusted to us so great an influence in the affairs of the nations of the earth...It is surely an indication of some Providential call upon us. We ought never to take for granted such a great event as the uprising of the British Empire. But we have no right to this position of special and honorable responsibility unless we are determined to use it to the full, not for our own glory, but for the glory of God.' The Archbishop's question is answered in the words of Hugh Redwood: 'The true imperial import of Britain's world mission was the spread of God's eternal word.'"

"Here is a comparison in favor of Britain which has appreciated considerably since it was made in 1922 by the German Professor Dr. Dibelius. It was recently quoted in THE TIMES by the Canon of Westminster: 'Christian ideas of conduct have been realized in Anglo-Saxon lands with a fullness to which the whole rest of the world can show nothing equal or even comparable.'"

"Speaking of Britain's rule Earl Baldwin said: 'The Empire is not built upon trade agreements, nor can it be maintained solely by tariffs or preferences. It can only be maintained permanently by a clear conviction of its ultimate goal--the spiritual unity of the whole Empire--the Kingdom of Heaven on earth.' (THE TIMES, August 16th, 1932)."

"The claim is often made that the Bible is the source of Britain's greatness, but it is outside the scope of this article to prove that our Christian commonwealth of nations, whose ruler bows to the sovereignty of the Son of God, owes not only its greatness to the teaching of the Book, but that the same Book proclaims the Empire's origin and mission."

"Spiritually viewed, the Empire is the most gigantic force for good on earth. The ancient Israelitish commonwealth was negligible in its spiritual influence on the world when compared with the British commonwealth."

"Let us face the facts. The prime reason for the existence of the Israel nation was that it should reveal God to all mankind. It was when Britain underwent a spiritual change and was converted to Protestantism that the great worldwide missionary movement was born. Since then the King has been 'the defender of the Protestant reformed Faith.'" End of quotes.

We have shown also that if we are able to understand the technique of today's power politics as carried on by the unseen British Empire then we must look to its spiritual cloak of British Israel "Christianity."

The spiritual power of the British Empire which is carried out through the kingdom message (kingdom of God on earth) crosses national boundaries which are only imaginary to the Supra Invisible State. The mobility and universality of the kingdom message propaganda is proof that remaining political divisions have yielded to its sovereignty and exist only to fulfill their "prophetic" destruction. The remaining national governments are transitory awaiting the enactment of the British Israel prophetic time table which will permit and justify their gradual extinction. That this propaganda operates internally and externally on every continent oblivious and impervious to every political division is absolute proof of who controls the world. One will find the British Empire today with a new name -- THE KINGDOM OF GOD ON EARTH.

This third dimension of the Empire is spiritual and it is corralling humanity into a world state unabated. Its political and military power takes on the color and "patriotism" of any country it may find itself in. The people pledge their loyalty to the land of their birth but their faith to the kingdom of God. There is a dual allegiance and that of the spiritual is dominant.

If then we ply beneath this spiritual deception which now parades around the world as Christianity we begin to see the source of the inspiration that is spending billions on so-called world evangelism. Then if credibility permits we begin to realize that indeed Satan does appear as an angel of light and that the kingdom message propaganda has in the main (in this country) its base of operations in the American churches of nearly all denominations.

We have pointed out that as a whole the preachers and teachers of the kingdom message are totally unaware that they are victims of a plot that will spell their ruin if they don't find out about it and expose it. Needless to say the plot could never have succeeded to this point had it not been invisible to its servants and to the masses. Now in the same voice we are under no illusion that just because of what we say here in a few words we will undo decades of brainwash which has gradually changed the meaning of Christianity to a Pharisaic-Judaism while retaining the name of Christian. It is our intention however to point out a few truths that may be recognizable even to the most blind so that they might use what we say here as an hypothesis for investigation.

We feel that in the main the basis for embracing the doctrines of Judaism in the place of Christianity is a failure to recognize the change in Covenants at the Cross of Christ.

We see then that today's neo-Christianity is inconsistent with the change in economy at Calvary and consequently its adherents cling to the "race" and nation (long gone) of Judaism instead of the grace of Christ which has been extended to all people everywhere making salvation a matter of spirit (grace through faith) rather than the flesh of decadent Judaism.

Now those who claim grace through faith on one hand and cling to race and nation (of Judaism) on the other are alternating Christianity with Judaism and they can never have the happiness and joy and understanding of the kingdom of God (Gospel) as long as they hold two antagonistic faiths. They are mutually exclusive and never will they be one.

Furthermore Christ fulfilled the law and the prophets as foretold and to believe that His kingdom is yet future is to not believe that Jesus is the Christ and that His kingdom has already come. His reign is a reign of Grace. That Jesus is not the Messiah spoken of by the prophets is the position of Judaism. These same Pharisees still look for the Messiah and an earthly kingdom and they are still in their sin of unbelief.

Now the semi-Jewish position of mixing grace with race is the trump card of British Israel. While British Israel talks about grace and faith they deny it with race. Their plan of deception which calls for a future political messianic kingdom is the age long hope of Jew-Pharisaism and they are operating within the framework of the British Empire and delegating their dirty work to their cabalistic Masonry. Judeo-Christianity (British Israel) is the spirit of world revolution, the British Empire is its body and structure, Masonry is its servants working into every facet of political, military and religious control and the blueprint for world conquest is a scheme of "Bible Prophecy" which seeks to justify mass murder in the world as it enacts its prophecy on the way to its kingdom of God on earth.

Once we see that this prophetic scheme is dedicated to a religio-political state in the name of Christ we have shaken its spiritual control and are ready to challenge it with the truth of Christ Who said "My kingdom is not of this world." "Christian education" today is committed to the lie that God's kingdom is of this world and that we may expect to be "world servers" of it. This "Christian education" is a creature and creation of British Israel as a haven for those who begin to feel the jabs of integration and civil disorder of British Communism. The basis of this new Christian education is that the world must be under God's law in a legal sense in order to have peace and justice on earth. We recognize in this teaching suppression from the state in the name of God's law. God's true law goes from the heart out and not from the state in. It is only more trickery and deception when one discerns the spirit of British Israel. British Israel compounds its deception and hypocrisy by putting up mock attacks on evolution and Darwinism. The foolishness of evolution was propounded in the first place by Jew-Masonic British Israel to serve as a basis for a sham opposition and shield at the same time the crypto-Christian conspiracy of British Israel. British Israel always divides issues between two myths of its own creation -- one to represent "bad" and one to represent "good." Some recognizable examples of this double dealing are materialism versus the kingdom of God; separation of church and state versus the theocratic state; God is dead versus crypto-Christianity; paganism versus Millennialism, Americanism versus communism, Republicanism versus Democracy, communism versus the free world, National Socialism versus Communism, Heathenism versus Western Civilization, superstition versus religion, white Christian versus Negro, paganism versus Christian Civilization, totalitarian Communism versus the world under God's law and Godless atheism versus Judeo-Christianity. One can change ideologies and still be under the spiritual-political control of British Israel.

As stated it is no longer necessary to see the British Empire as a political and military power but that we recognize its spiritual power in order to identify its work and understand its goal of the "Christian State."

To enlarge upon the spiritual aspects of international intrigue we see clearly that the aim of Jew-British Pax Britannica is the removal of Pax Romanum as a spiritual force in the world. Since the reign of Queen Elizabeth I the British Empire has sought to wrest the political power and wealth of Catholic States through Machiavellian politics. The Empire has extended its control under many names and fronts from National Socialism to Communism to Republicanism and many times it has maneuvered these ideologies against itself and against each other to advance its cause. Its ace front is the "Christian State" and it is the ideology of the kingdom of God which has advanced the spiritual attacks of the Empire upon the Catholic Church both from without and from within. In this context it has been able to permeate its propaganda into the church and infiltrate the leadership almost completely undetected by the vast majority of Catholicism.

Not until the Empire hid itself with the spiritual power of its kingdom of God Christian State propaganda did it realize its chance to finally destroy the Catholic Church. No longer is it necessary to carry on a frontal attack with political and military forces but through British Israel advances are secured through "toleration." True to the dual nature of the Empire, it also has a dual meaning. It is like the man who wanted a fur coat and volunteered to let a bear eat him. The man in this riddle is the Catholic Church. This peculiar toleration has a very definite purpose.

The British Empire has changed its expression from one of venomous hatred to one of a spirit of "toleration." Under this guise it has concealed its plot and allayed suspicion and distrust of world Catholicism. But its vengeance is only postponed and we see in its blueprint of prophetic action a patient gradualism that will culminate in filling up the measure of its hatred of the Catholic Church and all Christians everywhere.

The British Empire is tolerant only as a barnacle and a parasite of the Church which has become paralyzed with the propaganda of British Israel. By now many in the Church have come to believe through the propagandism of "separation of church and state" that British Anglo-Masonry is indeed impartial and that if there be yet enemies of the Church the origin of such is based in Grand Orient Freemasonry or Continental Masonry. That Continental and Anglo-Saxon Masonry are one need only be realized in their oneness of spirit and political effort toward the establishment of the dominance of the British Empire - alias kingdom of God on earth.

The domination of the British Empire in the spiritual realm (British Israel) necessitates the removal of Rome and its now diluted world influence. To this end the Roman Church is being manipulated into the role of "Mystery Babylon" to fit the arrangement of British Israel prophecy. The Church is being given the image of idolatry and decadence as it is maneuvered to destruction seemingly without motivation.

We urge that those who clap their hands at the prospect of obliteration of the Catholic Church should take warning that the plot against the Church has a dual significance and that no church with Christian teaching will survive the Roman Church by one hour. Hidden behind the roar of the "great tribulation" is a design of the British Empire to emerge as the only world political and military power and its crowning achievement would be the emergence of the fake Christianity of British Israel as the only Saviour of mankind.

The puritanical innocence of Protestantism which can only see the Catholic Church as their enemy must somehow gain a moment of honesty. The hogwash of British Israel has developed a self conceit in Protestantism that amounts to gross hypocrisy in regard to the Catholic Church. They have been beguiled into an ideology of anti-Catholicism which is only a cover for British Israel and which finally will claim Protestantism also as its victim. British Israel is allied now with Protestantism only in the same sense that it is with Catholicism. It aims at conflict between the churches on the one hand and identity with them on the other, all calculated to bring them to ruin out of which the new faith of the Judaic-Christian State in universal unity will emerge. This is indeed a union of church and state.

All Christians must realize the technique of British politics which has successfully accomplished the mystical displacement of the Empire from a material and military power to spiritual power. The material aspects are still there but they have been removed from sight by changing the form of operation of the Empire. The giving of mock independence such as to India is an example in point. The Rhodesian independence movement is another form of this Machiavellian "independence."

In order to look at the blueprint of conquest of the British Empire we look again at the Scofield Bible. We notice a development of a resurrected Roman Empire as a "prophesied" future event. This so-called beast system of ten nations is emblematic of the ten toes of the image in Nebuchadnezzar's dream according to British Israel. In alliance with this beast system of nations is the Catholic Church (Mystery Babylon) and this "unholy" union is destined to attack Israel (Anglo-Saxondom and the Jews) and in the final battle of Armageddon God will deliver His people whom he has allowed to suffer in the "great tribulation." The now complete political power of the Empire is setting the world stage to enact what it hopes will be the final drama to usher in the new spiritual-economic order. Though political and military power are under the control and direction of the Empire they must solidify these gains with the establishment of the "spiritual Christian State" with a show of "Divine deliverance" to an apparently besieged Israel. This enactment of prearranged "prophecy" is designed to unify the spirit of mankind.

In order to work this fakery the British Empire has infiltrated the Church with its Cabalistic Jews and Masons in order to give the Church the prophetic appearance of the harlot of mystery Babylon so that it can be "prophetically" destroyed. The illumined minds of Masonry visualize the end of their last opposition to their universal Masonic Republic.

The destruction of the Catholic Church and historic Catholic States is called in British Israel "the burning of the body of the Eagle." We quote from the book THREE HEADED EAGLE, page 95, by British Israelite A. E. Ferris. "All the nations forming the body of the Eagle, such as France, Belgium, Germany, Austria, Italy, and Spain, in fact all the Roman Catholic countries, will suffer a terrible judgment under the wrath of God. The annihilation of all Roman government, law, religion, kings, priests, and so on will be so complete that never again will the Roman Eagle appear, nor her heads, wings little wings, etc. This can only be accomplished by an atheistic infidel revolution on the continent. As the author forecast in 1940, the obvious agency to bring this about is the spread of Communism on the high tide of Russian victory prestige. Time will show. But it would seem that the fiery destruction of the 2,000 years old Roman civilization could only be achieved by an atheistic ideology sweeping in. With the moral backing of such a great power as Soviet Russia, such a revolution seems inevitable." End of quote.

The United States of Europe and later the Common Market is the nucleus of the planned "resurrected" Roman Empire. Another rape of Europe is planned with a Neo-Nazi type Germany at the helm of leadership. The German Nation and all Europe should come to the reality of the meaning of another fake nationalism under the sign of the Eagle and the Cross. The blood bath of World War II was a vindication of the blood suckers of the British Empire whose agents directed the proverbial "Rise and Fall of the Third Reich." Need we argue the point or shall we look at a destroyed and divided Germany between British Communism and the British controlled "Free World."

While we are harassed with the memory of the evil deeds of a misled German people who killed a mythical six million Jews, nothing is said of the multimillions of dead and destitute Germans who were maneuvered into self destruction with the cliches of race and nation under the leadership of a Judas Goat front man Hitler who must have known that the source of the Aryan Race bunk originated in the British Empire. Nazi Germany is a living example that the scheme of race and divine national origin is an ideology of power politics to move whole nations to their death and sadly enough this scourge has overcome America and is about to rear its head again in Europe.

The grand act of World War III will have a new twist in that the "resurrected" and remilitarized Roman Empire will be used to bring total annihilation to the United States with the death of millions after which event Russia and China will be used to engage Europe to get the expected result of mutual annihilation leaving a sovereign

British Empire. The killing of millions of Americans is explained in THE TRUE ECCLESIA distributed by the British Israel World Federation. "When the people of God (America and Britain) sin "Assyrian" (Germany) is permitted by the Eternal God to chastise them by the very wrath of man as in the days of Isaiah." End of quote. In preparation for World War III the "German Menace" is kept alive with daily reviews of World War II Naziism. We have no quarrel with the great people of Germany but we have swapped the death of our soldiers in two giant wars because of our brainwash with British propaganda.

THE UNION JACK Close observation will reveal the Jewishness" of the British Israel Jewbaiters as they concoct a myth of "good" and "bad" Jews. The "bad" Jews it is claimed are the Asiatic Jews or Khazars and the "good" ones are the Sephardim or white Jews. Well, both have the religion of Satan, the Talmud, and both have the same political and religious aspirations of the British Israel-Jew World State which is against our way of life.

It is quite obvious that the Jew-baiters use their anti-judaism in a very controlled manner which is designed to stir up race hatred, civil chaos and mass hysteria. In the main of course the overriding purpose is to establish the British Israel-Jew state under the mantle of Christianity. Likewise the pro-neo-Judeo-Christianity is striving for the same goal. Is this not in harmony with our pincers movement idea of two seemingly opposite forces driving toward each other to form a complete synthesis?

The Jew-baiters launch their attacks upon the political conspiracy of JewCommunism but not one word against their spiritual conspiracy called the Kingdom of God on Earth. In fact most of the Jew-baiters exhaust themselves promoting the spiritual lie of the Kingdom Message. A search for the meaning of the Jew propaganda will reveal that its hidden purpose is to establish the spirit of Judaism in the name of Christ. While they claim religious tolerance they seek to dethrone Christ and usurp His kingdom. "Religious toleration" and the idea of "separation of church and state" are blinds behind which there is no toleration and church and state merge. The spiritual state becomes a reality built upon the captive minds which are prisoners to the kingdom propaganda of the Jew-baiters.

As we have shown most churchites have been schooled in Scofield style millennialism which teaches that a fleshly Jew is the chosen people of God and that their restoration to Palestine (Israel) is the fulfilling of prophecy. It would seem that if this restoration theory is so important it is quite odd that not one of the New Testament writers mentioned a restoration of the Jews to Palestine or the restoration of any race to any land anywhere let alone the Anglo-Saxon or white nations. The Israel of God changed at the Cross and deals with a spiritual nation which in no sense is fleshly or national. The reign of Christ is a reign of grace in the regenerated reborn hearts of Christians (new Jews). All national or Land promises were fulfilled as emphasized in many places in both Old and New Testaments. See Joshua 21:43. The bond woman cannot exist with the free such as in British Israel. Galatians 4:30-3.

Any attempt to replace grace with race or to mix the two is contrary to the Gospel of Christ (kingdom of Christ) and has been used for hundreds of years to blot out the true kingdom of God in which the true King Jesus Christ rules and reigns in the hearts of men. Satan's Jew-British Messianic synthetic Christianity will not prevail over the Gospel of Christ because Christians know that Satan was conquered at the Cross and we can also conquer him by our faith in Him who died on the Cross. If Christ did not conquer Satan then He failed because the Jews changed their minds as Scofield so states. Satan was in fact bound at the Cross and he has that freedom to deceive the lost only as allowed him by Christ.

Christianity is not blessings or curses in the physical sense as "the sun shines on the just and the unjust." God works His plan of salvation prepared from the beginning. Christianity is not the "social justice" of the kingdom message. It is not the Jew and Israel (physical) but it is the Gospel of Christ and Him crucified and everyone that believes it enters into His kingdom and thereby gains everlasting life.

The very fact that the Jew-baiters both pro and anti establish that a fleshly Jew exists, let alone that he is a people of God is blasphemy according to Revelation as stated above. The kingdom of God is a present reality for those who believe that Jesus is the Christ and that He is both God and Lord and the saviour of man from sin and death.

British Israel is only baptised paganism whose every breath is dependent upon its identification with true Christianity. The work of the Jew-baiters is to hide this truth. We must know their spirit before we can identify their treason. Their spirit is the kingdom of God on earth and their politics are to its attainment.

Some one hundred sixty years ago Talleyrand said that diplomats and politicians are paid to lie until the truth suffices to mislead their listeners. This is indeed the epitome of the double-think brainwash of British Israel and its army of paid Jew-baiters. The hard worked "Jew-communism" is a decoy from the Jew Kingdom Message of the Jew-baiters. Jew Communism is a base of operations from which to hammer in the permanent phase of world revolution which is the triumph of the "Christian state." The focusing of attention on Communism leads to a misunderstanding of its temporary nature as a catalyst to build the kingdom of God. Communism is only a political instrument to prod and direct wars and revolutions in harmony with the master plan of the spiritual plot. Fighting Communism as such promotes the spiritual counterfeit kingdom. Hence the harangues of the Jew-baiters against Communism serve very well this reverse psychology. Communism has been expanded and enlarged so that the final anti-communist reaction will usher in the kingdom of God on earth. "Atheistic Communism must be defeated by the kingdom of God" so says the propaganda of British Israel. (Every time we refer to British Israel we mean at the same time Anglo-Israel). We would call attention to some of the many books and publications which fall into the Jew-bait ideology which are supposedly distributed to and cater to the deep students of the so-called Communist conspiracy. Though many of these "hard core" patriots are unaware, they are prize victims and servants of British Israel. It is these super patriots who are the ideological gestapos of British Israel. They have been moved to the completion of the brainwash and their zealousness in their new education has made of them "Jews" impatient with gradual revolution and militant in their desire for blind revolution. They are seditious with respectability under complete control of the spiritual power of British Israel. Their new education of "what's behind Communism" has hidden the master plan. Such is the deceit of British Israel that can alienate a nation against itself by changing its spirit.

We name the following Jew-bait books: JUDAISM IN ACTION, WATERS FLOWING EASTWARD, THE PLOT AGAINST THE CHURCH, THE PLOT AGAINST CHRISTIANITY, THE RIDDLE OF THE JEWS' SUCCESS, THE SECRET WORLD GOVERNMENT, BEHIND COMMUNISM, THE RULERS OF RUSSIA, SECRET SOCIETIES AND SUBVERSIVE MOVEMENTS, THE WORLD HOAX, KNOW YOUR ENEMY, THE ULTIMATE WORLD ORDER, CHRIST WAS NOT A JEW, CAUSE OF WORLD UNREST, PROOFS OF A CONSPIRACY, THE FRAMEWORK OF A CHRISTIAN STATE, THE INTERNATIONAL JEW, THE RED NETWORK, IRON CURTAIN OVER AMERICA, ANTISEMITISM, THE JEWISH STATE, THE JEWS, THE NEW UUHAPPY LORDS, THE ARCHITECTS BEHIND THE WORLD CONSPIRACY, THE ROTHSCHILDS, STRANGER THAN FICTION, STILL 'TIS OUR ANCIENT FOE, UNDER JEWISH RULE, WAR, WAR, WAR, WHAT WE DISLIKE ABOUT THE JEWS, THE WORLD CONQUERORS, TRAIL OF THE SERPENT, MEIN KAMPF, RISE AND FALL OF THE THIRD REICH, THIS TIME THE WORLD, THE BEAST OF THE APOCALYPSE, FACTS ARE FACTS, JEWISH ANTI-COMMUNISM, JEWS MUST LIVE, JUDAISM AND BOLSHEVISM, OVERMAN REPORT, PAWNS IN THE GAME, THE TALMUD UNMASKED, TENNEY REPORTS ON WORLD ZIONISM, THE ULTIMATE WORLD ORDER, JEWISH RITUAL MURDER, THE JEWS by H. Belloc, THE FRENCH REVOLUTION by Nesta Webster, THE RULERS OF RUSSIA by Fahey, TRACKING DOWN THE KILLER, ADAM WEISHAUPt, A HUMAN DEVIL, by Gerald Winrod, THE REVOLT AGAINST CIVILIZATION, IN QUEST OF THE WHITE GOD, SPENGLER LETTERS, THE OUTLAW'S DIARY, THE SOCIALIST NETWORK, THE JEWS COME TO AMERICA, THE CONQUEST OF THE WORLD BY THE JEWS, RACIAL AND NATIONAL IDENTITY by William P. Gale, and many many more. We add to the list of books a few journals and magazines which are seditious Jew-bait. They are: THE COUNCILOR, COMMON SENSE now extinct, THE THUNDERBOLT, THE CROSS AND FLAG, ACTION MAGAZINE, PILGRIM TORCH, FIERY CROSS, and many others. None of these books and publications expose the Christian State plot carried on mostly by the right wing.

In the Jew-bait trickery we must understand that ideologies are divided between created or fabricated political issues with the combatants all of one spirit. To understand this spirit we must dissect the etymology of the extra Biblical Christian State Kingdom of God on Earth, for herein is the plan of conquest by the British Empire.

Here also is the explanation of Masonic anti-judaism (politically) and Masonic anti-communism (politically) which is a farce to cover the progressive advance of the spiritual unity of all races and nations.

The idea of spiritual power as a weapon of power politics is an imposing reality when we see how it has held the unity of the Catholic Church for centuries. This unity through spiritual power has crossed national boundaries while maintaining its direction from Rome. Though Catholics live in many nations their spiritual allegiance (to God) is through the Vatican and it is from this source that flows the administration of the Church. The spiritual unity of Catholicism has expressed itself in political matters in harmony with Church views.

This is the exact scheme of spiritual control of the British Empire through British Israel. Its counterfeit messiah (to come) is the pope of British Israel. Its domain is the unification of all nations under the control of the "Christian State" and its name is the kingdom of God. It is the mystery of iniquity in the form of Christianity. It is ecclesiasticism with vengeance and it must destroy the Roman Church and to do so it (British Israel), is manipulating the Church into the role of "Mystery Babylon" so that it can be "Divinely" destroyed as an apostate harlot.

The sleeping Christians would do well to awaken to the inspiration of their agony. The cliches of religious freedom and brotherhood are fronts for the most diabolical plot of all time.

While we have talked about the spirit of British Israel we have not described its nature in detail. It is Talmudic Judaism based upon the degenerate worship of sex. Its esoteric meaning is a venomous hate for Jesus Christ and its goal is the spiritual allegiance of all mankind. Back to Eden is the trail of the serpent and the fruit of the forbidden tree is the Kingdom of Lucifer.

We reserve a detailed study of the spirit of British Israel Masonry for the last section of this discourse.

To add evidence to our contention that British Israel is an anti-Christian force, we quote from an article distributed by Herbert W. Armstrong of Pasadena, California, entitled HOW YOU CAN BE IMBUED WITH THE POWER OF GOD! On page five we quote, "How plain that God is a Family - a kingdom, not a limited trinity. The doctrine of the trinity was foisted upon the world beginning with the council of Nicaea. It is merely a continuation of the pagan Babylonish trinity of Nimrod, Semiramis and Horus - of father, mother and child - except that in this instance the apostate churches substituted the Holy Spirit for the mother (Semiramis) and called it a "person." I John 5:7: 'For there are three that bear record in heaven, the Father, the Word, and the Holy Spirit: and these three are one' -- this verse is NOT

INSPIRED - it was not written by the apostle John!..."

"This verse is a deliberate hoax, foisted upon a deceived world by an uninspired writer centuries after the inspired John wrote the book."

"...Instead of teaching the trinity, Mathew 28:19 teaches that God is a growing Family or kingdom into which we may enter. God is a Family, a kingdom, not a trinity." End of quote from Herbert W. Armstrong.

How crystal clear that the god of British Israel is the British Empire Kingdom and that the god of the New Order is the British Empire.

Maybe the Empire State of New York has dual meaning. Could it be that treason is the reason for its name? We quote from WORLD FEDERATION NOW, Volume 1 No. 1, April 1339, under the caption "Proposed Memorial To The President of the United States by the people of the State of New York Represented in Constitutional Convention petitioning The President to Summon a World Constitutional Convention -- The people of the State of New York, represented in Constitutional Convention, held at Albany, July 1938, respectfully urge the President of the United States to summon without delay a World Constitutional Convention to set up an all-inclusive, democratic non-military Federation of Nations, organized and modeled after the Constitution of the United States, in order to promote peace, justice and mutual understanding among nations." --- Introduced by the Honorable Hamilton Fish, Jr., but not passed. Sponsored by the campaign for World Government." End of quote.

The continuing process toward the World State Kingdom of God British Empire is understood only in terms of its progressive unification and synthesis of the biological, social, and SPIRITUAL evolution. The natural reaction of unification into a cosmic unity (universal) is conflict rather than harmony as seen in the present world situation. We note that the Nazi swastika has the occult meaning of fire. Fire is the symbol of destruction on one hand and the symbol of the life principle of generation on the other; hence we have the pattern of revolution which must move through world chaos to the kingdom of God. The political puppets of National Socialism and Communism are the destroyers of this social order after which the world is "reborn" into the cosmic Christ kingdom.

The ideological and political reality of the Communist state was created and designed to forge the unification of the world through conflict. Anticommunism under the guise of patriotism was a planned contribution to this necessary conflict. According to a quotation of Professor John MacMurray on page 161 of the book THROUGH WORLD CHAOS TO THE COSMIC CHRIST he says "The separation of Communism and Christianity into conscious antagonism means that the kingdom of heaven is at hand." We know that the definition of Christianity used here is the kingdom of God of British Israel with the opposite meaning to the New Testament Christianity of Jesus Christ.

The defense of "Christian Civilization" as so often stated by Winston Churchill is in fact the advancement of the British Empire under the name of kingdom of God. Churchill knew whereof he spoke when he said that he did not become Prime Minister to preside over the dissolution of the British Empire. We have to but recognize its new name.

Therefore the "free world" concept is imbued with the spirit of the Kingdom Message and it is from this basis that the anti-communist crusade is advanced. The spirit of the nation is so infused with the kingdom message that "patriotism" has become sedition. The development of the spirit of the universal kingdom and its brotherhood through evolution and revolution has readapted the concept of conservatism until in essence it is extreme liberalism. The terminology no longer fits the ideology. We cling to a word system that has taken on a completely new meaning. What was once truth becomes respectable treason. This was the hidden treason behind the apparent ultra Nationalism of Nazi Germany. Naziism was Judaism in the form of National Socialism and it was no less Jew than the Communism it opposed. Hitler blinded the people with Jew-bait and insulted them to a man by his establishment of his Nazi-Jew State. Propaganda taught the German people the word Jew but it did not teach them to recognize its political form as it gave them temporary glory while it led them to destruction. The people did not correlate the Jew-bait with the Jew-plot of the Aryan Race Myth.

If we change the setting to America we see the ideology of the white race or Adamic race and recognize it as Jew-Pharisaism. White Supremacy is an ideological weapon of Judaism but it appears under the auspices of Christianity and patriotism. British Israelism is Judaism with the name of Christianity and therefore we see clearly how the Jew-baiters work their wrath with impunity from Christianity on the one hand and with financing from the Jews on the other. They may be identified by their attacks upon the Jew and their consistent proclamation and promotion of Judaism whether it be Communism, anti-communism or the kingdom message. They condemn it by name and support it in fact. In the United States this paragraph refers to the work of the Identity Movement. The development and expansion of Judaism under the name of Christianity is the essence of British Israelism. This semantic trick has given respectability to world revolution, making Christ its leader. It has enlisted the American Churches to forge its propaganda upon the spirit of the people, changing their loyalty to the Supranational Kingdom of God, all in the name of Christianity. We must readopt the name Judaism to fit the substance of the World Kingdom religion, and we can do this by discerning the spirit of British Israel. If our concept of Christianity and patriotism is inconsistent with the origin of its meaning then we must expect betrayal. The Kingdom of God on Earth is Judaism, not Christianity nor patriotism.

Defense of the so-called free world is in harmony with the Communist versus Democracy world conflict strategy of British Israel. The conflict of nations and races is promoted in order to unify the exhausted society into a complete homogenization. We see in this conflict-strategy the reason for unrestrained racial antagonism in America today. It should be obvious that it is not only allowed it is promoted; therefore true patriotism must loose itself from the spiritual control of the fake Christianity called the kingdom of God.

American patriotism just as that in Germany under Hitler has been molded to fit the limitations of preplanned treason although it all appears spontaneous. The long process of revolution and war is calculated to conform to the ultimate accomplishment of the "Christian State." We quote again from THROUGH WORLD CHAOS TO COSMIC CHRIST, page 17. "When world history is presented in the light of its ultimate reality it will appear as the record of the operation of a Divine Plan of Interference in the disastrous course of age-long human effort...Out of chaos cometh new order!" On page 19 he says, "The Divine Plan of Interference is revealed as operating according to a Special Law of Intrusion into the working of Natural Law in physical being, with the ultimate purpose that humanity should be 'shaken' into operative harmony with the perfection of God's Creation." We recognize this as an attempt to merge Heaven and earth in the minds of men, and we see that it is the task of the Kingdom Message propaganda to create the belief that such is the plan and purpose of God.

To demonstrate further the meaning of conflict and chaos we find additional explanation in the above quoted book on page 73: "Every state of approach to the 'End of the Age'--repeating on a vaster scale the various stages of approach to the Final Tribulation on Jerusalem--crises financial, economic, political and ecclesiastical; with the portrayal of the epoch of Hitler's administration; the decline, failure and renewal of British influence; the approaching coalescence of British and American power and interest; and the utter failure and disintegration of human administration, with the collapse of its financial and economic world power organization -- all were foreshown and interpreted in revealing words and phrases before the sequence of events happened;

which, as was subsequently shown, were duplicated in the revealing words and phrases which interpreters of history, such as Professor Arnold J. Toynbee, employed to express the sequence of events when they had happened." End of quote. Can we not begin to see that our yoke of bondage is wielded by the British Empire through its Kingdom Message propaganda? To understand the use of the "destroyer" states of National Socialism and Communism along with the ideologies of anti-Semitism and anti-Catholicism, it is necessary to understand the concept of created conflicts in the process of ultimate unification. We quote from a booklet entitled MEDITATION GROUP FOR THE NEW AGE, Set I page 12, "These stages of unification mingle in various proportions, creating intermediate stages in which groups and blocs are formed, divided from, and often in conflict with other groups and blocs. This connotes specifically this present moment. There is a danger in this situation. But it can, and we hope that it will be avoided through a further stage and demonstration of the trend to unification resulting in an organic synthesis on all levels and leading up to world synthesis, to the one humanity." End of quote. The overpowering and dominant influence which guides these conflicts is mental development. This mental development which enshrouds and limits all phases of conflict to the purpose and intent of British Israel has in the same instance insulated British Israel from any effective penetration of its treason. Therefore the many and varied projects of mass education which are being implemented all over the world are molding the conscience of man toward the "Christian State" rendering all possibilities of inquiry improbable. Few will chance the fool image which is derived from honest research into this new Christianity. Once the spirit of British Israel is complete the thought processes of a people no longer fit their language and any suggestion of truth seems preposterous. British Israel develops in its victims a credibility gap which cannot be closed until the individual is freed from the captivity of his mental control. Conservatism as Americans have been educated to understand it, is treason. Truth becomes an illusion and man's most honest efforts to save himself (politically) and his country betray him.

Americans cannot free their country until they free their spirit and to do this they must remove the subversive motivating influence of the kingdom message and they cannot originate this desire until they come to understand that the kingdom of God on earth is the rulership of the world by the British Empire. The Empire aspires to world domination, political and spiritual, and it has sought to make itself God. Has God ordained this abomination that declares His name and sovereignty?

British Israel propaganda has changed the meaning of our language so that our thought patterns are inconsistent with our intentions. This is the strategy of dividing a man against himself and subverting a nation with the use of ultra nationalism and patriotism. This reverse pattern of subversion is an illusion which moves a nation backward toward internationalism at exactly the same speed as the apparent progression of nationalism (Constitutionalism). See section on semantics in the Epilogue. It is treason in the name of freedom but this relationship is never understood. Thus the new concept of Christian Civilization (through British Israel propaganda) has the hidden meaning of a collective world state or the so-called Christian State; therefore when the term Christian Civilization is used (even with the intent based upon individual salvation through Christ) it betrays its user to British Israel and the effect of his efforts is subversion.

Another example of this chicanery is the use of the word "Jew" as a basis to establish a racial theory as a Biblical concept of salvation. The Jew in a fleshly racial sense does not exist and never has from Old Testament times until the second appearance of Christ at the consummation of the final age of the Gospel (kingdom of God). The only true application of Jew should be Pharisee based upon the religion or belief of the tradition of Rabbinism and Talmudism. Therefore our use of Jew (and we use it thusly because the world would not otherwise understand) refers to a religious sect based upon Luciferianism. One is not born a fleshly Jew but he becomes a Jew by virtue of his beliefs. Jew as used in the Old Testament referred to the people of a nation of certain locality. It was circumcision not race under the Mosaic Economy that constituted one a true Israelite (Genesis 17:9-14), and of the seed of Abraham but this fact is never revealed in the racial theories of British Israel. (Let us hurriedly inject that the myth of racial purity is more of this double dimension trickery to cause cleavages and sub groups and nations because the most emphatic aim of this hypocrisy is the amalgamation of all races, religions and creeds into a subservient collective zombie. Race purity is only bait to cause conflict.) To further explode the Jew-race myth we quote from Esther 8:17 ..."And many of the people of the land BECAME Jews: for the fear of the Jews fell upon them." Therefore a valid attack upon the fleshly "Jew" must be related to his Devil religion whereas conversely the sham racial attacks upon the so-called Jew by the propaganda of British Israel (alias National Socialism, alias Communism) contributes to the conflict of world revolution. A Jewish race never existed and any approach for or against this mythical Jew is political intrigue wrapped in Biblical language. The millennial cult which promotes the chosen of God Jew heresy is promoting the religion of Satan and his aspiration of the fake messianic kingdom which has identified Rabbinism for ages and which originated the plot and crucifixion of our Saviour. The other side of this dual plot which accuses what it terms the Jew race of anti-Christ is promoting this very Talmudic rabbinical Millennialism which in both cases is the unification (through conflict) of mankind into a hoax Christian State. One must be outside of this pincers movement (toward unity) to see that it is not a divided effort against Christ's people. We have to know its spirit to see that it is "the blasphemy of them who say they are the Jews and are not." The new Jew relates to the Christian faith brought forth by circumcision of the heart and belief in Jesus Christ as both Lord and Saviour. The Jew-race is a Jewish fable that turns men from the truth. St. Paul says in Galatians 1:13-14, "I profited in the Jew's religion above many my equals in mine own nation." He did not say he was of a Jew-race.

Another example of this paradox-harmony ideology may be clearly seen in the propaganda of Christ versus anti-Christ. What was once a legitimate concept of Christianity which referred to the spirit of Satan versus Christ has come to be understood through the brainmould of British Israel as two political rulers fighting over control of the nations. This is another example of dividing the same ideology into two fake opposites containing no truth in either. Propaganda competes against itself to control all thought. In the first place the great commission gave Christ all power in Heaven and earth and in the second place the reign of Christ is a reign of grace above all supernatural, and not in conflict with the rule of Caesar or government. It is the concerted attempt of Caesar to be both political ruler and God that brings out the real truth of Christ versus anti-Christ. This is precisely the blasphemous usurpation and intrusion of the British Israel plot upon the sovereignty of Christ. The Christ of British Israel is the Cosmic Christ; the collective totality of the human race. Therefore the purpose of the anti-Christ propaganda is the force designed to solidify and unify the "Christ" and the "Christian State." We must see then that the use of the term antichrist versus Christ is the apostasy of British Israel and conveys its purpose and extends its domain wherever used without clarification. Therefore the myth of Christian Civilization is a front for the somewhat narrower concept of Western Civilization which in turn is the mantle for the plot to establish the "Christian State." We must know its spirit to understand its purpose which is the treason of British Israel. See Epilogue on anti-Christ.

The social justice of the British Israel Kingdom of God is not the Gospel of Christ but its movement within the language and form of the decalogue has established a phony Christianity which in essence and in spirit is a genuine hate of Jesus Christ. It is Satanic in its deceit and has beguiled almost the whole of once Orthodox Christianity into its fold. All social and political phenomena is organized to bulldoze humanity into this ultimate triumph of Satan's Christian State. All is set to appear as "Divine intervention" to save a butchered and bewildered world from itself. Human government has failed says the propaganda and nothing short of the direct intervention of Christ to set up His kingdom will save the world from suicide. It is a union of Church and state with final authority in the Godstate. This occult theocracy is the aim and purpose of the propaganda that we hear so much about. It is the "Divine Plan" of Lucifer to merge Heaven and earth and it is the work of British Israel to establish this spirit.

We have tried to demonstrate the reality of the British-Jew plot revealing that which its pied pipers and stalking horses do not dare mention. We have shown that the leaders of the fight against Communism are without exception internationalists promoting "patriotism" with the treason of the Kingdom Message. The internationalist-led United States Government has soaked the earth of foreign lands with American blood in what they describe as containment of Communism. We say this to demonstrate that all ideology, under whatever political name, is controlled. The alignment of an individual or nation under any version is captivity to the same.

The political framework of the "Christian State" is now complete (all nations now conform to the self phase-out scheme of the "Judgment of the nations") providing the basis for the freedom of movement of the Supranational "Christian State" with its kingdom message propaganda. That politically independent nations exist in name only is proved in their absolute conformity to the blueprint of "prophecy" of British Israel. None are allowed to express themselves in opposition to the Supranational force which hangs over them like the sword of Damocles. They are powerless before the transcendent power of the British kingdom which insults them with its extra-legal existence and its intrusion into their internal affairs. It has forced its extra-legality upon all nations allowing no objections to its propaganda and no inquiries into its sovereignty. Its army of Masonry dedicated to the task of the "Christian State" carries out whatever act it is directed to do. They are dedicated to God and country: their God is collective humanity and their country is the world.

The God-State kingdom has a system of international law (intrigue) which regulates nations and populations while it exempts itself from punishment of its crimes of genocide. It is this extra-legal state of existence which removes the British kingdom outside the scope of national authority and proves in the same instance its state of being as a colossal world superstate.

To investigate further the meaning and direction of the double think conflict-harmony language of revolution we look for a moment at the identical twin of materialism versus religion. Generally speaking we understand material as substance and religion as thought (belief in a God). In the case of British Israel, religion is a faith in materialism and not opposite to it at all. The gimmick is that by mass dissemination of the expression of "materialism versus religion" that people choose one or the other, without inquiry into the meaning of the terms. The kingdom message religion is rank materialism and anathema to the supernatural kingdom of Christ. Materialism is the creation and the worship of the creation is the religion of the kingdom evangelism which is the deification of that creation through unification of the human race into harmony with the natural order. The blending of the race with nature is the pantheistic materialism of the kingdom of God religion. It is this aspect which unites all paganism against the Divine revelation of Christianity.

World plunder through thought control is the strategy of British Israel and it has accomplished most under the auspices of "Freedom of the Press" and "Freedom of Speech." These freedoms are peculiar only to the distributors of propaganda and no inquest is aired beyond the limits of thought control. The exchange of information among a very limited fraction of one percent of the population is of no consequence in its effect upon the movement of millions via the "free press."

The use of this control has enabled the British Empire to almost completely submerge its physical power from the eyes of the world as it has increased its spiritual power. Now, the fact-thinkers who scoff at this as ludicrous are victims of intellectual vanity and are themselves controlled by the spiritual superstructure of British Israel. Such a conspiracy is not credible within the thought processes of even the most educated who have been told for three hundred years that theirs is a free country. There is simply no inner imperative to question that history just might not be a natural process, let alone that it is being forged and guided with definiteness.

One cannot expect to take British Israel into a lab and dissect its parts as he would geopolitics. He must recognize the tempo of its soul which makes it invisible as well as all powerful. It has permeated its spirit into the thinking of the people with the expression that "Jesus is coming." This idea promotes the end of the age in the minds of men with the suggestion that this economic and social order is not according to God's will and that it is run by man and running headlong into total suicide. Man must be saved in spite of himself and this shall be through "Divine intervention" of the Christ and the inauguration of a new age of harmony and justice with a unified humanity under the rulership of God. Preparation of the mind for this earth bound God-state is the work of British Israel and its Identity Movement.

The pretense of nationalism is like the fiction called history. Nationalism is nominal and the conflict between pretended nationalisms is the process of synthesis or unification. Prefabricated nationalisms do not serve their subjects; they serve the international chess game of "wars and rumors of wars" to grind the nations into amalgamation. "Out of chaos cometh the new order."

The interplay of events in the natural order are allowed but God has not ordained the deification of the state. The true kingdom of God shall never be the kingdom of earth. Perpetuation of the faith does not mix spirit with matter. The land of Abraham and the people are condemned; it is their faith that makes them whole. It is the circumcision of the heart that separates Heaven from earth in the hearts of men. British Israel would turn us again to bondage with circumcision of the flesh in a God-state glorified earth.

The true kingdom of God is not a "judgment of the nations"--it is happiness and joy in the Holy Spirit. It is God's revelation (not His creation) which leads man to salvation through Christ. The Hope of Israel found its fulfillment at the Cross extending God's grace to all men. The kingdom of God is a present reality to born again Christians. The mission, the revelation, the authority, the kingdom and glory of Christ is fulfilled according to all that was foretold and there is no teaching in the Holy Scripture which supports or predicts a return to the materialism of British Israel-Judaism. This subtle heresy which parades as Christianity and evangelizes the world in preparation for a world state is an insulting repudiation of New Testament Christianity and it is the invisible and moving spirit of world revolution. It has the phraseology of Christianity and works through the Churches building a pernicious spirit which has blinded humanity to the grace of Christ and enlisted them in the social gospel of world brotherhood. Once one is imbued with the spirit of this universal brotherhood which calls itself Christianity, it is impossible for him to be a conservative or a true patriot. He may imagine that he is, but it is impossible for a Judaized-Masonic mentality to comprehend the inconsistency of his spirit (beliefs) to the reality of orthodox Christianity or conservatism. Constant bombardment of British Israel propaganda changes the spirit and allegiance of a people from national to international without their being aware of it. It is a process of alienation which separates a people from their sense of values making it impossible for them to recognize any distinction in nationalism and internationalism. It is a development of a spiritual sense of interdependence phasing out all true perspective of independence. The establishment of faith in materialism alias kingdom of God on earth solidifies a spiritual stratum which precludes rational or objective comprehension. The victims of this deceit (a process of Judaization through British Israel-Masonry) begin to unconsciously aspire to the hopes of Pharisaism which is the unity of man in the God-State. Men in ages past have been chained to their task; today men are educated to a task making them much more efficient. Physical coercion makes no comparison to the united efforts of mind and body and it is the work of British Israel to enlist or capture the mind. British Israel propaganda is maneuvering mental involuntary servitude to the World State under the guise of social justice. All men are not willing recipients of passive propaganda but the pressure of world events coupled with the prophecies of British Israel force upon the mentality of the people no alternative but "the Christ." Today we are witnessing abuse; we are being jabbed and stabbed to the limits of toleration. The screws are being tightened, and a final rape of the American nation is planned. It will be a massacre explained and justified according to British Israel in fulfillment of Ezekiel which says (paraphrasing) a third shall die by the sword (war), a third shall die by famine and disease (mass inoculation and infestations in the name of public health) and a third shall be taken into captivity, meaning export of the population to a foreign country.

The seemingly incoherent direction of the American nation is not meaningless at all. It is being skillfully and systematically betrayed to the British Empire alias kingdom of God on earth.

British Israel has rehabilitated Rabbinical Judaism very successfully under the paraphernalia of Christianity so that Christianity as most Americans know it today is Judaism. The Jew-baiters say that Jew-communism is a threat to America. The threat is that Americans have become Jews (Pharisees) through the spirit of British Israel. The danger has never been so much that Jews become Americans as Americans become Jews through the spiritual deceit of British Israel; the first is citizenship and the latter is the faith of Rabbinism. The changing of the faith through British Israel propaganda has changed the allegiance to the world state. The spirit of this world state is Rabbinical Talmudic

Judaism, the instrumentality is Masonry, the framework of the world kingdom is the British Empire and the ultimate reality is the unification of body and spirit under the pseudo Christian Theocratic World Government.

The belief in the materialistic millennial kingdom of God-British Empire is a disease of the conscience and the Empire has used its British Israel propaganda to mould the mind of man to believe that "Christ is the answer." Who is the Christ of this seemingly innocent barbarism? It is the messiah of a Judaized world -- the deification of mankind collectively. The true spirit of British Israel is a materialistic paganism foisted and forced upon America and the world in the name of Jesus Christ.

The natural mind of man seldom rises above this subtle heresy which is Christian in name only. Therefore Mr. and Mrs. America cannot imagine that Communism versus Americanism is a conflict of annihilation process. It is the attrition of the last elements of potential adversaries of the British Empire. The kingdom message pseudo-Christianization is a cloud over the world which provides the spirit of the conflict and the spirit of the resulting synthesis of the Phariseic kingdom of God. The kingdom of God millennial Pharisaism not only provides the spirit of world revolution, it provides the smoke to smother the truth that the synthetic kingdom of God of British Israel is the British Empire.

The work of British Israel is to Judaize the world by fabricating the belief that Heaven is here upon earth. The crystallization of this spirit increases in direct proportion to the amount of fake Christianization that is administered to the world. The more this neo-Christianity can be advertised and promoted the closer the world comes to benevolent despotism. The world is being moved away from Christ in His name -- this is the spirit of British Israel.

Russian Communism and American Democracy are allies in their efforts to crush any would be opponent of the kingdom of God-British Empire. The "patriotism" of the British Israel Jew-baiters means allegiance to the kingdom of God-British Empire and counterfeit nationalisms are only a means to this end. Stalin said in his address at Sverdlov University in April, 1924 "The combination of the Russian revolutionary sweep with American efficiency is the essence of Leninism in Party and State work." (cf: Leninism by J. Stalin, Lawrence and Wishart, London. 1940, Authorized Trans; p 85). Of course he did not state that the puppet fight of Americanism versus Communism is designed to build the Pharisee-Christian State and that its intent is to purge the apostolic faith from the face of the earth.

Christianity is the label for conservative - treason and British Israel is our paradise lost. "Enter ye in at the strait gate: for wide is the gate, and broad is the way, that leadeth to destruction, and many there be which go in therat: Because strait is the gate, and narrow is the way, which leadeth unto life, and few there be that find it. Beware of false prophets, which come to you in sheep's clothing, but inwardly they are ravening wolves. Ye shall know them by their fruits. Do men gather grapes of thorns, or figs of thistles?" Matthew 7:13-16. "For such are false apostles, deceitful workers, transforming themselves into the apostles of Christ, and so marvel; for, Satan himself is transformed into an angel of light." II Corinthians 11-14.

The desecration of the earth is advanced with the slogans "Jesus is coming" and "Christ is the answer." The world's last hope says British Israel, is the Christ -- the unification of humanity into brotherly love.

The monotonous dogmatism of "Jesus is coming" is a shadow over the Jesus Christ Who has come. It is a constant bombardment of the idea that the mission of the Messiah is yet to be -- that the hope of the world is a paradise earth against salvation of man from sin and death.

British Israel has the form of Christianity and the spirit of Satan; it exalts the name and denies the power. It is heresy and it is world revolution.

The mission of Christ was not to butcher the earth but to establish truth upon it. His Gospel was (is) the good news that NOW is come salvation, and strength and the kingdom of our God. Revelation 12:10.

The cross of Christ is the triumph over Satan. "Behold NOW is the accepted time; behold, NOW is the day of salvation." II Corinthians 6:2.

"Having begun in the Spirit (Christ) are ye now made perfect in the flesh?" Galatians 3:3. Flesh is the doctrine and salvation of British Israel. It is the fusion of race and a blasphemer of grace. It is Satan appearing as an angel of light.

This drawing shows how the British Empire directs world revolution from America and Russia and how the pitched fight between Russia and America is designed to merge into the New Order or New Age. People will believe that it is a Christian Theocracy or Government of God. This is the World Government that Tom Anderson and Robert Welch and the whole phony conservative movement are working for and fronting for. Watch their tongue twisting. Robert Welch says he wouldn't be opposed to an honestly intended world federation of states. He is talking about the British Israel kingdom of God on earth.

The British Israel movement is Masonic and it is Communism.

The pyramid is already on our one dollar bill, watch for ever increasing appearances of it. Finally it will be sugar coated to our school children with an explanation that it is a symbol of the New Christian Age.

THE HOPE OF ISRAEL IS THE TRIUMPH OF CHRIST

Undermining Christianity with Christianity

The purpose of this section is to make plain to the reader that the Gospel, pure as delivered to the Saints, is our weapon.

First it gives us the power to know and understand the worldly subterfuge of false Christianity. Secondly, we use the Gospel as an offense weapon against phony Christians and false patriots. Thirdly, the Gospel is a spiritual weapon that cannot be stamped out by the foes of Christ.

We do not here imply or suggest that we not defend our country and our homes with arms when necessary. What we are saying is that no correct action is ever taken without proper knowledge. We remind you that it is through the Gospel perverted that we have been led into the swamp of confusion and anxiety of today.

The whole social order in America has been turned into anarchy by a Federal Court system made up of men whose Masonic religion has perverted and demented their minds so badly that they cannot believe that the evil that they have created will turn on them. They have sold their very souls in this life and the life to come and have destroyed the liberties of the American people and wrecked the greatest country in the history of the world. All this because they are tied to a religious order that destroys the conscience absolutely. While Masonry is widely accepted as a Christian brotherhood, it is the greatest instrument of human misery in history. And so is all false religion a tormentor of men and leads them to sorrow and death in ignorance.

"Out of His mouth proceedeth a sharp sword." Rev. 19:15. This is Christ's only weapon. It is the same two edged sword seen in Rev. 1:16 and 2:12. The Word of the Lord is that powerful, that it can break into pieces the enemies of His kingdom. In Isa. 11:4 we read, "He shall smite the earth with the rod of His mouth." In Heb. 4:12 we read, "For the word of God is living, and active, and sharper than any two-edged sword and piercing even to the dividing of soul and spirit, of both joints and marrow, and quick to discern the thoughts and intents of the heart."

And so it is with the Gospel that gives us the knowledge to know the thoughts and intents of the hearts of wicked men who pose as Christians. By promoting the Gospel of Christ as taught by the New Testament writers, by St. Augustine, and by the reformers, we bring to open shame and wrath the materialists who prophecy a millennial Zionism in the name of Christ.

Satan knows that the Gospel Age is his last chance to deceive the elect and this he does by appearing as an angel of light.

In accusing world revolution of operating under the cloak of Christianity we have sought to tear away its pious mask in order to reveal its hypocrisy. We have pointed out that the forces of world revolution cannot be identified politically but that we must know their spirit to understand their treason; treason to the faith and treason to America. This spirit is the kingdom of God on earth.

The spirit of the kingdom of God (British Israel) has set the world stage into a duality of conflict. On the left it has its political Communism, ostensibly operated from Russia and China and on the right it has its Spiritual Communism ("Christian Civilization") as represented by the British Empire, including the United States. Out of this controlled conflict (which is progressing according to an unbiblical scheme of prophecy) will emerge Spiritual Communism. This spiritual Communism we have described as Satan's Christian State or the kingdom of God on earth.

It is under the stress of "wars and rumors of wars" that the kingdom message of world evangelism has imprinted upon the conscience of mankind a faith and hope for the promised tranquillity of a millennial age. It has been adequately stated that Millennialism finds its most fertile soil in a crisis ridden world. Therefore we perceive that a planned chaotic situation has been developed out of which can arise the cosmic Christ as a Saviour of the physical world.

Unexcelled in history the spiritual darkness of the mystery of iniquity is emerging under the banner of truth and righteousness. It is the most positive identification with the apostolic faith that has ever been accomplished. While it punishes man on one hand it promises to save him on the other with the self righteousness of world brotherhood.

The scourge of the kingdom message must be removed if our faith is to be restored and our sensibility returned. We cannot cleanse our land until we purify our hearts. We must understand that our bewilderment and confusion stems from our inner conflict of political patriotism to America and spiritual patriotism to the kingdom of God World State British Empire. We cannot divide our patriotism or our faith; therefore if we can remove our faith in the carnality and materialism of the kingdom message we can remove our conflict of conscience and identify our enemies in the same instance. We must again render unto Caesar the things that are Caesar's and unto God the things that are God's. Caesar cannot become God.

Christians should yield to human governments. They know the difference in the kingdoms of this world and the kingdom of our God. St. John did not call for other Christians to rescue him when banished to Patmos. Paul did not call for help when he was in chains in Rome. John the Baptist was beheaded and Christ made no effort to intercede. Even though human governments are established under the permissive will of God, they are many times corrupt and tyrannical but we are subjects in peace and obedience. It is when human government interferes with our superior allegiance to Christ that we are to become Christian soldiers and die if necessary. This is precisely the subject of this book. Caesar desires to be God. We are living in a time when human despotism is in a mad plot to control humanity spiritually with a World Government religion.

Israel after the flesh persecutes Israel after the spirit. Nearly all of professing Christianity is lusting after natural Israel.

Political Communism is the hammer and sickle of Bolshevism designed to "persecute" Spiritual Communism as represented by British Israel neo-Christianity. We have shown already that the kingdom of God propaganda is only veiled Communism and in essence and in spirit it is no more than Pharisee Judaism.

The Hope of Israel has been fully realized in Christ and His Gospel of the kingdom. The Christian hope is salvation from sin and death. The blessings of Abraham are extended to the seed through the righteousness of faith. The inheritors of the faith of Abraham make up the household of faith which is the kingdom of God. British Israel diminishes faith in Christ by establishing faith in natural Israel. The veiling of the conscience with the kingdom message removes the distinction between the material and the spiritual and man cannot reconcile the inherent contradiction and mutual exclusiveness of natural Israel and spiritual Israel. The king of spiritual Israel is the Christ of Calvary. The king of British Israel is the "Jesus (who) is coming."

British Communism via British Israel is rendering millions insensible to the meaning of the false Christianity called the millennial reign of Christ. Few can discern that this is a ruse of Zionism to set up World Government and world control through religion. Once people are under this belief, they are unable to understand its consequences and their process of reason is completely distorted and confused as if drugged. First it is almost impossible for them to understand that they are controlled. Second this religious deception places a false Christian immunity upon the deceivers. Third, there is almost a guarantee that most will never be free from this religious mind control and fourth, they will obediently follow the British Israel blueprint of "prophecy" which will lead them unwittingly into World Government.

The Zionist preachers all agree that "prophecy is being fulfilled before our very eyes" and soon comes the millennial government headed by Christ Himself, they say. Christ would say to them again that you do err not knowing that my kingdom is not of this world.

British Israel and its false prophecy is the lying wonder of the world and it is a work of Satan against Christ and has convinced the multitudes of the world that an earthly kingdom is ordained of God. The kingdom of grace has been rejected for a kingdom of this world.

Babylon of all ages has gathered against God's people, not with hammer and sickle, not with armies of men, not with open attack upon the saints, but with the very Word of God, appearing as an angel of light. The cruelty of this barbarism is more complete than all the wars of history. British Israel has caused more deceit. It has control over more people. It controls all nations. It is the cause of human suffering but is the least understood of any tyranny that has ever ruled over this earth because it uses religious deception to neutralize and control all. What we believe is what we are.

The first plagues came to America in the form of kingdom cults and of course Masonry. The American churches became the ivory towers of treason and so today we are a controlled and confused people with a false religion. We are physically and morally bankrupt but still desperate to finance and promote our final ruin. The combined effort of pseudo conservatism and our synagogues of Satan have the American people hoping and expecting the fulfillment of their lying prophecy.

The interpretation of prophecy is no little thing because it relates to the Messiah and His mission. The material minded Jews did not receive the promise (faith of Abraham) "...because they sought it not by faith." To the Christian there is a natural Canaan and a spiritual Canaan; there was a natural Israel and there is a spiritual Israel; there was a natural (material) Temple where a High Priest made intercession once a year and there is Jesus Christ Who has made intercession for us once and forever; there is the city of Jerusalem on earth and there is the city of God which is Heavenly. It is the intended co-mingling and confusing the spiritual with the natural that is perpetuating the Rabbinism of British Israel in the form of Christianity.

British Israel is a doctrine of the flesh and it promises hope to a suffering world. It creates anxiety by making of none effect the Word of God and would offer peace and plenty in the place of salvation from sin to its desperate victims.

The kingdom of God on earth is the religion of revolution and before this paralysis of the mind was unleashed upon America we were a free country. The many Jew proselyte cults which have spread out over the land have now reached the reality of their intent which is the solidification of the spirit of Judaism under the name and facade of Christianity.

The political revolution in America cannot be separated from the spiritual revolution of British Israel. Proof of this is the utter failure of the fictitious anti-communism to identify and expose our enemies. The spiritual communism of British Israel is heralded throughout the land as the Hope of Israel. The faith of the nation is in the world government of the kingdom of God and we cannot save our nation politically until we reestablish the Apostolic faith of Orthodox Christianity which separates the spirit from the flesh.

The kingdom of God is not merely a doctrinal matter as some suppose; it is the Gospel. The earthly kingdom of British Israel is the Gospel of man and the Heavenly kingdom of Jesus Christ is the Gospel of salvation from sin and death. One is flesh and one is spirit; one is condemnation and one is salvation.

The rejection of Christ's kingdom by first century Rabbinism caused their rejection of the sovereignty of Jesus Christ. They rejected His kingdom and they rejected His kingship. The rejection of the kingdom of God is the rejection of Christ and the rejection of Christ is the rejection of His kingdom. The kingdom of God of Jesus Christ comes through the New Covenant of justification by faith. Jesus came into Galilee preaching the gospel of the kingdom of God and saying "The time is fulfilled, and the kingdom of God is at hand; repent ye and BELIEVE the gospel." If our Lord said that "The time is fulfilled" then the "millennium" (gospel age) began and salvation through Christ is the promised kingdom. It is a kingdom of the faithful and can only be seen with eyes of faith rather than eyes of the flesh.

The Hope of Israel is salvation through regeneration in Christ. The Hope of British Israel is not regeneration of the spirit but recreation of the earth.

It has been justly said that "if the promises of the Old Testament demanded an earthly kingdom as fulfillment, then the only possible way Jesus could claim to be the Messiah was to fulfill them. He could not alter God's eternal purpose and be 'Jesus Christ, the same yesterday, today and forever.' Heb. 13:8. Any deviation from the prophetic fulfillment would immediately have convicted Him of being an impostor, and indeed that is what the Jews maintained He was." Quoted from MISSION OF THE MESSIAH by H. C. Heffren). Furthermore the New Covenant is coextensive with the Gospel Age and since it is the final covenant where is there justification or Scripture for the contradictory world government of God of British Israel Judaism?

The mission of Christ is in turning man from iniquity and salvation of the soul from sin is the blessing that God promised to Abraham. This is the promise that has become the kingdom that has filled the whole earth and it is the fulfillment of all that was written "concerning Him, they took down from the tree." "Through this man is preached unto you the forgiveness of sins, and by Him all that believe are justified from all things, from which ye could not be justified by the law of Moses." Acts 13:38-39. Of course we can see that Christ is not the fulfillment of prophecy to the faithless ones. Did Christ not condemn His disciples "...O fools, and slow of heart to believe all that the prophets have spoken." Luke 24:25. St. Paul says in Romans 16:26 "But it is now made manifest and by the Scriptures of the Prophets, according to the commandment of the everlasting God, made known to all nations for the obedience of Faith." "Know ye therefore that they which are of faith, the same are the children of Abraham. So then they which be of faith are blessed with faithful Abraham." Galatians 3:7,9.

Jesus Christ transcends history, and time and space and the materialism of the kingdom message, and His incarnation was a manifestation of the glory of His eternal kingship of righteousness. We quote again from the booklet MISSION OF THE MESSIAH, by H. C. Heffren: "On the enthronement of the Messiah..there are two facts that we should observe in the sermon preached by Peter on the day of Pentecost. In Acts 2:30 Peter referred to the promise that Christ, the Son of David, was to sit on His throne. We have already made it clear that the pronoun 'His' does not refer to David's earthly throne in Jerusalem. Verse 33 lends additional proof to this fact in these words, 'Therefore being by the right hand of God exalted.' This exaltation of Christ to the throne on the right hand of God Almighty, is the throne referred to as 'His throne.' This is the throne that will last forever and from which Christ wields the scepter of righteousness spoken of in Hebrews 1:8. This is the throne Christ ascended to when He said, 'All power is given unto me in Heaven and Earth.' Matthew 28:18. He is there now." End of quote.

The kingdom message of world revolution is the spirit of antichrist and it is the blinding light of our travail. The propaganda of Christ versus antichrist is the anachronism and delusion of British Israel - the blasphemer of Christ.

The unity of the spirit of humanity into the brotherhood of man into a world spiritual-political kingdom is the force and power and meaning of Pax Britannica. True nationalism and independence must divorce itself of the cancerous propaganda of the kingdom message. Patriotism must divest itself of Pharisaism so that the objectives of constitutional government can be reestablished.

The rise and fall of nations in today's power politics is directly related to the spirit of the nations. America is in danger of sinking into a thousand year worship of the God of this world with its attendant social depravity. All that is necessary that they face this reality squarely is to look for a moment at India and China. The societies of these vassal states are in hopeless destitution not because they do not work or have national resources, but because they are slaves to spiritual darkness and the kingdom of God "utopia British Empire" which controls them keeps them in this state of spiritual depravity. We use this illustration not to say that God will save us nationally if we return to the faith. This is the deceit of British Israel. But that we can save ourselves nationally and politically if we have the purity of the Christian faith, which will show us the error of the spiritual darkness of the kingdom message. We cannot have nationhood and world brotherhood at the same time. Pax Britannica would unite the nations under its control by uniting their spirit and faith in the kingdom of God on earth. The sceptre of the Empire is not the righteousness of faith but the depravity of the ancient mysteries offered to the human race as a paradise on earth. V So that we may remove the pious sanctimony of British Israel hypocrisy concerning the government of its coming world state, we quote from Richard DeHaan in a booklet entitled 2,000 YEARS OF PEACE OF EARTH, page 12: "It will therefore be an age of righteousness and peace, but this peace will be built upon righteousness only. Rebellion in that golden age will be immediately and summarily put down by instantaneous death of the rebels. The King will insist upon absolute obedience and that 'every knee shall bow to him, and every tongue confess that Jesus Christ is Lord to the glory of God the Father,' or suffer the consequences immediately." End of quote from Richard DeHaan. It is not difficult to understand from this quote that the austerity of the "Christian state" overshadows its pretensions of "righteousness." Can any Christian believe Christ forced the Gospel upon the world via physical and political tyranny, including death itself? Does this not point out the forked tongue technique of British Israel to trick the world into spiritual and political despotism in the name of Christ?

It is intended that the kingdom of God on earth is to be the panacea of a punished world. Preparation for this "universal salvation" now comes forth from the world's churches. Spiritual darkness that has blinded humanity to its created chaos promises peace and plenty in a New Age. "But the devil, seeing the temples of the demons deserted, and the human race running to the name of the liberating Mediator, has moved the heretics under the Christian name to resist the Christian doctrine, as if they could be kept in the city of God indifferently without any correction, just as the city of confusion held the philosophers who were of diverse and adverse opinions." Quoted from CITY OF GOD, page 284. Yea, the enemies of the church persecute her faithful not with the lion's den or the rack, but with their malicious infusion into the church of pernicious and altruistic counterfeit political Messianism. This they do as they exercise the patience of the saints; they use Biblical expressions for persuasive doctrine; they exercise the benevolence and beneficence of the Christian life and alas, even the wisdom of the church. The enemies of Christ as wolves in sheep's clothing and their spirit is the carnality of man in an earthly kingdom. They despise the heavenly throne of Christ and the Heavenly hope of the Israel of God. They confuse our faith and make desolate our land in the name of our Saviour.

If spiritual Israel is to remove the veil that has distorted their faith, they must search the spirit of British Israel which seeks to merge the Heavenly city with the city of Jerusalem. The Israel of God must cast out the spirit that would exchange the righteousness of faith for the glorification of race. The regressive spirit that seeks the land of Abraham denies the faith of Abraham and seeks a political theocracy to rule over the victims it has blinded. "And fear not them which kill the body, but are not able to kill the soul: but rather fear him which is able to destroy both soul and body in hell." Matthew 10:28. The mystery of iniquity that kills both soul and body is the spirit of the kingdom of God on earth. The kingdom of God on earth is the promise of material bliss for a season in exchange for eternal salvation. The ambivalence of our faith in a dual allegiance of Heaven and earth must give way to the spirit of revelation, while we sever our faith in the creation. Through revelation we attain the hope of Israel; through creation we get the deceit of British Israel. The Israel of God is eternal; the Israel of this world is temporal. In the first is salvation, in the second is condemnation.

If the affluent Society would relieve its misery it must cleanse its spirit of the contradictory errors of a Judaized Christianity. Christians must discern the intent of the spirit that condemns an "atheistic communism" and establishes the same spiritual and political tyranny in the name of Christ. The household of the faithful must become aware of the ethereal aura of sanctity, called the kingdom of God on earth, which deceives the natural mind with its pious pronouncements of Christianity as it silently moves world revolution through chaos to the "Christian State" British World Empire.

If the hope of Israel is to be a political theocracy with the death penalty for rebels as DeHaan states, St. Paul was in error when he said in II Corinthians 10:3, "For though we walk in the flesh we do not war after the flesh. For the weapons of our warfare are not carnal, but mighty through God to the pulling down of strongholds." Paul's statement does not indicate an enforced righteousness in the kingdom of God but he sought death for Christians before his allegiance changed from physical Israel to Spiritual Israel. It seems that DeHaan's "Christian" police state is more in harmony with Saul the Pharisee than Paul the Christian.

The idea of a civil political government on earth for a thousand years was never mentioned by Jesus, Paul, or any of the Apostles. According to Paul, all who believe not and accept not the Gospel shall be cut off from God for all eternity, but according to Judaic British Israel millennialists the Jewish rejecters of the Gospel and their proselyte millennialists are to be blessed with a thousand years of perfect happiness and prosperity. What a complete twist of the Scripture to support the establishment of a world police state in the name of Christ!

The heathen superstition of corrupted Judaism cannot understand that the kingdom of God is salvation and not the dead carcass of natural Israel. But for the Holy Spirit, Christ's disciples would not give up natural Israel for the Israel of God wherein there is no meat and drink but righteousness and peace and joy in the Holy Ghost. Romans 14:17. This same Pharisaism is the veil that is being used to establish the Israel of God as a political Christian Theocracy. It is blasphemy and it is world revolution in the name of Christ. The despotism of the "Christian State" is being prepared by "Christianizing" the spirit of the people with the Pharisaism of the kingdom of God on earth. What treachery to blaspheme the Faith and desecrate the earth in the name of our Saviour! What grinding depravity to plot mass famine and universal war under the auspices of the Gospel of Christ! What degeneracy to horrify the people with fear hysteria of a Communist State, and then force upon their prepared minds the acceptance of the same criminal conspiracy with the name, Kingdom of God! What deceit to foist upon the world a natural Messiah to unify the nations into total bondage against a self-inflicted disease called Communism! What chicanery to so blot the conscience of the world with the propaganda of a kingdom of peace to come that collective humanity literally strives for this promised utopia that will completely destroy them, body and soul! What trickery to punish the world into accepting a false Christ as "the only hope of a dying world!" This "Christ State" that the world is being led to is not the much-talked-about anti-christ as represented by the social and so-called Communist revolution, as British Israel would lead us to believe via Scofield. The final "Christ" is to be the brotherhood "Christ," which at this time is veiled with Americanism and the kingdom of God on earth. The "Good Christ" of British Israel World Revolution is to have the benevolence of the World Brotherhood Kingdom of God as contrasted to the obvious evil of its Communist instrument. The kingdom of God on earth is (one force) World Revolution. On its left it has the social cataclysm of World Communism. On its right it has the spiritual stratagem of "Fundamental Christianity." Out of this conflict is to emerge the triumphant "Christian State." Out of the feigned persecution of the kingdom of Israel after the flesh, Divine Intervention will destroy the enemies of the kingdom, and the work of Communism and the social revolution will be finished, giving way to the perfect "peace" of the Cosmic Christ.

In a British Israel publication entitled "The Morning Cometh" we see how Russia is used in the scheme as a temporary desolator and then removed. We quote, "When Russia has completed her part in the purpose for which 'the three heads of eagles' were raised...she herself as one of the three heads and part of the image of Daniel II and the 'second beast' of Daniel 7:5 will be destroyed, as God states that he will 'incite you (Gog) and induce you, and bring you up from the far north and lead you to the hills of Israel,' where at Armageddon he will destroy Gog (Russia) and his army for their love of cruelty and anti-God and anti-Israel activities." End of quote.

The despotism of "the Christ" cannot be seen because the hope of natural Israel is salvation from Communism. The darkness of the sham benevolence of the kingdom of God World State cannot be seen beyond the brightness, intensified to blindness, of the world wide "Crusade for Christ," the limitations of which are legion. The saturation of the conscience with the expectation that "Jesus is coming" telescopes and funnels all desperation toward the peaceful Theocracy of God. The world is not aware of the nature of this kingdom of God on earth nor that it is being forced upon it. Christianity in form and name is being emphasized to the extremities of the earth to mask the most Satanic deception of all ages. "Christianity," "Christianity" everywhere, and no truth can be found in it. This is the spiritual deceit of British Israel and this is the spiritual revolution that has overwhelmed our people. This is the spiritual Communism that is not exposed and it is the true World Revolution. The scheme of the British Empire to erect the world spiritual state is to first ravish the earth with Communism and then force the "redemption" of the kingdom of God upon the people that it has ravished. The hope of spiritual Israel is eternal salvation through Christ. The hope of British Israel is an occult theocracy that will enslave the body and kill the soul.

Richard DeHaan says on page 22 of his booklet THE COMING GOLDEN AGE (this booklet is mass distributed free -- why??) and I quote: "His (Christ's) Kingdom has not yet come..I repeat, it (his will) has not yet been done." End of quote. Indeed Christ's kingdom (Gospel) has not been revealed to the world of Pharisaism that is looking and expecting physical rewards and blessings to be derived from the Christian Faith. But there is Scriptural proof that the kingdom of God and/or kingdom of Heaven has been fulfilled in Christ as predicted by the prophets. "Those things, which God before had showed by the mouth of all his prophets, that Christ should suffer, he hath so fulfilled...which God hath spoken by the mouth of all his prophets since the world began...and all the prophets from Samuel and those that follow after, as many as have spoken, have likewise foretold of these days" (Acts 3:18, 21, 24). The context shows clearly that the days mentioned are the present days (from Christ to the end of the world) and therefore the subject and object of all the prophecies is Jesus Christ.

It is a simple deduction to conclude that if Christ has not fulfilled all the prophecies, then He is not the Messiah and indeed very God. But the New Testament writers say rhythmically "this is that" spoken of by the prophets. In Acts 2:16-17 Peter said "But this is that which was spoken by the prophet Joel; and it shall come to pass in the last days, saith God, I will pour out of my Spirit upon all flesh." Peter says that the kingdom of spiritual regeneration has come as it was foretold. People who blindly follow the Millennial Cultists (alias modern-day Judaizers) should take note that they exalt the name of Christ but deny His divinity by denying that He established salvation and grace to the whole world, in fulfillment to all that was foretold. Salvation and grace to all men is the kingdom of God. The prophets foretold a universal salvation; a world of the spirit. They did not predict a natural Messiah to head a world wide civil government, but the rabbis led the people away from Christ by teaching them the coming of a natural Messiah and an earthly glory. And when God came in Christ with the message of eternal salvation instead of temporal grandeur they rejected Him and His kingdom. This same deceit of an earthly kingdom is now heralded around the world as Christianity.

Christianity is not civil power nor is it in conflict with civil power, but it is in conflict with the spiritual darkness that has darkened the world in the name of Jesus Christ. World revolution under the cloak of the kingdom of God on earth is a universal system of false doctrine which is enslaving the world in the name of Christ and under the pretense of the Gospel. Until Americans recognize the meaning of the fantastic growth of this new "Christianity" they shall not identify their enemies, which are not in the streets but appear as an angel of light in our churches. Conversely, if they come to understand that the kingdom of God on earth to come that they hear so much about is not the kingdom of righteousness established by Christ, then they shall at once understand the deeper and hidden World Revolution and recognize its every footprint both past and future.

An appeal to the natural man is the basis of all heresy opposed to the revelation of Jesus Christ. The sounding of a future world peace is sweetness to a world blinded on the Pharisaism of British Israel. What the victims of this deceit do not understand is that the builders of the New Age are the corrupters of this one, and they conspire in the name of our Saviour.

The kingdom of God which answered the hope of Israel was and is a spiritual development not limited to history but beyond it. The kingdom of God was not extended to man to please his carnal nature but to save him from it. The kingdom of God was never intended to exalt the human race but to redeem it through Grace. "To him give all the prophets witness, that through his name whosoever believeth in him shall receive remission of sins." Acts 10:43.

We cannot love the world and love Christ at the same time. We cannot have the heavenly hope of eternity and a temporal hope of a millennial age on earth. We cannot place our trust and faith equally in the Creator and the creation. We cannot serve both God and mammon and we must know the difference for the mystery of iniquity appears as an angel of light. "Woe unto you, scribes and Pharisees, hypocrites! For ye shut up the kingdom of heaven against men: for ye neither go in yourselves, neither suffer ye them that are entering to go in." (Matthew 23:13). And so it is that Israel after the flesh persecutes Israel after the spirit and they would keep Spiritual Israel out of the kingdom of Christ by substituting the kingdom of man in Christ's name.

The kingdom message propaganda is advancing the silent and hidden world revolution with its faked righteousness which shall burst into open despotism once it moves the faith of mankind toward the materialism of a universal God-state and past the point of no return to the true Gospel. Behind the pious mask of this new "Christianity" are the dead bodies of millions, but all is not over. There is in the making "the Judgment of the nations" and its "great tribulation," in which genocide is incidental to a worldwide holocaust which is the prelude to "The World Tomorrow."

The work of Christ is complete for Spiritual Israel and the rest are blinded. The work of British Israel (natural Israel) is deceit and Satan's Christian State is their planned reward. Through the Creator, man gains eternal salvation. Through the creation man is condemned. The world without the redemption of Jesus Christ is void. Though it be called the kingdom of God, the creation cannot become God. St. Paul says in Phil. 3:3, "For we are the circumcision which worship God in the Spirit, and rejoice in Christ Jesus and have no confidence in the flesh."

The imperialism of the British Empire is hidden beneath its world "Crusade for Christ." The religio-political propaganda says that the Anglo-Saxons and the Jews in general are Israel but Britain in particular is the Covenant Nation and therefore ordained to rule the Universal Kingdom of God intended to arise out of the chaos of "wars and rumors of wars." Cannot we begin to see the old Aryan heresy with its denial of the deity of Jesus Christ as the basis of British Israelism, Nazism and all "chosen" or "master race" propaganda? The sedition of the kingdom message propaganda, which moves over America and the world unabated was prepared for by the wide diffusion of "Fundamental Christianity" (Millennialism) with all of its latent errors, and in all of its forms. The propaganda of the kingdom of God on earth carnalizes the Christian hope and destroys nations in the name of Christ. By its own arguments British Israel insists that salvation is of the flesh. The hope of Spiritual Israel is salvation from sin and spiritual blindness.

If the Lord of the World becomes a British sovereign he shall be crowned upon the spiritual deceit of the kingdom of God on earth. The mask of Christianity covers the most tyrannical plot in history, to herd the people into abject slavery. The spiritual Church must be in total war with the imperial church which hides the Union Jack behind the Cross and the Christian Flag. We have entered the good fight. It is the Israel of God versus the Israel of this world and Our Lord has won. Out of the darkness of our calamity we see the risen Christ and we brandish the sword of the spirit with our battle hymn...Onward Christian Soldiers.

Nothing is plainer to a sober Bible student than that the kingdom of Christ is simply the whole company of those redeemed by his blood from the days of Adam till the end of the world.

Jesus rebuked the Pharisees in Matthew 23:13 for shutting "up the kingdom of heaven against men." How could the Pharisees of Christ's time shut up the kingdom of God if it was not to come to earth until another age, and indeed why would the Pharisees want to close the kingdom to humanity if it was to fit their depraved and carnal minds?

Today the same Pharisaism shuts up the kingdom of Grace by substituting a kingdom of flesh. They exalt the name of Christ but deny His Gospel. They expand Christianity in form and outward appearance but inwardly they harbor deceit and lies.

Salvation, not carnal, earthly rule, was the meaning of the kingdom of God from the very beginning. The Apostle Matthew tells us that the angel addressed Joseph as the son of David and commanded that the child who was to be born of Mary should be called Jesus (Joshua), for "he shall save his people from their sins." Saving sinners is a kingdom of grace and the Apostles understood that entering the kingdom of God was the same as salvation from sin. When Christ likened entering the kingdom to a camel going through the eye of a needle, the disciples said, "Who then can be saved?" Matthew 19:23-25. Jesus agreed with them that entering the kingdom and being saved are the same thing, for he continued: "With men this is impossible; but with God all things are possible." Verse 26.

The nation of Israel once received a king in violation of God's will. And the Lord said to Samuel "they have rejected me, that I should not reign over them." I Samuel 8:5-9. If it had been God's purpose to glorify the Commonwealth of Israel why would the demand for a natural Messiah displease Him? The reason is that throughout the whole Bible the throne of David is not a symbol of Jewish, carnal rule, but the symbol of the rule of Christ in His saving and sanctifying power.

The government of God as predicted by Isiah in Isiah 9:6 is fulfilled in the Rulership of Christ in His kingdom of righteousness. We become co-rulers in this kingdom of the faith through the grace of Christ. Our faith, as was Abraham's, is imputed to us for righteousness.

It is important to recognize that the political kingdom of British Israel is contrary to and opposed to the Gospel of Christ. It is easy to see through the prophets of the kingdom of God "Christian" Pharisaism or Judeo-Christianity that the fear of punishment for the violation of God's laws is the basis for the New World Order. Punishment of the physical man answers the demand for justice in the New World under God's Law. Contrary to this, those of the new birth, the inner man, obeys God through the love of righteousness. "And, indeed, this is already sin, to desire those things which the law of God forbids, and to abstain from them through fear of punishment, not through love of righteousness." Quoted from CITY OF GOD, page 21.

The simple Gospel of Christ offers eternity in righteousness for those who believe in the saving grace of the Lord and Saviour Jesus Christ. The Gospel of British Israel would force its political-theology upon the world with control of the interplay of the world stage of events. As it tears the nationhood out of country after country with Communism, Nazism and Zionism, it makes complete their destruction by hiding itself behind the opaque refraction of a pretentious anti-communism advancing under the pseudonym of Christian Conservatism with the hidden destiny of the British World Commonwealth State. It is a monster who has named itself Israel. Under the pretense of anti-communism and of offering hope to the people it despises, British Israel with its "Christian" propaganda is moving the people toward total tyranny with the help and consent of the people themselves. They will not be saved out of their "tribulation," as promised by the masters of this fake righteousness. After the vapor and illusion of this "Christian" propaganda has tricked the world into universal devastation under the guise of the "Great Tribulation," the survivors will awaken to the identity and meaning of "Divine Intervention." They will then know that the veiled kingdom of God on earth is the rulership of the world by the British Empire, and that their task in the "New World" is that of a vassal state.

The kingdom of God on earth is an appeal to the natural man and likewise it imposes upon the natural man under the pretext of enforcement of God's laws. In the supernatural kingdom of Israel the inner man serves the living God with happiness and joy in the Holy Spirit, neither asking physical blessings nor rewards but praising their Lord who has saved them from sin.

British Israel is a World Government Religion which hides behind Christianity in order to destroy the hope of the world in the grace of Christ. It has murdered millions of Christians and debased the faith of millions more. It has scourged the earth with war and famine in the name of Christ. It has spread over America under the guise of truth in order to enlist Americans in the destruction of their faith and their nation. It "opposes" Communism in order to establish it universally. It is "Christian" Communism and it is the invisible World Revolution.

The Israel of God is the oneness of faith in Jesus Christ. Spiritual Israel is subject to the Creator. Physical Israel is earth bound and it would become as God by the deification and glorification of man. It seeks to perpetuate hope beyond death through endless incarnation. If man is immortal he must express himself in endless eternity. To think himself immortal he must deny the personal God and his subjection to the Saviour, Jesus Christ. Satan fell because he would not humble himself to His creator. The spirit of man aspires to immortality of the flesh because he is unregenerate and does not know the eternal glory extended through Christ.

British Israel has raised up cult after cult to separate humanity from the personal God, Jesus Christ. It has its Joseph Smiths, its Mary Baker Eddys, its Edgar Caseys, its William Pelleys, its Jean Dixons, its Manly Halls, its Rutherfords and its Russells, and other sub-cults which catch the excited victims of world revolution. It is certain that these cults would term voodooism as heathen superstition and paganism. Nevertheless, they are just as deceived and separated from Jesus Christ.

Those British Israel sub-cults seem to appeal to a nebulous "Christ" and they confuse the relationship of man to God. In unison they deny the Divinity of Christ and make the Gospel of Grace of none effect. Their appeal is man's dependency upon man instead of upon God. They control their cults by controlling their spirit (belief) and their spirit is the kingdom of God on earth.

If Americans would be quickened to the source of their madness, they must recognize the cancerous mind control of the kingdom message propaganda. They must look up to see the eternal riches of the personal Saviour who sits on His throne in Heaven. We can become the adopted sons of God by partaking of the sovereign Grace of our Sovereign Lord and Saviour. We have a king and we have a kingdom made without hands eternal in the Heavens.

What Americans have gained through the brute force of hard labor and ingenuity they are now losing through their churches in the name of Christ and under the pretense of Christianity. The kingdom of God on earth World Government Religion is preparing a commune world government dictatorship behind the mask of benevolence. This planned World Theocracy is based upon absolute mind control brought about by enacting secular history to merge with a perverted Pharisaic scheme of Bible prophecy. If Americans can decode and decipher this kingdom message propaganda they can see and understand the most deceptive grandstand treason of all ages. Furthermore they can understand how this propaganda turns nations into self destruction after it has veiled their eyes and hearts with the smoke screen of the kingdom of God on earth. Once the malignancy of the kingdom message separates its victims spiritually from the supernatural kingdom of Christ, they cannot save their national sovereignty, nor will they ever uncover the source of its collapse. At best, would-be patriots exhaust themselves fighting created fictions such as Atheism, Darwinism, civil chaos and so on ad infinitum, not realizing that their very actions with which they intend to right the social order precipitates the conflict out of which will emerge the synthesis of One World.

This kingdom of God World Government heresy certainly did not originate with the leaders of the reformation. This should be meaningful to at least a few who base their faith on the interpretation of the Gospel of any one of the reformers. "All great Reformation leaders broke not only with Catholicism but also Judaism, which also meant breaking with chiliasm (Millennialism or the kingdom of God on earth)." This quote was taken from John Calvin, Calvin's Institutes, 1536, Book III, Section XXXV, Paragraph 5.

Yes, this self-styled neo-orthodox Christianity was anathema to Jesus Christ, to the Apostles, and later to the reformers because at their respective ages they recognized the earthly kingdom heresy as corrupted Judaism. This same corrupted Judaism rejected the Lord of Lords and His kingdom of grace. It killed the prophets and is contrary to all men. I Thess. 2:14. Simply by changing its name to Fundamental Christianity it has become the vortex of world revolution under the pretense of Christianity. To its proselytes we warn that this Pharisaism, based on the carnality of fleshly Israel is keeping you out of the kingdom of grace and when it has destroyed your faith it will enslave your body. Under deception, pretense, fraud and murder it intends to beguile humanity into world government in the name of Christ.

St. Paul said in Romans 13:1,2, "Let every soul be subject into the higher powers. For there is no power but of God: the powers that be are ordained of God. Whosoever therefore resisteth the power, resisteth the ordinance of God: and they that resist shall receive to themselves damnation." Notice he said that the powers that be are ordained of God, not that they are God. Christ further clarified the distinction between the natural and the supernatural, flesh and spirit, when he said render unto God the things that are God's and unto Caesar the things that are Caesar's. Luke 20:25. Never can Caesar become God nor a world political state become spiritual Israel. The essence of truth is that God is the Creator and the world is the creation, and we are not admonished to worship Israel after the flesh (the creation) simply because it says it is God. The World Kingdom of Israel after the flesh is not God's kingdom of righteousness and never shall the two be one. We cannot trust in fleshly Israel and yet be born of the spirit of God. We must serve the living Jesus Christ and His gospel of grace. We must condemn the political theocracy of British Israel and its kingdom of race, and we must know the difference.

What does it profit Americans to recognize political and social Communism if they cannot recognize Spiritual Communism? Spiritual Communism is the kingdom of God on earth. The development of this spiritual control (faith in the earthly kingdom) renders futile all presumed patriotism. Right action is not divided against itself and if it be right action it must be based upon the conscious reality of the distinction of the spirit of Christ and the spirit of Satan. The grace of Christ is like vistavision to the new man after a world of total darkness. The inner conflict and fusion of the kingdom of God and the kingdom of this world is at once resolved, and no spiritual stratagem such as the kingdom message propaganda can cloud his perspective nor beguile him into self extinction.

The spirit man is in control of physical man and if physical man seeks self preservation he must seek first the kingdom of God. If man has the spirit of Christ, he can recognize truth as distinct from the spirit of subterfuge.

Spiritual darkness inflicts divisions among men and within men. What it separates from the truth it unites in error and it draws its very existence from the truth that it would corrupt.

The world spiritual state seeks to establish its absolute control of humanity by identifying with and parasiting upon the truth of the Gospel of Christ.

But the sovereignty of Jesus Christ is absolute. Through His death and resurrection He removed the iniquities of His people. It was predicted in Isaiah 54:14, "In righteousness shall thou be established." In Matthew 3:15 Jesus said before His baptism, "it becometh us to fulfill all righteousness."

The universal righteousness extended to the whole earth by Jesus is not the civil power of an autocratic state. The kingdom of righteousness is imputed to the faithful who believe and trust in the personal God, Jesus Christ.

Man cannot extend himself nor save himself. He must be saved by his Creator. Man must recognize the deity and pre-existence of Jesus Christ and look to Him for eternal redemption. "In the beginning was the Word, and the Word was with God, and the Word was God." John 1:1. "And the Word was made flesh, and dwelt among us..." John 1:14. Verse 17 of John says ..."grace and truth came by Jesus Christ." Christ is the giver of an eternal kingdom of righteousness (grace and truth); He is not concerned with a Pharisee world who can understand only a temporal political world government. Only the carnal depravity of Judaism would exchange the pleasure of the flesh for a season in exchange for eternity with God. "And the world passeth away, and the lust thereof..." I John 2:17.

The kingdom cultists consistently deny the deity (trinity) of Jesus Christ and they are therefore cut off from His saving grace. "For there are three that bear record in heaven, the Father, the Word, and the Holy Ghost: and these three are one." I John 5:7. They only use the name of Christ in order to disguise their contempt for Him.

Let us say further that the larger segment of kingdom on earth religionists express belief in the deity of Jesus Christ but they absolutely deny Him when they deny His kingdom of grace, placing their expectations and faith in a future temporal messianic kingdom of the human race. Their proclamations that Jesus is the Christ is lip service to a deceptive spirit which seeks a new earth instead of Christ's kingdom of righteousness, which is the only fulfillment of the prophets concerning God's plan for humanity of all ages. Any hope in a future fulfillment of the prophets concerning the kingdom of God is a rejection of Christ as the Messiah who has come and established His kingdom of salvation and grace. The kingdom of grace is spirit and supernatural and is ruled over by God Who is a spirit. (See John 4:24.) The kingdom of race is flesh and blood and is ruled over by a political messiah. The first is of God and the second is of this world.

The natural man longs for social justice and Judaism alias Fundamental Christianity promises just this with the advent of a natural messiah garbed with supernatural fakery. The Christianity established by Christ seeks only the kingdom of righteousness which is separate and distinct from the carnality of the civil order of humanity. "Having begun in the Spirit, are ye now made perfect by the flesh?" Gal. 3:3.

The denial of the Trinity and deity of Christ the personal Saviour by the millennialists is nowhere more explicit than when they follow the pied piper C. I. Scofield in declaring that large numbers of Jews will be saved during a future "Great Tribulation" without the presence of the Holy Spirit. Can their demented minds not see that this is blasphemy?

If the rumbling of the earth means a prelude to the messianic World State to the carnal minds of Judeo-Christianity, it means to the Christian only another chapter in the ages of time of the attempted erection of the God-state.

Peace on earth for a thousand years is a pretense of Satan's Christian State. Whom the spirit of darkness has beguiled to the abyss of spiritual depravity it seeks to coerce finally and completely away from God by the manipulation of the nations into a fictitious supernatural theocracy.

It is the satanic deceit of British Israel to blame the death ("judgment") of nations on Jesus Christ. It is a depraved lust for spiritual power that would pretend to Christ while manipulating His name to the leadership of world revolution.

Peace with God does not mean peace on earth. "For we are the circumcision, which worship God in the spirit, and rejoice in Christ Jesus, and have no confidence in the flesh." Phil. 3:3. To look at the chaotic social order and world unrest and reason that it is so because Christ has not conquered Satan is to reject the triumph of Jesus Christ on the Cross. Here again the natural man seeks only the harmony of a flesh and blood kingdom and he naturally equates physical blessings with the Christian faith. Christianity is not the society of man, good or bad. It is the spirit man, the inner man who partakes of the limitless joys of the kingdom of grace in the midst of the madness of human existence. The natural man pursues his carnal nature to self denial of the riches of a righteous faith. In search for an ordered paradise his lettered mind escapes the spirit of God. He is not able to transpose figurative representations to the quickening reality of a glorious kingdom which filled the whole earth. His literal mind shields him from his Saviour whose triumphant kingship is universally complete. "Who also hath made us able ministers of the New Testament; not of the letter, but of the spirit: for the letter killeth, but the spirit giveth life." II Cor. 3:6.

The triumph of Christ over Satan is not a future event to Christianity. "Now is the judgment of this world: now shall the prince of this world be cast out." John 12:31. "Of judgment, because the prince of this world is judged." John 16:11. Satan was conquered at the Cross and bound within the limits of subjection to the Sovereign Christ. Cannot the self contradictory Jew proselyte kingdom on earth cultists see that their expectations of a future world political messianic social order denies them the present reality of God's kingdom of salvation and righteousness? If they would look back at the Cross for a minute they could see the disgrace of a phony thousand year political theocracy. The purpose of the Cross was to make an end of sins for humanity and to bring in everlasting righteousness as was predicted in Daniel 9:24. Everlasting righteousness is not an autocratic World Government. It is the kingdom of grace extended to all men. The mission of Christ was to bear the sins of man and to make intercession that man may enter a righteous kingdom through the blood of Christ. Isaiah 53:12. "Thou shalt call his name Jesus, for he shall save his people from their sins." Matthew 1:21,25. 159 THE UNION JACK To the proselytes of Judaism who deny the deity of Christ (that Christ is God) they have forfeited their salvation in exchange for the promise of a New Age of Social Security. "Neither is there salvation in any other: for there is none other name under heaven given among men, whereby we must be saved." Acts 4:12. Jesus Christ is both God and Saviour to Christians.

The social justice of a future golden age can come only when Christ conquers Satan at the battle of Armageddon, say the proselytes of Judeo-Christianity. Christ said, "I have overcome the world." John 16:33. Christians are conquerors (Romans 8:37) even to victory (I Cor. 15:57) and they reign with Christ, though not with carnal weapons but "This is the victory that overcometh the world, even our faith." I John 5:4.

In our development of the phenomenon of spiritual control we have sought to demonstrate that it is the inner man which motivates our being and therefore the control of the spirit man is the hidden meaning of world revolution. This is not religious fanaticism, it is the very essence of our being. While Americans are assaulted with social chaos and all manner of overt pressure, they are being insinuated with the persuasive guile that God's redemption for man will come in the form of a bodily paradise.

If we cannot bring ourselves to the realization that mind control is the most absolute despotism, then we cannot initiate a sustained attack upon the forces that are beguiling us into a collective religio-political world state. Not suspecting such Satanic intrigue, we naturally focus ourselves on those visible forces which seem to threaten our physical security. The illusion of the social revolution is that it is not the substance of our confusion but is the catalyst to force humanity into a state of mind which will leave no alternative but "Christ." Having been conditioned to the vitiated and depraved heresy that Christianity means bodily redemption, there is no possible way that the herd of humanity can understand that they are being driven into a World Government trap through spiritual deceit.

Through the deceit of the kingdom message the spiritual paradise is turned to flesh and blood, corrupting the inner man to spiritual darkness and self destruction. The kingdom on earth propaganda identifies man physically and spiritually with the earth and gradually blots out all inclination or inner imperative to aspire for the heavenly hope. Once man is imbued with this spiritual control the lie of God's political kingdom on earth becomes for him truth and he becomes a citizen of the world state which he presumes he is against. He cannot extricate himself from it, for he does not imagine that he is controlled by it because he cannot see an armed guard at his door. It matter not one's political views, whether he thinks to militant conservatism or radical liberalism, if his faith is the World Government religion kingdom of God. Political freedom (though a complete fiction) has a show of genuineness if the religion of a people is World Government.

"Now faith is the substance of things hoped for, the evidence of things not seen." Hebrews 11:1. By definition substance is that which underlies all outward manifestation. Substance is the real, unchanging essence or nature of a thing. Therefore we are not engaging in philosophical drivel when we confront the reality that the kingdom of God World Government religion is the substance of world revolution.

If faith in natural Israel is the substance of our spirit and the end of our hope we are aliens in our land and have "done despite unto the Spirit of grace."

British Israel world government seeks to move men away from their Creator by moving their spiritual allegiance back to the terrestrial Israel. They would reverse the triumph of Christ by changing the shadow, which was the earthly kingdom, into the substance which is the Christian faith. When the allegorical prefiguration of terrestrial Israel becomes the celestial Israel of God in the hearts of men, they have unwittingly rejected the kingship of Christ. If in man's conscience he reverts to the shadow of carnal Israel, he rejects the immortality of the kingdom of grace. He has sinned against God. Faith in temporal Israel is retrogression from Christ's Heavenly kingdom. One cannot divide his faith between the kingdoms of this world and the kingdom of God. The first is flesh and the second is spirit. "If ye be risen with Christ, seek those things which are above, where Christ sitteth on the right hand of God." Col. 3:1-3.

To the carnal world who seeks peace on earth without grace, we refer back to the Cross in order to see the triumphant Christ. "The last enemy that shall be destroyed is death." I Cor. 15:26. If the last enemy is destroyed already then the kingship of Christ is sovereign. It is not a future event (not a military battle). "Forasmuch then as the children are partakers of flesh and blood, he also himself likewise took part of the same; that through death he might destroy him that had the power of death, that is the devil." Hebrews 2:14. "But is now made manifest by the appearing of our Saviour Jesus Christ, who hath abolished death, and hath brought life and immortality to light through the gospel:" II Timothy 1:10.

To a Judeo-Christian world which looks for political peace as implicit of Christ's kingship, we can only say they have not seen (with their hearts) the kingdom of God. Christ rules with a rod of iron and death has no more dominion over Him. Romans 6:9. To say that Our Lord must yet conquer Satan is to say that He died in vain.

Christ is not Caesar nor did He come to take the power of Caesar. Had His supposed crime been sedition then Pontius Pilate could not have given Christ over to the Jews. After questioning Christ repeatedly about His kingship, Pilate understood that Christ did not come to usurp the civil and political power of Rome, but that He was a righteous king and that according to His own testimony His mission was to "bear witness unto the truth." John 18:37.

After Pilate said "I find in him no fault at all" he turned Christ over to the Jews. Even the Jews understood that Christ claimed to be the Messiah and indeed very God, because they accused him of blasphemy in making himself God. John 10:33. Indeed His claim of His own deity caused them to murder Him.

The triumph of Christ is that He is Lord and Saviour. The peace of Christ is not the carnal felicity expected by a Judaized world. The peace of the living God is the perfectly ordered and harmonious enjoyment of God, and of one another in God.

The kingdom of Christ is righteousness. But with righteousness shall He judge...and He shall smite the earth with the rod of His mouth, and with the breath of His lips shall He slay the wicked. Isaiah 11:4,5. The sword of the Lord is the sword of the spirit and the Gospel is the power of God. The Gospel is God's power of salvation and he who cannot be saved by the Gospel cannot be saved via earthly Jerusalem.

But when has the wolf dwelled with the lamb and the lion, and when has the child played on the hole of the asp? Isaiah 11:6-8. To the children of the flesh this tranquil picture is a paradise earth which is the end of their hope. To the children of the promise this is not the end of their faith, but it is a description of earthly tranquility, which in prophetic fashion, God has set forth by the figure of earthly peace and harmony to demonstrate the abundance of spiritual peace that identifies the state of mind and the repose of the soul in the kingdom of Christ.

The children of the desolate cannot see the substance of the kingdom of God through the shadow of temporal Israel. Being ignorant of the righteousness of God, the children of natural Israel seek after the transient pleasure of a self-righteous kingdom of man on earth.

"For ye are all the children of God by faith in Christ Jesus." Gal. 3:26. This does away with any identification of Christianity with the racial and national Judaism of British Israel and its spirit of Communism alias kingdom of God on earth.

If the British Empire is able to establish out of its royalty a king of the world who pretends to be Christ, surely there will be an attempt by them to destroy completely and finally the power of the Gospel, especially II Cor. 5:16, which says, "Wherefore henceforth know we no man after the flesh; yea, though we have known Christ after the flesh, yet now henceforth know we Him no more." This does away with a worldly throne and the supranational political messiah of British Israel.

Triumphant Jesus Christ is the Spirit of the Israel of God. A collective world state of British Israel is the spirit of Communism.

Political Communism is built with the money of Anglo-American finance under the pretense of Communist Russia. Spiritual Communism is built with the same finance under the pretenses of God's kingdom on earth. The first is obviously revolutionary. The second has the mask of Christianity concealed within American churches and expanded with innocent zeal as the Gospel of Jesus Christ.

To reject political Communism and accept Spiritual Communism is to cast all against ourselves. We cannot prevail against Communism if we lust after it in our hearts. We cannot gain the promise of the Israel of God until we have seen the glory of the triumphant Christ.

We appeal to people of America whose "new faith" is based on the traditions of the Pharisees -- that is, the kingdom of God on earth. We insist that the harmony of New Testament Christianity demands that Christ is the center of all prophecy and the end of the law and the prophets.

Many people are trying to reach Christ by traveling the road of tradition that rejected Him as the Saviour of the world. Their excessive literalism, superficial study, and emotional presuppositions leads them away from the literally spiritual kingdom of salvation into a swamp of contradictory monstrosities which is Christian in name only.

An appeal to the Gospel of Christ, to the early Church history and to the reformers and we find from none of them a basis for believing that God's plan for man is a theocratic political kingdom on earth, not in this age or any other.

The New Covenant or new dispensation is God's revelation of Himself to man. The physical death of Jesus Christ with its attendant agony does not teach that the blessings of Christ are physical, but spiritual regeneration.

The blood of Christ does not mix with the race of man but atones for his sin and gives him the power of a new life, redeemed again to his creator.

The study of the New Age millennium is not a casual academic discussion as it postpones the deity, the lordship and redemptive work of the Lord Jesus Christ. The doctrine of the kingdom age paradise relegates the Church of Jesus Christ to a "parenthesis age" to be followed by still another unbiblical new covenant. If there is to be a national or international salvation, then there is to be a new covenant. Where is it?

We must remember that the Bible is an Oriental book translated from Hebrew, Aramic, and Greek. We know that we must use care in interpreting it into the thought world of our time. The best way to study the Bible is to study the whole book, keeping in mind the times and conditions of culture under which it was composed and the intention of the writer. This is the way to understand any writing. For example, if the Book of Revelation had not been in highly figurative and symbolic form, it would have caused a certain blood bath by the Romans upon first century Christians who had already undergone great tribulation. But instead the Revelation of John meant nothing to the civil power of Rome, but it showed to the Christians the glory of the Lordship of Christ over His redeemed.

The emotions which surround one's faith in the kingdom message are highly sensitive because in most cases the doctrine comes from people whom we deeply love and respect, such as relatives or trusted ministers. We are insinuated with a vicarious religion without foundation based on our own search for Christ.

What every contender for the faith should know is that our only substitute is Jesus Christ and no philosophy of man and no cunning of the devil can disturb it.

It is the duty of man to search his own salvation and he will find that his spiritual experience of the Christian faith does not guarantee him a perfect world order in temporal affairs of this life, but will restore to him the lost estate through the blood of Christ.

The kingdom message that is as thick as the air we breathe has deceived Americans away from Jesus Christ for the hope of an earthly kingdom yet to come. The propaganda denies us our Saviour and clouds our reason as to our loyalty to our country. The doctrine of the coming world Israelite political state confuses our perspective of the Israel of God and distorts our sense of conservatism.

It is interesting to note that our Lord actually rejected the earthly kingdom in reply to the question regarding the woman with seven husbands. The story is given in Matthew 22:23-28 and Mark 12:18-27. The Pharisees were referring to this prophecy of Enoch that the saints in Messiah's reign should live till they had begotten thousands of children. Therefore, they inquired which of the woman's seven husbands would be her husband in the Messiah's kingdom.

In reply, Jesus told them plainly, "ye do err, not knowing the scriptures, nor the power of God. For in the resurrection they neither marry, nor are given in marriage, but are as the angels of God in heaven." Matthew 22:29-30. In other words, Jesus repudiated this whole idea of an earthly, carnal kingdom of God and transferred its expectations to the eternal rest of the saints in Heaven in a purified and spiritual manner of life.

The spirit of man that the kingdom message heresy deceives it uses to enslave and control their human temples It is self-conquest by the conquered.

The figure of ancient Babylon exists today in the spiritual Babylon of "Christianity." It draws not the sword to dip the blood of martyrs but seeks to cut off their spirit from God for eternity.

MASONRY AND BRITISH ISRAELISM

Undermining Christianity with Brotherhood

In our frequent references to Masonry in this text we have accused Masonry of not only complicity in the political aspects of the British Israel conspiracy but that it is the work of the Masonic Order to build the spiritual state of World Brotherhood, which is only the Masonic term for the kingdom of God on earth. If, then, we can recognize the subversive and pernicious spirit of World Brotherhood, then we can identify Masonry and British-Israelism as one.

In this section we shall dwell only for a moment on the political intrigue of Masonry but the frontal attack shall be upon the spiritual lie of the order that has deceived hundreds of thousands throughout the years.

In developing the process of the spiritual revolution or the religion of revolution we have attempted to prove that the spirit (belief in) of the New World Order is incompatible with the national sovereignty of America or any nation. If we can get this idea across then anyone can see the utter futility of political action to save our country as long as it is smothered with the spirit of the New Age. The chaos of spiritual bondage must be broken from the American people before they can save themselves politically. The captive mind cannot understand the contradiction of a constitutional government as set out in the United States Constitution and the kingdom of God on earth. Political action cannot be fruitful until the air is cleared of the propaganda of the kingdom message and/or World Brotherhood.

Masonry is the spirit of anti-Christ and the spirit of the unity of faith into a world religio-political state. While it denies with every breath the union of church and state, it is its spirit that has harmonized humanity into a collective world spiritual union. Though it takes on every political color imaginable it is of one spirit and one faith -- the Brotherhood of Man under the Fatherhood of God.

As has been said, Americans are so far removed from the truth that they can no longer identify Masonry as the spirit of anti-Christ. Masonry has changed the spirit of the American churches so that its victims cling to the name of Christian, but have the faith of brotherhood. Identification with the Christian faith is the source of power of British Israel-Masonry but we shall show that it is indeed the mystery of iniquity appearing as God.

To establish the Satanic Christian State, Masonry (which also is the arms and legs of world revolution) must amalgamate humanity into a colorless hybrid race. We quote from a publication distributed by the Edgar Cayce Foundation called THE SEARCHLIGHT Volume 14, #9, September 1962: "Though there may come those periods when there will be great stress, as brother rises against brother, as group or sect or race rises against race - yet the leveling must come..." "If there is not the acceptance in America of the closer brotherhood of man, the love of the neighbor as self, civilization must wend its way westward..." End of quote. On the hidden meaning of Americanism there is shed some light under the caption The New Order of Peace, and I quote: "The readings draw a very clear picture of the kind of world peace that will eventually be established. Reassuring is the terminology of the readings here, for they say this will come about, and that it will come about by the Spirit of God moving the hearts of men. Furthermore, the readings state that the principles in Americanism and the Masonic Order, will be the principles ruling the world!" V "For, with the changes that will be wrought, Americanism - the ism - with the universal thought that is expressed and manifested in the brotherhood of man into group thought as expressed by the Masonic Order, will be the eventual rule in the settlement of affairs in the world." "Not that the world is to become g Masonic Order, but the principles (spirit) that are embraced in the same will be the basis upon which the new order of peace is to be established...Raise not democracy nor any other name above the brotherhood of man, the Fatherhood of God." End of quotes.

Any Mason aspiring to true patriotism is a pathetic self contradiction and a slave to the "light" that he supposes that he received from Masonry.

Upon initiation into the Masonic Order the initiate becomes a citizen of the world ant as he receives more "light" in Masonry he develops the faith of world brotherhood. First he becomes a physical part of a world order which supercedes citizenship of the country of his birth. Then as the Mason becomes indoctrinated with the spirit of brotherhood his allegiance changes to the world brotherhood state and most do not realize that world brotherhood is diametrically opposed to the indefinite survival of independent nations. We have already seen that this same trickery is worked in the churches through the doctrine of the universal kingdom of God on earth. This is the same spirit of World Brotherhood and is different in name and outward form only. Often times we observe condemnations of Masonry by the kingdom message cultists. Positively this stems from spiritual deceit, because the faith of World Brotherhood is the faith in the collective salvation of man in the natural order kingdom of God. The millennialist and the Mason may believe that they are enemies but they are of one faith and one spirit. Now we repeat that if we can identify the spirit of world revolution we can know its treason under whatever name or form it may appear.

"Light and darkness are the relative terms for the operation of good and evil in humanity under human administration. All these things have to pass to make way for the new creation in which we are invited to cooperate. But before that cooperation can come we are asked to participate understandingly in the destruction of the false world order by accelerating the process of destruction, by coming out of it before it collapses..." Quoted from page 144 of the book THROUGH WORLD CHAOS TO COSMIC CHRIST. What kind of world can humanity expect from the destroyers of the faith and the murder of millions? The truth of the matter is, we must die spiritually (reject Christ and His supernatural kingdom) and if need be die physically, in order to receive the blessings of the kingdom age.

The Aquarian or kingdom age of Masonry is a concept of a new world political-spiritual order centered and controlled in the British Empire. When one is made a Mason he is a physical and spiritual world citizen and his resulting faith in the salvation of the world through brotherhood becomes his "righteousness." To him the temple of humanity collectively attains its salvation based on the righteousness of man. The ultimate paradise to him is a marriage of heaven and earth. It is glorification of man and it is "imputed to him" for righteousness by Masonry. The carnal spirit of brotherhood cannot transcend a physical earthly glory. The Empire as the possessor of this spiritual power can dominate and control humanity under the false pretense of "world service." As to "...marking the progress of the Divine Plan of Interference in the normal course of world history...The whole theme of this cosmic prophecy relates to the approach to the ultimate reality of the prophecy - the symbolic resurrection of the race. This is revealed as to be effected by the Displacement of America from the government of the Motherland and the coalescence again of the Displaced governments at the End of the Age." Quoted from pages 457 and 458 of THE GREAT PYRAMID: ITS DIVINE MESSAGE. Does the above quote not tell us that the goal of the spiritual revolution is to put America back into the British Empire?

We quote now an article taken from the official organ of The Supreme Council 33rd Degree A. & A. Scottish Rite of Freemasonry, S.J.U.S.A., published at 1735 Sixteenth Street N.W., Washington, D. C., in the NEW AGE of September 1950, page 551; from the article entitled "God's Plan In America" by C. William Smith, New Orleans, Louisiana:

"There are three plans in action in America today and they all have different purposes. The first plan is God's plan, a nonsectarian plan; the second is the Roman Catholic plan, and this is a denominational or sectarian plan, and the third is the Communistic plan, an anticapitalist plan."

"God's plan is dedicated to the unification of all races, religions and creeds. This plan, dedicated to the new order of things, is to make all things new -- a new nation, a new race, a new civilization and a new religion, a nonsectarian religion that has already been recognized and called the religion of 'The Great Light.'"

"Looking back into history, we can easily see that the Guiding Hand of Providence has chosen the Nordic people to bring in and unfold the new order of the world. Records clearly show that 95 per cent of the colonists were Nordics-Anglo-Saxons."

"Providence has chosen the Nordics because the Nordics have prepared themselves and have chosen God. They are not church worshippers, for they worship God's word--the Holy Bible. The Nordics are the great Bible-reading people of the world today, and the Nordics--Anglo-Saxons--were the first people to print the Holy Bible in great quantity, and they were known as the people of a book, that book being the Holy Bible."

"But, in order to read the Bible, it is necessary to know how to read. In the Nordic race there is no illiteracy. In Norway there has been no illiteracy for more than a hundred years. Another fact that shows clearly that the Nordics are God's chosen people this time is they are always looking for more light on the mission of life. Looking at their station of life, these great Bible-reading people should open the eyes of the world. King Gustaf of Sweden is a great light in the nonsectarian Masonic Brotherhood, and King Haakon of Norway is a Masonic light in Norway. The late King Christian of Denmark was a Masonic spirit in his Denmark; also King George of England is a Masonic light to his Anglo-Saxon people."

"Just as Providence has chosen the Jewish race--the Children of Israel--to bring into the world righteousness by carrying the 'Ten Commandments' which emphasize 'Remember the Sabbath Day and keep it holy,' so also Providence has chosen the Nordic Race to unfold the 'New

'Age' of the world--a 'Novus Ordo Seclorum.'"

"One of the first of the Nordics to reach the New World was the Viking, Leif Ericsson. He sailed from Norway to bring to his people in Iceland a new message, the message of the Christian God. But Providence moves in a mysterious way His wonders to perform, and so Leif the Lucky was sent by Providence to the New World. From the abundance of grapes found there Leif Ericsson called the place Vinland."

"It is easy to sense that Leif Ericsson was sent by the Guiding Hand of Providence to bring the Norse spirit of the 'All-Father' to the shores of the New World."

"The Nordics are the highest branch of the fifth Aryan Civilization. The Latins are of the fourth Aryan Civilization, and the American race will be the sixth Aryan Civilization. This new and great civilization is like an American Beauty rosebud, ready to open and send its wonderful fragrance to all the world."

"George Washington, Thomas Jefferson, Benjamin Franklin, John Adams, Thomas Paine and many others of the founders of the new nation in the New World were Nordics."

"Thomas Paine, the spark plug of the American Revolution, loved God but hated sectarianism. In 'These Are the Times,' he wrote: 'We have it in our power to begin the world all over again! A situation similar to the present hath not happened since the days of Noah, 'til now. The birthday of a New World is at hand.'"

"As stated before, God's Plan in America is a nonsectarian plan. Our Constitution is nonsectarian. Our great American Public Schools--God's chosen schools--are nonsectarian. The Great Spirit behind this great nation is nonsectarian."

"Our great American Public Schools have never taken away from any child the freedom of will, freedom of spirit or freedom of mind. That is the divine reason that Great God our King has chosen the great American Public Schools to pave the way for the new race, the new religion and the new civilization that is taking place in America."

"Any mother, father or guardian who is responsible for the taking away of freedom of mind, freedom of will or freedom of spirit is the lowest criminal on this earth, because they take away from that child the God-given right to become a part of God's great plan in America for the dawn of the New Age of the world." End of quotes from NEW AGE.

If anyone can read this and not grasp the meaning of race war in America and see at the same time the instrumentality of Masonry behind it, he is simply dishonest and deserves the deceit received from affiliation with the Masonic Order. He who does not want the whole truth does not deserve any truth. Albert Pike agrees with this in a negative sense, in that he says that those Masons who do not aspire to esoteric or hidden Masonry deserve to be mislead and in fact are mislead as to the real meaning of the Order. To this, we add, is the understatement of all time. Albert Pike says in MORALS AND DOGMA, page 220, "The whole world is but one republic, of which each nation is a family, and every individual a child. Masonry, not in anywise derogating from the differing duties which the diversity of states requires, tends to create a new people, which composed of men of many nations and tongues, shall all be bound together by the bonds of science, morality and virtue." What Pike is saying here is, that Masonry as a political institution, can fit itself to any scheme of government in order to build the one faith of the coming world kingdom. Masonry is a diversity of politics and a unity of spirit. In other words, Masonry does not conflict with its ultimate goals when it promotes "Americanism," (by Masonic definition, Americanism is World Brotherhood), at the national level and promotes internationalism (spiritual state) at the same time. The only inconsistency is in those who follow the precepts of Masonry under the auspices of Christianity, patriotism and Americanism.

There is no question but that the government of the United States is run by Masonry and the mechanical and perfunctory activities of Congress are a rubber stamp betrayal to the British Empire alias kingdom of God. The division of political parties is a farce that deceives the American people into believing they have a political choice according to the Constitution. The politics of Masonry as well as the spirit of Masonry are dedicated to the "Mother Country." The oath of allegiance of 33rd degree Masonry at the initiation rites in Seattle, Washington, May 15-17, 1941, pledges allegiance to the Supreme Council which is the Mother Council of the World, which is the Grand Lodge of England located in London. We quote the article entitled Allegiance: "The Bodies of the Ancient and Accepted Scottish Rite of Freemasonry, in the Valley of Seattle, Orient of Washington; acknowledge and yield allegiance to The Supreme Council (Mother Council of the World) of the Inspectors General Knights Commanders of the House of the Temple of Solomon of the Thirty-third Degree of the Ancient and Accepted Scottish Rite of Freemasonry of the Southern Jurisdiction of the United States of America." End of quote.

How many Masons are aware that behind the face of philanthropy Masonry is the instrument of power and subversion of and for the British Empire and that its codes and signs and symbols have a double meaning, the hidden meaning being treason to the Constitution of the United States? According to the final authority of Masonry, one Albert Pike, he says in his book MORALS AND DOGMA, page 104, "Masonry, like all the Religions, all the Mysteries, Hermeticism and Alchemy, conceals its secrets from all except the Adepts and Sages, or the Elect, and uses false explanations and misinterpretations of its symbols to mislead those who deserve only to be misled; to conceal the truth which it calls Light, from them, and to draw them away from it." On page 148 he states, "The symbols and ceremonies of Masonry have more than one meaning. They rather conceal than disclose the Truth." On page 819 Pike states, "The Blue Degrees are but the outer court or portico of the Temple. Part of the symbols are displayed there to the Initiate, but he is intentionally misled by false interpretations. It is not intended that he shall understand them; but it is intended that he shall imagine he understands them. Their true explication is reserved for the Adepts, the Princes of Masonry. ...and who so attempts to undeceive them (the mass of Masons) will labor in vain..." End of quotes. This is not anti-Masonic evidence but is the confession of Masonry itself coming from the writings of the "Universal Pontiff of Masonry."

And we realize that Albert Pike knew the Satanic deceit of Masonry when he said "whoso attempts to undeceive them labors in vain." Few there be who come to understand the synthetic brotherhood of Freemasonry and fewer ever know its allegiance is outside the United States of America.

Masonry is spiritual and political Communism dedicated to British-Jew domination of the world and is enacting the scheme of British Israel to deceive and lure the people to believe that the New Age Kingdom World Government is a plan of God.

"The Communist International and Soviet Russia stand today as monuments of the Masonic ideal of Albert Pike symbolized by the three:

Destruction - Its organization of Terror

Materialism - Its assault on Religion

Imposition - Its communist State

This is a quotation from OCCULT THEOCRACY, page 618, and we agree only with some further clarification. Destruction and terror on one hand, and peace movements on the other, are a phase of uprooting governments. We would clarify the second stage by saying that the materialism of British Israel Masonry has assaulted Christianity by identifying with it. Materialism is the religion of British Israel Masonry and is not in conflict with itself as it would have us to believe. In the third stage of imposition of the Communist State we would more accurately identify the final objective as the Communist Christian Kingdom of God of British Israel. We do not agree that the Communist State, as Russia supposedly is, is the ultimate aim of world revolution, but an embryo progenitor disguise of the same.

The aim of world revolution is to identify in form and substance with Christianity and the kingdom propaganda is carrying out this plot undetected, unopposed and unexposed. Any attempt to point at political Communism hides the identity and subversion of the other isms. Americans must realize that the spirit of anti-Christ is to be found as close to the truth as it can get.

We have repeated that moral evil operates and exists parallel to truth. Any obvious conflict of truth is only a shadow or decoy of a more concealed evil, i.e., such as Satan appearing as an angel of light. We see politics operating in the same manner. Americanism is a high sounding thought but its use is betrayal as it is promoted through Masonry. Americanism is now being used as a front for the treason of World Brotherhood.

We quote now from Foster Bailey's THE SPIRIT OF MASONRY, page 127, to demonstrate that the ultimate quest is the spiritual state and that the spiritual reality sought by Masonry is the same brotherhood kingdom of God on earth of British Israel. "The three degrees typify body, mind and spirit, the three essential parts of man. Often have we heard this. The same great trinity of stages of consciousness, and of achievements, which we enact as candidates, is being enacted by Masonry as a whole. Therein lies the significance of the present era and of the future."

"The greatest change in Masonry which has ever taken place was the transition of our order from Operative to Speculative Masonry. Pause and consider how few of us would be here tonight if Masonry were still Operative. This great group change required time and was dictated by events. When the religious reformation of the sixteenth century brought an end to the extensive ecclesiastical building programme in Europe, the usefulness and indeed the necessity of Speculative Masonry could not be long delayed. As the human race became more mental, Masonry perforce became more mental. Physical skill in building, which had been an essential prerequisite, eventually became entirely unnecessary."

"The period of Masonic history before the sixteenth century was the degree of Planetary Free Masonry. It was the physical body stage, wherein there was an absolute requirement of bodily work and bodily skill. Then came the era of the second degree for all Masonry throughout the world, the mental stage, wherein knowledge was our quest. In this era the Masonic Fraternity has passed its Fellowcraft initiation, has learned its lecture well. We now stand ready to be Raised. That is why only the substitute word is available in the world today. The lost word cannot be found until the Masonic Fraternity itself is raised. Until then we have but the reflection of a promised glory."

"Again the age of crisis comes and we find great turmoil on every side. World events rush forward. Great change impends. The sons of men have come of age. New values emerge, new tasks appear, our vision dimly sees new goals. Man the thinker rules the world. He passes on through suffering to better things. The soul of humanity is being born. The sublime degree is about to be enacted on our planet."

"So must our noble Order achieve its high destiny, even as our Master Hiram traced the course upon the board. The Great Plan for man runs true. The Grand Architect shall not be mocked. Ancient Free and Accepted Masonry shall play its part and enter through the gate and tread the Way."

"Physical Masonry became Mental Masonry.
"Mental Masonry shall become Spiritual Masonry.
"We enter now this final stage, the greatest quest of all."

"The future of masonry shall be more glorious than the past. Our destiny is greater than we have yet dared dream. The breath of God is upon our order." End of quote. Surely we can begin to see that the progression of Masonry toward the spiritual state is simply the reality of the kingdom of God on earth. Masonic Communism under the leadership of such Masons as Bela Kun of Hungary, Lenin, Trotsky and Kerensky (now in the United States of America living peacefully after his Masonic takeover of Russia) are blood brothers (spiritual and revolutionary) to Masonic British Israel "Christianity." In fact it is the spiritual and political unity of the kingdom of God which represents the synthesis of these supposed enemies (Masonic Communism and "Christianity") into the reality of their "pure doctrine of Lucifer." It is the spirit of British Israel (the kingdom message) which proclaims the collective totality of humanity in an earthly paradise, which identifies Masonic Communism and Masonic neo-Christianity as one. The state of mind (brotherhood) produced by Freemasonry disguises fictitious antagonisms (Communism versus Anti-communism), especially when veiled under different names. All revolution and war is toward the establishment of the kingdom of God British Commonwealth of the World. This "Commonwealth of Israel" is the universal Masonic Republic. Masonry is indeed the "veritable Sphinx" which is the motivator and mover of humanity into the World State. Satan's Christian state must be a spiritual as well as a political power. In our search for the perpetrators of revolution we must identify the spiritual plot in order to forestall the political advances.

We will see in esoteric Masonry the blending of opposites (male and female) into perfect harmony or equilibrium. Thus we need only to look at world revolution as it appears in the "Christ versus anti-Christ" facade in order to see its parallel and the source of its spirit. We can see also the "Christ" World State as the intended final World Brotherhood. The New Age Kingdom of God on Earth has for its goal the initiation of the human race into the ancient mysteries which it calls "the Christ." "The Christ," interpreted, is the sex force of the human male, but this aspect is veiled to the masses until the materialism (Masonry attempts to throw sand in our eyes with its hypocritical condemnation of materialism; it is itself materialism with the most emphatic definition of the word. It is what it condemns and its religion, based on the worship of generation, is the most base sort of materialism) of the New Age can come in through the preparation of the collective mind for the earthly kingdom.

If we are to understand world revolution we must look beyond the five senses and discern the spirit of revolution. It is in its spirit that we recognize treason. If our trust is in Masonic politicians and ministers we must surely fall into outer darkness and national destruction.

The Masonic spirit (deification of man in an earthly bliss) has permeated the churches of all names and creeds and imprisoned their members with the aura of its counterfeit humanitarianism. It bleeds the soul of the grace of Christ and establishes instead the spiritual darkness of the Fatherhood of God and the Brotherhood of Man. We have noted that British Israel divides issues between ideological myths of its own creation and consistently we see its Masonic Communism "fight" its Masonic Christ. This ostensible battle between the forces of evil and the forces of good is designed to evolve into complete victory for the (cosmic) Christ and the "Christian State." We see then that so-called fundamental Christianity is the vehicle and camouflage for the Universal British Empire alias kingdom of God on earth. Thus the spiritual deception of the New Age Millennium is the veil that covers the political-spiritual unification of the world under the British Empire. The theocracy of Judaic-Masonic British Israel is a political religion whose spiritual deception leads to the unification of God (God of this world) and state. It is the development of faith and allegiance in the God-state which diminishes patriotism and nationhood. It is this unconscious world faith which establishes an unavoidable inner conflict between real patriotism and that which is imagined by the followers of the political messianic kingdom of God propaganda. No true appeal to patriotism can be made until the ridiculous contradiction of World Brotherhood can be understood for its true meaning. Its politics is Communism and its spirit is the kingdom of God on earth. It is one. We cannot condemn its politics and embrace its spirit. We cannot advocate political patriotism and spiritual treason as does Masonic British Israel. If we do, we have not understood the duality of the plot which has beguiled us into self betrayal, under the cloak of Americanism. The terms patriotism, world brotherhood and/or the kingdom message are consistent by definition only with traitors and conversely if Americans aspire to patriotism they must divest themselves of the kingdom propaganda lest they too become traitors. True patriotism and true Americanism is opposed to political and Spiritual Communism. In this context we can see how the pied pipers of the right wing can give such perfect eulogies of patriotism while leaving us in a dense fog when we seek a solution to combat the evil Communism which they say is about to devour us. It seems incredible to imagine that they are profiteers and traitors whose pious prayers have disguised their half-truth hypocrisy and treason. We should begin to ask them about the Spiritual Communism called the kingdom of God on earth which is the plot of the British Empire to control the world in the name of Christ. Their reaction to this should prove that they are indeed the conspiracy themselves. They are the Communists that they accuse. Political action even with the intent of patriotism, is treason if it originates from a mind imbued with brotherhood or the kingdom of God on earth. Right action cannot originate from spiritual darkness. Patriotism is not possible from a spirit of World Brotherhood, it is only frustration and deceit. The avowed aims of "separation of church and state" does not tally with the avowed aims of the Universal Brotherhood of Man under the Fatherhood of God; the first is its (Masonry) front; the second is its plot.

It is with the establishment of this political religion in the name and form of Christianity which has caused the hope of the world to be the kingdom of God on earth. This spiritual unity of heaven and earth is the Judaised Pharisaic veil of world revolution. It is precisely the political rabbinicism which caused the blindness of the Jews, their rejection of Christ's kingdom of Grace and His subsequent crucifixion by them. It is also the source of spiritual blindness which denies the blessings of the grace of Christ and divides us against ourselves. We cannot have God The Holy Spirit and a natural messiah; we cannot have America and the kingdom of God on earth. We must choose this day between Jesus Christ and the Cosmic Christ of British Israel Masonry; we must choose this day between the United States of America and the World State Kingdom of God on Earth British Empire. We cannot serve both God and mammon; we cannot serve both the Stars and Stripes and the Union Jack.

We must keep in mind that the Empire runs the world with its servant Masonry and that Masonry knows the meaning of the anxiety of race war and revolution in America and its planned objective of World Government in the name of Christ.

Masonry is spiritual darkness and it perverts the moral sense absolutely so that its participants cannot understand its iniquity and constant war against the Christian faith. It is certain that if the mass of Masons understood the hidden meaning of the Masonic Order, many of them would disassociate themselves from its shame and hypocrisy.

Our consistent purpose, however, is to show that as a nation becomes insinuated with a spiritual force dedicated to a world state, the political realities of national sovereignty become a farce and a fictitious sham. If our thought patterns on patriotism cannot escape the treason of World Brotherhood, we are indeed aliens in our own land in pursuit of its destruction. Diabolism has never had a more dedicated ally than the American people, whom it has made world citizens via its propaganda of a coming world kingdom of God Masonic paradise. We cannot save America if our allegiance transcends the Constitution. We can pledge allegiance to the flag and die in foreign wars, but all is in vain to a captive spirit. As a nation thinks in its heart so is it.

Masonry is a religion; but it is not the Christian faith but a World Government religion based upon the deceit that man collectively can become its own God and Saviour.

It is impossible to be a Mason, spiritually, and be a Christian at the same time

It is equally impossible to reach true patriotism through Masonry.

It takes more honesty than most people have, to admit even after they are shown, that they as Masons, are enemies of the Christian faith and enemies of their country.

Of course the Order does not reveal to the mass of Masons, as shown in Pike's statements, the hidden meaning of the Order. Masonic language, ceremonies and high sounding moral principles and precepts delude its members and nonmembers by identifying with the Christian faith.

Masonry is not simply an innocent social fraternity as most of its members suppose. It is a political-religious brotherhood dedicated to the unification of the spirit of humanity into an earthly world kingdom without Jesus Christ but under the facade of Christianity.

That Freemasonry claims to be the supreme religion is voiced by Masonic authority. According to the motivators of the Order, Masonry is the supreme universal religion and all other religions including Christianity are only perversions of Masonry. Albert Pike says in MORALS AND DOGMA, Page 324, that Masonry is the foundation of all religions. Buck says in MYSTIC MASONRY, Pages 113 and 114, that Masonry is not only a universal science, but a worldwide religion, and it is the universal religion because it embraces all religions.

Masonry embraces all religions in order to build and harmonize them into the coming one world religion of the kingdom of man. Masonry also embraces all politics from Communism to Democracy in order to arrive finally into a political-spiritual synthesis. It is not inconsistent with Masonry for one Mason to be a left wing Communist and his fraternal brother to be a right wing "patriot." The very purpose of this "antagonism" is to bring final conformity out of conflict and all that is necessary to understand this, is to look at the spirit of Masonry -- it is one world under the Fatherhood of God and the brotherhood of man, alias kingdom of God on earth.

The Masonic doctrine, like Mormonism and all the materialistic kingdom on earth cults, is universality, materialism and pantheism. It blends all heresies into one synthesis. Is this not Communism? Masonry promotes Judaism as Christianity aiming at a progressive universal religion while seeking to unite in itself all faiths and the cults of every people on earth. This is collectivism of the spirit, or Spiritual Communism.

Does the Masonic religion and the many cults such as Jehovah Witnesses and the fundamentalists parade their materialism before the world? No indeed, they heap rebuke on the mythical frauds of Communism and atheism for such heresy while they are the chief promoters of One Worldism, always using Christianity to hide their deceit. The mass of kingdom cults in America do not have to take the blame and bear the shame of their treason. They have Russian Communism to use as a goat.

The constant striving, sometimes through created conflicts and sometimes through harmony, to unify the spirit of man against Divine revelation is the spirit of World Revolution. Says Mackey on page 502 of MASONIC Jurisprudence: "The universal law of nature is therefore the only law suited in every respect to be adopted as the Masonic code." Not grace through Christ but the blending of the human spirit with God's creation. In other words, the law of nature or lex naturae is the religion of the New Age.

British Israel Anglo-Saxon Freemasonry changes the truth of Christ into a lie, and exalts its lies to the position of "Divine Truth." In the view of Masonry, the Bible is a pseudo-revelation because it does not appeal to the natural man. Sotheran says, "There is no institution that has done so much, and is yet capable of such great undertakings in the future for humanity, religion and political government as Freemasonry." End of quote. It now proposes to sweep all opponents off the field and establish itself as the religion founded upon science and eternal reason. The Deist, Pantheist and Theosophist all are given welcome in its ranks, but the Christian must renounce his errors ere he can be a brother true, and a perfect man.

The following extracts from Masonic authorities betray this spirit of arrogant supremacy on the part of Freemasonry. "The sacred books of all religion, including those of the Jews and Christians, were and are no more than parables and allegories of the real secret doctrine transcribed for the ignorant and superstitious masses." "Salvation by faith and the vicarious atonement were not taught, as now interpreted, by Jesus, nor are these doctrines taught in the exoteric scriptures. They are later and ignorant perversions of the original doctrines. In the early church, as in the secret doctrine, there was not one Christ for the whole world, but a potential Christ in every man. Theologians first made a fetish of the impersonal, omnipotent divinity; and then tore the Christos from the hearts of all humanity in order to deify Jesus, that they may have a God-man peculiarly their own. All the ancient Mysteries had the true doctrine, and the early Christians had it. Masonry uncontaminated by the disciples of Loyola, had and has it also."

"Humanity in toto, then is the only Personal God and Christos is the realization or perfection of this divine Persona, an individual conscious experience. When this perfection is realized the state is called Christos with the Greeks, and Buddha with the Hindoos." "If the Christ state can be attained by but one human being during the whole evolution of the race, then the evolution of man is a farce and human perfection an impossibility."

"It also has been shown that every act in the drama of the life of Jesus, and every quality assigned to Christ, is to be found in the life of Krishna and in the legends of all the sun gods from the remotest antiquities." "Drop the theological barnacles from the religion of Jesus, as taught by him, and by the Essenes and Gnostics of the first centuries, and it becomes Masonry. Masonry in its purity, derived as it is from the old Hebrew Kabbala as a part of the great universal wisdom religion of remotest antiquity, stands squarely for universal brotherhood of man." End of quotes from MYSTIC MASONRY, pages 119, 130, 138, 139, 140.

We see from this quote that the spiritual goal of Masonry is the Christ-state and the collective spiritual unity of humanity in the kingdom of God on earth.

Persuasive logic nor factual evidence can overcome the vanity of the beguiled Masons. They must explore the spirit of Masonry in order to see its treason.

Absolute tyranny must be erected upon mind control, the process of which, is completely subtle to its subjects. The reversing of the conscience of man, through a slow process of reeducation, builds a receptive spirit to the invisible power of suggestion. Man can then become enslaved and betrayed with his own thoughts. He has indeed become a mental robot, completely unaware that he is such, and absolutely oblivious to the invisible power that controls him. So then, as man thinks to do "good" he does evil; as he proclaims Christ he denies Him; as he seeks truth he tramples it; as he strives for political freedom he engages in sedition. In all these things he has the image of respectability and he believes in his heart he is right.

Mind control motivates ideological zeal, as opposed to superficial conviction. It is the solidification of ideological zeal for the world kingdom that causes the people to unwittingly subvert their national system into a world order, and when man is divided against himself, he is divided against God and His country -- not passively but actively.

We cannot destroy Communism and promote it at the same time in the form of Masonry or "Christianity." We must understand its spirit to recognize its disguises. Its spirit is the collective kingdom of humanity without the personal redemption of Jesus Christ.

The Great Architect of Masonry is antithetical to the Jesus Christ of Revelation and no juggling or distorting of religious terms can make them the same.

Divine nature, says Masonry, is divided into male and female for the purpose of perpetual generation. Masonic religion and Masonic worship is related to the adoration of the generative powers of man. Phallicism is the religion of Masonry. Humanity is its own god and derives its deity from perpetual incarnation, says Masonry. Endless incarnation and the idea of the deity of man is the inspiration of all kingdom cults, which we have shown.

The worship of the creative principle or Great Architect negates man to God, the Creator, and moves him to the worship of God's creation. Through the development of the idea that man is of a divine nature, he begins to identify with the natural order of creation and seeks redemption and peace through the spiritual unity of man in the physical order.

The trickery of Masonry and the kingdom message propaganda is to deceive the spirit of man away from the personal God to the abode of Satan on earth after he was cast out of Heaven.

The allusions of Masonry to Heaven after death, is a veil to hide its spiritual deceit which eclipses man from God eternally. The Heavenly estate is prepared only for those regenerated through the blood of the personal God.

Those who can only see God in a perfectly ordered paradise earth are seeking God with the natural mind instead of God's revelation of himself through his kingdom of grace. They are seeking God in nature or they are seeking Divine nature and it is this "earthly" spirit that denies them the blessing they seek. Confusion as to the nature of God's kingdom sets the creation of God in the place of God. To say that the creation (man and the whole physical world), is to be God, is the spirit of the world kingdom religion- What then?

Shall we render unto Caesar the things that are God's?

If, in our minds, Heaven and earth merge, our spiritual allegiance shall be to the natural messiah of humanity.

The world by wisdom knows not God. The Trinitarian God can only come through the revelation of Himself to man. It is the carnal man, the natural man that seeks the "Supreme Being" in human history. The essence of God cannot be found in the natural world or through the speculation of men.

The twisting of scripture to turn God's work of grace back to a paradise earth in a future age is the vain striving of finite man. This impersonal pantheism of man leads man away from the living, personal, triune God Who exists independently of the universe.

The perfect order of God's supernatural kingdom, His new Heaven and new earth, has been a literal reality since the manifestation and revelation of Jesus Christ. It came in fulfillment of all the prophets. "The Law and the prophets were until John: since that time the kingdom of God is preached and every man presseth into it." Luke 16:16. If the kingdom of God is preached, it is the gospel of Grace of Jesus Christ.

The Christian God in the fullness of time manifested Himself incarnate in the person of Jesus Christ. The God of Christianity is the Father, the Son and the Holy Spirit; in which Trinity none is before or after the other; none greater or less than another; but the whole three persons co-eternal together, and co-equal.

Masonry does not identify its God as the Triune God of Christianity. To Masonry, the Trinity is sectarianism. The religion of Masonry is broad enough to include all the religions of antiquity except the Christian religion. Freemasonry only parades under the Christian banner at times so that the unsuspecting may become easy prey. So again, it is not always the language of Christianity that identifies the spirit of Christ, but more often than not, it is used to veil thought expressions which are contrary to the Word of God.

Unless we can understand the use of this spiritual force, which pretends Christianity, as a weapon of power politics to motivate events along a preplanned course, we shall continue a course of history which will end in another World War and the utter destruction of America by the British Empire. What cares the Empire who is governor, or who is president, if it can move the nations at will, in the name of Christ?

Through a dual meaning of language and symbolism, the Masonic Order is used to carry out a systematic betrayal of its own fraternal brothers, while at the same time it uses them in their own betrayal.

Masons who believe that Masonry is simply a Christian Fraternity are deceived. It is not only not a Christian Fraternity, it is a religion based upon the worship of the Grand Architect, antithetical to the Jesus Christ of Revelation. The essence of Freemasonry is such that it is morally and absolutely impossible to hold and adhere to it, and to hold and to adhere to Christianity at the same time.

If Masons would honestly search the meaning of their Masonic Church and worship, they would find by authority of the makers and fathers of Masonry, such as Clavel, Ragon, Pike, Mackey and others, that Masonic symbolism in its original and proper meaning refers to the solar and phallic worship of the ancient mysteries, especially those of Egypt. That the Masonic religion is of a phallic nature is the opinion of the most eminent and best informed Masons.

Masons should apply the religious test to their order which requires a belief in "God," or later such as in Knight Templarism, requires belief in Jesus Christ as the son of God. The following quote is from Martin L. Wagner's book FREEMASONRY AN INTERPRETATION: "This religious test if honestly used and in its Christian sense, would exclude on the one hand all persons who do not believe that the unique Person, the Jesus Christ of the New Testament, is the incarnate Son of God, and the Redeemer and Savior of mankind; and on the other hand it would admit only those who do thus believe in him and accept him as their Lord and personal Savior. It is upon the assumption that this 'test of faith' is used and understood in the Christian sense, that Templarism is claimed to be a Christian institution, and sets forth nothing but the Christian religion."

"Few things can be more misleading. The first element of truth that names be honestly used, is here ruthlessly violated. If this name of Christ were honestly used and in its Christian sense, this conclusion might be warranted. But it is not so used in Templarism, as any discerning student can plainly see, and it is therefore that sense in which it is used in this order, that determines the kind of religion, and the character of the religious ideas that qualify for admission into the order. Not what this name means in Christianity but what it means in Templarism determines whether this test is Christian."

"The faith in Christ that is demanded as a qualification for this degree is historic faith, a belief that the person presented to us in the New Testament as Jesus Christ, did actually live in the time and land therein set forth, and that He is the Son of God. This much devils believe and tremble because of it, but this belief does not make them Christians. This much we will grant that Templarism demands and believes, but it does not make Templars or their order Christian. They must in order to be Christians believe from the heart that this Jesus, God has made Lord and Christ, that He is the Messiah of Moses and the prophets, that in Him all the promises of God made to the fathers, are fulfilled and accept Him as their personal and only Redeemer and Saviour. They believe in Jesus as a man, as an historic personage, or even as a divine person, but no more. They do not accept Him as earth's creator and man's Redeemer from sin, death and the power of Satan. This is not the faith in Christ which the Church demands, and which Christ demands. This is not saving faith in the Christian sense. This is not that faith which makes men Christians, and the confession of which marks them as Christians. True faith in Christ compels its confessors to rest absolutely in Him as their sole way to God's forgiveness and eternal salvation."

"This 'Christ' of Templarism is not the Christ of the New Testament and of orthodox Christianity; the personal Being, Son of God and Son of Man, 'the Mystery of Godliness,' 'God manifest in the flesh,' 'the Word made flesh.' He is not the Christ confessed in the ecumenical creeds and by orthodox churches, the 'Person in Whom dwells all the fullness of the Godhead bodily,' the One Who is 'true God begotten of the Father from eternity, and also true Man, born of the Virgin Mary.' The 'Christ' of Templarism is not the Christ of orthodox Christianity. The one is the product of human speculation, the other is God manifest in the flesh, the express image of His person, a record of Whom we have in the Holy Bible."

"This 'Christ of Templarism' is the 'Christ' of the Gnostics, the 'Christ' of the old Templars, not a divine-human person, true God and true man, but a mere idea, an elastic glyph, a philosophical notion, an aeon, an emanation, a spiritual and ethical concept, one or all of these personified, but separate and distinct from that Person Jesus Christ of Nazareth, and so flexible in his nature and constitution as subjectively conceived of, as to satisfy the most diverse opinions, speculations and religions of men. This 'Christ' is a false Christ, and if accepted is fatal to the individual's Christian faith and religion. The Templar's 'Christ' is one of the false christs that has arisen, that makes his appearance in the secret chamber and in the desert of human speculation, and has deceived many. This 'Christ' has nothing in common with the Christ of pure Christianity. Belief or faith in this 'Christ' of Templarism no more makes a man a Christian, than paint on a pump gives character to water, or painting a negro white, makes him a Caucasian."

"The qualification 'The Son of God' attached to this phrase and test of Templarism, does not change the matter. The Templar view of the 'Son of God' is the old Gnostic view, the view that has passed down through many sects which were influenced in their theology far more by the oriental and Platonic philosophies, than by the Word of God. The 'Christology' of Templarism (and all Masonry) is irreconcilable and incompatible with the Christology of orthodox and New Testament Christianity." Quoted from pages 271-276 of FREEMASONRY AN INTERPRETATION, by Martin L. Wagner.

What this all means as a weapon of power politics, is that the building race means the building of the spiritual race. The promotion of self-identity as the God-race or God's people is the building of spiritual unity and the idea that all men are spiritual brothers and therefore of "One World," The one world spirit in the name of the New Age or the millennial kingdom, removes the conscious affinity of the people for national subdivisions such as the United States of America. Unveiled, it is the law of nature built upon a pernicious spirit that causes man to identify with and seek redemption or reclamation in the creation rather than the Creator.

To the extent that the spirit of man can be moved toward "Divine nature" or the kingdom of God on earth, to this extent he is moved away from the redemption of the saving grace of Jesus Christ.

Should the God of this world merge the spirit of man into a paradise earth, it would not be God.

If Americans can be separated from their national interest and goals, it cannot be done through the barbarism of the Communist hordes, but through the alienation of their spirit with the "Christian" propaganda of the kingdom message.

As a nation thinks in its heart so is it.

Masonic British Israelism is the bond that unites all forms of Millennialism (Kingdom Cults) into one great system of conspiracy with the design to mislead, always under the cloak of Christianity. Hence Masonry promotes Communism on one hand and a false Christianity on the other. Through their Christian fronts and World Evangelism they promote the kingdom message or Spiritual Communism.

We must be careful that it is not the language but the thought which is conveyed that determines our understanding.

The Bible is the most effective veil behind which Freemasonry can conceal its phallic religion. It hesitates not to employ that Holy Book in order to conceal its own falsehoods and idolatries and to deceive and mislead its over-confiding disciples. It calls things by their opposites. It substitutes legends for facts, expresses legendary lore and pagan myths in the language of Holy Scripture. It calls heathen deities by Biblical names of God, heathen rites by Christian phrases and Masonic doctrines in phrases and terms of Christian theology. The whole system is not what it appears or pretends to be. It is a pretense, a delusion, a fraud, a lie.

By substitution and juggling, the conventional and ordinary sense of our language betrays us. For example when we see the term Americanism in a Masonic publication or used by the John Birch Society we are suspicious of its use as a cover term for conspiracy. Other examples are such terms as Divine Government or Divine Order should be tested to see if the thought intended is World Government or refers to the true supernatural kingdom of God.

Watch the language and the kingdom message tie-in in all forms of pretended patriotism.

When Masonry talks about the New Age or the New Order of the Ages it is promoting World Government.

Masonry is of every color and political slant. It runs Communism and anti-communism with the intended purpose of fusing the two into One World Government.

O Almighty, Merciful and Gracious God and Father, with our whole heart we beseech Thee for all who have forsaken the Christian faith, all who have wandered far from any portion thereof, or are in doubt or temptation through the corruptors of Thy Word, that Thou wouldest visit them as a Father, reveal unto them their error, and bring them back from their wanderings that they in singleness of heart, taking pleasure alone in the pure truth of Thy Word, may be made wise thereby unto everlasting life; through Jesus Christ Thy Son our Lord. Amen.

The Masonic Pyramid consists of

The Masonic Pyramid

Grand Lodge of England uses the Jew's religion to establish World Government. ALL Freemasonry begins with the Grand Lodge of England.

The origin of sources from which flows the Kingdom Message. One can quickly see from the Masonic Pyramid that he can be a Communist or anti-communist and still serve the same master to his own enslavement, both spiritual and physical. The KEY used to test any movement is the Kingdom Message. The Kingdom Message is phrased in many ways. Some refer to a Christian World Order, some say Christian Government, many speak of the reign of Christ meaning political and earthly. It all adds up to the same thing -- Spiritual Communism.

EPILOGUE

The Watchtower Society, better known as Jehovah's Witnesses, is a massive international movement and an important crypto-Jewish cult in the spread of the kingdom message. In their issue of AWAKE on October 8, 1971, page 23 under title The Barrier of Nationalism Removed, we read this statement: "God's kingdom will forever remove the barrier of nationalism; people of all races will live in peace under one government." End of quote. This is the purpose of all kingdom cults to remove the barrier of nationalism by teaching a false religion which promotes World Government. Is this not Communism?

Fear hysteria is used constantly to drive humanity to a state of mind which causes them to desire the relief which is promised by the kingdom cults in their kingdom message. In the same Jehovah's Witnesses publication named above they play up the propaganda of crime, sickness, poverty, pollution, drug abuse, overpopulation and famine. All this is the big lie to bring us to expect a state of collapse at any time. This fear hysteria neutralizes us with a feeling of hopelessness. When one is under the influence of this propaganda, he stops doing anything constructive. No one ever does anything constructive while fearing an imminent crisis whether real or imagined. In this state of mind one would not plant a rose for fear he would never see it bloom. Our country is a haven for artificially induced public hysterias. A crisis is created out of thin air such as pollution or overpopulation and people are herded like cattle this way and that, always against their best interest. A case in point is Ralph Nader's consumerism which he builds on created myths and which has caused a higher cost of living for the consumer without any added benefits.

A new publication by a British Israel Identity group called CHRISTIAN VANGUARD is off on Jew-bait as one would expect. In their issue #12 they attack the books THE UNION JACK and SPIRITUAL COMMUNISM. On page six they made this revealing statement, quote: "To wreck both conservative and Identity movements they had to find a tie to link them together. That tie was in the almost universal belief, by ALMOST ALL PROTESTANT ORGANIZATIONS, that Christ will return to earth to rule physically for 1,000 years."

"Although there was no other point of similarity between 'conservatives' and the Identity movement, they found this one 'link.'" End of quote.

This one "link" is all important because it not only ties in the conservative and Identity Movements, it links them with the Jew's religion which the Identity people promote as the Kingdom Message. The Identity people are bastard offspring of Judaism because their belief in the earthly kingdom is Judaism.

The John Birch Society has been a thorn in the flesh of many would-be patriots. The purpose of the John Birch Society is to soak up any effective opposition and neutralize it or turn it toward a false conservatism. Robert Welch and his Society has never attacked the Kingdom Message propaganda. In fact they promote British Israel under the cover of Fundamental Christianity. Welch laid to rest any questions on British Israel to his members in his booklet THE NEUTRALIZERS. We say that he who does not want the whole truth does not deserve any truth. With this in mind let us take a close look at Welch's double talk in his phony expose of British Israel. He simply attacks it by one name and promotes it under another.

THE NEUTRALIZERS is a booklet distributed by the John Birch Society. Its purpose, according to its author, is to "minimize the effect of the whole splintering (efforts to destroy the John Birch Society) operation." According to Robert Welch none of his members are supposed to believe any bad stories about himself or his society unless they first check with headquarters in Belmont, Massachusetts. This, most of them dutifully do.

If through guile, one wishes to twist men's minds, it is necessary to be compassionate, sincere, religious and, in this case, patriotic. These qualities of character cause an unfaltering admiration, stupefying followers and "neutralizing" opponents. The way for a villain to disguise his crime is to implicate it to others, blaming them for that which he is guilty of.

THE NEUTRALIZERS is a case in point. If we suppose that Mr. Welch has a valid attack upon advocates of "Anti-Semitism," "Religious Neutralism," "Academic Neutralism," "Political Neutralism," and "Tangentitis," we have a right to examine him and his Society with regard to the same topics. (We have not checked with Belmont but we will go ahead.) As Mr. Welch so powerfully stated, on page 39 of THE NEUTRALIZERS, "Consistency is seldom a virtue of the bigot." End quote. With this we agree and with this in mind we turn the spotlight upon Mr. Welch and his "Anti-Communist John Birch Society."

In the first section of THE NEUTRALIZERS on "Anti-Semitism" the term anti-Semitism is used twelve times. This of course injects the revolutionary tactic of racism because of the commonly false definition put upon the word "Semitic." With all the knowledge that Sir Robert possesses he cannot prove that there is a Semitic Race, let alone that the Jews are Semites. His genealogical proof of a Semitic Race today is as impossible as is any British Israelite's racial identity. Racial lineage dating back to any of the tribes of Israel was forever destroyed when the genealogical tablets were destroyed with the Jewish Temple in 70 A.D. The error of "Jewish Semitism" is as erroneous as the error of "Arab Semitism." But of course the idea of race helps promote conflict and revolution.

Then with the gall of a brass monkey he equates religion with race in order to confuse the two. On page 8 he suggests that "Jews" are sometimes "Jews" and sometimes not -- "but those who had formerly been Jews and many who had not been Jews." End quote.

So Welch says on page 18 that the Communists do the "opposite of the appearance that they create so diligently." Is he not here following the same pattern of using racism (semitism) to promote revolution?

Then like all good Masons do, he equates all religions to one big happy family. On page 20 he states that Communism must go "so that Jews and Christians alike, and Mohammedans and Buddhists, can again have a decent world to live in." End of quote. Now be not deceived that his plan graciously allows Christianity a fourth part with the heathens. His definition of Christianity is British Israel and is not based on the Deity of Jesus Christ at all.

Then he passes us the great revelation on page 19 that Alger Hiss was not a "Jew." But he was a Rhodes Scholar (which Welch omitted to say) and his great part in the formation of the United Nations and consequent objectives was in the service of Her Majesty's World Government British Israel Enterprise.

In his Religious Neutralism he gets in the real punch line. On page 22 he states, "One of the most common roads to neutralism is made possible by the deeply religious nature of most earnest anti-Communists." End of quote. This is true only in a double sense which Welch does not divulge. The "anticommunists" are neutralized in favor of British Israel Communism with their "fundamentalist" religion. Is Welch not a so-called "fundamentalist" and oddly enough was not John Birch? "Fundamental Christianity" is only a cover term for British Israel. It is a world political system with a political messiah. Is this not Communism?

Here is the greatest double talk one could imagine. On page 29 Welch states in speaking of the naming of Eisenhower's Camp David, "It would serve to strengthen the hopes and thus the spread of British-Israel, and at the same time to ally himself more closely with the top-Communists far behind the scenes, whose agents were carefully building British-Israel into a vague but mighty force to offset and neutralize what could otherwise be the extremely powerful anti-Communist drive of fundamentalist Protestantism." End of quote. If a black snake has a forked tongue, he ain't got nothing on Mr. Welch. When some fools know that "fundamentalist Protestantism" IS British Israelism and that British Israelism is Communism, and that therefore Mr. Welch's anti-Communists are promoting Communism and at the same time are neutralized against the real Communism, which is British Israel Fundamentalism. Anyone swallowing this line is getting an antidote worse than the disease. Work both ends against the middle and get the perfect crime. Work Communism against Communism and get a perfect fusion. Mr. Welch has deceived some of his greatest admirers and supporters but he well knows he is promoting British Israelism with so called "Fundamental Christianity" or "Fundamental Protestantism." The only thing fundamental about his religion is that it is fundamentally British Israel and is doing all to promote a false world kingdom of Christ.

Mr. Welch and all the Right Wing Communists say the bad guys are in the Kremlin. They are bad all right because they are controlled by the same British Israel that controls Mr. Welch. The only thing is, their left wing Communism is going to give way to Mr. Welch's "Christian Communism."

If Mr. Welch didn't "neutralize" the anti-Communists away from HIS Communism with these double reverse NEUTRALIZERS, it isn't because he didn't load it with all the deception at his command.

He goes on to make a few British Israel crackpots like Howard Rand and Wesley Swift the goat, always giving "good fundamentalist Christians" (page 31) as the patriotic Christian opposition. He continues to fight one fraud with another. In this he is consistent.

Then on pages 35 and 36 he turns the British Israel on in grand "fundamentalist" style. In quoting from whom he calls a Major Coordinator of his John Birch Society, he says on page 36, "When Communism is destroyed (and it is only a question of when) it will happen only as a result of Divine Will." Here it is -- British Israelism in its purest form. The question of Divine Will intervening to destroy Communism or any ism is a Pharisaic deception that has controlled the minds of men for two thousand years and here it is dressed up in our time as anti-Communist Fundamental Christianity. Divine Will is concerned with the regeneration of men's individual souls. The fallacy of pitting right wing Communists versus left wing Communists and appropriating the outcome to Divine Will is the confusion of British Israel and not of God, Who said "My kingdom is not of this world." If Mr. Welch and all the Right Wing Communists bring off their world kingdom as a reaction to Russian Communism, it will have nothing to do with "Divine Will" -- only under the pretense of "Divine Will." The "masters of deceit" of all time have always built deception out of the fusion of two evils, but always being careful to implicate one of the evils to good.

Therefore Robert Welch completely deceives and confuses the dupes of his unAmerican John Birch Society. He leads off against British Israel and turns on his reverse with "Fundamentalist Protestantism" which is British Israel under another name. His brand of "Fundamentalism" calls for the same natural messiah and World Government kingdom that British Israel does. How is it that so many well intentioned people are misled by such traitors as Robert Welch? He simply condemns Communism by one name and promotes it under another and the equation is never worked out by dedicated followers. The rule of his game is to deceive by changing terms. He attacks one error and counterattacks with another. He attacks Russian Communism with British Israel Communism which he cleverly calls Fundamentalist Christianity. Then he invokes "Divine Will" in behalf of British Israel Communism. It is easy to see why Welch does not expose Anglo-Saxon Freemasonry and Rhodes Scholars. It is easy to see why he pretends anti-Russian Communism and fails to tell his dupes that it is ships from the British Empire who unload war materials in the North Vietnam ports to kill American troops. It is easy to see why he attacks Earl Warren as the Chief Justice of the United States Supreme Court but did not attack him as a 33rd degree Mason under the Grand Lodge of England (an alien power). It is easy to see why he and his dupes promoted 32nd degree Mason George Wallace and 33rd degree Mason Curtis Lemay as conservative candidates for the United States Presidency and Vice Presidency. It is easy to see why he promotes British Israelism with John Stormer's book NONE DARE CALL IT TREASON and his DEATH OF A NATION. They too condemn one Communism and promote another in the name of Christianity. It is easy to see how Robert Welch is a British Communist with the best intention to "neutralize" the American people long enough to be deceived into a right wing Christian Communism.

Robert Welch well knows that only his British Israel "insiders" and a few true Americans know that British Israelism is being promoted under the guise of "Fundamental Christianity." If there were such a thing as anti-Semitism nothing could be more "anti-Semitic" than Mr. Welch's Fundamental Christianity which deceives so-called Jews and professing Christians alike, teaching them that the "hope of the world" is a national system of salvation which is to be established via Divine intervention. If Communism has a religion, this is it.

In Academic Neutralism Welch recommends and practices "writing letters, circulating petitions, and organizing ad hoc committees." (page 47). Now if we go to the doctor with appendicitis and he treats us for a sore mouth we would presently expire with ruptured appendix. This is the case of Welch's "academic neutralism" of which he is accusing others. He keeps his dupes so busy with "tangenitis" that they are led completely away from the objective of anti-Communism. Impeaching Earl Warren because of his leftist decisions and direction of the court is entirely different from opposing him as a 33rd degree Mason who represents a super world government centered in the British Empire. It is not enough to oppose. To oppose on spurious issues is to lead to wrong results. This Welch knows too. Welch is schooled in academic neutralism and it is his whole task.

If Mr. Welch is an opponent of the "neutralizers" victory is theirs for never have well intentioned people been more motivated with myths and false issues. Neutralism away from British Israelism is his grand design. So the Communism "far behind the scenes" to which Mr. Welch alludes are those Communists he represents under the pseudonym of Fundamental Christianity.

The following article is very revealing in that it shows how far back the plot to take America with the Kingdom Message has been organized.

It is certain that Senator Joseph McCarthy did much research on the Communist conspiracy. He came too close when he discovered British Israel and its Kingdom Message propaganda. The following quotes are from an article with the title: GEORGE WASHINGTON'S SURRENDER: "And many of the people of the land became Jews." Esther 9:17. "The confession of General Cornwallis to General Washington at Yorktown has been well hidden by historians. History books and text books have taught for years that when Cornwallis surrendered his army to General Washington that American independence came, and we lived happily ever after until the tribulations of the twentieth century."

"Jonathan Williams recorded in his LEGIONS OF SATAN, 1781, that Cornwallis revealed to Washington that "a holy war will now begin on America, and when it is ended America will be supposedly the citadel of freedom, but her millions will unknowingly be loyal subjects to the Crown." Cornwallis went on to explain what would seem to be a self contradiction: "Your churches will be used to teach the Jew's religion and in less than two hundred years the whole nation will be working for divine world government. That government that they believe to be divine will be the British Empire. All religions will be permeated with Judaism without even being noticed by the masses, and they will all be under the invisible all-seeing eye of the Grand Architect of Freemasonry." And indeed George Washington himself was a Mason, and he gave back through a false religion what he had won with his army."

"Cornwallis well knew that his military defeat was only the beginning of world catastrophe that would be universal and that unrest would continue until mind control could be accomplished through a false religion. What he predicted has come to pass. A brief sketch of American religious history and we have seen Masonry infused into every church in America With their veiled Phallic religion. Darby and the Plymouth Brethren brought a Jewish Christianity to America. Masons Rutherford and Russell started Jehovah Witnesses' Judaism which is now worldwide with their message of the divine kingdom. Mason Joseph Smith started Mormon Judaism with its Jewish teaching of millennialism. At the turn of the twentieth century there appeared the Scofield Bible with a Jewish interpretation of the prophecies. With wide use of this "helpful" aid all the American churches have silently become synagogues. We now have Baptist Jews, Methodist Jews, Church of God Jews, apostate Catholic Jews, and many Protestant Jews throughout America. We are aliens in our own country because of false religion. All are praying for divine deliverance into that "Divine Government" which Cornwallis knew to be the British Empire. A false religion has been used to deceive us into allegiance to our enemies of Yorktown and Bunker Hill. No! Not a gun has been fired but the invisible and malignant process of conquering America with the Jew's religion has gone on unabated. The Union Jack has been planted in our hearts with religious deception. All has happened "legally," "constitutionally," "freely" and completely within our most sacred trust -- our churches. Religious deception is painless inoculation against truth. It cannot be removed from the conscience with surgery, yet it is the motivator of our actions and directly controls our lives. Once man gives over to false religion, he is no longer rational because he originates no thought. His life is controlled by whomever controls his religion."

"The veil of false religion is the sword of Damocles and its power to control humanity defies even the imagination of tyrants who use it."

"This is not to say that George Washington was a traitor willingly, or knowingly. He was beguiled into a Satanic religious order that insidiously controls men's minds. So have American statesmen and military leaders down through the years given aid and allegiance to the enemies of the United States because they did not have knowledge of the invisible subterfuge that stalks this land. My eyes were opened the day my colleague from Ohio handed me Wagner's FREEMASONRY AN INTERPRETATION. If every American would read it, they would no longer ask why and how it has happened."

Given by Senator Joseph McCarthy, six months before his mouth was closed forever. End of quote from GEORGE WASHINGTON'S SURRENDER.

We have a final note for optimism. We sincerely believe that America can and will survive if her people are willing to come face to face with the propagandists who are trying to beguile us into World Government with a misuse of Bible prophecy. It is time to touch the untouchables and shake their ivory towers of constitutionally protected religion and lay open for all to see what is being done to us in the name of Christ.

Nor do we believe the so-called "experts" of gloom and negative prophets of pollution, overpopulation, disease, famine, death and defeat who may have frightened you into believing that you, your family and your country are on a one way trip to doomsday. All this is part of fear hysteria propaganda. Pollution may be a problem in some congested areas but such propaganda of Ralph Nader and anti-pollution devices has increased the cost of automobiles to all Americans.

Overpopulation is a favorite of the propaganda ministry of Herbert W. Armstrong. This is trite and it is the big lie. If America had the same population percentage wise as England we would have over three billion people. We are hardly crowded yet.

Disease today is nothing by comparison to only thirty years ago when people died of polio, diphtheria, malaria, pneumonia and you name it.

The idea of famine is as unthinkable and ridiculous as it can be with today's mechanized farming. Fewer farmers can produce more than at any time in history. In fact there is so much surplus that farm programs have been socialized to hold prices up. If America and the world ever faces famine it will be no fault of nature or the farmer but the conspiratorial efforts of evil men who try to enact perverted prophecies.

We believe America is great because her people are great and that we will survive because we want the truth that shall make us free.

The truth is that Communism and premillennialism are more than equal to Masonry - they are the offspring of Masonry, conceived and designed by Masonry to do for Masonry what Masonry could not do in its own name. Premillennialism is used to debauch the churches into the synagogues of Satan. This is the best kept secret of the ages, but it is basic to understanding revolution and power.

This by no means discounts numerous other "isms" such as Jehovah's Witnesses, Mormonism, and many others. These are only subgroups of Masonry and once we understand the Gospel of Christ as well as the religion of Masonry we can identify instantly any "ism" as only a variation of Masonry. To say the least we should never be deceived by any Messianic millennial cult. Premillennialism is a conspiracy against Christ, whenever it rears its Masonic head.

It is not strange to a Christian in regard to Masonry, Communism, Premillennialism and Judaism that he cannot partake of one without accepting all, and likewise he cannot condemn one without condemning all. He who is a part of any of the four groups is a part of all of them. Did not Christ say be that he that is not with me is against me?

CHAPTER I

COMMUNISM AS DESTROYER

Of all revolutionary systems, which throughout human history have been devised for the destruction of our civilized values, communism is without doubt the most perfected, most efficient and most merciless. In fact it represents the most advanced epoch of the world revolution, in whose postulates it therefore not only acts to destroy a definite political, social, economic or moral institution, but also simultaneously to declare null and void the Holy Catholic Church as well as all cultural and Christian manifestations which represent our civilization.

All revolutionary currents of Jewish origin have attacked Christianity in its different aspects with particular one-mindedness. Communism, spawned from this same revolutionary stream of thought, seeks to banish Christianity for the purpose of causing it to vanish from the face of the earth, without even the slightest trace remaining. The destructive fury of this satanic striving, which brings before the eyes of the world the most terrible pictures of terror and destruction which are possible to imagine, can only be based on the essence of nihilism and the most evil, hate-filled rejection of everything hitherto existing. For otherwise, one would not be able to understand the indescribable insanity of its criminal acts and the spirit of destruction, of annihilation, of insult, of contradiction, and of resistance by its leading personalities against everything, which represents fundamental features not only of Catholicism but of religion in general.

The purpose of communism is, as we have indeed seen in Russia and in the other lands where it has been introduced, none other than to enslave the people in the economic, political, social, human and super-human sense, in order to make possible a minority rule through violence. From an international aspect, the goal cannot be clearer:

"To attain through violence world domination by an insignificant minority, which destroys the rest of humanity by means of materialism, terror and, if necessary, by death, completely indifferent of whether in the process the enormous majority of the population must be murdered."

The urge to murder, which has characterized the leading Soviet personages, is known well throughout the world. There are few, who upon learning of the bloody purges, which have been undertaken by the Marxists in Russia, will not be seized by shudders of horror. One needs only to recall a few details to fill the most stout hearts with fear and alarm.

"In its beginnings the Red Terror strove above all to exterminate the Russian Intelligentsia" (1). As proof of this assertion S. P. Melgunov affirms the following, in which he refers to the "Special Committees", which appeared in Russia in the first period of the social revolution:

"The special committees are not organs of law, but of merciless extermination according to the decisions of the Communist Central Committee. The special committee is neither a commission of investigation nor a court of justice, but itself determines its own powers. It is an instrument of battle, which acts on the internal front of the civil war. It does not pardon whoever stands on the other side of the barricades, but kills them."

(1) Leon de Poncins. "Las Fuerzas Secretas de la Revolución". F. M.—Judaísmo. "Fax" Editions, Madrid. Page 161.

"It is not difficult to form ideas of how in reality this extermination proceeds, when in place of the nullified legal code only the revolutionary experience and conscience command. This conscience is subjective and experience allows complete free play to the will, which always, according to the position of the judge, takes on more or less furious forms." (2).

"Let us not carry on war against individual persons"—wrote Latsis—"but let us exterminate the Bourgeoisie as a class. Do not investigate through study of documents and proofs, what the accused has done in words and deeds against the Soviet authority. The first question to be placed before him runs as to what class he belongs to, what is his origin, his education, his training and his profession." (3).

During the bloody dictatorship of Lenin the Committee of Investigation under Rohrberg (Rohrberg, C.), which after the capture of Kiev entered this city with the white volunteers in August 1919, reported the following:

"The entire concrete floor of the large garage (this was the place where the provincial Cheka of Kiev had carried out executions) was swimming in blood, which did not flow but formed a layer of several inches; it was a grisly mixture of blood with brain and skull fragments, as well as strands of hair and other human remains. The entire walls, holed by thousands of bullets, were spattered with blood and fragments of brain as well as head skin adhered to them."

"A drainage ditch of 25 cm. width and 25 cm. deep and about 10 m. long ran from the middle of the garage to a nearby room, where there was a subterranean outlet pipe. This drainage ditch was filled to the top with blood."

- (2) S. P. Melgunov. "La Terreur Rouge en Russie" from 1918 to 1923. Payot 1927.
- (3) "Latsis". "Red Terror of November 1st., 1918."

"Usually, immediately after the massacre the corpses were removed in lorries or horsedrawn wagons from the city and buried in a mass grave. In the corner of a garden we came upon an older mass grave, which contained about 80 corpses, in which we discovered signs of the most varied and unimaginable cruelties and mutilation. There were corpses, from which the entrails had been removed; others had different limbs amputated and others again were cut into pieces. Some had the eyes poked out, while the head, the face, the neck and the torso were covered with deep wounds. Further on we found a corpse with an axe in the breast, while others had no tongues. In a corner of the mass grave we discovered many legs and arms severed from the trunk." (4).

The enormous number of corpses, which have already been laid to the account of Communist Socialism and which increase terrifyingly all the while, will perhaps never be exactly known, but it exceeds everything imaginable. It is not possible to learn the exact number of the victims. All estimates lie below the real figure.

In the Edinburgh newspaper "The Scotsman" of November 7, 1923, Professor Sarolea gave the following figures:

"28 bishops; 1,219 priests; 6,000 professors and teachers; 9,000 doctors; 54,000 officers; 260,000 soldiers; 70,000 policemen; 12,950 estate owners; 355,250 intellectuals and of the free professions; 193,290 workers and 215,000 peasants."

The Information Committee of Denikin on the Bolshevik intrigue during the years 1918-1919 records in a treatise about the Red Terror in these two years "one million, seven hundred thousand victims." (5). In the "Roul" of August 3, 1923, Kommin makes the following observation:

"During the winter of 1920 there existed in the USSR, 52 governments with 52 Special Committees (Chekas), 52

(4) S. P. Melgunov. Ibid. P. 161.

(5) Leon de Poncins. Ibid. P. 165.

Special Departments and 52 revolutionary courts. Besides countless subsidiary Chekas, transport-networks, courts on the railways as well as troops for internal security there were mobile courts, which were dispatched to mass executions in the places concerned."

To this list of courts of torture must be added the special departments, that is to say, 16 army and divisional courts. All in all one must estimate 1,000 torture chambers. If it is borne in mind that at that time district committees also existed in addition, then the number rises further. In addition the number of governments of the USSR increased. Siberia, the Crimea and the Far East were conquered. The number of Chekas grew in geometrical ratio.

According to Soviet data (in the year 1920 when the terror had still not ebbed and the reporting of news was not restricted) it is possible to establish an average figure for every court; the curve of executions rises from one to fifty (in the great cities) and up to one hundred in the regions recently conquered by the Red Army. The crisis of terror was periodical and then ceased; in this manner one can daily estimate the (modest) figure of five victims. . . , which multiplied with the thousand courts, gives a result of five thousand, and then for the year roughly one and a half million. We recall this indescribable slaughter, not because in its totality it was either the most numerous or the most merciless stemming from a special situation with inflaming of passions which resulted from the Bolshevik revolution being victorious for the first time, but because after expiration of forty-five years after these mass executions, these could be obliterated from the present communist picture, even for the persons who were contemporaries of the events, and who today still living have forgotten those tragedies with the ease with which people forget unpleasant events which do not directly concern them, but even those to which they fell victim.

Unhappily, time has shown us a truly demoniac excess of communism in its murderous activity, about which we give no details and do not present the monstrous statistics because all this is known to us. Several of these cruel bloodbaths have only taken place recently, so that one still seems to hear the lament of the persecuted, the death-rattle of the dying and the dumb, terrible and haunting complaint of the corpses. (6).

It may suffice to recall the recent giant bloodbaths in Hungary, Poland, East Germany and Cuba as well as the earlier mass killings by Stalin and the annihilation of millions of Chinese through the communist regime of Mao Tse-tung. But also the communist attempts at revolution, which could not achieve lasting permanence, such as that of Bela Kun who occupied Hungary in such a brutal way in the middle of 1919; of Spain in 1936, where the Bolsheviks gained control of Madrid and parts of the Spanish provinces and murdered more than 16,000 priests, monks and nuns as well as 12 bishops; further the happily unsuccessful attempt in Germany its most successful realization in the Red Republic of Bavaria in the year 1919. All these attempts were in fact orgies of 1918, which was directed by Hugo Haase, and which had blood and unrestrained bestiality.

One must also not forget that this Apocalyptic storm, which brings a flood of corpses, blood and tears, falls upon the world with the sole goal: of destroying not only the Catholic Church but the entire Christian civilization. (7). Before this shattering picture the world asks itself with heavy heart: who can hate our Christian features in such a form and try to destroy them with such Godless fury? Who has become capable of instigating this bloody mechanics of annihilation? Who can with such insensitivity direct and order this monstrous criminal process? And reality answers us completely without doubt, that the Jews are those responsible, as will later be proved.

- (6) A complete statistical account of the victims of communism has been published in the small volume "Rivelazione d'interesse mondiale." Vermijon, Rome 1957, whose author for his part has taken information from the newspaper "Russkaja Mysl" of Nov. 30, 1947, published in France.

CHAPTER II

THE CREATORS OF THE SYSTEM

There is absolutely no doubt, that the Jews are the inventors of communism; for they have been the instigators of the doctrines, upon which that monstrous system is built, which at present with absolute power rules the greatest part of Europe and Asia, which stirs up the lands of America and with progressive certainty floods over all Christian peoples of the world like a deadly cancerous growth, like a tumour, which steadily devours the core of the free nations, apparently without an effective means of cure being found against this disease.

But the Jews are also the inventors and directors of the communist methods, of effective tactics of struggle, of the insensitive and totally inhuman government policy and of aggressive international strategy. It is a completely proven fact, that the communist theoreticians were all Jews, unheeded of what system the Jews lastingly use, as well as the theoreticians and the experienced revolutionaries, which has veiled from the eyes of the people, where they lived, their true origin.

I. Karl Heinrich Marx: was a German Jew, whose real name was Kissel Mordekay, born in Trier, Rhineland, son of a Jewish lawyer. Before his famous work "Das Kapital" which contains the fundamental idea of theoretical communism, whose concepts he strove with inexhaustible activity up to his death in the year 1887 to spread over the world, he had written and published with the Jew Engels in the year 1848 the Communist Manifesto in London; between 1843 and 1847 he had formulated in England the first modern interpretation of Hebrew Nationalism in his articles, as in the publication in the year 1844 in the periodical "Deutsch-Französische Jahrbücher (German-French Year Books) under the title "Concerning the Jewish question", and which shows an ultra-national tendency.

2. Friedrich Engels, creator of the "First International," and close collaborator of Marx, was a Jew born in Bremen (Germany). His father was a Jewish cotton merchant of the city. Engels died in the year 1894.

3. Karl Kautski, whose real name was Kaus, was the author of the book "The Beginnings of Christianity," in which he mainly combats the principles of Christianity. He was the most important interpreter of Karl Marx and in 1887 published "The Economic Doctrine of Karl Marx Made Intelligible for All." "The Bloodbath of Chisinaw and the Jewish Question," in the year 1903, "The Class Struggle," which for Mao Tse-tung in China was the fundamental book for communist instruction; and the work with the title "The Vanguard of Socialism," in the year 1921. He was also the author of the "Socialist Programme" from Erfurt/Germany. This Jew was born in the year 1854 in Prague and died in 1938 in the Hague (Holland).

4. Ferdinand Lasalle, Jew, born in the year 1825 in Breslau. He had interfered in the democratic revolution of 1848. In the year 1863 he published his work entitled "Open Answers," in which he outlined a plan of revolution for the German workers. Since then he worked tirelessly for a "Socialist" crusade, which was directed at the rebellion of the workers. For this purpose he published a further work under the title "Capital and Labour."

5. Eduard Bernstein. A Jew born in Berlin in the year 1850. His principal works are "Assumptions concerning Socialism," "Forward, Socialism," "Documents of Socialism," "History and Theory of Socialism," "Social Democracy of Today in Theory and Practice," "The Duties of Social Democracy," and "German Revolution." In all his writings he expounds the communist teaching and bases it on the views of Marx. In the year 1918 he became Finance Minister of the German Socialist State, which, however, could fortunately only maintain itself a few months.

6. Jacob Lastrow, Max Hirsch, Edgar Loening, Wirschauer, Babe, Schatz, David Ricardo and many other writers of theoretical communism were Jews. In all lands are found writers, almost exclusively Jewish, who preach communism to the masses, although with many opportunities they strive to give the appearance in their writings of a feeling of humanity and brotherhood. We have indeed already seen in practice, what this means. (8).

However theoretical all Jews mentioned may have been, they were not satisfied with setting up the doctrinaire bases, but each one of them was an experienced revolutionary, who busied himself in whatever particular land he found himself, to factually prepare the upheaval, to direct or to give it support. As leaders or members of revolutionary associations known only to one another, they took more and more active parts in the development of Bolshevism. But apart from these Jews, who in the main were regarded as theoreticians, we find that almost all materialist leaders, who develop communist tactics, also belong to the same race and carry out their task with the greatest efficacy.

As indisputable examples two movements of this type can be recorded:

A) In the year 1918 Germany was the showplace of a communist, Jew directed revolution. The Red Councils of the republic of Munich were Jewish, as its instigators prove: Liebknecht, Rosa Luxemburg, Kurt Eisner and many others. With the fall of the monarchy the Jews gained control of the country and the German Government. With Ministers of State Haase and Landsberg appear Kautski, Kohn and Herzfeld. The Finance Minister was likewise a Jew, had his racial fellow Bernstein as assistant and the minister of the Interior, likewise a Jew, sought the collaboration of his racial brother, Doctor Freund, who helped him in his work.

(8) Data taken from Traian Romanescu: Ibid, pages 19-23.

Kurt Eisner, the President of the Bavarian Councils Republic, was the instigator of the Bolshevik revolution in Munich.

"Eleven little men made the revolution," said Kurt Eisner in the intoxication of triumph to his colleague, the Minister Auer. It is no more than right to preserve the unforgettable memory of these little men, who were, in fact, the Jews Marx Lowenberg, Doctor Kurt Rosenfeld, Gaspar Wollheim, Max Rothschild, Carl Arnold, Kranold, Rosenhek, Birnbaum, Reis and Kaisser. These ten with Kurt Eisner van Israelowitsch led the presidency of the Revolutionary court of Germany. All eleven were Freemasons and belonged to the secret lodge N.^o 11 which had its seat in Munich at No. 51 Brienerstrasse. (9).

The first cabinet of Germany in the year 1918 was composed of Jews.

1. Preuss, Minister of the Interior.
2. Freund, Minister of the Interior.
3. Landsberg, Finance Minister.
4. Karl Kautski, Finance Minister.
5. Schiffer, Finance Minister.
6. Eduard Bernstein, secretary of the State Treasury.
7. Fritz Max Cohen, director of the official information service. (This Jew was earlier correspondent of the Jewish "Frankfurter Zeitung").

(9) Mons. Jouin. Le peril Judeo-Maconnique. 5 Vols. 1919-1927. Part. 1. P. 161.

The second German Socialist government of 1918 was formed of the following Jews:

1. Hirsch, Minister of the Interior.
2. Rosenfeld, Justice Minister.
3. Futran, Minister of Education.
4. Arndt, Minister of Education.
5. Simon, State Secretary of Finances.
6. Kastenberg, Director of the Department of Science and Art.
7. Strathgen, Director of Development.
8. Meyer-Gerhart; Director of the Department of the Colonies.
9. Wurm, Secretary of Food.
10. Merz, Weil, Katzenstein, Stern, Lowenberg, Frankel, Schlesinger, Israelowitz, Selingsohn, Laubenheim, etc., took up high posts in the ministries.

Among the remaining Jews who controlled the sectors vital to the life of the German state, which had been defeated through the American intervention in the war, were found in the year 1918, and later:

1. Kohen, President of the German workers and soldiers councils (similar to the Soviet council of soldiers and workers of Moscow in the same year).
2. Ernst, police president of Berlin.
3. Sinzheimer, police president of Frankfurt.
4. Lewy, police president of Hessen.
5. Kurt Eisner, Bavarian state president.
6. Jaffe, Bavarian Finance Minister.
7. Brentano, Industry, Trade and Transport Minister.
8. Talheimer, Minister in Württemberg.
9. Heimann, another Minister in Württemberg.
10. Fulda, in the government of Hesse.
11. Theodor Wolf, Chief Editor of the newspaper "Berliner Tageblatt."
12. Gwiner, Director of the "Deutsche Bank." (10).

(10) Traian Romanescu. Ibid, page 259.

B). Hungary in the year 1919. On March 20, 1919, the Jew Bela Kun (Cohn) took power in Hungary and proclaimed the Hungarian Soviet republic, which from that moment on was submerged in a hair-raising sea of blood. Twenty-eight Commissars formed with him the new government and of these 18 were Israelites. That is an unheard of proportion, when one bears in mind that in Hungary lived one and a half million Israelites compared to 22 million inhabitants. These 18 Commissars held the actual control of rulership in their hands and the eight Gentile Commissars could do nothing against them. (11).

More than 90% of the members of the government and the confidence men of Bela Kun were also Jews. Here follows a list of members of the Bela Kun government:

1. Bela Kun, general secretary of the Jewish government.
2. Sandor Garbai, "official" president of the government, who was used by the Jews as a Hungarian man of straw.
3. Peter Agoston, deputy of the general secretary; Jew.
4. Dr. E. Landler, peoples commissar for internal affairs, Jew.
5. Bela Vago, deputy of Landler, a Jew with the name Weiss.
6. E. Hamburger, Agriculture Commisar; Jew.
7. Vantus, deputy of Hamburger; Jew.
8. Csizmadia, deputy of Hamburger; Hungarian.
9. Nyisztor, deputy of Hamburger; Hungarian.
10. Varga, Commissar for Financial Affairs; Jew by name Weichselbaum.
11. Szkely, deputy of Varga; Jew by name Schlesinger.
12. Kunftz, Education Minister; Jew by name Kunstater.
13. Kukacs, deputy of Kunfi; a Jew, who in reality was called Lowinger and was the son of the Director-General of a Banking House in Budapest.
14. D. Bokanyi, Minister of Labour; Hungarian.
15. Fiedler, deputy of Bokanyi; Jew.

16. Jozsef Pogany, War Commissar; a Jew, who in reality was called Schwartz.
17. Szanto, deputy of Pogany; a Jew named Schreiber.
18. Tibor Szamuely, deputy of Pogany; a Jew named Samuel.
19. Matyas Rakosi, Trade Minister; a Jew, who in reality was called Matthew Roth Rosenkrantz, present communist dictator.
20. Ronai, Commissar of Law; a Jew named Rosentsgegl.
21. Ladai, deputy of Ronai; Jew.
22. Erdelyi, Commissar of Supply; a Jew named Eisentein.
23. Vilmas Boehm, Socialization Commissar; Jew.
24. Hevesi, deputy of Boehm; a Jew named Honig.
25. Dovsak, second deputy of Boehm; Jew.
26. Oszkar Jaszai, Commisar of Nationalities; a Jew named Jakubovits.
27. Otto Korvin, Political Examining Commissar; a Jew named Klein.
28. Kerekes, State Lawyer; a Jew named Krauss.
29. Biro, Chief of the Political Police; a Jew named Blau.
30. Seiden, adjutant of Biro; Jew.
31. Oszkar Faber, Commissar for Liquidation of Church Property; Jew.
32. J. Czerni, Commander of the Terrorist Bands, which were known by the name "Lenin youth"; Hungarian.
33. Illes, Supreme Police Commissar; Jew.
34. Szabados, Supreme Police Commissar; a Jew named Singer.
35. Kalmar, Supreme Police Commissar; German Jew.
36. Szabo, Supreme Police Commissar; Ruthenian Jew, who in reality was called Schwarz.
37. Vince, Peoples Commissar of the city of Budapest, who in reality was called Weinstein.
38. M. Kraus, Peoples Commissar of Budapest; Jew.
39. A. Dienes, Peoples Commissar of Budapest; Jew.
40. Lengyel, President of the Austro-Hungarian Bank; a Jew named Levkovits.
41. Laszlo, President of the Communist Revolutionary Court; a Jew, who in reality was called Lowy. (12).

In this government which for a time held Hungary in thrall, the chief of the Hungarian Cheka Szamuelly, besides Bela Kun, distinguished himself through countless crimes and plunderings. While the latter rode through the land in his luxury automobile, for a symbol had a large gallows mounted on the vehicle, accompanied by his capable Jewish woman secretary R. S. Salkind, alias Semliachkay, the former travelled through Hungary in his special train and sowed terror and death, as a contemporary witness describes:

"That train of death travelled snorting through the black Hungarian nights; where it stopped, one saw people hanging from trees and blood which ran on the ground. Along the railway line naked and mutilated corpses were to be seen. Szamuelly dictated his judgements in his train and whoever was forced to enter never lived to tell the tale of what he saw. Szamuelly lived constantly in this train. Thirty selected terrorists ensured his security. Selected executers also accompanied him. The train consisted of two saloon wagons, two first-class wagons, which were occupied by the terrorists, and two third class wagons for the victims. In the latter executions were carried out. The floor of this wagon was stiff with blood. The corpses were thrown out of the windows, while Szamuelly sat comfortably in the elegant workroom of his compartment which was upholstered in rose-coloured damask and decorated with polished mirrors. With a movement of the hand he decided over life or death." (13).

CHAPTER III

THE FINANCIERS OF COMMUNISM

International Jewry strives in its entirety towards Communist socialism in accordance with the doctrine of Marx, which has at present been realized by it in the Union of Soviet Socialist Republics and all its satellites. The direct goal of Communism is the striving for world domination and complete power over all peoples of the earth. This standpoint it has always manifested and from the beginning onwards has striven for this goal. This Communist aim is understood with absolute unanimity, by all Jews as their own goal, although many non-Jewish persons, who are lacking in knowledge and who are intentionally deceived, think that the great number of Jewish multi-millionaires which there are in the world and who even control world finance, must necessarily oppose this current, which attempts to snatch their wealth away from them.

At first sight there is nothing more self-evident than to see in a rich financier, a well-to-do trader or an important industrialist, the natural and keenest enemy of Communism. But if the industrialists, traders or financiers are Jews, there is not the slightest doubt that they are also Communists; for the Communist Socialism of Marx has been created and carried out by them, and in fact not in order to lose their goods and chattels which they possess, but to steal everything which does not belong to them to hoard together in their own hands the entire wealth of the world, which according to their assertion is unlawfully withheld from them by all who do not belong to the Jewish race.

The well-known Jewish writer Werner Sombart says:

"The fundamental characteristic feature of the Jewish religion consists in the fact that it is a religion which has nothing to do with the other world, but, as one might say, is solely materialistic. Man can experience good or evil only in this world; if God wishes to punish or reward, then he can do this only in the lifetime of man. Therefore the just man (righteous) must attain well-being here on earth and the Godless suffer." (14).

"It is useless to dwell upon the difference, which derives from this contrast of two outlooks, relating to the attitude of the devout Jew and of the devout Christian, with regard to the acquisition of wealth. The devout Christian who has got into debt with the usurer, was tortured on his deathbed by pangs of regret (repentance) and was ready to abandon everything which he possessed; for the knowledge of the unjustly acquired goods consumed him. On the other hand the devout Jew, when the end of his life approached, regarded with contentment the trunks and cases filled to the burstingpoint, in which the profits were accumulated, which during his long life he had taken off the wretched Christians and also the poor Moslems. It was a spectacle on which his devout heart could feast, for every roll of money which lay locked up there, he saw as a sacrifice brought to his God." (15).

(15).— Werner Sombart: Ibid. P. 286.

Simultaneously, Jewish money (which at present represents the greatest part of the money in the world) is the most powerful tool of all, which to a vast extent has made possible the financing of revolutionary movements without whose help the latter would never have been able to triumph and be able in such a manner to destroy Christian civilization in all its appearances; be it whether the individual is materialistically influenced by his being taught that money is to be preferred to otherworldly values, or be it through the direct methods, which they know how to use so energetically, like bribery and embezzlement in public offices and taxation swindling as well as the general buying of consciences.

The Jewish idea of accumulating all the money in the world through Communism appears in all transparency with many famous Jewish writers like Edmond Fleg, Barbusse, Andre Spire and others; in particular most expressly in the well known letter, which the famous Neo-Messianic Baruch Levy sent to Karl Marx which was discovered in the year 1888 and published for the first time in the same year. The text is as follows:

"The Jewish people as a whole is its own Messiah. Its kingdom over the universe is obtained through the uniting of other human races, through the suppression of frontiers and monarchies, which are bulwarks for particularism and hinder the erection of a world republic where citizenship is everywhere recognized to the Jew. In this new organization of mankind the sons of Israel, who at present are scattered over the entire earth's surface, will all be the same race and of the same traditional culture, without, however, forming another nationality, and be without contradiction the leading element in all parts, particularly if it is successful in laying upon the masses of workers a permanent leadership by some Jews. The governments of peoples all pass with the formation of the universal republic effortlessly into the hands of the Israelites in favour of the victory of the proletariat. Then the personal property of the rulers will be able to be suppressed by the rulers of the Jewish race who will everywhere govern over the property of the peoples. Then the promise of the Talmud will be fulfilled, that when the time of the Messiah has come, the Jews will have the goods of all peoples of the world in their possession." (16).

If one follows these tactics of economic accumulation, then it is completely natural that we see how the richest financiers and the most important bankers of the world finance the Communist revolutions; it is also not difficult, bearing in mind the data mentioned, to explain a situation, which superficially studied appears senseless and absurd, namely that one always sees the richest Jews of the world united with the Israelite leaders of the Communist movements. If the explanations of the most wellknown Jews suffice to show us this close connection with clarity, then the evident facts are still all the clearer, so that they wipe away even the slightest trace of doubt.

After the French defeat of 1870 and the fall of the Emperor Napoleon III, the Marxists led by Karl Marx from London formed the Commune from March 18, 1871 onwards. During this period of more than two months, in Paris the National Guard, which had been transformed into an armed organization, was through and through dependant on the Marxist International.

When the Commune could not resist the attack of the troops of the government, with its seat at Versailles, and the Communists saw their defeat as unavoidable, they devoted themselves to robbery, murder and incendiarism, in order to destroy the capital, in accordance with the plan already proposed by Clauiserets in the year 1869:

"Ourselves or nothing! I promise you, Paris will belong to us or cease to exist."

Upon this occasion, the joint guilt of the french Jewish bankers together with the communists, was clearly revealed.

(16).— Salluste. "Les Origines Secrètes Du Bolchevisme. Henri Heine et Karl Marx". Jules Tallandier Edition. Paris. P. 33.

When it was established how Salluste in his book "Les origines secrètes du bolchevisme" alludes to the fact that Rothschild exercised pressure on one side in Versailles with Thiers, the President of the republic, in order to prevent a decisive fight against the Marxist Communists, by his talking of a possible understanding and agreements with the central committee of the Federals (Marxists), and on the other side enjoying total protection of his person and also of his property in the city of Paris, which was thrown into horrible and bloody chaos.

In this respect Salluste tells us in his afore-mentioned work, page 137:

"It is certain that M. Rothschild had good reasons to hold a conciliation possible: his villa in the Rue Saint-Florentin was protected day and night by a guard troop of the Federals (Marxists), who had the task of preventing any plundering. This protective troop was maintained for two months up to the moment, when the great barricade, which was only a few paces away, was taken by the Versailles troops."

"When the hostages were shot, the most beautiful palaces of Paris went up in flames and thousands of Frenchmen died as victims of the civil war, it is worth mentioning that the protection granted by the communists to the great Jewish banker did not cease for a moment."

In the year 1916 the Lieutenant-General of the Imperial Russian Army, A. Nechvolodof, described secret information which had been received from one of his agents, which on February 15 of the same year reached the supreme command of the Russian General Staff and read as follows:

"The first secret assembly, which reveals the beginning of the acts of violence, took place on Monday, February 14, in the East Side of New York. Of the 62 representatives gathered, 50 were veterans of the revolution of 1905, and the others new members. The greater part of those present were Jews and among them many educated people, as for example, doctors, writers, etc. . . . Some professional revolutionaries were also found amongst them. . . ."

"The first hours of this assembly were almost exclusively devoted to testing the methods and the possibilities of carrying out a great revolution in Russia. It was one of the most favourable moments for this."

"It was stated that the party had just received information from Russia, according to which the situation was completely and absolutely favourable; for all previously agreed conditions for a favourable rising were present. The one serious hindrance was the question of money; but scarcely was this remark made, when several members at once answered that this circumstance should cause no reflection for at the moment when it was necessary, substantial sums would be given by persons who sympathized with the movement for freedom. In this connection the name of Jakob Schiff was repeatedly mentioned." (17).

At the beginning of the year 1919, the secret service of the United States of America provided high officials of the French republic who visited America with a memorandum, in which the participation of the most principal bankers in the preparation of the Russian Communist revolution was categorically revealed:

copy.

In February 1916 it became known for the first time that a revolution was being promoted in Russia. It was discovered that the following named persons and firms were involved in this work of destruction:

1. Jakob Schiff; Jew.
2. Kuhn, Loeb & Co.; Jewish firm.

(17).— Esteban J. Malanni: "Comunismo y Judaísmo," Editorial La Mazonca, Buenos Aires, 1944, P. 54.

Directors:

Jakob Schiff; Jew.
Felix Warburg; Jew.
Otto Kahn; Jew.
Mortimer Schiff; Jew.
Hieronymus H. Hanauer; Jew.

3. Guggenheim; Jew.
4. Max Breitung; Jew.

At the beginning of the year 1917, Jakob Schiff began to protect the Jew and Freemason Trotsky, whose real name is Bronstein; the mission given to him consisted of the directing of the social revolution in Russia. The New York paper "Forward," a Jewish Bolshevik daily paper, likewise protected him for the same purpose. Also he was aided financially by the Jewish firm of Max Warburg, Stockholm, the Rheinisch-Westphalische Syndicate, as well as the Jew Olef Aschberg, of the Nye-Banks, Stockholm, as well as the Jew Jivotovsky, whose daughter Trotsky married. In this manner relations were established between the Jewish multi-millionaires and the proletarian Jews.

"The Jewish firm of Kuhn, Loeb & Co., has links with the Rheinisch-Westphalian Syndicate, a Jewish firm in Germany; just as it has links with Lazard-Freres, a Jewish house in Paris and also with the Jewish firm of Gunzbourg of Paris, and the same Jewish firm of Gunzbourg of Petrograd, Tokyo and Paris; if we observe in addition that all affairs are likewise handled with the Jewish firms of Speyer & Co., London, New York and Frankfurt/M., exactly as with the firms of Nye-Banks, who are the agents for Jewish-Bolshevik business affairs in Stockholm, then we can draw the inference from this that the banking firm has relations with all Bolshevik movements; one can see that in praxis it represents the true expression of a general Jewish movement, and that certain Jewish banking houses are interested in the organization of these movements." (18).

(18).— Duque de la Victoria. "Israel Manda". Page 312.

In the pamphlet of S. de Baamonde we again find something new about the banking house of Kuhn Loeb & Co., Jakob Schiff was an Israelite of German origin. His father, who lived in Frankfurt, was in that city a modest local agent of the firm of Rothschild. The son emigrated to the United States. There he rapidly made a career which soon made him chief of the large firm of Kuhn, Loeb & Co., the most important Israelite bank of America.

"In the Jewish banking world Jakob Schiff not only distinguished himself through his knowledge of business and the daredevilry of his inventive power, but he also occasioned very resolute plans and intentions, even if neither new nor original, concerning the leading political activity, which each banking system should exert over the fates of the world: "The spiritual direction of human affairs."

Another of the constant concerns of this plutocrat was mixing at all cost in the political affairs of Russia, in order to bring about a change of regime in that land. The political conquest of Russia, which up to then had evaded the influence of Freemasonry, thanks to its regime of reason, should be the best circle of effect to secure the power of Israel on the entire universe. (19).

"In the spring of 1917, Jakob Schiff began to instruct Trotsky (Jew), how he should carry out the social revolution in Russia. The Jewish Bolshevik newspaper of New York, 'Forward' also concerned itself with the same theme":

"From Stockholm as centre, the Jew Max Warburg authorized Trotsky & Co., as did Rheinisch-Westphalian Syndicate an important Jewish company, as well as Olef Aschberg of the Nye Bank of Stockholm and Yivotovsky, a Jew, whose daughter married Trotsky." (20).

"At the same time a Jew, Paul Warburg, found to have such a close connection with the Bolsheviks that he was not selected again to the 'Federal Reserve Board.' "(21).

The "Times" of London of February 9, 1918 and the "New York Times" alluded in two articles by Samuel Gompers, which were published in the issues of May 10, 1922 and December 31, 1923, to the following:

"If we bear in mind that the Jewish firm of Kuhn-Loeb & Co., is connected with the Rheinisch-Westphalian Syndicate, a Jewish firm in Germany, with Lazard Freres, a Jewish firm of Paris and also with the banking house of Gunzbourg, a Jewish firm in Petrograd, Tokyo and Paris, and if we in addition point out that the afore-mentioned Jewish trading firms maintain close relations to the Jewish firm of Speyer & Co. in London, New York and Frankfurt/Main, as likewise with Nye Banks, a Jewish-Bolshevik firm in Stockholm, then we can establish that the Bolshevik movement in itself is to a certain degree the expression of a universal Jewish movement, and that certain Jewish banking houses are interested in the organization of this movement." (22).

General Nechvolodof alludes in his work "L'Empereur Nicholas II et Les Juifs" (1924), to the strong Jewish financing of the Communist revolution in Russia:

"During the years which preceded the revolution, Jakob Schiff had supplied the Russian revolutionaries with twelve million dollars. On their side the triumphant Bolsheviks, according to M. Bakmetieff, the ambassador of the Russian Imperial government in the United States, who died some time ago in Paris, transferred six hundred million gold roubles between 1918 and 1922 to the firm of Kuhn-Loeb & Co."

According to these convincing proofs I do not believe that it occurs to anyone to arrive at the optimistic conclusion, that there exist wicked Jews (the Communist) and good Jews (the Capitalists); further, that, while the ones strive to cut off the wealth of private persons and to cause private property to vanish, the others strive for the defense of both things, so as not to lose their enormous riches. To the misfortune of our civilization the Jewish conspiracy shows features of unconditional unity. Judaism forms a monolithic power, which is directed at forcing together all riches of the world without exception, by means of Communist Socialism according to Marx.

At the present time one sees in our civilized world the admission of racial discrimination as the greatest sin, into which man could fall. It is alleged to be a fault, which leaves behind an eternal and ugly wound of barbarity and animal nature, always presupposing that the Jewish people do not in practice commit this fault. Thanks to Jewish propaganda which is controlled almost exclusively in the world by the Israelites (cinema, radio, press, television, publishing, etc.) anti-Semitism is the most disgraceful of all racial manifestations; for the Jews have made out of anti-Semitism a truly destructive weapon, which serves to nullify the efforts of countless persons and organizations, who have clearly recognized who the real head of Communism is, in spite of its camouflage and cunning, which this race uses to conceal its true activity. Particularly such persons and organizations that have tried to sound the alarm, since they were filled with horror at the fatal end, which draws nearer and nearer.

This network of lies is so successful, that the majority of anti-Communists, who wish to make an end of the Marxist monster, direct their energetic and courageous attacks against the tentacles of the octopus and know nothing of the existence of the terrible head which renews the destroyed limbs, conducts its movements and brings the activities in all parts of its system into harmony. The sole possibility of destroying the Communist Socialism of Marx consists in attacking the head of the same, which at present is Jewry as the undeniable facts and irrefutable evidence of the Jews themselves allow to be discerned.

While the Christian lands are anti-racialist, because they build up their ideas on the concept of loving ones neighbour, the Jews were and are at present the most fanatical representatives of racial discrimination, which they base on ideas from the Talmud, because they proceed from the principle that the non-Jew is not even a human being.

However, this Christian opposition to racial discrimination is very skillfully utilized by the Jews; and in the shadow of the same they weld their devilish intrigues against the Catholic Church and all Christian order, by their forming the Communist system, where there is neither God nor church nor supersensual norms of any kind. As soon as they are attacked, they protest with crying lamentation and show themselves as victims of inhuman racial discrimination, only for the purpose of crippling that work of defense which opposes their destructive attacks.

In spite of this, one can regard the real defense against Communism, which must be forcefully directed against the Jews (against the head), in no manner as a sinful manifestation of a feeling of revulsion towards a definite race; for the characteristic of racial discrimination is completely alien to our culture and our Christian principles; however, one cannot avoid a problem of such weight and range out of fear of being described as "Antisemite," which doubtless occurs with those who do not understand the present situation of the world.

Thus it is not a question of combating a race out of considerations of racial order. If one at present brings the problem under close inspection, the Jews alone must bear the responsibility of leaving us no other choice because of their racial discrimination in life and death, with their absolute disregard of all who are not of their race and with their greed for world domination.

For Catholics in particular, and for the civilized world in general, who still firmly believe in their established principles and other-wordly values, the confirmation cannot be simpler;

for it is a problem of self-defense, which is accepted completely in the moral and just order, if the pure dilemma, which Judaism shows us, is the following: "Either Jewish-Communist domination or extermination."

CHAPTER IV

JEWISH TESTIMONY

In spite of their accustomed seclusion, and even in spite of their deceptive and clandestine manoeuvres, by which they have been successful in remaining concealed, so as not to reveal their Communist plan for world conquest, the Jews have had several weak moments, to which they have been induced either through optimism or excessive jubilation in the studying of their successes and which upon different occasions have called forth impetuous but highly factual declarations. Kadmi-Cohen, a highly regarded Jewish writer, affirms that:

"As far as the Jews are concerned, their role in world socialism is so important that one cannot pass quietly over it. Does it not suffice to recall the names of the great Jewish revolutionaries of the 19th and 20th centuries, such as Karl Marx, Lasalle, Kurt Eisner, Bela Kun, Trotsky and Leon Blum, so that in this manner it is clear who are the theoreticians of modern Socialism?" (23).

(23).— Kadmi-Cohen. Nomades. (Essai Sur L'Âme Juive) 1929. P. 80.

"What a brilliant confirmation do the strivings of the Jews find in Communism, apart from the material cooperation in party organizations, in the deep revulsion which a great Jew and great poet, Heinrich Heine, felt against Roman law! And the personal and passionate motives for the anger of Rabbi Aquila and Bar Kocheba of the years 70 and 132 after Jesus Christ, against the Roman peace and the Roman law which was understood personally and passionately and felt by a Jew of the 19th century, who had apparently preserved no bond with his own race."

"The Jewish revolutionaries and Jewish Communists, who dispute the basic principle of private property whose firmly established foundation is the civil law book of Justinian, of Ulpian, etc.; only imitate their forefathers who opposed Vespasian and Titus. In reality it is the dead, who speak . " (24).

The blasphemous Jewish writer Alfred Nossig tells us:

"Socialism and the Mosaic law in no way oppose one another, but there exists on the contrary a surprising similarity between the basic ideas of both teachings. Jewish nationalism may not remove itself as a danger, which threatens the ideal, further from Socialism than the Jew from the Mosaic Law; for both parallel-running ideals must arrive in the same way at execution." (25).

"From the examination of the facts of the case it is revealed in a completely irrefutable manner that the modern Jews have cooperated in a decisive way and manner in the creation of Socialism; their own fathers were already the founders of the Mosaic Law. The seed of the Mosaic Law took effect over the centuries upon doctrine and command, in conscious manner for the one and unconsciously for the other. The modern Socialist movements are for the great majority a work of the Jews; the Jews gave it the stamp of their understanding; it was also Jews who had a striking share in leadership of the first Socialist republics. In spite of this, the enormous majority of Jewish Socialist leaders were divorced from the Mosaic Law; for in unconscious manner there took effect within them the racial principle of the Mosaic Law, and the race of the old apostolic peoples lived in their brain and in their social character. Present world socialism forms the first State in fulfilment of the Mosaic Law, the beginning of realization of the future World State, which was announced by the prophets." (26).

(25).— Westsaelicher Merkur. Zeitung von Munster, No. 405 of Oct. 6, 1926.

In his book "Integral Jewry" he confirms this idea of Socialism as Jewish teaching, when he writes the following:

"If the peoples really wish to make progress they must lay aside the Medieval fear of the Jews and the retrogressive prejudices which they have against the latter. They must recognize what they really are, namely the most upright forerunners of human development. At the present day the salvation of Jewry demands that we openly recognize the programme facing the world; and the salvation of mankind in the coming centuries depends upon the victory of this programme." (27).

The reason for this Jewish revolutionary conduct is clearly explained by the well known Jewish writer E. Eberlin in the following excerpt:

"The more radical the revolution is, all the more freedom and equality for the Jews comes about as a result. Every current of progress strengthens further the position of the Jews. In the same manner every setback and every reaction attacks it in first place. Often, only a simple orientation towards the Right, will expose the Jews to boycott. From this aspect the Jew is the pressure-valve of the social (steam) boiler. As a body the Jewish people cannot stand on the side of reaction; for reaction is the return to the past and means for the Jews the continuation of their abnormal conditions of existence." (28).

The ill-reputed Jew Jakob von Haas, says to us in "The Macabean" quite clearly that "the Russian revolution, which we experienced is a revolution of Jewry. It signifies a change in the history of the Jewish people. If we speak openly, it was a Jewish revolution; for the Jews were the most energetic revolutionaries in Russia."

In the Jewish-French newspaper entitled "Le Peuple Juif" of February 1919 one can read the following: "The Russian Revolution, which we see at present, will be the exclusive work of our hands."

One finds the following passage in a book by the famous Jewish writer Samuel Schwarz with a foreword by Ricardo Jorge: "When we ascend from the heights of pure science to the place of battle, which the passions and the interests of men clash against each other, there rises before us the oracle of the new social-political religion, the Jew Karl Marx, the dogmatic leader of war for life and death. He finds in the head and in the arm of Lenin the realization of his confession of belief and sees in him the firefighter for the Soviet State, which threatens to overthrow the firm foundations of the traditional institutions of society." (29).

In the same way another Jew, Hans Cohen, confirms in the "Political Idea," that "the Socialism of Marx is the purpose of our striving and efforts."

In number 12 of the newspaper "The Communist" which was published in Kharkov on the 12th of April, 1919, the Jew M. Cohen writes:

(29).— Ricardo Jorge: "Os Cristaos Novos en Portugal no seculo XX". Foreword of Samuel Schwarz. Page X. Lisbon 1925.

"Without exaggeration one can make the assurance that the great social revolution in Russia was carried out by the Jews. It is true that in the ranks of the Red Army, there are soldiers who are not Jews. But in the committees and in the Soviet organizations, just as with the Commissars, the Jews lead the masses of the Russian proletariat to victory with courage."

"At the head of the Russian revolutionaries marched the pupils of the Rabbinic school of Lidia." Jewry triumphed over fire and sword, with our brother Marx, who had the mandate for the fulfilment of all that our prophets have commanded, and who worked out the suitable plan for the demands of the proletariat." All these sentences appeared in the Jewish newspaper "Hajjut" of Warsaw of August 3, 1928."

"The Jewish World," of January 10, 1929, expressed this blaspheming view: "Bolshevism, the very fact of its existence, and that so many Jews are Bolsheviks, further—that the ideal of Bolshevism is in harmony with the most sublime ideal of Jewry, which in part formed the foundation for the best teachings of the founder of Christianity, all this has a deep significance, which the thoughtful Jew carefully examines."

In order not to range too widely at this point, we quote in conclusion the allusions which the Israelite Paul Sokolowsky makes in his work, entitled "The Mission of Europe," where he boasts of the predominant role which the Jews played in the Russian revolution and reveals details concerning the secret codes which they used to reach understanding with each other, even by means of the press, without the attention of the authorities being drawn to themselves, and how they distributed Communist propaganda which they prepared, through the Jewish children, whom they carefully schooled for these services in their settlements. (30).

(30).— Lic. Alfonso de Castro. El Problema Judío. Editorial Actualidad. México, D. F. 1939. Pages 152 & 153.

This hellish, Jewish-Communist hate, which is chiefly revealed against Christian civilization, is not unfounded, but it has its very deep causes, which can be judged with full clarity in this following excerpt from the "Sepher-Ha-Zohar", the holy book of modern Jewry, which represents the feelings of all Jews:

"Jeshu (Jesus), the Nazarene, who has brought the world away from belief in Jehovah, who be praised, will each Friday be again restored. At day break of Saturday he will be thrown into boiling oil. Hell will pass but his punishment and his tortures will never end. Jesus and Mohammed are those unclean bones of offal of which the Scripture says: "Ye shall cast before the dogs. They are the dirt of the dog, the unclean, and because they have misled men, they are cast into Hell, from which they never again come out." (31).

As we proved in this book and is also demonstrated by hundreds of other books, the final objective of Judaism on earth is to establish Communist Socialism to dominate the world in a totalitarian way, and to plunder the wealth of other people and subject them to slavery.

Due to the oaths of obedience rendered by all Jews to their leaders, the communities they compose are well-disciplined political armies, because dissidents are mercilessly poisoned by the secret police existing in each Israelite community, which has physicians that provide a certificate saying that he died because of "natural death", in order to hide those poisonings from the public. Jews, by doing that, follow the biblical commands that demand the death penalty for those who disobey or revolt against their leaders. This fact has been decisive in order to give internal strength to the Jewish people throughout the world, that surpasses that of all other people. It is very dangerous for the Jews that free people become aware of the fact that they are the parents and propagators of Communism; that is why they attempt to misorient people and some of them make public statements against Communism, and start verbal fights and polemics, while most Jews continue to promote Communism supported by their Jewish leaders who claim themselves to be anti-Communist, sometimes creating false anti-Communist organizations and through vast anti-Marxist wordiness, betray true anti-Communist organizations and through vast anti-Marxist wordiness, betray true anti-Communists and sow disagreement in their organizations.

Nevertheless, if a Jew — as any soldier of an army — can neither revolt nor disobey his leaders without being crushed, the leaders of an Israelite Regional Community have frequently entered into quarrels and conflicts against leaders of another Community along the history of the Israelite People. These struggles lasted years and even decades, until they were settled by means of the ancient Rabbinic Synods that gathered all the representatives of the Israelite communities of a continent or the world, and presently they are settled by continental or world Congresses that coordinate the activities of the Autonomous Regional Communities and solve rivalries in order to restore unity in world Israel, which was temporarily broken.

Particularly important in our time — in conflicts existing among Autonomous Regional Communities — is the strife between the Autonomous Regional Communities that controls the Soviet Union in secret, and the Autonomous Regional Community that controls the State of Israel in secret too. Different things cause this family quarrel, and one of them is the fact that Jews that lead the Soviet Union in a totalitarian way and many others from different places of the world, consider it more important for Judaism to have a totalitarian power over the world than to enlarge the small State of Israel to the expense of the Arab territories, which could be done much more easily when Judaism has enslaved all people on earth by means of Communism.

Most Jews from the State of Israel and Zionists in general, consider it is more important to enlarge the State of Israel as much as possible, and they deem they will have enough time later to implant Communism all over the world.

As it can be seen, these two Jewish factions anti-Zionists and Zionists respectively, while quarreling among themselves, agree in the essential question: Both of them wish to have Communism established all over the world and both of them wish to have a gigantic State of Israel. They only disagree as to the time to accomplish this last goal.

This family quarrel has allowed the Soviet Jewish faction to enlarge its influence in some Arab States and some of those of the so-called Third World; Judaism, then, has made profit and the Zionist faction has been allowed to annex Arab territories to Israel with the support of the United States, because United States Jews have made sure that Israel received better support than that given to the Arabs by the Soviets. Judaism has also profited by this.

It is astonishing to see how Judaism always gains profit from both sides, even in its internal rivalries. But as an illustrious writer said wisely, we are not forced to let the tiger devour us despite how intelligent it may be.

Jews leading the Soviet Union have attained so much in Africa with the complicity of United States Jews that they can even put their dissidents in insane asylums or jails instead of poisoning them as all Israelite communities in the world do.

Despite their differences of opinion on the Zionist affair, Zionist and anti-Zionist Jews are closely committed in their final goal, that is to say, to dominate the world, to expropriate the wealth of other people and to subject them to slavery.

Anyone wishing to research and widen their knowledge on the secrets of the conflict between the Soviet Union and Zionism and the State of Israel, may consult the valuable book written by the Polish author Louis Bielsky, titled "The Soviet-Israelite Claw Strangles the Arabs".

CHAPTER V

THE HEAD OF COMMUNISM

There exists therefore not the slightest doubt, that the Marxist theory (communism) is Jewish work, just as is also its every action, which aims at putting this doctrine into practice.

Before the final establishing of Bolshevism in Russia the directors and organizers of all communist movements in their entirety were almost solely Jews, just as the great majority of the true organizers of the revolutions were to which they gave the impetus. But in Russia as the first land where Bolshevism finally triumphed, and where it was and still is the fulcrum or driving force for the communizing of the world, the Jewish paternity of the system of organization and of Soviet praxis also allows no doubt or error. According to the irrefutable data, which has been fully and completely proved and recognized by all impartial writers, who have dealt with this theme, the communist work of the Jews in the land of the Czars is so powerful, that it would be useless to deny this disastrous triumph as their monopoly.

It suffices to recall the names of those who have formed the governments and the principal leading organs in the Soviet Union, in order to know what one has immediately to think of the clear and categorical proof of the evidence.

I.— MEMBERS OF THE FIRST COMMUNIST GOVERNMENT OF MOSCOW (1918)

(Council of Peoples Commissars)

1. Illich Ulin (Vladimir Illich Ulianov or Nikolaus Lenin). President of the Supreme Soviet Jew on mother's side. His mother was called Blank, a Jewess of German origin.
2. Lew Davinovich Bronstein (Leo Trotsky), Commissar for the Red Army and the Navy; Jew.
3. Iosip David Vissarionovich Djugashvili-Kochba (Joseph Vissarianovich Stalin), Nationalities Commissar; descendant of Jews from Georgia.

7. Marthenson, Director of the Press Bureau of the Commissariat for Internal Affairs; Jew.
8. Pfeierman, Chief Commissar for Communist Police of Petrograd; Jew.
9. Schneider, Political Commissar of Petrograd; Jew.
10. Minnor, Political Commissar of Moscow; American Jew.

III.— COMMISSARIAT FOR FOREIGN AFFAIRS

(Higher Officials)

1. Margolin, Director of the Passports Office; Jew.
2. Fritz, Director of the Commissariat for Foreign Affairs; Jew.
3. Lafet (Joffe), Soviet Ambassador in Berlin; Jew.
4. Lewin, First Secretary of the Soviet Embassy in Berlin; Jew.
5. Askerloft, Director of the Press and Information Offices of the Soviet Embassy in Berlin; Jew.
6. Beck, Extraordinary Ambassador of the Soviet Government in London and Paris; Jew.
7. Benitler (Beintler), Soviet Ambassador in Oslo; Jew.
8. Martius, Soviet Ambassador in Washington; German (?).
9. Lew Rosenfeld (Kamenev), Soviet Ambassador in Vienna; Jew.
10. Vaslaw Vorosky, former Soviet Ambassador in Rome up to the year 1922, who was murdered by the former Czarist officer M. A. Kontrady on May 10th 1925 in Lausanne; Jew.

11. Peter Lazarovich Voicoff, Soviet Ambassador in Warsaw up to June 7th 1927, when he was murdered by a young Russian; Jew.
12. Malkin, Soviet Consul in Glasgow (Scotland) in the year 1919; Jew.
13. Kain Rako (Rokevsky), President of the Peace Committee of Kiev; Jew.
14. Manuilsky, first adjutant of Rako and at present leading communist ruler in the Ukraine; Jew.
15. Astzumb-Ilssen, first legal advisor of the Soviet Commissariat for Foreign Affairs (1918); Jew.
16. Abel Beck, Consul General in Odessa; Jew.
17. Grundbaum (Cevinsky), Consul General in Kiev; Jew.

IV.— HIGHER OFFICIALS IN THE SOVIET ECONOMIC COMMISSARIAT (1918)

1. Merzvin (Merzwinsky), first Trade Commissar; Jew.
2. Solvein, Secretary of Merzvin; Jew.
3. Haskyn, General Secretary of the Soviet Trade Commissariat; Jew.
4. Bertha Hinewitz, assistant of Haskyn; Jewess.
5. Isidor Gurko (Gurkowsky), second Trade Commissar; Jew.
6. Jaks (Gladneff), Secretary of Gurko; Jew.
7. Latz (Latsis), President of the Trade Council; Jew from Latvia.
8. Weisman, Secretary of the Trade Council; Jew.
9. Satkinov, Government Counselor of the Peoples Bank of Moscow; Russian.
10. Jaks (brother of the other), Government Counselor of the Peoples Bank; Jew.
11. Axelrod (Orthodox) government counsellor of the Peoples Bank; Jew.
12. Michelson, Government Counselor of the Peoples Bank; American Jew.
13. Furstemberg (Ganetsky), Commissar for the Government of "Soviet-German" Trade Affairs. In reality he was the contact man of the Jewish revolutionaries of Russia, and the Jewish banking group of Kuhn-Loeb & Co., New - York; Warburg, Stockholm; Speyer & Co., London; Lazar Freres, Paris, etc., which supported the communist revolution of Russia by way of the Rheinisch-Westfalische Syndicate for the Bank-system in Germany with money contributions.

14. Kogon (one of the Kaganovich brothers), first secretary of Furstemberg; Jew.

V.— HIGHER OFFICIALS OF THE COMMISSARIAT OF LAW (1918-19)

1. Joseph Steinberg, brother of Steinberg, who is the titular Commissar; Jew. He occupies the post of first "Peoples" Commissar.

Of a total of 502 offices of first rank in the organization and direction of the Communist revolution in Russia and in the direction of the Soviet State during the first years of its existence, no less than 459 posts are occupied by Jews, while only 43 of these offices have been occupied by gentiles of different origin. Who then has accordingly carried out this terrible revolution? The gentiles perhaps? (32). Another statistic, which was published in Paris by the counter-revolutionary newspaper "Le Russe Nationaliste", after the victory of the Jewish Communists in Russia, reveals that of 554 communist leaders of first rank in different offices the racial composition was as follows:

During the Second World War and from then on up to our present time the Jewish clique which rules the Union of Socialist Soviet Republics continues to be very numerous, for at the head of the names stands Stalin himself, who for a long time was regarded as a Georgian of pure descent. But it has been revealed, that he belongs to the Jewish race; for Djougachvili, which is his surname, means "Son of Djou," and Djou is a small island in Persia, where many banished Portuguese "marranos" migrated, who later settled in Georgia.

Today it is almost completely proved, that Stalin had Jewish blood, although he neither confirmed nor denied the rumors, about which mutterings began in this direction. (33).

Let us look at a list of the Soviet officials in the government of Stalin:

1. Zdanov (Yadanov), who in reality was called Liphshitz, former commander in the defense of Leningrad during the 2nd World War. Member of the Politburo up to 1948 and one of the instigators of the decision which excluded Tito from the Cominform in the year 1948 and who shortly afterwards died.

2. Lavrenty Beria, Chief of the M.V.D. Police and of Soviet heavy industry, member of the Soviet Atom industry, who was executed upon orders of Malenkov, and in fact for the same reason for which Stalin liquidated Yagoda.

(33).— Bernard Hutton. French magazine "Constellation" No. 167 of March 1962. P. 202.

3. Lazar Kaganovich, director of Soviet heavy industry, member of the Politburo from 1944 to 1952, then member of the Presidium and at present President of the Supreme Presidium of the USSR.

4. Malenkov (Georgi Maximilianovich Molenk), member of the Politburo and Orgburo until 1952, then member of the Supreme Presidium, President of the Ministerial Council after the death of Stalin; Minister in the government of Bulganin since 1955. He is a Jew from Ornsenburg, not a Cossack, as is asserted. The name of his father, Maximilian Malenk, is typical for a Russian Jew. In addition there is a very important detail, which reveals the true origin of Malenkov and also of Khruschev. The present wife of Malenkov is the Jewess Pearl-mutter, known as "Comrade Schans chuschne" who was Minister (Commissar) for the fish industry in the Soviet government in the year 1938. If Malenkov had not been a Jew, it is extremely unlikely that he would have married a Jewess, and the latter would also not have married him. There exists no official description of the life of Malenkov. This is certainly to be attributed to the fact that he does not want his Jewish origin to be discovered.

5. Nikolaus Solomon Khrushchev, present chief (1963) of the Soviet Communist Party, member of the Politburo since 1939, i.e. since the year, when Malenkov was chosen member of the Orgburo. He is the brother of Madame Malenkov, i.e. of the Jewess Pearl-mutter. Khrushchev is a Jew and his real name is Pearl-mutter. Also, the present wife of Khrushchev, Nina, as well as the wives of Mikoyan, Voroshilov, Molotov, etc., are Jewesses.

6. Marshal Nikolaus Bulganin, at present first Soviet minister, former bank official, was one of the ten Jewish members of the Commissariat for the liquidation of private banks in the year 1919.

7. Anastasio Josifovich Mikoyan, member of the Politburo since 1935, member of the Supreme Presidium since 1952, Trade Minister and Vice-President in the Malenkov government. He is an Armenian Jew and not a true Armenian as is believed.

8. Kruglov, chief of the M.V.D. after Beria. Upon command of Kruglov the imprisoned Jewish doctors were released, who had been imprisoned by Riumin, sub-chief of the police, during the rulership of Beria, in the year 1953. Likewise Jew.

9. Alexander Kosygin, member of the Politburo up to 1952, afterwards deputy in the Supreme Presidium and Minister for light industry and food in the Malenkov government.

10. Nikolaus Schvernik, member of the Politburo up to 1952, then member of the Supreme Presidium and member of the Presidium of the Central Committee of the Communist Party; Jew.

11. Andreas Andreievich Andreiev, who was known as the "Politbureaucrat" of 3 A, member of the Politburo between 1931 and 1952, Jew from Galicia (Poland). He writes under Russian pseudonym.

12. P. K. Ponomarenko, member of the Orgburo in the year 1952; afterwards member of the highest Presidium and culture minister in the Malenkov government.

13. P. F. Yudin (Jew), deputy member of the highest Presidium and titulary of the Ministry for Building Material in the Malenkov government in the year 1953.

14. Mihail Pervukin, member of the Presidium of the central committee of the Communist Party since 1953.

15. N. Schatalin, official in the sub-secretariat of the Central Committee of the Communist Party.

16. K. P. Gorschenin, Justice Minister in the government of Malenkov.

17. D. Ustinov (Zambinovich), Soviet Ambassador in Athens (Greece) up to the Second World War; Defense Minister in the Malenkov government.

18. V. Merkulov, Minister for State Control at the time of Malenkov.

19. A. Zasyadko, Minister for the Coal Industry under Malenkov.

20. Cherburg, Soviet Propaganda chief.
21. Milstein, one of the Soviet espionage chiefs.
22. Ferentz Kiss, chief of the Soviet espionage Service in Europe.
23. Postchreibitscher (Poschebicheve), former private secretary of Stalin, at present chief of the secret archives of the Kremlin.
24. Ilya Ehrenburg, delegate for Moscow in the Supreme Soviet, communist writer; likewise Jew.
25. Mark Spivak, delegate from Stalino (Ukraine) in the Supreme Soviet of Moscow.
26. Rosalia Goldenberg, delegate from Birobidzhan in the Supreme Soviet.
27. Anna E. Kaluger, delegate of Bessarabia in the Supreme Soviet, her brother, not Koluger, but Calugaru in Rumanian, is a communist official in the government of Rumania.

Also Kalinin, one of the great Soviet officials under Stalin, who died some time ago, was a Jew. (34).

It is only too well known, that the Anti-Semitism of Stalin was a misrepresentation of the facts, and that the blood bath among the Jews (Trotskyites) which he carried out in order to assert his power, was performed by other Jews. In the last instance the struggle between the Jew Trotsky and the Jew Stalin was a struggle between Jewish parties for control over the communist government, which they created; it was purely a family dispute. As proof, the following list of Commissars of Foreign Affairs, during the period when Stalin got rid of some certain Jews, who had become dangerous for his personal power.

1. Maxim Maximovich Litvinoff, Minister for Foreign Affairs up to 1939, when he was replaced by Molotov. He afterwards occupied high offices in the same ministry up to his death in February 1952. He was born in Poland as son of the Jew Meer Genokh Moiseevich Vallakh, a bankclerk. In order to conceal his real name Maxim Moiseevich Vallakh (Litvinoff used various pseudonyms during his real career, among them Finkelstein, Ludwig Nietz, Maxim Harryson, David Mordecai, Felix, and finally, when he became an official in the Communist regime of Russia, he took on the name of Litvinoff or Litvinov. When this Jew was replaced by Molotov in the year 1939, the Jewry of the western world and the entire Jewish-Freemasonic press began to cry out that he had been removed through Stalin, because he was a "Jew", but they kept quiet afterwards concerning the fact that up to his death Litvinov remained in the ministry. Why also say this, if it was not of interest for the conspiracy? In the Memoirs of Litvinov, which were published after his death, he wrote that in his opinion nothing would alter in Soviet Russia after the death of Stalin. In fact, Stalin died a year after Litvinov and nothing was altered in the Soviet's internal and external policies.

What the West calls change in the policy of the USSR, is simply nothing further than a skilled propaganda for the necessities of the plan for world rule through the Jews. Nothing has altered since the death of Stalin. A certain unrest may have arisen on account of the lack of a new leader of the stature of Stalin or Lenin, that is all. For this reason the Jewish-Freemasonic conspirators of the West wish to paint the Soviet-Communist black raven over with the glittering colours of "Pacifism," of "Coexistence," "Human friendliness," etc., in order to introduce it to the world as something harmless, until a dictator with the same lusts of his predecessors arises.

When Litvinov asserted that nothing would alter with the death of Stalin, he knew very well, that this would be so, because Stalin was nothing more than one of the handymen of the Jewish band, which rules the USSR, and because after him other Jews would be at hand, to carry on the plan of world domination, for which Bulganin, Baruch, Reading, Thorez, Mendes France, David Ben Gurion and many others are cooperating.

In continuing the list of Jews in the Ministry for Foreign Affairs of the USSR, we mention:

2. Andreas Januarevich Vishinsky, now dead, who was foreign minister of the USSR before the death of Stalin and afterwards permanent representative of the Soviet Union in the UNO. There he missed no opportunity to sling his obscenities against the non-Communist lands, exactly as in the times when he was "Peoples Judge." His Jewish name was Abraham Januarevin.

3. Jakob Malik, Soviet representative in the UNO and a great personality in the Soviet diplomatic hierarchy; Jew.

4. Valerian Zorin, for a time ambassador in London and likewise a great figure of Soviet diplomacy, who changes his post according to necessity.

5. Andrei Gromyko, Jewish diplomat, Minister for Foreign Affairs since 1958.

6. Alexander Panyushkin, former Soviet ambassador in Washington, ambassador in Peking during the year 1955, who is regarded as the dictator of Red China until Mao Tse-tung, who is loyal to the Stalinism, revolted against Kruschev when he betrayed Stalinism.

7. Zambinovich (Ustinov), ambassador in Athens up to 1940.

8. Admiral Radionovich, ambassador in Athens between 1945 and 1946, that is to say, as the Communist coup d'etat in Greece was prepared; Jew.

9. Constantin Umansky, ambassador in Washington during the Second World War and afterwards official in the Ministry for Foreign Affairs in Moscow.

10. Manuilsky, former representative in the Ukraine and in the UNO, at present President of the Ukraine; likewise Jew.

11. Ivan Maisky, ambassador in London during the war, afterwards high official of the Foreign Ministry in Moscow.

12. Madame Kolontay, ambassadress in Stockholm until her death in March 1952; Jewess.

13. Daniel Solod, ambassador in Cairo in the year 1955.

The latter, supported by a Jewish group which belongs to the diplomatic corps in Cairo, directs the Israelite conspiracy inside the Arab world under Soviet diplomatic protection, without the Egyptian government noticing this. This government should not forget, that David Ben Gurion, first minister of Israel, as well as Golda Meyerson, Israel's Minister in Moscow, are Russian Jews like David Solod. (35).

At present according to confirmed data 80% to 90% of the key positions in all ministries in Moscow and the remaining Soviet republics are occupied by Jews.

"I do not believe that there can be any doubt of the origin of all those who occupy the highest posts in Moscow since the first moment of the revolution; for the Russians it is a lamentable fact that after all this course of time things are much worse, for the number of Jews who live in Russia, has increased in frightening degree. All important leading positions are in their hands. . ." (36).

As in Russia the countries of Europe where Bolshevism has gained control, are also completely ruled by a Jewish minority; the latter always appears in the direction of the Communist government with iron, criminal and merciless hand, so as to attain the utter enslaving of the native citizens through an insignificant group of Jews.

More convincing than any other proof is an exact surveying of the most principal leaders of the Bolshevik governments of Europe, which are always found in the lands of the Israelites. We will quote the most principal ones:

A.— HUNGARY

1. The most important Communist leader since the occupation of this land by Soviet troops is Mathias Rakosi, an Israelite, whose real name is Mathew Roth Rosenkranz, who was born in the year 1892 in Szabadka.

(35).— Traian Romanescu. Ibid. Cited Edition. Pages 177 and 178.

(36).— Duque de la Victoria "Israel Manda". Editora "Latino Americana", S. A. México, D. F. Page 287.

2. Ferenc Münnich, first minister in Hungary in the year 1959 after Janos Kadar.
3. Erno Gero, Minister of the Interior until 1954.
4. Szebeni, Minister of the Interior before the Jew Gero.
5. General Laszlo Kiros, Jew, Minister of Interior since July 1954, simultaneously chief of the A.V.O. that is to say the Hungarian police, which corresponds to the Soviet M.V.D.
6. General Peter Gabor, chief of the Communist political police of Hungary up to 1953, a Jew, who in reality was called Benjamin Ausspitz and was earlier a tailor in Satorai-Jeujhely, Hungary.
7. Varga, State Secretary for Economic Planning; a Jew, who in reality, is called Weichselbaum; former Minister of the Bela Kun government. He was also President of the Supreme Economic Council.
8. Beregi, Minister for Foreign Affairs.
9. Julius Egry, Agriculture Minister of the Hungarian Peoples Republic.
10. Zoltan Vas, President of the Supreme Economic Council; a Jew, who in reality was called Weinberger.
11. Josef Reval, dictator of the Hungarian press and director of the red newspaper "Szabad Nep" (The Free People); a Jew, who is really called Moses Kahana.
12. Reval (another), Minister for National Education; a Jew named Rabinovits.
13. Josef Gero, Transport Minister; a Jew named Singer.
14. Mihaly Farkas, Minister for National Defense; a Jew named Freedman.
15. Veres, Minister of State.
16. Vajda, Minister of State.
17. Szanto, Commissar for purging of enemies of the State, in the year 1951 sent by Moscow; a Jew named Schreiber; former member of the Bela Kun government.

18. Guyla Dessi, Justice Minister up to 1955; today chief of the Secret Police.

19. Emil Weil, Hungarian ambassador in Washington; he is the Jewish doctor who tortured Cardinal Mindszenty.

Among other important Jewish officials to be mentioned are:

1. Imre Szirmay, director of the Hungarian radio company.

2. Gyula Garay, judge of the Communist "Peoples Court of Budapest."

3. Colonel Caspo, subchief of the secret police.

4. Professor Laszlo Benedek, Jewish dictator for educational questions.

The sole important Communist of Gentile origin was the Freemason Laszlo Rajk, former Minister for Foreign Affairs, who was sentenced and executed by his Jewish "brothers" for his "betrayal."

B.— CZECHOSLOVAKIA

1. Clemens Gottwald, one of the founders of the Communist Party in Czechoslovakia and president of the country between 1948 and 1953; a Jew, who died shortly after Stalin.

2. Vladimir Clementis, former Communist minister of Czechoslovakia for Foreign Affairs, "sentenced and executed" in the year 1952; Jew.

3. Vaclav David, present foreign minister of Czechoslovakia (1955); Jew.

4. Rudolf Slaski, former general secretary of the Communist Party of Czechoslovakia, "sentenced" in the year 1952; a Jew by name Rudolf Salzmann.

5. Firi Hendrich, present general secretary of the Communist Party; Jew.

- 6.— General Bendric Reicin, "convicted" in 1952, Jew.
7. Andreas Simon, sentenced in the year 1952; a Jew named Otto Katz.
8. Gustav Bares, assistant of the general secretary of the Communist Party; Jew.
9. Josef Frank, former assistant of the general secretary of the Communist Party, "sentenced" in year 1952; Jew.

C.— POLAND

- 1.— Boleslaw Bierut, President of Poland up to 1954; Jew.
2. Jakob Berman, general secretary of the Communist Party of Poland; Jew.
3. Julius Kazuky (Katz), Minister for Foreign Affairs of Poland, who is well known for his violent speeches in the UNO; Jew.
4. Karl Swierezewsky, former vice-minister for National Defense, who was murdered by the Anti-Communist Ukrainian country population in south Poland (the mass of the people is not always amorphous); Jew.
5. Josef Cyrankiewicz, first Minister of Poland since 1954, after Bierut; Jew.
6. Hillary Mink, Vice-prime Minister of Poland since 1954; Jew.
7. Zenon Nowek, Second Prime Minister of Poland since 1954; Jew.
8. Zenon Kliszko, Minister of Justice; Jew.
9. Tadeusz Kochanowicz, Minister of Labour; Jew.

The sole important Polish Communist of Gentile origin is Wladislaw Gomulka who was removed from political leadership since 1949, when he lost his post as first minister. Sooner or later he will share the same fate as Rajk in Hungary.

D.— RUMANIA

1. Anna Pauker, Jewess, former Minister for Foreign Affairs of the "Rumanian Peoples Republic," and spy No. 1 of the Kremlin in Rumania up to the month of June 1952. Since then she has remained in the shadows in Bucharest up to the present day, naturally in freedom. This Jewish hyaena, who was originally called Ana Rabinsohn, is the daughter of a rabbi, who came to Rumania from Poland. She was born in the province of Moldau (Rumania) in the year 1892.

2. Ilka Wassermann, former private secretary of Anna Pauker, at present the real directress of the Ministry for Foreign Affairs.

3. Josef Kisinevsky, the present agent No. 1 of the Kremlin in Rumania, member of the central Committee of the Communist Party and vice-president of the council of ministers. He is a Jew and comes from Bessarabia; his correct name is Jakob Broitman. Also he is the real chief of the Communist Party of Rumania, although "officially" the general secretary of the party is the Rumanian locksmith Gheorghe Gheorghiu Dez, who, however, only plays the simple role of a political front. Kisinevski took his present pseudonym from the name of the city of Kisinau in Bessarabia, where before the arrival of the Red Army he owned a tailors workshop.

4. Teohari Georgescu, Minister for Internal Affairs in the Communist government of Bucharest between 1945 and 1952; at the present time he has been reduced to a second-rank post, although he was "officially" "expelled" from the Communist Party. He finds himself in the same position as Anna Pauker. His real name is Burach Tescovich. He is a Jew from the Rumanian Danube harbour of Galatz.

5. Avram Bunaciu, likewise a Jew, is the present (1955) general secretary of the Presidium of the great national assembly of the "Rumanian Peoples Republic", that is to say, the real leader of this assembly, for the "official" president Petru Groza is only an old Freemasonic marionette, who is married to a Jewess and plays only a purely static role. Avram Bunaciu is called in reality Abraham Gutman (Gutman translated into Rumanian is the corresponding name for "Bunaciu" that is to say the pseudonym taken on by this Jew.)

6. Lotar Radaceanu, another Minister of the Communist government of Bucharest "deposed" in the year 1952, but who in 1955 reappeared on the honorary tribune. He is a Jew from Siebenbürgen and is called Lothar Würtzel. Since the "Würtzel" in Rumanian translates "Radicinu," this Jew has simply transferred his Hebraic name into Rumanian and is now called "Radaceanu."

7. Miron Constantinescu, member of the central Committee of the Communist Party and Minister for Mining and Petroleum. Now and then he changes his Ministerial Posts. He is a Jew from Galatz (Rumania), who in truth is called Mehr Kohn, and as is customary among them, uses a Rumanian pseudonym.

8. Lieutenant General Moises Haupt, commander of the military district of Bucharest; Jew.

9. Colonel General Zamfir, Communist "security chief" in Rumania and responsible for thousands of murders, which the secret police have perpetrated. He is a Jew and comes from the Danube harbour of Braila. He is called Laurian Rechler.

13. Alexander Moghiorosh, Minister for Nationalities in the red government; Jew from Hungary.

14. Alexander Badau, chief of the Control Commission for Foreigners in Rumania. He is a Jew, who originates from the city of Targoviste whose real name is Braustein. Before 1940 his family in Targoviste possessed a large trading firm.

15. Major Lewin, chief of press censorship, Jew and former officer of the Red Army.
16. Colonel Holban, chief of the Communist "Security" of Bucharest, a Jew named Moscovich, former Syndicate (Union) chief.
17. George Silviu, general governmental secretary of the Ministry for Internal Affairs; a Jew named Gersh Golinger.
18. Erwin Voiculescu, chief of the Passport department in the Ministry for Foreign Affairs. He is a Jew and is called Erwin Weinberg.
19. Gheorge Apostol, chief of the General Labour Union of Rumania; he is a Jew named Gerschwin.
20. Stupineanu, chief of economic espionage; Jew by name Stappnau.
21. Emmerick Stoffel, Ambassador of the Rumanian Peoples Republic in Switzerland; a Jew from Hungary and specialist in bank questions.
22. Harry Fainaru, former legation of the Rumanian Communist Embassy in Washington up to 1954 and at present official in the Ministry for Foreign Affairs in Bucharest. He is a Jew named Hersch Feiner. Before the year 1940 his family possessed a grain business in Galatz.
23. Ida Szigally, the real directress of the Rumanian Embassy in London; Jewess; friend of Anna Pauker.
24. Lazarescu, the "Charge d'Affairs" of the Rumanian government in Paris. He is a Jew and is really called Burach Lazarovich, the son of a Jewish trader from Bucharest.
25. Simon Oieru, State under-secretary of the Rumanian State; Jew with name of Schaffer.
26. Aurel Baranga, inspector general of arts. He is a Jew; Ariel Leibovich is his real name.
27. Liuba Kisinevski, president of the U.F.A.R. (Association of anti-Fascist Rumanian women); she is a Jewess from Cernauti/Bukowina, and is called in reality Liuba Broitman, wife of Josif Kisinevski of the Central Committee of the Party.

28. Lew Zeiger, director of the Ministry for National Economy; Jew.

29. Doctor Zeider, jurist of the Ministry for Foreign Affairs; Jew.

30. Marcel Breslasu, Director General of Arts; a Jew by name Mark Breslau.

31. Silviu Brucan, chief editor of the newspaper "Scanteia," official party organ. He is a chief and is called Brükker. He directs the entire campaign of lies, which attempts to deceive the Rumanian people concerning the true situation created by Communism. At the same time the Jew Brükker directs the fake "Anti-Semitic" campaign of the Communist press of Rumania.

32. Samoila, governing director of the newspaper "Scanteia"; he is a Jew; Samuel Rubinstein.

33. Horia Liman, second editor of the communist newspaper "Scanteia"; Jew with the name of Lehman.

34. Engineer Schnapp, governing director of the communist newspaper "Romania Libera" (Free Rumania), the second communist newspaper on basis of its circulation; likewise a Jew.

35. Jehan Mihai, chief of the Rumanian film industry, communist propaganda by means of films; a Jew, whose name is Jakob Michael.

36. Alexander Graur, director general of the Rumanian radio corporation, which stands completely and solely in the service of the Communist Party. He is a Jewish professor and is called Alter Brauer, born in Bucharest.

37. Mihail Roller, at present President of the Rumanian academy, is a sinister professor, a Jew, unknown before the arrival of the Soviets in Rumania. Today he is "President" of the Academy and in addition he has written a "new history" of the Rumanian people, in which he falsifies the historical truth.

38. Professor Weigel, one of the tyrants of the university of Bucharest, who directs the constant "purging actions" among Rumanian students, who are hostile to the Jewish-Communist regime.

39. Professor Lewin Bercovich, another tyrant of the Bucharest university, who with his spies controls the activity of Rumanian professors and their social connections; an immigrant Jew from Russia.

40. Silviu Josifescu, the official "literary critic," who censures the poems of the best poets like Eminescu Alecsandri, Vlahutza, Carlova, etc., who all died centuries ago or more than half a century ago, and alters form and content, because these poems are "not in harmony" with the Communist-Marxist ideas. This literary murderer is a Jew, who in truth is called Samoson Iosifovich.

41. Ioan Vinter, the second Marxist "literary critic" of the regime and author of a book with the title "The problem of literary legacy" is likewise a Jew and is called Jakob Winter.

The three former secretaries of the General Labour League up to 1950, Alexander Sencovich, Mischa Levin and Sam Asriel (Serban), were all Jews.

E.— YUGOSLAVIA

1. Marshal Tito, who by his real Jewish name is called Josif Walter Weiss, was born Poland. He was agent of the Soviet secret service in Kabul, Teheran and Ankara up to 1935. The true Brozovich Tito, in origin a Croat, died during the Spanish civil war in Barcelona.

2. Moses Pijade, general secretary of the Communist Party and in reality the "grey eminence" of the regime, is a Jew of Spanish origin (Sephardite).

3. Kardelj, member of the Central Committee of the Yugoslav Communist Party and Minister for Foreign Affairs; is a Jew of Hungarian origin and is called in reality Kardayl.

4. Rankovic, member of the Central Committee of the Yugoslav Communist Party and Minister for Internal Affairs, is an Austrian Jew and was earlier called Rankau.

5. Alexander Bebler, member of the Central Committee of the Communist Party and permanent representative of Yugoslavia in the UNO, is an Austrian Jew.

6. Iloza Vilfan (Joseph Wilfan), economic advisor of Tito, in reality the economic dictator of Yugoslavia, is a Jew from Serajevo.

Since not so many Jews live in Yugoslavia as in other lands, we find a greater number of natives in the Communist government of this land, however, always in posts of second rank; for the above-mentioned principal leaders, control in reality the Yugoslav government completely and absolutely. (37)*.

(37). Traian Romanescu. Ibid. Cited Edition. Pages from 185 to 214.

* Countless Catholic writers have similarly to those quoted in this chapter, made further statistical investigations, which always close with the categorical statement that Bolshevism is a Jewish work. The book "La Guerra Oculta" by Malinsky and De Poncins, Milan, 1961, contains an appendix with a study carried out in this respect, compiled by Msgr. Jouin. A further study worthy of mention is published in the periodical "Civilità Cattolica", the organ of the famous Society of Jesus, in the city of Rome, which began with its publication of this material from the end of the preceding century, and which has published a special work dealing with this theme under the title "La rivoluzione mondiale e gli ebrei," which corresponds to pamphlet 1836 of the year 1922.

ZIONISM AND COMMUNISM

The people of Israel, contrary to what some exalted antisemites have said, is one of the best-endowed peoples of the world and perhaps the most outstanding for its political and financial genius, being at the same time a nomadic people. But even before the destruction of the Jewish State by the Romans (Year 70 Christian Era), almost nineteen centuries ago, the Jews were, like their brothers in race, the Phoenicians, a people which established migratory colonies in other countries, while at the same time they kept their own territorial state. When the Romans destroyed the Jewish State and demolished the Second Temple, Judaism, by then spread already in different countries on earth, continued to exist by means of the Israelite colonies settled in the territories of those peoples, and which were reinforced and increased in number, with the arrival of the Jews who emigrated, fleeing, when their State was destroyed.

All of these Israelite colonies have been endowed with institutions that have given them a great organic and political consistency, thus establishing the basic cells of which the Jewish nation, spread all over the world, is formed. They have been coordinated and directed internationally by Rabbinic Synodus, which through the centuries have been generally held in secrecy.

The king of the ancient Jewish State and the Great Sanhedrin, were replaced by the Nasi —prince or patriarch— who had supreme authority over the Israel of the Diaspora. Previously, the Nasi was the leader of the Great Sanhedrin. The Babylonian schism opposed to him the Exilarch or Prince of the Exile, with an equal authority to the Nasi over the Israelite communities which kept obeying him.

In the IXth Century, the government of the Nasi as world leader of Judaism was suppressed, dividing this power in more than two hundred regional Talmudic and rabbinical republics, independent from each other, but coordinated in action when necessary by means of a Continental or World Synodus, to which rabbis of each Republic or regional community attended as plenipotentiary. In use of the independence and sovereignty enjoyed by the community they represented, these rabbis could exert the right of veto to the resolutions of the majority, —veto which prevented that such resolution could compell the rabbinic Republic he or they represented, but that veto did not annul for the others the vetoed resolution.

However, it is fair to make notice, that the great idealism and great mystic power of the Jewish people prevented, —in general and except for a few cases—, the misuse of the right of veto by the plenipotentiary rabbis which would have made such Synodus fail in the coordination of the action of Judaism in the whole world.

Until the beginning of the XXth Century, decisive steps were taken by the leaders of Judaism towards the centralization of the Universal Israelite Super Government. However, even since the XVIth Century, attempts were again made for the achievement of that centralization, attempts which we further detail in this work.

Each of the regional communities or Talmudic Rabbinic Republics is governed, even in our days, by a First Rabbi, a Great Kahal, a General Assembly of Representatives of the local communities of the Region, and a Beth-Din or Regional Court —based on a division of powers in legislative, executive and judicial—, centuries before such a division of powers became transplanted to the gentile world by revolutionary ideologists of Jewish descent such as the Marquis of Montesquieu and others whose ancestors were tied to some Jewish wealthy women, who supposedly had converted to Christianity, violating the established laws in the gentile nobility of those times. These Israelite ladies —true "new Esthers" secretly initiated their children into JUDAISM, thus infiltrating the Jewish blood into the nobiliary blood of many Christian Kingdoms.

Due to the fact that they formed a State within a State in the gentile countries, these Regional Israelite Republics came to inspire suspicion, thus provoking violent reactions against its members despite of the fact that the European Medieval legislation granted them the Status of Autonomy, but not of sovereignty as the Jews wanted, since having as a base a false understanding of the Old Testament of the Bible they came to believe that they were the people chosen by God to dominate all nations in the world, and used the public or underground Israelite colonies they had in each country, as the means for its conquest and control. This has been proven with undeniable documents by hundreds of books written on this topic in different nations for longer than fifteen centuries up to our time, and among which the most outstanding because of its documentation, is the book entitled "Plot Against the Church" by Maurice Pinay, a book we recommend to read; it headed this recommendation to scholars who wish to obtain the proofs I have just mentioned.

In times of Napoleon Bonaparte and because of his initiative, the Great Sanhedrin was again called in public under the leadership of the Nasi. In the XXth Century, some institutions of the Israelite World Government came out to the public scene, once more. After the First World War we attest the appearance, as such, of the "Committee of Jewish Delegations" which had successfully participated in the Peace Conference, achieving in it the prevalence of the Israelite points of view. In August, 1932, September, 1933, and August, 1934 several world Israelite Synodus met in Geneve; although most of their agreements were kept in secret, they met in public. They adopted the official name of "Jewish World Congress". As celebrating the last one of them, the organization of the Jewish World Congress, has been transformed, itself, into the permanent public agency of the universal government of the Israelite nation, spread all over the world. Such a Jewish World Congress was definitely installed in the city of Geneve itself, in 1936, by Rabbi Stephen S. Wise, President of the old "Committee of Jewish Delegations", which I mentioned; before Wise made, in the name of International Israel, a statement worthy of careful examination, namely, that the Jews "are not (anymore) a creed, nor a religion, but they are a people, A JEWISH WHOLE which includes all of us." In fact, this International Israel includes not only the different religious factions that were engaged before in strong conflict among themselves, because of the different interpretations they gave to the religion of Israel, but it also includes all the Jews the theistic, the materialistic and atheistic Israelites, who, although they are not of the Jewish religion, are part of the people of Israel, and of the Jewish nation infiltrated in all the nations of the world, with the same rights of the believing Jews.

But one of the greatest ideals of the International Israel of the Diaspora ("spreading Jews") was to establish again, as soon as it were possible, the State of Israel, not for the return to Zion, of all Hebrews spread in all countries on earth, as they have falsely said, since it would not be useful for them to abandon the positions that have allowed them the economic and political conquest of the gentile peoples, but simply because of patriotic and religious reasons and because of an obsessive paranoic tendency to restore the Jewish State, which to a higher or lesser degree the Israelites have.

The restoration of the State of Israel and of Solomon's Temple has been for the Jews an obsession for centuries, passing from one generation to another with the admirable tenacity and surprising energy typical of that great nation. However, even since the Second Century of the Christian Era, there were differences over this among the Israelites. Those in whose hearts the nationalist feeling prevailed over religious orthodoxy, dreamed of recovering Palestine by political or military means. On the contrary, orthodox Jews regarded that as a serious sin because the Messiah promised in the Holy Scripture, to carry out this noble mission when He comes.

The triumph of rabbinism, after the false Messiah Bar Cochba (Year 135 A.C.) failed in his attempt to conquer the Roman Empire and to liberate Palestine of Roman rule, caused this theological point of view to prevail. Any attempt to recover Palestine before the arrival of the Messiah was regarded as illegal, even a serious sin.

Therefore many false Messiahs appeared in Israelite colonies of the world, from Sereno (Year 720 Christian Era) to Sabbatai - Zevi (1626-1676 Christian Era), and Jacob Frank (1757). This did not prevent, however, some Israelite leaders more patriotic than religious from planning the so-called return to Zion and the reconquest of Palestine, without waiting for the arrival of the Messiah, although challenging the opposition and anger of the rabbinic orthodoxy, whose theological doubts suffered, in the XIXth Century, a decisive blow because of two main reasons.

In the midst of the schism which temporarily upset the organic and institutional unity of International Israel, provoked by the religious reformations initiated in the XVIIIth Century by Rabbi Moise Mendelsohn (Moise-Ben-Mendel), which started the Hascala Movement and neo-messianism, —to which I will refer later— a great theologian, appeared among the Jews who were loyal to the old rabbinistic orthodoxy. He was Rabbi Tzvi-Hirsch-Kalisher (1795-1874), who published in 1862 a work entitled: "Derishat Tziyon", in which, with genial dialectics, he was able to remove most of the theological doubts which I mentioned, stating that the reconquest of Palestine, was licit and even desirable, without waiting for the arrival of the Messiah. The preaching of this Rabbi, supported later by other communities that were still orthodox which were the great majority in International JUDAISM, prepared the way in a decisive manner to the Zionist movement, that was to appear years later.

The other crucial factor that —in the International Israel— opened the doors to Zionism, was neo-messianism. Its main supporters were followers of the reforms made by Moise Mendelssohn, some members of the "Hascala" movement and of the "Union of Jews for Science and Civilization", some of the most outstanding being Rabbi Moise Hess and Rabbi Baruch Levy. The latter was one of the Israelite educators of the German Jew Karl Marx founder of modern communism (or so-called scientific socialism) whose father was a member of a rabbinical family, despite the fact he had officially converted into protestantism. When Karl was only six years old he was baptized, but sent in secret, at the appropriate age, to receive Jewish rabbinical education following the tradition of his family.

Marx was therefore a "marrano", that is, an underground Jew or a crypto-Jew. Marx's father had done nothing except repeat the system the Israelites had used in the whole world for many centuries, in order to infiltrate Christian society and thus control it better; they converted themselves falsely to Christianity, removed their Israelite names and adopted Christian names, they removed their Jewish names and changed them for English, French, Spanish, Chinese, Persian and in general common second names typical of the country where lived these converted Jews, to Christianity, Islamism, Buddhism and other religions. But at the same time that these Jews lived in the Judaism in appearance but they in secret continued to be Jews, attended secret synagogues, hidden in private homes, and formed part of the underground Israelite communities in each country, obeying their leaders blindly. Their purpose was and still is to conquer the country where they work, acting as secret agents of the Israelite Nation infiltrated in all nations of the world.

The families of these Jews, converted falsely to Christianity, publicly practice the Christian rites, sometimes with a great and apparent devotion. They baptize their sons, they educate them in Christian schools but once they got to an age when they are able to keep secrets, and after they pass strict proofs regarding this which shows that they could be trusted, they initiate them into the secrets of Judaism, in impressive ceremonies in which the boys pronounce terrible oaths, and they were and are yet, threatened with death if they revealed the secrets that had been entrusted to them; they were and are yet, later introduced to the ultra-secret societies or communities of crypto-Judaism or underground Judaism. In this way millions of Christian, Islamic, or Buddhist families only in appearance, have been passing from parents to sons, from one generation to another, until our days, the underground doctrine of Judaism, many of them for many centuries. As centuries pass, all trace of their Jewish origin is lost; such families have succeeded in appearing as real and true members of the nation in which they live, becoming a part of it, which allows them to infiltrate—with no problem— its government, its political parties, its armies and all of the associations and institutions of the country; they even infiltrate the clergy of all the sacerdotal religions, and the leadership of almost all the religions.

Since among members of such families, Christianity or other gentile religions are practiced, sometimes in a pious way, this enables them to carry out such activities of infiltration better. Their goal is to conquer the country where they are settled and control it, since the Jewish religion they practice in absolute secret, teaches them, as I already mentioned, that the Israelites are God's chosen people to conquer and dominate all nations by means of peaceful infiltration or the revolutions they organize, deceiving the people and appearing as their liberators, but whose real and secret goal is to give to the JEWISH fifth column the control of each country where they are settled.

These false conversions of Jews to Christianity were discovered on many occasions both by the Christian Church and the Kings, who dictated laws and decrees to combat both the Israelite infiltrations in the Christian society and clergy, and the revolutions they organized to conquer the Christian countries; these revolutions were called heresies in the Middle Age, for they tried to subvert the religious order then existing. But many of them, as the Cathars, the Albigensians, and the Hussites, were revolutions of a communist character which not only tried to subvert the religious system but the whole political, social and economic order then prevailing; they were antecedents of the present communist revolution, which failed because Mediæval Christianity created an organization capable of defeating them. This organization, greatly slandered through history, as Jews slander whatever is opposed to their attempts of domination; was the Holy Inquisition, a repressive organism founded at the beginning of the XIII Century to unmask and burn at the stake those Christians who were secretly Jews, and to destroy the heresies or revolutions they organized to dominate the nations. While the Inquisition existed, the Israelites failed in all their attempts to dominate the peoples. The Inquisition used tortures to discover the heretics — who were the revolutionaries of those days — and the secret Jewish force that controlled the revolution. Once this secret Jewish force was destroyed the revolution failed. The inquisitors said that unless the head — Judaism — was destroyed, it would be impossible to pacify the Christian nations.

This infiltration carried out against the Christian peoples, has taken place also in the Muslim and Buddhist countries and even in India and Japan, countries where the Israelite immigrants in a great part, have falsely converted to the most important religion of the respective country, and have also taken away their Jewish first and family names and falsely adopted names of such a religion, which at the same time are typical names of each country; and once the Jews marry Chinese, Hindi, Negroes from Africa, Japanese, etc., and their daughters married again native people of the country, the underground Jewish families appear as Chinese, Hindi, Negroes, Persian, Vietnamese, Arabs, etc. etc. who as stated by Jewish writers themselves, have the racial aspect of the authentic Chinese, Hindi, Negroes, Vietnamese or Japanese; and it is almost impossible to distinguish them from the rest of the population. In any official Encyclopedia of Judaism the reader will have information about Chinese Judaism, the "FALASHA" negroes, that of India and others. And even though the Jewish Encyclopedias are available for everyone, in public libraries, they hide in different ways the danger of these Jewish infiltrations in different races of the world; but they sometimes have an interesting bibliography that can lead the investigator to the right track and to expand his knowledge on this topic.

In this wonderful and admirable way, the people of Israel spread all over the world, infiltrate the roots of most countries becoming the hidden power that has actually taken the whole world to confusion and torn it with revolutions.

Continuing with the study of neo-messianism in the Jewish people, we shall add that the German Israelite Karl Marx, whose Jewish name was Mordechai was a determined supporter within Judaism of the new neo-messianist tendency, along with the famous poet Heinrich Heine, another crypto-Jew, and the Israelite historian Graetz, who in his masterwork on the History of the Jews, helped spread the neo-messianism of reformed Judaism.

The prominent French researcher Salluste in his work entitled "Les origines secrètes du Bolchevisme", gives valuable information on this, and includes a valuable document which caused an uproar in Europe, and which fully describes the new neo-messianist tendency in International

Israel. It is, of course, the well-known letter from Rabbi Baruch Levy to his disciple Karl Marx, in which he explains what neo-messianism is. In the letter the Rabbi says: "The Jewish people as a whole will be its own Messiah." "Its kingdom over the universe will be achieved by the unification of other human races, the abolition of monarchies and frontiers which are the bulwark of particularism and the establishment of a universal republic which will accept the rights of citizenship of Jews everywhere. In this new organization of humanity, the sons of Israel now spread all over the world, all of the same race and of equal traditional education, will become without a great resistance the leading elite everywhere, especially if the direction of the Jews can be imposed on the working masses. Thus, through the victory of the proletarians, the governments of all nations will pass into Israelite hands. Then, private property will be suppressed by the governments of Jewish race, that will by this means handle the riches of all peoples everywhere. And thus the promise of the Talmud will become reality: that once the messianic times come, the Jews will have the key to the goods of all the peoples on earth."

With these few statements Rabbi Baruch Levy summarized for his disciple the young Marx, what neo-messianism is and how it will be carried out by means of a world communist revolution, using the working class merely as a blind tool. The genius of Karl Marx would later develop these basic principles.

But neo-messianism, which definitely rejected the idea of a personal Messiah, to be substituted by the Jewish nation as its own Messiah, while creating marxist socialism or modern communism made at the same time possible the appearance of Zionism, because it destroyed, once and for all, the rabbi scruples that the reconquest of Palestine and the creation of the State of Israel could only be carried out by the promised Messiah. The people of Israel spread all over the world, being its own Messiah, such people had the mission to restore the kingdom of Israel in Palestine. But some members of the Hascala Movement, among them Joseph Perl, momentaneously rejected, for political reasons, the restoration of an Israelite Palestine, a territory inhabited by Arabs and at the time a province of the Ottoman Empire. However neo-messianism, once it overcame the theological objection I have repeatedly mentioned, opened the doors to Zionism among Israelites, who have increasingly rejected the idea of a personal Messiah, and adopted the one that Israel is its own Messiah; that the people on its own was to restore the Jewish kingdom in Palestine. I have been able to attest that even orthodox rabbis think already of the Messiah as a mere symbol and that the people of Israel is its own Messiah, regardless of what may be stated as an official opinion in this matter.

The article of Faith in Orthodox Judaism which states: "I firmly believe in the arrival of the Messiah, and although he may be late I daily expect his arrival" (1) is understood by many of them in a neo-messianic sense, considering that the expression arrival of the Messiah stands for "the arrival of the messianic times."

- (1) This article of Faith of Orthodox Judaism, is the twelfth of the thirteen articles established by Rabbi Moise Maimonides, one of the creators of the present Israelite religion; he praised crypto-Judaism, converting himself falsely into the Islamic religion, while in secret he remained a faithful Jew.

Among contemporary Zionists, the neo-messianist Jews abound, Zionism is considered as a messianist movement, regardless of the arrival of a personal Messiah. The idea of Zionism as a messianist movement, generally accepted in Judaism, is a clearly neo-messianic idea; and the communist socialism of Karl Marx is also neo-messianist; they are both tentacles of the same Israelite octopus which is trying to dominate the world and thus carry out its neo-messianic ideals.

There are, however, ultra orthodox sectors in International Israel, that still regard the creation of the State of Israel before the arrival of a personal Messiah as illicit and sinful, but this sect is a small minority in the whole of International Israel. These ultra orthodox Jews have even predicted that the anger of God will terribly destroy a State of Israel created in a way contradictory to the divine orders. Those who believe so, agree with the old genuine rabbinic orthodoxy, maintained for centuries, and only modified until this past century, in the way I have stated. For them, if the State of Israel is destroyed in a catastrophic way by the gentiles, these would be acting as mere instruments of the anger of God. But as I have said, this remainder of the authentic Jewish orthodoxy is so small, that it has not been able seriously to hinder the development and progress of Zionism.

Going back to the birth of Zionism, it is important to point out, that the thesis of the orthodox rabbi Kalisher —which opened the doors of orthodoxy to Zionism, also had a decisive influence on the communist rabbi and neo-messianist Moise Hess, at the time entirely devoted to the promotion of the communist revolution of the proletarians. Hess adopted Kalisher's proposal to return Palestine to the Jewish people, and in his book, "Rome and Jerusalem" attacked both the orthodox and reforming rabbis who had sacrificed the Jewish national goal and he launched the idea of calling a Jewish Congress whose task would be to undertake the colonization of Palestine.

Hess admits that in his position in favor of an Israelite Palestine, he was influenced by the neo-messianist Graetz. Here we can clearly see, from the very beginning of Zionism, the unification of the leaders of Jewish orthodoxy, the leaders of neo-messianism and of communism marching together. Moise Hess, communist, died in the year 1875, year in which were destroyed the theological scruples preventing the growth and development of an important Zionist Movement—the only thing then lacking for development of Zionism was an appropriate leader to give the necessary impulse to it, and this leader was Theodore Herzl, whose Israelite fanaticism, similar to that of the Jewish founders of modern communism, Marx and Engels, persuaded him to wear, as the others did, the traditional beard ordered by the Tora whose rulings are also obeyed in this respect by that fanatic crypto-Jew Fidel Castro,—whose hebraic fanaticism persuaded him to impose the use of such beard on all members of his pack of hounds—, although, to justify it, he tries to hide it under other reasons. The second name of Castro, as is well known, is one of the most typical of the Spanish "marranos" (crypto-Jews).

Theodore Herzl was born in Budapest in 1860. In 1896, he published his work entitled "The Jewish State", with which he was able to overcome many objections in the Israelite communities of the world and obtain much support for the Zionist ideal, a term formed by the idea of the return to Zion.

Herzl also founded and spreaded the "World Zionist Organization" to all nations and he obtained from the leaders of International Israel the organization which has been known by outsiders as the First Zionist Congress of Basle which was a true Israelite Universal Synodus that, as such, was an authentic representation of the Jewish nation spread all over the world. In this synodus, International Judaism gave its approval to the Zionist movement, agreements were reached relating to the political strategy of the Jews in the world, certain confrontations among Zionist Jews were resolved, and the opposition movement of many Israelite sectors against the Zionist movement were controlled.

It was impossible however to suppress other rivalries that, without breaking the institutional organic unity of International Israel, were, as always, causing many a great loss. Among these rivalries, one has to be mentioned especially: the one between the Judaic gang that accepted Lenin as the leader and the so called "Jewish Socialist Bund" which led to the division between bolsheviks and mensheviks in the Russian Social Democratic Party of Workers (communist). This rivalry, although based on a real discrepancy on the strategy to be followed regarding the form in which Jews should direct the revolution and about the best way to execute it, also included rivalries based on Lenin's ambition of power as well as the ambition of his competitors.

This struggle among Jews in the growing communist movement was going to be the beginning of the one which would later tear off the heart of international communism and thus that of Judaism.

Theodore Herzl held in 1898 another Congress in the city of Basle apparently only Zionist, and one more in 1899, thus assuring the future of the world Zionist movement. The plan was, first to invade Palestine —then settled by the Arabs— with Jewish immigrants, until a well-rooted Israelite population was formed which would be powerful enough to achieve, —with the support of the great powers controlled by Judaism— the expulsion of the Arab population from the territory they had occupied for more than twelve centuries, confiscating also the Arabs' properties and murdering them if it was necessary, thus committing a gigantic operation of genocide.

It is therefore understandable that this enormous assault could have serious political consequences for many sectors of International Israel, and in the following years opposition to Zionism stiffened in some factions of Judaism, mainly in the reforming or liberal type. Basle continued to be the site of most of the Zionist Congresses the last of them, the 22nd, was also held in that city in 1946. Theodore Herzl not only sacrificed the rest of his life for this ideal, and granted generously all of his personal fortune, to the ideal of his existence. We wish he could be imitated, by bourgeois gentiles, wealthy and selfish, who ought to sacrifice part of their time and riches, to fight for the defense of their people, and even of their own personal riches against the Jewish-communist menace. This dangerous selfishness of most of the gentile bourgeois peoples is in great part the cause of the horrible disaster pending over all the gentile peoples, since the patriotic movements for the national defense, without the necessary economic power and the necessary collaboration of the intelligentsia of the great gentile bourgeoisie, become weaker and walk directly to failure, mainly because of the lack of adequate financial support, since any political movement —in order to be sustained and achieve victory— needs a great amount of money in a permanent and steady way. So, if the rich bourgeoisie does not support them, it condemns them to a failure which is suicide for the bourgeoisie itself.

In May, 1901, the untiring Theodore Herzl arranged hearings with the Sultan of Turkey, Abdul Hamid, and his Great Visir, who agreed to receive Israelite immigrants in different parts of the Ottoman Empire. But they opposed to a massive immigration to Palestine as Herzl suggested, an idea that the Caliph of Islam, with his great political understanding considered this a danger for the Islam in Palestine. In reprisal International Israel and its puppet, Universal Masonry, launched against the patriotic and religious Caliph a world wide campaign of slander not yet extinguished in our days, making him appear as a mad man and as one of the most bloody tyrants of all times. In the hidden centers of International Israel this refusal also raised the idea that the disintegration of the Ottoman Empire was necessary in order to place Palestine under the control of a nation that would be a puppet of Judaism and which by allowing the emigration of hundreds of thousands of Israelites to Palestine, would make the future creation of the State of Israel possible.

But in order to disintegrate the Turkish Empire and liberate Palestine from it, a war would be necessary; not only a Balkan war but a war in which the great naval powers would be involved, powerfully enough, to destroy the Ottoman Empire. This was another of the goals sought by International Israel, when they prepared and provoked the explosion of the First World War, when three young Serbian Israelites murdered the heir to the Austria-Hungary throne, starting the necessary flame to cause the devastating fire which was to facilitate the falling of the most powerful monarchies of continental Europe, making also possible the triumph of the communist revolution in Russia.

All of this was part of the Jewish harvest in the First World War. In face of these evident and undeniable facts, it is perfectly understandable that International Judaism was the most important promoter of such a war, like documented books have proven. Moreover the British government, a puppet of Judaism, did not have any kind of scruples about using the noble and justified Arab nationalism to destroy Turkey, and later betrayed the Arab nationalism in the way we all know. Hebrew machiavelianism reached the extreme of using a great English patriot, an authentic British gentleman, Lawrence of Arabia, as a key element in this manoeuvre, deceiving him in a vile form so that, once deluded, he could in turn deceive his Arab friends. It is fair to state that Lawrence was a victim of the deceit from the Israelite powers of London, just as the Arab leaders themselves were victims of the same. The Jews, that once had used the Ottoman Empire against the anti-Jewish Spain and European Christianity, and who had used Turkey as a shelter and place of protection, receiving from the Sultans all kinds of benefits, now that Turkey was a hindrance for International Israel in its plans to conquer Palestine, did not hesitate about destroying their old and generous protector, the Ottoman Empire, this time using Christian armies to destroy the force which kept the Islamic unity, just as they had used the Muslim armies before to destroy the Christian powers which were fighting against Judaism.

And as Maurice Pinay rightly points out in his well documented work "Plot Against the Church": How much longer are we gentiles going to allow the Israelites to use us as cannon fodder to break ourselves into pieces one against the other, Christians against Muslims, westerners against orientals, races against races, nations against nations, workers against patrons, political parties against political parties? Is it not already time to think seriously about stopping our being toys in the hands of our common and mortal enemies, unifying all of us against them and thus freeing ourselves from the cruel destiny they have in mind for us?

The cynical participation of the Israelites in revolutionary action,—nihilist first, and Marxist later—against Imperial Russia, roused the logical and obvious reaction of the Russian people and government against the Israelite agitators, who were increasing then the pressure which was needed for the creation of the Jewish State, where fugitive Hebrews—who had no place in other countries—, could be established. And for this, as well as for other reasons, the Zionist movement was strengthened just as the movement of Hebrew settlers towards the Muslim Palestine. It was notable that the neo-messianist leaders of the Hascala Movement (creator of marxism, or modern communism) were in Russia precisely who gave the initial push to Zionism in this country.

The First World War, 1914-1918, offered an opportunity for Judaism to take a giant step towards the creation in Palestine of the State of Israel. The projected desintegration of the Ottoman Empire by Judaism was to give it the opportunity to conquer Palestine. England was then governed by a masonic and crypto-Jewish government. In 1916, in the midst of the world war, the British War Cabinet, composed of freemason officials, promised to help establish a "Jewish National Home in Palestine."

In 1917, Lord Balfour, also a freemason, made his famous declaration along the same meaning. In 1919, the new Society of Nations was kept in the hands of freemasonry, and in the hands of the hidden power of Judaism. That way the Israelites were able to get Palestine, which was snatched away from Turkey, following the order given to England by the Society of Nations then ruled by Judaism and its puppet the masonry; the latter an institution to which its crypto-Jewish hidden leaders had imposed the mission of restoring the Temple of Solomon, without the gentile masons becoming aware of the hidden meaning of this apparently harmless symbol: that aside from referring to the real restoration of the Temple of Solomon and of the State of Israel, means —in JEWISH ESOTERISM—, the restoration of the power of Israel spread all over the world destroyed by the Popes, the kings and the wealthy and leading classes of the gentile peoples, who actually were the murderers of Hiram, which in Hebrew esoterism is the people of Israel, that must be revenged by the masonic Order. But the masons give a different meaning to the legend of Hiram, according to the different degrees in the masonic initiation, to lead the deceived gentile freemasons as obedient and blind instruments, to an enterprise that has as its goal the control of the world by the Israelites.

Initially the British Jews zealously supported the Zionism, that is, the movement towards the creation of the State of Israel, and the British government of Palestine helped the massive emigration of more than half a million Jews to that country, thus multiplying by twelve the number of Israelite inhabitants in Palestine; but afterwards, among the Israelites in the oil business and the financial leaders from England and other Western powers, appeared a strong opposition, to the immediate installation of a Jewish State in Palestine, as they considered it would cause violent reactions in the Arab world which could endanger the Israelite financing interests in the Middle East and specially the oil interests. Besides, the opposition to Zionism had been strengthening in the reforming communities of liberal Judaism, for many years, because they feared that the creation of the State of Israel would make clear that Jews all over the world were agents of an alien nation; and even though in 1935 the liberal Judaism of the United States, declared its neutrality in the Zionist matter, the opposition to Zionism did not stop in many communities of the reformist Judaism.

All of this brought as a consequence a delay in the plans of the British government, then controlled by the secret Jewish power, for the immediate creation of the State of Israel. Besides, the war against Hitler, that Judaism had already planned, advised the world Jewish leadership, in May 1939 not to align the Arabs in the Axis Rome-Berlin-Tokyo by creating at that moment an Israelite State in Palestine, harming the Arab population of that country.

This motivated the British government to make a statement in May, 1939, assuring to Palestine to have its independence in a term of ten years from that date, with the protection of the interests of the Arab majority and the Jewish minority. This statement of the British government, despite of being inspired by the top leading elite of International Israel, caused strong dislike among the most fanatic Zionists, thus provoking a violent confrontation with the most impatient and extremist organizations of Zionism; a struggle that without breaking the Hebrew world institutional unity at the moment, soon was converted into terrorist attempts carried out by fanatic Zionist organizations Irgum-Zwai-Leumi, Stern and Hagana designed to force the British government to keep the old promise of Lord Balfour immediately. Hebrew magnates, who strongly opposed to such a plan, not only were accused by Zionists as worshippers of the golden calf, but also had to suffer attempts from the most fanatic Zionist organizations. But the persecution of Jews during the Second World War strengthened the Zionist arguments inside Judaism in favor of the immediate creation of the State of Israel, achieving that the Hebrews, internally divided on this matter, were unified; and the immediate creation of such a Jewish State was agreed.

The government of England, formed in its majority by freemasons, accepted the orders of its hidden masters approving the creation of an Israelite State and at the same time that the Soviet Union, becoming the most important godfather of Zionism, supported in April, 1947, the inclusion of the Palestine matter in the agenda of the United Nations and also approving the project to divide Palestine between Jews and Arabs. In November 29, 1947, the General Assembly of the United Nations, with the support of the delegations of the Soviet Union and of the satellite communist States, approved the creation of an independent Jewish State in Palestine; and finally the British government stated its decision to abandon Palestine the 15th of May, 1948, date in which the command conferred by the Society of Nations ended; England took steps towards the execution of such evacuation.

The Israelites did not wait for the 15th of May because it was Saturday and proclaimed the independence of the State of Israel the 14th of May, 1948, in the afternoon.

It was very significant that the Soviet Union was the first to recognize the State of Israel and the one that proposed its admission in the United Nations Organization, as all scholarly people may remember. The communist support of Zionism could not be clearer and more decisive.

CONSEQUENCES OF THE JEWISH-STALINIST SCHISM

The struggle between Stalin and the State of Israel, which he had enthusiastically supported, came about in the following way.

After the underground Jews Roosevelt and Harry Salomon Truman delivered Eastern Europe and China to their Israelite brother Stalin, according to Hebrew plans to establish communist dictatorship all over the world, Stalin's paranoic aspirations of power made him feel almost as if he were the master of the world, desiring to become, as we said, the supreme leader of International Judaism. This provoked, at the end of 1948, a rupture between Stalin and the stalinist Jewish communities on the one hand and the rest of International Judaism on the other.

In this case the differences between Stalin and stalinist Judaism, which were being discussed and resolved for some time in the parliamentary way it has been usually for many centuries, in the Jewish secret Universal Rabbinical Synodus, came to the extreme of totally breaking the institutional unity of International Israel. Stalin and his secret sect disregarded the authority of the World Jewish Congress and of Bernard Baruch, over the Israelite communities of the Soviet Union and of the red satellite States in Eastern Europe. At the same time they extended the schism all over the world, trying to attract to Stalin the greatest possible number of Jews. In Russia and in the satellite States he was able to impose the schism by brutal force, murdering or jailing every Israelite who opposed him. On the contrary, in the free world, it was possible to attract to schismatic stalinism only a small minority of fanatic and activist Jews.

The outcome of this temporal schism inside the people of Israel spread all over the world was harmful for its revolutionary enterprise.

In the new State of Israel, stalinist Hebrews tried to control the government, but they failed, the Jewish State as well as the World Zionist Movement remained in the hands of the Jews loyal to the World Jewish Congress of New York, and to its hidden leader, Bernard Baruch. Baruch used Zionism —which had received great support from the Jewish Soviet leaders—, as a weapon against them, thus pushing the Israelite leaders of the Kremlin to start a ferocious war against Zionism, against the State of Israel, the World Jewish Congress of New York, the B'Nai-B'rith Order, and against the hidden leader of all this, Bernard Baruch. At the same time, Stalin and his Hebrew followers also started in the Soviet Union as well as in the Socialist dictatorships, a brutal prosecution, not only against Zionists but rabbis and Jewish community leaders, who were supposed to be loyal to the New York Jewish command. Those were replaced in their command of such communities by rabbis and leaders of Stalinist filiation. The jails were full of anti-Stalinist Jews and in these circumstances many Hebrew leaders and government officials of the communist world were murdered.

The Jewish power in New York also reacted violently against Stalin. They imposed on their Hebrew subject, the President of the United States, Harry Salomon Truman—and on the other crypto-Jews who controlled or influenced the governments of England and other western powers—the violent change in their international policy that many still do not understand and that saved the Free World from an imminent fall into the hands of communism, toward which the Free World was being conducted by the complicity of Washington and London, secretly controlled at the time by masonry and Judaism.

Truman and the Hebrew gang that had handed Eastern Europe and China over to Stalin, now headed the struggle to prevent him from achieving the control of the world. Early in 1949 the NATO (North Atlantic Treaty Organization) was formed, and later the Mediterranean Alliance, as well as the Baghdad and the South-East Asia Alliances.

The OAS, Organization of American States, was practically converted into an anticommunist alliance. Thus the largest network of alliances in the history of Humanity was created, — because the world Jewish leaders remembered the slaughters of Jews — trotskysts, sinovievits, bujarinists, etc.— carried out by Stalin—. They felt themselves in danger of being shot, if they did not prepare to stop the tremendous advances of Stalin, whom they had previously sponsored.

Before this, Truman had planned to hand India and northern Japan over to Stalin, but these events prevented such a great crime. When this rupture of the crypto-Jew New York — London — Moscow axis took place, the Jews Truman and Marshal, who had silently and surreptitiously armed the loyal collaborator of Stalin, Mao Tse-Tung and had done everything possible to finish off Chiang Kai-Shek, could not stop Stalin from taking over China.

But they sent the Sixth Fleet to prevent the fall of Formosa into Mao's hands, thus protecting the last head-quarter of the nationalist Chinese regime, although they also did not allow offensive actions against the communist regime. During the period of this transitory Jewish schism, ALTHOUGH THE MAJORITY OF THE LEADERS OF INTERNATIONAL JUDAISM DIRECTED FROM NEW YORK wanted to prevent Stalin from achieving world control, they did not want to destroy communism at all, because that would mean the destruction of their own work and the loss of everything that the Jewish world revolution had gained in 32 years.

Therefore, the policy of Judaism, directed from New York, was purely defensive both in the political and the military aspects trying to recover Russia, China, and the satellite states by means of the destruction of Stalin and stalinism in general, substituting them with communist Jews loyal to the Jewish power from New York.

Their policy was at first to convert Mao Tse-Tung into a new Tito, who at that time had betrayed Stalin and submit his communist dictatorship to the Hebrew powers located in the United States.

Herein lies the key to many contradictions in the policy of Washington, which was sending troops to Korea and taking other defensive measures —both efficient and noisy— in order to stop Stalin and his collaborator Mao Tse-Tung, but at the same time it opposed any steps that would mean the complete defeat of the communists, and therefore, that would open the possibility of freeing the peoples enslaved by the reds and of destroying the existing communist regimes.

THE SOVIET-ISRAELI NIPPERS STRANGLE THE ARABS

Stalin, in his turn, in his fight against Zionism and the State of Israel, helped the Arabs in everyway, both with the purpose of attacking the rival Jewish band, and for the gradual attraction of the Arabs to the Soviet and socialist sphere. This Hebrew dictator was also planning to use the influence that the Arabs had on the Islam, and the latter has over the free Afro-Asian world, in order to attract these to the Soviet Socialist sphere of influence through the support of a false third world, which in fact would be gradually converted into a satellite of the communists.

The strange death of Stalin did not immediately change things. Nothing changed during the internal struggle which appeared among his Hebrew collaborators in their attempt to take over the Soviet dictatorship; they fought against each other like starving wolves murdering each other, sending people to jail, or exiling them to Siberia. The Jew Nikita Salomon Kruschev finally gained control of the situation; his real name was Salomon Pearl Mutter, but like the rest of the Soviet Jews he changed it in order to hide his Judaism and to appear as an authentic Russian.

For some years this schism, sheared off Judaism, and was extremely costly for it since, on the communist side, it destroyed the previous Hebrew plans in relation to Germany, for Stalin was rearming Eastern Germany and at the same time he was arming the Arabs against the State of Israel. And Kruschev, his successor, was supporting the Egyptian President Nasser in his attempt to recover the Suez Canal, under the threat of launching an atomic war if the western powers interfered to prevent it. On the other hand, in order to stop the progress of Stalin and prevent his conquest of the world, the International Jewish power located in New York was rearming Western Europe and urging the application of measures to make the economic revival of Western Europe and Japan really possible, thus rescuing them from the economic chaos caused by the world war. The Jewish financiers tried, of course, to keep Japan and Western Germany under their control in every possible way, because this new policy definitely frustrated the plan of the Jew Morgenthau of converting Germany into a state devoted entirely to agriculture, so as to prevent any possibility of political revival in the future.

At the same time, the government of Truman, a satellite of the world Jewish power of New York, with its help, was surrounding the Soviet Union and Red China with the largest network of alliances of all times.

They thus established military bases in several parts of the world, pointing to the heart of the communist powers. They reached the extreme of stopping the war to death against the anticommunist regime of general Franco in Spain, in order to negotiate with him, for the establishment of air force bases in that country and reinforce the gigantic network of military bases aimed at the destruction of the Stalinist dictatorship, in case it started the much-feared war of world conquest.

But not wishing to stop the expansion of communism completely, the Jews supported the triumph of Ho Chi-Minh, which the Government of the French Jew Pierre Mendes France endorsed, by promising the future dictator of North Vietnam to move away from Stalinism. But suspecting the International Judaism that Ho Chi-Minh would not keep his promise, there was a manipulation in the Geneve Congress to give him a certain but limited triumph in order to see if Ho Chi-Minh would keep or break his promise.

The ability of the red leader of Indochina consisted in making both sides believe that he was loyal to them in secret and thus he was able to obtain from the Soviet Union as well as from the two western powers the signature for the Geneve agreements. Although this way only a limited victory for the Vietnamese red leader, he was forced to accept the agreements but with the intention of violating them as soon as he had a chance, in order to engage in the conquest of South Vietnam, Laos, and Cambodia. Who was fooled by Ho Chi-Minh? The Stalinism of the Kremlin and Peking or the Jewish anti-Stalinist powers? We do not know.

The strengthening of the free world because of rivalry between the two Jewish bands, naturally was causing everyday more sorrow and consternation in the Jewish organizations of both sides, who realized that they were losing in internal struggles what they had gained with the second World War. They greatly desired reconciliation.

Once Kruschev became the absolute lord of the USSR, he started taking steps for the achievement of such a reconciliation and the end of the internal Jewish schism. He released the Jewish medical doctors accused of trying to poison Stalin; he freed all the communist Jews Stalin had jailed; and he finally did not recognize Stalin himself as a hero and "destalinized" the Soviet Union and the satellite states of Eastern Europe.

However, the New York Jewish powers continued to distrust him, because he was a creation of Stalin. Annoyed because of this distrust, Kruschev, in one of his well-known outbursts of anger, supported the action taken by President Nasser of Egypt to take over the Suez Canal, throwing aside momentarily the work of Disraeli; but he felt sure that the Jewish power in Moscow could recover it in the future by means of the paratroopers and the advance of the Soviet tanks and armies over the Suez Canal, or by turning Egypt into a satellite state progressively controlled by the Soviet Union.

Anyway, this incident caused even more anguish in Jewish communities of all the world, among the Hebrews of both rival bands, and all the institutions of internal reunification that I mentioned before, increased with success the attempts of reconciliation that finally were able to finish the disastrous schism which had slowed down the overwhelming advances of communism.

After Kruschev's trip to New York, during which he was the guest of Bernard Baruch, secret leader of the anti-stalinist Jewish faction, and in whose house he interviewed the crypto-Jewish Republican President of the United States, D. David Eisenhower, Nikita Salomon - once back in Russia - made his famous declaration that "the American citizen most loved in the Soviet Union was Bernard Baruch."

The reconciliation of both opposing Hebrew factions was thus settled. We must remember that before this reconciliation, in the Soviet Union many Jewish leaders in some way connected with Bernard Baruch were put to trial and even murdered. After this, things changed completely, and very soon the free world felt the terrible effects of the reunification of International Judaism.

This way, soon after this, the Government of Eisenhower would help Fidel Castro reach the power and President Kennedy would prevent every EFFECTIVE action to overthrow him. In order to complete this betrayal, the crypto-communist John F. Kennedy planned secretly with Nikita Salomon Kruschev a way to justify, before the opinion of American people, a vile treaty that would pledge the United States government to support the red government of Fidel Castro against any invasion thus guaranteeing the consolidation of the communist regime in the enslaved Cuba.

But it was necessary to do it in such a way that Kennedy would not lose prestige before the free world and the American people. For that purpose Kruschev and Kennedy, with the support of the Master of both factions, the Jewish world leader, Bernard Baruch, and with the help of Hebrew technicians, thought of the comedy of the Soviet missiles. The USSR sent missiles to Cuba, seriously threatening the United States. Kennedy sent the fleet to block Cuba and demanded that the USSR withdraw the dangerous missiles. The Jewish-controlled press supporting the comedy, made a lot of noise about the possibility of an atomic war. Americans and the free world believed the farce and were alarmed. Then came the saving transaction. The USSR removed the atomic missiles from Cuba and the United States committed themselves to safeguard the government of the "marrano" (crypto-Jew) communist Fidel Castro, against any invasion.

This farce was so wisely planned that only a few politicians of good vision, could realize that everything had been a treacherous manoeuvre of Kennedy, to ensure the long life of Castro's regime, without losing his good image before the people, but rather, strengthening his prestige in view of the partial elections which were to be held in the United States.

This way the unfortunate people of Cuba were definitely crucified by Judaism, in the United States. This kind of farce is very frequent in the revolutionary strategy of Judaism, so, the patriots of the whole world must be alert not be deceived by them.

Later on, Jewish plots to weaken and destroy the South East Asia Treaty Organization were intensified preventing at the same time every effective action from the Organization of American States against the communist murderer and tyrant Fidel Castro, and rounding up this treason with the world-wide campaign by the forces controlled by Judaism, to force the government of the United States to abandon the people of South Vietnam, leaving them at the mercy of communist slavery and thus facilitating the fall of all Southern Asia in the hands of the reds.

Going back to the days of reconciliation, of the secret Jewish powers of Moscow and New York, it is necessary to add that after having achieved it in the way we have mentioned, a new problem was to grow for Judaism and its communist revolution. This was the conflict between the Soviet Union and Red China.

The Jews went to China more or less two thousand years ago. Due to mixed marriages with Chinese, to the climate conditions and the food regime, a community of Chinese Jews was formed through the centuries; according to writers on this topic, they have a racial Chinese type, to a point that they are now confused with the authentic Chinese. They adopted Chinese first and last names, many were falsely converted into Buddhism and into Confucianism, and were able to obtain such important positions as that of Mandarin, hiding their Jewish religion, that they have kept in secret through generations.

These Chinese Jewish "marranos" were the ones who organized the Chinese masonry first, and later they took very important part in the organization of the communist party in China. As in the western world, the Chinese underground Jews, made puppets of many real Chinese men, and Mao Tse-Tung, that had been eliminated, from the leadership of the communist party by the crypto-Jewish powers, could nevertheless, with the help of the red army, control again the Chinese communist party, but he could not save it, from the big infiltration of Tiao-Kiu-Kiaou Chinese crypto-Jews.

A similar situation prevails in Korea and Vietnam. In Judaism these yellow Chinese Jews are known as Tiao-Kiu-Kiaou Jews, that have strong infiltrations both in the leading of the communist party and in the secret police, the government positions and in the army. When the Jew Nikita Salomon Kruschev turned against Stalin, Mao Tse-Tung became angry because of the steps taken by Kruschev, the Soviet dictator who was destalinizing the USSR and turning against Stalin, the man who had been able to give communism a power never achieved before; and Mao regarded as treacherous and revisionist all the antistalinist political reforms approved by Kruschev.

For the moment, the Maoist communist government of China refused to degrade Stalin, keeping him in his high position as one of the great men of Marxism, along with Marx, Engels and Lenin.

Later, the distance of the maoism from the Jews that rule Russia, became greater, although hidden at the beginning by the need that the Chinese communist regime had of the Soviet support, the need to mantain their defects at home, and to prevent world scandal which would be provoked by the division of international communism.

But when the Soviets decided to withdraw the support they were giving to Mao, the hidden schism became public in a noisy manner. Aside from the ideological dispute, the logical ambition of Mao Tse-Tung was even more important. He wanted to become the supreme leader of communism and of the world revolution.

In order to understand this well, we have to take into account that when Nikita Salomon Kruschev was a second class official in the Soviet hierarchy, Mao Tse-Tung was already, after Stalin, the most powerful leader of world communism. Therefore, it was natural that Mao and his followers thought that Mao, and not second class employees of the Kremlin, should inherit Stalin's place as the supreme leader of communism. This thing will never be accepted by the International Judaism, which wants to have Jews in the leadership of communism, to use it, in the benefit of the world domination by the Jews. Another reason for the struggle between Moscow and Peking, is the territorial controversy. Maoism wants Russia to return to China the territories that the Russian Empire and the Soviet Communism Union have stolen from China, and that are really Chinese lands. The Jews that rule Russia do not want to return to China these great territories.

Just as in the case of Stalin mentioned, the Jewish Powers in no way want —through their dispute with Mao Tse-Tung—, the destruction of communism in China, as that would mean a catastrophic step back in Hebrew plans to communize the world. What they rather want, is to promote the revolt against Mao and his gang in China in order to overthrow and substitute them by communist Tiao-Kiu-Kiaou Jews, loyal to Moscow. Or to wait patiently, for Mao-Tse-Tung and Chou En-Lai to die; so the crypto-Jews Tiao-Kiu-Kiaou, infiltrated in the communist party, the army and the government, can get control of red China, defeating in this struggle for power, the real communist Chinese. If the Chinese crypto-Jews get the control of Popular China, would transform it again, in a satellite of the Jewish Soviet Union. The same thing would happen if the Kremlin decides itself, to invade red China and can occupy militarily its territory, putting down the Maoist government and changing it for a Tiao-Kiu-Kiaou crypto-Jewish government controlled by the Soviet Union. In the case of a red Chinese war, American Judaism will try to put the big power of the United States of America in favor of the Jewish Soviet Union. All this would be a disaster for humanity, that would fall easily in the claws of the Jewish communist slavery.

For all the above mentioned, it will be impossible for the patriot Chiang Kai-Shek to receive support from the United States to liberate China from the coils of communism, while the government of Washington continues under the control and decisive influence of the hidden powers of Judaism, although this may mean, both for the United States and the free world, to despise criminally the brilliant opportunity that the Moscow-Peking conflict represents to liberate North Vietnam, ending victoriously, that absurd merely defensive war in South Vietnam and even to liberate the unfortunate Chinese people.

The most Washington governments will do, while being puppets of Judaism, will be to prevent the conquest of Formosa by Mao, in order to prevent him from becoming more powerful. This will continue until the United States elects a patriotic and energetic President who can take advantage of the Peking-Moscow conflict, to finish off the Chinese communist menace, helping Chiang Kai-Shek to liberate his people.

We hope there is still time for this to happen, but it is possible that any day Moscow and Peking will become friends again, if the underground Chinese Jews get control in the future of the Government of Peking.

With respect to the Arab-Israel conflict, the Arabs have not realized the change in the situation, from the time the rival Hebrew bands directed by Moscow and New York became friends again. The Arabs attested that Stalin and his successors effectively helped them for several years against the State of Israel and its allies in the United States, England and France; such eloquent facts deserved the trust of the Arabs in the Moscow leaders. What the Arabs did not know is that everything has changed since the reconciliation between Moscow and New York. The situation according to information of a very confidential nature and worthy of trust which I have, is presently the following:

In a common agreement, the leaders of World Judaism both from New York and Moscow, approved the following policy with regard to the Arabs and the State of Israel:

1st.— The support provided by the Soviet Union to the Arabs, during the time of the Stalinist schism, had brought as a consequence the attraction of many Arab leaders to the Soviet socialist sphere; this was, in any case, beneficial to the plans of International Judaism of taking the world to socialism and communism.

THIS SHOULD NOT BE NEGLECTED AT ALL, but rather it should continue to be ADVANCED. Especially because of the fact that the Arabs, due to their position as the sacred people of the Islam, have influence upon the Islam itself and may have great influence upon the rest of the Muslim countries, both in Black Africa and in Southern Asia. The Muslim countries, in turn, have great influence upon the so-called underdeveloped world.

Soviet support of the Arabs should continue as a price that had to be paid in order to bring them —and along with them, the Islam and Afro-Asiatic world— even closer to the communist and socialist sphere, something which would be hard to obtain through OTHER MEANS, as the Muslim religion rejects atheistic communism and the religious character of the Islam is presently much more intense than that of the Christianity. This religious character is —in many Muslim countries— comparable to that of the Christians three centuries ago.

2nd.— But this support of the Arabs should not endanger the life nor the projected expansion of the State of Israel. Therefore, while the western Jews would pull the strings so as to have the governments of the big western nations arm Israel strongly and efficaciously, the Soviet Jews would arm the Arabs LESS EFFICACIOUSLY, so that they would surely be defeated in any new Arab-Israel war, anytime such war occurred. A war that —in the last instance—the Hebrews could win with the unhesitant and efficacious support of some western nations in favor of Israel, and a skillful sabotage of the Soviet Union in the support that in decisive moments, they would have to provide for the Arabs, so as not to lose their influence upon them.

Through a sabotage by the Soviets themselves of the support to the Arabs in decisive moments, these would be certainly defeated in that war, necessary for the territorial expansion of the Jewish State. The Jews could then allow for a greater emigration and this would also bring a quick duplication of the number of Jewish inhabitants in the State of Israel.

3rd.— The defeat of the Arabs in such a war would cause one of the following results, both good for International Judaism: The State of Israel could conquer the Suez Canal totally, as well as the oil riches of several Arab states. Or, if such a step were not convenient, FOR THE TIME BEING, because of harmful international implications, Judaism could force the Arabs, who need very badly foreign support, to abandon themselves even more to the hands of the Soviet Union. This would bring, on the other hand, continued support of the western powers in favor of Israel and opposition to any military and economic support for the Arabs. The Soviet government would be instructed to offer all kinds of military and economic help to the Arabs, but this would force them, WHETHER THEY WANT IT OR NOT, TO FALL INTO THE HANDS OF THE SOVIET UNION.

The Arabs would thus be more involved in the socialist and Soviet sphere, and THROUGH NEW THREATS OF EXPANSION OF THE STATE OF ISRAEL, the Arab states, or at least some of them, would accept the establishment of Soviet military bases in the Arab world, the supervision by the Soviets of the Arab armies —with the pretext of improving them but with the aim of actually controlling them—, the control of oil resources by the Soviets, which in the long run would allow the USSR to conquer these lands definitely and deprive the Free World of its most important source of oil.

The Hebrew plan to conquer Arab territories, and when possible in the future, vital areas of the Arab world (Suez Canal, Red Sea - which should be a new Jewish Mare Nostrum, oil zones, etc.) is not to be carried out by the Jews in a total and sudden action, but rather, gradually with interspaced periods of peace and truce.

These periods MUST ONLY BE USED to digest the lands conquered from the Arabs, to increase the Jewish population and the economic and military power of the State of Israel with further immigration, IN ORDER TO PREPARE AND CARRY OUT A NEW OFFENSIVE ACTION AT THE APPROPRIATE MOMENT. This offensive action may come through the use of the part of the nippers that is more convenient, that is, through an expansion of the Jewish State, or through the profits obtained by the Soviet Union and its communist satellites, as a price for its support to the Arabs.

The profits may consist of oil concessions, vital military bases, or even control by the Jews of the Kremlin of the Arab armies, under the excuse of preparing them for war against Israel. And, finally, control of the Arab governments by the Kremlin and the fall of those who oppose such a control. For the future, they even foresee the military occupation by the Soviets of the Arab lands not conquered by the expansion of the State of Israel.

The pretext would be to just send Soviet armies to Arab territories in order to defend them from the Jewish aggression. Communist armies that would occupy Arab lands, not to defend them, but to control them, just as they did when they occupied my homeland and other nations of Western Europe, supposedly to free them from the Nazis but later they stayed on to enslave them. This plan will be made easier if the Arab governments, threatened by a new Jewish aggression, make the suicidal mistake of requesting communist troops to defend them from such aggression.

Something that Judaism wants to obtain at any price, with those Soviet-Israel nippers against the Arab World, is the official approval by the Arabs of the State of Israel; consequently, of course, the Arabs would lose all the territories that have been snatched away from them by the Jewish State.

These ambitious plans have already been carried out partially and they will continue little by little in order not to cause dangerous reactions. The Jews have even foreseen the possibility of partially stepping back in some points of the plan, but only temporarily and in case a dangerous international reaction advises it. They would then attack again as soon as they could and whenever convenient. They have also considered the possibility of accelerating these plans, thus advancing quickly in their execution when there is a chance of doing it without danger.

By this way, the Jewish-communist nippers will either make it easier for the State of Israel to conquer the Arab world —SOMETHING LESS PROBABLE FOR THE TIME BEING— or conquest it by the Soviet Union and socialism —SOMETHING MORE PROBABLE—, or a conquest in part obtained by the State of Israel and in part by the Soviet Union and socialism— SOMETHING ALMOST SURE.

However, since this machiavelian plan was conceived, the creators of the plan, according to what my source of information states in this regard foresaw serious difficulties, that they would have to overcome. The following are some of them:

1st. Since the plan was created, they have considered the possibility that Judaism might lose control of the government of one or several of the big western powers, and that a gentile government, or a reactionary or "dictatorial" government (read patriot Government) could destroy the plan, offering the Arab states SUFFICIENT MILITARY, AND FINANCIAL SUPPORT, so that they would be able to forego Soviet help.

This could cause the FALL OF THE SOVIET-JEWISH BLACKMAIL that has been described, taking out of the hands of Judaism, at least for the moment, the opportunity to push the Arabs deeper and deeper into the Soviet sphere. Such danger should be avoided by crushing the gentile government official or officials who dare to make such a step, because if the nippers of this blackmail fails, the whole plan for the communist-Jewish control of the Arab world and - through it - the Islamic world, could fail.

2nd. The Soviet Union and the western government leaders under Jewish control will do everything possible so that the Arabs CONTINUE TRUSTING THE SOVIET UNION, even if Russia fails them at times; THEREFORE THE SOVIET SUPPORT WILL BE MORE WRAPPED IN EMPTY WORDS THAN EFFICACIOUS ACTION, SO as to cover the lack of FACTS.

This manoeuvre could have complete success if the western powers continue to refuse helping the Arabs and efficaciously supporting Israel; in this case, as we said before, THERE WILL BE NO CHOICE FOR THE ARABS BUT TO ABANDON THEMSELVES MORE AND MORE INTO THE HANDS OF THE SOVIET UNION, WHETHER THEY WANT IT OR NOT. Or else they will have to surrender to Israel, thus recognizing its existence and the territories conquered by the Jews in Palestine or even outside Palestine whenever possible.

3rd. When the rebellion of Mao Tse-Tung became a clear schism, the creators and executors of this terrible plan foresaw another possibility that might make the plan fail. This was that communist China OFFERED HELP TO THE ARABS, with the intention of replacing the Soviet Union and its satellites, including the pretended neutralist Tito, in the increasing influence that these have had over the Arab world. It is necessary not to forget that the Jew Josip Broz Tito, dictator of Yugoslavia (whose real Jewish name is Iosif Walter Weiss, of Polish origin), is used now by International Judaism, as an agent to infiltrate and control the underdeveloped World.

The Israelite communities and the underground Judaism or crypto-Judaism in all the nations, infiltrate and try to control political parties and organizations of the more opposed ideologies, from conservative parties, to liberal, socialist and communist organizations. Because the Jews want to control everything —as they sincerely think, it is their most sacred obligation—. Furthermore, the Jewish agents control most of the communist World and the majority of the developed countries of the capitalist World, and they are trying to get control over the poor and under-developed nations of the Third World.

But to the possibility that the help of red China to the Arabs damage the Jewish Soviet influence, is given few probabilities, due mainly to the few possibilities that Red China has to equal the support —economically and in weapons— that the Soviet Union can provide for the Arabs. Soviet support should thus be increased so that it can not be challenged by Peking; but this would also force Judaism to obtain wider and more efficacious support from the governments of the western powers in favor of Israel, support that would surpass that which the USSR and its satellites give to the Arabs, in order to avoid in any case a victory that the Arabs could obtain in their war against Israel.

Further, or the Soviet invasion to China, or the internal movement that would be organized in China, among the Tiao-Kiu-Kiaou Jews, secretly loyal to the Hebrew powers of New York and Moscow, could finish off Mao and his gang thus solving the problem. Or at least they could create in Red China such an anarchy that would prevent China from providing enough support to the Arabs, has to replace the indispensable Soviet help.

As can be seen, International Israel is strangling the Arab world by means of the crushing Soviet- Isaelite nippers that has put Arabs against the wall. Thus Islam, which would be hard to be conquered by atheistic communism, has been penetrated in this skillful manner, and it can be gradually conquered if the powers of the Free World do not arise to stop it.

This will be impossible while the government of the United States and others among the big western powers continue to give financial and military support to the State of Israel, thus seriously harming the Arabs, as well as their own nations. Because the nations will lose in any case if International Israel conquers the Arab world, whether it is through the territorial expansion of the State of Israel or through the conquest by the Jewish-communist imperialism.

The appearance in the big western powers of one or more gentile heads of State (—free from the Jewish-masonic tutelage—, with an understanding of this terrible threat for humanity, prepared to destroy in a courageous way these criminal Soviet-Jewish nippers that crush the Arabs) who offered the Arabs the necessary economic and military support for their legitimate defense war against the aggression of Israel —could destroy the Jewish— communist plans in the Middle East; because the Arabs, once they do not need Soviet support any longer, would be free from their oppressing claws, and the terrible nippers would be broken to pieces.

These patriot leaders of the western powers who have the spirit of justice, the political vision and the courage to take this important and decisive decision for the destiny of the world, will receive the gratitude of not only the Arabs and Islam but of all free men in the whole world.

It is obvious, of course, that such a movement, if it is efficacious enough to destroy the plans —herein described— that Jewish imperialism and the communist revolution have for the conquest of the Arab States and the Islamic world, would provoke the ferocious reaction of International Israel against the great patriot who carried out such a heroic deed; they would then try to finish him off politically, or strangle his government economically.

IMPERIALISM, COMMUNISM AND JUDAISM, THE THREE FORCES DOMINATING THE WORLD

SERIES OF AUTHOR
ITSVAN BAKONY

The Library of Political Secrets now adds to its collection selected chapters from the book of the Hungarian researcher, Itsvan Bakony, entitled: "Imperialism, Communism and Judaism, the Three Forces Dominating the World". The translation of the Hungarian original was completed in Paris in January 1969, and was later brought up to date by the author.

The only purpose of this edition is to diffuse the truth about the great political secrets and transcendental historic events currently taking place in the world.

We urge patriots in all countries to diffuse this work amongst the largest possible number of people, reprinting and distributing it freely, because neither the author, nor the translator or the editor, have reserved special rights. Those who desire to, may reproduce this book, but no people or entity may pretend to reserve the exclusive rights of the author or edition.

CHAPTER I

RACIST RELIGION

What is Judaism? How is Judaism organized? These two questions have been asked by many scholars, none of whom have been able to answer either question satisfactorily, for the simple reason that the Hebrew people have surrounded all matters relating to their internal organization with great secrecy.

Jews practice a complete racial discrimination against the peoples that have sheltered them, preventing them from entering their private organizations.

As soon as they arrive in a nation, they feel they have the right to get involved in all institutions and organizations of the people that sheltered them; and if someone attempts to prevent this, they loudly protest against racial discrimination. But as foreigners who demand and receive hospitality, they discriminate the natives in their own lands, thinking they have the right to impede the entrance of their hosts into their own Jewish communities, private clubs and synagogues.

The worst thing is that the host States tolerate this shameful situation, a fact which reveals the level of domination the Jews have achieved in many nations of the world.

When protests are made against this policy, which seem to the Jews to be dangerously strong, they organize foot-ball games at an Israelite Sports Club and make these open to all public in general, or they will create some new Christian-Jewish mixed organization, or communities of Door Proselytes (see Chapter three) in order to exert more influence on Christians, but the entrance of any "goy", as they depreciatingly call those who are not members of their pretended race, into the inner organizations of Judaism is forbidden.

That is why when Jews speak about supposed racial discrimination, the organizations that defend their people against the Jews must answer with campaigns demanding that non-Jews be allowed to enter the private Israelite clubs and synagogues, communities and kehillas, and have the right to be part of their secret governments, as the Hebrews, demand to participate in the governments of the gentile peoples. We will see how the Jews will categorically reject such demands.

Such experiences would be useful to show the public that it is the Jews who are discriminating against the people that sheltered them, and will make them understand that if Israelites are so interested in keeping their meetings secret, it is because they are engineering something bad there.

Despite the secrecy with which the Jews surround their internal organizations, one can have some idea, if only superficial, of what is Judaism and how it operates.

As they do not know what it is, non-Jewish people suffer painful mistakes. For example, they believe that the Jewish emigrant who enters to a country is like the emigrants of other nations, and they kindly open the door to him as to any other foreigner, without understanding that far from being just an emigrant, he is an active agent of a world imperialist organization that plans to conquer the country that receives him.

Benjamin Franklin, one of the founders of the United States, became fully aware of this problem and clearly foresaw that if things continued to be as they were, Israelites would end by taking over his country. The facts have confirmed Benjamin Franklin's predictions as the United States are so dominated by the Jews that they can be considered as a Jewish Colony. Yankee Imperialism has turned out to be an instrument of Jewish Imperialism.

Jews are, first of all, a nation, and a nation which is world-organized, because they are spread throughout the countries of the world. It is a nation that in its great part lives in foreign lands, whose members live as parasites in the territories of other peoples. For several centuries, Jews were deprived of a territory of their own, but at the end of World War II, they succeeded in arranging that Britain, dominated by the Hebrews, enabled them to immigrate in large numbers into the State of Israel, following which they threw out from there, in a criminal way, the majority of the Moslem inhabitants.

Nevertheless, according to the 1961 census, only 2,170,280 Hebrews live in Israel, while many times this figure live in other countries spread throughout the world. (*).

(*) Editor's note: According to 1974 statistics the State of Israel has 3,300,000 inhabitants.

It is unknown exactly how many Jews there are in the world because they themselves carefully seek to hide this information. Some say there are fifteen million, naturally counting only those who publicly profess Judaism, but it is evident that the number of underground Jews that live under the mask of the Christian, Moslem or other religions, who never appear in census and statistics, is much higher.

During the Middle Age alone, there were more Jews who falsely converted to Christianity and Islam than those who remained practicing Judaism.

In their private books, Israelite authors confess that almost all those conversions to Christianity and Islam were false and unsincere, while Hebrews secretly kept their ancient religion.

Since the Renaissance, the process of false conversions to Christianity continued, thus continually increasing the amount of clandestine Jews, and diminishing the number of those who publicly professed Israel's religion. This process continues even in our days, especially in countries such as the United States where they need to strengthen their fifth column inside Christianity. It is therefore, difficult to calculate the number of underground Jews who are in any case many times more than those who officially and publicly recognize that they are Israelites.

But in addition to being a nation spread throughout the world, Jews are also linked as members of a common religion — not like other religions, but an aggressive and imperialist religion full of hatred and filled with the desire to enslave mankind.

This religion is private to the Jewish people, not apostolic as the others, that is why Jews are not interested in converting people to the real Judaism. The Jews believe that their religion is the result of Abraham's agreement with God, and that as such it is incumbent to the Lord's chosen people to dominate the world, because the rest of men are mere animals, lacking any human nature, who do not have the right to be seated at the table of the elected nor to be a part of the future aristocracy of mankind, who on the supposed command of God will enslave the peoples of the world.

When Jews sincerely seek to convert a Christian or a Moslem to Judaism, it is because he is of the Jewish race, a descendant of Hebrews, whose parents or grandparents lost contact with Judaism for some reason. The conversion of such a Christian or Moslem is intended to recover the lost blood.

The Israelites plan — when the destroying machine of their atheistic communism annihilates all other religions — to make Israel's religion the sole religion of the world. But gentiles will never be admitted in the real organizations of the chosen people; they will only be enrolled in a special religion made for them which will have the outward appearance of Judaism, but which will only be the religion of the slaves, justifying their slavery and of the privileges which the Jews of blood will claim as masters in that future world. That religion will be only slightly different from the ancient organization of the "proselytes of the door" — spiritual Jews adapted to the new circumstances.

In times of the Inquisition, many underground Jews (Christians only in public) frightened by the inquisitorial repression and by the blaze waiting for them as if they were discovered, untied themselves completely from Judaism, and hence their children were lost from Judaism also.

Then it was the utmost duty, both of public and secret Jews, to recover the lost blood, bravely fighting to secretly initiate the renegades' children, without resting until getting it. In the Inquisition's records there are constant examples of this kind of proselitism done both by Judaizing heretics, that is to say Christians in secret who practiced Judaism, and public Jews who openly recognized they were Jews.

Among the reasons that determined the expulsions of the Jews from France, England, Spain and other countries, there is that of Jews incited the converts and their descendants to go back to the "vomit of Judaism".

Judaism presently carries on intense proselitism in many countries among those who, either with a solid basis or not, are considered as descendants of those who were forced by the inquisitorial persecution to really separate themselves from Judaism. But because the antecessors of these persons, already sincere Christians, married Christians in the next generations, their present descendants have more blood of the "gentile beast" in their veins than Jewish blood. That is why the Jews cannot accept them into the true Israelite organizations, exclusively destined for Jews of blood. To control these hybrids, Hebrews have created special communities and synagogues, persuading them by skillful deceipts into the naive belief they are introducing them to the real Judaism, when in fact they are initiating these people in one of the many satellite organizations that the real Jew has organized to dominate the rest of men and use them as blind instruments of its pitiless imperialism.

Nevertheless, as those deceived by this trick believe they are really Jews, they serve as unconditional puppets of the real Hebrews. It is therefore dangerous to trust politically in Christian families that have a Jewish ancestor, although it may be true that the majority of their ancestors are Gentiles. It is advisable to distrust all such people.

This eagerness to recover the lost blood is evident also regarding mixed marriages. It is well known that Jews forbid their children to marry people of another race or people, a measure of racial discrimination against those nations that shelter them, for the simple fact that they regard other races as inferior and of an almost animal nature. A Jew becomes stained if he marries a "gentile bitch" — as they call non-Jewish people. Love is, nevertheless, something that cannot be controlled, and sometimes a Jewish boy falls in love with a Christian girl or vice versa, despite of the numerous precautions taken to avoid it. In this case the family tear their clothes and tenaciously opposes the wedding, threatening the boy with reprisals. In many instances they succeed in making the Jewish lover give in to the pressures of his relatives and the whole Hebrew community.

But when love is stronger, and the boy or girl marry against the Jewish will, the Jews start to plan how to secure the blood of the children of that couple, trying to initiate them into Judaism at the appropriate time. In a minority of cases the Jewish boy so threatened by his relatives and his so-called brothers of race, turns against his own people, although he does not apostate for fear of reprisals, he allows his wife to educate his children into Christianity or into another Gentile religion, with the result that his descendants are lost to Jewry. This still does not prevent the Hebrews from trying to recover the "lost blood", often with success.

Israel, besides being a people and nation spread throughout the world, with its own religion, is most of all a sect, a secret society, because in all countries that the Israelites have colonies, and even in the State of Israel, they are organized as a sect, with secret ceremonies of initiation at the age of 13, hold political-religious meetings, with a rigorous ceremonial, rendering oaths of secrecy and absolute obedience to the leaders — as is done in all Secret Societies — and participating in rigorous ceremonials and ritual banquets, of which the rituals and banquets of Freemasonry are merely an imitation.

It is precisely this complex society, comprising the nation, people, religion and sect of the Israelite nation, that has been called Judaism.

CHAPTER II

THE ORGANIZATION OF JUDAISM

As the internal organization of Judaism is so secret, there is little that we as members of other nations, can know about it, because no member of another people is admitted in the Jewish organizations. I will only mention in this book those facts I have been able to investigate and confirm in this regard.

The Family is the basic unit of Judaism, and this is still patriarchal in some countries. The family father or patriarch is a kind of high priest in the family; he leads the family's religious cult, practiced by means of daily prayers and very secret ceremonies subject to a solemn ceremonial, whose purpose is to impress on Hebrews since childhood and adolescence, the idea that they are God's people, chosen by him to dominate the other nations and take over their riches, forging an imperialist ideology that converts them into fanatical instruments of Jewish imperialism in its struggle to conquer all nations of the world, and especially the nation in which the individual Israelite family happens to be living.

Among these secret family ceremonies can be mentioned the Jewish Passover, with its solemn ceremonial and secret banquets, and the Saturday family celebration, which starts on Friday at sunset, when the parents join those of their children who are older than 13 (who have already been initiated in the secrets of Judaism) in their paternal house and also their grandchildren (if these are over 13) and their children's wives, where those are already married. The house is locked, and no stranger is allowed to enter the room where the ceremony is held. The secret ceremony, often followed by a ritual banquet, in which prayers and speeches are delivered sometimes lasts until midnight, unless the adults have to attend the public or clandestine synagogue, (in that case both, the sabbatical ceremony and the banquet are suspended). The family mother presides over the special ceremony involving the kindling and blessing of two candles.

Children younger than 13 are excluded from this and other ceremonies in clandestine Judaism sending them to a specially planned place. Where the family pretends to be Christian or Moslem, or any other Gentile religion, the young children do not know that their family is Jewish, and hides from them all its activities of secret Judaism. At the age of 13, and after great preparations, only those children who have proved themselves able to keep secrets are very secretly initiated into their family's clandestine Judaism. Those who have failed the test of discretion their parents put to them, will only be initiated in hidden Judaism when they eventually prove they can keep secrets. Those who cannot pass the proofs of secrecy, loyalty and others, or are mentally incapable are left outside of this underground Judaism; but both the family and the clandestine Israelite community will do their best to win back the children of such Jews, where these are considered capable and worthy of membership of the secret Judaism.

When the Medieval Inquisition used torture to force Jews to reveal the identity of other clandestine Jews, and tried to discover and destroy the underground Judaism — already very infiltrated into Christian institutions — the clandestine Jews were forced to change the day of the family sabbatical ceremony, because Christians who were suspected of being secret Jews were watched carefully, especially on Friday nights, to catch them "in flagrant" in their family celebration of the Sabbatical ceremony.

Jewish families are an example of unity; the members of those families are taught to exercise the highest loyalty to each other. That is why most Jewish fathers are exemplary parents, Jewish mothers are also exemplary, and their children are a model of filial piety, feeling a veneration and respect for their parents, worthy of imitation, impressed through well studied plans. It is clear that there are some exceptions to this: bad parents, denatured mothers and unworthy children, but these are few.

Unfortunately all these best virtues are always directed to the perverse goals of the political and religious order imposed by their imperialistic religion and the hatred to all other peoples, taught to Jewish children since their infancy in the very bosom of their families.

In the case of underground Jews who pretend to practice Christianity, Islamism, Buddhism or Brahmanism, these familiar virtues confuse the true believers up to the point that when a member of clandestine Judaism is dedicated for example — as an apparent Christian — to infiltrate the Catholic or Protestant parties or into the clergy of the Christian Church, in order to sabotage the defense of Christianity and play the game of Freemasonry or Communism — led by Moscow or by New York Jews — the false Christian plays his role so well that when he is unmasked most people doubts his treason, considering that such an exemplary father and honest husband is incapable of having relations with the dark enemy forces within the nation, that pervert and destroy the non-Jewish families.

Such a situation seems incomprehensible to those who are unaware of the tragic dimensions of the problem, and do not know that the Jew who either publicly or secretly tries to destroy the unity of the gentile families — precisely to weaken the peoples they attempt to conquer — keeps his own families in a necessary state of unity and moral loyalty in order to maintain those basic cells of Israelite vigor. They know that a people with healthy and strong families — both materially and morally speaking — will be more able to dominate the peoples with families unhinged by immorality and disunity. For this reason they deliberately spread ideas aimed at dissolving the gentile faith in marriage and the loyalty of the children to each other.

In every place Jews compose a secret organization called a Community that integrates the Israelite families of the town or city, whose patriarchs or family heads are represented in the Kehilla or Supreme Council of that Jewish Community.

Jews are also strongly organized in Brotherhoods, and other organizations, whose goal is to take over and control the different associations and institutions, either political, syndicalist, economic, religious and of all kinds, of the peoples in whose territory the Jewish Communities operate, either openly or clandestinely. I use the term "clandestine" because it is much used in Jewish writings on this subject.

These Brotherhoods were previously called simply synagogues, because "synagogue" means assembly. It is necessary to distinguish between the assembly-synagogue or Brotherhood and the temple or place where that assembly operates, which is also called synagogue. Sometimes each Brotherhood, that is to say each assembly-synagogue, has its own building, its own temple-synagogue; but sometimes, several Brotherhoods or assembly-synagogues may operate within a single temple-synagogue.

The assembly-synagogues are meetings of a religious, political and social character. The synagogue has very solemn rites and ceremonies, of which the Masonic ceremonies are a pale reflection. Alternating with ritual prayers, all political, economic and social affairs related with the control of the city or town where the Brotherhoods is located are discussed, as well as all those other matters that the united Jewish Brotherhoods of the whole gentile nation have as objective for the imperialist conquest and the domination of the unfortunate nation which years, or centuries earlier, made the mistake of allowing Jews to settle in her territory.

Apart from possessing a ritual and ceremonies more impressive than those of the Masonic Lodges, the assembly-synagogue operates in a manner similar to that of Communist cells.

Brotherhoods are also represented in the Council, which, as was previously indicated, is the Municipal Supreme Command of the Community, acting together with the Secret Tribunal or Bet-Din.

Regarding underground Judaism, whose very secret communities are composed of Jews that practice Christianity or any other religion in public, the secret assemblied or synagogues operate in private houses or else in very well disguised public places, so that non-Jewish members of the population remain unaware of its existence and its operation.

Thus in the time of the Inquisition, when control was not so strong, secret synagogues operated with a certain regularity, but when persecution was hard, they were even suppressed for fear that the Inquirers might discover them. Then, clandestine Judaism could find refuge only in the family organization, because a family meeting could not seem suspicious, and thanks to this trick, clandestine Judaism could survive even through the times of great Inquisitorial vigilance. The same thing happened in Germany and other European countries during the times of the Nazi persecution against the Jews.

The word synagogue is sometimes used to refer to Judaism as a whole, as the word Church is used to refer to an ecclesiastic institution as a whole.

Judaism — as Freemasonry — has different rites, which generally have a common racial meaning. For example, the Sephardite rite embraces all dispersed Jews throughout the world who are descendants from those expelled from Spain in 1492, and from Portugal in the times of King Manuel, as well as the crypto-Jewish Christians that were expelled from Spain and Portugal in the times of Phillip IV, in the 17th century.

The Ashkenazi rite gathers the Hebrews of German descent who are also spread throughout the world.

The Beni-Israel rite belongs to the Jews that about 18 centuries ago arrived in India and infiltrated all Indian castes, and have since emigrated to various countries in Africa, Asia and even in England. People believe them to be Hindus, but in fact many of them are clandestine Jews of the Beni-Israel rite, that presently control the Congress Party and the Indian government, which was subjected to the yoke of the Israelite imperialism with the help of the British Jews, who since the times of the Jewish Prime Minister of Britain, Benjamin Disraeli, in the last century, have made the British government an instrument of Jewish imperialism. In Africa and other places, these clandestine Jews who came from India with the protection and help of the London government, now control the commerce of many black nations and exploit their peoples sometimes in a merciless way.

This Beni-Israel rite of India works in a very secret way, and has great influence in the destiny of India. Many of them act apparently as Brahmans or members of other religions, and through centuries they have acquired Hindi racial characteristics to such an extent that it is difficult in many cases to distinguish them from a real Hindu. They facilitated the British conquest of India, helping later to maintain London domination, and for a century and a half worked against the real Hindus who fought for Indian independence until when the strength of the true patriots was destroyed, secret Beni-Israels Jews and their leaders, the so-called Mahatma Gandhi and Jawaharlal Nehru, controlled the movement for independence, which was then granted by the Jews that controlled the British government leaving the Indian government in the hands of the secret Hindi Jews of the Beni-Israel rite, allied, as was natural, with their Jewish brethren that lead the Soviet Union and with the Jews of Washington and London. I will report later on these clandestine Jews of India.

Another rite is that of the secret Chinese Jews that arrived in China about seventeen centuries ago and mixed very much with the aboriginal population and with the Mongolian warrior tribes of the North, obtaining through centuries an almost perfect Chinese type.

Many of them falsely embraced Buddhism, keeping Judaism in secret according to their customs. These Chinese Jews are known in Judaism as "Tiao-Kiu-Kiaou", which means: the sect that removes the tendon, a reference to the operation prescribed for ritual killing in the Bible (Genesis 37-33).

These secret Chinese Jews live in all provinces of present Mainland China, hiding their Judaism and pretending to be loyal to Maoism, which they wish to oust because Mao is not Jewish but gentile, and Judaism wants to overthrow him to control his succession in order to place a Communist government composed by TIAO-KIU-KIAOU JEWS, about whom I will continue talking later.

There are many rites which are original to the gentile state in which they have operated. But of all the rites existing in the different regions of the world, the most outstandingly important are those of the secret communities of clandestine Jews of all countries that appear to be members of any non-Jewish religion, whose hidden communities constitute the Jewish fifth columns. They function separately from the public Jewish communities, having, nevertheless, a very secret, close and efficient contact with them. The Jewish encyclopedias and books openly published do not mention them except in unusual instances. When in a town or city there is only one Jewish community of one rite, the Council is composed solely of the representatives of that congregation; but when there are two or three communities of different rites, the Kehilla is formed from representatives of each one of the existent communities on the basis of proportional representation, relevant to the amount of families of each Congregation. Nevertheless, there are occasions where the representation of each community in the Kahal or Kehilla is not determined by the number of families but by the amount each congregation gives to support the activities of the community; something similar to anonymous societies, which as everybody knows are of Jewish origin. This gives an idea of the great importance Hebrews give to the economic collaboration of the brethren, towards the fulfilment of the common ideal, for they know very well that the political strength of any organization depends greatly on the idealism of its members expressed in different ways, but mainly in the sacrifice of part of their own patrimony, which is collected not as a donation but as an obligatory tax, equivalent to the taxes charged by territorial states.

Besides the Kehilla, Kahal or Council, there is the Bet-Din or secret Jewish Court that judges and condemns the traitors and those who commit any crime against their brothers in race, judging quarrels, attempting reconciliations or dictating penalties — decisions that all Jews of the community are forced to obey.

Different cultural and charity organizations also depend on the Kehilla or Council of each community; in some places the Israelite schools and in others the so-called Talmud-Thora schools that — as their name indicates — poison the Jewish children with the twisted teachings of Talmud and with false interpretation of the Old Testament of the Bible.

The brevity of this book prevents us from detailing the different kinds of cultural and charity organizations created by the different Kahals in the world, according to their importance. It is enough to say that culture and charity are granted only to Jews and not to the people that accepted them in their territory. Only when it is desirable for them to win the sympathy of the non-Jewish people, do they perform some altruistic work to the benefit of that gentile people and giving ample publicity to it in order to obtain the desired sympathy. In this, as in everything, Hebrews are very practical.

The secret Jewish occupational or professional Brotherhoods have as their duty the seizure and maintainance of control over the association or institutions of the gentile people related with that profession or occupation and over the respective commercial, industrial or professional activity. In this way, for example, the secret fraternity of shoemakers will be responsible for controlling the manufacturing and sale of shoes, eliminating, through ruinous and sometimes disloyal competition, the gentile shoemakers and traders of the nation which the Jews seek secretly to conquer. Brotherhoods of Jewish traders work to gain control of the respective commercial branches, eliminating their gentile competitors, and secret Brotherhoods of bankers, industrialists, international traders, etc. work in the same way.

Secret Brotherhoods of physicians try to dominate their gentile competitors in this profession and to control leading positions in hospitals, medical schools and other medical institutions. Secret Brotherhoods of workers try to control the management of their labor unions, and peasant Brotherhoods do the same.

In order to complete the scheme of organization of the fifth column of the Israelite nation, silently introduced in other nations of the world, I must mention very important control organisms which are similar to Communist cells, because the latter were partially copied from the Jewish cells or control committees consisting in the gathering together of all public and secret Jews who operate within any one gentile institution, that is to say, non-Jewish institution, in order to control over it and conquer its government. For example, if there is a group of Jews introduced into the local organization of a political party of the nation in which they live, they form a secret Jewish cell, destined to control the direction of that particular branch of the political party. This cell will secretly collaborate with similar cells in other branches, to take over the provincial organization of that political party and especially its national direction. On the other hand, if a group of public or underground Jews have positions in the local banks, a cell will be formed and its duty will be to indefatigably work to control the major key positions in those banks, especially in those whose money belongs to gentiles. The same conquest work should be performed by all public or underground Jews who have infiltrated the organizations of industry and commerce, sports clubs, etc., but especially in political parties of the opposing ideologies, ranging from the extreme right to the extreme left, until they gradually dominate everything.

Thus communities of underground Jews, covered with the mask of a false Christianity, have to work to gain control over Christian organizations, and even to infiltrate the clergy of the Churches, to take over their direction, as they have been doing for a long time. The same thing is done by the communities of crypto-Jews infiltrated in Islam, Buddhism and other religions.

Jewish Imperialism in the Soviet Union is also maintained through secret cells or Jewish committees of control who operate very secretly behind the Central Committee of the Communist Party, of the Supreme Soviet and other organisms of the Soviet government, as well as to control the secret police and all its branches, the army, the labor unions and other institutions. The same technique is used to control the other Communist States.

But regarding the secret domination exerted by Judaism in the capitalist or communist world, the members of these Jewish cells or control committees may exert great power, for they are at the same time members of the councils or directive bodies of the organizations they are entrusted to control. And as most Israelites in charge of that task are clandestine, and as the other members of the gentile organizations they control do not know their Jewish identity, gentiles are unable to perceive that their political party, their masonic rite, their labor union or other respective organization is dominated by Jews, and they think they are led by their own countrymen, because they do not know these apparent and false compatriots are Jews in secret.

Regarding Freemasonry, it is necessary to remember that some of its highest gentile leaders, such as the Duke of Orleans (Felipe Igualdad) and the Duke of Brunswick, already felt and denounced the existence of a hidden power behind the highest Masonic Councils, but they could never know the nature of this mysterious hidden power. It is very difficult to fight against a hidden power such as clandestine Judaism.

Israelite Imperialism has been able by this system to conquer many nations without their become aware that they are being turned into colonies of the secret imperialism of the Israelite nation. The heads of these cells or control blocks blindly obey the orders given by their hierarchic leaders in Judaism.

It is necessary to make it clear that Jewish Imperialism, introduced in a nation by means of their fifth columns — the public or underground Israelite communities — sometimes creates in that nation political parties and all kinds of financial, commercial, religious and cultural organizations deliberately in order to dominate the country, maintaining control over all of them through the secret Jewish cells mentioned before, also controlling their money in the case of economic enterprises. All of this is done while the Israelites try to take over the political parties and other organizations and institutions created by the gentile members of that nation, doing this through the infiltration of Jews organized in secret control cells that little by little take over the leadership of each gentile organization or institution, using the most efficient and often disreputable methods to achieve their goals.

As the centuries passed, any time a people and its government knew that the Jews — who had been allowed by their ancestors to settle in their territory — were taking over the country, they naturally reacted and took defensive steps that varied according the different instances. Some governments created laws forbidding the Jews from public positions, from command in the army, from buying land or urban buildings and from all political rights in the country. In other cases, because of the persistent Israelite attempts to conquer the country through infiltration or violence, some civil and religious leaders deemed as necessary to eliminate this fifth column of the foreign Jewish nation by expelling the Jews. As a result, Israelites loudly complain that most peoples have persecuted them in different ways. They complain about racial or religious discrimination and about supposed atrocities and injustices.

They spend large sums of money on books, movie pictures, press and television propaganda, etc., toward this goal. They attempt to deceive the nations, appearing as victims of the wickedness of other peoples and of gentile political and religious organizations; thus hiding the truth of what has really happened through the centuries, that is to say, that those peoples and their leaders were forced to expell the Jews from their countries or to take various steps of repression against them, to prevent the public or underground Jews from conquering from the inside the nation that had so naively allowed them to settle in its territory.

Due to the great secrecy which surrounds their hidden organizations and their underground activities, it is very difficult for those who research the Jewish problem to make a complete survey of all that has happened.

Most of them have only discovered a small part of the problem, others have added new information but those of us that have been able to penetrate thus far into the secrets of Judaism are aware that there is still much to know and clarify, and that more investigation is necessary to discover those secrets that no gentile has yet been able to learn. The Israelites are right when they say that Judaism is a net embracing more secret societies than have ever existed in the history of mankind.

The Inquisitions of the Church and of certain Catholic kings were obliged to use torture to disclose the secrets of Judaism that the Church and government could not know otherwise, to force identified clandestine Jews to denounce the name of other underground Jews and their hidden leaders. When — through torture and other efficient resources — a Jew revealed the names of other underground Jews, these were also arrested, forcing them to denounce the names of all the clandestine Jews they knew.

The new ones were also tortured to force them to denounce others, and so on, until the entire underground Jewish organization was disclosed. As was natural, women were the ones who disclosed everything the most quickly. The Inquisition also obtained through torture the secrets of the hidden organizations of Judaism and their clandestine subversive activities. That is how the Inquisition learned, better than anyone else, the deepest secrets of Judaism.

As has been recognized by some Jewish writers, the Inquisition could have destroyed the underground Judaism with this system, but when the jails of the Inquisition were full of clandestine Jews, the leaders of World Judaism sought and obtained decrees of general forgiveness, moving the Popes or Kings to pity or bribing them with large amounts of money. Those decrees allowed the imprisoned Jews, and even those who had been condemned to death, to go free, thus destroying in a short time the Inquisitors' hard work of many years.

Due to this fact, and to a series of wise defensive steps, Judaism was saved from destruction, to win control over many governments and even over the Church and the Inquisition itself. Finally until Judaism succeeded in destroying the Church in many countries through the Protestant Reform promoted by them, and further weakened the European nations by the individualistic, liberal and bourgeois revolutions of the 18th, 19th and 20th centuries, led always by clandestine Jews aided by their satellite, World Freemasonry, on behalf of so-called religious freedom and tolerance and "human progress".

The power the Israelites presently have in the world has allowed them to paralyze the defenses of the host nations, and that is why we lack efficient means to uncover the secret nets of clandestine Judaism and the deepest secrets of the Israelite people and their secret organizations which work for conquest by both peaceful and revolutionary means.

Jews act hypocritically when they condemn the tortures used by the Inquisition and some other governments, because Hebrews themselves use torture in the Soviet Union and her satellite states, in a more cruel and pitiless way than the Inquisition or any other Gentile government.

To conceal the fact of Jewish terror and domination in the Soviet Union and the satellite states, which would cause antisemitic reactions throughout the world, thereby endangering the Israelite conquest of other nations, Jews have expended huge resources and energies to create propaganda about supposed persecutions of Jews in Russia and other communist states of Eastern Europe.

But we who have lived under Jewish dictatorship and terror in those states, wherein Hebrews perversely use socialist dictatorship to exploit and enslave the non-Jews, know that this is a noisy farce, projected at a world level, for the aforesaid purposes.

It is necessary, nevertheless, to distinguish between the farce of Jewish protests about supposed persecutions and the real quarrels between the Jews who lead the Soviet Union and the satellite states and those Jews who, due either to ambition or to internal quarrels, oppose the former. Sometimes these quarrels have ended, as in Stalin's times, in the slaughter of opposing Jews, but I shall talk later about such conflicts among Israelites.

In every capital of a province, or in its most important urban center, a Great Kahal or Supreme Council of the Federation of local Kahals of that province is established. This coordinates the activities of the local Kahals.

The words Kahal, Kehilla and Great Kahal, are classic, dating from the times of the Crusades, to refer to a Jewish organization or municipal or provincial government, but in different countries Jews have given different names to these organizations. In France, for example, they call them Consistories, and in other places they simply call them municipal or regional councils, a very proper denomination, because the internal organization of Judaism has for several centuries been structured on the basis of Councils of different hierarchy.

The Soviet organization is nothing but a copy, although of inferior quality, of the organization which Jews have used for many centuries. It is also necessary to remember that the word "Soviet" means, exactly, "Council".

The Great Provincial Kahals are confederated in a Secret National Council called with different names in different countries. In some places it is called the Central Israelite Committee; in others, the Jewish Congress of such and such country, as in the United States, where it is called "American Jewish Committee".

This highest Council coordinates the activities of the Great Regional Kahals, but respects their autonomy within their own territories, where each is responsible for the efforts to conquer the nation in whose territory it operates.

The Jewish organizations established within a gentile nation and coordinated by a Central Committee are together called a Council or National Congress. Sometimes, it is also called the Jewish Community of France, the Jewish Community of Argentina or the Chinese Jewish Community, according to the case. All these organizations operate in a secret way unknown for all profanes in all countries that proscribed Judaism in sometime and forbade its functioning. And the communities of clandestine Jews still operate throughout the world in a highly secret manner, pretending to practice the religion of the country in which they live.

The great Kahals or Regional Council and National Supreme Councils, in addition to having under their responsibility the government of the Jewish organizations of a province or region of the entire country, also have the duty of conquering the country in which territory they operate, controlling their political parties, their press, their banks, their unions of trade, industrialists and professionals, their universities, their religious organizations and their churches through the fifth column, but most of all they have the obligation of conquer the government, including the executive, legislative and judicial powers.

To accomplish the conquest of the people that naively and generously gave them shelter, each Jew works tirelessly for the development of the plans of conquest which range from infiltration and various maneuvers to monopolize the leading positions to the revolutions and coup d'etats when such are necessary. They also use masonic and communist organizations, political parties, labor unions and other associations which they secretly control.

The most serious aspect of all this is that Hebrews believe they are sincerely fulfilling God's commands to his chosen people, and also fulfilling the more sacred principles of the Talmud, which they believe is the interpretation of God's will: "Wherever Hebrews settle, it is necessary they must become the masters; and as long as they do not have absolute domain, they should consider themselves as exiled and prisoners. Although they may domi- nate many nations, until they do not dominate all of them, they should not cease to proclaim: What a torment!, What an indignity!".

Following the introduction of Jews in the bosom of certain nations many centuries ago, they have provoked in those nations a chronic state of civil war, either in regard to intrigues in the royal courts, popular mutinies, religious schisms, heresies, religious wars, conspiracies, revolts and revolutions of the most varied kinds.

Since the nations of the world allowed this cancer to grow in their bosom, they have not known a moment of internal peace, nor will they know such peace until they decide to uproot the terrible evil. We are completely sure that internal peace will not return to the peoples on earth in a lasting way until they succeed in eliminating those foreign parasites that attempt to dominate and enslave them from their territory. Every nation has a natural right of legitimate defense against such aggression, and a right to live in peace, free from such foreign intrigues and threats.

Regarding the World Jewish Government, which has always existed, in ancient times it functioned as an hereditary monarchy, with the Great Sanhedrim as the government of the Hebrew people. When the Romans, in times of Vespaciano and Tito — in the year 70 of the Christian Era — destroyed the Jewish State, the Hebrews from all the world were ruled by the YABNE Sanhedrim. This later changed to other cities, presided over by the Patriarch and in Babylon (1) by the "Exilarca" or Prince of Exile who controlled all Jews throughout the world, except for a few lost tribes, such as those of China and India, who after losing contact with these centers ruled themselves.

When the Patriarchate disappeared, during the tenth century of the Christian Era, and the Prince of Exile disappeared in the eleventh century, the Regional Jewish Communities and their Councils coordinated Jewish activities through a continental or Universal Rabbinical Synodus, such as the one that met in Toledo, Spain, in the times of King Peter the Cruel organized and led by the Jew Samuel Ha-Levi, Great Rabbi of Castile and Prime Minister of the King of Castile.

Interesting records about this Universal Jewish Synodus, held in the fourteenth century of the Christian Era, are still preserved in one of the older synagogues of Toledo.

Many investigators of Jewish Imperialism nevertheless suspect that the Sanhedrim continued to operate secretly, because in 1808 when the French Emperor Napoleon Bonaparte approached the Jews for the purpose of having direct negotiations with their world government, the Sanhedrim. This organism came out from clandestinity to please Napoleon so as to win benefits for the Jews living in Napoleon's Empire.

At the present time, in addition to those Universal Synodus or congresses, which meet somewhat frequently with representatives of the Jewish communities in all parts of the world, there is a permanent body which appears to head international Judaism. This is called "the World Jewish Congress", and is headquartered in New York. But as the World Jewish Congress contains representatives from only one segment of the Israelite communities of the world, and openly excludes others, it is evident that this world organism is only a visible piece of the world government of the Israelite people, who have kept the other pieces secret.

Some investigators on the Jewish problem have stated that the Sanhedrim operates in clandestinity headed by its Patriarch, and even an American Jew, Bernard Baruch, was identified as such. Baruch was the power behind the throne and the gray eminence of the United States Presidents Woodrow Wilson, F. D. Roosevelt, Truman, Eisenhower and Kennedy, but we do not have the proofs of this claim. What is evident, on the other hand, is that Bernard Baruch was the foremost leader of International Judaism, even if he did not have the title of Patriarch. The great honors given to him by Jews throughout the world, including the Soviet Jews, seem to confirm it. The Jew, Nikita Solomon Kruschev, then dictator of Soviet Russia, declared to the world press that Mr. Bernard Baruch was the American citizen most appreciated in the Soviet Union.

All that structure of town or city communities, Municipal Councils or Kehillas, Regional Federations of Jewish Communities of different rites, with their Great Kahals or Regional Councils, the federations or confederations of Great Kahals led by the Supreme Councils of Judaism in each country and the World Jewish Congress and the Universal Secret Synodus that coordinate and lead all organisms mentioned before, compose a national organization of the Jewish people on earth, based in the "Jus Sanguinis" and not in the "Jus Solis", because with the sole exception of the very small State of Israel and another state the Soviet Union assigned them, the Birobidjan Republic, the Jewish nation lives without a territory, living in the territory of other peoples.

The Jewish organization is equivalent to that of the gentile peoples, composed by municipal governments, autonomous provinces or states, each with their own provincial government, and the national state with its supreme government.

But above this infrastructure, there is a secret superstructure based on initiation degrees, into which only those who are permitted to know the great secrets of Judaism are invited. This superstructure is composed of secret societies inside Judaism, such as the B'nai-B'rith and others, that secretly control all the machinery of the afore-mentioned infrastructure. It is such hidden sects as these that really govern modern Judaism.

This system of Jewish organization has existed since the time of Christ, when — above the national organization of the Hebrew people — there were secret societies of Pharisees, Sadduceans and Essenes, disputing for the control of Israel.

Israel, the sect-people, is something much more complex than what those who have not studied it deeply suppose; that is why it is so dangerous when the civil or ecclesiastical rulers, forced by pressures exerted by Hebrews and deceived by their agents in the Christian institutions, give dispositions in favor of the Jews without making a careful study on the problem. Before arriving at any resolution, it would be wise to study the Jewish problem carefully, in order to avoid the risk of making agreements that may cause harmful and tragic results for the Church and the whole mankind.

To end the descriptive picture of the Jewish organization, we must mention that aside from the national organization itself, there are differences of a religious kind that in other times provoked internal fights among the Jewish people, such as those between the Karaites against the Talmudists, and between the Orthodox and the Reformers and others.

To prevent such religious differences and conflicts from weakening Judaism, a Universal Synodus or Congress was called in Berlin in 1889, where through arduous negotiations between the antagonistic parties, an agreement was reached to establish a regime of religious freedom in World Judaism permitting different ways of conceiving Israel's religion, while at the same time permitting all Hebrew factions in the Jewish municipal, regional, national or international governments.

In this way World Judaism — in spite of its different antagonistic factions — retain its unity through these forms of government, whose Kahals have become real parliaments in which all religious or political factions are represented. The Hebrews adjust their quarrels and controversies there, and present a united front against what they call the gentile enemies, that is to say, all the other peoples on earth upon whom Judaism declared war many centuries ago, and against whom it is permanently in a state of war — a hidden war of conquest, where the victims of the aggression in most cases do not even see the secret enemy who has declared war against them, and who is mercilessly exploiting them and attempting to conquer and enslave them, as ordered in the Talmud and the Jewish interpretations of the Bible.

Israelites of different religious shades: Orthodox, Conservatives, Reformers or Liberals, Karaites or of sects of minor importance, coincide, nevertheless, in their fanatical imperialist nationalism and their imperialist interpretation of the Bible, to the damage of the other nations.

Even Jews who lost all belief in God, and fell into Atheism and Materialism, were kept as members of the Jewish nationality; the others respecting their views as long as they absolutely submit to the political and economic resolutions of the respective Municipal and Regional Councils and the highest authorities of Judaism.

It is worthwhile to note that materialistic and atheistic Jews, differ from the unbelievers of other religions in that they do not try to look for proselytes for their ideas among the great majority of religious Israelites, because that small minority of unbelievers continues to support the imperialistic ideals of their people, and sees that Israel's religion reinforces those imperialistic ideals in a fanatical way. So, in the interest of their national goals, they refrain from inducing others to incredulity. This minority of unbelieving and often atheistic Jews participates in the communities and different councils, and nobody bothers them because of their scepticism in religious matters.

Nevertheless, it is an undisputable fact that the more religious Jews are the most fanatical ones in the imperialistic activities of their people, because their acts are excited by their religious faith, which provides them with a more powerful motive than the simple nationalism with which they are also strongly saturated.

In brief, the Jews are a people, a nation spread and infiltrated among the territories of the other peoples of the world. In the Jewish nation, as in many other modern nations, there is freedom of worship and cults, but a freedom limited to the different modalities and sects of the Hebrew religion itself. That is to say, the Israelite cannot be a sincere Christian, Moslem, or Buddhist nor a true believer of any other religion except the Jewish. But he can practice Judaism in the Karaite style, that considers the Bible — to be — the only - source of - divine revelation, or in the style of the Orthodox, Reformist or other sects that presently exist, and which were rivals in the political field, sometimes fiercely, until at the end of last century when the Universal Synodus or Congress of Berlin achieved unity among diversity, establishing that freedom of belief and Religion within the limits we have mentioned.

Despite this, nevertheless, rivalries still often appear among the different religious sects or rites of the Israelite nation spread throughout the world, which to a greater or lesser degree have political roots. Most of these struggles are kept secret by the Jewish organizations and their secret parliamentary governments, especially when a friendly solution is obtained by means of compromises or transactions. But sometimes the struggle becomes so fierce that it breaks the hermetic secrecy of Israel and reaches the outside world, where non-Jews see, without understanding, the spectacle of Jew attacking Jew. This lasts until the wise institution established by Judaism to settle such quarrels may after months and sometimes years of diplomatic arrangements — reach an agreement, as happened with the schism that tore Judaism in Stalin's times, which was solved by the Hebrew Solomon Pearl Mutter, who changed his name to the Russian one of Nikita Kruschev, the dictator of the Soviet Union, with the help of other negotiators.

Nikita Kruschev re-established the secret axis that linked the Jewish Imperialism of the United States with the Social Imperialism of the Soviet Union, secretly joined for the exploitation and domain of all mankind. In order to achieve this, Kruschev naturally had to release all Jews who were in prison by Stalin's orders, including the Israelite physicians who had tried to poison him, he even turned against his former patron and teacher Stalin, removing from him the honor of being one of the four forgers of Communism (Marx, Engels, Lenin and Stalin), and proceeded to destalinize the Soviet Union and her satellite states, only to please the world Jewish leaders of New York and to achieve the reunification of World Judaism, temporarily broken by the revolt of Stalin and his followers, in the secret world of Judaism (2).

CHAPTER III

THE DOOR PROSELYTES

Before the coming of Christ, Jews had already fixed the rules for admission of the Door Proselytes. In this matter of proselitism, racist Jews were facing a serious problem: on the one hand, their false and racist interpretation of the Sacred Writings inclined them irresistibly to refrain from converting gentiles to the Jewish religion, because according to them, the so-called Abraham's covenant was an agreement exclusively celebrated by God with the Patriarch and his blood descendants, who because of this agreement were considered to be God's chosen people. Under these conditions, entrance into Judaism, or as Jews say, the admission into Abraham's covenant, could only be feasible for his blood descendants because God had ordered that. Admission of gentiles to this blood agreement was impossible. The true Hebrew religion was exclusively for God's chosen people.

On the other hand, several passages of the Bible talk about converting gentiles to the religion of Israel's God, and Hebrews looked for the convenience of controlling in this way the peoples they attempted to dominate. For imperialist racists Jews the problem had, in any case, serious difficulties of a theological order that they intended to solve with the establishment of the Door Proselytes, recognizing that Abraham's covenant was only valid for his blood descendants and that only the members and descendants of the chosen people could be admitted to the real Judaism. In this way, a special organization of gentiles converted to the Jewish religion,—who accepted monotheism and the basic points of Mosaism, and who were strongly controlled by the true Jews (those of Jewish blood) ignored the secrets that surrounded the real Jewish organizations— was created.

The true Jews also discriminated against the unfortunate proselytes in such a rude form, that they did not allow them to enter the temple, and they had to stay outside the door (3), because only the blood descendants of Abraham were allowed to enter inside the temple. This was the reason why they were called Door Proselytes, because they could only attend the divine cult from the entrance door, but never inside the temple. It is understandable that only a few people tolerated and resisted such humiliation.

After the Jewish Temple and State had been destroyed by the Romans, the Israelite people dispersed throughout the world — what the Hebrews call Diaspora — did not have a uniform or constant policy. There have been times and places when it abandoned the work of recruiting proselytes of this kind. On the other hand, there have been occasions when circumstances have shown the necessity of reviving such institutions. So, when the gigantic progress of Christianity (whose strength was created by proselitism) put in serious danger the Judaic dreams of world domination, Hebrews thought they could counter Christianity by reviving the Door Proselytism with a more subtle discrimination, because the Jews understood that the humiliation of remaining outside the synagogues would discourage the recruitment of more proselytes to help Judaism in its fight against Christianity.

(3) Except for the day they entered into Israel's religion, when they had to present a sacrifice in the Temple. Sifre 108 and Ker 9th.

Thus they found a subtle way to keep the proselytes at the door of Judaism, without allowing them to enter inside and learn the real secrets, and they used a trick: they formed a peripheric organization, with synagogues and communities specially designed for the Door Proselytes, but these had nothing of the real Judaism except the name and certain rituals, festivities, ceremonies and appearances. In that way, Abraham's covenant in its exclusively racist sense — was kept as a privilege for the chosen people; at the same time gentiles were controlled, making them believe they were real Jews, so that in their fanaticism and convictions they could be used as blind instruments of the Synagogue.

Catholic civil and ecclesiastic legislation since Constantine frequently tries to prevent proselitism and something happened with the action of the Holy Office later. It is necessary to point out, nevertheless, that Door Proselytism, as we said, has not been a permanent nor a generalized phenomenon after the destruction of the Temple, because most of the converts to Judaism that the Church had to fight were Christian descendants of Israelites who practiced Judaism hiddenly, and who were baptized and educated in Christianity in their childhood (because children cannot keep secrets), but who later on, when they reached an adequate age, were secretly initiated in Abraham's covenant by their parents and received Moses' light. Masonic light is only a Judaic idea translated by Israelites to their badly-made thing: Masonry.

Sometimes the problem of the Door Proselytes has become complicated by the appearance of a gentile tribe or people who, sympathizing with the external appearance of Hebrew monotheism, spontaneously converted to the Mosaic religion without anyone asking them to do so. A typical example was the kingdom of the Khazars, originally pagans, whose king converted the entire nation to a sui generis Judaism, and who ruled by themselves in their own special way, with the knowledge they obtained from the religion of the chosen people.

Israelite writers say that the influential Jew, Abu-Joseph Aben Hasdai, in the Court of the Cordoba Caliph Abd-er-Rahman III, won the Caliph's confidence due to his ability as a physician, and acquired a very high position in the government (4). When he knew about the existence of a Jewish kingdom with a Hebrew king he was so enthused that using every possible means he sent a letter to King Joseph of the Khazars, who replied with the desolating information that his people were originally pagans who had voluntarily converted to Judaism. This fact caused Aben Hasdai and other Israelites deep sorrow, because they had thought that the Khazars were one of Israel's lost tribes.

(4) "History of Jews in Spain and Portugal". Madrid, 1875. 1st. vol. Aben Hasdai became the real ruler of the Caliphate.

Although they were thrown out of their land by Sviatislav, the Russian prince of Kiev, the Khazars remained loyal to the adopted religion, and spread in Ukraine and neighboring places, but were systematically discriminated by Jews who never wanted to recognize them as true Hebrews because they did not have Israelite blood in their veins, until they were finally accepted as mere Door Proselytes.

In the 19th and 20th centuries, Door Proselytism has increased in those countries where Judaism, for special reasons, thought it necessary to encourage it as a means to facilitate the conquest of those nations. So we have seen it flourish in the United States since the last century. In a rabbinical conference held in Philadelphia in 1869, it was recognized that in the United States Judaism had a golden opportunity to win converts simply by taking away the obstacle of the circumcision, and the basis for the organization of proselytes were established, as a means of more effective domination over the country.

On this matter of Judaic racism and proselitism it is necessary to distinguish two kinds of literature of Hebrew origin, as it is necessary to do it regarding everything in Judaism. The first is literature for the Christian or gentile public, inteneded only as propaganda to attract general sympathy toward Judaism. This does not present Judaism as it really is, but only as Hebrews wish Christians and gentiles to think it is, through an exposition of problems that are divorced from reality, excluding anything that may reveal the political imperialism, the fierce racism and the religious fanaticism that are the essence of modern Judaism. In these works, Hebrews are careful to eliminate the more dangerous matters that may provoke the natural anti-Jewish reactions. The Jewish encyclopedias belong to this kind of literature. Although in certain questions they speak relatively clearly, they always try to cover the pure truth with appearances designed to misorient the Christian and other gentile readers without misorienting the Jewish reader, who is accustomed to these tricks and can read between lines.

In this kind of literature, Hebrews, nevertheless, sometimes commit important indiscretions, revealing secrets that in other passages, even of the same book, they tried to cover.

By contrast, literature destined exclusively for Jewish readers speaks more clearly, and its contents are more truthful. Fortunately in writing this book we had access to some of the very valuable sources of Hebrew origin that belong to this last type of literature.

But going back to the matter of proselitism, we have to mention that one of the attacks against Judaism made constantly by the so-called antisemite writers — who should correctly be called "defenders of mankind" — is that the Hebrews are a religious people who are so exclusive that they must be judged as racist. The literature intended for propaganda, and even the encyclopedias, attempt to misorient the Christian and gentile readers about such a controversial matter, but even the best liar sometimes tells the truth because it escapes from him. In this way in the "Castilian Jewish Encyclopedia", after talking about proselitism extensively while trying to hide the real meaning of it, makes a very revealing confession, when it says: "In practice, the position of the proselyte was far from being the same as the native Israelite. The class of the proselytes was added to the traditional classification of the Kohanitas (priests) Levites and Israelites (Tos. Kid. 6.1) that in order of precedence they are placed in certain rabbinical enumerations even after the bastards and the netinim, slaves of the Temple (Hor. 13a)" (5). All of us know the tremendous situation of the adulteress, and of the bastard children of Judaism, so the humiliation and discriminatory state in which proselytes were held, being considered inferior to the bastards (children of adultery) and the mentioned temple slaves, is obvious.

On the reluctance of the Jews to make real proselytes, Christ, the utmost authority for Christians, left an incontrovertible testimony, when he accused the Hebrew leaders of his time saying: "Woe to you hypocrite scribes and pharisees, because you go around the sea and the earth to make a proselyte" (6).

But to know about the real situation of proselytes in modern Judaism, it is necessary to resort to the Talmud, the highly authoritative secret book of the Israelites (7).

In this regard, the Talmud establishes this rule in two of its important treaties: "Do not trust a proselyte, not even in the twenty-fourth generation" (8). This rule must be considered as definitive, because the Talmud has for Jews the authority of "truth revealed by God" that cannot be modified by men.

So the naive opportunists have illusory hopes when they convert to Judaism and enter into the communities and synagogues of Door Proselytes now called "spiritual Jews", organized only in places where blood Hebrews, the true ones, think that it would be useful to enlarge the circle of blind and unconditional instruments in order to guarantee their conquest of those countries, as in the United States for example.

These deceived people may wait 600 or 700 years until twenty-four generations pass, and their descendants will not be allowed entry inside the real synagogue. They are the pariahs of Judaism, and their organization is an inferior to those for Jews of stained blood, and may be compared with Masonry and other bourgeois secret societies, or with the communist parties led from Moscow, destined to enlist gentile beasts to use them as instruments in the imperialist and revolutionary plans of Judaism.

The only difference is that proselytes are even more thoroughly fooled, believing that they are real Jews, and that they are enrolled in the true organizations of the synagogue, to manipulate them better.

One of these proselytes who wanted to learn the secrets of Judaism finally received the most tremendous disillusionment: We refer to the famous French Aimé Palliere, who admired and loved the religion of Israel so much that he renegated from Christianity and insistently asked to be admitted to the synagogue.

He proved his loyalty to the new faith with jealous and active actions in favor of Zionism and by his published writings in favor of the Jewish cause, with a fervor and loyalty worth of a better cause; but when he noticed that something was hidden behind the scene and he wanted to investigate the real organization of the synagogue, he was brutally disillusioned by his new Hebrew brothers, who made him see that "he did not have Jewish blood and that Judaism was a question of blood". So great was the disillusionment of this admirer of the Hebrew religion, that he wrote a book called: "The Unknown Sanctuary".

The Israelite Simon Goldberg, pronounced a tremendous speech against the former catholic converted to Judaism in the issue of June 1st, 1928 of the "Jeunesse Juive" (Jewish Youth) telling him: "Mr. Palliere, you are not Jewish, the Jewish people has physical and psychical features that cannot be acquired"... "None of your ancestors bequeathed you our people's blood"... "Do not become hateful and continue your way. Simply remain, in the shade of a sanctuary unknown for you." (9).

This is the sad situation of the Door Proselytes now called "spiritual Jews", that is to say, those who although they do not have Jewish blood in their veins want to become Hebrews. They remain in the shadow of a sanctuary unknown to them, serving only as blind instruments.

CHAPTER IV

IS THERE A JEWISH RACE ?

Secret Jewish circles that must be of pure blood are a kind of aristocracy of Israel, that operates hiddenly inside Judaism, so that persons of impure descent and plebeians do not feel offended and discriminated against. Families who carefully keep their genealogic trees belong to these circles; those trees go back to the different Hebrew kings or other Biblical personages. This division between Jews of pure blood and those of blood mixed with gentile pigs appears in some Israelite communities, but I cannot either affirm or deny that it is a general rule of Judaism, because of lack of proofs.

Outstanding among the aristocratic lineages are those who say they descended directly from King David. Their genealogic trees are carefully kept by the synagogue, because it is supposed that the Messiah, the conqueror of Universe, will have to come from this stock. He, according to Orthodox Judaism, will definitively establish the command of Israel over all the world. Reformist Judaism and other Israelite sectors believe that the Messiah is a mere symbol and that the Jewish people itself is the Messiah, which by its own efforts, with God's help, will conquer the world.

Other outstanding aristocratic lineages are the Cohenim and Levites who descend directly from the ancient sacerdotal caste. It is necessary to explain, nevertheless, that many Hebrews have tried to falsify their genealogic trees to give their names a supposed ancestry. These can maybe deceive gentiles and plebeian Jews, but not the high hidden circles leading the synagogue — very secret circles of the initiated where no Jew of blood stained by mixtures is admitted.

Mixtures of Israelites with other peoples originated in the mixed marriages that are considered as a mortal threat to Judaism by Hebrew authorities as distinguished as Rabbi David Kirshenbaum, of the "B'nai Moses Bem Jehuda Congregation", London, Ontario, Canada, who in his interesting book called "Mixed Marriage and the Jewish Future" tells Jewish parents that by practicing carefully the family religious rites and ceremonies they make their children feel a natural aversion to mixed marriages and thus preserve the integrity and strength of the Hebrew people. This makes the parents responsible for the cancer such marriages represent, because they disregard the fulfillment of the family ritual and claim to heaven when their children marry either Christians or gentiles. It is too late, when they go to the Rabbi angrily to complain about the horrible treason their children wish to commit, and the Rabbi declares that the negligence of the parents and disregard for a strictly Jewish family life is the real cause of their children's behavior (10). The Bible and Talmud say that in Judaism the marriage of Israelite and gentile is forbidden, unless it is authorized to allow Jews to gain control of important political, economic or social positions.

But race crossing by Hebrews, effected despite these prohibitions, with all the various peoples in the world, has made Israelites genetically similar to the aboriginal populations, and as many different local types of Hebrews have appeared through millenniums as there are peoples with whom they have mixed. That is why there are: white, blond, brunette, mongolic and black Jews, etc., according to the country they have lived for 500, 1000, 2000 or more years.

On many occasions, bachelor Hebrew traders or adventurers made very long journeys, and as there were no Jewesses, they had to marry the women of the country where they settled. In other cases, the constant failures and defeats that the Israelites suffered repeatedly during thousands of years of wars, revolts, and conspiracies resulted in the Jewish fugitives fleeing from the gentile victors became dispersed to far away countries, where, as there were no Jewesses, they similarly had to marry gentiles of the place in which they settled.

Children from such marriages were initiated by their fathers into Judaism and received into Abraham's covenant, but in order to avoid marrying among brothers, and as an exception of major force, hybrids were authorized to marry natives, so that the grand-children, when they were initiated into Judaism, had more of the native blood and racial features than of their Hebrew ancestors. By law, among the Israelite people, the transmission of Judaism can only be made through the mother, but the instances mentioned above by Jewish historians prove that since centuries ago there were exceptions to the general rule, as there are in our days.

In this way the Israelite communities in the fairest places of Asia, Africa, Oceania, and Spanish and Portuguese America were formed, where the "marrano" of Spanish or Portuguese origin, who were publicly catholic and practiced Judaism in secret, once they were discovered by the Inquisition had to flee to the mountains if they wanted to escape from fire.

In such far away places, where there were no other "marranos", the fugitives had to marry Indians, as also did their children so from California to Patagonia. So in the Latin American countries, we find secret communities which Hebrews call "Jewish Indians", whose members openly practicing Catholicism, but who had a decisive influence in the masonic revolutions of the 19th and 20th centuries. They have been the cause, in most cases, of the virtually chronic state of civil war which has persisted in Latin America since her indépendence.

It must be emphasized, nevertheless, that many of the "marrano" communities of underground Jews presently existing in Spanish America and Brazil, descend from crypto-Jews that escaped from the Inquisitorial persecutions, and remained without mixtures with the aboriginal population. Those have the classic Jewish type ranging from the white and blond to the brunette of the present Spanish and Portuguese "marranos".

The "Castilian Jewish Encyclopedia" says that in the formation of the very different types of Hebrews existing everywhere in the world, in addition to the mixture of races, other important causes had influence. "The final product, nevertheless, does not depend only on the genetic factors. The physical or anthropological features also depend on the climate and many other factors." (11). This can explain why even in families that boast because they are of pure blood, through millenniums there has been forming different types similar to those races that gave hospitality to them, although some of the distinctive aspects of what Israelites call the Judaic racial type are kept more loyally; this type frequently appears among those Jews of stained blood.

There are contradictory opinions of the different Hebrew writers as to whether there is a Jewish race or not, according to whether their opinion is more political than scientific and vice versa (12). Those who analyze the problem from a purely scientific point of view doubt the existence of a Hebrew race or even deny it. They talk about the different racial groups that compose the Jewish people spread throughout the world, but we wish to clarify that among the books of Israelite authors we could consult, the political opinion prevails, as frequently occurs among the leaders of Judaism who disregard the scientific reality and try to impress on the Hebrew communities the love and loyalty to the race, the Hebrew superiority over the rest of races, creating a theologically-based imperialist racism.

The high initiates in the Jewish Cabala translate the theological racism into a pantheistic racism, and deify the Jewish race. They take their paranoic delusions of grandeur to incredible levels, and have fanatized all the Hebrew people and its leading classes, giving them a surprising energy and perseverance in their millenary struggle for domination over the world.

To complete the proofs already given regarding the previous chapters, we insert in full what one of the Cohanim says in this regard. Because he is a Cohanim he is accepted in the most secret circles of high initiated of pure blood of Judaism. He is the highly prestigious and authoritative — in the Hebrew world — writer Kadmi-Cohen, who in his famous work "Nomades" says: "In the future of the race as in the Semitic character there is such a surprising firmness and immortality. Is that firmness explained because of the absence of mixed marriages? But, where can we find the cause of this reluctance for the man or women who are not of the race? Why that permanent negative? . . . As the consonants of their language the Semites appear since the first appearance of the race with their character clearly specified, with dry and poor forms that cannot either increase or diminish and hard as diamond that scratches all things and is not scratched by anyone. 'I am who I am', said the Eternal. The Eternal, the race is eternal. Its essence is one, not differentiated. One in the time, stable, eternal. . . That is why the blood running in their veins has maintained its primitive force and the passing of centuries will do nothing but reform the value of the race, that is definitely the predominance of the 'jus sanguinis' on the 'jus solis'" (13).

Here the bare, rude, imperialist racism of the Jewish people is shown. That racism that in the peripheric spheres maintains the form of an imperialist monotheism based on the false interpretation of the Bible and Talmud, but which in the high circles of the cabalist Hebrews takes form of an imperialist pantheism that practically deifies the Hebrew people and the Jewish race. The world has never before seen such an implacable and totalitarian imperialism as that of the Israelite sect-people.

In their fight against other racisms, Jews act hypocritically, because their only intention is that the other racisms should disappear so that theirs might prevail.

In the next chapters we will investigate more deeply regarding the Judaic racism and the racial discrimination which Hebrews who consider they are of purest blood show against those of mixed blood, using authoritative sources of the leaders of Judaism for this purpose, not destined for publicity as a means of propaganda, but only intended for the leading circles of the synagogue, such as the report submitted to western Judaism by the Hebrew Chacham Israel Joseph Benjamin II, after his tour to inspect the Israelite communities of Africa and Asia; the book of the Hindu Jewish leader Haeem Samuel Kehimker, written to ask world Judaism to help in the cultural improvement of the Beni- Israeles the native Jews of India; and others. These clearly and crudely, state facts without trying to cover or omit information, as in the case of Jewish books intended for distribution in countries that the Israelite Imperialism seeks to conquer, or in those other countries that have unfortunately already fallen under the domination of Judaism.

CHINESE COMMUNISM AND CHINESE JEWS

The Israelite leader Israel Joseph Benjamin II, Chacham of Israel, after his visit to China at the middle of last century, says in his report on Chinese clandestine Judaism, presented to the western Israelite leaders, that in one epoch the Chinese Jews mixed themselves with the population of the mongolic race through mixed marriages: "They keep their faith with the characteristic tenacity distinguishing the Hebrew race, they even now do not marry but women of their same religion"... "During the war among Tartar and Chinese peoples, a part of them moved to the Che-Kiang province, neighboring that in which our city is located, and became established in Kang Tchou, a city I intend to visit, and the other part is in Arnoy in the Fo-Kien province. There are emigrants also in Peking and throughout China". After this, the laborious Chacham referring to what a German Jewish magazine said, talks about a group of Chinese Jews that: "Only one had a real Jewish type, but except for the religion and circumcision, they are completely converted into Chinese by their language , dressing, customs, and habits, they also have Chinese names. . . It is said that Jews came to China from the north-western part of India by about the third century after Christ; they first remained secretly in Ning-hia, Hantcheou and Peking, and later became established in Kai-fung-foo". (1) A dangerous fifth column of secret Jews had entered China, who as a result of their total adaptation through the centuries, to the racial and social characteristics of the Chinese people are now dangerously confounded and diluted in the population of that country. It should be noted that although the Israelites of the former celestial Empire are considered among the most mixed with the indigenous race, since the last century they have kept the rigid custom of marrying only among themselves, and the above mentioned Hebrew leader says that they have kept their faith "with the characteristic tenacity that distinguishes the Hebrew race".

The historian of the Chinese Jews, Alexandre Wyllie, in his valuable book called Investigations on the Existence of Jews in China, since the Most Ancient Times to These Days, notes that the existence of the Jews was hidden for the majority, but that, nevertheless, "some accidental observations in Marco Polo's trips, show that Jews were sufficient enough to be able to exert political influence in China and Tartaria" (2). It is natural that a clandestine Judaism as secret as the one functioning in China for the last eighteen hundred years, was not easy for Marco Polo to identify, but the clandestine Jews who themselves know the problem very well, can identify its existence better than anyone else, through Marco Polo's reports in his writings.

CHINESE CLANDESTINE JEWS; MANDARINS, MAGISTRATES AND MILITARY

Rev. H. H. Milman (a protestant) in his History of the Jews, writes of the Chinese: "They were cultivated, and some of them, according to existing inscriptions, have been highly honored by the imperial will and have obtained the rank of Mandarins. One of these inscriptions —dated in 1515— praises the Jews for their integrity and fidelity in agriculture, commerce, magistracy and in the army, and for the adequate observance of their own religious ceremonies". This clergyman states — after saying that the Chinese Jews revered Confucio's name and followed the Chinese custom of religiously revering their ancestors: "In other aspects they are strictly Jews... They only marry among themselves... They neither do not attempt to do proselitism" (3).

S. M. Perlmann, the Jewish historian, in his History of the Jews in China, London, 1913, also tells of the existence of Chinese Jews in the army and of Mandarins, one of whom, called Chao-Yng Cheng, commanded a section of the army and rebuilt the city of Kai-fung-foo. Hebrew historians agree in ascribing great military talents to the Chinese, Tartaric and Mongolian Jews, and this may explain their infiltration into the Chinese communist army, where they gossip against Chairman Mao Tse-tung and plead for a reconciliation with the Soviet Union, apparently to achieve world communist unity, but in reality to turn Popular China into a satellite dominated by the Jews who lead the Soviet Union. Clandestine Jews infiltrated in the Chinese Communist Party and in the governing and social institutions of the country, work in the same direction.

In another passage of his aforementioned book, the Hebrew S. M. Perlmann says that some Chinese Jewish children asked him why the Europeans had so much interest in them, and Perlmann replied: "Because all of us are from the Jewish nation and creed, all of us are descendants of Abraham", despite the fact that in his book he has confessed that: "The appearance of the Jews I interviewed was completely Chinese", except a young fellow who was seventeen years old who "really had something of the peculiar Jewish type." "In their external appearance it was not possible to distinguish them from other Chinese."

The distinguished Israelite historian confesses something that is well known, but which coming from a famous Jewish historian has greater probatory value: that it is not possible in most cases to distinguish the Chinese clandestine Jews —because of their Chinese names and last names, their Chinese racial type and customs— from other Chinese. Although they appear to be a part of the Chinese people, in fact they belong to a foreign nation and people — to the Jewish nation. In other words, they represent an infiltration of the Israeli nation and Israeli imperialism into the heart of the Chinese nation.

It is very interesting to note another statement by this Jewish historian, in reference to those Chinese Jews who did not hide their Israelite identity: "Before ending,

CHINESE JEW

Member of the ultra-secret sect Tiao-Kiu-Kiaou, spread throughout China. Picture published about the middle of the 20th century by the Castilian Jewish Encyclopedia, Jewish official work of utmost authority on Judaism. Published in Mexico, 1948. Third volume. Word China. Page 326, 2nd. column.

I must add to be fair with this old and cultured Chinese nation, that Jews in China have never had to complain about intolerance; they were never under exceptional laws; they were never persecuted or despised because of their religion. They always enjoyed the same rights as the Chinese people." (4).

This Jewish confession is of utmost importance. Israelites say that the slaughters, persecutions and expulsion of Jews from different countries of Christian Europe and the Islamic world, as an alternative to their conversion either to Christianity or to the Islam, forced the Jews both from the European nations and the Mohammedan world to falsely convert themselves to Islam or to Christianity to escape persecution, slaughters or expulsion and to remain in the country in which they were living. Nevertheless, if this were the only explanation from these pretended conversions and for the decision of the clandestine Israelites, to hide their Jewish identity, how can it be explained that in China —where the famous Jewish historian S. M. Perlmann confesses that the Israelites have never been persecuted, and readily denies any case of intolerance— the phenomenon of clandestine Judaism has existed for many centuries up until our days, and Israelites hide their identity to appear as part of the Chinese people? This and other similar cases are proof that while it is true that in many cases Jews have been compelled to sink into clandestinity to escape persecution, expulsion or death, in the majority of the cases it is evident that they have chosen this path as a political strategy to enable them to infiltrate the society of the country in which they live in order to monopolize the leading positions and to bring the host country under their control.

(4) S. M. Perlmann. "The History of the Jews in China". London edition 1913. Pages 24 to 37.

On the other hand this reality has been acknowledged by authorized Israelite writers who have even admitted, in unusual gestures of sincerity, that the clandestine functioning of Judaism has been motivated by political strategy and pragmatic convenience. In this way the Castilian Jewish Encyclopedia, in a rare gesture of sincerity in these so secret affairs, declares as follows: "Jewish leaders and writers such as Daniel Israel Bonafou, Miguel Cardoso, Jose Querido, Mardoqueo Mojaj and others, defended Marranism (Clandestine Judaism) AS A METHOD TO UNDERMINE THE ENEMY'S FOUNDATIONS AND AS A MEANS THAT CONTRIBUTED TO MAKE THE FIGHT AGAINST IT MORE FLEXIBLE". And in another passage — referring to the same clandestine Jews — says that those from Spain considered that "Queen Esther, who did not confess neither her race nor her birth, seemed to be their own model." (5). In this regard it is necessary to remember that the Bible's Book of Esther — whose study is an obligation to all Israelites, eulogises a Jewish girl who pretended to be Persian and hiding her Israelite birth, loyalty and religion, could become the Empress of Persia, and succeed in nominating one of her Jewish relatives as Prime Minister of the Persian Empire — bringing Persia under Jewish rule and destroying any Persians who opposed Israelite domination. The fact that the clandestine Jews — as the above authoritative Jewish document confesses — have mentioned Queen Esther as their model shows that the main reason for the hiding of Judaism has been to accomplish the total infiltration in the country in whose territory the Jews live in order to accomplish what Queen Esther accomplished by the same means — the domination of the nations in which sects of Marranism or Clandestine Judaism function. In China, as in other countries of the world, clandestine Jews — as the mentioned authorized sources confess — obtained high positions as Mandarins, Magistrates and Chiefs of the CHINESE army.

The Jewish leader Israel Joseph Benjamin II, writing at the end of the last century, describes the situation of the Tartaric Jews living in Siberia, stating that he was informed that "they settled in the Great Tartaria, where they live in freedom and in the best agreement with the natives. The leaders were equally chosen among the Jews and the Tartars and both of them shared the perils of war, but the Jews did not marry the Tartars and strictly adhered their own religious cult. It is worthwhile to observe that they think they are descendants of the tribe of Reuben." (6). In spite of such descent, the Tartaric Jews have a Tartaric type that enables them to live unidentified among the population, as in the case of the Chinese, Hindi and Negro Jews, etc. But at least since the last century, they practiced racial discrimination against their cordial and kind hosts, refusing to marry them, believing in their own descent from Reuben's tribe. On the other hand, it is worthwhile to notice that the cordial reception given to them by the Tartars, and the freedom which the Tartars gave them, was repaid by the Soviet Jews with great slaughters of the unfortunate Tartars and the subjugation of the rest of them to communist slavery. This is another proof of Hebrew ingratitude to those who offer them friendship!

S. M. Perlmann, the Jewish historian, mentions that one of the Tartaric tribes adopted Jewish kings from a group of immigrants coming from Media and Persia, descendants of the tribes of Simeon, Ephraim and Mana-sehh. He also states that these immigrant Israelites turned themselves in ferocious nomads and great warriors in Tartaria (7). These Tartaric Jews are at present the bulldogs of the Soviet Jewish regime in Siberia, and it is well known that there are many Jewish-Tartaric officers in the Red Army, for the Chinese and Tartaric Jews differ from those of other nations in possessing great military talents.

These millenary Chinese Jews, who have a Chinese racial aspect, practice Chinese customs, and use Chinese names, have been known to World Judaism, up to the present day, as Chinese Jews Tiao-Kiu-Kiaou. The Israelite leader, Rabbi Jacob S. Raisin, talking about the origin of the word Tiao-Kiu-Kiaou, says as follows: "Some mediæval commentators state that when Isahia (The Bible's prophet) forecasted the restoration of 'the land of Sinim' by the Jews, he had in mind those who travelled ten thousand miles from the Jordan through the Caucasus, Turkestan and the Tibet up to the Yellow river in China. Undoubtedly there are indications that centuries before the Christian Age the Jews had trade relations with the 'silk men' (this is the Chinese) who called them Tiao-Kiu-Kiaou, that means those who remove the tendon (referring to the Jewish ceremony mentioned in the Genesis 32-33). Probably Judaism was diffused there by the Radanitas Jews, who went by sea or in caravans, through the Samarkanda route to Khotan to exchange products from Africa and Europe for paper, glass, fine cloths and silk that were produced only in China at that time. They constantly increased in number in China producing wise and cultured people." (8).

In general, all Jewish historians who talk about the millenarian Chinese Israelites agree in saying that the origin of the name given to them (Tiao-Kiu-Kiaou) comes from their practice of the above mentioned rite in the Bible for ritual killing, and this was the name given in China to the members of a fraction that (as we will see later), practiced Judaism in an open way. The Castilian Jewish Encyclopedia says that this reference to ritual killing "reveals the pre-rabbinic date of their entrance to the country" (9) or in other words, that the Chinese Jews first arrived in China more than eighteen hundred years ago.

Readers may consult Murray's translation of the travels of Marco Polo with regard to the political and commercial influence of the Chinese Jews in 1286. (10).

On the other hand, the Castilian Jewish Encyclopedia says as follows, regarding public Jews: "Even often confounded with Moslems, they are mentioned in the Chinese Annals for the first time in the 'Yuen Shi' of 1329, because of a law on taxes to heterodoxes, and once more in 1354, when as a result of several revolts, rich Mohammedans and Hebrews were summoned to Peking to serve in the army. In both occasions Jews are called (in the Yuen Shi) Dju-Hudu, maybe a deformation of Yehudim." (11).

In addition to the communities of clandestine Jews spread throughout China, already referred to, there is another Israelite community in the city of Kai-Fung-Foo, former capital of Honan Province, which has been operating in a more or less public way for several centuries, early references to this group being made by Jesuit Missionaries, particularly Father Matteo Ricci, in reports sent to Europe in the XVII Century.

Jewish encyclopedias and other books produced by the Jews for the Gentiles, provide, as I said before, much information on Judaism in respect of those things, which the Jewish imperialists allow the Gentiles to know, but hide, minimize and even misguide the Gentile reader on those affairs which Judaism considers to be POLITICAL SECRETS which MUST BE HIDDEN from the Gentile readers. This is why it is not strange that such encyclopedias and books when speaking of the very ancient Chinese Judaism, usually only talk about the communities that have operated publicly mainly those of Kai-Fung-Foo city. About this community they give much information which is highly interesting; saying that it flourished in other times but is today in painful decadence. The Jewish Encyclopedia, in addition to mentioning the Kai-Fung-Foo community also says that Catholic missionaries of the Seventeenth Century found other public Israelite communities in Hangchao-Foo and OTHER CHINESE TOWNS without expressly saying how many of them they found (12). The Encyclopedia adds that the attention of the Israelite historians has been concentrated mainly in the community of Kai-Fung-Foo, and not on others because of the archeological relics found in an old Synagogue, comprising marble tablets engraved in the Chinese language which help clarify several unknown aspects of the history of Chinese Judaism. These marble tablets are dated 1489, 1512 and 1663 respectively. That of 1489, referring to the Jewish immigration, states: "Seventy families came from the West offering the Emperor tributes of cotton clothes; he allowed them to settle down in Peen-Lang, this is, Kai-Fung-Foo. In 1163, the Synagogue was built by a certain Yen-too-la, and in 1279 it was reconstructed to a great scale. In 1390, Tai-tsou, founder of the Ming dynasty, gave these Jews lands and additional privileges. In 1421 the Emperor allowed a Jewish physician, highly honored by him, to repair the Synagogue"... The Jewish Encyclopedia gives further information regarding the engravings found in these archeological monuments, which cannot be detailed here due to the brevity of this work. Among them, however, there is an engraving mentioning the Chinese Jews that reads: "They are outstanding in agriculture, commerce, in public positions (magistracy) and in the art of war" (army). In fact, it can be seen that Chinese Jews have stood out in trade, as the Jews have in other countries, and had achieved leading positions in the government, as the Jews have in the Gentile nations. But it seems to be a special characteristic of Chinese Judaism, as many Israelite historians have said — and also these archeological monuments confirm — that Chinese Jews Tiao-Kiu-Kiaou were experts in agriculture. This has allowed them to infiltrate among the peasants, just as their great military talents have also allowed their infiltration in the army, creating a fifth column of Israelite Imperialism infiltrated at all levels in China. This must undoubtedly constitute a serious danger for the Popular Maoist China if it is not found and extirpated, because both the public or hidden Chinese Jews, like all Israelites around the world, are in reality members of a foreign nation and agents of a millenary super-imperialism. As such, their complicity with their Jewish brethren of the Kremlin in their struggle to turn Popular China into a satellite of the Soviet Union, just like the satellite socialist states of Eastern Europe, excepting Albania and Roumania.

Going back to the engravings of the Kai-Fung-Foo Synagogue, another inscription mentions the revolt that overthrew the Ming dynasty that protected Jews. This engraving was built by a Jewish Chinese Mandarin who was later Minister of State of the Emperor, and who had written about Adam's virtues (who was, according to the Bible, the first man created by God) and also about the virtues of Noah, Abraham the Patriarch, of all Israelites and Moses, the founder of the Jewish religion. The engraving made by this Mandarin refers to the fall of the city of Kai-Fung-Foo during that revolt and the destruction of the Israelite Synagogue and slaughter of a number of Jews by the rebels in 1642. The engravings say that Jews had been protected by the Ming Emperors, and had obtained positions in the Government. They also say that in the middle of this disaster a Jewish Chinese Mandarin appeared leading an army, and that this Jewish Mandarin rescued the Sacred Writings (the Bible) that had been thrown into the water by the rebels, reconstructed the city of Kai-Fung-Foo, and that this Mandarin and his brother rebuilt the Israelite Synagogue in 1663. This Jewish Chinese Mandarin had — as both public or clandestine Tiao-Kiu-Kiaou Israelites do — a typical Chinese name. His name was Chao-Yng-Cheng (13).

These engravings, which constitute a historical monument of incontrovertible documentary value, show the great political and military influence that Jews had in China in the XVII Century. Not only did they hold senior positions in the Imperial Government, but they had also Chinese armies under their command.

The Jewish Encyclopedia says that the Jew Chao-Yng-Cheng was Mandarin of the Chen-Si province (14), that is to say he was the Governor of that Province — clear evidence of Jewish infiltration into the highest positions of the Chinese Government.

The Jewish Encyclopedia, referring the Chinese Jews of Kai-Fung-Foo, also says that many of them: "emigrated — during the war between the Chinese and Tartars — to Kiang-su, Arnoy and Peking; but they do not have synagogues in those places, and that some Jews with English protection, went to Shanghai and Hong Kong, where they practiced the traffic of opium and cotton." (15). This information provided by the Jewish Encyclopedia, a Jewish document of unquestionable value, makes us see that the opium traffic, which led to the criminal war fought by the British Government against China, not only benefitted British and Indian Jews, but also the Chinese Jews Tiao-Kiu-Kiaou, who also participated in the opium traffic in Shanghai and Hong Kong under the protection of the British government, which as we all know was already a satellite under the control of Jewish Super-Imperialism. Under Jewish control, the British government even sent — betraying the ideals of democracy — its own people to fight and die to protect and expand the Jewish opium trade, so that the Jews might make a profit out of poisoning the Chinese people, and Chinese Jews participated in this trade at the expense of their Chinese hosts.

As Indian Jews and other Israelite communities of the Afro-Asian world were somewhat behind Western Judaism regarding the progress of their religious institutions and internal policies, Western Judaism, during the XIX Century, started a program to adapt the Secret Jewish societies in Africa, East and Southern Asia to the advances of European and American Judaism, not only regarding changes in Jewish religious and social institutions but also with regard to new techniques of infiltration and political control over the Gentile nations, including revolutionary techniques intended to accelerate their domination. The revolutionary potential of the Afro-Asian Israelite communities began to develop progressively during the XIX Century, as Western Judaism sent experienced leaders to train them in all aspects in which they were backward in regard to Western Judaism. Regarding the Chinese Judaism and the Kai-Fung-Foo community, the Jewish Encyclopedia reports that the Western Jews formed a special organization called the "Society for Rescuing the Chinese Jews" whose task was the revival of the Israelite religion among those Chinese Jews (16) that as we have previously studied is the main generator of the Israelite Imperialism in China.

The Jewish Encyclopedia adds that the Jews of Shanghai cooperated with this society.

According to Jewish encyclopedias, the formerly flourishing Israelite community of Kai-Fung-Foo, fell into a painful decadence, diminishing the number of its members to the point that they had to sell their Temple. We, as experienced researchers of the history of clandestine Judaism, find and can prove that every time Israelite historians talk about decadence or disappearance of a Jewish community in books which the Gentiles can read (such as encyclopedias and other writings) in most cases — for there are a few exceptions as is natural —what really happens when there is a mass desertion from public Judaism, the majority of "deserters" are just pretending to abandon Judaism in favor of a Gentile religion, while secretly remaining loyal to the Israelite nation and religion. In other words, they merely transfer from Public Judaism to Clandestine Judaism.

Besides the millenary Chinese Tiao-Kiu-Kiaou Jews — both the clandestine ones spread throughout China and those of Kai-Fung-Foo who openly practiced Judaism and who also emigrated, as the already mentioned Jewish book says, to different regions of China — this great nation received other Israelite immigrations which we will mention only briefly because of the limitation of space.

Chavennes, the Orientalist, talks about another Jewish colony established in China between 960 and 1126, composed by Jews that came from India. The Israelite historian, Elkan Nathan Adler, also mentions another Jewish penetration into China, coming from Bokhara through Persia in the XVI Century (17). The first immigrants, according to the Castilian Jewish Encyclopedia "settled down in several Chinese regions."

Since 1840 China has experienced further migrations of Jews from different countries, mainly European. According to the Castilian Jewish Encyclopedia the opening of the so-called "Ports of the Treaty" in 1840, brought a number of English Jews to China from Hong Kong and India. In 1850, Elias David Sassoon, a rich Jewish trader settled in Bombay, India, established a branch of his firm in Shanghai. Born in Baghdad, his father had been Treasurer and banker to the Turkish Governor in that city. Referring to Elias David Sassoon, the Castilian Jewish Ency- clopedia says that "he specialized in the trade of opium, among other things" and that when he established his branch in Shanghai, he was followed by the Kadoorie, great Jewish capitalists in Baghdaad, and their big enterprises — the Sassoons and Kadoorie's — built a synagogue in Shanghai, founding a new Israelite community which until 1905, was mainly Sephardic. So this new Jewish community had the honor of being founded by the enterprise of a great international Jewish opium dealer, whose son, as missionary as him, used the Moslem name of Abdula when in Baghdaad, and used the Christian name of Albert while in London. His Jewish name, the good one always, was David. About this great international capitalist, the Castilian Jewish Encyclopedia says: "Sassoon Albert (Abdula, David) industrialist, banker and philanthropist. Born in Baghdaad in 1817, died in Brighton, England, in 1897. Eldest son of David Sassoon and head of commercial and industrial enterprises of the family. He founded one of the biggest textile factories in Bombay, India, donated a great modern dam to the city and established several schools. Member of the Legislative Council from 1867 to 1871 and one of the most outstanding people in the society of Bombay. He frequented the Kings of England and his audience with the Persian Shah in 1889 was one of the events of the English capital. He was ennobled in 1872." The Jews frequently received titles of nobility in England, especially since the long reign of Queen Victoria, to such an extent that investigators have shown that most of the titles of Earl, Marquis, Viscount and Lord are presently in the hands of Jewish ennobled families or of ancient aristocratic English families linked with Jewish families. Dukedoms have been Judaized by means of marriages of Jewesses and ancient Dukes, and those Jewesses, with the help of the powerful Israelite communities, have secretly initiated in Judaism the eldest son of that marriage, this is to say, the new Duke. It is not strange, then, that the international Judaism is not in a hurry to overthrow the English monarchy, which is controlled by the Israelite imperialism.

The Russian-Japanese war and the persecutions it originated against the Jews, the failed communist revolt in Russia in 1905, that the Imperial Russian government justly imputed to the Israelites, brought as a consequence the arrival in China of fugitive Russian Jews. In 1917 Russian Jews who arrived to Jarbin and Mukden in Manchuria were antagonized by White Russians who accused the Russian Jews in the country of being originators of the Red Terror in Russia. When the Japanese invasion of China in 1931, many Russian Jews living in China, who were fleeing from the Japanese (who accused them of being communists), were forced to move to Tientsin, Hankow and Shanghai, where they were reinforced by new immigrations of Polish and Roumanian Jews. In 1928 an Israelite community of Ashkenazim Jews joined with the Sephardic community, under the auspices of the lodge, recently formed in Shanghai, of the secret order of world Jewish Masonry called B'nai B'rith, which was in this way starting to extend its tentacles into China. It must be remembered that the self-government enjoyed by the Israelite communities throughout the world, and the ambitions of its leaders to command economic and political power, sometimes provoke deep rivalries between different Jewish communities; some of these remain the secret of the Jews, but others spread scandalously outside. One of the secret goals for which the Jewish Super-Masonry, the B'nai B'rith, was created, was to conciliate rivalries and disagreements and promote harmony and reunification, as it infiltrates among the various Jewish communities possessing different rites. The B'nai B'rith achieved this objective of unification regarding the Jewish Ashkenazim and Sephardic communities of Shanghai.

A new Jewish immigration into China started in 1933; Israelites fled from Germany and Austria harassed by the Nazis. According to the Castilian Jewish Encyclopedia these new Jewish migrants of German origin obtained positions in the administration of the Republic of China. Among them the distinguished Israelite, Dr. Bernhard Weiss, who had been Vice President of the Police in Berlin, was entrusted with the reorganization of the Chinese police by Chiang Kai-shek's government. The Castilian Jewish Encyclopedia adds: "Many German officers of Jewish origin enlisted in Chiang Kai-shek's army. Miriam Karmes, who died during the bombing to Nanking, founded a famous battalion of Chinese women. General Moshe Cohen helped organize the supplying of food, arms and equipment of the armed forces. Other (Jewish) refugees served in the nationalist rows as doctors and nurses. But the great amount of German Jews reached China only after the mournful year of 1938, that brought the Reich's great slaughters, the annexation of Austria and the Sudetes." In 1940, the B'nai B'rith in China was led by an English Jew called Mendel Brown (18).

Jews have also used their women in China to ensnare great leaders, following the rules fixed in the Book of Esther in the Bible already mentioned, which tells how the Jewish Esther, hiding her Israelite origin and religion, beguiled the Persian Emperor into falling in love and marrying her, thus becoming Empress of Persia. From this position, she engineered the appointment of her uncle as the Prime Minister. In China the Song family of Tiao-Kiu-Kiaou Jews obtained great successes in this century by the same means. One of the Song sisters married Dr. Sun Yat-sen, the man who ousted the ancient Chinese monarchy and founded the Republic, becoming the first President. Another sister married Marshall Chiang Kai-shek, President of Nationalist China. Dr. Sun Yat-sen's widow became a member of the Maoist Popular China, where she presently lives and where, with the prestige of being the widow of the national hero, she can undoubtedly help the plans of international Judaism, in ensuring that a clandestine Tiao-Kiu-Kiaou Jew, or at least a Gentile Chinese easily manageable by the Jews, will succeed Chairman Mao Tse-tung when he dies. If this goal can be achieved, the Jewish Racist Imperialists would seize power in Popular China and subjugate that nation to its yoke, reconciling China with the Soviet Union and putting it at the Soviet Union's vassalage — as projected by international Judaism. Up till now the Jews in the Kremlin have failed in their attempts to oust Chief Mao Tse-tung, but they still seek through an internal revolution to substitute his regime for one which would make China a satellite of the Soviet Union.

Despite past failures, the fifth column of clandestine Jews in China does not cease in their conspiracy to encourage the establishment of pro-Soviet gangs in and outside the Chinese communist party and army, deceiving many Gentile military and political leaders who do not know the imperialist background of this maneuver, by exploiting those who are ambitious for command and encouraging the individual resentments that exist in China as in any other country in the world. Besides, the insatiable Jewish imperialism of the Kremlin has conceived the idea that due to the wars in Indochina, a war may start between the United States and Popular China, which would give the Kremlin the possibility of sending armies to China to defend her, as it "defended" Poland from the Nazi oppression and also other East European nations, only to enslave them later.

In its effort to dominate China, the Jewish socialist imperialists of Moscow have even planned (in the event that other resources fail) a military invasion to the Chinese territory, similar to the invasions of Hungary and Czechoslovakia. But to achieve this without serious danger it needs to secure its western frontiers through arrangements with Federal Germany and the other European powers, thus eliminating any possibility of a war on two fronts. It could then withdraw many of the armies it has on the European frontiers, and concentrate all its military strength against Maoist China, to surround her with an iron belt with the help of the Indian government controlled by Judaism and others it wants to align. (Editor's quotation: Please refer pamphlet No. 9 of Political Secrets series, titled: "The Jewish Fifth Column in India". Readers may find information on how Hindi Crypto-Judaism controls that country).

It is urgent that German patriots and other western Europeans do not fall in this Soviet trap, covered under the bait of achievement of peace and security in Europe. If the Kremlin's Jews succeed in invading China and dominating it, they will turn against West Europe, which they have not otherwise dare to invade until they have been able to liquidate Mao Tse-tung's regime, among other reasons, and replace it for another controlled by the Kremlin and World Judaism. German patriots must be more aware than anyone else, for the secret Jew-Communist Willy Brandt is determined to help his Jewish brethren of the Kremlin in these falsely pacific purposes, whose only real objective is that the Kremlin should be left free to invade (if they think it is necessary) Mainland China, for the above-mentioned purposes.

In the case of a successful invasion of China by the Soviet Union, the Soviet plan is to maintain occupation troops in China for an indefinite period of time, under the pretext of defending socialism as it has done in several countries of East Europe. The true and hidden reason is that Jewish Imperialism is convinced that the clandestine Chinese Tiao-Kiu-Kiaou Jews are too scarce number (19),

- (19) All experts in Chinese Judaism agree that the Tiao-Kiu-Kiaou Jews in China are few, varying opinions from those who state they are more than two million, to Jewish writers that reduce its number to a minimum. This is not strange, for as we said before, it is an ancient and general custom of Jews to hide the real number of Jews in a country and of course of clandestine Jews. But even supposing they were more than two million, their proportion with the Chinese population of seven hundred million inhabitants would be barely three Jews for each thousand, which would be a very small percentage compared with that of the Jews in the Soviet Union.

In any case, the fact that Jews always hide to the Gentiles the real amount of Jews in a Gentile nation, especially the number of clandestine Jews, makes it impossible for us to assure that the clandestine Chinese Jews, Tiao-Kiu-Kiaou and other sects, total 2 million people at most. The number may be larger or smaller. Only an investigation using all adequate means to find out the truth, would allow the total localization of Jews and find out the real number of this fifth column in China of a foreign imperialism, conqueror of nations, that acts through super secret societies of clandestine Jews, who as members of the invaded country, are in proportion with the big population of China, to be able to totally dominate China. They would therefore need the support of Soviet troops, as is the case in those East European countries whose Jewish population was so decimated by the Nazis that the Jews are too few to retain power without the aid of Soviet troops.

Judaism projects to control all kinds of governments — monarchist, democratic or communist — but it is an unacceptable tragedy for the Jewish nation (which uses communism to impose its totalitarian domination to mankind), that socialist or communist states should fall and survive in the hands of Gentile rulers, and it will not rest until it has overthrown all Gentile governments, even those that are socialist or communist — either existing now or that may appear in the future — to replace them with governments controlled by the insatiable imperialism of international Judaism.

The Soviet Union is the strongest bulwark of Judaism in the communist camp, due to the high proportion of Jews among the Russian, Ukrainian and other populations of the Soviet Union. Millions of Soviet Jews that control the Party, the Army, the secret police and other repressive organs, keeping the power by themselves, without need of foreign help. So complete is the power in the Soviet Union that it is possible for them to help support infiltrated in all political, military, cultural, religious and social institutions, until it takes over the governments by exploiting personal ambitions for power and personal resentments; by sowing false ideas to promote discordance, internal division and rebellion; and also by effecting espionage and sabotage to the benefit of foreign powers when this is convenient to the plans of international Judaism for world domination.

their Israelite brethren in the government of other communist countries where they cannot achieve this by themselves.

It is interesting to note that in all nations where the percentage of Israelites is small, in relation to the genuine population of these countries, there is a high rate of mixed marriages between public Jews and the real members of those nations. This question is highly important, because in such cases the Israelite imperialists try, by different means, to increase the number of Jews in those countries to facilitate their conquest and then to maintain control by their own forces.

Thus the Jews increase the Israelite population in a country by promoting mixed marriages between Jewesses and natives of the country they attempt to conquer. According to the Jewish laws, the principle is that mixed marriages of Jews and Gentiles are forbidden; but these laws prescribe certain exceptions, by which mixed marriages may be authorized by the Great Kahal or Regional Supreme Council, to obtain political positions, important espionage positions, or positions of economic or social influence. Such exceptions include the many instances in which Jewesses have married kings, nobles, presidents of republics and other high Gentile leaders, or married owners of great enterprises, newspapers and other institutions Judaism wants to control. In general the marriage of Israelite women to Gentile men are authorized because the millenary Jewish law "Hagada" indicates that Judaism can only be transmitted to children of a mixed marriage through the mother, that is to say, when the mother is a Jewess. But this orthodox "Hagada" law has been overruled by many Israelite communities, the reformists among others, who also accept as Jews the children of Jewish father and a Gentile mother. The fact that this has caused a controversy between the innovators and the more Orthodox Jewish sects does not invalidate the fact that Jewish communities which accept the children of Jewish father and Gentile mother are still loyal Israelites, and consider the children as Israelites, introducing them, when they are 13 years old, in the secret organizations of totalitarian commands of the synagogal Fraternities, which exist among the Israelite communities of the different countries of the world for the mixed Jews of "stained" blood, and which are led and controlled by those recognized to be of pure blood (even though this recognition does not always correspond to a strict reality). In this way, the descendants of mixed marriages between Jews and Gentiles are effectively organized and controlled by Israelite imperialism and are totally at its service.

It must be stressed that when the Kahal or Regional Jewish Council authorizes a mixed marriage of a Jew or Jewess to a Gentile, they make the individual swear under severe penalties that he or she will do everything possible to have the children introduced at the age of 13 or later, to the community of Israel, in a secret way so that the Gentile husband or wife will be unaware of the introduction. If the Jewish father or mother disregard this oath, in addition to the penalties applied to them, the local and regional Kahal seek the aid of other Jewish relatives, to ensure that the children of those mixed marriages may be prepared and introduced into Judaism and render the oath of obedience to the leaders and of secrecy, in an occult ceremony with impressive rites.

The nazis, dealing with the Jewish problem, mainly as a racial problem, committed a serious mistake when they considered as Germans the descendants of three German grand-parents and only one Jewish grand-father. It is evident that from a superficial racial point of view, such children were predominantly German, but the Jewish problem is not only racial but something much more complex, as the reader may have attested; in fact, as the Tribunal of the Holy Inquisition said, it was enough to have only one Jewish grand-mother, or even only a Jewish great-grand-mother, or even only one great-great-grand-mother, for the descendant could be admitted to the Jewish secret societies. And all this because of the reasons we have just mentioned. This is why the laws that ruled Inquisitorial Europe and later Spain and Portugal were justified; they considered as "new christians" and therefore as suspects of Judaism, anyone who two or more centuries back had only one Jewish antecessor, and excluded such people from positions in the government, in the army and the church, even when there were not enough evidence (which was difficult to obtain) that they practiced Judaism in secret. This legislation lasted until the Inquisitorial regime was suppressed.

In China, as in other countries, communities of Ashkenazim, Sephardic, Arab, Indian, Russian, German and Roumanian and other Jews have authorized, since their arrival in China, mixed marriages with Gentile Chinese; children with partially Chinese features came from these marriages, who after getting married with other Gentile persons of the country, had children with more Chinese than Jewish appearance. Later, mixed marriages have increased the number of fifth columnist Israelites, whose racial appearance is Chinese but who in secret are members of the nation of Israel, increasing in this way the clandestine Israelite fifth column. Although we believe that the Chinese population resulting from these mixed marriages may still be small, it would be an important investigation to calculate the number of clandestine Jews in China.

CHINESE JEWS AT THE CEREMONY OF READING THE TORAH

CHINESE JEWS AT THE CEREMONY OF READING THE TORAH

Jewish secret societies, called Synagogal Fraternities, get together at least once a week, on Friday evenings, but in emergency on any other day, to solemnly read and comment a part of the Torah, the five first books of the Bible, and the Bible books of the Prophets, where according the Jewish belief, are the promises God made to Israelites to dominate nations where they settle and the world in general. Following this ceremonial reading and commentary, the members of the secret Fraternity inform the Assembly what they have done to dominate the political, military, economic, social, religious sectors, etc. whose control has been entrusted to the Fraternity by the Local Supreme Jewish Council. They also plan ways in which they can take over leading positions, and intrigue and manœuvre to eliminate the Gentiles in such positions.

During the Inquisition and the period of Nazi persecution, members of the Jewish clandestine Fraternities infiltrated into those regimes, taking skillful steps to prevent their meetings and operations from being discovered, Judaism has centenary experience in this. What I have said before about the clandestine Tiao-Kiu-Kiaou Jews is also valid for Manchuria; but regarding this vast Chinese region we will give some additional information regarding public Jews — the Jews who openly admit their identity.

The Castilian Jewish Encyclopedia makes the following statement among others: "The building of the Transiberian Railroad brought (to Manchuria) a certain amount of Jewish traders that founded a Jewish community in Jarbin". That after the Bolshevik revolution, many Jews from the Soviet Union emigrated to Manchuria, and were antagonized by the White Russians, who committed several murders. That these new Israelite emigrants "were not delayed to incorporate themselves to the economy of the country as employees, merchants and industrialists" . . . That the Japanese hostility to Jewish businesses when they occupied Manchuria in 1931, forced the Jews to emigrate to Southern China and other countries. The Castilian Jewish Encyclopedia also adds that in 1931 there were SEVERAL SYNAGOGUES in Jarbin, Mukden and Dairen as well as community philanthropic, cultural, pedagogical and Zionist institutions, etc.

The Japanese did not know the secrets of Judaism, and they tried to eradicate it using wrong methods, similar to those used during almost two thousand years by other nations in the world. In 1942 they closed all Synagogues (20) but they did not know that any time Gentile governments, through the centuries, have used this resource, it has only served to force Israelites to turn from public Jews, identified as such, to clandestine Jews that hide their adherence to the nation of Israel, apparently becoming assimilated among the people in whose land they live; thus being more dangerous. In this way, due to the Japanese mistake, public Judaism in Manchuria massively sunk into clandestinity, except those who emigrated with their enterprises to the south of China and other places.

The fact that in some countries in Europe, and specially in America, there are Jews leading the Maoist organizations, has made some people wrongly believe that Maoist communism is also controlled by the Jewish imperialism. However, what is really happening is that world Judaism — imitating Karl Marx's tactic of annulling Bakunin's international by infiltrating and controlling it with Israelite agents — tries to do the same with the international communist movement that Mao Tse-tung has been creating. These public or clandestine Jews who pretend to be enemies of the Soviet Union and its satellite communist parties, infiltrate and obtain leading positions in Maoist organizations of different countries; little by little they obtain control over many of those organizations or parties often following a genuine struggle against the puppet Moscow parties. But Judaism, as always, will win this game if it succeeds in taking over Maoist parties and organizations throughout the world, just as it won when it succeeded in infiltrating the international movement of the Gentile revolutionary, Michael Bakunin.

CHINESE CHAIR WITH TORAH ROLL

CHINESE CHAIR WITH TORAH ROLL

Jews in China use very elaborate chairs to read the Torah in the respective sabbatical ceremony. However, clandestine Judaism, especially in times of danger, avoids using such furniture in their secret ceremonies and meetings, to prevent any Gentiles who might discover the meeting from realizing what is going on. Clandestine Jews have centuries of experience at hiding their secret meetings, and have everything ready to camouflage their meetings to make them appear to be innocent meetings if a Gentile intruder discovers them. In times of the Inquisition, clandestine Jews sometimes used catholic clergymen, who were secret Jews, to arrange for their secret weekly meetings to be held in the curacy of the church or in some other room of the catholic church, under the patronage of these clergymen. In this way if any Gentile discovered the meeting, the clergyman told him that the meeting was composed of faithful catholics of the Parish. In other cases they arranged for secret Jews who had infiltrated into the guilds of artisans to obtain the use of a room in the guild. If the meeting was discovered by somebody, the clandestine Jewish leader of the guild would declare that the meeting was being held to discuss some matter of interest to the guild. Similar secret meetings were arranged on the premises of other reputable Gentile organizations. Photo taken from the Castilian Jewish Encyclopedia. Cited edition, 3rd. Volume. Word: China. IMPERIALISM, COMMUNISM AND JUDAISM, THE THREE FORCES DOMINATING THE WORLD

SERIES OF AUTHOR ITSVAN BAKONY

INTRODUCTION

The Library of Political Secrets now adds to its collection selected chapters from the book by the Hungarian researcher, Itsvan Bakony, entitled: "IMPERIALISM, COMMUNISM AND JUDAISM, THE THREE FORCES DOMINATING THE WORLD." The translation of the Hungarian original was completed in Paris in January 1969, and was later brought up to date by the author.

The only purpose of this edition is to make information available about the great political and historic events now taking place all over the world.

We urge patriots in all countries to distribute this book to as many people as possible. This book may be reprinted by those receiving it as the author has reserved no copyright on it.

CHAPTER I

THE JEWISH FIFTH COLUMN IN THE ISLAM

In Islam — as in Christianity — there is a fifth column of Jews who pretend to be Moslem and to practice Islamism piously, but who are Israelite in secret. This infiltration is tearing apart the land of Mohammed, sowing divisions, disabling Islamic unity and Arab unity, and in recent times even diffusing communism. I will show, with the testimony of Israelite historians regarded as authorities on Hebrew matters, how this Jewish fifth column came into being in Islam.

It is necessary to keep in mind that in the Koran — which is for Moslems, as the Bible is for Christians, the source of divine revelation — Jews are considered as a people damned by God who sell the Sacred Writings, who have a padlock in their hearts, and have hell's fire waiting for them.

The Spanish historian of the XIX Century, José Amador de los Ríos, comments that "Sowing darnel in a so high a place, it should not surprise it fructified even exuberantly in certain moments" (1).

As with Christianity, Hebrews have tried to conquer Islam from the inside, and toward this goal they have struggled both tenaciously and wickedly; but up to now they have obtained less success than they have obtained in the Christian world. Nevertheless, it seems that nowadays they have begun to decisively succeed, mainly due to the powerful fifth column that the Hebrews have secretly introduced in Mohammed's religion through centuries, whose destructive activities are now bearing important fruits.

These hidden organizations of apparent Moslems, who in fact are crypto-Jews or underground Jews, have been growing for several centuries, as the famous Israelite historian Cecil Roth — considered as an oracle of Judaism — states in his history of crypto-Judaism in Christianity: "The phenomenon (of hidden Judaism) was in no way confined to the Christian world. Ancient crypto-Jewish communities can be found in different parts of the Moslem world." (2). This confession that the Moslem world is undermined by communities of crypto-Jews, which still persist in this twentieth century in different places, is highly important as it comes from an authoritative Israelite source.

Later on, Roth explains how this crypto-Judaism operates, and gives examples: "The 'daggatun' of the Sahara continued practicing Jewish rules after their formal conversion to the Islam"... "The 'donmeh' of Salonika descend from partisans of the pseudo-Messiah Sabbatai Zevi. . . and although they ostensibly are faithful Moslems, in their homes they practice a messianic Judaism". Referring to these crypto-Jews of the "donmeh" sect the author of "A History of the Marranos" (footnote 3, page 15) says the following: "Since the Greek occupation and the systematic helenization of Salonika, many 'donmeh' have emigrated particularly to Adrianopolis. It is difficult to get exact data about their present condition and distribution. It worth noting that the movement of Turkish Youth in 1913 was led in a great part by members of this sect". (3). This information, given by the same Israelite historian Cecil Roth — who has been described by numerous Jews as the Flavio Josefo of our days — is of capital importance, because the "Turkish Youth" was one of the many secret societies of a carbonary type, controlled by Masonry and at the top level, by crypto-Judaism which had as their mission the overthrow of the monarchies during the past century and their replacement by Jewish governments during the present century.

Fortunately, in the case of Turkey the great patriot Mustafa Kemal Ataturk, supported by the army, was able to take over the Turkish revolution and lead it in a more appropriate direction for the country, displacing the hidden power of Jewish-Masonry. Thus the underground Jews — mostly false Moslems belonging to the secret "donmeh" sect — were eliminated during many years from the power of the rising Republic. But the Turkish people must realise that many of these false Moslems still remain visible among the Turkish population, ostensibly "assimilated" but really constitute a terrible fifth column ready to crush Turkey at the opportune moment; these crypto-Jews work along as accomplices of Moscow.

(3) Cecil Roth, p. 15.

Continuing his story of the Crypto-Jewish Moslems, the famous Israelite historian Cecil Roth says that: "There are other examples to the East". And later referring to Iran, he states: "Religious persecutions in Persia started in the seventeenth century left in the country, particularly in Meshed, numerous families that observe Judaism privately with punctilious scrupulousness while they openly are devoted to the dominant faith" (4). All this information is to be found not only in the revelations of the irreproachable Jewish sources such as Cecil Roth, but also in an edition of "Israel Editorial" published in Buenos Aires, which as an official Jewish document cannot be labeled as antisemitic.

Crypto-Judaism is a dangerous fact in Islam today. If Moslems do not take adequate steps to protect themselves, they will be unhinged inside their own Islamic religious institutions as is happening in Christianity.

The famous Jewish leader, Chacham Israel Joseph Benjamin II, who made an inspection tour to the Israelite communities of Asia and Africa during eight years, between 1846 to 1855, in his report to western Jewish leaders referred to the Persian Crypto-Judaism, says as follows: "Only twenty years ago, about 3,000 Jews lived in this beautiful and flourishing city (he refers to Shiraz). Because of the persecutions, oppression and hatred of all kinds, more than twenty five hundred were forced to convert to the Moslem sect of Ali. Although they are apparently apostates, a great number of these families still keep in their hearts their parents' faith and even find the way to secretly circumcise their children (according to the Jewish rite). (5). He also affirms that the Shiraz Hebrews have a Nassi, who is a high Israelite leader of the internal organizations of Eastern Judaism, of a higher rank than Chacham.

It is very interesting to notice how Hebrews infiltrate enemy organizations to dislocate them from inside. Despite the Koran's warnings about Jews, as a result of which Islam was since the beginning a religion hostile to Judaism, the Jews have been able to infiltrate Islam for their evil goals. They have also infiltrated Ali's sect, which is considered heretical by orthodox Moslems, because according to the report of Chacham Benjamin, they were accepted as pious Moslems in Ali's sect, despite the fact that Jews were the mortal enemies of the founder of that sect, and that Ali's followers believed that he was murdered by an Israelite, according to Chacham Israel Joseph Benjamin II.

A JEW CONVERTED TO ISLAM; THE PRIME MINISTER OF THE PERSIAN SHAH.

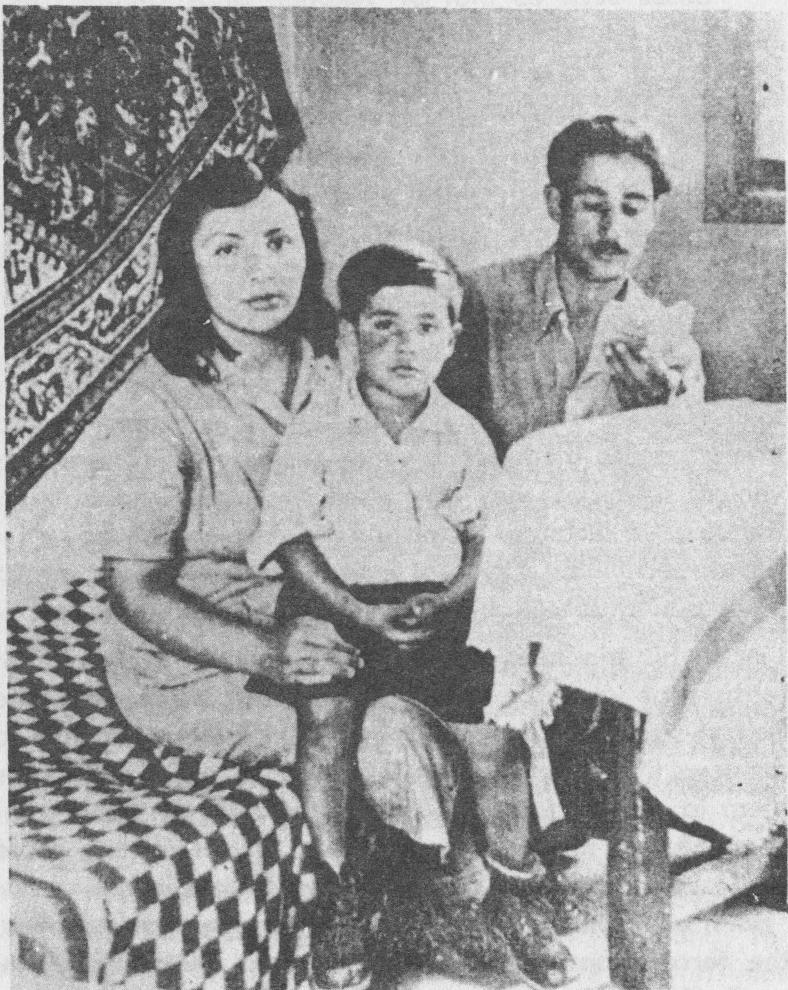

Among the interesting information contained in Chacham Benjamin's report, there is a datum that describes how the Jews were able to scale the highest positions in the Islamic monarchies — as they did in the Christian monarchies — using the farce of pretended conversion that has served them so well. Thus the studious Israelite Chacham Israel states that in Ispahan, the biggest city in the Persian kingdom at that time, "he was in touch with Minister Ismael, a native Jew named Jekutiel (6) who was raised by the Providence to such a high position. I was

- (6) According to the aforementioned Israelite leader whose report I am quoting, this Minister of the Persian Shah, whose Moslem name was Ismael, had the Jewish name of Jekutiel, following the use of the clandestine Jews in all the world of having two names: a public one, in accordance to the religion the underground Jew pretendedly practices, or according to the customs of the country in which he lives; and an Israelite one, used only in the secret of his home and the ultra secret organizations of the clandestine Judaism.

honored to be admitted several times to present my respects to him, his brothers Joseph and Mordacai and his father Aga Babi". Then, the Chacham tells how this Jewish minister was elevated to that high position, saying that Jekutiel was an outstanding dancer; and that in a great party celebrated in the city in the honor of the Shah, Jekutiel danced very artistically and was so audacious as to kiss the king's hand in one of his artistic jumps. The Shah, admiring his talent and even his temerity, invited him to the Court, where the young fellow grew up under his patron's eyes, demonstrating his loyalty to the Shah on several occasions and even risking his life for the king who eventually nominated him to be Prime Minister of the kingdom — a position which he held until the Shah's death. The king's son did not keep him in his privacy and dismissed him. The Hebrew investigator says that Jekutiel, before the Shah appointed him Minister, converted to Islam and adopted the name of Ismael but that "despite of this fact, he helped his former brothers in religion as much as he could", and also, as we have already seen, had frequent contacts with the Hebrew leader who recounted this significant piece of history. (7).

We should not forget that the Jews who convert to Islam, instead of helping Islam against Judaism do the opposite. In this, they behave like the Jews converted to Christianity. It is enough to remember that the Lehman brothers, Jews apparently converted to Catholicism, continued to help Judaism in the Christian citadel, as was shown by their active participation in the "Dreyfus Affair" in favor of Judaism and against the French Catholics, led by Drumont, who were fighting to save France from Jewish conquest.

Cases such as that of Jekutiel, alias Ismael, were numberless in the Courts of the Christian kings of the Middle Age and even in the Papal Courts. They infiltrated as humility, performing impressive actions, kissing the king's hand or falling upon their knees in supplication in front of the Roman Pontiff in order to gain entrance to their confidential circles. Others do acts of true merit and show apparent loyalty to their masters until finally, at the opportune moment, execute their plans, achieving the benefits of the energies spent and services rendered.

In many cases these individuals caused real havoc to their masters, by betraying them in a catastrophic way at the precise moment. In other cases, when it was convenient to Israel, they only used their influence to favor the Jews in different ways and increase Jewish power in the respective country and church, by infiltrating crypto-Jews and close collaborators into the religious hierarchy.

In his trip to inspect Persia, Chacham Benjamin informs that when he arrived to the city of Meshed, the Hebrews told him that the Moslems had recently attacked the Jews living there (about four hundred families) to force them to convert to Islam. Those who did not accept conversion were killed or had to flee, but regarding those who accepted conversion, the active Chacham comments:

Here, as in other places, despite their apparent apostasy, the forced converts remained loyal to Mosaism in secret". (8).

Despite the fact that the conversion of Hebrews to another religion is a mere farce, which as a consequence brings only an increasing Jewish fifth column into the bosom of that religion, Moslems, with a naivety only comparable to that of the Christians (in spite of the fact that they constantly discovered the farce and killed false Moslems who were discovered to practice Judaism in secret) continued to celebrate as a great victory the conversion of Israelites to Mohammedanism. So Chacham tells that: "The apostasy of a Jew and his conversion to the Moslem religion, is a reason for a public festivity. Once the convert does the ordained purification, he is taken —nicely dressed — inside the Mosque where the Achund receives him and gives him his new name. Afterwards, he rides a nicely garnished horse and is taken victoriously among all the people, and each one of them (the Moslems) congratulates him and gives him presents on this occasion". Our comment in this regard is: Poor mankind, how easily the Jews, masters of deceit and lies, deceive you!

(8) Chacham Israel Joseph Benjamin II. pp. 241-242.

This makes us recall the great religious feasts that were held in the Christian kingdoms of Castile and Aragon to celebrate the conversion to Christianity of hundreds of thousands of Jews following the 1391 slaughters, provoked by the reaction of the people against a tyrannic and bloody Jewish domination long exerted by the Israelite ministers and advisers of the Castilian and Aragonese kings. The massive conversion of so many Jews, not only in Castile and Aragon but also in Navarra and Portugal, astonished the Catholic people and clergy, who everywhere talked about a miracle of heaven. The kings rewarded the most distinguished converted Jews with titles of nobility and high positions in the government of the State, and the Church elevated them to the offices of Bishop, Archbishop and even Cardinal. The feast was over when decades later it was discovered and confirmed that the massive conversion of Jews to Christianity was a pretense effected for the sole purpose of infiltrating Christian society, the Christian clergy and the Christian State to dominate them from inside, and that although the families of the converts publicly abandoned their Jewish names and Israelite last names to adopt Christian names of different regions of Spain, even adopted aristocratic names, they were actually organized in secret society, practicing Judaism in a clandestine way and even keeping their Jewish names and last names, using them only at home and at the clandestine meetings, while in public in a hypocritical way they practiced Christianity religiously and fervorously, observing all its rites meticulously, as the Moslem crypto-Jews do in the Islam.

Then the great tragedy for Spain and Portugal started. In view of the discovery that the descendants of Jewish converts, apparently Christians, continued to be clandestine Israelites and had already taken over the main positions in the leadership of the state and the church, dominating politics, finance and everything in the Iberian peninsula, a general defensive reaction came, and the Inquisition was created, first in Spain and later in Portugal. With the aid of torture, all secret nets of clandestine Judaism were discovered. The Inquisition would have saved those nations, if the ingenuousness of the Popes and the kings would not have granted general forgiveness to the Jewish conspirers, wasting the action of the inquirers and allowing clandestine Judaism to survive, until centuries later, infiltrated in the government positions, these secret Jews could destroy the inquisitorial regime. The Jews were then completely free to sow subversion and work to dominate not only Portugal and Spain but their former colonies in America, since converted into independent nations, where clandestine Jews, covered with the mask of Catholicism and with Christian and genuine Spanish and Portuguese names and last names, are the propagators of Communism and subversion of all kinds, and have already enslaved Cuba and attempted to subdue and en-slave the rest of Latin America. This is the tragic result of the conversion of Jews to Christianity in the Iberic peninsula as started in 1391. And still there are many ignorant people among Christians who seriously believe in the conversion of Jews to Christianity! During the Middle Age the pretended conversions of the Jews to Christianity occurred in all European countries without exception. Converted Jews adopted typical surnames from the country in which they lived. Naive Christians, specially the clergy, whose political blindness is traditional everywhere, celebrated with feasts the conversion of Jews in all places.

And when the emperors, kings, Popes and councils of the Church discovered and confirmed that Israelite conversion to Christianity had been false, and that their descendants, in spite of being Christians in public, were secretly Jews, the feast for the conversion turned into a tragedy. During the XII Century the European countries were shaken by conspiracies and revolutions — the famous medieval heresies and it was fully proved that all were led by clandestine Jews. To stop this heretic-revolutionary wave, the Medieval Pontifical Inquisition was created, which through tortures investigated and confirmed that the heretic-revolutionary movements were always led by secret Jews covered with the mask of Christianity. By torturing those leaders, the Inquisition forced them to reveal the names of all clandestine Jews in that place. The inquisitorial regime would have definitely eliminated the clandestine Judaism and freed western Europe from that cancer, if the Popes and the kings would not have fell into the deceit and even the bribe of the Jews, and granted general forgivenesses, freeing the prisoner Jews from the inquisitorial jails, and frustrating repeatedly during three centuries the work of the inquirers, allowing the conspiring Israelites to survive, until following the Protestant Reformation, they were able to liquidate the pontifical inquisitorial regime ruling Western and Central Europe. The result is that all European countries are today undermined by the secret sects of clandestine Jews, covered with the mask of the different Christian churches: catholic, protestant and orthodox, because the Constantinian Church, the Greek Orthodox Church and its branches: the Russian, Bulgarian, Roumanian, etc., committed the mistake and naïveté of receiving with feasts, honors and even dignities, the Jews who through centuries were infiltrating the Christian citadel by pretending conversion so as to win control of the Church and dominate it from inside.

CHAPTER II

CLANDESTINE JUDAISM IN ALGERIA AND OTHER MOSLEM STATES

As indicated in the title of this Chapter, we are not going to refer to those Israelites that have practiced Judaism in Algeria openly and who are recognized as Jews by the rest of the population. Those of European origin — especially the French Jews — who vilely exploited workers and peasants of Algeria during the French domination, were forced to leave the country after the independence was consummated. In this chapter we shall only refer to those Israelites whose ancestors apparently left Judaism to falsely convert to Islam, and their descendants although these openly practice Mohammed's religion, and appear as faithful members of the Algerian people, they continue to adhere secretly to the Israeli nation and to practice Judaism in a complete hidden way, thus forming the secret sect called "Mehadjerin", which infiltrates the Moslem political, religious and social institutions. These clandestine Jews practice the Islamic religion in a very zealous way — and appear as members of the Algerian people, as is the case with the clandestine Israelites that to a greater or lesser degree have infiltrated all the Moslem nations of Africa and Asia, forming an Israelite fifth column inside Islam, whose strength is surpassed only by the power that Judaism exercises in Christendom, by means of those secret sects of clandestine Jews that in public practice the different confessions of Christianity but who in secret are loyal to the Israeli nation and religion.

Before proceeding to study the sect of the clandestine Algerian Jews called "Mehadjerin", I shall present a brief synthesis of the policy of the Jewish imperialism regarding Algeria in recent times.

When it was convenient for international Judaism that the French imperialism — converted in a satellite of the Israeli imperialism — should conquer Algeria, the Jews living in this country betrayed it, making it easy for the French to conquer it and then helping the French to consolidate their conquest. In return for this, Israelites living in Algeria obtained from the French government the widest protection that allowed them to exert domain and exploit the poor Algerian people. World Judaism considered it was the time to liquidate and destroy the liberal capitalist imperialism, to replace it with totalitarian communism which would give Israel absolute power over the world, and the international Judaism agreed to destroy the French Empire. While on the one hand, most public Jews were on the side of France, infiltrating the movements in favor of a French Algeria and later in the Secret Army Organization, on the other hand, the clandestine Jews of the sect we will study, disguised under the mask of a false Islamism, infiltrated the army of Algerian insurgents, trying to control the independence movement in order to guarantee Jewish domination on that country at the moment it was freed, and to lead it gradually to communism. It is necessary to understand that for the international Jews the liberation of Algeria from the French domination has no other purpose than to replace the yoke of the French by the yoke of the clandestine "Mehadjerin" Jews, who pretended to be Mohammedan, and other crypto-Jews who were born in the country, whose activities are revealed in Jewish documents of unquestionable value.

This division of the Algerian Jews corresponded to another similar division in the rows of World Judaism. While in the State of Israel, Zionists and Zionist terrorist organizations such as the Irgun Zvai Leumi even provided arms in the struggle in favor of a French Algeria, the international powers of Judaism, headquartered in Moscow and New York, backed the cause of Algerian independence, with the hope that in achieving it, this country fell into the crawls of the underground "Mehadjerin" Jews infiltrated in the national liberation movement. Although Jews always bet to both cards in the game, there is some evidence to believe that this time a real and irritated division exploded on the Algerian affair, between Zionists and secret powers of the international Judaism, for the Zionists considered that Algerian independence instead of leading this country to communism, as Moscow and New York hoped, would throw the country into the crawls of the Arabian anti-Jews making it a serious threat for the State of Israel.

For the Arabs and the whole world to know how serious the problem of crypto-Judaism in Algeria is, we will start quoting a Jewish source of information that is highly authoritative. We are referring to the Great Rabbi of Constantina province, Ab-Cahen, who in 1866 wrote a detailed letter to M. Feraud, Secretary of the Archeological Society asking him to insert his letter — as he did — in the "Recueil" of that Society; where the full text of the mentioned document may be read.

The Great Rabbi tries to justify in this letter the hatred the Hebrews have against Spanish, which led the Israelite communities of Northern Africa to establish a new religious festivity similar to that of Queen Esther's Purim, to annually celebrate the fall of the Spanish domination in North Africa in the XVI Century, and the defeat of the new attempt of invasion which occurred at the end of the XVIII Century.

Later on, he refers to the existence of the "Mehadjerin" sect, mentioning in that valuable and illustrative document, the pretended conversion to Islam of Algerian Jews. There are two stories: the first — which the Great Rabbi regarded as the less probable — says that at the middle of the XVIII Century one of the main, Ben-Djellab, forced all Hebrews in Tuggurt, Souf and other populations of his fief, to convert to Mohammed's religion, due to a love incident; the another story — which the Great Rabbi considered more credible in accordance with the customs of the country at that time, and which is also accepted by the "Mehadjerin" as true — says that at the middle of the Eighteenth century, "Ben Djellab, the grand-father of the one that was in Tuggurt when the French arrived in Africa, was the prince of Tuggurt, Souf and the country around there; as the Jews gave him a very beautiful present, he looked for the best way to reward them and gathered the main people of the country to consult about this with them. Different rewards were proposed such as personal privileges and the alleviation of taxes. Suddenly somebody told the prince: 'As you wish to reward them in an extraordinary manner, give them permission to convert and the honor of receiving them among the true believers'. The prince accepted this suggestion and informed the Jews about it, but they begged him that as they were Jews they wanted nothing but to remain being Jews. Ben Djellab, who thought he was granting an extraordinary mercy to them, became furious in view of this disdain, which hurt his dignity as a prince and a Moslem. He consequently ordered the Jews to choose immediately — within 24 hours — between the choice of becoming Moslems or of leaving the country without any hope of returning. The Jew's distress was great. Many of them fled and were persecuted and beheaded by the people of Ben-Djellab. Most Jews, nevertheless, foreseeing what was going to happen, and without finding another solution to this situation than conversion — at least an apparent conversion — yielded up to the prince's orders and accepted — at least publicly the Moslem religion".

"Still now, the name used by the descendants of these converts, reminds the facts of this second version. They are called 'Mehadjerin', that means: "the well rewarded"..."

The high leader of World Judaism, the Constantina Rabbi continues to reveal that: "Like the Anussim of Spain, new Christians, Jews converted by the Inquisition, they openly practiced the Moslem religion, but in their homes they continued to practice the Jewish cult. Some of those who had left Tuggurt for other places in Africa, to live among Jews, were persecuted because of Ben-Djellab's denunciation, and executed as renegades from the Moslem faith. These facts intimidated others, who, in order to escape from a similar situation, became ostensibly jealous and even fanatic Moslems. All went on the pilgrimage to Mecca, but the "Mehadjerin" nevertheless continued to live in their own separate neighborhood and refused to marry into other Moslem families, which is why they have kept their names, their features and their distinctive habits. It is said that even now they celebrate on Saturday or Sabbath of the Jews, but in secret. As was the case of the new Christians, this fact of isolationism may have two reasons, one of them that they wanted to remain isolated and without connection with other Moslems, especially during the first years, the other reason being the low regard the Moslem had for the converts".

Then, the high Jewish leader we are mentioning makes the most terrible and important of his revelations:

"Nowadays, nevertheless, they are the main people of the country and most of all, the richest; they own almost all houses and gardens of this oasis and trade is almost exclusively in their hands".

"'Mehadjerins' have frequently inherited goods from some Jewish relative living in Bou-Saada, Tmassin or in Mzab. But Jews have not been permitted to be heirs to any 'Mehadjerin' relative. The Moslem legislation opposed this".

The Great Rabbi continues in his letter, that at the time of writing, the Jewish origin of the "Mehadjerins" was not forgotten, and that the "Mehadjerins" were consequently afraid of Arabians. The high Hebrew leader closes his letter saying: "This letter is too long and I do not want to abuse of the space the Society has agreed to give me in the Recueil this year. I still have to talk about the Spanish expeditions of 1516 and 1542. In the Jewish poems there are certain details about these happenings that may be interesting for the Algerian history. Besides, it is my intention to write a monography of the North African Jews, and I would ask a place in the next Recueil of our society for this purpose. Signed: Ab-Cahen, Great Rabbi of the Constantina province (Algeria)". (9).

(9) Great Rabbi of Constantina Ab-Cahen. Letter addressed to M. Feraud, Secretary of the Archeological Society of Constantina, Algeria, inserted in the "Recueil" of that Archeological Society.

On the other hand, the existence of crypto-Judaism in Algeria goes back so many years before the false conversion of "Mehadjerins" to Islam. The Castilian Jewish Encyclopedia tells us that during the Almohade domination in Algeria (1147-1269), and especially after the advent of Emir Abd-al-Mumin, Hebrews were forced to convert to the Moslem religion but that as the Mohammedans uncovered many false conversions, they forced the converts to wear a special dress to distinguish them from original Moslems.

It also states that the usual language of the Algerian Israelite is the Arabian (10).

This measure of forcing the converts of Judaism and their descendants to use a special dress was regarded as a necessity of different parts of the Christendom and the Islam in view of the conviction of those supposedly converted Christians and Moslems were Jews hidding behind what they themselves have called a mask of Christianity or Islam, always hide their Jewish identity so as to perform subversive activities in the society they live. Many rulers attempted to prevent this subversive activity by forcing Jews to wear a distinctive dress, cap or a special sign that let other people in the country know that the man so adorned was a converted Jew or the descendant of converts, and that all people should be careful with him despite his claim to practice Christianity or Islam in an apparently pious way.

Finally, another official book of Judaism the Jewish Encyclopedic Handbook, published by the "Israel Publishing House" of Buenos Aires, under the word "Algeria" states: "There were Jews there in the Roman age, subjected to religious persecution. The first Arabs treated them"¹ well, but the fanatic almohade (1130) converted them by force; these were the first crypto-Jews . . . ” (11).

(10) "Castilian Jewish Encyclopedia". Mexico, 1948. Word Algeria. p. 430, 1st. col

It can be seen that the tradition of clandestine Judaism covered by the mask of the Moslem religion, has an ancient intermixture of roots in Algeria. That is why it is most dangerous for the Arab world and the Islamic World in general, because if these false Arabs, false Algerian Moslems, achieve — as is planned by the dark powers of Judaism based in Moscow or New York — to defeat the true Algerian patriots and establish there the first crypto-Jewish communist State in the Arab World, the result would constitute an extremely dangerous threat for the real Arab nationalists and the real Moslems. May the Algerians open their eyes in time and ward off such a tremendous menace!

The needed brevity of this book avoids any inclusion of the study of clandestine Judaism in all the Moslem states, for this super-secret society has invaded all of them to a higher or lesser degree. Unfortunately, experience shows that the great majority of the people refuse to read bulky books, and that if we extend this book too much, it would be hopelessly condemned to be read by just a few people. Due to this fact we shall reduce to mention in this chapter — even we regret it — only some very illustrative examples on clandestine Judaism in some other Islamic States.

In North Africa, including Morocco, Algeria, Tunisia, Libya and Egypt, and even from Asia Minor to Yemen, the branch of clandestine Judaism composed by the super hidden society of false Moslems who are secretly a part of the nation and religion of Israel, has a very ancient origin, because it was consolidated by one of the highest Israelite leaders in the history of Judaism, Moses ben Maimon, universally known as Moses Maimonides. I will transcribe from the famous German Jewish historian's —Heinrich Graetz— in his "History of the Jews", in order for the reader to appreciate this: "In the last third of the Twelfth Century, Judaism seemed to have lost its center of gravity. Once the Gaonato fell, the World direction (of Judaism) was taken by the South of Spain (which was Moslem then) with its communities in Cordova, Seville, Granada and Lucena; but due to the intolerance of the Almohade these places did not have (public) Jewish congregations and there were only Jews covered with the mask of Mohammedanism. . ."

Then Graetz states that in those times the lack of able leaders had left Judaism without a capable world leadership but that in this critical period "Maimonides appeared and became the unifying factor for Judaism and a point of contact for all East and Western communities; the man whose decisions as a rabbinic authority were the last word, although he was not invested with any official dignity. He was the spiritual king of the Jews, to whom the most important leaders gladly subjected."

Graetz continues, saying that when Maimonides was 13 years old, the city of Cordova (where he was born and lived) was taken by the armies of the Moslem sect of the Almohade in May or June 1148, and that Almohade tried to exterminate Judaism inside Islam trying to force the Jews to withdraw Judaism and to adopt the Moslem religion. With this purpose, the Almohade issued Edicts that gave Jews the alternative of embracing Mohammed's religion, converting to Islam, or of dying, or at least of being expelled from the country. In view of that situation, Maimonides and his family had to apparently withdraw from Judaism and —according to Graetz's expression "to cover themselves with the mask of Islam", practicing the Moslem religion in public but keeping in secret their adherence to Judaism, as most Jews of the Moslem Spain and Northern Africa had to do, because they suffered the Almohade persecution.

Years later, when Moses Maimonides' family moved to Morocco, Moses, being already the great leader of clandestine Judaism, devoted himself to strengthening the Jewish convictions of the Israelites that had to live publicly as Moslems in North Africa, to prevent their Jewish faith from being weakened by the daily public practice of the Islamic religion (12). This practice continues among crypto-Jews who openly practice the different gentile religions, by the learned Rabbis of the underground Israelite communities.

Maimonides, as the Castilian Jewish Encyclopedia says: "wrote the 'Iggeretha-shemad' epistle on conversions, for his crypto-Jewish brothers, in which he encouraged them to be loyal to the religion of Israel (13). Maimonides, on the other hand, also tried to strengthen and give a greater moral justification to the practice of clandestine Judaism, against those Israelites who were too fanatically religious to be skillful politicians and criticized those who hid their Judaism and in public practiced a false religion.

In his famous epistle regarding apostasy, Maimonides recalled that saints and wise men such as Rabbi Meir and Rabbi Eleazar in ancient Rome had to pretend that they practiced Paganism and that the Jew that hid his adherence to Israel's people and religion and openly and falsely practiced Moslem or Christian religion, did not violate the rules of the Bible and Talmud, because when professing the Islamic faith, for example, "we only repeat a formula without real meaning . . ." "bound to deceive . . ." (14). And that although it was true that rules in the Bible and Talmud forbade idolatry "it was necessary to distinguish among the mere verbal transgression and those in fact" (15).

It is true that as Maimonides had recognized, several years earlier, that many Jews including leaders as important as Rabbi Meir and Rabbi Eleazar, had practiced Paganism in public, and that others later had pretended to practice Christianity or Islam. But this practice — more usual every time — had not prevented fanatic Jews who adhered too literally to the rules of the Bible and Talmud, from criticizing not only the hiding of the Jewish identity of Israelites, but also their practicing in public what they considered false religions. As centuries passed, nevertheless, the political and economic advantages to Judaism from the infiltration of Jews into the Christian Church and the Moslem Mosque, facilitating their task of domination of the nations, caused a decline in the opposition of the fanatics. But Moses Maimonides undoubtedly has the highest merit, and his example, his arguments and his great prestige, decisively influenced the Israelites to tolerate those of their members who were driven to adopt other religions. Thus, what on other occasions had developed as a forced resource to avoid persecution and save the life of Judaism, developed into a marvelous system that allowed the Israelite nation to create and extend a world hidden power that has allowed her to secretly conquer the nations using as auxiliaries such secret societies as Masonry, Illuminism, Carbonarism, sinarchy and other sects, or the political parties and all kinds of organizations secretly controlled by the clandestine Judaism without the gentiles in many cases can perceive it and not even suspect it.

As the Israelite historian Graetz says, Maimonides, with his great wisdom and ability, became the leader of world Judaism, and also of the clandestine Jews who openly practiced the Moslem religion. He oriented them and also the crypto-Jews living in the Moslem Spain, those of North Africa until Egypt and even those of the far lands of Arabia in the Yemen, where according to what Graetz says, the Yemeni Jews were forced "the same as their African and South Spain brothers, to pretend they converted to Mohammed's faith in 1172". And in view of the danger that the clandestine Jews of Yemen hesitated in view of the persecution, Maimonides sent a letter to them and took other steps to raise their moral against the Moslem oppression. (16).

Disguised as a pious Mohammedan and with the long Arab name of "Abu-Amran Musa ben Maimun Obaid Allah", Maimonides moved to Egypt, where at the same time that continued encouraging the world organization of Judaism, he successfully practiced medicine and could infiltrate in Sultan Saladin's court, getting the confidence of the Great Vizier Al-Fadel, who appointed Maimonides the physician of the Court. To this regard Graetz adds that "Encouraged by that example, other nobles that lived in Cairo required Maimonides and soon his time was so busy that he needed to neglect his studies".

All this gave Maimonides great influence in the Sultan's court, which used to obtain that the persecution to Jews, including those of Yemen, diminished. Everything was all right, until somebody denounced him as a clandestine Jew and apostate of the Islam, despite of the fact that he practiced the Moslem religion. These delicts were punished in Egypt and rest of the Islam in those days with death penalty; Maimonides was subjected to a trial that would have taken him to gibbet if his protector the Great Vizier Al-Fadel had not have saved him in a so risky situation. And Al-Fadel also recognized him with the title of Head (nagib) of all the Israelite communities of Egypt, to the amazement and indignation of the pious Moslems, who thought it was absurd that a clandestine Jew, apostate of Islam, instead of punishing him with death penalty he was rewarded as well as his Israelite fellow-companions. When Maimonides died on December 13, 1204, his son Abulmeni Abraham succeeded his father in the position of physician of the Caliph (17).

Clandestine Judaism in Yemen, Egypt and other Arab countries of North Africa for the same reason plays a very illustrious role in the history of the people of Israel.

Going back to the report of Chacham Israel Joseph Benjamin II, it is inferred that the Hebrews of Alessandria, although they had not in those days recovered the ancient splendor destroyed by St. Cyril when they were expelled, remained very strong at the middle of the past century. The cited Hebrew authority reports that there were two communities one of the Italian rite and another of the native rite, but led by only one Chacham. This was Rabbi Solomon Chasan. Chacham Israel Joseph Benjamin II also says that there were other two communities in Cairo, one of the Italian rite and another one of the native rite, the last one with six thousand families and the Italian with only two hundred. He also says that in 1846 the two communities sent to Jerusalem for a new Chacham because theirs had died. The illustrious Hebrew traveller continues his account of the situation of all the Jewish communities of North Africa, giving details on the number of families, internal officials of those communities, synagogues, places where the aristocratic circle of the Cohanim existed, and regions where Hebrews had positions in the Moslem government, indicating the case of the city of Susa where there was a crypto-Jewish Cadi (Arabian official) that was called Chogi among the Arabs and Isaac among the Hebrews (18). This is another example of the double name used by crypto-Jews: a Christian, Moslem, Brahman or Buddhist, according the religion they practice in public, and a Jewish one; to be used only in the secret of the clandestine Jewish organizations they belong to.

Talking about Algeria, Chacham Benjamin says that the French even paid the salaries of the Chachamin and the teachers, and that the Jews lived harmoniously with the French government in contrast with what occurred in the countries dominated by the Moslems, where according to what the active Jewish leader says, savagery reigned, including in the Arab provinces of the Ottoman Empire, as Syria.

In Lebanon the secret societies of clandestine Judaism were of two kinds: that grouping the crypto-Jews that publicly practice the Christian religion, and those who practice the Islamic religion. From the information we may infer that most belonged to families that live as Christians in public but who keep Judaism in the most absolute secret.

The Lebanese people are, like the Israelites, a nomad people. Most Lebanese have emigrated abroad and are grouped in each country in colonies with a certain internal organization. In this way, approximately two thirds of the Lebanese live abroad and only one third live in Lebanon Clandestine Lebanese Judaism has a special rite that in the nation of Israel is known as the LEBANESE RITE. Its members are infiltrated in the Lebanese colonies throughout the world and their activity in and outside Lebanon has been the sabotage and paralization of any effective Lebanese collaboration in the fight of the Arabs against the State of Israel, especially among Christian Lebanese, much more infiltrated than the Moslems of clandestine Judaism. In countries where the Lebanese colonies are highly infiltrated by Lebanese Jews covered with the mask of Christianity mainly, such false Lebanese (Jews in secret), have achieved the control of leading positions in the Lebanese clubs and associations, preventing any help to the Lebanese in their vital Arab struggle against the State of Israel and Zionism. In some cases these clandestine Jewish leaders from the Lebanese colonies have even reached the extreme of maintaining friendly relations with the Israeli colonies, to the astonishment of those who cannot understand how such a thing is possible while a state of martial law between the Arabs and Israel does not exist.

World Judaism intends to control the local and international Lebanese association in its own benefit, and it is urgent that the sincere Lebanese patriots do everything possible to free their valuable people from the infiltration and domination of their hidden enemies — the clandestine Jews of the Lebanese Rite. This is important not only for Lebanon but for the Arab cause in general. Besides, the Lebanese colonies established in different countries of the world, and their world association, are a great world force, that if they fall into the hands of the clandestine Judaism of the Lebanese Rite, it would be a catastrophe not only for the Lebanese but for all mankind.

Referring to the clandestine Judaism in Irak, we shall mention a very illustrative fact given by the Jewish Chacham Israel Joseph Benjamin II in the middle of last century in his aforementioned report. He says that there is a Mosque in Baghdad where the grave of the great Marabout Abd-el-Kader is, which is visited by Moslem peregrines, and he is a highly venerated saint in that city; and the aforementioned Jewish leader affirms that the Hebrew tradition says that "the Mosque was a Synagogue before", and that "the Marabout was nothing less than the famous Talmudist Joseph Hagueliti". (19)

The irony used by the distinguished Jewish Chacham speaks by itself. The Moslem Marabout are something similar to the saints in the Catholic Church or in the Greek Orthodox Church, so that the facts told by Chacham Benjamin would be equivalent in the Catholic world to the fact that the Jewish clandestine clergymen that presently invade and control the Catholic Church, shows that the Church consecrated as a saint a false Jewish Christian, a real enemy of Christ and of the Church, and that afterwards those Judas in cassocks built a temple to honor him. Beware, Catholics and Moslems against such infamous maneuvers.

In Christianity it is excessively demonstrated that the clandestine Jews, false professing the Christian religion, have been preferably dedicated, through the centuries, to activities of political domination and revolutionary agitation, and public Jews who openly practice their religion are mainly devoted to industry, commerce and to build up the gigantic economic power of world Israel. This has helped Judaism to hide its leading participation in its revolutionary movements.

RITUAL FAMILY BANQUET OF YEMEN JEWS OF THE MIDDLE CLASS.

Solemn ceremonies and rites have given and continue to give Judaism a great internal strength. They are of a synagogue or familiar character, according to if they are performed in the bosom of the Synagogue Fraternities or in the family. Ceremonies used to end with a Ritual Banquet in which every plate and every meal has a symbolic meaning. Masonic Banquets — like everything in Masonry — are mere copies of those celebrated in the secret of Judaism. For the gentiles to know about these RITUAL BANQUETS the Jewish books call them DINNER PARTIES, to hide the real meaning in Judaism.

Historical facts, nevertheless, have shown us that this has not been always an absolute rule and that in different occasions public Jews have participated in political and subversive activities, especially in some countries where they are either not many of them or their political collaboration is required; or the successes obtained by them make them be too confident and abandon all kinds of precautions. But these interferences were precisely what helped gentiles to become aware of the Jewish threat, specially when the Holy Inquisition was destroyed and the Christian world was left without an institution that allowed it to discover and destroy the revolutionary activities and the hidden domination developed by the underground Jews, who are apparently Christians.

We are sure that both in the Christian and Moslem worlds and in other religions, with a nationalist police, defending the people against the domination of the Jewish imperialism, that using efficient means to force the guilty to tell the truth taking advantage when it is possible of the Inquisition's experiences, it is possible to discover that the focus of treason to the motherland, of masonic or communist subversion, although they do not appear to be led by Jews identified as such, they are led by underground Jews who are apparently Christians, Moslems, or profess another religion, as in other centuries the Inquirers could discover that there were almost always clandestine Jews organizing the subversive movements against the Church and the Christian States. That is why it is so urgent that the nations of the world organize this kind of polices as soon as possible, as the only means of defending from the conquering action of the Jewish imperialism and its JEWISH TYPES FROM CAUCASUS.

Jewish authors say that the cradle of the Caucasie Hebrews was in Aturpakan, called Soviet Azerbaidjan today. They have spread into Georgia — Stalin's homeland — Turkey and especially in the Caucasus. Many of them are Moslem in public and Jews in secret, in Turkey.

fifth columns, either public or clandestine, that as long as they are not localized and totally destroyed, they will continue to destroy the peace of the nations, by provoking bloody and destroying wars and revolutions, and threatening all peoples with the most cruel conquest and slavery.

At end of this chapter I will mention what researchers on the Jewish problem, in the far land of Pakistan, tell us about the labor of conquest and subversion of the Israelites in the Islamic society. The Moslem Pakistani Misbahul Islam Faruqi, in a book published by himself, titled "The Jewish Conspiracy and the Muslim World" whose first edition appeared in Karachi, Pakistan in 1967, among other things he says the following, referring to the Jews infiltrated in the Islamic society:

"They do produce schisms and dissensions among the Muslim society. There are many a cult and groups who are supported, nurtured and employed by the Jewry to create confusion in the Islamic ranks".

... "One of the most favorite techniques of the Jews is to sow seeds of dissension and discord among the Muslim community through their hirelings and agents in the press, on the platform or pulpit. They raises hell of fire on trifles and unimportant, controversial issues of no consequence and try to incite the masses and confuse the intelligentsia for ulterior ends. Examples from past and present can be cited from various countries. Indeed, Jews have a special knack in the art of spreading falsehood and mischief. Their career from Prophet's (Mohammed) (20) day right up to the present time testifies to this truth. And how tragic if Muslims themselves fall prey to their tactics and become a plaything in their hands. Here in

(20) For a better understanding of our non Moslem readers, we put that word in parenthesis.

Pakistan a few so-called religious figures have made it their lifetime job, and they do not hesitate to coin and innovate newer and baser falsehoods against those who are dedicated to the ideal of the revival of Islam. They should be knowing that by attempting to weaken the forces of Islam in this country and placing hurdles in the way of Islamic movement they will only be serving the cause of Zionism. There can be nothing more dangerous to the interests of Zionism than a full-fledged Islamic movement aiming at establishing a truly Islamic order".

"The Zionist agents take advantage of the difference of opinion about a matter in a society or exploit various schools of thought in an established religion by magnifying the otherwise minor matters of details out of all proportion to confuse public mind. If existing sects and groups do not serve their purpose they develop newer ones and create dissensions to torpedo the unity of thought and action in a people. When such a situation arises Muslims should pause to think and try to peep behind the forces at work, instead of jumping at conclusions about persons and parties, and not be carried away in the Niagara of propaganda of an insidious enemy. It should be remembered that Jewish hands are long, their agents everywhere and Muslims, particularly, are their target". (21).

The Jewish techniques denounced by the illustrious Pakistani researcher are performed by the members of the Israelite fifth columns in the gentile nations, not only of Islam but also of Christianity and other religions, naturally adapted to the special circumstances of each country, as Jews are accustomed to do, especially as clandestine Jews.

CHAPTER III

JEWISH INTERVENTION IN ASIA AND AFRICA

HOW THE JEWISH SUPER-IMPERIALISM USED SOME EUROPEAN IMPERIALISMS AS TOOLS FOR THE EXPANSION OF ITS POWER IN ASIA AND AFRICA.

Now we will deal with a very serious problem, which is largely unknown nowadays, referring to the role Hebrews played in the intervention by the European powers in internal affairs of the Asian and African continents — in some cases limited to making or replacing governments, but in others, even to subjecting the Afro-Asian nations to vassalage, thus forming in the XVIII, XIX and early XX centuries, the great colonial empires.

Valuable information in this regard frequently appears in authoritative Israelite sources that we have been able to consult, which due to the brevity of this book, cannot be inserted in full. Thus, in the valuable report of Chacham Benjamin on Persia, he says that: "My coreligionaries in Persia repeatedly asked me to publish in Europe a description of their present condition". The ensuing report is extremely enlightening.

Regarding his visit to the city of Shiraz, the Israelite leader tells about a curious and instructive episode. He indicates that Moslems in Persia, in order to distinguish the Israelite women from the Mohammedans, forced the former to wear a black veil, while the latter wore a white veil. And after telling that there was a revolt in Iran in those days, he says: "One day my room was gradually full of women wearing white veils all of them who came to me. And as Jewish women are only allowed to wear black veils, to be distinguished from the others, this visit upset me, because I thought my home had been attacked by insurgents. I was calmed, nevertheless, when they made it clear that all of them belonged to families that had been forced to embrace the Islamic faith, but who in secret adhered to the faith of their ancestors. My visitors took off the veil and kissed my forehead and my hand". The pious Chacham continues, telling that the men who accompanied the women complained of the oppressive condition of the Israelites in Persia, and the Jewish leader told them something that is of capital importance: "Be patient, my brothers, and continue placing your confidence in God. Maybe the European monarchs, under whose protection your (European) brothers live happy, may be able to alleviate your disgraces, putting noble governors on the Persian throne" (22).

Which European monarchies could the active Jewish hierarch have referred here, in mentioning the possibility of their intervention in Iran in the selection of kings? Some facts indicate that he mainly referred to England, because of the following reasons:

1. In those times, although governments of the European monarchies, according to the confession of Dis-

(22) Israel Joseph Benjamin II. "Eight Years in Asia and Africa from 1846 to 1855". Hanover, 1861. pp. 230-256.

raeli and other Hebrew sources, were already undermined by Jewish or crypto-Jewish ministers — as the case of Mendizabal in Spain — the only monarchic state that had been completely conquered by the Jews was the British, which they had taken as their own since the 1830 revolution, in spite of the heroic resistance led by the patriotic Duke of Wellington.

II. It was England —already converted into a satellite of Judaism — who mainly interfered in Asia and Africa, placing and replacing governments.

III. The Chacham, in another part of his vast and valuable report says that when he arrived in any place the first thing he did was to visit the British consul, which is not strange, because although the Hebrews had by then already infiltrated the diplomatic services of other European monarchies, they could achieve their goals more effectively through the British consulates, considering that the British Empire, after it was conquered by the Jews, was converted into a satellite of Jewish Imperialism.

It is extremely common for English consuls and even ambassadors to be either public or clandestine Jews. The actions of these Jews and crypto-Jews gave British diplomacy a reputation for hypocrisy and perversity, quite contrary to the qualities of the real English people, who are generally a model of honesty. But in this diplomacy it can be seen the characteristic seal of the Jewish perfidy, about which the Fathers of the Church, the Popes and Councils have talked so much. It is not a mere coincidence that international opinion, in view of the perversity of British Jewish diplomats, has named England as "Perfidious Albion", a remarkable coincidence to the terms used by the Fathers, Councils and Popes when many centuries ago talked about the "Judaic Perfidy".

Other cases, although less serious, of European intervention against the Moslem states that heroically resisted all attempts of Jewish domination, are presented by the aforementioned Jewish Chacham indicating that in Aleppo, near to Damascus, there were about 1500 to 2000 Hebrew families living there "who enjoy great privileges under the protection of the European consuls, some of them of their own faith, because Rafael di Piechotti, the Russian consul, and Elias Piechotti, the general consul of Austria, have obtained certain influence on the Pacha, which is often used in the benefit of their brethren" (23).

One of the Hebraic tactics used in the Islamic countries, employing foreign nations to help the Jews against the Moslems, was to infiltrate Hebrews in the consulates of those nations. The foreign consulates then used all their diplomatic influence in favor of the Jewish exploiters to free them from the just reprisals of the native Moslems. We have a wide bibliography on this subject, providing information about this generalized Jewish infiltration not only in the consulates of the European powers, but also in those of Latin America. Regarding this, the philosemitic Angel Pulido says in his book "Spanish without Motherland" in 1905, that Solomon Levy Sephardite, consul of Venezuela in Oran reported to him: "Here in Oran there are above ten thousand Jews, one thousand natives and three thousand Spanish, that since the French conquest of this country have emigrated from Morocco". (24). If the information given by that consul is true, what a terrible proportion of Jews in the population of Oran.

It should not surprise that the foreign consulates in this difficult time for Islam served as patronizing offices for the intrigues of Jewish imperialism against the Moslems.

(23) Israel Joseph Benjamin II, pp. 69-70.

(24) Angel Pulido, "Spanish without Motherland". Madrid, 1905. p. 468.

The funny thing is that they not only used the consuls from European power nations against the Moslems, but also to support those internal quarrels that frequently appear in Judaism. The same author, referring to the Palestinian Jews, which was then an Ottoman province, says: "III.— Bouknhariotas, about 500. They and the Georgians, have attempted many times, with the support of the Russian consul, from where most of them come, to subtract to the jurisdiction of the Great Rabbi and be completely autonomous". (25).

He refers here to the Great Rabbi of the Jewish Community of Palestine, and to the Magribi rite of the Israelites born in Morocco, who had been subjected, apparently against their will. We have already explained that in many cities there are Jewish communities of different rites that are autonomous one from the other, but federated to the others in the Kelillah which serves as the Government or Municipal Jewish Council of Jews residing in a gentile nation, to which all the Jewish communities are subject and which are of course also subject to the higher hierarchies of Judaism. Generally the Hebrew communities of a gentile municipality live harmoniously, but sometimes there are quarrels that become difficult to deal with and these, naturally, are reflected in divisions in the gentile revolutionary organizations they control. When this happens, the higher authorities of Judaism interfere to reestablish unity and harmony.

Another instance of European intervention in favor of the Jews is told by the pro-semitic Spanish (possible Marrano) Angel Pulido, in his book "Spanish without Motherland" written in 1905, when he affirms that in Tunisia the indigenous Jews are subjected to the Arabic jurisprudence and that they suffer in some cases, but that "those

(25) Angel Pulido, p. 663.

protected by the European nations, enjoy perfect equality". (26)

A sad role was played by the European powers, whose governments were dominated or largely dominated by Jewish Masonry, and who were acting as blind instruments of Judaism to force the Afro-Asian peoples to unchain the Hebrew beast and facilitate its work of domination without the true Christians becoming aware of these powers or of what their Hebrew or masonic governors surreptitiously authorized.

We have to make it clear that Israelites, with their proverbial ingratitude, far from thanking the European monarchies for their help, they overthrew one after the other, as soon as they could, starting with the Portuguese, Russian, Austrian and the German, and continuing with the Spanish and others whose diplomacies had helped the Hebrews so much in Islamic lands.

Regarding the interference of Judaism to facilitate and consolidate the conquest of India by British Imperialism, the prestigious Israelite Indian leader and writer, Haeem S. Kehimker, President of the "Israelite School Committee" of Bombay in his 19th century book "A Sketch of the History of Beni-Israel....", gives very interesting information on how the Jews who had lived in India for at least sixteen centuries, helped England since the eighteenth century to extend and consolidate its domination of India, taking part as officers and commanders of the British controlled Indian regiments that helped to suppress the Hindi patriots during the campaigns of 1750 and through all those that during the 19th century served to crush the revolts of the Patriotic Hindus who sought to win independence for their country. The Indian clandestine Jews —Hindu in appearance but Jews in secret — served as bull dogs to subjugate the people that for so many centuries had granted them kind shelter, acting as spies to denounce the conspiracies of patriots and as leaders of the native police, that served the British Jews in their task to consolidate their domain on that great country. The aforementioned Israelite leader, in his call for help to International Judaism which appears in his aforementioned book, gives the names of military leaders — Beni-Israelites Indian Jews — that were outstanding for their valuable services in crushing the resistance of the Hindu patriots, giving a very detailed information which is really eloquent, stating that the Beni-Israel soldiers were more intelligent than the rest of the Hindus, and that there were Beni-Israel officers in all Anglo-Indian regiments and they also hay important positions in the British Viceroy's administration. He also mentions how they were used by the London government as officers of the Indian troops in expeditions led against Afghanistan, Persia, and even the famous expedition against Abyssinia in 1867 and 1868 (27).

(26) Angel Pulido, pp. 505-508.

Maybe this was one of the first interventions of Hindu crypto-Jews in Africa in modern times, leading Indian troops, to favor the plans of World Judaism, which in those times used the resources and qualities of the British people, already dominated by the Jewish-Masonry, as a docile instrument in the imperialist undertakings of the Israeli nation as it spread amongst and infiltrated all other nations in the world.

The fact was that the British interferences in Ethiopia favored the enthroning of the present Negus Hailie Selassie's dynasty of Jewish-Solomonic origin — according to the Castilian Jewish Encyclopedia — with the aid of Jewish advisers and technicians brought from Palestine and other places (28) whose ancestor Shoa, after a bloody civil war, took power thanks to the help of the Jewish British imperialism in 1889, under the name of Menelik II. Since then the negro Jews or "Falasha", natives of Abyssinia, and the aforementioned Jewish dynasty of a Solomonic origin, together tyrannized Ethiopia. It is worthwhile to note that only in this country and in Britain — where even the monarchy is now Judaized — the Masonic republican movements that Hebrews have organized in all the world do not appear until it is convenient for Judaism to change the way of government.

Going back to the Beni-Israel military in India, we can say that just as they at one time served to extend and consolidate the Jewish-British domination in India and other places of Asia and Africa, they are now helping Indira Gandhi and her Congress Party to control the Hindu armies and consolidate in India the domination of the native Jews, serving again as bull dogs in order to subjugate the native peoples who fight for their true independence.

Besides, the ancestral nomad temper of the Israelites has brought as a consequence that the secret sect of clandestine Jews Beni-Israel of India, as well as the also secret sects of the Indian Jews of Cochin have extended to other nations by means of a great migration. Thus the converted Israelites of India today comprise a powerful sector of World Judaism after the Ashkenazim and the Sephardites, the first of them native from Germany and the second from Spain and Portugal, and whose secret societies are spread throughout the world.

(28) "Castilian Jewish Encyclopedia". 4th vol. p. 232. 2nd. col.

Clandestine Indian Jews have invaded Asia and Africa, where as traders, bankers and businessmen they exploit, in different ways, the native population of those nations. Since they hide their Jewish identity and say they are natives from India (although in some cases it is true that true Indians do today live overseas in other countries) people only know them as Indian traders, bankers or businessmen, without realizing that they are part of one of the most dangerous and exploitative fifth columns that International Judaism has developed to dominate all other peoples.

In Africa they have invaded the nations ruled by negro governments, such as Uganda and Kenya, as well as the nations ruled by a white government, such as South Africa and Rhodesia.

In the negro nations they are taking over the wealth of the country and mercilessly exploit the negro population, many of them using British passports to have the protection of the British government in their infamous task of exploiting the people. They act as in other times did the Jews of different African and Asian countries who even adopted British, French or Spanish nationalities to obtain the protection of those governments in case the native population, becoming tired of so many exactions and exploitation, reacted against them. Others, nevertheless, have adopted the nationality of the places they exploit in order to seek assimilation, although only outwardly, for they remain Jews in secret covered with the mask of Indians. These are the most dangerous ones, because the nation invaded by this plague of false Indians may fall into the trap and think they should fight only those who have foreign passports without considering as dangerous those who have adopted the nationality of the country they have invaded, and which are more harmful and dangerous than those of a foreign nationality, because they are incrusted as a fifth column in the nation in whose territory they live and whose people they vilely exploit, and will try to dominate it with the help of the Super-Imperialism of Israel, either through the satellite imperialism of Moscow, Wall Street, or London, or through any other local or international power at their service.

In some places such as South and East Africa and Guyana, apart from the migration of clandestine Jews of India, another migration of authentic Indians took place, but while the latter are mainly poor workers, the clandestine Beni-Israelites are usually traders, usurers, businessmen and people of good position, who seek to control the authentic Indian emigrants, using them to provoke disturbances and problems in the country of their adoption whenever it suits their convenience. This secret Jewish sect has invaded even England, where many of the recent Indian emigrants are secretly Jewish, whose Israelite rulers were responsible for helping them to the invasion of many countries, in the world especially in Africa and Asia, and who refused to give independence to India until they could hand it over to Nehru and a Jewish controlled Congress Party. Nevertheless, it is necessary to repeat that there are many independent forces in India even inside the Congress Party, that should be adequately helped to save that great nation from the yoke of these terrible secret societies and their main instrument, which is Indira Gandhi herself.

Among the interesting episodes mentioned by the Indian Jew Kehimker, there is one about a Beni-Israel Hindu that pretendedly converted to Christianity, but who continued to be Jewish in secret. This was a certain Michael Sargon (29), who first pretended to be a Hindu, but later lift off that mask to take a Christian one, while continuing to be a Jew in secret. This and similar examples illustrates the way in which the Hebrews juggle with their pretended conversions, changing their external mask whenever it is convenient for them to do so. Here it could not be argued that they were forced to convert to Christianity, because in India the predominant religion is Hinduism, which, on the other hand, many Beni-Israeles externally practice with great piety, observing Judaism in the most absolute secret, in order to remain firmly infiltrated in the Indian nation as powerful and dominant fifth column. The result of the British domination of India destroyed the defenses of the former leaders of that nation against Judaism, making it possible for the Jews who controlled Britain and hand over India to Nehru and his gang of clandestine Beni-Israeles Jews while pretending to grant India its independence. The same has been done elsewhere, except where international circumstances forced British jewry to grant the independence to populations still not controlled by secret Jewish infiltrators. More interesting now is the fact that International Judaism is today seeking to destroy the power of England and the United States to open the door to Communist Imperialism led by the Jewish hidden power, and so to achieve the final goal of the great Hebrew revolution of modern times. So far they have not been able to convert the English and Americans to Judaic communism, because both peoples are accustomed to good life and free institutions.

AN INVITATION TO THE EUROPEAN COUNTRIES TO INTERFERE IN MOROCCO

In his extensive report presented to Western Judaism, Chacham pointed with the darkest colors the situation of

(29) Haeem Samuel Kehimker, p. 21.

Israelites in the Sultanate of Morocco at the middle of the 19th century, asking for the interference of the European powers in that kingdom. He said among other things, that the oppression of Jews in Morocco was worse than that in Persia, and that they were forced to use a Turkish cap to distinguish them from the Moslem population.

It can be seen that in all places in the world the people menaced by the political conquest of the Jews tried to alert the population against them, distinguishing them with a sign, such as a cap of a certain color, a dress, or the star of David, so that non-Jews might know them and guard against their intrigues and subversion. These defensive steps appear in both the Christian and Moslem worlds, reoccurring at widely different times, often separated by several centuries one from the other. We have already seen how Jewesses were forced in Persia to wear a black veil to distinguish them from the Islamic women and how they evaded this step by pretending conversion of themselves and their families to the Islam, thus entitling them to wear the white veil and to be confounded in consequence with the real Moslems.

Returning to the subject of Morocco, Israel Joseph Benjamin II declares that the situation of the Jews was terrible there, due to the fanaticism of the Arabs and their arbitrariness, saying that: "If an Arab enters a house, the Jew must address him humbly as if he were a prince. If he takes something he likes, there should not be heard the least gossip, for on the opposite the intruder would immediately take his knife and there is no judge not law to protect the despoiled or oppressed"... "If all the great European powers attempted to oppose this barbarity in those places near their influence, they would do much in their own benefit, in the benefit of science and in favor of the oppressed". (30).

(30) Israel Joseph Benjamin II, pp. 319-325.

This terrible invitation to Western Judaism, to whom this book is addressed, to persuade the European powers to interfere in Morocco, presents the Arabs as savages and criminals on the one hand and suggesting subtle arguments with which to induce the European powers to interfere. The story is repeated frequently in world history, for when the heroic Visigothic Empire constituted an obstacle to the Hebrew plans, the latter stimulated the Moslem ambition of domination and facilitated their invasion and conquest of Spain. Later on, when Moslems wanted to defend themselves against Jewish domination, the Jews favored the triumph of the Christian kings. And when, in the 14th century, Europe desperately fought to stop the domination of Jews and the subversive activity of their heresies, the Jews incited the Turkish to invade Europe, facilitating their conquests through the Jewish fifth columns which existed in all the Christian countries. Later on, when it was convenient for them to destroy the Turkish Empire, they turned the different European powers against the Turks, and for a time even favored Arab nationalism only to betray the Arabs later when they sought the conquest of Palestine and the establishment of Israel.

In the 18th and 19th centuries the Jews conquered the European monarchies from inside, achieving it better during the 19th century, using them to launch an attack on the Asian and African countries which the Hebrews had not yet succeeded in conquering by internal subversion. However, the Jewish fifth columns inside these Afro-Asian countries betrayed their hosts in favor of the colonial enterprises of the Jewish-manipulated Europeans, thereby subduing many states of Asia and Africa. They were then able to ensure, by different means, that the Israelite communities in such states were strengthened until they could dominate the peoples that had sheltered them. This also was often achieved with the support of the European empires, until the Jews and crypto-Jews could lead the Afro-Asian populations under the pretended banner of freedom in a demand for independence. As our reader will now realise, this was not to be a real freedom, for the independence movements were generally under the leadership of the secret Jews who sought to become national heroes and to become the absolute rulers of the "liberated" countries once they had been granted their independence from their European rulers. Their intention was that once the ancient colonies become independent of the western powers, they would be even more securely in the claws of the native Hebrews, or of the Jewish imperialism in the form of communist totalitarianism directed by the Jews of the Kremlin.

Fortunately in many countries of Africa and Asia this plan of pretended liberation of the colonies failed and they could not prevent real heroes of the independence from taking power once it was consummated. In other cases, once the Jewish agents of the British government left the power in the hands of native clandestine Jews, or agents of the Kremlin Israelites, a patriotic military coup swept the false redemptions away, establishing a truly patriot government in the liberated colony while the Jewish world press protested against the military coup, which had deprived Judaism of one of its possessions.

We exhort our readers probe deeper in this subject, and those who do, will themselves discover the decisive Jewish participation in most of the imperialist ventures of the Dutch, British and French imperialisms in Africa and Asia. The famous companies of the Eastern Indies and the companies of the West Indies were created in Holland mainly with Jewish money to economically exploit the colonies of the Dutch Empire, and similar companies were established in England and France to exploit the English and French conquests, mainly in the benefit of the Jewish capitalist monopolists, who in a secret agreement in the present century with the Jewish communist imperialists of Moscow have since approved the liquidation of the Dutch, English and French empires, when it was deemed convenient to the supreme interest of the Israelite imperialism to replace the partial and uncomplete domination represented by democratic capitalism by another more complete and absolute system of control — totalitarian communism — secretly led by the Jewish imperialists, using the clandestine Israelite communities which had infiltrated those countries as agents of domination following the supposed "liberation" of these lands.

In the former European colonies of Asia and Africa that become "independent" countries, a fierce fight takes place between the super secret societies of clandestine Judaism that has often lived in those countries for centuries, who fight to submit those countries to the yoke of the communist Jewish imperialism led from Moscow and the gentile civil and mainly military leaders who genuinely wish to defend the nations' independence and work for its prosperity. The worse part of the situation is that while the clandestine Jewish minority knows very well the enemy it faces and even may infiltrate the ranks of the true patriots with spies and saboteurs, the true patriots of these Afro-Asian nations seldom understand the nature of the hidden enemy who directs the communist and socialist movements supported by the Jewish leaders of the Soviet Union and their puppet, the paranoid Marrano tyrant who has enslaved the unfortunate Cuban people. Until these heroic Afro-Asian patriots can identify and destroy the secret force behind subversion, uprooting the clandestine Israelite communities that compose it, they will be unable to enjoy either peace or prosperity, and will eventually fall one after the other into the claws of the totalitarian Jewish communist imperialism which will subject them to slavery, as it has already subjected the unfortunate people of the Soviet Union, Eastern Europe and Cuba.

The worst problem facing the Asian and African nations, and in general all the underdeveloped countries, including those of Latin America, is that the Jewish Racist Imperialism holds them in the firm grasp of its pincers. One arm of the Jewish pincer is the capitalist Jewish imperialism of the International Monopolies, and the other arm is the Jewish communist imperialism directed from Moscow. The world Jewish super-imperialist pincer works with both arms in the following way:

1st. The Jewish capitalists, through trans-national enterprises such as the Jewish Banks and the Jewish international trading monopolies, buy at very low prices the raw materials of the under-developed nations and sell industrial products and technology at very high prices, provoking a bigger impoverishment every day. This sub-human exploitation of man by man enriches the Jewish owners of the exploiting monopolies.

2nd. The exploitation we have just mentioned, and the progressive impoverishment of the developing — or under-developed — nations serves the Jews who carry the false banner of Israelite communism to incite the oppressed people to rebellion against such exploitation, facilitating the control of the popular masses and the possibility of conducting them to a false "dictatorship of the proletariat" which would be, as in the Soviet Union, a Jewish dictatorship of the people resulting in their total enslavement. Capitalist exploitation of the developing countries and other abuses and crimes of the Jewish capitalist Imperialism, justly irritate many gentile nationalist rulers, who upon receiving support against capitalist imperialism on the part of the Jewish communist dictatorships, frequently fall in this skillful trick, even believing that there is no way to save their nations from the claws of the capitalist imperialism, except as allies of the Marxist socialist /dictatorships, without knowing that the Soviet Union and her satellite states (including Cuba) and the capitalist Jewish Imperialism and its agencies (including the United States and England) are mere pawns of a single secret super-imperialism, that uses this maneuver to persuade the nationalist rulers to fall into the trap, to start destroying barriers and defensive institutions, or to dictate other measures that also facilitate the progress of the communist Jewish revolution in other nations, and sometimes even in their own country, without becoming aware that through these and other steps (the result of their friendship with the Soviets and the Soviet satellites) they are increasing the world and local strength of communist Jewish imperialism, which is responsible for the state of oppression and slavery from which they cannot liberate themselves.

Those nationalist rulers should realise that Maoist China, Albania and Roumania are the only regimes in the communist field, that are independent at least until this moment — of both nefarious imperialisms, and that these states may yet be conquered by the Jews.

Judaism, by controlling both arms of the super-imperialist Israelite pincer, as we have just described, always wins!

It is evident that the only escape for the under-developed peoples from the dual forces which oppress them, is to cooperate so that they have the combined strength to efficiently defend their interests against both imperialisms; the capitalist and the communist. But Judaism, with its centuries of experience, takes precautions to prevent such defensive cooperation by infiltrating all fields, especially those its opponents may create to protect themselves. So we saw the Jewish emperor of Ethiopia, Haile Selassie, controlling the African Unity Organization to ensure its failure. The Indian government, led by Judaism, has similarly infiltrated and nefariously influences the so-called third world. And the Jew Josip Bross (a) Tito, the Yugoslavian dictator, plays a similar role in the manipulation of the third world. That is why nationalist gentile governments, seeking to be independent of both the capitalist and communist imperialisms, will not be able to form truly defensive organizations as long as they do not expell from their organizations all governments infiltrated by and consequently subject to either the Jewish capitalist imperialism, or the Israelite Kremlin imperialism, from whose domination and exploitation the under-developed peoples in the world must free themselves if they wish to overcome their present poverty and misery.

INTRODUCTION

The Library of Political Secrets now adds to its collection selected chapters from the book by the Hungarian researcher, Itsvan Bakony, entitled: "IMPERIALISM, COMMUNISM AND JUDAISM, THE THREE FORCES DOMINATING THE WORLD." The translation of the Hungarian original was completed in Paris in January 1969, and was later brought up to date by the author.

The only purpose of this edition is to make information available about the great political and historic events now taking place all over the world.

We urge patriots in all countries to distribute this book to as many people as possible. This book may be reprinted by those receiving it as the author has reserved no copyright on it.

CHAPTER I

THE JEWISH FIFTH COLUMN IN INDIA

Haeem Samuel Kehimker, who was chairman of the Israelite School Committee, in Bombay, at the end of last century, in his book entitled "A Sketch of the History of Beni-Israeles and an Appeal for their Education" states that the Indian Jews say they arrived in that country about sixteen or eighteen centuries ago. He further emphasizes the fact that these Hindi Hebrews have two circles: one for those descended directly from the original Jews and another for those descended from mixed marriages with gentiles. We also learn from his book that the pure Jews do not intermarry with those of mixed descent, but discriminate against them: "the distinction between the real descendants of Israel and those of foreign women was strictly observed by them according to the rules of Ezra and Nehemiah. And the former do not marry the latter".

In his valuable study, the chairman of the Israelite School Committee of Bombay also says that the latter group of Beni-Israel Jews, though centered on Bombay, had spread throughout the Indian sub-continent through the centuries. By marrying Hindus of different castes, they had acquired a racial type similar to that of the original population of the country. Kehimker's book also states that they changed their original Israelite surnames, adopting names of Hindi appearance, and gave different examples of such transformations.

The distinguished Israelite leader also describes the good services rendered by these Jews of India to the British Empire, helping the British to conquer India and to maintain the English domination there (1). We will give more information about this in the following chapter.

As readers must know, the caste regime was established in India by the Hindu religion thousands of years ago, so the members of one caste cannot marry either the members of another Hindu caste or foreigners. Undoubtedly this system made it difficult for the Jews to infiltrate Hindu society. But according to what Haeem Samuel Kehimker and other Israelite historians say about the Jews in India, the Israelites who emigrated to this great country sixteen or eighteen centuries ago not only penetrated into the different geographic regions of this enormous nation, but through mixed marriages with people of different castes, they were able to penetrate these castes and the entire structure of Indian society based upon these castes.

(1) Haeem Samuel Kehimker. (President of the Israelite School Committee of Bombay, India). "A Sketch of the History of Beni-Israeles and an Appeal for their Education". (Bombay editions, printed by the Education Society's Press). pp. 1-36.

This means that in India, as in other countries of the world, the Jews were able to evade the restrictions established by the caste regime, which would otherwise have made Hindi society impenetrable to Jewish infiltration.

We should have to consider that using money, through bribery, Jews could infiltrate the blood nobility in Europe, marrying Jewesses who had pretended conversion to Christianity, not only to barons, earls and dukes, but also to blood princes, thereby allowing them to infiltrate the gentile nobility and facilitate its fall. On different occasions they were also able to buy with large sums of money, or great services, titles of nobility from the Christian kings, thus increasing their infiltration in the aristocratic caste that once governed Europe. It is therefore not strange that they achieved something equivalent in India.

Kehimker states that the Beni-Israelites —as other Israelite communities in the world— have TWO CIRCLES, that is to say two organizations; one for the Jews of pure blood, the descendants of Israelites only, and another one for the descendants of Jews and gentile women, according to the racist rules of Ezra and Nehemiah contained in the Ancient Testament of the Bible. This racial discrimination against the Jews of impure blood mixed with blood of gentiles, is based upon the Jewish theory that the world is divided —by Israel's God, as explained in the Bible and the Talmud— into two castes; one composed of the Israelite people, which is the chosen people of God destined to dominate the world and to become the owner of all wealth, ruling over the rest of mankind; and another caste composed of all the remainder of mankind, called "gentiles" in Israelite terminology, who were created by Israel's God with a status similar to that of animals, and with a virtually animal nature, only to serve the people chosen by God.

That is why, according to the Jewish religion, based on the Rabbinical interpretation of the Bible and Talmud, the so-called DIVINE PLAN elaborated by Israel's God for the benefit of his chosen people, has as its main objective the domination of the Israelite people over the gentile nations, taking over their riches and enslaving their members. All this is to be done by the Jewish nation with God's help, for it is only the realization of HIS plan; that is to say, it is the fulfilment of God's purpose in creating the universe and mankind. Following this pattern, it is logical that the seniority and privileges were given only to the Israelite people, who are, according to the Bible and Talmud the blood descendants of Abraham and Israel (also called Jacob), so the Arabs, who descend from Abraham and Ismael, are discarded. For the same reason, those who descend only partially from Israel, and partially from the "gentile beasts", are only half Jews and share only partially in the privilege of dominating the world. That is why they are discriminated against, leaving them in an OUTER CIRCLE composed by Israelite communities with all the apparatus of the synagogue, but (whenever possible) secretly controlled by the INNER CIRCLE of Jews that claim to be of pure blood. Nevertheless, it is necessary to clarify that although some Jewish communities of Africa and Asia during the last century still practiced this discrimination in a barefaced way openly discriminating against the Jews of blood mixed with the gentile beasts, the general rule today is that the Israelites integrated in the official Jewish communities of the outer circle only know the existence of these, believing that they are the sole representatives of the Israeli nation spread throughout the world, as Jewish circles of pretendedly pure blood are ultrasecret and their existence is hidden from those Jews of stained blood, so that they are not offended by the discrimination and do not revolt against the inner circle. But the pure blooded Israelites organized in the inner circles do not marry — as Kehimker says — the hybrid Jews.

The existence of these two distinct circles inside Judaism (and in some countries there is even an ultra-aristocratic circle of "Cohanim", this is to say of the descendants of the ancient Israelite priests), does not benefit the Gentiles, because the Jews of stained blood —half Jewish and half gentile— are also extensively integrated in the totalitarian political, religious and social structure of the Israeli nation, and due to their predominant numbers they are the most dangerous force at the service of Jewish Imperialism. Besides, in the communities and synagogues in which they are integrated, there exists a legal equality of rights between Jews of pure blood and those of hybrid blood. The laws which govern these institutions do not discriminate between the two. Discrimination is effected in a secret and clandestine way, at least among the western Jews. Those Israelites that claim to be of pure blood, proving this with genealogies that start a thousand or even two thousand years ago, periodically assemble in separate, secret circles. Within the relatively democratic organization of official Judaism, these secret aristocrats control the circle in which they are hidden by acting in secret unison, in order to secure the key leading positions in those communities and in the synagogues or synagogal fraternities that compose them. I say in many cases, because it is evident that there are countries where apparently there are no Jews that can prove pure blood, and also where there is no serious evidence that such secret aristocratic circles exist.

Regarding the native Beni-Israel Jews of India, the aforementioned Jewish leader Haeem Samuel Kehimker says that: "besides the indianization of their names, which we already mentioned, for the purpose of removing from the natives minds even the least trace of suspicion about their (Jewish) identity the Beni-Israeles adopted Hindi surnames and use these Hindi surnames in dealing with the people, retaining their Biblical names only for the occasion of their rites and ceremonies"(2).

For the same reasons, this secret sect of Beni-Israel Jews in India has followed the same tactics that the Jewish sects infiltrated in Christianity and Islam have followed for centuries: penetrate all social sectors, including the aristocracy, by means of mixed marriages; and create by intermarriage (and perhaps partially also by climate and diet) a network of Jewish families that have a racial appearance similar to that of the native gentile population, who will then falsely believe that the clandestine Jewish families are a part of the aboriginal population, ignorant of the fact that these Jewish families are a secret fifth column for the invasion of a foreign nation, that is to say the Israelite nation. While they use the names and surnames of the country, profess the gentile religion or religions reigning in that country, and adopt all the external customs practiced by the unfortunate people they have infiltrated, they strive to dominate and enslave by means of a socialist totalitarian dictatorship the gentiles amongst whom they live, to fulfill the pretended divine plan approved by Israel's God, still accepted by religious Jews, or to satisfy the creed of Jewish racial superiority to which both atheistic and also pantheistic Jews fanatically subscribe.

But in addition to the secret sect of the Beni-Israeles that is organized in a special rite with the same name and spread through all India with headquarters in Bombay, there are two other sects, whose founders lived in Cochin for centuries, but who are now to be found also in other places in India. One is the sect of the so-called "white Jews" of Cochin and the other one of the so-called "black-Jews" of Cochin.

The first one has its special rite and same thing happens with that of the black Jews. There have been serious problems, nevertheless, between the sects because of the discrimination of the white Jews against the black Jews of Cochin, who are also discriminated against by the Beni-Israeles. Both the communities and congregations of the white Jews of Cochin and those of the Beni-Israeles, forbid marriages of their members with the black Jews of Cochin, thus proving the fierce racism of the Jewish imperialists even among the Israelites themselves.

The Jewish leader Israel Joseph Benjamin II, Chacham of Israel, referring to the black Jews of Cochin and the racial discrimination against them says as follows: "They are real Jews, very religious and well informed". And about their origin, he says that the most acceptable hypothesis is that they descend from Israelite immigrants who came from Baghdad, Bassora, Yemen and other places, as bachelors, they bought negro slaves with whom they married. The respected author Chacham states that these Israelites lived mainly in those parts of India ruled by Europeans and that: "Negro Jews suffer because of their color. Just as most Jews of Baghdad avoid any connection with the Beni-Israeles, so white Jews reject any connection with their negro brethren". Going further, I. J. Benjamin II, quotes an interesting piece of information contained in "Ritter's Erdkunde" vol. 5, book 2, Asia, page 599: "White Jews regard the negroes as an inferior and impure caste", and he comments later: "I have news in general that other Jews are more sympathetic for the Beni-Israeles than for their negro coreligionaries, because they are concerned by their poverty and frequently have great trade business with them. Negro Jews of Cochin rejoice when they are recognized as brothers in the faith and they are very hospitable". . . (3)

In the works of the outstanding Jewish authorities just mentioned, which were prepared for the internal use of the Jewish leaders, the inexorable racism of Hebrews is openly discussed, although the Jews attempt to deny this racism in books written for the gentile people. This kind of discrimination of the purest race against those of impure lineage, although generally hidden in order to avoid annoying the hybrids, in occasions such as those mentioned before, appears in a bare manner, and then provokes a natural disagreement between the discriminators and the discriminated. This occurs so frequently in the complex structure of israelite society that even the two racial lineages that come from Europe, the most cult and powerful in the world, the Sephardites, natives of Spain and the Azhkenazim, natives of Central Europe (mainly of Germany) have had serious difficulties for this reason, for the former believe they are superior to the others, and very frequently have reached the point of forbidding marriages between Sephardites and Azhkenazim, with the consequent indignation of the latter.

Nevertheless, it is a proven fact that despite such family quarrels, all Jews of pure or impure blood work together, fanaticized by their hatred of the rest of mankind and by their ambitions for universal domination in the struggle for conquest of other nations. The official encyclopedias of Judaism, and all the Jewish books published and put in public libraries, since they can be read by gentiles, systematically hide the secrets of Jewish Imperialism, that is to say, all those things that if they known to gentiles would allow them to discover their hidden enemy with all its peril. And it is natural that Israelites take these precautions. When referring to the number of Jews in each country, they always reduce the total figure, often enormously, so that gentile readers will believe that Jews living in their country are a small peaceful and unoffensive minority that presents no danger. Gentile readers of those Jewish encyclopedias and books published, should avoid being mislead by the misinformation deliberately published for that purpose. On the other hand, Israelite readers of these books are not confused, because they know all these tricks and understand the technique by which those matters Judaism is interested in hiding or minimizing are concealed. Any Jew who wish to know the truth on matters hidden from the gentile public, may study these in the internal secret books of Judaism, which kept clandestinity and never given publicity. Nevertheless, both the official Jewish encyclopedias and some Israelite books published, despite of all these precautions intended to misorient the gentile readers, contain very valuable data that may be used to clarify the truth.

The "Jewish Encyclopedia" and the "Castilian Jewish Encyclopedia" in the small section devoted to the Jews of India, states that the Beni-Israeles Jews (whose numbers they try to minimize), extended to Bengal, Malabar, Burma and the British colony of Aden in Arabia, and that until relatively recent times, Beni-Israeles or Bene-Israeles, as called by the "Castilian Jewish Encyclopedia", were dedicated to the cultivation of the land and the manual tasks especially as oil millers. But "during the 19th century many of them joined the armed forces of the Company of the Eastern Indies and those of the British Government where they frequently were elevated to the highest ranks permitted to indigenous soldiers. Musayi Israel, a Jewish officer decorated with the Order of the British Empire, GAVE THE ENGLISH COMMAND THE FIRST INFORMATION ON THE GREAT REVOLT OF 1857" (4)

In this way, the British imperialist enterprise called the "East India Company" controlled by British Jews and crypto-Jews, and dedicated to the economic exploitation of the Indian sub-continent, admitted the Beni-Israeles Jews to the highest ranks allowed to natives in its army, and also used them as spies who betrayed their adopted motherland, India, in the benefit of the conquerors, as occurred with that army's officer Musayi Israel, who denounced the conspiracy of the Indian patriots in 1857 to the British command.

This conspiracy attempted to obtain the independence of Hindu India, freeing it from the British domination. But we will go further on this serious matter in the next chapter.

In addition to the work specified before, the "Castilian Jewish Encyclopedia" says that the Beni-Israeles support themselves as government officials, judges, members of the courts of justice, workers, artisans, engineers, lawyers, school teachers, traders, and to a less extent as industrialists.

It also says that the Beni-Israeles are of dark skin and that for their features they seem to be more Hindi than Semite. But, nevertheless, they proudly claim the purest Israelite blood, although they do not eat cattle meat, undoubtedly to avoid provoking hostile reactions among the Hindus whose religion forbids the eating of cattle meat.

The "Jewish Encyclopedia" says that some names used by the Beni-Israeles are "Hindi modifications of the original Hebrew form". Then Ezequiel turned into Hassayi; Benjamin in Benayi; Abraham in Abajee, Samuel in Samajee; Elia in Ellojee; Isaac in Essajee; Joseph in Essoobjee; David in Dawoodjee; Jacob in Akhoofiee; Moses in Moosajee, etc. It also states that the surnames the Beni-Israeles ostensibly use are sometimes derived from the name of the place of origin of the bearer, finishing in Kar or Ker, like Kehimker, for those who were born in Kehim, Penker for those original of Pen, Divekar, Cheulkar, etc., and that the Beni-Israeles have produced distinguished writers and journalists (5).

LORD READING, BRITISH JEW: VICEROY OF INDIA.

Lord Reading's true Jewish name was Rufus Daniel Isaacs. Born in London in 1860, the son of a fruit-trader, who became adviser to Queen Victoria. In 1913 he was appointed chairman of the highest Court of England. In 1917 he was awarded a title of nobility as Earl. In 1921 he was appointed Viceroy of India. After holding that high position for five years and as a reward for his services to Jewish-controlled British imperialism, he was awarded the title of Marquis of Reading, to be inherited by his successors.

Information taken from S. Jackson. "Rufus Isaacs. First Marquis of Reading". London edition 1936; C.J.C. Street. "Lord Reading", 1928 edition and the biography written by his son, the second Marquis of Reading, Gerald Rufus Isaacs. London, 1940.

(Editor's note: It was no accident that the last "British" Viceroy of India, Lord Louis Mountbatten, was a Jew —descended from the Jewish Battenburg family— and that his wife, Lady Louis Mountbatten, was a pure Jewess of the Jewish banking family of the Cassells).

Jewish historians state that the Beni-Israeles, although spread throughout India, diluted among the population of India, and confounded with it, are most heavily concentrated in Bombay, and it is a coincidence that it is in this city that the Congress Party led by Indira Gandhi has more partisans. Bombay is the stronghold of the Beni-Israeles Jews and also the fortress of Nehru's party, now led by his daughter. It is because the clandestine Beni-Israel Jews control that party, and the present army of India, that the resources of America have been pillaged under the regimes of the clandestine Jews Harry Solomon Truman and D. David Eisenhower to support Nehru's regime with thousands of millions dollars, while it is in reality an instrument of Moscow Jews designed to enable them to control the neutralist nations in a way that benefits Israelite imperialism.

Besides, it is well known that the Jews who are governing England and are now liquidating the British Empire did not give independence to India until they could put Nehru and his Congress Party in power, so that India became a direct colony of the Jewish imperialism instead of an indirect colony of Jewish imperialism through membership of the British Empire. The Jewish imperialists are changing it into a new satellite imperialism that intends to annex the Moslem Bengalis, that is to say Eastern Pakistan or Bangladesh, or at least to turn it into a satellite state ruled by the clandestine Jews who live there under the patronage of the new Jewish imperialism of New Delhi; strengthening the belt of the Israelite Imperialism that is trying to strangle Maoist China, mainly for the benefit of the Soviet Jews of the Kremlin.

But going back to the matter of the Congress Party in India, it is necessary to remember that as with all Jews of India emigrated to Singapore and other places of Asia and Africa, and in Singapore became diluted among the Malayans. Other Jews arrived in Singapore from Baghdad and Europe, mainly from England. The Jews of Singapore were, as in other places, the strongest supporters of British Imperialism. political parties of a pretended democratic nature founded by the crypto-Israelites, Jews are forced to give leading positions to Gentile puppets so that the parties have wide political influence. These Gentile leaders, taking advantage of the democratic structure of the Party, many even dispute against the Beni-Israeles for control over the party, with the leader or the gang leading it even without realizing that clandestine Jews control the real power.

Nehru would have taken India to a socialist dictatorship in Jewish hands if the tenacious opposition of the Gentile leaders in the Congress Party had not disputed the control of the Party by Indira Gandhi after Nehru's death. Those Gentile leaders, many of them former heroes of the Indian independence movement, displeased with Mrs. Gandhi's leadership for different reasons, have revolted against that leadership thus creating a continuous fight between Ghandi and her Jewish team and the Gentile Indian patriot leaders of the Congress Party. On the result of this struggle depends the future of this immense country, which will get its independence if the patriots succeed in eliminating Gandhi and her gang of clandestine Jews or it will fall under the control of the Israeli Super-Imperialism if Mrs. Gandhi and her Judaic Mafia succeed.

In the event that international Judaism can make Bangladesh into a satellite of India, Bengali clandestine Jews —either covered with the mask of Islam or any other— will have to dispute power there with the gentile Moslem leaders who have influence in that region, and the future of Moslem Bengal will depend on the result of that struggle.

The "Jewish Encyclopedia" says that it is a difficult task to determine the percentage of Jewish blood in the Beni-israeles. However, it states that they boast of the purity of their Israelite blood, and says: "But in this, they are similar to the (native) Jews of China, who appear to have maintained the purity of their descent almost until our day. (6). Other Israelite historians, nevertheless, think that the Chinese features of the Tiao-Kiu-Kiaou Jews, which makes them indistinguishable from the rest of Chinese, is due not only to the influence of climate and diet over two thousand years, but also to frequent mixed marriages celebrated before our days".

With regard to subsequent immigrations of Jews into India, the first European Jews arrived in the Portuguese colonies mostly as crypto-Jews, that is to say, as clandestine Jews, pretending Christianity. The abundance of clandestine Portuguese Jews seem to have been one of the reasons for the establishment of the Inquisition in Goa in 1561. Between 1561 and 1623, the Goa Inquisition condemned 3,800 persons, many for secretly adhering to Judaism. Some clandestine Portuguese Jews reportedly joined the Cochin community. These Portuguese Jews were largely engaged in the import and export trade, and in banking: "Having all the characteristics of the colonial magnates with their virtues and vices".(7)

The "Castilian Jewish Encyclopedia" mentions the emigration of Dutch and English Jews of a Sephardic origin and their commercial activities. These Jewish traders united with the East India Company whose capital, as I mentioned, was mainly Israelite, were able to break the Portuguese monopoly of precious stones.

(6) "Jewish Encyclopedia". 3rd. vol. Word: Beni-Israel. p. 21, 2nd. col.

(7) "Castilian Jewish Encyclopedia". 5th. vol. Word India. pp. 612-613.

In the 17th century, Jews from Baghdad also arrived in India. They were dedicated to commerce, and combined with Israelites coming from other Arabian countries as well as from Afghanistan and Persia, to become one of the most important Israeli communities in India. These Baghdadi Jews brought their Arab language to India and comprised very rich families, but according to the "Castilian Jewish Encyclopedia" did not play such a leading role under the British vice-regal regime as did the English Jews. British Jews even became viceroys of India, high commissioners, and high officials in the India Office in London, etc. Nevertheless, the Arab Jews also played important roles as for example, the Indian Jew of Arab rite, Sir Phillip Sassoon, who was a member of several English governments in India, and the lawyer of the same Israeli community called Solomon Judah, who wrote the "Indies Companies Act". The "Jewish Encyclopedia" ends by confirming an already known fact (which when published in an official book of Judaism of unquestionable authority has even greater value as evidence) that the money earned by these rich Jews coming from Baghdad: "both in Calcutta and Rangoon, Burma, came from the opium traffic between India and China" (8). In fact, it is well known that the British Jews, the Indian Jews and other Israeli monopolist magnates controlled the nineteenth century opium traffic with China, and that when the Chinese government wanted to prevent this criminal commerce, in the interests of the Chinese people, the Jews that controlled the British government forced Britain into a war against China which was as criminal as the opium traffic itself. This war has been fairly called the "opium war", and was a disgrace to the British people, although it is evident that the true British people and native members of the United Kingdom had little responsibility for the criminal acts of their Jewish and crypto-Jewish rulers other than in permitting them to remain in power, due to the systematic brain washing and manipulation by the Jews of the mass media, the centers of education and by the Protestant and Catholic churches controlled by crypto-Jewish clergymen, and presently by the control Judaism has over the radio and television, and other tentacles of the hidden Israelite power. Such is the power of Judaism in Britain and the United States that both nations have become the incorrigible satellites and colonies of Jewish imperialism, with its illusory pretensions of democracy, to the great misfortune of these countries and also of the rest of mankind.

Jews from other countries also migrated to India, but in the interest of brevity, let it be sufficient to say that with the exception of the Soviet Union, where the Jews have imposed an absolute dictatorship, the United States and Britain —all of which are Israelite colonies— India is, among the big nations, the country in which Judaism has its strongest domain, because of the political, military and economic control that Jews of different rites have over the country. That is why we believe that it is important that India, as a colony of Jewish imperialism, should recover its real independence. This is possible only if Indian patriots receive adequate help from abroad to overthrow the present government, which, as a puppet of Judaism, in addition to the help of Israelites that rule and tyrannize the Soviet Union, can always count on the support of Jews in the United States and Britain.

In the next chapter we will study how the clandestine

Beni-Israeles Jews, the more important Israelite community in India, served British Jewish imperialists as its main tools for the subjugation of the inhabitants of this immense country. (9).

CHAPTER II

JEWISH INTERVENTION IN ASIA AND AFRICA

HOW THE JEWISH SUPER-IMPERIALISM USED SOME EUROPEAN IMPERIALISMS AS TOOLS FOR THE EXPANSION OF ITS POWER IN ASIA AND AFRICA.

Now we will deal with a very serious problem, which is largely unknown nowadays, referring to the role Hebrews played in the intervention by the European powers in internal affairs of the Asian and African continents — in some cases limited to making or replacing governments, but in others, even to subjecting the Afro-Asian nations to vassalage, thus forming in the XVIII, XIX and early XX centuries, the great colonial empires.

Valuable information in this regard frequently appears in authoritative Israelite sources that we have been able to consult, which due to the brevity of this book, cannot be inserted in full. Thus, in the valuable report of Chacham Benjamin on Persia, he says that: "My coreligionaries in Persia repeatedly asked me to publish in Europe a description of their present condition". The ensuing report is extremely enlightening.

Regarding his visit to the city of Shiraz, the Israelite leader tells about a curious and instructive episode. He indicates that Moslems in Persia, in order to distinguish the Israelite women from the Mohammedans, forced the former to wear a black veil, while the latter wore a white veil. And after telling that there was a revolt in Iran in those days, he says: "One day my room was gradually full of women wearing white veils all of them who came to me. And as Jewish women are only allowed to wear black veils, to be distinguished from the others, this visit upset me, because I thought my home had been attacked by insurgents. I was calmed, nevertheless, when they made it clear that all of them belonged to families that had been forced to embrace the Islamic faith, but who in secret adhered to the faith of their ancestors. My visitors took off the veil and kissed my forehead and my hand". The pious Chacham continues, telling that the men who accompanied the women complained of the oppressive condition of the Israelites in Persia, and the Jewish leader told them something that is of capital importance: "Be patient, my brothers, and continue placing your confidence in God. Maybe the European monarchs, under whose protection your (European) brothers live happy, may be able to alleviate your disgraces, putting noble governors on the Persian throne". (10)

Which European monarchies could the active Jewish hierarch have referred here, in mentioning the possibility of their intervention in Iran in the selection of kings? Some facts indicate that he mainly referred to England, because of the following reasons:

1. In those times, although governments of the European monarchies, according to the confession of Dis-

(10) Israel Joseph Benjamin II. "Eight Years in Asia and Africa from 1846 to 1855". Hanover, 1861. pp. 230-256.

raeli and other Hebrew sources, were already undermined by Jewish or crypto-Jewish ministers — as the case of Mendizabal in Spain — the only monarchic state that had been completely conquered by the Jews was the British, which they had taken as their own since the 1830 revolution, in spite of the heroic resistance led by the patriotic Duke of Wellington.

II. It was England —already converted into a satellite of Judaism — who mainly interfered in Asia and Africa, placing and replacing governments.

III. The Chacham, in another part of his vast and valuable report says that when he arrived in any place the first thing he did was to visit the British consul, which is not strange, because although the Hebrews had by then already infiltrated the diplomatic services of other European monarchies, they could achieve their goals more effectively through the British consulates, considering that the British Empire, after it was conquered by the Jews, was converted into a satellite of Jewish Imperialism.

It is extremely common for English consuls and even ambassadors to be either public or clandestine Jews. The actions of these Jews and crypto-Jews gave British diplomacy a reputation for hypocrisy and perversity, quite contrary to the qualities of the real English people, who are generally a model of honesty. But in this diplomacy it can be seen the characteristic seal of the Jewish perfidy, about which the Fathers of the Church, the Popes and Councils have talked so much. It is not a mere coincidence that international opinion, in view of the perversity of British Jewish diplomats, has named England as "Perfidous Albion", a remarkable coincidence to the terms used by the Fathers, Councils and Popes when many centuries ago talked about the "Judaic Perfidy".

Other cases, although less serious, of European intervention against the Moslem states that heroically resisted all attempts of Jewish domination, are presented by the aforementioned Jewish Chacham indicating that in Aleppo, near to Damascus, there were about 1500 to 2000 Hebrew families living there "who enjoy great privileges under the protection of the European consuls, some of them of their own faith, because Rafael di Piechotti, the Russian consul, and Elias Piechotti, the general consul of Austria, have obtained certain influence on the Pacha, which is often used in the benefit of their brethren" (11).

One of the Hebraic tactics used in the Islamic countries, employing foreign nations to help the Jews against the Moslems, was to infiltrate Hebrews in the consulates of those nations. The foreign consulates then used all their diplomatic influence in favor of the Jewish exploiters to free them from the just reprisals of the native Moslems. We have a wide bibliography on this subject, providing information about this generalized Jewish infiltration not only in the consulates of the European powers, but also in those of Latin America. Regarding this, the philosemitic Angel Pulido says in his book "Spanish without Motherland" in 1905, that Solomon Levy Sephardite, consul of Venezuela in Oran reported to him: "Here in Oran there are above ten thousand Jews, one thousand natives and three thousand Spanish, that since the French conquest of this country have emigrated from Morocco". (12). If the information given by that consul is true, what a terrible proportion of Jews in the population of Oran.

It should not surprise that the foreign consulates in this difficult time for Islam served as patronizing offices for the intrigues of Jewish imperialism against the Moslems.

(11) Israel Joseph Benjamin II, pp. 69-70.

(12) Angel Pulido, "Spanish without Motherland". Madrid, 1905 p. 468.

The funny thing is that they not only used the consuls from European power nations against the Moslems, but also to support those internal quarrels that frequently appear in Judaism. The same author, referring to the Palestinian Jews, which was then an Ottoman province, says: "III.— Bouknhariotas, about 500. They and the Georgians, have attempted many times, with the support of the Russian consul, from where most of them come, to subtract to the jurisdiction of the Great Rabbi and be completely autonomous". (13).

He refers here to the Great Rabbi of the Jewish Community of Palestine, and to the Magribi rite of the Israelites born in Morocco, who had been subjected, apparently against their will. We have already explained that in many cities there are Jewish communities of different rites that are autonomous one from the other, but federated to the others in the Kelillah which serves as the Government or Municipal Jewish Council of Jews residing in a gentile nation, to which all the Jewish communities are subject and which are of course also subject to the higher hierarchies of Judaism. Generally the Hebrew communities of a gentile municipality live harmoniously, but sometimes there are quarrels that become difficult to deal with and these, naturally, are reflected in divisions in the gentile revolutionary organizations they control. When this happens, the higher authorities of Judaism interfere to reestablish unity and harmony.

Another instance of European intervention in favor of the Jews is told by the pro-semitic Spanish (possible Marrano) Angel Pulido, in his book "Spanish without Motherland" written in 1905, when he affirms that in Tunisia the indigenous Jews are subjected to the Arabic jurisprudence and that they suffer in some cases, but that "those protected by the European nations, enjoy perfect equality". (14).

A sad role was played by the European powers, whose governments were dominated or largely dominated by Jewish Masonry, and who were acting as blind instruments of Judaism to force the Afro-Asian peoples to unchain the Hebrew beast and facilitate its work of domination without the true Christians becoming aware of these powers or of what their Hebrew or masonic governors surreptitiously authorized.

We have to make it clear that Israelites, with their proverbial ingratitude, far from thanking the European monarchies for their help, they overthrew one after the other, as soon as they could, starting with the Portuguese, Russian, Austrian and the German, and continuing with the Spanish and others whose diplomacies had helped the Hebrews so much in Islamic lands.

Regarding the interference of Judaism to facilitate and consolidate the conquest of India by British Imperialism, the prestigious Israelite Indian leader and writer, Haeem S. Kehimker, President of the "Israelite School Committee" of Bombay in his 19th century book "A Sketch of the History of Beni-Israel....", gives very interesting information on how the Jews who had lived in India for at least sixteen centuries, helped England since the eighteenth century to extend and consolidate its domination of India, taking part as officers and commanders of the British controlled Indian regiments that helped to suppress the Hindi patriots during the campaigns of 1750 and through all those that during the 19th century served to crush the revolts of the Patriotic Hindus who sought to win independence for their country. The Indian clandestine Jews —Hindu in appearance but Jews in secret — served as bull dogs to subjugate the people that for so many centuries had granted them kind shelter, acting as spies to denounce the conspiracies of patriots and as leaders of the native police, that served the British Jews in their task to consolidate their domain on that great country. The aforementioned Israelite leader, in his call for help to International Judaism which appears in his aforementioned book, gives the names of military leaders — Beni-Israelites Indian Jews — that were outstanding for their valuable services in crushing the resistance of the Hindu patriots, giving a very detailed information which is really eloquent, stating that the Beni-Israel soldiers were more intelligent than the rest of the Hindus, and that there were Beni-Israel officers in all Anglo-Indian regiments and they also hay important positions in the British Viceroy's administration. He also mentions how they were used by the London government as officers of the Indian troops in expeditions led against Afghanistan, Persia, and even the famous expedition against Abyssinia in 1867 and 1868 (15).

Maybe this was one of the first interventions of Hindu crypto-Jews in Africa in modern times, leading Indian troops, to favor the plans of World Judaism, which in those times used the resources and qualities of the British people, already dominated by the Jewish-Masonry, as a docile instrument in the imperialist undertakings of the Israeli nation as it spread amongst and infiltrated all other nations in the world.

The fact was that the British interferences in Ethiopia favored the enthroning of the present Negus Hailie Selassie's dynasty of Jewish-Solomonic origin — according to the Castilian Jewish Encyclopedia — with the aid of Jewish advisers and technicians brought from Palestine and other places (16) whose ancestor Shoa, after a bloody civil war, took power thanks to the help of the Jewish British imperialism in 1889, under the name of Menelik II. Since then the negro Jews or "Falasha", natives of Abyssinia, and the aforementioned Jewish dynasty of a Solomonic origin, together tyrannized Ethiopia. It is worth while to note that only in this country and in Britain — where even the monarchy is now Judaized — the Masonic republican movements that Hebrews have organized in all the world do not appear until it is convenient for Judaism to change the way of government.

Going back to the Beni-Israel military in India, we can say that just as they at one time served to extend and consolidate the Jewish-British domination in India and other places of Asia and Africa, they are now helping Indira Gandhi and her Congress Party to control the Hindu armies and consolidate in India the domination of the native Jews, serving again as bull dogs in order to subjugate the native peoples who fight for their true independence.

Besides, the ancestral nomad temper of the Israelites has brought as a consequence that the secret sect of clandestine Jews Beni-Israel of India, as well as the also secret sects of the Indian Jews of Cochin have extended to other nations by means of a great migration. Thus the converted Israelites of India today comprise a powerful sector of World Judaism after the Ashkenazim and the Sephardites, the first of them native from Germany and the second from Spain and Portugal, and whose secret societies are spread throughout the world.

(16) "Castilian Jewish Encyclopedia". 4th vol. p. 232. 2nd. col.

Clandestine Indian Jews have invaded Asia and Africa, where as traders, bankers and businessmen they exploit, in different ways, the native population of those nations. Since they hide their Jewish identity and say they are natives from India (although in some cases it is true that true Indians do today live overseas in other countries) people only know them as Indian traders, bankers or businessmen, without realizing that they are part of one of the most dangerous and exploitative fifth columns that International Judaism has developed to dominate all other peoples.

In Africa they have invaded the nations ruled by negro governments, such as Uganda and Kenya, as well as the nations ruled by a white government, such as South Africa and Rhodesia.

In the negro nations they are taking over the wealth of the country and mercilessly exploit the negro population, many of them using British passports to have the protection of the British government in their infamous task of exploiting the people. They act as in other times did the Jews of different African and Asian countries who even adopted British, French or Spanish nationalities to obtain the protection of those governments in case the native population, becoming tired of so many exactions and exploitation, reacted against them. Others, nevertheless, have adopted the nationality of the places they exploit in order to seek assimilation, although only outwardly, for they remain Jews in secret covered with the mask of Indians. These are the most dangerous ones, because the nation invaded by this plague of false Indians may fall into the trap and think they should fight only those who have foreign passports without considering as dangerous those who have adopted the nationality of the country they have invaded, and which are more harmful and dangerous than those of a foreign nationality, because they are incrusted as a fifth column in the nation in whose territory they live and whose people they vilely exploit, and will try to dominate it with the help of the Super-Imperialism of Israel, either through the satellite imperialism of Moscow, Wall Street, or London, or through any other local or international power at their service.

In some places such as South and East Africa and Guyana,[†] apart from the migration of clandestine Jews of India, another migration of authentic Indians took place, but while the latter are mainly poor workers, the clandestine Beni-Israeles are usually traders, usurers, businessmen and people of good position, who seek to control the authentic Indian emigrants, using them to provoke disturbances and problems in the country of their adoption whenever it suits their convenience. This secret Jewish sect has invaded even England, where many of the recent Indian emigrants are secretly Jewish, whose Israelite rulers were responsible for helping them to the invasion of many countries, in the world especially in Africa and Asia, and who refused to give independence to India until they could hand it over to Nehru and a Jewish controlled Congress Party. Nevertheless, it is necessary to repeat that there are many independent forces in India even inside the Congress Party, that should be adequately helped to save that great nation from the yoke of these terrible secret societies and their main instrument, which is Indira Gandhi herself.

Among the interesting episodes mentioned by the Indian Jew Kehimker, there is one about a Beni-Israel Hindu that pretendedly converted to Christianity, but who continued to be Jewish in secret. This was a certain Michael Sargon(17), who first pretended to be a Hindu, but later lift off that mask to take a Christian one, while continuing to be a Jew in secret. This and similar examples illustrates the way in which the Hebrews juggle with their pretended conversions, changing their external mask whenever it is convenient for them to do so. Here it could not be argued that they were forced to convert to Christianity, because in India the predominant religion is Hinduism, which, on the other hand, many Beni-Israelites externally practice with great piety, observing Judaism in the most absolute secret, in order to remain firmly infiltrated in the Indian nation as powerful and dominant fifth column. The result of the British domination of India destroyed the defenses of the former leaders of that nation against Judaism, making it possible for the Jews who controlled Britain and hand over India to Nehru and his gang of clandestine Beni-Israelites Jews while pretending to grant India its independence. The same has been done elsewhere, except where international circumstances forced British jewry to grant the independence to populations still not controlled by secret Jewish infiltrators. More interesting now is the fact that International Judaism is today seeking to destroy the power of England and the United States to open the door to Communist Imperialism led by the Jewish hidden power, and so to achieve the final goal of the great Hebrew revolution of modern times. So far they have not been able to convert the English and Americans to Judaic communism, because both peoples are accustomed to good life and free institutions.

AN INVITATION TO THE EUROPEAN COUNTRIES TO INTERFERE IN MOROCCO

In his extensive report presented to Western Judaism, Chacham pointed with the darkest colors the situation of

(17) Haeem Samuel Kehimker, p. 21.

Israelites in the Sultanate of Morocco at the middle of the 19th century, asking for the interference of the European powers in that kingdom. He said among other things, that the oppression of Jews in Morocco was worse than that in Persia, and that they were forced to use a Turkish cap to distinguish them from the Moslem population.

It can be seen that in all places in the world the people menaced by the political conquest of the Jews tried to alert the population against them, distinguishing them with a sign, such as a cap of a certain color, a dress, or the star of David, so that non-Jews might know them and guard against their intrigues and subversion. These defensive steps appear in both the Christian and Moslem worlds, reoccurring at widely different times, often separated by several centuries one from the other. We have already seen how Jewesses were forced in Persia to wear a black veil to distinguish them from the Islamic women and how they evaded this step by pretending conversion of themselves and their families to the Islam, thus entitling them to wear the white veil and to be confounded in consequence with the real Moslems.

Returning to the subject of Morocco, Israel Joseph Benjamin II declares that the situation of the Jews was terrible there, due to the fanaticism of the Arabs and their arbitrariness, saying that: "If an Arab enters a house, the Jew must address him humbly as if he were a prince. If he takes something he likes, there should not be heard the least gossip, for on the opposite the intruder would immediately take his knife and there is no judge nor law to protect the despoiled or oppressed"... "if all the great European powers attempted to oppose this barbarity in those places near their influence, they would do much in their own benefit, in the benefit of science and in favor of the oppressed". (18).

(18) Israel Joseph Benjamin II, pp. 319-325.

This terrible invitation to Western Judaism, to whom this book is addressed, to persuade the European powers to interfere in Morocco, presents the Arabs as savages and criminals on the one hand and suggesting subtle arguments with which to induce the European powers to interfere. The story is repeated frequently in world history, for when the heroic Visigothic Empire constituted an obstacle to the Hebrew plans, the latter stimulated the Moslem ambition of domination and facilitated their invasion and conquest of Spain. Later on, when Moslems wanted to defend themselves against Jewish domination, the Jews favored the triumph of the Christian kings. And when, in the 14th century, Europe desperately fought to stop the domination of Jews and the subversive activity of their heresies, the Jews incited the Turkish to invade Europe, facilitating their conquests through the Jewish fifth columns which existed in all the Christian countries. Later on, when it was convenient for them to destroy the Turkish Empire, they turned the different European powers against the Turks, and for a time even favored Arab nationalism only to betray the Arabs later when they sought the conquest of Palestine and the establishment of Israel.

In the 18th and 19th centuries the Jews conquered the European monarchies from inside, achieving it better during the 19th century, using them to launch an attack on the Asian and African countries which the Hebrews had not yet succeeded in conquering by internal subversion. However, the Jewish fifth columns inside these Afro-Asian countries betrayed their hosts in favor of the colonial enterprises of the Jewish-manipulated Europeans, thereby subduing many states of Asia and Africa. They were then able to ensure, by different means, that the Israelite communities in such states were strengthened until they could dominate the peoples that had sheltered them. This also was often achieved with the support of the European empires, until the Jews and crypto-Jews could lead the Afro-Asian populations under the pretended banner of freedom in a demand for independence. As our reader will now realise, this was not to be a real freedom, for the independence movements were generally under the leadership of the secret Jews who sought to become national heroes and to become the absolute rulers of the "liberated" countries once they had been granted their independence from their European rulers. Their intention was that once the ancient colonies become independent of the western powers, they would be even more securely in the claws of the native Hebrews, or of the Jewish imperialism in the form of communist totalitarianism directed by the Jews of the Kremlin.

Fortunately in many countries of Africa and Asia this plan of pretended liberation of the colonies failed and they could not prevent real heroes of the independence from taking power once it was consummated. In other cases, once the Jewish agents of the British government left the power in the hands of native clandestine Jews, or agents of the Kremlin Israelites, a patriotic military coup swept the false redemptions away, establishing a truly patriot government in the liberated colony while the Jewish world press protested against the military coup, which had deprived Judaism of one of its possessions.

We exhort our readers probe deeper in this subject, and those who do, will themselves discover the decisive Jewish participation in most of the imperialist ventures of the Dutch, British and French imperialisms in Africa and Asia. The famous companies of the Eastern Indies and the companies of the West Indies were created in Holland mainly with Jewish money to economically exploit the colonies of the Dutch Empire, and similar companies were established in England and France to exploit the English and French conquests, mainly in the benefit of the Jewish capitalist monopolists, who in a secret agreement in the present century with the Jewish communist imperialists of Moscow have since approved the liquidation of the Dutch, English and French empires, when it was deemed convenient to the supreme interest of the Israelite imperialism to replace the partial and uncomplete domination represented by democratic capitalism by another more complete and absolute system of control — totalitarian communism — secretly led by the Jewish imperialists, using the clandestine Israelite communities which had infiltrated those countries as agents of domination following the supposed "liberation" of these lands.

In the former European colonies of Asia and Africa that become "independent" countries, a fierce fight takes place between the super secret societies of clandestine Judaism that has often lived in those countries for centuries, who fight to submit those countries to the yoke of the communist Jewish imperialism led from Moscow and the gentile civil and mainly military leaders who genuinely wish to defend the nations' independence and work for its prosperity. The worse part of the situation is that while the clandestine Jewish minority knows very well the enemy it faces and even may infiltrate the ranks of the true patriots with spies and saboteurs, the true patriots of these Afro-Asian nations seldom understand the nature of the hidden enemy who directs the communist and socialist movements supported by the Jewish leaders of the Soviet Union and their puppet, the paranoid Marrano tyrant who has enslaved the unfortunate Cuban people. Until these heroic Afro-Asian patriots can identify and destroy the secret force behind subversion, uprooting the clandestine Israelite communities that compose it, they will be unable to enjoy either peace or prosperity, and will eventually fall one after the other into the claws of the totalitarian Jewish communist imperialism which will subject them to slavery, as it has already subjected the unfortunate people of the Soviet Union, Eastern Europe and Cuba.

The worst problem facing the Asian and African nations, and in general all the underdeveloped countries, including those of Latin America, is that the Jewish Racist Imperialism holds them in the firm grasp of its pincers. One arm of the Jewish pincer is the capitalist Jewish imperialism of the International Monopolies, and the other arm is the Jewish communist imperialism directed from Moscow. The world Jewish super-imperialist pincer works with both arms in the following way:

1st. The Jewish capitalists, through trans-national enterprises such as the Jewish Banks and the Jewish international trading monopolies, buy at very low prices the raw materials of the under-developed nations and sell industrial products and technology at very high prices, provoking a bigger impoverishment every day. This sub-human exploitation of man by man enriches the Jewish owners of the exploiting monopolies.

2nd. The exploitation we have just mentioned, and the progressive impoverishment of the developing — or under-developed — nations serves the Jews who carry the false banner of Israelite communism to incite the oppressed people to rebellion against such exploitation, facilitating the control of the popular masses and the possibility of conducting them to a false "dictatorship of the proletariat" which would be, as in the Soviet Union, a Jewish dictatorship of the people resulting in their total enslavement. Capitalist exploitation of the developing countries and other abuses and crimes of the Jewish capitalist Imperialism, justly irritate many gentile nationalist rulers, who upon receiving support against capitalist imperialism on the part of the Jewish communist dictatorships, frequently fall in this skillful trick, even believing that there is no way to save their nations from the claws of the capitalist imperialism, except as allies of the Marxist socialist dictatorships, without knowing that the Soviet Union and her satellite states (including Cuba) and the capitalist Jewish Imperialism and its agencies (including the United States and England) are mere pawns of a single secret super-imperialism, that uses this maneuver to persuade the nationalist rulers to fall into the trap, to start destroying barriers and defensive institutions, or to dictate other measures that also facilitate the progress of the communist Jewish revolution in other nations, and sometimes even in their own country, without becoming aware that through these and other steps (the result of their friendship with the Soviets and the Soviet satellites) they are increasing the world and local strength of communist Jewish imperialism, which is responsible for the state of oppression and slavery from which they cannot liberate themselves.

Those nationalist rulers should realise that Maoist China, Albania and Roumania are the only regimes in the communist field, that are independent at least until this moment — of both nefarious imperialisms, and that these states may yet be conquered by the Jews.

Judaism, by controlling both arms of the super-imperialist Israelite pincer, as we have just described, always wins!

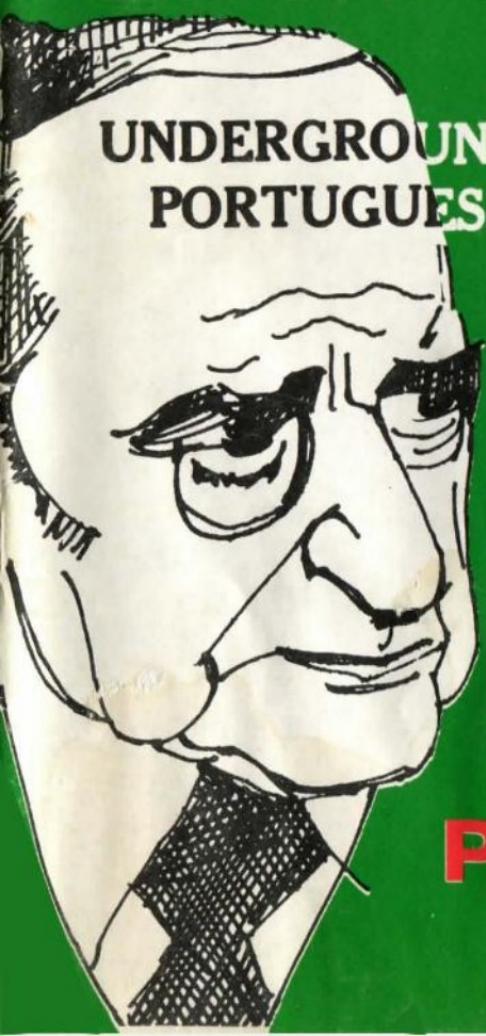

It is evident that the only escape for the under-developed peoples from the dual forces which oppress them, is to cooperate so that they have the combined strength to efficiently defend their interests against both imperialisms; the capitalist and the communist. But Judaism, with its centuries of experience, takes precautions to prevent such defensive cooperation by infiltrating all fields, especially those its opponents may create to protect themselves. So we saw the Jewish emperor of Ethiopia, Haile Selassie, controlling the African Unity Organization to ensure its failure. The Indian government, led by Judaism, has similarly infiltrated and nefariously influences the so-called third world. And the Jew Josip Broz (a) Tito, the Yugoslavian dictator, plays a similar role in the manipulation of the third world. That is why nationalist gentile governments, seeking to be independent of both the capitalist and communist imperialisms, will not be able to form truly defensive organizations as long as they do not expell from their organizations all governments infiltrated by and consequently subject to either the Jewish capitalist imperialism, or the Israelite Kremlin imperialism, from whose domination and exploitation the under-developed peoples in the world must free themselves if they wish to overcome their present poverty and misery.

I want to thank the publisher of "Political Secrets" for having taken the decision of publishing in that collection the present report which will be given to his readers in order to inform them the truth about what happened in my unfortunate country.

I also thanked the brave magazine which published it originally at its proper time.

The rest of the newspapers-with only a few exceptions- continuously publish lies, hiding the truth about what is happening in the world, because the international news agencies are either owned by Jews or are infiltrated by Jews and, in addition because the great majority of important newspapers, radio and television are, also of the property of Jews and it is common and of notorious knowledge that they make propaganda in favor of the communist dictatorships and of the red subversive movements, while at the same time they heap lies and calumnies upon the patriotic anti-communist governments in order to discredit them on a world-wide scale, which shows us once more that socialism or marxist communism continues to be a "par excellence" Jewish enterprise, fully supported by world judaism, whereas zionism and the State of Israel, although they have the strong support of powerful sectors of international judaism, have to reckon with many enemies among western Jewish leaders and mainly among Jewish leaders of the Soviet Union and other communist States for reasons I have already mentioned.

Professional revolutionaries recruited by the Jew, Leon Bronstein Trotzky, in the suburbs of New York.

At a street corner, a small military tank witnesses acquiescently the agitators who have come from abroad.

The bolsheviks received the control of the masses, the trade unions and soldiers' regiments "on a platter"; had it not been for this, the group of Israelite Russian emigrants that surrounded Lenin would have seen themselves reduced to a minimum chance of expression.

As in St. Petersburg, Lisbon saw itself invaded by a legion of foreign elements who arrived from abroad.

Communists, homosexuals, socialists, opusdeists, prostitutes, christian democrats all mixed together in a demagogic spree, promise impossible parades and tell scandalous lies about the overthrown regime.

What is awaiting the comrades of Ribeiro de Spinola, Soares, and Cunhal? The bolsheviks went about destroying them separately — first the ones them the others — under different pretexts, employing their refined system of intrigue and infiltration against all those who are not controlled by the communist party.

On the picture: Mario Soares and Álvaro Cunhal, on May 1st, after their return to Portugal.

Rossio Square gave us the perfect picture of Antonio Ribeiro de Spinola's Portugal. Hammers and sickles daubed on red banners, raised-up fists, activists of the agit-prop cells distributing leaflets in which they call for class struggle and the dictatorship of the proletariat, shouts of "viva Russia", stale slogans such as "a united people will win" and the ones of "Socialist Portugal", reveal what kind of winds are lashing Portugal.

The public watches in bewilderment the activist groups marching in the streets, singing communist songs and demanding the blood of the bourgeois.

At a street corner, a small military tank witnesses acquiescently the agitators who have come from abroad, as if silently applauding their action.

There exists an astonishing parallelism between the factious coup that overthrew the new anti-communist State of Portugal and the events previous to the bolsheviks' taking over of the power in Russia.

The similitude is not the product of some blind course of history, but of a plan, practically drawn by international communism in order to take possession of Portugal and deliver its overseas colonies to the red racists of FRELIMO (Mozambique Liberation Front) and its associates in Angola and Portuguese Guinea.

The communists themselves are not hiding the fact that they are doing everything in their power to install a Soviet regime in my country.

Demonstrations are organized in the streets of Lisbon, very similar to those which Lenin, or rather that Kalmuk from a German Jewish mother Vladimir Illich Ulianov Blanck used to organize in Russia during the regime of the Russian Jew, Alexander Kerensky, with the slogan of "down with the bourgeois revolution! "for the proletarian revolution! "

Might Antonio Ribeiro de Spinola be the Kerensky of Portugal? Might Cunhal be the Lenin who returned from exile in order to lead the "putsch"? Or might it be Colonel Vasco Goncalves, the recalcitrant communist who, acting in the role of Leon Bronstein, will forcefully impose the communist tyranny by means of a new red army? How did they arrive at this anguishing situation after a regime like that of Salazar was demolished? If this was possible, where did all the fictitious accounts or the frightful dictatorship go?

As in the Russia of the beginning of the century, infiltrators abound in the government. Among the army generals and even among the noble landowners there existed very powerful enemies of the regime who were simulating and dissembling in order to undermine, treacherously from within, the system they cynically claimed to be defending.

Marcelo Caetano is the maximum infiltrator, a traitor who dissembled all the time in order to favor the advance of communism on the one hand, and on the other, in order to frustrate all action of the patriotic forces that were infinitely superior, by cunningly deceiving the old President of the Republic, Admiral Thomaz, whose advanced age did not permit him to exercise his power effectively.

It should be remembered that the great man, Oliveira Salazar himself, dismissed Caetano from his office when he discovered his treason. Upon the death of the man who brought order and progress to Portugal, Marcelo Caetano came back, stealthy and false, to culminate his work with the support of other infiltrators. It took him four years to sow confusion, scepticism, defeatism and doubt, under the pretext of "liberalizing" the regime. The doors were open for Kerensky to assail the power. Caetano furthered the promotion, within his regime, of infiltrators, covered up enemies who were plotting his destruction, thus bringing about in Portugal what Rasputin —following a different road— had brought about in Russia more than half a century ago, by deceiving the tsarina and the tsar, inducing them to place in key positions of the Russian imperial regime, secret enemies who prepared its fall from within.

Caetano had it in his hand to destroy the conspirators of Caldas de Rainha but not only did he refuse to do so, he also prevented others from taking action. The last feint of the traitor, yielding to the pressures of the patriotic Portuguese sectors, was the dismissal of Ribeiro de Spinola and Gómez da Costa.

He did nothing, however, to destroy the conspiracy at its root. Government radio stations were swarming with communist agents and so were the ministries.

In the Russia of 1917, the abdication of the tsar was not immediately followed by the pro-communist regime of Kerensky. First there was a period during which Prince Georgi Eugenovich Lvov established the first provisional government. In his cabinet, a lawyer called Alexander Fedorovich Kerensky, vice-president of the St. Petersburg soviet, occupied the office of secretary of war.

From March 15 to June 21, all the traitors of the tsarist regime who perceived themselves as liberal democrats, resigned under the pressure of bolshevik agitation. Thus, Alexander Kerensky became Prime Minister, conserving however his connections with the soviet of the city where the bolsheviks were gaining positions day by day.

Why did the bolshevik revolution come about several months after the fall of the tsar? Because Vladimir Illich Ulianov Blanck, known as Lenin, didn't arrive in St. Petersburg to lead his faction until April 16, 1917, a month after the abdication of Nicolas Romanov. Before and after his arrival, together with 200 professional revolutionaries, recruited by the likewise Jewish Leon Bronstein Trotzky in the suburbs of New York, it was seen that the bolsheviks were only a minority with no hold on the masses and almost no control over the workers' trade unions, army regiments, newspapers and the apparatus of public administration.

Supported from above, by the apparent errors of Kerensky, the bolsheviks received the control of the masses, the trade unions and soldiers' regiments on a platter; had it not been for this, the group of Israelite Russian emigrants that surrounded Lenin would have seen themselves reduced to a minimum chance of expression.

Kerensky continued his manoeuvres for discrediting the liberal and democratic sectors which coexisted in his cabinet with the socialists.

Meanwhile, in the city soviet, the bolsheviks were demagogically promising: Immediate peace; immediate self-determination for the non Russian people; immediate workers' control of the factories; immediate agrarian reform. And all those who pointed out that it was impossible to fulfill such promises because they were utopian, were marked down by the bolsheviks as capitalist defenders of tsarism, enemies of the people etc. . . . The agit-prop cells were announcing the imminent passing-over of the bourgeois revolution to the revolution of the proletariat, just as they are doing today in Portugal.

What aroused the suspicion of people with a wider political vision, was the fact that Kerensky, while he was very effective and energetic in crushing any patriotic attempt to save Russia from communism, was to the contrary very inefficient in combating the communists themselves who were fighting to topple the republican-democratic regime of which Kerensky himself was the leader. This showed clearly that this Jewish-Russian was, in a seemingly inexplicable way, preparing the fall of his own government and the passing over of the power to the caucus of Jewish bolsheviks, directed by Lenin and Trotzky.

Things reached an extreme when Kerensky sabotaged the attempt of the military patriots to save Russia from catastrophe, by surreptitiously pushing General Kornilov —through provoking agents— to make the counter-revolution break out, when it was still lacking adequate organization to assure its triumph; and he did this by putting forth much more energy than he ever did when seemingly trying to crush the communist conspirators' counter-revolution.

The frustrated coup of Kornilov served Kerensky as a pretext to call Lenin "to save the revolution" as they said.

Thus, on September 9, the great opportunity presented itself to Lenin and his group to assume the leadership of the mobilized armed workers, appearing in their eyes as valiant defenders of their cause. However, it did not come to an armed conflict because the frustrated counter-revolution had been betrayed ever since its birth and only served as a pretext in order to crush the liberals and democrats that were still left in Kerensky's government.

On September 14, Kerensky proclaimed Russia a Republic. The triumph was not Krensky's but the bolsheviks', assisted by this traitor who, disguised as a democrat and defender of human rights, endowed the reds with a liberal prestige they had not enjoyed before. Around that time, the bolsheviks already half controlled the soviets of St. Petersburg and Moscow.

A little less than seven months after the fall of the old regime on October 6, the Jew Leon Bronstein Trotzky reaches the presidency of the Soviet of St. Petersburg. The Military Revolutionary Committee is publicly created and the marxist revolution is openly planned while Kerensky, who does not ignore the facts, does not do anything to thwart them. On that day, arms are distributed among the workers who are already controlled in communist trade unions. The red agitators enter the barracks feely and impose their political commissars; they distribute propaganda, enroll soldiers in their committees and all this in full daylight with Kerensky doing nothing to prevent it. On that night, after a quick mobilization which meets with no resistance, all the important public buildings of St. Petersburg are taken over by the communists.

On the following day, Russia had a dictator: Lenin. His assistants: Trotzky and his caucus of Jews. The liberal democratic revolution of the party of cadets – likewise led by Jews – did not bring Russia from monarchy to a democratic republic, but from Lvov to Kerensky at first, and from Kerensky to Lenin afterwards – into the hands of a minority of international Jews, foreign outsiders and butchers who are to this day enslaving the Russian people. And as a just punishment from God, they also drove Russia into the hands of the Zionist Jewish sectors who, due to internal rivalries that arose in the Jewry of the world, have suffered in their own flesh from their Hebrew brothers who govern the Kremlin, the same treatment they gave the unfortunate Russian people.

Caetano sowed distrust on the work of Salazar and, under the pretext of liberalizing Portugal, he opened the doors to defeatism. Nobody ignores that his friendship with Ribeiro de Spinola was something more than superficial. Now we are able to confirm the strong secret alliance that existed between them. In spite of the secret contacts between Ribeiro de Spinola and Amílcar Cabral, Caetano was paving the way for him.

Besides decorating him and weaving an epic story around him, he created a special position for him as second in command of the staff of the Joint Armed Forces, second to General Gómez da Costa who was also involved in the conspiracy.

Caetano authorized the publications of the book "Portugal and the Future" at the request of General Gómez da Costa. He let them do as they like. He took no action against the defeatists that were infesting the regiments of the metropolis. As in the case of Russia, it was not the combatant army that rose up in arms, but the idle regiments of the city. As in Russia, the conspirators are not outside the regime they want to topple but incrusted inside, thus making their action more destructive. The complicity of the Ex-Primer Minister, Marcelo Caetano, was confirmed by the fact that the coup d'état was carried out by only thirty young officers who could have been crushed by the Civil Guards, the anti-riot police and other forces for keeping the order, which, however, were quartered; they did not crush the coup because the Minister of the interior gave them no orders for action and because Prime Minister Caetano in his turn refrained from doing so.

Among other charges that can be made against Marcelo Caetano, we might mention the following: He practiced a personal politics of nepotism by giving government positions of highest responsibility to all kinds of relatives, nephews, godfathers, godsons and numerous intimate friends, regardless of true merit; he submitted to voting, the decision whether the overseas policy of Salazar should be continued or not (although the people opposed his designs by voting for the maintenance of the territorial integrity of the Portuguese nation) thus betraying once more the thought of the man who created the "Estado Novo" which affirmed that "one's native land cannot be sold, rented or discussed; it can only be defended". He allowed the growth of student activism in the Universities, a sector which was agitating against the overseas national policy and from which came the young marxist officers led by Vasco Gonçalves; as if all this were not enough, he appointed his godson – a professor of law – Minister of National Defense (so that he might command the Armed Forces! !), he designated a functionary of tourism as Minister of the Interior (so that he might command the police forces! !), he did everything possible to make the Portuguese people lose sight of the fact that Portuguese Africa was an integral part of Portugal, thus discrediting once more Salazar's thought, according to which defending Africa means defending Portugal, and encouraging the suspicion that they were fighting for an abstraction. He opened the doors of hope to those who were defending the policy of abandonment thus stirring doubt in those who were resisting, wanted, to resist and knew that they could resist; in sum, Marcelo Caetano and his accomplices introduced doubt where there had been certainty.

As we indicated before, Caetano played the sinister role of Rasputin. Is then General Spinola playing the role of a new Kerensky? On April 25, Caetano personally handed the power to Ribeiro de Spinola. A month earlier, one day after the events of Caldas, Spinola —already removed from office— declared to the press that there existed no discrepancy between him and the government and that he was hoping to occupy again an important position. Twenty days later, he was Portugal's dictator. Due to the secret entente between Caetano and de Spinola, the latter sent Caetano to exile instead of giving him a public trial as the bolshevik mob was demanding.

"As a sample, one button is enough", says a popular saying. The TASS agency's applause at Ribeiro de Spinola's coup is significant. Equally significant are Willy Brandt's and Mitterand's demonstrations of satisfaction with the perpetrators of the coup.

More important still is the arrival of Mario Soares, a socialist marxist exiled in Paris, with great connections in London, to receive from the hands of Ribeiro de Spinola the Ministry of External Relations. Soares, Ribeiro de Spinola and Alvaro Cunhal, secretary general of the Communist Party exiled in Prague, were all in the conspiracy.

As it happened in St. Petersburg, Lisboa saw itself invaded by a legion of foreign elements that arrived from abroad. Many said they were journalists but are presently engaged in political activities, in ministries, trade unions, regiments, etc.

Within a few hours on April 25, the minority of communist and socialist soviets were already controlling newspapers, radio stations and news agencies with the approval and support of Ribeiro de Spinola.

The trade unions of the railway, the metal and textile industries, which are the biggest in Portugal, were literally assaulted by red cells who imposed their power by force of pistols and demagogie.

The same happened with the telephone operators, bakers and transport employees who are already subject to red, terrorist control.

It was symbolical that in the proclamation "1st of Red May", on the fifth day of the revolution, Ribeiro de Spinola should assign the organization of the meeting, the order and the platform to socialists and communists. Another evidence of Spinolist treason resides in the fact that he handed to the communists the Ministry of Work which has the power of giving its approval or disapproval for the foundation and existence of the workers trade unions, in order to achieve total control of the Portuguese workers, in trade unions managed by the communist demagogues, who as in 1917 in St. Petersburg, are promising them astronomical raises in salaries, shorter hours and political power, so as to win them for their cause and use them as cannon fodder

Afterwards they will tie the hands of the workers under the pretext of defending the misnamed dictatorship of the proletariat which —as everywhere else— will be the dictatorship of a socialist or communist bureaucracy, exploiting and enslaving the working classes.

It is evident that discipline has been relaxed in the barracks because of the protecting and fraternizing that is going on with the red activists. Secret soviets of soldiers are being formed in order to eliminate, at the decisive moment, those officers who might try to oppose the communist coup d'etat, as it was done in Russia after the triumph of the so-called democratic revolution.

Many were surprised, for instance, by the intensive activity of the Communist Party within the Navy, but as we said at the beginning, they are executing in Portugal step by step the plan outlined by Kerensky and Lenin for communizing Russia.

Like Kerensky, Ribeiro de Spinola pretends to be a democrat, a lover of individual liberties, while he is increasingly giving his true support to the Communist Party and to the Socialist Party which is also marxist-leninist.

Meanwhile, anti-communist fighters are secretly persecuted and assassinated without anybody raising a single voice of protest in the United Nations. All true patriots are silenced. Anti communist newspapers are confiscated and organizations are dissolved in an arbitrary and illegal manner, protected by the law of force.

Communists, homosexuals, socialists, opusdeists, prostitutes, christian democrats, all mixed together in a demagogic spree, promise impossible parades and tell scandalous lies about the Salazar regime. All extravagances that professional liars are capable of, till the columns of the Spinolist and communist press. False confessions about torture, dismal control systems which if they had existed, would never have allowed the coup of April 25 to take place. No lies of any dimension may detain them, as long as they are justified and going ahead with their preparations for the bolshevik coup, which is to give them total power. Communist dictatorship, unless they reach the same result by a pacific development with the complicity of General Spinola himself.

What is awaiting the traveling companions of the Portuguese communists? The bolsheviks started destroying them separately —first the ones then the others— under different pretexts, employing their refined system of intrigue and infiltration against all those who are not controlled by the communist Party.

Afterwards, the liberals, the democrats and non-communist socialists, the anarchists, christian democrats, opusdeists and the rest of the tribe who may have cooperated in overthrowing the regime, will receive their reward with six grams of lead in the neck, in the style of the GPU, or they will rot in a jail for the rest of their lives. This is how the reds reward their former allies for having made it possible for them to take over the power in a country. It so happened in Russia.

The military who by various deceipts lent themselves to the Spinolist-communist game and who may want to oppose the communization of Portugal, must remember the reward received by those officers of the Tzar's army who collaborated in bringing it down, or who refrained from defending it.

Those mountains of officers's corpses assassinated en masse and then sprinkled with gasoline and burned, remained as a testimony of how communism devours those who serve it.

The navy officers of the tsar were thrown in sacks into the frozen waters of the Baltic by soviets of sailors who took possession of the ships.

The Russian experience has shown that, had they acted in time and with energy, the minority of upstarts led by Lenin would have been crushed by the patriotic forces.

Portugal finds itself now on the eve of a red October which we hope will be prevented in time by freedom-loving democrats who do not wish for their Iberian homeland the same destiny that befell Russia.

Some believe that General Spinola is indeed a true democrat who does not wish a communist slavery for his country and will do everything possible to avoid it. Others, on the other hand, say that while he claims by words to be a lover of freedom and democracy, as Kerensky did, he is by his actions showing himself to be the new Kerensky of Portugal. Only the future can tell us who was right.

In order to complete the picture of similarities between the Russian Revolution and the present Portuguese revolution, we could ask the following question. What role did judaism play in all this? I can furnish some decisive data regarding this which should of course, be supplemented by a major investigation. A book was published in Lisbon, written by the Polish Jew Samuel Schwatz, a member of the Portuguese Association of Archeologists, entitled: "The New Christians in Portugal in the 20th Century" with a "Pro-Israel" preface by doctor Ricardo Jorge.

In Portugal, they call "new Christians" the descendants of the Portuguese Jews who simulated a conversion to Christianity in the year 1497 in order to deceive the decree of expulsion of the Jews from Portugal which was promulgated by King Manuel the First. After becoming Christians, the majority of Portuguese Jews kept up their secret Jewish organizations and their clandestine synagogues, adopting Christian names and impeccably Portuguese surnames, as it also happened in England, Germany, France, Italy, Spain and other European countries when expulsion laws were issued by their monarchs. And although these families have practiced the Christian religion in public for almost four centuries, as do the clandestine Jews of the whole of Europe, America and Christianity in general, they secretly initiate their children, when they reach the age of 13, into their hidden Jewish organizations which infiltrate the political, military, cultural and syndical institutions of the rest of the world – even the Church clergy – and try to dominate Portugal as they try to dominate the rest of the world, misinterpreting the Old Testament of the Bible in those passages in which the people of Israel are promised that they will dominate all nations, will take possession of all riches and will make male and female slaves out of all those that live around them.

These biblical passages which Christianity interprets symbolically, as referring to Christ's reign on earth, the Jews are taught from childhood by the rabbis to interpret literally; thus the Israelites who have penetrated into all the nations of the world, have for centuries been organized as fifth columns in order to conquer the governments of these nations, take possession of their wealth and enslave them as they believe it was ordained by God and promised to his chosen people.

It is well known that the Jews created the capitalist regime, by overthrowing the ancient feudal system, in order to achieve their purpose of world political and economic conquest; but as the above-mentioned regime did not allow them to totally attain their ends, the German Jews, Karl Marx and Friedrich Engels, created marxist socialism which would, by means of a revolution destroying capitalism, place all the political power in the hands of the so-called proletarian state. But as this state would in reality be publicly or secretly controlled by the Jews, it would allow them to expropriate all wealthy individuals and submit them to a true slavery and thus the Hebrew people who live scattered among all nations, would take possession of them and by subjecting them to the slavery of a communism managed by Jews, the prophesies of the Bible would come true in their rabbinical interpretation.

A book written by the Polish Jew, Samuel Schwarz, member of the Portuguese Archeologists Association, entitled: "The new Christians in Portugal in the 20th. century" with a "pro-Israel" preface by Dr. Ricardo Jorge.

As a result, in the capitalist countries themselves, the Jewish politicians, financiers, military men and students as well as the Christian priests and bishops who are secretly Israelites, support—in a way that is inexplicable to those who ignore the secret—the communists and socialist marxists who try to submerge capitalism and destroy the Christian faith, imitating Kerensky and getting involved in all kinds of plots in a way that seems most adequate, according to the exigencies of time and place.

It is well known that it was the high Jewish bankers of the United States and Europe that financed the communist revolution in Russia, and by investing about 30 million dollars, the World Israelite Brotherhood managed to take possession of all the gigantic wealth of the Russian Empire. With a relatively small investment they made the biggest and most lucrative business ever transacted by Jews in the entire history of the people or Israel.

To suppose—as many do—that Israeli Imperialism is limited to the expansion plans of the small state of Israel, is to show a lamentable ignorance in this respect. We must make it clear to these uninformed people that the state of Israel was founded under the pressure of the Jewish zionist sects, which constitute only one part of world judaism and the leaders of these sects—the State of Israel as well as zionism that patronizes them—have created so many problems for them that the number of those who wish to check the excesses of the zionists increases every day, for they are endangering the Jewish domination of all nations which is the true goal to which judaism tends and not the expansion of the small state of Israel.

To continue with my commentary on the book of the Jew, Samuel Schwarz, I will faithfully transcribe what this prestigious author says in his introduction, entitled IN PERPETUAM MEMORIAM:

"We piously dedicate this humble work to the memory of all Jewish martyrs of the Portuguese Inquisition".

How many were they?

Almost the totality of Portuguese judaism which, after the forced general conversion of 1497, remained in the country under the jurisdiction of the terrible Tribunal.

To all this anonymous multitude of victims, to all these Unknown Soldiers who for centuries suffered the constant martyrdom of religious intolerance, we extend our admiration.

To all the holy martyrs who at the moment of their final ordeal preferred to be burned alive rather than renounce their judaic faith, such as Fray Diego of the Assumption, Isaac de Castro Tarta, Miguel Herniquez da Fonseca, Antonio Bicho and so many others, we dedicate our devout veneration.

To the great personalities, noble victims of the Inquisition, such as Antônio Homem, Tome Vaz, André de Avelar, etc., we express the vehement protest of our indignation.

"The sacrifice of these tens of thousands of victims was not in vain, for the sinister Tribunal has disappeared, but the Judaic Ideal persists triumphant among the descendants of its victims.

"Evoking the allegorical vision of Moses near Mount Horeb, of the "Burning Bramble Bush" which the fire could not consume, there appear before us today, as if resuscitated from the blazing fire of the Inquisition, the Portuguese new Christians, worthy inheritors of the judaic Faith of their ancestors".

Ever since the Middle Ages, it has been the custom of Christian European countries to call the Jews converted to Christianity and their descendants, "new Christians", and "old Christians" those who had no Jewish blood.

The practical objective of these denominations was to decree laws prohibiting the new Christians —that is those that were of Jewish origin— from occupying leading positions in the State, the Church, the Army, etc., as previously the Civil Governments, the Pope and the Councils had prohibited the obtention of such leading positions to publicly self-confessed Jews in order to prevent them from conquering and dominating the Christian nations. And all this, because it had been discovered that the Jews simulated Christian conversion in order to get hold of government positions, ranks in the army, hierarchies of the Catholic Church clergy and other leading posts in the Christian nations.

The Inquisition was founded in Europe in order to destroy the Jewish fifth column infiltrated in the Christian nations, and the revolutions it organized through secret societies. Although the majority of these societies were trying to subvert all the existing order of things, they came to be called heretic sects, because they were attacking the Church and the Catholic Doctrine.

What is indeed an exaggeration of the Jewish author I am citing, is his claim that the Portuguese Inquisition executed "tens of thousands of new Christians", for in its three centuries of existence, the number of executions did not surpass the figure of about five thousand clandestine Portuguese Jews who have always conspired to destroy the Portuguese Empire, overthrow the Monarchy and subvert the Church. The Jewish leaders of the Soviet Union have gone as far as assassinating five thousand persons in one single day and the Russian writer Solzhenytsin accuses the Soviet leaders of having assassinated sixty-six million people —in time of peace— within the last 57 years. However, these same men who protest horrified about the executions of the Inquisition, have no scruples about offering praise to the Soviet assassins. In continuation I transcribe another paragraph of the Jewish book I am citing. It is the beginning of Chapter One, page three, which reads as follows: "The existence of clandestine Jews in the midst of the 20th century in a democratic and republican country of Europe seems, at first sight, implausible . . . They do, however, still exist in Portugal! They are the worthy descendants of the new Christians whom the decree of expulsion of 1496 and the brutal and inhuman violences that followed it, forced to abjure their faith".

These relics of ancient and glorious Portuguese judaism, miraculously saved from the bonfires of the Inquisition, are conscious today of their ancient religion, having conserved the purity of their race and of their judaic soul, in spite of the vicissitudes of more than four centuries of official Christianity and three horrible centuries of Inquisition".

Among the photographs appearing in the Appendix of the aforementioned book by the Jewish writer, Samuel Schwarz, there appears on page IV the picture of the Portuguese Army Captain, Artur Carlos de Barros Basto, a distinguished leader of the clandestine Portuguese Jews in 1926.

Among the families of "new Christians", clandestine Jews, which the aforementioned Jewish writer quotes in his book (Portuguese edition, Lisbon, 1926) there stands out, for its importance, the family of Marcelo Caetano who seized the Portuguese Government 6 years ago, thus acquiring the office of Prime Minister after the fall of the seriously ill Antonio Oliveira Salazar, shortly before his death. On that same page of the photographic appendix there appear the portraits of the old Antonio Caetano and his wife, Amelia Mendes Morao Vaz.

On other photographs of the cited appendix there appears another member of the family called Antero Caetano.

IN PERPETUAM MEMORIAM . . .

E' o memória de todos os judeus mártires da Inquisição Portuguesa que dedicamos, piedosamente, esse humilde trabalho.

Quais foram?

Quase a totalidade do judaísmo português, que, depois da conversão geral forçada de 1471 e das leis que proibiram a sua prática, ficou no país sob a alcada do terrível Tribunal.

A todo esse multíplice número de vítimas, a todos esses Soldados Descobrimentos, que, durante séculos, sofreram o constante martírio da intolerância religiosa, o nosso brado de admiração.

A todos os santos mártires que, no monastério do sepulcro Avi, preferiram ser queimados vivos a renegar a sua fé judaica, como Fr. Diogo da Assunção, Isaac de Castro Taitia, Miguel Henriques da Encasca, António Hebreo, Manuel Sandoval e tantos outros, a nossa devota veneração.

Aos grandes vultos, vítimas nobres da Inquisição, como António Humum, António José da Silva, Tomé Vaz, André de Avelar, etc., o veemente protesto da nossa indignação.

O sacrifício destas dezenas de milhares de mártires não foi inútil, porquanto já desapareceu o sinistro Tribunal e subsiste ainda, tristemente, o Judaísmo, entre os descendentes das suas vítimas.

Encerrando a vinda alegórica de Moisés, junto do Monte Horeb, da «Sarga Ardenté que o fogo não pode consumir», aparecem-nos, hoje, os Cristãos Novos portugueses, dignos herdeiros da Fé Judaica dos seus antepassados, cujo testemunho das foguerias da Inquisição...

Regarding the Military Junta which under the leadership of General Antonio Ribeiro de Spinola overthrew the anti-communist "Estado Novo" founded by Antonio Oliveira Salazar, and the principally marxist government that presently rules Portugal, some of their members figure in the families of new Christians, clandestine Portuguese Jews mentioned by the Jew Samuel Schwarz in his book, as for example the family da Costa, one member of which appears on page VI of the photographic appendix, and the ramifications of this family are mentioned in the rest of the book. It is interesting to note here that General Gomez da Costa was the one who helped Ribeiro de Spinola the most, so that his subversive book might be published in Portugal and distributed free among the officers of the Armed Forces; for General Gomez da Costa had formed part of the Military Junta which General Antonio Ribeiro de Spinola integrated after the triumph of his coup d'etat.

In this same appendix of Samuel Schwarz's book, there appears a photograph of various member of the Diogo family, also new Christians, one offspring of whom, General Manuel Diogo, also integrated the Military Junta.

On page 15 of the book the author mentions the Pinheiro family of clandestine Jews and the reader should remember that the Ship Captain Jose Batista Pinheiro formed part of the aforementioned Military Junta.

On page 14, the author refers to the new Christian family Countinho and the reader should remember that the Ship Captain Antonio Alva Rosa Countinho also integrated the Military Junta which was headed by Spinola. On the same page 14, there appears among the clandestine Jewish Portuguese families, one with the surname of Melo. Part of this family emigrated to Holland fleeing from the Portuguese Inquisition and it should be remembered that another member of the Military Junta is Colonel Carlos G. de Melo. Upon the triumph of the coup d' etat of the New Christian military, the chief of the Portuguese Socialist-Marxist Party, Mario Soares, returned to Portugal from his exile in Paris and he is now Minister of External Relations of the government, nominated by Spinola. The new Christian Soares family of clandestine Jews is mentioned by the Jewish writer, Samuel Schwarz, on page 14 of his book and it should be noted that a great part of this family also emigrated to Holland, fleeing from the Portuguese Inquisition. It is important to mention that the surname of Marcelo Caetano's mother is also Soares.

With the evidence I have produced to the reader, it becomes clear that the Portuguese revolution has been as much directed by Jews as the liberal-democratic Russian revolution of March 1917 and the communist revolution of October of the same year, which imposed slavery on the inhabitants of the old Russian Empire.

Let's hope to God that the Portuguese military patriots who were deceived by the new Christian party members who were elevated to Army posts by their clandestine Jewish brother, Marcelo Caetano Soares, will open their eyes in time and prevent my beloved country, the Portuguese nation, from being driven into a Jewish-communist slavery.

CHAPTER I

BLACK JEWS AND SOMETHING ABOUT CLANDESTINE JUDAISM IN LATIN AMERICA

One of the main Jewish infiltrations in peoples of black race are the "Falasha" of Ethiopia, whose skin is black and who have the physical aspect of the negroes of the African continent. Some of them live in huts, like those of the poorest African negroes and are dressed with simple trunks as readers may attest in the pictures included in this chapter, which were taken from the Castilian Jewish Encyclopedia and the Jewish Encyclopedia, Israelite documents of utmost authority in Judaism.

It is convenient for Judaism to infiltrate among the poor classes of the population, so that revolutionary leaders may appear in those classes to control the poor workers and peasants and launch them to the revolutions promoted by Jewish imperialism to conquer power over the gentile nations. The same thing happens in Latin America, where the hidden Jewish power has clandestine Israelite communities in the countryside, in mountain ranges and wild regions both in Brazil and in the nations from Mexico to Chile and Argentina that were a part of the Spanish Empire.

These clandestine communities were formed since the 16th century with marranos, that is to say, Spanish and Portuguese clandestine Jews, that eluding the laws that forbade the emigration to the New World of Spanish and Portuguese Christians who descended from Jews, could settle in the different colonies of the Spanish Empire in America and Brazil. Persecuted by the Spanish and Portuguese Inquisitions, many of them had to flee to the mountain ranges and to the woods, founding towns sometimes in far away regions, out from the scope of the Inquisition. Through mixed marriages with Indians, they started a lineage of Jews mixed with American Indians, who having very Christian names and Spanish or Portuguese last names, are a part of the population of the Latin American countries of Spanish language and they cannot be distinguished from the rest of the people, because their families have also been Catholic in public for centuries and they are still Catholic, although they practice Judaism in secret.

Some of these marranos or Latin American clandestine Jews, including those of Brazil, who in public practice the Catholic religion, could elude the Inquisition's vigilance and remained in cities and villages organized as the former ones in super-secret societies, that presently compose the hidden power that controls Freemasonry, the political parties and Marxist guerrillas, that unfortunately have succeeded in imposing a totalitarian dictatorship — Moscow's satellite — in Cuba, led by the Marrano Fidel Castro.

Many of these Marranos have for many years introduced their children in the seminaries of the Catholic Church and even the convents of nuns and friars, enabling them to enter surreptitiously into the positions of canon, bishop, archbishop and even cardinal, as clandestine Jews have done in Italy and France and other Catholic countries. These Catholic priests, who are Jews in secret, are the publishers of the so-called Catholic progressivism and the leaders of the Jewish-Marxist subversion in the Catholic Church, that is at the service of Moscow. The Marranos also infiltrate all political parties, from the right to the left, and all institutions and governments of Portuguese and Spanish speaking. Nevertheless, due to their scarce military abilities, although they also infiltrate the armed forces, they have not succeeded to control them with the exception of Cuba; that is why the sea and land armies of those nations are the less infiltrated institutions and that is why they have always been the hope of liberation of those peoples from the subversion and conquest of the clandestine Judaism. (1).

Regarding the black African Jews, the Castilian Jewish Encyclopedia — word "Falasha" — mentions the following: "Falasha. Name given to native Jews from Abyssinia. They call themselves 'Beta Israel' (Israel's house), while "Ayhud" (Jew) was an unknown term among them. It is an ethnical group of strong African mixture". . . "Abyssinian legend states that they are Jews that abandoned Palestine with Menelik, Solomon's son. Halevy believed they were the result of a mixture between himyaritas Jews — subjected by king Caleb and partially refugees of the mountainous regions of the West — and black natives" ...

"The tradition that imputes them great antiquity in Ethiopia seems to be justified, because the Falasha do not know the talmudic precepts."

The exclusivist racism of these black Jews is confessed in the so-called Jewish Encyclopedia, when it reads that their exclusive villages: "Do not allow the entrance of non-Jews. A kind of synagogue, the mesguid — is located in the highest place in town and in every town there is a house devoted to the ritually impure, called Merghem Biet." (2).

The Falasha negroes, as other Jews of Asia and Africa, were for many centuries untied of western Judaism due to the communication problems before the 18th century. They were, as Hindi, Chinese and many other Jews, united to the international Judaism in somewhat recently times. But despite the centuries of isolation, the Falashas kept the essential characteristics of the Hebrew organization, as for example, discrimination against impures, that is to say, Jewish mixed with gentile blood; Falashas are barefaced and brutal, and they even build — in addition to the synagogue for the pures — another house (which they do not even call synagogue) for the impures. More civilized Jews do this, covering such discriminations in the way we indicated before, surrounding it with the utmost secret so that hybrids do not know they are discriminated against, avoiding the displeasure and violent reactions of hybrids.

Nevertheless, despite of the exclusiveness of the Falashas to prevent the entrance of gentiles to their villages, Falashas think they have the right to become involved in

SEDER OF MARRANOS OR CLANDESTINE LATIN AMERICAN JEWS, INTERRUPTED BY THE INQUISITION.

Marranos, being Catholic in public but Jews in secret, were the main objective of the Spanish and Portuguese Inquisitions. Marranos, as Jews of all the world, celebrate the Israelite Passover, that commemorates the conquest of Egypt by only one Israelite, the famous Joseph of the Bible, and also the exodus of Jews to conquer the seven nations of the land of Canaan. All these conquests are considered by the Jews as a symbol of the conquest of the whole world in which they are engaged now. Everything is annually celebrated in the Pesahim (Pesaj) or Jewish Passover festivity, that has two ritual banquets organized by every Jewish family. Wealthy Jews travel throughout the world to meet in the patriarch's house, either the family father, the grand-father or great-grand-father if they are still alive. In the first Seder of Pesahim toasts are made to the next world conquest by the Israelite nation. Marranos or clandestine Spanish, Portuguese or Latin American Jews, celebrated their Passover and solemn banquets or Seders also hidden and in clandestineness. This picture shows a seder interrupted by the guardians of the Holy Inquisition, which for sure took those marranos who were celebrating that ritual banquet.

the non-Jewish world to perform domination activities. Furthermore, international Judaism has used them as infiltration agents, due to their racial black appearance, to control peoples of black race in different parts of the world, many of them being transferred to different places in the African continent a long time ago.

Worst than all, they have been taken to the United States to organize and control the secret communities of American black Jews. To this regard, it is necessary to quote what Rabbi Jacob Solomon Raisin states in his book named: "Gentile Reactions to Jewish Ideals": "The first Jewish congregation of colored people in the United States was founded in 1889 when Rabbi Leon Richlieu, an Ethiopian, founded the Moorish Temple of Zion." He also says that: "The number increased with judaized negroes of the Western Indies and Black-Jewish congregations were organized in Chicago, Cleveland, Newark, Youngstown, Ashbury Park and other places. Now in the 'Little Africa' in Harlem, the number of members of this place only is estimated over two thousand." (3).

We can see here the great importance that has for Judaism the work performed by the black Ethiopian Rabbi Leon Richlieu in a land for the conquest of Israelite imperialism, that is, the United States; precisely one of those Jews of Abyssinia that are so racist and exclusivist, that in Ethiopia do not allow the entrance to their private villages of non-Jews and who discriminate against the unfortunate impures in such a way that they are not allowed to enter in the synagogues, but instead, special houses for prayers called "Merghem Biet" are built for them.

FIDEL CASTRO BELONGS TO A FAMILY OF CLANDESTINE JEWS THAT HAS PRODUCED LOTS OF PHYSICIANS.

We photocopied the text of the great Jewish work called Castilian Jewish Encyclopedia referred to the famous Marranos or clandestine Jews whose last name is CASTRO, some of them were condemned by the Holy Inquisition for practicing Judaism in secret. As readers may learn from this document, the CASTRO family has produced lots of famous physicians.

The Jewish Encyclopedia says that the word FALASHA means "emigrants" and that these black Jews have a darker skin and are more burly than the Abyssinian Amharas in whose territory they live. Besides, in the Walkait and Tchelga regions, Falasha are known as "Foggara", and the Ilmormas or Gallas, call them "Fenjas" (4). As it can be seen, gentile negroes give different names to the Falashas in the different regions they are infiltrated.

The Jewish Encyclopedia adds that Falashas houses are built in the same way of the rest of the Abyssinian people; also they use the same instruments and speak the same language of the Ethiopian people; they also use similar dresses to those used by the Christian population of Abyssinia. In short: an apparently total assimilation to the rest of the population among whom they are mixed, as infiltrated Israelites do in all countries of the world; but keeping their organization aside, in the way described by the Castilian Jewish Encyclopedia.

The Jewish Encyclopedia continues saying that Falashas are dedicated to all kinds of professions and labors, especially to agriculture (5). To this regard, it is worthwhile to notice that researchers on western Judaism have reached the conclusion that Jews, by nature, hate agriculture and prefer to dedicate themselves to other activities. This, as an absolute rule, is completely false. But it is true that the percentage of peasants among western Jews is very small. But not even the last fact is true regarding

BLACK FALASHA JEWS AND THEIR VILLAGE IN BALANKAB.

As readers may see, this is a village of poor black Falasha Jews. Their huts are as humble as those of the gentile blacks in the African jungle. These peasant Falashas use only trunks and some of them cover with a cloak. It is impossible to distinguish them from the gentile negroes of other African tribes.

many Israelite communities of Africa and Asia, where many Jewish FALASHA of ABYSSINIA, the Jewish TIAO-KIU-KIAOU of China and others, work at agriculture and infiltrate in dangerous proportions the peasant organizations of those countries.

Same thing happens with the Jewish Indians of Latin America, whose ancestors fled from the Inquisition centuries ago and settled in agricultural regions far away from the great population centers, where in either way the so-called Holy Court of the Inquisition operated. In those regions, almost all of them had to dedicate themselves to agriculture and cattle raising. And many of them still do it, monopolizing lands and living as real dictators in the villages, that make and unmake mayors, dedicate to monopolize crops and cereals, buying them at a miserable price from gentile peasants, retailing them at fabulous prices; at the same time, they own the food stores where they sell alcohol and liqueur, also they own billiards and taverns where the vice of alcohol is taught to the peasant youth in order to exploit them and buy their crops to the poor peasants at a lowest price; at the same time, they lend money with usury interest even of one hundred and twenty or two hundred and forty annual interest. The same is done by Jewish usurers in all the world who exploit the peasants in a criminal way, as the Jewish Russian Jakob Alexandrovich Brafman denounced in his book titled: "The Book of Kahal", saying that the Israelites of the Russian Empire did the same with the peasants encouraging the vice of alcoholism among them to buy the crops at the lowest price. This situation was ended by Prime Minister Stolypin of Czar Nicholas II, who took away from the Jews the monopoly they had in the trade of alcohol and liqueurs to prevent them from provoking alcoholism among the peasants; an act which caused Judaism to sentence him to death. The execution was entrusted to the Jew Bogrof, infiltrated in the Imperial Police; he killed Peter Arkadje-vich Stolypin on September 14, 1911, in a theater in Kiev, where Stolypin went to accompany the imperial family. This fact shows once more how dangerous it is to tolerate the infiltration of Jews in the police and armed forces of any country, thus putting them in a position to easily kill the Heads of State or Ministers, when it is convenient for the Jewish imperialism to order such crimes.

The sometimes successful attempt of the Israelite imperialism to conquer Abyssinia started many centuries ago.

The Castilian Jewish Encyclopedia states that in the 10th century there was in Abyssinia a dynasty of Solomonic or Jewish lineage, descendant of the Israelite king Solomon. And to this regard it reads: "At the beginning of the 10th century, a new dynasty called Zague appeared. King Gedeon's wife, named Judith, ousted the legitimate king of SOLOMONIC LINEAGE and ordered the killing of four hundred princes of his dynasty. The ousted king Delhad fled to the South of the country and remained in Shoa, while the new dynasty — that seemed to have several enthusiastic defenders of Christianity — got strong in the North. Ethiopian historians, nevertheless, call the Zague kings "JEWISH KINGS."" (6). If it is so, it might have been the case of a war of Jews against Jews, as it has happened in different countries in the history of the Israelite nation spread throughout the world.

But fortunately for the Ethiopian people, the Castilian Jewish Encyclopedia says that the reign of this Zague dynasty: "ended in 1270, when they were replaced by Yekuno Amlak, although they remained in the Northern part of the country, until they were subjected by king Sarsa Denguel in the 16th century and finally annihilated by Susenyos after the 1617 slaughters." (7)

The reign of the gentile dynasty — the real Ethiopian one — nevertheless, in most of the Abyssinian territory, was disturbed by revolts organized by Judaism, using the Door Proselytes as satellites, as we will see later. They could convert to Israel's religion, some provincial governors, thus turning them into blind instruments of Jewish Imperialism, inciting them to rebellion against the gentile king of Ethiopia, attempting to overthrow him. These and other very valuable informations on the Jewish subversion against the truly Abyssinian dynasty, are contained in the JEWISH ENCYCLOPEDIA, which reads: "Under king Amda-Seyon I (1314-1344) Jews settled in Semien, Wogara, Salamt and Sagade. One of these general kings suppressed a rebellion in Begameder, inhabited by Christians converted to Judaism. After this, a Falasha revolution took place under the reign of Ishak (1412-1429). Zara Yaekob's reign (1434-1468) was disturbed by Amba-Nahad's rebellion, governor of Salamant; Sagay, governor of Semien and of Kantiba; all of them had ABJURED of Christianity and had CONVERTED TO JUDAISM." (8). So the black Jews of Abyssinia were using the Door Proselytes converted from Christianity to Israel's religion, as a means to conquer the domination in Abyssinia, as they attempt to do now with Door Proselytes that are enrolled in Japan and other countries

Rabbis, religious and political leaders of the Synagogue's Brotherhoods, to avoid that the very poor Jews of all the world become envious of the very rich Jews and millionaires, preach them that ISRAEL'S GOD GAVE THEM POVERTY AS A BLESSING, BECAUSE WITH THAT POVERTY THEY WILL BE BETTER LEADERS OF THE GENTILE PROLETARIAT, WITH WHICH SOCIALIST REVOLUTION, ISRAEL WILL OBTAIN THE TOTALITARIAN AND ABSOLUTE DOMAIN ON ALL NATIONS. They give them Lenin's example and also those of Jews of the poor class that could conquer the former Russian empire and become its absolute masters.

or communities, where true Jews, Jews by blood, are not numerous enough to be able to accomplish such goal by themselves, and need gentile puppets easily manageable, as Door Proselytes are generally.

Judaism plans to turn Door Proselytes into slaves — because they are of gentile blood — after the establishment of their totalitarian dictatorship (called the "MESSIANIC REGIME"). They plan to destroy all gentile religions, as they believe is prophesied in the Bible and Talmud; the only religion existing then shall be Israel's religion, to which all gentile pigs will be forced to convert, being then transformed in DOOR PROSELYTES, or being murdered if they refuse to do so. So the present Door Proselytes are simply the pioneers of this spiritual yoke preceding the material slavery, because all our gentile descendants are destined to be Door Proselytes and slaves when Judaism substitutes the transitory Communist regime — which will convert them into slaves of the State, managed by Jews of blood — by a so-called "MESSIANIC REGIME", also led by true Jews, the Jews of blood, in a dictatorial and totalitarian way.

The Jewish Encyclopedia continues saying about the armed struggles fought between the Falasha and the gentiles of Abyssinia, the Falasha being defeated and sometimes persecuted. One of these persecutions resulted in that in 1626 the Falasha of Dembea, terrorized as the Encyclopedia says because of the emperor's cruelty, massively embraced Christianity (9). We already know because of what has systematically occurred through centuries, that these massive Jewish conversions to Christianity, Islam or any other religion, result only in the creation of a CLAN-DESTINE JUDAISM covered with the mask of the pretendedly adopted religion. These happenings caused the existence of clandestine Jews covered with the mask of Christianity in Abyssinia that help a lot the tyrant Jewish emperor Haile-Selassie keep the real Ethiopian people subjected.

The Jewish Encyclopedia says that the fall of the second JEWISH dynasty already mentioned, "created a series of civil wars that finally took king SHOA to the power of the first SOLOMONIC dynasty, who adopted the name of Menelik II. Year 1889". (10). But, as we already observed in another chapter (See booklet No. 6 of the Library of "Political Secrets" titled: "The Jewish Fifth Column in India"), this conquest of Abyssinia by a Jewish emperor could be accomplished only with the criminal help of the British imperialism, already converted into a satellite of the Jewish Imperialism, due to the control exerted by the British Jews over the London government and over the banking, industrial and commercial monopolies established in England, that exploited the wealth and people in the colonies of the British empire in the benefit of those Jewish super-capitalists. To this effect, as we already said in the above mentioned chapter, British troops of the British-Indian army, composed and led partially by Hindu Beni-Israel Jews, invaded Abyssinia and ousted the reigning gentile dynasty in 1889, replacing it with the present Jewish dynasty of the Israelite Haile Selassie, that tyrannize and exploit the Ethiopian people.

When the Jewish Imperialism cannot — by itself — through its fifth column in a country, take over the government, it uses foreign armed intervention, or economic or diplomatic exaction made by governments controlled by the Jewish power, to remove the gentile government and replace it with a government subjected to the hidden control of the Israelite imperialism. This gloomy role was played by the yankee imperialism during the 19th and 20th centuries until the Second World War, in those cases, of course, when the United States presidency has been in the hands of a clandestine Jew or of a gentile masonic puppet, highly-controlled by the Jewish hidden power.

MEXICAN JEWISH INDIANS

The mixture of Spanish marranos, or Spanish clandestine Jews, with the native race of America in the colonies of the old Spanish empire, brought as a consequence the birth of a new Jewish stock, with great mixture of Indian blood. These marranos in many cases appear as Indians with very dark skin, so nobody can distinguish them from the true Indians or hybrids of the Latin American countries. They use Christian names and genuinely Spanish last names and most of them profess the Catholic religion in public, being Jews only in secret. Nevertheless, a small number of them have left the mask of Catholicism to practice Judaism in public. This picture shows the public synagogue in the village of Venta Prieta, located near Mexico City, with some JEWISH INDIANS of the poor class outside it.

United States intervention in Mexico and other Latin American countries frequently resulted in the ousting of patriotic governments, replacing these with regimes controlled by the MARRANOS, that is to say, clandestine Jews of Latin America, sometimes with the help of Masonry, manipulated by the Israelite hidden power. The British imperialism was used by Judaism with the same purpose in other continents.

The domination of the Israelite Imperialism over Ethiopia has also been facilitated because in that country there is a Christian religion highly-judaized in its doctrine. The Castilian Jewish Encyclopedia says the following in this regard: "After the conquest of Egypt by the Mohammedans, Ethiopians adopted the Monophysite Christianity of the Coptic Church in the 7th century, but they still keep certain Jewish customs. They keep Sunday (the great Sabbath) and Saturday (the little Sabbath); also the circumcision of both sexes on the eighth day, the priests' dance in front of the Tabot, the building of churches imitating the Jerusalem temple, THEIR PREFERENCE FOR THE OLD TESTAMENT and their hope to return to Jerusalem. Saturday is kept as a HOLY day under the name of Sanbat. In addition to certain pagan practices, they also keep the rules on diet provided in the Bible AND THE FORBIDDING OF CARVED IMAGES." (11).

It is necessary to emphasize that other very much judaized Christians in countries like Scotland and the United States, have also facilitated the domination of those nations by the Jewish Imperialism. That is why Judaism now — in control of the Catholic Church — attempts to progressively judaize the church in order to change her into an efficient instrument to control the peoples that have that religion, despite of the desperate fight carried out by some courageous Catholic clergymen, who have publicly denounced this perverse maneuver, as the authors of the book "The Plot Against the Church" and the Mexican priest Joaquin Saenz Arriaga, who has proved that Pope Paul VI is a clandestine Jew descending from an Israelite family of Brescia, that falsely converted to Christianity centuries ago.

That is why that Catholic clergyman says that the election of Paul VI to the Papacy is null and has no value, as in the case of Cardinal Pierleoni, who in 1130 was elected Pope with the name of Anacletus II. That election was declared void first by St. Bernard and various local councils (French, German and of other countries) convoked by the kings and the German emperor. That nullity was later confirmed by the Second Ecumenical Council of Nicea, taking as a basis St. Bernard's thesis that the election of a clandestine Jewish cardinal as Pope was null and had no value, although he was elected by three fourths of the cardinals and wrongly recognized for many years as the legitimate pope, as happened with Cardinal Pierleoni (12).

We have been informed that Rev. Saenz Arriaga states that for these and other reasons, Paul VI is an anti-Pope, that is to say, a false Pope, an impostor, and that the Pope's position is vacant, as has happened in the history of the Church before, and that for this reason, the Catholic Heads of State or one or two bishops, may convoke to an imperfect general council with the HEALTHY AND ORTHODOX part of the Church (although at the beginning this would constitute a minority as in Pierleoni's case) to elect a legitimate Pope. This was what happened on other occasions in the history of the Church, and there is sufficient canonical ecclesiastic jurisprudence to justify such a procedure; on this subject Maurice Pinay quotes ecclesiastic documents in his book titled "A Pope Excommunicated Due to His Negligence to Fight Heresy" (13).

Besides, Rev. Saenz Arriaga states that because Paul VI is a clandestine Jew, he has been filling the See and the Cardinals' Body with other clandestine Jews, who are demolishing the Church and converting her into a satellite of Judaism and of the Communist subversion led by the Jews of the Kremlin, by Fidel Castro and other Marxist leaders controlled by Judaism. All of this information has been compiled by this priest in two books: "The New Montinian Church" (first edition published by the Christian Book Club of America, 1971) and "Vacant Seat" (Editores

The type of these Chilean marranos is genuinely Spanish, their skin is white.

A great sector of clandestine Jews of Latin America, including Brazil, did not mix with the native race of America and are of white race, descending from Spaniards and Portuguese. There are some even of blond hair and blue eyes, descending from the mixture of Jews and Germanic Visigoths of Spain and the Germanic Vandals of Portugal. Nevertheless, the names of these Marranos are Christian and their last names are Portuguese or Spanish; all of them profess the Catholic religion in public and are Jews in secret. They lead the Marxist movements in Latin America and the Marxist rural and urban guerrillas, as well as the Catholic clergy called "Progressivist", that is at the service of Moscow.

Asociados, S. de R. L. edition, 1973). These have been sensational throughout the world, and especially in the Catholic world.

We also know that Paul VI still has not dared — at least until now — to recognize the State of Israel, precisely because of the accusations launched against him from different countries, saying that Paul VI is a Jew who attempts to turn the Catholic Church into a satellite of Israel. Maybe he believes that this recognition would give more basis to those accusations, putting him into a more difficult situation, especially if the Arabs know how to take advantage of this situation. We give most cordial congratulations to all Catholic clergymen and civilians who fight against the new Judas, who attempt to convert the Catholic Church in an instrument of Israel, that has proven to be worst enemy of Christ and of his church through the centuries!

It is not surprising, then, that Paul VI uses his clandestine Jewish clergymen in the capitalist world to sow subversion to the benefit of Jewish Communism in a secret agreement with the Kremlin, and that Paul VI also attempts to use the Catholic clergy in Popular China and Albania, as an agent of subversion and espionage in the benefit of the Soviet Union imperialism. For this reason, in a very skillful way he has tried to praise the Maoist regime and to win its confidence to get its permission to send Jesuit and other kinds of missionaries, with the secret mission of sowing subversion and spying in China and Albania at the service of Moscow.

It is a real crime that Paul VI is using the Catholic clergy for purposes so contrary to the Church created by Christ, betraying his doctrine like Judas, which is not com-pative with the doctrine of the masters of Kremlin, who are helped constantly in different ways by Paul VI, supported by his collaborators among the high and low clergy. It is somewhat similar to the role played in China by some Protestant churches controlled by Judaism, which are nothing but infiltrators in China of the JEWISH SUPER-IMPERIALISM either at the service of the capitalist Jewish imperialism or of the Moscow socialist imperialism, according to the convenience of the Israelite super-Imperialism.

During the conquest of Ethiopia by the Italian fascist imperialism, the Ethiopian Viceroy, Duke of Aosta, tried to extirpate Judaism in that country, but he committed the same mistakes that for centuries have done Christians and Moslems. He issued decrees dissolving the Israelite communities of Addis Abeba and Diredawa, naively thinking this was enough to finish them. The only thing he achieved was the disappearance of these communities from the surface to sink in clandestinity, as has happened in other occasions.

When the British imperialism put the Jewish emperor Haile Selassie on his throne again, Judaism became radiantly strong in Ethiopia and was reinforced by new emigrations. In this regard, the Castilian Jewish Encyclopedia says that: "the Jewish immigration to the country started again after the liberation of the country, during the Second World War. Emperor Haile Selassie CALLED SEVERAL JEWISH ADVISORS AND TECHNICIANS FROM PALESTINE AND OTHER PLACES" . . . (14).

This was not enough for the Jewish tyrant Haile Selassie and his black Jewish Ethiopian advisors. Instead, in a barefaced way he brought Jewish advisors and technicians from Israel and other places. It is not surprising, for the same reason, that experts on these questions consider the government of the usurper Emperor Haile Selassie as Jewish as those of Israel and the Soviet Union, and that for this and other reasons already mentioned in this chapter, ABYSSINIA OR ETHIOPIA was converted by the Jewish Imperialism into a very powerful instrument to exert diplomatic control or influence over the black African nations, the third world nations — called neutralist — having a machiavelian diplomacy always tending to exert the highest possible control in these fields and to prevent the influence of the true gentile leaders there, who could lead the black nations, the neutralist world in general, and the underdeveloped world, to their real liberation from the Jewish super-imperialism and its tentacles: the Jewish capitalist imperialism of the trusts, the Jewish Communist imperialism of the Kremlin, of Belgrade or Havana, the Zionism or even the Jewish black imperialism of Ethiopia.

This explains why both the capitalist governments of the United States and England and the so-called Socialist government of the State of Israel, as well as the Soviet Union, helped — in surprising coincidence — the tyrant emperor Haile Selassie of Ethiopia in the economic and military fields, to solve his internal difficulties and to bloodily fight against the Somali patriots that fight for their independence, and the Ethiopian patriots that sometimes revolt against the despotic Jewish regime that presses them.

The liberation of Abyssinia from the tyrannic claw of the usurper Jewish dynasty, in the person of Haile Selassie, that presses the Ethiopian people would not only liberate them of the Jewish exploitation that presses them, but would destroy one of the Jewish local powers plotting in the ORGANIZATION OF AFRICAN UNITY and in other organizations of underdeveloped peoples avoiding that the true patriotic leaders may lead them united to the real liberation from the imperialist claws in every aspect.

We will now do a brief study of other BLACK JEWISH communities similar to the FALASHA of Ethiopia that are spread in different countries of the black Africa.

The Israelite Jewish leader Rabbi Jacob Solomon Raisin, writing about the BLACK JEWS of Africa, says that: "Similar racial reminiscences (to those of the Falasha) are found in the country around Lake Albert, Edward Nyasa and the Tanganyika territory", and continues saying that: "in Somaliland and Mozambique island before the Christian Age there were strong Jewish emigrations, that according to a tradition, started from the great commercial cities of Yemen, Aden and Hadremut."

Later on, the mentioned Rabbi refers to other Jewish highly important nuclei in black Africa, textually saying: "These countries of 'Ultima terra', as Romans called them, were the starting point for Jews exiled to the African lands of negroes. The fall of Jerusalem and the disastrous uprising of Bar Kokba, forced many Jewish gangs to flee from the Roman revenge as far as it was possible. Jerome says they established a non-interrupted chain of colonies from Mauretania to India. Due to their efforts, Ghana — in the French Sudan — turned to be an important commercial center" (15). It is very interesting to note that Ghana is one of the more important centers of black Judaism; also coincident with that, is the fact that it is also one of the more important centers of the Communist agitation among the black race people. It is most frequent — as it may be seen — this coincidence in history, which consists that places mostly inhabited by Jews are, as it is natural, the main centers of the revolutionary agitation of a Hebrew origin.

The mentioned Rabbi continues to give details on the black Jews of Africa saying: "There are relics of Hebraism spread through the Tuaregs and many tribes of the Nigerian territory that say they have Hebrew ancestry, especially in the regions of the Lake Chad, Bornu and Skoto." "There is still Jewish flavor in the precepts of the Fulani and other tribes of the Green Cape region and Senegal along the south-western African coast around Congo and Guinea. In Dahomey there is a judaized community; they have a temple where they offer sacrifices; they also have a Pentateuch written in 'parchment' and keep Saturday and other Jewish ceremonies." The learned Rabbi ends by informing about another community composed by some 400 families (16) who say they have Semitic ancestors. Some of them are called Am Yah Khayyun or Emo Yo Quayim (people of the living God) and others the Bnai Efraim (sons of Efraim). The mentioned Israelite leader speaks later of many tribes infiltrated in the Arab countries of North Africa (17).

The Castilian Jewish Encyclopedia gives information on some Jews of the black Africa that are considered by Judaism as mere Door Proselytes, but as it is shown, they are also controlled and strongly led by the Judaical imperialism. Regarding these gentile negroes of Israelite religion, the Encyclopedia says: "Also in other African regions, negroes of Jewish religion have been found. Adolf Bastian identified the MAVAMBU as such, in the Loango coast, West Africa. They keep Saturday. In Madagascar, there is a sect called 'Zafy Ibrahim' (Abraham's descendants) that keep some Judaical rites." And regarding the true black Jews, that is to say, those who have Israelite origin, the Encyclopedia adds that: "Finally, we found some negroid people among Jews in North Africa" (18).

That is why the Jewish fifth column in the black African people is numerous and ramified; they have tried to take over the governments of several black nations when they got their independence, especially in the former British colonies where Jews that manipulate the British imperialism have done their best — sometimes successfully — to place their black Jewish brothers in the government of the new independent states. Some of these black Jews have been able to establish totalitarian dictatorships of a Communist type with the support of the Kremlin's Jews and the Marrano Jew Fidel Castro, who sends military advisors to train their armies.

The worst thing is that many black Jews, including the Door Proselytes, are the main agents at the service of Kremlin to oust the black nationalist governments and replace them with totalitarian dictatorships of a bolshevik kind, satellites of the Soviet Jewish imperialism. These black Jews try to control also the independence movements of the few colonies remaining in black Africa, including those of Portugal and Spain, eliminating from the control of those movements the real black patriots. Not because Judaism is interested in the liberation of black nations from the colonial domination, but because it wants to substitute this domain by the domination of black Jews over the nations that obtain their independence, to lead them later to the Jewish totalitarian dictatorship covered with the Communist mask.

The Jewish super-imperialism uses its other satellite imperialisms to control the black African countries. Those imperialisms are the Jewish capitalist imperialism, the imperialist Zionism of the State of Israel and the black imperialism of Ethiopia, so that many black Jews serve as agents of those imperialisms according to what it is convenient in each case for the Jewish super-imperialism. Fortunately, some governments left in the power by the British imperialism, have been overthrown by the military, thus frustrating the Jewish maneuver. On the other hand, black patriots in most cases have achieved the control over the governments of their nations, always with the army's help, that as in other parts of the world, has constituted the best defense of the peoples against the Jewish imperialism and its hidden powers that lead subversion. Besides, communist China's interference in black Africa has been able to frustrate many maneuvers of the Soviet Union and its satellites, what has also caused great indignations to the Kremlin's Israelites. Some Arabic states have also interfered in defense of the black patriots. Nevertheless, it is necessary to be quite careful of not supporting the black Jews covered with the mask of socialist black patriots.

It is highly necessary to go deeper into the investigations on the black Jewish infiltrations in black African countries, because only extirpating the roots — these fifth columns of the Jewish super-imperialism — will the black nations secure their real liberation of the hidden enemy that threatens them seriously.

Black Jews, either of Ethiopian origin or of other African countries, have also infiltrated both the black population of the United States and of Latin America and the former British colonies of Antilles and Guiana.

They try to control the black population and especially its government everywhere. Others sow revolts and subversion wherever is convenient for Judaism.

Regarding the United States, we must remember what Rabbi Jacob Solomon Raisin says referring to the origin of black Judaism in this great power: "The first colored Jewish congregation in the United States was founded in 1889, when Rabbi Leon Richlieu, an Ethiopian, founded the Moorish Temple of Zion." Later on, regarding the judaized negroes of the British Antilles, he says, referring to the United States, that: "The number was increased with judaized negroes of the Western Indies; black Jewish congregations were organized in Chicago, Cleveland, Newark, Youngstown, Ashbury Park and OTHER PLACES. Now in the 'Small Africa' in Harlem (black quarter of New York), the members only of that place are over two thousand." (19).

Among negroes, as in all other racial communities less infiltrated of Judaism, the Israelite imperialism promotes, as I said before, Door Proselitism to enlarge their unconditional control strength. But in the case of some black communities, imperialist Jews are using the same deceit and lie they are using in Japan, that is to say, they are making them believe the great falsehood that the black race descends from one of the lost Jewish tribes of the ancient times. Many negroes have been cheated by telling them they descend from the Judah's tribe, nothing less. This is confirmed by the Israelite leader Rabbi Jacob S. Raisin who textually says: "Among some negroes, prevails the belief that to accept Judaism means nothing less than to return to the religion of their ancestors, who belonged to Judah's tribe" (20). The truth is that it has been the real black Jews who have spread this big lie to facilitate the Door Proselitism among the gentile negroes in those countries and places where it is needed by the Israelite imperialism, and through the conversion of negroes to Israel's religion, to increase the number of obedient puppets who can be used as instruments of the Jewish imperialism to control the black population and use it as satellite of Judaism.

Nevertheless, blacks cheated by this falsehood will suffer some day painful disappointments when thinking they are real Jews, they want to exert their rights as such; they will be racially discriminated in a brutal way as it has occurred with the disgraced Door Proselytes of white race and other races that have attempted to exert their rights as Jews in the way we exposed in another chapter of this book (see booklet No. 3 of the Library of Political Secrets, titled "What is Judaism?" Chapter Three) devoted to the study of Door Proselytes or Spiritual Jews.

(20) Rabbi Jacob Solomon Raisin, p. 793.

The goal of the Jewish super-imperialism in the United States is, using its fifth column infiltrated among the negroes, to control this racial minority to the benefit of the Jewish plans.

Then, Rabbi Jacob S. Raisin, for example, says that the black Jews of the United States: "are identified with the hopes and aspirations of the white Jews, participating in activities of Zionism and sharing their feelings with the victims of Nazism" (21). At present, as the United States and its capitalist democratic system is a hinder for the world triumph of Jewish totalitarianism covered with the mask of Communism, many black Jewish leaders are devoted to exploit the resentment of negroes against people of white race to provoke the race struggle in the United States, which at a certain moment provokes anarchy and chaos in that country, militarily weakening it in the benefit of the Soviet Union.

To this regard, it is highly illustrative what a highly authorized Jewish source, the Israelite leader Rabbi Jacob Solomon Raisin, says in his above mentioned book, the way how one of the Jewish Rabbis, David Kohl, of the "Chevrah Anshe Sh'horim", association of negroes, inflames the spirit of the black Jews when he tells them: "You are Jews; Judaism is your religion and your language is the Hebrew language. During the past 400 years you have worshipped foreign gods and have been subjected and subdued among the foreigners (that is to say the Americans) during all these years. But the white Jew has also been among foreigners. He has been in 'Golus'. Study your history and you will see that there have been pogroms in Russia, Poland and all Europe, exactly as ne- groes have had fire and lynchings in the South (of the United States)." Then he refers to the alliance that must be established between Jews and the black race in the United States against the oppression of whites, when he textually says: "Jews and negroes should welcome each other, because the Jew is the best friend of the Negro . . . Time has come to break the yoke and join our hands with Jacob and shout 'Shema Israel, Adhoshem Elokenu, Adoshem Echad' . . . (22).

(21) Rabbi Jacob Solomon Raisin, p. 793.

Only the theatrical cynicism of the Jews can reach the point of pretending to be not only the great friends and allies of the negroes but also their redeemers. It is shocking that Israelites now try to cheat the negroes with this new lie. In order to be able to judge the sincerity of Jews as supposed great friends and redeemers of negroes, it is extremely necessary that readers study the next chapter of this book, where we prove with authority that it was the Jews who were mainly responsible for the disgraces suffered by the negroes both in the United States and Latin America, because the criminal Jewish merchants brought the chained slaves — piled up as if they were animals — in dirty ships from their native land, Africa, where they were free, to sell them as slaves in the New World. Those criminal Israelite slavers made enormous profit in money with the most gigantic and brutal genocide performed in the history of mankind.

In the next chapter we will start with a brief history about the Jewish slaves trade since the most remote beginnings, to end with the infame Jewish trade of black slaves to which we refer in the above paragraph.

(22) Rabbi Jacob Solomon Raisin, p. 793.

Fortunately, both among the negroes in the United States and the rest of the New World as in Africa, strong sectors have appeared that have become aware of the fact that Jews are their enemies, although they are disguised as friends and redeemers. Undoubtedly, Islam has had great influence in the appearance of this healthy trend. The reading of the next chapter of this book by people of black race, will be helpful for those negroes that still doubt about these facts, so they become convinced of the bare truth.

CHAPTER II

JEWS: SLAVE TRADERS

Jews have tried to use to their benefit the resentment of the United States blacks against the white people for the centuries during which they were subjected first to slavery and later to more subtle economic exploitation.

The Jewish imperialism exploits any favorable circumstance to control and manage gentiles in the benefit of their secret plans of domination. For a century and a half, Israelites have worked in the benefit of the United States to use the power of that nation for their own interests. In this way, the United States have turned into bulldogs of Israel. But now that Judaism has been able to establish totalitarian states where its domination is absolute and unquestionable, as the Soviet Union, Yugoslavia and others, it works at present in the benefit of the Jewish Communism and against the United States, where its power, even great, is neither absolute nor totalitarian. Jews, with the ingratitude that characterizes them, now betray this nation that helped them more than any other to achieve world domination; but they continue to use the United States whenever they need her support in the benefit of the State of Israel or of any other Jewish enterprise.

In the United States, nevertheless, Jews have worked to engage negroes against white in order to encourage the race struggle and weaken this country, but mainly to control and manipulate the negroes in order to consolidate the Jewish domination in the United States; Israelites appear as liberators and defenders of the black population of that nation. But it is evident that although it is really fair the resentments of black against white because of the years of slavery and discrimination, it would be a disaster for they themselves and for the rest of mankind, that negroes allow the imperialist Jews to conquer and dominate them: they hypocritically pretend, since the Secession War, to be their liberators and friends, but those Israelites have been the worst exploiters of the black population and the main responsible for the slavery they suffered, as I will show with unquestionable proofs after I remind the history of the Jewish slave trade.

The Jewish Encyclopedia, under word "slave-trade", says as follows:

"At the beginning, the trade of Jewish slaves was forbidden, but it seems there was no legal (Jewish) restriction for buying and selling gentile slaves. With the dispersion of nations in Europe and the conflict appeared between Aryans (23) and Catholics in Spain for religious reasons, Jews had the opportunity . . . of furnishing both parts with slaves". . . In Italy "In times of Pope Gregory the Great (590-604) Jews HAD TURNED TO BE THE MAIN TRADERS IN THIS TRAFFIC (OF SLAVES) . . . Jacobs has indicated that British slaves exposed in the Roman market for sale were in the hands of Jewish traders." (Jacobs. Jews of Angevin England, page 5)... And the Jewish Encyclopedia — the Jewish work of unquestionable value — continues to state as follows: "With the appearance of Islam, Jews had the great opportunity of supplying the Christian world with Moslem slaves, and they also supplied the Islamic world with Christian slaves; Ibn Khordadhbéh in the ninth century described the two ways through which the Jewish slave traders took western slaves to the Orient and eastern slaves to the West." "According to Abraham Ibn Yakub, Byzantine Jews regularly brought slaves to Prague to sell them as slaves" ... "Undoubtedly many of the Spanish Jews became wealthy due to the slave trade" ... "Jews of Verdun (France) by 949 used to buy slaves to sell them in Spain" ... "The Church protested repeatedly against the sale of Christians (as slaves) to Jews; the first protest occurred in 538. In the 3rd. Council of Orleans a decree was approved forbidding Jews to own Christian slaves or servants, and this prohibition was repeated again and again in different councils, like that of Orleans in 541, the one in Paris in 633, the 4th Council of Toledo in 633, the Councils of Szaboles (1092), Ghent, (1112), Narbonne (1227), Beziers (1246)" ... (24). These so repeated forbiddings in the different councils indicate that in spite of them, Jews backslid in the possession and sale of Christian slaves. In Islam laws were also published forbidding Jews to have Moslem slaves and dedicate to sell them, but Israelites, the same as in Christianity, evaded the prohibitive laws and continued to enrich themselves with the most criminal exploitation of man by man, that have ever existed.

(23) The Jewish Encyclopedia refers to the Arrian Visigoths when it says Aryans.

The Israelite leader Rabbi Jacob Solomon Raisin, writing about Jews in Hungary in the tenth century, says: "As in OTHER COUNTRIES, they dedicated to trade, especially with Bohemia, they took NON-Jewish slaves" (25), that is to say, gentiles.

As slave trade was a traditional Jewish business, they did their best to obtain permission from the gentile kings to buy and sell slaves. Among the concessions they obtained in Charlemagne's empire during the reign of Louis "the Merciful", they could buy and sell pagan slaves (26). It was easy for them to get this and other concessions from Emperor Louis, because the one that really governed during his regrettable reign was Empress Judith, who, the French historian Guy Breton says, was a beautiful Israelite girl who entered in the Emperor's service as a maid, but later caught the Emperor with her beauty, first becoming the king's concubine and later she persuaded the king — who was completely dominated by her — to marry him, thus becoming the empress of the Carlovingian empire, which was then practically ruled by her, in front of the indignation and scandal of the nobles and the people, who raised against "THE JEWESS'" domination, as all of them called her. She was responsible that when this mournful emperor died, the empire was divided into three kingdoms, without keeping the unity desired by the founder Charlemagne. Later, the Israelite empress arranged everything to eliminate the successors appointed by Louis "the Merciful", who were the children of his first marriage, so she could control the succession when the emperor died;

she partially succeeded in this plan (27).

This chapter would be too long if I continue mentioning the numberless instances when Israelites dedicated to the criminal trade of buying and selling slaves throughout the world. Centuries before the appearing of the capitalist regime — another Israelite creation — Jews turned that business into one of the monopolies that rendered them more profit. I shall only mention now the role played by Jews in the infamous trade of black slaves from Africa to North and South America.

The Castilian Jewish Encyclopedia, facing the so generalized accusations against the Jews throughout the world because they were dedicated and almost monopolized the infamous slave trade, tries to defend them in a way that can be so easily refuted. Nevertheless, that encyclopedia — talking about the trade of black slaves from Africa to America — confesses as follows: "When at the beginning of the 16th century black slaves were introduced in America, we ONCE MORE find SPANISH, PORTUGUESE AND DUTCH JEWS among the traders and slave owners." (28).

Regarding the Spanish Jews, it is necessary to remember that even since the discovery of America by Christopher Columbus, they had attempted to obtain — through the discoverer — from the kings of Spain, the authorization to consider the aborigines of the New World as slaves; that business would have given great profits to those Israelites, subjecting millions of Indians to slavery, to sell them later as slaves in the rest of the world, just as they would do years later with millions of blacks from the African continent.

The Jewish Encyclopedia says that there were five Jews coming with Christopher Columbus in his first trip, one of them called Luis de Torres (29). The Castilian Jewish Encyclopedia states who were the other four, saying in this regard: "Among Columbus' companions some of them can be mentioned as of Jewish origin; Luis de Torres, INTERPRETER, who knew Hebrew, Chaldean and some Arabian; Alonso de la Calle, Rodrigo Sanchez de Segovia, relative of Treasurer Gabriel Sanchez, who accompanied Columbus because of the Queen's express desire; Marco Cirujano and the physician and apothecary of the ship, Bernal, who had been imposed a punishment from the Inquisition of Valencia because he was a judaizer (that is to say, because he practiced Judaism in secret) in 1490. Luis de Torres was the first European who stepped on the American continent and was sent by Columbus to look for the Great Asian Jan and offer him the Admiral's respects. Torres' expedition to Cuba saw the Indians smoking tobacco and brought leaves of that tree to Europe. Later on, Torres settled in the Cuban island and obtained land and SLAVES and an annual pension from the Spanish kings" . . . "Luis de Torres was the FIRST JEW who lived and died in American land."" (30).

Investigator Malcolm Cowley says that Sanchez, helped by the other four mentioned Jews, convinced Columbus to capture 500 Indians to sell them as slaves in Seville, Spain (31). For that reason, Luis de Torres and Rodrigo Sanchez were the first slave traders in America; but their criminal trade was stopped on time and forbidden due to the decided interference of Queen Elizabeth "the Catholic" of Spain, who in addition to her husband Ferdinand FORBADE THE INDIANS' SLAVERY IN THE SPANISH DOMAINS, establishing so serious penalties to those who attempted to enslave the Indians. This protecting disposition for the Indians against the Israelite attempts to enslave them, was reinforced and consolidated after the Spanish conquest of America with the issuing of the famous LAWS OF THE INDIES, that in addition to prohibiting the slavery of the Indians in the Spanish empire, protected them against exploitation, bad treatment and despoiling of their lands. The fact that Spain avoided that Jews made the gigantic business of the trade of Indian slaves they had projected and started, is another reason for the atavistic hate Israelites have against Spain, and for the creation and diffusion of the so-called slanderous black legend against that country, published by the Jews and their satellites in all the world since centuries ago in history books, novels, scientific books, movie pictures, etc.

Continuing with the subject of the criminal trade of black slaves started by the Jews in the British colonies of North America, that upon their independence became the United States, it was the city port of Newport in the Atlantic coast, where Israelites established the world center of black slaves trade. Ships to Africa sailed from there, to be filled with black slaves who were taken to Newport to be sold in the former British colonies of the South that accepted that infamous trade, because the colonies in the North always forbade it. Another great center for the slave trade was the city of Charleston. At the same time, Newport and Charleston were also great Jewish centers, to the extreme that Newport was known then as the "JEWISH NEWPORT", where Israelites manufactured great amounts of rum to be sold to the Indians, thus promoting the vice of inebriation, which gave great profits to the Jews that manufactured and distributed rum.

It is confirmed that in only one year, out of 128 ships destined in Charleston to transport black slaves, 120 were freighted by Jews both from Newport and Charleston; this shows that Jews had almost the monopoly of the criminal trade of black slaves.

One of the most distinguished Israelites who controlled the black slaves trade was the Portuguese Jew Aaron Lopez, who had a whole fleet of ships destined to bring slaves, most of them freighted under his own name. An investigation on this matter titled "Who Brought the Slaves to the United States" from where we took this information, also indicates that the existing documents on this issue show that the Jew Aaron Lopez, between years 1726 and 1774, freighted under his own name the fifty per cent of the ships entrusted to bring slaves from Africa, and that he also had other ships freighted under the name of people he trusted. Most of the rest of ships freighted for the black slave trade also appear freighted by Jews. At the same time, in 1749, the Jews of this region founded the first Masonic Lodge with fourteen brothers, all of them Jews. Twenty years later, Israelites founded the second

Masonic Lodge called "King David" (the Jewish king David); all of the founding members were also Jews (32). As we have said, it is a system of the Israelite Imperialism to found its subversive organizations with an initial Jewish cell composed either by public or clandestine Jews, later enrolling gullible gentiles used deceitfully as blind instruments of the political or social plans of hidden power of Judaism.

But these facts show us once more the point reached by the Jewish hypocrisy, because while the Israelite communities of the region founded there the Secret Masonic Brotherhood that hoisted the banners of freedom, equality and fraternity among men, and whose secret goal was to promote revolution — to oust the gentile monarchies replacing them with republics — hiddenly controlled by Judaism, outstanding members of those Israelite communities carried out the most criminal attempt against the freedom, equality and fraternity of men by bringing to North America the millions of blacks who would be subjected to ignominious slavery.

About the origin of slavery in the United States, it is necessary to take into consideration that before 1661 the 13 British colonies that formed the American nation when they became independent, had laws forbidding slavery.

It was the Jews who since that time started to work tirelessly to achieve the derogation of those laws and that slavery was allowed there, specially the entrance of black slaves to those colonies. In this regard, Jews discovered that the British and European colonists needed additional workmanship for their plantations, the house building and the raising of crops. At the beginning, poor Europeans and prisoners freed from jail were used to do this work as well as prisoners of the war against Holland, were forced to pay the transportation and feeding expenses with work in the plantations and house building; later on, they were released to work in anything they liked.

(32) "Who Brought the Slaves to America", Western Front editions, P.O.B. 27854, Hollywood, California, USA, pp. 5-6.

Considering this situation, outstanding Jews of Newport and Charleston discovered that it would be a great business for them to subject the American Indians to slavery and sell them to the colonists and make a great business out of this. But they reached the conclusion that African blacks had more strength to do this job and decided to start the trade of black slaves, buying native negroes in the western African coast at a very low price, selling them later in America as slaves at a price several times higher, thus obtaining great profits.

But laws forbidding slavery in the colonies avoided the development of the gigantic and criminal business. That is why those Jews who projected it, worked every kind of arrangements to achieve that those laws forbidding the slave trade were derogated. It is enough to review who were the people who fought to obtain that derogation, to prove that they were Jews. So, for example, in documents regarding the issue it says that only in Philadelphia the persons who worked for the derogation of the mentioned laws were all Jews; they were precisely the Israelites: Sandiford, Lay, Woolman, Solomon and Benezet. Nevertheless, all these arrangements failed — with some exceptions — in the Northern colonies that needed less slave work, while in the South, where it was more necessary, Jews obtained the derogation of laws forbidding slavery.

When such derogation was obtained, Israelites proceeded to obtain many ships, buying different merchandises in the African coast that took a small part of the ship, that was mostly occupied with the black slaves obtained whose sale in the colonies of North America was even more easy, because there was malaria in the territories of the Southern colonies, which was not easily tolerated by the white workers. On the contrary, black slaves had to work there forcefully, although they became sick and died because of the malaria. In addition to the Jewish slave traders of Newport and Charleston, the Imperialist Hollander Company of the Western Indies controlled, as we already indicated by Jewish money, had already used previously several ships to transport black slaves to Manhattan (33).

The Carnegie Institute of Technology of Pittsburgh, Pennsylvania, United States, has a library and a file with documents of the time when the black slaves were brought to America, stating the decisive participation of Jews in the criminal trade of those slaves. The careful study of those documents leads us to the conclusion that Jews had in their hands a real MONOPOLY of the black slave trade from Africa to North America (34).

World Judaism has used rum, vodka and liqueurs common to every country, to promote the vice of alcoholism among those they wish either to exploit economically or to enslave. When Jews of Newport and Charleston had the criminal idea of enslaving the North American Indians and sell them as slaves in the British colonies and even in other parts of the world, the first thing they did was to send envoys that sold rum to them, to impress the vice of alcoholism on them. Rum distilleries owned by Jews in Charleston and Newport sent their product to the West and center of the country, that were inhabited by the Indian tribes, and sold it to the leaders. Alcoholism, pretty soon, took over those tribes and the business of rum sale gave great profits to the Jewish exploiters. When they became convinced that the Indians — as they said — because they did not like hand work and for other reasons, were not the ideal slaves for the plantations of the Southern British colonies, and reached the conclusion that the African negroes would be much better, they sent envoys to sell rum to the black tribes of the African western coast, also with the purpose of stimulating the vice of alcoholism in the black tribes and their leaders; this would also give the Israelite exploiters fabulous profits and also would pave the way for the HUNTING of black slaves, as they sarcastically said. That is why the business of rum distillery and sale and the trade of black slaves were closely related in the Jewish businessmen of Newport and Charleston.

Among the Jews of those two cities, that according to documents filed in the Carnegie Institute of Technology of Pittsburgh, Pennsylvania (United States) were dedicated to the slave trade, to rum distillery and in general to both businesses, appeared the following Israelites of Portuguese, Spanish, Dutch and British origin but all of them Jews: "Isaac Gomes; Hayman Levy, Jacob Malhado, Nephtaly Myers, David Hart, Joseph Jacobs, Moses Ben Franks, Moses Gomez, Isaac Dias, Benjamin Levy, David Jeshuvum, Jacob Pinto, Jacob Turk, Daniel Gomez, James Lucana, Jan de Sweevts, Felix (cha-cha) de Souza (known as the prince of slave traders and second in importance after Aaron Lopez), Simeon Potter, Isaac Elizer, Jacob Rod, Jacob Rodriguez Rivera, Haym Isaac Carregal, Abraham Touro, Moses Hays, Moses Lopez, Judah Touro, Abraham Mendes and Abraham Ali" (35).

Slave traders gave their ships the most picturesque names; the names of a group of 15 ships dedicated to the criminal trade of black slaves are given as follows:

(35) W.F.— "Who Brought the Slaves to America", p. 17.

Jews of Newport owned 300 ships to transport black slaves from Africa to North America, and if it is taken into consideration that from the 600 ships leaving Newport for the rest of the world half of them left for black Africa, it can be clearly seen that Israelites had the MONOPOLY of black slaves trade from Africa to North America (36).

To successfully do the black slave trade, Jews of Newport, Charleston and Virginia not only bought adequate ships to transport them from one continent to the other, but they created an AFRICAN AGENCY in the western coast of Africa to buy slaves, also led by Jews and that was deeply introduced in the African continent with branches including leaders of groups, villages, etc. who could win many leaders of black tribes to collaborate in this great Israelite business of black slave trade. To win the sympathy and confidence of the leaders of black tribes, Jews used the same system they used with the red skin Indians. At the beginning they gave rum to the black caciques and so patiently they sunk them in the vice of alcoholism; they sold them rum exchanging it for gold and other valuable things that negroes sold at a lowest price for some rum, and when they finished their gold and valuable effects, Israelites induced the alcoholized negroes to sell their children and grandchildren. In fact these Jews did nothing but to use the same system that the Bible's Old Testament says the Israelite Joseph used in Egypt, when exploiting the misery and famine existing then, Joseph sold foodstuffs to the Egyptians first in exchange of money, and when this was ended, in exchange of their cattle and lands; when Egyptians had nothing, Joseph sold provisions in exchange of their own persons, turning them into slaves.

(36) "Who Brought the Slaves to America", pp. 12-17.

In order for our readers to personally verify that what I have just said really appears in the Old Testament of the Bible, I would appreciate they take a Bible and read verses from the 13 to the 21 of chapter forty-seven of the Genesis. Israelites or Jews that every year study and comment these biblical passages, consider as holy this terrible system of exploitation of men by men, because they believe it was ordered to Joseph by Israel's God. And as divine commands are eternal, these commands given by God are still in operation nowadays, and any Jew that becomes rich following those systems does nothing but to obey the will of Israel's God, thus practicing the most sublime virtue. Completely opposed to all this is Jesus Christ's doctrine, that preached the love to every man and orders to do good to all of them; that is why Israelites considered him an impostor and condemned him to death.

Unfortunately, while Islamism, Christianity, Buddhism and the other religions order their affiliates to do good to the rest of men, the Jewish religion only orders Jews to do good and consider that the ten commandments can be applied only to the Israelite brothers, but instead orders to exploit, dominate and enslave those men called gentiles in a depreciatory way, mercilessly killing those people that hinder the Jewish plans of domination. For this reason, then, Israelite religion is presently a perverse, noxious and dangerous religion for the rest of mankind.

Another system used by this net of Jewish slave traders was to provoke wars between the black African tribes, in order to buy the war prisoners as slaves from their victors, exchanging them for rum, arms and ammunitions, that were used to fight against other tribes and get new prisoners to be also sold as slaves to the agents of the great Jewish merchants. It is still necessary to investigate the role played in this infamous trade by the tribes of BLACK JEWS about which we talked in the previous chapter.

Once the Jewish agents bought at a lowest price in the above mentioned ways the unfortunate black men and women, they were chained in couples and led by their guardians through the jungle; these people used whips and beat the negroes to force those who fell on the ground because they were exhausted or those that for any reason refused to continue walking, to resume their horrible march to slavery. Many of these unfortunate blacks fell exhausted and sick and could not raise again despite the blows they received, and they were abandoned in the jungle to be eaten by the ferocious animals; it was common to find — in these slave routes through the jungle — skeletons and bones of those people who were abandoned because they were sick and could not continue walking by themselves. Some unfortunate negroes — despite of being chained and taking advantage of the negligence of their guardians — tried to run away, but they were easily captured and coldly killed by their guardians, to warn the others.

This gigantic genocide made by Israelites continued to be in effect even after the so-called French Revolution, where the Jews hypocritically were against slavery and used all kinds of nice ideals so that the hidden Jewish power could win the support of the gentile bourgeoisie in its attempt to oust the monarchies replacing them with falsely democratic governments, secretly controlled in fact by the Israelite imperialism. At the very same time in North America and Africa other Jews practiced the most criminal slave trade to obtain great fortunes. In this regard it is necessary to mention that for example Aaron Lopez, the Jewish slave trader, when he died left one of the greatest fortunes in the history of NEW ENGLAND.

Once the foremen reached the coast with their chained victims, they delivered them to the agents of the Jewish slave traders and to the captains of ships that would take the human merchandise to North America.

The black slaves trade made by the Jewish capitalists of Charleston and Newport had two separate enterprises but both of them initially controlled by Israelites. The first one, as I said before, was in charge of getting negroes in the African jungle in the already mentioned way, until the caravans of slaves reached the coast. The second enterprise started with the delivery of chained slaves to the Israelite agents and captains of the ships that had to transport the human merchandise to Newport, Charleston, Virginia and other places where blacks would be sold to the public. In the first part of the business, that is to say, in hunting the slaves and delivering them at the coast, Jews found other black competitors that captured their booty in either way and took them to the coast to sell them to the agents of the great Israelite companies of Newport and Charleston. With these people, those agents and captains of ships were very exacting, as it can be checked with information of documents filed that we are giving publicity. Each captured black was presented to the agent or ship captain who forced him to move his fingers, arms, legs and his whole body, to become sure of the victim's possibilities of doing a good work. Any imperfection caused that the price was reduced. Even the victim's teeth were examined, and if one was missing, this was used by the Jewish agents to reduce the price.

If a negro reached the coast with some sickness, he was bought at a lowest price by the Israelite agents, as long as they thought they could cure him and sell him at a very high price that would render them enough profits. Blacks in good conditions were exchanged for one hundred gallons of rum, one hundred pounds of powder or in cash between 18 and 20 dollars. Nevertheless, sometimes circumstances forced the agents and captains to pay exceptionally more money for the victims. Among the documents examined there is a handwritten note of a ship captain dated September 5, 1767, saying that he had to pay up to 200 gallons of rum for one black. But the common thing was to buy at the above mentioned prices. When women were older than 25, the price was reduced in a 25 per cent. Children, when it was accepted to buy them, were bought at a very low price.

But in the examined documents it also appears that negroes bought at 20 dollars generally and in some occasions at 40 dollars a piece, were sold again in the British American colonies by the Israelite slave traders at a price higher than two thousand dollars a piece; this allows us to appreciate the fruitful result of the business Jews did with the trade of black slaves especially if it is considered that in this unbounded genocide operation millions of blacks were taken from Africa to North and South America.

Documents regarding the Jewish captain of a transporting ship indicate that captain Freedman, a public Israelite, paid the price of the blacks in the coast either in cash or with merchandise. But in exchanging rum for black slaves, he followed the instructions given by his Jewish bosses of Newport, where they textually ordered him, as

CHAINED BLACK SLAVES TRYING TO FLEE FROM THEIR ISRAELITE CAPTURERS.

According to a picture on this issue. The ship that would take them to America can be seen behind.

it can be seen in the examined original handwritten document: "Pour as much water into the rum, as you possibly can." In this way, the black gentile competitors in the first part of the slaves trade, that is to say, from the capture till their arrival in the coast, WERE ALSO ROBBED WITH RUM MIXED WITH WATER. I suspect that among the black slave traders in that first stage, there were black Jews of those mentioned in the former chapter of this book; but I refrain from stating it, as I do not have proofs to assert such a thing.

After all the above mentioned facts, and already in the hands of the captains of ships — who were gentiles in many occasions — and of the Israelite agents that accompanied and led the operation, the heads of the unfortunate blacks were completely shaved and then marked with signs of incandescent iron with the initials of the Jewish owner of the new slaves, just in the same way that owners of cattle mark the beefs so everybody knows who is the owner. Those incandescent signs caused enormous sufferings, especially to women and children, and were placed on the back or on the hip of the slave, without the Jewish slave traders felt the less pity in doing such infamous crimes. In this way, if any of these new black slaves attempted to escape, he was immediately recognized by the sign and returned to the Israelite owner.

Some documents show how sometimes whole black families were bought or captured in the jungle and in the coast they were divided between the agents of the great Israelite enterprises, who mercilessly separated the children from their mother or father in distributing the booty, when an agent bought the mother, different from the one that bought the children, and so on. With terrible cries and sobs that did not move the compassion of the Israelite agents, mothers saw how their children were chained and taken to other ships to places where they will not see each other again. Readers may imagine the terrible sufferings of millions of human beings that were necessary so some hundreds of Jews could mold great capitals with this business.

Facts have shown that nobody but the Israelites through history have systematized in an almost scientific way the exploitation of men by men, and that nobody as the Jews has known this exploitation so deeply, because they have practiced it as no other people, especially in modern times. It is not strange, then, that it was two Israelites, Carl Marx and Frederick Engels, who masterly could make a study of what has been and continues to be the exploitation of men by men. But what they both hid is that their Jewish brothers have been the greatest masters in this infamous science although Marx said something, but very little, on the subject in his book on the "Jewish Question".

The transportation of negroes from the beach to the ship was made in canoes, where from 4 to 5 people were taken using all strength. Everything was ready to quickly catch again the slaves in case one of them tried to fall into the water. When the slaves reached the ship, they were deprived from their dresses and if somebody could jump into the water, he was caught again by people prepared for such an event. The legs of anyone who attempted to escape were immediately cut in the presence of all the slaves, so that none of them tried to flee again.

The ship to transport slaves was divided into three sections: children were left on the deck; women were put in another place and men were always placed under the deck. And as these ships, in order to save expenses, were not adequate to transport people, they were equipped as to carry animals, with whom the poor black slaves were compared.

Generally, there was a space of one meter high, that is to say 39 inches, under the deck. In that place, as inside a fish can, these unfortunate human beings were placed in an horizontal position, as much tight as possible, one besides the next, so that in this suffocating place could go the highest possible amount of people thus reducing to the utmost possible level the transportation expenses; they were packed exactly as sardines as it is shown in the picture appearing in this chapter. The unfortunate slaves owned by the Jewish traders had to remain in this painful and desperation position for approximately three months until the end of the trip, chained one to the other in most cases.

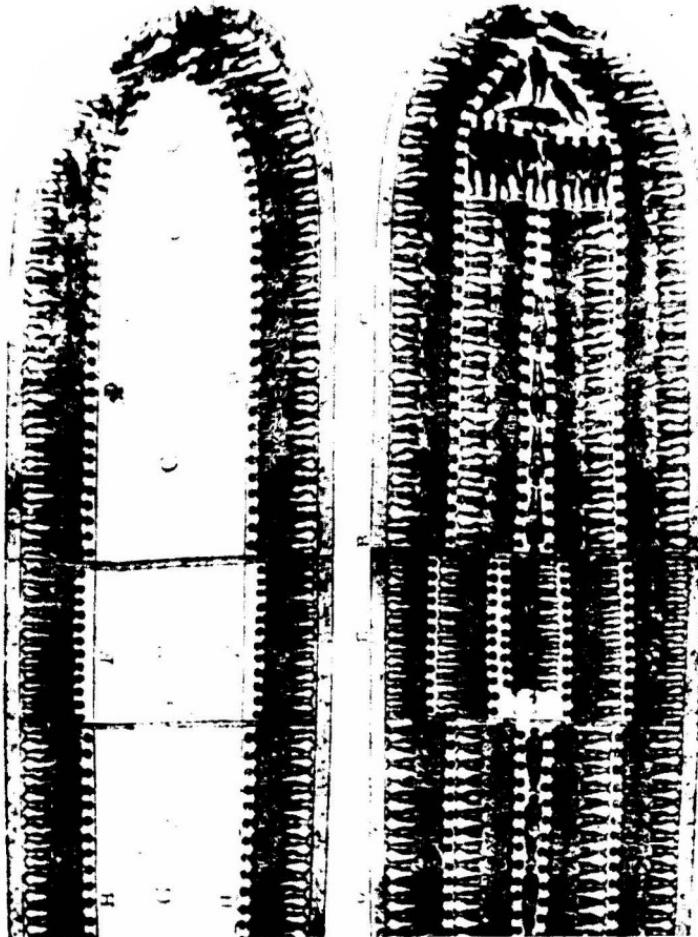

As a general fact, captains of those ships rarely were moved to pity by these unfortunate people. Some of them became crazy on the way due to such pain and desperation. Others became sick and died during the trip. And when the captains were negligent in watching and chaining some of the victims, it used to happen that some of them, madden, wounded or killed the poor companion in disgrace that was placed besides him. And sometimes in these cases horrible fights started and some almost asphyxiated and desperated people tried to obtain one or two more inches of space to be a little less uncomfortable. Then the foreman of slaves appeared, restoring order by strongly whipping those who were fighting. These quarrels forced the captains that were negligent in chaining some blacks in those dungeons, to watch that none was unchained in order to avoid that in the desperation produced by pain and anguish one killed the others or seriously injured them. The gentile captains as well as the Israelite captains were encharged by the Jews who owned the shipment of slaves, to keep the merchandise alive till its arrival to the port of destination in condition to be sold at a good price.

One of the things that caused enormous sufferings to the unfortunate victims was that the captains of the ships did not worry to clean the urine and excretions of the people piled in those dark dungeons; so as weeks and months passed, the unfortunate blacks were lying in puddles of excretions and urine, in the middle of a pestiferous that nauseated anyone who entered that hellish place worthy of appearing in those places described by Dante in his Divine Comedy.

Readers may imagine the horrible sufferings millions of negroes had to endure during these frightful trips so that a few Jews could get richer every time at the exchange of sufferings, slavery and death of the victims of this enormous genocide, which can only be compared to the sufferings of millions of Russian peasants and workers or those from other countries of the Soviet Union and her satellite states including Cuba, where they are tortured, enslaved and murdered by those totalitarian Jewish dictatorships covered with the false mask of socialism, communism or of a non existent and false dictatorship of the proletariat.

In the department of women, which was another narrow dungeon of short height, similar to the men's one, women were also piled as packed sardines, sometimes happening that they had to give birth to their children in such a painful position, with the consequences readers may suppose.

Slaves to America", p. 13.

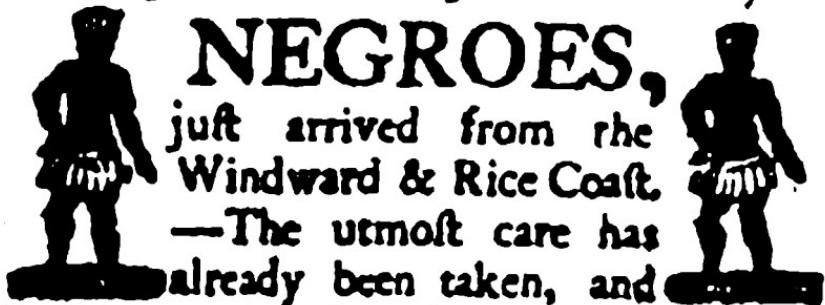

Some captains when they saw that the merchandise was dying on the way, took the so emergently step of sometimes taking the slaves out of their dungeons to breathe some fresh air on the deck. But before doing so, they carefully revised if their chains were strongly fastened to avoid runaways. But there were captains that did not take this precaution and the disgraced black men and women had to spend the three months long trip, with no interruption, piled and without leaving those hellish dungeons, horribly suffering day and night during three or more months, which might seem to them to be years, as it happens to anyone who spends weeks or months in the bed of a hospital without being allowed to raise, but even worse, for the extreme uncomfortableness and filthiness in which those millions of blacks had to remain during the long trips that led them to slavery.

Upon their arrival to North America, the slaves were sold in the markets of all British colonies that authorized slavery, due to previous arrangements made by the Israelites. In many cases they were sold in public auction (37).

Something similar occurred to blacks acquired in Africa to be sold in Antilles and South America.

The Jewish traders of black slaves used showy announcements to obtain the best possible price for their human merchandise.

In view of these so clear and eloquent facts, readers will understand that only the traditional Israelite cynicism and utmost hypocrisy, allows them to dare appear as friends, allies and even redeemers of the blacks with the only goal to deceive them once more in order to obtain their confidence and to manipulate them in the benefit of Jewish political plans of domination and conquest.

INTRODUCTION

Very few people are aware of the fact that there are a great number of people today who are considered to be of the Japanese race who are in FACT Jewish. The ENCYCLOPAEDIA JUDAICA, JEWISH ENCYCLOPEDIA and other publications go into detail on the history of people in India, China, Ethiopia, Persia and other countries who are today practicing Judaism and calling themselves "Israelites" or Jews.

In a number of countries those who have openly practiced Judaism and supported the State of Israel have been exiled from those countries and many have now become citizens of Israel. However, there is evidence that Jewish traders were abundant in Asia long before the Christian era. These Jews intermarried with the local people and after several generations simulated the appearance of the host people. Some of them adopted Buddahism, Shintonism, Brahamism and other local religions. However, they SECRETLY adhered to the Jewish race and practiced the Jewish religion. They secretly maintained their loyalty to the Jewish RACE while outwardly pretending to be like the other people in their areas. Outwardly they had the anthropological characteristics of the local natives. In this way they could infiltrate into the government and military and from within work secretly towards the Jewish goal of world domination.

In THE LOST TRIBES A MYTH, Prof. Allen Godbey says, ". . . in the province of Yamato are two ancient villages, Goshen and Menashe (Manassch). For these names there is no Japanese etymology. The legend is that in the third century of our era a strange people of about one hundred silk raisers appeared. In the census of the year 471. THIS PEOPLE NUMBERED EIGHTEEN THOUSAND six hundred and seventy and were highly esteemed in the province. A temple known as the "Tent of David" still stands where they first settled."

The influence of these clandestine Jews can be seen in the efforts to convince the Japanese people that they are one of the "Lost Tribes of Israel" and as such they should support the State of Israel and world Judaism.

In 1925, Dr. Chikao Fujisawa, a professor at Nihon University, wrote an article with the title "The Spiritual and the Cultural Affinity of the Japanese and Jewish People." The thesis of his article was that the first Emporor of Japan was a scion of the House of King David and that the word Mikado — the ancient title of the Japanese Emporor can be traced back to Gad, one of the "Lost Tribes of Israel."

Dr. Fujisawa also claimed that Shintoism and Judaism also work toward the concept of bringing all the races of the world under, "One Roof".

A movement to "unite" the Jews and Japanese under "one roof" was started in the 30's by Bishop Juju Nakada of the Holiness Church. He said that, ". . . it is God's will that these two nations be united after 3,000 years . . ."

When Japan's ports were open to the West in 1854, a new influx of Jews flocked into Yokohama and Nagasaki. Among these Jews were the Sassoon family. New Jewish communities were established and the Jews wielded a great deal of influence with the Japanese government.

When the Russo-Japanese war broke out in 1904 the Japanese were on the verge of bankruptcy. Through the influence of the Jews Japan secured money for the war through Jacob Schiff a New York Jew. Schiff arranged for three war loans totaling about $250 million. The reason for Schiff's loan was, "Schiff disliked Czarist Russia's treatment of the Jews." (WANDERERS AND SETTLERS IN THE FAR EAST, by H. Dicker, P. 164). He secured the loan through the Jewish banking firm of Kuhn, Loeb and Co. Jewish influence in Japan remained strong until the beginning of WWII.

At this time in history the Jews are trying to convince the Japanese, Iranians, South Americans and others that they are the "Lost Tribes of Israel" so they can be used by the Jews in their plan of world domination.

This booklet is just ONE in a series of books in the POLITICAL SECRETS SERIES proving the Jewish origin of all revolutionary movements from the French Revolution to the Bolshevik Revolution in Russia and revolutionary movements today. Details on the Jewish religion, secret Jews, and Jewish revolutionary tactics are contained in the other books in this series. A complete set of these books can be obtained by sending $20.00 to: CHRISTIAN DEFENSE LEAGUE, Box 493, Baton Rouge, LA. 70821.

The enclosed booklet points out that these secret Jews are still very active and are involved in the political life of Japan today. They are still working through "Jews for Israel" and other Judaizing groups to win the support of the Japanese people for the State of Israel. It is extremely important for mankind that the influence of these secret Jews in Japan is uncovered and that they are driven from any positions of influence and power. Japan and China are the key nations in Asia and the fate of the Far East and the world depends on which way these powers move in the future. If they follow a pro-Israel policy it will mean an eventual confrontation between them and the other forces in Asia and the Middle East which might bring these areas under Jewish control. If these secret Jews are rooted out and stripped of their power and Japan and China follow a policy in favor of their races and nations and reject pressure from Israel and American Jews the whole of Asia could eventually follow their example and free themselves and other countries from Jewish domination.

THE JEWISH FIFTH COLUMN IN JAPAN

Up until the 19th century, Japan was undoubtedly less infiltrated by Judaism than any other country in the world — hence the great interest displayed by Jewish imperialism in organizing its fifth column in Japan with a view to conquering and controlling that country.

Jewish leader Rabbi Jacob S. Raisin writes as follows: "Some explorers find traces of the impact of Judaism and of probable conversions also in the Empire of Japan. They point to two villages which bear the names of Gosen (Goshen) and Menase (Manasseh). There is a legend that during the third century a party of foreign silk traders appeared in the Empire, and that by the year 471 they numbered 18,670. A temple in front of which figures of a lion and a unicorn (called 'Buddha's Dogs') keep watch, is claimed to have been a synagogue, then known as 'The Tent of David,' which was erected by them on the spot where they first settled . . . They were highly respected and were known as the CHADA, OR THE BELOVED. On a site belonging to one of the CHADA families there is a well some fifteen hundred years old, upon the curbing of which are engraved the letters 'ISRAEL.' " (1)

According to the Bible story, Gosen, Goshen, or Gosens was the name of the province of ancient Egypt given by Joseph to the Israelites to settle there; and for that reason, the name Gosen or Gossen is one of the most distinguished names in World Judaism. The Chilean Marxist leader Salvador Allende Gossen has, therefore, one of the most honored and ancient names in Judaism.

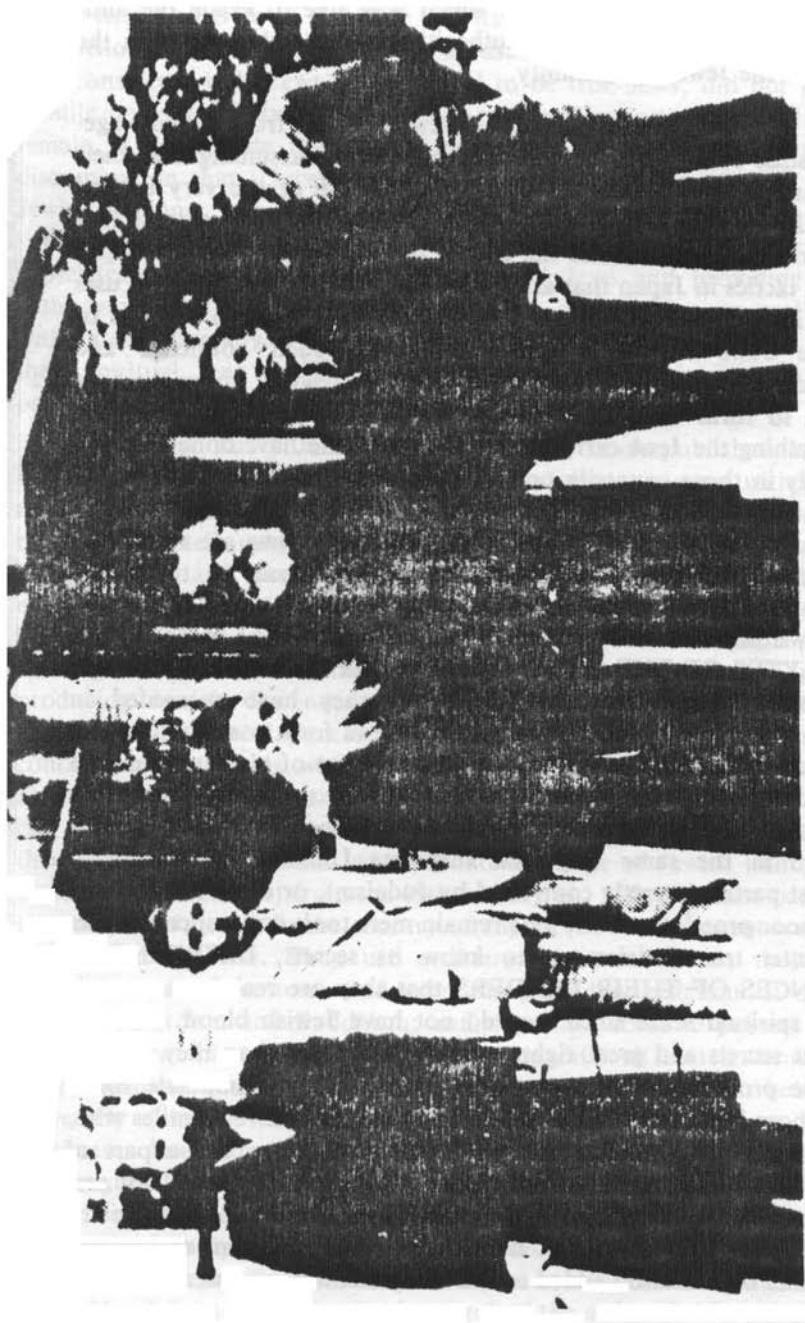

In the case of the Moslem, Christian, Tiao-Kiu-Kiaou, or other clandestine Jews, we have convincing proofs of their existence from ancient times and of their great political, social, and at times even military influence; but with respect to the similarly ancient sect of Japanese Jews known as the CHADA, we have no data beyond what has been mentioned. Accordingly, given the care we have taken in this book not to affirm anything for which we do not have ample proof, we shall refrain from making any further statements in this regard and hope that an impartial investigation of this sensitive subject may fully clarify the matter.

The first large-scale immigration of Jews to Japan that can be fully confirmed dates from the 19th century, principally in the latter decades. According to the Jewish author Pablo Link, in his JEWISH ENCYCLOPEDIA HANDBOOK, the first openly Jewish communities in Japan were established starting in the year 1890 by Jews who came for the most part from Russia and settled mainly in Tokyo, Kobe, Yokohama, and Nagasaki. (2)

During that same period a number of eastern Sephardic Jewish merchants also entered the country. Later, Jews from other countries, including the United States, settled in Japan as well. The monthly magazine YUYEN accused the North American Jews of working against Japan's national security. Moreover, Jewish refugees began to arrive in Japan from various countries with permission to stay there only temporarily while they were finding places of refuge elsewhere. The Castilian Jewish Encyclopedia states, in addition to the foregoing, that Jewish refugees from Germany arrived during the thirties and that "during the first part of World War II, the Japanese continued to accept Jewish victims of Hitlerism," but that after the Nazi-Japanese pact of 1937, a big propaganda campaign against the Jews was begun. It further states: "With the growing tension between Japan and the United States, the position of the refugees in the country became ever more precarious, and in 1941 all of the refugees were ordered deported to Shanghai." In this connection, however, the Castilian Jewish Encyclopedia makes the following most interesting statements: "As for the permanent (Jewish) residents, who were citizens of various countries and little active in Jewish life properly so called, THESE ESCAPED NOTICE BY THE JAPANESE ALMOST COMPLETELY." (3)

In order to grasp the true significance of the above paragraph, one needs to know the devious ways in which Jewish encyclopedias and other Jewish books readily accessible to Gentile readers conceal what they wish to conceal (from Gentile readers) and express things so that they will really be understood only by Jewish readers. According to the aforementioned encyclopedia, the Jews who were already "RESIDENTS" in Japan at that time were "LITTLE ACTIVE IN JEWISH LIFE PROPERLY SO CALLED" and hence "ESCAPED NOTICE BY THE JAPANESE ALMOST COMPLETELY." Any expert in clandestine Judaism understands perfectly well that when Jewish encyclopedias and Jewish books that are available to Gentile readers speak of Jews who either take no part in JEWISH LIFE or almost no part in it, they are referring only to the OPEN JEWISH LIFE, and that accordingly the discussion is about clandestine Jews, who by the very fact of being clandestine would of course not take part in openly Jewish activities by only in the CLANDESTINE JEWISH LIFE. If it were not so, then they would not be Jews — as the Castilian Jewish Encyclopedia admits they are when it mentions "the Jews who were already resident in Japan at that time." By the same token we see here a tacit admission on the part of this authoritative Jewish encyclopedia of the existence of a CLANDESTINE

JEWISH "refugees" posing with Japanese officials after arriving in Japan in 1941. Third from left is Rabbi Shimon Kalish. When asked by Japanese generals why the Germans "persecuted" the Jews, Kalish said, "Because we too are Asians." Jews used every trick possible to win the support of the Japanese even though in reality the Jews consider the Japanese to be sub human.

JUDAISM IN JAPAN at that time which was able to evade the anti-Jewish measures of the Japanese authorities by not taking part in the visible life of the Jewish community.

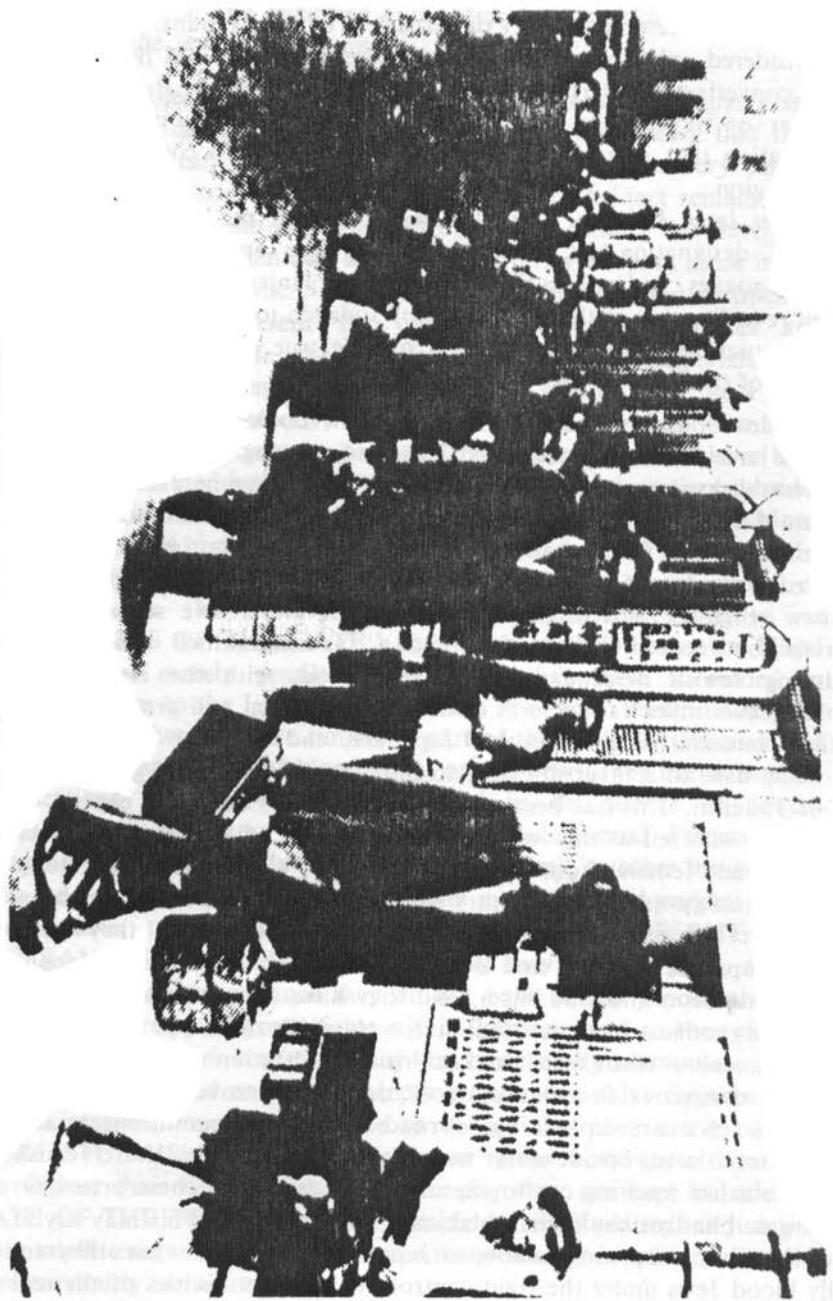

Whether it is because the "CHADA" Jews remnant from Japan's age-old clandestine Judaism are but few in numbers — assuming that their present existence can even be proven — or because of the very belated Jewish infiltration into Japan in the 19th century, the fact remains that Jewish world imperialism since the end of the last century has developed infiltration tactics in Japan that are somewhat different from those it uses at present in countries where it can count on a fifth column of open or clandestine Jews sufficient for conquest of such countries and maintenance of its rule therein. In Japan, Jewish imperialism is attempting to form communities of Proselytes of the Gate on a large scale, something the Jews carry out — or at any rate have done so up to now — only in those countries or Gentile communities which have been but slightly infiltrated by Jews of the blood, or true Jews as they consider themselves. To the nation of Israel, the only true Jews are the blood descendants of Abraham and Jacob, also called Israel in the Bible. However, in certain circumstances Judaism forms organizations of recruits whom the Jews themselves derogatorily refer to as "PROSELYTES OF THE GATE" and whom in their hearts the blood Jews consider merely gentile swine. After they have succeeded in converting them to the Israelite religion, the Jews form communities and synagogues of them that are similar in part of those of true Judaism and which (under the control of blood Jews, or real Jews) they use as satellite organizations and instruments of control in the service of Jewish imperialism in the same way that they use Universal Freemasonry, Communist parties (secretly controlled by Judaism), or other institutions. Thus the poor proselytes of the gate remain mere tools and puppets, never able to enter true Judaism or to know its secrets, DESPITE THE ASSURANCES OF THEIR LEADERS that they are real Jews, even if only in a spiritual sense since they do not have Jewish blood, and will share great secrets and great rights within Judaism; and so they cleverly deceive the proselytes that they may the more easily manipulate them. Just one more lie and one more deception to control naive Gentiles who, in this instance, ingenuously come to believe that they are a part of WORLD JUDAISM, the controlling power in the world these days; and this flatters their ego even though in reality they are kept outside the GATE OF THE TEMPLE, that is outside of true Judaism, as just one more satellite organization added to the many already in existence like the ones previously mentioned.

The term Proselyte of the Gate had its origin during the time prior to destruction of the temple and city of Jerusalem by the Romans. The Jews, who considered only Jews of the blood to be true Jews, did not permit Gentile converts to Judaism to enter the temple; instead, they had to remain at or outside the temple gate. And so opprobrious was this discrimination that scarcely any Gentiles were willing to convert to the Jewish religion.

Centuries later Judaism devised a less shameful method of making proselytes, designating the converts spiritual Jews and providing them with synagogues and an entire peripheral organization as well, but without revealing any of the real secrets of Judaism to them. So of course these spiritual Jews are just as much outside true Judaism as are the proselytes of the gate.

Jewish leader Rabbi Jacob S. Raisin, in his book published in 1953 which we have previously mentioned, has the following to say with regard to the establishment of synagogues of proselytes in Japan: "A news item of recent date tells us about a Japanese woman in Nagasaki who married a German Jew and who not only converted to Judaism but also built and endowed a number of synagogues and has dedicated herself to spreading her new religious faith in her native land." (4) Here we see a mixed marriage between a German Jew and a Japanese which will go on producing Jewish descendants of mixed blood, with the racial type becoming ever more Japanese in character as children and grandchildren continue intermarrying with other Japanese, and with the descendants also being used in a feverish effort to hitch proselytes of the gate to the cart of Judaism. This has been confirmed for us by Japanese experts in these matters who tell us that with the intermarriage of Jewish immigrants (both male and female) from the 19th century on, with Japanese partners, the number of people in the country of Japanese Jewish descent has been steadily on the rise. They use ordinary Japanese names; they have adopted Japanese customs and even the prevailing religions of Japan, such as Shintoism and Buddhism; and they have come to possess racial and physiognomic traits such that it is very difficult to tell them from other Japanese — all of which makes this an infiltration that is becoming extremely dangerous for the future of Japan. Moreover, these hybrid Japanese Jews are spreading abroad proselyte communities and synagogues that considerably augment the tentacles that Jewish imperialism has reaching out to capture the country. For these proselytes of the gate blindly obey their rabbis; and although the rabbis may say at times that they are proselytes too, in Japan as in other countries they are really blood Jews under the rigid control of the secret societies of the real JEWS arriving in Kobe, Japan. The invasion begins.

Judaism, the Judaism of the Israelite nation which lies concealed as a fifth column within all other nations.

The Castilian Jewish Encyclopedia, in a supplementary volume titled "Contemporary Judaism," which was published in 1961, says with respect to Japan that there are also American Jewish businessmen and soldiers of the army of occupation living there, and that "AMONG THE LATTER ARE JEWS WITH JAPANESE WIVES WHO HAVE CONVERTED TO JUDAISM AND OBSERVE THE JEWISH RITUAL." (5) So that what seem to the Japanese and their government to be harmless marriages between Yankee soldiers and Japanese women are in reality a further infiltration of the Japanese people by Jewish imperialism and a further increase in the population of Japanese Jews arising from these mixed marriages.

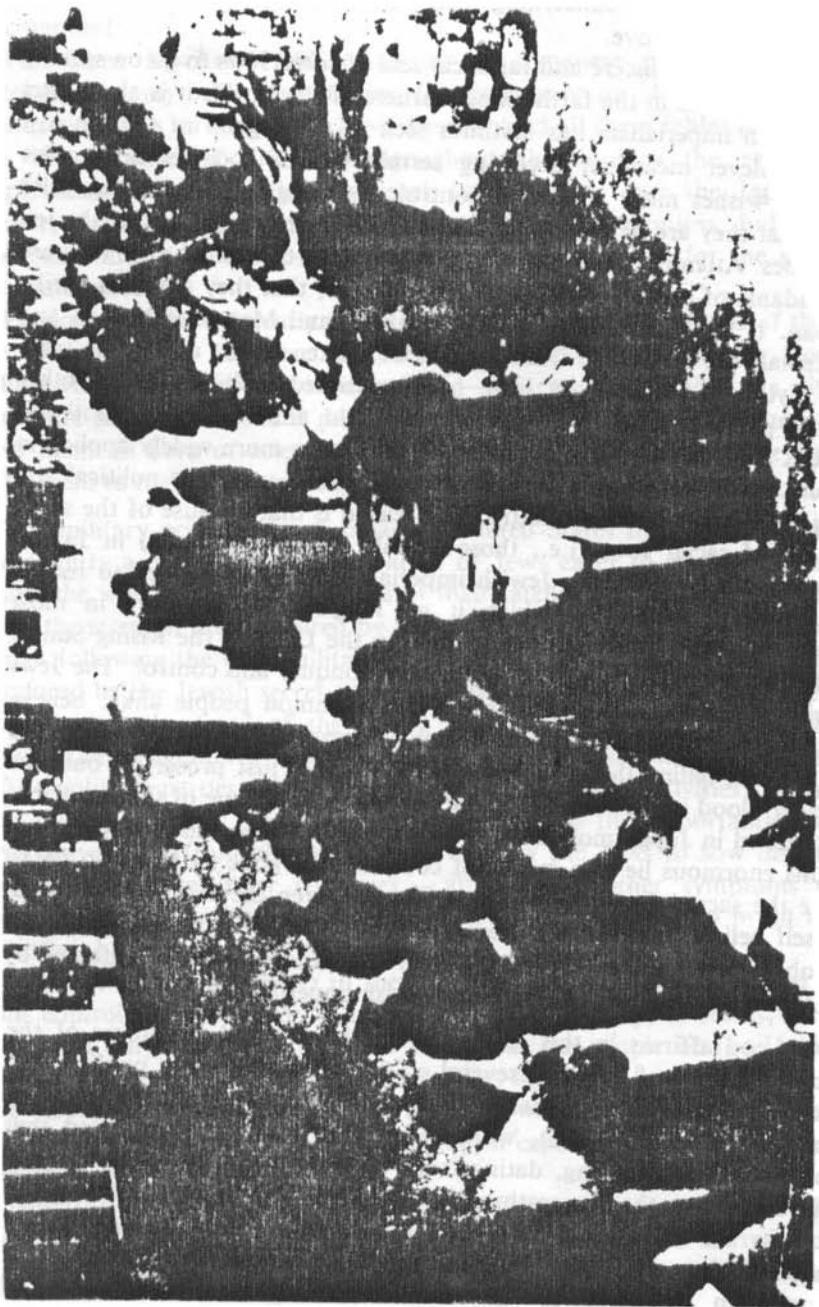

The proselytes of the gate in Japan are a greater danger there than in other countries because they are victims of a deception which has led them to believe that they are not just proselytes of the gate but actually Jews by blood, and this has made them into yet more docile instruments of Jewish imperialism. In effect they have been duped into believing that the people of Japan, or at any rate a majority of the Japanese, belong to one of the lost tribes of Israel. And so that our readers may better understand the importance of this sordid lie, we will explain what those then lost tribes mean to the Jews and the way in which Jewish imperialism sometimes makes use of the legend in order to deceive different peoples or certain Gentile racial communities.

When the Hebrew people split up into two kingdoms, the kingdom of Israel and the kingdom of Judah, ten of the twelve tribes that initially constituted the Hebrew nation became the kingdom of Israel, and the other two the kingdom of Judah. In the year 721 B.C., the Assyrians under Salmaneser, Sargon, and Tiglath-Pileser conquered the kingdom of Israel, and the people of the Ten Tribes were carried into exile in Northern Assyria along the banks of the river Gozan and in the towns of Northern Media. More than a century later, in the year 586 B.C., the kingdom of Judah was conquered as well, and its people were carried off to Babylonia.

When the Persians and the Medes conquered Babylonia, the tribes of Judah and Benjamin, also called Levi, both formerly part of the kingdom of Judah, were able to return to their old territory and rebuild the kingdom. The ten tribes that had formed the kingdom of Israel, on the contrary, did not return, and their whereabouts since that time has been unknown. Hence they are called in Judaism the ten lost tribes of Israel; and through the centuries Jewish rabbis have dreamed up the most varied and fantastic theories concerning their whereabouts, theories no one has ever been able to prove.

JEWS set up contact center in Kobe, Japan. From here they continued their subversive activities without hindrance.

After arriving in Asia the Jews immediately began to sell their goods on the streets in typical Jewish Fashion.

Apart from the sincere and fanatical zeal of some Jews to go on seeking the ten lost tribes in the farthermost corners of the world, it is also a fact that Jewish imperialism has at times seen in this legend of the ten lost tribes a clever means of deceiving certain Gentile societies or peoples whom it wishes more readily to control, by bringing them to the false belief that they are of Jewish blood since they are descendants of the ten lost tribes. Attempts have been made to persuade the British that they are descendants of one of the ten tribes; the Danes, that they are of the tribe of Dan. It has been claimed that the Aztecs and Mayas of Mecico and Guatemala are descended from another of the ten tribes; and in the same way myths and falsehoods have been contrived with respect to other Gentile peoples as well. However, these wild and deceitful hypotheses without any scientific basis whatsoever have been more widely applied in Japan than elsewhere, for the sole purpose of effecting the political and religious conquest of the country. The reason is that because of the small number of racial Jews (i.e., those actually of Jewish blood) in Japan, including the crossbreeds, Jewish imperialism has been forced to recruit proselytes of the gate — which it no longer does anymore in most countries — to increase its fifth column in the Land of the Rising Sun, a land Judaism is determined at all costs to conquer and control. The Jews intend to make the Japanese, rulers and common people alike, believe that they are of Jewish descent; and they especially deceive the proselytes of the gate, telling them that they are not really just proselytes but true Jews by blood inasmuch as they are descended from one of the lost tribes that settled in Japan more than 2500 years ago. Their audacity in the use of this enormous lie as a means of conquest has gone so far as to try to make the sacred Japanese Shindai caste and even the Emperor of Japan himself believe that they are descendants of the lost tribes of Israel, for the obvious purpose of converting them into proselytes of the gate and by the same token into puppets serving Jewish imperialism.

MacLeod affirms in this regard, in his book titled "Epitome of the Ancient History of Japan," several editions of which were published in Tokyo in the last century, that the last monarch of the former kingdom of Israel was Oseas (Hoshea), who died in the year 722 B.C., and that Japan's first known king, dating from 730 B.C., it so happens bore the name of Osée — thus suggesting that the last king of Israel, at the time of the Assyrian conquest, fled to Japan and became the Japanese king. MacLeod also writes that Shintoist temples, like the ancient temple of Solomon in Jerusalem, are divided into a Holy Place and a Holy of Holies, that the priests wear linen vestments like those of Jerusalem and employ similar sacred vessels. (6) Just as if all religions did not have a lot in common!

This same MacLeod and a number of Japanese professors who, according to my information, are Japanese only on the outside and clandestine Jews on the inside, have disseminated all these fables in Japan for the purpose of diffusing throughout the country the religious imperialism with which the Jews seek to gain sway over the Japanese people, just as they use capitalist liberalism, Marxism, Zionism, Judaism, and other means of controlling peoples that are expedient for the given time and place.

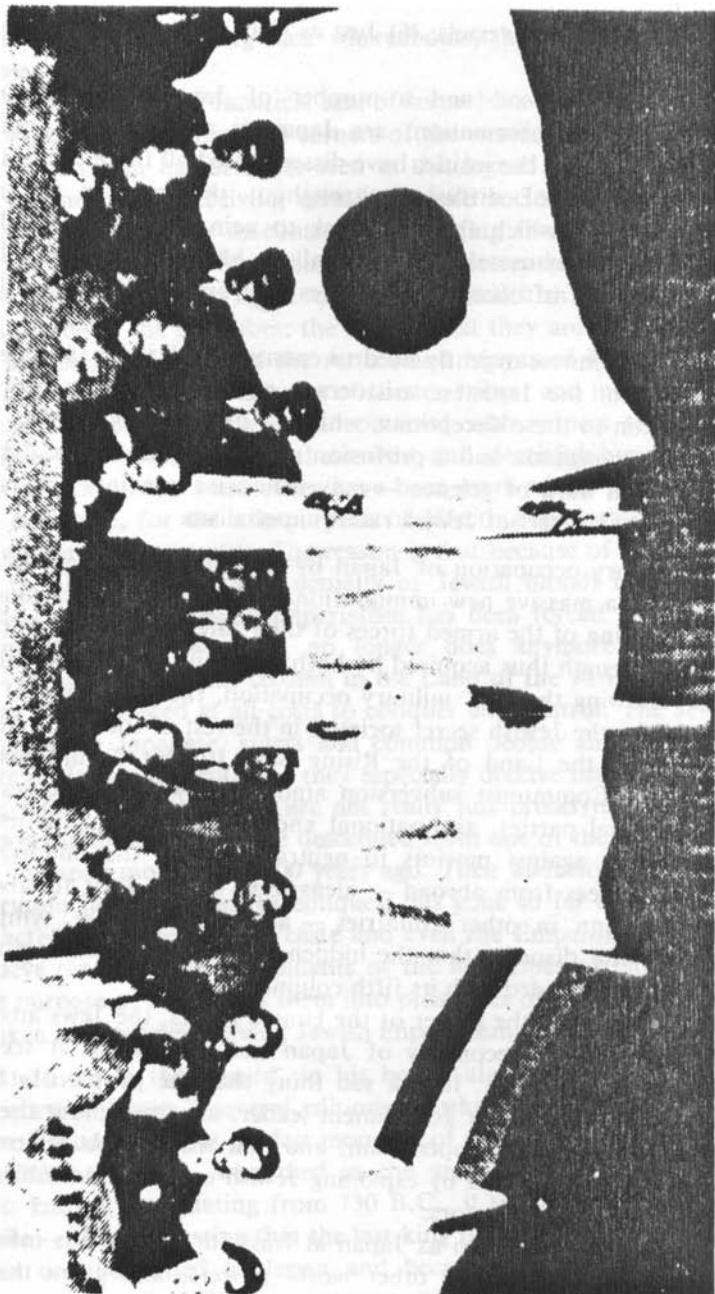

Patriotic Japanese urgently need to counteract all these tall tales if they would prevent the Japanese aristocracy and the Japanese people from falling victim to these deceptions, which — disseminated as they are with elaborate propaganda and a profusion of lies and false logic designed to lend them an aura of science — may otherwise convince the naive and yoke them to the cart of Jewish racist imperialism.

The military occupation of Japan by United States troops brought to the country a massive new immigration of Jews eager to conquer Japan under the wing of the armed forces of their satellite, Yankee imperialism. With the strength thus acquired by both open and clandestine Judaism in Japan following the U.S. military occupation, the symptoms of disorder produced by the Jewish secret societies in the rest of the world began also to appear in the Land of the Rising Sun: student disturbances in the universities, Communist subversion among the working masses and the leftist political parties, anti-national and anti-patriotic activities, smears and intrigues against patriots to neutralize them, the importation of destructive ideas from abroad — ideas used by the Jews to sow discord and subversion in other countries — and all the other symptoms of confusion and disorder that the hidden Jewish power stirs up in all the nations it has invaded with its fifth column.

Moreover, using the power of the United States, the Jews attempted to gain control of the economy of Japan but fortunately, it seems, were successful only in part. It is a sad thing that the people of the United States go on letting their government leaders act throughout the world as vile lackeys of Jewish imperialism, and that wherever U.S. troops show up they are accompanied by exploiting Jewish capitalists and their Marxist-Jewish spies or conspirators.

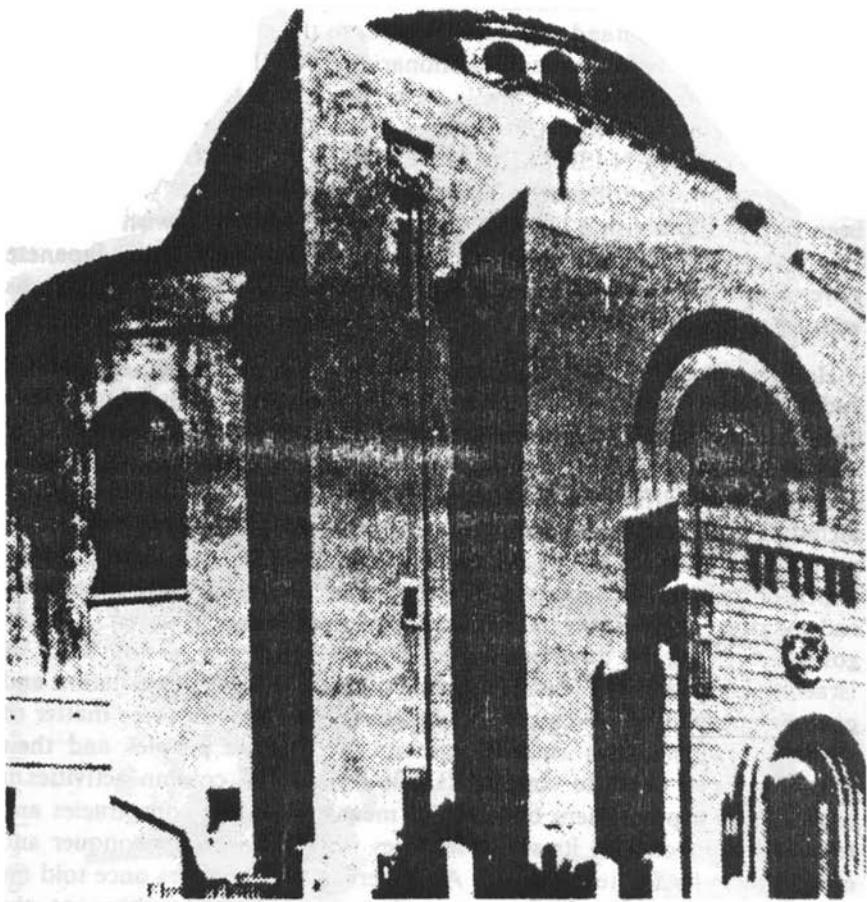

Nevertheless, inasmuch as Japan at least for now is less infiltrated by Judaism than any of the other world powers, and given the political vision and patriotism of the Japanese people, it may be that when Japan has become fully aware of her danger and of the secret enemy that threatens her, she will be the one country in the capitalist world most able to defend her independence successfully and ward off the peril of conquest by the racist and totalitarian Jewish imperialism. Some Japanese have begun to understand the way Jews are, to the extent even that one of the most widely used Japanese dictionaries gives the meanings of thief and swindler to the word "Jew"; so at any rate affirms the Castilian Jewish Encyclopedia, which also states: "For the past thirty years there has been a JAPAN-ISRAEL (PALESTINE) ASSOCIATION in the country, with an enrollment of some 450 members." . . . "Efforts have been made to establish a library in Japan specializing in Jewish culture." . . . "Israel was one of the first countries to recognize the Japanese government after the war and has sought to establish friendly relations with that Asian country." (7)

Here we see yet another matter that deserves special comment. World Judaism is a very complex organization having thousands of different institutions and secret societies scattered throughout the world. The State of Israel, with all its structures, is only a small part of international Judaism, but skillful use is made of it by the latter for various purposes, including the maintenance of friendly relations with governments and peoples to serve as a smoke screen concealing the true motives of Jewish imperialism. In this way, while the secret Jewish fifth column is endeavoring to conquer a nation and overthrow whatever Gentile government may be directing it, the diplomatic service of the State of Israel makes a show of friendship and collaboration with that nation and government, and may even really collaborate with them in some matter of interest to them. Thus Judaism attempts to deceive peoples and their governments in order to conceal its role in the fifth column activities it organizes to capture them by peaceful means, or in the conspiracies and revolutions directed by its secret societies when it wishes to conquer and control them by swifter methods. An expert in these matters once told me how he had overheard some Jews in a restaurant laughing at the "STUPID" Gentile rulers who constantly fall into this clever trap. But my own observation is that this particular trap, like many others contrived by the Jews, is so skillfully laid that we need not find it strange when it deceives even very intelligent people, especially if they are ignorant of the secrets of Jewish imperialism and of its political strategy, whose main strength and continual success have both derived from that very secrecy with which it guards its hidden motives, a secrecy achieved through complex methods of deception. For that reason, the liberation of the peoples of the world from totalitarian Jewish imperialism can only be made possible by revealing all these secrets to those peoples and their Gentile leaders — by means of well-documented books for the educated, and summary pamphlets for the masses of the people — so that, recognizing their hidden and evil enemy, they will be able to defend themselves against that enemy more effectively. Until this has been achieved on a local, national, and worldwide scale, and all people made aware of this mortal threat, Jewish imperialism will continue conquering all the nations one after another and subjecting them to its rule. It is, of course, my wish to save mankind from that catastrophe that has induced me to write the present work.

10,000 in Japan

Seeking Judaism

9/17/54

Jewish Voice

HARTFORD (JTA)—As many as 10,000 Japanese are seeking conversion to Judaism, Rabbi A. J. Feldman, spiritual leader of Beth Israel Temple here reported this week on his return from a 10-week tour

Torah Convocations in the Far East Rabbi Feldman made the tour on behalf of the National Jewish Welfare Board's Commission on Jewish Chaplaincy, of which he is executive chairman.

Explaining the new trend among Japanese, Rabbi Feldman, stated he found that the war had "knocked out the spiritual props" which previously been sufficient for many Japanese whom Shintoism taught that their country was invincible. As a result, many of them are turning to Judaism, bolstered to a great extent by the fact that American Jews, especially chaplains of the American armed services, had offered many kindnesses to the Japanese.

A great many Japanese, Rabbi Feldman reported, are learning Hebrew, and many are practicing Jewish rites. Jewish chaplains and rabbis, however, are "going slow" on accepting the would-be converts, he noted.

.... to become a Jew. "I hope some day to study Judaism in its Birthland, in Israel, and I hope to God that my desire will be granted," he replied to the Chaplain.

Noting his determination to be a Jew and a Zionist, the Chaplain introduced Hiroshi to officials in the Israel Embassy. There they again discouraged him, but he adamantly maintained that he was not a thoughtless enthusiast: "I thought my decision out and all its ramifications and I stand by my decision," he declared.

GREATLY MOVED by Hiroshi's sincerity, the Jewish Chaplain sent a personal letter to Israel's Minister of Religion and Welfare, Moses Shapiro, and asked him to do something for this Japanese Ger Zedek. As a result, an appeal was made to the Foreign Ministry to facilitate the "homecoming" of the new son of Israel and to aid him in his further study of Judaism in a religious school in the Holy Land.

Hiroshi got his wish!

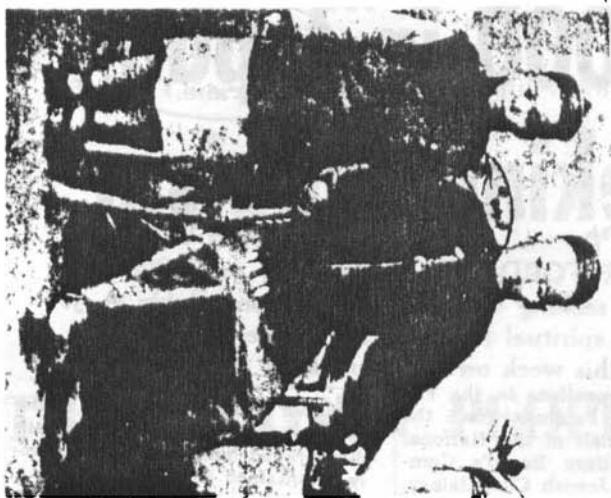

Chief Rabbi I. Herzog gave his approval to receive the young Ger from Japan under the "Wings of the Shechina according to the faith of Moses and Israel."

Today, Hiroshi Ankromoti, an Israel citizen and a good Jew, is the happiest man in the world!

The above is the story of only one among tens of thousands of Japanese men and women who look forward to joining the ranks of Israel.

1. The Original Community. Because the Chinese Jews possessed fragments of Zekhariah and Malachi among their archives and knew several Talmudic rites it has been suggested that they came from Chaldea. But their ignorance of Babylonian punctuation suggests a pre-Talmudic period of emigration, or possibly a Palestinian origin.

Perhaps the earliest reliable information is contained in the reports of Ibn Zeyd al Hassan, a 9th cent. Arabian traveler, who mentions Jews as one of the sects massacred at Khanfu. By the 8th cent. C.E. Jews were sufficiently numerous for the emperor to have appointed a special officer to supervise them. Marco Polo, who visited China at the end of the 13th cent., testified to the important role of the Jews in Cathay, as did Ibn Batuta, Arabian envoy to the Mongol court. Annals of the Mongol dynasty for 1329 and 1354 mention Dju-Hudu (Yehudim) in connection with the reinforcement of a tax on dissenters and as being called to Peking together

">// The Jews of Kai-fung-foo were indistinguishable in appearance from the local inhabitants of China. Not only did they wear Chinese dress, but they had in the course of ages acquired Chinese features, including the yellowness of complexion and the so-called "slant eyes." They spoke Chinese and observed Chinese ways. Their only mark of distinction was their practice of removing the sinew and their separate house of worship with its sacred books—no reason for a real class distinction in tolerant China.

PEOPLE

Samaria will be the home of Japan's Samurai O'Hara

By BENNY MORRIS
Jerusalem Post Reporter

Sadao O'Hara, his wife and three children will become the West Bank's first Japanese settlers when they arrive at Kedumim in June.

O'Hara, 40, a computer printout paper manufacturer, is a leader of Japan's 2,000-strong "Bnei Shomron" sect. He has been visiting the Gush Emunim settlement, the original site of Elon Moreh, regularly since 1975.

O'Hara — the spelling derives from an American occupation official with a sense of humour in the days after World War II — has so far invested IL15m. in machinery for his new computer paper plant currently under construction at Kedumim. The machinery has already arrived in Ashdod Port and will be moved to the West Bank site at the end of February, when the plant is scheduled to begin operations. O'Hara is currently in Israel to oversee the installation of the equipment and the start of production.

O'Hara, interviewed last week in his temporary caravan home in Kedumim, told The Jerusalem Post that the almost fully automated plant will be run by himself and one other worker and will produce some $400,000-$500,000 worth of paper a year, all earmarked for export to Japan and elsewhere in Asia.

O'Hara will market the paper through his existing facilities in Japan, where he owns a larger, 18-man computer printout paper plant.

The government has promised O'Hara a IL2m. grant for his "approved industry" and has agreed to underwrite a further IL2m. bank loan on favourable terms.

O'Hara already owns a flat in Kfar Sava. But he will move into one of Kedumim's wooden huts, where the first settlers lived a year and more after they had left the original makeshift caravans and before they moved to their current, prefabricated concrete-block homes.

"He is a very spiritual person," says lawyer Moshe Simon, a leader of Gush Emunim and of the Kedumim community, and a part-owner in the plant.

O'Hara and the Bnei Shomron regard themselves as vestiges of the 10 Lost Tribes, exiled by the Assyrians after the fall of the northern kingdom of Israel in 721 BCE. Biblical fundamentalists — though neither Christians nor practising Jews — the Bnei Shomron endorse the Gush Emunim claim to the entire Land of Israel and believe that the ingathering of the lost tribes will precipitate the advent of the Messiah.

By birth a Shinto and the son of a Japanese general killed in action in World War II, O'Hara grew up in the Ryuku island of Okinawa and claims he "saw the light" as a teenager. He explained, "I fell severely ill with tuberculosis and pleurisy. A Christian friend came to visit, bringing a copy of the Bible. I was enthralled. But on the verge of converting to Christianity, it dawned on me that God had promised everything to the Jews and they were his chosen." He said that further study persuaded him that the Christians had persecuted the Jews continuously over the past 2,000 years.

In attempting to substantiate his feeling that he was of the lost tribes, he came to note the similarities between Okinawan, a dialect of Japanese, and Hebrew: In Okinawan "haru" means mountain (har in Hebrew) and ahi means my brother (as it does in Hebrew).

O'Hara added that the Japanese "Mikado," meaning emperor, derives from the Hebrew mi-Gad, or "from (the tribe of) Gad." He maintains that this stems from the Japanese origins in the lost tribes (of which Gad was one).

He also says that "samurai," meaning knight or warrior, derives from "Samaria" — "so I, a samurai, am simply returning to my origins," he says.

O'Hara is currently studying Hebrew and regularly attends the settlers' prayer sessions in the synagogue. "Of course, he recites in a strong Japanese accent," adds Simon, while O'Hara's face beams and then dissolves in a giggle.

JAPANESE CONVERTS TO JUDAISM. This recent article from the JERUSALEM POST illustrates how the Jews are using the "Lost Tribes" myth to convince well bred Japanese from good families that they are descendants of the "Lost Tribes" of Israel. In this way the Jews convince the Japanese that they are "blood brothers" of the Jews and should therefore support world Zionism and the State of Israel. Here we find one such victim of the Jewish "Lost Tribes" propaganda.

PARANOID JUDAISM

One of the main reasons for the great capacity of the Jewish people as an imperialist and domineering power lies in the fact that Israelites, more frequently than other peoples, tend to be paranoid — often morbidly so. One can recognize the paranoid tendency in certain character traits that Jews possess, traits which confer upon them a capacity for the greatest and most difficult achievements, but which on the other hand also induce in them a kind of mental imbalance that leads them to pursue aims and activities vindictory of imagined violations of their rights with such perseverance and fanaticism as to be virtually an obsession. These aims and activities, moreover, invariably breathe a fierce hatred, a hatred that may quite rightly be called paranoid. It may be concealed, under orders of the higher-ups, but it is a hatred nonetheless that Jews bear all "gentile swine" in greater or lesser degree, depending on the nature of each given Jew.

It is thus easy to understand how harmful and dangerous these paranoid actions may be for persons against whom the Jews seek vindication for something, with or without any justification.

One finds among the Jews more individuals of a domineering bent, more of a vindictive nature, more who are inclined to have a persecution complex or megalomania, than are to be found among other peoples. So true is this, indeed, that the facts show us the Jews have even suffered these delusions collectively, as a people. In fact, one has only to read the histories and esoteric books of the Jews to see how they have exaggerated persecutions suffered in bygone times to the point of creating an ideology which borders on a collective persecution complex. And a persecution complex is precisely one of the characteristics of the form of insanity or mental illness that science has designated as Paranoia or Paranoid Schizophrenia.

On the other hand, the paramount ideal of the present Jewish religion, the supreme ideal of every religious Jew, is to reclaim for Israel the rights given her by God over everything in the world: material possessions, the government of nations, and the ideas which guide mankind — all of which the Jews believe we Gentiles are usurping. For to the Jews, if we Gentiles own factories, small workshops or businesses, urban or rural properties, we no more than hold illegally what rightfully belongs to them. In the case of the religious Jews, this is so precisely because God gave it all to the people of Israel; and for those Jews who have lost their religious beliefs, it is so because they have been taught in their sect that the Jews, due to their racial superiority, are destined to rule over all mankind politically and economically.

The same reasoning prevails in the case of a Marxian socialist state which is led by Gentiles rather than Jews. In such an event, since the wealth of the country there, too, is in the hands of Gentiles, the Jews have the right, according to their religious and political beliefs, to overthrow that Gentile Communist government and replace it with another which in one form or another is under the sway of Judaism, so that the latter may control the wealth of the nation and rule over its people. This is the basis of the plots hatched by Jewish Imperialism to seize control of the MAOIST government of China and of that of her ally, Albania, whether by an internal revolution to topple the Gentile Maoist regime and replace it with one controlled by the Jews of Moscow; or by patiently waiting for the death of Mao Tse-tung with a view of controlling his successor through puppets or clandestine Chinese Jews; or whether, finally, to accomplish it through the invasion and military occupation of Communist China and Albania by the Soviet armed forces.

For centuries then the Jews have been driven by an obsession to recover their so-called rightful wealth by means of usury, including the great frauds of the Jewish banking system and every other kind of usurious transaction. The Jew Karl Marx put the finishing touches on these claims of the Jews for recovery of their rightful belongings with his scheme for the rapid and total expropriation of the wealth of all the peoples of the earth and its delivery over to a Communist state to be run by the Jews. These insane claims, as well as the millenarian demands for recovery of the land promised them by God, have created within the Jewish people a vindication or revenge complex that is an essential part of their paranoid megalomania.

Again, it is known that the Jews in general are the most rancorous and vengeful of men. They give an exaggerated interpretation to the "eye for eye, tooth for tooth, hand for hand, foot for foot" of the Old Testament.

Psychiatric texts tell us it is characteristic of the paranoiac that he NEVER FORGETS and NEVER FORGIVES.

So it is curious to note how very often Jewish organizations and prominent Jews, on so many occasions, insist that they will NEVER FORGET or that they will NEVER FORGIVE, using precisely the same words that psychiatry attributes to this category of the insane.

The desire to avenge persecutions suffered in their past history has become a veritable obsession with the Jews. It has become a morbid passion affecting the entire people, one that for centuries has driven them to dream of carrying out a massive slaughter of Gentiles, of bringing about enormous destruction and wreaking a terrible vengeance upon all peoples of the world. For these other peoples, their leaders have led them to believe, have done them grievous wrong. They have no desire to understand that it is they themselves, the Jews, who have always been the cause in such situations; and that the peoples who have been forced to oppose them in whatever way have only been defending themselves against aggression offered them by unassimilable aliens and interlopers; by intruders who, after having received the generous hospitality of other peoples, have betrayed that generosity by robbing them of their wealth and seeking to control their every activity; by intruders, in short, who have become the most dangerous sect of thieves and conspirators known to history.

Lastly, the religious faith of the Jews, who consider themselves superior to other men, fosters in them the pronounced megalomaniac tendencies that constitute another of their obsessions, obsessions which have more and more clearly been taking the form of a collective delusion of grandeur. And this delusion, of course, is just another of the symptoms of PARANOIA; or as it is called nowadays, paranoid schizophrenia.

Similarly, the intense and morbid distrust which is so common among Jews, and which has allowed them to guard their secrets and surround their clandestine activities and concealed organizations with an impenetrable wall of secrecy, has also made them send thousands and thousands of innocent people to their death in the countries under communist rule. For this has been principally because the Jews, being paranoid, are so much given to false interpretations and to imagining nonexistent plots, typical products of the unbalanced mind in paranoiacs who are inclined to have delusions of persecution. All medical specialists know perfectly well that this abnormal distrust and this imagining of nonexistent aggressions and plots that are being hatched against the person imagining them are unequivocal symptoms of paranoia, a terrible illness, whatever the name that may be given to it by those doing research on mental disorders in the future.

The same may be said of the proclivity Jews so often have for spying on everyone, an inclination to be sure that has helped them to organize most efficient espionage services and thereby obtain their greatest victories in their struggle to rule the world. On the other hand, it has turned life in Communist countries dominated by the Jews into a veritable hell, where children spy on their parents, brother spies on brother, and neighbor on neighbor, all by order of the Tchekas or secret police organizations, which are invariably headed by Jews. And we must not forget that this abnormal inclination to spy on one's victims is another of the morbid tendencies found in paranoia, an affliction from which Jews, to the mortal detriment of mankind, suffer in much higher percentage than do other peoples.

In the last analysis, the Jew's perseverance, his passion, his fanatical commitment to the vindication of his supposed rights — qualities which make him capable of overcoming the greatest obstacles and of enduring the most adverse circumstances without yielding — are among his greatest attributes. They are also traits, according to the most reliable psychiatry texts, which are characteristic of the revenge complex of paranoia. This would seem to explain the Jew's fierce hatred of Christianity, of Islam, and of the other peoples of the earth, a hatred that is out of all proportion to reason; a paranoid hatred which, as the hatred of the mentally unbalanced, can scarcely be imagined by normal people, let alone be fully understood. It would also explain the Jewish thirst for vengeance, the lust for destruction that has caused torrents of blood to be shed in all the Jewish revolutions, from the Albigensians and Hussites of the Middle Ages to the Anabaptists of Munzer in the 16th century; or the so-called French Revolution at the end of the 18th century, in which the clandestine Jew Maximilien Robespierre¹ and others, true paranoid lunatics, poured out Gentile blood in torrents, exceeding with a vengeance any amount necessary for the revolution to triumph. To say nothing of the murderous frenzy bordering on madness which drove the Jewish directors of the Soviet Tcheka to slaughter millions of people in cold blood.

Another characteristic of the paranoiac, according to the textbooks in psychiatry, is his chronic obstinacy, his conviction that he is always right and that it is the others who are mistaken. Above all must be noted the vigor and resolution with which he maintains and defends his morbid ideas, for he is as unbending as though made of steel against any pressure used to get him to alter his convictions. This largely explains the steadfastness of the Jews over the course of history in holding adamantly to their imperialistic religious and political beliefs, refusing in most cases to succumb despite the persecutions of all kinds which they had to face. When subjected to the tortures of the Inquisition, they yielded, wept, begged forgiveness, swore to abandon Judaism, and even denounced all the clandestine Jews they knew when the inquisitor tortured it out of them. They did this to escape the torture, to keep from being burned at the stake, and to obtain the pardon offered by the directors of the Inquisition to clandestine Jews who petitioned for it and would promise to abandon Judaism and become good Christians. But once freed from the inquisitorial prisons with the pardon obtained, they continued to adhere stubbornly to Judaism in secret and to plot against the people in whose territory they lived, as well as against their religious and political institutions, with the same kind of obduracy, steadfastness, and perseverance that psychiatry attributes to the paranoiac.

The most serious thing in all this is that, as the psychiatry textbooks state, apart from the abnormalities which we have mentioned, paranoiacs are generally quite sane with respect to the rest of their mental faculties. They may be musical composers, superb writers and journalists, clever businessmen able to amass great wealth, diligent priests and religious leaders, inspired and eminently successful political leaders, outstanding military men skilled in the arts of war, famous doctors, lawyers, engineers, merchants and industrialists, or celebrated philosophers; men who are completely normal in the rest of their activities; splendid parents, good brothers, etc. And this is so because paranoia, except in the most serious cases of patients who have to be put in mental institutions, affects to a greater or lesser degree only a small part of an individual's behavioral tendencies and mental faculties; the remaining faculties and natural inclinations which regulate most of his daily activities are completely normal, so that no one would imagine him to be someone abnormal or mentally ill.

Except in very acute cases requiring internment in a sanatorium, paranoia generally manifests itself as a partial insanity inasmuch as it affects only part of a person's faculties, leaving him sane and normal as to most of his mental powers. That is why paranoiacs are such a danger to those against whom they direct their unjustified acts of retaliation, hatred, or revenge; especially since, as the psychiatry textbooks tell us, paranoiacs are masters in the art of dissimulation. And as we note in this connection that the Jews throughout the centuries have shown themselves to be masters in the art of dissimulation, here once again they fall into the pattern of the characteristics attributed by psychiatrists to the paranoid insane.

But what reason can we give for the fact that Jews scattered throughout the whole world are affected more than any other people by this illness, so terrible in its destructive effects, known as paranoia or paranoid schizophrenia?

There is a difference of opinion among psychiatrists as to the cause of paranoia. According to some authorities, it would seem to an hereditary illness. And in the case of the Jews, who save in exceptional instances marry only Jews, and avoid intermarriage with other races, this would have augmented and worsened the hereditary effect. However, other researchers, especially the modern ones, maintain that paranoid schizophrenia is not hereditary but acquired, and is due to environmental influences undergone during childhood and adolescence. If true, it is then quite evident that the secret education which Jewish children and adolescents receive, in their homes and in their schools, open or clandestine, would be highly conducive to the development in them of the mental disorders of paranoia. From their earliest years, Jewish children have it so repeatedly hammered into them how the Jews have suffered persecution throughout their history, it is small wonder that to one degree or another they all develop a persecution complex. And the constant teachings, based on the Old Testament and the Talmud, about the greatness of the Jewish people and its superiority over all other peoples, undoubtedly foster the development of megalomania as well.

Then there is the continual preaching about the imperative need to reclaim dominion over the world's peoples and wealth, given to the Jewish people by God, but now usurped and wrongfully held by Gentiles contrary to the divine will; that, too, like the centuries-long yearning for the recovery of Palestine and the rebuilding of the Jewish State, has fostered the development in Jewish children and young people of a paranoid revenge complex.

Furthermore, the double life which every Jew leads, one secret and one public, and the constant fear of being found out by the Gentiles around him in his secrets and his endless scheming; the orders he receives to spy on those Gentiles and inform his rabbi of everything he has seen and heard; the sermonizing in the Old Testament of the Bible about being relentless, vengeful, cruel, etc., towards the Gentiles, and about God ordering Moses and Joshua to kill men, women, and children to avenge the Israelite people or conquer the Promised Land — all these things are undoubtedly factors which contribute to the development in Jewish children and adolescents of paranoid mental disorders that are most dangerous for the rest of mankind.

We shall find it difficult to understand the Jews in all their shades of contrast unless we complete the diagnostic picture with a detailed study of their paranoid complexes and delusions. These constitute a true madness that has both enabled the Jews to make incredible achievements in the fields of religion, economics, and politics, and led them to commit the most frightful mass crimes; it is because of this madness that they have now become the most threatening and terrible menace hanging over mankind. The other peoples of the world will never be able to live in peace so long as the Jewish nation — organized worldwide in the form of a secret society set up and run largely by depraved lunatics who have become thieves, unremitting conspirators, and at times destructive criminals — continues to maintain its fifth columns in all the other nations of the world and seeks to control them. Indeed, it is these fifth columns, the so-called Jewish Colonies, both open and clandestine (and the latter are the more dangerous), which foment the subversion, the civil wars, and the international wars that may yet engulf mankind in an atomic holocaust.

Among any of the various peoples of mankind, it is possible where paranoiacs crop up in certain families for most of the family members to be more or less normal. Jewish families are no different in this respect than others, of course. Unfortunately, however, Jews who may be mentally sound themselves nonetheless support the insanities and the evil plans of their leaders and rabbis, because the education they have received from their earliest years has made these things seem both justified and good. Even those rare souls who are both noble and independent, when they arise within Judaism, with rare exception find themselves made powerless to rebel against such evil and madness because of the terrible punishment that would be meted out to them by the dread Bet Din (Jewish Secret Tribunal) of their community at the first sign of their intent to rebel — a punishment, moreover, that would reach to the rebel's immediate family as well. And though many might be brave enough to face such punishment themselves, scarcely any dare run the risk of having their wives and children suffer the scourge of rabbinic fury known to compass the use of poison as well as other means to get rid of those who are held to be threatening the discipline and the very life of this dark sect.

A tendency towards pretense and dissimulation, which specialists in nervous disorders consider a paranoid trait, combined with a Jewish education which from childhood on has trained them to feign and dissimulate in their dealings with Gentile beasts, has made the Jews into past masters in the art of hypocrisy that was already a characteristic of the Pharisees, the indisputable founders of modern Judaism. This paranoid tendency and this schooling in the art of dissimulation make it easy for the Jew in his dealings with Gentiles to give a skillful performance that will convince them of his liking for them, his friendship, and even his seeming loyalty; but deep in his heart the Jewish actor-hypocrite bears them nothing but the hatred and scorn which his religion has inculcated in him for all things Gentile and for all Gentiles. Again, this capacity for feigning and dissimulation has also aided the Jews in their task of infiltrating and controlling the societies of her nations; for, with a perfection worthy of a more noble cause, they pretend to be loyal, true, and even personally attached to Gentile leaders while they are secretly plotting their ruin. We find this to be equally true of both religious and non-religious Jews, for both groups harbor a similar percentage of paranoids, and both have received the same schooling in the art of dissembling.

Finally, with respect to the Jewish religion, although it is of course true that the Jews are not the only people ever endowed by its leaders with a religion that set them up before the rest of humanity as a superior and privileged caste, here is what they continue to preach even today in the bosom of the Jewish communities: That the world was created by God for the exclusive benefit of his CHOSEN PEOPLE, the Jews, to whom all the riches of the world belong by divine right; and that all other men, being merely animal in nature, were created by God to serve and be slaves of the Jews.

This in itself, in the 20th century, must be accounted sheer lunacy by anyone in full possession of his mental faculties.

Is Mental Illness The Jewish Disease?

Physician Claims Jews Are Schizo Carriers

Evidence that Jews are carriers of schizophrenia is disclosed in a paper prepared for the American Journal of Psychiatry by Dr. Arnold A. Hutschnecker, the New York psychiatrist who once treated President Nixon.

In a study entitled "Mental Illness: The Jewish Disease" Dr. Hutschnecker said that, although all Jews are not mentally ill, mental illness is highly contagious and Jews are the principal sources of infection.

Dr. Hutschnecker stated that every Jew is born with the seeds of schizophrenia and it is this fact that accounts for the world-wide persecution of Jews.

"The world would be more compassionate toward the Jews if it was generally realized that Jews are not responsible for their condition," Dr. Hutschnecker said. "Schizophrenia is the factor that creates in Jews a compulsive desire for persecution."

Dr. Hutschnecker pointed out that mental illness peculiar to Jews is manifested by their inability to differentiate between right and wrong. He said that, although Jewish canonical law recognizes the virtues of patience, humility and integrity, Jews are aggressive, vindictive and dishonest.

"While Jews attack non-Jewish Americans for racism, Israel is the most racist country in the world," Dr. Hutschnecker said.

Jews, according to Dr. Hutschnecker, display their mental illness through their paranoia. He explained that the paranoid not only imagines that he is being persecuted but deliberately creates situations which will make persecution a reality.

Dr. Hutschnecker said that all a person needs do to see Jewish paranoia in action is to ride in the New York subway. Nine times out of ten, he said, the one who pushes you out of his way will be a Jew.

"The Jew hopes you will retaliate in return and when you do he can tell himself you are anti-Semitic."

During World War II, Dr. Hutschnecker said, Jewish leaders in England and the United States knew about the terrible massacre of the Jews by the Nazis. But, he stated, when State Department officials wanted to speak out against the massacre, they were silenced by organized Jewry. Organized Jewry, he said, wanted the massacre to continue in order to arouse the world's sympathy.

Dr. Hutschnecker likened the Jewish need to be persecuted to the kind of insanity where the afflicted person mutilates himself. He said that those who mutilate themselves do so because they want sympathy for themselves. But, he added, such persons reveal their insanity by disfiguring themselves in such a way as to arouse revulsion rather than sympathy.

Dr. Hutschnecker noted that the incidence of mental illness has increased in the United States in direct proportion to the increase in the Jewish population.

"The great Jewish migration to the United States began at the end of the nineteenth century," Dr. Hutschnecker said. "In 1900 there were 1,058,135 Jews in the United States; in 1970 there were 5,868,555, an increase of 454.8%. In 1900 there were 62,112 persons confined in public mental hospitals in the United States; in 1970 there were 339,027, an increase of 445.7%. In the same period the U.S. population rose from 76,212,368 to 203,211,926, an increase of 166.6%. Prior to the influx of Jews from Europe the United States was a mentally healthy nation. But this is no longer true."

Dr. Hutschnecker substantiated his claim that the United States was no longer a mentally healthy nation by quoting Dr. David Rosenthal chief of the laboratory of psychology at the National Institute of Mental Health, who recently estimated that more than 60,000,000 people in the United States suffer from some form of "schizophrenic spectrum disorder." Noting that Dr. Rosenthal is Jewish, Dr. Hutschnecker said that Jews seem to take a perverse pride in the spread of mental illness.

Dr. Hutschnecker said that the word "schizophrenia" was given to mental disease by Dr. Eugen Bleuler, a Swiss psychiatrist, in 1911. Prior to that time it had been known as "dementia praecox," the name used by its discoverer, Dr. Emil Kraepelin. Later, according to Dr. Hutschnecker, the same disease was given the name "neurosis" by Dr. Sigmund Freud.

"The symptoms of schizophrenia were recognized almost simultaneously by Bleuler, Kraepelin and Freud at a time when Jews were moving into the affluent middle class," Dr. Hutschnecker said. "Previously they had been ignored as a social and racial entity by the physicians of that era. They became clinically important when they began to intermingle with non-Jews."

Dr. Hutschnecker said that research by Dr. Jacques S. Gottlieb of Wayne State University indicates that Schizophrenia is caused by deformity in the alpha-two-globulin protein, which in schizophrenics is corkscrew-shaped. The deformed protein is apparently caused by a virus which, Dr. Hutschnecker believes, Jews transmit to non-Jews with whom they come in contact. He said that because those descended from Western European peoples have not built up an immunity to the virus they are particularly vulnerable to the disease.

"There is no doubt in my mind," Dr. Hutschnecker said, "that Jews have infected the American people with schizophrenia. Jews are carriers of the disease and it will reach epidemic proportions unless science develops a vaccine to counteract it."

Fraud to the Public Opinion

The Jewish Conspiracy to Seize the United States Government

MACHIAVELIAN FRAUD TO THE PEOPLE OF THE UNITED STATES

Millions of dollars were spent in one of the biggest press, television and radio campaigns of propaganda - which was apparently showing fair accusations - was able to hide the sinister political manoeuvre we are denouncing in this pamphlet, enclosing enough proofs to show its truthfulness.

Esteban Aguila.

Many anguished North Americans saw on their television screens Richard M. Nixon's leave-taking from the White House, after his dramatic resignation from the position of Constitutional President of the United States of North America, the first power of the world.

Among the silent spectators there were those who shed a tear, while others preferred to switch off their T V sets, unable to stand the tension of this historical moment in which the most vituperated man of the post-war period made an unexpected public appearance, ceremoniously and calmly greeting his old collaborators.

Unfortunately for the United States, however, a press, a television and a radio controlled by the Jews, were able to brainwash the majority of the North American people, making them believe that the object of the ridiculous Watergate scandal was to chastise an errant President and his collaborators' violations of the law and to save democracy and the North American Constitution.

Paradoxically, the President elected with the greatest majority of votes in the history of the nation, was forced to resign due to the Watergate case, the political show dramatized in the manner of a "Popular Tribunal" manipulated by a vile and infamous minority which monopolizes information and controls the major weekly newspapers, radio, television, news cables and international news agencies. Thus ended the siege which was initiated six years ago.

Indeed, ever since 1968, when Richard Nixon was elected candidate for the Presidency of the United States by the Republican Party, defeating the leftist wing headed by the Jewish plutocrat, Nelson Rockefeller, he saw himself slowly encircled by a conspiracy that was discrediting his authority in international politics, demolishing his prestige, undermining his morale, and sullying his name in a campaign of such a calibre, so void of scruples, and so full of low expedients as has not been in our memory since the decades of the fifties when Truman and his associates launched the press against the patriotic senator, Joseph McCarthy, in a campaign that ended in his strange, "natural" death.

For the last eight months the information monopoly had been pounding on the matter day after day with a suspiciously coincidental persistence, meticulousness and unanimity, presenting its version of the Watergate case as if it were the whole truth, to the point of making it appear as one of the most important issues in the history of North American politics.

This massive mobilization — obscurely managed under the pretext of "reestablishing confidence" and "public morality" — has broken the feeble United States democratic government; for upon the resignation of the man who received the largest number of votes in the history of the country, his place is taken by a vice-president, who was appointed only ten months earlier, when Spiro Agnew was forced to resign.

Who are those responsible for such a campaign? The reporters of the "Washington Post" were not the only originators of the nation's worst scandal. Indeed, the young Jews, Carl Bernstein and Bob Woodward, constitute only the visible part of the propaganda iceberg mobilized to crush Nixon.

Which are the newspapers and magazines that simultaneously got the scandal campaigns rolling? Who are their owners? What is their political orientation? Was a service done to the nation in Watergate or a swindling of the people who voted for Nixon? Who defrauded the people? Nixon or the press? Who conspired against the North American people?

The monopoly of information extends all over the United States, from coast to coast, starting from a dozen major newspapers and followed by hundreds more, of a smaller circulation, besides the weeklies, magazines, news agencies, radio and television networks.

The most important ones are: in the capital, the "Washington Post"; on the East coast, the "New York Times", "Newsday", "New York Post" and the "Boston Globe"; on the West coast, the "Los Angeles Times"; in the center, the UPI and AP agencies and the weeklies such as "Newsweek" and "Time".

The "Washington Post", the newspaper of Bernstein and Woodward, was acquired in 1933 by the Jew, Eugene Meyer in order to support the "New Deal" of Franklin Delano Roosevelt, an Israelite pro-communist who delivered half of Europe to Soviet communism, in Yalta. Meyer bought the newspaper with part of the money he dishonestly acquired during the first world war when he did illegal business amounting to millions of dollars with duplicated "war bonds", as was later denounced by the congressman, Louis McFarland.

Eugene's father who emigrated from France in 1848, was a representative of the French Jewish bank, Rothschild, and was associated with the Israelites of Lazard Frères. He also made millions by associating himself with the Jewish leader, Bernard Baruch, who had great influence in Wilson's government and in that of all the presidents that followed him until his death in the sixties. Baruch and Meyer imposed an absolute control over the North American war industry, obtaining substantial contracts for themselves and their jewish friends.

The pro-communist, Eugene Meyer, gave an evidently leftist orientation to his newspaper which supported a rapprochement with the USSR and economic aid to the communist countries. Nothing changed with Eugene Meyer's death, for his son-in-law, Philip Graham, took over the "Washington Post". Graham was legal secretary of the influential Rooseveltian, Felix Frankfurter, also a Jew, creator of the "New Deal".

Since 1963, when Graham shot himself in the head, the newspaper has been managed by his widow, Meyer's daughter, who is turning the aforementioned publication still more toward the left.

The "Washington Post" is associated with two other major newspapers: the "New York Times" and the "Los Angeles Times". With the "New York Times" — spokesman of the New York Jews — it possesses the "Herald Tribune". With "Los Angeles Times", the "Washington Post" manages an article service used by 68 publications with more than 12 million copies. The "Washington Post" sells half a million copies a day and 700 thousand on Sundays.

The "Washington Post", which made so much fuss in the name of peace, was bought with money stolen from the North American people during the war; the staunch opposers of the North American presence in Vietnam were at that time all in favor of the deployment of war without caring one hoot how many young men were dying, while they were becoming millionaires, speculating with the suffering and death of their fellowmen.

Eugene Meyer was North American only by name and Bernard Baruch maintained that patriotism was stupid.

They who made such a noisy fuss about Nixon's taxes pay no taxes like the rest of the North American citizens, because the newspaper is controlled by the "Eugene and Agnes Meyer Foundation" which is tax-exempt in spite of its enormous earnings.

But, the "Washington Post" was not alone in the campaign to overthrow the President. In the same political line, the "New York Times" comes first". There is no other newspaper like Times in the United States. It has the most numerous news staff, the most exhaustive reach and coverage and an intimidating influence on national and world leaders— as the case of the Pentagon papers demonstrated".

Thus, in short, does the "Times" weekly characterize the spokesman of the North American Jewish community. The managing editor is Abraham M. Rosenthal (Abe) and its publisher , Arthur Ochs Sulzberger, both Jews. Spokesman for Yankee Zionism, supporting North American intervention in the Middle East on behalf of Israel, it has, to the contrary, showed itself "pacifist" in Vietnam.

Seymur Hersh, a Jew, was the first to publish news about the My Lai affair, destined to undermine the combatant soldiers' morale and to discredit the North American army. He was employed to collaborate in the Watergate investigation. The Rockefellers have a great influence on the "New York Times" which has been collaborating with all the communists of the world, from Fidel Castro and Patricio Lumumba, to Salvador Allende and his widows. Watergate was for the "NYT" the number one priority.

On the Pacific Coast, the "Los Angeles Times" is the representative of the information monopoly, with a morning sale of a little over one million copies and one million two hundred and fifty thousand copies of its Sunday edition. Its income is fabulous: 396 million dollars a year, which makes it the third most important newspaper of the United States. Until 1960 it pretended to be a conservative, republican newspaper, but of the wing that supports Nelson Rockefeller, the Chase Manhattan Bank plutoocrat, the first North American bank with branches in Moscow and Peking. When E.O Guthman, a Jewish communist, was appointed national news editor, and a crowd of "intellectuals" invaded the editorial staff, the "Los Angeles Times" became more radical, tending towards a socialist position. Guthman, who after being a devotee of Senator Robert Kennedy, came to occupy such a high position, had previously— in another newspaper— defended university professors accused of being communists.

Othis Chandler is the publicist, but it is his mother, Dorothy, who is a convinced communist, the one who manages Othis as she pleases, together with the Rockefeller "intellectuals".

At a meeting of shareholders of the "Times Mirror", owners of the newspaper in question, Othis himself declared that "the true revolution in the United States had begun and that it was the newspaper's obligation towards its readers to EDUCATE them for the revolution, for otherwise the citizens would not understand why they wanted to impose a different system of life on them"

A whole team was sent to Washington to "investigate" the "Watergate case" together with Woodward-Bernstein from the "Washington Post".

The monopoly of the "Los Angeles Times" "TIMES MIRROR" extends to Texas where they bought the "Dallas Times Herald" for 91.4 million dollars and to Long Island where, for 33 million dollars, they acquired 51% of the shares of the most important suburban newspaper "NEWSDAY", one of the staunchest enemies of all conservatives and anti-communists. The editor of "Newsday" is the Jew, DAVID LAVENTHOL, who together with ROBERT GREENE made an "investigation" of the life of the president and his followers.

The whole "Hearst" chain, which owns 17 newspapers with 8 million copies daily and 15 magazines, five radio stations, a cinema news series etc. also launched itself against the president after publicly favoring the "Simbionese Liberation Army". The newspaper chain was founded by the Jew, Mauricius de Hirsch, who anglicized his surname from Hirsch to Hearst.

The "New York Post" also took steps openly towards monopolizing the information against Nixon in order to subdue him and force him to resign. The stance of this New York paper makes the "New York Times" seem "moderate". It is managed by Dorothy Schiff, granddaughter of Jacob Schiff, the Jewish patron of the 1917 bolshevik revolution. Dorothy Schiff is also related to the Rothschilds. The "New York Post" editor is James Wenschler, a Jewish ex-official of the Communist Youths' League.

The multimillionaire Field family, owners of "The Chicago Sun Times" and of the "Daily News" followed the pro-soviet line of Franklin Delano Roosevelt, thanks to the work of the Russian born communist Jewish psychiatrist, Gregory Zilboorg who calls himself an "intellectual revolutionary". When Marshall Field III fell into his hands as a patient, it can be said that the Jew Zilboorg "took possession of his mind" through prolonged sessions of psychoanalysis. Marshal Field V, who publicly declared himself to be a communist, publishes the "Daily News", having worked earlier for the "Boston Globe", another crypto-communist newspaper.

The "Boston Globe", described by Time magazine as one of the best North American newspapers in 1974, has a morning and an evening edition, with a daily issue of 450 thousand copies. Its political position is clear, since in 1968 it supported Herbert H. Humphrey as a candidate and in 1972 George McGovern, both belonging to the Democratic Party. Moreover, it was the only newspaper besides the "New York Times" and the "Washington Post" that agreed to publish the stolen secrets of the Jewish spy, Daniel Ellsberg.

Another important newspaper chain that joined the Greek chorus of professional mourners was the one directed by the mysterious Samuel Newhouse, of Russian-Jewish origin, and composed of 22 important newspapers, 3 radio stations and 6 television networks which represent approximately 300 million dollars. Samuel Newhouse is a follower of Nelson Rockefeller, the monopolist of fuel oil, one of the owners of Standard Oil-Exxon.

It is rumored in Wall Street that Jewish banks such as Khun, Loeb & Co. and Stern-Rosenwald, provided Newhouse with the money with which he created this chain.

Another newspaper suspiciously described by Time magazine, in a recent inquiry, as being among the 10 best of North America, is the "Louisville Journal" which was also involved in the defamatory campaign against Nixon's presidency.

The "Louisville", with 230 thousand copies daily, and 360 thousand on Sundays, directed by the leftist Barry Bingham who is presently editor and publicist, violently attacked Nort American aid to the government of the Vietnam Republic and pleaded for the withdrawal of the North American Army condemning the bombing of military targets in Indochina. "On the eve of the ceremony of Nixon's second assumption of the Presidency, Bigham urged the citizens to march to Washington and demand an end to the bombings," says "Time". The "citizens" who followed the advice of the Lousville Courier-Journal were singing "Viet cong, Viet cong communism can't be wrong", they were waving communist flags and pelted with stones the suite of the President elect, in a case without precedent in North American history.

We must tangentially point out that "Time" magazine has been slowly but steadily incorporating itself in the mobilization for the information monopoly, searching for a balance between the Watergate publicity and the launching of Henry Abraham Kissinger "the employee of the Rockefellers" as he is nicknamed in New York.

In the opinion of "Time" magazine, the "Boston Globe", the "Los Angeles Times", the "Louisville Courier-Journal", "Newsday", the "New York Times" and, of course, the "Washington Post" are among the ten best newspapers of the United States. This means that it gave 60% of its credits to the monopoly of information, in another skilful public opinion poll which, like so many, is an obvious manoeuvre of deceit and manipulation.

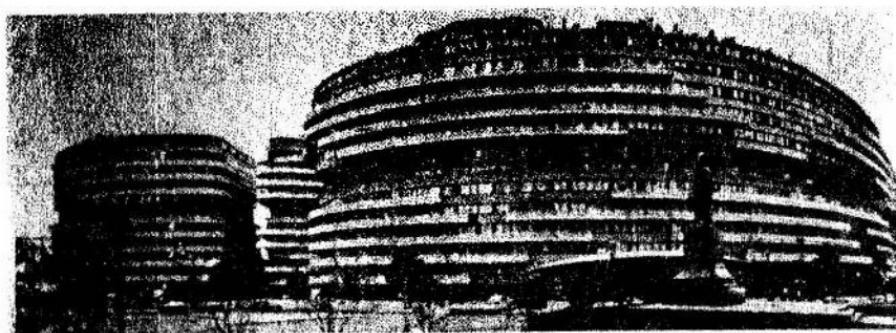

The TIME weekly, of key influence in the political life of North America, has its offices in the Rockefeller Center of New York and, unfortunately, Jewish infiltration in it is growing. Thus, on the one hand, the criticism of statesmen, parties, patriotic anti-communist governments and zionism is increasing and on the other, the collaboration with the URSS and Red China. The publicist is Ralph P. Davison and the managing editor, Henry Anatole Grunwald. Names such as Goldman, Jaroff, Loeb, Birnbaum, Golden, Kalem, Kanfer, Sheppard, Warner, Bernstein, Taubman, Vishniak, White, Berman, Elisen, Gordon, Newman, Suyker, Castro, Rosenstein to quote only a few, abound in its payroll list of men in important positions and the majority of them are Jews.

The other "Washington Post" tentacle is the "Newsweek" weekly magazine of Katherine Meyer Graham, a Jew. There, likewise, the majority of those holding responsible positions are Israelites, like the Manager, Edward Kosnen, the editorial director, Kernit Lanser and other executive directors like Rafael Steinberg, Edward Behr, Alan Finberg, Peter Goldman, Edward Klein, Shana Alexander, Milton Friedman, Paul Samuelson, Leon Volkov, Pete Aschelthelm, Michael Ruby, Richard Steele, Paul Zimmerman, David Alpen, Peter Gwynne, Ron Meyerson, Joseph Stiner, Gerson Silman, Allison Diamond, Jerry Eitelberg, Abigail H. Kiflik, Dan Saahiro and many others, all of them Hebrews of the aforementioned New Jersey communist magazine.

We must add to this the coverage of the Watergate Trial Sessions by the CBS and NBC television networks with programs from coast to coast.

Other publications that joined the mobilization are "Life", "Fortune" and "Look" also publicly and notoriously the property of Jews.

The news agencies "Associated Press" (AP) and the "United Press International" (UPI) also joined the movement of the monopoly of information. The AP as well as the UPI which are infested with communists and Jews are the jugglers, par excellence, of the news. There has never been a "crowd" of forty professional agitators that was not publicized all over the world by photographs or texts, as long as they were pro-communists. The "partisan groups" of fifty, one hundred or two hundred thousand citizens who were supporting the Vietnam policy and the president, or who were venerating their flag, did not merit the same attention and preference. Thus, every tiny marxist cell of agitation in Miami, San Francisco, Washington or New York, never failed to have a reporter or photographer close at hand, so that one comes to suspect some previous coordination. Indeed, this is what defrauding the North American people means. They are deceived by a band of sectarian Israelites who either tell blatant lies, or hide or distort the truth to suit the political interests of their masters who are the ones that give the newspaper its orientation.

In the mobilization against the Presidency, elected by the people, there was a fraud, disguised as "defense of the freedom of information", for information is not given objectively and thus, the so much talked about "equality of possibilities" on which THE WHOLE North American democratic system IS BASED, tumbles down. In fact, the silent majority is discriminated against by a powerful minority, grafted within the social communications media which, in the last years, has converted them into a monstrous monopoly that blindly obeys their petty interests which in no measure coincide with the interests of the North American people.

Independent newspapers and magazines have been disappearing from the principal North American cities, for the monopoly has masters who are so powerful as to be able to choke them economically by cutting off advertising from those who do not submit to them. When this blackmail does not work, because patriotic millionaires —of whom unfortunately there are not many— sustain the publication, there may arise "syndical problems" "accidents" or infiltration in the editorial staff.

The monopoly of information in the United States is as "democratic" as the Soviet Union.

The monopoly of information is linked to the notorious Council of Foreign Relations (CFR), managed by the Wall Street International bankers, the most distinguished of whom are the Rockefeller brothers, David John Davison, Laurence Spelman, Winthrop and Nelson Aldrich, the ex-governor of New York, sons of John Davison Rockefeller and Abby Greene Aldrich. The clan has had business links with the Rothschilds since 1880.

The 1917 communist revolution, financed by the big Jewish bank of New York "Kuhn Loeb and Co." and its principal shareholder, the Israeli Jacob Schiff, received immediately after its triumph, the support of the Rockefellers through their agent, Frank Vanderlip, President of the "First National City Bank" who compared the Jew Lenin to George Washington. The Rockefeller public relations agent, Ivy Lee, was commissioned to sell to the North American public the idea that the bosheviks were "idealists" and

"benefactors of humanity".

The New Jersey Standard Oil Company,
an oil storage place of this Jewish family, received 50% of the Caucasus oil fields, which goes to show that communism is big business for the Jews.

In 1927, Standard Oil built a refinery in Russia which made it possible for the Soviet Jews to raise their tumbling economy. Shortly afterwards, Standard Oil and its subsidiary "Vacuum Oil Company" made an agreement to sell
Russian oil in Europe and a loan of 75 million dollars was reported to have been granted to the USSR which had no diplomatic relations yet with Washington.

When in 1935, Joseph Visiaranovich
Djugasvilli Stalin took over all foreign investments that had been made during one of the many strategic "openings" in Moscow, "Standard Oil" continued to operate normally.

The Rockefeller's "Chase National Bank" was brought together with the "Warburgs Manhattan Bank" and thus was born the present "Chase Manhattan Bank".

In order to save its bolshevik allies from disaster, "Chase" collaborated in the establishment of the Soviet-North American Chamber of Commerce in 1922.
The president of this Chamber of Commerce was Reeve-Schely, a vice-president of the Chase National Bank.

Besides promoting Soviet credits in 1928, the Rockefeller bank was involved in the sale of bolshevik bonds. Some patriotic organization described the "Chase" as a "national disgrace".

Louis McFaden, congress member and president of the "House Banking Committee" showed how the Chase Guaranty Trust Company and others, were using the money of the American Treasury for the benefit of the USSR and that the State Bank of Soviet Russia was operating through the "Chase Bank of New York".

From those early years of communism to date, the Rockefellers have followed the same pro-communist policy.

In 1967, the "New York Times" announced that the Rockefeller Jewish family and the similarly Jewish Cyrus S. Eaton Mcpherson, owners of the "International Basic Economy Corporation" and the "Towey International Inc." respectively, had decided to promote commerce with the countries, behind the Iron Curtain, including the Soviet Union.

Ever since the first world war, Eaton's father was associated in various enterprises with old John Davison Rockefeller. Two years later, the information was published that N.M. Rothschild & Sons, the Jewish bank of London, had become a member of the firm.

Thousands of commodities considered "strategic" were authorized for exportation to the USSR through Rockefeller-Eaton-Rothschild, who also have the monopoly of transferring technology to the supposed enemies of the super-capitalists.

The vile wheat settlement, the many billion dollars forwarded to the Soviet Jews to save their weak economy, are the most recent activities of the Rockefellers, who with their man, H.A. Kissinger, have given Russia and China a real boost

When the Watergate scandal began, Nelson Aldrich Rockefeller, renounced his governorship of the State of New York in order to be able to compete for the presidency in 1976, a dream cherished for a long time by the Israeli magnate.

What access does the average North American citizen have to the printed page of the monopoly newspapers? Is this discrimination democratic, just, or even reasonable? Monopoly is neither interested in democracy nor in justice and it considers that it alone is right.

This is the dictatorship of the monopoly of information and it should not be forgotten that radio, television and the press are only means to an end.

The "Watergate Show" cannot be fully understood if we only take into account the charges brought against Richard Nixon which can be summed up as failure to pay his taxes to the exchequer and his participation in the espionage case within the premises of the democratic party.

The hypocrisy and phariseeism lie in presenting these activities of Nixon as the worst crime ever committed, when in the case of espionage, it is well known that it constitutes the ABC of the politics of all times, to the point that every nation, has within its bureaucracy, organs specialized in this kind of activity.

But, besides the technical aspect, the monopoly waved ethical flags of apparent value. Once again the invading Pharisaic spirit became evident, when this very same press which tears its garments and throws ashes on its head because of Watergate, applauds and glorifies Daniel Ellsberg, the communist Jew, who after breaking all the oaths which the officials dealing with secret documents pledge themselves to keep, stole these very documents and delivered them first to the USSR embassy and afterwards to the Jewish-communist press in order to put pressure on the government of his own country which was waging a war against a foreign power.

Daniel Ellsberg said he was a pacifist, in order to justify his act of straightforward treason, but the monopoly has two yardsticks: a long one for its enemies and a short one for its own people. Besides, the Jewish control of the United States Courts is so powerful that whereas Jewish traitors of the Nation are absolved, the American patriots who wish to defend their country against such traitors, are imprisoned. Thus, whereas the Jew, Daniel Ellsberg was absolved, the patriotic John Ehrlichman who wanted to rid the United States of the disastrous effects of his treason, finds himself imprisoned for this very reason. And the whole world wonders: How is it possible that the North American people, who believe they are free, should tolerate these things which have never been tolerated in Latin America? Besides Watergate, the monopoly is also avenging the death of the Rosenbergs, the Jewish communist spies who were electrocuted 32 years ago for delivering the atomic bomb secrets to the Jew, Stalin. As they are masters in the art of infiltration, espionage, terrorism and "natural" deaths, they fear that their enemies might apply the same methods against them.

The pretext of the taxes is nothing new either. The Jew Harry Solomon Truman, made use of it against Admiral Forrestal when he intensified his patriotic stance of opposing the delivery of China to communism and all the network of communists infesting the State Department and the White House. All the press monopoly of information aimed its batteries against Forrestal, launching a campaign of drawings, stories, cartoons and commentaries, similar to the one launched some decades later against Nixon and previously against Joseph McCarthy. The victim of a nervous break down, Forrestal, was interned in a hospital. Shortly afterwards it was announced that Admiral Forrestal had "committed suicide" by throwing himself out of the window, but the body showed the belt of his dressing gown knotted round his neck. "Suicides" of this kind are the Monopoly's specialty.

It would not be surprising if they should wish to "depress" Nixon and Spiro Agnew so much as to provoke their respective "natural" deaths, or in default of these, their "suicides".

The definite proof that Watergate is part of a phariseean conspiracy led by the Jewish masters of the monopoly, resides in the fact that whereas all the Christian collaborators of the United States President —including his brothers and intimate friends—were subjected to irritating and meticulous investigations, a suspicious exception was made in the case of Henry Abraham Kissinger, the most influential collaborator of the presidency and the most informed man of the White House.

Kissinger was presented by the monopoly as the "good" man in a "bad" government, without anybody—not even Sirica Jaworski or Rodino—having bothered to investigate Henry Abraham's participation in Watergate, his finances or his friendships. Such an investigation would have conducted us to those truly responsible for Watergate; in other words to the masters of the monopoly.

On seeing himself lost, Kissinger felt as an actor whose script had been changed. But what was the reaction of the press? Did they demand investigation as was due?

Nothing of the sort. The monopoly agents in the Senate gave Kissinger a vote of confidence and a formal promise that they would not allow that he be disturbed by any investigation, while they continued to hound Nixon.

His actions show that Kissinger's "genialities" are evaporating like water in the desert, for there is no peace in Vietnam, nor in the Middle East, nor in Cyprus, but communism is advancing thanks to Kissinger and his masters.

Among the grave errors committed by Richard Nixon and Spiro Agnew, there was one which led to their ruin. It was their ingenuous belief that by placing Jews in government positions, they were gaining the support of judaism and were buying these Israelites' loyalty. What happened to Nixon and Agnew is what happens to all governing leaders who believe they are gaining Jewish support by elevating the Hebrews and by offering them their confidence; whereas they suffered the treason of their protégé Jews instead, who have brought disaster and even death upon them. For the fact is, that the Jews are committed by oaths of absolute obedience and secrecy to a hidden, universal sect which pursues the domination of all nations because it believes fanatically in the rabbinical interpretation of the Biblical prophesies of Isaiah, in which the prophet tells the people of Israel that they will dominate the world and take possession of all its wealth. And the World Jewish Sect believes it will achieve this by a communist government which, led by Jews like that of the Soviet Union and others, will expropriate all private property so that it will remain under the control of the government and therefore under the control of the Jews who run it.

Determined to take possession of the government and of all the influential media, the Jews living in every country, show no gratitude to the ingenuous who offer them influential positions, but use them instead in order to overthrow them and then place other Jews in their place and this is what is at the root of the Watergate scandal. Whatever other grave errors Nixon and Agnew may have committed, this one alone was used by Judaism as a pretext to bring about their fall and prepare the ascent to the Presidency of the United States of an Israelite, whether it be in the 1976 elections or even earlier, if possible.

Thus, for example, they elevated Nelson Rockefeller to the Vice-presidency of the United States, once Gerald Ford assumed the presidency after Nixon's fall. And now they will look for another pretexts or means to push Gerald Ford aside and raise Nelson Rockefeller to the Presidency. They are trying to eliminate all the possible 1976 presidential candidates so that, by necessity a Jew from either the Democratic or the Republican Party will win the elections. Hence the elimination of the ex-governor of Texas, John Conally, a candidate who had a good chance of winning the next presidential elections.

As was already pointed out, Nixon and Agnew's fundamental error consisted in having trusted the Jews who surrounded them. Those who set the trap for Spiro Agnew were the very Jews who were playing the role of "collaborators and friends"; Jerome B. Wolff, president of the Maryland Highway Commission during Agnew's governorship (1967-69) and I. H. Hammerman II, a banker and "collaborator" of Agnew in the campaign to obtain funds for his candidacy. And those who gave him the stab, were the Jews who played the role of enemies; Allen Green and Lester Matz, who "confessed" having made payments to Agnew's intermediaries. And finally Agnew's lawyer was Judah Best, also a Jew.

The "Time of Israel" magazine published an article signed by M. Hirsch Goldberg, entitled "Spiro T. Agnew, Jews at the opening... Jews at the Close," which points out that both those who collaborated with Spiro Agnew and those who ruined him by their testimonies, were Jewish "friends" of the ex-Vicepresident.

The man in charge of the propaganda during the campaign for the governorship was the Israelite Bob H. Goodman; the comptroller was the Jew Charles Bressler; Cynthia Rosenwald, wrote his speeches; his chauffeur was the young student, Stanley Fine; Allen Fell, Chuck Bernstein and Joe Sachs, his other assistants, were all Jews, besides his "collaborator" Hammerman, the banker. It should be added that Art Sohmer was the leader of Vice-President Agnew's team, Victor Gold, his press secretary, Cynthia Rosenwald, who was later replaced by another Israelite, —William Safire—, was the speech-writer of President Richard Nixon himself.

Hammerman and Wolff fluttered around Agnew till they made him fall into the trap 50% for Spiro and for each one of his friends 25%. After that, his "friends" ruined him with their testimonies and —in what constitutes a proof of what North American "justice" is— both the Jews, Wolff and Hammerman, came out Scot-free without losing a thing, whereas Agnew remained sunk in the mire.

There have not been so many Jews in the White House ever since the administration of the Israelite, Harry Solomon Truman Nixon thought he could function while they were inside but they dragged him to the rear.

It was one of Nixon's Jewish advisers, Alexander Butterfield, who unexpectedly "revealed" before the Watergate investigating committee of Senators that Nixon was secretly taping his own conversations. From this date on —July 16, 1973— all batteries were turned against the President

When the besieged president was looking around in search of support, his Jewish "friends" were the ones who pushed him to resign, making his resignation appear like a historic act. As "Time" magazine itself points out in its special issue of August 19, dedicated to Nixon's fall, Kissinger, Schlesinger and Simon, the three Jewish secretaries of State, Defense and the Treasury respectively, together with Alexander Haig, — Rockefeller's man — and the lawyer St. Clair, were the ones who closed all the doors to Nixon, forcing him to resign. Where were the rest of the collaborators and non-Jewish high officials? Some were in jail and others were facing law-suits while the Jewish Watergate accomplices remained victorious and free. And this is paradoxically called a victory of democracy and liberty. Woe to the United States that is so easily manipulated by its worst enemies!

The words of the father of the North American nation, President Gen. George Washington, have become a gloomy prophesy at the approaching second centenary of the birth of the United States.

"They (the Jews) work more effectively against us than hostile armies. They are a thousand times more dangerous for our liberties and for the great cause we have embraced...

"It is to be lamented that, time back, each state did not castigate them as a pest for the society and as the greatest enemies of the nation's happiness."

(George Washington. "Maxims of George Washington" published by A.A. Appleton & Co.) Benjamin Franklin pointed out the following in his speech at the Constituent Convention of Philadelphia in 1787:

"I totally agree with general Washington that we must protect the young nation from an insidious influence of infiltration. The threat, gentlemen, are the Jews. In every country where the Jews have settled in great numbers, they have lowered the moral standards; they have depreciated commercial integrity; they have segregated themselves and have not assimilated...; they have built a state within the state".

"If you do not exclude them, our descendants will, within 200 years— be working in the fields in order to maintain them, while they will be in the Houses of Exchange rubbing their hands. I warn you, gentlemen, if you do not exclude the Jews forever, our children will curse you in your tombs."
